1968—A New Chapter

Another chapter in Bears' history was written May 27-28 when George S. Halas retired as head coach and named Jim Dooley his successor. Halas founded the team in 1920 and 1967 was his forty-eighth year as owner and his fortieth as a head coach.

Dooley, a No. 1 draft choice from Miami, Fla., University in 1952, has been with the team continuously since, as player or coach, so he is definitely a Bears' career man.

Halas' previous head coaching tenures were 1920-'29 (with Ed Sternaman as a co-coach); 1933 to November 1, 1942, when he entered the U.S. Navy in World War 2; 1946-'55; and 1948-'67.

His forty season personal service career contains records that probably will never be equalled or surpassed. He has a personal winning mark of .685 with 321 victories, 142 losses and 31 ties . . . the victory total is 91 more than the second coach in the all-time rankings, the late Curly Lambeau

The Coaching Staff

JIM DOOLEY has been in the Bears' organization since 1952, although he took out a year-and-a-half (1955-'56) for service in the U.S. Air Force. He also missed the entire 1958 campaign because of a fractured ankle but in eight playing seasons with the Bears, he caught 211 passes for 3,172 yards and 16 touchdowns to rank fourth among the team's all-time receivers. Dooley retired in 1962 and was an assistant on offense through 1965. The '65 team set an all-time Bears' scoring record of 409 points.

The past two seasons, Dooley was put in charge of the defense. He came up with a number of innovations that gave the Bears one of the NFL's best defensive teams. Following the 1967 campaign, George Halas decided to return Dooley to the offense with Joe Fortunato, who had retired a year ago and became an assistant, directing the defense. The day after announcing his retirement as head coach, Halas named Dooley as his successor.

Dooley, 38 years old, was the Bears' No. 1 choice for 1952 after starring as defensive back at Miami, Fla., University.

CHARLES "CHUCK" CHERUNDOLO is another NFL career man on the staff. This is his 28th season as a player or coach. He came to the Bears in 1966 after service as defensive coach of the Redskins, the Eagles and the Steelers. Ten seasons, he was an outstanding lineman with the Cleveland Rams and several times was an All-NFL choice. Cherundolo was a unanimous All-American center at Penn State and from 1942 through 1945 he saw World War 2 action in the U.S. Navy.

ED CODY is backfield coach for the fourth season. He was linebacker, half-back and fullback for the Bears but before joining them he was with the Green Bay Packers. Cody has an excellent college coaching record with a career total of 68-31-3 at the University of California at Santa Barbara and at San Bernardino Valley College. At Santa Barbara he developed Johnny Morris into a star. Cody also coached defense at Washington State University and with the Oakland AFL Raiders. Although he is a native of Newington, Conn., he attended Purdue where, as a senior, he was captain and Big Ten scoring and ground gaining leader.

BABE DIMANCHEFF is the third Purdue alumnus and the eighth Bears' "graduate" on the staff. This is his third season here, following tenures as Pittsburgh Steelers backfield coach and Dallas Cowboys' offensive director; and head coach of the Canton United Football League champions in 1964 and the Philadelphia Continental League team in 1965. He was an All-American fullback at Purdue and the No. 1 choice of the Boston Yanks for 1945. He played for seven years, first with Boston and then with the Cardinals and in 1952 joined the Bears.

JOE FORTUNATO, a twelve-year veteran as a linebacker, retired just before the start of the 1967 schedule, became an assistant on defense and this season will be in charge of that department. He had been defensive co-captain since the championship year of 1963. His NFL statistics are impressive—he shares a league career record of 22 opponents fumbles recovered along with the retired Andy Robustelli. He also has scored three touchdowns, on a 24-yard return of a Johnny Unitas fumble in 1966; a pass interception for 27 yards in 1956 and a one-yard slash from the fullback position in 1957. He was chosen all-NFL outside linebacker in 1963-'64 and '65 and was named to the West team in the Pro Bowl four times. He is a graduate of Mississippi State and as a fullback was selected by the Bears on the eighth round for 1953. After two years in the Army at Fort Benning, Ga., he made his NFL debut in 1955.

ABE GIBRON has been offensive line coach since 1965 following five seasons in a similar capacity with the Washington Redskins. This is his nineteenth NFL campaign, as a player or coach. A native of Michigan City, Ind., who was All-Big Ten guard at Purdue, Gibron played seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns, one with the Philadelphia Eagles and two with the Bears (1958-'59). With the Browns, he was an all-NFL selection, five times was chosen on the East team in the Pro Bowl and figured in Cleveland's six straight eastern titles. Three of those divisional champions went on to capture the world title playoff.

PHIL HANDLER has a record of thirty-nine consecutive NFL seasons, as a player or coach. He has been with the Bears since 1952 following a tenure with the Cardinals from 1930 on, first as a player and then as a staff man, including the head coaching assignment in 1943, '44 and '45 and co-head coach in 1949. He coached the Bears offensive line from 1952 through 1964 but the past three seasons, he has handled the defensive forwards. He is a graduate of Texas Christian University and regarded as one of the greatest guards in Southwestern Conference history.

LUKE JOHNSOS is in his fortieth season with the Bears, the first eight (1929-'36) as a player followed by continuous service on the coaching staff. From mid-1942 through 1945, he was co-head coach. Johnsos has played a part in seven of the Bears' eight world championships—as player in 1932-'33; co-head coach in 1943; and assistant in 1940-'41, 1946 and 1963. He graduated from Northwestern where he lettered in football and baseball. Because early statistical information was incomplete, Johnsos' pass receiving record is available only for five of his eight seasons and it shows 62 receptions for 985 yards and eleven touchdowns.

SID LUCKMAN has been in the Bears' organization as player or in an advisory position since 1939. Twelve seasons as quarterback saw him lead the Bears to world championships in 1940, '41, '43 and '46. He was All-NFL quarterback seven straight times (1941 through 1947) and was most valuable player in 1943. In 1965, Luckman was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He is a Brooklyn native who attended Columbia University and, for his achievements there, also was named to the Collegiate Football Hall of Fame.

The Trainer

ROZY

ED ROZY is an athletic career man, now in his twenty-first season with the Bears. He lettered as a guard at Marquette, was named intramural director of athletics in his senior year (1932-'33) and retained that position after graduation. For twelve years, he also was trainer of all Marquette athletic teams and coach of boxing, wrestling, tennis, golf, fencing and freshman football. Rozy took time out (1944-'47) to serve as a U.S. Navy lieutenant and in 1948, he came to the Bears.

Director of Player Personnel

WALSTON

BOBBY WALSTON is new to the Bears' organization but an all-time NFL great whose 881 points in twelve seasons with Philadelphia are second only to Lou Groza. He also was director of player personnel with the Eagles in 1964-'65 but the past two years, has been pass receiving and place kicking coach of the Miami AFL Dolphins. Walston is a native of Columbus, O., who, however, went to the University of Georgia. From 1951 through 1962, he scored 46 touchdowns, had 365 extra points and booted 80 field goals.

Paddy Driscoll

DRISCOLL

Paddy Driscoll, the most successful all-around athlete of all time, died June 28 at the age of 73 and leaving a heritage of more than a half century of prominent association with sports. He was christened John Leo but no one ever accepted that formality . . . he was always Paddy, from his high school days at Evanston, through collegiate years at Northwestern, at Great Lakes in World War I and finally as a pro football star and coach with the Bears and the old Chicago Cardinals.

At the time of his death, he was director of research and planning for the Bears, whom he first joined as a player from 1926-'30. Driscoll coached at Marquette University and St. Mel's high school following his retirement but returned to the Bears as an assistant in 1941 and had been with them continuously since. He was head coach in 1956-'57 and led the Bears to a Western division first place his first year.

Driscoll lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Northwestern and after his graduation, he was a utility infielder for the Chicago Cubs.

In football, despite his 5-7, 150 pound physical specifications, he was an astonishing, exciting performer simply because he could beat an opposing team so many different ways—he passed and he ran; he returned punts and kickoffs for substantial yardage; he punted and, finally, was the last truly great practitioner of the art of drop kicking. In fact, Paddy's name is in the NFL record book with most drop kicked field goals (49) and the longest drop kicks (50 yards twice). As quarterback, he also directed the offense.

Paddy lives in the record books and in memory—and will never be forgotten because two years ago, he was given his own niche in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, O.

MARTY AMSLER DE 6'5" 255 Evansville State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, Wheeling Cont'l Born: 10-26-'42, Evansville, Ind.

Amsler was one of the more impressive NFL defense rookies of 1967. With the Bears, he got into 773 out of a possible 880 defensive plays, was credited with 31 tackles and 30 assists and with getting to the quarterback 21 times. He also had one interception and recovered one enemy fumble. A ruptured Achilles tendon required surgery early in August of this year that was to keep him inactive several months. He was with Wheeling (coached by ex-Bear Bob Snyder) in 1966. Offseason home: Chicago.

DOUG BUFFONE LB 6'3" 230 Louisville 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-4 Born: 6-27-'44, Yatesboro, Pa.

Buffone has developed into one of the better of the younger outside linebackers in the NFL. Last season, he got into 860 of 880 defensive plays, was second only to Dick Butkus in unassisted tackles (70 to 111); led in assists with 42; and sacked the quarterback eighteen times. He's a prime example of the value of accurate scouting information for his last two seasons at Louisville saw him credited with 270 unassisted tackles; 87 assists; and six opponents fumbles recovered. Offseason home: Yatesboro, Pa.

RUDY BUKICH QB 6'2" 205 Southern Cal. 14th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, T-Pittsburgh Born: 12-14-'32, St. Louis, Mo.

Bukich has been in the NFL more seasons than any other of the present Bears. He led the league in passing in 1965 when he ranked first in low percentage of interceptions (2.9); second in average yards per attempt (8.46); third in completion percentage (56.4) and fifth in total touchdowns (20). In 1964, he tied an NFL record with thirteen consecutive pass completions and for the season, he had 99 out of 160, a league leading 61.9 percentage. Offseason home: Newport Beach, Cal.

AMSLER

BUKICH

RON BULL RB 6' 200 Baylor

7th Season

Joined Bears: 1962, D-1

Born: 2-2-'40, Kingsville, Texas

Bull is seventh on the list of Bears' all-time rushers with 1,998 yards, within range of two ex-Bears just above him in the statistical chart—George Gulyanics, 2,077 and Ray Nolting, 2,285. His best single season was 1965 when he had 417 yards in 91 shots, a 4.6 average. But his most memorable effort was the championship campaign of 1963. Despite injuries that slowed him to mid-season, he managed to carry a big share of the offensive load down the stretch. In the 14-10 championship win over the New York Giants, Bull carried ten out of thirteen times late in the fourth quarter, contributing two vital first downs and missing another by less than a foot. In 1962, he was NFL Rookie of the Year. In three seasons at Baylor, he led in both rushing (a 4.6 average) and pass receiving and started 36 out of 37 games, including five as a freshman. Offseason home: Park Ridge.

DICK BUTKUS LB 6'3" 245 Illinois

4th Season

Joined Bears: 1965, D-1

Born: 12-9-'42, Chicago

In Butkus' three seasons with the Bears he has been selected all-NFL linebacker twice and three times he was a member of the West team in the Pro Bowl. This season, he again is defensive signal caller and cocaptain. In 1967, he got into 867 of 880 defensive plays and led in tackles (111) along with 35 assists plus 18 "sackings" of quarterbacks. Statistically, his top efforts were thirteen tackles against Pittsburgh; twelve against Atlanta and eleven each against Minnesota and New York. Dick's most significant interception of five in 1965 came in the high scoring, 45-37 win over the Minnesota Vikings. With 1:32 remaining and the Bears holding a slim 38-37 edge, he picked off a Fran Tarkenton pass, raced 35 yards to the 10 from where Gale Sayers went over on the first play for the clincher. Butkus, a native Chicagoan, attended Vocational High School where he was an all-state fullback. At Illinois, he was shifted to linebacker on defense and center on offense and was an All-American as well as American Football Coaches Association choice as Player of the Year for 1964. Offseason home: Chicago Heights.

BULL

CADILE

JIM CADILE OG 6'3" 240 San Jose State 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-4 Born: 7-16-'40, San Jose, Cal.

Cadile missed four games in 1967 yet he took part in 509 offensive plays, to him an unsatisfactory showing. In each of the three previous seasons, he had played full fourteen game schedules. Since he broke in with the Bears in 1963, he has competed in 65 of 70 games. Offseason home: San Jose.

VIRGIL CARTER QB 6'1" 185 Brigham Young 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-5 Born: 11-9-'45, Provo, Utah

Carter spent all of last season on the reserve squad. He had a brilliant college career during which he set five NCAA records and tied a sixth. His record: most offensive plays, 1,069 passes and rushes; most yards total offense, 6,354; most touchdowns responsible for, 68; most yards passing, one game, 513; most yards total offense, one game, 599. He also tied Babe Parilli's record 50 touchdown passes for a career. Offseason home: Chicago.

TIM CASEY LB 6'1" 225 Oregon 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, F.A. Born: 2-29-'44, Portland, Ore.

Casey was with the Eugene, Ore., Bombers of the Continental League in 1967. In the Bears' pre-training camp seminar at Soldier Field in June, his speed was impressive — 5 seconds for the forty. At the University of Oregon, he lettered in track, skiing and basketball. In track, he ran a 4:28 mile and a 1:59 half mile. Offseason home: Portland, Ore.

RICH COADY TE 6'3" 218 Memphis State 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-11 Born: 12-17-'44, Chicago

A graduate of Chicago Taft high school, Coady had a three-year record at Memphis of 49 pass receptions for 582 yards and four touchdowns. His senior year was his best with 18-260-1. The last two years, he was named to the Missouri Valley Conference academic honor team for which a "B" average or better is required in addition to playing skills. Offseason home: Chicago.

CONCANNON

CROFTCHECK

JACK CONCANNON QB 6'3" 205 Boston Col. 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, T-Philadelphia Born: 2-25-'43, Boston, Mass.

Concannon became the Bears' regular quarterback early in 1967 although he was retarded by a sore arm. For the season, he completed 92 out of 186 passes for 1,260 yards and six touchdowns. He also ran 67 times for 279 yards and was third among Bears' rushers, back of Gale Sayers and Brian Piccolo, and scored three touchdowns. His career rushing averages a remarkable 6.3. He was the Eagles' No. 2 selection for 1964 but had to remain in the shadow of the more experienced Norm Snead who had come over from Washington on a trade the same year. In 1966, Jack led the Eagles to early December victories over Pittsburgh, 27-23, and Cleveland, 33-21, that were factors in their ultimate 9-5 finish and tie for second in the Eastern Conference. In those games, Concannon completed 20 passes for 251 yards and ran 22 times for 169. Concannon has :09.9 speed for the hundred. Offseason home: Deerfield, Ill.

FRANK CORNISH DT 6'6" 285 Grambling 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-11 for 1965 Born: 6-20-'44, New Orleans

Cornish is one of the most improved defensive tackles in the NFL and last season, he led the Bears in playing time on defense—877 plays out of 880. He had 52 tackles, 42 assists and sacked the quarterback twenty times. His top single game efforts were against the Packers at Green Bay (five sacks, four unassisted tackles) and against the Vikings here, eight tackles and eight assists. In statistics, Cornish also had two pass interceptions, both against the New York Giants, and recovered three opponents' fumbles. Offseason home: Chicago.

DON CROFTCHECK OG 6'1" 230 Indiana 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, T-New Orleans Born: 9-12-'42, Allison, Pa.

Croftcheck missed five games because of injuries last year, but he was a distinct asset not only as a guard on offense but as member of the kickoff, the kickoff return and the punt return units. He was an all-Big Ten selection at Indiana where he was described as the best running guard in the university's history. Offseason home: Allison, Pa.

EVEY

WILLIE DEARION FL-DB 5'10" 173 Prairie View (Tex.) 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-13 Born: 5-9-'45, Gladewater, Texas

Dearion is a speedster who hails from Prairie View, Tex. A. & M., the same school that produced the late John Farrington. In the Fort Worth relays, he ran the 100 in :09.3. Offseason home: Gladewater, Tex.

AUSTIN DENNEY TE 6'2" 229 Tennessee 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, T-Dallas Born: 1-2-'44, Nashville, Tenn.

Denney reported to the Bears just before the 1967 season began but he didn't break in until halfway through the schedule. He caught an even dozen passes for 113 yards and did a crisp job of blocking, too. An all-American at Tennessee, he set a school record when he caught seven touchdown passes as a senior and added another in the 'Gator Bowl. He was captain of the Vols. Offseason home: Nashville.

AL DODD DB 6' 180 N.W. Louisiana State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-4 Born: 8-21-'45, Harvey, La.

Dodd went on the injured list halfway through 1967, before he had a chance to demonstrate the talents that enabled him to set an NAIA (small college) career interception record with 31 for 494 yards return. He also ran back 62 punts for 845 yards at Northwestern Louisiana State and 42 kickoffs for 844. Offseason home: Gretna, La.

DICK EVEY DT 6'4" 245 Tennessee 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1954, D-1 Born: 2-12-'41, State College, Pa.

Evey shared with Ed O'Bradovich the "sacking-quarterbacks" title for the Bears—each broke in rudely on enemy qb's 23 times. Evey also had 38 tackles and 40 assists. He has become accepted as one of the NFL's deadliest interior defensive linemen—another in an imposing array of Bears' linemen drafted no. 1. His famous top choice predecessors include Joe Stydahar, Bulldog Turner, Dick Butkus, Earl Leggett and Chuck Howley. Off-season home: Knoxville, Tenn.

Gentry, a seventeenth round draft choice, broke in very late in 1966 as a regular. He was an all-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference defensive halfback at Maryland State. Offseason home: Chicago.

DICK GORDON OE 5'11" 190 Michigan State 4th Season
 Joined Bears: 1965, D-6 Born: 1-1-'44, Cincinnati

Gordon was one of the bumper crop of 1965 Bears' rookies along with Gale Sayers, Dick Butkus, Jimmy Jones and Ralph Kurek. Last season, he led Bears' pass receivers, 31 for 524 yards and five touchdowns, including two against the Cardinals for 93 and 67 yards, respectively. He also led in punt returns, 12 for 82 yards; and was second in kickoff return yardage (397 on 16 returns as compared to Sayers' 603 on 16.) His career record shows 59 pass receptions for 1,013 yards and nine touchdowns; 17 punt returns for 74 and 49 kickoff returns for 1,160. He also has rushed six times for five yards so his total offensive yardage in three years is 2,252 on 131 attempts. At Michigan State, Dick didn't win a varsity letter until his junior year when he got in 112 minutes of playing time. As a senior, his 571 yards on 81 rushing efforts were second in the Big Ten to Jim Grabowski. Offseason home: Chicago.

BOBBY JOE GREEN Punter 5'11" 175 Florida 9th Season
 Joined Bears: 1962, T-Pittsburgh Born: 5-7-'36, Vernon, Texas

Green is a punting careerist who has been 1-2-3—and more often 1-2—since he came to the NFL. His career average is a gaudy 44.16 yards per boot. Last year, he averaged 42.9, second back of Atlanta's Billy Lothridge who had 43.7. Green's best single season was 1963 when he averaged 46.5. Offseason home: Gainesville, Fla.

TOM GREENLEE DB 6' 205 Washington 1st Season
 Joined Bears: 1967, D-4 Born: 5-11-'45, Seattle

Greenlee was on the Bears' reserve unit for the entire 1967 campaign. At the University of Washington, he was chosen at defensive end on three major All-America teams of 1966, the AP, the UPI and the American College Football Coaches Association. He also was his team's top statistical man on defense as a senior with 60 unassisted tackles, 58 assists, one interception and one recovered fumble. Offseason home: Seattle.

MAJOR HAZELTON DB 6'1" 185 Florida A.&M. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-3 Born: 9-9-'44, Bartow, Fla.

Hazelton set a school record for interceptions with seventeen for 225 yards. He also returned 25 punts for 309 yards and for his career, scored six touchdowns, three on interceptions, two on punt returns, one on a fumble recovery. He also was a member of the 440 relay team that set two Penn Relays records in 1966 and has run the 100 in :09.5. Offseason home: Bartow, Fla.

WILLIE HOLMAN DE 6'4" 250 So. Carolina State 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-7 Born: 2-27-'45, St. Matthews, S. C.

Holman, who lettered two seasons at South Carolina State, served two years in the United States Army, stationed in Germany. He was mustered out late in May. He ran the 40 in :04.9 and later in :05 flat. Offseason home: St. Matthews, S. C.

MIKE HULL TE 6'3½" 220 Southern Cal. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-1 Born: 1-2-'45, La Crescenta, Cal.

Hull's physique and speed, along with his blocking and pass receiving talents, fit him for either tight end or running back. He's durable, too—195 minutes playing time in 1965; 235 in 1966, when he netted 502 rushing yards that included 148 against UCLA. Last year, a knee injury in the fourth game (against Stanford) required surgery that was successful since the cartilage involvement was not deep. He returned in time to be on special teams for the Trojans in the Rose Bowl. Up to the time of his injury, he had 70 yards on 19 carries. Offseason home: La Crescenta.

KRIEWALD

KUECHENBERG

RANDY JACKSON OT 6'5" 245 Florida 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-4 Born: 3-6-'44, Lake City, Fla.

Jackson was third most heavily employed of 1967 linemen on offense—he got into 655 plays which ranked him back of Mike Pyle (820) and George Seals (787). He also saw service on punt and kickoff return units. Jackson's first season with the Bears was spent on the reserve squad. As a collegian, he was used on offense at tackle, tight end and split end. He has been timed in :04.8 for the forty. Offseason home: Lake City.

JOHN JOHNSON DT 6'5" 260 Indiana 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1963, D-5 Born: 5-7-'41, Gary, Ind.

Johnson was a valuable reserve on an outstanding defensive line again in 1967. When he first came to the Bears in 1963, he was figured on as an offensive lineman but injuries that reduced the manpower on defense required his transfer. Offseason home: Homewood, Ill.

BOB JONES FL 6'4" 196 San Diego State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-2 Born: 8-25-'45, Warren, Ohio

Jones' :21.2 speed for the 220 in college—only one second over the world record set in the 1964 Olympic games—is proof he's one of the nation's fastest young men. He also has been timed in :05.5 for the fifty, run in football shoes. With the Bears last season, Bob caught three passes for 80 yards, one for 41 and a touchdown. At San Diego State, he divided assignments—his four touchdowns included two on pass receptions (50, 43 yards respectively); two on interceptions, 98 and 41 yards. Offseason home: Claremont, Cal.

JIMMY JONES OE 6'2" 187 Wisconsin 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-6, for '64 Born: 3-3-'41, Washington, D.C.

Jones is another member of the Bears' excellent rookie "class of 1965". A leg injury delayed his progress in training camp so his overall playing time was reduced. He is fifth on the lineup of Bears active pass receivers with 56 for 992 yards and nine touchdowns. It's a coincidence that in his junior and senior years at Wisconsin, he caught 56 passes for 908 yards and seven touchdowns. Offseason home: Chicago.

DOUG KRIEWALD OG 6'4" 250 West Texas St. 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-6 Born: 8-30-'45, Seguin, Texas

Kriewald appeared in two games at guard for the Bears last season. At West Texas State, he lettered at end for two years and then, in his senior season, he was shifted to guard and tackle on offense. He has run the forty in :04.9. Offseason home: Austin, Tex.

RUDY KUECHENBERG LB 6'2" 215 Indiana 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1966, F.A. Born: 2-8-'43, Hobart, Ind.

Kuechenberg was a substitute linebacker last season, following a 1966 campaign in which he was on the reserve squad. He had signed in 1965 with the Dallas Cowboys but at 202, he was considered too light. He joined the Philadelphia Continental League team, had a fine season in 1965 and when he came to the Bears, he had added poundage. Offseason home: Hobart.

RALPH KUREK RB 6'2" 210 Wisconsin 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-20 Born: 2-23-'43, Muskego, Wisc.

Kurek, backup man for Ron Bull, has averaged 3.3 yards per carry the past two seasons (291 yards on 89 carries) and has caught 15 passes for 208 yards. His first season and the first five games of his second saw him used on special kicking units where his crisp tackling and strong pursuit were outstanding. In the sixth game of 1966, against the Los Angeles Rams in Chicago, Kurek got his first real shot on offense and wound up with 43 yards on nine rushes and one pass reception for 15. He was used steadily as an alternate to Bull the rest of the way. At Wisconsin, Kurek averaged nearly three yards a carry in three seasons with a 6.1 average and six touchdowns in his sophomore year. Offseason home: Deerfield.

ANDY LIVINGSTON RB 6'1" 230 Phoenix, J.C. 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1964, F.A. Born: 10-21-'44, Eufaula, Okla.

After missing the entire 1966 schedule because of a knee operation, Livingston saw only limited service last season. In fact, he ran only 30 times for 41 yards, a meager 1.37 average, and caught five passes for 62 yards. That is in sharp contrast to 1965 when he averaged nearly six yards a try on 63 rushes and caught 12 passes for 134 yards. Offseason home: Chicago.

GARRY LYLE RB 6'2" 198 George Washington 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-3 Born: 10-20-'45, New Martinsville, W. Va.

Lyle suffered a leg injury on the first day of last summer's pre-training camp workouts at Soldier Field. So he spent all of 1967 on the ready reserve. Lyle came to the Bears with a great record at George Washington, which dropped football and deprived him of getting in a third season. In two years, he had 962 yards rushing on 224 carries; seven touchdowns rushing; 60 pass completions and eight touchdowns of 129 attempts; two pass receptions for seven yards; 213 yards on 24 punt returns; 305 on 13 kickoff returns; three pass interceptions; one blocked field goal attempt; 17 extra points out of 20 and five field goals of nine. Offseason home: Verona, Pa.

BENNIE McRAE DB 6' 180 Michigan 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-2 Born: 12-8-'39, Newport News, Va.

McRae is second on the Bears' career pass interception lineup with 21 for 444 yards and four touchdowns. He is a cocaptain this year. Last season, he had five for 94 yards and two touchdowns. He was an overtime performer on defense, too, getting into 850 of 880 plays. He sacked the quarterback five times; had 43 tackles and ten assists. His longest pass interception for a touchdown was an 89-yarder against the Detroit Lions in 1965. Offseason home: Newport News, Va.

ED O'BRADOVICH DE 6'3" 275 Illinois 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-7 Born: 5-21-'40, Hillside, Ill.

O'Bradovich has overcome the injury and virus jinx that plagued him his first couple of seasons and has missed only one game in the past three years. Last year, he got into 696 of 880 defensive plays, "reached" enemy quarterbacks 23 times, had 35 tackles and 15 assists. He lettered two seasons at the University of Illinois, but dropped out of school before his senior year and played one year for Calgary in the Canadian League. A combination of knee and ankle injuries and a virus infection restricted his playing time to only six games (exclusive of the world's championship win over the New York Giants) in 1963 and seven in 1964. Beginning with 1965, O'Bradovich has played in 41 out of 42 games. In the 1963 championship win over the Giants, O'Bradovich's interception of a third period Y. A. Tittle pass led to the winning touchdown. The Giants were leading 10-7 at the time but O'Bradovich ran the ball ten yards to the New York 14. Two plays netted a yard and on third down, Bill Wade passed to the one. From there, Wade sneaked over on the second play at 12:48 of the third period and after the conversion, the score remained at 14-10. Offseason home: Palatine, Ill.

PHILLIPS

PICKENS

MAC PERCIVAL PK 6'4" 220 Texas Tech 2nd Season
 Joined Bears: 1967, T-Dallas Born: 2-26-'40, Lubbock, Texas

Percival booted thirteen field goals in 26 attempts last season with the accent on long ones—in fact, he led the NFL in accuracy between the 40-50 yard lines with four out of seven for .571. The distances were 48, two for 47 and 44. He played high school football (offensive end and defensive linebacker and end as well as place kicker) but when he enrolled at Texas Tech, he concentrated on basketball. After graduation he coached basketball and was football assistant for three years at Garland high school. He got into pro football as the final survivor of a nationwide search by the Dallas Cowboys for place kickers. Just before the 1967 campaign began, they traded him to the Bears. Offseason home: Garland, Tex.

RICHIE PETITBON DB 6'3" 208 Tulane 10th Season
 Joined Bears: 1959, D-2 Born: 4-18-'38, New Orleans, La.

Petitbon functioned in all but nine plays of the Bears' 880 on defense last season. He broke in on the quarterback ten times and had 38 tackles plus 24 assists. Of his 35 career interceptions, three have gone for touchdowns—101 yards against Los Angeles in 1962; 66 against Detroit in 1963 and 33 against Baltimore in his rookie season, 1959. He was all-NFL defensive back in 1963 and has been named to the West team for the Pro Bowl four times, 1963, 1964, 1967 and 1968. In the '68 game he ran back an interception 70 yards for a touchdown as the West won, 38-20. He is sixth among active NFL players in interceptions. His top season, 1963, he had eight and twice recovered fumbles that set up scores in important victories—one, involving Jim Taylor of Green Bay, saw Petitbon pick up the fumble and a field goal followed in a 10-3 opening victory; the other, with Detroit's Nick Pietrosante the victim, came two weeks later and led to a touchdown in a 37-21 victory over the Lions. In the championship win (14-10) over the New York Giants, Petitbon picked off a pass in the end zone to wind up a final drive by the easterners. Offseason home: Metairie, La.

into the Bears' season. However, he did start at left defensive end in several early games before, at midseason, the injury forced him to be idle the rest of the way. He got into 259 defensive plays altogether. At Arkansas, he was a unanimous All-America choice two straight years. Offseason home: Longview, Tex.

BRIAN PICCOLO RB 6' 205 Wake Forest 4th Season
 Joined Bears: 1965, F.A. Born: 10-21-'43, Pittsfield, Mass.

Used only sparingly as a reserve running back and on special teams in 1966, Piccolo came into his own last season. He wound up second to Gale Sayers in rushing, 317 yards on 86 carries, and also caught 13 passes for 103 yards. He alternated with Sayers at one running back spot. Piccolo, signed as a free agent in 1965, had to sit out that entire season because of a leg injury suffered in practice for the American Football Coaches Association All Star game at Buffalo. In 1964, he had led the nation in rushing and scoring as offensive star of the Wake Forest team with 1,044 yards on 252 carries and 111 points on 17 touchdowns and nine conversions. Offseason home: Chicago.

BOB PICKENS OT 6'4" 258 Nebraska 2nd Season
 Joined Bears: 1967, D-3 for '66 Born: 2-2-'43, Evanston, Ill.

A neck injury suffered in training camp hampered Pickens in his rookie year although he did get into 388 plays on offense. He wore a protective neck brace all season. An all-state high school line selection at Evanston, he went to Wisconsin, lettered one year and then transferred to Wisconsin. In the 1964 Olympics, Pickens finished fifth in Greco-Roman wrestling. Off-season home: Evanston.

JIM PURNELL LB 6'2" 238 Wisconsin 5th Season
 Joined Bears: 1964, F.A. Born: 12-12-'41, Evanston, Ill.

Purnell, another free agent find, has been regular right linebacker the past two seasons. In 1966, his 71 unassisted tackles were second only to Dick Butkus' 79. Last season, because of the "stop" defense in which a fifth defensive back was used on second and third down situations, Purnell gave way to the incoming back so his overall statistical record was under 1966. In 1967, he had 49 unassisted tackles and assisted on 22 others. His best single game efforts were in the first Green Bay game (7 tackles, 3 assists); and against Cleveland and New York (6 tackles, 4 assists in each). Purnell was an all-state fullback at Evanston High School, but became a linebacker at Wisconsin where, as a senior, his teammates voted him most valuable player. Offseason home: Wilmette.

Pyle is one of the most durable centers in the NFL. Except for a five-game span early in 1964 when an ankle injury idled him, he has been free from absenteeism. Up to that time, Pyle hadn't missed a single minute of offensive play through New Trier High School, Yale and then with the Bears for whom he started 45 consecutive games. An ankle injury kept him out of the 1965 Cardinals' game and a leg injury forced him to sit out the 1966 opener at Detroit. However, in 1967, he got into all fourteen games with 820 plays, high for offense linemen. He is co-captain on offense. Offseason home: Chicago.

LARRY RAKESTRAW QB 6'2" 195 Georgia

5th Season

Joined Bears: 1964, D-8

Born: 4-22-'42, Mableton, Ga.

For Rakestraw, 1967 will be a memorable year. He won the Eisenhower Most Valuable Player trophy in the 42-14 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals at Soldier Field. In that game, he passed for one touchdown and ran for two. Later, during the regular schedule, Rakestraw took over at quarterback against the New York Giants when Jack Concannon was injured in the first quarter. In this one, he threw three touchdown passes and ran for two. He saw his first NFL action in 1966, getting into the last two games. In 1965, after a fine showing in three preseason games, he suffered a knee injury in the Armed Forces game that sidelined him for the entire season. Offseason home: Austell, Ga.

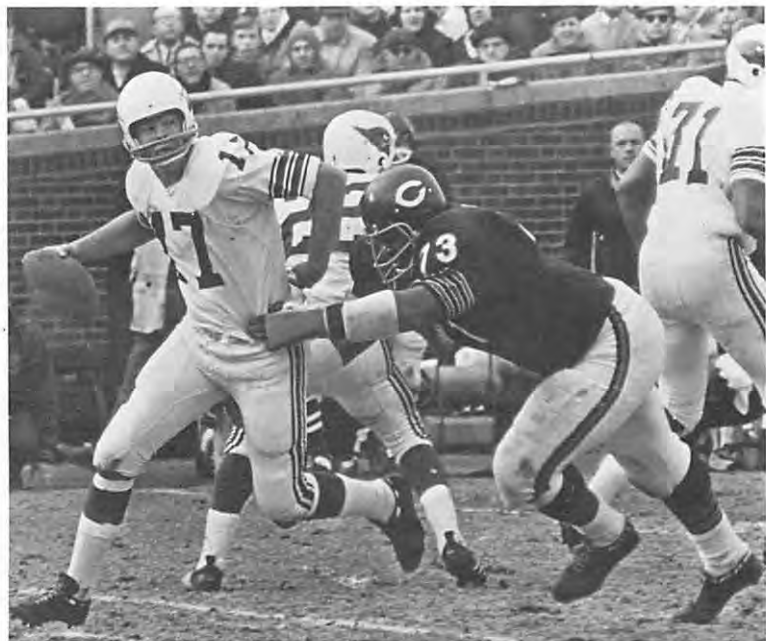

MIKE REILLY LB 6'2½" 238 Iowa

Joined Bears: 1964, D-4

Born: 3-27-'42, Dubuque, Iowa

Reilly has been reserve outside linebacker for the past three seasons, following a rookie year in which he saw a lot of action until he received a fractured arm against the Dallas Cowboys Nov. 1. He's aggressive and rugged and also served on special units. Offseason home: Dubuque.

GEORGE SEALS G 6'3" 270 Missouri 5th Season
 Joined Bears: 1965, T-Washington Born: 10-2-'42, Higginsville, Mo.

Seals was just about the busiest of all linemen on offense last season. He got into 787 plays (second only to Mike Pyle) as well as serving on kickoff return, field goal and point after touchdown units. He functioned at various times at three different spots—right guard, left guard and left tackle. He was the New York Giants' choice on the fourth round of the 1964 player selection but in April of that year, he was traded to the Washington Redskins. Offseason home: Chicago.

JOE TAYLOR DB 6'1" 200 N. Carolina A.&T. 2nd Season
 Joined Bears: 1967, Toronto, Ont'l L. Born: 12-27-'40, Miami, Fla.

Taylor was a real find, used as the fifth defensive back on certain down-and-yardage situations last season. That's what was known as the "Dooley shift," Taylor usually replaced Purnell whose linebacking spot was taken over by Bennie McRae. Taylor then took over for McRae and he got into 388 defensive plays. At Toronto in 1966, he broke into five defensive statistical categories—four interceptions for 27 yards; 20 kickoff returns for 408; 14 punt returns for 144; two opponents fumbles recovered and one field goal attempt blocked. Offseason home: Orlando, Fla.

Statistics tell the Sayers story better than anything else. The yardage and scoring totals as well as his NFL and Bears' team records reflect the excitement he generates in any of five offensive categories as he continues to rewrite long standing passages in the record manuals. Three straight times, Sayers has been unanimous choice as an all-NFL running back. He has played for the West in three Pro Bowl games and in the last two, he was voted outstanding offensive player of the game. He has risen to fourth place in the all-time Bears' rushing figures back of Rick Casares, 5,657 yards; Bronko Nagurski, 4,031; and the late Willie Galimore, 2,985. Gale has had 10 games in which he gained 100 or more yards—and the team record of 13 was set by Casares in ten seasons. In 1966, he became the first halfback to win the NFL rushing title since Steve Van Buren in 1949. He also led in kickoff returns that year. He was voted Rookie of the Year for 1965 when he led in touchdowns and scoring and was second in rushing, kickoff and punt returns. Offseason home: Chicago.

ROOSEVELT TAYLOR DB 5'11" 186 Grambling 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1961, F.A. Born: 7-4-'37, New Orleans

Taylor's twenty interceptions for 328 yards and two touchdowns rank him third among active Bears in that department. He also has recovered ten enemy fumbles, including one for a 37-yard touchdown return, at Pittsburgh last season. Fifteen punt returns for 66 yards and one touchdown and 25 kickoff returns for 598 round out his statistical record. In all he has had five NFL touchdowns because in addition to the previously described, he picked up a loose ball after Bob Kilcullen had intercepted a field goal attempt by the Los Angeles Rams and scampered 60 yards for the score. Offseason home: New Orleans.

CECIL TURNER FL-DB 5'10" 170 California Poly 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-5 Born: 4-2-'44, Washington, D.C.

In two years competition (junior and senior), Turner caught 27 passes for 635 yards, eight touchdowns; returned 23 kickoffs 547 yards, one touchdown (an 87-yarder); and returned 13 punts 121 yards. He led Cal-Poly's track team to the NCAA College Division championship in May by winning the 100-meter dash in :10.3; the long jump with a leap of 24 feet 3½ inches; and he ran the first leg of the 440-yard relay, won in meet record time of :40.4. He was second in the 200 meter dash with a time of :20.8, only one tenth of a second under the winning team. Offseason home: Washington, D.C.

BOB WALLACE OE 6'3" 211 U of Texas, El Paso 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-2 Born: 10-7-'45, Phoenix, Ariz.

In three seasons, Wallace caught 123 passes for 2,161 yards, 19 touchdowns. As a sophomore and junior, he also functioned on return units with 312 yards on 14 kickoff returns and 262 on 17 punt returns. He also completed a 12-yard touchdown pass against Wyoming last season. He has been timed at :04.5 for the forty. Offseason home: Phoenix.

BOB WETOSKA OT 6'3" 240 Notre Dame 9th Season
Joined Bears: 1960, F.A. Born: 8-22-'37, Minneapolis

Wetoska, co-captain with Mike Pyle on offense, missed three games because of a shoulder injury, but he did get back for the second Green Bay meeting and played every minute on offense. His playing time was sharply reduced from 1966 when he led Bears' offensive linemen in total plays, 806 in fourteen games. In 1967, he got into 542. At Notre Dame, he was an end and the Washington Redskins made him their fifth draft choice for 1960. An offseason shoulder operation retarded his training this year. Off-season home: Glencoe, Ill.

BRICKHOUSE

CHRISTMAN

All Bears' NFL road games will be seen for the ninth straight season over WBBM-TV (channel 2). The entire schedule, home and road, will be carried by radio station WGN. The commentators:

TELEVISION: Ray Scott, play-by-play ace who has been doing the Green Bay Packers' games, and color man Paul Christman, one time all-American and Cardinal quarterback.

RADIO: Jack Brickhouse, also a nationally famous, widely respected sportscaster, doing the play-by-play . . . Irv Kupcinet, syndicated columnist long identified with Bears' broadcasts, handles the color.

Coverage is Comprehensive

Coverage of the Bears is comprehensive, colorful and authoritative, ranging from news stories, columns and action pictures in the metropolitan dailies to the half dozen or more regular TV and radio sportscasts. Here are the familiar names of outstanding representatives of Chicago's press-radio-TV corps who bring the story to the public:

This new Amoco 120 SS Radial Oval tire had better be all we say it is, or we might as well say goodbye to your gasoline business.

And we're not about to do that. We say our new Amoco® 120 SS Radial Oval tire could save your life. An exaggeration? Consider that it puts six plies between you and the road. Consider the results of 2 million miles of road testing. It gives you twice the mileage of most new car tires. Three times the body strength.

Consider its open groove tread that grips as a tire has never gripped the road before.

It's even a reversible tire. Gives you a red stripe on one side, dual white on the other.

Now you can understand why we're willing to stake your gasoline business on this tire. The world's first radial oval. And we're even making it easy to buy. Use your Standard Oil Credit Card and our new revolving charge plan.

"You expect more from Standard, and you get it."*

And tires are no exception.

When you buy a tire from us, we both live with it.

The twenty-third annual Armed Forces Benefit game, matching the Bears and the St. Louis Cardinals at Soldier Field Friday night, Sept. 13, marks the thirteenth straight time it's sponsored by the Chicago Publishers Association (Chicago's American, The Daily News, The Sun-Times and The Tribune).

Sharing in the proceeds are Army Emergency Relief, the Navy Relief Society and the Air Force Aid Society, all official agencies that provide financial assistance to service-men and to widows or orphans of service-men needing it. Since 1946 the series has raised $997,962.98.

The inaugural in 1946 resulted from a meeting in Washington attended by Dwight D. Eisenhower, then Army Chief of Staff; Admiral Chester K. Nimitz; General Ira Eaker, General Carl Spaatz, George S. Halas and Ralph Cannon, then sports editor of The Chicago Herald-American which sponsored the game in 1946 and 1947. The Sun-Times assumed sponsorship from 1949 through 1954 and in 1955, the four Chicago metropolitan daily newspapers joined in its direction.

In 1953, President Eisenhower authorized presentation of a trophy to the outstanding player in every game, selected by sports writers, radio and TV broadcasters. Of 15 winners, including two Bears who tied in 1960, seven have been representatives of visiting teams. No one has ever won it twice.

How Revolving Charge Works: When you receive your bill there will be two amounts you can pay if the bill is over $10. The full amount, or the smaller amount. The smaller amount will either be 10% of your total bill (if the bill is over $100) or $10 (if your bill is under $100). As with all plans of this type there is a service charge called a Time Price Differential.
