The BEARS

The story of the Chicago Bears actually is the story of George Halas—and that pretty much tells the story of the great rise of professional football, namely the National Football League. Halas organized the Bears in 1920; they were known as the Decatur Staleys then. He also was one of the founders of the National Football League. Halas, as an end, and as the first coach of the team, has left his impact on all Bear teams. Sports writers throughout the nation have recognized this fact by referring to the Bears many times as Halas U.

George Halas retired as head coach of the Bears at the end of the 1955 season, turning over the reins to Paddy Driscoll. In 30 years at the helm, he led the Bears to 308 victories, a mark unequalled by any other coach in history. As president, a position which he has held for 38 years, Halas continues to devote his tireless efforts to the Bears, and to football.

The Bears, under the guidance of Halas, have been the most successful team in the history of the pro grid. They have won seven world championships and twelve Western titles, and have participated in more championship playoffs than any other team. The Bears have won more games, scored more points and compiled more yardage; they were first with a team song, first to cover their playing field with a tarpaulin; first to travel from Coast to Coast. Spearheaded by the immortal Red Grange, the Bears revolutionized professional football and helped it to become a major sport.

Then, under astute coaching, the Bears streamlined the T-Formation with Man in Motion, making it the most potent, and most popular system in football. Nearly every professional, collegiate and high school team in the land switched to the Bears' "T" by 1944. The famous 73 to 0 triumph over the Washington Redskins in the 1940 title playoff game brought this about.

Today, the Bears' coaching staff continues its efforts to make the Modern T Formation more potent, and more appealing to the spectator. The Bears' "Slot T" has become one of the top weapons of attack in the N.F.L.

They Coach the Bears

The Bears are led this season by the same coaching staff which guided the team to the Western Division title last fall. All of the coaches are veterans of the pro grid wars, either as players or coaches. All are well versed in the fundamentals of the T-Formation and have contributed to the Bears' Slot-T.

The 1957 staff consists of Paddy Driscoll, Head Coach; Clark Shaughnessy, Technical Advisor; Luke Johnsos, Assistant Coach; Phil Handler, Assistant Coach; George Connor, Assistant Coach, and Sid Luckman, Quarterback Coach.

Driscoll

JOHN L. "PADDY" DRISCOLL took over the reins in February, 1956, following the retirement of George Halas as Head Coach. Paddy is the third head coach in the 38-year-old history of the Bears. Born on Jan. 11, 1896, he attended Evanston High and later starred at Northwestern University in football, baseball and basketball. A member of the famous Great Lakes Navy eleven, he was the brilliant star of the 1919 Rose Bowl game.

Paddy joined the Bears in 1926 after performing brilliantly with the Cardinals in the N.F.L. His drop kicking and brilliant all around play gained him ranking as one of the greatest backs in pro grid annals. Was head coach at Marquette University for three seasons. Joined Bear coaching staff in 1941 and has been with club ever since.

Shaughnessy

CLARK SHAUGHNESSY has been Technical Advisor since 1951. This is his forty-second season as a football coach. Shaughnessy was born in St. Cloud, Minn., March 6, 1892. He played fullback at Minnesota from 1911 through 1914. His first coaching job was at Tulane in 1915. Shaughnessy developed a national championship team at Tulane in 1925 and then moved to Loyola of the South.

Replaced A. A. Stagg as head coach at the University of Chicago in 1933 and tutored Maroons through 1939 when football was dropped on Midway. Shaughnessy led Stanford to the Pacific Coast Conference title and a Rose Bowl triumph in 1940, scoring with the T-Formation. Transferred to University of Maryland; later coached at Pittsburgh. Also advisory coach of Washington Redskins. Led Los Angeles Rams to Western Division crown in 1949.

Johnsos

LUKE JOHNSOS has been associated with the Bears as a player and coach for twenty-nine years. Born on Chicago's north side, he attended Schurz High, and, like Paddy Driscoll, made a name for himself as an athlete at Northwestern University. Luke won honors in football and baseball in 1926-27 and '28. After graduation he received a trial in baseball with Cincinnati.

Johnsos joined the Bears in 1929. He was an outstanding end for seven seasons, earning all-league honors once, and teaming together with Bill Hewitt to form one of the league's top wing combinations. Luke joined the coaching staff in 1937 as an assistant. He acted as co-coach with Hunk Anderson when George Halas entered the Navy in November, 1942, and served in that capacity through the 1956 season. Luke has been with six Bear championship teams. He is associated in the printing concern of Johnsos & Coppock in Skokie, Ill.

PHIL HANDLER is in his twenty-eighth year in the National Football League as a player or coach. He is in his sixth season as a member of the Bears' staff. Phil, who was born in Fort Worth, Tex., July 1, 1908, tutors the linemen. He starred as a guard for Texas Christian University in 1927-28 and '29.

Handler played guard with the Cardinals under Ernie Nevers in 1930 and was an outstanding pro lineman for six seasons. He became a member of the Cardinal coaching staff in 1936, serving as first assistant to Milan Creighton. Handler also was chief aide to Nevers, who took over the Card reins again, and also aided Jimmy Conzelman in 1940-41 and '42. Appointed head coach in 1943, Handler piloted the Cardinals through 1945. He again became Conzelman's aide in 1946 through '48. Phil became co-coach with Buddy Parker in 1949, and assisted Curley Lambeau in 1950. He is associated with Douglas Lumber Company in Chicago.

Handler

GEORGE CONNOR is in his second year as a Bear coach. He retired as an active player following the 1955 season, after performing at tackle and linebacker for eight years. George won all-league honors and was rated one of the most versatile linemen in football. Served as co-captain with Ed Sprinkle.

Connor was born in Chicago, Jan. 21, 1925. A great star at De LaSalle, he won All-American honors at Holy Cross as a sophomore. After serving with the Navy, George entered Notre Dame, where he captained the Irish National champions in 1946 and 1947, also gaining All-American recognition both seasons. Connor is with the Hoernor Box Company in Chicago.

Connor

SID LUCKMAN coaches the quarterbacks. Described by George Halas as the man who set the pattern for all modern day T-Formation quarterbacks, Sid led the Bears to championships in 1940-41-43 and '46. He holds many N.F.L. records.

Luckman retired as a player in 1951 and has devoted much of his time to lending his talents to the young Bear quarterbacks. Sid was born in New York City, Nov. 21, 1916. He was a star at Erasmus and won top honors at Columbia University. He is head of Cellucraft in Chicago.

Luckman

ED ROZY is Trainer of the Bears. He has served in that capacity since 1948. Recognized as one of the nation's foremost trainers, Rozy is a protege of the great Matt Bullock of University of Illinois fame. Ed came to the Bears from Marquette University where he was, in addition to trainer, coach of boxing, wrestling and fencing.

Bear Down—Chicago Bears, make every play clear the way to victory;
Bear Down—Chicago Bears, put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.
We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation, with your T-Formation.
Bear Down—Chicago Bears, and let 'em know why you are wearing the crown;
You're the pride and joy, of Illinois. Chicago Bears—Bear Down!

TEAM LEADERS

The Bears have been leaders in scoring, total offense, running and passing through the years. Adequate statistics have only been compiled since 1932, but they show that the Bears have been first in scoring nine times, total offense twelve times, nine times in rushing and six times in passing—thus being first in all four departments more than any other team.

BEARS—IRON MEN

The 1925 Chicago Bears were the real Iron Men of modern day football. Featuring Red Grange, who joined the squad on Thanksgiving Day, the Bears of that season played seven games in nine days, for an all-time record. Three of the games were played on successive afternoons. The Bears of 1925 played in Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit and Chicago from December 5th to December 13th.

ANNUAL ARMED FORCES BENEFIT FOOTBALL SERIES

Sponsored by the four great Chicago daily newspapers, the Chicago American, Daily News, Sun-Times and Tribune, in cooperation with the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association, the twelfth annual Armed Forces Benefit Football Game will be held on Friday night, September 20th, in Soldier Field, with the Chicago Bears meeting the Cleveland Browns.

It was originated in 1946, following a meeting in Washington attended by Dwight D. Eisenhower, then Army Chief of Staff; Admiral Chester K. Nimitz, representing the Navy; General Ira Eaker, acting for the head of the Air Force, General Spaatz; Ralph Cannon, then sports editor of the Chicago Herald-American, and George Halas.

The game has been played every year since. It was sponsored in 1946 and 1947 by the Chicago American, and by the Chicago Sun-Times in 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952, 1953 and 1954. A new era in the history of the Armed Forces Series was recorded in 1955, when the four Chicago dailies joined together to sponsor the game. Through their fine cooperation, the series is destined to reach new heights, and thus achieve a goal far greater than the originators could visualize back in 1946.

The eleven Armed Forces games to date have netted $438,350 to the official relief agencies of the Army, Navy and Air Force, which share equally in the net proceeds. They are the Army Emergency Relief, the Navy Relief Society and the Air Force Aid Society.

Specifically, the Armed Forces Game helps these official relief agencies to provide: financial assistance to widows and orphans of servicemen . . . care and assistance to service personnel, to wounded servicemen and their families . . . hospital medical-assistance to needy families and dependents of servicemen . . . prenatal and obstetrical care to needy servicemen's families . . . and cash grants to service personnel and dependents in emergencies.

BEARS IN TRAINING

The 1957 Chicago Bears launched the club's thirty-eighth season on July 27, when the training season was opened at St. Joseph's College at Rensselaer, Ind. This marked the 14th straight summer that the Bears have used the excellent training facilities at St. Joseph's, which is located some 92 miles southeast of Chicago in one of Indiana's finest farming regions.

Three players were missing from the '56 squad—John Hoffman, Johnny Helwig and John Mellekas. Hoffman and Helwig retired during the winter, while Mellekas entered the service shortly after January. A squad of 57 players reported to Head Coach Paddy Driscoll, including 24 newcomers and three service returnees.

St. Joseph's College, with its three fine practice fields, a modern field house, with up to date locker rooms and a training table, plus excellent housing and the tops in food, has been an ideal training site for the Bears.

BEARS IN ALL STAR GAME

The Bears helped inaugurate the annual All Star Football Game and have participated in the Chicago Tribune-sponsored August gridiron classic in Soldier Field more than any other club. They also boast the best record for the series, and have attracted the largest crowds.
