Terry and Kim Pegula share a love for the city of Buffalo that is immeasurable and that passion along with their strong desire for success have had a dramatic impact on the Western New York region. They have provided much-needed stability and a wealth of resources to their teams and their city, while serving as a driving force behind the revitalization of the footprint of Buffalo.

Under the leadership, experience and vision of the Pegulas, the Bills along with their other business entities, constantly strive to innovate in order to build the most competitive organizations on and off the field.

EARLY BEGINNINGS

aised in Carbondale, PA, a coal mining town, Terry's father worked as a miner, truck driver and mechanic, while both of his grandfathers were miners. Terry attended Scranton Preparatory School and then Penn State University as a math major. But in order to stay in school, he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975 and started his Western New York roots.

In 1983 he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years Terry built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010 Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today.

Kim's path to becoming the Pegula Sports & Entertainment CEO and owner of the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres is equally, if not more unlikely than Terry's-beginning with her being abandoned on the streets of Seoul, South Korea at the age of five before being adopted by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr.

Following her adoption, Kim grew up in Fairport, a suburb of Rochester, NY. She attended Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications.

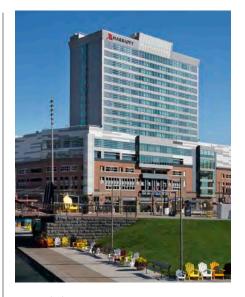

After meeting Terry, Kim opted to put a broadcasting career on hold and began her professional career with East Resources in 1991–where she stayed involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

"IT STARTED WITH THE GRASS"

Back in 1983, Terry told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., "If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I'm going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day." Almost 30 years later, Terry's dream came to fruition on February 22, 2011.

Upon the acquisition of the Sabres, Terry and Kim wasted no time putting their touch on the team–launching a series of renovations to the Sabres facilities, including a complete overhaul of the team's locker room.

In a recent feature with NFL Network's Mike Silver, Kim told the story of how early on in the Pegula's tenure as owners of the Sabres they realized the impact that small initiatives could have on Buffalo.

instead choosing to pursue turning Buffalo into 'Hockey Heaven.'

In August 2012, the Pegulas plan for HARBORCENTER was announced. A multipurpose facility that sits directly across from KeyBank Center, HARBORCENTER is anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks that are used.

"AND ONCE WE PUT THAT GRASS IN, IT CHANGED THE MINDSET OF THAT COMMUNITY, AND YOU STARTED SEEING PEOPLE COME DOWN THERE."

As Kim tells the story, "Terry looked out the window [of his Sabres office], and at that time, it was like dirt and gravel, and he said, 'Hey, let's just put in some grass at least.' And so we worked with the city, and Terry said, 'I'll pay for the grass.' And once we put that grass in, it changed the mindset of that community, and you started seeing people come down there. And from that point on, it was a snowball effect. We have concerts down there now. And it has really been a great catalyst to say, 'It's OK to invest in Buffalo.'"

Terry and Kim did not let their vision be limited to just that patch of grass though, year-round by a variety of USA and international hockey teams and leagues.

In addition to the hockey facilities, HARBORCENTER includes (716), an upscale, sports-themed bar and restaurant, a one-of-a-kind Tim Hortons location that pays homage to the former Sabres player, retail stores including the healthy, quick-service restaurant Healthy Scratch, a parking structure and a 200-room, full-service Marriott hotel.

Terry and Kim's efforts and vision quickly began to pay dividends as Buffalo was chosen to be the host city of the 2016 NHL Draft and has been chosen as the site of the 2018 World Junior Ice Hockey Championships—which will include an outdoor matchup between Team USA and Team Canada at New Era Field. These events have enabled HARBORCENTER to attract approximately 100,000 visitors per year since 2014.

ONE BUFFALO

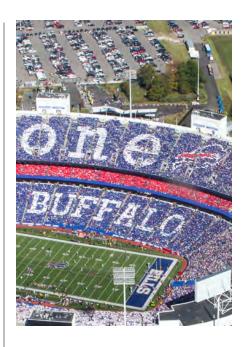

A lready deeply ingrained in Buffalo via ownership of the Sabres, the Pegulas began to set their sights on taking yet another step in 2014.

With the possibility of being chosen as owners of the Buffalo Bills on the horizon, the Pegulas expanded their business interests in the summer of 2014 by forming Pegula Sports & Entertainmentnaming Kim as CEO.

PSE was designed to be and currently functions as a multifaceted parent company of the Pegula's different companies that brings together the individual resources, capabilities, and talents of each entity to create a cohesive and sustainable brand that together represents the Pegula family's interest.

"ONE TEAM; ONE GOAL;
ONE COMMUNITY;
ONE FAMILY;
ONE BUFFALO."

Following the creation of PSE, on Wednesday, October 8, 2014, Terry and Kim, who lived in Buffalo during the Bills' championship years in the 1990s, were voted in unanimously as only the second owners in the Buffalo Bills' franchise history.

Upon the Pegula's purchase of the Bills in 2014, Kim led the push to develop a campaign that could bring the community together, unite our sports teams and promote our city.

Kim's vision of creating a way to show pride in being part of the city of Buffalo and a Western New York regional resurgence culminated in a campaign called One Buffalo.

"One Buffalo provides a link between Bills fans, Sabres fans, and the city of Buffalo," said Kim. "We are all moving in the same direction: One Team; One Goal; One Community; One Family; One Buffalo. It is our goal to continue to contribute to the resurgence of Western New York, and we are very optimistic about the future. We are proud to be able to play a role in our city's redevelopment at a time when our community has never been closer together."

A NEW ERA

wo years after cementing the NFL's spot in Buffalo with their purchase of the Bills, the Pegulas continued their efforts to revitalize the Western New York region by pairing with the Buffalo-based company New Era Cap to rename the Bills home New Fra Field.

"It was important to the Bills organization that a stadium naming rights agreement made sense. In joining New Era today for this landmark announcement, we have a partner that makes sense on so many levels," said Terry. "New Era is a company recognized for its integrity and quality on a global platform, while at the same time, representing the very fabric of Western New York. In partnering with our organization and the opportunities associated with the NFL brand, we feel that this agreement showcases two of the more recognized local brands not only for the benefit of our two franchises, but one that reflects well on our entire community."

In addition to being amongst the leaders in the WNY revitalization, Kim has prided herself on being amongst the leaders in the sports and entertainment industry in terms of finding ways to improve and modernize the fan experience. Kim's vision and efforts led to the launch of My One Buffalo—a mobile application that provides fans with an opportunity to customize their fan experience while rooting for the Bills and Sabres.

The mobile app, which includes features from mobile ticketing to customized fan offers and alerts, was born from Kim challenging employees to transform the game day fan experience.

Despite being relatively new to the NFL ranks, the positive momentum that the Pegulas have been building for the league did not take long to be recognized as in February 2016 Terry and Kim were honored with the prestigious Tank Younger Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance.

Given to persons who display outstanding work on and off the field in helping to level the playing field in the NFL, the Pegulas were fitting honorees in the wake of the promotion of Kathryn Smith, the first full-time female NFL coach.

Terry and Kim's NFL footprint can also be seen by the league boards that they have each been selected to-including Terry on the NFL's Health and Safety committee and Kim on the NFL Foundation board and the Super Bowl & Special Events Committee.

The impact Terry and Kim have had on Buffalo in addition to the sports and entertainment world began in 2011 and has been gaining steam ever-since, gaining a wide array of plaudit—including tremendous praise from Dallas Cowboys owner and 2017 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Jerry Jones.

"I think they walked in the room as top-10 NFL owners, maybe top-five," said Jones. "You can just see how they're in step -truly joined at the hip -- and to me, that's why they're going to continue to be great NFL owners for a long, long time. You've got that combination of entrepreneurship, passion and some serious imagination about what they want their product to be, and how it can benefit fans. And they're such a great team -- he has that pragmatic engineering background, and she has exceptional people skills, and they're both incredibly smart."

Terry and Kim have five children:

Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Their younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were born in Buffalo.

GIVING BACK

n September 17, 2010 Terry and Kim donated $88 million to Penn State University -- the largest private gift in the history of the school -- to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena and a world-class practice facility, to help establish an NCAA Division I men's hockey program. The Pegulas announced in 2012 they would increase their donation to the Nittany Lion hockey program to $102 million to allow for the endowment of student athlete scholarships.

Thanks to their generosity, Penn State has been able to add both men's and women's varsity hockey teams. Pegula Ice Arena, which opened in 2013 and enjoyed a sold-out 2013-14 season, includes two ice sheets and serves as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it is also used for a broad range of campus and community activities. In 2017, Penn State hockey won the Big Ten Championship and earned their first NCAA Tournament berth.

In 2011 the Pegulas pledged $12 million for the construction of a new athletic center on the campus of Houghton College, Kim's alma mater. The second-largest gift in school history allowed Houghton to transition to NCAA Division III athletics.

The Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex formally opened on October 4, 2014. The project included the construction of both a new baseball and softball stadium, resurfacing of Burke Field (a multi-sport competition field), and the construction of an 115,000-square-foot fieldhouse that will enable the college and region to host year-round athletic competitions. The fieldhouse features an eight lane, 200-meter regulation size track, five tennis courts, cardio fitness center, weight lifting room, MVP conference room, commercial kitchen and concessions, locker-room facilities, and office space. The facility provides dedicated practice space for outdoor sports over the winter and during inclement weather and also has the ability to host major concerts and events with a maximum capacity of more than 6,000 people.

A s the Managing Partner and President of the Buffalo Bills, Buffalo Sabres and Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE), Russ Brandon oversees all aspects of the day-to-day business and administrative operations of those three entities.

A native of East Syracuse, NY and a graduate of St. John Fisher College in Rochester, Brandon is a driving force in generating growth and synergy among the Bills, Sabres and PSE. His work ethic and passion for success has earned him the status as one of the most influential figures in professional sports since joining the Bills in 1997.

His leadership and tireless efforts with the Bills in improving the team's business formula, in the renovation of the team's facilities, and in the negotiation of stadium lease agreements with the state and county in 1999 and 2013 played a vital role in allowing the franchise to be sold from the Wilson family to the Pegula family, and most importantly, to remain in Buffalo.

Brandon not only facilitated the sale of the Bills in 2014, but he also aided the Pegulas as they transitioned into their roles as NFL owners. His value was recognized early on by the new owners as they named him President and Alternate Governor of the Sabres in 2015 and COO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment in 2016.

Under his guidance during recent years, Buffalo has hosted several major sporting events including the NHL Draft, the NHL Scouting Combine, the NCAA Basketball Tournament as well as numerous concerts at both the Kev Bank Center and New Era Field. Brandon also facilitated agreements to host the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championships in 2017, the NCAA Frozen Four in 2019 and the first and second rounds of the NCAA Basketball Tournament again in 2022. These events, along with the yearround activity at HARBORCENTER, have served as an economic engine for the community.

Brandon also played a key role in negotiating a stadium naming rights deal in 2016 with Buffalo-based New Era, the official on-field cap of the National Football League.

His strong business acumen is also known beyond Western New York as he was appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in 2011 to the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, which is responsible for the oversight of various businesses of the league, including consumer products, sponsorship and marketing.

Brandon has earned several promotions throughout his tenure with the Bills. He joined the organization in 1997 as Executive Director of Business Development and Marketing. In 1999, he became the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing and held that post until 2006, when he was promoted to Executive Vice President of Business Operations. Brandon was then named Chief Operating Officer in 2008 with the title of General Manager added in 2009. He was promoted to Chief Executive Officer in 2010 before being ultimately named President and CEO in 2013.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the Bills regionalization plan by relocating training camp to St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, NY. The successful partnership with the school was extended in 2016. Brandon began his sports business career as a member of the Rochester Red Wings (then Triple A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) while serving in many capacities, including assistant general manager. He went to work for the Florida Marlins from 1993 until joining the Bills in 1997.

Brandon is a board member of the Buffalo Bills Foundation and the Buffalo Sabres Foundation. He is a member of the Advisory Board for the David Falk School of Sport at Syracuse University, a member of the Board of Trustees at St. John Fisher College and serves on the board of Buffalo Niagara Partnership. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees for the New York State Troopers Signal 30 Benefit Fund.

Brandon was a four-year letterman in baseball and football at St. John Fisher College and graduated with a degree in communications. He and his wife Amy have two sons, RJ and Jack, and a daughter, Grace. The family has a Silver Lab named Lola. They reside in Williamsville. NY.

Prandon Beane was named General Manager of the Buffalo Bills on May 9, 2017. He joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers - including the last two seasons as the team's assistant general manager (2015-16). Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships

"During our search for a new General Manager, Brandon stood out to Kim and I as he embodies the type of leader and type of person we want in our organization," said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "Brandon excelled in a variety of roles for a Panthers team that has consistently competed at a highlevel in this league. We feel his vast understanding and experience in many facets of football operations will be invaluable to our club moving forward. We also believe his vision for the Buffalo Bills combined with his detailed approach will help build a foundation for sustained success."

Beane, who became the 13th general manager in Bills franchise history, gained valuable experience in many areas of the Panthers football operations. Working with former Panthers General Manager

Dave Gettleman and Head Coach Ron Rivera, Beane played a vital role in constructing the Panthers past six draft boards, has evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

WE ALSO BELIEVE HIS VISION FOR THE BUFFALO BILLS COMBINED WITH HIS DETAILED APPROACH WILL HELP BUILD A FOUNDATION FOR SUSTAINED SUCCESS.

-- BILLS OWNER TERRY PEGULA

Beane also worked closely with current Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott in Carolina, where McDermott served as defensive coordinator from 2011-16.

In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season. Carolina finished out the season with a 6-4 record under Beane's watch.

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department before moving on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with Carolina before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in Orchard Park, NY. The family has two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. He enjoys golf, running (he finished a marathon in Wilmington, NC in 2010), racquetball and basketball.

on January 11 2017, the Buffalo Bills named Sean McDermott the 20th head coach in franchise history. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers where he developed a top-10 defense in four of his six seasons in charge.

Over the past six seasons, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), third in turnovers forced (169), sixth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.3), ninth in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1). In his time in Carolina, McDermott helped the Panthers to three division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2016, McDermott's defense put up impressive numbers in multiple categories. Despite not having any player with over 10.0 sacks, the Panthers finished second in the NFL in sacks (47). Carolina also finished second in red zone defense (43.64%) and sixth in run defense (91.6).

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way for the Panthers' 15-1 regular season and run to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers ranked second in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.9), sixth in scoring defense (19.3) and total defense (322.9). The defense led the league in interceptions (24), takeaways (39), points off turnovers (148) and turnover differential (+20) and tied a franchise record with four interception return touchdowns. Four of McDermott's defenders - linebackers Thomas Davis and Luke Kuechly, cornerback Josh Norman and defensive tackle Kawann Short - were named to the Pro Bowl and earned All-Pro honors.

IN HIS TIME IN CAROLINA, MCDERMOTT HELPED THE PANTHERS TO
THREE DIVISION TITLES AND A TRIP
TO SUPER BOWL 50.

In 2013, McDermott was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year when his unit ranked second in total defense (301.3). The Panthers also led the league in sacks (60) while finishing second in scoring defense (15.1). The defense helped propel Carolina to a 12-4 record, an NFC South title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. In allowing the franchise's fewest points since 1996, the defense set a team record with an NFL-low 21 touchdowns allowed.

McDermott came to Carolina following 12 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He spent his two seasons in Philadelphia as defensive coordinator, helping the Eagles to the playoffs in each of those seasons. In 2010. McDermott led one of the league's youngest defenses to top 10 rankings in takeaways and sacks. In his first season overseeing the Eagles' defense in 2009, McDermott was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly after his unit ranked third in the NFL with 38 takeaways and 44 sacks.

McDermott coached the secondary and linebackers before becoming defensive coordinator, learning under the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles' legendary defensive coordinator.

In 2007, McDermott took over the linebackers after serving as the secondary/safeties coach from 2004-06. Brian Dawkins was a Pro Bowler all three seasons, and fellow safety Michael Lewis joined him in 2004.

McDermott worked as the team's assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and as the defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, assisting with linebackers. He joined the organization in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

An All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He and his wife Jamie, have three children.

A TRANSFORMER

Throughout his NFL career Lorenzo Alexander has had to adapt. Alexander entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent 300-pound defensive linemen. At one point he was asked to play offensive line. After stints in Carolina and Baltimore his first two years, he found a home in Washington in 2006 and made his name as a special teams standout earning a Pro Bowl in 2007. But his full transformation to finding a regular defensive position was not complete until he lost nearly 70 pounds in 2009. Redskins linebacker London Fletcher served as Alexander's mentor during this stage in his career. "In one offseason he dropped a good 50 pounds or so," Fletcher recalled. "Losing that weight unleashed that athleticism that was hampered by all that extra weight. That helped him play better on the football field."

In 2016, Alexander finally produced his breakout defensive season. He was the first NFL player to start the season with a seven-game sack streak since Jared Allen in 2011. He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month in October. He earned his second career Pro Bowl bid after finishing third in the NFL with 12.5 sacks and won Pro Bowl MVP honors.

COMING UP ACES

Everywhere Lorenzo Alexander plays, he becomes a community standout. Alexander established the ACES Foundation where his mission is to support youth through emphasizing accountability, taking pride in the community, striving for educational excellence while promoting a healthy mind, body and spirit through sports. This offseason, Alexander made numerous school visits in Western New York, hosted a celebrity bowling party in Northern Virginia, and a football camp in his hometown of Oakland. He stresses the same message when speaking to young people. "It's always about – character," said Alexander.

"Being a great person, taking care of your classmates, your community and yourself and staying healthy – all the things you want to emphasize with kids. I emphasize with my own children."

PERSONAL

Lorenzo and his wife Majanique are parents to two daughters, Vanessa and Zoie, and two sons, Mason and Myles. Alexander graduated from Cal with a degree in

Legal Studies and attended
St. Mary's High School in Berkeley where he was on the school's 2001 state championship basketball team. He endorses Nike and TruSox and received the Athletes in Action Call to Courage award in March 2017.

Growing up in rural Sweetwater, TX,
Banyard is no stranger to rattlesnakes and, in fact, lists barbecued rattlesnake as something he likes to eat. Banyard has caught rattlesnakes since he was a child and has taken part in the "World's Largest Rattlesnake Round-up" in his hometown. "It's a big deal in my town. I'm a country boy at heart. There are so many rattlesnakes, we are just used to it and I don't ever think about being in danger. I have caught hundreds of them in my life and I even helped my buddy make a pair of boots from the skin."

THE MORE YOU CAN DO

Always asked his coaches in college to play special teams no matter how much he was playing on offense. "All four phases. My attitude was that the more well-rounded player you are, the better player you can be. It's much better than just doing one thing."

FIRST-AND-10

PROVIDING DEPTH AT RUNNING BACK IS JOE BANYARD who joined the Bills in 2017 after seeing game action with Jacksonville (2015-16) and Minnesota (2013-14). The Sweetwater, TX, native and UTEP product orginally joined the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Jaguars in 2012.

SELECT COMPANY

Only two players from the town of Sweetwater, TX (population 10,906) went on to play in the National Football League: Banyard and Pro Football Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh. Banyard actually met Baugh during his junior year of high school when they retired his jersey number 21. Banyard, who had been wearing #21, switched to #3.

PRE-GAME RITUAL

Before each game, Banyard speaks to his high school linebackers coach, Shane Mobley, who is now the head coach at Sealy High School. Said Banyard, "He starts and ends every one of those conversations with the phrase 'Can't stop me." He was way more than a coach to me; he was a father figure. We go on vacation every year as well."

PERSONAL

Joe has a daughter named Mila. He is the son of Holly Banyard and Chris Cole. Has two younger brothers, Nick Banyard and Donte Cole. Nick played basketball at Central Florida. Joe owns a chocolate lab named Laya.

Began playing football at the age of five for the Sweetwater Colts as a running back. He went on to compete in football, track and powerlifting in high school.

FAMILY FIRST

On March 12, 2013, Bradford's father, Roy, unexpectedly suffered a heart attack on a family trip and died in Carl's arms while his family tried to revive him. Roy, who played football at Grambling State and rasied Carl and his six siblings on a ranch with horses, cows and pigs, now serves as Carl's biggest motivation in both football and life.

"I always played for him and for my family," Bradford said. "It's another motivation to keep me going, keep me strong and focused. It always has and always will be for him."

FIRST-AND-10

CARL BRADFORD CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after stints with the Green

Bay Packers and the San Francisco 49ers.
Bradford originally entered the NFL after being selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

THE STAMPEDE

Most memorable game you have played in?

I am from Southern California, so playing both USC & UCLA on the road. I played pretty well in front of my friends and family games.

What is your proudest achievement outside of football?

I'm the second-youngest in a family of 10, but I am the first in my family to graduate so I am pretty proud of that.

Has any of your family played college or professional sports?

My dad played college football at Grambling State.

Who do you try and model your game after?

Carolina Panthers linebacker Luke Kuechly.

Biggest pet peeve?

People with bad manners.

PERSONAL

Born August 15, 1992 in Norco, California, Carl is the son of Roy and Gina Bradford. Carl majored in Criminal Justice at Arizona State and graduated in three years.

PHILLY'S OWN

Philly Brown is a Philadelphia guy through and through. Jim Tressel coined the nickname when he was recruiting Brown to Ohio State since he had another Corey Brown on the roster at the time. Brown is a lifelong 76ers fan, whose favorite player growing up was Allen Iverson. Brown starred at Phildelphia's Cardinal O'Hara High School where he played with current Houston Texans QB Tom Savage. In addition to playing football, Brown was a track standout in the 200-and 400-meter dashes and played AAU basketball for Philadelphia's Team Final.

FIRST-AND-10

PHILLY BROWN CAME TO THE BUFFALO
BILLS IN 2017 after playing three seasons with the Carolina Panthers where he joined the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2014.

Brown posted his first career 100-yard receiving game (113 yards and 1 TD) in the NFC Championship on January 24, 2016 in the Panthers win against Arizona.

THE STAMPEDE

In any other sport, what team would you want to play for?

I'd be a point guard on the 76ers.

Best advice you've been given?

"Be where your feet are."
Favorite TV Show?

Power.

Favorite warm-up song?

'Dreams and Nightmares' by Meek Mill.

If you could have dinner with any one person, dead or alive, who would it be and why?

Confucius. To me, he is the smartest person ever.

What's your favorite emoji?

If you could have witnessed any event in history, what would it be?

The Great migration in Africa when herds travel from one side of Africa to another.

In Preston's tenure with the Buffalo Bills, he's given his time to help the kids of WNY. Brown is a frequent volunteer in the Bills' Play 60 programs. This year, Brown hosted his second football camp at his alma mater Northwest High School in Cincinnati. Additionally, Preston donated sneakers to the counselors at his high school this offseason.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Preston Brown's family has been involved in football his entire life. Brown's father Mike was a linebacker at Ball State and was signed as an undrafted free agent linebacker with the Denver Broncos. Mike served as Preston's linebacker coach in Preston's senior season at Northwest High School. Preston and his dad have been breaking down football film since Preston was six years old. "I'm watching my kid live his fantasy," said the elder Brown. "That's the coolest thing in the world you can have as a dad. He's in a fantasy world and for a dad to be able to watch that is incredible. I enjoyed every step from Pee Wee to high school to college to now the NFL."

Preston's mom Patrice is a certified NFL agent with Purpose-Based Sports and represents her son.

ADVICE FROM A HOMETOWN FRIEND

In his first year in Sean McDermott's defense, Preston Brown is is fighting for a starting spot among the Bills linebackers. This offseason he reached out to one of McDermott's most accomplished proteges for insight into the new defensive scheme - Panthers All-Pro linebacker Luke Kuechly. Brown and Kuechly are both from Cincinnati.

"I have watched the last three seasons of Carolina defensive film to get a better understanding of how they want us to play in this system," said Brown. "I talked to Luke about it when he was back in Cincinnati this offseason. The linebackers who played in this system have played well so I am looking forward to it."

GIVING BACK TO THE KIDS

Charles makes it a point to head home annually to his alma mater Little Rock Central High School to hold "Charles Clay Youth Football ProCamp." This year's camp, which was held May 13, included more than 250 boys & girls in the Little Rock area. Participants in the camp ranged from grades one to eight.

NEW WAYS TO GET BETTER

In an effort to find new ways to improve, one training method Charles has taken up is hot yoga. Hot yoga, also known as bikram yoga, involves performing 90 minutes of yoga in a room kept between 90-108 degrees with the intention of helping stretch and tone muscles. Charles enjoys the activity enough that he has even convinced teammate Richie Incognito to tag along for a few sessions.

In addition to hot yoga, Clay has even spent time working on his boxing skills in order to improve his hand speed which helps in both blocking and breaking free off of the line of scrimmage.

I'm looking to go out there and play as hard as I can, give 110-percent and leave everything on the field and as long as I do that and we walk off with a win then I'm satisfied.

- Charles Clay, 3/24/15

PERSONAL

Charles and his wife, Tenia, have a daughter named CharliRose.

Charles is the son of Charles and Jerrilyn. His father, Charles, played football at Arkansas (1975-78).

Charles attended Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he lettered as a tailback and safety. Born February 13, 198 in Little Rock, Arkansas.

A NEW POSITION

Jason Croom spent his entire career playing wide receiver until a knee injury sidelined him with only one collegiate season remaining. In December of 2014, he endured what he claims to be his biggest obstacle -- patella tendon surgery. During his recovery, he started thinking about what it would be like to play tight end and took the idea to his position coach, and then to Tennessee head coach Butch Jones, who supported the move.

He became the team's starting tight end during the 2016 season. Although the change is a constant learning process, Croom has adjusted to the blocking aspect of his new position. Rather than looking up to one specific player, he tries to take bits and pieces from several tight ends to model his game after.

FIRST-AND-10

JASON CROOM JOINED THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after spending time at the University of Tennessee.

While at Tennessee, Croom suited up for 39 games, starting 14. Initially a wide receiver, Croom converted to tight end as a redshirt senior. In his lone season at tight end for the Volunteers, Croom logged 21 catches for 242 yards.

THE STAMPEDE

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment?

I've just noticed that the speed and execution is so much sharper.

Do you have any unique pre-game rituals?

I listen to reggae and calm music before a game.

What are your hobbies outside of football?

Bowling. I used to go every Sunday in college.

Favorite TV show?

Bob's Burgers.

Best advice you've been given?

BACK TO HIS ROOTS

In the 2016 offseason, Marcell Dareus made an emotional trip to the land where his late father was born. Dareus made his first trip to Haiti in February. Dareus was determined to help the country after Hurricane Matthew left it severely damaged. Dareus took a three-day humanitarian mission through the Hope for Haiti organization. He met with local children, visited a medical facility and a senior home - all funded by Hope for Haiti. Dareus also donated $25,000 to the cause.

The trip turned my life around. I hope I can continue to help bring change to the country where my father was born.

- Marcell Dareus

GIVING BACK IN BUFFALO

Since arriving in 2011, Marcell Dareus has made a connection with the children of Western New York.

Each year around Christmas time, Marcell partners with the William-Emslie Family YMCA to host a holiday party.

Dressed as Santa Claus, he hands out toys and provides food and entertainment for nearly 200 children. In 2016, he made a donation of $10,000 to the YMCA of Buffalo-Niagara to aid in its mission of serving the kids of Buffalo.

A MAN AROUND TOWN

In his six years playing in Buffalo, Marcell never attended a Buffalo Bisons game. However, he attended his first game in June 2017 and he hosted some of his closest friends from the Boys & Girls Club of Buffalo. Dareus threw out the first pitch and made a donation to the Buffalo Bisons Charitable Foundation.

A MAJOR INFLUENCE
Ryan's father, Doug, tragically passed away in 2015 in a snowmobile accident. Ryan, who credits his dad as the biggest influence in his career, spends most of his time away from the football field exploring the outdoors—a hobby that he says his dad imparted on him.

"I definitely want to make him proud. I know he's looking over us and watching everything we do. I definitely want to show him how hard I'm working, show him what I'm doing and make sure I have no regrets because I know he would want me to have none," Ryan said.

MY CAUSE, MY CLEATS

Ryan opted to wear cleats to support Operation Second Chance during My Cause, My Cleats in 2016.

RYAN GROY CAME TO THE BUFFALO
BILLS IN 2015 after spending time with the Chicago Bears, New England Patriots and the Tampa Bay Bucaneers.

Groy appeared in all 16 games for the Bills in 2016.

THE STAMPEDE

Who do you try and model your game after? Matt Slauson, who I got to play with in Chicago.

Best player you've lined up against? Ndamukong Suh.

Most memorable football moment?
Winning the Big 10 Championship in 2012.

If you could play another sport, what would it be?

I'd want to be on the PGA tour.

What is your main source of motivation?

I want to prove people wrong and earn their respect.

Who was your childhood sports idol? Brett Favre.

What was your first job?

I sold soda at Wisconson football games when I was 12.

Who has had the biggest influence on your career?

My dad.

PERSONAL

Born September 30, 1990 in Middelton, Wisconsin, Ryan is the son of the late Doug Groy and Kelly Baker. Ryan and his wife Sara (formerly Stodola) reside in Maddison, Wisconsin in the offseason. Ryan graduated from Wisconsin after majoring in Agricultural Business.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LATE TO THE GAME

Stephen Hauschka was 19 years old before he took his first snap on the football field. Hauschka joined the football team at Middlebury College his sophomore year after playing soccer and lacrosse earlier in his career. He set school records for field goals made in a season and a career. He then transferred to North Carolina State for his final year of eligibility, where he led the ACC with a 88.9 field goal percentage. In 2008, he signed with the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted free agent. He became the first NFL player produced by Middlebury since 1926.

A DIFFERENT CAREER

Stephen Hauschka's football career almost never materialized. After college, he had a choice to make - attend dental school or continue to pursue a career in football. Going into dentistry would have made sense since his mother Barbara is a dentist. He was ultimately accepted into multiple dental schools but he could not kick his NFL dreams.

"I applied to dental school and I had to decide whether to try to keep playing football or go to dental school. I obviously chose football."

BIG MAN, BIG BATTLE

After being diagnosed with Crohn's disease, an inflammatory bowel disease that impairs the function of the stomach, colon and nearby organs, Henderson underwent two surgeries in January of 2016 that removed 80 cm of his intestines. For three months, he wore an ileostomy bag. He now needs to avoid certain foods like tomatoes, corn, gluten, dairy and broccoli. Needless to say, he learned a lot from that experience.

"You can't take anything for granted."
Henderson recalled. "2015 could have been the last year I ever played football. At one point, the doctors were saying I might have to wear the ileostomy bag for the rest of my life."

Henderson is grateful for the support he received along the way and hopes to help others in the future. "So many people reached out to me on social media. And I made sure to take the time to write back. It meant the world to me and it helped me get through it."

FIRST-AND-10

A TOWERING PRESENCE ON THE OFFENSIVE LINE, SEANTREL HENDERSON IS IN HIS FOURTH SEASON IN BUFFALO

after being drafted in the 7th round in 2014. After starting all 16 games as a rookie, Henderson has battled through a bout with Crohn's disease that contributed to his limited play over the last two seasons.

THE STAMPEDE

First job growing up?

Bus boy at Mancini's Char House in Minnesota

Favorite O-lineman of all-time?

Korey Stringer. I wore jersey #77 at Miami because of him.

Favorite TV show?

24 and Prison Break

Ever been left star struck?

Met Gabrielle Union as a freshman at Miami

Hidden talent?

Played the violin from the 3rd thru 6th grade

Trade places with one person for one day?
Shaquille O'Neal

If you could have one superpower?

Hardest part of being 6-7, 331?

People always being intimidated of you

Favorite Buffalo restaurant?

NOTE TO KNOW

In 2014, Henderson became the first lineman drafted in the 7th round to start all 16 games as a rookie since 2004 (Shane Olivea, SD).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PERSONAL

Seantrel is the son of Zora Jasper and Sean Henderson, a property manager. He has two children, a daughter, Synneva, and a son, Seantrel, Jr.

He lists his mother as the most influential person in his life. "She always kept me busy and to stay out of the streets. I didn't want to play football. She made me and I'm so happy she did. If it wasn't for her, I wouldn't be in the NFL."

His hobbies include shopping, traveling, and playing NBA2K, Madden and Halo. His favorite vacation spots are Los Angeles and San Francisco. His favorite teams growing up were the Minnesota Twins, Vikings, and Timberwolves.

BIG-NAME SCHOOL

A product of Cretin-Derham Hall High School in Saint Paul, MN, Henderson played high school football with NFL wide receiver Michael Floyd. Famous alumni from that school include: Matt Birk, Joe Mauer, Paul Molitor and Chris Weinke.

Henderson also competed in basketball and the shot put and discus in high school. In fact, he competed in a national shot put tournament while in the 6th grade.

MAJOR VOID

Henderson was devasted by the loss of his best friend, Jordan Hughes, who passed away tragically on July 25, 2012. "I think about him every day. He motivated me a lot in college or when school was getting hard or when I just felt tired. He kept telling me, "just keep going, don't ever think it's too hard. It's so much better being in Miami than in Minnesota doing nothing. You're too big for a cubicle."

The gridiron wasn't the only thing he was accustomed to, as Hodges was also captain of his wrestling and track & field teams. During his junior season, he finished with a 40-1 record on the mats, which ranked him No.3-wrestler in all of New Jersey.

GERALD HODGES CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after playing for the Minnesota Vikinas and San Francisco 49ers.

Hodges came into the league as a fourthround draft pick by the Vikings in 2013 after a successful career at Penn State that included a First-Team All-Big 10 nomination in 2011.

Although Hodges' initial positions on the field at Paulsboro HS were QB and S, coming out he was ranked as the No. 4 overall OLB in the nation.

THE STAMPEDE

Most memorable game you have played in?

My second season in the league for the Vikings, and we were facing the Jets, I caught a pick-six on the first play of the game.

IMAGINE THE POSSIBILITIES

What started as a school project, has now become life's work for Micah Hyde. Hyde started the IMagINe

For Youth Foundation as an undergraduate at the University of Iowa. What fuels Hyde is the chance to empower kids to develop skills and achieve greatness. "I believe sports are a gateway to learning world," said Hyde. "I strongly believe that every child deserves the opportunity to learn and experience that for themselves."

MICAH HYDE CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after spending his first four NFL seasons with the Green Bay Packers.

Hyde is one of five defensive backs with a sack in each of the last four seasons and produced eight interceptions since 2014.

THE STAMPEDE

Any unique training methods? Hiking in the heat in San Diego.

What is your main source of motivation as a player?

My hometown.

In any other sport, what team would you want to play for?

Shortstop for the Cleveland Indians.

Favorite players growing up?

Deion Sanders and Champ Bailey.

Best advice you've been given?

"You only get one chance to make a first impression."

First job?

On a farm - I used to cut wood and bale hay.

What do you do on Sunday's in the offseason?

Think about Sundays in-season.

If you could have dinner with any one person who would it be?

Barack Obama. I admire how inspriational he is.

COMEBACK KID

After sitting out the entire 2014 season, Incognito does not take anything for granted in the NFL. "I'm super grateful every day I'm here. There were many times I thought I wasn't coming back. Having football taken away from me, it allowed me to re-focus on what was important – inside and outside of the game. It's tough to find a silver lining in it all, but the silver lining is just where I'm at right now."

Incognito is especially grateful for the opportunity to meet with Terry and Kim Pegula before signing with the Bills in 2015. "I told them I had learned from the whole situation and this whole learning process was about becoming self-aware, about becoming a better person, teammate and leader."

FIRST-AND-10

A THREE-TIME PRO BOWL SELECTION, RICHIE INCOGNITO JOINED THE BILLS IN 2015 after

previous stints with the St. Louis Rams (2006-09) and Miami Dolphins (2010-13). Incognito, a third round draft choice of the Rams in 2005, also played the final three games of the 2009 season with the Bills.

A physical, durable and smart player,

Incognito became the first Bills offensive lineman to earn consecutive Pro Bowl berths since Jason Peters did so in 2007 and 2008.

DREAM COME TRUE

Met famous stand-up comedian Joe Rogan at a UFC event in Buffalo in April 2017. "I'm a huge Joe Rogan fan and love his podcast. That was an amazing moment in my life" After the meeting, he tweeted the photo and the following caption: "I can now die a happy man."

GREATEST INFLUENCE

Incognito said he wouldn't be where he is today without Ben Bernard, his high school offensive line coach. "He taught me all about work ethic, working out, lifting weights. He made me into the gym rat I am today. He taught me the lesson of making sacrifices."

FAVORITE MEMORY AS A FAN

"My father and I got tickets to a Giants-Rams playoff game at Giants Stadium from Phil Simms, who hired my dad to renovate and install marble in his bathroom. In fact, me and his son, Chris, got in trouble for throwing garden tomatoes at the neighbors house."

ULTIMATE RESPECT

Richie's father, Richard, Sr, served two tours of duty in the US Army and, as a result, takes any opportunity he can to pay his respects to those that serve the country. He regularly donates tickets and t-shirts to Veterans One-Stop Center of Western New York.

"I totally respect our military's elite training mentality. Their life depends on it. That's the same way I try to approach my training."

Enjoys reading books about the military. His two favorites: "Lone Survivor" and "No Easy Day."

PERSONAL

He is the son of Richard, Sr., a retired marble and tile mason, and Donna, a retired event planner. Has a younger brother, Derek. Has two dogs, Alan and Maggie.

Grew up a fan of the New York Giants, Yankees, Phil Simms and Don Mattingly. Is currently a big fan of UFC with his two favorite fighters being Tyron Woodley and Nate Diaz.

Began playing football at the age of 12 for the Bogota Bucs in New Jersey. He played offensive and defensive line.

CHARLES JAMES CAME TO THE BUFFALO

BILLS IN 2017 after spending time with four different teams, most recently with the Indianapolis Colts.

James came into the league as an undrafted free agent in 2013 with the New York Giants. He recently starred on HBO's series 'Hard Knocks' in the summer of 2016.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

POP WARNER DAYS

Charles started playing football at eight years old for the Grand Park Trojans. During his Pop Warner career, the Trojans had no more than three losses, and won the National Championship in 2001.

Charles lined up against T.Y. Hilton and Mario Butler while playing for the Trojans.

BALITELLO SOCKS

Known as the "Sock King", Charles was first seen on HBO's 'Hard Knocks' often wearing designer socks. Balitello Socks, creators of high-performance dress socks, noticed Charles' trend and hopped on board. The two began collaboration at the end of 2015, and Charles' has released a few pairs in the "Balitello X Charles James II" line since. "You can wear it athletically or when you're dressed up in a suit; the best of both worlds." His avid passion and support for Autism has been shown through a pair of custom made Autism Awareness socks, that matched his custom-created Autism Awareness cleats.

IRON CHEF

First began cooking at the age of six with the help of his mother and older sisters. Johnson recalled, "At the age of 7, I started to cook for myself, my cousin, Cortez Hearns, and best friend Antonio Patterson in our neighborhood. We'd collect food and ingredients from our houses and meet up and one house and cook whatever we could get our hands on."

An avid traveler as well, Johnson would often call ahead to restaurants and culinary schools in countries such as Thailand, Egypt and Dubai to learn how to cook in those particular cultures. "I would offer to pay to serve as a one-week apprentice. Most of the time, they would not accept the payment and were just happy I was there to learn and absorb their cultures. It was a lot of fun."

Johnson, who aspires to host a show on the Food Network once his playing days are over, listed his top three recipes:

- 1. Garlic Parmesan Salmon
- 2. Brown Stew Chicken
- Alfredo Pasta (from scratch, including the noodles)

EIGHT IS ENOUGH

Growing up in a home with seven brothers and sisters, Johnson stressed that it helped him "learn the importance of core values, especially now when it comes to parenting his own kids. There was never a dull moment in our house growing up. But most importantly, it taught me how to love, despite all of the different personalities and interests of my siblings."

BARBER SHOP

Born and raised in Clearwater, FL, his favorite cornerback of all-time was Ronde Barber of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He tried to model his game after Barber and actually became a teammate of his in 2012 when he was signed by the Bucs as an undrafted free agent. Leonard's favorite sports moment as a fan: "Ronde's pick six vs. the Eagles in the 2002 NFC Championship game."

PERSONAL

Leonard has two daughters, Parker and Paisley. His mother, Schenique, is a sheriff for the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office. She was highly recruited in basketball during high school.

His father, Leonard, played at Alabama State. His stepfather, Charles, is a barber in Clearwater.

Began playing football at the age of seven for the Greenwood Panthers. He wore jersey #62 and was a pulling guard. He went on to compete in football and wrestling in high school.

Grew up a fan of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Univ. of Miami football, and golfer Chi Chi Rodriguez.

Owns two pitbulls, Nova and Sur. Earned a degree in liberal arts from lowa State.

THE GRADUATE

Despite leaving
Ohio State early,
Cardale made it a point to go back during the offseason in order to finish the necessary classes for his degree. Jones walked at graduation this past May with his degree in African American Studies.

Certainly appreciate the way he attacked getting his diploma – Let's start there;

think that we talk about winning off the field and that's an important part of it, credit to Cardale as far as that goes.

- Sean McDermott on Cardale Jones, 6/15/17

FIRST-AND-10

CARDALE JONES WAS DRAFTED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after four seasons at Ohio State.

Jones led the Buckeyes to a Big Ten Championship and the National Championship in 2015 prior to being drafted by the Bills.

THE STAMPEDE

Past event you would have liked to witness?

Michael Jordan's Flu Game.

Favorite QB of all-time?

Troy Smith.

What would you sing at karaoke? "Hello" by Adele.

If you could play any other position, what would it be?

Safety because I could know what the QB was going to do by watching him.

Most memorable game he has played in? 2015 Big Ten Championship Game.

Best advice you've been given?

Make today better than yesterday.

PERSONAL

Born September 29, 1992 in Cleveland, Ohio, Cardale is the son of Michelle Nash. Jones studied African American Studies and graduated from The Ohio State University.

He has a daughter named Chloe.

A MAGICAL RIDE

After beginning his redshirt sophomore season third on the Ohio State depth chart, Jones was unexpectedly thrust into the starting role at the end of the season. His first career start came in the Big Ten Championship game, where he led the Buckeyes to a 59-0 victory over the No. 11 Wisconsin Badgers and was named the MVP of the game. His next two starts came in the Allstate Sugar Bowl against No. 1 Alabama and the College Football Playoff National Championship against No. 2 Oregon. Jones led the Buckeyes to a 42-35 upset win over the Tide and a 42-20 victory over the Ducks to secure the National Championship. In the title game, Jones totaled 280 all-purpose yards, completing 16 of 23 passes for 242 yards and a touchdown and also ran for a score.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES

Jones isn't the first member of his family to make it to the National Football League. His father, Robert, played linebacker from 1992 to 2001 and won three Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys.

His uncle, Jeff Blake, played quarterback in the NFL from 1992 to 2005 and made the Pro Bowl with the Bengals. Both Blake and Robert also played at East Carolina like Zay.

Zay's brother, Cayleb, is currently a wide receiver with the Minnesota Vikings and his younger brother, Levi, is a wide receiver at the University of Southern California. In addition to his two brothers, Zay has three sisters, Maliah, Priscilla and Ana. Ana is adopted and came to the Jones family from China. Her uplifting presence in Zay's life has led him to be an advocate for adoption and awareness of what it entails.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PICK AND ROLL

Ask Shaq what his first love was and he'd instantly tell you basketball. Lawson even contemplated leaving football behind as a freshman to focus on basketball, but joined the varsity team at the last minute. As a sophomore, Lawson was the starting center for the Daniel Lions and he teamed up with Houston Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins to lead the school to their first ever Class AAA state basketball championship. Lawson led the way in the title game with a game-high 25 points.

SHAQ LAWSON WAS DRAFTED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after three seasons at Clemson.

Lawson helped lead the Tigers to the National Championship game with a Consensus All-American performance in 2015 before suiting up for the Bills in the latter portion of 2016, where he posted 13 tackles and 2.0 sacks in 10 appearances.

THE STAMPEDE

Do you try to model your game after any current or former player? Michael Strahan.

Any nicknames growing up?

Favorite Movie?

Love and Basketball.

Hobbies?

Video games, fishing, being outdoors.

Favorite pump-up song?

"Vice Versa" By Pastor Troy.

PERSONAL

Born June 17, 1994 in Central, South Carolina, Shaq is the son of Rolitha Oglesby and the late Lawrence Lawson. Lawson studied Parks and Recreation at Clemson University. He has a French Bulldog named Nudy.

CLEMSON BOY

Most athletes grow up with a dream school, especially if they live close to a major university. Not many take the path that Shaq Lawson did. His first job was working in the concessions stands at Clemson games from the Ages of 11 to 14 selling popcorn. During that time, Lawson saw how much the Tigers meant to his local community. Despite this experience, Lawson was leaning towards going to Tennessee before his father passed away in a car accident. Lawson knew he had to stay close to home to be with his family and the Tigers welcomed him after he went to Hargrave Military Academy for one year. In his Clemson career, Lawson would go on to be a unanimous All-American and would total 123 tackles, 45.5 tackles for a loss and 20 sacks.

FAMILY MAN

The man that Shaq Lawson is today was shaped by a tragedy that happened when he was 15 years old. The car his parents were driving was hit by a drunk driver and his father passed away at the scene. His mother also had to spend weeks in the hospital due to her injuries. Shaq knew he had to step up and help raise his younger siblings even though he just lost the most influential person in his life. Lawson still makes it a point to visit his father's grave as often as possible and to focus on the advice he instilled in him as a kid, "High school hero, backyard zero." Every game, Lawson takes the field with his father's memory in mind, always looking to make him proud and to accomplish all the goals they set together.

SHADES OF GREATNESS OFF THE FIELD

After LeSean's grandmother, Maryann Branch, lost a battle to ALS, the disease has become a driving force behind the creation of his foundation – Shades of Greatness.

This foundation is dedicated to helping the fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease (ALS) and provides direct support to individuals battling ALS to ensure a comfortable quality of life while supporting their family and caregivers in providing quality life care.

In 2017, McCoy and his foundation conducted their 4th celebrity softball game in Rochester, NY. They honored long-time ALS treatment advocate Mike Maloney, a Cheektowaga resident who passed away in February of 2017. The first two softball games occurred in Lancaster, PA, while McCoy was a member of the Eagles.

Each year in Buffalo and Harrisburg, his foundation conducts an annual backpack giveaway in September, an annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway as well as a coldweather gear giveaway around Christmas.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Claims his older brother, LeRon, is his biggest role model. "Just the way he handled himself. He did everything I wanted to do. He set the bar high for me. He made it to the NFL and really wasn't even recruited out of high school. But he went to a Division II school and made it out." LeRon was drafted in the 7th round by the Cardinals in 2005 out of Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

ROYAL BEGINNING

McCoy began playing football as a running back for the East Shore Royals in Harrisburg and went on to star at Bishop McDevitt High School.

PERSEVERANCE AT A YOUNG AGE

On pace to shatter the state's rushing record during his senior season at Bishop McDevitt HS, McCoy suffered a compound ankle fracture during the fourth game and missed the rest of the season. "I felt like I was on top of the world," recalled McCoy. "Then at the very next moment I lost it all." After one year of prep school at Milford Academy in New York, McCoy was given a chance to play Division I football by Pittsburgh coach Dave Wannstedt. In 2012, he (#20) joined Ricky Watters as the only two players to have their jersey numbers retired by Bishop McDevitt.

NEVER FORGETTING HIS ROOTS

In 2016, McCoy donated two sets of uniforms to each player on the Harrisburg HS football teams and also donated new uniforms for their girls basketball team.

"Obviously, we didn't have that in our budget," said Calvin Everett, the school's athletic director. "As far as the dollar amount, he said get what you want. We were very, very appreciative of it. He's a Harrisburg guy. He's just giving back to his community."

A LONG STRANGE TRIP

Jordan Mudge has taken the long route to the NFL. Mudge was signed in April after playing for three teams in the Arena Football League since he left Nevada in 2011. He was named the AFL's top offensive lineman in 2016 as a center for the Arizona Rattlers.

LIVING OFF THE LAND

In the offseason, Mudge and his wife Sarah live on a farm in Arizona with their three daughters - Zoey, Riley and Mackenzie. The family is currently raising a host of animals including a miniature pinscher, a tortoise, pigs, sheep, goats, chickens, bunnies, and turkeys. The family's goal, according to Jordan, is to live off the land without going to the grocery store.

FIRST-AND-10

JORDAN MUDGE CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after spending time with three different teams in the Arena Football League.

O'Leary finished his college career as the most productive tight end in Florida State school history. O'Leary captured the 2014 John Mackey Award en route to ending his career as FSU's alltime leader among tight ends in receptions (114), yards (1,591) and touchdowns (18).

NO GLOVES NEEDED

One of the most unique aspects of O'Leary's game is that he does not use gloves. O'Leary's reasoning for playing without them? He says that he grew up catching footballs and playing without them with no problem. So why change things up now? The lack of gloves don't seem to affect his ability to catch the ball though, as O'Leary's high school coach Jack Daniels says that O'Leary has the best hands of any player he has ever coached.

FIRST-AND-10

NICK O'LEARY ORIGINALLY JOINED THE BILLS AS THE TEAM'S SIXTH ROUND PICK IN THE 2015 NFL DRAFT. O'Leary is entering his third season with the Bills after appearing in all 16 games during the team's 2016 season.

THE STAMPEDE

What is the most memorable game you have ever played in?

During my time at Florida State, we were ranked fifth in country and knocked off No. 3 Clemson 51-14. I caught five passes for 161 yards.

Favorite movie?

American Sniper.

Do you have a hidden talent?

I'm pretty good at ping pong and I can also punt.

Favorite musical artist?

What is your proudest achievement outside of football?

I was a high school All-American in lacrosse.

Do you have any pets?

Yes, I have a American bulldog/boxer-mix named Rocky.

Does your family have a history of playing college or pro sports?

Yes, everyone knows about my grandfather Jack Nicklaus, but my parents both played collegiately at Georgia. My dad played football for the Bulldogs and my mom played volleyball.

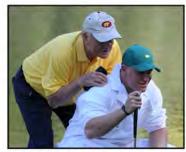

HIGH SCHOOL STUDS

During his time at Dwyer High School, O'Leary played alongside several players who would go on to play in the college and pro ranks including Matt Elam, Jacoby Brissett, Julian Whigam, Curt Maggitt, Tommylee Lewis and Gerald Christian. O'Leary helped lead his high school squad to a 12-2 record and No. 9 ranking in the state of Florida during his senior season in 2011.

AN ALL-TIME GREAT

O'Leary's grandfather is a name that all golf fans recognize--18-time major winner Jack Nicklaus. In 2011, O'Leary got a chance to really see his grandfather in his element as he caddied for Jack in The Masters par-3 contest. O'Leary even got to stand in and take a swing for his grandfather during the contest.

You can go back and look at my stats. I was damn good at baseball."

SCHOLASTIC SUPERSTAR

Poyer remains a high school legend in his hometown of Astoria, Oregon. He led his high school to state titles in both football and baseball on the 4A level. On the gridiron, he was named the 4A Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, starring as a dual threat quarterback and a ballhawking safety. On the basketball court, he was named the 2009 Cowapa League Player of the Year and he pitched the baseball team to a state title. In all, Poyer earned 11 varsity letters, which puts him as one of the most decorated athletes in Oregon high school history. His talent was evident to everyone in town at an early age when he threw a 50 yard touchdown in fifth grade during halftime of the Astoria high school game.

LAX STAR

The first sport that Pyke would find success in was lacrosse back in his native home of Maryland.

Pyke started playing lacrosse at six years old and was a dominant high school player for The Boys'

Latin School. Once ranked as high as the number eight recruit in the Class of 2012, Pyke held Division 1 scholarship offers from multiple top flight schools, before deciding to focus on football at Georgia. Lacrosse runs in the Pyke bloodlines, as Greg's older brother played at North Carolina and his older sister played at James Madison. Greg credits his brother Andrew's career as a Tar Heel as his main inspiration because he learned the impact of hard work. Andrew was never as talented as Greg, but he was still able to earn a scholarship by outworking everyone else.

GREG PYKE CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS

IN 2017 after playing four seasons at the University of Georgia.

The offensive lineman appeared in 53 games with the Bulldogs, starting in 49 of those contests.

THE STAMPEDE

Strangest habit?

I like to put ketchup on almost everything I eat.

Favorite movie?

Happy Gilmore.

Hobbies?

Being outdoors and going fishing.

Hidden talents?

Cooking.

Main source of motivation?

The support of my family. My parents moved the family just so the kids could attend a better high school and have more opportunities.

Most difficult part of being his size?

Fitting on airplanes.

Favorite meal?

Steaks on the grill.

PERSONAL

Born June 4, 1993, Pyke grew up in Baltimore, Maryland. Greg is the son of Bruce and Marci Pyke. Pyke studied Human Development Family Science and graduated from the University of Georgia. He plans to use his degree to work with special needs children after his playing career is over.

AN ALL-AROUND ATHLETE

Ragland became a hometown legend in Huntsville, Alabama at the age of 12 while playing baseball for Challenger Middle School. Ragland bombed a mammoth 400 foot home run that landed in a neighborhood swimming pool. Looking back, Ragland says that he regrets giving up on playing baseball in high school after rehabbing from an ankle injury.

Football and baseball weren't the only sports Ragland displayed a natural ability for-Ragland could dunk a basketball in sixth grade and made varsity in eighth grade

FIRST-AND-10

REGGIE RAGLAND WAS DRAFTED TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after four seasons at the University of Alabama.

ROLL TIDE

Ragland spent four years at Alabama, becoming one of three linebackers in Crimson Tide school history to earn unanimous first-team All-American honors.

FROM ICE TO TURF

Reilly grew up his entire life knowing one sport: hockey. He was introduced to Pop Warner football a handful of times, but stuck with the ice. In eighth grade, Reilly was ranked 7th amongst prospects in the nation. He had the opportunity to move away for high school, but ultimately made the biggest decision of his life. "I didn't want to move away for high school, so I made the tough decision to quit hockey and pursue high school sports instead."

Reilly's decision didn't fail him, as he had a stellar football career at Lincoln SW High, which included a senior season in which he saw eight of his nine touchdowns garner for 50 yards or more. He was a zero-star wideout coming out of Lincoln SW, but that didn't stop him from walking on at Nebraska to join what was one of the top wide receiving corps in the nation at the time. After four productive seasons for the Cornhuskers, Reilly went undrafted in 2017 and is working to prove his doubters wrong once again.

FIRST-AND-10

BRANDON REILLY WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons at the University of Nebraska.

The wide receiver was a walk-on at Nebraska and finished his collegiate career with 70 receptions, 1,275 yards and six touchdowns.

Reilly caught the game-winning touchdown in an 39-38 upset of No. 6-ranked Michigan State during his junior season in 2015.

THE STAMPEDE

Most memorable game you have played in?

Music City Bowl game vs. Tennessee. Our late punter and my roommate Sam Foltz was recognized with the Sam Foltz Captain Award, and I was named honorary captain. I had my best career game as a Cornhusker; Four catches, 98 yards and two TD's.

Who is your favorite player of all-time at your specific position?

Julian Edelman because we have similar stories.

If you could trade lives with one person for one day, who would it be and why?

Justin Bieber - tell me you wouldn't want to live his life.

Favorite sports memory as a fan?

As a kid, I would sell pop at Nebraska football games. Most of the time, I'd sit and watch the games instead of selling the soda.

Do you have a hidden talent?

I'm better than Nate Peterman at ping pong.

Rashad Ross has always been known for his speed. Nicknamed 'The Rocket,' Ross clocked the NFL's fastest play with a max speed of 21.5 mph on his 101-yard kick return for a touchdown against the New York Giants.

During his time in Washington, Ross was mentored by fellow California native DeSean Jackson. "One day in a meeting they asked me where I was from and I said I was from California. So right then and there, DeSean said, 'Oh we've got another Cali boy!' Because we were all the way on the east coast, so he just took me under his wing after that. I started staying with him and tried to pick up his habits on the field and off the field."

RASHAD ROSS WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after spending the previous two seasons with the Washington Redskins.

Ross made his NFL debut in 2014 with the Chicago Bears. He played five games with the Redskins in 2016.

lan's uncle, Junior, finished his career as one of the best players to ever take the field. En route to being named to the Hall of Fame, Junior went to 12 Pro Bowls and was the 1992 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Ian told the LA Times last year, "He tried to keep his professional life different from his social life and his family life. He never really talked to me about playing in the NFL," Ian said. "He just told me, 'Hey man, when you're in the league make sure you have a ukulele next to you.' Whenever I'm stressed out I can just play that. Just small things he gave me of that nature."

FIRST-AND-10

IAN SEAU WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after a stint in the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams in 2016.

The defensive lineman transferred to Nevada after playing a season for Grossmont College. In the 37 games played at Nevada, Seau recorded 100 tackles and seven forced fumbles.

THE STAMPEDE

How old were you when you started playing football?

I was eight, but I actually stopped playing from sixth grade until I was in high school. I decided to give football another shot and it stuck with me.

What is your main source of motivation? My last name.

Do you have a hidden talent? I can do card tricks.

Seymour grew up in Pasadena, California in the rough Community Arms Apartments, better known as the "SnakePitts".

Surrounded by gangs, drugs and near constant violence, Seymour was able to stay on a straight path that led him to a full scholarship to play football at USC. Very few, if any, people from his area have made it to the level that Kevon has and that continues to serve as a major source of motivation.

CLEAR VISION

During his predraft training in 2016, it was discovered that Seymour had 20/60 vision. After receiving contacts in February, his first football action with corrected vision was at the combine. "It's a whole new world out there," Seymour said. "I can definitely judge the ball better and locate the ball better. Now with the contacts I can't believe how far I can see clearly now."

FIRST-AND-10

KEVON SEYMOUR WAS DRAFTED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after four seasons at USC.

In his rookie season with the Bills, Seymour played in 15 games and was credited with 22 tackles.

THE STAMPEDE

A FOOTBALL FACTORY

Daikiel Shorts was far from the only NFL football player produced from Eastern Christian Academy in Maryland. His team included three other NFL players - Angelo Blackson (Titans), Jhurell Pressley (Falcons) and Wendell Smallwood (Eagles).

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

For the Shorts family, playing football is a family tradition. Daikiel Shorts Sr. played college football at Delaware State. Daikiel Jr.'s first cousin and adopted brother Tiquan Underwood is currently playing wide receiver in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes. Tiquan previously played for the Patriots, Buccaneers, Panthers and the Jaguars after his college career at Rutgers. Daikiel's brother, Anthony Gorrell, played cornerback at New Hampshire.

FIRST-AND-10

DAIKIEL SHORTS WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons with West Virginia.

During his tenure as a Mountaineer, Shorts caught 177 passes for 2,263 receiving yards to go with 14 touchdowns.

THE STAMPEDE

Do you try to model your game after any current or former pro?

Michael Craptree

In any other sport, what team would you want to play for?

I'd be a shortstop for the Yankees.

Favorite teams/players growing up? Sixers and Allen Iverson.

Best advice you've been given?

From my dad - 'no matter what you do in life, you will pay now or pay later.'

Favorite movie?

Friday Night Lights and Shooter.

Favorite TV show?

Martin.

Favorite warm-up song?

'Big Dreams' by Meek Mill.

Proudest achievement outside of football?

I was elected class president my freshman year of high school.

Biggest influence on his NFL career?

Tiquan Underwood. He's been through a lot and showed me how keep pushing and stay positive.

PERSONAL

Daikiel is the son of Daikiel Sr. and Kheesha Shorts. He has two brothers -Tiquan Underwood and Anthony Gorrell - and one sister, Naomi Shorts. He majored in Multi-Disciplinary Studies and is on schedule to complete his degree by the end of the summer.

ANIMATION NATION

Streater has a clear picture of his goals - NFL and beyond. The wide receiver has both a passion and eye for animation (one of his images pictured above) and dreams of working for Disney or Pixar once his football career comes to a close. He is in the process of attaining a second degree, this time in art and animation. He would love to work on movies along the lines of Shrek and Toy Story.

ROD STREATER FOUNDATION

The Rod Streater foundation was established in 2014 and aims to promote healthy lifestyles in local youth through various programs. The foundation teaches leadership, respect and positive attitudes.

FIRST-AND-10

ROD STREATER WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after spending time with the Oakland Raiders, Kansas City Chiefs and San Francisco 49ers since entering the league in 2012.

The wide receiver went undrafted in 2012 before signing with the Raiders, where he spent the first four seasons of his career.

THE STAMPEDE

What other sports did you play in high school? Track -- I ran the 200-meter and did high jump.

Do you have any unique training methods? I do UFC training twice a week.

Best player you've lined up against? Champ Bailey.

What's your main source of motivation as a player?
I want to inspire youth and give back to my hometown.

First job growing up?

I was a cashier at CVS in high school.

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome?

I broke both feet two months apart from each other.

Strangest thing you like to eat?

I'll eat french fries with anything, even cereal.

PERSONAL

Streater is the son of Kevin and Darlene Streater and was born on February 9, 1988 in Burlington, New Jersey. Darlene passed away from Breast Cancer in 2014 and Rod is passionate about the American Cancer Society and Breast Cancer Awareness Month in memory of his mother.

OVERCOMING ADVERSITY

Bradley Sylve has overcome his share of adversity in his short life. On March 8, 2016 as Sylve went through his final preparations for Alabama's Pro Day the next day, he tore his achilles and was forced to have surgery. Sylve would miss an entire year of football while rehabbing his foot at Alabama, hoping for another shot to impress scouts and sign with an NFL team. Sylve reached his goal in April of 2017 when he signed with the Bills. "All you have to do is stay prayed up, keep your faith, keep grinding and never give up," Sylve told Syracuse.com. "That was my slogan. I wasn't going to give up at all until I got my shot." In his youth, Sylve had to overcome tough times at home. He and his mother were forced to leave their hometown of New Orleans due to Hurricane Katrina. At the age of 12, he moved to Houston but later returned to New Orleans, where he developed into a top football and track athlete.

BRADLEY SYLVE WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons at the University of Alabama.

Sylve was a part of the Crimson Tide National Championship teams in 2012 and 2015.

THE STAMPEDE

Do you try to model your game after any current or former pro?

Tyrann Mathieu.

PARENTS LEAD THE WAY

An only child, Tyrod credits much of his success and his work ethic to his parents, Rodney and Trina Taylor. From a young age, Taylor had set the goal of becoming a professional athlete and his parents did everything in their power to make it happen. Their selflessness and dedication showed Tyrod the path that he had to take to get where he is today.

CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER

Tyrod's biggest motivation as a player is proving his doubters wrong. The main fuel for this is how he felt after falling to the sixth round of the 2011 NFL Draft. To this day, Taylor can name all 10 QB's that went ahead of him in order. He looks at New England Patriots QB Tom Brady as a source of inspiration because he went from being a sixth round draft pick to one of the most successful quarterbacks in league history.

SEE HIM ON THE COURT

If he could have gone pro in any other sport, Tyrod would immediately choose basketball. In his words, he views his game as most similar to Washington Wizards PG John Wall. Taylor is a frequent participant in charity basketball games during the offseason, particularly back home in Virginia.

#TYRODTAILORED

Tyrod is very passionate about fashion and is always breaking out new looks. Taylor was recently named to the 2017 Fashionable 50 list by Sports Illustrated and he earned the title of "Most Consistent".

FROM THE 757

It wasn't hard to find inspiration when Tyrod was chasing his childhood goal of being a professional athlete. Two athletes in particular, Michael Vick and Allen Iverson, showed Taylor that anything was possible for a kid from Virginia Beach. Taylor was lucky to develop relationships with both of them and now he looks to serve as a sign of inspiration for the youth currently growing up in the 757.

ELEVATE 2DAYS FUTURE

Taylor started his own foundation, Elevate 2Days Future, in order to give back to the youth back home in Virginia. The foundation mainly funds youth sports leagues and puts on an annual football and life skills camp.

PERSONAL

Born August 3, 1989 in Hampton, Virginia, Tyrod is the son of Rodney and Trina Taylor. Tyrod studied Residential/Commercial Property Management and graduated from Virginia Tech.

THE POSITION CHANGE

The attempted positon change of Logan Thomas has been well documented as he has made the move over the past year from quarterback to tight end. Thomas has stated that this positon change has been the biggest obstacle he's faced in his career. After a standout collegiate career playing QB at Virginia Tech, Thomas only managed to complete one pass in the NFL, an 81-yard touchdown against the Denver Broncos while he was with the Arizona Cardinals. Thomas has experience playing wide receiver in high school and also lined up at wideout as a freshman at Virginia Tech to catch a touchdown pass from current Bills QB Tyrod Taylor.

FIRST-AND-10

LOGAN THOMAS CAME TO THE BUFFALO

BILLS IN 2016 after time with the Arizona Cardinals, Miami Dolphins, New York Giants, and Detroit Lions. Thomas was drafted by the Cardinals in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech.

Thomas played quarterback with the Hokies and during his first couple of years in the league, but converted to tight end after joining the Lions.

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

In a family of football players, Vallejo said his inspiration comes from his younger brother, Hunter Vallejo.

Diagnosed with brain cancer when he was six months old, Hunter was given a two percent chance of survival, according to Vallejo's father, Rick Vallejo. Hunter is now cancer-free.

"My biggest motivation is my little brother," Vallejo said. "He's always been my motivation and he always will be. When I'm out there playing, I'm playing with him on my back."

TANNER VALLEJO WAS DRAFTED TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons with Boise State University.

The linebacker had a career year his sophomore season at Boise State, where he saw 100 total tackles, with just five missed tackles in 879 snaps.

DEFENSIVE MVP

Vallejo tallied 14 tackles (10 solo) and 1.5 sacks, earning Defensive MVP honors in the Broncos' 2014 Vizio Fiesta Bowl win over No. 10 Arizona.

THE STAMPEDE

Do you have any unique pregame rituals?

I have always taped my own wrists.

Most people have the trainers do it, but I

Valles played in 22 total games for Virginia, recording 78 tackles with 13 sacks in his two seasons.

THE STAMPEDE

Who is your favorite player of all-time at defensive end?

Justin Tuck, which is crazy because I got to play alongside him in Oakland. He left me a little starstruck at first.

Favorite emoji?

If you could play any other position, what would it be?

Definitely wide receiver. I played wideout in high school and was named All-State.

What was your first job growing up?

I actually worked in a blueberry packing company while I was in high school.

GIVING BACK

Outside of football, Voytek prides himself on being a 'true patriot,' having been with a volunteer firefighter with the Nichols Fire District in his hometown of Trumbull. He is also an Eagle Scout and passionate about Veteran's Day and giving back to those who have served. One of his older brothers is also a fireman.

STARTING OUT

Voytek did not start playing football until he was in seventh grade, when he joined the Pop Warner Ravens. He went on to play in all 44 games of his collegiate career for the New Haven Chargers.

ZACH VOYTEK WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons at the University of New Haven.

The offensive lineman earned multiple honors during his career at New Haven. Voytek was named the Northeast-10 Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year three times and the Northeast-10 All-Conference First Team twice.

THE STAMPEDE

Do you try and model your game after any pro? Marshall Yanda.

Funniest moment you experienced on the field?

Junior year of college, I ran the cheerleading flag down the sidelines. The cheer team moved after that.

Who was your childhood sports idol?
Pat Tillman.

Did you have any nicknames growing up? "Wild Thing."

Did you have a unique job growing up? I was a groundskeeper at a zoo.

Favorite meal?

Either steak and mac and cheese or sushi.

What's your favorite holiday?

Independence Day because I'm a true patriot.

PERSONAL

Voytek was born on July 8, 1994 in Trumbull, Conneticut. He played football, wrestled and participated in track and field at Trumbull High School. He has two older brothers and a twin sister. Voytek graduated from the University of New Haven with a degree in Fire Science with a concentration in Fire and Arson Investigation and a minor in Criminal Justice.

EVERY DAY IS FATHER'S DAY

Raised in a single-parent home by his father, Adolphus Sr., Washington treasures the time and lessons learned along the way. His father regrets quitting from football at both Cincinnati and Triton College and openly admits he made the wrong decision. Facing a similar situation at Ohio State, the younger Washington had decided to quit football and come home and get a regular job. Until his father stepped in. "He would not let me do it. He told me if I came home I wasn't going to be staying with him."

FIRST-AND-10

A THIRD ROUND DRAFT PICK OF THE BILLS IN 2016, ADOLPHUS WASHINGTON

started 11 games in his rookie season, notching 21 tackles and 2.5 sacks.

A two-sport star at Taft High School in Cincinnati, Washington was an All-America selection in football and the Ohio Gatorade player of the year in basketball before settling on a football career at Ohio State. He posted 142 career tackles and 13.5 sacks for the Buckeyes and helped them capture the National Championship in 2014.

A MUDDY BEGINNING

Adolphus began playing football at the age of four for the Winton Hill Falcons in Ohio. He played both offensive and defensive line. One of his most memorable moments playing came at the age of six when he made the gamewinning tackle while playing on a muddy field. "My dad wouldn't let me ride in his car because I was so muddy!"

A HOT RECRUIT

Was heavily recruited for basketball and to play both sports at Cincinnati, Ohio State, and Kentucky, but ultimately decided on just football at Ohio State. "I'm tall, but in basketball, you have to be REALLY tall."

PERSONAL

The son of Adolphus Sr. and Rhonda Mason, he has two older sisters, Nija and Mela, one older brother, Myles and one younger brother, Adrian. He has a son, Dre'Zaughn and a daughter, A'Maryah.

Transferred to Taft High School from Roger Bacon High School following his freshman year.

FOREVER BONDED

The Ohio Gatorade player of the year in basketball in 2012, Washington is forever bonded with his teammates on Taft High School's 2011 state championship squad. They set a record for the largest scoring margin in a title game, winning by 43 points (95-52).

Pictured below, from left to right, are Jamaine Freeman, Adolphus Washington, Orlando Berry, Dwayne Stanford, and Jalen Lowe. The five began playing sports together in the 3rd grade.

GREATEST INFLUENCE

Watkins said he wouldn't be where he is today without Joe Hampton, his high school coach (pictured with Sammy below). "He always told me I was different and to hold yourself to a higher standard than what others do. Respect everyone. Don't be judgmental. I still talk to him to this day."

MOST MEMORABLE GAMES

1) "A Pop Warner game. I was a quarterback and scored three times, including a play when I ran someone over at the 50-yard line, lost one of my shoes and kept on running into the end zone."

2) "Beating Florida State in 2011. It was the first time my coaches (head coach Dabo Swinney and offensive coordinator Chad Morris) truly believed in me. They called the play I wanted – a Sluggo route. And we scored on a 62-yard TD to seal the win in the 4th quarter"

PERSONAL

He and his fiancee, Ta'la, have two daughters, Samiah and Salia. His brother, Jaylen, is a safety for the Philadelphia Eagles. He has a pitbull named Elo.

Hobbies include traveling, fishing and jet skiing.

Grew up a fan of the Bills. "At a young age, I kept telling myself I'm going to be an NFL player. I was a Bills fan growing up. And I had a Bills jersey growing up - #56 I believe. It's crazy that it worked out this way." Was also a fan of University of Miami football, Deion Sanders and Jevon Kearse.

Won the AA state title in the 200-meter and finished second in the 100-meter as a senior at South Fort Myers HS.

When asked to name his favorite sports memory as a fan, Watkins replied, "Clemson beating Alabama in the championship game last year."

Began playing flag football at the age of seven for the Riverdale Wildcats.

Growing up in Shreveport, Louisiana, Tre'Davious comes from an area where the high school dropout rate is around 60 percent. The three-sport athlete worked out three times a day in an attempt to change the norm of his hometown, and even became his high school's valedictorian with a 4.3 GPA.

"There were 400 people in my freshman class and when I graduated we had maybe 80. That just tells you people take the wrong road and there's a high chance that people take the wrong road where I'm from. I just wanted to be different."

White went on to graduate from LSU a semester early with a degree in Sports Administration, making him the first in his family to graduate from college.

FIRST-AND-10

TRE'DAVIOUS WHITE WAS DRAFTED TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons at LSU.

White registered 167 tackles, 34 pass breakups and six interceptions at LSU.

The cornerback became a starter for the Tigers after his second game as a true freshman, and never came off the bench throughout the rest of his collegiate career.

THE STAMPEDE

Favorite holiday?

Thanksgiving. We used to have leftovers for three weeks.

Favorite warm-up sona?

'Can You Stand The Rain' by Boyz II Men. I love slow R&B jams pre-game.

Strangest thing you like to eat?
Cereal with ice in it.

Do you have any pets?

A dog named Deuce.

First cell phone?

A Disney mobile flip phone. The ringtone was Soulja Boy Tell 'Em.

In any other sport, what position would you play and for who?

Point Guard for the Lakers. I loved watching Kobe Bryant growing up.

PERSONAL

Born January 16, 1995 in Shreveport, Louisiana, Tre'Davious is the son of David White and LaShawnita Ruffins.

NEW FATHER

Tre'Davious and his girlfriend, Ikea, celebrated the birth of their first and only son, Tre'Davious Jr., just days after the cornerback was drafted to the Bills in late April.

Ikea is finishing up her nursing degree in Louisiana, but she and Tre'Davious Jr. are planning on moving up to Buffalo shortly after she finishes her final semester this fall.

UNIQUE PATH

Tre'Davious hasn't had the easiest road to the NFL, but his mother has done everything she can to provide for the young cornerback and three siblings. LaShawnita Ruffins worked an overnight shift as a floor supervisor at a casino near Shreveport and would get home in time to see her kids onto the school bus and off to school.

"I feel like my duty is to get her in a comfortable situation where she can call something her own," Tre'Davious explained. "I feel like that is my job as her child. I feel like I owe that to her for all the sacrifices that she's made for my little sister and my two brothers and I."

Tre'Davious has never been on a vacation, but vows to take his family on one soon. "Wherever mom wants to go, we'll go. I'll make sure it happens."

for an tell this town is passionate about their Bills, and I'm looking forward to making their time a little easier and helping this franchise get the ball rolling with this new coaching staff. I'm looking forward to coming in and earning all my stripes, and earning the respect of the vets and of the guys that are here.

If you're not a family member or an early childhood friend of Jonathan Williams, you've probably never referred to the running back as 'Cook.'

"The nickname was given to me by my babysitter when I was really young," Williams explained. "It started out as 'Cookie Man,' then got shortened to 'Cookie' and now it's simply 'Cook.'"

Jonathan never really tells anybody about the nickname, which is why only his family and old friends call him that.

PERSONAL

Jonathan, born February 2, 1994 in Allen, Texas, is the son of John and Constance Williams.

JONATHAN WILLIAMS WAS DRAFTED TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after three seasons at the University of Arkansas.

Williams had a career-year during his junior season as a Razorback, in which he ran the ball 211 times for 1,190 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Williams played in 11 games during his rookie campaign.

The award honors an NFL player who demonstrates exemplary character and service to the community. Kyle's award was especially notable as he became the first active member of the Bills to receive the award.

A SCRATCH GOLFER

One of Kyle's hidden talents is that he is a scratch golfer. Capable of hitting 300-yard drives and shooting even par, Kyle told Sports Illustrated's MMQB that he has ambitions of one day qualifying for the U.S. Mid-Amateur golf championship.

At the end of the day, this will be 12 years playing for me, who knows how long you can play, you never know and there is no time to waste with the little things and not getting it right. And I am not going to let feelings, or anything like that get in the way what I see could be a hurdle for us to be a winning football team, really never have.

PIECE OF HISTORY

When Williams was in high school, he had a once in a lifetime opportunity - meeting the president. President Barack Obama hosted a town hall in Virginia, and Williams had a front row seat to the show. Williams said the President seemed like a great person and is someone he would love to sit down and have dinner with.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

Nigel's father, Lamar Williams, also played football collegiately. He was an offensive lineman at Hampton University. Nigel says his dad has had the biggest influence on both his life and career because he constantly works to put food on the table for his family. Whether [Lamar] has a good day or a bad day, he always works hard, which Nigel admires.

NIGEL WILLIAMS WAS DRAFTED TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons at Virginia Tech.

Williams played in 51 games, making 73 tackles, 23 for a loss, seven sacks and a forced fumble throughout his career as a Hokie.

In high school, Williams played four different positions, including halfback.

THE STAMPEDE

What other sports did you play in high school? Basketball, Lacrosse and Track.

Most memorable game you've played in? Beating Ohio State in 2014.

If you could play any other sport, what would it be?

Boxing – nothing is given in boxing, you have to earn it.

Who was your childhood sports idol? Warren Sapp.

Favorite musical artist(s)?

J. Cole.

Do you have any hidden talents? I can play the saxophone.

What's the hardest part about being your size? Finding clothes that fit.

PERSONAL

Born March 18, 1986 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Eric is the son of Diane and Randal Wood. Wood studied Political Science and graduated from the University of Louisville. He lives with his wife, Leslie, and they have a daughter named Grace. Wood also has a Black Lab named Daisy.

BIG MAN IN THE COMMUNITY

Wood has been named the Walter Payton Man of the Year for the Bills in the past two seasons for his work off of the field. Eric has worked diligently to grow his own foundation. Established in 2014, The Eric Wood Fund provides seriously ill, special needs, and physically challenged children throughout the Greater Buffalo region with daily encouragement and life-changing experiences. Eric was inspired to start the foundation by his brother Evan, who passed away at age 11 from severe cerebral palsy. Since the inception of the foundation, nearly $400,000 has been raised to directly impact the lives of those who need it most.

Throughout his tenure with the team, Wood has redefined the term "Bills in the Community" with his continued commitment to contribute to a variety of programs supported on a league level. Eric has been a key to the success of the Bills Play 60 program, A Crucial Catch outreach, Salute to Service initiatives, and more. Aside from these larger scale campaigns, Eric is an ambassador for the Teammates for Kids Foundation, assisted in several Bills Make-A-Wish visits, makes impromptu stops at local hospitals and schools, and regularly participates in Bills Community initiatives including visiting the Community Hospitality Tent at Training Camp, providing Thanksgiving Meals for families at the Food Bank of Western New York and handing out gifts at the Bills holiday party for children.

LOVE FOR LOUISVILLE

One of Eric's biggest passions in the world is supporting his alma mater, Louisville, and the Louisville community. After a stellar career as a Cardinal, Eric has made Louisville his home and trains there every offseason. In addition to his community work in Buffalo, Eric also focuses on helping out the less fortunate in Louisville.

A big-time Louisville sports booster, Eric can often be found at Louisville basketball games during the offseason and he was in attendance at the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball National Championship game.

Another connection that Eric continues to hold with Louisville is his yearly attendance at the Kentucky Derby. Wood is usually joined by Bills teammates at the race and during the weekend at events.

Due to their attending of the Derby, Wood and Richie Incognito have taken their horse racing interest to the next level. In conjunction with Louisville basketball coach Rick Pitino, the two own a horse named Lady in Red.

Jerel remains good friends with Golden
State Warriors star forward Draymond
Green from their days together at Michigan State. "He and I talk all the time and are on college with Jonas Gray, Bennie Fowler and Jordan Dumars"

WORTHY CONVERSATION

Worthy began playing football at the age of 7 for the Meadowdale Lions in Dayton, OH. "I hated playing center. I actually hated everything about football. My dad and I had a talk and his message was 'you never know what can come from a tough situation' and look where I am today."

FIRST-AND-10

JEREL WORTHY ENTERS HIS THIRD YEAR IN BUFFALO after signing with the Bills practice squad on November 24, 2015. He was promoted to the 53-man roster later in 2015 and played in the final two games of that season and in 13 games in a reserve role in 2016.

A 2nd round draft pick of Green Bay in 2012, Worthy played two seasons with the Packers before being traded to New England. He had training camp stints with the Patriots (2014), Chiefs (2015), and Lions (2015) and was a member of the Chiefs practice squad in 2015.

POSITIVE IMPACT

Jerel's positive demeanor can be attributed to his late grandmother, Mimi, who passed away early in his NFL career.

"She was always so positive and upbeat," recalled Worthy. "Everything she taught me as a kid, I still hear those lessons from her today. I can hear her words so vividly. She had the biggest impact on my life and for my faith."

Worthy's first job growing up was helping his grandmother clean the church, a job he had from the time he was 7 years old until he went to college. He fondly remembers his grandmother cooking for his high school football teams during their two-a-days.

"She and I speak through prayer before every game," Worthy proudly said.

HIGH PRAISE

When asked what his favorite part of playing in Buffalo is, Worthy quickly talks about playing with long-time Bills DT Kyle Williams.

"He's the best teammate I've ever had," said Worthy.
"He never lets you feel you can't do something. His words can make you run through a wall."

WORTHY NOTES

Once his playing days are complete, Worthy plans on working in real estate and construction.

Has a lasting memory of meeting Charles Woodson as a rookie in Green Bay. "I was in the locker room late one night in the spring and he tapped me on the shoulder and asked me how I was doing. It meant a lot to me that he even knew who I was."

In high school, competed in football, track, wrestling, and baseball, while also playing AAU basketball.

PERSONAL

He and his fiancee, Jilian, have a son, Jerel, and a daughter, Sofia. The family has a Husky named Ice. Jerel is the son of Bobby Smith and Stephanie Worthy. He has two brothers, Bobby Smith and Brandon Smith, the latter of whom serves in the United States Navy. He also has a sister, Jamie.

Shareece owns a trucking company named S. Wright Enterprises, which consists of five car hauling trucks and two refrigerated trucks based in Fontana, CA. "The trucking business is a good business," said Wright. "You always see so many trucks on the road. They are always in need."

UBER-COMMITTED

Stuck at O'Hare with no connecting flight for his return to OTA's from California on June 4, Wright resorted to Uber for a 500+ mile, eight-hour ride that got him to the stadium just minutes before meetings at 7 am. "It's not even mandatory to be here, but for me it is," he said the next day. "I'm new to the team and I'm going to do whatever I can to play my role."

SHAREECE WRIGHT CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after stints with the San Diego Chargers (2011-14), San Francisco 49ers (2015) and Baltimore Ravens (2015-16). Wright was a third round draft choice of the Chargers in 2011.

PICTURE IS WORTH A 1,000 WORDS

One of Wright's favorite things to do off the field is photography, a hobby he recently picked up.

"It started when my son Elijah was born." recalled Wright. "I bought a camera and was taking pictures of him. I took a couple of good shots and we framed them and started having fun with it. I took it from inside the house to outside doing street photography. That's one of my favorites. It helps me relax and takes my mind to a deeper level when you've got to see that picture before you take it."

YELLOWJACKETS BUZZING IN NFL

Played high school football with Jimmy Smith, Allen Bradford, Daniel Sorensen and Brad Sorensen at Colton. All five former Yellowjackets went on to play in the NFL. In fact, Smith, Wright and Bradford (picutured left to right below with their children) were members of the 2011 draft class. Wright and Bradford also played together at USC.

When asked to recall his favorite sports memory as a fan, Wright said "when Jimmy Smith won a Super Bowl as a member of the Ravens in 2012."

PERSONAL

Has a son, Elijah, and two English Bulldogs, Chubbs and Louie. Named his mother, Lavette, as the person who has influenced him the most. "I saw her strength raising six kids by herself while holding down two jobs." Has two sisters, Shaneeka and Shamonique, and three brothers, Shamon, Kevin and Lavon.

Hosted his first youth "Fun Damental" Football Camp at Colton High School on July 21, 2017. Annually donates Thanksgiving turkeys to those in need in Colton.

Grew up a fan of the Dallas Cowboys, Deion Sanders, Emmitt Smith, the Los Angeles Lakers, Kobe Bryant and Ken Griffey, Jr.

GIVING BACK

Yarbrough has a passion for helping others and helped start a Special Olympics Unified Sports program at Grandview High School during his time as a student there. He worked with Grandview's principal at the time, Kurt Wollenweber, to promote inclusion through sport.

The program brings students with and without intellectual disabilities together to play on the same team. Grandview's Unified Sports program has gained national attention through the Unified Hoops team, which is the largest and most diverse Unified team in the country with more than 60 people involved, both special needs and able-bodied. Yarbrough says one of his favorite memories is cheering for the team.

FIRST-AND-10

EDDIE YARBROUGH CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after a stint with the Denver Broncos.

Yarbrough holds many honors and accolades from Wyoming, including being named First team All-Mountain West three times. The linebacker is also Wyoming's all-time leader in tackles for loss with 39, and carved out 256 total career tackles for the Cowboys.

THE STAMPEDE

What other sports did you play in high school? Tennis, track, lacrosse and basketball.

Do you try and model your game after anyone?

Jared Allen - he is relentless.

Best player you've lined up against?

Weston Richburg, who is now the Giants' center.

Funniest moment you've experienced on the field?

When I was a kid, I thought I was about to score a touchdown, but I ran to the wrong end zone.

Favorite movie?

Tie between The Sandlot and Space Jam.

Best concert you've been to?

Garth Brooks.

Favorite emoji?

PERSONAL

Williams was born on April 24, 1993 and is the son of Dana and Eddie Yarbrough. He has two older sisters. Yarbrough graduated from Wyoming with a degree in Communications and minor in Business.

YATES

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SWANKY ADDITION

If not for Bob Swank and the spread offensive system he brought to Pope High School in 2005, it's likely Yates would not be in the NFL. Yates didn't play football as a junior at Pope in part because they ran the triple option. Instead, he focused on basketball, Swank (now the head coach at Duluth HS in Georgia) was hired as head coach and recruited Yates back to football. Said T.J., "We were playing Woodstock High School during my senior year and North Carolina's LBs coach, Brad Lawing, was scouting Woodstock and Bruce Miller (former 49ers FB) and I ended up throwing five touchdowns and running for two others."

FIRST-AND-10

T.J. YATES SIGNED WITH THE BILLS IN 2017

to add veteran depth and competition to the quarterback position. Yates, a 5th round draft choice of Houston in 2011, was pressed into a starting role as a rookie and helped lead the Texans to a playoff win. Houston's offensive coordinator then was current Bills' offensive coordinator Rick Dennison.

Overall, Yates played with the Texans (2011-13, 2015), Falcons (2014), and the Dolphins (2016). He was the highest drafted QB ever from North Carolina until Mitchell Trubisky was drafted 2nd overall by Chicago in 2017.

GREATEST INFLUENCE

When asked to name the biggest influence on his career, T.J. named John Shoop (pictured center below), his offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina. "When I came to college, I knew nothing about football," said Yates. "Everything I know about football now is because of he and Butch Davis."

300 YARDS FOR THE 3RD-STRING QB

After Matt Schaub and Matt Leinart went down with injuries, the 2011 Houston Texans turned to rookie 5th round pick T.J. Yates for the final five games of the season. In a game that clinched a playoff spot for the Texans on the road in Cincinnati on Dec. 11, Yates threw for 300 yards on 26-44 passing. He led an impressive 13-play, 80-yard drive with Houston trailing 19-13 with 2:33 left to play in regulation. He capped the drive with a 6-yard scoring pass to Kevin Walter.

LESSON LEARNED

You probably will never see T.J. on the football field with his shoelaces untucked. There is a tangible reason why. When asked to name his funniest moment in football, Yates replied, "In college vs. Clemson, I attempted a kneel down at the end of the first half but my right cleat got caught on my left shoelace and I fell backwards and fumbled. From there on, I always tuck my laces in."

PERSONAL

T.J. and his wife, Amy, have a son, Carter. His father, John, was a quarterback and punter at Purdue and is now an engineer. His mother, Carol, is a journalist and a cancer survivor. Has two older brothers, Evan (the head of national sales of Porsche in Atlanta) and David. Both of Yates' grandfathers served in the military.

Yates' father-in-law is long-time NFL and college assistant coach Marty Galbraith, who coached Philip Rivers at NC State and Chad Pennington at Marshall.

NOTES TO KNOW

Received the call to play for the Bills while hosting a play date at his home in Atlanta with the children of newly-signed Bills fullback Patrick DiMarco.

Grew up a fan of the Pacers, Colts, Purdue, Peyton Manning and Drew Brees. His hobbies include hunting and golfing.

As a shooting guard in high school, Yates finished his career ranked fourth on his school's all-time list with 1,163 points and was recruited by Georgia Southern, Furman and Wofford.

Began playing football as a quarterback for the Chargers in Indianapolis at the age of four.

Attended preschool with Cincinnati Reds relief pitcher Drew Storen in Indianapolis.

Came up with the nickname "Donnie Long Ball" for former Texans teammate and current Eagles punter Donnie Jones.

Graduated from North Carolina with a degree in Communications.

One of the most accomplished front office executives in NFL history, Bill Polian helped build multiple successful franchises during his 24 years as a general manager. In all, his teams made 17 playoff trips, eight conference championship games and five Super Bowl appearances, including winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts.

Widely praised as both a top talent evaluator and influential executive, Polian is the first sixtime recipient of the NFL Executive of the Year award from The Sporting News and during his time in Buffalo he redesigned the franchise from a last place team in 1985 to the forefront of the league with appearances in Super Bowl XXV, Super Bowl XXVI, Super Bowl XXVII and Super Bowl XXVIII. Working alongside Owner Ralph C. Wilson, Jr.

and Head Coach Marv Levy, Polian's eye for talent and negotiating prowess brought a bevy of outstanding players to Buffalo. In fact, of the 47 Bills at the first two Super Bowls, 45 came to Buffalo during Polian's tenure.

His acquisitions included the 1986 signing of QB Jim Kelly from the USFL and the 1987 trade for LB Cornelius Bennett. Additional draft picks Polian made in Buffalo included DE Bruce Smith, OT Will Wolford, RB Thurman Thomas and WR Andre Reed. He built a team that would reverse the Bills record from 8-40 from 1984-86 to a 58-22 mark from 1988-92. During his time in Buffalo, 13 Bills drafted or obtained by Polian made a total of 49 Pro Bowl appearances. In all, Polian brought in five players who would end up in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas), as well as Head Coach Marv Levy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Responsible for putting together the only NFL team to go to four consecutive Super Bowls
- Brought six future Hall of Famers to Buffalo (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith, Thurman Thomas and Head Coach Mary Levy)

Andre Reed ended his 16-year career as the most accomplished wide receiver to ever play for the Buffalo Bills. The 6-2, 190-pound Kutztown product led the Bills in receiving from 1986 to 1992 and then again in 1994, 1996 and 1997 on his way to racking up the Bills' career receiving records for receptions (941) and receiving yards (13,095).

After being selected by Buffalo with the team's first choice in the fourth round of the 1985 NFL Draft, Reed emerged as one of the elite wideouts in the league during the 1989 season when he caught 88 passes for 1,312 yards and nine touchdowns.

Reed would go on to provide a dynamic presence on all four of the Bills' AFC Championship teams—leading the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns during the four-year run.

A seven-time Pro Bowler, Reed recorded a franchise record 36 100-yard receiving games (regular season) as a Bill. Reed also ranks as the franchise leader in games played with 221 and is tied with Bruce Smith as the franchise's all-time leaders in years of service with 15 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to seven straight Pro Bowls spanning from 1988 to 1994
- Bills franchise leader in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns
- Named to the Bills 50th Season All-Time Team in 2009

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he was the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four straight Super Bowls. He was honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century, The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986.

Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships. Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996.

Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 16th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Bills' all-time sack leader with 171.
- Selected to 11 Pro Bowls.
- NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack. The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-American and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, DeLamielleure played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980. He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills' respected front wall.

Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to six straight Pro Bowls from 1976-1981

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with the Green Bay Packers, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at the age of 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- First player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and 26 times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses. In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times.

In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993

In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won their first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered "no-huddle" offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills' history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993 and 1995.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was NFL Coach of the Year in 1988, AFC Coach of the year in 1988, 1993 and 1995

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a firsteam All-AFL selection five times (1962-66) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969. He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965
- Named All-AFL five times (1962-1966)
- First player to spend entire career in the AFL to be elected to the Hall of Fame

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972-76. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)
Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.

 Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Statue

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of New Era Field in Founder's Plaza. Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson. Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at New Era Field.

Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of New Era Field. The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

PUTTING THE COMMUNITY FIRST

The Buffalo Bills organization is committed to improving the quality of life in Western New York through community outreach and charitable investment with a focus in the areas of health & safety, youth football and military appreciation. With the platform that the Bills players and coaches are given, they've always made it a point to make an impact in the Western New York community and that was no different this past offseason and during the 2016 season.

PLAY 60

The Buffalo Bills hosted two Play 60 events this past offseason, with outstanding player participation at both events. At the Play 60 Field Day at Windom Elementary in Orchard Park, the Bills players led students in physical activity stations to celebrate their completion of the Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge with the Independent Health Foundation and Buffalo Niagara American Heart Association. At the Play 60 Ultimate Field Day at New Era Field, the Bills rookie class got their chance to hit the field and put local kids through various stations.

HOSPITAL VISITS

Multiple members of the Bills organization found time to visit the Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo this offseason. Bills players Kevon Seymour and Colton Schmidt paid a visit to the 13th annual Kiss Cares for Kids Radiothon to sign autographs, deliver gifts to the children and help the radio station raise money. Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott and his wife Jamie also made a visiot to WCHOB where they introduced themselves to dozens of families and made longlasting memories. "It was awesome," said Coach McDermott. "It's funny, I get more out of this than I give. But just great to see the looks on the children's faces and to shed some joy on an adverse situation for some families."

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALLGAME

Members of the Bills organization could be spotted at multiple ballparks this past offseason. Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott was invited to throw out the first pitch and sign autographs at a Buffalo Bisons game and Marcell Dareus hosted Marcell Dareus Day with the Bisons. Dareus got the chance to throw out the first pitch, donated $2,500 to the Buffalo Bisons Charitable Foundation, signed autographs and hosted over 100 local kids at the game.

LeSean McCoy hosted the fourth annual LeSean McCoy Foundation Charity Softball Game in Rochester, N.Y. at the home of the Rochester Red Wings. Due to the weather, the fans had to settle for an entertaining home run derby between the players that eneded with Jerry Hughes taking the title. McCoy's foundation raises funds to help find the cure for ALS, a debilitating disease that McCoy's late grandmother suffered from.
