ABE GIBRON IN THIRD SEASON AS HEAD COACH OF THE BEARS

This is Abe Gibron's third season as head coach of the Bears and his 12th year with the organization, beginning as a player (1958-'59), resuming as an assistant coach (1965-'71) and assuming his present position in 1972.

GIBRON

As a player, he was co-captain and offensive guard. As assistant, he coached the offensive line three seasons and the defensive line four. In 1965, that offensive line played a large role in an attack that resulted in an all-time Bears scoring record, 409 points.

He is a life-long resident of the Chicago area, born Sept. 22, 1925, at Michigan City, Ind., where he still maintains a year-around home with wife Susie; sons William Abraham and James Kahlil; and daughter Matina Frances.

Gibron is a football career man who has been active in some capacity somewhere every year since his high school days.

He was a letterman and graduate of Purdue University whose first professional experience was with Buffalo of the old All-American Conference in 1949. Then, he spent seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns, the last three games of 1956 and all of 1957 with the Philadelphia Eagles before coming to the Bears.

As a player, he got into 128 games in all, 79 with Cleveland which, in his time there, played six NFL championship games and won three.

Gibron, all-pro offensive guard three times, appeared in five Pro Bowl games. After retirement as a player, he became an assistant with the Washington Redskins from 1960 through 1964.

The winning touch has eluded Gibron-coached teams in his two seasons as top man. Yet there were flashes of promise such as the 1972 Bears whose 2,360 yards rushing led the NFL National Conference and rated fourth in the league overall.

Last season was one of bitter disappointment mainly because the Bears lost their way after bright beginnings that suggested it might be a year of satisfaction. The pre-season record (3-1 and two ties) was the Bears best since 1968.

The first three regular NFL starts hinted that the pre-season was no accident—Dallas won with a last minute field goal and Minnesota needed five field goals for a victory margin while much improved Denver was routed decisively.

Player Changes Expected for 1974

But the fourth week—at New Orleans, where the Saints had been given no chance in pre-game reckoning—began a skid from which the Bears never recovered. Only successful afternoons after that unexpected loss were a win over the Packers at Green Bay and another over the Houston Oilers in Soldier Field, both of which were easy conquests.

Whatever the reason, the results made '73 one of the Bears' less memorable campaigns.

No question but that there will be changes of front, offense and defense, for 1974.

The veterans on the roster are neither worn out from too many seasons of NFL competition nor are they too old in years. But even the best of the experienced returning players will be pushed for jobs by incoming rookies—most significantly, those rookies acquired in what most experts agree was the Bears best college draft in several years.

The Staff

EDMUND (ZEKE) BRATKOWSKI is now in his third season as an assistant coach with the Bears. He had begun his pro career here in 1954 and got in five playing seasons at quarterback, with two years of military service following his rookie campaign. Zeke had been a fifth round draft choice after a fine collegiate career at Georgia where, among other highlights, he was NCAA punting leader as a senior. After his fifth playing year with the Bears, he went to the Los Angeles Rams on a 1961 trade and remained with the Rams until early in 1963, when the Green Bay Packers purchased his contract. With the Packers, he was backup quarterback to Bart Starr, a member of three consecutive NFL championship teams and also on the winning rosters in the first two Super Bowls. He is a native of Danville, Ill. Zeke and his wife, Mary, are parents of two sons, Bobby and Steve, and a daughter, Cassie.

JIM CARR, respected around the league as a sharp defensive coach, returned to the Bears staff in 1972 following three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He had also been a Bear assistant in 1969 after three years on the Minnesota Vikings staff. Jim, whose nickname is "Gummy", came from Kayford, W. Va., and played college football at Morris Harvey, Charleston, W. Va. He began his professional career in 1955 and got in a lot of action with the old Chicago Cardinals, Baltimore Colts, Philadelphia Eagles and Washington Redskins. Carr and his wife, Lila Lee, and two children, Kenneth and Gwendolyn, live in Roselle, Ill.

BRATKOWSKI

DOVELL

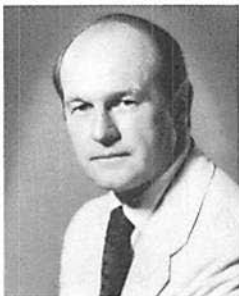

CHARLES (CHUCK) CHERUNDOLO made a name for himself as a genuine pro football career man who now is in his third season on the Bears' staff after having been with them previously from 1966 through 1968. In between the two tenures here, he was head coach of the Tri-City Apollos (Midland, Mich.) of the Continental League in 1969 and the following two years, was on assignments for the Quadra scouting combine that functions for Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego. After winning all-America selection as Penn State's center, Chuck was an NFL line star for the Cleveland Rams, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, with four years in the U.S. Navy, all between 1937 and 1948. Cherundolo and his wife, Margaret, live in Chicago with a daughter, Mary Pat. A son, John, graduated from Syracuse University in 1972.

WILLIAM (WHITEY) DOVELL pronounces his name "Doe-Vell" and this is his third year on the Bears staff. He had coached previously for five years with the Denver Broncos and before that, spent 15 seasons at the University of Maryland. He also lettered in varsity football at Maryland under Head coach Jim Tatum and, as an offensive guard, played twice in the Gator Bowl and once in the Sugar Bowl. After graduation, he coached the Maryland freshmen three years and then for the next 12 years was in charge of receivers, both offensive and defensive lines and linebackers at various times. He and his wife, Claire, have three daughters, Audrey, Patricia and Lisa, and the family lives in Cary, Ill.

RALPH GOLDSTON is one of two new members of the Bears' staff this year after a college and pro football career uninterrupted since the late 1940's. A native of Youngstown, O., he graduated in 1951 from the university there after transferring from Indiana University where he won two football letters as a halfback. He was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles and after five seasons with them, he went to the Canadian League for nine years, with both Hamilton and Montreal. Retiring as a player, Goldston became an assistant coach, first at Montreal and, subsequently, at Harvard in 1971-'72 and at Colorado last season. He and his wife, Sarah, have one son, Ralph, Jr., member of the faculty at Youngstown University; and three daughters, Ursula, Beverly and Monica.

BOB LORD is the second new member of the staff this year. Since graduating from Colorado State in 1956, his coaching experience has been exclusively collegiate, including head coach positions at Chicago's North Park College (1960-'63) and Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn. (1965-'65). He also was an assistant at Wake Forest, Wesleyan (Middletown, Conn.), Appalachian State and, the last two years, at Massachusetts. He comes originally from Brunswick, Me. He and his wife, Julia, are parents of three daughters, Belinda Lea, Martha and Patricia and two sons, Bobby, Jr., and Billy.

JERRY STOLTZ is a native Chicagoan, who grew up on the South Side and was an outstanding prep athlete at Fenger high school in 1952-53-54. He went to the University of Toledo, and saw duty as a quarterback, a running back and a defensive back. He won All-Mid-America Conference honors as a defensive back. After graduation, Jerry went into coaching and at various times, was on the staffs at Toledo, Notre Dame, Miami of Ohio and Purdue. In 1969, he went to the New England Patriots and remained with them through 1972 when he accepted the chance to return to his home town area. He and his wife, Rosemary, and their children, Mike, Jeri Marie, Kelly and Patrick, now make their home in Hinsdale.

Begins 46th Year With Bears

JOHNSOS

LUKE JOHNSOS is beginning his 46th consecutive season with the Bears organization and since 1969, he has been director of technical research. But his start actually goes back almost to the beginnings of the Bears themselves because from 1929 through 1937, he was a regular end, three times winning All-National Football League honors. When he played, he was a 60-minute man, defense as well as offense. In his many years with the Bears, he figured as a player or an assistant coach in seven of their eight championships, missing out only on the 1921 first place finish. From 1942 through 1945, when George Halas was in the United States Navy in World War II, Luke was co-head coach with Heartley (Hunk) Anderson. At Northwestern University he also won three baseball letters and was so highly regarded, he received a tryout with the Cincinnati Reds but decided on pro football instead. He was a player on the 1932-33 Bears championship teams and was in a coaching role during the 1940, 1941, 1943, 1946 and 1963 title seasons. Luke and his wife, Rosemary, make their home in Evanston. They have a son, Luke, Jr., of Deerfield; four daughters, Judy (Mrs. John Wolford of River Forest); Janet (Mrs. Dean Traflet of La Grange Park); Barbara (Mrs. Brian Kocher of Minneapolis); and Ann (Mrs. Gary Smith of Skokie). They also have 16 grandchildren.

Assistant to President . . . Player Personnel Director

WALSTON

BOBBY WALSTON is starting his seventh year with the Bears organization, the last three of which he has had dual responsibilities—assistant to the club president as well as director of player personnel. The latter involves the all important job of acquisition of talent and Walston's overall responsibilities cover the annual NFL college draft, signing of players (veterans as well as draft choices and free agents) and negotiation of deals with other teams in the league. He was an All-American at the University of Georgia before going to the Philadelphia Eagles where he compiled one of pro football's greatest all-time place kicking records between 1951 and 1962. He wound up with 80 field goals and 365 conversions and those, along with 46 touchdowns, gave him a career scoring total of 881 points, ranking him 10th all-time. Following retirement as a player, Walston was Eagles' player personnel director two years and an assistant coach at Miami for two seasons. He and his wife, Neil; a daughter, Bobbie; and sons Mark and Michael live in Schaumburg, a suburb northwest of Chicago.

Director of Collegiate Talent

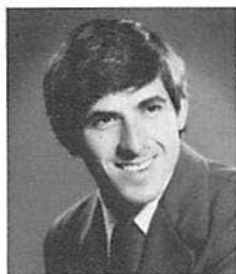

PARMER

JIM PARMER has brought excellent qualifying credentials to the position of director of collegiate talent for the Bears. He took over the job in February 1973 and has been a busy, much traveled man since. A key factor in his value is his friendship with scores of college coaches throughout the United States. Before joining the Bears organization, Parmer had been associated with the Blesto-VIII scouting combine since 1967 with regional responsibilities in 1971 and 1972. As an NFL player, he was starting back with the Philadelphia Eagles for nine seasons after having been drafted following a collegiate career at Oklahoma A. & M., 1944-'47. When he retired as a player, he coached three years at Texas Tech, went into insurance work for four years and then joined the Washington Redskins' personnel department. He and his wife, Mary Jean, have two daughters, Sandy and Jaime, and a son, Rich, and live in Wheeling, a suburb northwest of Chicago.

Head Trainer

CAITO

FRED CAITO, protege of the late Ed Rozy and graduate of St. Joseph's College at Rensselaer, became head trainer of the Bears last season. After assisting Rozy at the 1967 and 1968 training camps, he became full-time aide in 1969 upon graduation from St. Joseph's with a bachelor's degree. He also holds a master's degree in physical education from Northwestern. Caito became head trainer of the Bears in 1973 as successor to Bernie Lareau who had taken over for Rozy in 1970. He came originally from Tiffin, O., but now lives in Chicago.

OLIVER ALEXANDER RB 6-3 240 Grambling 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-15 Born: 1-4-51, Chicago Heights, Ill.

Alexander, Grambling's starting tight end for three seasons, will return this year to running back—specifically, what used to be called "fullback". His size and the recommendations on his blocking ability are the reasons. Alexander actually was a fullback at Bloom Township high school in Chicago Heights so the position won't be entirely unfamiliar. Home: Chicago Heights.

LIONEL ANTOINE T 6-6 255 S. Illinois 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-1a Born: 8-31-50, Biloxi, Miss.

Injuries at the outset of 1973 hampered Antoine, just as in his rookie campaign but they weren't as severe. In fact, though he actually played on defense in only two games of the five in which his name was on the active roster in 1972, he did far better in 1973. He was on the active roster all season and was starter at offensive tackle in the two final games. His development was noted as "satisfactory" and he is expected to fulfill the predictions of talent that originally made him a first round draft choice. Residence: Chicago Heights.

BOB ASHER T 6-6 260 Vanderbilt 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1972, T-Dallas Born: 6-13-48, Falls Church, Va.

Asher again graded out 90 percent plus to top Bears offensive linemen on the squad in that respect. His excellent efforts against some of the NFL's toughest defensive linemen again marked him as outstanding even in comparison with tackles chosen all-league. Again, he showed consistency and steady improvement. Asher was an all-American at Vanderbilt and the Dallas Cowboys' second round draft choice for 1970 when he got into a half dozen games. The following year, a knee injury sidelined him but in 1972, he had an impressive training camp with the Cowboys before the trade that sent him to the Bears in mid-August. Residence: Chicago.

JOE BARNES RB 5-11 205 Texas Tech 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-13 Born: 12-8-51, Fort Worth, Tex.

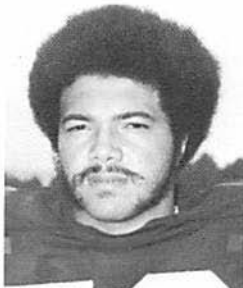

Good size and speed are qualifications expected to fit Barnes into some category with the Bears, defense and special teams if not offense. At Texas Tech, he was basically a quarterback but he ran as well as passed. As a senior, his total offense was 1,546 yards (568 rushing, 978 passing) and was the leader as Tech swept to an 11-1 record including a 28-19 victory over Tennessee in the Gator Bowl. In that post-season contest, he threw two touchdown passes (79 and 7 yards) and ran six for another. In the Coaches All America game at Lubbock June 22, Barnes was a big factor in the West team's 36-6 win over the East with a 26-yard touchdown run among other efforts. Residence: Big Lake, Tex.

WAYMOND BRYANT LB 6-3 236 Tennessee St. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-1a Born: 7-28-52, Dallas, Tex.

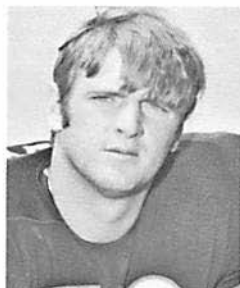

Bryant, overwhelmingly regarded as the nation's best collegiate linebacker in 1973, was the first man at that position chosen in the NFL selection meeting as well as the fourth on the first round. He comes off an undefeated (10-0) Tennessee State eleven and reputedly has all the weapons needed for his job, from aggressiveness and pursuit to speed, a consistent 4.75 for the forty. Though he lettered for all four years, defensive statistics were recorded only the past three seasons, 188 unassisted tackles, topped by 73 as a sophomore, as well as eight quarterback sacks, nine recovered opponents fumbles and seven interceptions. One of his interceptions was against Grambling in his freshman year and he returned it 76 yards for a touchdown. Home: Dallas.

COADY

DOUG BUFFONE LB 6-2 225 Louisville 9th Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-4 Born: 4-27-44, Yatesboro, Pa.

Buffone, too long deprived of recognition as one of the NFL's legitimate blue-chip outside linebackers, has rolled up an impressive record, not the least important of which is his durability. Since joining the Bears in 1966 (when he was alternate for then defensive captain Joe Fortunato as well as a valued member of special units) he has played 112 consecutive games. In 1967, he became starting left linebacker and statistically, has contributed 535 tackles, 369 assists as well as 15 interceptions for 154 yards return. His four interceptions in 1970 were the most ever by any Bears outside linebacker. He scored a touchdown in 1967 after recovering a Detroit Lions fumble. Last season, Buffone's experience and his unselfish efforts as a genuine team man made him more distinctive. In the closing games of the schedule, he was the lone seasoned linebacker, working with two straight out rookies and a second year man. Residence: Deerfield, Ill.

ALAN CHADWICK QB 6-2 190 East Tenn. St. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-8a Born: 10-15-53, Decatur, Ga.

Chadwick had a great senior season for East Tennessee State (Johnson City, Tenn.). His 16.8 average completions per game were second nationally in the NCAA College division as he connected on 185 of 320 for 2,173 yards, nine touchdowns, and a lofty 58.7 completion percentage. He also ran for 124 yards and his 2,173 total offense was fourth nationally in his college division. Chadwick led the Ohio Valley Conference in passing in 1972 with 105 out of 220 for 1,176 yards, 11 touchdowns. In the season final, he completed five touchdown passes against University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. Home: Decatur, Ga.

WALLY CHAMBERS DE 6-6 250 Eastern Kentucky 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-1 Born: 5-15-51, Phenix, City, Ala.

Chambers, Bears' No. 1 draft choice for last season, had a brilliant rookie campaign. He was selected on every All-NFL Rookie honor team of any consequence and also was named defensive rookie of the year by all top experts, headed by the prestigious Associated Press poll. In his first big league season, Chambers led the Bears in tackles (101, plus 31 assists), first time since 1965 that anyone besides Dick Butkus was team leader in that respect. He was second in quarterback sacks, nine for 70 yards loss along with five assists, recovered two opponents fumbles and caused five others. At Eastern Kentucky (Richmond, Ky.) Chambers led his team in tackles and assists three straight years, 65-67 in '70; 85-64 in '71; and 73-44 in '72 and climaxed his collegiate career by playing in both the North-South and the Senior Bowl post-season games. Topping off his rookie pro season, Chambers was selected for the NFC All Stars who met the AFC Stars in the Pro Bowl at Kansas City. Residence: Chicago.

GAIL CLARK LB 6-2 227 Michigan State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, W-Pittsburgh Born: 4-14-51, Bellefontaine, O.

Clark was a valuable waiver acquisition from Pittsburgh, whose Steelers had picked him off on the fourth round of the 1973 draft. The riddled linebacking situation here gave him his opportunity and he got into 11 games, starting against Kansas City, Minnesota and Los Angeles. He wound up with 43 tackles, 11 assists. At Michigan State, where he lettered three years, he was used at both the middle and outside, won All-Big Ten and honorable mention All-America and played in the East-West Shrine game. Residence: Chicago:

CRAIG CLEMONS S 5-11 200 Iowa 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-1b Born: 6-1-49, Sidney, O.

Clemons came into his own as a starter in his second season with the Bears and his 91 tackles, 24 assists were second only to Wally Chambers. He also had two interceptions. In his rookie season, he was a backup man or special team performer for the most part but he did have one memorable moment in the finale at Oakland. He blocked a punt and the loose ball was recovered for a touchdown. Residence: North Liberty, Iowa.

RICH COADY C 6-3 235 Memphis State 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-11 Born: 12-1-44, Chicago

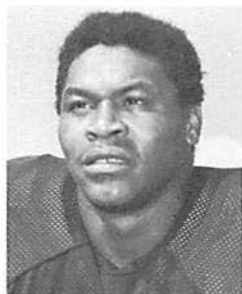

Coady rapidly is becoming one of the league's top centers although that was a completely unfamiliar assignment for him when he was shifted from tight end in 1971. His steady improvement is especially noticeable on his deep punt snaps. He has been durable to the point where he hasn't missed an offensive play in two years. As a matter of fact, he actually has been in 14 games—starter or sub—every season since he broke in with the Bears as a tight end in 1970. Rich is a native Chicagoan and graduate of Taft high school who played his college football at Memphis State. After being picked by the Bears on the 11th round of the 1968 draft, he was in the Army for two years before reporting. Residence: Dallas, Tex.

CRAIG COTTON TE 6-2 225 Youngstown 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1973, T-Detroit Born: 7-7-47, Elizabeth, Pa.

Cotton escaped, by trade, from the shadows of Charlie Sanders at Detroit only to suffer a foot injury early in his first season with the Bears that reduced his effectiveness. He actually had only one really good game—two receptions for 83 yards that included a 63-yarder against Minnesota here. Otherwise, he was slowed down and that hadn't been figured when the Bears traded for him during the NFL draft meeting a year ago. Cotton had been a backer-up to Sanders in his four seasons at Detroit and his best day as a fill-in occurred against the Bears in 1972 when he caught four passes for 67 yards and a touchdown. Residence: Los Angeles.

CARROLL DALE WR 6-2 200 Virginia Tech 15th Season
Joined Bears: 1974, W-Minnesota Born: 4-24-38, Wise, Va.

The Bears are Dale's fourth NFL club in his 15 NFL seasons. He was with the Minnesota Vikings last season and caught 14 passes for 192 yards, plus two for 31 in the National Conference playoff win over the Washington Redskins. Previously, he had been with the Los Angeles Rams (1960-'64) and the Green Bay Packers (1965-'72). His 15 NFL seasons have been most productive—438 pass receptions, 52 for touchdowns, and 8,277 yards. Dale is third in receptions on the list of top ten active NFL pass receivers and second in yardage. Residence: Bristol, Tenn.

BOBBY DOUGLASS QB 6-4 225 Kansas 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1969, D-2 Born: 6-22-47, Manhattan, Kan.

Douglass' yardage total in 1973 was 525, a little over half of the 968 that gave him an NFL quarterback rush mark in '72. But he had the second personal four-touchdown game of his career when he rushed that many times for scores in the 31-13 win over the Packers at Green Bay. That also was his best all-around afternoon of the year because he ran 19 times for 100 yards in all and completed 10 of 15 passes for 118. In the season's second game against the Minnesota Vikings here, he ran 10 for 63, including one touchdown and completed nine passes out of 18 for 179. Back in 1970, he threw four touchdown passes against Buffalo, three coming after he had suffered a fractured left wrist. Douglass' record setting season of 1972 saw him average 6.9 per attempt. He had two games of 100 or more yards and was held to 30 yards or less in a game only twice. His career rushing total, 2,207 yards, ranks him seventh on the Bears' all-time list and his 6.65 average leads all the rest. Residence: Chicago.

ALLAN ELLIS CB 5-10 178 UCLA 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-5 Born: 8-19-51, Los Angeles

Ellis came along rapidly in his rookie season to the point where he is expected to be a strong factor in the defensive secondary this year. He appeared in all 14 games and came along so satisfactorily that he started the last five—at right corner against Detroit and Minnesota and then on the left side in the three that followed. He was an outstanding defensive performer as a senior at UCLA with three pass interceptions and 81 tackles and assists. As a junior, he returned his only interception for a touchdown. Residence: Chicago.

GEORGE FARMER WR 6-4 214 UCLA 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, D-3 Born: 4-19-48, Chattanooga, Tenn.

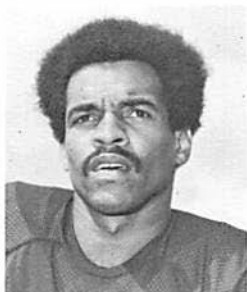

Farmer caught at least one pass in all but three games in 1973. His best single game effort was three for 47 in the game against the Detroit Lions here. A sure-handed speedster, Farmer has had more productive afternoons since coming to the Bears, including seven for 127 yards against Minnesota in 1971 and five for 141, including a 73-yard touchdown against the Cardinals in 1972. Residence: Los Angeles.

CHARLIE FORD CB 6-3 195 Houston 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-2 Born: 12-10-48, Beaumont, Tex.

Ford has 14 interceptions for an even 200 yards return in his three seasons as a left cornerback. That total came about despite the fact that he dropped off to only two steals of enemy passes last season. His high with the Bears was 1972 when he led with seven, along with 50 tackles that rated him fifth in that department. He was one of the stars of Houston's great defensive team of 1970. Residence: Missouri City, Tex.

DAVE GALLAGHER DE 6-4 245 Michigan 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-1b Born: 1-2-52, Piqua, O.

The Bears' second choice on the first round also was the star of an unbeaten team, the Wolverines having won ten while tying Rose Bowl winner Ohio State. In Gallagher's three years as a regular, Michigan had a 31-1-1 regular season record, losing only to Ohio State, 14-11, in 1972. The Wolverines were edged out by Stanford, 13-12, in the Rose Bowl game following the 1971 season. Gallagher runs the forty in a flat 5 and in addition to a lot of All-America attention as a senior, he was all-Big Ten Academic selection three times in a row. Gallagher, a zoology major in pre-med at Michigan, won both the National Football Foundation Fellowship and the NCAA Postgraduate scholarships. The football scouting book on him leads off with the descriptive "intelligent", followed by "strong, super-quick and a hitter." His career statistics show 175 tackles, sixteen quarterback sacks and one pass interception. Home: Piqua, O.

CARL GARRETT RB 5-11 210 New Mex. Highlands 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1973, T-New England Born: 8-31-47, Denton, Tex.

Garrett led in rushing, had the best average in kickoff returns and was second in pass receiving in his first year with the Bears. His best single game running jobs were 19 for 91 yards (plus three kickoff returns for 105) against New England, and 25 for 90 against the Minnesota Vikings here. He had a busy afternoon when the Detroit Lions visited Soldier Field, too—75 yards on 18 rushes; three kickoff returns for 130 and two pass catches for 21. Inexplicably, considering his past record for sure hands, Garrett had 13 fumbles—most he ever committed, as a pro or in college at New Mexico Highlands. By way of showing that the bobble was unique for him, his year-by-year totals with New England (1969-'72) were, respectively, 6-1-8-5. The Bears gave up a first round draft choice to the Patriots to effect one of their best trades in years. Garrett was rookie-of-the-year in 1969, beating out O. J. Simpson for the honor. Residence: Chicago.

CONRAD GRAHAM CB 6-1 184 Tennessee 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-8 Born: 7-10-51, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Injuries to the right knee—the first in training camp, the second in practice shortly after the start of the season—prevented Graham from getting a chance to show why he was leader of Tennessee's defensive secondary in 1972. The second injury, involving cartilage and ligament, necessitated surgery in October and Graham was idled the rest of the season. At Tennessee, he had seven interceptions as a senior, following five in 1971. He was a three-year letterman in a secondary that set two Southeastern Conference records. Residence: Knoxville, Tenn.

KEN GRANDBERRY RB 6-0 195 Washington St. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-8b Born: 1-25-52, Waco, Tex.

Grandberry, a Washington State offensive reliable for three seasons, climaxed his collegiate career by playing in the East-West game and the American Bowl at Tampa. He scored three touchdowns in the Tampa post-season contest. Grandberry wound up his eligibility at Washington State with 136 rushes for 643 yards, five touchdowns (a career total of 453 for 2,102, nine) and also caught 13 passes for 122 yards, one touchdown (career: 48-463-two). He also returned six kickoffs 125 yards. Home: Tacoma, Wash.

BOBBY JOE GREEN P 5-11 175 Florida 15th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, T-Pittsburgh Born: 5-7-36, Vernon, Tex.

This is Green's 12th season as the Bears' punter and he is the lone remaining member from the 1963 championship team. He came here by trade with Pittsburgh which had him for two years. In 14 NFL campaigns, Green has swung his sturdy right or punting leg 970 times—a league record—and has averaged 42.5 yards per kick. Only three times has one of his punts been blocked. Bobby's name can be found in Bears' career passing and rushing statistics, too, evidence of his successful fakery on occasional fourth down situations. Off the field, he is also a man of many talents in the business world. He is operator of a large cattle ranch and owner of a premium distributorship; in the world of music (amateur or hobby division), he strums a guitar and intones country and western songs. JIMMY GUNN LB 6-1 220 Southern California 5th Season Joined Bears: 1970, D-13 Born: 11-27-48, Augusta, Ark.

Gunn, captain of the Bears' 1972 specialty units, won a starting right linebacker job last season only to suffer a fractured upper right arm in the win at Denver that relegated him to the injury list for the balance of the season. Up to the time of the injury, he had 18 tackles and six assists as well as one quarterback sack and two assists, all of which suggested he was on his way to a great season. At Southern California, Gunn was a consensus All-American defensive end. Residence: Los Angeles.

DAVE HALE DT 6-8 255 Ottawa (Kansas) 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1969, D-12 Born: 5-21-47, McCook, Neb.

Hale has been a hard-luck guy the past two years. After a fractured ankle suffered in the final preseason game of 1972 (at St. Louis) idled him for the entire schedule, he returned for 1973. He had a good training camp and got into the league opener against Dallas only to suffer a knee injury that required surgery and kept him inactive the rest of last year. Residence: Hickory Hills, Ill.

JIM HARRISON RB 6-4 235 Missouri 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-2 Born: 9-10-48, San Antonio, Tex.

Harrison was an early bloomer last season, just as in 1972 when 473 yards of his 622 rushing total came in the first six games. In 1973, his season rushing yards were 370—and 318 of those were recorded in the first seven games. His best afternoon last year was at Denver where he ran 18 times for 98 yards and one touchdown and caught two passes for 61, including a 44-yard TD reception. As a rookie in 1971, Harrison saw no competitive action at all until the last two games. Residence: Chicago.

LYLE

McGEE

IKE HILL WR 5-10 180 Catawba 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, T-Denver Born: 4-15-47, Winston-Salem, N.C.

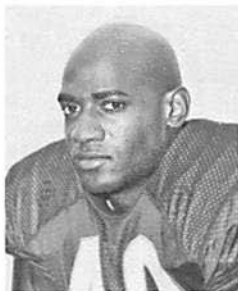

Hill was primarily a return man in 1973 and he averaged 23.6 on kickoff runbacks as well as 5.7 on punts. He scored a touchdown in each category—a 95-yard kickoff return against Houston and a 59-yard punt runback against Dallas. He was drafted by Oakland on the 1970 ninth round but went to Buffalo on waivers and in two seasons with the Bills, was a valued special teams man. Inactive in 1972, he signed with Denver as a free agent for 1973 but during the pre-season, came to the Bears. Residence: Chicago.

NORM HODGINS S 6-1 180 Louisiana State 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-11 Born: 3-1-52, New Orleans, La.

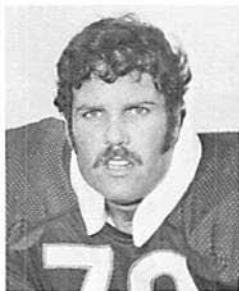

Hodgins will be restored by the Bears to his original spot, on defense, after having been moved to wide receiver as a Louisiana State senior because of his 4.6 speed. In two seasons at defensive back, he intercepted six passes for 135 yards, one touchdown and returned 13 punts for 125. As a receiver on offense last season, he caught 12 passes for 234 yards, one touchdown and also had six rushes for 15. His touchdown on defense came as a junior when he picked off a Texas A. & M. pass and returned it 45 yards. Louisiana State had a 9-2 record in 1973 but lost, 16-9, to Penn State in the Orange Bowl. Hodgins was a three-time letterman at quarterback at Archbishop Rummel high school in Metairie, La. Residence: Metairie, La.

CRAIG HOLLAND QB 6-4 200 Arlington 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-17 Born: 7-26-51, Yakima, Wash.

Holland, who transferred from Northern Arizona State to Arlington (Texas) in 1970, didn't break in as a starter until the fourth game of 1973 and under his leadership the team had 3-4 to finish with 4-6 for the season. Holland's coach at Arlington was John Symank, who becomes defense coach of the New York Giants this season. Holland's 1973 statistics showed 68 pass completions (seven touchdowns) of 146 for 850 net yards and 10 interceptions. Home: Flagstaff, Ariz.

GLEN HOLLOWAY G 6-3 250 N. Texas State 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, D-10 Born: 9-16-48, Corpus Christi, Tex.

Holloway continued last season to impress as a skilled pass blocking and pulling guard, with his forte leading sweeps and trap plays. He is regarded as the best pass blocker on the squad. Since his first campaign—when teammates voted him rookie-of-the-year and first winner of the Brian Piccolo award—he has improved steadily and has been in 56 consecutive games with the Bears. Residence: Chicago.

GARY HRIVNAK DT 6-5 248 Purdue 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-1b Born: 3-3-51, Johnstown, Pa.

Hrivnak's playing time in his rookie season was chiefly on special teams but he did see action at defensive end. He'll be shifted inside, to defensive tackle, this season. He had two quarterback sacks in 1973, throwing Charley Johnson for six yards at Denver and the Houston Oilers' Lynn Dickey for 16 here. Hrivnak was an all-Big Ten defensive end as a junior at Purdue but was moved to tight end his final year, mainly for his blocking. Residence: Johnstown, Pa.

GARY HUFF QB 6-1 200 Florida State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-2a Born: 4-27-51, Natchez, Miss.

Huff got into eight games in his first season as a Bear and started two—against Los Angeles and Green Bay, both here. His three touchdown passes, of 54 completions, came one each against Minnesota, Detroit and Houston. Huff joined the Bears with an impressive college record—55 percent completions for his career and NCAA total offense leader as a junior. Operating from a pro style offense at Florida State, he included one five-touchdown day and three four-touchdown efforts in his career record. Besides a single game yardage high of 409 against Houston in his senior year, Huff had five other games of 300 or more yards. Residence: Tallahassee, Fla.

DON HULTZ DE 6-3 241 Southern Mississippi 12th Season
Joined Bears: 1974, W-Phila. Born: 12-16-40, Moss Point, Miss.

Hultz has been in 134 NFL games since he first was signed as a free agent by the Minnesota Vikings in 1963. The following season, he went to the Philadelphia Eagles in a deal involving six players and had been with them since. Two of his four career interceptions for 61 yards were returned for touchdowns. In his rookie season, Hultz set a league record by recovering nine fumbles. Residence: Memphis.

RANDY JACKSON T 6-5 250 Florida 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-4 Born: 3-6-44, Lake City, Fla.

Probably no offensive lineman in the National Football League is as versatile as Jackson. At various times, he has played every position on the line, from tackle to tackle, and on both right and left sides as well as at center. Primarily, he's a tackle, underrated because he goes about his assignments quietly and with no touch of the flamboyant. This will be his eighth season as a regular—he spent his rookie year on the reserve squad—and obviously, he's the most experienced practitioner on the offensive line. Residence: Altamonte Springs, Fla.

ERNIE JANET G 6-4 250 Washington 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, T-San Fran. Born: 7-22-49, Renton, Wash.

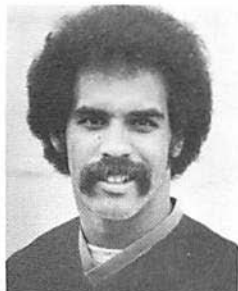

When Janet made his first starts for the Bears (against the Lions at Detroit and the Packers here in 1973's final two games), he responded with big league efforts. He got into 12 of 14 games last season as against only three games very late in 1972. He was the Forty Niners' second

BOB JETER CB-S 6-1 200 Iowa

12th Season

Joined Bears: 1971, T-Green Bay

Born: 5-9-37, Union, S.C.

In three seasons as a valuable backup man in the defensive secondary (corner or safety), Jeter is credited with 43 tackles, nine assists and three interceptions. Before coming to the Bears for a draft choice in 1971, he had been with the Green Bay Packers eight years, winning All-Pro honors once and selection to the Pro Bowl twice. Residence: Chicago.

DAVE JUENGER S 6-2 195 Ohio U.

2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1973, D-14

Born: 2-4-51, Chillicothe, O.

Juenger came to the Bears a year ago with a record of varied attainments. He was a sophomore flanker at Ohio U.; quarterbacked the team as a junior and split time between tight end and quarterback as a senior. He got into only one game with the Bears as a rookie. His physical statistics and the versatility that was evidenced at Ohio suggest he has possibilities on defense so he's getting a look as a free safety. Residence: Chillicothe, O.

STEVE KINNEY T 6-5 255 Utah State

2nd Season

Joined Bears: 1973, FA

Born: 6-27-49, San Jose, Cal.

Kinney had two previous training camp trials with the Bears before getting on the active squad last season. Although he was in only the last two games of the schedule, he indicated varied abilities and improvement. The likelihood is that he'll give the Bears good backup services at either tackle or guard. Residence: San Jose.

RICE

RODER

GARY KOSINS RB 6-2 220 Dayton 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, W-Miami Born: 1-21-49, Dayton, O.

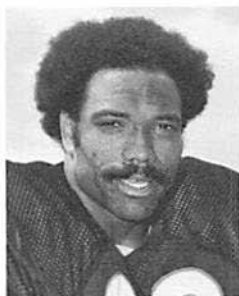

Kosins again was a willing worker in 1973, a rugged member of the special units and reliable reliefer on occasion in the offensive backfield. He saw more service rushing than in the previous year (24 for 65 yards as against 3-5 in 1972) and missed only two of 14 games. In his rookie year, Kosins' big moment came against the Minnesota Vikings when he caught a seven-yard touchdown pass. Residence: Dayton, O.

ROGER LAWSON RB 6-2 215 Western Mich. 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-15 Born: 9-28-49, Detroit, Mich.

Lawson packed all of his offensive fireworks into the last game of 1973, virtually a 50 percent imitation of the year before, when his biggest single games were the final two. Last season, he rushed 13 times for 39 yards against Green Bay but injured his knee in the process. Lawson also is a deadly receiver coming out of the backfield and in two years has caught 17 passes for 180 yards. Incidentally, in the final two games of 1972, he had 74 yards on 21 carries. Residence: Palos Hills, Ill.

GARRY LYLE S 6-2 198 George Washington 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-3 Born: 10-20-45, Martinsville, W. Va.

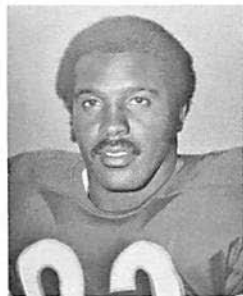

Lyle was one of the notable comeback stories of 1973. Knee surgery was needed after the third game of 1972, when he had won a starter's job for the first time, and he was through for the year. But he returned last season even better than ever. He led the Bears in interceptions, five for 62 yards return, and he was fourth in tackles, 72, plus 16 assists. He has always been a versatile performer with the Bears and his name is found in seven different categories, both offense and defense. Residence: Lanham, Md.

SANDERSON

THOMAS

TONY McGEE DE 6-4 250 Bishop (Dallas) 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-3 Born: 1-18-49, Battle Creek, Mich.

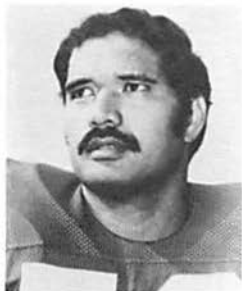

Three years as a regular defensive lineman with the Bears have seen McGee figure in 114 tackles, 62 assists and get credit for five quarterback sacks plus 11 assists and seven recovered opponents fumbles. He got into all 14 games each season, seeing service as a starter at defensive end as well as defensive tackle. McGee is a native of the middle west who, however, went to the University of Wyoming for two years before transferring to Bishop College in Texas. Residence: Chicago.

JOE MOORE RB 6-0 205 Missouri 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-1 Born: 6-29-49, St. Louis, Mo.

Moore was cast mainly in a relief running back role last season after he had missed all of 1972 because of knee surgery. As a backup man, his appearances were scattered until the season finale when he rushed 11 times for 52 yards against Green Bay here. He was the no. 1 choice for 1971 but torn ankle ligaments kept him out of five games as a rookie. At Missouri, he had a career rushing total of 2,306 yards. Residence: Chicago.

BOB NEWTON G 6-4 250 Nebraska 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-3 Born: 8-16-49, LaMirada, Cal.

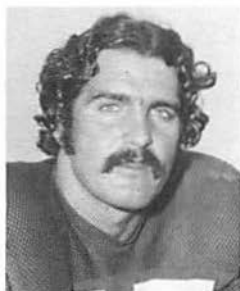

Newton started off last season at a fast, aggressive pace until leg injuries slowed him. He missed only one game completely but he was handicapped by those problems despite the fact that he started 12 of the season's 14 games. Newton, a unanimous All-America with Nebraska's 1970 national champions, has strength and hitting ability in abundance. Residence: LaMirada, Cal.

YOUNG

DAVE OLERICH LB 6-1 220 San Francisco 8th Season Joined Bears: 1974, T-San Francisco Born: 11-14-44, Elmhurst, Ill.

Olerich has been primarily a special teams man in his seven NFL seasons that take in 85 games. He was with the Forty Niners for two separate competitive periods—1967 (when he was signed as a free agent) to 1969 when, released, he was promptly signed by the St. Louis Cardinals, and again in 1972-73. He was a Cardinal in 1969-70 when he was traded to the Houston Oilers. At San Francisco U., Olerich lettered as a combination quarterback-tackle. Residence: Atherton, Cal.

JIM OSBORNE DT 6-4 240 Southern U. 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-7b Born: 9-7-49, Sylvania, Ga.

For the second straight season, Osborne led the Bears in quarterback sacks but his total was even more impressive than in his rookie year. He had 10 for 92 yards loss plus three assists in 1973. His two-season total in tackles and assists is 106-46. His finest single game was against Minnesota when he threw Fran Tarkenton four times for losses. Osborne's coach at Southern U was Harry Gunner, defensive lineman with the Bears in 1970. Incidentally, he was the first Southern U player ever to be selected for the Shrine East-West game. Residence: Palos Hills, Ill.

BOB PARSONS TE 6-5 235 Penn State 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-5 Born: 6-29-50, Bethlehem, Pa.

Parsons saw action in 1973 in all 14 games, one more than in his rookie year and again, he was a crisp blocking tight end. However, he didn't match his first year statistics or achievements, such as two consecutive touchdown pass receptions—a seven-yarder in the final pre-season game at St. Louis and an eight-yarder against Atlanta in his first NFL game. Parsons is a versatile athlete who played quarterback his first two seasons at Penn State but was shifted to tight end as a senior. Residence: Wheaton, Ill.

MAC PERCIVAL K 6-4 220 Texas Tech 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, T-Dallas Born: 2-26-40, Garland, Tex.

Percival was called upon for duty in only four games last season as the Bears went with a unique two place kicker combination. He had led the team in scoring for six straight seasons but the past three years, his field goal percentage dipped. However, he hasn't missed a conversion try since Nov. 19, 1967 when the St. Louis Cardinals blocked an attempt. His career run for PAT's now is 143 in succession, 13 under the team record set by George Blanda. Residence: Garland, Tex.

BOB PIFFERINI LB 6-2 226 UCLA 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-6 Born: 6-27-50, San Jose, Cal.

After a rookie season as one of the strong men of the special units, Pifferini got his chance as a starting outside linebacker last year. He played in 12 games and was a starter in eight. At UCLA, Pifferini was a starting linebacker his last two seasons and as a senior, was co-recipient of the Paul L. Wellman Trophy for All Around Excellence, one of the school's top awards. His dad, Bob, Sr., played center for the Detroit Lions in 1949 and has been head coach at De Anza Junior College, Cupertino, Cal., in recent years. Residence: Sunnyville, Cal.

MIKE REPPOND WR 5-11 179 Arkansas 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, FA Born: 11-24-51, San Diego, Cal.

Reppond was a blue chip receiver at Arkansas where he set school single season records for most receptions, 56, and yardage, 987; and a single game reception yardage mark of 204, all as a senior. He was Buffalo's ninth round draft choice for 1973 and teammate quarterback Joe Ferguson was a Bills' no. 3 pick. But the Arkansas battery was parted shortly after the NFL season began and Reppond was signed by the Bears as a free agent. He was activated for three late games. Residence: Fayetteville, Ark.

TOM REYNOLDS WR 6-3 195 San Diego State 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, T-New Eng. Born: 4-11-49, Pasadena, Cal.

Reynolds comes back 100 percent healthy from a knee injury suffered in the Kansas City game that idled him for the remainder of last season. He came to the Bears Aug. 16, 1973, on a trade with the New England Patriots who had made him their no. 1 draft choice for 1972. In nine games with the Bears, Reynolds averaged 18.1 yards on seven pass receptions. As a collegian (San Diego State), he set an NCAA record in 1969 with 18 touchdown passes. For his career, he caught 117 passes for 1,955 yards and 25 touchdowns. Residence: San Diego, Cal.

WILLIE ROBERTS DB 6-1 193 Houston 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, FA Born: 6-28-48, Colquitt, Ga.

Roberts saw action in parts of the Bears' last four games of 1973 after having been signed as a free agent in late October. He was the Houston Oilers' 13th round draft choice for 1972 but didn't play and a year ago, he was in the Dallas Cowboys camp for a while. With 4.5 speed, Roberts was a spectacular kick return man at the University of Houston, setting school career record of 1,457 yards on 63 kickoff runbacks. Residence: Rochester, N.Y.

MIRRO RODER K 6-1 218 No College 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973: FA Born: 1-22-44, Olomouc, Cdechoslovakia

After two years on the training camp squad, Roder won a regular job as a place kicker in 1973. He booted eight field goals out of 16 attempts and added 11 conversions. He was a soccer star in his native Czechoslovakia, coming to the United States several years ago. He showed up at a Bears' invitational tryout camp at Soldier Field in the spring of 1972 and impressed with the distance he got on booming place kicks, but he lacked experience at that time. Residence: Riverside, Ill.

ANDY RICE DT 6-2 250 Texas Southern 9th Season
Joined Bears: 1972, W-Kan. City Born: 9-6-41, Hallettsville, Tex.

Rice has given the defensive line depth and experienced backup talent in his two seasons with the Bears. Over that period, virtually all in fill-in roles, Rice has made 44 tackles, 19 assists, in addition to getting four quarterback sacks and assisting on two others. Before joining the Bears, he saw service with four different AFL clubs, including Kansas City and Houston in their respective championship seasons. Including 1973, Rice has played in 102 of a possible 112 games in his eight pro seasons. Residence: Hallettsville, Tex.

DON RIVES LB 6-2 215 Texas Tech 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-15 Born: 8-30-51, Shamrock, Tex.

Rives, thrust into the middle linebacker spot for the last five games last season, responded gallantly. He wound up sixth in tackles (60 with 8 assists), contributed one quarterback sack and recovered one opponents' fumble. At Texas Tech, where he led in tackles and assists in each of his last two seasons, Rives was noted for the big play special. Among his memorable efforts were a pass interception returned 38 yards as well as blocked punt in the Sun Bowl in his sophomore year; causing and then recovering a Texas A. & M. fumble for a touchdown as a junior; and getting 13 unassisted tackles against Southern Methodist as a senior. He was a fullback in high school. Residence: Lubbock, Tex.

REGGIE SANDERSON RB 5-10 206 Stanford 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, FA Born: 11-4-50, Galveston, Tex.

Sanderson didn't break into the Bears action until the final two games last season, Green Bay here and the Lions at Detroit, but his showing was modest statistically. He was a member of two Rose Bowl championship Stanford teams. In three years at Stanford, a passing team, Sanderson was basically a blocker rather than a running back. Residence: Pasadena, Cal.

CLIFTON TAYLOR RB 5-11 190 Memphis State 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-3c Born: 5-10-52, Memphis, Tenn.

Taylor comes with recommendations as an exceptional blocker as well as a punishing runner who is at his best close to the enemy's goal line, from two to five yards out. As an example, he blasted over University of Louisville's two 270-pound tackles for a touchdown apiece, each from three yards or less. He runs a 4.55 forty and also was a member of Memphis State's NCAA champion 440-yard relay team. As a senior, Taylor averaged 3.9 yards rushing with 471 yards on 120 carries. He also caught 14 passes for 69. While he lettered all three years, he didn't play a lot as a sophomore. Taylor's career total shows 784 yards rushing on 201 tries and 12 touchdowns as well as 31 pass receptions for 256 and one touchdown. His blocking ability was best demonstrated in the game against Tulsa when he was credited with 28 blocks, on 22 of which he grounded his man. Home: Memphis.

JOE TAYLOR CB 6-0 200 North Carolina A&T 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, FA Born: 12-28-40, Miami, Fla.

Taylor is one of the steadiest, most productive corner backs in the league and in seven years with the Bears, he has 238 tackles, 75 assists. His 14 career interceptions for 151 yards return have come in clusters for the most part—such as four in 1972 and three each in 1969 and 1971. It bothers him that last season is the first time since joining the Bears that he didn't pick off a single enemy pass. Residence: Chicago.

EARL THOMAS WR 6-2 200 Houston 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-6 Born: 10-4-48, Greenville, Tex.

Thomas had another full, 14-game season as a starter in 1972, but it was as a wide receiver. Tight end was his 1971 beat. He again led Bears' receivers with 24 for 343 yards and his two best games were Houston

(5 for 60 and a touchdown) and New Orleans (3 for 82). In 1972, Thomas caught 20 for 365 yards and also had an 82 yard kickoff return for a touchdown after taking a handoff. In his rookie season, he served basically as a play messenger. Residence: Greenville, Tex.

MEL TOM DE 6-4 249 San Jose State 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1973, T-Phila. Born: 8-4-41, Honolulu, Hawaii

Tom did a good job of harassing rival quarterbacks for the Bears after joining up in late October, 1973. He had five sacks and assisted on seven others. He had been a starter at defensive end for the Philadelphia Eagles who drafted him on the sixth round for 1967. He was all-NFL rookie selection his first year and in his second, teammates voted him most valuable player honors. Residence: Honolulu.

CECIL TURNER S 5-10 176 Cal. Poly-Obispo 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-5 Born: 4-2-22, Washington, D.C.

Turner gets a shot on defense this season, in addition to his kick return duties at which he has been a speedy artist since first joining the Bears. That same speed is expected to make him a valuable man at safety, too. He shares, with Travis Williams, the NFL record for most kickoffs returned in one season, four in 1970 for 95, 96, 94 and 88 yards, respectively. Residence: Houston, Tex.

WAYNE WHEELER WR 6-2 185 Alabama 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1974, D-3a Born: 3-28-50, Orlando, Fla.

All-America split end Wayne Wheeler also was all-Southeastern Conference choice this past season, his third straight as a letterman. The three 'Bama elevens of which he was a member won 32 of 33 regular season games although dropping post-season contests after each campaign. The Crimson Tide is basically a running team by a hefty three-to-one margin (4,027 yards rushing, 1,261 passing in 1973) and it has been Wheeler's tremendous downfield blocking that won him the starting job. For his career, he had 55 pass receptions for 1,246 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a senior, he averaged an exceptional 27.9 yards per catch on 19 receptions. His speed (4.6 forty) and sure hands made him Alabama's "long ball" threat and his pass catching was more significant than the career totals show. Home: Orlando, Fla.

Bears Story on TV . . . Radio . . . and Sports Pages

As in past years the story of the Bears will be reported on television . . . radio . . . and in the sports sections.

CBS-TV will originate all but two of this year's National Football League 14 Bears games, including dates in the American Conference cities of Buffalo, Oct. 27, and San Diego, Dec. 8. Two Bears home appearances will be telecast by networks other than CBS—the game against the New York Jets at Soldier Field Sunday afternoon, Sept. 22, which will be carried by NBC-TV, and the Monday night, Oct. 21, contest with the Green Bay Packers here, which will be ABC-TV's Game of the Week.

BRICKHOUSE

KUPCINET

Meantime, WGN-radio again will broadcast all 14 Bears games, home and road, for the 22nd straight season.

Jack Brickhouse, nationally famous, all-around sports broadcaster, will have Irv Kupcinet as his color commentator associate again. Kup writes a nationally syndicated column and there's plenty of football experience in his background—as a pro player with the NFL Philadelphia Eagles following a college career at the University of North Dakota.

The Bears seven road games will be seen in Chicago on WBBM-TV.

Comprehensive Written Coverage

Additional colorful, comprehensive coverage will be offered in Chicago's newspaper media with news stories, columns and action pictures as well as on television and radio sportscasts. Following are some of the "name" columnists, assignment writers, editors and sportscasters who bring the story:

ED ROZY 1910-1974

Ed Rozy, the dean of National Football League trainers, passed away Thursday, April 4, in his home at Niles, Ill. Surviving him are his widow, Josephine; and two daughters, Mary and Julie. Ed was in his 26th year with the Bears organization, as head trainer from 1947 through 1970 when ill health forced him into semi-retirement although he had new responsibilities as director of training services. He was an all-around career man in sports, as an athlete and an intramural coach.

Lettering in football as a guard at Marquette, he graduated from the Milwaukee university in 1933. As a senior, he was named director of intramural athletics and continued in that position after graduation. For 12 years, Rozy not only was trainer of all Marquette athletic teams but coached freshman football, boxing, wrestling, tennis, golf and fencing. In World War II, he was a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy and after his return to civilian life in 1947, he became head trainer of the Bears. He was a native of Two Rivers, Wis., born there in 1910.
