COMMUNITY RELATIONS

BEYOND FOOTBALL: ATLANTA FALCONS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Atlanta Falcons create a winning team off the field by building a strong bond in the community. Each year the club typically logs more service hours and makes more community appearances than most other NFL teams and, through the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation, contributes over $1.7 million to promote fitness and fight youth obesity in Georgia. Players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association all contribute to making a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

ATLANTA FALCONS YOUTH FOUNDATION

Established in 1985, The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF) serves as the philanthropic arm of the Atlanta Falcons. Since Arthur Blank acquired the club in 2002, AFYF has grown to be the largest owner-funded foundation in the National Football League, providing more than $16 million in grants to nonprofit organizations across Georgia.

AFYF is taking the issue of childhood obesity head on by investing in non-profit organizations statewide that are moving school-age kids to spend more time every day in organized physical activity. Its signature program, Falcons Fitness Zones, works in partnership with the Metro Atlanta YMCA, Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Atlanta, the YWCA of Greater Atlanta, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hall County and other select organizations to expand existing physical fitness programs for youth and to create new opportunities that move kids from sedentary to active. Presently there are more than 40 program sites operating across five Fitness Zones, reaching more than 12,000 youth year-round. Falcons players and cheerleaders make regular visits to the Fitness Zones, where they engage kids in physical activities and emphasize the benefits of exercise and proper diet. As role models for many of the children in the Zones, Falcons players and cheerleaders can have a strong influence in changing the behaviors that lead to childhood obesity. There are four Fitness Zones in the City of Atlanta and one in Hall County, home to the Atlanta Falcons.

AFYF also provides grants to non-profit organizations that are focused on improving the physical development of Georgia's youth and increasing the amount of time kids spend in organized physical activity year-round. These grants support youth football and cheerleading programs, other sports and fitness activities and healthy lifestyle programs. Key investments in 2008 include a $152,500 grant to The Women's Sports Foundation's GoGirlGo! Atlanta to get girls active. The AFYF also contributed over $235,000 in new Fitness Zone investments to reach a broader age of kids and to offer non-traditional fitness activities through organizations such as Atlanta Track Club, Moving in the Spirit, After-School All-Stars, KIPP Metro Atlanta Collaborative, Vine City Health & Housing and Visions Unlimited Community Development Systems. In partnership with The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation, Safeplay Systems and Nike, AFYF also created the Falcons Fit & Green initiative, which supported the development of a green playground in Metro Atlanta. Through this partnership, a $51,000 collaborative grant was awarded to Freedom Park Conservancy / Poncey Highland Playground Initiative for the construction of an EcoPlay® playground and the installation of a Nike Grind play surface.

FIRST DOWN FOR FITNESS

FALCONS FIRST DOWN FOR FITNESS

In its third year, the Falcons First Down for Fitness program is designed to challenge students in grades three through seven to participate in fitness activities and lead a healthy lifestyle. In collaboration with the American Heart Association and the NFL's "Play 60" campaign, this incentive-based program rewards participants for being active at least 60 minutes a day, three days a week for two months. In 2008, over 15,000 students and 250 teachers across the state participated in the program.

FALCONS FITNESS FLAG CREW PRESENTED BY FLAGSTAR BANK

During each Atlanta Falcons home game, 60 participants are selected to assist in unfurling an oversized 40 yard by 40 yard Falcons flag as a part of the Falcons game day experience right before kickoff. These participants are made up of schools, military bases, youth football teams, and civic/non-profit organizations. The Falcons Fitness Flag Crew offers individuals the opportunity to partake in pre-game aerobic activities led by the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders, an on-field rehearsal and the opportunity to visit Falcons Landing. By the conclusion of each experience, participants log nearly two miles of walking.

ATLANTA FALCONS TRAINING CAMP YOUTH WEEK

An estimated 1,500 young fans participated in Atlanta Falcons Training Camp Youth Week during the first week of camp. Activities were open to children ages 17 and under and held one hour before each open practice. In 2008, Youth Week activities included: daily autograph sessions with Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders, "Look Like A Pro" where children had the chance to try on authentic Falcons equipment, "Show Your Spirit Day" offered children wearing a football jersey or cheerleading uniform a mini-football or pom-pom, "Jersey Frenzy" allowed young fans the chance to win an autographed jersey and the annual "Back to School Jam" allowed children the chance to party with Freddie Falcon and the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

During the 2008 offseason, the Atlanta Falcons hosted its annual High School Player Development Program and 7 on 7 Tournament. The three-day extravaganza consisted of sessions including personal/professional development, life-skills, college-prep, and a 24-team competitive passing competition. Over 400 student-athletes from the State of Georgia were in attendance.

The Atlanta Falcons also conduct Gatorade Junior Falcons Training Camps in schools and parks across Georgia with a special emphasis on introducing youth to the fundamentals of football through basic drills as well as exposure to hydration maintenance. Nearly 30 camps were conducted across the state and an estimated 3,500 children had the opportunity to participate.

EXTRA YARD PARTNERSHIP

Dating back to 2003, the Extra Yard Partnership Program provides an opportunity for Atlanta Falcons players to connect directly with military groups, youth groups and non-profit organizations throughout the State of Georgia. Through the Extra Yard Partnership program, a player or player's foundation purchases 30 season tickets and T-shirts for a group. In 2008, 29 Falcons players participated.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

This season marked the 10th year of the NFL's and United Way's partnership and celebration of Hometown Huddle. On this day, all 32 teams around the league participate in several community and volunteer activities. The entire Falcons roster and several Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders made surprise appearances at 12 stops around downtown and the metro Atlanta area. Six stops included schools where players and cheerleaders delivered new sports equipment and promoted physical fitness and the other six stops included local landmarks around the city.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

The Atlanta Falcons players made over 600 community appearances around the State of Georgia during the past year. A few of the most unforgettable visits included a fishing excursion off of Lake Lanier Islands with Purple Heart recipients, a Black Hawk helicopter ride to Fort Gordon Army Base to thank the military for their service and serving as "teacher-for-a-day" in local schools for Teach for America week. Additional visits throughout the community included: neighboring elementary and middle schools, Atlanta area hospitals, numerous homeless shelters, and local libraries.

FALCAN FOOD DRIVE

As a standing tradition, each year the Atlanta Falcons partner with the Atlanta Community Food Bank for the annual FalCan Food Drive. In 2008, the Falcons extended its partnership by hosting the first FalCan Food Drive Kick-off event at a local mall. In total, nearly 5,000 pounds of food and just over $3,000 were collected to help provide groceries to those in need during the holiday season.

BALL BOY MENTORING PROGRAM

In its seventh year, the Ball Boy program has provided opportunities for teenage boys from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Hall County to assist Falcons equipment staff and interact with players during training camp and throughout the season. Falcons players serve as mentors to these young men through regular meetings that provide boys the opportunity to talk to the players about schoolwork, home life, and other things that may be affecting their lives.

ATLANTA FALCONS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

This past season was filled with several events and volunteer opportunities for the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association. The season kicked off with a luncheon at Chateau Élan that featured the latest fall fashion trends provided by Macy's Department Stores. Over the course of the season members had major roles in the following initiatives: annual T-shirt and pillowcase paint at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, Falcons Football Academy, the FalCan Food Drive and the Toys for Tots Drive.

ATLANTA FALCONS CHEERLEADERS

Everyone knows that the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders perform at each home game, but what most may not know is that in 2008 the cheerleaders appeared at over 350 community events across the State of Georgia. These events included stops at hospitals, schools, homeless shelters and even military bases to name a few. During the season and post-season, select cheerleaders sing, dance, cheer and perform as a member of the Atlanta Falcons Show Troupe. This group's travels include visits to Bosnia, Greece, Egypt, Cuba and Puerto Rico.

TOYS FOR TOTS PRESENTED BY O'REILLY AUTO PARTS

Falcons fans supported the 2008 Atlanta Falcons Toys for Tots Drive in record fashion. With donations of over 700 toys and more than $23,000, an amount that surpassed the 2007 Toys for Tots campaign by 50 percent, together the Atlanta Falcons and the U.S. Marine Corps were able to provide deserving families with special toys during the holiday season.

TOYS FOR TOTS

FREDDIE FALCON

Fan favorite and team mascot, Freddie Falcon, also maintains a hectic schedule throughout the season. In 2008 alone, Freddie Falcon “flew by” 250 community appearances across the state of Georgia. These visits include conducting pep rallies and assemblies at local elementary and middle schools and popping in on patients of neighboring children’s hospitals.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD

The Atlanta Falcons Community Quarterback Award honors volunteers in Georgia (ages 13 and over) who exemplify leadership and dedication to bettering their communities. Many organizations rely on quality volunteers to create and facilitate programs that benefit countless lives throughout the State of Georgia. The Community Quarterback award is designed to recognize and reward these volunteers. Winners are recognized on-field during a home game and each winning organization receives a $2,000 grant.

ATLANTA FALCONS JUNIOR CHEERLEADERS

In 2008, girls ages 5-16 had the opportunity to cheer for their home team by participating in the Atlanta Falcons Junior Cheerleaders Program. Participants of the program receive many great things including: game day uniforms, pom poms, game day accessories, practice attire, four instructional clinics taught by the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders, an end of the year party and much more. The girls performed during the pre-game festivities in front of tens of thousands of fans at three Falcons home games.

PLAYER HOLIDAY OUTREACH

The holiday season is filled with various opportunities for Falcons players to get involved and give back to the less fortunate. During the 2008 holiday season, members of the Falcons roster visited the Atlanta Community Food Bank and helped sort canned goods, as well as, help serve a special Thanksgiving meal for the less fortunate at Crossroads Community Ministries. Ten Falcons players also participated in the annual “Shop with a Jock” event where a special group of kids from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Metro Atlanta were treated to a holiday shopping spree.

ADMINISTRATION

ARTHUR M. BLANK
OWNER & CEO

During a March event in which his general manager, head coach and rookie quarterback picked up national awards from the oldest sports magazine in America, Atlanta Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank sat at the head table reflecting for a moment on the success of the 2008 season.

Blank, a passionate driving force behind what was arguably the most dramatic turnaround in the history of professional sports, smiled from his seat and then his mind raced forward to the possibilities the 2009 season holds for his football team.

"That was a special day for our football team, our city and our fans," Blank said. "I remember sitting at that breakfast thinking that we had a remarkable season filled with a lot of exciting plays and dramatic moments. But my personality is not one to look back for too long. It's the prospects that excite me."

Before this March morning was complete, Blank would watch his hand-picked general manager, Thomas Dimitroff walk off the stage with the 2008 Sporting News Executive of the Year Award. He'd also see first-year Head Coach Mike Smith leave the ballroom with the 2008 Sporting News Coach of the Year Award, while his rookie QB Matt Ryan loaded the 2008 Sporting News Rookie of the Year Award in his car.

Individually, these awards are significant in their own right. But winning the tri-fecta in 2008 was historical. No professional sports team in the illustrious 123-year history of Sporting News had ever swept the magazine's three most prestigious awards in the same season.

"The foundation we laid and the progress we made in 2008 was beyond most people's expectations," Blank said. "Awards, recognition and accolades aside, I feel we put in place several building blocks that will make our football team a strong competitive force in the National Football League for years to come. That fires up our fans. It fires up our sponsors and season ticket holders. And it fires me up, as well."

Blank, who begins his eighth season as owner of the Falcons, scored touchdowns with the acquisitions of Dimitroff and Smith.

Though several national media outlets openly questioned the hiring of both a rookie general manager and a rookie head coach, Blank held firm to the core business principles that guided him earlier in his career as he built Home Depot into a retail powerhouse. "We looked beyond the skill set to the whole person. Character, integrity and trust were priorities," he noted.

Dimitroff, who came to the Falcons in January 2008 from the New England Patriots, hired Smith 10 days after his arrival. A former defensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Smith was a well-regarded defensive specialist with 26 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience. Both men quickly set about the business of recalibrating the Falcons team.

"We all felt good about the chemistry between Coach and Thomas starting with their first interview together," Blank said. "I'd often call Thomas' office late in the evening and invariably he and Smitty would be together watching tape or evaluating players. Having your head coach and general manager working together - not always in lockstep but working together - brings tremendous value to building a team."

Dimitroff was selective but aggressive in free agency, signing running back Michael Turner, kicker Jason Elam, free safety Erik Coleman and tight end Ben Hartsock.

All four players were starters on opening day in 2008, with Turner enjoying a breakout season that included finishing second in MVP voting (Associated Press) en route to rushing for a career-best 1,699 yards and a franchise-record 17 rushing touchdowns. Turner's standout season also earned him his first selection to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Through the 2008 NFL Draft, Dimitroff cemented the quick turnaround for the franchise by selecting 11 players, 10 of which earned a spot on the roster. The rookie class combined to participate in 98 games (38 starts), while Ryan, tackle Sam Baker and middle linebacker Curtis Lofton (Sporting News All-Rookie team) all earned starting roles at their respective positions.

The building blocks in place, Smith guided the Falcons to an 11-5 regular season record. The seven-win improvement from 2007 ties for the sixth-highest turnaround by a first-year head coach in league history (since the 1970 merger). Smith also became only the fourth Falcons coach in franchise history to reach 11 regular season wins in a season, and was also named 2008 Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year.

Ryan, who earned the respect and admiration of his teammates during OTAs and training camp, pieced together a remarkable rookie season after completing 265 of 434 passes for 3,440 yards and 16 touchdowns en route to being named Associated Press NFL Rookie of the Year.

Ryan and Indianapolis Colts quarterback Peyton Manning are the only rookie quarterbacks in league history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in their first season. Along with Baltimore Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco, Ryan became the first rookie in the NFL to start all 16 regular season games and lead his team to the playoffs. Ryan's 11 wins are the most for a rookie in franchise history, aided by throwing nine consecutive 200-yard passing outings. He also was named NFC Rookie of the Month (October) and NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 9).

All of these franchise-altering events took place because Blank did what he has always done when things get tough. He rose to the challenge and devoted all of his energies to repairing the on-field and public image of his football team.

OWNER &amp; CEO ARTHUR M. BLANK

"It's my nature to roll up my sleeves and get to work," Blank said. "We had a lot of work to do, and everyone in our organization - our coaches, our players and our staff - stepped up in a big way."

COMMITMENT TO THE FANS

Whether it's the Home Depot - the company Blank co-founded and led until his retirement as co-chairman in 2001 - or the Atlanta Falcons, Blank has always subscribed to one simple theory: Listening is what matters most. Customers, fans, players, coaches or associates - Blank listens, understands and responds to all of them and expects his associates to do the same.

"You have to subordinate your thinking to that of the fans," said Blank two months after the sale of the team was approved in 2002. "We've got to think about everything they need from the time they leave their driveway to the time they arrive in ours."

While undergoing significant changes in management and the roster, Blank ensured the club's three-point commitment to fans remained intact. Those three commitments, established on his first day of ownership, are to produce a winning team on the field; provide a great game day experience; and have a winning team off the field and in the community.

Following the challenges - on and off the field in 2007 - Blank's commitment to Falcons fans gained even more strength and resolve.

"You don't do less when things get tough," Blank said. "You do more. You do more research, more analysis, more reaching out to your fans. We needed to find out what more we could do to make our team, our stadium and the entire game day experience better for our fans."

Following a three-year, $53 million investment in enhancements inside and outside the Georgia Dome, which was funded by the Falcons and Georgia World Congress Center Authority, fans this season will enjoy new high-definition video boards double the size of the old boards. Located at each end of the field, the new boards will offer sharper images, and enhanced graphics, game viewing options and replay capabilities. From suite and club seat renovations, to the addition of super suites and LED ribbon boards, to exterior paint and interior seating in red and black, the Georgia Dome now has the look and feel of the "home of the Falcons."

"It's important to maintain the Georgia Dome to NFL standards for our fans," Blank said. "The new video boards are just one more way we can add value to their overall game day experience this season."

Another way the team is adding value to the game day experience is through new ticket sales programs and discounted pricing. The price of more than two-thirds of season ticket seats in the Dome (approximately 43,000) remained flat or were lowered for the 2009 season. In addition, season ticket holders were offered a new flexible payment plan, and customer service representatives were added to respond to individual season ticket holder needs.

"We are extremely sensitive to the economy and its impact on how families spend their entertainment dollars," Blank said. "We want our Dome filled with Falcons fans, so we have to be mindful of how we price our product. I think we've done a pretty good job in this area."

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

One of the hallmarks of Blank's philosophy is giving back to the community. During his tenure with The Home Depot, the company donated more than $113 million to the communities it served. In addition, associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time.

Given his philanthropic history, it came as no surprise that the final phase of Blank's three-point plan for the Falcons was a program that would see the Falcons' organization lending its support all over the state of Georgia. One vehicle of the Falcons' community outreach efforts is the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF), the largest team-funded foundation in the NFL. The AFYF gives back to the community by promoting the healthy development of youth. It does so by supporting physical fitness and sports in communities across Georgia through grant-making, strategic partnerships and signature programs.

Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $16 million in grants to more than 700 non-profit organizations. The centerpiece of the foundation's work is the Falcons Fitness Zones signature program, in which Blank has invested nearly $8 million since the program's inception in 2005, in a focused effort to shape the lives of Georgia youth through outdoor activities and fitness.

Through a matching gift fund initiated by Blank, Falcons players, coaches and staff are also involved in the community at unprecedented levels. Together, they have raised more than $3.1 million for 550 charitable organizations during the last seven years.

In addition, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders and associates remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective personal time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives, which address a variety of issues including health and fitness, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, supporting the development of youth football, and outreach in underserved communities.

Blank is also dedicated to his personal giving back. In addition to serving as Owner and CEO of the Falcons, Blank is Chairman, President & CEO of AMB Group, LLC and Chairman of The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation. Both organizations are part of The Arthur M. Blank Family Office, with the common purpose of giving back to society through financial contributions and personal involvement. Through his generosity, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation, along with his and his wife Stephanie's personal giving, has granted and committed more than $260 million to numerous non-profit organizations.

HOW IT ALL STARTED

A native of Flushing, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. He received a B.S. Degree in Business Administration with Distinction from Babson College, where he was active in a wide variety of extracurricular activities. He co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as Co-Chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." During Blank's last year as CEO of the company, The Home Depot ranked first in social responsibility in an annual survey conducted by Harris Interactive, Inc.

Blank is recognized throughout the country for his personal and professional achievements. In 2008, Blank received an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from the University of South Carolina-Bluffton. In 2006, he was named a Distinguished American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, which every year recognizes an individual who has utilized his or her talents to attain great success in business, private life, or public service. Also in 2006, Blank was inducted into the Junior Achievement U.S. Business Hall of Fame, and was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Furman University. In 2005, he was named National Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young.

In 2003, for the second time in three years, Blank was named Georgia's Most Respected CEO by Georgia Trend magazine, and in 2002 he was inducted into Georgia State University's Business Hall of Fame. Among other previous honors, Babson College inducted Blank into its Academy of Distinguished Entrepreneurs in 1995 and conferred on him an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws in 1998.

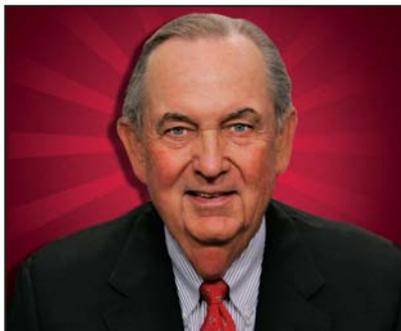

Blank serves on a number of boards including: Outward Bound USA; the Board of Trustees of The Carter Center, Inc.; the Board of Trustees of Emory University; the Board of Trustees of The Cooper Institute; and the boards of Cox Enterprises, Inc., and Staples, Inc.

In September 2001, Blank joined the faculty of Emory University's Goizueta Business School as its first Distinguished Executive in Residence. He now serves as a Goizueta Executive Fellow. Blank also served as the 2003 Chairman of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

Blank has six children and two grandchildren. He and Stephanie, and their three youngest children live in Atlanta. A strong believer in work-life balance, Blank still makes time daily for working out and spending time with his family.

The Atlanta Falcons will continue to rely heavily on the valued experience and expertise of Rich McKay as he enters his sixth season with the Falcons as the team President, handling all business operations of the club including Community Relations, Human Resources, Retail, Marketing, Finance, Ticket Sales, and Football Communications.

Rich remains heavily involved with Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff in running the club's salary cap and contract negotiation areas. Additionally, Rich will continue to work with Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur M. Blank on the pursuit of a new stadium as the club nears the expiration of its lease term at the Georgia Dome.

McKay will also continue to be Atlanta's liaison with the NFL office in New York City regarding all football and business-related matters. His esteemed and well-documented football background will also serve the Falcons well as he continues to be an instrumental member of the NFL's prestigious and powerful Competition Committee as its Co-Chairman.

Last season, McKay's leadership helped contribute to the team's smooth transition to a new Head Coach (Mike Smith) and a new General Manager (Thomas Dimitroff). The Falcons posted an 11-5 record and garnered their first postseason berth since 2004.

Rich has overseen the completion of the Georgia Dome renovations, which, in partnership with the Georgia World Congress Center was a three-year, $53 million project.

The renovations, which catered specifically to Falcons fans included: a new exterior with Falcons colors and themes, a renovation of the mezzanine, lower and upper level concourses, a renovation of the gate entrance areas and the installation of red and black-colored seats throughout the building. The improvements will be capped off this year with the installation of two new state-of-the art, high-definition video score boards which are double the size of the old score boards.

"Our goal from the very outset of this project was to ensure that our stadium kept up with NFL standards and for our fans to continue to have a first class experience," McKay said. "We now play in a building that has the look and feel of the home of the Falcons."

Prior to embarking on his new role as team President, McKay served in a dual role as Falcons President & General Manager from 2004-07. One of the many proud moments during his successful tenure in Atlanta includes helping the Falcons lay claim to an NFC South Division title in 2004, only the club's third Division crown in franchise history, and a NFC Championship Game appearance (2004) for only the second time in team history. He recorded his 100th career regular season victory as an NFL General Manager in 2005 when the Falcons defeated the Detroit Lions 27-7 on Thanksgiving Day before a nationally televised audience at Ford Field. The 2004 Falcons rolled to a 4-0 start en route to an 11-5 record and earned the conference's second seed in the playoffs, a first-round bye, and a nationally televised home game against the St. Louis Rams and their high-octane offense.

The Falcons used the fourth-highest team rushing total in NFL postseason history and a staunch defensive effort to defeat the Rams 47-17 to advance to only their second NFC Championship Game in franchise history. Atlanta rushed for a postseason franchise-record 327 yards and sacked Rams QB Marc Bulger four times en route to pitching a second-half defensive shutout.

Before joining the Falcons organization in 2004, McKay recorded a nine-year run as chief architect of football operations for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He constructed Buccaneer teams that won better than 60 percent of their games during his tenure and was the chief football executive of the franchise altering 1995 draft which ESPN has named one of the Top 10 draft classes in NFL history. Headlining that class was DT Warren Sapp, now an in-studio analyst for NFL Network and LB Derrick Brooks. Sapp and Brooks combined to make 18 Pro Bowl appearances during their tenures with Tampa Bay.

To further place into perspective the success McKay has enjoyed during what has been a sparkling NFL career, one only needs to review the 10-year record the Buccaneers had before he took over as General Manager. From 1985 to 1994, Tampa Bay compiled a record of 43-116, a paltry .270 winning percentage, including 10 consecutive double-digit losing seasons.

“Rich balances caring about his team’s fortunes with caring about the league’s fortunes as well as any front office man in the NFL has done since George Young lorded over the New York Giants,” said national NFL writer Peter King, who writes for Sports Illustrated and is a studio analyst for NBC’s Sunday Night in America NFL show. “He’s intensely competitive, but he also sees the big picture of what’s good for the NFL as a sport and as a business.”

The apex of McKay’s distinguished NFL career to date took place in sunny San Diego, California on January 26, 2003 when he completed the overhaul of the Buccaneers, long considered one of the worst franchises in professional sports. Tampa Bay’s 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII vaulted the Buccaneers from the basement of professional sports to the top of the NFL universe thanks to McKay’s handiwork.

In his 13 seasons as an NFL General Manager, McKay directed six teams that reached the NFC playoffs, three that reached the NFC Championship Game and one team that won a Super Bowl title. McKay also worked with three different coaches who guided their respective teams to the NFC Championship Game (Tony Dungy 1999; Jon Gruden 2002; and Jim Mora 2004). His overall record was 112-96 with a playoff mark of 6-5.

McKay’s formula for success has been a championship elixir that has produced an impeccable reputation and a total of 56 players who have gone on to play in the Pro Bowl. Between the draft and free agency, McKay constructed a roster that featured 12 Pro Bowl performers in 2002 with the Bucs. In addition, Tampa Bay’s 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002 were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers had only 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997. While many of the players McKay drafted have developed into NFL stars on the field, several have also been Pro Bowl performers from a charitable standpoint, as well. Former Falcon Warrick Dunn was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award which is presented annually to the NFL’s most philanthropic player as was Derrick Brooks, who was a co-recipient of the award in 2000 as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

McKay was the 2005 recipient of the Jack Horrigan Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the club or league office executive who is the most helpful and cooperative with the local and national news media that cover the NFL.

McKay and his family have substantially deep roots in collegiate and professional football, dating back more than 30 years to when McKay’s late father, John, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four national championships and later was named the first Head Coach of the Buccaneers in 1975.

McKay has served on numerous League committees during his NFL career. Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue named McKay co-chairman of the NFL’s Competition Committee in 1998, replacing the late New York Giants General Manager George Young and he has held that position since. McKay will continue to serve in the same capacity in 2009 along with Tennessee Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher. Since 1994, McKay has served on this committee of NFL coaches and executives who study the game and recommend rules modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness in the league. In December of 2002, Tagliabue named McKay to a working group of five senior club executives as part of the newly-created NFL owners’ committee on diversity in the workplace. For the past five years, McKay has also served on the NFL Management Council working group of league executives that helps advise on collective bargaining issues.

McKay, who also taught a course in sports/entertainment law at Stetson University’s College of Law, earned his Bachelor’s degree in 1981 from Princeton University. He graduated from Stetson’s College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges.

Born March 16, 1959 in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa’s Jesuit High School. An avid long distance runner, he has participated in and finished two New York City marathons and one recent Atlanta marathon. McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons, Hunter and John.

THOMAS DIMITROFF
GENERAL MANAGER

During Thomas Dimitroff's initial news conference to introduce him as the club's new General Manager, he dismissed a notion that the job at hand was a "daunting task." Dimitroff proved to the rest of the NFL landscape in 2008 that he was correct in that early assessment in a very big way.

Dimitroff's first duty was hiring a head coach that fit with the culture change he wanted in the building and who would provide stability, leadership and direction for a growing team. He chose the impressive Mike Smith for the challenge and Smith produced an 11-5 record with the team's first postseason berth since 2004 to become Associated Press' NFL "Coach of the Year." Atlanta's seven-win swing under Smith's guidance going from 4-12 in 2007 to 11-5 is tied for the fourth-best mark (at +7 wins) in the League for a rookie head coach since 1978. Smith's 11 victories are also tied for the top mark with five other head coaches for the best record by a rookie head coach taking over a team that finished below .500 the previous season.

Next in line for Dimitroff was signing a key free agent running back to feature in a brand new offense. Michael Turner was inked from San Diego and he ended up second in the League in rushing with 1,699 yards with a franchise-best 17 rushing touchdowns en route to finishing second in the MVP voting and earning his first Pro Bowl invite along with a first-team All-Pro nomination. Dimitroff also added via free agency starters in safety Erik Coleman (second on team with career-high 127 tackles), tight end Ben Hartsock (11 starts before injury) and kicker Jason Elam (29-31 field goals, 129 points scored).

Dimitroff then focused his efforts on the all-important 2008 draft and leaned heavily on his 20 years of NFL scouting experience to choose building blocks to construct the team's burgeoning foundation. The 43 year-old personnel executive would score multiple touchdowns by selecting franchise quarterback Matt Ryan, starting left tackle Sam Baker, starting middle linebacker Curtis Lofton, nickel corner Chevis Jackson, slot receiver Harry Douglas and contributors in safety Thomas DeCoud and defensive end Kroy Biermann.

Ryan was named the consensus Offensive Rookie of the Year by Associated Press and Sporting News magazine, becoming only the second rookie quarterback in NFL history (with Peyton Manning in 1998) to throw for 3,000 yards in his first season. Lofton garnered All-NFL rookie first-team honors by AP and Pro Football Weekly with 108 tackles, the second most among all rookies. Baker began the season as a starter at left tackle, protecting Ryan's blindside, and showed immense promise before a back/hip injury slowed his season. Jackson (33 tackles, 95-yard interception touchdown), Douglas (23 catches for 320 yards, 1 touchdown, 69-yard punt return score), Biermann (2 sacks, 14 tackles), and DeCoud (5 special teams tackles in 10 games played), proved to be solid additions and provided Dimitroff's first draft class with high marks.

Because all of the major moves that he orchestrated paid off so handsomely in turning around a franchise so drastically in one season, Dimitroff earned the prestigious 2008 Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year award from his peers. The coveted EOY award was voted on by a combination of 40 General Managers, coaches, and personnel people from around the League and is recognized as the premiere award for front office executives each season.

But the team successes and accolades garnered from a solid first season in the General Manager's seat would not blur Dimitroff's focus on his plan. After re-signing key players in wide receiver Michael Jenkins and defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux at the end of the '08 campaign, Dimitroff was just getting started. His aggressive mentality laid the groundwork for a trade on the eve of the 2009 NFL draft weekend for 10-time Pro Bowler Tony Gonzalez, the most accomplished tight end in NFL history, from Kansas City for a future draft pick in 2010. The right trade particulars were imperative for the Falcons because Dimitroff's goal was to use the draft as a vehicle to re-tool the roster and stockpile talent in his first two years on the job. Those objectives were still intact after the trade (by not giving up a pick in 2009).

Dimitroff also stuck to his plan on keeping core veterans during the '09 free agency period when he re-signed dependable defensive end Chauncey Davis.

The 2009 draft for Dimitroff was calculating in nature and promises to be as successful as the 2008 Falcons draft haul. With the 24th selection in the first round, the Falcons selected defensive tackle and All-SEC performer Peria (Pur-ray) Jerry from Ole Miss to continue to beef up the line. Highly-regarded, hard hitting safety William Moore from Missouri was chosen in the second round and speedy corner Chris Owens of San Jose State was the Falcons' third round choice. Rounding out the draft were defensive end Lawrence Sidbury of Richmond (fourth round), cornerback William Middleton from Furman (fifth round), tackle Garrett Reynolds of North Carolina (fifth round), linebacker Spencer Adkins from Miami (sixth round), and local product defensive tackle Vance Walker from Georgia Tech (seventh round). All of this year's draft class will battle for jobs and competition at all spots is always paramount in Dimitroff's thought process.

Dimitroff directs all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Head Coach Mike Smith has final authority over all personnel decisions related to the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, trades, and related decisions. He will also handle coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Smith.

Dimitroff has earned this climb up the NFL mountain to General Manager by working his way up through the scouting trails as a combine/BLESTO Scout, an Area Scout, National Scout, and College Director of Scouting.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom

GENERAL MANAGER THOMAS DIMITROFF

Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout (and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots). Notable other key influences that have also helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today and aided in his rise to his current post include new Kansas City Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

The younger Dimitroff took a genuine desire for scouting players to the ultimate level early in his life. He became the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990 as his first foray in the world of scouting. In 1992, he moved on to World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

Dimitroff's career aspirations brought him to the NFL and the Detroit Lions where he became a College Scout in 1994. It was in his years as Scout for the Lions that he was introduced to Atlanta for the first time (living in the Virginia Highlands area) while evaluating the Southeastern part of the country. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a College Scout for the Browns for four years before landing in New England in 2002.

During his five years as the Director of College Scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluate all of the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77-17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won the Super Bowl in the 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX) seasons while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season. Many of the players responsible for New England's history-making NFL-best 16-0 regular season record in 2007 were scouted, evaluated, and later drafted during Dimitroff's tenure. Some of those players include: CB Ellis Hobbs III, C Dan Koppen, G Logan Mankins, RB Laurence Maroney, S Brandon Merriweather, CB Asante Samuel, DE Ty Warren, TE Ben Watson, NT Vince Wilfork and CB Eugene Wilson

"I think there are two ingredients in being a talent evaluator," said long-time NFL personnel executive Ernie Accorsi. "You have to learn under top people, which Thomas has done from his father to a championship organization in New England. But you also need that indefinable instinct to see talent. That can't be taught. You can be a good evaluator without it, but not a great one. Thomas has that instinct."

Dimitroff played football throughout college and captained his team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987-1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas and his wife, Angeline, have one son, Mason (born May 25, 2007) and reside in Atlanta.

GREG BEADLES

VICE PRESIDENT - CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

This season, Greg Beadles will be entering his 15th year with the Falcons organization.

Beadles holds many responsibilities in addition to overseeing all financial operations of the club, including business negotiations, strategic planning and development for the organization. He serves as one of the team's primary liaisons with the stadium authority and oversaw the Georgia Dome renovation projects the team recently completed. He also serves as President of Atlanta Falcons Physical Therapy Centers, which he helped to launch in 2007.

Beadles began his career in the NFL with the Falcons in 1995 with a 10-week internship in the finance department. He later served as Controller of the Falcon Inn & Conference Center until 1998. He then held the position of Senior Accountant with the club until being promoted to Director of Finance for the 2000-2001 seasons. Owner & CEO Arthur Blank promoted Beadles to Vice President — Finance shortly after purchasing the Falcons in 2002 and he added the CFO title after the 2003 season.

Beadles has enjoyed being involved in a number of other areas within the organization on game days over the years as a member of the stats crew, video department assistant, and tracking player participation.

The son of a coach, Greg grew up drawing Xs and Os, traveling on road trips and making recruiting visits with his father, who has been a head coach in the college basketball ranks for nearly 40 years. Beadles played a number of sports in his youth, including a freshman year of small college basketball before transferring to Louisiana State University to focus on a career in business.

Beadles earned a Bachelors of Science degree in Accounting from LSU in 1991 and a Masters of Science degree in Sports Administration from Georgia State University in 1995.

The 40-year-old holds a CPA license from the state of Georgia. His experience in the business world began with a public accounting firm in Baton Rouge, Louisiana followed by work as an international staff accountant with Offshore Pipelines, Inc. in Houston, Texas.

Beadles' financial background also includes teaching a sports finance course for the graduate school at Georgia State University from 1995-96. He remains a regular guest lecturer at a number of local universities. He serves as a board member for the Greater Hall County Chamber of Commerce, Wellspring Camp, and is Co-Founder and Chairman of Dominion Classical Christian Academy in Lawrenceville, GA.

Greg and his wife, Jill, reside with their four children, Ella, Grant, Evie and Hudson in Dacula, Georgia.

Danny Branch is entering his sixth season as Vice President of Information Technology (IT) for the Falcons and has more than 25 years of experience in systems development, deployment and support.

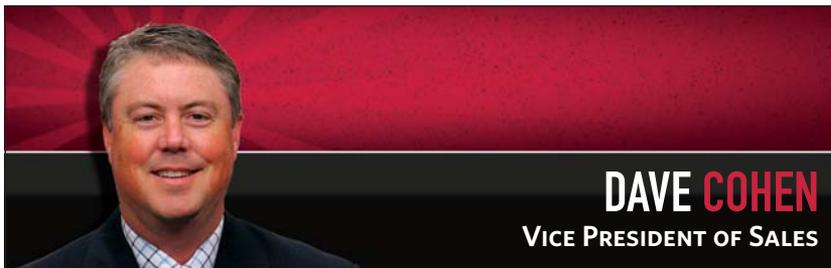

He is responsible for all information technology related activities for the Falcons and all other enterprises in the Blank Family of Businesses.

Branch joined the Falcons in 2004 from The Home Depot, where he most recently was Vice President of Information Services. Starting at The Home Depot in 1990 as a senior systems engineer, he was promoted rapidly through the engineering and ultimately, the information services management ranks. While at The Home Depot, Danny partnered with NCR to be the first home improvement retailer to implement and deploy self check-out. He also developed and deployed Home Depot's current gift card program, which replaced their previous paper based gift certificate program.

Prior to The Home Depot, Danny worked in programming, engineering and project management roles for CONTEL, Management Science America, and Texas Instruments.

A Georgia product, Danny earned his associate degree in Mathematics from Abraham Baldwin Junior College (Tifton, GA.). He received his Bachelors of Science degree in Computer Science from the University of Georgia and completed an advanced leadership development program at the Babson School of Executive Education (Babson Park, Mass.). Branch is a member of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and is also active in the community and currently serves on the board of the Atlanta Habitat for Humanity.

Danny and his wife, Claire, live in Senoia, Georgia with their daughter, Chloe (15) and son, Alex (12).

Dave Cohen embarks on his eighth year with the Falcons and fifth as the team's Vice President of Sales. In his capacity, Cohen is responsible for the sale and service of all Falcons tickets, which include season tickets, group tickets, hospitality programs and the ticket operations department. This past season, the team created its first-ever Customer Service department, which is designed to provide 365 day access to its season ticket holders and fan base.

Cohen and his staff are also responsible for the sale of all premium seat inventories in the Georgia Dome, which include suites, club seats, super suites and the "Owner's Club". In addition to the sales and service efforts, Cohen is also responsible for the team's fan services and research & development areas.

Last year, catapulting off the on-field success, the Falcons sold out all regular season home games. During his time with the team, the Falcons have sold out 68 of 71 games in the Georgia Dome, which at one time included a team-high 55 games in a row. At the height of the team's success, the organization had a season ticket waiting list over 90,000, which was one of the longest in the NFL. In 2002, in his first season, Cohen and his team set an 83-year old NFL record by selling over 21,000 new season tickets and then followed that up in 2003 by selling another 20,000.

Over a two-year period beginning in 2007, the Falcons financed and led an entire renovation of the Georgia Dome which included the renovation of the Premium and general seating areas. Cohen was heavily involved in this renovation, which cost over $50 million and included a complete remodel and redesign of the suites, club levels and introduced the new Super Suite concept. It also included replacing the general seats in the seating bowl and a renovation of the entry gates and concourses.

Prior to coming to the Falcons, Cohen was the Director of Ticket Sales for the Portland Trail Blazers in the NBA. During his tenure with the Blazers, the team sold out 104 consecutive home games and had the highest season ticket base in team history. Before Portland, Cohen worked with the Edmonton Oilers of the NHL. In Edmonton, his main responsibility was overseeing the ticket sales efforts. These efforts included doubling the season ticket base to over 13,000, which ultimately helped save the team from relocating from Canada.

His first job in sports was working in minor league baseball and hockey, in Spokane, Washington where he sold tickets for the Spokane Indians and Spokane Chiefs.

Cohen is a 1992 graduate of the University of Portland. He and his wife, Kathy, reside in Duluth, Georgia with their son, Casey (11), and daughter, Kamryn (9). In his spare time, Cohen enjoys coaching both his son's and daughter's little league baseball, softball and basketball teams.

REGGIE ROBERTS

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS

Reggie Roberts enters his 18th season in the National Football League and his sixth as the team's Vice President of Football Communications. He serves as the day-to-day spokesman for the Falcons on all football and non-football matters, and is responsible for coordinating all media and football communications coverage for the team. Additionally, Roberts is the club's liaison between local, national and international print and electronic media, and the main club contact with the television and radio networks that broadcast Falcons games.

Roberts, who joined the Falcons in September of 2004, comes to Atlanta with a long history in the NFL at both the league and club levels. The veteran football communications specialist, who is also a former award-winning sports journalist, spent seven seasons at League headquarters in New York City where he was Director of Information for the National Football Conference from 1990 to 1996. Following his stint at the NFL, Roberts joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1997 as Director of Communications.

Following the 1997 season, Roberts and his communications staff received the coveted Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America. The award is presented annually by the PFWA to the NFL's top public relations/football communications staff. It marked the first time in franchise history the Buccaneers football communications staff had ever received the award. The Buccaneers were also a finalist for the award in both 1999 and in 2000 and the Falcons were a finalist in 2008.

Roberts was president of Double R Communications, Inc., a national sports public relations and communications company from 2002-2004. His clients included a dozen NFL players as well as the NFL, The Champions Fund, Family First, Kaos Sports, the University of South Florida Athletic Department, and Hill and Knowlton, USA.

During seven seasons with the NFL office, Roberts was the Public Relations Director and primary league office contact for the 15 NFC teams. Additionally, he coordinated media operations at seven NFC Championship Games, seven Super Bowls (XXV-XXXI), and three Tokyo American Bowl Games in Tokyo, Japan. Roberts has also been selected as a member of the NFL's Football Communications Staff for 14 Super Bowls (XXV-to-XXXVI, XL, XLI).

In 2006, Roberts completed the prestigious NFL Managers Training Program located at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business in Palo Alto, California.

Before joining the NFL in 1990, Roberts spent four-and-half years as a sports reporter with the Austin American-Statesman newspaper in Austin, Texas where he won two Associated Press Sports Editor awards.

Roberts graduated from the University of Louisiana at Monroe in 1986 with a Bachelors of Arts degree in journalism.

Roberts is native of Alexandria, Louisiana. He and his wife, Wendy, live in Snellville, Georgia with their two sons, Reid Alexander and Chase Matthew.

Jim Smith, the Falcons Vice President of Marketing, is entering his sixth season with the organization. Smith came to Atlanta following five seasons as General Manager and then President/General Manager of Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew based in Columbus, Ohio.

Smith's Falcons responsibilities include maximizing local and national revenue opportunities as he manages all brand affinity inventory, including stadium assets, broadcast rights, team marketing rights, new media, and event marketing. Smith and his partnership sales teams have increased the Falcons local sponsorship and broadcast revenues by more than 300% since 2003. Smith's creative marketing acumen was on full display during the 2008 season. Under his direction, the Falcons marketing team successfully executed a crisp, new advertising campaign, rolled out a new game day experience for Falcons fans at the Georgia Dome, and created a unique interactive new media strategy that was specifically tailored for Falcons fans.

Smith's sparkling advertising campaign, which began in earnest in April of 2008, supported the largest new season ticket sales campaign in NFL history while the club's game day experience showcased a season ticket holder recognition ceremony prior to each Falcons home game. Other aspects of the Falcons game day experience include the extremely popular Falcons Drum Line, enhanced in-game entertainment, along with some of the music industry's biggest stars (Robin Thicke, Ne-Yo) who have performed live at halftime of Falcons home games.

Smith's new media team continued to create unique ways to connect with Falcons fans by creating a nationally recognized viral media campaign entitled "Finding The One?"

In 2007, Smith's marketing strategies led to a team partnership with Russell, who joined Comcast as signature gate sponsors at the Georgia Dome.

Additionally, Verizon Wireless purchased the naming rights to the renovated Club Level at the Dome while the new media team launched an award winning re-design of Atlantafalcons.com, featuring an innovative design and a robust area dedicated specifically for fans called FalconsLife.

During his successful stint with the The Crew, Smith captured 2001 MLS Executive of the Year honors by his peers and followed-up that award by overseeing the organization's first-ever championship the following season when the Black & Gold claimed the 2002 U.S. Open Cup title. Smith was also instrumental in overseeing the administration of three of the most prestigious American soccer events of 2001 — the U.S.- Mexico World Cup qualifying match, the MLS Cup 2001, and the 2001 NCAA Men's College Cup.

Prior to joining The Crew, Smith was a member of the athletic department at one of his alma maters, The Ohio State University, serving as Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Communications. At OSU, Smith was responsible for the direction and coordination of eight department heads in the areas of marketing, athletic communications, publications, external relations, merchandise sales, premium seat services, video services, and concessions.

Prior to arriving at OSU, Smith was the Director of Live Event Marketing for the World Wrestling Federation from November 1994 to December 1995. He also worked as the Coliseum Director at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas, from May 1991 to November 1994.

Born Dec. 5, 1965, the Milford, Conn., native earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Radio, TV, and Film at Northwestern University and a Masters of Arts in Sports Management at Ohio State. He and his wife, Polly, live in Suwanee, Georgia with their three daughters, Rachel, Courtney, and Emily, and son, Daniel.

COACHES

MIKE SMITH
HEAD COACH

As the winds of change swept through the Atlanta Falcons facility on a winter's day in January of 2008 after a dismal 4-12 season, a new head coach with a powerful game plan stepped to the forefront to face the challenge. The resurgence of a wounded franchise was dependant on this plan and its proper execution. That day signaled not only a new chapter in Falcons football, but also a drastic change in philosophy.

Mike Smith's insistence on not looking back on the past and instead focusing on a positive present moving forward was a theme that he delivered early to his players at his first team meeting. It was there that the affable, passionate and communicative coach began the process of changing the culture.

"If you change the culture, you change behaviors. If you change behaviors, you change habits." - Mike Smith

Smith would plot a course that day for a reversal of fortunes that would see the Falcons meteoric rise to an 11-5 record and postseason berth for the first time since 2004.

Under Smith's determined leadership in 2008, the Falcons enjoyed one of the biggest turnarounds that the NFL has ever witnessed. The seven win swing going from 4-12 to 11-5 is tied for the fourth-best mark (at +7 wins) in the League for a rookie head coach since 1978. Smith's 11 victories is tied for the top mark with five other head coaches for the best record for a rookie head coach taking over a team that finished below .500 the previous season. And only three rookie head coaches in NFL history had more wins in their first campaign on the sidelines than Smith.

Smith's firm guidance at the helm allowed the Falcons to make several improvements from the previous season which included points per game average, rushing yards per game average, passing touchdowns to interception ratio and fewest sacks allowed. He had his team ready to play in every game in 2008 as the Falcons were tops in the League in first quarter points scored and registered a streak of holding opponents in 12 of 15 games to under 20 yards rushing in the opening quarter of games.

The shrewd drafting of quarterback Matt Ryan and astute free agent signing of running Michael Turner were two aggressive moves that paid immediate dividends and laid a solid foundation under Smith's direction in his first season. Ryan became the consensus NFL Rookie of the Year playing beyond his years with almost 3,500 yards passing and Turner finished second in MVP voting with 1,699 rushing yards and a franchise-best 17 rushing touchdowns en route to his first Pro Bowl while collecting All-Pro accolades.

For his coaching efforts, Smith earned the prestigious Associated Press and Sporting News 2008 Coach of the Year honors, as well as NFL Coach of the Year by the respected KC 101 Club.

Smith boasts a strong coaching background that includes 10 NFL seasons and 27 total years in football. His defensive track record has witnessed a remarkable amount of success as he helped guide the Baltimore Ravens to a Super Bowl XXXV Championship in 2000 and led the Jacksonville Jaguars defense to top 10 rankings in several categories (overall defense, points allowed and rushing defense) during his tenure. With Smith's help, the Jaguars had the sixth-most wins in the NFL (from 2004-07) with 40 victories.

From 2003-2007, Smith served as the Defensive Coordinator for the Jaguars and led a defensive unit which ranked fourth in overall defense (296.6), third in offensive points allowed (16.1) and fifth in rushing defense (99.3) from 2003-2006. In his last season in Jacksonville in 2007, the Jaguars rushing defense continued that trend as the unit ranked sixth in the AFC, holding opponents to 100.3 yards per game. The Jaguars defense under Smith's direction also finished 12th in the NFL in total defense in '07.

In 2006, Jacksonville ranked second in the League in total defense (283.6), which was the highest mark for the franchise in its history. The Jaguars defense also contributed to a team-record 20 interceptions and allowed an NFL-low 11 points per game on their home turf.

During Smith's five seasons in Jacksonville, three defensive players garnered six Pro Bowl selections, which included defensive tackle Marcus Stroud (2003-2005), defensive tackle John Henderson (2004, 2006) and cornerback Rashean Mathis (2006). Smith also coached the likes of defensive end Bobby McCray, who became just the fourth Jaguar to record at least 10 sacks in 2005. Smith contributed to three winning seasons in Jacksonville (2004-2005, 2007) as the Jags reached the playoffs for the sixth occasion in franchise history in 2007 and defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in an AFC Divisional Playoff game on the road at Heinz Field.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Smith spent four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens and was the Defensive Assistant/Defensive Line Coach from 1999-2001, which included the team's 2000 Super Bowl winning season. The Ravens defense set an NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points en route to the team's first NFL championship.

In 2002, Smith served as the Linebackers Coach. That season, the Ravens featured All-Pro linebacker Ray Lewis and Pro Bowl linebacker Peter Boulware, who recorded 57 tackles, seven sacks for a loss of 51 yards, one interception and four passes defended in his finest NFL season under Smith's tutelage.

Before joining the NFL ranks, Smith spent 12 seasons at Tennessee Tech from 1987-1998. He was the Golden Eagles' Defensive Coordinator for the last three seasons as the team finished in the top 10 in the nation in total defense (1997 and 1998). He joined the Tennessee Tech staff as the Defensive Line Coach and then served as the Special Team Coordinator from 1988 to 1995. Prior to his last season with the Golden Eagles, Smith was promoted to Assistant Head Coach on top of his Defensive Coordinator duties.

As the son of a middle school coach and as the oldest in a family of eight children (four sisters and three brothers), Smith learned early the values and virtues of a strong work ethic from parents Carol and Sam Smith. Growing up with educators as influential parents can have a lasting effect on a person. Mike Smith is no different. Teaching is in his blood. It's what he loves to do.

When Smith broke his right arm playing linebacker in the second game during his senior season at Father Lopez High School (in Daytona Beach, Fla.) he asked the head coach if he could help the team and become an assistant coach. This would mark the humble beginnings for a man that some 30 years later would reach the pinnacle of his coaching profession and be named head coach in the National Football League of the Atlanta Falcons.

"Mike was with me in Baltimore (Ravens) and I know he's honest, fair and he's a good teacher," said longtime former NFL player turned NFL Network analyst Rod Woodson. "I think teaching is a lost art in the National Football League. There are a lot of coaches who can put X's and O's on the board, but they can't teach a guy why they did it. But Mike can do that. He will be a good teacher."

Smith played college football at East Tennessee (1977-1981) and was named defensive MVP twice at his position. He led the team with a school record 186 tackles as a senior.

A native of Daytona Beach, Florida, Smith was born on June 13, 1959 in Chicago, Illinois. He and his wife, Julie, have one daughter, Logan, and reside in Suwanee, Ga.

MIKE SMITH BY THE NUMBERS IN 2008

1 - The Falcons ranked first in the NFL in first quarter points and outscored their opponent in the opening 15 minutes of play by a 114-52 margin.

2 - Atlanta's rank in the NFL in rushing average (152.7) at the conclusion of the 2008 regular season. The Falcons improved 24 spots in rushing average compared to the 2007 campaign.

4 - Coach Smith was the fourth head coach in Falcons history to record 11 or more wins in a year.

4 - The number of years (2004) between playoff appearances for the Falcons and the NFC Wild Card game against the Arizona Cardinals (1/3/09).

4 - The number of consecutive home victories to open the 2008 campaign, the highest amount of consecutive home wins to start a season since 1998.

7 - The Falcons win improvement from the 2007 season under the leadership of Coach Smith. The seven wins are tied for the sixth-highest improvement between seasons by a first-year head coach in NFL history.

8.2 - Atlanta's improvement in points per game average compared to the 2007 season.

9 - Coach Smith is the ninth head coach in the NFL to win 11-plus games in his rookie season.

11 - The number of regular season wins Coach Smith and the Falcons accumulated during the 2008 campaign.

51 - The number of points the Falcons totaled off of 18 no-huddle possessions in 2008.

5,779 - The total number of net yards for the Falcons offensive in 2008, which set a team record for a single season.

EMMITT THOMAS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SECONDARY

One of Head Coach Mike Smith's first decisions when he was hired in Atlanta was to retain the experienced services of Emmitt Thomas and promote him to Assistant Head Coach/Secondary. The 2009 season marks the 42nd year in the NFL for Thomas as a player (13 years) and longtime coach (29 years).

The culmination of Thomas' playing career as a stellar cornerback for the Kansas City Chiefs was realized in August, 2008 when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was joined by wide receiver Art Monk, cornerback Darrell Green, defensive end Fred Dean, linebacker Andre Tippett and tackle Gary Zimmerman as enshrinees into the "Class of 2008".

The Falcons defense under Thomas' watchful eye in 2008 finished 11th in the NFL in fewest points allowed at just an average of 20.3 per contest.

In 2007, Thomas started his second season as the Defensive Backs Coach for the Falcons before being named Interim Head Coach for the last three games of the season. In the season finale against playoff-bound Seattle, the Falcons recorded a 44-41 victory to earn Thomas his first win as a NFL Head Coach. Atlanta's 44 points against Seattle was the most in a game since 1998 and the combined score was the highest since 1982. The Falcons' 24 points in the fourth quarter were also the most in a game since 1981.

During the 2006 season, the Falcons were forced to innovate with personnel as cornerbacks battled through injuries throughout the year. Atlanta's secondary still contributed to a defense which ranked tied for fifth in the NFC in opponents points per game (20.5).

In 2005 under Thomas' guidance, the team's passing defense finished 14th in the NFL and improved in key areas from the year before. The defense led the League by allowing a NFL-best low 30.2 percent (58 of 192) of opponents third down conversions. The passing yards per game average and completion percentage were both down from 2004. The Falcons defense was also among the NFL leaders in preventing big pass plays, allowing only 28 passes of 20-plus yards, to rank in the top three. The nickel and third down defensive packages were very stingy when opponents attempted to move the chains in 2005. When Atlanta's defense forced its opponents into a third and long situation of six-plus yards, the team only allowed 14 conversions out of 101 attempts (13.9%), which was the League's best mark.

The Falcons secondary accounted for three of the five defensive touchdowns scored with interception returns in 2004, which tied for the second-highest total of defensive touchdowns in team history. In 2002, Thomas' first year guiding the Falcons defensive backs, the defense finished tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions. Also, Atlanta's pass defense improved from 30th in 2001 to 16th in 2002.

Prior to landing in Atlanta, Thomas, a holder of three Super Bowl rings (with two titles coming as an assistant coach and one as a player) served as the Defensive Coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings from 2000-2001. In his first season in Minnesota, Thomas helped the Vikings win the NFC Central crown and advance to the NFC Championship Game. Under his direction, Minnesota's defense finished sixth in the NFC in rushing defense in 2000.

Thomas joined the Philadelphia Eagles as a Defensive Coordinator for four seasons (1995-98) before taking a similar post with the Green Bay Packers (1999). The Eagles' 1998 defense was ranked No. 1 against the pass and was third in the NFL in sack percentage. His 1996 unit finished fifth in the league overall and his 1995 defense was fourth overall in yards surrendered as the Eagles posted back-to-back 10-6 records and a pair of playoff berths.

Thomas' extensive coaching career began at Central Missouri State University, where he coached the secondary from 1979-80, and his NFL coaching career started with the-then St. Louis Cardinals in 1981. This product of Angleton, Texas, moved on to the Washington Redskins for nine seasons from 1986-94 as a Wide Receivers Coach and then as a Defensive Backs Coach

(where he coached both Hall of Famers Art Monk and Darrell Green). His time with the Redskins was marked with five trips to the playoffs, two NFC Championships and victories in Super Bowls XXII and XXVI.

Thomas was a standout defensive back for 13 years with the Chiefs (1966-78). He played in 181 NFL games, including Super Bowls I and IV, and was selected to play in five Pro Bowls. Thomas finished his career with 58 interceptions, which ranks ninth in League history, as he led the NFL twice in interceptions in a single-season. He is a member of the Chiefs Hall of Fame as Arrowhead Stadium bears his name on the stadiums walls. A quarterback and receiver at Bishop College in Dallas, he was converted to defensive back as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Chiefs.

Thomas was born June 3, 1943 in Angleton, Texas. He has two grown children, a son, Derek, an assistant basketball coach at the University of Detroit, and a daughter, Dedra, a LVN in Marshall, Texas.

He and his wife, Jacqui, reside in Suwanee, Ga.

MIKE MULARKEY
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Mularkey's successful impact on the Falcons offensive attack was clearly evident and far reaching in 2008. Under Mularkey's direction, Atlanta's diverse offense finished second in the NFL with an average of 152.7 rushing yards per game, sixth in total offense with an average of 361.2 yards a game, 14th in passing yards with a 208.5 average per contest, and 10th in points scored at 24.4. The Falcons broke a 27-year old team record by totaling 5,779 net yards gained last season and also established a new club mark by only surrendering 17 total sacks overall in '08. The 391 points scored and 61.1 passing completion percentage were both the fifth-best marks in a season in club history. Mularkey's efficient offense helped the Falcons finish with an 11-5 record - only the fifth double-digit win total in a season in team history - and earn a Wild Card playoff berth.

Besides the team success, Mularkey's innovative offense showcased the individual talents of veterans like running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White while developing the emerging skills of rookie quarterback Matt Ryan.

Turner posted 1,699 rushing yards (third most ever by a Falcons runner) in his first season in Atlanta to trail only Adrian Peterson of the Vikings for the NFL rushing crown and also pounded his way to a team record 17 rushing touchdowns. Led by Turner the Falcons rushing game finished with 2,443 yards on the ground, the fifth-most ever in club annals, as the sixth-year runner earned his first Pro Bowl nod, was voted a first-team All-Pro, and finished second in the NFL in MVP balloting. White flourished in Mularkey's offense turning in a Pro Bowl year for the first time in his career with personal-bests in receptions (88), yards (1,382), touchdowns (seven) and 100-yard games (seven). The 1,382 yards represented a new team-high and coupled with his 1,202 yards in '07 made him the first receiver in Falcons history to total consecutive 1,200 yardage seasons. Ryan benefited immensely from the experience of Mularkey at the offensive helm to win the prestigious Associated Press and Sporting News Rookie of the Year honors. Ryan's numerous rookie accolades included winning 11 games (a Falcons record) in 16 starts to guide his team to the playoffs (which is an NFL mark shared with Joe Flacco of Ravens). He and Peyton Manning became the only rookie quarterbacks ever in League history to throw for 3,000 yards in their first season.

In 2007, Mularkey served as the Tight Ends Coach for the Dolphins and guided seven-year veteran David Martin, who finished fourth on the team in receptions (34). Before joining Miami's staff in 2006 as Offensive Coordinator, Mularkey spent two seasons as the Head Coach of the Buffalo Bills (14-18 overall record). In his first season in 2004, he led the Bills to their first winning campaign in five years with a 9-7 record as the club tallied wins in nine of their final 12 games.

From 1996-2003, Mularkey spent eight seasons on the successful coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers under Head Coach Bill Cowher and served as the Offensive Coordinator in his final three years. As Offensive Coordinator, Mularkey's offense in Pittsburgh finished third and fifth, respectively, in the NFL in total offense in his first two years. The Steelers also averaged 173.4 rushing yards per game, which led the League in 2001. Mularkey helped the Steelers register a 13-3 record in 2001 on the way to an AFC Central Division championship and an AFC Championship Game appearance. Under Mularkey's creative tutelage, QB Kordell Stewart passed for 3,109 yards en route to be chosen to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. The following season in 2002 Mularkey's coaching prowess was witnessed again as he helped resurrect QB Tommy Maddox's career. After not playing in the NFL in five years, Maddox threw for 2,836 yards (234-377) with 20 touchdowns and set a single-season franchise record with a 62.1 completion percentage to earn NFL Comeback Player of the Year honors.

Mularkey spent his first five years in Pittsburgh as the club's Tight Ends Coach. He helped mold Mark Bruener into one of the best run-blocking tight ends in the League during his tenure. The solid tight end play from Mularkey's crew enabled RB Jerome Bettis to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for five straight seasons. The Steelers as a team also were among the top 10 in the League in the rushing department every season and led the NFL in 1997, as well as finishing second in 1996.

Mularkey began his coaching journey in the League as a Quality Control Coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and was then promoted to Tight Ends Coach the following season. In his only season working with the Bucs tight ends, Jackie Harris hauled in a team-best 62 passes for 751 yards to become one of just three tight ends in the team's history to stand atop the club's yearly receiving chart.

His first coaching venture came at Concordia College where he spent the 1993 season as the Offensive Line Coach.

A ninth-round draft selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 1983, Mularkey was released by the Niners at the end of training camp but was picked up by the Vikings. He spent the next six seasons in Minnesota before being signed away as a Plan B free agent in 1989 by the Steelers, where he performed for three years. For his career, he totaled 102 catches for 1,222 yards with nine touchdowns in 114 games played.

A native of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Mularkey, 47, captured three letters at the University of Florida (1980-82). He and his wife, Betsy, have two sons, Patrick and Shane.

COACH MIKE MULARKEY

BRIAN VANGORDER
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Brian VanGorder settles into his second season as the Falcons Defensive Coordinator after ascending to his current post following a successful campaign as the club's Linebackers Coach in 2007.

In 2008, VanGorder started the retooling process of transforming the Falcons defense into a unit that plays with intensity, passion, aggression and toughness. VanGorder's first season as Defensive Coordinator was spent finding, teaching and molding his players into carrying that mindset into each practice and consequently every game. His troops responded by making steady improvements along the way and proved downright stingy when it came to surrendering points. The Falcons under VanGorder's leadership finished 11th in the NFL in points allowed at just an average of 20.3 per contest.

With VanGorder's guidance, young players, such as MLB Curtis Lofton and CB Chevis Jackson, played pivotal roles for a developing defense. Lofton earned a starting spot in the middle of the defense as a rookie, garnering NFL All-Rookie accolades by Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly, finishing fourth on the team in tackles and second in the entire League among all rookies (according to Stats, Inc.) with 108 stops. Jackson's rookie season saw him grow into an important nickel back, which was highlighted by a 95-yard interception return for a touchdown against New Orleans in Week 10 to seal the win in high fashion and keep the playoff push alive.

VanGorder's defense also witnessed some key veterans making strong contributions in the form of DE John Abraham, DT Jonathan Babineaux, and S Erik Coleman. Abraham broke the team record for sacks in a season with 16.5 and personified VanGorder's idea of passionate play on every single down. Babineaux emerged as a disruptive force in the Falcons interior, making tackles behind the line, and consistently forcing double-teams.

Coleman, a key free agent acquisition, fit in nicely, galvanizing the secondary on his way to a career-high 127 tackles, second-best on the team, with three interceptions and two forced fumbles.

VanGorder took over control of the Falcons defense with an extensive coaching background that boasts over 26 years in the profession, including three seasons in the NFL trenches and four years as a highly successful Defensive Coordinator at arguably the toughest conference in the nation in the Southeastern Conference at the University of Georgia.

Prior to serving as the Head Coach of the Georgia Southern Eagles in 2006, VanGorder spent the 2005 season coaching the linebackers for the Jacksonville Jaguars under Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. Jacksonville ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense that season with VanGorder's help.

From 2001-2004, VanGorder was in charge of the defense as Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach at Georgia. The Bulldogs posted a 42-10 record over his four seasons at UGA, won one SEC title, two SEC East Division championships, captured three Bowl games and ended up with three straight top 10 finishes in the final national polls, In 2003, VanGorder received the Frank Boyles "Assistant Coach of the Year" award by the NCAA, which honors the nation's top assistant coach, and also the Southern Sports Tonight's assistant of the year in 2002 by the media.

In his last season in Athens (Ga.) in 2004, the 10-2 Bulldogs and seventh ranked team in the nation garnered a defense that ranked eighth overall and ninth in scoring defense. VanGorder's 2003 defensive unit finished third nationally in scoring defense, fourth in total defense, and sixth in passing defense. In 2002, UGA's stout defense allowed only 31 points during the final seven games, propelling the Bulldogs to a Sugar Bowl win over Florida State (26-13) and a number three ranking overall in the polls. His strong defense also led the SEC in scoring defense and finished fourth nationally.

VanGorder also had coaching stints at Western Illinois (2000), Central Michigan (1998-99), the University of Central Florida (1995-1997), Wayne State (1992-1994) and Grand Valley State (1989-91).

VanGorder, 50, was born in Jackson, Michigan. He and his wife, Pollie, have five children: Molloy, Morgan, Mack, Montgomery and Malone.

COACH BRIAN VANGORDER

Keith Armstrong's special teams units established a new NFL record by holding opponents to just a mere 43 punt return yards all season, besting the Buffalo Bills' old record of 49 yards in 1991.

But it is the sum of Armstrong's parts that make his units so special. Armstrong's troops finished 10th in the League in overall special teams play, according to the Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin, who compiles a comprehensive and well-respected list of each club's special teams rankings each season. According to the rankings, Armstrong's units excelled in area's such as opponents starting points on a new possession (second), kickoff returns (10th), kickoff coverage (eighth), punts inside the 20 (ninth), field goals made (eighth), and points allowed on returns (first).

Explosive kickoff returner Jerious Norwood notched 1,311 yards on 51 attempts for a 25.7 average that was good enough for the fourth-highest mark in the NFC. Norwood's five returns for 192 yards against St. Louis in Week 17 marked the seventh-highest total in a single-game in team history. The electrifying Norwood provides Armstrong with a "home run threat" every time he touches the ball and that was evidenced by his long returns of 92 (vs. St. Louis) and 85 yards (vs. Chicago) in '08. Norwood's career average of 25.4 yards currently ranks second all-time in team annals.

Punt returner Harry Douglas ranked fifth in the NFC in punt return yards with 226 for an 11.9 average after taking over the full-time duties in Week 6. Douglas garnered NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance against the Carolina Panthers in a Week 12 victory when he recorded his first career punt return touchdown of 61 yards in the fourth quarter to seal the win for the Falcons. He finished the game with three run-backs for 93 that yards.

Keith Armstrong's successful resume was a strong reason that Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith chose the 45-year-old Levittown, Pa. native when he was searching for a coach to lead his special teams in Atlanta.

Armstrong joined the Falcons following seven seasons in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins. The 15-year NFL coaching veteran was instrumental in 2007 in helping punt returner Ted Ginn, Jr. finish fourth in the AFC with a 9.6 return average. The 9.6 average was also the 10th best mark in the entire NFL among all punt returners. Ginn also returned 63 kickoffs for 1,433 yards and a 22.7 yard per return average. With Armstrong's coaching, K Jay Feeley connected on 21 of 23 field goals for a 91.3 percent success rate, which was ranked second in the League just behind Pittsburgh's 92.0 percentage mark.

From 2001-2006, the Dolphins finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all but one season under Armstrong's positive direction. During that same time frame, Miami opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, including a 4.5-yard mark in 2001 when they led the League in the category, and a 4.9-yard average (third in NFL) in 2005. In 2003, the Dolphins ranked first in the NFL in opponents' average starting field position with a 25.0-yard line mark and finished second in the same category in 2006 with a 24.9 figure. Over that same time period, the Dolphins special teams under Armstrong's leadership only surrendered just one punt or kickoff return for a touchdown, which was tied with Dallas for the fewest number in the League.

Prior to landing in Miami, Armstrong served in the same role with the Chicago Bears from 1997-2000. In 2000, Chicago's special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0 yards per return. In his four seasons in Chicago, the Bears special teams ranked in the top 10 in the League in punt return average, punt coverage and kickoff coverage twice in each category.

Armstrong earned his start in the NFL with the Falcons in 1994 as the safeties coach. In 1996, he was promoted to run the entire secondary. Before his full-time positions in the NFL, he was part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program during training camps with the New York Jets (1991), Dallas Cowboys (1992) and Chicago Bears (1993).

Armstrong coached his way through the collegiate ranks before joining the NFL. He garnered four letters as a running back and defensive back at Temple University from 1983-1986 before joining the school as a Graduate Assistant in 1987. Armstrong then joined the University of Miami as the Defensive Backs and Special Teams Coach for one season (1988) before coaching the wide receivers at the University of Akron (1989). His last two stops in college before joining the Falcons came at Oklahoma State as the Secondary Coach from 1990-1992 and Notre Dame as the Linebackers and Special Teams Coach in 1993.

Keith and his wife, Kathleen, have two daughters, Kaitlin and Kristen.

PAUL BOUDREAU
OFFENSIVE LINE

Paul Boudreau is entering his 23rd year in the NFL as a coach and his second with the Atlanta Falcons as the team's Offensive Line Coach. Boudreau's offensive lines have helped pave the way for four running backs to top the 10,000-yard career rushing plateau including Barry Sanders, Curtis Martin, Thurman Thomas and Fred Taylor.

In his first season as the Falcons Offensive Line Coach, Boudreau's offensive line unit cleared rushing lanes for the NFL's second ranked rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and Pro Bowl running back Michael Turner. Turner ranked second in the NFL in rushing (1,699 yards) in 2008, marking the third highest rushing total in Falcons history. Under the guidance of Boudreau the offensive line also assisted in Turner crossing the goal line a franchise-high 17 times and passing the 200-yard plateau on two occasions. Boudreau's offensive line also protected NFL Rookie of the Year QB Matt Ryan so that he could throw for 3,440 yards (on 265 of 434 passing) with 16 touchdowns. Ryan's production could be credited to the fact that Boudreau's offensive line allowed a franchise-low of 17 sacks, surpassing the previous mark of 25 (1982). The 17 sacks on 434 pass attempts were equivalent to allowing one sack per every 25.5 plays, which also set a new franchise mark, surpassing the previous bests of one sack per every 17.1 plays (1997, 1994). With the help of Boudreau, the Falcons recorded a franchise-high 5,779 total net yards and the fifth highest rushing total in club history (2,443 yards).

From 2006-07, Boudreau served as the Offensive Line Coach for the St. Louis Rams. In 2007, Rams running back Steven Jackson tallied his second consecutive 1,000-yard season behind Boudreau's offensive line. In 2006, Jackson gained a career-high 1,528 rushing yards while nine different players started on the offensive line.

Prior to joining the Rams, Boudreau was the Offensive Line Coach for three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-05). In 2003, the Jacksonville offensive line set a franchise record by allowing only 28 sacks (tied for ninth in the NFL). Running back Fred Taylor also rushed for a team-record 1,572 yards.

Boudreau coached the Carolina Panthers offensive line from 2001-02 and saw the team set a club record by allowing only 31 sacks in '01. From 1999-2000, he served in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins.

From 1997-98, Boudreau coached the offensive line for the New England Patriots following a three-year stint with the Detroit Lions guiding the same unit. His first position in the NFL came with the New Orleans Saints from 1987-93. In his seven seasons in New Orleans, Boudreau's offensive line placed in the top three in fewest sacks allowed on four occasions. In 1992, the Saints allowed a League-low 15 sacks.

Boudreau and his wife, Joan, have one son, Paul, and one daughter, Jill. His son Paul is also a coach and Jill is the mother of three children, Kalyn, Zach, and Olivia.

GERALD BROWN
RUNNING BACKS

Gerald Brown's first season in charge of the Falcons running backs drew immediate dividends as he helped Michael Turner explode onto the NFL scene in high fashion as a full-time starter for the first time in his career. Turner finished second in the League behind Vikings runner Adrian Peterson (by just 61 yards) with 1,699 rushing yards and set a franchise record with 17 rushing touchdowns. The 1,699 yards marked the third-best season total all-time in Falcons annals.

Under Brown's leadership, Turner's breakout year also included eight, 100-yard rushing games with a pair of impressive 200-plus-yard contests. In his first game in a Falcon uniform Turner shattered the team record for rushing yards in a game with 220 in a victory over the Detroit Lions. Turner then ended the regular season in similar fashion with a 208-yard outing against St. Louis. The 5-9, 244 pound human wrecking ball was second in the NFL in MVP voting, earned a Pro Bowl nod for the first time in his career, and captured NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors three times.

But Brown's guidance was also witnessed in his dealings with dangerous fleet-footed runner, Jerious Norwood. The second part of the backfield's noted - one-two punch - Norwood proved to be a perfect complement to the bruising style of Turner. Norwood averaged 5.1 yards per carry with his 489 yards on 95 carries and four touchdowns while also ending up third on the team in receptions with 36 for 338 more yards with two scores. Norwood and Turner also combined to register 62 rushes of 10-plus-yards with Turner's 45 leading the NFL.

Before coming to Atlanta, Brown's coaching career spanned 22 years, including the previous six seasons at Indiana University.

Brown's coaching performance at Indiana in his first five seasons earned him the Assistant Head Coach title on top of his duties as Special Teams

Co-Coordinator and Running Backs Coach in 2007. The Hoosiers ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring offense in 2007 (31.7 points per game) while the team logged 157.4 rushing yards per game. With an assist from Brown, Indiana kicker Austin Starr led the conference in field goal percentage with a 91.3 mark (21 of 23). In 2006, Marcus Thigpen led the nation in kickoff return average (30.1) while the university led the nation in the category in 2004.

In Brown's first five seasons at IU, Hoosier running backs averaged 1,549 rushing yards per season. In his first year (2002), Indiana gained 1,398 yards despite not having a running back with more than 90 career carries entering the '02 campaign. In 2003, BenJarvus Green-Ellis became the seventh true freshman in Indiana history to rush for 100 yards in a game and just the third freshman to eclipse the 200-yard plateau in a single-game.

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Brown served as the Running Backs Coach for the Memphis Maniax of the XFL. His feature running back was former Heisman Trophy award winner Rashaan Salaam who held the league rushing lead before suffering an injury halfway through the season. Under Brown, the Maniax led the XFL in total offense, finishing second in rushing offense while averaging over 100 yards per game.

Brown calls the state of Tennessee home as the Sweetwater native spent his first 17 years of coaching in the state following his graduation from Memphis State University in 1982. For 10 seasons (1989-98), he was an Assistant Coach at Tennessee Tech University, serving in a capacity of roles including: Wide Receivers Coach, Special Teams Coach and Quarterbacks Coach with the Golden Eagles.

Tennessee Tech pieced together two of its best seasons while Brown was a member of the staff. From 1992-1993, the Golden Eagles posted a 15-7 overall record and a 13-3 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference. Brown also received two minority coaching fellowships with the New York Jets (1990) and the Miami Dolphins (1996). During those internships, he worked with some of the NFL's best receivers including Al Toon, Rob Moore and Terence Mathis of the Jets and Fred Barnett, O.J. McDuffie and Charles Jordan of the Miami Dolphins.

In 1983, Brown got his coaching start at the University of Tennessee where he began as a Graduate Assistant. In 1984, he became an Administrative Assistant and served as the Volunteers' scout and computer analyst. Brown was part of a Tennessee coaching staff for six seasons (1983-1988) and worked with seven All-Americans, including Reggie White, Tim McGee and Anthony Miller.

Brown played as a wide receiver from 1979-1981 at Memphis State University and graduated as a scholar-athlete in 1982 with a bachelor's degree in Marketing/Transportation.

Brown and his wife, Jill, have one daughter, Caitlin.

JOE DANNA
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Entering his 11th year as a coach, Defensive Assistant Joe Danna continues to add to his resume as he enters his second season with the Atlanta Falcons.

Danna worked along side Defensive Coordinator Brian VanGorder last season as the Falcons defense witnessed the emergence of some young players. Rookie LB Curtis Lofton logged 108 tackles, two passes defended, one sack and one forced fumble in 16 games and garnered All-Rookie honors from Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly for his efforts. Danna worked closely with Linebackers Coach Glenn Pires in '08 and will work with the cornerbacks in 2009.

After lettering all four years as a wide receiver at Central Michigan University, Danna served as a Student Assistant (1999) and Graduate Assistant (2000) for his alma mater. In 1999, he coached with current Falcons Defensive Coordinator Brian VanGorder for the Chippewas. Two years later, Danna and VanGorder crossed paths again, this time at the University of Georgia where Danna served as a Graduate Assistant. At Georgia, he worked with NFL defensive backs, Jermaine Phillips (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and Sean Jones (Philadelphia Eagles).

Danna has spent the majority of his coaching tenure at Central Michigan where he rejoined the team in 2002 as the Wide Receivers Coach. From 2003-04, he moved to the defensive side of the ball and coached the safeties before moving back to his original position in 2005. During that '05 season, the Chippewas improved their record by four wins from their 2003 record (2-9). Danna also coached the likes of defensive back James King who was signed as an undrafted rookie free agent by the Cleveland Browns in 2005 and wide receiver Damien Linson who spent time on the Baltimore Ravens roster.

In 2006, Danna coached the defensive backfield for Georgia Southern University under VanGorder who spent the season as the Head Coach of the Eagles. The following year, Danna coached the same position for the James Madison Dukes as the team reached the first round of the postseason. Danna was also responsible for guiding Tony Lezotte who graduated the university as a four-time All-America selection.

A native of Midland, Michigan, Danna graduated from Midland High School and was an all-state selection in football while participating in basketball and baseball. He earned his bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Social Sciences with a Language Arts minor from Central Michigan. Danna followed the footsteps of his father who was a Head Coach at Michigan Tech University and Northwood University, both Division II schools.

Danna and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Luke (two), and Zack (one). He enjoys spending time with his family in his spare time.

PAUL DUNN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Paul Dunn returns for his second season as the Falcons Assistant Offensive Line Coach after spending 25 years coaching in the collegiate ranks, including 22 years of coaching the offensive line.

In his first season as the Falcons Assistant Offensive Line Coach, the offensive line unit paved the way for the NFL's second ranked rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and Pro Bowl running back Michael Turner. Turner ranked second in the NFL in rushing (1,699 yards) in 2008, marking the third highest rushing total in Falcons history. Under the guidance of Dunn, the offensive line also assisted in Turner crossing the goal line a franchise-high 17 times and passing the 200-yard plateau on two occasions. The Falcons' offensive line also provided time for NFL Rookie of the Year QB Matt Ryan as he threw for 3,440 yards (on 265 of 434 passing) with 16 touchdowns. Ryan's production could be credited to the fact that the Falcons' offensive line allowed a franchise-low of 17 sacks, surpassing the previous mark of 25 (1982). The 17 sacks on 434 pass attempts were equivalent to allowing one sack per every 25.5 plays, which also set a new franchise mark, surpassing the previous bests of one sack per every 17.1 plays (1997, 1994).

Prior to joining the Falcons, Dunn served as the Offensive Line Coach (2005-2007) for the Pittsburgh Panthers, his alma mater. In 2007, Pitt's offensive line paved the way for freshman running back LeSean McCoy to rush for 1,328 yards while breaking freshman records in touchdowns (14) and points (90), which were previously held by Tony Dorsett.

The Panthers ranked 16th nationally in 2006 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.5 per game) under the guidance of Dunn.

Before returning to Pittsburgh, Dunn was the Running Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach for the Kentucky Wildcats from 2003-04.

Dunn has also registered a five-year coaching stint at Kansas State University as the Running Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach. During Dunn's tenure, the Wildcats ranked among the nation's top five in scoring four times, including a national-best 48 points per game in 1998. Dunn coached four Kansas State players who earned All-America honors, including first-team honoree Nick Leckey. Additionally, Ryan Lijja earned All-Big 12 honors and was a starting guard for the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts during the 2006 season.

He earned his coaching start at Pittsburgh as a Graduate Assistant in 1983, prior to joining the Penn State Nittany Lions as a Graduate Assistant under head coach Joe Paterno (1984-1985).

A three-year letterman during his collegiate career at Pitt (1978-82), Dunn was a member of four teams that finished in the Top 10, including two that finished second in at least one major poll. The Panthers went 11-1 in three consecutive years (1979-81), including the 1980 campaign when Pitt was named the nation's top team by the New York Times.

Dunn and his wife, Melody, have been married 24 years and have three children, two daughters, Katlyn and Kelsey, and one son, Casey.

RAY HAMILTON
DEFENSIVE LINE

Ray Hamilton enters his second season as Defensive Line Coach for the Atlanta Falcons, after spending five seasons (2003-07) in the same position with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Hamilton worked closely with Head Coach Mike Smith who served as Defensive Coordinator for Jacksonville from 2003-07. Hamilton is a longtime NFL coaching veteran who is entering his 23rd year in the coaching ranks in addition to his nine seasons as a player.

Last year, Hamilton's work with DE John Abraham enabled Abraham to tally a franchise record and career-best 16.5 sacks. Abraham also led all Falcons defensive linemen with 42 tackles in addition to four forced fumbles and one pass defended. Defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux emerged as a force in the interior of the defensive front in '08 with Hamilton's assistance. Babineaux collared a career-high 3.5 sacks and ranked fourth in the NFL in tackles for loss (9.5) according to STATS, Inc. Under the tutelage of Hamilton, the defensive line recorded 31 of the team's 34 sacks.

The Jaguars defense ranked fourth in the NFL from 2003-2007 in yards per game (300.1) and fourth in scoring defense (18.2). The defensive line also posted 180 sacks in that same time frame led by Pro Bowlers Marcus Stroud and John Henderson.

During the 2007 campaign, Jacksonville's defense ranked sixth in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.0) while ranking fifth in the conference in rushing defense (100.3). The Jaguars also held opponents to 17 points or less in 10 of 16 games, which tied for the most in the NFL with three other teams.

In 2006, Hamilton guided defensive end Bobby McCray who developed into one of the AFC's top pass rushers as he led Jacksonville with a career-high 10 sacks. The defensive line combined for 29.5 sacks, ranking fourth in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game.

Prior to joining Jacksonville, Hamilton spent two seasons as the Defensive Line Coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2001-02. In his first season with Cleveland, the Browns tied for fourth in the AFC with 43 sacks. For three seasons, Hamilton served as New England's Defensive Line Coach from 1997-99 and joined the New York Jets staff in 2000. His 1998 defensive line tallied 25 of the team's 36 sacks, the seventh-best total in the NFL.

In 1995, Hamilton joined the Jets in his first stint with the team as the Defensive Line Coach. He guided defensive end Hugh Douglas, who was named the 1995 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. From 1993-94, Hamilton was a member of the Los Angeles Raiders where he developed Chester McGlockton and a defensive line that combined for 83 sacks in his two seasons with the Silver & Black.

Hamilton spent his only season in the collegiate ranks with the University of Tennessee in 1992 as the Defensive Line Coach, following stints as the Defensive Line Coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1991) and the Head Coach of the Bay State Titans (1990), a semi-pro team that featured defensive tackle Eric Swann, the sixth overall choice in the 1991 NFL Draft.

Hamilton began his coaching career in 1985, spending five seasons as an Assistant Defensive Line Coach with the New England Patriots. He helped the Patriots reach their first AFC Championship title and a Super Bowl XX appearance.

A 14th-round draft choice by the Patriots, Hamilton was a fixture on the New England defensive line from 1973-81 while establishing rookie records with seven sacks. "Sugar Bear" went on to start a team record 110 consecutive games and currently ranks fifth on the Patriots' all-time sack list with 54.

Hamilton was born on January 20, 1951 in Omaha, NE. He graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in business and was named all-conference as a defensive tackle as a junior and senior. Hamilton received a master's degree in public administration in 1977 from Suffolk University while playing for the Patriots.

Hamilton and his wife, Phyllis, have two sons, Kadar, and Damon.

BILL MUSGRAVE
QUARTERBACKS

The Falcons will lean heavily on Bill Musgrave's 17 years of experience as a NFL player and coach to guide the team's quarterbacks again in 2008. Under Musgrave's tutelage, quarterback Matt Ryan played like a seasoned veteran last year, earning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors by the Associated Press and Sporting News en route to leading the Falcons to the playoffs.

Ryan's accomplishments included a 61.1 season completion percentage (sixth-best ever by a Falcons QB in a single-season), 12.98 yards per completion (second in NFL), nine consecutive games with 200-plus yards passing, nine games with a passer rating of 94.1 or higher. In addition, he became only the second rookie signal-caller to ever throw for over 3,000 yards in a single-season (Peyton Manning in 1998). To top off his excellent rookie campaign, Ryan established a NFL rookie postseason record with 26 completions along with a pair of scoring passes versus the eventual NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals.

Before coming to Atlanta four years ago, Musgrave helped QB Mark Brunell and the 2005 Washington Redskins reach the playoffs and defeat the NFC South Champion Buccaneers in Tampa. That season, Brunell passed for a career-high 23 touchdowns, the most by a Redskins signal-caller since 1999.

Musgrave's own six-year pro career as a quarterback began as a fourth round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys in 1991. He played for the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-94, serving as a back-up to Joe Montana and Steve Young, while also learning his craft from the likes of coaches Mike Holmgren and Mike Shanahan. He was a member of the 49ers' Super Bowl XXIX winning team in 1994. Musgrave followed Shanahan and Gary Kubiak to Denver to play behind John Elway from 1995-96.

Musgrave was a four-year starting quarterback and three-year captain at Oregon from 1987-90. In addition to taking the Ducks to their first bowl games in 26 years in 1989 and 1990, he finished his collegiate career as Oregon's all-time leader in passing and total offense, while establishing 15 school records. His 60 passing touchdowns ranked second only to Elway in PAC-10 history.

A member of both the University of Oregon and state of Colorado Hall of Fames, Musgrave was born November 11, 1967 in Grand Junction, Colorado. He received the prestigious Denver Post's Gold Helmet Award for 1985, as well as being named the Colorado High School Athlete of the Year after a stellar three-year career in basketball, track, baseball and football at Grand Junction High School.

He and his wife, Neely, have four children.

GLENN PIRES
LINEBACKERS

Glenn Pires enters his 14th season in the NFL and his second as the Falcons Linebackers Coach. He spent five seasons (2003-07) with the Miami Dolphins staff and coached the likes of Pro Bowlers Zach Thomas and Joey Porter along with four-year veteran Channing Crowder.

In his first season at the helm of the Falcons linebacker corps, Pires assisted rookie middle linebacker Curtis Lofton in getting acclimated to the NFL. Lofton, the second round pick (37th overall) out of Oklahoma, was one of four Falcons to post over 100 tackles (108). His 108 stops ranked second among all first year players according to STATS, Inc. Pire's leadership enabled Lofton to earn All-Rookie honors from Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly. Pires also received contributions from Coy Wire and Stephen Nicholas in his first season with the Falcons. Wire started four games at outside linebacker and logged 24 tackles and one pass defended. Nicholas posted nine tackles, two passes defended and one sack in 16 games and will be asked to take on a bigger role in the defense in 2009. Recently acquired LB Mike Peterson will add a veteran presence to the Falcons linebacking corps this season. Peterson has logged 1,365 tackles, 19.5 sacks, 15 interceptions, seven fumble recoveries and five forced fumbles in his 10-year career.

Pires started his tenure with the Dolphins as the Assistant Defensive Line Coach from 2003-04 and coached Pro Bowl defensive ends Jason Taylor and Adewale Ogunleye. Before joining the Dolphins, he spent each of the previous two years (2001-02) as Linebackers Coach with the Detroit Lions. He got his start in the NFL coaching ranks tutoring the linebackers with the Arizona Cardinals in 1996 while spending the next five seasons at that post.

ALVIN REYNOLDS
DEFENSIVE BACKS

Alvin Reynolds begins his second season as Defensive Backs Coach with the Atlanta Falcons after spending the previous five seasons (2003-07) in the same role with the Jacksonville Jaguars and Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith.

In his first season with the Falcons, the secondary recorded 76 passes defended and 10 interceptions. The team's 76 passes defended rank eighth all-time in Falcons history and were the most since 2004 (80). Second-year cornerback Chris Houston recorded a career and team-high 16 passes defended, while newcomer S Erik Coleman logged a team-high three interceptions and posted a career-best 127 tackles with Reynolds help. Rookie cornerback Chevis Jackson also contributed with 33 tackles, five passes defended and one interception.

During his tenure with the Jaguars, Reynolds guided a secondary that ranked fourth in the AFC after totaling 20 interceptions (tying a team record) in 2007, led by rookie safety Reggie Nelson's five picks. In 2006, cornerback Rashean Mathis led the club with a team-record eight interceptions en route to a Pro Bowl bid as Jacksonville set a franchise high with 20 INTs.

Jacksonville's defensive unit ranked fourth in overall defense from 2003-07 allowing an average of only 296.6 yards per game. The unit also ranked third in opponents points allowed (16.1) and fifth in rushing defense (99.3) from 2003-06. Working under the direction of Jaguars Head Coach Jack Del Rio and Defensive Coordinator Mike Smith, Reynolds and the secondary were part of a defense that allowed 283.6 yards per game in 2006, which ranked second in the NFL and set a franchise record. Jacksonville also allowed a NFL-low 11 points per game on their home turf.

Reynolds holds 25 years of previous coaching experience, 16 of which came in the NFL. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he served as a Defensive Assistant for the Carolina Panthers for four seasons (1999-2002). He was present with the Baltimore Ravens for its first three seasons in franchise history (1996-98) as the Secondary Coach and started his NFL career with the Denver Broncos (1993-95).

Throughout his career, Reynolds has worked with the likes of safeties Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith in Denver and Hall of Famer Rod Woodson in Baltimore. With the Panthers, he worked with then-Defensive Coordinator Jack Del Rio, helping with tape breakdown, game plan preparation and statistical tendencies. He also worked with the Carolina secondary.

In 1982, Reynolds joined his alma mater, Indiana State, as a graduate assistant. He was named the team's Secondary Coach in 1983 and served in that capacity before becoming an Assistant Head Coach and Recruiting Coordinator in addition to coaching the secondary in 1990. He coached two All-America players, including former NFL cornerback Vencie Glenn.

Reynolds was a standout strong safety at Indiana State (1978-1981) and received two votes for the Heisman Trophy as a senior. He totaled 225 career tackles while adding 21 passes defended, five fumble recoveries and five interceptions.

In addition, Reynolds was the president of the University Club and served as a member of several groups, including the President's Committee on Ethnic Diversity, the Indiana Black Expo, the Charles T. HYTE University Center and the Minority Students Retention Program Committee. While in Denver, he was active in 100 Black Men of America, which emphasizes education and job training.

A native of Pineville, Louisiana, Reynolds attended West Jefferson High School in Harvey, La. He was an All-America selection and a two-time Most Valuable Player on the track team. He earned a degree in business management from Indiana State in 1982 and a Master's degree in political science from the school in 1990.

Reynolds has three children, son, Alvin Reynolds, Jr, a graduate of Notre Dame University, and daughters, Isabella, and Ana Gabriella.

COACH ALVIN REYNOLDS

TERRY ROBISKIE
WIDE RECEIVERS

Terry Robiskie's commanding presence and impressive coaching techniques were on full display in his first year in Atlanta. This 28-year coaching veteran had a profound influence on the Falcons wide receiving core in 2008.

Robiskie's receivers helped the offense set a team record for net yards gained with 5,779 on the heels of their 3,336 net yards passing output. But his group also aided the ground game with their solid blocking down the field for Falcons runners (2,443 yards rushing, 152.7 average per game) as Michael Turner earned his first Pro Bowl nod with 1,699 yards rushing.

With Robiskie's help, Roddy White emerged as one of the NFL's most dangerous receivers while fellow partner Michael Jenkins improved his game exponentially each week. White earned his first Pro Bowl invitation by breaking the Falcons single-season receiving yardage record that stood since 1981 (Alfred Jenkins) with 1,382 yards. In the process, he became the first receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-plus yard seasons. White also set career-bests in receptions with 88 and 100-yard games with seven while adding seven touchdowns under the persistent tutelage of Robiskie. He also led the NFL in the all-important category of third down receiving yards (516) while finishing second in the League in third down catches (29).

Jenkins turned into more of a reliable target for rookie quarterback Matt Ryan in his fifth season in Atlanta. "Jenks" averaged a career-high 15.5 yards per catch on a personal-best 777 receiving yards with 50 catches (second-highest total in a season). Robiskie's coaching also improved the play of rookie Harry Douglas, who chipped in with 23 receptions for 320 yards.

Robiskie's lengthy resume includes stints as Offensive Coordinator (1989-1993 and 2004) and Interim Head Coach on two occasions (2000 and 2004) during his time in the NFL. Prior to coming to Atlanta, Robiskie served as the Wide Receivers Coach with the Miami Dolphins.

Before his time in Miami, Robiskie spent six seasons with the Cleveland Browns where he served in three different roles. In 2001 he joined the Browns as the team's Wide Receivers Coach and guided Kevin Johnson to a 1,000-yard campaign, which included nine touchdowns. In 2004, he was promoted to Offensive Coordinator and went on to serve as Cleveland's Interim Head Coach for the final five games of the season. He earned a victory in a 22-14 decision in the season finale on January 2, 2005 against the Houston Texans. Robiskie oversaw Browns wide receivers in his final two seasons with the team from 2005-06. Wide receiver Antonio Bryant logged 1,009 yards and four touchdowns on 69 receptions in 2005 which was his most productive season in his career. In 2006, second-year wide receiver Braylon Edwards nearly doubled his receiving totals from his rookie season as he caught 61 passes for 884 yards. His six touchdowns also doubled his total from 2005.

From 1994-2000, Robiskie served as the Wide Receivers Coach (1994-98) and Passing Game Coordinator (1999-2000) for the Washington Redskins. He was also named Washington's Interim Head Coach for the final three games of the 2000 season, earning his first NFL victory as a Head Coach in a 20-3 outcome in the season finale against Arizona. In Robiskie's seven years with the Redskins, there were five different individual 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including one each by Michael Westbrook (1,191) and Albert Connell (1,132) in 1999. With Robiskie as the Passing Game Coordinator in 1999, Brad Johnson was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl squad as he threw for 4,005 yards, the second-highest total in franchise history. Robiskie earned his start in the NFL with the then Los Angeles Raiders in 1982 where he coached with the team for 12 seasons. During that time, he served in a variety of roles with the Silver & Black including Assistant Special Teams Coach (1982-84), Assistant Running Backs Coach (1985-87), Tight Ends Coach (1988) and Offensive Coordinator (1989-1992). The team made seven playoff appearances, won four division titles and defeated the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII, during Robiskie's tenure.

A native of Edgard, La., Robiskie lettered four years as a running back at LSU. As a senior in 1976, he was named the Southeastern Conference MVP and his likeness is up on the wall of the Superdome as a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. The Raiders selected him in the eighth-round of the 1977 NFL Draft. He went on to play the next three seasons with the team (1977-79) before joining the Miami Dolphins in 1980 where he spent two years.

Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons, Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Brian finished his senior season as a wide receiver at Ohio State and was selected in the second round (36th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns. Andrew is in his second season as a center for the SMU Mustangs under former Falcons Head Coach and player June Jones.

COACH TERRY ROBISKIE

CHRIS SCELFO
TIGHT ENDS

Chris Scelfo returns for his second season as Tight Ends Coach with the Falcons and his second season in the NFL. The 22-year coaching veteran came to Atlanta after spending eight seasons as one of the most successful Head Coaches at Tulane University.

Scelfo led the Falcons tight end unit to a highly productive season in both the passing game and the ground attack. Justin Peelle hauled in 15 receptions for 159 yards and two touchdowns. Coupled with Ben Hartsock, the two blocked for the League's second-best rusher in Michael Turner (1,699 yards).

In 2006, Scelfo became Tulane's career leader for games coached with 94 and ranks second among coaches in victories with 37. He is the only Green Wave Head Coach in the school's history with two bowl victories after guiding the university to wins in the 1998 Liberty Bowl and the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. Less than a month after he was hired to lead Tulane (1998), the Green Wave's victory over BYU in the Liberty Bowl capped a perfect 12-0 campaign.

During his tenure at Tulane, Scelfo sent nine players to the NFL, including first round draft picks quarterbacks Patrick Ramsey (2002) and J.P. Losman (2004). His teams performed well in the classroom too, as the Head Coach logged an average graduation rate of 75 percent (2003-06).

In Scelfo's two previous coaching stops at the University of Georgia (1996-98) and Marshall (1990-95), his teams advanced to postseason in seven of nine seasons while registering eight winning records.

At Georgia, Scelfo served as the Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line Coach while the Bulldogs recorded a 23-11 mark with appearances in the Outback Bowl (1997) and Peach Bowl (1998). He coached three offensive linemen who were first or second round NFL draft picks, including first-round selection Matt Stinchcomb and second-rounders Adam Meadows and Chris Terry.

During Scelfo's time at Marshall, the Thundering Herd reached the I-AA national semifinals five times, the national finals four times and won the 1992 national championship. He coached the Offensive Line from 1990-92 and was promoted to Offensive Coordinator from 1993-95, as well as maintaining his offensive line duties. As Offensive Coordinator, Marshall led the Southern Conference in scoring all three years while grabbing the top spot in total offense for two seasons.

Scelfo began his coaching career as a Graduate Assistant at his alma mater, now the University of Louisiana at Monroe. The Indians won the I-AA national title in 1987, which came on the heels of his playing career at the school then known as Northeast Louisiana. From 1988-98, Scelfo was a Graduate Assistant at Oklahoma.

At NLU, Scelfo was a three-year letterman at center who served as a captain his senior season.

Scelfo and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Sarah Beth, and one son, Joseph. He is the co-author of Fourth And New Orleans, the story of the Tulane Green Wave during and after Hurricane Katrina and is also a member of the Italian-American Hall of Fame.

ERIC SUTULOVICH
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Eric Sutulovich comes to the Falcons in his first season as Assistant Special Teams Coach and will work closely with Special Teams Coordinator Keith Armstrong.

Sutulovich has logged five previous seasons in the NFL including a one-year stint as Offensive Assistant with the Detroit Lions last year. He originally entered the League with the Houston Texans in its inaugural season as the Assistant Special Teams Coach and stayed for four total seasons (2002-05). Over that four-year span, the Texans ranked first in the League in punts downed inside the 20-yard line (120), fourth in opponent punt return yard average (7.4), sixth in the AFC in kickoff touchbacks (30) and seventh in the conference in kickoff return average (22.1).

In-between his time with the Texans and Lions, Sutulovich spent one season as a Football Assistant for the University of Kansas. He also spent time in the collegiate ranks with Fort Scott Community College as the Offensive Coordinator (2001), the University of Pittsburgh as the Offensive Graduate Assistant (2000-01) and Louisiana Tech as the Offensive Graduate Assistant from 1997-99.

In his time at Pittsburgh, the Panthers finished third in the Big East Conference and competed in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl. The Pittsburgh offense ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency and 18th in total passing.

In 2000, Sutulovich served as the Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator for the Indoor Football League's Casper Cavalry.

Sutulovich and his wife, Melissa, have two daughters, Sage (5) and Ellie (3) and one son, Maddox (1).

GLENN THOMAS
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

At the age of 25, Glenn Thomas was already serving as an Offensive Coordinator for Midwestern State just three seasons after serving as a Graduate Assistant for the Mustangs. The 11-year coaching veteran continues to apply that same hard-working attitude and dedication to the NFL in his second season with the Falcons as Offensive Assistant.

Thomas assisted Offensive Coordinator Mike Mularkey as the Falcons offense soared to new heights in 2008. The offense finished the season ranked second in the NFL in rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and ranked sixth in total offense (361.2 yards per game). The offense had three players earn postseason awards with QB Matt Ryan earning Associated Press and Sporting News Rookie of the Year, and both RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White earning their first Pro Bowl selections.

From 2001-07, Thomas spent his coaching tenure at Midwestern State. As a Graduate Assistant coaching wide receivers (2001-04), the Mustangs won the Lone Star North Division Championship in his first season while ranking third in the NCAA in total offense, averaging 523.6 yards per game. Thomas oversaw the school's passing game and quarterbacks in the 2004 campaign and helped guide MSU to its first NCAA playoff appearance in school history while recording an 8-3 record. That same season, Mustangs quarterback Daniel Polk earned Freshman of the Year honors.

Thomas transformed Midwestern State's offense into a powerhouse while serving as Offensive Coordinator from 2005-07. In 2006, the team led all Division II teams with 470.1 yards of total offense per game, but more impressively led the entire NCAA in total offense (550.0 yards per game) and rushing (317.0 yards per game) in 2007. The Mustangs' scoring offense averaged 44.5 points per game and the team's plus-15 turnover margin ranked sixth in the NCAA. In 2007, Polk also earned first team All-America honors.

THOMAS' COACHING BACKGROUND:

- 2008-09 OFF. ASSISTANT // Falcons
 2005-07 OFF. COORD./QBs // Midwestern St.
 2004 OFF. COORD. // Wichita Falls Thunder
 2001-04 GRADUATE ASSISTANT // Midwestern St.
 1998-01 STUDENT ASSISTANT // Texas Tech

Thomas worked diligently to perfect his craft as the Texas Tech graduate found time to work with the Baltimore Ravens in-between seasons at Midwestern State. He was responsible for working with last year receivers (2002-03, '05) and during his last year with the Ravens he helped out with Baltimore's quarterbacks along with current UCLA Head Coach Rick Neuheisel. It was also at Baltimore where he was introduced to current Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. Thomas must have attracted Smith's eye as the two also worked together during Smith's tenure with the Jacksonville Jaguars. For one season (2004), Thomas also served as the Offensive Coordinator for the Wichita Falls Thunder, a National Indoor Football League team that competed during the summer months.

Following his graduation from Texas Tech, Thomas began his coaching career as a Student Assistant from 1998-2001. With the Red Raiders, he assisted in the supervision of the daily performance of running backs and took care of day-to-day operations such as pre-practice, post-practice and station work.

A native of Eastland, Texas, Thomas was an all-district selection in football, basketball and baseball at Eastland High. He is married to the former Felicia Gooch.

JEFF FISH*DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

As an innovative General Manager, Thomas Dimitroff did not hesitate to hire Jeff Fish as the Falcons Director of Athletic Performance in 2008. Fish is the only employee among all NFL teams with the unique title as he directs all aspects of Falcons physical development, injury prevention, rehabilitation and nutrition among other responsibilities. This model led to a significant decrease in player surgeries and games missed by starters in Fish's first season with the team.

Fish now enters his second year with Atlanta after spending the previous four seasons (2004-07) as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Oakland Raiders.

Before joining the Silver & Black, Fish was the Director of Strength and Conditioning at the University of Missouri (2001-03) where he oversaw a program that worked with nearly 500 student-athletes from 20 Missouri sports teams.

Fish's second stint in the NFL came with the Kansas City Chiefs as a Strength and Conditioning Intern in 1998. After one season, he was promoted to Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach where he served from 1999-2000. He earned his start in the League with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a Strength and Conditioning Intern in 1997.

Fish spent eight seasons in the college ranks with four different schools. The certified strength and conditioning specialist started his coaching journey with Western Michigan University as a Graduate Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach in 1989. He served as an Assistant Strength Coach at Clemson University from 1991-93 and then moved on to Kent State as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach from 1993-95. Fish's last stop at the collegiate ranks came at the University of Tulsa where he served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach from 1995-97.

The Ithaca, N.Y. native competed as a wide receiver at Western Carolina. Fish and his wife, Rachel, have one daughter, Whitney.

Bill Hughan enters his second season with the Atlanta Falcons as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. Hughan works closely with Director of Athletic Performance Jeff Fish to ensure the strength and conditioning efforts for the team are met throughout the year.

From 2004-07, Hughan served as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Oakland Raiders under Falcons Director of Athletic Performance Jeff Fish. Hughan also worked with Fish at the University of Missouri from 2001-03 where he assisted in guiding over 500 Missouri student athletes.

Hughan began his coaching career at Yale University as an assistant from 1997-98. He then served as a Graduate Assistant at Columbia University for two years (1999-2000) and in-between the season during the summer, worked with the Omaha Royals, the AAA affiliate of the Kansas City Royals.

FALCONS

Ron Medlin embarks his 16th season as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Falcons. He will continue to handle the medical needs of the team's athletic training department. Medlin is only the third Head Athletic Trainer in team history. Prior to coming to the Falcons, Medlin was the assistant athletic trainer for the Cleveland Browns from 1989-93. He also served an internship with the Falcons for six seasons in the 1980s. His experience in his field has also extended to the collegiate level where he served as the head football trainer at Memphis University for two years. Medlin holds a B.S. degree in education from N.C. State and a M.S. in physical education from Memphis. He and his wife, Candace, and their son, Stevenson Ronald, and daughter, Mya Angelica, live in Suwanee, Georgia.

Andre Tucker enters his second season with the Falcons as Assistant Athletic Trainer. Along with treating and rehabbing players, Tucker is responsible for assisting Head Athletic Trainer, Ron Medlin, with daily operations. He also assists in ordering supplies and is in charge of hiring summer and seasonal assistants. Prior to joining the Falcons, Tucker spent four seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars in the same capacity handling team X-Rays and travel preparation. Tucker earned his start in the NFL as a seasonal assistant with the Miami Dolphins from 2003-04. This past offseason, Tucker and his wife, Melinda, welcomed a new born son, Amari. The Tucker family resides in Braselton, Georgia.

Scott Kneller enters his first season as Rehabilitation Coordinator for the Falcons. His responsibilities include implementing individualized rehabilitation programs for the players while assisting the training staff in the overall care of the team. Prior to joining the Falcons, Kneller served as a physical therapist for Athletes' Performance in Tempe, Arizona from 2007-09. He provided integrated rehabilitation services for many NFL veterans, NFL Scouting Combine invitees as well as players in the NBA, MLB and NHL. Kneller also spent time as a physical therapist for the Mexican National Soccer Team from 2008-09 and traveled with the team during their FIFA World Cup Qualification matches. Kneller and his wife, Amy, reside in Buford, Georgia.

Les Snead begins his 11th season with the Falcons personnel department and the first under his new title of Director of Player Personnel. After taking this new role in January, Snead will oversee both the college and pro scouting efforts and will work closely with Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff. He also plays a day-to-day role in the analysis and evaluation of the Falcons current roster and provides salary value analysis of all player acquisitions, while aiding in the research on how to acquire future free agents.

Snead came to Atlanta from Jacksonville, where he worked in the pro scouting department for the Jaguars from 1995-97. During his NFL career, he has participated in one Super Bowl appearance (with the Falcons) and three Conference Championship Games.

With 19 years of scouting and player personnel experience, Lionel Vital's hard work and dedication will be put to use again for his second season as the Falcons Assistant Director of Player Personnel. Vital continues to work closely with General Manager Thomas Dimitroff on most college scouting matters as he is an integral part of the personnel decision making team. Vital's responsibilities also include evaluating the top 150 college players in a national scouting capacity. He will also grade the top unrestricted NFL free agents at all positions and work on comparatives, as well as special projects with Dimitroff.

From 2005-07, Vital served in his second stint with the Ravens and covered schools across the country as a National Scout while being responsible for reporting on defensive linemen. During his time in Baltimore, he was honored with the inaugural Fritz Pollard Alliance Scouting Award, which is given to the top African American scout each in the AFC and NFC.

Les played tight end for Auburn from 1992-93 and was part of the Tigers' perfect 11-0 team in 1993. He also earned Southeast Region Academic All-American honors during his college career. This 38-year-old native of Eufaula, Ala., was a graduate assistant at Auburn after his playing days were over. Snead also was an administrative assistant of football operations at his alma mater in 1995.

He holds a bachelors of science degree in Psychology and planned to attend medical school until he was offered a graduate assistant coaching position at his alma mater. While working as a graduate assistant he received a Master's of Education degree. He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside with their son, Logan, and daughter, Cannon, in Braselton, Georgia.

Vital served as the Assistant Director of College Scouting with the New England Patriots from 2001-04 after maintaining duties as a National College Scout in 2000. It was during his tenure with New England that he worked directly with Vice President of Player Personnel Scott Pioli and Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff.

Prior to his stint in New England, Vital spent three seasons as a talent scout with the New York Jets, covering the Southeast region from 1997-99. He entered the scouting ranks with the Cleveland Browns in 1991 and spent five seasons as a talent Scout, after being hired by Head Coach Bill Belichick. Vital followed Belichick and the Browns when the team moved to Baltimore for its inaugural season in 1996, working as a College Scout. For two seasons (1990-91) Vital was the Director of Player Personnel for the Montreal Machine in the World League of American Football.

A native of Loreauville, Louisiana, Vital graduated from Nicholls State and was selected by the Washington Redskins as a running back in the seventh round of the 1985 NFL Draft.

Ran Carthon begins his second season with the Falcons as a Pro Scout in charge of advance scouting for 15 teams. Carthon joins the scouting ranks following a three-year playing career in the NFL. Carthon broke into the NFL in 2004 as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Indianapolis Colts. His best campaign came in 2005 when he competed in six games for the Colts and rushed for his first career touchdown against Jacksonville. From 1999-2003, Carthon competed at the University of Florida. Carthon's father, Maurice, currently serves as the Assistant Head Coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. Ran and his wife, Heaven Beiene-Carthon, have two daughters, Raven and Rhea.

DeJuan Polk will enter the 2009 campaign as a Pro Scout for the Falcons in his second stint in that role. He is responsible for scouting all professional leagues, including 15 NFL teams and advance scouting. Last year, Polk served as a College Scout covering the Midwest Region and conferences such as the Big Ten and MAC. Polk started his tenure with the Falcons in 2006 as a Pro Personnel Assistant. He was responsible for assisting the personnel department, coordinating free agent workouts, maintaining the "short-list" and advance scouting of future opponents. The following season, Polk was promoted to Pro Scout for the Falcons and kept the same duties. In 2005, Polk served as the Defensive Tackles Coach at South Carolina State. Polk was a four-year letterman at defensive tackle for Clemson University during his collegiate campaign from 1999-2003.

David Caldwell enters his second season with the Falcons as Director of College Scouting. He has served in the NFL for 13 years, 10 of which came with the Indianapolis Colts. Caldwell oversees Atlanta's College Area and Regional Scouts. He also assimilates the information he receives and presents it to General Manager Thomas Dimitroff with a goal to make the NFL Draft as effective as possible. Caldwell is also responsible for scouting the top talent in the country.

From 2006-07, Caldwell was the Western Regional Scout with Indianapolis covering major college football conferences, including the Pac 10, Big 10 and Big 12. Coming from a successful Colts franchise that claimed a victory in Super Bowl XLI against the Chicago Bears, Caldwell was part of a scouting team that accounted for multiple starters and Pro Bowl players. In 1998, he got his start with Indianapolis, serving as an Area Scout and remained in that role for the following seven seasons. Caldwell covered the Midwest and West Coast regions. In 1996, Caldwell broke into the NFL with the Carolina Panthers as a Scouting Assistant where he spent two seasons. He served as a liaison between the College Scouting Director and multiple Area Scouts while focusing on draft preparations.

Caldwell is a graduate of John Carroll University, earning a Bachelors degree in Finance/Business Administration. He was a two-year letterman as an outside linebacker helping the Blue Streaks to an Ohio Athletic Conference title in 1994. A native of Buffalo, New York, Caldwell and his wife, Joelle, have one son, David Michael II.

Marvin Allen enters his first season with the Falcons as the Eastern Regional Scout. A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, Allen spent the last 16 seasons with the New England Patriots, including his last 12 in the player personnel department as an Area Scout. He was responsible for the collection of data on all prospects in his assigned region. Allen is a graduate of Tulane University and was selected by the Patriots in the 11th round (294th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft. In four seasons with New England, he rushed for 378 yards and two touchdowns on 94 carries (4.0 avg.).

Mark Olson will begin his 12th year with the Falcons player personnel department in 2009 and his first season as Western Regional Scout after serving five years scouting the West for the club. Prior to joining the college scouting department, he served three years as a pro scout with the team where he was responsible for advance scouting, as well as evaluating players and assisting the club in its preparation for free agent acquisitions. Olson originally joined the Falcons in 1998 as a scouting assistant. His past experience has included stints with the Washington Redskins, Minnesota Vikings, and Montreal of the CFL. Olson graduated from the University of Wisconsin-River Falls with a degree in Journalism in 1996. He earned his masters degree in Sports Management from the University of Minnesota in 1997.

Bob Harrison is in his 14th year as a Falcons scout but also served in a previous coaching role in Atlanta. Harrison was the Falcons Receivers Coach from 1983-86 while coaching two years with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1992-93) and three years with the University of Georgia (1988-91). He was the Receivers Coach at Boston College from 1994-96 and also had coaching stopovers at North Carolina State for two years and Tennessee for seven years. As a player, Harrison was an All-MAC receiver at Kent State. His coaching experience spanned 33 years in college, the NFL and at the high school level. Bob concentrates on the Atlantic Coast part of the country in his scouting duties. He and his wife, Faye, reside in nearby Athens, Georgia.

Shepley Heard begins his fifth season with the Falcons player personnel department and his second year as an Area Scout, responsible for scouting in the Southwest part of the country (Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri). Prior to his move West, Shepley served as a scouting assistant in the pro personnel department in 2005 before being promoted to Pro Scout in the spring of 2006. As a Pro Scout, his duties included advance scouting future opponents, watching and grading free agent players as well as scouting the Arena and Canadian Football Leagues. Heard played safety and special teams at the University of Central Oklahoma from 1997 to 2001. He currently resides in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

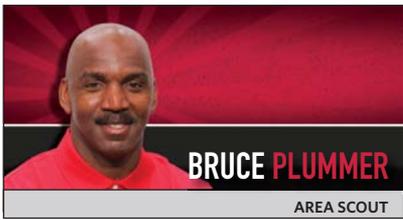

Bob Kronenberg enters his first season with the Atlanta Falcons as an Area Scout with the responsibility of evaluating college prospects in a regional and national capacity. Kronenberg spent seven seasons with the Georgia Force of the AFL serving as the Assistant Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator from 2003-08. In 2005, the Force defense topped the League in touchdown passes against (67) while the team made an ArenaBowl appearance. Prior to joining the Force staff, he served as an Assistant Coach with the Nashville Kats of the AFL in 2001. Kronenberg attended St. Cloud State (MN) and was a standout in football and track. Following his graduation, he was signed as a rookie free agent by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1993. Kronenberg's playing career also includes four seasons in NFL Europa, three years in the Canadian Football League and a training camp appearance with the Washington Redskins in 1998.

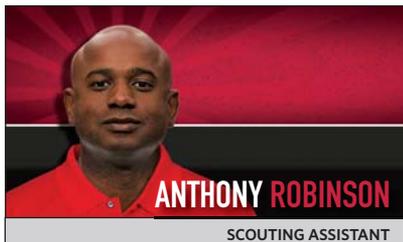

Robinson Payne enters his second season with the Falcons and first as a college scout. In 2009, he will be responsible for covering the Northeast area. Last season, he served as a Pro Scout for the Falcons and was in charge of scouting for 15 teams, the AFL and CFL. Payne's past experience includes a two-year stint with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the CFL from (1996-97) as the Running Backs and Special Teams Coach. From 1993-94, he was with the Sacramento Gold Miners as the Linebackers Coach when the CFL competed in the United States. From 1990-91, Payne was the Graduate Assistant/Running Backs Coach at the University of Texas. A graduate of Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas, Payne played free safety for four years (1985-89) for the Wildcats.

Taylor Morton enters his 10th year with the Falcons player personnel department and is responsible for scouting the Southeastern states for the club. Prior to becoming a college scout, Morton served in pro personnel as an advance scout for Falcons opponents, as well as evaluating future free agent prospects for the team and scouting other professional leagues, including the NFL, NFL Europa and the CFL. He joined the Falcons after coaching eight years in the college ranks. His stints included Auburn University, Hinds CC, Pearl River CC and Southern Miss. Morton earned both a Masters and a B.S. degree in sports administration. He is a native of the Destin, Florida area where he attended Niceville High School and was a member of the 1988 4A state championship football team. He and his wife, Carissa, have two sons, Thomas and Joshua. They reside in Dacula, Georgia.

Bruce Plummer enters his 10th season with the Falcons scouting department in 2009 after joining the club from the Carolina Cobras of the Arena League, where he served as Secondary Coach in 2000. Plummer takes care of the scouting needs in the Midwest for the team. Plummer offers a wealth of professional playing experience, spending five years (1987-91) in the NFL with the Denver Broncos, Miami Dolphins, Indianapolis Colts, Philadelphia Eagles and San Francisco 49ers. He also added two seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Winnipeg Bombers and B.C. Lions and four years in the Arena Football League. Plummer directs a youth football camp in his hometown of Bogalusa, La. He and his wife, Leslie, reside in Dacula, Georgia, with their daughters, Madison and Mia.

Anthony Robinson enters his second season with the Falcons as a Scouting Assistant. He will work closely with the Director of College Scouting on draft preparation along with scouting schools on the road, developing "Point of Attack Tapes," draft board preparation and maintaining some pro scouting duties. Prior to arriving in Atlanta, he worked with BLESTO Scouting as a Scouting Assistant Intern in 2007. Robinson served as an Undergraduate Assistant Coach with Florida State University (2005-07), working with the team's wide receivers. In 2006, Anthony worked with the Baltimore Ravens player personnel department as an intern during training camp. He played running back at Morgan State University before later transferring to FSU where he earned his bachelors degree in Sports Management. Anthony and his wife, Chanae, have two children, Asia and Averi.

The 2009 season marks the 13th for Brian Boigner as Atlanta's Equipment Manager. He is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced protective equipment and footwear, as well as ordering and organizing the team's inventory of apparel and equipment. Boigner also serves as the team's liaison with the NFL's sole uniform and apparel provider, Reebok. Prior to joining the Falcons, Boigner spent five years as the Assistant Equipment Manager for the New York Giants. He also served as the Assistant Equipment Manager for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (1991-92). He has a son, Bryce (11) and a daughter, Sarah (8). Boigner is married to Tema and they reside in the city of Atlanta.

Mike Crews begins his ninth season as the team's Video Director and 12th year overall with the Falcons. Crews joined the Falcons after working at Georgia Tech. He puts into motion the team's weekly game plan by filming each game and practice and editing it for players and coaches to review. Crews also breaks down the opponents' weekly game film for the team to analyze and is responsible for overseeing the digital video system. He also does game analysis that includes creating a database as well as the reports for the coaching staff. A native of Decatur, Ga., he received his Management degree with a minor in Marketing from Georgia Tech in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, and their son, Bailey, as well as daughters, Kelsey and Caitlyn, reside in Braselton, Georgia.

Jimmy Hay has been a fixture around the Falcons locker room since he served as a ball boy when he was just 12 years old. Hay's experience in the equipment room started in 1990 as he helped out after school each day. He served as an intern with the department in 1995 and was hired full-time in 1997. During the spring of 1996 and 1997, he worked in NFL Europa as Assistant Equipment Manager with the Frankfurt Galaxy and as Equipment Manager of the Amsterdam Admirals. A Georgia native, Hay was an all-county selection as a third baseman for the North Gwinnett High School baseball team. He and his wife, Heidi, reside in Sugar Hill, Georgia with sons, Mike and Jake.

Jimmy Luck will play a key role in the team's equipment department. Prior to joining the Falcons and Georgia Force of the AFL, Luck served as an Equipment Manager in the college ranks for The Citadel. Luck began his career in professional football in 2002 when he served as the Equipment Manager for the af2's Charleston Swamp Foxes. His previous experience includes working as coordinator of baseball operations for the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1996 to 1998 and as a sales rep. for Rawlings Sporting Goods, covering Tennessee from 1998 to 2000. Luck is a 1995 graduate of Georgia Tech, where he earned his degree in Management.

John Roveto has accumulated a tremendous amount of NFL experience as he enters his 11th season with the Falcons as Assistant Equipment Manager. Roveto's responsibilities include the upkeep of Falcons uniforms and helmets, maintaining the team's equipment and sideline apparel, assisting in the transportation of equipment and uniforms and working with the coaching staff to facilitate practice drills. For four seasons (2005-08), Roveto also served as the Equipment Manager for the Georgia Force of the Arena Football League. He was responsible for properly outfitting players as well as ordering and maintaining the team's equipment and apparel. A native of Atlanta, Roveto currently resides in Braselton, Georgia.

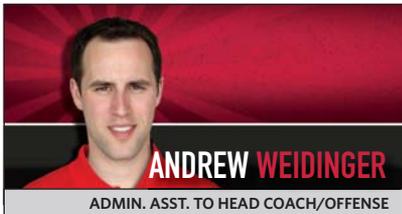

Phillip Tiemann enters his fifth season in the Falcons video department. Tiemann is responsible for recording practices and games and then distributing the tapes to the coaching staff and front office personnel for review. His experience includes stints as an intern with the Falcons in 2005 and with the University of Arkansas as a student assistant in 2004. Tiemann earned his degree in Broadcast Journalism from the University of Arkansas. He lives in Buford, Georgia.

Daniel Wayne begins his second season with the Falcons as a Video Assistant. His duties include copying game footage, taping practice, working on the team's new editing software system and delivering necessary footage to coaches and players. Prior to joining the Falcons, Wayne served as a video intern with the Minnesota Vikings in 2007 maintaining the same responsibilities. Wayne graduated from the University of Wisconsin and was a student assistant in the video department for the Badgers from 2002-06, working with several sports including football. A native of Decatur, Illinois, Wayne graduated from St. Teresa High School where he got his start in video working as the Head Video Coordinator for the boy's varsity basketball team. He also played baseball during his prep years.

Karl Pierburg enjoys his fifth anniversary with the Falcons in 2009 after working for the Chicago Bears for three seasons as IT Manager for Football Systems. During his time in Chicago, Pierburg handled extensive development work on coaching systems and college and pro scouting systems. He developed a system that allowed area scouts to manage rosters, write scouting reports and access other pertinent information. Karl is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University with a double major in Mathematics and Computer Science. He was a four-year letterman in football, earning first team honors as an offensive guard while also being named to the academic all-conference first team. Karl and his wife, Kathy, have two young daughters, Anna, and Ellie, and a young son, Jonathan.

Andrew Weidinger will enter his second season as Administrative Assistant to the Head Coach/Offense, providing administrative help to Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. He will also lend a hand with the Falcons offense, undertaking such duties as managing data, research, daily practice scripts, schedules and calendars. Weidinger joined the Falcons in 2007 as a personnel scout. Prior to arriving in Atlanta, he spent seven seasons at the University of Arizona, where he served in a number of positions, including Assistant Director of Football Operations. Weidinger received a degree in Political Science in May 2004 and completed his master's degree in Information Resources and Library Sciences in May 2007. He spent late summer and early fall of 2006 in a preseason internship with the Falcons.

Nick Polk enters his second season as Director of Football Administration and sixth year overall with the Falcons. From 2004-07, Polk served as the team's Director of Football Operations. Polk will work closely with General Manager Thomas Dimitroff on all contract proposals, negotiations and salary cap management. Polk will also help coordinate the Falcons compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement and labor related issues. Polk was responsible for all aspects of football operations for the Georgia Force for three seasons. Prior to working with the Force, he served as the Director of Football Administration before moving to the role of Senior Director of Football Operations for NFL Europe. He held coaching stints at Lock Haven University (Head Coach), James Madison, Brown, Delaware State and Southern Connecticut. Polk earned a degree in Health and Physical Education from Lock Haven and went on to gain a master's degree in Physical Education/Higher Education from JMU. Polk lives in Braselton, Georgia with his wife, Michelle and two daughters, Maddie (9) and Michaela (7).

ATLANTA FALCONS

Chris DiPierri enters his third season with the Atlanta Falcons as Director of Retail. DiPierri is directly responsible for the future direction of Falcons 365. He handles all aspects of purchasing, operations, marketing, advertising, and business development for the Atlanta Falcons retail division. DiPierri previously worked as Director of Retail Development and Operations for Clutch City Sports and Entertainment, where his expertise was needed for the inauguration of the Toyota Center and the development of the Houston Rockets/Houston Comets retail business entities. One of the many highlights of DiPierri's four years in Houston was his orchestration of all retail aspects for the 2006 NBA All-Star game. Prior to his work in Houston, DiPierri worked as the Director of Merchandising for the New York Islanders Hockey Club where his duties included overseeing all retail elements of the New York Islanders (NHL), New York Dragons (AFL), and New Haven Ninjas (af2).

Rob Geoffroy will embark on his fourth season as the team's Controller after displaying a strong background in sports business management, accounting, finance, and operations. Geoffroy is the Chief Financial Officer of the Falcons retail business and Falcons Physical Therapy Centers. He also served in the same capacity with the Georgia Force of the AFL from 2006-2008. Geoffroy began his career with the NBA's Boston Celtics in the finance department and then moved over to accounting for the NHL's New Jersey Devils Stanley Cup Championship in 1995 before returning to the Celtics. He left the Celtics after a total of nine seasons as Director of Accounting & Operations to become the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer of International Healthcare. A graduate of Bentley College, Geoffroy and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters, Kathryn and Samantha. The Geoffroy family resides in Suwanee, Georgia.

Frank Kleha enters his 23rd season with the Falcons and sixth year in his role as Senior Director of Media Relations. Some of Kleha's duties include helping to arrange media interviews for players, coaches and front office personnel with local and national reporters from newspapers, television, radio stations, and respected internet sites. Kleha works directly on the yearly programming needs of broadcasting partners, WXIA-TV, and Dave FM and is also the club's publications Managing Editor for the Media Guide, NFL Gameday Program, and team's Yearbook. Kleha graduated from Georgia Mason University and also worked in GMU's sports information office prior to coming to Atlanta. His NFL background also includes a stint with the Washington Redskins. He and his wife, Wendy, reside with their son, Cody, and daughter, Allie, in Roswell, Georgia.

Debbie Knowlan joined the Atlanta Falcons in November of 2008 as the Director of Customer Service. In this role she is responsible for personalizing customer service dedicated to all Falcons season ticket holders. Prior to joining the organization, Knowlan served as the Director of Season Ticket Services and Retention for the Miami Heat of the NBA, working in a similar capacity. She also worked for The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands as the Manager of Guest Activities and in Miami at the Caribbean & Mexico corporate office as a Sales and Marketing Coordinator. Knowlan graduated from Indiana University with a BS in parks and recreation with an emphasis toward management. She resides in Atlanta, Georgia.

Dan Levak enters his 10th season with the Falcons in 2009. In his current role, Levak directs the Falcons' interactive marketing efforts, including the evaluation of emerging technology, managing the digital media staff and maintaining a cutting-edge postproduction digital video studio. Under Levak's guidance, AtlantaFalcons.com was named "best overall NFL website" by the NFL Internet Network in 2005. The Cleveland, Ohio native holds a bachelor's degree in Business Psychology and minor in Journalism from Miami University. He also completed his postgraduate work in public relations at The Ohio State University. Following a year covering the Browns, Indians and Cavaliers for The Cleveland Plain Dealer's online property, www.cleveland.com, Levak joined the Falcons as an interactive producer in 2000. Levak and his wife, Christine, reside in Flowery Branch, Georgia.

Kendyl Baugh Moss is entering her seventh season with the Falcons and the third as Director of Community Relations. In this capacity, Moss is responsible for community initiatives, player outreach and youth football programming, as well as the Cheerleader and Jr. Cheerleader programs. Kendyl assumes this position after three years of serving as the Manager of Event Marketing for the Falcons and one year as Program Officer for the AFYF. Prior to her role with the Falcons, Moss was the Assistant Director of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship and Final Four. Before working with the NCAA, she served as the assistant director of championships/marketing for Conference USA. Moss earned her B.S. in Speech Communications at the University of Texas. She also holds a M.A. in Corporate Communications from DePaul University. Moss and her husband, Cory, reside in Smyrna, Georgia with their son, Kellen, and daughter, Kolby.

Mike Gilnsen enters his fifth season with the Atlanta Falcons and the first in his new role as the Director of Ticket Operations. In this capacity, Gilnsen will oversee all aspects of ticket operations, including the management of all seat inventory and revenue reporting. From 2005-08, he served as the Assistant Director of Ticket Operations for the Falcons following a 10-year period with the Carolina Hurricanes of the NHL overseeing ticket operations. A graduate of Clemson University, Mike and his wife Keri have a son, Jack and a daughter, Mackenzie. The Gilnsen family resides in Powder Springs, Georgia.

Don Rovak came to the Falcons in 2008 and enters his second season as Director of Ticket Sales and Service. In Rovak's first year with the Falcons, he created a staff that led the NFL by selling more new season tickets than any other team. In addition to the season ticket initiative, Rovak created a new group sales department in 2009. Previously, he was Vice President of Marketing & Ticketing for the Memphis Redbirds Triple A baseball team before landing in the NFL. Under Rovak's leadership, the Redbirds opened AutoZone Park in 2000 and finished first or second in ballpark attendance each year. Prior to his first stint with the Redbirds, Rovak created a new ticket sales department at the Memphis Motorsports Park and was responsible for selling out their NASCAR and NHRA events. Rovak graduated from Indiana University and he and his wife, Carrie, currently reside in Atlanta with their two sons, Jared and Dustin.

Spencer Treadwell begins his seventh season as the team's Director of Logistics and Facilities. Treadwell continues to oversee all the logistical operations for the Falcons, including team travel, training camp and game operations and supervises the Falcons Headquarters in Flowery Branch. Treadwell will also serve as a liaison between football operations and the organization as a whole. His main task will be to coordinate the team's various intradepartmental efforts. Treadwell also served as the NFL liaison for the League during Super Bowl XLIII. He joined the organization's marketing department in 1995 and transitioned into logistics during the Falcons run to Super Bowl XXXIII in 1998. Treadwell is a graduate of Tucker High School and received his Business Administration degree from Presbyterian College in 1995. Spencer and his wife, Julie, are the proud parents of two daughters, Avery and Alli and one son, Zach. The Treadwell's reside in Buford, GA.

Kevin Winston enters his fifth season with the Falcons in 2009. Before his arrival to Atlanta, Winston spent five seasons with the New York Jets in the player development department. Last year, Winston and the Falcons were the winners of the Outstanding Career Development Program, which focuses on players gaining exposure to business opportunities, interests outside of football and work in the community. He also oversaw a 2008 rookie class that won the Rookie Class Commitment Award sponsored by Diet Pepsi. Some of Winston's responsibilities include helping players with career counseling, financial and family matters and post-football career options. During his stint in New York, the NFL honored Winston with the "most outstanding player development department" in the 2003-04 season. Kevin and his wife, Dana have one son, Matthew Kevin.

Karen Walters begins her sixth season with the Falcons and second as Director of Human Resources. Walters was hired by the club in 2003 as Human Resources Manager. She boasts over 20 years of service in the Human Resources field and her career began at the age of 19 as a human resources intern with Unisys Corporation, a Fortune 100 IT firm. After graduating from Oglethorpe University in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration and Behavioral Science, Walters joined Electrolux Corporation as a Benefits Administrator. Her current role with the Falcons involves implementing a comprehensive human resources strategy across all of the Arthur M. Blank Family of Businesses, including strategies such as associate development, performance management, and succession planning. Walters and her husband, Tommy, have one daughter Madalyn (15), and a son, Ross (12) and reside in Dawsonville, Georgia.

Roddy White is a veteran of 14 years in the NFL and various major sporting events. He begins his eighth season as Director of Event Marketing with the Falcons. White is responsible for the club's special events, game presentation, creative services, mascot program and client services. Under White's stewardship, the Falcons have attracted star acts in various music genres such as James Brown, Ashanti, Sugarland, The Temptations, Travis Tritt, Ludacris, LeAnn Rimes, NeYo and the Pointer Sisters as regular performers at home games. Prior to his appointment with the Falcons, he spent six seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as the club's Director of Special Events and Promotions. A graduate of the University of Georgia, he lives with his wife, Patti, and daughters, Whitney and Sydney, in Alpharetta, Georgia.

TIM ZULAWSKI

DIRECTOR OF SPONSORSHIP SALES

Tim Zulawski begins his seventh season in the Falcons marketing/sales staff and his fourth year as Director of Sponsorship Sales. In his role, he leads the initiative to develop corporate partnerships for the Falcons. Prior to coming to the Falcons, Zulawski was the Senior Corporate Sales Manager for two seasons with Palace Sports & Entertainment in charge of negotiating sponsorships for the Tampa Bay Lightning, Tampa Bay Storm and the St. Pete Times Forum. His NFL career started in public relations with the Buffalo Bills as a high school senior. The native of Buffalo, New York holds a Management Information Systems Degree from SUNY in Fredonia and a master's degree in Sports Management from Springfield College. His wife, Arleen, keeps sports marketing in the family as she is a Sr. Sponsorship Manager for Velocity Sports & Entertainment. The Zulawski's live in Duluth, Georgia.

BIRTHDATE: 5/6/78    COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected as a first round (13th pick overall) draft choice by the New York Jets in the 2000 NFL Draft, which was acquired in a trade with Tampa Bay. In exchange for WR Keyshawn Johnson, the Jets obtained first round draft choices #13 and #27 (TE Anthony Becht). Abraham was the third linebacker taken overall in 2000 (following Washington's selection of LaVar Arrington and Chicago's pick of Brian Urlacher).
- Traded to the Falcons in exchange for Atlanta's 2006 first round pick (#29), which was acquired from Denver.

CAREER

- Set a franchise record with 16.5 sacks in 2008 while finishing third in the NFL in the category. Totaled three-sack performances in Weeks 1, 9 and 15.
- Named Associated Press second-team All-Pro in 2008.
- Led the Falcons with 10.0 sacks in 2007, marking the fourth time in his career he has recorded double-digit sack seasons. It was also Atlanta's first double-digit sack year since 2005. Abraham also became the sixth Falcons player in franchise history to finish with a double-digit sack season.
- Ranks second in the league among active players in sacks from 2000-2008 with 84.0.
- His 31 career forced fumbles rank fourth in the NFL from 2000-2008.
- A three-time Pro Bowl selection at defensive end (2001-2002 and 2004).
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (1) in the season opener against Carolina in 2006, marking the third time he had received Player of the Week honors in his career - AFC Defensive Player of the Week: 2001 (9), 2004 (4).

SACKS

(NFL Leaders 2000-08, Active Players)

JOHN ABRAHAM ■
OTHER NFL ■

- Earned Player of the Month on two occasions in his career - 2001 (November), 2004 (October).
- Tied a Jets franchise record (Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau) for the most sacks in a game when he sacked Saints QB Aaron Brooks four times (11/4/01) at the Superdome in a Jets' win.

2008 (FALCONS)

- Set a new franchise record and career-high for sacks in a season with 16.5, topping Joel Williams' previous mark of 16.0 (1980).
- Named an Associated Press second-team All-Pro.
- Started all 16 contests and finished the season with 42 tackles (35 solo), 16.5 sacks for a loss of 109.5 yards, four forced fumbles, one pass defended and one blocked punt against Carolina (9/28).
- Collared five tackles and three sacks (16 yards) vs. Detroit (9/7). His three sacks were the most in a single-game for him since 2004 (vs. Buffalo, 3.0).
- Posted two tackles, two sacks (11 yards) and one forced fumble vs. Kansas City (9/21) in his 100th career game.
- Logged three sacks (16 yards), one forced fumble and five tackles at Oakland (11/2) for a defense that recorded the first shut-out since 2002 at Carolina (11/24).
- Recorded his third three-sack game this season

(33 yards) vs. Tampa Bay (12/14) while adding three tackles.

- Posted four tackles and added one sack at Minnesota (12/21). His sack gave him 16.5 on the year, which set a new single-season record in franchise history.

2007 (FALCONS)

- Led the Falcons with 10.0 sacks while adding 41 tackles (28 solo), four forced fumbles and four passes defended.
- Logged a season-high in tackles (six) and tied a season-high in sacks (two) vs. Carolina (9/23). The sacks marked the second time in his career that he posted three sacks in the first three games of a season.
- Recorded a sack (six yards) for the third consecutive regular season game in Week 4 vs. Houston (9/30) in addition to collaring three tackles and one forced fumble in the 26-16 victory.

- Posted two tackles and one sack (nine yards) at Tampa Bay (12/16) for a defensive unit that allowed a season-low 109 passing yards.

- Tallied three tackles, two sacks (11 yards) and one forced fumble vs. Seattle (12/30). His second sack of the game gave him 10.0 on the season, marking the fourth time in his career he has recorded a double-digit sack season.

2006 (FALCONS)

- Saw action in eight games with seven starts, tallying 20 tackles, four sacks, four forced fumbles and one pass defended despite being limited by a groin injury throughout the year.

JAMAAL ANDERSON

HT: 6' 6"	WT: 289	NFL EXP: 3	ACQ: D1-'07	3 RD YEAR WITH FALCONS
BIRTHDATE: 2/6/86		COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected as a first round (8th pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2007.

CAREER

- In his first two seasons in a Falcons uniform, has totaled 81 tackles (57 solo), two sacks, one forced fumble and six passes defended.

2008 (FALCONS)

- Started 15 games and finished the season with 36 tackles (28 solo), two sacks and three passes defended.

- Tied a career-high in tackles (seven) including a career-high six solo stops at Tampa Bay (9/14).

- Registered two tackles, two passes defended and his first career sack (four yards) vs. Chicago (10/12).

- Tallied two tackles and one sack (six yards) at Philadelphia (10/26).

- Recorded two tackles and blocked his first career field goal at San Diego (11/30).

2007 (FALCONS)

- In his rookie season, started all 16 games and finished with 45 tackles, three passes defended and one forced fumble.

- Collared four tackles and recorded his first career forced fumble at Tennessee (10/7). The fumble was recovered by CB DeAngelo Hall and returned 56 yards for a touchdown, giving the Falcons an early 7-0 lead.

- Collected seven tackles at Carolina (11/11) for a defensive unit that allowed a season-low 10 first downs in a 20-13 victory.

- Notched a career-high five solo tackles vs. Indianapolis (11/22).

- Tied a career-high with seven tackles at Tampa Bay (12/16).

COLLEGE

- Totaled 130 tackles and 17.5 sacks in his three-year career at Arkansas.

- In his senior season, recorded 13.5 sacks which ranked third in the nation and led the Southeastern Conference. Ranked sixth on the team with 65 tackles (44 solo) and finished second in the SEC and 12th in the nation with an average of 1.43 stops behind the line of scrimmage per game.

- Tallied 47 tackles (28 solo) with four sacks for -33 yards and ranked second on the squad with 10.5 stops for losses totaling 58 yards in his junior campaign. Earned SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors versus Mississippi State.

PERSONAL

- Attended Parkview (Little Rock, Ark.) High School and was a standout wide receiver and defensive end. Also added All-Junior Arkansas honors in addition to receiving All-Conference accolades. Voted the most outstanding receiver on his squad. Left as the all-time leading receiver at Parkview High history after eclipsing the mark held by former Green Bay Packers tight end Keith Jackson.

- Racked up 85 catches for 1,620 yards and 13 touchdowns.

- Owns career school records for the most receptions and most touchdown catches.

- Sociology major.

- Member of the 2004-05 Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll.

- Son of Karen and Glenn Anderson.

OTHER NFL

JASON ELAM, DEN (1998)	63
TOM DEMPSEY, NO (1970)	63
MATT BRYANT, TB (2006)	62

- Converted the second-longest field goal in Super Bowl history with a 51-yarder in Super Bowl XXXII (second to the 54-yarder Steve Christie of Buffalo made in Super Bowl XXVII).
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week four times (1998, 1999, 2004 and 2007) and earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Month award in November of 2001.

2008 (FALCONS)

- Converted 29 of 31 field goal attempts and all 42 PAT attempts for 129 points on the season, the second-highest point total in a campaign in Falcons history.
- His 129 points ranked fifth in the NFC, nine points shy of an Atlanta franchise record and three points away from his personal career-high (132 set in 1995).
- His 29 field goals were the third-most in a season in club annals and his .935 field goal percentage ranks second in a season in team history.
- Following a missed field goal against Chicago in Week 6, had split the uprights on 30 consecutive field goal attempts dating back to 2007.
- Tallied 10 points by connecting on two field goals (50 and 25) in addition to making all four PATs in his Falcons debut vs. Detroit (9/7).

- Recorded nine points at Carolina (9/28) by connecting on all three field goal attempts (33, 44 and 44). His second field goal of 44 yards marked his 100th career successful field goal between 40 and 49 yards.

- Tied career highs in points (16) and field goals made (five) vs. Chicago (10/12), including a game-winning 48-yard field goal as time expired. The field goal marked the 22nd game-winning field goal of his career.

- Notched 10 points by connecting on two field goals (22 and 27) and four PATs vs. New Orleans (11/9).

- Split the uprights on both of his field goal attempts and one PAT, which included his second game-winning kick of the season (34 yards) in overtime against Tampa Bay (12/14). His seven points gave him 116 for the season, which moved him into fourth place in team history in points for a season.

- Tacked on his 28th field goal this season with three seconds remaining in the first half at Minnesota (12/21). On top of three extra points, the veteran kicker finished with six points on the day, moving into a tie for the second-most points in a season with 122.

- Totaled seven points against St. Louis (12/28) to give him 129 for the season. Elam's total ranks second in scoring in a season and is the highest total since Jay Feely (138) in 2002.

2007 (BRONCOS)

- Scored in all 16 games, connecting on 27 of 31 field goal tries and all 33 extra point attempts for 114 points. At the Chargers (12/24), set the team record (John Elway — 234) for games played as a Bronco. He hit three game-winning field goals on the last play of those games as well as hitting one as time expired to send a game into OT.

- Nailed the game-winning 42-yard field goal as time expired for the 21st game-winning or game-saving kick of his career in the season opener at Buffalo. (9/9).

- Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in the home opener as he connected on field goals of 23, 20 and 23 yards and both extra points vs. Oakland (9/16).

- Reached the 1,700-point plateau faster than any player (224 games) as he tallied eight points (two FG and two PAT) at Indianapolis (9/30).

- Connected on field goals from 21 and 39 yards as well as all four extra point attempts on Monday Night Football vs. Tennessee (11/19) and moved into sixth all-time in points scored in the NFL with 1,746.

2006 (BRONCOS)

- In his 14th season with the Broncos, Elam moved into seventh place on the League's all-time field goals made list (368) and ninth on the League's all-time points scored list (1,672) as he connected on 27 of 29 field goal attempts (.931), setting a Denver single-season record for accuracy, along with all 34 extra-point attempts.

- Elam's 115 points ranked ninth in the NFL, and he became the first kicker in League history to post at least 100 points in each of his first 14 seasons. Elam scored at least once in every game to extend his scoring streak to 220 games (every game of his career), marking the second-longest such streak in League history.

- He accounted for all of the Broncos' points as he connected on three of four field goals, including a 39-yarder in overtime, in the home opener versus Kansas City (9/17).

- He tied Eddie Murray for eighth in League history with 352 successful field goals as he hit his lone attempt against Indianapolis (10/29) becoming the fastest in NFL history to reach the 1,600-point mark (211 games).

- At Arizona (12/17), he moved into a tie with Fred Cox (455) for 12th in League history in field goal attempts and passed Nick Lowery (562) to move into seventh place in league history in extra points made by making three field goals.

2005 (BRONCOS)

- Elam connected on 24 of 32 field goals (.750) and 43 of 44 extra points to total 115 points that ranked fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL among kickers. He also surpassed the 1,500-point plateau faster than any player in League history, doing so in just 197 games. With his performance versus New England (1/14) in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game, he became the Broncos postseason leader in field goals (15) and points (84).

- Elam converted both extra-point attempts and connected on field goals of 45 and 41 yards in the home opener against San Diego (9/18). The 41-yarder came with five seconds remaining in regulation and gave the Broncos a 20-17 win, marking the 18th game-winning field goal of his career.

- He set career highs in PAT attempts and conversions in a game by connecting on all seven extra-point attempts versus Philadelphia (10/30).
- At Oakland (11/13), he reached the 1,500-point plateau faster than any player in league history as he eclipsed the milestone with an extra point in the second quarter against the Raiders in his 197th career game.
- On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/24), Elam connected on his only field-goal attempt (24 yds.) in overtime as well as all three extra-point attempts. The overtime field goal was the 19th game-winning field goal of his career.
- In the season opener at Cincinnati (9/7), he made all three field-goal attempts (51, 27, 39) and totaled 12 points to eclipse the 1,200-point plateau (1,205), doing so in fewer games than any player in NFL history (157 games).
- Against Pittsburgh (10/12), Elam made his first game-winning field goal of the season when he connected on a 47-yarder as time expired. With the field goal, he surpassed Jim Breech and moved into 19th place on the NFL's all-time scoring list with 1,249 points.

2004 (BRONCOS)

- Elam connected on 29 of 34 field-goal attempts (.853) with a long of 52 yards for the Broncos. He accounted for 129 of Denver's 381 points in 2004 (87 pts. on field goals, 42 on extra points) for his 12th consecutive 100-point season. He also notched his 300th career field goal in 2004 (against Carolina 10/10), becoming the fastest kicker in NFL history to reach that mark and one of only 16 kickers with 300 or more field goals.
- Elam helped Denver overcome a stingy defense at Tampa Bay (10/3) by hitting three of three field goals that day to earn AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the fourth time in his career. In addition to making a 50-yard field goal against the Buccaneers in the second quarter, he added a clutch fourth-quarter 23-yarder to secure a win that marked his 16th career game-winning or game-tying field goal.
- With two field goals (32 and 33 yds.) in the first quarter versus Carolina (10/10), Elam notched his 300th career field goal faster than any kicker in NFL history.
- Elam took over sole possession of second place on the NFL's all-time consecutive scoring streak (187 games with at least one point) at Tennessee (12/25), making three of four field goals and all four extra points against the Titans while passing Matt Bahr for 15th place on the NFL's all-time scoring list.
- Elam played all 16 games and converted 26 of 36 field-goal attempts (.722) and 42 of 43 (.977) extra-point attempts to account for a team-leading 120 points, marking his 10th consecutive season with 100 or more points.
- Tied his career-high with five field goals (on five attempts) vs. Miami (10/13), including a 55-yard kick. He also tied a career-high by scoring 16 points in the contest.
- Elam made all three field-goal attempts at Kansas City (10/20), including the game-winner from 25 yards in overtime. It was his 11th career game-winning or game-saving field goal and his third in an overtime situation.
- Elam, who owns the NFL record for consecutive extra points (371), saw the streak end against Indianapolis (11/24).

2002 (BRONCOS)

- Elam played all 16 games and converted 26 of 36 field-goal attempts (.722) and 42 of 43 (.977) extra-point attempts to account for a team-leading 120 points, marking his 10th consecutive season with 100 or more points.
- Tied his career-high with five field goals (on five attempts) vs. Miami (10/13), including a 55-yard kick. He also tied a career-high by scoring 16 points in the contest.
- Elam made all three field-goal attempts at Kansas City (10/20), including the game-winner from 25 yards in overtime. It was his 11th career game-winning or game-saving field goal and his third in an overtime situation.
- Elam, who owns the NFL record for consecutive extra points (371), saw the streak end against Indianapolis (11/24).

2001 (BRONCOS)

- Elam, voted to his third Pro Bowl was also named the NFL's 2001 Special Teams Player of the Year by the NFL Alumni and voted second-team All-NFL by the Associated Press, College & Pro Football Newsweek and Football News.

2003 (BRONCOS)

- Elam played all 16 regular-season games and converted 27 of 31 field goal attempts (.871) and all 39 extra-point attempts to account for 120 points, third most in the AFC (fourth in NFL) among kickers.

- Tabbed All-AFC by Pro Football Weekly and Football News.

- Led the NFL in field goals with a franchise-record-tying 31 while also tying for third in the League with 124 points. The AFC's Special Teams Player of the Month for November, Elam converted a franchise-record 86.1 percent of his field goals (31 of 36) and all 31 extra-point attempts to extend his NFL record for consecutive extra points to 344.

- Elam enjoyed a record-setting night at Oakland (11/5), hitting two field goals, including a 39-yarder that gave him his 1,000th career point to make him the 30th NFL player to reach that plateau as well as extend his franchise scoring record.

- Elam scored 14 points against San Diego (11/11) on the strength of a season-high four field goals, hitting from 25, 29, 26 and 33.

- For the second time in three games, Elam scored a season-high 14 points at Dallas (11/22), hitting four field goals (24, 50, 46 and 28 yds.) and both extra-point opportunities.

- Elam was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November when he led all NFL kickers with 38 points and 11 field goals. He converted 11 of 12 field-goal attempts (.917) during the month, including two from beyond 45 yards.

- Elam tied his career single-season-high with his 31st field goal of the year in the season finale at Indianapolis (1/6), matching his mark from 1995.

2000 (BRONCOS)

- Elam was 18 of 24 (.750) on field-goal attempts and 49 of 49 on extra-point attempts to account for 103 points on the season, 10th most in the AFC.

- With his three PAT attempts at the New York Jets (11/5), Elam passed Jim Turner (304) for most PAT attempts in Denver history.

- He became the first Bronco to make 200 field goals in a career with his successful boot from 26 yards vs. San Diego. (11/19).

- Elam's five extra points at New Orleans (12/3) gave him an NFL record for consecutive extra points, breaking Norm Johnson's standard of 301 (Elam finished the season having made 313 consecutive PATs).

1999 (BRONCOS)

- Elam converted all 29 extra-point attempts and was 29 of 36 (.806) on field-goal attempts to account for 116 points on the season (tied for fifth in the AFC and tied for sixth in the League).

- Elam was five of seven on field-goal attempts between 50 and 59 yards in 1999 to improve his career percentage from that range to 63.7 percent (21-33). He was successful from 50 yards at Kansas City (9/19), 51 yards versus the New York Jets (10/3), 55 yards at San Diego (11/7), 53 yards against Oakland (11/22) and 50 against San Diego again (1/2).

- The 55-yarder at San Diego was the third longest of his career. The effort earned Elam AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for Week 9 as he made four field goals and scored 15 points in the game, his highest single-game totals for both categories since setting career highs with five field goals and 16 points at Kansas on 11/16/97.

- Elam matched the four field-goal effort vs. Oakland (11/22) on Monday Night Football with one of the most pressure-filled conversions of his career from 53 yards out with seven seconds remaining to tie the score at 21 and send the game to overtime. It proved to be the eighth game-winning or game-saving field goal of his career as the Broncos went on to win 27-21.

1998 (BRONCOS)

- Elam was selected to his second Pro Bowl, named second-team All-NFL by the Associated Press and College & Pro Football Newsweekly and All-AFC by Pro Football Weekly and Football News.

- Elam enjoyed his finest season statistically in 1998, converting 23 of 27 field goal attempts for a career-best and franchise-record percentage of .852. He also made all 58 extra-point attempts for 127 total points.

- Elam tied for third in the AFC (tied for fifth in the NFL) in scoring by kickers, and his 58 extra-point conversions ranked second in the NFL while also representing a team record for a single season (previous: 46 by Elam, 1996, '97).

- Elam made six of eight field-goal attempts and all 11 extra-point attempts for a team-leading 29 points in three postseason contests to move into second place in all-time postseason scoring by a Bronco.

- Elam converting two of four field goal attempts in Super Bowl XXXIII versus Atlanta (1/31) and all four extra points for 10 points in the Broncos' 34-19 win.
- Versus Dallas (9/13), he tied a franchise record that he already shared with four other players by converting six extra-point attempts.
- Elam's 13 points vs. Jacksonville (10/25) included a tie for the pro football record for the longest field goal in history, clearing the crossbar from 63 yards away as time expired in the first half to match the 28-year-old standard set by New Orleans' K Tom Dempsey (vs. Det. 11/8/70).

1997 (BRONCOS)

- Elam converted 26 of 36 field-goal attempts (.722) and tied his own franchise record (1996) for extra points in a season by going a perfect 46 of 46. His 124 total points on the season ranked second in the AFC (fourth in the NFL), and his 46 extra points led the AFC and were second in NFL.
- In the postseason, Elam was perfect, converting all 15 extra-point attempts and both field goal attempts of 43 and 51 yards. His 51-yard field goal in Super Bowl XXXII against Green Bay (1/25) was the second longest in Super Bowl history (54 yds., Steve Christie, Buffalo, Super Bowl XXVIII) as well as the longest in Broncos postseason history.
- Elam passed the 500-point plateau with his final extra-point attempt at Seattle (9/7), becoming only the third Bronco in history to do so and the fastest in terms of games played (66).
- He kicked the game-winning 33-yard field goal in overtime at Buffalo (10/26), the second time in his career that Elam had won a game for the Broncos in overtime.
- Elam tied his own franchise record with five field goals at Kansas City (11/16), matching the standard achieved previously by himself (vs. Buffalo, 9/3/95).

1996 (BRONCOS)

- Elam converted 21 of 28 field goal attempts (.750) and all 46 extra-point attempts to lead the Broncos with 109 points.
- Elam also tied the team record for most extra points in a game with six against Baltimore (10/20) in a 45-34 Broncos win.
- He connected on his only 50+ yard field goal of the 1996 season at San Diego (12/22) in the regular-season finale.

1995 (BRONCOS)

- Elam finished tied for third in the NFL in scoring with 132 points and tied for second in field goals made with 31 as he was voted to his first Pro Bowl. On the season, he was 31 for 38 (.816) on field-goal attempts and 39 for 39 on extra-point attempts.
- His breakthrough season also included second-team All-Pro honors from both the Associated Press and College & Pro Football Newsweekly as well as All-AFC honors from Pro Football Weekly.
- Elam set the tone for his stellar season in the opener vs. Buffalo (9/3), tying a Broncos single-game record with five successful field goals in six attempts (22, 52, 20, 38, 37).
- Elam's 56-yarder at Houston (11/26) was the longest of his career and the second longest in franchise history behind Steinfort's 57-yarder vs. Washington (10/13/80).
- Elam made a franchise-record 13 consecutive field goals during the middle of the season, beginning with a 30-yarder at Seattle (10/1) and ending with a 35-yarder vs. San Diego (11/19).
- At Oakland (12/24), Elam scored 11 points, including the game-winning 37-yard field goal with 48 seconds remaining, in Denver's 31-28 win. It was the second time in 1995 that Elam had kicked a game-winning field goal in the final minute.

1994 (BRONCOS)

- Elam matched his rookie total of 119 points scored (fourth on the Broncos' all-time single-season scoring list) and set a Broncos record for successful field goals in a season with 30 of 37 attempts (.811). He also was a perfect 29 for 29 on extra-point attempts.

- Elam tied his NFL long and the fourth-longest kick in Broncos history with a 54-yard field goal at San Diego (10/23).

1993 (BRONCOS)

- His 119 points (fourth-highest figure in Broncos history) placed fourth in the AFC (seventh in NFL) while his 26 field goals tied for the fourth-highest total in team history. Elam was successful on four of six field-goal attempts longer than 50 yards.
- His 54-yarder against San Diego (9/12) was the fourth longest in team history.

COLLEGE

- Elam was a superb combination kicker in college, setting virtually every school and conference scoring record at the University of Hawaii.

BIRTHDATE: 2/27/76		COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected in the first round (13th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1997 NFL Draft.
- Traded to the Falcons for Atlanta's second round selection in the 2010 NFL Draft on April 23, 2009.

CAREER

- In 12 NFL seasons, has earned 10 Pro Bowl appearances and eight first or second-team Associated Press All-Pro selections.
- Holds NFL records for career receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940), touchdown catches (76), 100-yard receiving games (26), Pro Bowl appearances (10) and 1,000-yard seasons (four) among all tight ends.
- Is the only tight end to ever register six 100-yard receiving games in a single season (2000, 2004).
- Has recorded six 70-catch seasons, 10 60-catch campaigns and 11 50-catch seasons, more than any other tight end in NFL history. Became just the fifth player and first tight end in League history to produce 11 consecutive seasons with 50 or more receptions.
- His 916 career receptions rank ninth in NFL history and fourth among active players (active in 2008).
- Needs 84 more catches to become just the sixth player in league history to tally 1,000 receptions.
- Ranks 21st in both receiving yards (10,940) and touchdown receptions (76) among all receivers in NFL history.
- Is the only tight end in League history to record 900 or more receiving yards in seven seasons and currently stands as only the third tight end (Ozzie Newsome, Cleveland and Shannon Sharpe, Denver) in NFL history to lead their respective franchises in all-time receiving.

- Owns 11 career games with double-digit receptions, the most of any player in Kansas City history.
- No player in Chiefs history reached the 300-yard reception plateau quicker than Gonzalez, who got there in 71 games.
- Caught his 500th career pass in his 118th game, which marked the second-fastest pace by a tight end in NFL history.
- Ranks third in Chiefs history with 76 total touchdowns and fifth in total points with 460.
- Has missed just two starts over the past 11 seasons averaging 83.3 receptions, 994.5 receiving yards and 6.9 touchdowns per season since he became a NFL starter in 1998.
- Joined Kansas City wide receiver Carlos Carson (1983-84) as the only other player in team history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns, doing so in 2007-08.
- Received the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two touchdowns during his initial pro season.
- Entering the 2009 season, is 17 starts shy of passing Ozzie Newsome for the most starts by a tight end in League history.
- Will enter the 2009 season looking to extend his streak of catching at least one pass in a game, which currently stands at 131 contests. Trails Ozzie Newsome (150 games) for the longest streak by a tight end in NFL history.

2008 (CHIEFS)

MATT RYAN

HT: 6' 4"	WT: 213	NFL EXP: 2	ACQ: D1a-'08	2 ND YEAR WITH FALCONS
BIRTHDATE: 5/17/85		COLLEGE: BOSTON COLLEGE

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected as a first round (3rd pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2008.

CAREER

- Named Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Sporting News Rookie of the Year after completing 265 of 434 passes for 3,440 yards, 16 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for a 87.7 passer rating in his first season.

- His 3,440 passing yards in 2008 ranked sixth in a single season in team history as he became one of two rookie quarterbacks in NFL history to amass over 3,000 passing yards in his first season (Peyton Manning).

- Became the first rookie quarterback in club history to win 11 games and, along with Baltimore Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco was the first rookie quarterback to start all 16 games and lead their teams to the playoffs.

- Tied with Flacco, for posting the best regular season record ever (since the 1970 merger) by a rookie quarterback who started all 16 games (11-5).

- Became the first player in franchise history to earn NFC Rookie of the Month accolades (October of 2008) while earning conference offensive player of the week honors (9) and Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week twice (Weeks 6 and 15).

- Posted a streak of nine consecutive 200-yard passing games in 2008 from Weeks 6-15 and recorded eight contests with a 65.0 completion percentage or higher.

- Ranked second in the NFL in yards per completion with a 12.98 average in 2008.

- Helped the Falcons offense break a team record for the most net yards in a season with 5,779.

- Guided the Falcons offense to the fifth-most points scored in a season in club history with 391.

2008 (FALCONS)

- In 16 starts, completed 265 of 434 passes for 3,440 yards, 16 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for an 87.7 passer rating.

- His 61.1 completion percentage was the fifth-best ever in a season by a Falcons quarterback.

- Led the Falcons to a 7-1 record at the Georgia Dome and a 6-2 mark in games decided by one score or less.

- At the Georgia Dome, completed 121 of 188 passes for 1,777 yards and six touchdowns for a 94.7 passer rating in eight contests.

- Threw only 11 interceptions, becoming one of two rookie quarterbacks in the history of the NFL to start every regular season game and throw under 15 INTs.

- Started his first NFL game vs. Detroit (9/7) and completed nine of 13 passes for 161 yards with one touchdown. His first career pass was completed for a 62-yard touchdown strike to WR Michael Jenkins, making him the first quarterback to throw a touchdown pass on his first career NFL attempt since October 8, 2000 when Michael Bishop accomplished the feat as a member of the New England Patriots. The 62-yard touchdown made Ryan the first player to throw a TD pass of 50 yards or longer in the first quarter of his NFL debut since Roger Staubach tossed a 75-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in 1969. Also became the first Falcons rookie quarterback to start a season opener since Steve Bartkowski (1975).

- Threw for 192 yards on 12 of 18 passing with one touchdown vs. Kansas City (9/21) and added 15 rushing yards on one carry. Completed his longest pass of the season on a 70-yard to WR Roddy White in the first quarter.

- Connected on 16 of 26 passes for 194 yards with two touchdowns at Green Bay (10/5) in addition to recording 16 rushing yards on four carries.
  - Recorded 301 passing yards on 22 of 30 passing with one touchdown vs. Chicago (10/12). He completed a career-high 73.3 pct. of his passes, including his final completion of 26 yards to WR Michael Jenkins with one second remaining; setting up a game-winning field goal by K Jason Elam as time expired.
  - Set a career-high in attempts (44) at Philadelphia (10/26) in addition to throwing for 277 yards and two scores.
  - Completed a career-high 77.3 pct of his passes (17 of 22) for 220 yards with two touchdowns and a career-high 138.4 passer rating at Oakland (11/2). His passer rating was the ninth-highest in a game among all NFL quarterbacks during the season.
  - Notched 248 passing yards on 16 of 23 passing with two touchdowns vs. New Orleans (11/9).
  - Completed 17 of 27 passes for 259 yards vs. Carolina (11/23), including completing his second-longest pass of his career, a 69-yard completion to WR Harry Douglas in the fourth quarter.
  - Connected on 17 of 23 passes for 207 yards with two touchdowns at San Diego (11/30).
  - Logged a career-high 315 passing yards on 24 of 33 passing with one touchdown at New Orleans (12/7) and added four carries for 13 yards with his first career rushing touchdown.
  - Completed 13 of 24 passes for 134 yards and one touchdown while adding three rushes for two yards at Minnesota (12/21). Hit RB Jerious Norwood for an eight-yard touchdown in the second quarter.
  - Connected with Michael Jenkins for a 41-yard strike en route to completing 10 of 21 passes for 160 yards and one touchdown against St. Louis (12/28).
  - In his first career playoff start in Atlanta's Wild Card contest at Arizona (1/3/09), completed 26 of 40 passes (65 percent) for 199 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. Also rushed on four occasions for six yards. Set a NFL rookie postseason record with 26 completions and his 65 percent completion percentage ranks first for a Falcons quarterback in postseason franchise history.
- ### COLLEGE
- Following a stellar career at Boston College, emerged as a Heisman Trophy candidate while earning ACC Player of the Year honors as a senior.
  - Ranked eighth in the nation in total offense and established school records for 400-yard passing performances in both a career and a season while tallying 4,507 yards in 2007. His five 400-yard performances in a career broke the school record set by Doug Flutie and his four games with over 400 yards in 2007 also set a Boston College season record.
  - Completed 807 of 1,347 passes for 9,313 yards and 56 touchdowns in his Eagle career. His 807 completions and 1,347 attempts established school career-records while his completion percentage of 59.9 ranked third in school annals.
  - His 9,313 passing yards placed him third on the Boston College all-time record list behind Doug Flutie and Glenn Foley.
  - With his 388 pass completions in 2007, Ryan joined Philip Rivers of North Carolina State and Ben Bennett of Duke as the only quarterbacks in ACC history to complete 300 passes in a season.
  - Ryan's 31 touchdown passes in 2007 broke the old school season-record of 27 by Doug Flutie in 1984.
  - His career-high 435 yards against Georgia Tech in 2007 rank sixth on the school's game-record passing list.
  - With five touchdown passes against Wake Forest in 2007, Ryan finished one shy of tying the school record of six, held by Flutie.
  - Of the Division I-A quarterbacks in the draft who started 24 or more games, Ryan won 76.5 percent of his 34 starts.
  - In "big games," Ryan posted a 10-4 record (2-2 vs. Virginia Tech, 1-1 vs. Florida State, 3-0 vs. Clemson, 1-1 vs. Miami and 3-0 in bowl games).
- ### PERSONAL
- Attended William Penn Charter School in Philadelphia, Pa. and earned All-East honors from Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report.
  - Captured All-Southeastern Pennsylvania accolades as a senior quarterback in addition to receiving All-City first-team honors in 2002 and second-team recognition in 2001.

• 2004 recipient of Boston College's Mall Scholar-Athlete Award.

• Threw for more than 1,300 yards with 15 touchdowns and just two interceptions as a senior.

• A communications major.

• Captained the school's basketball and baseball teams.

RB

MICHAEL TURNER

HT: 5' 10"	WT: 256	NFL EXP: 6	ACQ: UFA-'08 (SD) 2 ND YEAR WITH FALCONS
BIRTHDATE: 2/13/82		COLLEGE: NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected in the fifth round (154th overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 2004 NFL Draft.
- Signed by the Falcons as an unrestricted free agent on March 2, 2008.

CAREER

- In 75 career games, has totaled 604 carries for 2,956 yards (4.9 avg.), 23 touchdowns and a career long rush of 83 yards, which went for a touchdown.

- Topped the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the first time in his career in 2008 while earning his first Pro Bowl selection.

- Finished with 1,699 rushing yards and 1,740 yards from scrimmage in 2008, which both ranked second in the NFL behind Minnesota RB Adrian Peterson. His rushing total also ranked third in a season in franchise history.

- Set a team record with 17 rushing touchdowns in a single-season (2008).

- Named a 2008 Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week on three occasions in 2008 and Fed Ex Ground Player of the Week twice.

- Set a new Atlanta single-game rushing record with 220 yards against Detroit in his Falcons debut (Week 1) and posted the second-highest total with 208 yards against St. Louis in the season finale.

- Tied the team record (T.J. Duckett, 2004) with four touchdowns in one game against Carolina in Week 12.

- Turner's 102 points in 2008 ranked second in the league among non kickers.

- Ranked first in the NFL in first downs in 2008 with 86.

- Was named to USA Today's All Joe Team for his performance in the 2006 campaign.

- Before joining the Falcons, was responsible for three of San Diego's longest 11 rushes in team history (83, 74 and 73 yards) despite playing a back-up role behind perennial Pro Bowl running back LaDainian Tomlinson.

2008 (FALCONS)

- Paced a Falcons rushing attack which finished second in the NFL with 376 carries for 1,699 yards (4.5 avg.), 17 touchdowns and a long rush of 70 yards. Also contributed with six receptions for 41 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl appearance.

- Recorded eight 100-yard games, which was the third-most ever for the Falcons in a single season.

- Totaled four multiple-touchdown games.

- The Falcons were 8-0 when Turner rushed for 50 yards or more in the first half.

- Posted Atlanta's fourth-longest rush in franchise history with a 70-yard rush against St. Louis in the season finale.

- Finished second in the league in fourth quarter rushing with 74 rushes for 389 yards and five touchdowns.

- Led the NFL in rushes of 10-plus yards (45) and carries (376).

- Logged a franchise and career single-game high 220 rushing yards with two touchdowns on 22 carries in his Falcons debut vs. Detroit (9/7). His 220 rushing yards led a Falcons ground attack that amassed a franchise single-game high 318 total yards. Turner's total was the most in NFL history by a player in his first game with a new team and fell 30 yards short of tying an opening day rushing record held by O.J. Simpson (250 yards in 1973).

- Posted a team-high 104 rushing yards on 23 carries with three touchdowns vs. Kansas City (9/21).
- Registered 26 rushing attempts for 121 yards with one touchdown at Green Bay (10/5).

- Tied single-game franchise highs in rushing touchdowns (four) and points scored (24) vs. Carolina (11/23) by recording 117 rushing yards on 24 carries. Also topped 1,000 rushing yards for the season and the first time in his career.
- Carried the ball 31 times for 120 yards at San Diego (11/30).
- Registered 61 rushing yards on 18 attempts with one touchdown at New Orleans (12/7). His rushing score tied Jamal Anderson for the most rushing scores (14) in a single-season in team history.
- Logged his third-highest rushing total of the season with 152 yards on 32 attempts against Tampa Bay (12/14). Added his 15th rushing touchdown of the season, which set a franchise record. Also caught two passes for 30 yards, both of which went for his first two receiving first downs of the season.
- Posted 208 yards and one touchdown on 25 carries against St. Louis (12/28) to mark his second 200-yard game this season and set the second-highest rushing total in a single game in franchise history. Turner also finished the regular season with 1,699 yards, which ranks third in a single-season in franchise history. His 17 rushing touchdowns at the end of the regular season were the most in franchise history.
- In his first career playoff start in a Wild Card contest at Arizona (1/3/09), totaled 18 carries for 42 yards and one touchdown in the second quarter. Also caught one pass for seven yards.

2007 (CHARGERS)

- Compiled 71 rushes for 316 yards (4.5 avg.) in 16 games while contributing with a 74-yard touchdown scamper and 16 receiving yards.
- Totaled ten rushes for 41 yards in the season opener against Chicago (9/9).
- Posted a career-high 147 yards on 10 carries while adding his second longest career rush on a 74-yard touchdown scamper at Denver (10/7).
- Set a season-high with 11 rushes for (42 yards) in the season finale at Oakland (12/30).

ATLANTA FALCONS

Atlanta Falcons radio play-by-play coverage stretches from Virginia to Mississippi on one of the NFL's largest radio networks (for a complete list of affiliate stations, go to www.atlantafalconsradio.com). WZGC-FM, Atlanta (92.9 DAVE FM) is the Falcons 100,000-watt flagship station, and provides more than eight hours of game day coverage, as well as other team-related programming. Falcons fans can hear daily updates and features year-round on 92.9 DAVE FM and CBS Radio sister station WVEE-FM (V-103).

WZGC-FM, Atlanta's 92.9, DAVE FM, is owned by CBS Radio and delivers true rock variety without traditional format restrictions. DAVE FM is committed to showcasing the Falcons as a centerpiece to its programming.

Veteran play-by-play announcer, Wes Durham (above left) enters his sixth season as the radio voice of the Falcons. He will split his time between the Falcons and Georgia Tech, where he enters his 15th season as the Yellow Jackets football and basketball play-by-play announcer. Durham is a five-time "Georgia Sportscaster of the Year."

92.9 | atlanta davefm Home of Falcons Football

Former Falcons QB David Archer returns to the Falcons radio booth as color analyst. This will be Archer's sixth season as part of the Falcons radio network. During his NFL career, Archer spent four seasons in a Falcons uniform, and still holds one of the highest winning percentages in team history for a quarterback.

Jeff Van Note adds his wit and personality to the Falcons pre and post game shows again in 2009. Following an 18-year playing career with the Falcons, 'Noter' has spent 19 seasons as a Falcons broadcaster. Jeff still holds several team marks, and is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcon with six. Van Note was selected as the fifth member of the prestigious Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor in 2006. He is also a member of the club's Hall of Legends in Flowery Branch.
