UConn Is Unanimous BIG EAST Women's Basketball Preseason Favorite

NEW YORK – The BIG EAST Women's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll was announced on Tuesday with reigning champion Connecticut the unanimous favorite to win the league. The Huskies, who competed in the BIG EAST last season for the first time since 2012-13, have won the conference regular season 20 times, along with 19 BIG EAST Tournament titles. UConn collected 100 points and 10 first-place votes to top the preseason poll.

Six-time BIG EAST regular-season champion DePaul finished second in the Preseason Coaches' Poll with 90 points and the remaining first-place vote. Seton Hall was slotted third with 80 points, while Marquette, the 2020-21 runner-up in both the regular season and conference tournament, was fourth with 74 points. BIG EAST Tournament semifinalists a season ago, Villanova (62 points) and Creighton (54) were picked fifth and sixth, respectively. With 51 points, St. John's followed in seventh, while Providence landed in eighth with 32 points. Georgetown (ninth, 27 points), Xavier (10th, 18 points) and Butler (11th, 17 points) rounded out the poll.

UConn returned to the BIG EAST in impressive fashion in 2020-21, going 18-0 in conference play and 28-2 overall, including a run to its 13th straight Final Four. The Huskies return all five starters from a season ago, including BIG EAST Player and Freshman of the Year, AP Player of the Year, Naismith Trophy Winner and Wooden Award winner Paige Bueckers. UConn also boasts the nation's No. 2 recruiting class, as ranked by espnW, highlighted by top-ranked prospect Azzi Fudd. Entering his 37th season at the helm, head coach Geno Auriemma eclipsed the 1,100 win mark last season, moving to No. 2 all-time in career wins.

Also returning all five starters in 2021-22, DePaul went 14-10 overall and 11-5 in BIG EAST play a season ago to finish fourth in the standings. The Blue Demons earned an invite to the WNIT this past March after 17 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Among DePaul's top returners are 2021 All-BIG EAST First Team selections Sonya Morris and Lexi Held. DePaul finished in the top 10 nationally in three statistical categories in 20-21, including No. 8 in scoring offense at 81.5 points per game.

After a 12-5 BIG EAST record, Seton Hall posted a third-place finish for the second straight year and earned the conference's automatic bid to the WNIT. The Pirates finished 14-7 overall and return a trio of starters from that squad, including All-BIG EAST First Team performers Lauren Park-Lane and Andra Espinoza-Hunter. Park-Lane was voted BIG EAST Most Improved Player after nearly tripling her scoring average from her rookie campaign.

Marquette advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament final for the fifth consecutive season and claimed its fourth straight NCAA Tournament invite in 2020-21. With a 14-4 BIG EAST record, the Golden Eagles were No. 2 in the conference standings and finished with an overall mark of 19-7. MU returns three starters from a season ago, including BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award winner and Second Team honoree Lauren Van Kleunen. Marquette will look to bolster its lineup with transfers Karissa McLaughlin, an All-Big Ten First Team performer from Purdue, and Kennedy Myles out of Illinois.

UConn won the 2021 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament presented by JEEP

In its first season under head coach Denise Dillon, Villanova went 17-7 overall and 9-5 in BIG EAST play to finish fifth in the standings. The Wildcats scored a BIG EAST Tournament Quarterfinal upset over fourth-seeded DePaul to advance to its first Semifinal since 2015. Villanova earned a WNIT invite and advanced to the third round. The Wildcats return three starters from a season ago, highlighted by Katrina McClain Award finalist Maddy Siegrist, who led the BIG EAST in scoring both overall (22.8) and in league play (23.1).

Creighton also scored a BIG EAST Tournament Quarterfinal upset in 2021 as the sixth-seeded Bluejays bounced the third-seeded Pirates. Creighton went 6-7 in league action, missing nearly the entire month of January due to COVID-19 pauses and cancellations. The Bluejays went 10-12 overall, which included a trip to the WNIT where they advanced to the second round. Among Creighton's three returning starters is sophomore Emma Ronsiek, who finished second on the team in scoring with an 11.6 rookie average.

St. John's is coming off an 8-15 season, including a 4-12 BIG EAST mark. After finishing in eighth place in the standings, the Red Storm advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament Quarterfinals before falling to the top-seeded Huskies. St. John's returns four starters from last season's squad, highlighted by All-BIG EAST First Team performer Leilani Correa. Correa finished fifth in the BIG EAST in scoring with an overall average of 17.6 points per game. St. John's added a pair of impact transfers in the offseason in Notre Dame's Danielle Cosgrove and Indiana's Danielle Patterson.

Providence scored a BIG EAST Tournament win for a third straight year, advancing to the Quarterfinals before falling to the second-seeded Golden Eagles. The Friars finished 2020-21 with a 7-14 overall record and 4-10 mark in BIG EAST play to land seventh in the standings. PC returns two of its top-three scorers from a year ago, including Mary Baskerville who was an All-BIG EAST Second Team honoree. Providence will have a revamped lineup this winter as the roster features eight newcomers, including two-time Maine Gatorade Player of the Year Emily Archibald.

After being limited to just BIG EAST competition, Georgetown went 2-14 in the regular season and fell in the BIG EAST Tournament First Round to finish 2-15 on the year. The Hoyas were without 2019-20 BIG EAST blocks leader Anita Kelava in 20-21, but the graduate student forward is back for 21-22. GU also returns BIG EAST All-Freshman Team member Kelsey Ransom, who led the Hoyas in scoring during her rookie season.

Limited to just 10 conference games due to COVID-19 disruptions, Xavier went 2-8 in BIG EAST action and 5-10 overall, landing in ninth place in the standings. The Musketeers will have a new look this year with seven newcomers, but return their No. 2 and 3 scorers from a year ago in Nia Clark and Kae Satterfield. Notable fresh faces include JUCO All-American Shaila Beeler, Virginia Tech transfer Shelby Calhoun and Clemson transfer Mikayla Hayes.

Limited to just one non-conference regular-season game a year ago, Butler finished with a 3-17 overall record and 3-15 mark in BIG EAST play to place 10th. The Bulldogs will replace three starters, but return No. 2 scorer Genesis Parker. The Bulldogs hope to fortify their lineup with Furman transfer Celena Taborn as well as Eastern Kentucky's Kendall Wingler.

Bueckers Named BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year

UConn's Paige Bueckers added another accolade to her growing list as the sophomore guard was the unanimous choice for BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year. Teammate Azzi Fudd was also an uncontested pick as BIG EAST Preseason Freshman of the Year. In addition to the major awards, a 10-member Preseason All-BIG EAST Team was announced. Preseason major awards and all-league honors are selected by the BIG EAST's head coaches, who are not permitted to vote for their own players.

Bueckers made history in 2020-21, as the first freshman to win the Wooden Award, Naismith Trophy, AP National Player of the Year, USBWA National Player of the Year and Lieberman Award. She was named the 2021 BIG EAST Player and Freshman of the Year and the BIG EAST Tournament Most Outstanding Player. Bueckers led UConn with 20.0 points, 5.8 assists and 2.3 steals per game as well as a 46.4 three-point field goal percentage. She set BIG EAST freshman records for total field goals made (128), season three-point percentage (.500) and single-game assists (14).

Fudd is the Huskies' second top-ranked recruit in as many seasons. The 5-11 guard from Arlington, Va., is a 2021 McDonald's All-American, a three-time Gatorade Washington, D.C., Player of the Year, 2019 Gatorade National Player of the Year and a USA Today All-American, among many other accomplishments. She won a gold medal at the 2021 FIBA U19 World Cup, 2018 FIBA U17 World Cup and 2017 FIBA Americas U16 Championship.

UConn also saw three selected to the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team, including unanimous choice Christyn Williams. The senior guard listed second on the Huskies in scoring

She ranked eighth in both overall scoring (16.6) and in BIG EAST play (17.3), while leading the conference in steals with more than three per game.

BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award winner and Second Team honoree Lauren Van Kleunen had her best season in a Marquette uniform in 20-21, posting career-best marks in scoring (13.2 overall, 12.8 in BIG EAST) and field goal percentage (.514, .530). The graduate student forward will be playing her fifth season in 2021-22.

St. John's junior guard Leilani Correa reached the 30-point mark five times last season to finish fifth in the conference in scoring with a 17.6 average. The All-BIG EAST First Team pick added 5.4 rebounds and 1.8 steals per game. Correa was a unanimous selection to the preseason squad.

After earning All-BIG EAST First Team recognition last season, Seton Hall graduate student guard/forward Andra Espinoza-Hunter and junior guard Lauren Park-Lane were named to the Preseason All-BIG EAST squad. Espinoza-Hunter finished third in the conference in scoring with an 18.6 average over 16 league contests, making a league-high 3.1 three-pointers per game. Park-Lane, a unanimous preseason pick, was voted BIG EAST Most Improved Player this past March after nearly tripling her scoring average from her rookie season. The 5-6 guard finished fifth in league play in scoring at 17.9 points per game.

Villanova junior forward Maddy Siegrist led the BIG EAST in scoring (22.8), rebounding (9.8) and double-doubles (13) in 2020-21. She was a unanimous choice to the All-BIG EAST First Team as a sophomore and was an uncontested preseason pick this fall. At 23.1 points per game in BIG EAST play, she is the first Villanova player to win the scoring title since Trish Juhline in 2002-03.

BIG EAST signs three-year contract with Mohegan Sun Arena, located in Uncasville, Conn.

NEW YORK – The BIG EAST Women’s Basketball Tournament presented by Jeep will be played at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn., beginning in 2021, the Conference announced today. The agreement spans three years and includes the 2021, 2022 and 2023 postseasons. The BIG EAST just completed a three-year run for the event at Wintrust Arena in Chicago, Ill.

The BIG EAST’s move to Mohegan Sun Arena follows the recent readmission of the University of Connecticut to the BIG EAST as a member school. UConn was a charter member of the BIG EAST when the conference was formed in 1979 and formally re-joined the conference on July 1, 2020. The 11-time national champion Huskies spent the past seven years in the American Athletic Conference, winning all seven women’s basketball league tournaments and going 118-0 in conference action.

“We are very excited to bring one of the BIG EAST’s premier competitions to Mohegan Sun Arena, a one-of-a-kind facility that has long served as one of the best women’s basketball venues in the country,” said BIG EAST Commissioner Val Ackerman. “We are proud to welcome the Huskies and their women’s basketball fans back into the BIG EAST fold, and we look forward to working with Amber Cox and her staff to deliver a memorable and first-class experience for our student-athletes, coaches and supporters.”

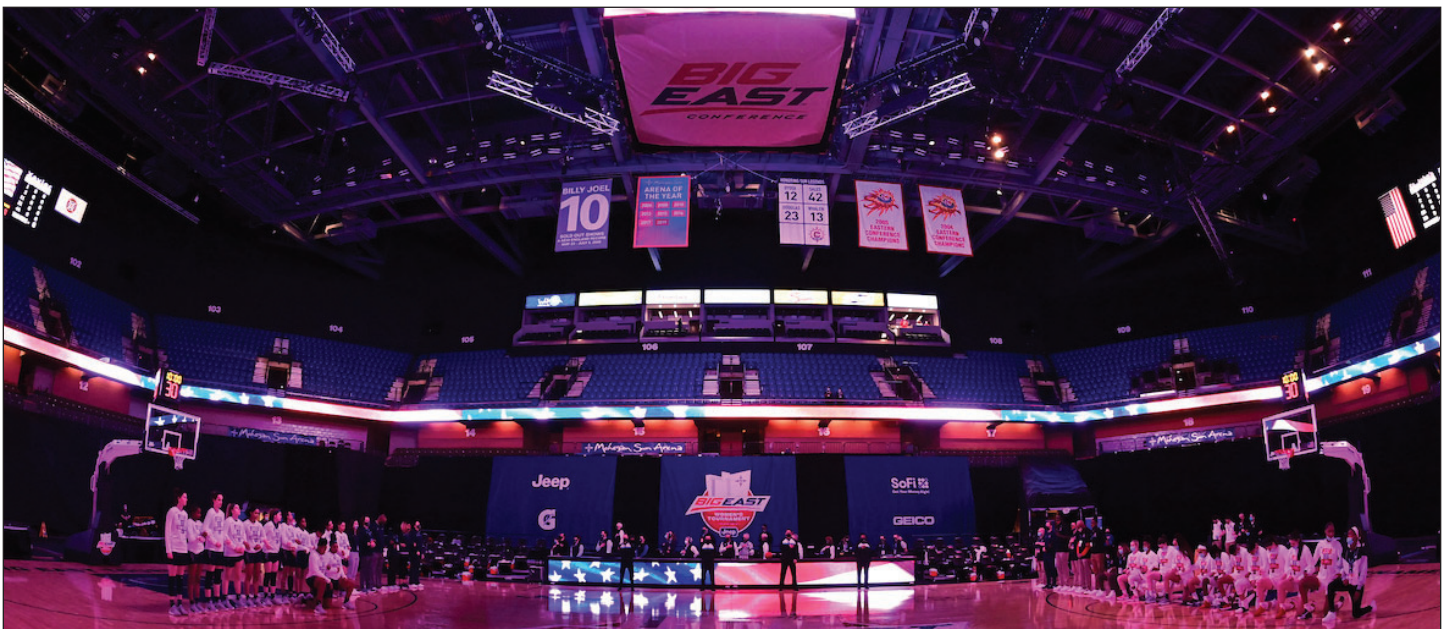

Mohegan Sun Arena is a 10,000-seat venue located in southeastern Connecticut which features year-round entertainment, hosting the likes of Billy Joel, Fleetwood Mac, The Eagles, Taylor Swift, Jennifer Lopez, Jay Z, Keith Urban, Bon Jovi and Kenny Chesney in addition to championship boxing and MMA, top-touring stand-up comedy, WWE, NCAA Division I and professional basketball. Mohegan Sun has been the home of the WNBA’s Connecticut Sun since 2003.

“We are thrilled to welcome the BIG EAST Women’s Basketball Tournament to Mohegan Sun Arena,” said Amber Cox, Vice President of the Connecticut Sun and the National Lacrosse League’s New England Black Wolves. “Connecticut is the women’s basketball capital of the world, with the most passionate fans in the country, supporting both the UConn Huskies and the Sun year-round. This marquee event is sure to be a highlight for all BIG EAST fans, who will not only get to enjoy incredible basketball action, but all the entertainment offerings of Mohegan Sun as well.”

The past seven BIG EAST Women’s Basketball Tournaments have been played in the Midwest – 2014-15 at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Ill.; 2016 at McGrath-Phillips Arena on DePaul University’s campus in Chicago; 2017 at the Al McGuire Center on Marquette University’s campus in Milwaukee, Wis.; before a three-year run at Wintrust Arena in downtown Chicago.

Prior to conference realignment in 2013-14, the BIG EAST Women’s Basketball Tournament was played for 10 consecutive seasons at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn., following a run of 21 years at on-campus arenas. The BIG EAST led the nation in conference postseason attendance for nine of 10 years while in Hartford.

DePaul has won the last three BIG EAST Tournament titles and five of the last seven to rank second to only Connecticut for championships won. The Huskies have 18 BIG EAST postseason crowns to their credit, most recently winning in 2012. St. John’s (2016, 1988, 1984, 1983), Villanova (2003, 1987, 1986), Marquette (2017) and Providence (1990) have also won the BIG EAST Tournament.

The BIG EAST Tournament presented by JEEP was held at Mohegan Sun Arena in 2021 for the first time; attendance was limited to friends and family of participating teams due to the COVID-19 pandemic

Val Ackerman | BIG EAST Commissioner

Val Ackerman was named the fifth Commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference on June 26, 2013. She was the founding President of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and is a past President of USA Basketball, which oversees the U.S. men's and women's Olympic basketball program. She has had a long and accomplished career in the sports industry and is one of the few executives in sports who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international levels. She is an inductee of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (2021), the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame (2011) and the New Jersey Hall of Fame (2021).

While at the helm of the BIG EAST, Val has presided over the rebirth of the conference following the decision in 2012 of seven then-current BIG EAST schools (DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova) to separate from the original BIG EAST Conference and align with Butler, Creighton and Xavier to form the present configuration. She led the relocation of the conference office to its current site in New York City and has managed the BIG EAST's fruitful partnerships with Fox Sports, which provides wall-to-wall coverage annually of BIG EAST men's basketball on FOX, FS1 and FS2, and with Madison Square Garden, which has hosted the conference's men's basketball tournament since 1983. In 2018, the BIG EAST and MSG entered into a venue agreement extension that will keep the Garden as the home of the BIG EAST tournament through 2028. In 2019, Val also led the negotiations which resulted in the return to the BIG EAST of the University of Connecticut, one of the conference's charter members, effective July 1, 2020.

Following its return to its basketball-centric heritage, the BIG EAST has continued its national excellence in the sport over the past seven years, with 10 of the league's 11 men's basketball programs receiving NCAA tournament bids since 2013-14 and Villanova winning the national championship in 2016 and 2018. Other BIG EAST team athletics accomplishments since reconfiguration include national titles for Providence in women's cross country in 2013, the University of Denver (an affiliate member) in men's lacrosse in 2015, and Georgetown in men's soccer in 2019.

Conference initiatives launched under Val's leadership include the BIG EAST Digital Network, which now carries more than 500 live sports contests annually; BIG EAST Serves, the conference's student-athlete development and community service platform; non-conference men's basketball scheduling challenges with the Big Ten Conference and the Big 12 Conference; an officiating alliance with the Atlantic Coast Conference and nine other Division I conferences; the annual BIG EAST Student-Athlete Well-Being Forum, which provides guidance on a wide range of student-athlete wellness matters; a conference-wide e-sports initiative; BE the Change, a diversity, equity and inclusion platform; Freshmen Fundamentals and Transition Game, league-wide programs designed to assist men's and women's basketball student-athletes, respectively, in their endeavors off the court; and BIG EAST University, a virtual career and professional development module.

Val attended the University of Virginia as one of the school's first female student-athlete scholarship recipients. She was a four-year starter, three-time captain and two-time Academic All-American for the Cavaliers' women's basketball team and the first 1,000-point scorer in the program's history. She graduated with high distinction with a degree in political and social thought in 1981 and played one year of professional basketball in France before earning a law degree from UCLA in 1985.

Val started her legal career as a corporate and banking associate at the New York law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and joined the National Basketball Association as a staff attorney in 1988. She was as an executive at the NBA for eight years, serving as Special Assistant to NBA Commissioner David Stern and Director (and later) Vice President of Business Affairs before being named the WNBA's first President in 1996. She guided the league to a much-heralded launch in 1997 and headed its day-to-day operations for its first eight seasons. The league celebrated its 25th season in 2021.

In 2005, Val was elected President of USA Basketball for the 2005-08 term, leading the organization to an overall competitive record of 222-23 and gold medal performances by the U.S. men's and women's basketball teams at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. She was one of the NBA's original appointees to the USA Basketball Board of Directors in 1989 and served as an organizational liaison with USAB during the early years of NBA participation in national team competitions, including the 1992 and 1996 Olympics and 1994 World Championships. A USA Basketball Board member for 23 years, Val played a key role in the long-standing success of the U.S. women's national basketball team program, which during her term won gold medals at the 1998, 2002 and 2010 FIBA World Championships and the 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games. In 2013, Val was named the recipient of USA Basketball's Edward S. Steitz Award, which recognizes outstanding contributions in international basketball.

Val also served two terms (2006-10 and 2010-2014) as the U.S. representative for men's and women's basketball on the Central Board of the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), the sport's world governing body. She was a member of FIBA's Competition Commission and served on the Central Board of FIBA Americas, FIBA's zone authority for North, Central and South America. FOX Sports to nationally televise 15 regular-season games, including two on FOX; BIG EAST Digital Network and FloSports to stream more than 130 contests.

NEW YORK – The BIG EAST Conference announced its 2021-22 women's basketball schedule and extensive television lineup on Friday. FOX Sports will air a total of 22 games, including the quarterfinal, semifinal and championship games of the 2022 BIG EAST Tournament presented by JEEP at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Of those 22 games, two will air on FOX, marking the second straight year BIG EAST women's basketball will be featured on the broadcast network. Additionally, CBS Sports Network will air four conference matchups, while SNY will cover 18 regular-season games, including 17 during conference play. For the seventh straight year, the BIG EAST Digital Network presented by SoFi will stream every conference game not designated for television. FloSports, the home of BEDN, will also house all school-produced games as more than 130 total women's basketball contests will stream on the platform. Additional content on BEDN on FloSports includes "Fast Break," the Conference's weekly women's basketball feature show.

Six teams tip off the season on Nov. 9, while all 11 will play their first non-conference contest by Nov. 15. The opening weekend of BIG EAST play will be Dec. 3 and 5. The conference will play a 110-game regular-season schedule with all 11 teams playing 20 league contests in a double round-robin format.

For the ninth consecutive year, FS1 and FS2 will provide coverage of the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament, with this season's event returning to Mohegan Sun Arena for a second consecutive year. Quarterfinal coverage on March 5 begins on FS1 at noon ET, before FS2 takes over for the 2:30 p.m., 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. tilts. FS1 picks up the remainder of the tournament, with the semifinals on March 6 slated for 3 and 5:30 p.m., and the championship game set to tip off at 8 p.m. on March 7. The BIG EAST Digital Network will live stream all three first round games on March 4, with tip times not yet determined.

The Conference is in the ninth year of its multi-year contract with FOX Sports, which has exclusive television rights to all BIG EAST competitions. Three non-conference games are included in this year's FOX Sports lineup, including arguably the greatest rivalry in women's basketball history. UConn will host Tennessee on Feb. 6 on FOX; tipoff will be either noon or 1 p.m. The Huskies will face another longtime foe on FS1 in December, as Notre Dame comes to town on Dec. 5 at noon. Additionally, DePaul's home contest against the Fighting Irish on Dec. 22 will also air on FS1, tipping off at 8:30 p.m.

In addition to the Tennessee-UConn game, FOX will air the Huskies' tilt at Marquette on Feb. 13 at 2:30 p.m. UConn and the Golden Eagles finished 1-2 in the BIG EAST standings last year and met in the BIG EAST Tournament title game, with both teams earning NCAA Tournament berths.

Conference action on FS1 tips off on Dec. 5 when Seton Hall visits St. John's at 2 p.m. Coverage continues on Dec. 19 with the Pirates hosting Marquette at noon. The first nationally televised contest of the New Year pits Providence at Butler on Jan. 2 at noon on FS1, before Villanova makes its debut on Jan. 14 at DePaul (6:30 p.m.) on FS2. The first of four games on CBS Sports Network this season tips off on Jan. 16 when the Wildcats visit the Golden Eagles, while DePaul at Xavier follows on Jan. 23, with both slated for 2 p.m. start times. The Blue Demons return home on Jan. 28 to host St. John's on FS1 (7 p.m.), before closing out the month at Seton Hall on Jan. 30 for a 4:30 p.m. FS1 tilt.

Along with the two FOX tilts, five additional games will air on the FOX Sports networks in February, including Creighton at Marquette on Feb. 6 at 2 p.m. on FS1, the Golden Eagles at Villanova on FS1 on Feb. 11 at 7 p.m., and Xavier at Providence on Feb. 13 at noon on FS1. The homestretch of the regular season sees Marquette at Georgetown on Feb. 18 at 7 p.m. on FS2, before Creighton and DePaul close things out on Feb. 27 in Omaha on FS1 at noon. CBS Sports Network coverage will also include the final regular-season push as UConn at Georgetown on Feb. 20 and UConn at Providence on Feb. 27 are set to air, with tip times announced at a later date.

SNY's lineup includes UConn's season opener against Arkansas on Nov. 14, and 17 BIG EAST games for the Huskies. Included in that lineup is UConn's league opener against Seton Hall on Dec. 3, a rematch of the 2021 BIG EAST title game with Marquette on Dec. 29, and both DePaul showdowns (Dec. 31, Feb. 11).

FOX Sports is also the home for out-of-market games on SNY. Out-of-market fans are able to stream the SNY games at no additional cost to authenticated subscribers. Users will need to sign in with their TV provider credentials at <https://www.foxsports.com/> or in the FOX Sports app.

BIG EAST Expands FloSports Streaming Agreement to Include 600 Events

NEW YORK – The BIG EAST Conference has announced an agreement with leading sports streaming service FloSports to become the home of the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN) presented by SoFi for the 2021-22 academic year. FloSports served as the digital home of BIG EAST women’s basketball in 2020-21, and will now expand its BEDN lineup to include more than 500 Olympic sports events, as well as BIG EAST original content such as “Shootaround” and “Fast Break,” the Conference’s weekly men’s and women’s basketball feature shows. FloSports offers both monthly and annual subscriptions, and as part of the expanded agreement, BIG EAST member institution student and faculty discounts will be made available.

The digital platform complements the BIG EAST’s expansive national television deal with FOX Sports, which offers comprehensive annual coverage of regular season men’s and women’s basketball games, including the BIG EAST Men’s and Women’s Basketball Tournaments presented by JEEP, as well as BIG EAST Olympic sport championships. CBS Sports also annually airs select BIG EAST men’s and women’s basketball games along with several Olympic sport contests. Additionally, SNY annually airs upwards of 18 UConn women’s basketball games.

“After our successful collaboration last year to make FloSports the digital home of BIG EAST women’s basketball, we’re very excited to expand the partnership by adding Olympic sports competitions and other programming to FloSports’ growing platform for the 2021-22 academic year,” said Rick Gentile, BIG EAST Senior Associate Commissioner, Broadcasting. “Our national TV agreement with FOX Sports has provided the BIG EAST with unrivaled linear coverage of all 22 BIG EAST sports over the last eight seasons, and our enhanced digital arrangement with FloSports will further broaden the reach of the BIG EAST Digital Network and grow our audience on a global level. The exposure from the increased distribution of our competitions and other content is sure to benefit our student-athletes, coaches, schools and fans.”

“We have found an incredible partner with the BIG EAST,” says Mark Floreani, CEO and Co-Founder, FloSports. “Rick and the BIG EAST team share our vision of expanding access to more sports through digital platforms and building stronger direct relationships with conference students, athletes and fans of the wide range of athletic programs offered through the BIG EAST.”

BEDN on FloSports is expected to produce more than 225 events in 2021-22, with a focus on women’s basketball, which accounts for over 75 streamed games per season. The BIG EAST’s 11 member institutions will also provide FloSports with additional regular-season streams, bringing the expected total number of events to nearly 600 for the year. With the increase in coverage across all BIG EAST campuses, the Conference will implement a number of production innovations, including the use of Kiswe, which will allow game talent to call the contest from any location, and the Pixellot camera system, which provides automated camera coverage.

More than 130 women’s basketball games will stream on FloSports, including the First Round of the 2022 BIG EAST Women’s Basketball Tournament

BIG EAST Conference | 2021-22

The 2021-22 academic year will be the ninth since the BIG EAST Conference began a new era by returning to its basketball-centric heritage.

Since the league's reconfiguration in 2013, the BIG EAST has established itself as one of the nation's elite conferences and a leader in collegiate athletics. That proactive reputation was only enhanced in 2020-21 when the BIG EAST responded to the challenges of a global pandemic while also establishing advocacy platforms to assist the conference's institutions and student-athletes in engaging in social justice and educational efforts.

Dynamic leadership has been a staple of the BIG EAST throughout its history.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named the BIG EAST's fifth Commissioner in 2013. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for achievement at the highest levels and continued its influence on the national collegiate landscape, with numerous conference and campus administrators currently serving on important NCAA committees.

Ackerman is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international level. In the summer of 2021, she was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The BIG EAST grew to 11 members in 2020. The University of Connecticut, a member of the conference from 1979 to 2013, was readmitted. UConn brings a rich history of academic and athletic excellence, especially in the sport of basketball. The Huskies' women's program, which won eight of its 11 national championships as a BIG EAST member, continued its unparalleled national success by advancing to its 13th straight Final Four and 22nd overall in 2021.

In the sports venues, the BIG EAST has produced 12 national champions over the past eight academic years. Seven BIG EAST teams have captured national titles, including two in men's basketball. BIG EAST student-athletes have won national championships in five individual events.

In the classrooms, BIG EAST athletic programs were recognized by the NCAA in 2020-21 for its impressive Graduation Success Rate (GSR). The BIG EAST tied for second among all Division I conferences with an overall GSR rate of 95 percent. All 11 league members had GSR rates of 92 percent or better.

Outside of the arenas and playing fields, the BIG EAST has always adhered to an unwavering commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service while offering opportunities to help student-athletes to reach their potential as students, athletes and leaders.

In the summer of 2020, the conference launched "BE the Change," a conference-wide advocacy platform that enables BIG EAST stakeholders to engage on a range of contemporary racial and social justice issues.

Also in 2020, the BIG EAST created a partnership with RISE, a leading provider of educational programming that equips sports leaders to create positive change on racism, social justice and equality issues.

The conference has also launched BIG EAST University, a virtual educational service which enhances the student-athlete experience with career professional development programming primarily through webinars.

In December of 2012, DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova announced their intention to separate from the conference's FBS football-playing schools and form an independent association. The seven schools reached an agreement to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions — Butler, Creighton and Xavier — and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The new era officially began on July 1, 2013.

The BIG EAST has been lauded as a longstanding leader in innovative concepts, particularly television, and that reputation continues with the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has enjoyed a successful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1. FOX's comprehensive coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes the broadcast of all regular-season games on FOX, FS1, or FS2, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason conference tourney held at the same venue.

BIG EAST institutions are located in eight of the nation's 37 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Hartford/New Haven, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

FOX Sports platforms carry extensive coverage of women's basketball regular-season play and the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament. Every Olympic sport championship is carried on a network or digital platform.

For 2021-22, the BIG EAST has an agreement with FloSports, a leading sports streaming service, to become the home of the BIG EAST Digital Network. The pact with FloSports includes coverage of women's basketball, Olympic sports events and men's and women's basketball shoulder programming with a total of more than 600 events.

BIG EAST Conference | 2021-22

Founded in 1979 by Dave Gavitt, the former Providence men's basketball coach and athletic director, the BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and the conference became an immediate national power in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST has evolved, the focus of its schools has not changed, reflecting a tradition of emphasizing academic strength and fair play.

To complement its athletic successes, the conference established BIG EAST Serves in 2014 to align with the service missions of the member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to campus communities. The BIG EAST hosts a Well Being Forum online series to help provide institutional personnel with information, insights and basic training so they can better support the mental and physical health of their student-athletes.

Commissioner Ackerman and the BIG EAST have taken a leadership role in Sport at the Service of Humanity, an initiative created by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Culture to focus on how sport and faith can drive positive social change. Ackerman was a delegate at the inaugural Vatican conference and has served on an advisory committee to develop the framework and content for the initiative.

The BIG EAST hosts Freshmen Fundamentals, a unique program designed to assist men's basketball student-athletes in the transition from high school to college and the elite level of BIG EAST basketball. The league hosts Transition Game for women's basketball, which assists women's basketball student-athletes in the transition from college player to emerging professional on and off the court.

The conference crowns champions in 22 sports. Men's basketball teams have earned 36 NCAA invitations in seven tournaments (2014-2021), averaging 5.14 per season.

BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success. Villanova has won NCAA Championships in 2018, 2016 and 1985. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national title. Butler, DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the 1985 Final Four — Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—still the only occurrence in NCAA history.

The BIG EAST has achieved recent success in other sports as well. The Georgetown men's soccer team won the 2019 NCAA title. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last 12 years (Villanova twice, Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence).

Georgetown's women's soccer team reached the College Cup in 2018 and 2016. Connecticut has won three national championships in eight years. Denver, an affiliate member in men's lacrosse, won the NCAA crown in 2015.

In the 42 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 42 national championships in eight different sports with 145 student-athletes winning individual national titles.

Villanova head coach Jay Wright (L) and BIG EAST Commissioner Val Ackerman (R) were part of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2021
