Mrs. Anthony J. Morabito

Mrs. Victor P. Morabito

The San Francisco 49ers, oldest original major league professional football franchise west of the Mississippi, begin their 30th year representing San Francisco and The Bay Area with the 1975 season, and their 30th year under the basic original ownership with which they began.

Over the previous 29 years, the 49ers have established themselves among the most exciting and colorful teams in professional football. There have been great players, great games and highly-successful seasons.

And there has been established a lasting tradition for operating as an always "first class" organization.

That reputation did not come easily and is the result of a strong pioneering effort—and enduring faith.

When Anthony J. "Tony" Morabito, the club's founder, watched the first 49er team take the field in 1946, he had set in motion the first major league professional sports operation ever to originate in the State of California.

Tony, later joined by his younger brother, Victor, survived those early days, many of them tough, struggling days, to achieve a level of success with the 49ers which enabled sports fans in Northern California, in fact, the entire state, to enjoy what has become one of the national hotbeds of professional sport.

In the beginning, the 49ers were members of the All-America Football Conference. They joined the National Football League prior to the 1950 season.

Tony Morabito passed away during the 1957 season, to be succeeded by Vic Morabito as the club's chief executive officer. Upon Vic's death, in 1964, Louis G. Spadia, then general manager, became the club's top working executive. He was named president prior to the 1967 season.

The San Francisco 49ers are a limited partnership with the major interest being held by Mrs. Anthony J. Morabito and Mrs. Victor P. Morabito.

ROSTER NOTES

The eventual roster for each NFL team in 1975 will be 43 players. There will be no so-called "taxi" squad. All 43 will be carried on the active roster. Cutdown dates to reach the eventual 43-man limit are as follows:

Tuesday, Aug. 12 — 60
 Tuesday, Aug. 19 — 55
 Tuesday, Sept. 2 — 49
 Tuesday, Sept. 9 — 46
 Monday, Sept. 15 — 43

After the cut has been made to 49, there will be no recall allowed, nor will there be withdrawal of claims allowed.

The 49er roster carried in this press guide lists a total of 119 players, 47 veterans, 21 drafted rookies and 51 free agents..

On the 1975 49er roster there are six veterans in double figures as far as NFL experience is concerned. Tackle Len Rohde begins his 16th year, Quarterback Norm Snead and Cornerback Jimmy Johnson both go into year No. 15, Kicker Bruce Gossett begins his 12th season, and both Safety Mel Phillips and Offensive Lineman Randy Beisler are entering their 10th year.

A variety of available weaponry, a solid cadre of good veterans and a significant addition of young talent to the roster all make it apparent that the San Francisco 49ers could become, rather rapidly as a matter of fact, one of the more interesting teams in the NFL's 1975 title chase.

Not the least of a number of causes for a positive 49er view of 1975 is last year's strong finish in which the club pulled itself free of a seven-game losing streak to win four of its final five games and climb to second place in the NFC's Western Division final standings.

During that turn-around, San Francisco scored 14 touchdowns, with rookie quarterback Tom Owen at the controls, while a resurged defense allowed only four TDs and accomplished back-to-back shutouts over Chicago and Atlanta along the way.

At season's end the 49ers ranked sixth in the NFC in total offense, fourth in rushing offense (highest since their 5th-place finish in 1971 when they won their second Western Division title), and 10th in pass offense.

Defensively, San Francisco ranked eighth totally, 11th against the rush and third against the pass.

The rise to fourth in rushing offense (1,981 yards) accomplished a jump from 13th in that category in 1973 and Wilbur Jackson (eighth-ranked among individual runners in the NFC) became the first rookie to lead 49er ground gainers since 1965.

Both Owen (88 completions in 184 attempts, 1,327 yards and 10 TDs) and Jackson (705 yards on 174 carries) were named to the NFL All-Rookie team and Jackson was NFC "Rookie of the Year" on the majority of selections.

Owen, a strong-armed, tough and determined youngster from Wichita who surfaced from being a 13th-round draft choice, is currently the leading candidate to establish stability at quarterback, stability that was disrupted when Steve Spurrier was injured (shoulder separation followed by surgery) in the final pre-season game of 1974.

San Francisco used five quarterbacks, including veteran Norm Snead, acquired in trade from the New York Giants, last year before Owen claimed the job in the final stages of the season.

Spurrier, who threw only three passes all year, and Snead, who performed well in spot situations (he played in only six quarters, completed 30 of 48 passes for 368 yards and two TDs while limited by a sore knee) are the only other quarterbacks on the veteran roster.

Jackson, San Francisco's No. 1 draft choice from Alabama, heads up a potentially brilliant set of young running backs with last year's co-starter Larry Schreiber, the greybeard of the lot going into his fifth year, and Del Williams, Sammy Johnson and Manfred Moore, all of whom were rookies last year.

In addition, San Francisco drafted powerback Wayne Bullock (5th), from Notre Dame, and has signed high-rated Kermit Johnson, UCLA's all-time ground gaining All-American, whose rights they obtained in the 1974 draft.

Williams, who backed up Jackson last year, averaged 5.6 yards a carry and had the club's longest run from scrimmage, a 71-yard TD romp against Oakland. Sammy Johnson was Schreiber's relief and averaged 5.4 yards per try in the role.

Each of the returning backs is also considered a good receiver and the 49ers like to throw in their direction.

Traditionally, San Francisco quarterbacks have always had good receivers to throw to and with brilliant Gene Washington and emerging star Terry Beasley, both at wide receiver, and Tom Mitchell at tight end, the situation still exists.

Obviously, the unsettled quarterback situation in 1974 kept their totals down, but as a group they caught 9 of the team's 15 TD passes and averaged 16.8 yards per reception.

Washington, going into his seventh year, caught 17 of his final season total of 29 in the second half of the season, wound up with a 21.2-yds. per catch average and six touchdowns.

A potentially brilliant addition comes in the swift form of former Air Force Academy All-American Ernie Jennings. The 49ers drafted Jennings in 1971 taking a chance that he might want to play after his military commitment. He did and will bring, somewhat matured, the talent that enabled him to catch 74 passes for 1,289 yards and 17 TDs as an Air Force senior.

Backing up Mitchell at tight end will be 3rd-year man Al Chandler, acquired from Cincinnati in the off-season, and 9th-round choice Dan Natale, of Penn State.

For the past three seasons San Francisco's offensive line has had to survive a siege of injury, but that hasn't been all bad because survive it has and, in many ways, like Pollyanna, has become "better and better."

In 1974, for example, the coaching staff was forced to do an almost weekly patch up job across the offensive front. At one time both starting guards, Woody Peoples and John Watson, were out of action, center Forrest Blue missed two games (but still made the Pro Bowl) and tackle Cas Banaszek played hurt most of the year. Big Randy Beisler filled in everywhere, though he, too, was hurt some.

Only veteran tackle Len Rohde, in his 15th year, remained fairly well intact, but he had to shrug off infirmity in order to establish his team record of 208 consecutive games played in his career.

What good has come from all this adversity is that now, because they have had to play under pressure, young men such as Watson, going into only his fifth year, Jean Barrett, into his third season, Bob Penchion, into his fourth, and last year's rookie standout, second-round choice Keith Fahnhorst, can be counted upon to perform reliably as their learning process continues.

The 49ers hope to furnish further depth to this unit with the addition of giant Jeff Hart, 6-5, 266, a third-round choice from Oregon State.

JOHN WATSON

In the 1975 draft San Francisco selected with a concentration on defense, particularly in the line, by making Mississippi State's big Jimmy Webb, 6-5, 248, their No. 1 choice, Wayne Baker, 6-6, 260, of Brigham Young, a third-round selection and Cleveland Elam, Grambling's 6-3, 260-pound defensive end, a fourth-round pick.

Both Webb and Baker are tackles which means there will be a trio of large young men challenging incumbents Bob Hoskins and Bill Belk, the third candidate being UCLA's Bill Sandifer, 6-6, 278, himself a first-round choice from the 1974 draft.

Sandifer was hurt in a college all-star game before ever reporting to the 49ers last year, had knee surgery and did not play at all until late in the year. When he did begin work, however, he made a strong impression.

At the defensive end positions the high-quality tandem of Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart still prevail, healthy and moving into what should be the prime years of their careers. Hardman is entering year six and Hart year eight. Belk and Rolf Krueger are veteran backups and the aforementioned Elam could mount a strong challenge.

GENE WASHINGTON

FORTY NINER PROSPECTUS — 1975

Skip Vanderbunt, former right side starter, shoulders the burden of replacing the retired Dave Wilcox on the left side of the 49er linebacking setup. Vanderbunt, entering his 7th season, played the position in relief of the ailing Wilcox last year and did what his coaches felt to be an outstanding job.

Wilcox's retirement and Vanderbunt's subsequent ascension to the job focuses attention on the backup positions to be battled for by veterans Billy McKay and Ceaser Belser and rookie draftees Preston Kendrick (8th) and Dale Mitchell (13th).

McKay saw action in all 14 games last year.

Young Willie Harper, whose first two campaigns have been outstanding, may make a move toward All-Pro status this year. He will return as the right side starter.

In the middle, nine-year veteran Frank Nunley reclaimed his starting job in 1974, performed well in directing a defensive climb from 10th-ranked in 1973 to eighth last year in the NFC.

Behind Nunley will be Penn State's Tom Hull, back for his second year, and there will probably be a challenge from Greg Collins, 6-3, 228-pound second-round choice from Notre Dame.

There was further good news for the 49er defense with the expected return of Jimmy Johnson, an institution as the club's starting left cornerback.

Despite the fact that he had one of his best seasons in the past three years and was selected to the post-season Pro Bowl, the 37-year-old Johnson had considered retirement, but indications now are that he will return for year No. 15 as one of the best cornerbacks ever to play in the NFL.

On the right side, Bruce Taylor, as is the way with quality athletes, has improved steadily and 1974 was generally conceded by his coaches to have been his best year. The challenges don't come his way as often as they used to and his strong performance was a key factor in San Francisco's third-place finish on pass defense last year.

Nobody has suffered more misfortune in recent seasons than San Francisco's well-regarded strong safety Mel Phillips. Mel broke an arm in 1972, the same arm again in 1973 and, last year, broke both arms and played in only six games.

But he'll be back, cast-free, for his 10th season. Last year young Windlan Hall, originally scheduled to be the starting free safety, moved in for Phillips and did a fine job, while third-year man Ralph McGill and rookie Mike Holmes handled the free safety chores. Holmes made some All-Rookie team selections on the basis of his work. McGill was the club's interception leader with five for the year. He also played some corner.

And, this year, San Francisco reclaimed former No. 1 draft choice Tim Anderson, a hard-hitter from Ohio State who was the club's first choice in 1971. Anderson has had four good years in Canadian football and is expected to offer some immediate help to the 49ers. At the moment, he is projected at strong safety, but will probably also get a look at corner.

From this year's draft, fourth-round choice Frank Oliver, from Kentucky State, was the first defensive back selected by San Francisco.

In the area of specialty teams the 49ers have veteran Bruce Gossett as their incumbent field goal man. Gossett, like virtually every other kicker in the league, had a little problem adjusting to the new kicking rules last year, but still led the team in scoring (58 points), now ranks as one of the few men ever to score more than 1,000 points in a career. Bruce has 1,021 in 11 seasons.

SKIP VANDERBUNT

JIMMY JOHNSON

FORTY NINER PROSPECTUS — 1975

Punter Tom Wittum enhanced his position in his second season after leading the NFC as a rookie. Wittum, also a place kicker who handled kickoff chores last year, averaged 41.2-yds. per punt, finished second in the NFC and was the conference punter in the Pro Bowl for the second time.

The 49ers drafted for kicking depth when they selected the nation's top kick scorer from the colleges last year, Maryland's Steve Mike-Mayer, in the third round. Mike-Mayer, a soccer-style kicker who had 79 points and was the kickoff man for the Terrapins as well, is the brother of Atlanta kicker Nick Mike-Mayer.

Kick return men abound with Holmes, Manfred Moore and Jackson all having done kickoff return duty last year and having averaged 24.5, 22.1 and 20.6 yards a try, respectively.

Moore, Ralph McGill, Holmes and Bruce Taylor are all better than adequate punt returners, with McGill and Taylor each having led the NFL in the department at one time or another in their careers.

Moore impressed last year when he returned one 88 yards for a touchdown against Atlanta to record the second-longest punt return in the club's history.

TOM WITTUM

BY POSITIONS . . .

OFFENSE

Receivers: Fine veteran Gene Washington, speed burner Terry Beasley and tough tight end Tom Mitchell are all high-quality performers. With a stabilized QB situation they could become a highly-productive unit with good depth coming from veterans Mike Bettiga and Robert West and well-regarded rookie Ernie Jennings, at wide receiver, and 3rd-year man Al Chandler, acquired in an off-season trade from Cincinnati, at tight end. Strong unit with speed and top talent.

TOM MITCHELL

Running Backs: Again, another unit with good depth—and youthful talent. Wilbur Jackson, despite a slow start last year because of injury, proved to be everything the 49ers thought he was when they made him their No. 1 draft choice, and the other rookies, Del Williams, Sammy Johnson and Manfred Moore, all proved excellent choices. Williams, a fast, nifty runner, could make a wide receiver and all of the rookies impressed as pass catchers. Reliable Larry Schreiber, last year's starter with Jackson, returns for just his fifth season. The 49ers drafted powerback Wayne Bullock, of Notre Dame, in the fifth round and signed UCLA's all-time leading ground gainer, Kermit Johnson, whom they drafted seventh in 1974.

Donnie Layton, from South Carolina State, was a 10th-round draftee this year. Young group with great promise, both as a group and individually.

Quarterback: Tom Owen's emergence in the second half of the 1974 season marked him as the top prospect for 1975. In all, he started seven games, proved an accurate, strong thrower with the ability to take punishment and survive. The physical punishment (he was sacked 25 times for 202 yds.) should lessen after his year's experience with both his own receivers and the NFL pass rush. Owen, who completed 88 of 184 pass attempts (47.8%) for 1,327 yards, 10 TDs, was named to the NFL All-Rookie team. Steve Spurrier was scheduled to be last year's starter but was injured in the final pre-season game (shoulder separation followed by surgery) and played hardly at all. Norm Snead came to the 49ers via trade from the New York Giants prior to the seventh game of the regular season, played in only three games (six quarters, in all) for San Francisco, but played well despite knee problems. After Spurrier's injury, the 49ers used five quarterbacks in all last year, but the situation seems to be settling down heading into 1975. There are no drafted QBs in San Francisco's roster, but five free agents will report to training camp—Craig Kimball, San Jose; Bill August, Brigham Young; Eric Scott, Illinois State; Mike Terrizzi, Purdue; and Joe Wagner, Wisc.—La-Crosse. Owen has the edge because of more playing time in '74, but Spurrier and Snead are both highly capable—and both will report healthy. Stability is the key.

NORM SNEAD

Line: With everybody healthy this is an outstanding unit. The long-time veterans—tackles Len Rohde and Cas Banaszek, guards John Watson, Woody Peoples and Randy Beisler, center Forrest Blue—are all superior players, and the younger performers such as Jean Barrett, 6-6, 254, who started four games (two at guard, two at center) last year, Keith Fahnhorst, 6-6, 255, and Bob Penchion, 6-6, 252, played quite a bit, and well, last season. They offer good depth, could challenge for starting jobs. Third-round choice Jeff Hart, 6-5, 266, from Oregon State, and ninth-round selection Cease: Douglas, 6-5, 272, from Illinois Wesleyan, are the top rookie prospects. Good personnel with the right combination of veteran experience and young talent.

DEFENSE

Line: At end, veterans Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart are a superb tandem in the prime of their playing careers. Veteran backups are reliable Bill Belk, who actually started at tackle most of the '74 season, and Rolf Krueger. Top rookie candidates are fourth-round choice Cleveland Elam, 6-3, 225, from Tennessee State, and eighth-round choice Preston Kendrick, 6-2, 217, from Florida. Kendrick, however, may play linebacker. At tackle, incumbents Bob Hoskins, who had a good year in '74, and Bill Belk, converted end who shared starting time with Stan Hindman last year, will face a challenge from last year's first-round choice Bill Sandifer, 6-6, 278, and this year's first-round choice Jimmy Webb, 6-5, 248, from Mississippi State, along with third-round choice Wayne Baker, 6-6, 266, from Brigham Young. Sandifer, from UCLA, played some in the latter stages of the 1974 season after recovering from pre-season knee surgery. Infusion of top-grade new talent should make this a strong, durable and effective unit.

BOB HOSKINS

Linebackers: Former right-side starter Skip Vanderbundt takes over on the left at the spot vacated by Dave Wilcox's retirement. A strong performance from him is important. Willie Harper, going into his third season, may make a move toward All-Pro consideration on the right side. Frank Nunley reclaimed his starting job in the middle and played well in '74, with Penn State rookie Tom Hull seeing quite a bit of time in a backup role. Billy McKoy and Cease: Belser were the other backup men. The 49ers took Notre Dame's Greg Collins, 6-3, 228, in the second round with the idea of working him as a middle backer. Chief aim here will be to toughen up defense against the run.

Secondary: Jimmy Johnson, returning for year number 15, had an outstanding '74 season at left cornerback, the first fully-healthy year he has had in awhile. He was selected to the

FORTY NINER PROSPECTUS — 1975

Pro Bowl. Bruce Taylor, who returns for his sixth season, had what coaches considered his best year. 49ers brought in Hugo Hollas and John Saunders as backup men, and rookie Mike Holmes and Ralph McGill also saw some reserve duty as corner men. At strong safety, outstanding Mel Phillips, who goes into his 10th season this year, broke both arms and played in only six games. Tough Windlan Hall, originally scheduled as starting free safety moved into the strong position and did a good job, while McGill and Holmes shared the free position with McGill at the starter most of the time. McGill led the club in intercepts with five. Holmes was named to a number of All-Rookie teams. Biggest change here may come from San Francisco's reclamation of Tim Anderson, former Ohio State All-American, whom the 49ers had drafted No. 1 in 1971. Anderson has since played four years in Canada, but is now a 49er rookie and a probable strong safety candidate. The 49ers drafted three defensive backs—Frank Oliver, Kentucky State, 4th; James Johnson, Tennessee State, 9th; and Gene Hernandez, TCU, 11th. Despite some patchwork last year because of injury, this unit was chiefly responsible for 49ers' 3rd-place ranking in NFC pass defense.

CEDRICK HARDMAN

SPECIAL TEAMS

Good kick returners among the veterans with Bruce Taylor and Ralph McGill each having led the NFL in punt returns at least once in their careers, and Manfred Moore, Mike Holmes and Wilbur Jackson all having done good duty in the kickoff return assignment last year. Holmes averaged 24.5 yds. to lead 49er kickoff return men, while Moore, who had an 88-yd. TD return, topped punt returners with a 29.8 average. Among the rookies only defensive back Frank Oliver has had much kick return experience.

Tom Wittum, in his second season, was the NFC Pro Bowl punter for the second time. He was the conference's top punter as a rookie, second last year with a 41.2 average. Wittum is also a place kicker and handled 49er kickoffs last year. Field goal specialist Bruce Gossett, who led the club with 58 points last year to become one of the few men to have scored more than 1,000 points (1,021) in their career, returns for his 12th year, and San Francisco drafted (3rd round) Maryland's Steve Mike-Mayer, a strong-legged soccer styler, who led the nation's collegiate kick scorers in '74 with 79 points.

Returned the next year scheduled to play tight end, but trade and injury opened a tackle position and he moved into a starting job, which he has never relinquished.

COMMENT: From Coach Dick Nolan—"Game in and game out, Banaszek comes up against the opposition's toughest rusher and invariably does a great job. When he's healthy, there aren't many any better anywhere."

Missed all of the 1973 season with a shoulder injury and was active for only eight games in his rookie year. Has great speed and is an outstanding pass catcher who moves well with the ball after the catch.

COMMENT: From Beasley—"There's such a thing as confidence which makes a receiver grow up. What I really like to do is get into that endzone.

Joined 49ers: No. 1 draft choice prior to the 1968 season.

PRO: An All-Pro center and Pro Bowl selection for the past four years. Despite some injury problems, has missed only two games in the last six seasons. Missed those two games last year when he fractured his nose and a cheek bone on the same play. Has scored one TD as a pro, a 25-yd. fumble return against New England in 1971.

COMMENT: From Forrest Blue on blocking responsibilities—"On running plays we stress area blocking rather than man-to-man. Our job is to clear a designated area. It prevents confusion and missed assignments if the opposition suddenly decides to attack from different areas by stunting.

That's why our backs so often shift directions. They're taught to run to daylight, specifically to a cleared area."

COLLEGE: Earned 3 varsity letters at center and some All-American recognition in his senior year. Played in the Blue-Gray, Senior Bowl and College All-Star post season games. Auburn captain his senior year. Also played baseball at Auburn, graduated with a degree in economics.

PERSONAL: Born in Marfa, Tex., but grew up in Tampa, Fla. Married, wife's name is Anne, and they are parents of two daughters, Brandi Nichole (11/13/70) and Britney Lyn (11/5/72). Has a sales development and manufacturing company in Sunnyvale. Lists hobbies as golf, hunting and fishing.

No. 83 ALBERT M. (Al) CHANDLER Off-Season
 Pos. Born Ht. Wt. College NFL Yr. Residence
T 11/18/50 (25) 6-3 229 Oklahoma 3 Oklahoma City, Okla.
Joined 49ers: In trade (draft choice) from Cincinnati prior to 1974 season.
PRO: Drafted in the 2nd round by the Bengals in the 1973 draft but has played very little as a tight end, but quite a lot with the special teams. Rated as an outstanding blocker. Playing behind Bob Trumpy with the Bengals. Chandler caught no passes as a rookie, only one for nine yards last season.
COLLEGE: Played on the same University of Oklahoma teams as Greg Pruitt and was named to several All-America teams. Was All-Big Eight in both his junior and senior years.
PERSONAL: Born in Oklahoma City where he was an outstanding athlete at Douglass High School. Not married.

No. 71 KEITH VICTOR FAHNHORST (FAHN-horst) Off-Season
 Pos. Born Ht. Wt. College NFL Yr. Residence
T 2/6/52 (23) 6-6 266 Minnesota 2 New Brighton, Minn.
Joined 49ers: No. 2a (Del Williams was 2b) in draft prior to 1974 season.
PRO: Played tight end (his college position) during the pre-season of his rookie year but was working permanently at tackle where the 49ers had projected him by the time the league season began and is now considered one of the top young linemen to come into the NFL in quite awhile. Illness cost him some weight and strength during the latter stages of the season, but he never missed a game and turned in some strong special teams work. The problem overcome, he put on weight and worked on a strength program in the off-season.
COMMENT: From Coach Dick Nolan—"When this guy blocks he really fires out. He rolls up people like window shades." From Fahnhorst about his added weight—"I worked out on Nautilus machines at the University (Minnesota) at least three times a week after my weight started coming back (he was down to 231 at season's end in 1973), so I'm in shape. The added weight is all muscle. I know what's expected of me and I'm going to give it my best shot."
COLLEGE: Was regular tight end at Minnesota for three years, but, in the Gophers' run-oriented offense, caught only 28 passes for 416 yards and one TD during the three seasons. Was such a devastating blocker, however, that he was All-Big 10 as a senior, played in the East-West Game and the Senior Bowl. Majored in psychology.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Cloud, Minn. Went to St. Cloud Tech and earned three varsity letters as a tight end—linebacker, two as a basketball center and three as a discus thrower in track. Has two brothers and a sister. Married in the off-season, wife's name is Susan. Keith continued studies at Minnesota in the off-season.

No. 30 DANIEL BRUCE GOSSETT
 Pos. Born Ht. Wt. College NFL Yr. Residence
K 11/9/41 (33) 6-1 220 Richmond 12 Cupertino, Calif.
Joined 49ers: From Rams in trade (Kermit Alexander, draft choice) prior to 1970 season.

PRO: Like virtually every other place kicker in the NFL last year, Gossett had some trouble adjusting to the new rules, plus he had the added handicap of having three different holders (Joe Reed, Tom Wittum, Hugo Hollas) during the season. Nonetheless, he hit 11 of 24 field goal attempts and 25 of 27 PATs in 1974 to bring his career total to 1,031 points to now rank 3rd among active scorers in the NFL, 5th among active players in the NFL and 7th on the all-time NFL scoring list. His 58 points totaled in 1974 were the fewest in his career for a single season. In his career he has hit 96.6% in PATs (376 of 383) and 60.8% in FGs (219 of 360). His personal record for field goal distance is 54 yards (also a 49er record) against New Orleans in 1973. In that same season he had a consecutive FG streak of 13 over a five-game period that ranks as the 2nd-longest such streak in NFL history (Jan Stenerud had one of 16). Gossett also holds the 49er single-game FG record, five for five against Denver in 1973.

COMMENT: From Gossett—"I realize I'm not going to make all of my kicks, that would be unrealistic, but the longer I have to work with a holder the better chance I have. The holder is about 85 percent of the success in field goal kicking, especially from outside the 25-yd. line. He has to get the ball down fast, laces facing away. It's a matter of timing and the center has a big part, too, because the snap has to be good. The sooner the ball is down, the better chance the kicker has."
COLLEGE: Gossett played for three different colleges in Virginia and Pennsylvania, wound up as a punter and place-kicker at Richmond.

PERSONAL: Born in Canonsburg, Pa. and attended Cecil Township HS. Now lives in Cupertino, Calif., and has been active in The Bay Area as chairman of the annual March of Dimes pro athlete decathlon. Has done Chamber of Commerce public relations work and been the "color"

No. 43 WINDLAN EDESEL HALL

Pos. Born Ht. Wt. College NFL Yr.
S 3/11/50 (25) 5-11 175 Arizona State 4

Off-Season
Residence
San Jose, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 4 choice prior to 1972 season.

PRO: Rapidly becoming recognized as one of the hardest-hitting defensive backs playing. Though small for the task, Hall took over for injured Mel Phillips as starting strong safety last year and did an outstanding job. Had been scheduled as starting free safety, a job which he had won in the 1973 season. Has also played cornerback. Has intercepted two passes, one his rookie year, one in 1973, but has scored two TDs, both on recoveries. His 66-yd. return of a fumble recovery against Philadelphia in 1973 ranks 3rd on the 49er "longests" list.

COMMENT: From Hall—"I've always been small for this game. In college I was one of the lightest guys on the team at 165 pounds. But I've never looked at my weight as a big thing. Most runners are shedding tacklers or looking for openings when I get to them. I usually have momentum built up so when I hit them I weigh as much as they do."

COLLEGE: Gained the optimum respect as a collegiate cornerback in that opponents didn't throw in his direction very much. Starter for three years. Senior year was credited with 54 unassisted tackles, 19 pass deflections and six interceptions. Majored in mathematics at ASU, with secondary education and physical education as minors.

PERSONAL: Born in Los Angeles, but graduated from Gardena, Calif., High School. Has three brothers, one sister. Brother Reedy also played defensive back at ASU and received a tryout as a free agent with the 49ers last year. Windlan is not married.

Pos. Born Ht. Wt. College NFL Yr.
DE 10/4/48 (26) 6-4 251 North Texas 6

Off-Season
Residence
Redwood City, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 1a prior to the 1970 season (1b was Bruce Taylor).

PRO: Begins his 5th year as a 49er starter. Recognized as one of the most formidable pass rushers in the NFL. In five seasons has been credited with 61 single-handed QB sacks. Has tremendous speed and agility combined with size. Had knee surgery in 1972, but is fully recovered. Started in the Pro Bowl after the 1971 season.

COMMENT: From Hardman—"I kinda play like I live—one day at a time. The only career goals I set concern the upcoming game. I have to beat my man and do the job I'm supposed to do. If I can do that, whatever long-range goals there are will be reached."

COLLEGE: Late-blooming college performer who finally settled at defensive end as a senior and turned in a sensational final year. Originally reported to North Texas State as a 5-11, 185-pound freshman, worked at both offensive and defensive back. By his junior year, however, he weighed 240, stood 6-3 and became an immediately successful defensive lineman. As a senior, he was All-MVC, played in both Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games, in each of which he was selected the outstanding defensive player.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
LB	7/30/50 (25)	6-2	215	Nebraska	3	San Jose, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 2 choice prior to the 1973 season.

PRO: Has developed into what his coaches think is one of the fine young linebackers in the game. Became a starter in the fourth game of his rookie season after the regular was injured and has not relinquished the job. Started and played in all 14 1974 games. Has great speed and range and is a sure tackler.

COMMENT: From Harper, a defensive end in college—"After a couple of years at linebacker, I think I'm beginning to be a little comfortable in the position. Actually, it wasn't that rough a transition. I played what we called an 'up' end in college and did a lot of the same things a linebacker does."

What I need to do now is improve in all areas and polish my knowledge of our overall defense."
COLLEGE: Consensus All-America defensive end for two years after earning sophomore Lineman of the Year honors. Earned three varsity letters at Nebraska, played some middle guard and running back before settling in as a defensive end. Had a career record of 178 tackles (90 unassisted), including 40 in which he threw opposing ball carriers for a remarkable 258 yards in losses.

PERSONAL: Born in Toledo, Ohio, earned two football letters, three in basketball and one in track (discus) at J. W. Scott High School. Football coach there was former Nebraska and Cardinal great, Bill "Thunder" Thornton. Has one brother, four sisters.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
DE	11/7/44 (30)	6-4	249	Morris Brown	8	Atherton, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 10 choice prior to 1968 season.

PRO: Starting left defensive end for the past five seasons, Hart has developed into one of the most dependable and effective players on the 49er roster. In his five seasons as a starter he has averaged 15 single-handed sacks and 76 unassisted tackles a season, an outstanding and consistent performance. Opponents' respect shown by his having drawn 121 doubleteam blocks in 1974 play. Has great speed (4.7 seconds for 40 yds. in gear), ran a fumble recovery 63 yds. for a TD four years ago against St. Louis. Came to the 49ers as a 213-pound linebacking prospect. Maintains a rigid weight training program through the year.

COMMENT: From Hart on leadership—"I like to let my actions speak for me, I'm kind of quiet. Sometimes I do get emotional and say how I feel. I think you can talk all you want, but you still have to do it out there on the field; if not, you're not doing a thing."

COLLEGE: Earned four varsity football letters as a "both ways" performer, playing offensive guard and offensive tackle, defensive tackle and defensive end. He was All-Conference three years, second-team NAIA All-American his senior year. Also has three letters in track as a sprinter/shot putter. Had a :09.7 in the 100-yd. dash, :48.0 in 440-yd. dash.

Joined 49ers: No. 1 draft choice prior to 1973 season, not active until 1974.

PRO: Played in 13 games last year, some of them as starting free safety. Intercepted three passes and returned them 26 yards. Was top 49er kickoff return man with 25 for 612 yds. and a 24.5 average. Ranked 6th in the NFC in that department. Also returned nine punts for 45 yards. Was named to All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly. Was considered a rookie last season because injury had prevented him from officially reporting to the 49er camp for 1973. Fluid, smooth athlete with outstanding speed, great agility and jumping ability.

COLLEGE: Set a Texas Southern career record for interceptions at 20 over a four-year period as a varsity starter. Also set the school's single-season record of nine as a junior. Called the team's defensive signals as a senior, unusual for a free safety. In his first year at TSU, Holmes was the only freshman starter, intercepted six passes as a safety. Switched to receiver as a sophomore and became the team receiving leader with 23 catches for 354 yards. Back at safety the next year he intercepted nine passes, then five more as a senior to set his record. Was selected to play in the College All-Star Game, but injury forced him out.

Joined 49ers: No. 16 draft choice prior to 1969 season, activated in '70.

PRO: San Francisco's top defensive tackle last year after an inspirational victory over Hodgkin's Disease in the off-season between the 1973 and 1974 seasons. Despite major surgery and treatment, he never missed a game in 1974, started all 14 games. Joined the 49ers as rookie offensive guard, was switched to defense prior to the 1971 season. Scored the clinching TD in the NFC playoff game four years ago against Washington when he recovered a fumble in the end zone. Played defensive end and tackle for Seattle in the old Continental League for a year before joining the 49ers.

COMMENT: From former 49er defensive line coach Paul Wiggin (now head coach, KC Chiefs)—"Bob graded out as consistently our most reliable defensive lineman last year. His techniques were good, he used his strengths well. No question he came back all the way and did a fine job for us."

COLLEGE: Played one season of varsity football at Wichita State University as a fullback and defensive end before going into the Continental League. Also earned a varsity letter in track as a discus thrower.

PERSONAL: Born in Highland, Ill., went to Edwardsville, Ill. HS where he also lettered in baseball and track. Has three sisters, five brothers. Joined 49ers: No. 12 draft choice prior to the 1974 season.

PRO: Played in 13 games last year, most of the time as a special teams member, but did see quite a bit of action at middle linebacker and was credited with a good learning year by his coaches. Highly-intelligent player with good defensive instincts. Strong tackler.

COMMENT: From Hull—"I'm a high tackler, normally. I really enjoy a good, high hit, but in the pros even those players considered as smaller backs are hard-hitting as well as quick. I've had to drop down lower to insure the tackle."

COLLEGE: In senior year at Penn State was starting inside LB on team's nationally 3rd-ranked defensive unit. Was credited with 92 tackles and two interceptions, one intercept with a 27-yd. return for a TD against Pitt. Played in the 1972 Cotton Bowl in the Penn State win over Texas, and in the exciting 1974 Orange Bowl win over LSU. Graphics design major at Penn State.

Pos. CB Born 11/19/51 (23) Ht. 6-1 Wt. 205 College Alabama

NFL Yr. 2

Off-Season Residence Ozark, Ala.

Joined 49ers: No. 1a-'74 (1b was Bill Sandifer).

PRO: Scored a sensational rookie season despite the fact that he reported to training camp with a severely injured ankle and was never really 100% through the season. Was everything he was expected to be, the bum ankle notwithstanding, as he rushed for 705 yards in 174 carries, 4.1 per carry average, caught 23 passes for 190 yards and two TDs, returned five kickoffs for 103 yards. Had a longest of 64 yds. against Detroit and has three games in which he rushed for 91 yards (14 carries vs. St. Louis; 14 carries vs. Detroit; 19 carries vs. Cleveland). Was named "NFC Rookie of the Year" by Sporting News and to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly. Was first rookie to lead 49er rushing since Ken Willard did in 1965.

COMMENT: From Wilbur Jackson—"Last year proved what every running back knows—you don't go anywhere if your line isn't 100 percent. We have some fine linemen, but, last year, because of injury, the coaches had to make changes almost every week. We couldn't get our timing down. I know I can run. It's blocking I have to concentrate on. I felt I improved last year. I'm picking up linemen better on blitzes. Where I still need work is on blocking for running plays."

COLLEGE: At Alabama, despite the fact the team rotated its backfield units, Jackson amassed a 3-yr. total of 1,537 yards on just 212 carries for a brilliant 7.2-yds. per carry average. Scored 17 TDs. Was a member of Alabama's Orange (1972), Cotton (1973) and Sugar (1974) Bowl teams (the Tide was 32-1 during his tenure there), as well as the Senior Bowl in 1974. Injured in the Coaches All-America Game.

PERSONAL: Born in Ozark, Ala., graduated from Carroll High School there where he earned two letters as a wide receiver, three as a basketball forward and two as a baseball outfielder. Not married. Has one brother, two sisters. Family still lives in Ozark.

Pos. CB Born 3/31/38 (37) Ht. 6-2 Wt. 187 College UCLA

NFL Yr. 15

Off-Season Residence San Carlos, Calif.

Joined 49ers: First of three first-round draft choices (Bernie Casey, Billy Kilmer were the others) prior to the 1961 season.

PRO: The most respected 49er of them all. Jimmy came back from an injury-scarred 1973 season to have one of his better years in 1974, and one of his better years is about as good as they get. Last year intercepted three passes and returned them 50 yards to bring his career totals to 44 interceptions for 598 yards returned, both figures 49er team records. Was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth time. Won the PFWA George Halas Award (denoting courageous play) following the 1971 season. Last year was his 13th as a 49er defensive secondary starter, now ranks fourth among the top 10 active interceptors in the NFL, which also makes him the fourth-leading active interceptor in the NFL. Broke in as a rookie defender, intercepted five passes and returned them 116 yards. Switched to offensive the following year, wound up the team's leading receiver with 34 catches for 627 yards, four TDs. Went back to defense in 1963. Won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award after the 1969 season.

COMMENT: From Fred Biletnikoff, Oakland Raiders—"He's still as good a defensive back as any playing because he still covers by relying on his quickness and reactions, the physical things. Not many people challenge him. The number of years he has played hasn't taken anything away from him."

COLLEGE: Played wingback and defensive back in earning 3 varsity football letters at UCLA, one at Santa Monica City College. Also was an outstanding track man at UCLA with a :13.9 flight of high hurdles and a 25-foot broad jump to his credit. Was an honor roll student in his junior and senior years.

PERSONAL: Born in Dallas, Texas, but graduated from Kingsburg, (Calif.) High School. Has two brothers (including former Olympic decathlon champ, Rafer) and two sisters. Enjoys off-season travel, has toured Europe, parts of the Orient and Pacific, Africa and South America. Married, wife's name is Gisela.

RB	9/22/52 (22)	6-0	223	North Carolina	2	High Point, N.C.

Joined 49ers: No. 4b-'74.

PRO: Impressive rookie performance in which he carried the ball only 44 times but managed 237 yards for a 5.4 per try average and two TDs. First time he handled the ball in regular season play resulted in a 9-yd. sprint for a TD against New Orleans. Also caught 11 passes for 106 yards, returned two kickoffs for 31 yards. Good speed, balance and excellent moves.

COMMENT: From Johnson—"I was a quarterback and linebacker before they made me a runner at North Carolina. I was a first and third down specialist and I carried the ball every time I went into the game, so I know what blocking is. I don't see any reason why I can't do it. It's just a that I still have a lot to learn about blocking. I don't see any reason why I can't do it. It's just a matter of desire and application."

COLLEGE: As a senior at North Carolina gained 1,012 yards, scored eight TDs in just 180 carries. Lettered three years at North Carolina as a halfback, but also played some linebacker as a sophomore. Captained the team as a senior. Also won a track letter as a discus thrower. Came to NC as a quarterback.

No. 49 RALPH LOUIS MCGILL

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
S	4/28/50 (25)	5-11	183	Tulsa	4	Houston, Tex.

Joined 49ers: No. 2a (Jean Barrett was 2b) draft choice prior to 1972 season.

PRO: Coming off a good 1974 performance in which he finished the year as starting free safety, led the club in interceptions (5) and returned 20 punts for 171 yards. In his three-year career to date has returned a total of 64 punts for 571 yards and an 8.9 average to rank 12th among active punt returners in the NFC. Has also done some kickoff returning for the 49ers, but not last year. As a rookie at Atlanta (10/29/72), he tied NFL record and set 49er record for number of punts returned in a single game with nine for 109 yards in returns. Longest in his career thus far has been 54 yards.

Happy-go-lucky guy with the biggest smile in the NFL.

COMMENT: From McGill on his habit of having a lot to say during a game—"I talk all the time because I want the other players to think about me instead of the ball. That's when you get yourself in trouble, when you start to worry about what I'm going to say instead of what I'm going to do. I've always been like that, but I really don't like to fight. You can get hurt fighting."

COLLEGE: Two-year Tulsa letterman after transferring from Northeastern (Okla.) where he was a junior college All-American. Returned 28 punts for 285 yards and one TD, 21 kickoffs for 500 yards and a TD, and had two interceptions for 71 yards returned in his senior year. Played in the East-West Game. Senior Bowl.

Joined 49ers: As free agent prior to 1974 season.

PRO: Saw action in all 14 games last year primarily as a special teams performer but is considered a reliable backup linebacker and did quite a bit of work in that role. Was a 5th-round draft choice of the Denver Broncos in the 1970 draft. Traded by the Broncos to Houston prior to the 1973 season, stayed with the Oilers through 1973, but waived in 1974 and picked up by the 49ers.

COLLEGE: Was a 2-yr. starter at Purdue where he played both linebacker and defensive end. Was also tried as tight end in his sophomore season. Graduated with B.A. in physical education.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
TE	8/22/44 (31)	6-3	215	Bucknell	9	Reisterstown, Md.

Joined 49ers: In trade from Baltimore (draft choices) prior to 1974 season.

PRO: Became starting tight end at the outset of the 1974 season and turned in a good year, both as a receiver and blocker. Caught 19 passes for 262 yards with biggest day being three catches for 39 yards against Oakland. Had a strong six-year career, during which he beat out both John Mackey and Raymond Chester for the starting job, with Baltimore after being No. 1 draft choice of the Oakland Raiders prior to the 1966 season. Joined the Colts in 1968. His career totals now read 175 catches for 2,349 yards (13.7 avg.) and 20 TDs. Best year so far was 1972 with 40 catches for 494 yards and four TDs. Best single game was against Jets in 1972 when he caught eight passes for 114 yards. Played some wide receiver for the Colts.

COMMENT: From Mitchell concerning 49ers' 1974 passing game—"A young quarterback tends to shy away from going to the tight end because he realizes there are all kinds of people like linebackers and the free safety roaming around in the middle. Because of his inexperience, he has trouble reading where they are. As he plays more and becomes more sure of himself, he begins to utilize his tight end more."

COLLEGE: Was the leading collegiate receiver in the East during all three varsity seasons at Bucknell compiling 2,358 yards and 18 TDs with 173 receptions. Bucknell's all-time leading receiver. First team Little All-America junior and senior years.

RB	12/22/50 (24)	6-0	194	So. California	2	Reseda, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 9 draft prior to 1974 season.

PRO: Sound, solid ball player who made a strong impression as a rookie not just because of running ability, but also blocking ability and consistently intelligent play, particularly as an outstanding special teams man. Carried just 10 times for 24 yards, but scored the 49ers' first TD of the 1974 season on a 3-yard run against New Orleans. Caught 2 passes for 29 yards, returned 18 kickoffs for 397 yards, longest of 51, and returned five punts for 149 yards, longest being 88 yards for a TD against Atlanta (11/24/74). That ranks as the 2nd-longest punt return in 49er history. Tough wedge-breaker.

COMMENT: From Moore on wedge-breaking—"There are two wedges to get by, the first set of five guys and then the guys directly in front of the returner. The first group you can get by on just speed, unless someone gets you from the side. Several things can happen when you reach the next group. My initial thought is to try and knock the blockers back into the ball carrier. I just try to get some kind of a hit on as many blockers as I can."

COLLEGE: Earned three letters at Southern California, was starting fullback through most of his senior season. Career totals 103 carries for 517 yards, 27 pass receptions for 229 yards. Was utilized primarily as a blocking back.

PERSONAL: Born in Martinez, Calif., but grew up in Southern California and went to San Fernando High School where he was a prep All-American. Married, wife's name is Ann, and they have two sons, Jason, 5, and Darrell, 2. Manfred worked in the administrative offices of the USC medical center in the off-season.

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
LB	10/1/45 (29)	6-2	230	Michigan	9	Los Altos, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 3 draft choice prior to the 1967 season.

PRO: Like so many 49ers last year, Nunley was somewhat hobbled by injury, missed a game, but managed to stay in action through most of the season. Was starting middle linebacker and was second on the squad in interceptions with four and 30 yards in returns. His career interception total now stands at 12 for 104 yards. Intelligent player noted for his unending enthusiasm.

COMMENT: From Nunley regarding his philosophy on defensive signal calling—"I study the NFL offenses as much as any defender in the game, but, now and then, you have to answer your instincts, or feelings. Once in awhile I make a mistake, but I always try something I think will work. There are times when you gamble and it pays off. There are other times when it doesn't, but you can't let yourself get too conservative."

COLLEGE: All-Big 10 for two years in earning three varsity letters at Michigan as a linebacker. Played on Michigan's Rose Bowl team, in Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games. Also lettered in baseball. Majored in education.

PERSONAL: Born in Florence, Ala., but grew up and attended high school in Belleville, Mich. Now lives full time in The Bay Area (Los Altos), and works with Bank of America in the off-season. No. 14 WILLIS THOMAS (Tom) OWEN

QB	9/1/52 (22)	6-1	194	Wichita	2	Redwood City, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 13 draft choice prior to the 1974 season.

PRO: Emergence in the second half of the 1974 season marked him as a top prospect as NFL quarterback. Started seven games in 1974, proved an accurate, strong thrower who can take punishment and survive. More traditional drop-back QB than scrambler, Owen completed 88 of 184 pass attempts (47.8%) for 1,327 yards and 10 TDs as a rookie, was the starting QB in the five final games, four of which San Francisco won. Biggest problem, of course, was inexperience, he was sacked 25 times for 202 yards in losses, but showed courage and toughness, as well as a strong arm. Was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly at the conclusion of the season.

COMMENT: From Steve Tensi, former pro QB and Owen's college coach—"What Tom was able to do last year came as no surprise to me. I always figured that, if we had had any help for him at Wichita, he would have been a cinch All-American. As it was he did a fine job even though he was running for his life much of the time."

COLLEGE: As Wichita senior completed 47% of his passes for 1,300 yards and eight TDs. Was three-year starter at Wichita becoming the QB following the tragic air crash that virtually wiped out the school's football team. Once threw two TDs in the final two minutes to win a game against Arkansas, 14-12.

PERSONAL: Born in Shreveport, La., but went to Turner High School in Kansas City, Kans., where as a senior he completed passes for more than 1,700 yards, 12 TDs. Turner officially retired his jersey (No. 9) during a "Tom Owen Day" ceremony there this past off-season. Tom moved to Redwood City after completing off-season work at Wichita last summer. Single.

COMMENT: From Bob Penchion—"I have had a chance to sharpen my play in our practices against Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. It helps me in the games having been in front of those guys all week."

COLLEGE: Selected to several All-America teams as a guard and tackle at Alcorn. Teams on which he played had an overall record of 30-12. Chosen to play in the Senior Bowl game.

SS	1/6/42 (33)	6-2	191	N. Carolina A&T	10	San Mateo, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 5 draft choice prior to the 1965 season.

PRO: One of the hardest hitters in the game. Has broken his right arm in each of the last three seasons but played anyway with a cast on the arm until last season when both his arms were broken. The double breaks limited him to six games. Both arms are now healed as Mel enters his 10th year with the 49ers. Very tenacious defender, voted the 49ers Len Eshmont Award in 1973 for courageous and inspirational play. Has started at strong safety for five years. Intercepted one pass last season returning it 27 yards to bring his career interception to seven for 89 yards, including one for a 35 yd. TD.

COMMENT: From Mel Phillips—"When you come into the league, it's because you want to play football, and you can't play this game without pain. The faster you learn this, the better off you'll be. My daughter Paulette had seen my cast so much, she thought every 49er was supposed to get one. She knows now it isn't part of the equipment."

COLLEGE: Lettered two years as halfback and played both offense and defense on team that won the CIAA championship for North Carolina A&T. In the title game he intercepted two passes, scored two TDs. As a senior at A&T, carried the ball 100 times for 648 yards, 11 TDs, caught 19 passes for 277 yards, 4 TDs. Also earned two swimming letters. All-CIAA in football as a senior.

Joined 49ers: No. 5 draft choice prior to the 1960 season.

PRO: The rugged veteran has played in 208 consecutive regular-season games along with five other playoff games to hold the 49er record in that department. Has been a starting offensive tackle for the 49ers for 13 seasons after seeing some defensive duty in the early stages of his career. His teammates voted him the coveted Len Eshmont Award last season for courageous and inspirational play. Has served as 49er player representative.

COMMENT: Len Rohde on the 1974 season—"It was frustrating but we never quit and we were never blown off the field. I think this says a lot for the character of the 49ers. It also says a lot for the future of the 49ers. We have some outstanding personnel just starting to come into their own and our running back situation was never better."

COLLEGE: One of a number of outstanding professional football players to come from Utah State, Rohde was a 3-year regular and captained the team his senior year. Was All-Conference and team's MVP. Completed work on Master's degree at San Jose State in the summer of 1969.

Recovered in time to see action in the last five games of the season and was used mainly in passing situations where he impressed with his strong inside pass rush. Tremendous size and good agility, all he lacks is experience.

COMMENT: From former defensive line coach Paul Wiggin (now head coach at Kansas City)—"The first game he played as a pro he showed strength, penetration and pursuit. When you get a guy with these three assets and athletic ability to boot you certainly expect good things to happen."

COLLEGE: Transferred to UCLA from Mira Costa JC. Was named UCLA's MVP on defense his senior year after being credited with 86 tackles for the year. Was chosen as outstanding defensive player in the East-West Shrine Game following the 1973 season.

PRO: Started all 14 games last year and had his best year ever as a 49er. Gained a total of 634 yds. on the ground in 174 carries and was the club's leading pass receiver with 30 receptions for 217 yards. Scored four TDs, three on the ground and one on a pass reception. Took over as a starter in 1972, but missed most of the 1973 season because of a knee injury and subsequent surgery. Very determined runner, has great balance and is tough to stop on the first hit. Gained 106 yards against Atlanta (11/24) last year.

COMMENT: From Larry Schreiber regarding leading the club in receptions—"A lot of them were sure safety valves, but they were mostly planned, coming off fake draw fullback shoots. We didn't really go to that more than any other year, our backs should get about 30 receptions in a season."

COLLEGE: Amassed an amazing total of 4,421 yards rushing in a 4-year varsity career at Tennessee Tech. Wound up as 4th-leading rusher in college football history. No. 11 STEVE ORR SPURRIER

Pos. QB Born 4/20/25 (30) Ht. 6-1 Wt. 203 College Florida AFL Yr. 9 Off-Season Residence Gainesville, Fla.
 Joined 49ers: No. 1a (1b) was Cas Banaszek prior to 1967 season.

PRO: Just as Spurrier established himself once and for all as the 49ers' starting quarterback prior to last season, he was felled by an injury one week before the season was to open. He missed virtually the entire year appearing in only two games and throwing just three passes, completing one for two yds. Was the starter through most of the 1972 season after John Brodie was injured early and led the club to its 3rd-consecutive NFC West title. Set a 49er single-game completion record with 31 of 48 attempts for 320 yds. and one TD against Minnesota in 1973. In 1972 he threw five TD passes against Chicago to join Brodie and Frankie Albert as co-holder of the single-game TD passes record. Has served as 49er punter and can place kick if needed.

COMMENT: From Steve Spurrier—"I think reading defenses is overrated. Most quarterbacks don't read the total defense. They're not looking all over the field but in a general area. You usually have two receivers on the same side of the field, like a back and an end. If one is covered long, you throw to the one who is open short."

COLLEGE: Fabulous college career which terminated with his winning the Heisman Trophy, being named unanimous All-American, playing in the Hula Bowl, Coaches' All-America Game, and College All-Star Game. Set 15 school records at Florida, threw 37 TD passes, set eight Southeastern Conference records and six Sugar Bowl marks. Amassed 5,290 yards in total offense—4,848 by passing. Completed 392 of 692 passes in his three varsity seasons. Brought Florida from behind to victory eight times during his tenure. Also handled team's place-kicking and punting chores.

PERSONAL: Born in Miami Beach, Fla., has one brother, one sister. Went to Science Hill High School in Johnson City, Tenn., where he was all-state in three sports. Married, and he and wife, Jerri, are parents of two daughters, Lisa (5/12/67) and Amy Christine (11/7/69) and a son, Stephen Orr, Jr. (9/26/71). Steve works at a health club, of which he is part owner, in Gainesville in the off-season. Lists golf and tennis as hobbies.

LB 12/4/46 (28) 6-3 230 Oregon State 7 Sacramento, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 3h (Lance Olssen was 3a) prior to the 1968 season, activated in 1969.

PRO: Heir apparent to the left linebacker spot left open by the retirement of Dave Wilcox. In 1972 he scored three TDs, two on interceptions and one on a 73 yard return of a recovered fumble. Intercepted two passes last year and returned them 22 yards.

COMMENT: From Skip Vanderbundt—"I can't help but feel a little remorse about Dave Wilcox's decision to retire, he was the team leader on

No. 18 GENE ALDEN WASHINGTON

Pos. WR Born 1/14/47 (28) Ht. 6-1 Wt. 188 College Stanford NFL Yr. 7 Off-Season Residence San Francisco, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 1b (1a was Ted Kwalick) prior to 1969 season.

PRO: Statistically Gene has been hurt the last two seasons by the 49ers' unsettled quarterback situation but he is still regarded as one of the most dangerous deep threats in football. Caught 29 passes last year for 615 yards, an average of 21.2 yards per catch, and six TDs. After six seasons as a starter has now caught 262 passes for 4,834 yards (18.4 avg.) and 39 TDs. Has been All-Pro and a starter in the Pro Bowl four times.

COMMENT: From Jim Shofner, former 49er defensive backfield coach and now head coach of Texas Christian—"There just isn't any legal way that one man can stop him. There isn't anyone in football good enough to cover Gene man to man. The other teams don't let a down go by without doubling up on him. That makes it much easier for the rest of the offense to work."

RB	4/17/51 (24)	6-0	195	Kansas	2	Foster City, Calif.

Joined 49ers: No. 2b (2a was Keith Falmhorst) prior to 1974 season.

PRO: Another in the 49ers' collection of fast young backs, Delvin saw action in 13 games in his rookie season last year, despite having a cast on his broken right wrist much of the year. Considered to have good enough hands to play wide receiver as well as running back. Gained 201 yards last year on 36 carries for a 5.6 yard average, and scored three TDs, one of them on a spectacular 71 yard burst against Oakland, the 49ers' longest run from scrimmage in 1974. Also caught one pass for nine yards.

COMMENT: From Delvin Williams on the 71 yard touchdown run that tied him with former 49er great Hugh McElhenny for the ninth longest run from scrimmage in the club's history—"That touchdown run was one of the greatest thrills of my life. I got a good block at the line of scrimmage and I saw nothing but daylight. There was a Raider on my heels, but I felt I could outrun him."

COLLEGE: Gained 762 yards as a Kansas senior and caught 33 passes for 253 yards and two TDs. Gained 502 yards as a sophomore, 352 as an injury-bothered junior. Also served as a kickoff return man. Selected for the East-West Game but did not play because of an injury.

No. 13 THOMAS HOWARD WITTM

Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	College	NFL Yr.	Off-Season Residence
K-P	1/11/50 (25)	6-1	185	Northern Illinois	3	Round Lake, Ill.

Joined 49ers: No. 8 prior to 1972 season.

PRO: After spending the 1972 season on the cwb squad, Wittum took over the punting chores in 1973 and led the NFC in punting. Last season he placed second in the NFC with a 41.2 yard average on an even 2800 yards in 68 kicks, with a longest of 67 yards. His two year stats of 147 punts for 6,255 yards and a 42.6 yard average make him the top active punter in the NFC, third best in the NFL. Has been selected as the NFC's punter in the Pro Bowl the past two seasons. Is also a good place kicker, but with Bruce Gossett around, he has not been called upon to place kick for the 49ers. A good all-around athlete, Wittum had the longest run from scrimmage in the NFC in 1973 when he faked a punt on 4th down against New Orleans and ran 63 yards before being caught on the 2 yard line.

COMMENT: From Tom Wittum—"Timing is the key to punting, not strength. It's like trying to hit a home run. Hank Aaron and Billy Williams don't try to kill the pitch, but use relatively easy swings. If strength was all you needed to punt, heck, Cedrick Hardman would be kicking them 100 yards.

49ERS' 1974 FINAL GAME SUMMARIES

49ERS 17, SAINTS 13 Tulane Stadium (65,071)

The 49ers opened the season in New Orleans with Joe Reed starting at quarterback in place of Steve Spurrier who was injured the previous week in the final pre-season game. On the Saints' first possession Skip Vanderbundt picked off a deflected Archie Manning pass and returned it to the New Orleans' 3 yard line and rookie Manfred Moore scored his first 49er touchdown two plays later, hitting off tackle from 3 yards out. From there the Saints' defense took over and a Bill McClard field goal at the end of the third quarter gave the Saints a 13-0 lead entering the final period. New Orleans appeared to have the game locked up until punter Donnie Gibbs, with less than two minutes remaining, hobbled the snap and the ensuing blocked punt was returned by Windlan Hall to the Saints' 9 yard line. Rookie Sammy Johnson, on his only carry of the day, swept left end for the nine yards and the 49er defense withstood a last minute Archie Manning drive to preserve the victory.

49ERS 16, FALCONS 10 Atlanta Stadium (57,122 sold) (47,686 att.)

The alert 49er defense intercepted two of quarterback Rob Lee's first three passes (one by Skip Vanderbundt, the other by Jimmy Johnson) and the offense converted them into two quick touchdowns. Joe Reed hit Danny Abramowicz with a 13 yard touchdown strike and Larry Schreiber pounded over from the one to give the 49ers an early 13-0 lead. The 49er defense allowed the only Falcon touchdown in the first quarter and the only other scoring were fourth quarter field goals by each team in a day dominated by the defenses. Larry Schreiber and rookie Wilbur Jackson teamed up for 138 yards on the ground, and the 49er defense picked off three Rob Lee passes while limiting him to just 99 yards in the air.

Cincinnati totally shut down the 49er passing game allowing only nine net yards passing in the first half and 55 for the game. Quarterback Ken Anderson threw a 22 yard touchdown pass to fleet wide receiver Isaac Curtis in the second quarter for the only points the Bengal defense would need. Anderson ran another score in himself and sub-quarterback Wayne Clark added an insurance touchdown on an 8 yard bootleg in the final period. Only bright spot for the 49ers was the running of Wilbur Jackson who picked up 33 yards on 17 carries to lead all rushers. The 49ers only scoring came on a 22 yard Bruce Gossett field goal in the second quarter.

A 58 yard scoring bomb from Joe Reed to Gene Washington and a 20 yard field goal by Bruce Gossett offset Terry Metcalf's 24 yard touchdown burst and provided the 49ers with a slim 9-7 halftime lead over the Cardinals. In the third quarter the Card's big play offense exploded as they scored 24 points on only 15 plays. Jim Hart showed why he was named MVP in the National Football Conference by rifling touchdown passes of 57 and 59 yards to speedster Mel Gray and tossing a third scoring pass to Donnie Anderson, all in the space of 11 minutes. 49er quarterbacks Reed, Dennis Morrison, and Tom Owen could manage only 7 for 20 in the air. Wilbur Jackson continued to shine, picking up 91 yards in 14 carries.

49ERS 13, LIONS 17
Tiger Stadium (49,756 sold)
(45,199 att.)

With Dennis Morrison starting at quarterback, the 49ers won the statistical battle with the Lions but lost the game as costly penalties and key interceptions provided the difference. A pass interference call in the end zone set up Detroit's first touchdown and Dick Jaaron's 45 yard punt return to the 49er 13 yard line set up the deciding score. Morrison put the ball up 40 times, completing 17 for 171 yards and one score, an 11 yard toss to Wilbur Jackson late in the final period. The 49ers were frustrated by two interceptions deep in Lion territory that nipped two potential scoring drives. Jackson broke off his longest run of the year, a 61 yard dash around left end in the third quarter, but Jaaron made a touchdown saving tackle on the 2 yard line. The 49ers were unable to punch it in in three attempts and had to settle for a Bruce Gossett field goal.

49ERS 14, RAMS 37
Los Angeles Coliseum (74,070)

The Rams scored four first half touchdowns in racing out to a 27-0 halftime lead. Dave Elmendorf picked off a Dennis Morrison pass on the 49ers' first possession and went 52 yards untouched for an early score. James Harris had a big day completing 12 of 15 passes for 276 yards and 3 touchdowns, including bombs of 50 and 44 yards to Lawrence McCutcheon and Harold Jackson respectively. Harris also ran for a score himself. Morrison and Joe Reed were ineffective in the first half, between them hitting only 2 of 11 passes for 28 yards with 2 interceptions. Tom Owen started the second half and closed the 49ers to 27-14 with two third quarter touchdown passes, but that was to be the extent of the 49ers' scoring. The Ram defense completely shut off the 49er ground game, holding them to just 67 yards for the game. A third quarter Danny Abramowicz reception gave him the career consecutive-game receiving record of 97, breaking the old record of 96 held by Lance Alworth.

49ERS 24, RAIDERS 35
Candlestick Park (61,385 sold)
(58,284 att.)

Tom Owen took over as starting quarterback against the Raiders and completed 15 of his 26 passes for 206 yards and 2 touchdowns. The teams traded scores in the first half, Oakland getting two touchdowns on a 17 yard Marv Hubbard burst and a 36 yard Ken Stabler to Cliff Branch scoring pass. The 49ers responded with a touchdown pass of 5 yards from Owen to Larry Schreiber and a 37 yard Bruce Gossett field goal. The third quarter was wild with each team scoring two touchdowns in the space of seven minutes, the most spectacular being Delvin Williams' 71 yard scoring dash, the 49ers' longest run from scrimmage of the season. Entering the final period the Raiders held a slim 28-24 advantage but the 49ers had the momentum. Three times in the final quarter they penetrated Oakland's 25 yard line and each time the Raiders forced a turnover, two interceptions and one fumble. Harold Hart picked up a fumbled punt and ran 40 yards for a score to add the clincher for the Raiders.

49ERS 13, RAMS 15
Candlestick Park (58,555 sold)
(57,502 att.)

The Rams continued their dominance over the 49ers as they won their ninth consecutive game between the two clubs. The last 49er victory was a 20-6 decision in the Coliseum in October 1970. Tom Owen started his second game for the 49ers but was unable to generate any first half offense as the Rams built up a 12-3 lead by intermission. Newly acquired Norm Snead saw his first action as a 49er, going all the way in the second half. The veteran Snead completed 11 of his 17 passes for 149 yards and 1 touchdown, a 39 yard strike to Gene Washington for the 49ers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The Ram defense brought the 49er running game to a standstill, allowing them only 65 yards on the ground, as well as sacking 49er quarterback five times.

The Dallas Cowboys, behind the running of Calvin Hill, sent the 49ers down to their seventh consecutive defeat (a team record). Hill gained 153 yards on 32 carries and scored both Cowboy touchdowns. Tom Owen started the second half in place of Norm Snead and gave the 49ers a 14-13 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 12 yard touchdown toss to Gene Washington. Roger Staubach brought the Cowboys right back with a 70 yard drive, capped by Hill's 6 yard scoring sweep, to close out the 49ers attempt to break their losing streak. The 49er running game was held in check once again, managing only 61 yards against the tough Cowboy defense. Gene Washington had his best game of the season with 7 receptions for 121 yards and a touchdown.

(42,731 att.)

Breaking their seven game losing streak in convincing fashion, the 49ers threw a 34-0 shutout at the Chicago Bears. Tom Owen sparked a 20 point second quarter outburst that decided the issue early. Owen opened the scoring himself with a 1 yard plunge and then fired two scoring passes in the last two minutes of the half, one for 68 yards to Terry Beasley, the other 20 yards to Ted Kwalick. The 68 yard bomb to Beasley was the 49ers longest passing play of the season. On the day Owen completed 15 of his 26 passes for 316 yards. While the offense was rolling up 413 yards, the 49er defense was in complete command. They yielded only 170 yards to the Bears, 99 rushing and only 71 through the air, and held them to eight first downs.

(45,435 att.)

The 49er defense held the Falcons scoreless and Tom Owen threw two touchdown passes to Gene Washington as the 49ers ran up their second straight shutout. It marked the first time since 1961, when they blanked Los Angeles and Detroit on successive Sundays, that the 49ers had had consecutive shutouts. The defense held the Falcons to 75 yards on the ground and forced five turnovers, two fumbles and three interceptions. The defense also sacked Atlanta quarterbacks four times, Cedrick Hardman accounting for three of those. Owen connected with Washington on scoring passes of 5 and 53 yards in the first half and rookie Manfred Moore raced 88 yards to a score on a punt return in the fourth quarter. Moore's punt return was the second longest in 49er history, topped only by a 94 yard return by Hugh McElhenney against the Bears in 1952.

49ERS 0, BROWNS 7
 Cleveland Stadium (53,924 sold)
 (24,559 att.)

The day belonged to the weather as neither the 49ers nor the Browns could mount any type of sustained attack in cold and snowy Cleveland Stadium. The game was scoreless until Eddie Brown's interception of a Tom Owen pass set up Ken Brown's 1 yard plunge with 3:21 remaining in the game. That score broke the 49er defense's string of scoreless quarters at 11. The 49ers had opportunities to score, but Tom Owen threw up five interceptions, three of them inside the Cleveland 5 yard line, as the 49ers suffered their first shutout since 1967 when they were blanked by the Green Bay Packers. Brown picked off three of Owen's passes and Clarence Scott was responsible for the other two thefts. Combined net yards passing for both teams was only 59 yards.

fense dominated the day. Two Chester Marcol field goals of 43 and 29 yards were the only scoring as Green Bay entered the final quarter with a 6-0 advantage. Norm Sneed, who had opened the second half in place of Tom Owen, set up the only touchdown of the afternoon with a 17 yard screen to Spencer Adams, a then carried down to the Packer 4 yard line mid way through the final period. Two plays later Delyan Williams skirted right end for the score and Bruce Gossett's PAT gave the 49ers the victory. For the third time in the last four games the 49er defense did not yield a touch-

49ERS, 35, SAINTS 21
 Candlestick Park (49,567 sold)
 (40,418 att.)

A season-ending victory over the Saints gave the 49ers four wins in their last five starts. Carrying a slim 14-7 lead into the wild final quarter the 49ers exploded for two touchdowns in 23 seconds. Tom Owen connected with Gene Washington for a 17 yard touchdown pass and two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Cedrick Hardman forced Saint quarterback Larry Cipa to fumble and Bill Belk picked the loose ball up on the New Orleans 19 yard line and rumbled in for the score. Bobby Scott replaced Cipa and brought the Saints right back with touchdown passes to Paul Seal and Bob Newland, but Dave Wilcox picked off a Scott pass in the flat and carried it 21 yards for a score to ice the win for the 49ers.

ESHMONT MEMORIAL AWARD—A secret ballot by 49er players the night before the last home game of the season determines the winner of the Len Eshmont Memorial Award—a $1,000 watch. Eshmont, a Fordham graduate, was a member of the first 49er squad in 1946. He coached at the Naval Academy and the University of Virginia before his untimely death in May, 1957. 49er founder Tony Morabito established the award in 1957. Y. A. Tittle was the first winner. Tackle Len Rolhe won it in 1974.

THE FORTY NINER STORY — 1946-1973

From a modest beginning in 1946, the San Francisco 49ers have grown into one of the most flourishing franchises in professional sports.

A major league football franchise in the City by the Golden Gate had long been the cherished dream of Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native son and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara. Failing to win recognition from the National League, Tony turned to the All-America Conference, which began operations in 1946 with the late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, as the guiding genius.

Although the AAC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city. Sports fans of the entire Bay Area took the 49ers to their hearts and attendance grew by the proverbial leaps and bounds.

The club's success was predicated on Tony's oft-repeated slogan of "Go first class or not at all," and his early organization was built around such honored names as Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, head coach; and Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykalski and Len Eshmont—all of whom were already top drawing cards in collegiate and pro football.

The 49ers were the perennial runners-up to the mighty Cleveland Browns throughout the history of the AAC and, masterminded by Shaw on the bench and Albert on the field, became noted nationally for daring, colorful football. The AAC ended its short but exciting life when the Browns defeated the 49ers, 21-7, in the championship game of 1949, San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore became members of the NFL.

In recent years the 49ers have crowned the realization of Tony Morabito's dream by winning three division titles and, with the move to Candlestick Park, becoming one of the most successful franchises in the NFL.

In the years of their greatest accomplishments, the 49ers have remained what they have always been, an exciting, colorful football team manned by many of the game's greatest players.

Here are the highlights, beginning with the first year in the NFL:

1950—The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

49ER STORY (Con't)

1951—In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y. A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952—After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953—The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954—Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955—With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.

1956—In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957—This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R. C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958—An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959—With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J. D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960—Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961—The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.

1962—For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963—Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964—Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season, although they proved to be one of the toughest defensive clubs in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 overall record.

1965—Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966—After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before midway in the season and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual World Champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they rolled to a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were All Pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967—An auspicious start (they were 5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. Quarterback George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as, with John Brodie in fine form, the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game, guard Howard Mudd and linebacker Dave Wilcox were named to All-Pro teams, and Mudd and center Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight time.

1968—Under new coach Dick Nolan the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record as the season turned on key wins over New York, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, receiver Cliff McNeil and running back Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while tackle Charlie Krueger, linebacker Dave Wilcox and defensive back Kermit Alexander, sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and guard Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL, and joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969—Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season, went five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had done that in 13 previous games. It got a little better after that (final record was 4-8-2) and five players—Jim Johnson, Dave Wilcox, Elmer Collett, Ken Willard and rookie Gene Washington—were selected for the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Eshmont Award.

1970—This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The 10-3-1 record was the best as an NFL club, the Western Division (NFC) championship was the first in the NFL. In a season of superlatives, John Brodie was the NFL's "Player of the Year," Bruce Taylor was NFC "Rookie of the Year," Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC "Coach of the Year." Brodie, receiver Gene Washington, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined by tackle Len Rohde in being selected for the Pro Bowl.

1971—The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, cinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in the bitterly-remembered 1957 game. The season was also the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. Center Forrest Blue, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Gene Washington, Vic Washington, Cedrick Hardman and Bruce Taylor.

1972—Early-season inconsistency compounded by an injury to John Brodie in the fifth game of the season cast a pall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC West title, but Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game the recovered Brodie relieved Steve, threw two TD passes for 20-17 win over Minnesota that clinched NFC West title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. Center Forrest Blue, defensive back Jimmy Johnson, tight end Ted Kwalick, wide receiver Gene Washington and linebacker Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973—In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule and falling victim to a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of quarterback John Brodie and defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. Center Forrest Blue and Dave Wilcox were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Woody Peoples and Tom Wittum.

1974—The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter Steve Spurrier a week before the season opened sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of the last five games to finish the season at 6-8. Running back Wilbur Jackson was named SPORTING NEWS "Rookie of the Year" and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with quarterback Tom Owen and defensive back Mike Holmes. Center Forrest Blue and punter Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro linebacker Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

NINER NOTES

Morabito Fund

The San Francisco 49ers are one of the few organizations in professional sport to fund annual scholarship grants for high school and junior college students. The Morabito Fund, named in memory of the club's founder, provides $25,000 annually to San Francisco Bay Area students hopeful of attending Bay Area colleges and universities. They are not athletic grants, but are awarded to a student upon recommendation and application based upon the applicant's academic promise. Since its inception in 1968, the fund has averaged 90 grants a year.

Mayor's Youth Bowl

The San Francisco 49ers and The City of San Francisco annually work together in funding many of The City's youth-oriented programs. Each year one of the 49ers' home pre-season games is designated "The Mayor's Youth Bowl," and one-third of the net proceeds from that game are directed toward operating young people's programs in The City. In the two years of its existence, "The Mayor's Youth Bowl" has contributed more than $200,000 to the youth programs.

* * * * *

"Name" Backfields

The San Francisco 49ers have been known for their "name" backfields. From 1954 through 1956 it was "The Million Dollar Backfield" of Y. A. Tittle, Joe Perry, Hugh McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. Then, in 1960, came "The Alphabet Backfield" of Y. A. Tittle, J. D. Smith, R. C. Owens and C. R. Roberts.

Hall of Fame

Three members of San Francisco's "Million Dollar Backfield" of the mid-1950's are enshrined in Pro Football's Hall of Fame. They are Y. A. Tittle, Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Another member of that same team, tackle Leo Nomellini, is also a member of the Hall of Fame.

* * * * *

Nomellini

Former San Francisco 49er tackle Leo "The Lion" Nomellini is a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, but he also has another distinction. He is the only player ever to make All-Pro both on offense and defense since two-platoon all-stars have been selected. Nomellini was an All-Pro choice on offense in 1951 and 1952, then switched to defense and was an All-Pro selection in 1953, 1954, 1957 and 1959 as a defender. Leo also played in 10 Pro Bowl games, two on offense, eight on defense.

Retired Jerseys

The San Francisco 49ers have retired five jerseys—Joe Perry's No. 34, Hugh McElhenny's No. 39, Leo Nomellini's No. 73, and, after the 1973 season, John Brodie's No. 12 and Charlie Krueger's No. 70. Krueger's jersey will be officially retired at the 49ers' first regular-season home game in 1974 against Cincinnati. Nomellini will make the presentation at "Charlie Krueger Day" in Candlestick Park.

Candlestick Park - PRESS BOX

LOWER LEVEL

MEDIA INFORMATION

The football press box at Candlestick Park will open three hours prior to game time, as will the Curley Grieve Room (press room) on the promenade level. Lunch and other refreshments will be available in the press room, and there will be a snack bar in operation in the press box.

Western Union and Sportscom services will both be available in the press box and each will provide runners for copy.

All credential requests should be made to George McFadden in the 49er office no later than Wednesday prior to the game to be covered, if possible. No individual game credentials will be mailed. There is a special press "will call" booth at Gate A at Candlestick Park.

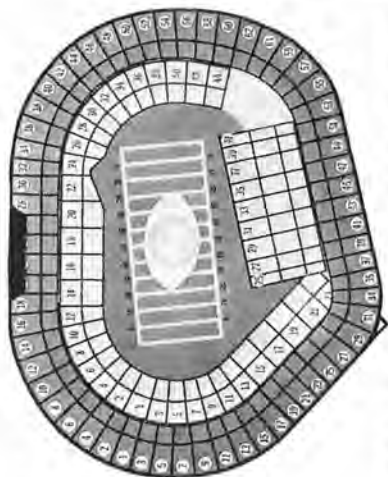

There is a limited amount of photo deck space available, so all requests for camera positions should be made as early as possible. When the space is all allocated, additional requests must be refused. Photo positions are on the second level of the press box and on the balcony areas on either end of the first level outside.

The press box is accessible only from the elevator from ground level. The elevator makes only one stop—at the press box.

With two minutes remaining in each game a member of the 49er public relations staff will guide writers to the team dressing rooms. From the elevator the group will walk the main concourse to the dressing room elevator. There will be no need to go onto the field.

Photographers working on the field are asked to check in at the dugout at the south end (first base line) of the stadium. They will be issued arm bands upon presentation of their credential. Food and drink will be available in the dugout at halftime.

STADIUM INFORMATION

The San Francisco 49ers begin their third year in Candlestick Park, now recognized as one of the finest combination stadiums in the United States.

Last season was the first that saw Candlestick in its completed form, completely encircled, carpeted with Astro turf, furnished throughout with comfortable chairs (no bleachers) and surrounded by adequate, and adjacent parking space. It was an immediate hit.

The completed stadium seats 61,252. There are three major ticket plazas and entry areas, each served by escalators which move spectators to and from the various seating levels. Every seat in the stadium is a chair-type plastic unit for comfort and durability.

Completely double-decked, the park features a 6,000-seat movable section. Astro turf facilitates rapid conversion from baseball to football configuration.

Other facts:

Original ground-breaking for Candlestick Park was in 1958. The expansion program began November 19, 1969.

The stadium covers 14½-acres on an 82-acre site.

Stadium diameter is 680 feet at its shortest, 840 feet at its longest.

The highest point from field to roof is 120 feet.

There are 29 concession stands, 54 rest rooms.

There are parking spaces for 14,400 automobiles in the stadium and auxiliary lots, as well as space for 175 buses.

Stadium construction required 1,034 tons of structural steel, 8,000 tons of reinforcing steel and 50,000 cubic yards of concrete.

STADIUM DIRECTORY:

First Aid is located on the main level concourse opposite Section 7.

Police Station is located on main level concourse opposite Section 5.

Lost and Found is in the Burns Security Office on the mezzanine level opposite Section 7.

Telephones are located throughout the stadium. Specifically, at each ticket plaza, along the main concourse and along the upper mezzanine level.

"WILL CALL" window is at Gate A, south end of the stadium.

Gates, A, E and F provide escalator service to the upper seating levels and are reversible for exiting after the game.
