ON THE COVER — Entering what will be his 11th — and in all probability his last — NFL season, 49ers' running back O.J. Simpson needs 1,537 yards rushing in 1979 and 76 rushing attempts to break Jim Brown's all-time records in both categories. Brown finished his nine-year NFL career with 12,312 yards rushing in 2,359 attempts, while in ten seasons Simpson has accumulated 10,776 yards rushing in 2,284 attempts. # Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. President

At 33 the youngest owner in the National Football League, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., also is one of the nation's top young executives in a major corporation. He is Executive Vice President of The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation, a versatile and enormously successful company that — among other things — is recognized as the largest shopping center firm in the United States.

The DeBartolo Corporation, founded in 1948 by Edward J. DeBartolo, who is the father of the 49ers' President, has become one of America's great business success stories. Headquartered in Youngstown, Ohio, the Corporation designs, develops, builds, owns and operates regional enclosed shopping malls throughout the United States.

In addition, the Corporation also owns thoroughbred race tracks, motels, industrial and executive office parks, a foreign trade zone in conjunction with a stevedoring operation, and is a major stockholder in three banks.

As President and General Partner of the San Francisco 49ers, Ltd., Edward Jr. controls 90 percent of the club, with limited partners Jane Morabito and Franklin Mieuli each owning five percent.

Edward Jr. is a 1968 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, from which his father also graduated. Although he had spent his summers during high school and college working on the construction and maintenance crews of his father's shopping centers, upon graduation from college he went to work in the DeBartolo Corporate Offices. He moved from department to department, learning the many facets of the company which, by then, had grown into a national corporation.

In 1971 he was appointed a vice president, and in 1976 became Executive Vice-President, directing the in-house DeBartolo staff of some 300 engineers, architects, designers, financiers, leasing agents, lawyers, management and operations teams, along with advertising, public relations and marketing personnel.

In his new role, Ed Jr. quickly disproved the myth that bosses' sons have easy jobs and short hours, or even five-days-a-week schedules. From the beginning as the day-to-day operations' director, he found little time for those pursuits he still lists as hobbies — golf and football. The latter, the dominant interest in his life, would become more than just a hobby in 1977 when he became the 49ers' new owner.

Edward Jr. gives generously of his time and influence when it comes to charitable endeavors. He recently joined Danny Thomas in the 1979 campaign for St. Jude, heading up the Youngstown effort which netted the greatest sum of any city its size in the nation. For several years, Ed Jr. also has directed Cancer and Heart Fund Drives, and has served as a director of the local youth center and as a member of the Board of Trustees at Youngstown State University.

His wife Cynthia is his childhood sweetheart, and they are the parents of three daughters, Lisa Marie 9, Tiffanie Lynn 8, and Nicole Ann 4.

BILL WALSH

Head Coach- General Manager

In 1957 Bill Walsh took his first head coaching job in football at Washington Union High School in Fremont, Calif., a small community located in the East Bay across the bridge from San Francisco.

At that time, the 49ers were the Bay Area's lone major league-level professional sports franchise, and were rising as a power in the National Football League. It was in '57, in fact, that the 49ers earned their first playoff trip, losing a late lead and a memorable game to Detroit that December, 31-27.

A close follower of the team, Walsh had no way of knowing then that 22 years of patience and striving in the coaching profession would lead to his being named Head Coach and General Manager of the NFL team for which he most cared. Little did he know that it would take 20 more years before he again would become a head coach, and even then he would have to leave pro football and return to the college ranks (at Stanford) before he would land the 49ers' job.

Walsh was named the 11th head coach of the 49ers January 9, 1979, at age 47. The naming came following three years of high school coaching, six years as a college assistant, ten years as an NFL assistant, and two years as head coach at a major university. Walsh takes over the 49ers, a team of storied tradition, following their bleakest campaign, 2-14 in 1978.

A challenge to turn around a floundering team is nothing new to Walsh. The fact he was passed over, or in a couple instances he declined, other head coaching jobs in the NFL does not leave him trembling at the thought of being a rookie head coach at age 47 with last year's losingest NFL team.

If anything, he is philosophical about finally gaining the job that many feel he was destined for at least several seasons ago. "Coaching isn't like civil service," Walsh said at his initial 49ers press conference. "You don't pass an examination to move up. As often as not, getting the right job is a matter of luck and timing."

While biding his time, Walsh gained a reputation as an offensive coach, specifically as a pass offense master. "There's no special secrets to what I have learned or what I know about the passing game," he explains. "I simply have spent a lot of time and put in a lot of hard work mastering techniques of the passing game, techniques that I believe in. As an assistant coach, I decided eventually that the way to succeed was to establish a reputation in one area, and I did that with the pass offense, becoming known as the leading authority — or, at least, one of the best — in that field."

Witness Walsh's coaching results from the last decade: While calling plays for Paul Brown and the Cincinnati Bengals, two of his quarterbacks, Greg Cook (once) and Ken Anderson (twice), claimed NFL passing titles, and two other journeymen Bengals' signal callers, Sam Wyche — now a Walsh aide with the 49ers — and Virgil Carter, had the best seasons of their well-traveled careers;

WALSH, Cont.

While with the San Diego Chargers in 1976, he helped turn the Chargers around from a 2-12 team in '75 to a 6-8 club in '76 and made Dan Fouts into one of the league's top passers in what was a single turnaround season for that quarterback;

While at Stanford the last two years, Walsh made Guy Benjamin, now with the Miami Dolphins, into an All-America quarterback in 1977, then the following year transformed Benjamin's back-up, Steve Dils, into an All-America and the nation's leading passer. Dils now is a rookie with Minnesota.

Reversing losing trends has been a part of Walsh's career since that Washington Union High job in '57. There he reversed three years of 1-26 football into a conference championship team with a 9-1 record by his second season.

That led to an appointment as defensive coordinator at the University of California, where he coached under Marv Levy from 1960-62. Walsh moved across the Bay to Stanford to coach under John Ralston in 1963. He coached the secondary and was Ralston's administrative assistant during a three-year tenure.

He started his ten-year professional career as an assistant with the Oakland Raiders in 1966 where he coached the offensive backfield for Al Davis. A year later, Walsh began his eight-year association with Brown and the Bengals, where he directed the offense and coached the quarterbacks and receivers.

When Brown retired at the end of 1975, Walsh moved to the Chargers and served Tommy Prothro as offensive coordinator for a season before Stanford beckoned again. Walsh immediately transformed the Cardinals into an 8-3 club in 1977 and guided them to their first bowl appearance in six years, the Sun Bowl, where they defeated LSU, 24-14. Walsh was named Pacific-8 Conference Coach of the Year.

Walsh's '78 Stanford team posted an 8-4 mark and went to the Bluebonnet Bowl, where they overcame a 22-0 deficit to defeat Georgia, 25-22.

Nine days after that game, 49ers' Owner and President Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. named Walsh as the man to take over the 49ers. Twenty days later, DeBartolo also added the title of General Manager to Walsh, giving him total authority over the club.

Bill Walsh was born November 30, 1931, in Los Angeles. He left Los Angeles following his junior year in high school when his parents moved to Hayward, Calif., where Bill finished high school before enrolling at San Mateo Junior College.

He transferred to San Jose State for his final two years, majoring in education, and playing end on the football team for Coach Bob Bronzan. While working towards a master's degree (which he completed in 1959) and serving a U.S. Army hitch, Bill received his first taste of coaching as a graduate assistant at Monterey Peninsula College and later at San Jose State. That tenure preceded his being named football coach in Fremont, which was the beginning of his ascension as a football mentor.

He and his wife Geri live near the Stanford campus in Palo Alto and have three children: Steve 22, Craig 19, and Elizabeth 8. Steve is a television writer, while Craig is a sophomore at nearby Menlo College. Elizabeth is in the third grade.

JOHN RALSTON, Vice President for Administration

JOHN McVAY, Director of Player Personnel

Two of professional football's most visible coaches, John Ralston and John McVay, today are ex-coaches in key administrative roles for the reorganized San Francisco 49ers and both could not be happier about the situation.

Ralston, long a top San Francisco Bay Area coach, is enjoying a homecoming of sorts as the 49ers' new Vice President for Administration, where he now works for his former pupil, Bill Walsh. In that capacity, Ralston is in charge of the day-to-day front office operations of the club.

McVay, who established impressive football credentials in Ohio and Michigan, now is a transplanted Californian as the 49ers' Director of Player Personnel.

Ralston's preceeding job in the NFL was as offensive coordinator a year ago on Dick Vermeil's staff with the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, except for a year spent out of football in 1977, Ralston was the General Manager and Coach of the Denver Broncos from 1972-76.

For nine years (1963-71), he was head coach at Stanford University, and prior to that tenure, he was head coach for four years at Utah State University.

Following a military hitch during and after World War II with the U.S. Marine Corps, Ralston entered the University of California, where he played linebacker and helped lead Cal to two Rose Bowls. He graduated from the Berkeley campus in 1951, and entered high school coaching in the Bay Area for eight years.

Ralston enjoyed success at each coaching stop. At Utah State, the Aggies were 31-11-1 under Ralston and co-champions of the Skyline Conference twice. They played in two bowl games, the Sun and Gotham.

Ralston moved on to Stanford and brought the Cardinals to major prominence with a nine-year 55-36-3 record, including two consecutive Rose Bowl victories over Ohio State and Michigan following two Pac-8 championships in 1970 and '71. His final eight seasons at Stanford all were winning ones. Also while there, he coached the West team in the Shrine Bowl in 1965, '66 and '69, and coached in the Hula Bowl.

He then turned around dormant Denver in his first NFL assignment, transforming the Broncos into a perennial contender and being named the AFC Coach of the Year for his efforts in 1973. Denver finished 7-5-2 that season and contended for the AFC West title until the last game of the season. His overall Denver record was 34-33-3, including 9-5 his final year there in '76.

Ralston was born April 26, 1927 in Oakland and spent most of his young life growing up in Michigan. He and his wife Patty have three children, twin daughters Terry and Sherry, and son Larry, and live in Menlo Park, Calif.

Ralston

McVay

McVay's most recent assignment prior to coming to the 49ers was as head coach of the New York Giants. Today the 49ers' chief scout, he originally went to the Giants as an assistant coach in charge of research and development as it was intended for McVay to evolve away from coaching and into an administrator's role.

When the Giants fired Bill Arnsparger at the halfway point of the 1976 season, McVay was named the new head coach. He compiled a two and one-half year mark of 14-23 before being released by the Giants at the end of the 1978 season.

With San Francisco, McVay will work directly with Walsh and Ralston in evaluating and obtaining pro and college personnel.

A native of Bellaire, Ohio, he prepped at famed Massillon High School in northeastern Ohio, then went on to play center for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian during a three-year playing career at Miami of Ohio. While at Miami, he won All-Midwest and team MVP honors in two of his three varsity seasons.

He began his coaching career with a ten-year stint (1953-62) at the Ohio high school level, including a highly successful tenure at Canton Central Catholic High, before moving to Michigan State for three years (1962-64) as an assistant on Duffy Daugherty's coaching staff.

McVay spent the next nine years (1965-73) as head coach at the University of Dayton, leading the Flyers to an 8-2 mark in 1966, their first winning season in ten years. He became Dayton's athletic director in 1972, a post he held until joining the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1974.

As Coach-GM for Memphis, McVay's team won a league championship in '74, winning 17 games and leading the league in nearly every offensive category. He joined the Giants' staff when the WFL disbanded in mid-1975.

McVay was born January 5, 1931, and is the father of three sons — John, Jim and Tim. He and his wife Lee make their home in Redwood City, Calif.

Coaching Staff

MIKE WHITE, Administrative Assistant • Offensive Line

Mike White will continue his long association with Bay Area football in 1979 as one of two offensive line coaches for the 49ers. Also, he has added additional duties as the administrative assistant from Bill Walsh's coaching staff. He is the lone holdover from the 1978 coaching staff.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, White coached at the collegiate level at California and Stanford for 19 years. He spent six of those years as head coach at Cal (1972-77). His 1975 team was co-champion of the PAC-8 and White was named West Coast Coach of the Year that season. In addition, he coached four post-season all-star college teams, all of which were victorious.

As a collegian, Mike earned nine varsity letters at California in football, rugby and track, and served as team captain in each sport his senior year. He was an All-Pacific Coast selection at end for the football team that final year.

Born in Berkeley, Calif., on January 4, 1936, Mike is a graduate of Acalanes High in Lafayette, Calif. He and his wife Marilyn have three children and live in Lafayette.

DENNIS GREEN, Receivers • Special Teams

Dennis Green will direct the 49ers' receivers and special teams this year. Green played a key role in helping Bill Walsh establish an offensive football power at Stanford University and now joins Walsh in San Francisco as one of eight new 49ers' assistant coaches.

Before joining the Stanford staff (1977-78), Green coached at his alma mater, Iowa (1974-76). An outstanding tailback and flanker there, he recorded a school record 175 yards rushing against TCU as a sophomore and gained honorable mention All-Big Ten honors his final two seasons.

Dennis played one season as a defensive back with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League in 1972, returned to Iowa as a graduate assistant following that season, and then spent the '73 season as an assistant at the University of Dayton. There he worked for the 49ers' Director of Player Personnel John McVay, who was Dayton's athletic director at the time.

A Pennsylvania native from Harrisburg, Green was born February 17, 1949. He was an All-State prep football selection at John Harris High School in Harrisburg.

He and his wife Margie are the parents of two children and reside in Santa Clara, Calif.

Hecker

NORB HECKER, Defensive Backs

Norb Hecker joins the 49ers this year as defensive backfield coach, bringing along more all-around experience than most people gather in a lifetime. For Hecker, it means a return to the pro ranks following a seven-year stint at Stanford University, the last two years coaching on Bill Walsh's staff there.

As a player, Norb was a Little All-America offensive end at Baldwin-Wallace College in northeastern Ohio. His professional career began with the Los Angeles Rams, where he played both offensive end and defensive back (1951-53). He then went to Toronto of the Canadian Football League in 1954, then to the Washington Redskins a year later.

He returned to the CFL as a player-coach in 1958 with the Hamilton Tiger Cats. Finally, he joined Vince Lombardi as an assistant coach at Green Bay in 1959. At Green Bay he was part of the team's glory years in the 1960s and has two Super Bowl championship rings from his time there.

Hecker, a co-founder of the NFL Players Association, had gone from player-coach for the Packers to assistant coach from 1959-65. He left in 1966 to become head coach of the Atlanta Falcons, a post he held for two and one-half years.

His final pro stint before going to Stanford in 1972 was three years (1969-71) as defensive coordinator for the New York Giants.

Norb was born in Olmsted Falls, Ohio, on May 26, 1927. He and his wife Barbara have five children and live in Palo Alto, Calif.

BILLIE MATTHEWS, Running Backs

Billie Matthews will be in charge of the 49ers' running backs in 1979 after eight seasons at UCLA. Included among the UCLA runners Matthews directed from 1971-78 were five 1,000-yard rushers: Kermit Johnson, James McAlister, Wendell Tyler and Theotis Brown (twice). The '73 Bruin squad rushed to 4,403 yards in 11 games.

Billie also spent a season at Kansas (1970) where he coached current pro backs John Riggins and Delvin Williams. Previously, he had an outstanding 12-year (1958-69) prep coaching career at Kashmere High School in his hometown of Houston, Tex.

A star quarterback at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., Matthews led his team to an 11-0 record and the National Black championship as a freshman in 1948. During his four years, Southern compiled a 37-4 record.

Matthews was born March 15, 1930, in Houston. He and his wife Gene have four children and make their home in Redwood City, Calif.

BOBB McKITTRICK, Offensive Line

Bobb McKittrick and Mike White will share offensive line coaching duties for the 49ers in 1979 as McKittrick moves over from the San Diego Chargers. McKittrick has been an NFL coach since 1971, nearly all of that time under Tommy Prothro.

His 20-year association with Prothro began with three years (1955-57) as a Prothro-coached player at Oregon State. He joined the coaching staff at Oregon state in 1961 after three years in the Marine Corps, and then went to UCLA (1965-70) with Prothro.

They later went on to the Los Angeles Rams (1971-72), before once again moving, this time to the San Diego Chargers.

Bobb took a sabbatical from football in 1973 to do graduate work at his alma mater before re-joining Prothro at San Diego. He also coached under Don Coryell at the conclusion of last season.

McKittrick was born in Baker, Ore., December 29, 1935. He and his wife Teckla have two children and live in San Mateo, Calif.

BILL McPHERSON, Linebackers

After a long coaching career in the state of California, Bill McPherson left the west coast a year ago to coach linebackers for Dick Vermeil's Philadelphia Eagles. Now he returns to his native area to join Bill Walsh's staff as the 49ers linebackers coach in 1979.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following Army service in Korea. He later was the defensive coordinator at Santa Clara (1963-74) for 12 years before moving to UCLA (1975-77) where he first coached with Vermeil.

Bill and his wife Elsie have four children and live in San Jose. He was born there October 31, 1931.

CHUCK STUDLEY, Defensive Coordinator • Defensive Line

The 49ers' new defensive coordinator is Chuck Studley, who begins his 11th year in the NFL this season.

Studley has been instrumental in developing the young defensive line at Cincinnati, where he coached the past ten seasons under Paul Brown and Bill Johnson.

Studley was a successful college coach before entering the pro ranks. He won two Missouri Valley conference championships as head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1961-68). Chuck also coached the University of Massachusetts to a Yankee Conference title in 1960. He was grid boss at Massachusetts for one year before beginning his 18-year association in Cincinnati.

An All-America guard at Illinois, Studley was captain of the 1951 Illini Rose Bowl team that captured the Big 10 title with a 9-0-1 record. After graduation, he spent three years coaching at Alton High School in Illinois, before he joined the University of Illinois staff (1955-60).

Chuck was born in Maywood, Ill., January 17, 1929. He and his wife Peggy have six children and live in Sunnyvale, Calif.

SAM WYCHE, Quarterbacks

Sam Wyche takes over as quarterback coach for the 49ers following a rambling career. This will be his first year as a full-time coach.

Sam was a walk-on quarterback at Furman University in 1962. After college, he signed and played one year for the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in Wheeling, West Virginia. The following year was spent as a graduate assistant for Paul Dietzel at the University of South Carolina.

Wyche then played nine years in the NFL, beginning with the expansion Cincinnati Bengals in 1968. He went to the Washington Redskins (1971-73), then was with Detroit (1974-75). Sam played with St. Louis and Buffalo his final season, 1976. His best year as a player came in '69 when he passed for 838 yards and seven touchdowns in seven starts for the Bengals.

Wyche gathered football knowledge playing for George Allen, Ted Marchibroda, Paul Brown, Paul Dietzel, Raymond Berry and Bill Walsh (at Cincinnati).

He spent the last two years in the sporting goods business in South Carolina and as a TV color commentator for the Furman Football Network.

Wyche was born in Atlanta, January 5, 1945, and attended Atlanta's North Fulton High School. He and his wife Jane have two children and live in Sunnyside, Calif.

AL VERMEIL, Conditioning

The 49ers' strength and conditioning programs will be directed by Al Vermeil in 1979.

A well-known Bay Area coach at the prep level for a number of years, Vermeil was head football coach and athletic director at Moreau High School in Hayward, Calif., the last six years (1973-78). His teams won two championships and one co-championship during that period. Vermeil was named Coach of the Year in 1975 in the Catholic Athletic League, a Bay Area prep league.

Vermeil played linebacker during his collegiate days at Utah State and was captain of the Aggie team his senior year. He received his master's degree in physical education from Kansas State in 1970.

The brother of Philadelphia Eagles Coach Dick Vermeil, Al and his wife Diane have two children and live in Fremont, Calif.

KEITH SIMON, Business Manager

A key front office man behind the scenes for the 49ers is newly appointed business manager Keith Simon. In addition to his role as the club's financial controller, Simon directs all 49ers travel arrangements and heads up Candlestick Park operations during home games.

A native of Billings, Montana, Simon, who is 34, came to the 49ers in February following his second tenure at Thistledown Race Track in Cleveland, Ohio. Thistledown, owned by the DeBartolo Corporation, is the largest thoroughbred race track in Ohio.

Simon returned to Thistledown in early 1978 as resident auditor after having served the DeBartolo Corporation as a financial consultant for a year and one-half in Flint, Mich.

Prior to that latter assignment, he was the Assistant General Manager at Thistledown in charge of the track's day-to-day operations.

Keith is a graduate of the University of Montana where he majored in accounting. He is single and lives in Redwood City, Calif.

HAL WYATT, Trainer

With Fred Schwake's resignation in June to enter private business, the 49ers' assistant trainer the last two years, Hal Wyatt, was handling all team training duties while a second person was being sought by the club.

Wyatt is a native Texan from San Angelo who graduated from North Texas State University with a degree in physical education in 1972. Now 27, Hal spent the next three years operating a sports medicine clinic in Dallas, where he was trainer for the Dallas Tornado soccer team in 1975. He joined the 49ers in July, '77.

He and his wife Kathy have a new baby boy, Lucas (4/12/79), and make their home in Redwood City, Calif.

CHICO NORTON, Equipment Manager

Forrest "Chico" Norton has become a virtual San Francisco 49ers institution. Chico, whose nickname comes from his hometown of Chico, Calif., begins his 25th year as 49ers equipment manager. He has been with the organization longer than any other working member of the team.

Born November 24, 1919, Norton first entered professional athletics when he went to work for the San Francisco Seals baseball team in 1948. He joined the 49ers in 1955.

He and his wife Sylvia live in San Francisco. They have seven grown children and seven grandchildren.

John Ayers • 68

TACKLE/GUARD • WEST TEXAS STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 247 • BORN: 4-4-53 • (D-8 FOR '76)

PRO: After several years of shuffling up and down the offensive line, John Ayers may find a home at one position this year. "Ayers is an excellent athlete who, out of necessity, has had to fill in at guard, tackle and center," reports offensive line Coach Bobb McKittrick. "Once he is given the chance to stay at one position, like guard, he could be a fine lineman." The epitome for Ayers, an eighth round draft choice in 1976, came when he had to fill in at defensive tackle during a regular season game. "When I got in there, I looked at one of our defensive linemen and asked him what to do," remembers Ayers. "He said, 'Just fake it, that's all I'm doing'." Bill Walsh feels Ayers could develop into a starter if given time at one position: "We're going to try and let him develop as a guard. That appears to be where he is best suited."

COLLEGE: Ayers switched between the offensive and defensive lines while at West Texas State. An All-Missouri Conference selection his senior year, he started 32 consecutive games after transferring from the University of Texas.

PERSONAL: Ayers was a standout athlete at Carrizo Springs High School in Carrizo Springs, Tex. He was all-district his junior and senior years, while making the All-Texas schoolboy team as a senior. He and his wife Laurel make their home in Carrizo Springs during the off-season where Laurel is a school teacher.

Mike Baldassin • 52

LINEBACKER • WASHINGTON • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 218 • BORN: 7-26-55 • (FA FOR '77)

PRO: "Mike Baldassin made a significant contribution to the 49ers last year with his aggressive special teams play," according to linebackers Coach Bill McPherson, who added, "He hustled on every play." Baldassin played in all 16 regular season games for the 49ers in 1978, but made only an occasional appearance with the defense at linebacker.

COLLEGE: At the University of Washington, Baldassin led the team in tackles his final two years and was co-captain both seasons. He won four varsity letters and was named the team's most inspirational player his senior year.

PERSONAL: Baldassin was a three-sport letterman at Wilson High School in Tacoma, Wash., and earned all-city honors as a linebacker and also as a third baseman in baseball. He is continuing his work towards his degree in sociology at Washington during the off-season.

Jean Barrett • 77

TACKLE • TULSA • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 250 • BORN: 5-24-51 • (D-2B FOR '72)

PRO: The 49ers were hurt last year when Jean Barrett was lost with a foot injury during pre-season. Mike White, the lone holdover from last year's coaching staff, related that "Jean was an experienced veteran whose leadership, as well as his athletic ability, were sorely missed." Jean has played every position on the offensive line the past six years. Notes Bobb McKittrick, White's coaching cohort, "Barrett's experience and intelligence, which is evident by his ability to adjust to any position, are his biggest assets. He has excellent balance and foot work." Barrett, a second round draft choice in 1972, will be called upon to backup at both tackle positions unless he wins back his old starting job at left tackle.

COLLEGE: Barrett started three years at the University of Tulsa, where he was an All-Missouri Valley Conference choice and played in the Blue-Gray, Coaches All-American and College All-Star games his senior year.

PERSONAL: Jean was the first athlete from W.T. White High School in Dallas ever to receive an athletic scholarship. He and his wife Jane live in Tulsa during the off-season where they own a construction company. They have one son, John (8/19/73).

Lon Boyett • 82

TIGHT END • CAL STATE-NORTHRIDGE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 240 • BORN: 12-24-53 • (FA during '78)

PRO: Lon Boyett was added to the roster with three games left in the season last year when Ken MacAfee suffered a knee injury. He originally was signed by the Oakland Raiders as a free agent in 1977 and went from there to Tampa Bay. The 49ers kept two tight ends last year but that probably will change. "Lack of experience hurts Lon, but he has the size and the quickness we like in a big tight end," said Bill Walsh. "He could be the third tight end we plan to carry."

COLLEGE: Boyett caught 12 passes for a 15.7 yard average during his senior year at Cal State-Northridge. He played two seasons of college basketball and football and has a degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: A transplanted Oklahoman, born in Pawnee, Lon grew up in California where he now makes his home in Lancaster.

Greg Boykin • 33

FULLBACK • NORTHWESTERN • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 225 • BORN: 12-8-53 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with New Orleans for Ralph McGill prior to '76)

PRO: Greg Boykin, acquired in a trade with the New Orleans Saints for Ralph McGill, has spent his professional career backing up Tony Galbreath and Chuck Muncie in New Orleans and Wilbur Jackson and O.J. Simpson in San Francisco. "It has been a real education for me to watch those guys play," says Boykin. When Jackson went out for the season, Boykin replaced him at fullback for several games, before yielding to Bobby Ferrell. He started eight games, gaining 361 yards on 102 carries. He had an additional 112 yards on 19 pass receptions. "Boykin has good size and power, and is an extremely hard-working player," says Bill Walsh. "He gives us the depth at fullback you need to make it through an NFL season."

COLLEGE: At Northwestern, Boykin was cited as an excellent blocker, in addition to runner. He rushed for 1,106 yards and nine touchdowns his senior year and was named the team's Most Valuable Player. He also co-captained Northwestern that year.

PERSONAL: Boykin earned nine varsity letters in high school in Kent, Ohio, and was named to the National Honor Society. He now makes his home in Foster City, Calif., although he returns frequently to his hometown of Kent.

Ed Bradley • 54

LINEBACKER • WAKE FOREST • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 4-22-50 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with Seattle for Bill Sandifer prior to '77)

PRO: One of the 49ers' experienced veterans, Ed Bradley is known for consistent and intelligent play. A fourth-round draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1972, he backed up Jack Lambert and was a key member of the Steelers' special teams. Bradley was sent to Seattle in the 1976 expansion draft, and finally ended up with the 49ers in a trade that sent Bill Sandifer to the Seahawks. "Ed is an extremely intelligent player who will give you everything he's got," says linebackers Coach Bill McPherson. Bradley was moved to an unfamiliar outside linebacker spot and started most of the season for the injured Willie Harper in '78. His 15 starts were the most of his career. "Ed's experience and leadership were an important part of the 49ers' defense in 1978," notes Bill Walsh.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Wake Forest, Bradley was rated one of the top college linebackers in the nation in 1972. He played in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl. That same year he set a school record in the shot put. He earned four track letters in that event.

PERSONAL: As a scholastic standout, Bradley was voted New England's top prep football player in 1967, in Bridgeport, Conn. Ed is the son of former Chicago Bears guard Ed Bradley, Sr. Ed and his wife Barbara make their home in Lewisville, N.C.

Scott Bull • 19

QUARTERBACK • ARKANSAS • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 211 • BORN: 6-8-53 • (D-6B FOR '76)

PRO: Scott Bull was attempting a major comeback with the 49ers entering 1979 training camp. A knee injury suffered in the last game of the '78 season at Detroit looked as if it might end Bull's career. It was the second serious injury to the same knee. "After the surgery, the doctors felt the damage that would be done if I injured the knee again would be too drastic to justify playing," said Bull. "They have since decided that new medical procedures have diminished the risk measurably." Hence, Bull was given an okay to try again ten weeks prior to this year's training camp. "I feel I have enough time to get ready," he said in late May. "I'm going to work hard, but not push the knee before it's ready." A sixth round draft choice in '76, Bull did not have a lot of playing time until last year. Starting five games, he completed 48 of 121 passes for 651 yards, while sharing quarterback duties with Steve DeBerg.

COLLEGE: Bull took over as starting quarterback in Arkansas' wishbone offense as a senior and led the Razorbacks to the Southwestern Conference

PERSONAL: Bull was named Arkansas prep Athlete of the Year in 1971 after competing in football, baseball and track at Jonesboro High School in Jonesboro, Ark. Scott is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He and his wife Becky make their home in Fayetteville, Ark., where he is an avid hunter and fisherman.

Dan Bunz • 57

LINEBACKER • CAL STATE-LONG BEACH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 230 • BORN: 10-7-55 • (D-1B FOR '78)

PRO: There is only one way to describe Dan Bunz — "intensively aggressive," according to Bill Walsh. Couple that attitude with superior physical attributes and one can understand how Bunz moved into the starting middle linebacker role for the 49ers a year ago and made the NFL All-Rookie team at that position. "Bunz is the type of player you can build a defense around," said former 49ers General Manager Joe Thomas when drafting Bunz in '78. Based on his rookie performance, that assessment appears correct. "He played very well under quite a bit of pressure last year and, more importantly, showed improvement every week," reported Coach Bill McPherson after film grading 49ers' linebacking for 1978. "Dan is extremely effective against the run, but does need to work on his pass coverage," he added. Bunz had his best performance in the 49ers' 20-19 loss to the Houston Oilers. While banging heads with NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year Earl Campbell all afternoon, Bunz had 10 tackles, one interception, and a fumble recovery. "He is a very, very tough individual," adds Walsh.

COLLEGE: Bunz had 448 tackles in three years as a starter at Long Beach State, including 72 tackles and 99 assists as a senior. He was a consensus All-America and was voted the Most Valuable Player in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association his senior year, and played in both the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Dan has a degree in sociology and makes his home in Irvine, Calif. A bachelor, he filled a bit-part in the movie "North Dallas Forty" during the off-season.

Earl Carr • 31

PRO: Earl Carr joined the 49ers during the 1978 season after being acquired on waivers from the St. Louis Cardinals in September. He played 14 games for San Francisco, performing mostly on special teams.

"Carr has all the traits of a fine running back and will get plenty of chances to prove what he can do this training camp and pre-season," said Asst. Coach Billie Matthews. Carr originally was a fifth round draft choice by the Cardinals.

COLLEGE: A product of the University of Florida, he played sparingly as a senior because of injuries, rushing for 112 yards on 43 carries and returning six kickoffs for 132 yards. His career rushing average per carry was 5.1

PERSONAL: Carr makes his off-season home in Orlando, Fla. He was born in Elmore, Ala.

PUNTER • CINCINNATI • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 200 • BORN: 3-15-56 • (D-10 FOR '78)

PRO: Upon reaching the national finals of the Ford/NFL-sponsored Punt, Pass and Kick competition as a schoolboy, Mike Connell set his sights on being a professional kicker. "When I got the chance to be on national television for PP&K as a youngster, my ambitions were set." As a rookie a year ago, he averaged 37.3 yards per punt on 96 attempts. Bill Walsh noted, "Mike will have to improve consistently if he is going to become competitive with the top punters in the NFL." A tenth round draft choice in 1978, Connell got his chance to punt for the 49ers when an automobile accident prevented incumbent Tom Wittum from reporting to training camp.

COLLEGE: Connell had an outstanding career at the University of Cincinnati where he ranked tenth in the nation in punting his junior year, and 11th as a senior. Connell holds all school punting records at Cincinnati.

PERSONAL: Mike has been a drummer in a rock band, a painter, and an impressionist. He is a native of Sharon, Pa.

HT: 6-2 • WT: 205 • BORN: 1-16-51 • (Joined 49ers
in a trade with New Orleans

PRO: After never playing a down of football in college, Chuck Crist has gathered a great deal of experience in his eight years in the NFL. "He has the experience and knowledge we need in the secondary," says defensive backs Coach Norb Hecker about the former Penn State cager. "He is the leader back there who everyone looks to for direction." Crist came to the 49ers last year in a trade with New Orleans for Skip Vanderbunt. Selected by his Saints' teammates as the 1977 defensive MVP, he led New Orleans in interceptions with four, and ranked third in tackles with 102. He also deflected nine passes. Last year, as the starting free safety for the 49ers, Crist intercepted a team-leading six passes. Signed as a free agent by the New York Giants in 1972, Crist knew little about football: "The equipment manager asked me what my helmet size was, and I told him I didn't know. Then he asked me about shoulder pads. I didn't know anything about them either. Finally, he said, 'What are you doing here?' I really didn't know that either." Adds Bill Walsh, "Chuck has good size and gives good run support. He has the type of range you need in a free safety."

COLLEGE: Crist did not play college football but was the Most Valuable Player on the Penn State basketball team his junior year.

PERSONAL: Crist works as a substitute high school teacher during the off-season, in upstate New York. He and his wife Patti have two children, Scott (2/7/71) and Nichole (2/27/74). They make their home in Salamanca, N.Y., Chuck's hometown.

Randy Cross • 51

CENTER • UCLA • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 250 • BORN: 4-25-54 • (D-2A FOR '76)

PRO: Randy Cross has steadily developed into one of the better centers in the NFL, and in 1979 his versatility may find him playing guard for the 49ers. "Randy is one of the most consistent linemen we have," says offensive line Coach Mike White. "He is considered by many to be one of the better players in the league." Reports Bill Walsh, "Randy is an excellent athlete whose mobility and strength may be used at guard as well this year. He can play either for us." Pressed into a starting role as a rookie, after being a second round draft choice in 1976, Cross found himself in a pressure cooker: "It was somewhat of a rude awakening when I first started," remembers Cross. "The transition from college to the pros can be an overwhelming thing." Cross handled the duties well enough to be named to the Pro Football Writers All-Rookie team in '76, and has been starting at center for the 49ers ever since.

COLLEGE: Cross played both guard and center at UCLA. He started every game his junior and senior years, and started five games at center as a sophomore. He was named All-America as a senior by AP and UPI.

PERSONAL: In addition to being a standout football player, Cross was the California high school state champion in the shot put at Crespi High in 1970. He and his wife Patrice make their home in San Jose during the off-season where they have a silver reclamation business.

Kyle Davis • 64

CENTER • OKLAHOMA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 240 • BORN: 10-1-52 • (FA FOR '78)

PRO: When Randy Cross was lost for the '78 season with a knee injury, Kyle Davis was signed by the 49ers, the fourth team Davis has been with since being a fifth round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1975.

Davis missed the 1976 season with the Cowboys with a knee injury. He then was waived by the Cowboys prior to the '77 season and was later released by the Minnesota Vikings that year. After being among the last cuts of the New England Patriots early last year, Davis spent seven games with the 49ers.

COLLEGE: Davis played behind All-America center Tom Brahoney (now with St. Louis) for two years before becoming a starter as a junior and earning his own post-season accolades at the University of Oklahoma.

PERSONAL: A native of Oklahoma, Kyle makes his home in Oklahoma City during the off-season along with his wife Crystal.

Steve DeBerg • 17

QUARTERBACK • SAN JOSE STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 205 • BORN: 1-19-54 • (FA FOR '77)

PRO: The 1978 season was Steve DeBerg's second in the NFL, but it was — by virtue of experience — his rookie season. He had started just one year of major college football at San Jose State following one regular season as a junior college quarterback. After being drafted in the tenth round by the Dallas Cowboys, DeBerg was the final player cut from the Dallas roster in 1977 and was acquired on waivers by the 49ers. DeBerg didn't see action at quarterback in '77, remaining on the bench behind Jim Plunkett and Scott Bull. When Plunkett was released last September, DeBerg stepped in as the starter and opened 11 games. Added pressure was placed on DeBerg when he was asked to call his own plays a year ago: "The amount of knowledge that must be retained is awesome," said DeBerg. This year things should be different. "We will try and take some of that pressure away from Steve by calling most of the plays from the sidelines," says Bill Walsh. "This will give DeBerg time to concentrate on the fundamental things that are so important to a young quarterback." Still in the infant stages of his career, "DeBerg shows all the signs of being a fine NFL quarterback," according to quarterback Coach Sam Wyche.

COLLEGE: DeBerg turned the San Jose State records books upside down during his lone starting season in 1976, passing for 2,084 yards and completing 141 of 262 attempts while throwing 19 touchdowns. He set nine school records and was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Association's Offensive Player of the Year. DeBerg was a JC All-America at Fullerton Junior College before going to San Jose State.

PERSONAL: Steve is a native of the Bay Area, born in Oakland. He was raised in Los Angeles. He spent the entire off-season rehabilitating a knee injury suffered during the last game of the '78 season at Detroit, an injury that required surgery. Steve and his wife Marcia make their home in San Jose. He's a product of Savanna High School in Anaheim, Calif.

Walt Downing • 62

GUARD • MICHIGAN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 254 • BORN: 6-11-56 • (D-2 FOR '78)

PRO: Walt Downing made some strides as a rookie last season in starting 14 of 16 games for the 49ers. However, to become a top performer in the NFL, Downing has more work ahead of him, according to 49ers' coaches. "He has excellent size and strength for the guard position," says offensive line Coach Bobb McKittrick. "But Walt is going to have to work hard to improve his consistency." Downing has been hampered somewhat by his college background at Michigan, where the run was the major emphasis on offense. "I realize that pass protection is the key to my future in the league," said Downing during the off-season. "I have worked very hard on those skills, and I feel I'll be able to do a better job this season." Bill Walsh added, "Walt made the All-Rookie team last year (UPI), but will face strong competition for his right guard position. We're looking for him to show a lot of improvement."

COLLEGE: Downing was a consensus All-Big Ten pick as a junior and senior while at Michigan. He served as co-captain and made first team All-America his final year.

PERSONAL: Walt and his wife Sue make their home in Redwood City, Calif., where the 49ers' training facility is located, and where he spent most of his off-season working on conditioning.

Cleveland Elam • 72

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • TENNESSEE STATE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 251 • BORN: 4-5-52 • (D-4A FOR '75)

PRO: There is little doubt that a man who had 32 quarterback sacks in two years is a force to be reckoned with in the NFL. "Cleveland has been a legitimate All-Pro, and he has one of the best pass rushes in the league," says Defensive Coordinator Chuck Studley. "His performance will make the difference between us being a good defensive team or just an ordinary one." A fourth round choice in 1975, Elam suffered through injuries and the adjustment to an unfamiliar position in 1978. "I simply did not have an acceptable year last year," said Elam. "Being moved to defensive end affected me more than I thought it would." Elam has been moved back to defensive tackle, where normally he will line up next to Cedrick Hardman. "With Cedrick and Cleveland together again, we should have one of the strongest pass rushing teams in the NFL," said Studley.

COLLEGE: Elam lettered four years at Tennessee State. He was a versatile performer who played defensive end, tackle, middle and outside linebacker.

PERSONAL: Elam was a standout performer in both basketball and football at Lester High School in Memphis, Tenn., earning all-league recognition in both. A bachelor, he splits his time during the off-season between his hometown of Memphis and in Missouri City, Tex., where he has several business ventures.

PRO: Bruce Elia cannot wait for the 1979 season. After bouncing from Miami (1975), where he was drafted in the fourth round, to Tampa Bay, in the '76 expansion draft, he finally landed a starting role at middle linebacker when he was picked up by San Francisco in a deal that sent Steve Spurrier to the Buccaneers prior to the '77 season. Elia was supplanted by Dan Bunz last year and ended up filling in at all three linebacker positions during 1978. A foot injury hampered him throughout much of last season, but the injury is healed and Elia is chomping at the bit: "I am very anxious about playing this year and can't wait for the season to start," Reports Bill Walsh, "Elia is a very physical and aggressive hitter, a smooth athlete, and a good, solid tackler with great pursuit."

COLLEGE: Elia proved he was of value at a pair of positions while at Ohio State. After starting at middle linebacker his sophomore year, he was switched to fullback as a junior and went on to score 14 touchdowns and lead the Big Ten in scoring in 1973. He was moved back to middle linebacker his senior year where he led the team in tackles with 144, including 74 unassisted tackles.

PERSONAL: Elia was an excellent all-around athlete in high school. He earned a total of ten letters in football, basketball and track. Today he is part-owner of a bread business during the off-season. Bruce and his wife Lorraine make their home in San Carlos, Calif. They recently had a daughter, Tiffany (1/8/79).

Keith Fahnhorst • 71

TACKLE • MINNESOTA • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 263 • BORN: 2-6-52 • (D-2A FOR '74)

PRO: Keith Fahnhorst had his best year in 1978. The big offensive tackle was San Francisco's "most effective lineman" says offensive line Coach Mike White. Originally drafted in the second round as a tight end in '74, the 49ers moved him to tackle in training camp his rookie season. He stepped into the starting role at right tackle midway through the 1976 season and has been there ever since. "Keith can become a Pro-Bowler if he continues to perform the way he has," says Bill Walsh. "Along with his natural attributes, he will hustle on every play, and is very alert." Fahnhorst isn't ready to listen to the Pro Bowl talk: "I have a lot of work to do before I can be satisfied with my performance." Another who is convinced about Fahnhorst is running back O.J. Simpson. "Keith has it all to be one of the top tackles in the league— size, strength, intelligence and speed. He is one of the best linemen I have seen."

COLLEGE: Fahnhorst was a tight end at Minnesota for three years in the Gophers' run-oriented offense. He caught 28 passes for 416 yards and one touchdown during three seasons. He was the leading receiver on the team and was named to the All-Big Ten team his senior year. Fahnhorst also played in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Keith was a star athlete at St. Cloud High in St. Cloud, Minn. He earned all-league recognition in football, basketball and track. He has a degree in psychology and is interested in opening his own sporting goods store. He and his wife Susan make their home in New Brighton, Minn. during the off-season where a new baby, Tiffany Dawn (6/19/79), arrived in June.

Bobby Ferrell • 38

FULLBACK • UCLA • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 219 • BORN: 11-13-52 • (FA FOR '76)

PRO: Wherever Bobby Ferrell has played, he has provided his team with depth at the fullback position, although he has never been a full-fledged starter. Last year was a case in point. After Wilbur Jackson was lost for the season, Greg Boykin, not Ferrell, was named to start. With eight games left in the season, Ferrell, who played a year with the California Sun (1975) in the World Football League, got his chance against Atlanta. He gained 90 yards on 18 carries. He continued to show his worth by gaining 471 yards on 125 carries for a 3.8 average the rest of the '78 season. He also had 16 receptions for 123 yards. With the expected return of Simpson and Jackson to the starting lineup this year, it appears Ferrell will return to back-up status. "Bobby gives us real depth at fullback," says Bill Walsh. "This has to be considered one of the COLLEGE: Ferrell did not see much action at UCLA, where he also was a substitute. James McAllister and Kermit Johnson played ahead of Bob for the Bruins.

PERSONAL: A native of Los Angeles, Ferrell still makes his home there during the off-season. As a high school senior, he gained 2,200 yards in just nine games, while scoring seven touchdowns in a single game. Ferrell had a brief part in the movie "North Dallas Forty" during the off-season.

Ed Galigher • 75

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • UCLA • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 247 • BORN: 10-15-50 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with the New York Jets for a draft choice prior to '77)

PRO: Ed Galigher started 15 games at defensive tackle for the 49ers last year, but was ticketed for substitute duty all along the defensive line entering 1979. "It is important to have a fifth man with the abilities and consistency of an Ed Galigher," says defensive line Coach Chuck Studley. "He can fill in anywhere on the line." A fourth round draft choice of the New York Jets in 1972, Galigher played out his option and decided to sign with the 49ers in 1977, for which the Jets received a draft choice. When Tommy Hart was traded to Detroit a year ago, and Cleveland Elam moved to defensive end, Galigher got his chance to start. "Ed is very solid against the run, and is as consistent a player as you will find," said Studley. "He's solid as a rock," adds Bill Walsh.

COLLEGE: Galigher earned All-Pacific Coast honors while at UCLA his senior year and he played in the Coaches' All-America game. He was a junior college transfer from Chabot Junior College in Hayward, Calif. While at Chabot, he was the California JC wrestling champion.

PERSONAL: Ed and his wife Carol are active in outdoor sports in the San Diego area during the off-season. They ride motorcycles, water ski, scuba dive and play racquetball as hobbies. Their home is in Escondido, Calif.

Cedrick Hardman • 86

DEFENSIVE END • NORTH TEXAS STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 244 • BORN: 10-4-48 • (D-1A FOR '70)

PRO: Cedrick Hardman is one of the 49ers' most recognizable veterans. The ten-year starter is a popular sports figure in the Bay Area. On the field, he still is one of the top defensive ends in the NFL. "His outside pass rush is the best in the business," says defensive line Coach Chuck Studley succinctly. "He has worked on his technique against the running game and is becoming a premier all-around defensive end." A first round draft choice out of North Texas State in 1970, Cedrick is the sole remaining member of the division championship teams of the early '70s. "It is important to have people like that around," says Bill Walsh. "It's good for the younger players to associate with people who know what it takes to be a winner." Hardman had exceptional seasons in 1975, when he was an All-Pro selection, and in 1971, when he went to the Pro Bowl for the first time. He has had more than 20 sacks in a season for the 49ers, and has never had less than 12.

COLLEGE: Hardman started his career at North Texas State as an offensive end and defensive back. By his junior year, he weighed 240 pounds and became strictly a defensive lineman, and an immediate success. As a senior, he was All-Missouri Valley Conference and played in both the Blue-Gray game and Senior Bowls. He was named the outstanding defensive player in both games.

PERSONAL: Hardman is a popular public speaker in the Bay Area, and also has made several appearances in movies and television. He makes his home in Menlo Park, Calif.

Willie Harper • 59

LINEBACKER • NEBRASKA • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 215 • BORN: 7-30-50 • (D-2 FOR '73)

PRO: Considered one of the 49ers' most agile athletes, veteran Willie Harper will be looking to regain a starting linebacker position in 1979. After suffering a knee injury during last year's pre-season, Harper was placed on injured reserve for the entire '78 season. "Willie's biggest asset is his speed and mobility," says linebackers Coach Bill McPherson. "It is very important that he returns this year with his speed intact." Harper has always had good potential, according to Bill Walsh, and "is very active, with excellent body control and leverage."

COLLEGE: At the University of Nebraska, Harper was named Lineman of the Year his sophomore year, stamping himself for collegiate greatness at a young age. He had played running back and middle guard before settling in at defensive end, where he was a consensus All-America his senior year. As a defensive end, Willie had a Nebraska career-record 178 tackles, including 90 unassisted tackles and 40 in which he threw foes for 258 yards in losses.

PERSONAL: Harper earned two letters in football, three in basketball and one in track at J.W. Scott High School in Toledo, Ohio. He and his wife, Roxanne, have three children — Terrell (8/30/66), Willie (10/1/72) and Qiava (12/13/75). Both Willie and Roxanne are active in real estate in the Bay Area the year 'round.

HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 12-6-52 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with Washington prior to the '78 season for Minnesota's sixth round draft choice, previously acquired for CB Nate Allen)

PRO: Joe Harris was the Most Valuable Player for the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League in 1976 before signing as a free agent with the Washington Redskins in 1977. At Washington, Harris' role mostly was limited to special teams. He was picked up by the 49ers in a trade involving Minnesota's sixth-round draft choice and cornerback Nate Allen prior to the '78 season. "Joe lacks some experience," says linebackers coach Bill McPherson, "but he has the ability to play." Bill Walsh echoed that by adding, "Harris gained game experience last season and has been an excellent special teams player for several years. He could start for us again this season." Harris started all 16 games last year, replacing traded (to Detroit) Dave Washington at outside linebacker.

COLLEGE: Harris holds the record for most tackles in a career at Georgia Tech. He was named to several All-America teams his senior season and also played in the North-South and Blue-Gray all-star games.

PERSONAL: Joe works for a law firm in Washington, D.C., during the off-season as a client advisor, which is a non-legal position with the firm. He is single, and spends much of his time traveling throughout the south in association with his off-season work.

Kenny Harrison • 83

WIDE RECEIVER • SOUTHERN METHODIST • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 170 • BORN: 12-12-53 • (D-9 FOR '76)

PRO: When opportunity knocked again, Kenny Harrison was ready and able. A ninth-round draft choice from Southern Methodist University in 1976, Harrison was waived just before the '78 season by the 49ers following two undistinguished seasons. When rookie Terry LeCount was lost early last year with an injury, Harrison was recalled and ended up starting six of the eight games in which he appeared. He caught 16 passes for 320 yards and a 20-yard average, and had several dazzling, clutch grabs. "Harrison has been used primarily as a long-ball threat," says receivers Coach Dennis Green. "We'll also use him in that manner, but we also feel he can be an intermediate threat as well with his ability to fend off defensive backs and get open in a hurry."

COLLEGE: Following an outstanding freshman year in which he caught 29 passes for 534 yards, Harrison became the first freshman to be named to the All-Southwest Conference team since Doak Walker. SMU then switched to the wishbone offense and did not throw much the rest of Harrison's career there. He ended up with 53 career catches for 1,075 yards and nine touchdowns, ranking third on the all-time SMU receiving records list.

PERSONAL: Born in Beaumont, Tex., Harrison still lives there during the off-season. He is developing outside business interests in banking and insurance. His brother, Dwight, is a defensive back for the Baltimore Colts. Kenny and his wife Debra have a son, Bryan (10/12/78).

Paul Hofer • 36

RUNNING BACK • MISSISSIPPI • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 195 • BORN: 5-13-52 • (D-11 FOR '76)

PRO: Paul Hofer defies explanation. Players his size and speed are not supposed to play professional football, let alone succeed at it. But what Hofer lacks in size, he makes up for in desire. "Paul plays beyond his physical limitations," observes Bill Walsh. An 11th round draft choice in 1976, Hofer had his best season in 1978 and captured a rabid San Francisco fan following. Taking over for an injured O.J. Simpson, Hofer gained 465 yards rushing on 121 attempts, a 3.8 yard average. He had an additional 170 yards on 12 pass receptions. He also led the squad in touchdowns with seven. Hofer had a notable season on the special teams as well, returning 18 kickoffs for 386 yards, a 21.4 average. By the end of the season, Hofer was voted (by his teammates) the Len Eshmont Award, as the 49ers' most inspirational player. "Paul is a tough, determined runner," says Asst. Coach Billie Matthews. "He is underestimated in this league, with an excellent, quick start his main attribute."

COLLEGE: Hofer played fullback at Mississippi and gained 1,430 yards on 296 carries, a 4.8 yard average, during a four-year career. He also led Ole Miss in kickoff returns three consecutive years.

PERSONAL: Hofer is one of seven children. He and his five sisters and one brother grew up in Memphis. Paul and wife Penny returned to Tennessee during the off-season, but moved to a new home in the Bay Area just before training camp this summer.

Ernie Hughes • 65

GUARD • NOTRE DAME • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 250 • BORN: 1-24-55 • (D-3 FOR '78)

PRO: After starting much of last season, and making the UPI All-Rookie Team, Ernie Hughes is not about to sit back and figure he has it made. "There are a lot of things I need to work on before I can really feel comfortable in this league," says Hughes, a second round draft choice a year ago. "It doesn't matter who you are, if you don't continually work to get better, there is no stability in the NFL." Bill Walsh feels good about his second-year guard: "Ernie is an excellent athlete who constantly is improving. He could start for us again and also be an effective member of the special teams with his size and speed."

COLLEGE: A starter for three years at Notre Dame, he was named to the AP and UPI's second team All-America squads as a senior. Nicknamed the "Enforcer" because of his 400-pound bench press and 4.8 speed, Hughes was a mainstay on the Notre Dame 1977 National Championship team, and received national acclaim for a sparkling Cotton Bowl performance that year against Texas Outland trophy recipient Brad Shearer.

PERSONAL: Hughes was a prep All-America at Capital High School in Boise, Id. He played basketball, track and wrestled as well, and was named his high school's outstanding athlete his senior year. Ernie and his wife Maureen have two children, Jennifer (4/1/77) and Christine (5/25/78), and make their home in Sunnyvale, Calif.

Wilbur Jackson • 40

RUNNING BACK • ALABAMA • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 219 • BORN: 11-19-51 • (D-1A FOR '74)

PRO: Wilbur Jackson is a bomb waiting to go off after missing all of 1978 with a knee injury. Jackson, a first round draft choice of the 49ers in 1974, was named Rookie of the Year in the NFL that season as he churned for 705 yards on 174 carries. He also caught 23 passes for an additional 190 yards. He accounted for 2,580 yards and 96 receptions his first four years as a professional, including a career-high 792 yards in 1976. "We will be asking for a lot of different things from our fullback," says Bill Walsh. "Wilbur has the type of versatility — running, blocking and catching the ball — that can help us tremendously." Moved from running back to fullback when Monte Clark took over as head coach in '76, Jackson developed into a fierce blocking back. A healthy Jackson could be the perfect compliment to O.J. Simpson: "I can't emphasize enough how important Wilbur was to my gaining 1,000 yards," said Miami's Delvin Williams of his former 49ers' running mate. "There is no doubt he will get his 1,000 yards one day." Jackson's maturity is another important asset. "He has the character and commitment to the profession that we need," says Walsh. "We have so few veterans on the squad, we need people like Wilbur to hold the team together."

COLLEGE: Jackson was the first black football player at the University of Alabama, where he amassed a three-year total of 1,537 yards on just 212 carries for a 7.2 yard average. For the most part, he played just a half per game, due to the heavy rotation of backs used by Bear Bryant at Alabama. But he performed well enough to be named a consensus All-America and play in the Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Ozark, Ala., Jackson was a standout athlete at Carroll High School where he earned varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball. Wilbur has spent most of the off-season rehabilitating the knee surgery which held him out last year.

Bob Jury • 26

SAFETY • PITTSBURGH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 188 • BORN: 10-5-55 • (FA FOR '78)

PRO: At the beginning of last season, Bob Jury had about as full a weekend as any rookie would want. "I flew home from Seattle on Friday, got married in Pittsburgh on Saturday, flew back to Seattle on Sunday, and was cut on Monday." Fortunately, the 49ers thought enough of Jury to claim him on waivers from the Seahawks where he had been a third round draft choice. Jury started eight games last year for the 49ers. "I was very impressed with Jury," said secondary Coach Norb Hecker after viewing last year's game films. "He reacts very well and is extremely aggressive."

COLLEGE: Jury owns the University of Pittsburgh career interception record with 19. He was on the AP and UPI All-America teams as a senior and played in the Hula and Japan Bowl games. His ten interceptions in 1976 set a school season record.

PERSONAL: Jury and his wife Victoria make their off-season home in a suburb of Pittsburgh, North Huntingdon, Pa. During the off-season he is employed in the corporate security division of Westinghouse Corporation.

HT: 6-3 • WT: 254 • BORN: 10-5-51 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with Green Bay for future considerations prior to '78)

White, "but was extremely helpful last year filling in at tackle as well." Knutson has been a journeyman since being drafted in the 16th round by the Atlanta Falcons in 1975. He played for the Green Bay Packers in 1976-77, and was traded to the 49ers from Green Bay for an eighth round draft choice. "Steve has been in the league a few years and is a good, solid guy to have around," said Bill Walsh. "We'll find out this training camp where he fits in best in our offensive planning."

COLLEGE: Steve was a starting guard at USC after transferring from East Los Angeles Junior College, where he had been a two-year starter.

PERSONAL: A native of Southern California, Steve and his wife Debra make their home in Irvine, Calif. Both have their college degrees in physical education, and Debra has done some part-time teaching. Knutson opened a small, private business during the off-season as well.

Terry LeCount • 80

WIDE RECEIVER • FLORIDA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 172 • BORN: 7-9-56 • (D-4 FOR '78)

PRO: The operative word for Terry LeCount has been adaptation. He has had to adapt from all-around college handyman to starting wide receiver in the pros. As the split end, LeCount filled a position he never played prior to joining the 49ers as a fourth round draft choice a year ago. And based on his efforts there, LeCount was once again pencilled in as the starter as training camp opened. In college, LeCount was everything but a receiver. He played safety, running back, quarterback, and returned punts. "Being constantly moved around like that became a bit of a problem," remembered LeCount. Now it appears wide receiver is his home: "Terry has an excellent future at wide receiver in the NFL," says Bill Walsh. "He has speed, quickness, catches well, and can run very well with the ball after he catches it. He played well as a rookie last year until a wrist injury knocked him out of the lineup." LeCount caught 10 passes for 131 yards in '78, that coming in three early games before he dislocated his wrist against Houston. "When LeCount went out for the season last year," says receivers Coach Dennis Green, "it had more of an effect on the team than most people realize."

COLLEGE: As a college quarterback at the University of Florida, LeCount rushed 130 times for 638 yards and three touchdowns his senior year. He completed 62 of 134 passes for 848 yards and six touchdowns. He also returned 18 kickoffs for 378 yards that final year.

PERSONAL: A high school All-America at Raines High School in Jacksonville, Fla., LeCount makes his off-season home in Gainesville, where he is working towards the completion of his degree in communications at the University of Florida. His teammates call him "Ice Tea."

CORNERBACK • KANSAS • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 174 • BORN: 12-15-53 • (D-2B FOR '76)

PRO: After working his way into the starting right cornerback position in 1978, Eddie Lewis is working hard to make sure he keeps it. "Eddie is extremely dedicated," says conditioning Coach Al Vermeil. Adds Norb Hecker, "He is intelligent, alert, and has excellent speed and range." Bill Walsh is confident of Lewis' abilities: "Lewis has excellent physical attributes. He could become one of the best corners—or safeties if we move him there—in the league. Lewis' performance will be a key in the defensive backfield's success this year." Reflecting on the pressures of the cornerback position, Lewis has compared the position to being on an island: "People can see you but they can't help you."

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at cornerback for the University of Kansas, after playing wide receiver as a freshman, he returned kickoffs and punts for the Jayhawks as well. As a sophomore, he earned All-America status in track as a member of the Kansas 440-yard relay team that captured the NCAA crown. As a sprinter, he had bests of 9.6 in the 100, 21.3 in the 220, and 4.6 in the 40. Meanwhile, his football improvement earned him a chance to play in the College All-Star game and the Senior Bowl.

TIGHT END • NOTRE DAME • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 250 • BORN: 1-9-56 • (D-1A FOR '78)

PRO: Pressure is something Ken MacAfee is used to. There have been comparisons to his father (who played four years in the NFL), a college career with one of the nation's more-publicized football universities (Notre Dame), and the pressure to excel academically and maintain a grade point average good enough to enroll in dental school. Another recurring point handed MacAfee is the on-going comparison between he and Oakland Raiders' All-Pro tight end Dave Casper, also a Notre Dame graduate. "I really don't like talking about it," says MacAfee. "Dave has proven himself to be the best. I still have a lot to do before I can begin to contribute to a pro team the way he has." MacAfee caught 22 passes last year for 205 yards and one touchdown, before being lost the final three games with a knee injury. The knee did not require surgery and Ken has been pronounced fit and ready to go. "MacAfee has all the tools to be a top tight end," says Bill Walsh. "He has excellent hands, and is very quick and mobile for a man his size."

COLLEGE: A consensus All-America in 1977, MacAfee won the prestigious Walter Camp Award that year. He had 128 catches for 1,758 yards and 15 touchdowns during his career, and holds all receiving records for a tight end at Notre Dame.

PERSONAL: Ken is an accomplished pianist, artist and photographer. Enrolled in dental school at the University of Pennsylvania during the off-season, he was named one of the top athletes in the state of Massachusetts during his senior year in high school in his hometown of Brockton.

Willie McCray • 76

DEFENSIVE END • TROY STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 234 • BORN: 7-17-53 • (D-11 FOR '78)

PRO: Like many of the younger players on the 49ers roster last year, Willie McCray has lacked the opportunity to show coaches what he can contribute. "We simply do not know a lot about McCray," says Bill Walsh. An eleventh round draft choice in 1978, McCray was limited to special teams action last season, playing in all 16 games. "He appears to have the strength and quickness needed to play," says defensive line Coach Chuck Studley, "but we will have to wait and see how he performs in camp."

COLLEGE: After transferring from the University of Alabama to Troy State, also in Alabama, McCray established himself as a regular at defensive end. He was voted the most improved defensive player following his senior year.

PERSONAL: A criminal justice major at Troy State, McCray makes his home in Hopewell, Va., during the off-season.

Johnny Miller • 66

GUARD • LIVINGSTONE • 1st YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 247 • BORN: 2-3-54 • (D-14 FOR '76)

PRO: Most agree that Johnny Miller has the ability to play in the NFL, but no one is exactly sure what he can do. An unheralded 14th round draft choice in 1976, Miller has looked good in three consecutive 49ers' training camps. He has challenged for a starting spot every year, but injury has taken him from the roster each year. Last year he nearly captured a starting position;

MILLER, Cont.

"Johnny really looked good in training camp," reported Mike White, offensive line coach with Bobb McKittrick, "but he got injured again and that ended his season again." Miller dislocated his elbow and was sent to the injured reserve list. "If he ever stays healthy long enough to play, he could prove to be a first-rate guard," says McKittrick.

COLLEGE: Miller played nose guard for Livingstone College, in Salisbury, North Carolina. He was a co-captain and made the All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association first team his junior and senior years. He also was named to the Black All-America team in 1975.

PERSONAL: Johnny has made the Bay Area his home year-around. He lives in Foster City, Calif., and spent most of his time during the past off-season working with the San Francisco Juvenile Court System while also preparing for what might be his final fling with the 49ers.

Wonder Monds • 25

SAFETY • NEBRASKA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 215 • BORN: 5-3-52 • (FA FOR '78)

PRO: A fourth round draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1976, Wonder Monds chose to sign with the Canadian Football League Ottawa Roughriders, where he earned all-league honors in 1976 and 1977. The 49ers signed Monds as a free agent before the '78 season, where his play was limited primarily to special teams. "He is an extremely big and strong defensive back," says secondary Coach Norb Hecker. "He also is an extremely aggressive hitter."

COLLEGE: Monds was named to the Football Writers All-America team his senior year at the University of Nebraska. As a three-year starter, he had a career total 39 tackles, 41 assisted tackles, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

PERSONAL: A fine arts major in college, Monds coaches at his alma mater, Fort Pierce High School in Florida, during the off-season. He and his wife Janet make their in-season home in San Jose. Wonder has three children — Rodney (9/10/71), Wonderful, III (6/11/73), and Mario (11/10/76).

Nomellini

Former San Francisco 49ers tackle Leo "The Lion" Nomellini is a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, but he also has another distinction. He is the only player ever to make All-Pro both on offense and defense since two-platoon all-stars have been selected. Nomellini was an All-Pro choice on offense in 1951 and 1952, then switched to defense and was an All-Pro selection in 1953, 1954, 1957 and 1959 as a defender. Leo also played in 10 Pro Bowl games, two on offense, eight on defense.

Dean Moore • 53

LINEBACKER • IOWA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 210 • BORN: 1-26-55 • (D-9B FOR '78)

PRO: Dean Moore is one of several young 49ers' linebackers whose playing time has been limited to special teams. "Dean was very effective on special teams last year," said linebackers Coach Bill McPherson. "He has some excellent qualities that a linebacker needs — like quickness and movement. This year will determine if he's a solid pro. He's worked very hard preparing himself during the off-season."

COLLEGE: Iowa Coach Bob Commings called Moore "the best big-play person at Iowa since Alex Karras." Moore had 175 career tackles, and as a junior was named Defensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated, the Associated Press, and United Press International for his efforts against Penn State in a 7-6 Iowa win. He had 11 solo tackles in that game and blocked a last minute field goal attempt.

PERSONAL: Moore's college degree is in liberal arts. He and his wife Pam make their home in Belmont, Calif. They were married this past off-season.

Mark Nichols • 58

LINEBACKER • COLORADO STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 225 • BORN: 10-23-56 • (FA FOR '78)

PRO: Mark Nichols has had to make his mark with the 49ers on special teams. "Most linebackers make excellent special teams players," comments linebackers Coach Bill McPherson. "Mark has done a fine job on those units, and this year he'll get an opportunity to show us more of what he can do at outside linebacker."

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at Colorado State, Nichols was a defensive tackle as a junior before shifting to middle linebacker his senior year. He was the leading tackler that season after ranking second on the team in individual tackles as a junior. Also during his senior year, he intercepted two passes, returning one 48 yards for a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Nichols spent his off-season working towards his degree in physical education at Colorado State University. He and his wife Katherine make their home in Fort Collins, Colo.

Ricky Odom • 42

CORNERBACK • USC • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 183 • BORN: 9-15-56 • (FA FOR '78)

PRO: After trying pro football in two countries and with four teams, Ricky Odom may have found a permanent home in San Francisco. After being acquired from Kansas City late last year, Odom became a starter at left cornerback when Tony Leonard was released. "He helped the team once he got in there," reports Bill Walsh. A seventh round draft choice of the Chiefs last year, he made the team but was released after the eighth game. He went to the British Columbia Lions and then to the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League before returning home to Southern California last November. "I had pretty much given up on the year and was looking forward to next season and to trying with someone else," remembers Odom, "when the 49ers called me." Odom ended up intercepting two passes for the Niners and showing enough promise to enter training camp this year as the incumbent starter. "Ricky will start for us going in," says assistant Coach Norb Hecker. "He has outstanding natural ability and promise."

COLLEGE: Odom was an All-Pac-8 performer at the University of Southern California his junior and senior years. He finished second in the conference in interceptions and had three more interceptions in the Hula Bowl, where he was named the game's most valuable defensive player.

PERSONAL: Odom was the most valuable player on both his football and basketball teams his senior year in high school in Jonesboro, La. He makes his home in Los Angeles during the off-season.

Fred Quillan • 56

CENTER • OREGON • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 240 • BORN: 1-27-56 • (D-7 FOR '78)

PRO: When Randy Cross was injured and lost for the season with eight games remaining last year, rookie Fred Quillan was inserted into the starting lineup and told to "learn on the run." A seventh round draft choice in '78, Quillan faced some tough times as teams tried to exploit his inexperience: "Because I was a rookie and had not played at all until Randy went down, teams really seemed to come after me," remembers Quillan. "Your technique improves drastically in that type of situation." Offensive line Coach Bobb McKittrick adds, "It was very tough for Fred because he didn't have veteran guards on either side to help out, in addition to having to learn while playing." Ernie Hughes and Walt Downing, both rookies, also were starting at that time. Nevertheless, Quillan surprised many and proved he could handle the position: "Fred is a fine prospect at center," says Bill Walsh, "and I think he could develop into one of the top centers in the league."

COLLEGE: Because of his versatility, Quillan was moved around a lot at the University of Oregon. An All-Coast center as a junior, he switched to tackle as a senior (because of injuries to teammates) and performed well at that position.

PERSONAL: A three-sport athlete at Portland's Central Catholic High, Quillan was originally recruited as a tight end. A native of Portland, Quillan still makes his home there during the off-season.

Archie Reese • 78

DEFENSIVE END • CLEMSON • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 263 • BORN: 2-4-56 • (D-5A FOR '78)

PRO: Archie Reese is making his presence known, especially with offensive tackles in the NFL, and is quickly gaining big respect around the league. "Reese gives offensive tackles in the league a lot to worry about," says Chuck Studley, defensive coordinator. "He has size, strength, speed and quickness." An unheralded fifth round draft choice, Reese broke into the starting lineup against Cincinnati in the fifth game last year when Cleveland Elam, then playing end, was injured. "The only problems he had last year were related to his inexperience," said Bill Walsh. "He will be a great defensive lineman in the NFL." Reese never lost his enthusiasm last year: "We had some tough losses that are hard to live with," he said. "But we can have a good team here. It's just a matter of working together and realizing our potential."

COLLEGE: Even less heralded as a high school player, Reese was a walk-on at Clemson. He had 81 tackles and 16 quarterback sacks his senior year. In addition to his tackles, Reese caused a fumble and knocked down four passes that season.

PERSONAL: Following high school in South Carolina, Reese nearly decided to join the army. He credits his mother with convincing him to go to college. Archie is a bachelor and spent his off-season working on his degree in secondary education psychology at Clemson.

ball has been his main asset during his brief career with Miami and the 49ers. "Vern is an extremely aggressive player," says secondary Coach Norb Hecker. "He has a keen sense of where the ball is." Roberson started eight games for the Miami Dolphins his rookie year in 1977 and was named to the UPI All-Rookie team at free safety. He was originally drafted by the Dolphins in the 1974 supplementary draft after deciding to pass up his senior season at Grambling. He was in the Dolphins' last cut that year and went to the Canadian Football League for 1975. There, he had ten interceptions and returned 19 punts for 115 yards for the Calgary Stampeders. He was re-signed by the Dolphins in '77, then came to the 49ers last year in the Delvin Williams trade. Roberson has been timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.4.

COLLEGE: Roberson played defensive back as a freshman and flanker as a sophomore and junior at Grambling before foregoing his senior year of football to work in support of his family.

PERSONAL: Vern is one of 16 children and was raised in Natchitoches, La. He and his wife Virginia have two children, Alecuia (7/30/72) and Taqueta (9/28/75).

TIGHT END • MICHIGAN • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 227 • BORN: 2-27-52 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with New Orleans for John Watson prior to '77)

PRO: "With Ken MacAfee and Paul Seal in the lineup together, we feel we have one of the better tight end combinations around," says Bill Walsh, who plans to use plenty of two tight end alignments in 1979. "Seal could develop into one of the better tight ends in the league," adds Walsh. A member of the 1974 All-Rookie Team while a member of the New Orleans Saints, Seal was a second round draft choice by the Saints that year. He became an immediate starter and caught 32 passes for 466 yards. In his first five years in the league, he has caught 103 passes for 1,552 yards. Seal's receiving has been ahead of his blocking so far in his career: "Paul has worked extremely hard to gain consistency in his blocking," says receivers Coach Dennis Green, "and he's made significant improvement in that area."

COLLEGE: Seal had an outstanding career at the University of Michigan with 33 catches for 510 yards and six touchdowns in a run-oriented offense. He was co-captain his senior year, and was named first team All-Big Ten and second team All-America that year.

PERSONAL: An all-around athlete in high school, Paul lettered in football, basketball, track and golf. Seal previously had been substitute teaching at the elementary school level in the off-season, but this year he opted to spend more time at home with his son, Paul, Jr. (12/8/77), while his wife, Karen, continued her profession as a real estate agent. They make their home in Southfield, Mich.

Mike Shumann • 84

WIDE RECEIVER • FLORIDA STATE • 2nd YEAR

PRO: Mike Shumann was a free agent with the Miami Dolphins before being claimed on waivers by the 49ers with eight games left in the 1978 season. "Mike is a nifty, smallish receiver," says Bill Walsh. Adds Dennis Green, the 49ers' receivers coach, "He has very good hands and runs disciplined routes." Shumann did not have any receptions last year but he did return eight punts for 40 yards.

COLLEGE: Shumann was one of the most productive receivers in University of Florida history. He averaged 50 receptions a year for four years while a collegian. He appeared in the Japan and Hula Bowl all-star games after being named as an All-Independent selection his senior year.

PERSONAL: Mike has two college degrees, one in art education and another in mass communications. He sells real estate during the off season in the Bay Area, and makes his home in Foster City, Calif.

trade with Buffalo for five draft choices prior to [3/24/78] '78 season.)

PRO: One final go-around for O.J. Simpson in 1979 — or is it? The Juice, seeking Jim Brown's all-time rushing record of 12,312 yards, has said this will be his final year in football. But, he has hedged: "I don't want to say definitely that this is my last year. It depends on the circumstances. For instance, when I started my career in Buffalo, the first three years were so bad that I planned to quit after five years. But then Lou Saban came in as head coach, and I just enjoyed playing so much, I wanted to play forever. If I can run in excess of 1,000 yards this year (he needs 1,537 yards to surpass Brown), and fit into the passing game Bill Walsh has installed, then we can win a few. And who knows? That's why I don't want to commit myself now," Walsh reports he plans to use the 32-year old Simpson often, as Saban did: "We expect O.J. to be at full strength and will use him as much as possible with the idea we want him for all 16 games. Simpson could very well be on the verge of a great final chapter in his football career. He's worked hard to physically prepare himself and his mind is right for a big year. He'll be given the ball most of the time and should be our big ground gainer. We will also use him extensively in the passing game." Says O.J., "Quite frankly, if my knee is healthy, I can still run as fast as any back in the league. Even if I'm not as fast as I used to be. There aren't two or three backs in the league who can outrun me. My shoulder is alright now (injured in the tenth game last year, knocking him out for the season.) Six pieces of cartilage, a cyst behind my knee, and a tumor in the front of the knee were removed surgically during the off-season. I want the NFL career rushing record, but if the record doesn't happen, I can handle not having it. Realistically, this probably will be my final year. But one never knows."

COLLEGE: In a scintillating two years with the USC Trojans, Simpson set 13 school rushing records, led the NCAA in rushing both years with a two-year total of 3,423 yards on 674 carries, earned All-America twice, captured the Heisman Trophy, and led the Trojans to two consecutive Rose Bowl appearances. His career was so stunning after coming to USC from San Francisco City College that he was later named the College Athlete of the Decade (1960s). Also a sprinter for the track team, he was a member of USC's world record-setting 440-yard relay team (38.6) in 1967. While in junior college, O.J. rushed for 2,445 yards on 259 carries.

PERSONAL: O.J. is leaning towards retirement, in-part, following the '79 season because of a television contract with NBC that again will have him assisting with coverage of the Olympics, scheduled for the summer of 1980 in Moscow. Given the name Orenthal James, the native San Franciscan (Galileo High School) has long been a movie actor. Now he also is producing movies, including an off-season effort called "Goldie and the Boxer." In addition,

Simpson remains an active spokesman for Hertz, Hyde Spot-Bilt shoes, TreeSweet Products, Wilson Sporting Goods and Dingo Boots. Active in cancer foundations on both the national and state levels, O.J. also has done considerable work for MS. He makes his off-season home in Los Angeles and is the father of three children: daughters Arnelle (12/4/69), Aaren (9/24/77) and a son, Jason (4/21/70).

Ron Singleton • 67

TACKLE • GRAMBLING • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 275 • BORN: 4-15-52 • (FA FOR '77)

PRO: Ron Singleton is seeking motivation, consistency and a starting tackle position with the 49ers this season. "It takes awhile for Ron to get motivated sometimes," says offensive line Coach Mike White, "but once he does, he can play with anyone. He did a fine job against the likes of Lyle Alzado and Elvin Bethea last year." Singleton got his chance to play when Jean Barrett was lost for the year with an injury. Said Bill Walsh, "He had trouble in his first game against Dallas, but went from there and had one of the better performances among the offensive linemen. In fact, Singleton's performance will be a key for us to have an improved offensive line." Singleton played 13 games for the San Diego Chargers in 1975, where he was a fourth round draft choice. He was cut the following year and was claimed on waivers by San Francisco in 1977.

COLLEGE: Ron was a tight end at Grambling, where he was named to the All-Southwestern Athletic Conference team and was named to the Black All-America team his senior year.

PERSONAL: Ron serves as an assistant manager and salesman for a furniture company in his home state of Louisiana during the off-season. He hopes to open a store of his own. He and his wife Janice have one son, Reyer (11/16/71).

Freddie Solomon • 88

HT: 5-11 • WT: 181 • BORN: 1-11-53 • (Joined 49ers in a trade with Miami along with Vern Roberson and two draft choices for Delvin Williams prior to '78)

PRO: Freddie Solomon's game-breaking speed makes him a threat no matter where he is on the field. "Solomon is known as one of the swiftest, quickest men in the National Football League," says Bill Walsh. "That trait is invaluable to a team." A second round draft choice of the Miami Dolphins in 1975, he spent three years with that team before joining the 49ers last year. Included in the deal that sent Delvin Williams to the Dolphins, Solomon led the 49ers in receptions last year with 32 for 458 yards. He was pressed into duty at quarterback the final game of the season when Steve DeBerg and Scott Bull were lost with knee injuries in a 33-14 loss at Detroit. In his first three years in the NFL, Solomon was a return specialist with the Dolphins, and had a 22.5 yard average in kickoff returns. He also ran back 71 punts for 810 yards, including a 90-yarder against Baltimore in 1977. In that game, Solomon totaled 245 yards handling kickoff returns, punt returns, and also catching passes and running a flanker reverse. "Freddie is by far the most experienced receiver we have," says Asst. Coach Dennis Green. "Once he catches the ball, anything can happen."

COLLEGE: Solomon played quarterback for the University of Tampa for four years (1971-74), rushing for 39 touchdowns and passing for 11. He had 17 games with more than 100 yards rushing. His career totals were 3,299 yards on 557 carries with 188 completions in 436 passing attempts for 2,504 yards.

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Sumter, South Carolina, Freddie and his wife Deliah are involved in a number of private business ventures during the off-season, one of which includes a commercial films production company. They make their home in Tampa, Fla.

"Name" Backfields

The San Francisco 49ers have been known for their "name" backfields. From 1954 through 1956 it was "The Million Dollar Backfield" of Y.A. Tittle, Joe Perry, Hugh McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. Then, in 1960, came "The Alphabet Backfield" of Y.A. Tittle, J.D. Smith, R.C. Owens and C.R. Roberts.

Hall of Fame

Three members of San Francisco's "Million Dollar Backfield" of the mid-1950s are enshrined in Pro Football's Hall of Fame. They are Y.A. Tittle, Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Another member of that same team, tackle Leo Nomellini, is also a member of the Hall of Fame.

Jack Steptoe • 87

WIDE RECEIVER • UTAH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 175 • BORN: 1-21-56 • (FA during '78)

PRO: Jack Steptoe joined the 49ers with six games remaining in the 1978 season after being waived by the Chicago Bears. He immediately made an impact with 11 punt returns for 129 yards and an 11.7 yard average.

"Jack has a very explosive start which makes him an excellent intermediate target," said receivers Coach Dennis Green. "He did not have a lot of playing time last year but will get a hard look in training camp."

COLLEGE: Steptoe was an All-Western Athletic Conference receiver his senior year after being named the 1976 WAC Rookie of the Year his junior year. An all-purpose player for the University of Utah, he holds most of the school's punt return records.

PERSONAL: Steptoe grew up in Los Angeles and attended L.A. Valley Junior College before transferring to Utah. He is a business education major and continued work on his degree during the off-season. He is single and makes his home in Salt Lake City.

Bruce Threadgill • 23

SAFETY • MISSISSIPPI STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 190 • BORN: 5-7-56 • (D-5B FOR '78)

PRO: Bruce Threadgill was a wishbone quarterback in college, but has been making the transition to safety in the pros. "It's tough to have to learn a whole new position in the pros," said Threadgill, who never played defense before last year. "It was bad enough just having to worry about making the team at a position you are familiar with." Says Asst. Coach Norb Hecker, "Bruce could really develop into a fine safety. I've seen a lot of quarterbacks make the transition. Their knowledge of the overall passing game and how it works is invaluable." Bill Walsh also has noticed Threadgill's abilities: "He has good size and speed and is the type of athlete who could play either safety position."

COLLEGE: At Mississippi State, Threadgill rushed for 1,211 yards and seven touchdowns as a quarterback. He completed 184 passes for 2,746 yards and 16 touchdowns. His total yardage output, 3,957 ranks second in Mississippi State history.

PERSONAL: Threadgill is a native of Louisiana, but makes his home in Starkville, Miss., during the off-season.

Elliott Walker • 35

RUNNING BACK • PITTSBURGH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 193 • BORN: 9-10-56 • (D-6 FOR '78)

PRO: Entering '79 training camp, Elliott Walker was looking for an opportunity to show his stuff following a semi-inactive rookie season a year ago. "Walker is inexperienced," said 49ers' running backs Coach Billie Matthews, "but he has an explosive start and has an excellent feel for running. We'll take a long look at him in training camp." After playing in just nine games last year (and those appearances having been limited to special teams duty), Walker was hoping for just that kind of opportunity. A college fullback, he'll work as a running back with the 49ers.

COLLEGE: Walker rushed for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns his senior year at Pittsburgh, as he broke out of the shadow of Tony Dorsett after Dorsett took his Heisman Trophy to the Dallas Cowboys. In addition, Walker caught 16 passes for 252 yards and three touchdowns. For his career, he accumulated 2,748 yards rushing, on 481 carries, and scored 19 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: A Miami, Fla., product, Walker is a bachelor and still makes his home in Miami. He was born in Indianola, Miss.

Jimmy Webb • 74

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MISSISSIPPI STATE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 245 • BORN: 4-13-52 • (D-1 FOR '75)

PRO: Jimmy Webb has become a mainstay on the 49ers' defensive line following a solid performance as a starter last year. "He is the type of reliable, consistent player who never has a bad game," says defensive line Coach Chuck Studley. "He's a player everyone looks to for leadership and direction." A former first round draft choice (1975), his durability has proved as reliable as his abilities, since Jimmy has not missed a game in three years. "You have to have a certain meanness to play defensive lineman in the NFL," says Webb, who is mild-mannered away from football. "The biggest mistake you can make is to carry that meanness too far, though, and be out of control."

COLLEGE: Webb played both defensive tackle and end while at Mississippi State. He played in the Senior Bowl and College All-Star games after earning All-America honors his senior year.

PERSONAL: Raised on a farm in Jackson, Miss., Jimmy is finishing his degree in veterinary medicine at Mississippi State. He and his brother own a farm in Starkville, Miss., where he and his wife Cindy live during the off-season. They have twin boys, Joshua and Micah (11/6/77).

Ray Wersching • 14

PLACEKICKER • CALIFORNIA • 7th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 210 • BORN: 8-21-50 • (FA during '77)

PRO: Ray Wersching knows that the confidence it takes to be a kicker in the NFL not only comes from within himself, but from his teammates. "It is extremely important that your coaches and teammates have faith in you," says Wersching. "If they are second guessing you, it's going to affect your kicking." Wersching joined the 49ers midway through the 1977 season, after playing five and one-half years with the San Diego Chargers. His first attempt as a Forty Niner turned out to be a career-record 50-yard field goal against the New York Giants. Last year Wersching finished ninth in scoring in the NFC with 69 points.

COLLEGE: Wersching had an outstanding career as a placekicker at the University of California at Berkeley. He attended Cerritos Junior College before transferring to Cal.

PERSONAL: Wersching is a sailboat enthusiast who has done extensive boating up and down the California coast. He and his wife Diane make their home in Leucadia, Calif.

Dave Williams • 30

RUNNING BACK • COLORADO • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 200 • BORN: 3-10-54 • (FA FOR '77)

PRO: Dave Williams, a seventh-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1976, played in the Canadian Football League for the Calgary Stampeders before trying it with Dallas in '77. Later waived, he has made his presence known with the 49ers as a kick returner. He ran back 34 kickoffs last year for 745 yards and a 21.9 average, ranking eighth in the NFC. Against the Vikings in a '77 game, Williams returned a kickoff 80 yards for a 49ers' touchdown and recovered a Vikings' fumble that led to another score. He also had a 89-yard kickoff return for six points against the Rams last year. "He has the purest athletic ability of anyone on the team," says running backs Coach Billie Matthews. "It is just a matter of opportunity and confidence before Dave really does something." Bill Walsh was equally impressed with Williams, saying: "Dave has exceptional speed and quickness and could be a contributor beyond his special teams play this season."

COLLEGE: Williams was an option quarterback at the University of Colorado, and holds a CU career record for 3,576 total yards in 612 plays. He was his team's Most Valuable Player his senior season and a two-time All-Academic Big Eight choice. Williams has been timed in 9.7 in the 100-yard dash.

PERSONAL: Dave makes his home in Foster City, Calif., during the off-season. He has a degree in finance and has worked in the off-season in banking, insurance and real estate.

Len Eshmont Award

Paul Hofer was awarded the coveted Len Eshmont Memorial Award for the 1978 season. Hofer gained 465 yards rushing on 121 attempts, a 3.8 average. He had an additional 170 yards on 12 receptions. He led the squad in touchdowns with seven. Hofer had a notable season on the special teams as well, returning 18 kickoffs for 368 yards, a 21.4 average. A secret ballot by the 49ers players before the last home game of the season determines the winner of the award. Eshmont, a Fordham graduate, was a member of the first 49ers squad in 1946. He subsequently coached at the Naval Academy and the University of Virginia before his untimely death in May of 1957. Club founder Tony Morabito established the award that same year.

GARY FORYTEK is a 6-2, 205-pound quarterback from Notre Dame, where injuries cost him a starting job two years ago. He signed as a free agent with the Chicago Bears following the 1978 NFL draft, and played for the Bears through most of pre-season a year ago.

49ers ROOKIES

(1979 Draftees)

Owens

Montana

JAMES OWENS • Running Back/Wide Receiver • UCLA

Ht. 5-11 • Wt: 188 • Born: 7/5/55 • D-2

World class hurdler James Owens was the player the 49ers wanted from the beginning of the draft as San Francisco Coach-GM Bill Walsh will attempt to convert the running back to wide receiver to compliment his passing game. "Owens has so many fine qualities about him," reports Walsh. "His speed — he's probably the fastest man in the world in the first 50 yards; he has tremendous body control and quickness; he has played football at UCLA under pressure; he's very bright; he has good hand-to-eye coordination. It will be our job to teach him the position and make him into a top pro pass catcher."

Owens, UCLA's co-MVP as a junior and MVP in the Fiesta Bowl as a senior, finished sixth in the Montreal Olympic Games in the 110 meter hurdles. He finished his college football career as the fourth all-time rusher in Bruins' history with 1,984 yards on 397 carries (a five-yard avg.) although many said he was too small to play the position in the Pac-10. He also caught 21 passes for 200 yards, and scored a total of 14 career touchdowns.

The first player taken on the second round of the draft this year, he is from nearby Sacramento, Calif., and was known as J.O. to his teammates at UCLA. He rushed for more than 100 yards eight times in his career, with a high of 161 yards vs. Washington State last fall, and had two brilliant post-season bowl games at the end of his college playing days. In the Fiesta Bowl, a 10-10 tie with Arkansas, Owens had 121 yards rushing and one touchdown, added a touchdown pass off the halfback option, and caught three passes for 32 yards and a touchdown.

JOE MONTANA • Quarterback • Notre Dame

Everyone knew Bill Walsh was seeking a top quarterback from this year's draft. Which one Walsh really wanted was the only question left to be answered. Notre Dame's Joe Montana became the pick when the 49ers selected the Monongahela, Pa., native as the final choice in Round 3.

ROOKIES, Cont.

"We considered Montana to be among the top two or three quarterbacks in the draft," said Walsh, who had Jack Thompson of Washington State and Phil Simms of Morehead State highly rated with Montana but saw those two signal callers taken in the draft's first seven picks. "Montana is quick, with an excellent arm, and is very intelligent. He'll be working under a different system here than at Notre Dame, where he usually had to hit receivers on the move in crossing patterns. Our system calls for more dishing off to the backs and shorter patterns."

During his college career, Montana completed 269 of 515 passes (52 percent) for 4,121 yards and 25 touchdowns, with 25 interceptions. He was named to several All-America teams last fall after completing 54 percent of his passes (141 of 260) for 2,010 yards and ten touchdowns. As a junior, Montana led the Irish to the national championship.

TOM SEABRON • Linebacker • Michigan
Ht. 6-3 • Wt: 209 • Born: 5/24/57 • D-5A

Tom Seabron will be seeking to fill a 49ers' need for an outside linebacker. A four-year letterman at Michigan, Seabron "has excellent speed and is extremely aggressive," according to linebackers coach Bill McPherson.

Seabron, who was timed in 4.6 in the 40-yard dash, had 100 tackles in his four-year career with 52 unassisted tackles. He was known as an exceptional pass rusher and earned 12 quarterback sacks his final two seasons. Seabron had a slow start at Michigan because of a shoulder separation prior to his sophomore year, but rehabilitated it to full strength by his senior year.

JERRY ALDRIDGE • Running Back • Angelo State
Ht. 6-2 • Wt: 220 • Born: 9/17/56 • D-5B

Jerry Aldridge made several college Little All-America teams and was a member of the NAIA Division I national championship team that compiled a 14-0 record in 1978.

During his senior year, Aldridge rushed for 1,820 yards. He had 17 straight games of 100 yards or better over two seasons. He averaged 134.8 yards per game, a school record and the third best mark in Lone Star Conference history.

In addition to his rushes, he caught 14 passes for 102 yards in 1978. Aldridge holds the Angelo State career rushing mark of 3,298 yards (4.9 average). He scored 36 touchdowns, 15 his final year.

RUBEN VAUGHAN • Defensive Tackle • Colorado

Ht. 6-2 • Wt: 264 • Born: 8/5/56 • D-6

Strongman Ruben Vaughan, a college middle guard, will be given a chance to make the 49ers as a defensive tackle "because of exceptional athletic ability," according to 49ers Director of Player Personnel John McVay. A two-time All-Big 8 selection, Vaughan has bench pressed 475 pounds and has run the 40-yard dash in 4.7.

Most effective against the run in college, he had a single-game tackling high of 17 stops against Kansas in a 1977 contest. For his career, he racked up 253 tackles, including 108 unassisted tackles.

PHIL FRANCIS • Fullback • Stanford

Ht. 6-1 • Wt: 205 • Born: 1/10/57 • D-7

Despite missing the final four games of 1978 with an ankle injury, Phil Francis rushed for just under 500 yards, averaging 4.5 yards per carry, and was leading the nation in pass receptions with 49 when he went out of the Stanford lineup.

Francis had other injuries that slowed his collegiate career — a concussion, and injuries to both shoulders that were later repaired by surgery. His last operation was prior to his junior season, the year he began playing for Bill Walsh when the latter came to Stanford.

Francis has run the 40-yard dash in 4.6, and Walsh is optimistic he'll fit into the 49ers' passing game as he did at Stanford. "The first time I saw Phil I said he's the type player who can be a good pro running back," said Walsh. "He could give us good, solid help in a backup role as a runner and as a pass receiver." Francis caught 88 passes during his career.

STEVE HAMILTON • Defensive Lineman • Missouri

Ht. 6-3 • Wt: 240 • Born: 6/10/56 • D-9

Steve Hamilton is one of two defensive linemen drafted by the 49ers. A tackle at Missouri, Hamilton, according to defensive line coach Chuck Studley, "has excellent size and mobility, and excellent hands, which will help make him a fine pass rusher. He projects as a defensive end for us at this time."

Hamilton had 164 career tackles with 67 solo tackles in three years as a starter. His senior year he stacked up 82 tackles with 33 unassisted tackles.

ROOKIES, Cont.

DWIGHT CLARK • Wide Receiver • Clemson
Ht. 6-3 • Wt: 204 • Born: 1/8/57 • D-10A

In their first tenth-round selection, the 49ers added a second receiver to their draft list to go along with first choice James Owens. Dwight Clark, who teamed with Clemson's All-America QB Steve Fuller, was a member of one of the top passing attacks in the nation.

Projected by the 49ers as a pro wide receiver, Clark will be tested with the idea of being used at both flanker and tight end as a situation receiver.

"Dwight was injured early last season and missed four games," said quarterback coach Sam Wyche, who personally tried out the Clemson player. "Playing opposite Jerry Butler (first round pick of Buffalo), Dwight did not get a lot of publicity this year. But, he is an excellent receiver, great with his hands."

In three years as a varsity player, Clark caught 55 passes for 845 yards and a 15.4 average.

HOWARD BALLAGE • Kick Returner/Cornerback • Colorado

Ht. 6-1 • Wt: 182 • Born: 10/7/57 • D-10B

The 49ers consider Howard Ballage a sleeper in this year's draft. Ballage played both running back and wide receiver as a collegian but was drafted for his kickoff return ability and also will be looked at as a cornerback.

In his senior year, Ballage returned 18 kickoffs for 530 yards for a 29.4-yard average. That figure was second best in the nation in 1978. Scout Tony Razzano said, "He has great, natural ability to feel out tacklers, and has outstanding speed and quickness."

Ballage, who scouts timed in 4.48, broke a 100-yard touchdown return against Nebraska last season.

BILLY McBRIDE • Defensive Back • Tennessee State

Ht. 6-1 • Wt: 187 • Born: 7/31/56 • D-11

The 49ers final selection in the '79 draft was Billy McBride, a cornerback from Tennessee State.

The only college defensive back taken by the 49ers in the draft, McBride appears to have a good chance of sticking. "He has all the tools needed to be a cornerback in the NFL," said 49ers' secondary coach Norb Hecker, "so that basically makes him a good prospect. Because he's the only cornerback we decided to select, his chances of making the club are that much better."

McBride picked off four passes for Tennessee State last fall.

The 49ers Historical Highlights

Here are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1950 — The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 — In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle" the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y.A. Title and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952 — After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953 — The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 — Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955 — With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as a head coach.

1956 — In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 — This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49ers history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 — An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 — With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J.D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49ers to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 — Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961 — The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 — For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false — the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 — Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 — Club chief executive Victory P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season although they proved to be one of the toughest defensive clubs in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 overall record.

1965 — Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 — After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before midway in the season and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual World Champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they rolled to a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were All Pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 — An auspicious start (they were 5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. Quarterback George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots however, as, with John Brodie in fine form, the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game, guard Howard Mudd and linebacker Dave Wilcox were named to All-Pro teams, and Mudd and center Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight time.

1968 — Under new coach Dick Nolan the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record as the season turned on key wins over New York, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, receiver Clif McNeil and running back Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while tackle Charlie Krueger, linebacker Dave Wilcox and defensive back Kermit Alexander, sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and guard Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL, and joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 — Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season, went five game before beating Baltimore, the first time they had done that in 13 previous games. It got a little better after that (final record was 4-8-2) and five players — Jim Johnson, Dave Wilcox, Elmer Collett, Ken Willard and rookie Gene Washington — were selected for the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Eshmont Award.

1970 — This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The 10-3 record was the best as an NFL club, the Western Division (NFC) championship was the first in the NFL. In a season of superlatives, John Brodie was the NFL's "Player of the Year," Bruce Taylor was NFC "Rookie of the Year," Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC "Coach of the year," Brodie, receiver Gene Washington, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined by tackle Len Rhode in being selected for the Pro Bowl.

1971 — The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in the bitterly-remembered 1957 game. The season was also the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. Center Forrest Blue, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Gene Washington, Vic Washington, Cedrick Hardman and Bruce Taylor.

1972 — Early-season inconsistency compounded by an injury to John Brodie in the fifth game of the season cast a pall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC West title, but Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game the recovered Brodie relieved Steve, threw two TD passes for 20-17 win over Minnesota that clinched NFC West title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. Center Forrest Blue, defensive back Jimmy Johnson, tight end Ted Kwalick, wide receiver Gene Washington and linebacker Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 — In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule and falling victim to a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of quarterback John Brodie and defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. Center Forrest Blue and Dave Wilcox were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Woody Peoples and Tom Wittum.

1974 — The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter Steve Spurrier a week before the season opened sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games the club lost a team record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of the last five games to finish the season at 6-8. Running back Wilbur Jackson was named SPORTING NEWS "Rookie of the Year" and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with quarterback Tom Owen and defensive back Mike Holmes. Center Forrest Blue and punter Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro linebacker Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 — A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles in Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, defensive end Cedrick Hardman was the club's only All-Pro selection and only player chosen for the Pro Bowl. Jimmy Johnson became the club's first-ever two-time Eshmont Award winner.

1976 — A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new quarterback Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever, 6-1, before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak that knocked the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with his 1,203 yards on the ground. Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, Cleveland Elam, and Dave Washington. Center Randy Cross was a NFL All-Rookie team selection. Tommy Hart became a two-time winner of the Eshmont Award. Cornerback Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 — In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began an all new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests for a 5-9 record overall. Strong safety Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Eshmont Award. Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC team in the Pro Bowl.

1978 — The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 in '78 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First, Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new Coach and General Manager on January 9, 1979, replacing O'Connor as coach and Joe Thomas as General Manager. Running back Paul Hofer, who replaced acclaimed O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. No 49er received post-season honors in '78, as five starters — in addition to Simpson — were lost for the year with injuries.

Stadium Information

The San Francisco 49ers begin their ninth year in Candlestick Park. Candlestick is recognized as one of the better combination football and baseball stadiums in the United States.

The "new" Candlestick was completed in 1972 (the 49ers played in the park while it was still under construction in 1971), when it was completely encircled, carpeted with Astroturf, furnished throughout with comfortable chairs (no bleachers), and surrounded by additional parking space.

The stadium seats 61,197 for football. There are three major ticket plazas and entry levels. Every seat in the stadium is a chairtype, plastic unit for comfort and durability. Completely double-decked, the park features a 7,394-seat movable section.

In the spring of 1979, the artificial turf was replaced by natural grass.

1979 NFL Rules Adopted to Foster Safety

1. Prohibit all players on the receiving team from blocking opponents below the waist during kickoffs, punts and field goal attempts.
2. Stipulate mandatory equipment for all players to wear when they participate in games; outlined illegal equipment and illegal alteration of equipment.
3. Broadened the zone where a crackback block is prohibited from 3 yards to 5 yards on either side of the line of scrimmage.
4. Provided that 3 players may be returned from the Injured Reserve after the final cutdown.
5. No charged time out in final two minutes to a team whose player has been injured as the result of a personal foul.
6. Permission for players to wear elbow and knee pads, in addition to a helmet, during off-season camps and all tryouts.

1979 NFL Rule Changes

Prohibited all players on the receiving team from blocking opponents below the waist during kickoffs, punts and field goal attempts.

Stipulated mandatory equipment for all players to wear when they participate in any game.

Extended the prohibited crackback zone from 3 yards on either side of the line of scrimmage to 5 yards on either side of the line in order to provide a greater measure of protection for the players.

If an offensive player fumbles anywhere on the field during a fourth down play or if a player fumbles on any down after the 2 minute warning in a half, only the fumbling player is permitted to recover and/or advance the ball.

A team whose player is injured as the result of a personal foul committed during the last two minutes of a half will no longer be charged with a time out if he is disabled after the penalty has been assessed.

Stipulated that if a member of the receiving team touches a scrimmage kick in the field of play or in the end zone and a member of the kicking team legally recovers the ball in the end zone, the kicking team will retain possession either at the spot of first touch by receivers, or at one yard line.

Clarified the automatic referee's time out whenever a quarterback is sacked behind the line in order to provide for a consistent length of time for the clock to be stopped before it is restarted again.

Provided for the captain who lost the pre-game coin toss to delay his second half choice until immediately prior to start of second half kickoff.

A period can be extended to permit a team whose opportunity to catch a scrimmage kick has been interfered with on the last play of a half (but no fair catch signal was given). That team will be allowed to run one play from scrimmage or attempt a field goal from free kick instead of only being permitted to attempt a free kick as in the past.

Any time a player, who has been substituted for, leaves the field on the wrong side of the field or over the end line in the end zone, his team will be penalized five yards from the previous spot whether or not the violation is discovered during the down or at the end of the down. In previous years if the violation was discovered after the down was over, the play had to count and the team was then penalized.

Adjusted numbering of players to allow defensive linemen to wear numbers in the nineties.

Also, The Following Was Endorsed By The NFL:

1. Head coaches agreed that at their next meeting they would discuss the prohibition of coaching chop-blocking techniques.
2. Officiating mechanics will be refined to afford more protection to all players, especially quarterbacks, by the utilization of a quick-whistle.
3. All attempts to throw a punch or deliver a kick will be penalized the same as if contact had been achieved by such action.
