The Bears

One of the world's most storied professional sports franchises, the Chicago Bears were established in 1920 as George Halas founded professional football with representatives from 12 other clubs in Canton, Ohio. Halas was not only the team's founder but served as head coach for 40 years, and was active with the Bears until his death in 1983. The franchise has won nine world championships, (six of those coming between 1932-46), and in 1997 became the first club in NFL annals to notch its 600th victory. The team has participated in the playoffs 22 times, and sent 24 players, one coach, and one general manager to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the most of any team.

A native Chicagoan, Halas was a three sport letterman at the University of Illinois. He joined the Navy after graduation before playing right field for the New York Yankees. A hip injury ended his baseball career and Halas moved to Decatur to work for a corn products firm owned by A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team. One year later, Staley gave Halas the club and Halas made Dutch Sternaman his partner. Halas was a player-coach from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s. He holds three NFL coaching records and four Bears coaching records. Halas' 324 coaching victories was broken in 1994 by Don Shula of the Miami Dolphins. Halas led the Bears to six world championships — his first and last separated by 42 years (1921 and 1963). (See page 188 for more on George S. Halas.)

1920s: George Halas founded pro football and the Decatur Staleys in 1920 and set membership at $100 per club. The Staleys posted a 10-1-2 record in that inaugural season as each player earned $1,900 for the season. The Bears won their first title the next season (1921) with a 9-1-1 mark and went on to post winning records in all but one season in the entire decade (1929: 4-9-2). The first major signing took place in 1925 when the Bears signed Red Grange to a contract. Halas then took Grange and the Bears on a coast-to-coast barnstorming tour in which the club played 16 games in nine weeks. The first game of that stretch was played before 36,000 at the team's home site, Wrigley Field.

1930s: Halas left the coaching ranks in 1930 and Ralph Jones led the club to a 24-10-7 record from 1930-32. The Bears won the 1932 championship before 11,198 fans at Chicago Stadium. The franchise lost $18,000 that season and Sternaman sold his half of the club to Halas. The 1933 season marked Halas' return to coaching and the beginning of the National Football League. The Bears beat the Giants 23-21 in the NFL's first championship game that year. The Bears advanced to the NFL title game twice more in the decade, but fell to the Giants in 1934 and the Redskins in 1937.

1940s: The decade began with another NFL title as the Bears buried the Washington Redskins, 73-0, as ten different players scored while Chicago unveiled the T-formation. Halas left for war duties in the middle of the 1942 season. The team continued winning, but lost the title game in Washington, 14-6. Luke Johnsons and Hunk Anderson co-coached the wartime Bears the next three seasons. In 1943, the Bears beat Washington 41-21, at Wrigley Field in the NFL title game. Halas returned in 1946 and the Bears won the title again — defeating the Giants, 24-14, before a NFL record crowd of 58,346 in the Polo Grounds.

1950s: The Bears began the decade with a title run, but lost to the Rams in the 1950 Western

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball games, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneer Bill Veeck and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field.

When Halas's obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was re-named the Chicago Bears.

The team colors have always been blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball, and baseball for the Fightin' Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Champaign-Urbana.

The Bears

Division title game, 24-14. Paddy Driscoll replaced Halas as coach in 1956 and the Bears lost to the Giants in the NFL Championship game at Yankee Stadium. Halas returned for his final stint as head coach in 1958.

1960s: The Bears won their final title under Halas in 1963, beating the NY Giants, 14-10, at Wrigley Field. A new era was signaled in 1965 when the club drafted Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers in the first round of the college draft. Sayers set a NFL record with 22 TDs as a rookie, including six in a single game against the 49ers. Prior to the 1968 season, Halas retired from coaching after 40 seasons and a 324-151-31 record.

Ed McCaskey was named team's vice-president and treasurer in 1967, a position he held for 17 years before being named to his current position of Chairman of the Board in 1983. Ed spearheaded the club's civic activities for many years and attends NFL meetings. Among his many civic contributions on behalf of the Bears was guiding the Brian Piccolo Fund from its inception in 1970 to 1987, raising millions of dollars for cancer research.

1970s: The Bears played their final season in Wrigley Field in 1970 before moving to Soldier Field. In the same year, Halas was elected president of the NFC as the NFL and AFL merged. In 1974, Jim Finks joined the Bears as General Manager. Finks named Jack Pardee, the first non-Bear in such a position, as head coach replacing Abe Gibron. In 1975, the Bears moved their training camp to Lake Forest after spending 31 years in Rensselaer, Indiana; and Walter Payton was the club's first-round draft choice. After a 14-year hiatus the Bears returned to the playoffs in 1977, winning their final six games to finish 9-5. The Bears again made the playoffs in 1979 under head coach Neill Armstrong. Chicago lost in the opening round in both 1977 and 1979. The organization suffered a major loss at end of the decade when team president George "Mugs" Halas, Jr. died at 54. Mugs joined the Bears front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. (See page 189 for more on "Mugs" Halas.)

1980s: Armstrong's tenure ended in 1982 and he was replaced by Dallas Cowboys' assistant Mike Ditka, a Bears tight end from 1961-66. In 1983, Jim Finks resigned and George Halas died at age 88. Michael McCaskey, the oldest son of Ed and Virginia McCaskey, and the grandson of George Halas, became the third president in club history.

McCaskey was a business school professor and operated a consulting company in Boston before joining the Bears. In his 15 seasons as club president, the Bears posted nine winning seasons, made three trips to the NFC title game and won Super Bowl XX. McCaskey has served stints on the Finance, Long Range Planning, Stadium, and NFL Properties Executive committees during his tenure.

The Bears returned to the NFL elite in 1984. They advanced to the NFC Championship game (losing to San Francisco) and Walter Payton broke Jim Brown's all-time NFL rushing record. The loss in the '84 title game set the stage for the 1985 season in which the Bears posted shutouts in the both playoff games before ripping the Patriots, 46-10, in Super Bowl XX. The Bears won the NFC Central division each of the next three seasons, but could never get past the NFC title game. Payton's jersey was retired following the '87 season.

1990s: The Bears made playoff appearances in 1990 and 1991. The 1992 season was marked by the retirement of Mike Singletary, the end of the Mike Ditka era and Kevin Butler becoming the club's all-time scoring leader. Dave Wannstedt was named the 11th coach in team history in 1993 and led the Bears to back-to-back winning seasons in 1994 and 1995. The uniform numbers of Dick Butkus (51) and Gale Sayers (40) were retired in 1994. The team moved into its new headquarters, Halas Hall at Conway Park, on March 3, 1997. The Bears became the first franchise in NFL history to win 600 games; number 600 was a 13-7 win over Tampa Bay at Soldier Field (11-23-97). On August 1, 1998, Mike Singletary became the 24th Bear inducted into the NFL Hall-of-Fame, the most of any franchise. Dick Jauron became the 12th head coach in Bears history on January 24, 1999. Two weeks later the Bears reshuffled the front office by naming Ted Phillips President and CEO, Michael McCaskey Chairman of the Board, and Ed McCaskey Chairman Emeritus.

CHICAGO BEARS FIGHT SONG

The Chicago Bears fight song, Bear Down, Chicago Bears, was introduced in 1941. Though Jerry Downs is listed as the composer, it actually is a pseudonym for Al Hoffman (who also wrote the words and music for the song If I Knew You Were Coming, I'd Have Baked a Cake).

Hoffman's words for the Bears' fight song:

*Bear down, Chicago Bears, make every play clear the way to victory;
Bear down, Chicago Bears, put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.
We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation with your T-formation.
Bear down, Chicago Bears, and let them know why you're wearing the crown.
You're the pride and joy of Illinois, Chicago Bears, bear down.*

TED PHILLIPS President and CEO

Ted Phillips was named the fourth president and chief executive officer in Chicago Bears history on February 10, 1999. A key member of the Bears office since 1983, Phillips becomes just the fourth President and CEO in the club's storied 80-year history, following Michael McCaskey, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr. and George S. Halas.

Upon his promotion, Phillips immediately negotiated a new five-year lease at Soldier Field with the City of Chicago, a key factor in opening discussions for building a new football stadium for the 21st century. He hired veteran NFL administrator Jim Miller to handle contract negotiations and oversee business operations. Other key business issues needing immediate attention include the future local radio rights and a contract extension with the University of Wisconsin-Platteville, the Bears' longtime training camp home.

Phillips will also be developing relationships with both key business and political leaders in Chicago – an important function to solidify the Bears' commitment to the City. Joining organizations such as the Commercial Club of Chicago and forging a partnership with the Chicago Public Schools are items high on Phillips' agenda.

Internally, Phillips wants club employees dedicated to his goals: winning the Super Bowl and being recognized as an organization that is fan friendly.

Phillips served as the Bears' Vice President of Operations since 1993. His primary duties included negotiating player contracts and serving as the Bears' salary capologist, as well as handling league related marketing, financial and legal issues. He also was responsible for overseeing all departments within the organization, other than coaching and player personnel, and served as the club's chief financial officer. Phillips also has been the Bears' main liaison with the NFL office and the NFL Management Council.

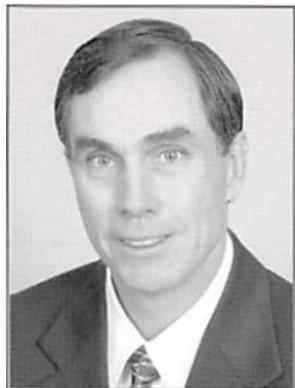

Before becoming Vice President of Operations, Phillips served as the club's Director of Finance from 1987 to 1993, handling all player contract negotiations and overseeing the club's business operations. Phillips joined the Bears staff on September 28, 1983, as the club's controller, a position he held for four years.

Before joining the Bears, Phillips was employed as an auditor and tax accountant with the international accounting firm of Ernst & Whitney (now Ernst & Young), from 1979-83. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1979 with a degree in business and accounting. Phillips earned his masters in management from Kellogg Graduate School at Northwestern University in 1989.

Phillips was born June 27, 1957, in Oneida, New York and grew up in Nashua, New Hampshire – just 35 miles from Boston. His community and charitable involvement include Bears Care, Chicago Principal for a Day, Main Street-Libertyville, and the University of Notre Dame. Phillips and his wife, Katie, have two sons: Matthew (4) and Max (2).

Head Coach

DICK JAURON 1ST SEASON

Dick Jauron was named the 12th head coach in Chicago Bears history on January 24, 1999, following four seasons as defensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Jauron is a 23-year veteran of the NFL as a player and coach—including 14 years in the NFC Central Division—and played a major role in Jacksonville's rise from expansion team to division champion and perennial Super Bowl contender. In his four seasons in Jacksonville, the Jaguars won 35 games and reached the playoffs three times including a trip to the AFC Championship game in 1996.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Jauron spent nine seasons in Green Bay as the Packers' defensive backs coach. He worked under Forrest Gregg (1986-87), Lindy Infante (1988-91), and Mike Holmgren (1992-94). Jauron was on Green Bay's staff with Jacksonville head coach Tom Coughlin in 1986-87, and he is the fifth member of Holmgren's original staff to earn an NFL head coaching position. The others are Ray Rhodes (defensive coordinator, now Green Bay's head coach after four years in Philadelphia), Jon Gruden (wide receivers, Oakland), Steve Mariucci (quarterbacks, San Francisco), and Andy Reid (tight ends / quarterbacks, Philadelphia). Jauron's NFL coaching career began in 1985 with the Buffalo Bills, where he served one season as Hank Bullough's secondary coach.

In their first-ever season, the 1995 expansion Jaguars finished 21st in the NFL in total defense, including 24th against the rush and 17th against the pass. Jauron's 1996 Jaguar defense, which advanced to the AFC Championship game, finished 15th in total defense (19th and 16th versus the rush and pass, respectively). In 1997, the Jags were 23rd overall, 13th against the rush and 24th against the pass. Jacksonville was 25th overall in 1998: 22nd against the rush, 23rd against the pass. They finished tied for second in the AFC and tied for fifth in the league with a +10 turnover differential last season. The Jags were 7th in the conference and 13th in the NFL with 30 takeaways (3rd and 5th with 17 fumble recoveries) and finished 6th in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in third down defense, allowing a 36.5% conversion rate. The Jaguars' red zone defense was among the league's leaders as well, with a 46.0% TD percentage, ranking 5th in the AFC and 9th in the league. They were tied for 12th in the NFL (5th in the AFC) with 32 touchdowns allowed by the defense.

NFL Player

Jauron was chosen by the Detroit Lions in the fourth round of the 1973 NFL draft. He played in Detroit from 1973-77, and was a 1974 Pro Bowl selection. The Lions waived Jauron in early '78, but he signed with Cincinnati six days later and was a Bengal until 1980, when he suffered a career ending knee injury. He ended his playing career with 26 interceptions and two touchdowns—including seven thefts and one TD return against Chicago.

As a Lions' rookie, Jauron started at strong safety in a game against the Bears (11-18-73). He intercepted three Gary Huff passes on the afternoon—tied for the Bears opponents' individual record—including a 95-yard return for a touchdown, the fourth longest ever against Chicago. His 167 interception return yards are still a record for a Bears' opponent. Jauron had four more career interceptions against Chicago, including returns of 41, 26, and 28 yards, plus two fumble recoveries. His 103 punt return yards (three returns on 11-24-74) is the fifth-best Bears opponents individual total in team annals. He played nine games against Chicago, all as a Lion.

Personal

After retiring from the playing field, Jauron and a former teammate (Jimmy Corbett) opened a health and fitness center in Cincinnati. He sold the business in 1983 and spent two years working for Nautlius before beginning his coaching career.

Richard Manual Jauron was born on October 7, 1950, in Peoria, Illinois. Jauron lived two years in Peoria where his father, Bob, was head football coach at Manual High School. Dick's middle name comes as a result of his father's association with the school. He spent his childhood years in Rensselaer, Indiana where his father was head coach at St. Joseph's College, former site of the Bears summer training camp. Jauron attended Swampscott High School in suburban Boston and starred in football, basketball and baseball. He was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals as a shortstop and was an all-American in football, a running back/safety who led his team to two consecutive state championships.

Jauron was a running back at Yale, where he earned a degree in history. He holds four school rushing records including his career total of 2,947 rushing yards (515 attempts, 5.7 yards-per-carry average).

Dick and his wife, Gail, have two daughters, Kacy (14) and Amy (12).

GARY CROWTON

Offensive Coordinator

Gary Crowton joined the Bears on January 28, 1999 after serving as head coach at Louisiana Tech for three seasons where he directed one of the nation's most potent offensive schemes. Prior to coaching the Bulldogs, Crowton had one season offensive coordinator stints at Louisiana Tech (1995) and Georgia Tech (1994, co-coordinator). He was Tom Coughlin's quarterbacks coach at Boston College from 1991-93.

Crowton's pro-style passing offense averaged 542 yards per game last season—second in the nation—while facing 1998 Division I powers Nebraska, Auburn, Tulane, Wyoming, and Texas A & M. Tech's passing offense led the nation in '98 with 429.8 yards per game, as did the 7.2 yards per play they gained. Crowton compiled a 21-13 record as head coach in three seasons, and his offense averaged 33 points per game over that period. Quarterback Tim Rattay completed 380 of 559 passes for 4,943 yards and 46 touchdowns and 13 interceptions in '98. The Bulldogs' top receiver was Troy Edwards, who caught 140 passes for 1,996 yards and 27 TDs.

Crowton began his coaching career in 1982 as a grad assistant at Brigham Young, where he served under quarterbacks coach Mike Holmgren. His next stop was Snow Junior College (1983-86), where he coached defensive backs for one season before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks and receivers coach. In 1987, he became the passing game coordinator and QBs / receivers coach at Western Illinois. Crowton was the quarterbacks coach at New Hampshire from 1988-90 before moving to BC the following season.

Louisiana Tech improved from a 3-8 team the year before Crowton's arrival, to 5-6 during his season as offensive coordinator, followed by 6-5 in '96, a school Division I-A record 9-2 in 1997, and 7-5 last year. The 1997 offense was third in the nation, and the team's yards-per-game totals improved every season.

Crowton was born on June 14, 1957 in Provo, Utah. He was an all-state high school quarterback in Utah, was voted Colorado State University's Most Versatile Athlete, and was a Junior College all-American at Snow Junior College. Crowton and his wife, Maren, have five children: Dane, Tara, Jenessa, Quinn, and Mikauli.

Born March 9, 1949, in New Orleans, Louisiana, Blache is married (Lynn) and has six children: Greg Jr., Jennifer, Christopher, Sarah, Corinne, and Matthew.

"YOUR AUTOGRAPH FOR ONE OF WALTER'S BUDDY'S AUTOGRAPHS"

Currently, thousands of people in the State of Illinois and around the United States are in need of an organ or tissue transplant. Without the procedure, many will die.

But you can help. Please join the Chicago Bears and Jesse White, Illinois Secretary of State, and help us spread the word about organ and tissue donation.

The Chicago Bears and Secretary of State White have become partners with a program called "Your Autograph for One of Walter's Buddy's Autographs." During the 1999 Chicago Bears Fan Convention, over 750 Bear fans signed up for the organ donor program. Each of them received an autograph of one of Sweetness' Bear pals.

We will continue the tradition of this program during the upcoming Bears football season at Soldier Field with a special "Your Autograph for One of Walter's Buddy's Autograph" booth. Our goal is to sign up 5,000 Bear fans for the organ donor program this fall.

This special program could give someone the gift of a lifetime—and all we need is your autograph. Look for the booth at Soldier Field, or call the Chicago Bears Fan Club at (847) 615-9600 for more information about Illinois' Organ Donor Program.

Player Personnel

MARK HATLEY

Vice President of Player Personnel

After helping build the Kansas City Chiefs into a perennial playoff team in the 1990's, Mark Hatley was named the Bears Vice-President of Player Personnel on May 8, 1997.

In his current role, Hatley oversees the Bears scouting efforts at both the collegiate and pro level, directs the annual collegiate draft and spearheads the club's free agent efforts. Hatley also screened and interviewed candidates for the Bears head coaching vacancy following the 1998 season.

Hatley spent 10 years (1987-97) in Kansas City: five as Director of Pro Personnel, four as a scout, and one as linebackers coach. The Chiefs had winning records in Hatley's final eight seasons in Kansas City and made the playoffs six times.

In addition to his pro personnel duties, Hatley also directed the Chiefs' college draft in 1992 and assisted in 1991 when Whitey Dovell temporarily relinquished his post due to illness. In his final two years in Kansas City, Hatley also graded the top players at the position of the Chiefs' primary needs (defensive backs in 1996; tight ends in 1997).

Hatley's primary focus for the Chiefs in his role as pro personnel director was scouting players with pro experience, including both NFL free agents and players from other pro leagues. Among the players Hatley helped bring to Kansas City during his tenure as free agents were Marcus Allen, Derrick Walker, James Hasty, Dan Saleaumua, Elvis Grbac, Pete Stoyanovich, Anthony Davis, Kimble Anders and Mark Collins, the team's MVP in 1996. He also brought in Tamarick Vanover, Vaughan Booker (CFL) and Tracy Simien (WLAF) from other pro leagues.

Hatley played linebacker at Oklahoma State and coached for the Cowboys for three years (1973-75). He subsequently coached collegiately at Tulsa (1976), Texas Christian (1977-82) and Baylor (1983), before joining the NFL in 1984 as a scout and defensive quality control assistant with the New Orleans Saints. In 1985, Hatley coached the Saints secondary under Bum Phillips. He joined the Chiefs in 1987 as linebackers coach under Frank Gansz.

A native of Borger, Texas, Hatley and his wife, Claudia, have one daughter (Eliza).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Rees spent 15 years with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant football coach and as Recruiting Coordinator with the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. He signed 90 prep all-Americans while at UCLA. The Bruins made 12 bowl appearances during his tenure and won five Pac 10 titles.

A native of Wilmette and graduate of New Trier East, Rees began his football career as an assistant with the Northwestern Wildcats for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two years (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978).

BEARS CARE

The Chicago Bears have a long-standing tradition of supporting numerous charities and assisting those in need. In order to increase our effectiveness in helping those less fortunate, the Chicago Bears formalized its charitable organization through the creation of Bears Care, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation. One of the exciting things about Bears Care is that through their partnership with the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, the McCormick Tribune Foundation matches 60% of the net proceeds raised by Bears Care. This allows the Chicago Bears and Bears Care to answer even more of the needs that are presented to us by the community. Some of the charities that have received support from Bears Care are: Big Shoulders, Chicago Foundation for Education, Chicago Public Library Foundation, Children's Memorial, Ethiopian Community Association, Gilda's Club, Girls Hope, Habitat for Humanity, Haymarket House, Holy Family Hospital, Metro/Midtown Educational Foundation, Northwestern Memorial Hospital, the Regional Organ Bank of Illinois, Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center and the YMCA.

This year, in support of former Bear Walter Payton, Bears Care made a grant to the Regional Organ Bank of Illinois (ROBI) in the amount of $50,000. Together with a $50,000 donation from the Chicago Bears, ROBI received $100,000 to promote organ donor awareness. An Organ Donor program, created this year by the Chicago Bears, was announced at the 1999 Chicago Bears Fan Convention. Over 700 people signed on as donors, along with Virginia McCaskey and Secretary of State Jesse White. This was the largest single sign up in the history of the Illinois Organ Donor Program.

While Bears Care supports a variety of programs, the Bears Care Gala is designed to fund researchers who are leaders in their field in the fight against breast cancer. This year the Gala raised $350,000. All proceeds from the Gala benefit such charities as Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center and the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund, which support breast cancer research.

We are very proud of the work that we have been able to support with the proceeds from our Galas. These funds have allowed Dr. Beth Marcus of Cook County Hospital and Dr. Harvey Preisler of Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center to establish a unique breast cancer program for women of color, who have locally advanced breast cancer at the time of diagnosis. This is a problem affecting 30-40% of African-American female patients with breast cancer seen at Cook County Hospital and is a major public health problem. Unique components of this program is its direction towards the medically underserved, while also providing transportation and day care.

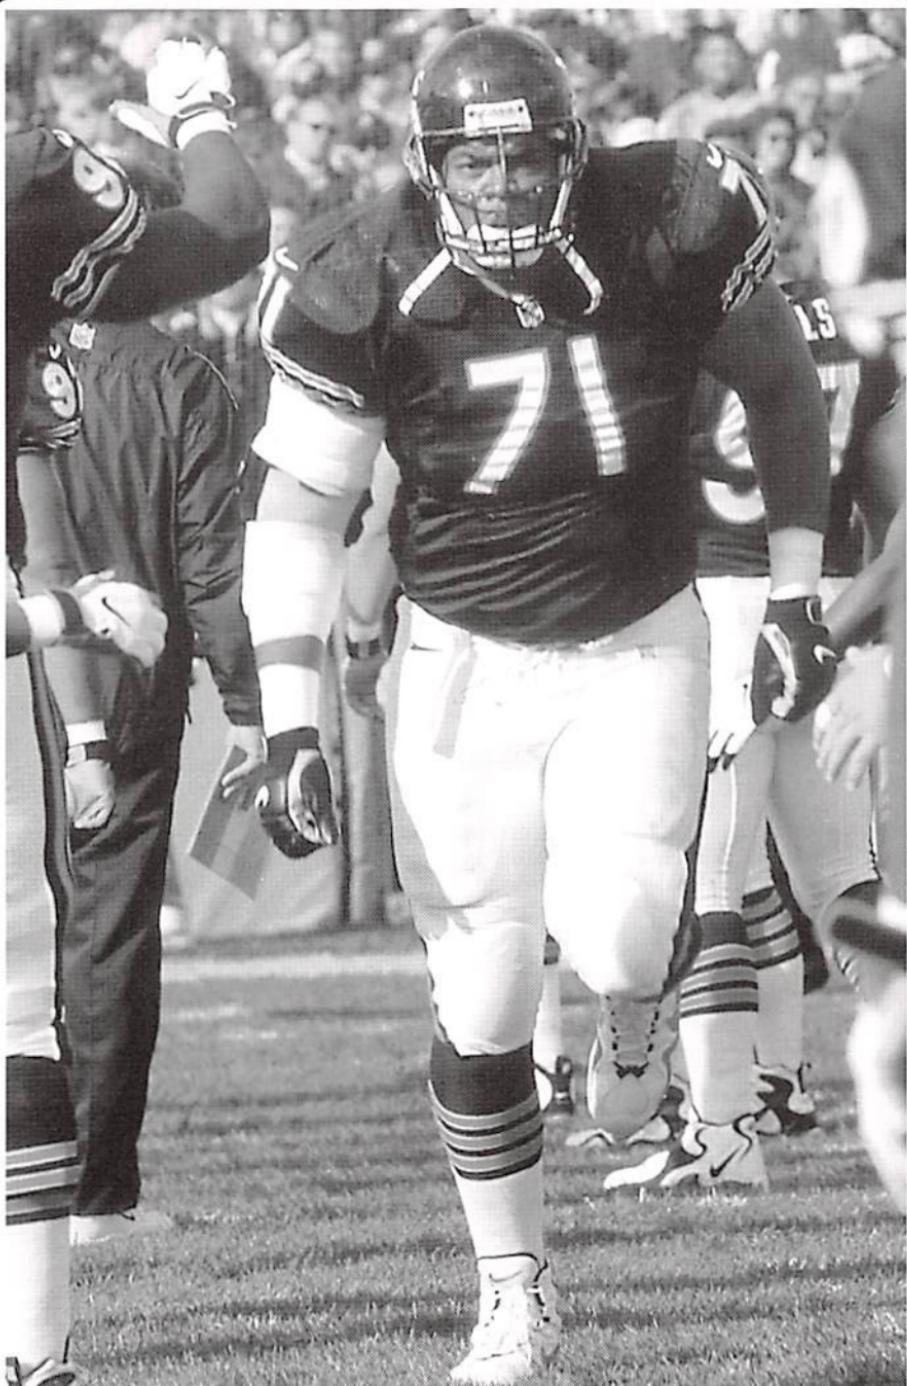

In addition, the work of Dr. Kambiz Dowlat of the Rush Cancer Institute is supported by Bears Care and the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund. Dr. Dowlat's work is directed toward making precise biopsies of breast tumors to determine if they are malignant. This approach produces minimal discomfort for the patient with suspected breast cancer. Another major accomplishment supported by Bears Care funding is the work of Dr. Melody Cobleigh, a Rush researcher. Dr. Cobleigh presented groundbreaking news to the American Society of Clinical Oncology about Herceptin, a new treatment for aggressive forms of breast cancer affecting 25 - 30% of breast cancer patients. If approved by the Food & Drug Administration, Herceptin will be the first treatment to specifically target this type of breast cancer, which is associated with more rapid disease progression and shortened survival.

The 2000 Bears Care Gala, "Brian's Song . . . So That Others May Live to Sing," will be held on Friday, May 12, 2000 at The Ritz Carlton - Chicago. Proceeds from this elegant, black-tie evening will again support breast cancer research. Tickets are $250 per person. Along with the Gala, there will be an outstanding raffle. A few of the prizes include $5,000 cash, a Super Bowl weekend package and other exciting trips! Call (847) 295 - 6600 ext. 325 for additional information on the Bears Care Gala.

Please see page 100 of the 1999 Chicago Bears Media Guide for information on Bears Care programs like the "Hunt For Food and Shelter," and "Kids Helping Kids—make the Winning Team." Additionally, check out page 38 of the '99 media guide for a list of Bears Care grant recipients from 1996-98.

40 RUSHES vs. 40 PASSES

Over the past 16 seasons when the Bears have rushed 40 times, they have a 55-2 record. Chicago has won 39 straight 40-rush games dating back to 1984. Chicago pounded out 40 rushes only once last season—41 rushes for 148 yards in a 23-20 win at Tennessee (10-25-98). The Bears were 2-0 in 1997 when rushing 40 times, and did not have 40 rushing attempts in any game in '96; they carried 47 times in beating playoff-bound Philadelphia in the 1995 season finale.

During the same 16-season period, the Bears are 5-20 when throwing 40 passes in one game. Last season, the Bears were 0-2 when they tossed 40 passes: Moses Moreno had 41 attempts (and punter Mike Horan one) in a 31-17 loss hosting Tampa Bay 11-29-98; and Steve Stenstrom tossed 42 passes in a loss at Minnesota the following Sunday evening (12-6-98). The Bears had a 1-4 record in 1997 and were 0-4 in '96 when throwing 40 times.

STILL SAFE

On November 20, 1988, Bears punter Bryan Wagner watched a snap sail over his head. He hustled to recover the ball in the endzone for a safety, resulting in two points for Tampa Bay. Since that game, the Bears have not been tackled in the endzone — a span of 164 regular season games (as well as seven playoff games). It's the longest such current streak in the NFL. Cincinnati is next with 105 games without giving up a safety, followed by New Orleans (81 games), Arizona (67), and Jacksonville (54).

JAEGER NOW AN 80/80/80 MAN

In 1997, kicker Jeff Jaeger became the first booter in Bears' history to record back-to-back seasons converting better than 80% of his field goal attempts... and in 1998 he made it three in a row. Jaeger was 21 of 26 in '98 (same as 1997), good for 80.8%; Jeff kicked a team record 82.6% in 1996 (19 of 23). His Bears career field goal percentage stands at 81.3%, on 61 of 75 kicking. Jaeger, who has led Chicago in scoring each of his three years here (80, 83, and 90 points from 1996-98), is just five points shy of 1000 for his career. He is one of just six NFL kickers to hit the 80% mark for the last three seasons, joining Gary Anderson, Doug Brien, John Carney, Doug Christie, and Mike Hollis.

The Bears' O-line allowed 31 sacks in 1998, (38 in '97), 8th fewest in the NFL and 4th in the NFC. Chicago led the league in pass plays per sack allowed for much of the first half of the season, giving up just 10 QB drops in the first half, on 251 pass attempts, for a 25.1 pass-attempt-per-sack ratio. - Super Bowl XXVIII was played at Atlanta's Georgia Dome on January 30, 1994. Dallas beat Buffalo 30-13; it was the Cowboys' second consecutive title, and the Bills' fourth straight Super Bowl defeat.
- Tampa has twice hosted a Super Bowl: The Los Angeles Raiders beat Washington 38-9 in Super Bowl XVIII on January 22, 1984, (the AFC's last triumph before Denver's twin victories in the past two seasons). On January 27, 1991, with the U.S. mired in the Gulf War, the New York Giants edged Buffalo in the Bills' first Super Bowl, 20-19. Both games were played at Tampa Stadium (later Houlihan's Stadium), the Buccaneers' former home.
- New Orleans has hosted eight Super Bowls, currently tied with Miami for the most ever (last season's title game was in Miami, earning the tie). The Superdome has hosted five of the Bayou's Super Bowls, including the Bears' victory in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986, (the others: XXXI, XXIV, XV, and XII). Tulane Stadium was home to Super Bowls IX, VI, and IV.
- The San Diego area has hosted two previous Super Sundays, a decade apart: Super Bowl's XXXII and XXII. John Elway led the Broncos to their first Lombardi trophy with a 31-24 win over Green Bay on January 25, 1998 in Qualcomm Stadium; and Doug Williams sparked the Redskins to a record 35 second quarter points in routing Elway's Broncos 42-10 at what was then called Jack Murphy Stadium, on January 31, 1988.

FORMULA for QB RATING

"Quarterback Rating" is the most complicated of the NFL's official statistics. The formula uses five factors: attempts, completions, gross yardage, touchdowns, and interceptions. It was designed so that a score of 100 would mean "great," with 90 as "very good," 80 as "good" — similar to an A-B-C grading scale. It is possible to score over 100, a feat that four QBs accomplished in 1998: Randall Cunningham (106.0), Vinnie Testaverde (101.6), Steve Young (101.1), and Chris Chandler (100.9). Only Young eclipsed the century mark in '97 (104.7).

Here's the formula which works when entered into Microsoft Excel. Be careful, there are 196 characters which must be typed perfectly, without any spaces, in order for everything to calculate correctly:

A1 = ATTEMPTS; B1 = COMPLETIONS; C1 = GROSS YARDS; D1 = TOUCHDOWNS; E1 = INTERCEPTIONS

THE INSTANT REPLAY BOOTH

The new instant replay system for the 1999 season uses digital computer technology, not video tape as was employed from 1986-91. The new system affords quicker access to replays because there will be no tape to rewind. The system will be initiated by challenges from the head coaches (two per game) in all but the final two minutes of each half, and by the replay official in the booth in the final two minutes and overtime. The booth will operate under a "two-minute" mode the entire game, lining up replays of every play in case a challenge is issued.

The four individuals in the replay booth will be the "replay assistant," "technician," "video operator," and "communicator." The replay assistant is the direct and only link to the referee on the field. In the final two minutes of each half and overtime, he will make the decision on whether a play should be reviewed. The replay assistant and video operator will be assigned as a team to a different game location each week.

The system begins with a "live feed" from the network television control truck covering the game.

The technician controls the monitor, cueing the live play and replay screens during action. His monitor can accommodate six replay angles of a single play.

The replay assistant decides which replays will be relayed to the field monitor for review by the referee after the coach's challenge is issued, and whether an official's time out be be called for a play review in the final two minutes of each half or overtime. Replay assistants will have an NFL or college football officiating background.

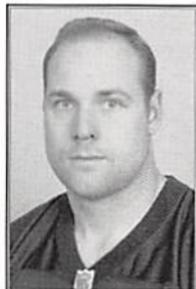

The video operator, at the instruction of the replay assistant, controls which replays that the on-field referee will view. He can control the speed of the digital video playback with the turn of a dial.

The communicator is the replay booth's "eyes to the field." While the technician, replay assistant, and video operator are doing their jobs, the communicator is stationed in back of the other three, watching the field. He will advise the replay assistant—who is busy viewing the monitor—that "they're in the huddle," "they're at the line," "the ball is snapped" so the replay assistant will know that the next play has started, negating the possibility of a replay. He will also report to the replay assistant if an official ruling (e.g., holding, illegal procedure, etc.) has been made on the field, eliminating the need for a replay. He is also the timer of the 90 seconds allocated to the referee to make a decision on a replay. Once 90 seconds are reached, the communicator will push a button that shuts down the on-field monitor, signaling to the ref that 90 seconds are expired and the referee's decision must be announced. The communicator will also explain a referee's ruling to the TV truck and the teams' public relations directors in the press box.

RULES of INSTANT REPLAY

A "buzzer system" will be used to signal the call for a replay. Before the final two minutes, the head coach will buzz the referee and replay booth that he challenges a play and wants a review. Within the final two minutes and OT, the booth will buzz the ref. The head coaches will wear a belt pack containing a buzzer. When pressed, the buzzer will simultaneously signal the referee, umpire, and replay booth that a replay is being requested.

There will be three replay monitors at field level in open-air stadiums. Two will be positioned at opposite 20-yard lines near the sideline wall. A third will be in the runway, for use if the weather is inclement. Two monitors will be in domed stadiums.

COACHES CHALLENGE: Outside of the final two minutes of each half, each team will be permitted two challenges per game that will initiate referee reviews. Each challenge will cost a team a time-out. If a challenge is upheld, the time-out will be restored, but the challenge will not. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its time-outs.

FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF: After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any referee review will be initiated by the replay assistant (see "Instant Replay's Players," two pages before this) in the replay booth in the press box. He can initiate as many review requests as he thinks necessary, no matter how many time-outs the teams have. No time-out will be charged for a review initiated from the replay booth.

REFEREE REVIEW: All replay reviews will be conducted by the referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering officials on the play. A decision will be reversed only when the referee has "indisputable visual evidence" that the call should be changed. The referee cannot initiate a replay review in any instance.

TIME LIMIT: Reviews will be a maximum of 90 seconds, timed from when the referee puts on the head phones to the replay booth.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS: The instant replay system will cover a variety of plays in three main areas—1) sideline, goal line, end zone, and end-line plays; 2) passing plays; and 3) other detectable infractions, such as a runner ruled down not by defensive contact, and the number of players on the field.

SCORING STREAK

The Chicago Bears have scored in every game this decade, last being shutout in the 1989 season finale in San Francisco, 26-0. The streak of 144 straight games (149 including playoffs) is third-best in the NFL, but more than 11 seasons behind the 49ers. San Francisco has scored in every game for over two decades. The Bears and Titans began their streaks within a month of one another, way back during the late eighties.

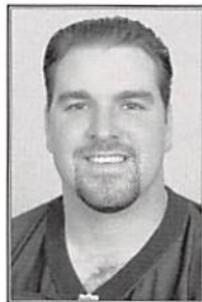

Heading into the 1997 season, New Orleans had the second-longest streak, and Miami the third. However, the Saints suffered back-to-back shutouts in October '97 (and another in Week Five in 1998), and Miami was shut out in Indianapolis in Week 15. There was no change in the order after the '98 campaign.

There were just seven shutouts in the NFL last season—suffered by New Orleans, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, and three by Philadelphia.

ALLEN'S SPARK

Chicago Bears running back James Allen provided a major spark late in the season, as the Bears beat Baltimore 24-3 on 12-20-98 at Soldier Field. In his first career start, Allen rushed for 163 yards and his first career score on 23 carries. He had the Bears' longest and second-longest scampers of the season in his first half as a starter (57 and 54 yard runs), and his 163 yards are tied for 17th in the team's single game rushing annals. Only four running backs have ever run for more yards in one game in a Chicago uniform: Walter Payton (11 times), Gale Sayers (3 times), Rick Casares (once), and Willie Galimore (once). It was the only 100-yard rushing game of the season for the Bears.

GLYN'S PROFITABLE RETURNS

The Bears completed a quiet trade with Green Bay during the week before the '98 season began, acquiring return man Glyn Milburn for a 7th-round choice. By season's end, Milburn ranked seventh on the Bears' all-time kickoff return yardage list, as he had perhaps the best single season KOR numbers in team annals: 62 kickoff returns for 1,550 yards (NFL highs in '98) and two TDs. His 88-yard return for a score against Jacksonville on Opening Day was the first return touchdown of his career. At Tampa Bay, he returned a punt 93-yards for a score, the third longest in Chicago history, as part of a third-best-ever 106-yard punt return yardage afternoon. On 12-13-98 at Lambeau Field, Milburn took a Packer kickoff 94-yards for a TD. He now owns two of the four best KOR yardage days in franchise history: 197 yards vs. Jax 9-6-98, and 202 at Green Bay 12-13-98. His 25.0 KOR average ranks third all-time behind only Gale Sayers (NFL record 30.6) and Ron Smith (26.6), and he is the third Bears return man to bring back at least two kickoffs for TDs in a single season (Sayers 2 in '66 and 3 in '67, and Cecil Turner 4 in 1970).

HALAS HALL

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest on Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears founder, President and Coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by Coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

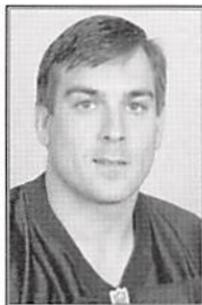

The modern complex includes a 100,000 square foot office building, indoor practice facility, and 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields, surrounded by a jogging path. The remaining land will be unused, allowing the team flexibility for future expansion. One of the two 100-yard outdoor fields is equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour, and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots. The indoor facility is a rigid structure, as opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field, an all-purpose floor for basketball, and a racquetball court. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide, and 400 feet long—20 feet higher and 140 feet longer than the Bubble. Remote controlled video cameras film the action below for coaches' use.

The building sits on a wetlands site; the architect chose an open-feeling design with features reminiscent of Frank Lloyd Wright's work. Halas Hall itself covers just three acres of the property, while wetlands cover six. The east side cladding of the building is 83,000 linear feet of cedar, while the west side is constructed of precast panels. The panels were made by an architectural precasting firm that laid rough sawn cedar in the casting beds. When the panels dried, the cedar was stripped from the concrete, giving the panels their board-formed or wooden look.

The main building is almost two football fields long and 100 feet wide. The old Halas Hall had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building has 100,000. In fact, the entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the new building. Furthermore, the old lockerroom was 1,400 square feet, while the new one is about 3,000, has 62 lockers with room to quickly expand to 100, and 4 natural light wells (allowing full lighting without electricity on sunny days). The weight room—perhaps the most spectacular aesthetic area of the complex—is 7,000 square feet, almost four times the size of the 1,800 square foot workout area at the old building. The glass wall on the east side of the weight room is 28 feet high, perfect for viewing the white-tailed deer on their evening romps across the complex grounds. A two-lane lap pool is behind the weight room, and its sixty foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room is five times the size of its predecessor, and boasts a doctors' office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room, and sauna. The football needs are met with nine classrooms, one large meeting room / classroom, and a 150-seat auditorium capable of hosting seminars, television productions, football players, or Chicago Bears Fan Club members.

BEARS CARE PROGRAMS

Bears Care puts on the following programs each autumn in Chicagoland. For more information about Bears Care, the Bears Care Gala, or to register for the programs below, call (847) 295-6600 ext. 325.

CHICAGO BEARS HUNT FOR FOOD AND SHELTER

"A Buck A Seat Helps Others Eat"

On Sunday, October 3, 1999, Bears Care and the Chicago Bears will host the third annual "A Buck A Seat Helps Others Eat" collection drive in conjunction with our Hunt For Food & Shelter fundraiser. Wives and girlfriends of Chicago Bear Coaches, Players and Staff will collect money from fans attending the Chicago Bears/New Orleans Saints game at Soldier Field. Campaigns to date have raised $300,000, enabling Bears Care to support the following organizations: A Safe Place, Chicago Coalition For the Homeless, Girls Hope, Greater Chicago Food Depository, Habitat For Humanity, Chicago Public Schools - McPrep Lighthouse Program, Northwestern University Settlement House and The Salvation Army. If every fan attending the Saints game donated $1, with the match from the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, proceeds from this year's drive could easily become a $100,000 contribution. All proceeds will once again benefit food and shelter programs.

Should you be unable to attend the Bears/Saints game on October 3, you can still support the Hunt For Food and Shelter by sending your contribution, payable to Bears Care, to The Hunt For Food and Shelter, 1000 Football Drive, Lake Forest, IL 60045. If your contribution is less than $250, your canceled check will serve as your receipt.

WON'T YOU JOIN OUR TEAM?

"KIDS HELPING KIDS - MAKE THE WINNING TEAM!"

Many schools have canned food drives. If you think about it, most of the time shelters receive an odd assortment of canned goods - some more desirable than others. Additionally, there is overhead associated with transporting food to and from the shelters. Through our "Kids Helping Kids -- Make The Winning Team" contest, the Chicago Bears and Bears Care would like to teach kids how to make their charitable dollars go farther, while learning about informed charitable giving. Every $1 raised by the students will be matched by a $.60 donation from the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, therefore, doubling the amount of money that will go to the shelter or feeding program. Vouchers can then be used for food, allowing the recipient to choose the type of food he or she would most enjoy. This provides a greater dignity and choice for those being helped. All proceeds from this drive will go to such food and shelter programs as A Safe Haven, Chicago Coalition for the Homeless, the Chicago Food Depository, The Salvation Army, Girls Hope, Habitat for Humanity, Haymarket House, McPrep Lighthouse and the Settlement House.

You can help your school be a part of "Kids Helping Kids -- Make The Winning Team." If your school is one of the top three to raise the most money, your school will receive a visit from a Chicago Bear player or coach. If you are the Super Star school, the top fund raiser, your school will receive a visit from a Bears player and coach, along with a Super Prize Package! To help facilitate the learning process, innovative curriculum materials will be provided to each participating school. Help kids in need by becoming part of "Kids Helping Kids -- Make The Winning Team." Call Bears Care to register your school.

See page 26 of the 1999 Chicago Bears Media Guide for general information on Bears Care, and page 38 for a list of Bears Care grant recipients from 1996-1998.

ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Three of the NFL's ten biggest single game attendance totals have occurred at games involving the Chicago Bears.

The defending World Champs squared off against the College All-Stars on August 22, 1947, at Soldier Field, in front of 105,840—the second highest total in NFL history, and the highest in a game played within U.S. borders. The 1942 College All-Star game at Soldier Field drew 101,100 fans—ninth all-time. The Bears were defeated by the Los Angeles Rams at the LA Coliseum on November 2, 1958 (41-35 final) in front of 100,470, good for tenth on the list.

The Cowboys and Oilers played in front of 112,376 paying customers in a pre-season game in Mexico City (August 15, 1994) for the NFL attendance mark.

DECEMBER ROAD WIN

The Bears' rekindled a dubious streak with their losses last December 6th and 13th, at Minnesota and Green Bay, respectively. The Bears snapped a 17-game December road losing streak (18 including a January road contest in 1993) on Sunday evening, December 14, 1997, with a win in St. Louis. The streak spanned nearly a decade, as it was their first road victory in the month of December since a 6-3 triumph over the LA Raiders at the Coliseum on December 27, 1987—Walter Payton's final regular season game. The Bears return to the streak-breaking site for their only December away game this season: at St. Louis' Trans World Dome on December 26, 1999.

W'S OVER EVERYONE

The Bears are one of just three NFL teams to have defeated each of the other 30 NFL franchises. The Bears accomplished this feat with their 24-3 win over the Baltimore Ravens at Soldier Field on December 20, 1998. Chicago has defeated every existing franchise, including the Cleveland Browns, beginning anew this season. The Ravens commenced play (after leaving Cleveland) in 1996, and had never played Chicago before last season.

Denver had already defeated every other NFL team (including Cleveland) prior to last year. Green Bay accomplished the feat with a 1998 win over Baltimore.

In 1995, the inaugural season for Jacksonville and Carolina, the Bears were one of just four teams to play both expansion teams. The Jets and Indianapolis split their games, while both the Bears and Tampa Bay defeated the Jaguars and Panthers that season.

UNDRAFTED FREE AGENTS

The Bears signed just six undrafted free agents this spring, a big decrease from the 16 signed prior to last season. Chicago signed 12 undrafted college players in '97, 14 in 1996, and 17 prior to the 1994 season. (See the rookie bios section for information on this year's UnFA's).

Three of last year's undrafted free agents remain on the current roster. Defensive tackle Ken Anderson injured his ankle in Platteville and spent the season on IR. Safety Greg Williams was cut in August but re-signed after the season. Safety Quincy Coleman spent weeks 6-15 on the practice squad, and was on the active roster (though a gameday inactive) for the season finale.

Two undrafted rookie free agents from two springs back saw playing time in 1997 and 1998: tight end Tremayne Allen, and cornerback Terry Cousin. Allen was signed to the active roster for the '97 season in Week 7, and was active for four games. He caught one pass in Week 16 (12-21-97). Allen split '98 between the practice squad (weeks 1-5, 7-9) and the inactive list (weeks 6, 10-16). Cousin was signed to the practice squad prior to week one in '97, first saw action in Week 8, and spent the final six weeks on the active roster, seeing extensive special teams, nickel, and cornerback action in five games. He played all 16 games in '98, starting 12.

In 1996, Michael Lowery made the Opening Day roster and played in all 16 games; Bobby Neely played in eleven games and started five before going out for the year with an injury; and Chris Martin saw action before also suffering a season ending injury. In addition, Jason Augustino was injured in Platteville, spent the year on IR, and participated in Platteville again.

In 1995, Fabien Bownes, Marlon Forbes, and Octus Polk were all signed to the practice squad, with Bownes and Polk moving to the 52-player roster late in the season.

In 1994, Tony Carter made the Opening Day roster as an undrafted free agent, while Greg Primus, Darwin Ireland, and Anthony Marshall saw action later in the season. In addition, Dwayne Joseph and Todd Norman became part of the practice squad; Robert Bass, Garland Hawkins, and Marcus Durgin were placed on IR with training camp injuries; and Cedric Walker was invited back to camp the following year.

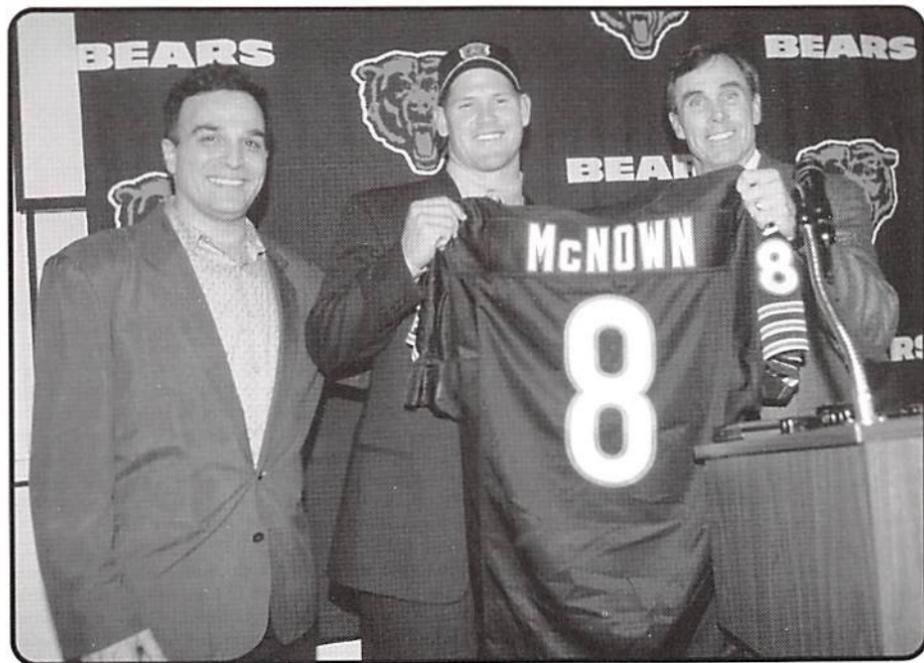

Three members of the 1993 class of undrafted free agents are on the current Bears roster: tight end Ryan Wetnight has been a mainstay for six seasons; linebacker Jim Schwantz was re-signed prior to the '98 campaign; and quarterback Shane Matthews re-signed this off-season.

The following players on the Chicago roster were also signed as undrafted free agents, though not all were originally signed by the Bears: James Allen (1997 by Tennessee), Curtis Anderson (1997 by Jacksonville), Dunstan Anderson (1994 by Kansas City), Shawn Banks (1996 by Cincinnati), Robert Chancey (1997 by San Diego), Chris Dolan (1998), Nick Ferguson (1996 by Cincinnati), Adam Hernandez (1998 by Baltimore), Erik Kramer (1987 by New Orleans), Heron O'Neal (1998 by Jacksonville), Emile Palmer (1996 by New Orleans), Bryan Robinson (1997 by St. Louis), Casey Wiegmann (1996 by New York Jets), and James Williams (1991).

On the Bears' 88 player training camp roster, 30 were never drafted.

- The Bears' selection of Cade McNown was the eighth time they have used their 1st-round pick on a quarterback in the 64 years of the draft, and 78 Bears first-round selections. (See page 111 for a list of the tabbed QBs). The Bears have also drafted 25 running backs, 12 offensive linemen, 13 D-linemen, seven WRs, five LBs, two safeties, two cornerbacks, and one tight end. ## INT'S FOR TD'S

The Bears have returned 66 interceptions for touchdowns in the last 58 years (1941-98), including one for 13 yards by cornerback Walt Harris at Green Bay last season (26-20 loss on 12-13-98).

Remarkably, from 1941-68, the Bears lost only one game in which they returned an interception for a score—a feat they accomplished in 35 contests. Chicago was 33-1-1 when returning a pick-off for a touchdown during that period. The one loss was on November 2, 1958, 41-35 at Los Angeles. On November 8, 1953, the Bears and Packers tied 21-21 at Wrigley Field despite an INT for a TD by Chicago.

NFL MINICAMP RULES

According to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement, league franchises are allowed a maximum of one mandatory minicamp for veteran players each spring. However, if a team hires a new head coach after the end of the regular season, that team may hold two additional voluntary minicamps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of minicamps a team may hold for rookie players.

In addition, the CBA stipulates that all minicamps must be a maximum of three days, (not including a day for physical exams); and that the use of pads besides helmets is prohibited, as is any "contact work" including "live" blocking, tackling, pass rushing, and bump-and-run."

The Bears in the spring of '99 held a veteran minicamp in March (26-28), prior to the draft, as well as two minicamps for both rookies and vets, in April (23-25) and June (11-13).

PASSING FANCY

Bears QB Erik Kramer continues to move up the franchises' all-time passing charts. Kramer needs 188 attempts to pass Sid Luckman for second in that category, and 203 to overtake Jim Harbaugh's 1,759. Erik currently ranks second in completions, and 111 caught passes will move him past Harbaugh (1,023) for first. Kramer is 4,104 yards behind Luckman's 14,686; he trails Harbaugh by 985, and needs 622 to surpass Jim McMahon. Kramer's 63 career scoring throws won't come close to Luckman's 137, but Erik, currently fourth, is just four behind McMahon and five back of Bill Wade.

KICKOFF WEEKEND WINS

The Bears own 46 opening day victories overall, more than any NFL franchise. The Dallas Cowboys are 29-9-1 on opening day, and their .763 opening day winning percentage is tops in league history. The two teams squared off on Kickoff Weekend in 1996, and the Bears busted the Cowboys 22-6 on Monday Night Football at Soldier Field.

Chicago has lost two straight openers, following a three-opener win streak, and is 6-3 in the decade. The Bears have opened at Soldier Field in 25 of the last 28 years, boasting an 18-6 record. Chicago starts this season against Kansas City on September 12th, hosting an AFC foe for the second straight year (24-23 loss to Jacksonville last September 6th). The Bears host consecutive AFC teams to start the year for the first time ever, as Seattle visits in Week Two. The KC game marks just the 12th time ever that Chicago opens against a team currently residing in the AFC.

STATE OF THE BEARS

Cowboys and surfers might not dominate the Chicago training camp roster, but more Bears hail from Texas and California than any other U.S. states: each state is home to thirteen players on the current roster. The Bears have six players from Georgia, and five each from Florida and Oklahoma. Illinois and South Carolina are next with four. The Midwest is further represented with three Michiganders, two Wisconsin natives, one Iowan, and one Indiana "hoosier."

GETTING TO HALAS HALL AT CONWAY PARK

FROM THE LOOP – Take 90/94 (Kennedy Expressway) west to 94 north (Edens Expressway). Continue on 94 (the “spur”), which becomes the Tri-state Tollway. Exit at Town Line Road (IL Route 60) and turn right (east). Take a left at the first light, which is Field Drive. (The next light is Field Court, you can also make a left there and proceed around its bend until it merges with Field Drive). Drive about 1.2 miles north along Field Drive. Turn gently right onto Football Drive (the last road on your right) and proceed to the entry gate.

FROM O'HARE AIRPORT – Take 294 (the Tri-state Tollway) north. Exit at Town Line Road (IL Route 60), turn right (east), and proceed as directed with underlined text, above.

FROM THE OLD HALAS HALL – Take Washington Road north to Deerpath Road. Make a left (west) on Deerpath and follow through downtown Lake Forest to Waukegan Road (IL 43). Make a left (south) on Waukegan, then a right on Town Line Road (IL 60), and a right onto Field Drive or Field Court. Follow to Football Drive and proceed to the entry gate.

GEORGE S. HALAS

Feb. 2, 1895 – Oct. 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball, and baseball.

After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award—the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Wrigley Field (11/4/23). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 20s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Four times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities until '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the World Championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another championship, but in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark on 11/14/93. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Historical Bios

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

Sept. 4, 1925 – Dec. 16, 1979

"Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Chicago Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just three presidents in the franchise's 70-year history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by current president Michael McCaskey. His numerous contributions on a league-level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

"Mugs" learned football at a young age, serving as a ball boy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. "Mugs" is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

NFL EUROPE LEAGUE

The Bears allocated eight players to squads in the NFL Europe League for the spring '99 campaign. Chicago's overseas assignees include CB Ricky Bell, P Chris Dolan, OL Adam Hernandez, G Dan Palmer, DT Emile Palmer, S Jim Cantelupe, S Nick Ferguson, and S Greg Williams. NFL teams receive roster exemptions by allocating players to the NFL-run league, and the Bears will therefore be allowed to take more than the normal 80 players to training camp in the summer of 1999.

WRIGLEY WRECORD

The Bears' all-time record at Wrigley Field stands at 221-89-22, a total of 332 games, 330 as the home team. (Two of those victories came with the Bears as the "road" team: twice in 1920 against the Chicago Tigers). The 330 Bears' home games at Wrigley Field appears to be a National Football League record, though unofficial. The Bears-Wrigley connection edges out Cleveland's Municipal Stadium as host for 324 home games of the Cleveland Browns, from 1950 through 1995. As the reincarnation of the Cleveland Browns will play in a new stadium beginning in 1999, the Bears-Wrigley "record" appears safe.

In fact, Wrigley Field has hosted a total of 342 NFL games: 330 Bears home games, five home games of the Chicago Tigers in 1920, and seven home games of the Chicago Cardinals in 1931 and 1932. Besides the Browns' 324 home games at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, the Cleveland Indians played two home games there in 1931, and the Cleveland Rams played sixteen home contests in 1937 and 1939-1941. Municipal Stadium appears to have hosted a total of 342 total NFL games—same as Wrigley Field.

The Bears' record at Soldier Field stands at 134-89-1. The Bears have also played home games at Decatur (1921, victory over Rock Island); DePaul (1925, victory over Hammond); Mills (1930, tie versus Brooklyn); Loyola (1931, victory over Cleveland); Chicago Stadium (1932, victory over Portsmouth); and Dyche Stadium (1970, victory over Philadelphia).

- Bears' record at Wrigley Field: 221-89-22 (.699)
- Bears' home record at Wrigley Field: 219-89-22 (.697)
- Bears' record at Soldier Field: 134-89-1 (.601)
- Bears' combined home record: 358-178-24 (.668)

Each of the above players spent time on the Bears' practice squad (or "developmental squad," as it was termed in 1989). Bold players are on the current Bears roster.

* Indicates player was signed to active roster, and played in a game.

- The following current Bears spent time on other teams' practice squads: James Allen (Phi), Ricky Bell (Jax), Casey Wiegmann (Ind), Dunstan Anderson (NO, Dal, KC, and Atl), Robert Chancey (SD), Lemanski Hall (Hou/Ten), and Frankie Smith (Mia).
- A player on the practice squad is not "protected". However, for another team to sign a practice squad player, that team must put the player on their active roster. The Bears have signed nine players to their active roster off other teams' practice squads: John Mangum (TB), Kevin Miniefield (Det), Trevor Cobb (Pit), Willie Harris (Buf), Chris Holder (GB), Kenny Shedd (NYJ), Mark Butterfield (Ariz), and Tyrone Williams (St. Louis), as well as current Bear James Allen (Philadelphia) in late 1997.

INTERNATIONAL GAMES

The Bears were participants in the NFL's first overseas game when they met the Cowboys in London in 1986. Since that contest, the American Bowl has expanded to many international sites including Tokyo, Barcelona, Montreal, and Mexico City, as well as Sydney, Australia this coming August. Two summers ago, the Bears' fourth trip abroad took them to Dublin, Ireland's Croke Park on July 27, 1997, to face the Pittsburgh Steelers.

80 YEARS of GRIDIRON TRADITION...at THE FIELD MUSEUM

Few franchises better symbolize their sport than the Chicago Bears and professional football. From Papa Bear Halas to Walter Payton to the present day, this is a team rich in tradition and history. With a total of nine world championships and a Super Bowl title to boast, the Bears have accumulated countless pieces of priceless memorabilia along with their legacy. Now, for the first time, this collection will be open to the public.

Beginning with the Season Opener on September 12th and continuing through the regular season, The Field Museum will host the first official collection of Bears memorabilia spanning the heritage of the storied franchise. On the occasion of the team's 80th Season, the Bears have allowed The Field Museum to display the team's most cherished items. Fans will see the 1985 Super Bowl Trophy, the 1963 World Championship Trophy, helmets and pads, jerseys and cleats, Super Bowl rings and fantastic photographs. There will also be a historical highlight video featuring the most memorable moments and greatest feats in team annals.

The Field Museum will also welcome a former Chicago Bear on the morning of each home game for a 9 AM breakfast open to the public. After breakfast and a stroll through the exhibit, fans can walk across the parking lot into Soldier Field to watch the game. Or, Bears backers can use their Bears ticket stub to enter the exhibit after the gridiron action, avoid the Soldier Field parking lot traffic, and complete a perfect football afternoon.

Fans may ask, why The Field Museum? Quite simply, in addition to being neighbors and having two of the most publicly recognized facilities in Chicago, The Field Museum and the Chicago Bears are once again underscoring their roles as a dutiful citizens of Chicagoland. It is an opportunity to both celebrate the pride and joy that the team has brought to the city over 80 seasons, and to look back—with the help of a world class museum—at everything that has made the Chicago Bears one of the greatest franchises in pro sports.

The Chicago Bears exhibition will be on view from September 12, 1999, through January 2, 2000. For more information, please call 312 / 922 - 9410, or visit The Field Museum's website at www.fmnh.org/bears.

Soldier Field

The Chicago Bears enter their 30th year at Soldier Field after playing their first 50 seasons in Chicago at Wrigley Field. Soldier Field was opened in 1924 as a 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium. The first football game played on its field was November 22, 1924, as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern, 13-6.

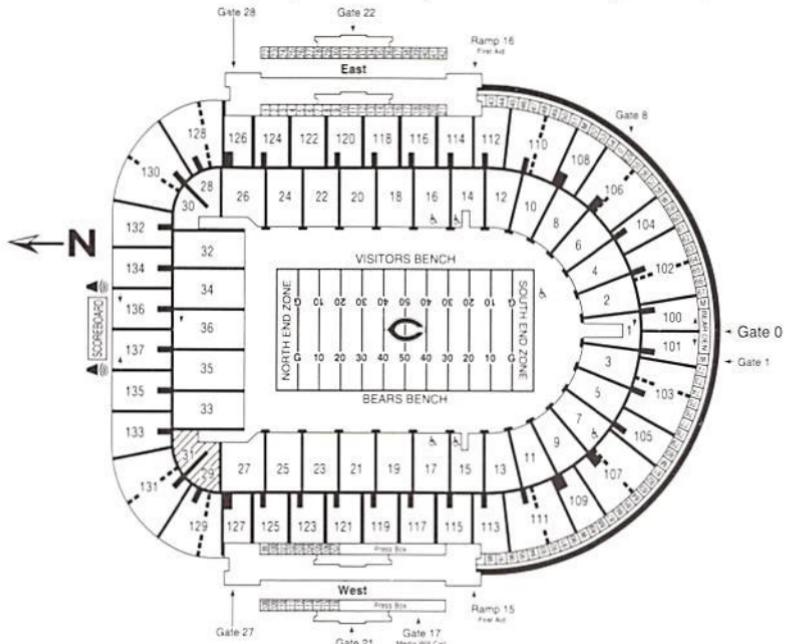

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927), the first ski meet held in a stadium, and the all-time largest football crowd (123,000). The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the religious Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000 plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stands on 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The stadium is maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

Other stadium notes since the Bears moved to Soldier Field:

- 1971 — September 19th, Chicago defeats the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15 before capacity crowd of 55,701 in the Bears' first game since moving from Wrigley.
- 1979 — The stadium undergoes major reconstruction and renovation prior to the season including new lighting, playing surface, and locker rooms; rebuilding of seating area (new chairbacks, armrests, seats); and improvement of sightlines.
- 1982 — Additional rebuilding of seating areas was completed as well as new concourses with more restrooms and concession areas. A new press box, 60 deluxe skyboxes, and a new scoreboard were also built. Capacity is increased to 66,030.
- 1988 — Surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass, and 56 skyboxes were added along south rim (increasing the total to 116). Capacity is increased to 66,946.
- 1992 — Four seats are added increasing the capacity to 66,950.
- 1994 — The Park District spends millions to refurbish the stadium for the World Cup soccer tournament. Capacity is reduced by six to the current figure of 66,944.

Training Camp

For the 16th consecutive year, the Bears' training camp will be held at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville. The site, 180 miles northwest of Chicago, provides the Bears with five practice fields, two lockerrooms, a weight room, meeting rooms, and dorms for players, staff, media, and guests.

EIGHTLESS IN '98

The Bears had played 1,070 games in their storied 78 seasons before finishing a game with a final score of "eight" for the first time. It finally happened on November 2, 1997: the Bears lost to the Redskins 31-8 at Soldier Field, scoring on an Erik Kramer TD toss and a two-point conversion for the final score. Chicago's opponents have only once totalled eight points in a contest: on November 6, 1932, the Giants scored a touchdown, missed the extra point, and recorded a fourth quarter safety in losing to the Bears, 28-8.

The Bears and their opponents were eightless in '98 as well. In fact, only two teams finished a game last season with a total of eight points: Oakland figured eight in its Kickoff Weekend home loss to Kansas City, 28-8 (9-6-98); and Tennessee topped Baltimore 12-8 on October 11 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

BARRY'S BIG BEAR BONANZA

Only one running back in NFL annals has ever gained 1,000 career yards against the Bears: Detroit's Barry Sanders. Sanders has 1,846 yards in 19 games against Chicago, including 14-28 in the Bears' 31-27 win over the Lions at Soldier Field last October 4th, and 24-114 in Detroit's 26-3 home victory on 11-15-98.

ALL TIED UP

The Bears have had 42 ties in their 76-year history. However, their last knotted game was a 13-13 final against the Rams on September 24, 1972 — 410 games ago. The Bears' streak is the fifth longest current tieless streak, as well as the fifth longest in NFL history. New England (477 games) has the longest current streak and longest in league annals, followed by Cincinnati (445), Dallas (443), and Tennessee (423).

Since 1974, when sudden death overtime was introduced, there have been just 15 ties in the entire NFL —none by the Bears. The Bears hold the distinction of having played in the most overtime games (22) without a tie. The other four NFC Central teams have each had at least one tie, led by the Packers with four.

Before the '97 season, the last tie in the NFL was a 10-10 contest between Kansas City and Cleveland on November 19, 1989. The league played 1,836 games after the Chiefs-Browns clash, (including 109 advancing to overtime), without another tie...until November 16, 1997, when the Ravens and Eagles finished a game knotted 10-10. The NFL didn't have to wait long before getting tied up again: the Redskins and Giants ended in a 7-7 deadlock the following week (November 23, 1997). There were no ties last season.

Bears TV / Radio Programs

PRE-SEASON TV

For the sixth season, the Chicago Bears have teamed with WBBM-TV (CBS — Channel 2 in Chicago) in televising all four Bears pre-season games to Chicago and surrounding markets. The Bears are responsible for production and advertising sales of the games. The NFL on CBS broadcast team of Kevin Harlan and Sam Wyche will handle play-by-play duties and color analysis, respectively.

The Bears-Colts game on Saturday, August 7 starts at 7:00 PM; followed by the Bears at Steelers contest on Friday, August 13 at 6:30 PM. The Bears host the Rams on Saturday, August 21 at 7:00 PM, and the pre-season concludes with the Bears visiting the Browns on Saturday, August 28 at 7:00 PM. Each game is re-broadcast later the same evening on Channel 2.

CHICAGO BEARS WEEKLY

For the tenth season, the Chicago Bears will produce a 30-minute television show, Chicago Bears Weekly. The show airs each Saturday night at 10:30 PM on WBBM-TV in Chicago, beginning September 11th and continuing throughout the season.

Every week the program presents an insider's view of the Bears organization including interviews with Bears players and coaches. Each episode reviews the latest Bears game and analyzes the upcoming opponent.

CHICAGO BEARS INSIDER

The Bears radio coverage on game day begins three hours prior to kickoff, and for the eighth season Chicago Bears Insider opens the program (on WMAQ radio). Hosted by Gary Bender and Hub Arkush, CBI is a 45-minute show which gives Bear fans an in-depth preview and analysis of the upcoming opponent. The program includes discussion of hot NFL issues, an in-depth interview with a player or coach, team related features and information, and analysis of the season to date.

DICK JAURON RADIO SHOW

Bears Head Coach Dick Jauron conducts his weekly radio show on WMAQ (670 AM) each Monday evening from 6:00 to 7:00 PM. Hosted by Hub Arkush, the hour-long Dick Jauron Radio Show allows the Coach to look at the latest news from Halas Hall and around the NFL. Fans have the opportunity to talk with the Coach during the program's call-in segment.

CHICAGO BEARS EXTRA

The pre-eminent Bears wrap-up show serves as a nightcap for all Bears fans. Chicago Bears Extra will be broadcast on Sunday nights at 10:30 PM on WBBM-TV in Chicago, and as always will feature a segment with Coach Dick Jauron. Coach will appear via satellite or join WBBM broadcasters Tim Weigel and Howard Sudberry live from Chicago. A Bears player will also contribute analysis about the day's events in the NFL.

BEARS MANAGEMENT REPORT

New in 1999, the Bears Management Report will deliver to fans all of the inside scoop about the team from the President himself. Ted Phillips will join play-by-play man Gary Bender each Monday evening from 7:00-7:30 PM on WMAQ Radio. Radio listeners will get their chance to ask the President about stadium development efforts, league issues, and franchise strategies. Other Bears front office brass will share with fans their particular area of expertise: personnel, scouting, marketing, athletic training, and salary cap issues will be discussed, among others. BMR will be the football fans' true insider event.

BEARS LUNCHEON SERIES

The Chicago Bears / Chicago Sun-Times Luncheon Series is the "official" Chicago Bears luncheon held every week throughout the season. Each Monday night or Tuesday, a current Bear player, coach, or representative will appear along with a prominent Chicago sports anchor at one of the four Maggiano's locations in the Chicagoland area (downtown, Skokie, Oak Brook, Schaumburg). For the seventh season the event will be televised on Fox Sports Chicago on Tuesday evenings, with re-broadcasts on Wednesdays at 4:00 PM and Thursdays at noon.

Bears Radio Play-By-Play

WMAQ 670-AM

One of the nation's top all-news stations, WMAQ Radio enters its third season as the radio home of the Chicago Bears in 1999. WMAQ has a tradition rich in Chicago sports broadcasting history. The station also is the home of the Dick Jauron Radio Show. Gary Bender calls play-by-play for the Bears, with analysis from Pro Football Weekly's Hub Arkush and former Bear offensive guard Tom Thayer. Pre-game shows begin three hours prior to kickoff. The post-game show from the lockerroom features analysis from Coach Jauron and key players from the game.

GARY BENDER

Veteran broadcaster Gary Bender joins the Bears team in 1999, fresh from stints with the St. Louis Rams and the NBA Phoenix Suns. The Ulysses, Kansas native is a Wichita State grad and earned his master's degree at the University of Kansas, and later became the voice of the Jayhawk Radio Network. Bender's early credits include work for the Green Bay Packers, Wisconsin Badgers, Milwaukee Brewers, and Big Ten Conference. In 1975, he joined CBS for a 12-year association that included 27 different sports, including NFL football (and the well known 1975 "Hail Mary" game), The Masters, and the Final Four (1982-84). Bender moved to ABC in 1987 to work on Monday Night Baseball, the Wide World of Sports, and the Winter Olympics. He became the Turner Network's lead NBA and NFL announcer in 1991. Bender has written a book on broadcasting ("The Call of the Game, What Really Goes On In The Broadcast Booth"), and started a company, "Sports Careers", which assists young people in the industry. Bender remains affiliated with Kansas' William Allen White School of Journalism. He and his wife, Linda, have resided in Phoenix for 17 years.

HUB ARKUSH

Hub Arkush begins his 13th season as a member of the Bears radio team. Arkush is publisher of Pro Football Weekly, a periodical devoted to pro football that is widely read in NFL circles. Arkush also serves as the founder and co-host of the syndicated radio and television shows with the same name. Arkush joined WGN Radio in 1985 as a pre-and post-game analyst before filling in during Bears broadcasts in 1987, and moving to WMAQ in the spring of 1997. He is a highly sought after guest on sports talk shows nationwide. Arkush is a lifetime Chicagoan who attended Deerfield High School and the University of Michigan.

TOM THAYER

Tom Thayer retired from the Bears in 1992 after a distinguished 8-year career at offensive guard. Originally a Bears' fourth-round draft pick in 1983 after an all-American career at Notre Dame, Thayer played for two-plus seasons with the USFL's Chicago Blitz before joining the Bears. One of the team's strongest players, Thayer earned his starting role at right guard four games into the 1985 season, and eventually compiled consecutive game and consecutive start streaks that led the Bears during the late 1980s. Before joining the WMAQ team for the 1997 season, Thayer worked for two years as a Bears analyst on WFLD-TV's pro football programming. A former all-state lineman at Joliet Catholic High, Thayer resides in Chicago.

TICKET INFORMATION and BEARS SHARE

TICKET OFFICE – The Bears ticket office is located on the first floor of Halas Hall. Single game tickets are sold through the mail beginning June 1 of each year. After the mail order sale concludes, individual game tickets are available at the ticket office, or by calling TicketMaster at 312 / 559-1212.

The Bears Ticket Office telephone number is (847) 615-BEAR (2327).

BEARS SHARE – In 1993, the Bears created Bears Share, their ticket donation program benefiting the Boy Scouts of America, Boys and Girls Club of Chicago, and Clearbrook Center for the Handicapped. The idea is simple: if a season ticket subscriber or single ticket purchaser cannot attend a game, he or she donates those tickets to one of the three agencies. The agency either arranges for a responsible adult to escort one of their program participants to a Bears game, or re-sells the tickets at face value. For more information, call the Bears Ticket Office.
