OWNERS

3RD YEAR WITH THE BILLS

TERRY & KIM PEGULA

On Friday, October 10, 2014, Terry and Kim Pegula realized a long-time dream as they became only the second owners in the Buffalo Bills' 55-year franchise history.

A few days later at their introductory press conference, Terry and Kim were greeted as the new owners of the Bills. With all of Western New York and much of the NFL community watching, Terry, who also serves as the team's CEO, issued an opening statement that resonated throughout Bills nation and beyond.

"My name is Terry Pegula and the Pegulas just bought a football team. Actually, that's not totally correct...we all just bought a team...our team...the Buffalo Bills. The name of our team will not change. It will stay the Buffalo Bills."

With that now-famous quote from Terry, the Pegula era of Buffalo Bills football was ushered in and the proverbial anvil tied to the team being moved was lifted from the neck of Western New York.

Terry also made it very clear that the Pegulas are all about bringing championships to Western New York.

"Owning any professional team is about winning and the primary goal of our ownership will be to win the Super Bowl and bring the championships to the City of Buffalo and myself and my family will dedicate ourselves to that. And yes, I said my family because we want to bring a Super Bowl to the Niagara region, courtesy of your...our...my Buffalo Bills."

The excitement surrounding the start of the Pegula era certainly transferred to Bills fans as season ticket sales set a franchise record in 2015 by eclipsing the 60,000 mark for the first time, shattering the old mark of 57,321 set in 1992.

Additionally, the Pegulas, were honored as recipients of the prestigious Tank Younger Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance earlier this year. The award recognizes individuals for their extraordinary contributions toward diversity in the NFL.

In addition to owning the Buffalo Bills, Terry and Kim Pegula own three other sports franchises in Western New York – the Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League, the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League and the Buffalo Bandits of the National Lacrosse League. All three entities were purchased in 2011.

A NEW ERA OF SABRES HOCKEY

On February 22, 2011, Terry Pegula became the fourth owner in Buffalo Sabres franchise history. The past few seasons have seen the Sabres concentrating on rebuilding the team on and off the ice. Bringing in GM Tim Murray in 2014 and Head Coach Dan Bylsma in 2015 has brought stability in the front office. Building on the ice with the additions of Jack Eichel, Sam Reinhart and Rasmus Ristolainen through the draft and the veteran acquisitions of Ryan O'Reilly, Kyle Okposo and Robin Lehner, the rebuild is poised to pay extensive dividends.

The Pegulas and the Sabres were the proud hosts of the 2016 NHL Draft. The event showcased the next generation of NHL players, marking the third time that the NHL selected the Sabres and the City of Buffalo to host the draft with the first time occurring in 1991 at the Buffalo Memorial Auditorium and the second being held in the First Niagara Center in 1998.

HARBORCENTER

In 2012 Terry and Kim looked to make an even bigger impact on the City of Buffalo. On August 29, 2012, it was announced that the city had selected the Pegulas and their development team to develop and construct HARBORCENTER, a $172 million multipurpose facility that sits directly across from First Niagara Center, the home of the Buffalo Sabres, in the city's Canalside District. HARBORCENTER is anchored by two new NHL-size ice rinks that are used year-round by a variety of Buffalo-area hockey teams and leagues.

Also in the facility is (716), an upscale, sports-themed bar and restaurant, a one-of-a-kind Tim Hortons location that pays homage to the former Sabres player, additional retail space, a parking structure and a 200-room, full-service Marriott hotel.

HARBORCENTER draws more than 500,000 people to downtown Buffalo annually and, coupled with First Niagara Center, provides a premier destination for hockey fans, right in the heart of 'Hockey Heaven.'

In early June 2016, HARBORCENTER once again proved to be a tremendous venue to host the NHL Scouting Combine for the second consecutive year, drawing rave reviews from NHL team executives and players alike. After two years of success, the Sabres and the NHL have agreed to bring the Combine back to Buffalo for the next three years.

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

In 2011 the Pegulas pledged $12 million for the construction of a new athletic center on the campus of Houghton College, Kim's alma mater. The second-largest gift in school history allowed Houghton to transition to NCAA Division III athletics.

The Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex formally opened on October 4, 2014. The project included the construction of both a new baseball and softball stadium, resurfacing of Burke Field (a multi-sport competition field), and the construction of an 115,000-square-foot fieldhouse that will enable the college and region to host year-round athletic competitions. The fieldhouse features an eight lane, 200-meter regulation size track, five tennis courts, cardio fitness center, weight lifting room, MVP conference room, commercial kitchen and concessions, locker-room facilities, and office space. The facility provides dedicated practice space for outdoor sports over the winter and during inclement weather and also has the ability to host major concerts and events with a maximum capacity of more than 6,000 people.

On September 17, 2010 Terry and Kim donated $88 million to Penn State University -- the largest private gift in the history of the school -- to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena and a world-class practice facility, to help establish an NCAA Division I men's hockey program. The Pegulas announced in 2012 they would increase their donation to the Nittany Lion hockey program to $102 million to allow for the endowment of student athlete scholarships.

Thanks to their generosity, Penn State has been able to add both men's and women's varsity hockey teams. Pegula Ice Arena, which opened in 2013 and enjoyed a sold-out 2013-14 season, includes two ice sheets and serves as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it is also used for a broad range of campus and community activities.

BEYOND SPORTS

The Pegulas expanded their business interests in the summer of 2014 by forming Pegula Sports & Entertainment, a multifaceted parent company of 12 separate companies. PSE's roster of companies spans the country and currently includes: the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres (Buffalo, NY); the AHL's Rochester Americans (Rochester, NY); the NLL's Buffalo Bandits (Buffalo); First Niagara Center (Buffalo); Nashville-based Black River Entertainment (a country music label that represents country stars such as Kelsea Ballerini, Craig Morgan and Jacob Davis) and its related properties: Black River Publishing; Sound Stage Studio; Ronnie's Place Studio; Buffalo-based HARBORCENTER and its components--(716) Food and Sport, the Academy of Hockey, and IMPACT Sports Performance, a high-performance training facility for professional and amateur athletes (Boca Raton, FL and Buffalo).

Terry is an avid sports fan and his connections to Western New York run deep. He lived in Buffalo during the Bills' championship years in the 1990s. He also held season tickets for the Buffalo Sabres from 1980 through 1998.

Raised in Carbondale, PA, Terry attended Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a Math major, but in order to stay in school, he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program through a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

In 1983 he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years Terry built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010 Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today.

Kim's primary focus in the Bills organization is her involvement in off-the-field elements and in December 2014 she was named to the National Football League Foundation board, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the lives of those involved in the game of football and she is also a member of the NFL's Super Bowl Committee. Kim also serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Pegula Sports & Entertainment, overseeing all aspects of the 12 sports and entertainment subsidiaries that make up the multifaceted parent company.

A native of Western New York, Kim grew up in Fairport, a suburb of Rochester, NY. She attended Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications.

Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010. In that same year, Kim helped found Black River Entertainment.

Terry and Kim currently reside in Boca Raton, FL, and have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. The Pegulas younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were both born in Buffalo.

MANAGING PARTNER AND PRESIDENT

20TH YEAR WITH THE BILLS

RUSS BRANDON

In his role as Managing Partner and President of the Buffalo Bills, Russ Brandon oversees all aspects of the day-to-day business and administrative operations of the franchise.

Brandon played a key role in facilitating the sale of the Buffalo franchise from the Wilson family to the Pegula family and aiding the Pegulas as they transitioned into their roles as the owners of an NFL franchise.

His excellent leadership skills and knowledge of the league were invaluable as he directed the organization in the days that followed with the passing of founding owner Ralph Wilson, Jr. to the announcement of Terry and Kim Pegula as the new owners.

Brandon also played an integral role in negotiating a new stadium lease agreement between the Bills, the State of New York and Erie County to keep the franchise in Western New York for the foreseeable future as the three entities signed a MOU in late December of 2012 that included a renovations package to enhance the fan's game day experience at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

Under Brandon's watch, the Bills surpassed 60,000 season ticket sales in 2015 for the first time in franchise history.

Stating that they were "highly impressed with the business acumen that Russ has shown with the Bills," Terry and Kim Pegula named Brandon President and Alternate Governor of the Buffalo Sabres on July 27, 2015 and the COO of Pegula

Sports and Entertainment on February 3, 2016. In working with Pegula Sports & Entertainment to create strong synergies between the Bills and Sabres, he oversees the business operations for both teams and represents ownership interests locally, regionally and with the National Football League and National Hockey League.

Brandon's abilities are highly respected on the local level and national scale as well as within the league. A testament to his talents lies in the fact that NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in the spring of 2011 appointed him to the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, which is responsible for the oversight of various businesses of the league, including consumer products, sponsorship and marketing. In May of 2014, Brandon was appointed to the league's Draft committee that will analyze when and where to hold the Draft each year.

In 2010 Brandon was named Chief Executive Officer for his lead role at One Bills Drive before founding owner Ralph Wilson, Jr. entrusted him as President and CEO in 2013.

In directing the Bills day-to-day operations as the Chief Operating Officer from 2008-2009, Brandon's reach extended from working on the Draft and free agency to leading an effort to improve the Bills game day experience for all fans. During that two-year span, Brandon led the organization to its first back-to-back years of 55,000-plus season ticket sales while recording the third-highest total in team history in 2008 and the fourth-highest figure in 2009, both contributing greatly to the viability of the franchise.

Brandon previously served as the team's Executive Vice President of Business Operations in 2006-2007, overseeing the team's vision and execution of all business-related endeavors. He developed a strong base of strategic business and community partners.

From January of 1999 through January 2006, Brandon served as the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing. He and his staff have been credited with the development of the team as a regional franchise and forming strategic alliances with key business partners.

Brandon's success in the sports business field has been recognized with numerous awards and in 2001 he was the recipient of Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's Forty-Under-40 Award. In the spring of 2014 he was the recipient of the Canisius College Distinguished Citizen of the Year Award and was presented with the Excellence in Management Award from St. John Fisher College's School of Business in the spring of 2013. Additionally, he has participated in the prestigious NFL Business Symposium at Stanford University.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the foundation of the regionalization plan by relocating Buffalo Bills Training Camp to St.

John Fisher College in Pittsford, NY. Many consider the Bills to be the elite model for NFL training camps, prompting Brandon to extend the partnership with the school in the spring of 2012 to keep the team at St. John Fisher College for the foreseeable future.

Brandon joined the Bills in November of 1997 as Executive Director of Business Development and Marketing after earning a World Series ring as a member of the Florida Marlins front office. He began his sports business career as a member of the Rochester Red Wings (then Triple A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) while serving in many capacities, including assistant general manager, and in 2013 Brandon was inducted into the Red Wings' Frontier Field Walk of Fame, a walkway featuring the names of elite figures in Rochester's sports history.

A native of East Syracuse, NY, Brandon is also actively involved in regional initiatives. He is a member of the Advisory Board for the David Falk School of Sport at Syracuse University, a member of the Board of Trustees at St. John Fisher College and serves on the board of Buffalo Niagara Enterprise. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees for the New York State Troopers Signal 30 Benefit Fund.

Brandon was a four-year letterman in baseball and football at St. John Fisher College and graduated with a degree in communications. He was inducted into his alma mater's Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. He and his wife Amy have three children, sons RJ and Jack, and daughter, Grace. They reside in Williamsville, NY.

GENERAL MANAGER

22ND YEAR IN THE NFL
7TH YEAR WITH THE BILLS

DOUG WHALEY

Doug Whaley is entering his fourth season as Buffalo Bills general manager. He is the 12th general manager in team history. In January, Whaley signed a multi-year extension with the organization as the team's general manager.

During his tenure as the Bills general manager, Whaley has displayed a strong track record of his ability to bolster the Bills roster whether it be via the draft, free agency or trades.

Whaley is a 22-year National Football League personnel veteran who first joined the Bills in 2010 and has played an integral role in all of the team's key personnel decisions since joining the organization.

Whaley arrived in Buffalo after 11 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1999-2009) as their Pro Scouting Coordinator. He began his career as an assistant in the Steelers' personnel department in 1995 and later re-joined the club in 1999 after serving as an area scout (east coast) for the Seattle Seahawks from 1996-1998. In Whaley's 12 years with the Steelers, Pittsburgh advanced to the playoffs seven times and captured two Super Bowl (XL and XLIII) championships in three title game appearances.

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Whaley was a four-year letter-winner as a safety and linebacker for the University of Pittsburgh from 1990-1993 where he graduated with a degree in Business Finance. Upon graduation, Whaley worked for one year as a retail stockbroker on Wall Street in 1994. Whaley lettered in football, wrestling and track as a student at Upper St. Clair (Pittsburgh, PA) High School and led the football team to its 1989 AAAA Pennsylvania state championship.

/// PERSONAL

Whaley, his wife Stephanie and daughter Mila reside in Buffalo, NY. The family supports AniMeals – a Buffalo C.A.N. program that provides dog and cat food to the homes of Meals on Wheels participants.

HEAD COACH

20TH YEAR IN THE NFL

2ND YEAR WITH THE BILLS

REX RYAN

'ALL IN' ON BUFFALO

- On January 12, 2015, the Buffalo Bills named Rex Ryan the 18th head coach in franchise history.
- Ryan's defense made life difficult on quarterbacks during his first year commanding the Bills defense, as rookie CB Ronald Darby and CB Stephon Gilmore both finished within the NFL's top 10 of the NFL in passes defended with 21 and 18 pass breakups, respectively. In total, the Bills defense led the NFL with 93 passes defended. Through the team's strong defensive back play, the team held opponents to a 57.6 completion percentage which was third best in the league and also racked up 17 interceptions, which was sixth in the NFL.

- The Bills offensive attack excelled in Ryan's first season in Buffalo. The Bills offense led the NFL in a number of categories including rushing (152.0 yards per game), yards per rush (4.78), big play touchdowns (24 touchdowns of 20+ yards) and scoring from outside the red zone (194 points). As a result of the Bills offensive successes in 2015, the team had four offensive players (QB Tyrod Taylor, C Eric Wood, G Richie Incognito and RB LeSean McCoy) earn Pro Bowl honors for the first time since 2002.

- Ryan's Jets defenses would go on to rank in the top 10 of the NFL in five out of his six years as head coach (2009-1st, 2010-3rd, 2011-5th, 2012-8th, 2014-6th).

- Ryan's 2013 version of the Jets defense didn't land among the top 10 NFL defense (finished the year ranked 11th), but still ranked well in several other categories including third

Jets history behind Weeb Ewbank (71) and Joe Walton (53).

- From 2009-2014, the Jets ranked first in the NFL in passing yards allowed (204.3), opponent completion percentage (55.7), opponent first downs (1,667), and yards allowed per defensive play (4.9). The Jets ranked second in total yards allowed per game (306.9).

- The Jets defense saw an immediate improvement upon Ryan's arrival in New York, improving from the 16th ranked defense in 2008 to the league's top defense in 2009 allowing just 252.3 yards per game in Ryan's inaugural season as the Jets head coach.

- Ryan's Jets defenses would go on to rank in the top 10 of the NFL in five out of his six years as head coach (2009-1st, 2010-3rd, 2011-5th, 2012-8th, 2014-6th).
- Ryan's 2013 version of the Jets defense didn't land among the top 10 NFL defense (finished the year ranked 11th), but still ranked well in several other categories including third in the NFL in rushing defense (1,412 yards allowed) while finishing first in opponents' per carry average (3.4). The defense also produced 41 sacks, the most by a Ryan led defense since his 2006 Ravens had 60 and the most by a Jets defense since it also produced 41 in 2008. Pacing the team were career-best performances from defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson (10.5) and linebacker Calvin Pace (10.0), who became the first pair of Jets defenders to both produce double-digit sacks since Joe Klecko (20.5) and Mark Gastineau (20) accomplished the feat in 1981.

JETS HEAD COACH HIGHLIGHTS

- His 4-2 record in the postseason was the best in franchise history.

- Ryan's 46 regular season wins during his time with New York rank as the third most in

- Ryan showed the ability to win with a rookie quarterback during his time with the Jets. Twice during his tenure in New York, the Jets started a rookie at quarterback, making Ryan the only head coach in the Super Bowl era to start a rookie quarterback in at least 10 games in two of his first five seasons in the league. Ryan's success with Mark Sanchez (2009) and Geno Smith (2013) made him the only head coach in the Super Bowl era to win eight-or-more games with a rookie quarterback in two different seasons.

INTERESTING NOTES

- Prior to joining the Ravens, Ryan was a defensive coordinator in college at Oklahoma (1998) and Cincinnati (1996-97).
- Rex's twin brother Rob will join him on the Bills coaching staff in 2016 as the team's assistant head coach/defense. This will mark the first time they've coached together since Rex's first NFL coaching stint with the Cardinals under his late father Buddy Ryan, when Rex oversaw Arizona's defensive line in 1994 and linebackers in 1995.

- Rex also coached at Morehead State (1990-93), New Mexico Highlands (1989) and Eastern Kentucky (1987-88).
- Before Ryan became a coach, he had a chance to see some great defenses up close and personal. Buddy brought him along to practices when he became the Jets defensive line coach for the 1968 season — the Jets' Super Bowl III season. Rex then watched his dad coach the 1985 Chicago Bears, regarded by many as the best-ever NFL defense.
- He was a ball boy for those Bears teams early in his father's tenure as the defensive coordinator. He left for college during the 1985 season, but was on the sidelines during Super Bowl XX, when the Bears finished their 18-1 run with a 46-10 victory over New England and Buddy was carried off on his defenders' shoulders.
- The Ryan family currently possesses five Super Bowl rings: Buddy—Super Bowls III (Jets) and XX (Bears); Rob—Super Bowls XXXVI (Patriots) and XXXVIII (Patriots); Rex—Super Bowl XXXV (Ravens).
- Ryan's connection to Buffalo dates back to the 1960's, as his father was the defensive coordinator at the University at Buffalo from 1961 to 1965.
- Ryan, 53, graduated from Stevenson (IL) High School in Prairie View, IL, and played football at SW Oklahoma State, where he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1986. He earned his master's degree in physical education at Eastern Kentucky in 1988, quite a feat considering he discovered later in life that he suffers from dyslexia.
- Is involved in a variety of charities and community efforts.
- Was born in Ardmore, OK. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Payton, named for Walter Payton, and Seth.

The Bills offensive attack excelled under Roman's watch throughout his first year in Buffalo. The Bills offense led the NFL in a number of categories including rushing (152.0 yards per game), yards per rush (4.78), big play touchdowns (24 touchdowns of 20+ yards) and scoring from outside the red zone (194 points).

As a result of the Bills offensive successes in 2015, the team had four offensive players (QB Tyrod Taylor, C Eric Wood, G Richie Incognito and RB LeSean McCoy) earn Pro Bowl honors for the first time since 2002.

Taylor particularly excelled under Roman's tutelage, becoming just the third quarterback in NFL history to finish a season with a passer rating over 99 and over 40 yards rushing per game.

Roman spent the four seasons prior to his arrival in Buffalo as the San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator, during which time the 49ers advanced through seven playoffs rounds—including a trip to Super Bowl XLVII in 2012. The 49ers held a 5-3 playoff record during Roman's tenure in San Francisco.

Including the playoffs, the 49ers had an overall record of 49-22-1 during Roman's four seasons with the team—the third best mark in the league over that time span.

In 2013, Roman's offense helped lead the 49ers to a 12-4 record and an appearance in the NFC Championship game

The 2012 season tasked Roman with coaching up QBs Colin Kaepernick and Alex Smith en route to the team's first Super Bowl appearance since 1994.

As the 49ers captured their second consecutive NFC West title in 2012, the offense continued to display historical performances under Roman. Against the Buffalo Bills on October 7, 2012, the offense set the all-time franchise record with 621 total yards and became the only team in NFL history to rush for 300-plus yards and pass for 300-plus yards in the same game. In the NFC Divisional matchup vs. Green Bay, the 49ers set the franchise record for total yards in a playoff game with 579 yards.

Under Roman's direction in 2011, the 49ers notched a 13-3 record as the offense committed just 10 turnovers (5 fumbles, 5 interceptions), which ranks tied for first in NFL history for the fewest turnovers in a season.

Before joining the 49ers coaching staff, he spent two seasons (2009-10) on Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford, where he mentored Heisman Trophy finalists RB Toby Gerhart in 2009 and redshirt sophomore QB Andrew Luck in 2010.

Roman joined Stanford in 2009 as the running game coordinator, with position responsibilities of tight ends and offensive tackles. In 2010, he kept those responsibilities, but also added the duties of associate coach and assistant head coach of the offense. During his time at Stanford, the Cardinal posted a 20-6 record, which was the best over a two-year span in the University's history.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Roman served as the assistant offensive line coach for a Baltimore Ravens team that captured the 2006 AFC North Division title with a regular season mark of 13-3 where he coached alongside Bills head coach Rex Ryan.

Prior to joining the staff in Baltimore, Roman enjoyed a four-year coaching stint with the expansion Houston Texans, serving as the team's tight ends (2002-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004-05). As quarterbacks coach, Roman helped David Carr post his career high in QB rating.

Roman launched his coaching career with the expansion Carolina Panthers in 1995, the team's inaugural season in the NFL, when he was named the strength and conditioning assistant/defensive quality control coach, while also working with the defensive backs and the linebackers. He then moved to the offensive side of the ball as Carolina's offensive quality control coach for two seasons (1997-98) before assuming the role of offensive assistant for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns. Roman worked as the team's assistant offensive line coach in his final season with the Panthers in 2001.

PERSONAL

A three-year letter-winner and two-year starting defensive lineman at John Carroll University from 1990-93, Roman earned All-Ohio Conference honorable mention honors following his senior season. He also helped the Blue Streaks capture a share of the OAC championship.

A native of Ventnor, N.J. and a graduate of Holy Spirit High School, Greg and his wife, Dana, have three children, Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace. They happily reside in Orchard Park, NY.

DENNISTHURMAN

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Dennist Thurman enters his second year overseeing the Bills defense and his 16th season in the NFL in 2016.

The Bills defensive backs excelled during Thurman's first year commanding the Bills defense, as rookie CB Ronald Darby and CB Stephon Gilmore both finished with in the top 10 of the NFL in passes defended with 21 and 18 pass breakups respectively. In total, the Bills defense led the NFL with 93 passes defended.

In addition to excelling breaking up passes, the Bills defense consistently displayed an ability to make life difficult for opposing quarterbacks—holding opponents to a 57.6 completion percentage which was third best in the league and racking up 17 interceptions, good for sixth in the NFL.

Thurman came to Buffalo after spending the past six seasons with the New York Jets, serving as the defensive coordinator from 2013-14 and as the defensive backs coach from 2009-12.

In his two years leading the defense, the Jets were excellent against the run. In both seasons, the Jets finished in the top five in the NFL against the run as they held the opposing team to the second fewest rushing yards per game, allowing only 90.7 yards per game. They led the NFL by only allowing 3.56 yards per rush over the past two seasons. The Jets' defense led the NFL by only allowing 64 rushes for more than 10 yards and allowed the second fewest rushes for a first down (142).

The 2014 edition of the Jets defense finished sixth overall (327.2 total yards per game), fifth against the run (93.1 yards per game) and 14th against the pass (234.1 yards per game).

LB David Harris, who posted his third straight 100-tackle season, and LB Demario Davis, who posted his second consecutive 100-tackle season, combined to lead the defense in 2014 as it improved from 11th to sixth in the NFL in total defense.

In 2013, his first as a coordinator, Thurman oversaw a big change in personnel on defense in 2013 as the club started seven new players. Despite the changes, the defense finished third in the league in rushing defense (88.3 yards per game) and allowed the fewest yards per carry (3.4 yards per rush).

On the defensive line, Thurman incorporated 2013 first-round pick Sheldon Richardson, who went on to earn Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, with Muhammad Wilkerson (career-best 10.5 sacks and second-team All-Pro recognition) to form a fearsome duo.

The linebacker group saw an increase in production by David Harris (124 tackles) and Calvin Pace (career-best 10.0 sacks), as well as incorporating new starters Demario Davis, who posted his first 100-tackle season, and Quinton Coples, who made the transition from defensive lineman and registered a team-leading 19 quarterback hurries.

With Thurman as the defensive backs coach from 2009-12, the Jets secondary held opponents to an NFL-low 71.0 passer rating, 52.6 completion percentage, and 11,921 passing yards.

In 2009, Thurman led a secondary that allowed an NFL-best 153.7 yards passing a game and helped the Jets defense finish first in both yards and points allowed. Thurman coached CB Darrelle Revis to All-Pro status as he recorded six interceptions, 72 tackles and 34 passes defended.

Thurman spent six years coaching the Ravens defense (2002-07), four as secondary coach and two as defensive assistant alongside Head Coach Rex Ryan. The Ravens led the NFL with 126 interceptions and 18 interception returns for touchdowns during the period that he was involved with the secondary.

Before coming back to the NFL, he coached the defensive backs at his alma mater, USC, for eight years (1993-2000). While at USC, Thurman coached 11 players who would go on to play three or more seasons in the NFL including Chris Cash, Kris Richard, Daylon McCutcheon, Brian Kelly, Troy Polamalu and Jason Sehorn.

During his tenure at USC, the Trojans played in the 1993 Freedom Bowl (W, 28-21), 1995 Cotton Bowl (W, 55-14), 1996 Rose Bowl (W, 41-32) and 1998 Sun Bowl (L, 19-28).

Thurman coached defensive backs for the Phoenix Cardinals from 1988-89 after having just played for the franchise in 1986.

Originally an 11th round selection of the 1978 NFL Draft by the Cowboys, Thurman went on to play nine years in the NFL as a cornerback and safety, eight with the Cowboys and one with the Cardinals.

He recorded 36 career interceptions (four for touchdowns) and played in Super Bowl XIII for the Cowboys in 1979.

Thurman was a two-time All-America safety at USC and was part of the 1974 National Championship team. He recorded 13 interceptions in his collegiate career, returning two for scores.

PERSONAL

He played quarterback and defensive back at Santa Monica (CA) High School on three CIF Division I championship teams that combined to go 39-1-1.

A native of Los Angeles, CA and graduate of Santa Monica High School, Thurman has two daughters, Chelsea and Jade, and a grandson, Laedan Tyler. He graduated from USC in 1978.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Danny Crossman will enter his fourth year with the Buffalo Bills as the team's special teams coordinator. This will be his 14th year in the NFL coaching ranks and 12th as a coordinator.

Bills punter Colton Schmidt particularly thrived under Crossman's watch in 2015, setting a new franchise record with an average net punt of 41.3 yards. In addition to Schmidt's success, K Dan Carpenter racked up 125 points on the season—becoming the first Bill with three straight 100-point seasons since Rian Lindel from 2004 to 2006.

Crossman's special teams unit also excelled last season in kickoff return coverage, limiting opponents to an NFL-best 17.2 yards per kickoff return.

Crossman led one of the NFL's most productive special teams units in just his second season with the Buffalo Bills in 2014. Under Crossman, the Bills special teams allowed just 20.0 yard per kick return (third lowest in the NFL) and 6.5 yards per punt return (fourth lowest in the NFL).

With Crossman at the helm, a number of Bills produced record-setting individual accomplishments in 2014:

- K Dan Carpenter set a team record with 34 field goals and a personal-best 133 points. He also set a team record with six 50-plus field goals in one season.
- K Jordan Gay set a team record with 49 touchbacks.
- P Colton Schmidt produced 31 punts inside the 20 – the second highest total in team history
- RB Boobie Dixon became the first Bill to block two punts in a season since Steve Tasker in 1990

In 2013, Crossman led all of the special teams units to productive results in his first season. Carpenter connected on 91.67 percent of his field goals – the second highest single season percentage in team history. Easley also produced a standout season in Crossman's system as he totaled an NFL-best 23 special teams tackles.

From 2010-12, Crossman presided over the Detroit Lions' special teams unit after seven years with the Carolina Panthers (2003-09), including the final five as their special teams coordinator. Crossman entered the NFL with Carolina in 2003

as a special teams assistant while also assisting the team's strength and conditioning program. His career highlights include:

- In 2012, Lions K Jason Hanson posted a career-high and set a franchise record with 134 points.
- During Crossman's stint with the Panthers from 2003-09, the team's kicking and cover groups contributed to the team's success which included three playoff appearances (2003, 2005 and 2008), two NFC South titles in 2003 and 2008.
- In his first year as a special teams coordinator in 2005, Crossman's unit ranked among the best in the NFL. The Panthers finished ninth in the Dallas Morning News special teams ratings. Crossman helped guide P Jason Baker to set the franchise record in net punting average in both 2005 (38.9) and 2006 (39.0).

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, Crossman spent 10 years coaching in college, including Michigan State (2002), Georgia Tech (1999-2001), Central Florida (1997-98), Western Kentucky (1994-96) and U.S. Coast Guard Academy (1993).

JOHN BLAKE

COACHING EXPERIENCE

John Blake enters his first year with the Bills and his fourth season in the NFL after being announced as the team's defensive line coach on March 15, 2016.

A two-time Super Bowl champion (XXVII & XXIX), Blake will be beginning his second NFL stint. During Blake's first NFL coaching stint, he served as the Dallas Cowboys defensive line coach from 1993 to 1995.

Under Blake's guidance, Cowboys defensive lineman Leon Lett, Charles Haley, Russell Maryland and Tony Tolbert all earned Pro Bowl honors. Dallas' 1994 defensive front particularly earned high marks, as the Cowboys led the league in rush defense and the entire defensive unit was the NFL's top-ranked defense and finished second in the NFL in sacks.

In addition to his NFL experience, Blake spent more than 20 seasons coaching on the collegiate level—working with future first round picks Ndamukong Suh, Robert Quinn, Quinton Coples, Adam Carriker and Kentwan Balmer.

Following his time with the Cowboys, Blake moved on to become the head coach of his alma mater—the Oklahoma Sooners.

Blake was at the helm of the Sooners program from 1996 to 1998, naming current Bills Head Coach Rex Ryan the team's defensive coordinator for the 1998 season.

Blake originally began his coaching career in 1985 as a student assistant with Oklahoma, helping lead the Sooners to the program's 14th national championship. Following working with the Sooners in 1986 as a graduate assistant, Blake earned his first full-time opportunity in 1987 with Tulsa, where he coached the tight ends and wide receivers.

Blake returned to his alma mater in 1989 to coach the Sooners' defensive line and then the squad's linebackers from 1990 to 1992.

Following his time leading the Sooners' program, Blake spent four years as the director of a professional developmental camp called "A Chance To Advance Football Camp." Among his clients were Miami Dolphins defensive end Jason Taylor, New Orleans Saints defensive end Darren Howard and Indianapolis Colts defensive end Dwight Freeney among many others.

Blake reemerged in the college coaching ranks in 2003 as Mississippi State's defensive line coach before going on to hold the same position for the Nebraska Husker (2004-06) and the North Carolina Tar Heels (2007-10).

Following his time with the Tar Heels, Blake spent time working with and developing current NFL players including Leonard Williams, Eddie Goldman, Jason Pierre-Paul and current Bills defensive end Jerry Hughes.

AARON KROMER

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Aaron Kromer enters his second season in Buffalo and 16th season in the NFL coaching ranks in 2016, as he returns as the team's offensive line coach.

Kromer's unit achieved high marks in the first year under his tutelage in 2015. The Bills offensive line helped pave the way to the Bills having both the top rushing attack in the NFL in yards (2,432) and yards per carry (4.78). In addition, the Bills had three rushers surpass the 500-yard mark (LeSean McCoy-895, Tyrod Taylor-568, Karlos Williams-517) for the first time since 1962.

Offensive guard Richie Incognito and center Eric Wood both particularly excelled under Kromer's watch last season. Incognito and Wood each started all 16 games en route to becoming the first Bills guard to earn Pro Bowl honors since Ruben Brown in 2003 and the first Bills center to be Hawaii-bound since Kent Hull in 1990.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, Kromer's coaching career included stops in Oakland, Tampa Bay, New Orleans, and Chicago. Before reaching the NFL ranks, Kromer spent nine seasons at the collegiate level both at Miami (Ohio) and Northwestern.

Kromer joined the Bills from the Chicago Bears' organization where he served as the team's offensive coordinator in 2014 and the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach in 2013. Under his watch, guard Kyle Long earned two Pro Bowl berths—the first Bears offensive lineman to earn Pro Bowl honors since 2006.

Before his time in Chicago, Kromer spent five years with the New Orleans Saints where he worked with the offensive line and running backs in addition to serving as the interim head coach of the Saints for the first six games of the 2012 regular season.

During his tenure as the Saints offensive line coach, five blockers were named to 10 Pro

Bowls; tackle Jermon Bushrod in from 2012-2013, guard Jahri Evans from 2010-2013, center Jonathan Goodwin in 2010, guard Carl Nicks from 2011-2012 and tackle Jon Stinchcomb in 2010. Also during his time there, New Orleans was tied for the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL with 96.

During Kromer's first season as the Saints offensive line/running game coach, New Orleans earned its first Super Bowl Championship in franchise history as the offense led the NFL in total offense averaging 403.8 yards per game and scoring offense averaging 31.9 points per game.

Kromer joined the Saints organization after spending three years in Tampa Bay from 2005-2007 working as the Buccaneers senior assistant/offensive line coach the final two seasons after joining the club as a senior assistant in 2005 with a focus on the offensive line. In 2005, guard Dan Buehning earned All-Rookie honors and in 2006, guard Arron Sears accomplished the same feat under Kromer.

He joined Tampa Bay after a four-year stint with the Oakland Raiders from 2001 to 2004. He started as assistant offensive line coach in 2001 before being promoted to the offensive line coach in 2002. While in Oakland, Kromer tutored two players to Pro Bowl selections: tackle Lincoln Kennedy from 2001-02 and center Barrett Robbins in 2002. He also coached tackle Robert Gallery to an all-rookie selection in 2004.

Kromer got his coaching start at his alma mater, Miami University (Ohio), where he worked for nine seasons (1990-98) before coaching Northwestern's offensive line from 1999-2000.

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

10TH YEAR IN THE NFL
2ND YEAR WITH THE BILLS

SANJAY LAL

2016 STAFF

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Sanjay Lal will enter his second season as the Bills wide receivers coach in 2016 and his 10th season in the NFL coaching ranks.

WR Sammy Watkins particularly excelled under Lal's watch in 2015—notching his first 1,000 yard season and leading the NFL in average yards at the point of the catch (14.7). Once healthy, Watkins exploded following the Bills bye week in week eight, finishing third in NFL in receiving yards (900) from week 9 to 17.

Lal's receiving group also played a large role in Bills QB Tyrod Taylor recording the second-best passer rating (99.4) in franchise history—behind only Hall of Fame quarterback Jim Kelly's passer rating in 1990.

Before arriving in Buffalo, Lal spent the three seasons with the New York Jets as a wide receivers coach. Prior to his time in New York, Lal spent five seasons with the Oakland Raiders, the last three as a wide receivers coach.

With the Jets, Lal helped incorporate Eric Decker in to the wide receiver group in 2014 and coached him to 74 receptions for 962 yards and five touchdowns, including a career-high 10 receptions for 221 yards and one score against Miami.

In 2013, Lal managed a group that was held back by injuries. Jeremy Kerley led the team in both receptions with 43 and receiving yards with 523—including a Jets record six third-down conversions in a win vs. New England. Lal also helped with the in-season signing of David Nelson, who joined the team in Week Five. Nelson finished second on the team in receptions with 36 and third in receiving yards with 423.

In his first season with the Jets, Lal guided Kerley to a career-high with 56 receptions, 827 receiving yards and 14.8 yards per catch.

While with Oakland, Raiders wide receivers finished sixth in the NFL with an average of 15.0 yards per catch. 2011 fourth-round draft selection Denarius Moore ended the season with 18.7 yards per reception, fourth-highest among wide receivers in the NFL—including two Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors. Darrius

Hayward-Bey enjoyed his most successful season under Lal's tutelage, totaling 64 receptions for 975 yards and four touchdowns, all career highs.

In 2010, he mentored one of the youngest receiving units in the NFL, as no Oakland receiver entered the year with more than three seasons of pro experience. Lal helped rookie Jacoby Ford average 18.8 yards per reception en route to earning one Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors.

In his first season as wide receivers coach, Lal oversaw the development of rookies Hayward-Bey and Louis Murphy in 2009. The pair became the first rookie tandem to start at wide receiver in the NFL since 2000. He spent 2007-08 as an assistant wide receivers coach with the Raiders.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, he spent three seasons as an offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach at the University of California. The Golden Bears played in a bowl game each of Lal's three seasons at Cal and captured a share of the school's first Pac-10 title in 2006.

Before his time at Cal, he was a quarterbacks and strength, speed and conditioning coach at Saint Mary's college in 2004, and a wide receivers coach at Los Medanos College in 2003.

Lal also spent six years as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at Miramonte (CA) High School where the program won five North Coast Section Championships and one state title.

Before his coaching career, Lal attended the University of Washington where he played wide receiver on the football team and was a Husky Hall of Fame selection. Lal was on the Huskies 1992 National Championship team and a member of two Rose Bowl teams.

Lal was invited to training camp with the Raiders in 1995, spent time with the St. Louis Rams in 1998 and signed with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1999.

PERSONAL

Lal graduated from the University of Washington with a degree in business administration.

DAVID LEE

COACHING EXPERIENCE

David Lee, who is in the midst of his second stint in Buffalo after also serving as the Bills quarterbacks coach in 2012, enters his 12th season in the NFL and his third season with the Bills. Lee brings a wealth of coaching knowledge to the Bills' staff as he coached both at the collegiate level and in the NFL for 42 years.

Lee's return to Buffalo in 2015 was a remarkable success, as Bills quarterback Tyrod Taylor became the first Buffalo quarterback to earn Pro Bowl honors since Drew Bledsoe in 2002.

Under Lee's tutelage, Taylor established a new franchise record for rushing yards by a Bills QB in a single season with 568 yards. In addition to providing a dynamic threat on the ground, Taylor made the Bills a viable threat through the air as his 99.4 passer rating is the second-best in team history behind only Jim Kelly in 1990.

Before rejoining the Bills, Lee spent the two seasons as quarterbacks coach with the New York Jets. During his time in New York, Lee oversaw QB Geno Smith—who in 2013 became the first rookie quarterback in team history to start all 16 games and became the first quarterback since the merger to record four game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime in his first seven career games.

In 2012 with the Bills, Lee guided QB Ryan Fitzpatrick to a personal single-season best 24 touchdown passes—which marked the fifth-most by a Bills signal caller.

Between NFL jobs, Lee spent time at the University of Mississippi for one season in 2011 as the offensive coordinator-quarterbacks coach.

Prior to his time at Ole Miss, Lee spent three seasons in Miami as the Dolphins' quarterbacks coach from 2008-10. While with the Dolphins, both Chad Pennington in 2008 and Chad Henne in 2010 recorded 3,000 yard seasons under Lee's guidance. Pennington was the 2008 runner-up for NFL MVP and was named the AFC's Comeback Player of the Year.

In 2007, Lee spent a season as the offensive coordinator-quarterbacks coach for the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

Lee's first stint in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys as the team's offensive quality control coach from 2003-06 and added quarterback responsibilities in 2005. In his four years with Dallas, three different signal callers reached the 3,000-yard plateau in a single-season.

Before becoming a coach at the pro-level, Lee spent 29 years coaching college football. Lee began his coaching career at the University of Tennessee Martin from 1975-1976 where he was a quarterbacks/receivers coach. He then returned to his alma mater to handle the quarterback coaching duties at Vanderbilt University in 1977. From 1978-1982 then, he coached quarterbacks at the University of Mississippi before becoming the offensive coordinator-quarterbacks coach at New Mexico in 1983. From 1984-1987, he became the quarterbacks/fullbacks coach at Arkansas and in 1988, he held the duty of offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Razorbacks.

Lee landed his first head coaching job at the University of Texas El-Paso in 1989 and held that position until 1993. He then moved on to Rice University where he became the offensive coordinator-quarterbacks coach from 1994-2000. Before heading to the NFL, Lee returned to Arkansas for two seasons as the quarterbacks coach from 2001-2002.

PERSONAL

Before coaching, Lee was a three-year letter-winner and captain at quarterback for Vanderbilt from 1972-1974. He led the SEC in passing and was named the MVP on the 1974 Peach Bowl team.

ANTHONY LYNN

2016 STAFF

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Anthony Lynn enters his 17th year in the NFL and his second year as the Bills assistant head coach/running backs in 2016.

Lynn's coaching has become synonymous with prolific rushing attacks—as since 2009 Lynn's teams (Jets '09-'14, Bills '15) have rushed for 15,588 yards—which ranks as the most combined yards on the ground in the NFL over that time period.

Lynn's first year with the Bills saw his group rank as the best in the league—as the Bills notched both the top rushing attack in the NFL in yards (2,432) and yards per carry (4.78).

The Bills rushing attack also proved to be incredibly versatile in 2015, as three Buffalo rushers surpassed the 500-yard mark (LeSean McCoy-895, Tyrod Taylor-568, Karlos Williams-517) for the first time since 1962.

Lynn's running back group also provided the Bills offense with an explosive element in 2015 as the Bills racked up 70 runs of 10+ yards—the most in the NFL.

Prior to his arrival in Buffalo, Lynn spent time with five different teams including the Jaguars, Cowboys, Browns, Jets and Broncos and as a player, he had two different stints with the Broncos and also spent time with the 49ers.

Lynn spent six seasons with the Jets overseeing the running backs and adding the title of assistant head coach in 2013.

In 2014, Lynn worked with the trio of Chris Ivory, Bilal Powell and newcomer Chris Johnson to turn the Jets into the 3rd ranked rushing offense in the NFL at 142.5 yards per game. Ivory had one of the best years of his career, securing the most touchdowns he's scored in a single season (seven) and the second-most rushing yards (821). In addition, Chris Johnson's career rebounded as he averaged 4.3 yards per carry after he gained under four yards per carry in 2013. Johnson also finished in the top five in the NFL in yards after contact.

After Ivory was acquired in a draft-day trade before the 2013 season, Lynn helped the fourth-year pro establish a team-leading 833 yards on 182 carries (4.6 average). Ivory's 2.69 yards after contact per attempt ranked third among all runners with at least 100 carries last season. Bilal Powell, who gained 697 yards on 176 carries, also finishing tied for second on the team with 36 receptions. The 1,530 combined rushing yards by Ivory and Powell were the most by the Jets top two runners since LaDainian Tomlinson (914) and Shonn Greene (766) combined for 1,680 yards in 2010.

Lynn came to the Jets after spending the previous two years as a running backs coach with the Browns from 2007-08. With the Browns, he worked with Jamal Lewis and helped him produce back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. In 2007, Lewis rushed for 1,304 yards despite only playing in 14 games.

Before the Browns, Lynn spent two years as the Cowboys running backs coach from 2005-2006. While in Dallas, he oversaw the emergence of Julius Jones and Marion Barber III as the two combined for over 1,500 yards on the ground both seasons.

Prior to Dallas, Lynn coached the running backs for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Under his guidance, Fred Taylor recorded two of the top four rushing seasons in team history, including his career-best 1,572 yards in 2003.

He began his coaching career with the Denver Broncos as an offensive assistant and assistant special teams coach.

PERSONAL

As a player, Lynn entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Giants in 1992 but was released after training camp. He made the 1993 Broncos roster and saw action in 13 games but spent 1994 on IR after breaking his leg. Lynn spent the 1995-96 seasons with the 49ers. Following his time in San Francisco, Lynn rejoined the Broncos spending three seasons as a HB/TE/FB, winning back-to-back Super Bowl championships (XXXII, XXXIII).

He ran for 1,911 yards and 17 touchdowns on 481 carries at Texas Tech, earning All-South West Conference honors.

Lynn's two kids are D'Anton, his son, and Danielle, his daughter. The Jets signed D'Anton, a DB out of Penn State, as an undrafted free agent (05/04/12), and he spent time with the scouting department in 2013 and a coaching intern in 2014. Danielle is a senior at the University of Oklahoma, majoring in Human Anatomy and Physiology. Lynn's wife, Stacey Bell Lynn, worked last as a news anchor at WNBC in New York City and now resides in Buffalo.

TIM MCDONALD

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Tim McDonald enters his second year working with the Bills defensive backs and his fourth year coaching in the NFL in 2016.

The Bills defensive backs excelled under McDonald's watch in 2015, as rookie CB Ronald Darby and CB Stephon Gilmore both finished with in the top 10 of the NFL in passes defended with 21 and 18 pass breakups respectively. In total, the Bills defense led the NFL with 93 passes defended.

In addition to excelling breaking up passes, the Bills DBs consistently displayed an ability to make life difficult for opposing quarterbacks—with the Bills defense holding opponents to a 57.6 completion percentage which was third best in the league and racking up 17 interceptions, good for sixth in the NFL.

McDonald spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the Jets Defensive Backs coach.

In his first season with the Jets, McDonald inherited a secondary with one returning starter, CB Antonio Cromartie, who was selected to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl after tying for the team lead with three interceptions.

McDonald integrated veteran S Ed Reed into the defense after he signed with the team in-season, helping reduce the passing touchdowns allowed to nine and the opponents' passer rating to 80.3, ranking in the top 10 league-wide over the final seven games.

He also aided in the development of first-round draft choice, CB Dee Milliner, who garnered Defensive Rookie of the Month honors after finishing December with 27 tackles, three interceptions and 13 passes defended.

McDonald continued his work with the Jets defensive backs in 2014, helping CB Darrin Walls provide his best season as a pro as he notched a career-high 12 passes defenses and two INTs.

McDonald got his start in coaching at the collegiate level with Fresno State as he was hired as a secondary coach on January 4, 2012.

In addition, Meyer helped Long become the first Bears offensive lineman to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2006 and the first Chicago rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl at an offensive position since RB Gale Sayers in 1965.

Meyer joined the Bears after one season in Montreal as the Alouettes offensive line coach. In 2012, the Alouettes were third in the league in scoring (26.6 points per game), tied for first in touchdowns (51), second in passing (293.2 yards per game) and tied for first in fewest sacks allowed (30). From 1993-96, Palmer worked with the New England Patriots as a wide receivers coach and quarterbacks coach. In his one season working with Drew Bledsoe, he improved his passer rating by 20 points from the previous season.

His first job in the NFL was with the Houston Oilers as the wide receivers coach from 1990-92. His group of wide outs included four players – Curtis Duncan, Ernest Givens, Drew Hill and Haywood Jeffries - who earned Pro Bowl selections under his direction in the Oilers Run 'N Shoot offense.

Palmer has worked in a total of four professional leagues (NFL, UFL, USFL, CFL) and has 15 years of experience in the college ranks. ROBRYAN

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Rob Ryan enters his first year with the Bills and his 18th season in the NFL after being announced as the team's assistant head coach/defense on January 10, 2016.

Ryan comes to Buffalo with 28 years of coaching experience, 17 in the NFL. He has served stints as a defensive coordinator with the Oakland Raiders (2004-08), Cleveland Browns (2009-10), Dallas Cowboys (2011-12) and the New Orleans Saints (2013-15) and has four years of experience heading up defenses at the collegiate level.

In 2013, New Orleans finished fourth in the NFL in total defense – a 28-spot improvement from 2012. Giving up just 305.7 net yards per game compared to 440.1 in 2012, the 134.4-yard-average improvement was the biggest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Saints ranked in the top-10 in many defensive categories, including sacks (fourth), pass defense (second), scoring defense (fourth), third down conversion percentage (ninth), touchdown passes surrendered (sixth), yards after the catch (second) and big passing plays allowed (fifth).

Under his tutelage in 2011, Dallas' team defense improved to 14th overall in the NFL and seventh against the run after finishing 23rd in the 2010 opponent net yardage rankings. In 2012, the Cowboys were one of only three teams in the NFL to have two players with 11 or more sacks. Cowboys opponents were held to a 43.9% third down conversion rate, ranked tenth in the NFL.

Before landing in Cleveland, Ryan spent five seasons as Oakland's coordinator. For his work in 2006, Ryan was named the USA Today All-Joe Coordinator of the Year. In that same season, the Raiders defense led the league in pass defense (150.8 ypg.) and ranked third in total defense (284.8 ypg).

Ryan spent four seasons (2000-03) as the linebackers coach for the New England Patriots. In his time with the Patriots, Ryan was a part of two Super Bowl championship teams – XXXVI and XXXVIII.

Ryan began his NFL coaching career in 1994 as the defensive backs coach under his father, Buddy, for the Arizona Cardinals. In his first season in Arizona, the Cardinals boasted the NFL's third ranked defense. The Cardinals led the league with 42 takeaways in 1995.

Following a one-year stint as defensive coordinator at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College (1996), Ryan was Oklahoma State's defensive coordinator from 1997-99 where the Cowboys' defense continually ranked among the best in the nation. He was named Coordinator of the Year by The Sporting News in 1997. In 1999, Oklahoma State ranked 10th in the nation in total defense, and in 1998 were second in the nation with 41 sacks.

Ryan entered the coaching ranks in 1987 as a graduate assistant with Western Kentucky. He assumed similar responsibilities at Ohio State in 1988. He then spent five seasons (1989-93) at Tennessee State where he coached running backs (1989-91), linebackers (1992) and the defensive line (1993).

PERSONAL

Ryan spent two years at outside linebacker with Southwestern Oklahoma State. Ryan's father, Buddy, coached in the NFL for 26 years, serving as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles and Arizona Cardinals. He was an assistant on three different teams to make the Super Bowl (New York Jets, Chicago, Minnesota), capturing championships with the Jets and the Bears.

BILLS 27, COLTS 14

September 13, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 70,319

The Buffalo Bills won their first game with new Head Coach Rex Ryan, and new starting quarterback Tyrod Taylor as they defeated the Indianapolis Colts by a score of 27-14. The Bills won their home opener at Ralph Wilson Stadium and move to 1-0 on the season.

The team was led by a phenomenal performance by Taylor as he passed for 195 yards and one touchdown turning in a 123.8 quarterback rating. His play was highlighted by a 51-yard touchdown pass to Percy Harvin to open the scoring as time expired at the end of the first quarter.

On the ground the Bills were just as dominant as the team turned in 147 yards on the ground. Rookie Karlos Williams scored a 26 yard touchdown on his first carry as a Bill to put the team up 17-0 going into the second half. The Bills weren't done on the ground yet as Boobie Dixon jumped over the line to pound home a one yard run to cap off the Bills scoring drive to open the second half and increase their lead to 24-0.

On the other side of the football the Bills were led by starting linebacker Nigel Bradham had team-highs with eight tackles, a sack, and two quarterback hits. The Bills defense capitalized on turnovers forcing two interceptions and recovering a muffed punt. Ronald Darby got his first interception as a Buffalo Bill and recorded two pass-defenses on the day.

Andrew Luck attempted to lead a second half comeback, but the Bills defense was too much as Aaron Williams picked Luck off in the Colts final drive. Luck finished the day 26 of 49 with 243 yards, two touchdowns, and two interceptions. The Colts could not capitalize on the Bills mental mistakes they made as they had 11 penalties in the game for 113 yards.

2015 REVIEW

PATRIOTS 40, BILLS 32

September 20, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 70,858

The Buffalo Bills attempted a fourth quarter comeback that came up short against the New England Patriots. Down 37-13 the Bills rallied back putting up 19 points in the fourth quarter, but a Tyrod Taylor interception on a tipped pass led to the game ending interception.

The Bills day was riddled with penalties for the second week in a row, once again incurring over 100 yards from yellow flags. Starting out on the first drive the Bills marched the ball down 80-yards down the field for a touchdown. The Bills then managed to give up 21 straight points to the Patriots as they took over the first half.

The Patriots were led by quarterback Tom Brady who managed to pick apart the Bills defense. Brady tallied 466 passing yards with three touchdowns as he completed 38 of his 59 passing attempts. He spread the ball around as well as nine different Patriots players had catches.

Tyrod Taylor led the Bills on offense, throwing for 242-yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions, while rushing for 43-yards and a touchdown.

On defense the Bills managed to recover two fumbles forced by Preston Brown and Jerry Hughes, while also recording two sacks. However, it wasn't enough to shut down the Patriots offense as they tallied 507-yards of total offense

BILLS 41, DOLPHINS 14

September 27, 2015 – Sun Life Stadium – 64,869

The Buffalo Bills bounced back after a loss in week two to win their first game on the road. The Bills put in a dominant performance on both sides of the ball, winning 41-14.

On defense the Bills were led by Preston Brown, as he had seven tackles on the day and two interceptions, and returned one for a touchdown. The Bills as a defense forced three interceptions in the first half and didn't allow the Dolphins to get on the board until mid-way through the third quarter. Ronald Darby also recorded his second interception of the season.

On offense Tyrod Taylor threw for three touchdowns for the second week in a row. Karlos Williams had his first 100-yard rushing game and scored a touchdown for the third week in a row. The Bills put up 428 yards on offense and did not allow a sack for the second time this year. The Bills dominated the first half as they scored 10 points in the final two minutes to go into halftime up 27-0.

The Dolphins defense did not have an answer for the Bills throughout the whole game as they allowed 41 points, and had no sacks or turnovers on the day. The Dolphins only scored twice, and failed to score twice in goal to go situations.

BILLS 10, GIANTS 24

October 4th, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 70,677

The Buffalo Bills dropped their second straight home game and fell to 2-2 on the season. Another day of penalties and the inability to finish on offense doomed the Bills.

The Bills for the third time this season had over 100 yards in penalties. The Bills gave the Giants seven first downs off of penalties, helping to continue multiple drives. The Bills also failed to score in the red zone on three separate occasions, turning the ball over on downs twice, and missing a 30-yard field goal.

The Giants managed to capitalize on a Devon Kennard interception early in the first half and never relinquished the lead from there. Eli Manning led the Giants offense behind his 212 yards passing and three touchdowns. On defense the Giants thrived from play of DE Kerry Wynn, who led the team with eight tackles, Devon Kennard, and Prince Amukamara who each forced a turnover.

The Bills offense struggled behind play of Tyrod Taylor who went 28 for 42 for 274 yards with one touchdown, and one interception. The Bills did produce their first 100-yard receiving game from play of Charles Clay who has nine receptions for 111 yards. Karlos Williams also extended his touchdown streak to four games, catching Taylor's 23-yard pass.

BILLS 14, TITANS 13

October 11th, 2015 – Nissan Stadium – 65,670

The Bills completed a fourth quarter comeback to win the game and improve to 3-2 on the season. The Bills managed to win behind strong defensive play.

The Bills offensive woes continued without the likes of Sammy Watkins, LeSean McCoy, and Karlos Williams. The Bills only managed 209 yards of total offense. Tyrod Taylor shook off a shaky first half and capped the comeback in the fourth quarter with a touchdown pass to Chris Hogan. Taylor led the team in rushing with 76 yards and one touchdown, had 109 yards passing, and even caught a pass for four yards.

The Titans offense struggled against the Bills defense as they only managed 276 yards. Marcus Mariota also led his team in rushing with 47 yards and threw for 187 yards. The rookie's effort was not enough to overcome a tough Buffalo defense.

Stephon Gilmore had 4 passes defensed and the game-sealing interception to lead the Bills defense. Corey Graham had a team-high 10 tackles. Mario and Kyle Williams also registered sacks in the game.

2015 REVIEW

BILLS 21, BENGALS 34

October 18th, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 69,593

The Bills dropped their third straight at home to move to 3-3 on the season. An inconsistent offense, numerous penalties, and poor red zone defense were some of the things to sink the Bills this week.

The Bills started off strong driving 80 yards on the opening possession to move out to an early 7-0 nothing lead. The Bengals however would quickly answer, taking the lead early in the second and never giving it back. Andy Dalton improved his Bengals to 6-0, with 243 yards and three touchdowns on the day.

The Bills saw some key players return from injury, and also lost some players to injury as well. Backup quarterback EJ Manuel threw the ball 42 times for 263, one touchdown, and one interception. LeSean McCoy back in action after missing two games as he rushed for 90 yards and one touchdown on 17 carries. Sammy Watkins also returned to catch a touchdown, but subsequently injured himself on the play and missed the second half.

The defense could not save the game for the Bills. They forced no turnovers, no sacks, and gave up four touchdowns on four red zone trips by the Bengals. Preston Brown led the Bills with nine total tackles.

The Bengals offense behind Andy Dalton produced 112 rushing yards and one touchdown, and Marvin Jones who had 95 yards receiving and one touchdown. The Bengals defense also performed well producing one interception, two sacks.

BILLS 31, JAGUARS 34

October 25th, 2015 – Wembley Stadium, 84,021

In their debut across the pond in London the Bills were unable to recover from the hole they put themselves in early in the game. The Bills lost their second straight game to fall to 3-4 on the season.

The Bills found themselves in trouble in the second quarter as the Jaguars scored four touchdowns in the quarter, and forced three turnovers. Two of the touchdowns came on a fumble return and an interception. The Jaguars other interception also led to another scoring drive as TJ Yeldon punched in a 28 yard run.

Despite being down 27-3 the Bills managed to turn things around and scored 28 unanswered points and take the lead. However the lead was short lived as the Jaguars scored on their next possession to take the regain lead and win the game.

The Bills offense was led by backup quarterback EJ Manuel who made his second start this season. Manuel had 298 yards passing on 24 completions with two touchdowns and two interceptions. The Bills also scored their longest touchdown of the season so far on a 58 yard strike from Manuel to Marcus Easley.

The offense also got some help from safety Corey Graham as he returned an interception for a touchdown. Graham also led the team in tackles with 9.

The Jaguars passing game struggled but connected at the right time as quarterback Blake Bortles went 13 of 29 for 182 yards two touchdowns and one interception. The run game was led by TJ Yeldon who rushed for a 116 yards, and becoming the first running back to rush for over a 100-yards against the Bills defense this season.

The Jaguars defense had a number of good plays. Telvin Smith led the team in tackles with nine, and had an interception returned for a touchdown.

BILLS 33, DOLPHINS 17

November 8th, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium, 70,214

The Buffalo Bills beat the Miami Dolphins to complete the season sweep and improve to 4-4 on the season.

The Bills took the lead on the Dolphins first offensive play on a botched play that resulted in a Ryan Tannehill fumble out of the back of the end zone for a safety. The Bills took the 2-0 lead and never looked back. The Bills managed to score four touchdowns, three longer than 30-yards, and won the game handily.

The Dolphins offense still managed to put up 397 yards of offense but failed to capitalize on important opportunities, the biggest of which was coming up empty in a goal to go situation at the end of the first half.

Sammy Watkins, Karlos Williams and Tyrod Taylor all came back from injury this week and provided a spark for the offense. Watkins had a career high 168 yards receiving and one touchdown. With both Karlos Williams and LeSean McCoy each turning in 100-yard rushing performances, it was the first time in Bills history the team had two 100-yard rushers and a 100-yard receiver in the same game. Tyrod Taylor also turned in a 11 for 12 performance for 181 yards and one touchdown.

The defense was led by the stand out play of Jerry Hughes who recorded two sacks, one tackle for a loss, two quarterback hits, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. Ronald Darby added a team-high 10 tackles with one tackle for a loss and one pass defensed.

BILLS 22, JETS 17

November 12th, 2015 – MetLife Stadium, 78,160

The Buffalo Bills won their fifth game of the season to improve to 5-4 in Head Coach Rex Ryan's return to the Meadowlands. The Bills win was also their first road prime time win in 14 years.

Turnovers helped the Bills secure their third road win of the season, as they forced two interceptions and two fumbles, one of which was returned for a touchdown. The Bills also managed to stop the Jets on two key fourth down plays to keep the Jets from putting points on the board.

The defense was led by the standout play of safety Bacarri Rambo. Rambo forced two fumbles and had the game sealing interception to stop the Jets last drive. He also had two tackles, and one pass defended. Veteran safety Corey Graham also had an interception, and rookie Ronald Darby led the team in pass defended with three. Duke Williams returned a special teams fumble for a touchdown to increase the Bills led to six and the Bills never looked back.

The Bills scored 22 straight after conceding the first points of the game to the Jets. The Jets attempted comeback fell short despite scoring the game's final 14 points failing to punch the ball into the end zone after starting a drive at the Bills 13 yard line. The Jets offense was led by the play of former Bills quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick who went 15 of 34 for 193 yards, with two touchdowns and two interceptions. On the ground Chris Ivory managed 99 yards on 18 carries, but lost a costly fumble.

The Buffalo offense was led by the play of LeSean McCoy who for the second straight game rushed for 112 yards. McCoy also contributed 47 yards receiving, generating 159 of the Bills 280 yards of offense. Karlos Williams scored the team's lone offensive touchdown. With the touchdown William's became the second player in NFL history to score a touchdown in his first six games.

BILLS 13, PATRIOTS 20

November 23rd, 2015 – Gillette Stadium, 66,829

The Buffalo Bills lost on Monday night to bring their season record to 5-5. It was the Bills second loss to the Patriots this season.

Both offenses seemed to struggle throughout the game as there were only three touchdowns between the teams. Buffalo's first matchup of the season with New England feature nine.

The Patriots were led on offense by Tom Brady who still managed to throw for 277 yards and one touchdown with one interception. His favorite target of the night before he left with an injury, was Danny Amendola, who finished the night with 117 yards. The Patriots running back James White scored with both of his team's touchdowns one each by receiving and rushing.

Buffalo's offense was again led up by the standout play of LeSean McCoy who finished with over 100 yards from scrimmage for the fourth consecutive game and had a 27 yard rushing touchdown. Quarterback Tyrod Taylor seemed to struggle with a shoulder injury at the end of the game but managed to finish with 233 yards passing.

The Bills defense managed to frustrate Tom Brady getting pressure on him throughout the night, despite finishing with only one sack. Stephon Gilmore had the Bills only turnover on defense as he picked off Brady in the fourth quarter. The Bills however were unable to convert the turnover into points.

Special teams also played a larger role in the game as Ledois Mckelvin fumbled a ball during a punt return and gave the Patriots the ball on the Bills 30 yard line. After the turnover the Patriots increased their lead to 10.

BILLS 22, CHIEFS 30

November 29th, 2015 – Arrowhead Stadium, 72,493

The Buffalo Bills lost their second straight game to move to 5-6 on the season. A hot start in the first half was not enough as the Bills to hold on to the lead.

The Bills came out of the gate strong, as Sammy Watkins six times for 158 yards and two touchdowns in the first half. Watkins, however, did not have another catch in the game as the Bills offense seemed to stall out in the second half, scoring just six points after the break. LeSean McCoy also reached 10,000 career scrimmage yards in the game.

The Buffalo defense gave up some long throws, including a 41 yard touchdown to Jeremy Maclin. Chiefs running back Spencer Ware to rush for over 100 yards. Marcell Dareus led the Bills with six tackles, one for a loss. Stephon Gilmore, Ronald Darby, and Bacarri Rambo all had one pass defended.

The Chiefs offense was led by Maclin, Alex Smith and Ware who carried the ball 19 times for 114 yards and a touchdown. Maclin brought in nine receptions for 160 yards and a touchdown, and Smith had 255 yards passing with two touchdowns and a 112.5 passer rating.

Turnovers seemingly doomed the Bills as the Chiefs defense forced two fumbles. One stopped the Bills as they were nearing field goal territory and the other the Chiefs turned into three points.

BILLS 30, TEXANS 21

December 6th, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium, 68,544

The Buffalo Bills won in their return to the Ralph after a three game road trip. In their match up against the Houston Texans the Bills pulled out a win after breaking the tie on a Charles Clay touchdown with less than two minutes remaining. The game finished with a score of 30-21 as the Bills improved to 6-6 on the season.

The running game for the Bills started out hot in the first half as the team totaled 134 yards and one touchdown on the ground. Tyrod Taylor also connected through the air to Clay, Robert Woods and Sammy Watkins for touchdowns. Watkins only pulled in three receptions on the day, however two of them were for 53 yards. Watkins finished with a 109 yards receiving on the day. The offense struggled in the second half, not scoring until the 1:53 remained in the fourth quarter to regain the lead.

The Texans defense failed to keep up their great play of late as the Bills found a way to connect on big plays. J.J. Watt finished with only four tackles, one for a loss. Jadeveon Clowney had the Texans lone sack, and LB John Simon and Kareem Jackson each had a team-high six tackles.

The Texans offense was led by the play of the Brain Hoyer, who threw for 293 yards and three touchdowns. Hoyer was able to spread the ball around effectively as nine players caught a pass. Their rushing attack also put up 126 yards on the ground, to help Houston exceed 400 yards of total offense. The Texans, however, only found in the end zone three times.

The Bills defense, struggling through injuries, still managed two sacks and an interception. The defense was led by Preston Brown's nine tackles. The Bills did lose Stephon Gilmore in the game to a shoulder injury in the third quarter. WR Marcus Easley sealed the game as time expired with an interception.

The Buffalo Bills lost to the Philadelphia Eagles to move to 6-7 on the season. In a close game the Bills could not manage to complete the comeback in the second half.

The Bills offense played catch up for most of the game as the Bills never held the lead. Tyrod Taylor led the offense, throwing for 268 yards and a 47 yard touchdown to Sammy Watkins, Taylor added 53 yards on the ground. Robert Woods went over 100 yards receiving for the first time this season. It wasn't enough, as the Bills' final drive ended with an interception. LeSean McCoy had over 100 yards from scrimmage for his seventh consecutive game.

The Eagles offense managed to capitalize on a Bills turnover on special teams early in the second quarter, and it proved to be the difference in the game. The Eagles three headed run game – featuring Darren Sproles, Ryan Mathews, and DeMarco Murray – managed 113 yards. Quarterback Sam Bradford also added 247 yards through the air with one touchdown and an interception. Eagles tight end Zac Ertz led the way for the receiving corps putting up 98 yards, and Nelson Agholor scored on a 53-yard catch.

The Bills defense featured an interception by Leodis McKelvin and a sack by Mario Williams but those plays alone weren't enough. Corey Graham once again led the team with nine tackles, while the defense also managed to have seven quarterback hits and five passes defended.

Buffalo was plagued again by costly penalties, incurring 15. One gave the Eagles a first down, but many offensive gains were called back by flags.

2015 REVIEW

BILLS 16, COWBOYS 6

December 27th, 2015 – Ralph Wilson Stadium, 70,172

With the win over the Dallas Cowboys the Buffalo Bills improved to 7-8 on the season. The Bills were led by strong defensive play as the Bills held Dallas to only a pair of field goals, and no second-half points.

The Bills offensive mustered only three scoring drives, but were able to score a key touchdown late in the game on a 50-yard rush by Mike Gillislee. The Bills offense continued to show off the best rushing attack in the league even without Pro Bowler LeSean McCoy. Buffalo gained 236 ground yards, and Tyrod Taylor completed 13 of 18 passes for 179 yards, while also adding 67 yards on the ground.

The Bills defense stepped up big in limiting the Cowboys to only six points throughout the game. In his first start, linebacker AJ Tarpley came out strong with his first career interception and forced fumble. Corey Graham once again led the team in tackles with 11. Leodis McKelvin stepped up in place of the injured starting cornerbacks Ronald Darby and Stephon Gilmore and recorded two tackles and three passes defended.

Cowboys quarterback Kellen Moore, in his first career start, could not find the end zone and only completed 13 of his 31 pass attempts for 186 yards. Darren McFadden's 99 yard rushing yards also weren't enough, as Dallas was kept out of the end zone despite logging over 300 yards of offense. Cowboys kicker Dan Bailey also missed a 50 yard field goal for only his second missed kick of the season.

BILLS 22, JETS 17

January 3rd, 2016 – Ralph Wilson Stadium, 68,670

The Buffalo Bills played the role of spoiler well this weekend as they upset the New York Jets and stopped them from making the playoffs. With the win in the season finale the Bills improved to 8-8 and beat their former starting quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick and head coach Chan Gailey in their first return to Buffalo.

The Bills never lost the lead once they took it in the first quarter on an 18 yard Tyrod Taylor scramble that found the end zone. The Jets mounted a comeback, getting to within two points late in the third quarter. Fitzpatrick, however, threw interceptions on all three fourth-quarter drives.

The Bills offense continued their ground and pound style as they rushed the ball 43 times for 115 yards, Tyrod Taylor completed 18 of 28 for 182 yards. With that ball control the Bills controlled the time of possession, only allowing the Jets offense on the field for 20:47. Sammy Watkins was also pivotal, totaling 136 receiving yards to send him over 1,000 for the season despite playing in only 13 games.

The Bills defense stepped up when it mattered in the fourth quarter, as Leodis McKelvin, Manny Lawson, and A.J. Tarpley each notched a pickoff. Buffalo held the Jets to 17 points for the second time this season, and frustrated Fitzpatrick with 10 passes defensed, one sack and five quarterback hits.

The Jets offense still managed to fit the ball into Brandon Marshall as he went over a 100 yards receiving and had a touchdown. His counterpart Eric Decker caught the other touchdown for the Jets, a 21 yard strike from Ryan Fitzpatrick. The Jets could not find a way to continue their run game as they played catch up but still managed to carry the ball 17 times for 122 yards.

BILLS TO RETIRE HALL OF FAME DE BRUCE SMITH'S NO. 78

The Buffalo Bills announced on May 11 that the team will retire defensive end Bruce Smith's No. 78 jersey when the Bills host the New York Jets in primetime on Thursday Night Football for the team's Week Two home opener on September 15.

Smith's No. 78 jersey will join Jim Kelly's No. 12, which was retired in 2001, as the only jersey numbers to be retired in franchise history.

Bills Managing Partner and President Russ Brandon said, "We are announcing today that we will be honoring Bruce Smith, one of the greatest players in Bills history, during the Thursday night home opener in a special halftime ceremony in which we will retire his jersey number. On behalf of Terry and Kim Pegula and the entire Bills organization, we feel this is a tremendous opportunity to honor Bruce and his Hall of Fame career. We believe it's going to be a great night for Bruce, his family and Bills fans everywhere."

The NFL's all-time sack leader with 200 career sacks, Smith was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009 after an illustrious 19-year career—15 of which were spent with the Bills. Smith holds a multitude of different Bills records, including the team's most career sacks (171.0) and sacks in a season (19.0 in 1990). In addition to being selected to a team-record 11 Pro Bowls, Smith's dominance on the field culminated with his role in helping lead the Bills to four consecutive Super Bowls and being named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996.

Smith originally became the seventh Bill to ever wear the No. 78 when he was selected by the Buffalo Bills with the number one overall pick of the 1985 NFL Draft after his collegiate career at Virginia Tech. Since Smith's departure from Buffalo in 1999, no Bill has worn the No. 78.

Bill Polian
INDUCTED 2015
GENERAL MANAGER

One of the most accomplished front office executives in NFL history, Bill Polian helped build multiple successful franchises during his 24 years as a general manager. In all, his teams made 17 playoff trips, eight conference championship games and five Super Bowl appearances, including winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts.

Widely praised as both a top talent evaluator and influential executive, Polian is the first six-time recipient of the NFL Executive of the Year award from The Sporting News and during his time in Buffalo he redesigned the franchise from a last place team in 1985 to the forefront of the league with appearances in Super Bowl XXV, Super Bowl XXVI, Super Bowl XXVII and Super Bowl

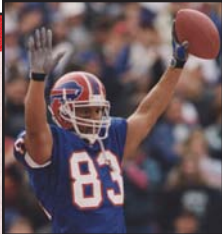

XXVIII. Working alongside Owner Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and Head Coach Marv Levy, Polian's eye for talent and negotiating prowess brought a bevy of outstanding players to Buffalo. In fact, of the 47 Bills at the first two Super Bowls, 45 came to Buffalo during Polian's tenure.

His acquisitions included the 1986 signing of QB Jim Kelly from the USFL and the 1987 trade for LB Cornelius Bennett. Additional draft picks Polian made in Buffalo included DE Bruce Smith, OT Will Wolford, RB Thurman Thomas and WR Andre Reed. He built a team that would reverse the Bills record from 8-40 from 1984-86 to a 58-22 mark from 1988-92. During his time in Buffalo, 13 Bills drafted or obtained by Polian made a total of 49 Pro Bowl appearances. In all, Polian brought in five players who would end up in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas), as well as Head Coach Marv Levy.

WIDE RECEIVER

Andre Reed ended his 16-year career as the most accomplished wide receiver to ever play for the Buffalo Bills. The 6-2, 190-pound Kutztown product led the Bills in receiving from 1986 to 1992 and then again in 1994, 1996 and 1997 on his way to racking up the Bills' career receiving records for receptions (941) and receiving yards (13,095).

After being selected by Buffalo with the team's first choice in the fourth round of the 1985 NFL Draft, Reed emerged as one of the elite wideouts in the league during the 1989 season when he caught 88 passes for 1,312 yards and nine touchdowns. Reed would go on to provide a dynamic presence on all four of the Bills' AFC Championship teams—leading the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns during the four-year run.

A seven-time Pro Bowler, Reed recorded a franchise record 36 100-yard receiving games (regular season) as a Bill. Reed also ranks as the franchise leader in games played with 221 and is tied with Bruce Smith as the franchise's all-time leaders in years of service with 15 seasons.

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he was the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four straight Super Bowls.

He was honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century, The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986. Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships.

Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996. Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5.

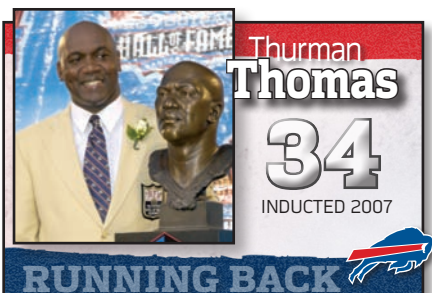

He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 16th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Bills' all-time sack leader with 171.

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack.

The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage.

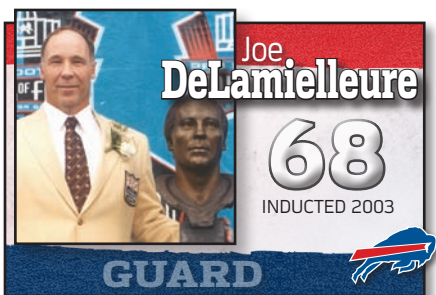

Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-American and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, DeLamielleure played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980.

He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills' respected front wall. Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

James
Lofton
80

INDUCTED 2003

WIDE RECEIVER

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with the Green Bay Packers, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at the age of 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- First player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

Jim
Kelly

INDUCTED 2002

QUARTERBACK

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and 26 times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses.

In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993

Billy Shaw

INDUCTED 1999

GUARD

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a first-team All-AFL selection five times (1962-66) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969.

He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965
- Named All-AFL five times (1962-1966)
- First player to spend entire career in the AFL to be elected to the Hall of Fame

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career.

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972-76. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

RALPH C. WILSON, JR. STATUE

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of Ralph Wilson Stadium in Founder's Plaza.

Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson.

Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of Ralph Wilson Stadium.

The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

HOW THE BILLS GOT THEIR NAME

Following the 1946 season, in an effort to generate more fan interest and distinguish the football team from the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams, which also bore the name "Bisons," the team ran a contest to select a new name. Over 4,500 entries were submitted, and "the Bills" won out over "Bullets," "Nickels" and "Blue Devils." Several contestants suggested the winning name, but James F. Dyson was named the winner of the $500 prize based on his essay comparing the team to a band of "Buffalo Bills." He wrote that, while the legendary Indian Scout William "Buffalo Bill" Cody helped trailblaze the American Frontier, the football team (owned by the president of Frontier Oil) was opening a new frontier in Buffalo sports.

HOME FIELD HISTORY

- When the Buffalo Bills began play in 1960, their home venue was War Memorial Stadium. Built in 1936, the “Rockpile” was a 36,500-seat facility located in Buffalo at Jefferson and Best streets. In 1965, the open air, natural grass facility was expanded by adding an upper deck to increase capacity to 46,206.
- Years of extreme weather and the popularity of the Bills led to the creation of a larger facility. A 113-acre tract of land approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo was selected and groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted in Orchard Park on April 4, 1972 for the new football complex. To form the lower level of the stadium, more than 370,000 feet of shale were removed – putting the field 50 feet below ground level. Construction was completed in slightly over 14 months and on August 17, 1973, the stadium was officially opened as the Bills played host to the Washington Redskins.
- Since the stadium’s original construction, the facility has seen many changes. In 1984, the stadium’s capacity was increased to 80,290 with the addition of 16 executive suites on the top floor of the administration building. Eight years later, 24 more suites were constructed in the west end zone and shared restrooms were added to the original suites. The Red Zone and Goal Line indoor clubs were added in 1994, offering fans a comfortable atmosphere as each of the two blocks of 500 seats are enclosed in glass. Also in 1994, 14 new suites were added, bringing the grand total to 88 luxury boxes. The 1994 expansion project also brought the team the largest JumboTron in the United States. This mammoth videoboard measured 31.5 feet high by 41.5 feet wide. Some of the capabilities of the videoboard include full-color instant replays, live action shots, crowd shots, out-of-town highlights, animations and various in-stadium shots from cameras exclusive to videoboard usage. In addition, a black and white Daktronics Scoreboard matrix system designed to complement the Sony JumboTron was installed.
- In 1999 crews completed a seven-month stadium overhaul that included constructing 76 brand-new dugout suites and two new enclosed club sections each containing 500 seats. Fans in the dugout suites watch the action just 40 rows from the field. In addition, the Bills replaced 6,800 seats in the sideline club sections with revolutionary contoured heated seats, the first of their kind in North America. Renovations also included four new restroom towers, upgraded stadium lighting and a state-of-the-art sound system.
- In 2007, the Bills introduced a new Mitsubishi high definition LED video display scoreboard measuring 33.5 feet by 82.8 feet. The accompanied new HD Digital Screen Controller allowed for simultaneous display of up to three multiple images (or one full screen image). This installation was only the second true high definition display in the NFL, largely as a result of the integral HD Processor used to produce the necessary lines of resolution (1080), to accurately depict an HD image. In addition, the Bills installed over 1,000 feet of Mitsubishi Diamond Vision LED Ribbon Boards on the fascia of the bowl seating areas. The traditional scoring system is encompassed within this state-of-the-art display along with dynamic sponsor ads, player/team statistics and fan prompts.
- In 2011, the team installed a new playing surface, A-Turf Titan. It is the top synthetic turf system available and is noted as the industry’s top performing system by providing the perfect balance of traction, foot release and unparalleled durability.

STADIUM RENOVATIONS

- In 2013, a $130 million construction project was unveiled that includes renovations and improvements to Ralph Wilson Stadium. Work also includes new technology implementation, a new west end plaza that is inclusive of a new team store and enhanced gate entries, renovated and expanded concessions, restrooms and a training facility. Construction began in May 2013 and was completed at the start of the 2014 season.

Kelso enters his 11th season as the color analyst for the Buffalo Bills Radio Network. I think we've established ourselves as the 'go-to' source of information and entertainment about the Bills on the radio," said Murphy. "I love interacting with Bills fans from Western New York and all over the continent, and I look forward to hearing from more of them in the upcoming season."
