2022 EXPERIMENTAL RULES FOR MINOR LEAGUE SYSTEMS

PITCH TIMER: On-field timers will be used at all full-season affiliates to enforce regulations designed to create a crisp pace of play, with batters required to be ready to hit and pitchers required to deliver the pitch within allotted periods of time. With runners on base, pitchers will have additional allotted time for each pitch but will risk automatic baserunner advancement if a third pick-off attempt or step-off within the same plate appearance is made without recording an out. These rules were used in tandem in the Low-A West and in the Arizona Fall League in 2021 and led to a significant improvement in pace of play and a reduction in average game time of more than 20 minutes.

LARGER BASES: The size of first, second and third base will be increased from 15 inches square to 18 inches square at all full-season affiliates to reduce player injuries. Bigger bases were used in 2021 at the TripleA level and in the Arizona Fall League, and were associated with a decrease in the severity of base-related injuries. In addition, the reduction in distance between bases led to a modest increase in the rate of successful stolen base attempts.

DEFENSIVE POSITIONING: In Double-A, High-A and Low-A, the defensive team must have a minimum of four players on the infield, with at least two infielders completely on either side of second base. These restrictions on defensive positioning are intended to allow infielders to better showcase their athleticism, to increase batting average on balls in play, and to restore a more traditional set of aesthetics and outcomes on batted balls.

MEDIA AND CLUB CONTACTS

Emily Messina, 24, enters her second season in the broadcast booth, her third year with the Reading Fightin Phils. Messina also runs the media relations department. The broadcaster freelanced during the offseason calling a variety of sports at Franklin and Marshall College. Previously, she spent a winter with the Melbourne Aces of the Australian Baseball League. There she was a voice of the team, working as a play-by-play and color commentator and as a PA announcer. Messina also spent time at the Cleveland Indians Advanced-A affiliate, the Lynchburg Hillcats, as their Press Box Manager. She was also a part of the broadcast team, filling in both at home and on the road. A Bucks County, Pennsylvania native, Messina began her career in the Athletic Department at The Catholic University of America. He began his time with the Philadelphia organization back in 2013 when he was a player and a coach for the Short-Season Williamsport Crosscutters. A year later he transitioned to the player development staff with the club. Williams got his start in professional baseball as a utility player for the Tampa Bay Rays. In his first season in Baseballtown, Williams took the R-Phils all the way to the playoffs with a second-half East Division title. The Fightins also secured the best overall record that year going 80-59 in the Eastern League. His father Jimmy Williams also was an industry professional. He was the Phillies bench coach for two years (2007-2008) and also managed the Toronto Blue Jays, Houston Astros, and Boston Red Sox. In 1999, Williams was named the American League Manager of the Year with Boston.

Pitching Coach – Matt Hockenberry

Hockenberry will assume the role of pitching coach after spending two seasons with the Phillies High-A team. He also assists at Webber International University. A Pennsylvania native, Hockenberry played at Temple University before being selected by Philadelphia in the ninth round of the 2014. He went on to pitch through the farm system making it as high as Reading in 2017.

Hitting Coach – Tyler Henson

Henson enters his third season as the hitting coach for Reading. He has had stints instructing in all the Phillies minor league ballparks. Henson played in the farm system as well, appearing in 80 games in Baseballtown in 2013. He was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the fifth-round back in 2006. In total, Henson's playing career spanned ten years where he saw time at every position but pitcher and catcher.

Coach – Mycal Jones

Jones rounds out the coaches for the Fightins. Jones has previously spent time as a coach in the farm system and also with Houston Astros organization at their Double-A level. A fourth-round selection by the Atlanta Braves in 2009, Jones reached Triple-A. In his playing days, he spent time on the left side of the infield and rotated through the outfield positions.

Athletic Trainer – Andrew Dodgson

Dodgson will join the R-Phils as the athletic trainer. Dodgson spent his first two years in the organization as a trainer for the Gulf Coast Phillies West and the following year in the High-A level. He has a degree in athletic training from the University of South Florida and in sports management from the University of Southern Mississippi.

Strength & Conditioning Coach – Bruce Peditto

Peditto will be new to Reading as he was named the Strength and Conditioning coach for the Fightins. Peditto joined the Phillies player development staff prior to the 2018 season and spent 2019 and 2021 with the BlueClaws.
