THE BEARS—REAL CHAMPIONS

By Frank A. Korch
(Director of Public Relations)

The National Football League was organized thirty-three years ago and professional football became a major sport. George Halas' Chicago Bears were the first champions. They have been setting the pattern on the pro grid ever since.

The Bears have been the leaders in all phases of the sport through the years. By signing the famed Red Grange, the Bears revolutionized pro football; they introduced the "Million Dollar Gate." With Grange as the spearhead, they trail blazed the game from coast to coast with the greatest barnstorming tour in football history. The Bears and Grange made the grid world pro football-conscious. Capacity crowds soon followed.

Then came the great Bear teams, with Nagurski and Manders, Feathers, Brumbaugh, Hewitt, Musso, Lyman. And with them came the modern T-Formation with man-in-motion, to be later glamorized by the great 1940 team and its 73 to 0 triumph over the Washington Redskins. The Chicago Bears completely dominated the game in that era, as Sid Luckman, George McAfee, Danny Fortmann, Joe Stydahar, Bulldog Turner, Bill Osmanski, Hugh Gallarneau and their mates shattered record after record. The Bears' "T" spread like a prairie fire. Within three years, virtually every pro, collegiate and high school eleven had switched to the "T" formation. Stanford went to the Rose Bowl and three years later Notre Dame's "T" warriors took the National Championship.

The Bears have been champions from the start. They have won more championships than any other team in pro grid annals—world championships and Western titles. They have scored the most points and the most touchdowns; have registered the most first downs and gained the most total yardage. At the box office the Bears also are tops. They are the favorites of not only Chicago and Illinois, but nearly every town and hamlet in the land. More people have seen the Bears play than any other three pro grid teams put together. Estimates vary, but it is generally accepted that 15,000,000 persons have witnessed the Bears in action, while another 70,000,000 have either read about the team, or have seen and heard the Bears over television and radio.

The Bears always have symbolized the spirit of their founder, George Halas. Every Bear team, even the few losing teams in the thirty-three years, has possessed the Halas will-to-win. The Bears are famous among athletic teams for their "Esprit De Corps." It has never mattered if they came from East or West; schools like Michigan, Cornell and Notre Dame—or tiny St. Anselm's. The motto is, and always has been, ONCE A BEAR, ALWAYS A BEAR.

Each December, Halas throws a Homecoming Party to his players of past years, the Bear Player Alumni. They come back to Halas U from all sections of the country to reminisce with old comrades of the gridiron... the Bears... Blacklock, Lanum, Healey, Sisk, McMillen, Walquist, Nolting, Grange, McAfee, Kopcha, Feathers, Knopp, Carlson, Karr and Luckman.

A section of this book lists, as completely as possible, all of the players who have carried the Chicago Bears' standard through the years. Every record in this book, every championship and every point scored, is a tribute to the Bear players, from 1920 to 1952, who have been Champions of the Pro Gridiron.

1920 ★ BEARS HONOR ROLL ★ 1952

The Chicago Bears, in 33 seasons, have won more games, more championships, scored more points and have established more records than any other team in professional football annals. To accomplish these great achievements through the years, the Bears have fielded not only brilliant stars, but truly outstanding team players as well. The following players have carried the Bears' standard from 1920 to the present season. The year they joined the club is listed. It has been impossible to compile a 100 per cent complete list of all former Bears, and to those omitted, our humble apology.

Lujack

Wilson

Ed Kolman, member of the mighty 1940-1941 teams, is line coach of the New York Giants. He ranks with the top young coaches in pro football. Mike Holovak is set for his second season as Head Coach at Boston College. Johnny Lujack retired this year to become an assistant coach at Notre Dame. George Wilson is Buddy Parker's No. 1 lieutenant with the Detroit Lions.

Bears' Coaching Staff

The Chicago Bears' coaching staff has set the pattern in professional football during the years. It was first with the modern T-Formation with Man In Motion, and first with many of the innovations. The 1952 staff consists of six coaches—George Halas, Luke Johnsos, Paddy Driscoll, Clark Shaughnessy, Phil Handler and Bulldog Turner. In addition, Jim Benton, head coach at Arkansas A & M College, helped tutor the ends during the training season.

GEORGE S. HALAS

One of the pioneers of professional football and an organizer of the National Football League. Born in Chicago on February 2, 1895. Attended Crane Tech, competing in baseball, basketball and football. Entered University of Illinois September, 1914; graduated January, 1918. Earned letters in baseball and captained basketball team in 1917-18. Outstanding member of Bob Zuppke's Fighting Illini elevens 1915-16 and '17. Entered Navy in World War I. Played on famous Great Lakes team which won Service Championship and routed Mare Island in the Rose Bowl, New Year's Day, 1919. Played professional football with Hammond that fall (1919).

Halas joined the A. E. Staley Company of Decatur, Ill., the following spring and played baseball under Iron Joe McGinnity. The famous Decatur Staleys' were organized by Halas that fall, a team which was to win glory, unrivalled, on the gridiron. Halas moved the Staleys' to Chicago in 1921, where they played at Cubs Park and became known as the Chicago Bears.

The Bears were champions from the start, winning the world championship the first season. Halas played end and coached the team. He continued as player-coach until 1930, when Ralph Jones took over the field direction of the club. Halas returned as head coach in 1933, winning another title for the Bears. He has been at the helm ever since, except for a brief period from November, 1942, through 1945, when he served with the Navy in World War Two. He rejoined the Bears in 1946 and led the team to its seventh world championship. The Halases have two children: George Jr. and Mrs. Edward (Virginia) McCaskey.

LUKE JOHNSOS

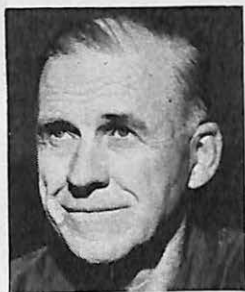

Born in Chicago and attended Schurz High. He is a graduate of Northwestern University, winning honors both in baseball and football. Luke received a trial with the Cincinnati Reds in 1928 but decided to devote his professional career to football. He joined the Bears that fall along with Walt Holmer, Northwestern's All-American fullback. Johnsos took the play away from Holmer and held down an end post with the Bears for seven seasons. He teamed together with Bill Hewitt to form an outstanding end combination. Luke earned all-league recognition in 1933.

Appointed assistant coach in 1937, Johnsos has been a member of the Bears' staff ever since. He has been with the Bears, as player or coach, 25 seasons, and during that time was associated with six world championship teams. Johnsos and Hunk Anderson were named co-coaches on October 25, 1942, when George Halas was called to active duty by the Navy. They were at the helm of the Bears for the remainder of the '42 season, and during 1943-1944 and 1945.

Like the other members of the staff, Johnsos is a keen student of football, and an ardent advocate of the T-Formation. He is recognized in football circles as an outstanding strategist. Luke is part owner of Johnsos-Coppock Co. a printing firm in Skokie, Ill. He is the champion father of the club—one boy and four girls. The Johnsos make their home in Evanston.

JOHN L. "PADDY" DRISCOLL

Paddy joined the Bears' staff in 1941, thirteen years after he completed his playing career with the same club. Driscoll rates as one of the greatest athletes ever developed in the Chicago Area. He was an outstanding football and baseball player at Northwestern University from 1915 through 1917. Paddy served with the Navy in World War I, and was a teammate of George Halas on the mighty Great Lakes Naval Training Station team, which won the service championship in 1918 and defeated Mare Island in the Rose Bowl the following New Year's Day. Driscoll turned in one of the greatest individual performances in the history of the Rose Bowl. Paddy signed to play with the first Bear team in 1920. A league ruling awarded him to the Cardinals. Coached and quarterbacked the Cardinals in 1921 and '22. He was a One Man show for the Cards for six seasons, and finally joined the Bears in 1926. Paddy celebrated his reunion with Halas by leading the Bears to a 16 to 0 triumph over the Cards, scoring all of the points himself. He retired as an active player at the end of the 1928 campaign. Many observers rank him with the four greatest backs of all time. Coached St. Mel High School for several years and became head coach at Marquette University in 1939. Paddy has a seat on the Chicago Board of Trade. The Driscolls have a son and live on Chicago's north side.

CLARK SHAUGHNESSY

Became member of Bears' coaching staff officially in 1951, although he acted in advisory capacity prior to World War Two. Shaughnessy was born in St. Cloud, Minn., on March 6, 1892. After playing fullback at the University of Minnesota he began his coaching career at Tulane University in 1915. His 1925 Green Wave eleven was named National Champion. Shaughnessy moved to Loyola of the South in 1927, again producing outstanding teams. He succeeded A. A. Staggs at the University of Chicago in 1933 and remained on the Midway until collegiate football was abandoned. Shaughnessy stunned the football world in 1940 by leading Stanford to the Pacific Coast title and a victory over Nebraska in the Rose Bowl. It was the first time the modern T-Formation With Man in Motion made famous by the Bears was employed by a major college eleven. "Shag" moved to the University of Maryland in 1942 and became head coach at Pitt in 1945. He acted in advisory capacity with the Washington Redskins and later the Los Angeles Rams. Shaughnessy assumed full command of the Rams in 1948 and after one season led the Angelanos to the Western Division championship of the NFL. Has coached such great quarterbacks as Frankie Albert, Lautenschlager, Jay Berwanger and Norm Van Brocklin. The Shaughnessys have three children, two girls and a boy, and make their home in Santa Monica, Calif.

PHIL HANDLER

Joined the Bears as Line Assistant this year, after serving 22 years as player, line coach, co-coach and head coach of the Cardinals. Phil is regarded as one of the best line coaches in the game. He was born in Fort Worth, Tex., July 1, 1908. After gaining national recognition as a guard at Texas Christian University, Handler joined the Cards and starred from 1930 to 1936, when he was appointed line coach under Ernie Nevers. Phil became head coach in 1943 and served in that capacity until 1946, when Jimmy Conzelman returned. He was named co-coach in 1949 and remained as line coach in 1950 and 1951. Handler tutors the tackles and guards, acts as a defensive assistant and also aids Walter Halas in scouting opposing teams. Phil is associated with a lumber company, lives in Chicago, is married and has two children.
