WHO WE ARE

The FireWolves' brand identity reflects the organization's deep roots in the National Lacrosse League, pays tribute to lacrosse's Native American heritage, and represents the team's commitment to serving the community throughout the Albany area.

Lacrosse's history goes back 1,000s of years on the lands of the Six Nations of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, which spanned from the Hudson River and the Mohawk Valley north into Quebec and Ontario in the Great Lakes region. The Albany area was originally inhabited by both Mohawk (Iroquois) and Mohican (Algonquin) tribes, and the roots of lacrosse began in what is now New York State and Canada as early as 1100AD. The Haudenosaunee (Iroquois for "People of the Longhouse") believe lacrosse, which they call Dehoñtjihgwa'és (translation: "they bump hips"), was a gift from The Creator. Also known as "The Medicine Game", lacrosse is believed to have healing powers and remains a central part of Native American communities throughout the Northeast.

The FireWolves are proud to call the Capital Region home and continue our lineage in the area that dates back to the National Lacrosse League runner-up Albany Attack in 2002. A through line beginning in the early 2000s, the wolf was part of the Attack's logo, while also being part of the logo and name of the New England Black Wolves that played in Connecticut from 2015 to 2020 before the franchise moved to Albany before the 2021-22 season. Native to the Adirondacks and also one of only three repeating clans throughout the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the wolf embodies many of our organization's key values: courage, strength, loyalty and leadership. On and off the field.

While the "FireWolf" is a mystical creature, the use of fire in the name represents the symbolism of community and gathering for ceremony. The Mohican tribes who originally inhabited the Capital Region called it Pempotowwuthut-Muhhcanneuw, meaning "the fireplace of the Mohican nation". We believe strongly in the power of sports as a common-ground meeting place for the community, and the entire FireWolves organization is excited to celebrate competition at the highest level and honor lacrosse's deep roots in the Capital Region.

In summary, the FireWolves are fierce competitors, hunt together and are loyal to the pack. The Albany FireWolves organization holds the values of teamwork, competitive desire and community focus in the highest regard as we honor the heritage of lacrosse and the National Lacrosse League teams that came before us, while working to create a positive impact throughout the Capital Region.

GAME 2 MATCHUP PREVIEW FIREWOLVES vs KNIGHTHAWKS

The Albany FireWolves (1-0) will make their home debut for the 2022-23 season this Saturday, December 17, at 7:00 p.m. against the Rochester Knighthawks (2-0). Albany opened the season with a one-goal win on the road against last year's top-seeded Buffalo Bandits. Looking to build on the early momentum, the FireWolves will face a Knighthawks team who has begun the season winning their first two games. Despite their 4-14 record last season, Rochester had Albany's number, defeating the FireWolves in both matchups between the two clubs. This weekend's game can be watched on My4 Albany or ESPN Plus.

FireWolves Players to Watch:

Tanner Thomson showed that he is more than capable of heading the FireWolves' new look offense in the team's road victory over the Bandits. The second year forward led the team with seven total points on two goals and five assists. With Albany's top five scorers from a season ago departing in the offseason, Thomson has already answered all the questions surrounding the offense early on in the new year. Rochester has allowed just 18 goals in their first two games, but look out for Thomson to add to his early season totals as Albany looks to take a 2-0 record into the holiday break.

Connor Kelly, a new addition to the FireWolves this offseason, finished just one point shy of Thomson for the team lead in the team's win two weeks ago. The Forward tallied six points in his FireWolves debut on two goals and four assists. Albany brought him in for his offense and he did not disappoint in the team's opening game. Look out for Thomson and Kelly to continue to be a one-two punch as they both find the back of the net and set up open teammates in this one.

Hiana Thompson, another new member of the FireWolves this season, put together a solid all-around performance in his first game with his new club. In the win over the Bandits, Thompson filled the stat sheet with two points on one goal and one assist, recovered six loose balls, and blocked one shot. His goal came late in the third quarter which sparked a three-score run for Albany on their way to victory. Expect much of the same from Thompson this weekend as the FireWolves will depend on him to stuff the stat book again trying to win for the second time in as many games on the young season.

Opposing Players to Watch:

Connor Fields is a familiar name to Capital Region lacrosse fans. The former UAlbany standout is off to a hot start with his new team, logging 17 points on eight goals and nine assists in Rochester's opening two games. The FireWolves' stout defense did a good job keeping the reigning MVP Dhane Smith out of the net in the team's opening weekend win over Buffalo, but Smith still managed to assist on five of the Bandits' 10 goals. Albany will have their hands full again this weekend trying to slow down one of the game's best offensive players. Fields will certainly try to put on a show in front of his old college fans and the FireWolves must find a way to limit him if they want to start off the new season 2-0.

Thomas Hoggarth, like Fields, is also off to a strong start on the new season. Second on the team in points through the first two games, Hoggarth has recorded nine points on six goals and three assists. In last weekend's win over the Toronto Rock, the forward netted four goals for the Knighthawks and will look to carry that momentum with him to Albany. Of his six goals, Fields has assisted on all but one of them so far. The FireWolves defense will once again be challenged and will have to figure out how to prevent Fields and Hoggarth from lighting up the scoreboard in this one.

Goaltender Rylan Hartley certainly entertained Albany fans in the home opener last season, dropping the gloves and pads and meeting the FireWolves' backup goaltender in the center of the floor. He has had himself a fantastic first two games in net, securing wins in each while saving a whopping 97 opposing shots on goal. The FireWolves managed to best one of the best goalies to ever do it in Week 1 and will face another brick wall netminder just two weeks after. Albany's new look offense answered a lot of questions in Buffalo and will again need to continue to find its identity to get shots past Hartley.

GROW THE GAME

WANT TO KNOW MORE ABOUT THE FUN GAME OF LACROSSE?

Lacrosse is a team sport played with a lacrosse stick and a lacrosse ball. It is the oldest organized sport in North America, with its origins with the indigenous people of North America as early as the 12th century.

The Albany Firewolves Lacrosse Club is looking to provide fun and engaging workshops in schools for students in Kindergarten to Grade 7.

Our Training Academy will provide a FREE 40 minute workshop to introduce the game of Lacrosse. The clinic will include a brief history and its connection with the indigenous peoples followed by a fun skills session and modified game with a member from the Albany Firewolves Lacrosse Club.

Sticks and balls will be provided for all students to use during our workshops.

Full lacrosse unit lesson plans for teachers to use in their Phys.ed classes if they wish!

Glenn Clark General Manager / Head Coach

Head Coach Glenn Clark brings over two decades of NLL experience as both a player and a coach with him to the Capital Region. He began his professional box lacrosse career in 1998 when he was drafted by the Ontario Raiders. One year later, the team moved to Toronto and became the Toronto Rock. Clark spent the majority of his playing career in Toronto, helping lead the Rock to five NLL championships. After the 2005 season, Clark signed with the Philadelphia Wings where he was named to the All-Star team for the third time in his career.

Clark wasted no time transitioning into coaching as he was named head coach of the Toronto Rock following the 2006 season. The Rock reached the playoffs before being defeated by the eventual champion, Rochester Knighthawks. Clark was at the helm of the Rock until the team's 2009 season.

Following his coaching stint in Toronto, Clark spent the next five years coaching at various levels including minors, Junior A Lacrosse, CLAX, and the Canadian national team. Clark returned to the NLL in 2015, being named head coach of the New England Black Wolves. In just his first season with the Black Wolves, Clark led the team to a six win improvement from the season prior, and won a playoff game. During his five seasons as head coach of the Black Wolves, the team successfully made the playoffs in each of them. The team found itself in first place in 2020 before the season came to a halt due to COVID-19.

Clark now resides in the Capital Region and is eager to start the 2022-23 season and work towards bringing Albany FireWolves fans a championship!

Clem D'Orazio Assistant General Manager / Assistant Coach

Coach Clem D'Orazio is no stranger to the Capital Region and looks forward to bringing professional box lacrosse to the area. Now entering his 10th year as a Lacrosse Director and Vice Principal of Everest Academy in Vaughan, Ontario, D'Orazio has traveled to the region many times for games with his teams having played at UAlbany, Union College, and other surrounding areas.

D'Orazio brings championship experience with him to Albany, having won five National Championships as a player for Brock University. Following his collegiate career, D'Orazio joined the Brock coaching staff where he helped lead the team to three more National Championships finals, winning one of them.

D'Orazio continued his coaching career within the Junior B and Senior A league's for four years before joining Coach Clark in 2015 with the Toronto Beaches in Junior A where he served as the GM for the past six years. Sticking with Clark, D'Orazio joined the staff of the New England Black Wolves that same year. After two years as Video Coordinator and Head Scout, D'Orazio was promoted to Defensive Coach. Last year, D'Orazio was named Assistant GM of the team.

D'Orazio keeps busy and wears many hats on the job, but is excited to return to the Capital Region and play in front of a packed arena at the Times Union Center!

Darryl Gibson

Assistant Coach

Now entering his fourth season with Glenn Clark, Coach Darryl Gibson might be a familiar face to some Capital Region lacrosse fans. He began his NLL career right here in Albany as a member of the expansion team Albany Attack. Gibson spent two seasons with the Attack before joining the Toronto Rock in 2002, playing alongside Coach Clark for three seasons. In his first season with the Rock, Gibson returned to Albany where he led his team to a championship over the Attack, 13-12. Gibson scored the game-tying and game-winning goals of that game, both of which were assisted by Coach Clark.

After three seasons in Toronto, Gibson bounced around between a handful of other teams before retiring in 2012. Through 12 seasons, Gibson won two NLL Championships and was named to the 2006 All-Star team.

Following his successful career as a player, Gibson got his first experience on an NLL coaching staff as an intern with the Minnesota Swarm. After coaching in CLAX and Major Series Lacrosse, Gibson got the call from Coach Clark to join the New England Black Wolves as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

Kevin Montgomery

Athletic Trainer

Kevin Montgomery, a Toronto native, is another member of the Albany staff that he been around Coach Clark and the organization for a handful of years. Playing a variety of sports through his school years, Montgomery enjoys being part of a professional team while being able to continue his passion within the medical field.

He began his journey into sports working as an athletic trainer for Canadian junior hockey teams and a private sports rehabilitation clinic. Montgomery then spent two years with the Toronto FC academy which serves as the development system of Toronto FC of the Canadian Major League Soccer club. Montgomery then transitioned into lacrosse where he teamed up with Coach Clark as a member of the Toronto Beaches in the Junior A League. Sticking with Clark, Montgomery joined the New England BlackWolves in 2016 and has been the organization's head athletic trainer ever since. Simultaneously, Montgomery also serves as the Head Therapist of the Track and Field program for York University in Toronto.

Mike McKay

Goalie Coach/Video Coordinator

Mike McKay is yet another member of the team's coaching staff with a connection to the Capital Region. As a player, McKay was drafted by the Albany Attack, though he never actually played a game for the team. McKay then signed with Anaheim where he played his lone season as a player in the NLL.

Following his playing career, McKay quickly transitioned into coaching where he joined Coach D'Orazio in the Senior A Canadian Summer League. McKay then paired up with Coach Clark shortly after, serving as the Defensive Coordinator for the Toronto Beaches in the Junior A League. McKay joined the New England BlackWolves staff in 2017 under his current title, Goalie Coach and Video Coordinator. In 2019, McKay won a gold medal as the Video Coach for Team Canada at the World Indoor Lacrosse Championship alongside Clark.

As the Video Coordinator for the team, McKay handles team scouting, video breakdowns, in-game breakdowns, and a whole lot more. The Ontario, Canada native is enthusiastic about coming to Albany and sees a lot of potential in what he called an "untapped market with good lacrosse roots."

Mike Kettle

Equipment Manager

Mike Kettell has been working hard behind the scenes in the NLL for the past 13 years and counting. A Philadelphia native, Kettell got his first work experience in sports working as a Student Manager for the Temple Owls football team.

It was with his time at Temple where he connected with the Equipment Manager of the Philadelphia Wings and began his journey in professional sports. What began as an internship in 2008, Kettell spent the next six years working with the Wings. Kettell then made the transition to Connecticut as a member of the New England BlackWolves in 2015.

NICK CHAYKOWSKY

After beginning in minor lacrosse leagues, Chaykowsky was drafted into the Jr. A league by the Barrie Lakerhoses. After four and a half years with the Lakerhoses, Chaykowsky was traded to the New Westminster Salmonbellies. He then broke into the NLL and was drafted by the New England Black Wolves. Oddly enough, Chaykowsky was drafted on September 17, as the 17th overall pick, in 2017... it also happened to be his birthday.

Chaykowsky spent his first season on the Black Wolves' practice squad before working his way into the team's regular lineup. He appeared in 16 regular season games with the FireWolves last year, recording 85 loose balls and 10 caused turnovers.

GREG DOWNING

Greg Downing is another mainstay of the NLL and returns to the FireWolves for his second season. Originally from not far away Auburn, NY, Downing played collegiately at Fairfield University where he was a three-time All-American. He was named to the Tewaaron Trophy watch list ahead of both his junior and senior season, while finishing his career with 141 total points on 101 goals and 40 assists.

Downing broke into the professional ranks after being drafted by the Los Angeles Riptide of the MLL in 2007. During his time in the MLL, Downing was a two-time All-Star and two-time Champion. Downing was also drafted into NLL by the Boston Blazers in the 2007 Expansion Draft. After stops in Minnesota and Colorado, Downing joined the organization in 2019 and has been a key piece of Coach Clark's defense ever since. Last year, Downing played in 14 regular season games for the FireWolves and recovered 77 loose balls, caused 18 turnovers, and added nine assists.

DOUG JAMIESON

Regarded as one of the best goaltenders in the game, Jamieson has been with the organization for the entirety of his first five years in the NLL. During the shortened 2020 season, Jamieson was named Goaltender of the Year as the Black Wolves sat in first place thanks to his impressive 8.77 GAA. Last season with the FireWolves, the goalie boasted a .787 save percentage and was one of the league's save leaders with 675.

PATRICK KASCHALK

Kaschalk was selected 16th overall in the first round of the 2021 NLL Entry Draft by the FireWolves. Kaschalk might be a name that Capital Region lacrosse fans are familiar with as he frequently played against the UAlbany Great Danes as a member of the Stony Brook Seawolves. He finished his Stony Brook career with 47 total points on 36 goals and 11 assists.

Kaschalk played a fifth year as a graduate student with Lindenwood University where he racked up 78 points on 62 goals and 16 assists. He is no stranger to the indoor game as Kaschalk played for the Windsor Clippers and the Burlington Chiefs in the Ontario Junior League during a seven-year span from 2013-2019.

CHARLIE KITCHEN

A New Jersey native, Charlie Kitchen played his collegiate career at the University of Delaware. A five-year player, Kitchen is one of two players in program history ranked inside of the top-10 in goals, assists, and points. The forward also currently holds the school record for consecutive games with a goal, scoring in 39-straight. Throughout his five seasons with the Blue Hens, Kitchen was a three-time all CAA honoree, one-time CAA Player of the Year, and was named Team MVP four times.

Kitchen got his first experience playing box lacrosse with the Toronto Beaches of the Ontario Junior A Lacrosse League under current FireWolves Coaches, Glenn Clark and Clem D'Orazio. In one season with the Beaches, Kitchen racked up 41 points in just 17 games. This will be Kitchen's second season with the FireWolves after logging 22 points on 14 goals and eight assists in his rookie year.

CYBER SECURITY

THE WORLD IS A SCARY PLACE. ENSURE COMPLIANCE AND PROTECT YOUR COMPANY & CUSTOMER DATA.

A well-informed organization is a well prepared and secured organization. When people talk about security, they generally talk about anti-virus protection, firewalls and strong passwords. Anti-virus software has clear-cut cost savings in its reduction of needed interventions by IT personnel. Firewalls are your network's first line of defense against unwanted traffic. Encryption reduces costs by reducing the risks associated with a data breach and enables collaboration with third parties. While these are all integral components of a good security program, they are just part of the overall picture.

A cyber security program is the process of incorporating all areas of security and compliance into a company-wide practice to defend against potentially devastating data loss, theft, or attacks. Our collaborative methodology of assess, address, and maintain comprehensively integrates security best practices to secure user access to company resources, protect data from outsiders, provide a layered approach to perimeter and core firewall defenses, and educate users.

BENEFITS

- Fewer outbreaks of worms, viruses, and malware – resulting in less system damage, repair, replacement, and downtime
- No negative publicity due to a security breach
- Lower liability
- Increase compliance
- Streamline and clearly define roles and responsibilities, making information flow more quickly through an organization
- Provide checks and balances that reduce internal risks, thus saving money

BRETT MANNEY

One of the most tenured guys on the roster, Brett Manney returns to the organization where he has been since 2014. He played his collegiate lacrosse at the University of Delaware and was a captain of the Blue Hens while leading the team to two NCAA tournaments, including a visit to the Final Four during his junior year. Following his time at Delaware, Manney was drafted by the Washington Bayhawks of the MLL in 2008. Despite never playing box lacrosse before, Manney signed as an undrafted free agent to the San Jose Stealth of the NLL that same year and has been a staple in the league ever since. Manney was a member of the 2010 championship team with the Stealth before taking his talents to Philadelphia where he played through the 2013 season. The captain played in 16 regular season games for the FireWolves last year, recording 30 loose balls and causing 9 turnovers.

FIREWOLVES OPEN UP NEW SEASON WITH A ROAD VICTORY IN BUFFALO

Albany Defeated the Bandits, 11-10, in the First Game of the 2022-23 Season

The Albany FireWolves (1-0) defeated the Buffalo Bandits (0-1), 11-10, at the KeyBank Center in Buffalo, New York on Saturday evening. The Bandits struck first in the contest, but Albany's new look offense fired back with four unanswered goals and maintained control throughout the game. Doug Jamieson remained stout in net for Albany, stopping 44 Buffalo shots on the night.

Buffalo controlled the game's opening faceoff but came up empty on their first possession as Jamieson stuffed Tehoka Nanticoke at the net. After multiple empty trips by both teams, Nanticoke opened the scoring by putting a shot just outside of Jamieson's left leg. Minutes later following a timeout, Tanner Thomson knotted the game back at one as he sniped one into the back of the net from deep. On the ensuing possession, newly acquired forward Connor Kelly dove across the crease and went over the left shoulder of Matt Vinc to give the FireWolves their first lead of the night. Wasting no time, another new member of the FireWolves, Ethan Walker, fired one into the net to grow Albany's early lead. Buffalo was unable to score in the final seconds of the quarter and Albany took a 3-1 lead into the second.

The Bandits won the initial faceoff of the new quarter and quickly had a good look on net, but Nanticoke was rejected once again by Jamieson. Following a delay of game penalty on Buffalo, Albany scored seconds later as Kelly notched his second of the contest. Less than a minute later, the Bandits were hit with another penalty, but were able to kill off the FireWolves power play. After a Josh Byrne shot bounced off Jamieson high into the air, Ian MackKay caught the rebound and shot on an open net to get one back for the Bandits. After multiple shot opportunities on the ensuing Bandits possession, Byrne bested Jamieson to close the gap to 4-3 halfway through the second period. About a minute later, Walker buried his second of the night to get one back for Albany. Coming out of a television timeout, Kyle Buchanan netted one after a nice feed from Buffalo's Dhane Smith. The FireWolves came up empty with the final possession of the second quarter but carried a 5-4 lead into the halftime break.

After two scoreless minutes to open the second half, Albany was penalized with a five-minute goalie interference major as Walker crashed into Vinc. Despite being a man down, Charlie Kitchen was able to muscle his way through two defenders and find John Piatelli for a shorthanded goal – the rookie’s first of his career. With 30 seconds left on the major penalty, Albany was hit with minor, extending Buffalo’s man-up advantage for two additional minutes. Soon after, Byrne rolled one into the net for his second goal of the night. With six minutes to play in the third quarter, Hiana Thompson soared from behind the net and squeaked in his first goal with the FireWolves. Seconds later, another Albany newcomer, Kieran McArdle, fired a sidearm shot past Vinc to extend the lead to 8-5. Keeping their foot on the gas, Thomson buried a high shot for Albany’s third goal in less than two minutes. Buffalo was finally able to stop the bleeding as Nanticoke beat Jamieson for the second time in the game on a nifty shot with a minute to go in the quarter. Thirty seconds later, Chris Cloutier went airborne and scored another for the Bandits. Albany could not get a shot on net and maintained a 9-7 lead after three quarters of play.

Three minutes into the fourth, Buchanan took a shot from the deep center of the turf that bounced into the net. Buffalo then quickly tied it at nine goals apiece as Nanticoke collided with Jamieson, but only after he completed his hat trick. Nanticoke was ejected from the game for crashing into Jamieson with 11 minutes to go, giving Albany another power play opportunity. Albany was able to capitalize on the man-up advantage as McArdle scored his second goal of the contest with over a minute remaining on the power play. Back at even strength, Colton Watkinson entered his name into the score book with a transition goal that gave Albany a two-score lead with five minutes to go. After an interference infraction on Albany, Cloutier took the ball in transition and brought Buffalo back within a goal. The FireWolves were able to run out the clock securing their first win of the young season on the road in Buffalo. The FireWolves will meet the Bandits one more time this year in the regular season finale in Albany.
