WHO WE ARE

The FireWolves' brand identity reflects the organization's deep roots in the National Lacrosse League, pays tribute to lacrosse's Native American heritage, and represents the team's commitment to serving the community throughout the Albany area.

Lacrosse's history goes back 1,000s of years on the lands of the Six Nations of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, which spanned from the Hudson River and the Mohawk Valley north into Quebec and Ontario in the Great Lakes region. The Albany area was originally inhabited by both Mohawk (Iroquois) and Mohican (Algonquin) tribes, and the roots of lacrosse began in what is now New York State and Canada as early as 1100AD. The Haudenosaunee (Iroquois for "People of the Longhouse") believe lacrosse, which they call Dehoñtjihgwa'és (translation: "they bump hips"), was a gift from The Creator. Also known as "The Medicine Game", lacrosse is believed to have healing powers and remains a central part of Native American communities throughout the Northeast.

The FireWolves are proud to call the Capital Region home and continue our lineage in the area that dates back to the National Lacrosse League runner-up Albany Attack in 2002. A through line beginning in the early 2000s, the wolf was part of the Attack's logo, while also being part of the logo and name of the New England Black Wolves that played in Connecticut from 2015 to 2020 before the franchise moved to Albany before the 2021-22 season. Native to the Adirondacks and also one of only three repeating clans throughout the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the wolf embodies many of our organization's key values: courage, strength, loyalty and leadership. On and off the field.

While the "FireWolf" is a mystical creature, the use of fire in the name represents the symbolism of community and gathering for ceremony. The Mohican tribes who originally inhabited the Capital Region called it Pempotowwuthut-Muhhcanneuw, meaning "the fireplace of the Mohican nation". We believe strongly in the power of sports as a common-ground meeting place for the community, and the entire FireWolves organization is excited to celebrate competition at the highest level and honor lacrosse's deep roots in the Capital Region.

In summary, the FireWolves are fierce competitors, hunt together and are loyal to the pack. The Albany FireWolves organization holds the values of teamwork, competitive desire and community focus in the highest regard as we honor the heritage of lacrosse and the National Lacrosse League teams that came before us, while working to create a positive impact throughout the Capital Region.

GAME 13 MATCHUP PREVIEW FIREWOLVES vs ROCK

The Albany FireWolves (2-10) are back home this Saturday, March 25, at 7:00 p.m. for rematch against the Toronto Rock (10-4). The teams met two weekends ago with the Rock winning on their home floor, 12-6. The game was tied towards the end of the third quarter, but the Rock went on a six-goal run to end the game and come out on top. Currently, Toronto is tied with Buffalo for the most wins in the NLL with 10 and sits in second place in the East due to having one more loss than the Bandits. This weekend's game can be watched on My4 Albany or ESPN Plus.

FireWolves Players to Watch:

Ethan Walker is coming off his best game of the season and will surely look to carry that momentum into this weekend's game as he gets another shot at the Rock who held him scoreless last time out. Last weekend against the New York Riptide, Walker led the team with six total points on four goals and two assists. Goals have been hard to come by against Toronto all season as the team has surrendered the second-fewest goals in the league thus far. Albany has the weapons to score, the offense just needs to figure out ways to create opportunities. If Walker and Co. can strike early in this one, it will be a huge boost and potentially propel the team to a much-needed victory.

Marshall Powless joined the team last week and wasted no time assimilating to the offense. He finished his FireWolves debut with a goal and four assists, tying John Piatelli for second most points on the club in the game. Simply put, the man is a scorer, proven by his 32 total points in just 17 career games. Powless could be a difference maker for the FireWolves offense and is another young weapon for fans to be excited about in future seasons. A player with Powless' scoring ability is exactly what the doctor ordered to help the FireWolves iron out their offensive kinks.

Zac Tucci missed the game when these two teams last met, and it was obvious on the stat sheet. The Rock absolutely dominated faceoffs all night, winning 17 of 22. Tucci has been a solid fill-in since the FireWolves lost Joe Nardella to a season-ending injury and struggled mightily from the dot for a few weeks. The faceoff specialist returned to action last weekend against the Riptide, and as a result, the team came out on top in the faceoff department as he won 18 of 25. The Rock doubled-up the FireWolves' shot attempts the last time they played each other, in large part to the faceoff differential. Look for Tucci to play a massive role in this one and create some extra possessions for Albany.

Opposing Players to Watch:

Stephen Keogh had a career game against Albany two weekends ago, scoring a team-high seven points on four goals and three assists. The forward is just eight goals shy of his career best in a season and currently has the fourth-most on the Rock. His hat trick goal in the game two weeks ago gave the Rock a third quarter lead and sparked a six-goal run that lasted until the final horn went off. Albany knows they will have their hands full with guys like Tom Schreiber, Corey Small, and Dan Craig, but they cannot afford to lose sight of the savvy vet if they want to pull off an upset this weekend.

TD Ierlan simply dominated faceoffs two weeks ago against Albany. Granted, the FireWolves were without their faceoff guy (see above), but Ierlan has quickly become one of the better faceoff guys in the league. On the year, he is currently third with 235 faceoff wins at a 64% clip. Capital Region fans might remember his name as he played his freshman and sophomore years with the UAlbany Great Danes and set single-season NCAA records in faceoff percentage (79.15), faceoff wins (359), and ground balls (254). Last time out against the FireWolves, his dominant efforts from the dot played a large part in the Rock getting 62 shots on goal, but that only translated to 12 goals. Tucci will give him more of a challenge this weekend, which should limit the Rock possessions.

Nick Rose has had an incredible season to this point, and the team can certainly thank him for playing a pivotal role in their 10 wins. Through the team's 14 games, Toronto has only given up 130 goals – the second fewest across the league. While the defense has been stout, Rose has been a wall, boasting an 80% save percentage, ranking just one percent behind the league lead. He is also one of just four goalies in the NLL to have a GAA under 10, proving that goals will be hard to come by for Albany this weekend. The FireWolves managed to get six goals on him through two and a half quarters the last time they met, but were shutout for the remainder of the game. Albany's offense may have a tough time scoring again this weekend, but a few early ones could get the momentum on their side.

Glenn Clark General Manager / Head Coach

Head Coach Glenn Clark brings over two decades of NLL experience as both a player and a coach with him to the Capital Region. He began his professional box lacrosse career in 1998 when he was drafted by the Ontario Raiders. One year later, the team moved to Toronto and became the Toronto Rock. Clark spent the majority of his playing career in Toronto, helping lead the Rock to five NLL championships. After the 2005 season, Clark signed with the Philadelphia Wings where he was named to the All-Star team for the third time in his career.

Clark wasted no time transitioning into coaching as he was named head coach of the Toronto Rock following the 2006 season. The Rock reached the playoffs before being defeated by the eventual champion, Rochester Knighthawks. Clark was at the helm of the Rock until the team's 2009 season.

Following his coaching stint in Toronto, Clark spent the next five years coaching at various levels including minors, Junior A Lacrosse, CLAX, and the Canadian national team. Clark returned to the NLL in 2015, being named head coach of the New England Black Wolves. In just his first season with the Black Wolves, Clark led the team to a six win improvement from the season prior, and won a playoff game. During his five seasons as head coach of the Black Wolves, the team successfully made the playoffs in each of them. The team found itself in first place in 2020 before the season came to a halt due to COVID-19.

Clark now resides in the Capital Region and is eager to start the 2022-23 season and work towards bringing Albany FireWolves fans a championship!

Clem D'Orazio Assistant General Manager / Assistant Coach

Coach Clem D'Orazio is no stranger to the Capital Region and looks forward to bringing professional box lacrosse to the area. Now entering his 10th year as a Lacrosse Director and Vice Principal of Everest Academy in Vaughan, Ontario, D'Orazio has traveled to the region many times for games with his teams having played at UAlbany, Union College, and other surrounding areas.

D'Orazio brings championship experience with him to Albany, having won five National Championships as a player for Brock University. Following his collegiate career, D'Orazio joined the Brock coaching staff where he helped lead the team to three more National Championships finals, winning one of them.

D'Orazio continued his coaching career within the Junior B and Senior A league's for four years before joining Coach Clark in 2015 with the Toronto Beaches in Junior A where he served as the GM for the past six years. Sticking with Clark, D'Orazio joined the staff of the New England Black Wolves that same year. After two years as Video Coordinator and Head Scout, D'Orazio was promoted to Defensive Coach. Last year, D'Orazio was named Assistant GM of the team.

D'Orazio keeps busy and wears many hats on the job, but is excited to return to the Capital Region and play in front of a packed arena at the Times Union Center!

Darryl Gibson

Assistant Coach

Now entering his fourth season with Glenn Clark, Coach Darryl Gibson might be a familiar face to some Capital Region lacrosse fans. He began his NLL career right here in Albany as a member of the expansion team Albany Attack. Gibson spent two seasons with the Attack before joining the Toronto Rock in 2002, playing alongside Coach Clark for three seasons. In his first season with the Rock, Gibson returned to Albany where he led his team to a championship over the Attack, 13-12. Gibson scored the game-tying and game-winning goals of that game, both of which were assisted by Coach Clark.

After three seasons in Toronto, Gibson bounced around between a handful of other teams before retiring in 2012. Through 12 seasons, Gibson won two NLL Championships and was named to the 2006 All-Star team.

Following his successful career as a player, Gibson got his first experience on an NLL coaching staff as an intern with the Minnesota Swarm. After coaching in CLAX and Major Series Lacrosse, Gibson got the call from Coach Clark to join the New England Black Wolves as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

Kevin Montgomery

Athletic Trainer

Kevin Montgomery, a Toronto native, is another member of the Albany staff that he been around Coach Clark and the organization for a handful of years. Playing a variety of sports through his school years, Montgomery enjoys being part of a professional team while being able to continue his passion within the medical field.

He began his journey into sports working as an athletic trainer for Canadian junior hockey teams and a private sports rehabilitation clinic. Montgomery then spent two years with the Toronto FC academy which serves as the development system of Toronto FC of the Canadian Major League Soccer club. Montgomery then transitioned into lacrosse where he teamed up with Coach Clark as a member of the Toronto Beaches in the Junior A League. Sticking with Clark, Montgomery joined the New England BlackWolves in 2016 and has been the organization's head athletic trainer ever since. Simultaneously, Montgomery also serves as the Head Therapist of the Track and Field program for York University in Toronto.

Mike McKay

Goalie Coach/Video Coordinator

Mike McKay is yet another member of the team's coaching staff with a connection to the Capital Region. As a player, McKay was drafted by the Albany Attack, though he never actually played a game for the team. McKay then signed with Anaheim where he played his lone season as a player in the NLL.

Following his playing career, McKay quickly transitioned into coaching where he joined Coach D'Orazio in the Senior A Canadian Summer League. McKay then paired up with Coach Clark shortly after, serving as the Defensive Coordinator for the Toronto Beaches in the Junior A League. McKay joined the New England BlackWolves staff in 2017 under his current title, Goalie Coach and Video Coordinator. In 2019, McKay won a gold medal as the Video Coach for Team Canada at the World Indoor Lacrosse Championship alongside Clark.

As the Video Coordinator for the team, McKay handles team scouting, video breakdowns, in-game breakdowns, and a whole lot more. The Ontario, Canada native is enthusiastic about coming to Albany and sees a lot of potential in what he called an "untapped market with good lacrosse roots."

Mike Kettle

Equipment Manager

Mike Kettell has been working hard behind the scenes in the NLL for the past 13 years and counting. A Philadelphia native, Kettell got his first work experience in sports working as a Student Manager for the Temple Owls football team.

It was with his time at Temple where he connected with the Equipment Manager of the Philadelphia Wings and began his journey in professional sports. What began as an internship in 2008, Kettell spent the next six years working with the Wings. Kettell then made the transition to Connecticut as a member of the New England BlackWolves in 2015.

NICK CHAYKOWSKY

After beginning in minor lacrosse leagues, Chaykowsky was drafted into the Jr. A league by the Barrie Lakerhoses. After four and a half years with the Lakerhoses, Chaykowsky was traded to the New Westminster Salmonbellies. He then broke into the NLL and was drafted by the New England Black Wolves. Oddly enough, Chaykowsky was drafted on September 17, as the 17th overall pick, in 2017... it also happened to be his birthday.

CYBER SECURITY

THE WORLD IS A SCARY PLACE. ENSURE COMPLIANCE AND PROTECT YOUR COMPANY & CUSTOMER DATA.

A well-informed organization is a well prepared and secured organization. When people talk about security, they generally talk about anti-virus protection, firewalls and strong passwords. Anti-virus software has clear-cut cost savings in its reduction of needed interventions by IT personnel. Firewalls are your network's first line of defense against unwanted traffic. Encryption reduces costs by reducing the risks associated with a data breach and enables collaboration with third parties. While these are all integral components of a good security program, they are just part of the overall picture.

A cyber security program is the process of incorporating all areas of security and compliance into a company-wide practice to defend against potentially devastating data loss, theft, or attacks. Our collaborative methodology of assess, address, and maintain comprehensively integrates security best practices to secure user access to company resources, protect data from outsiders, provide a layered approach to perimeter and core firewall defenses, and educate users.

BENEFITS

- Fewer outbreaks of worms, viruses, and malware – resulting in less system damage, repair, replacement, and downtime
- No negative publicity due to a security breach
- Lower liability
- Increase compliance
- Streamline and clearly define roles and responsibilities, making information flow more quickly through an organization
- Provide checks and balances that reduce internal risks, thus saving money

FIREWOLVES OPEN UP NEW SEASON WITH A ROAD VICTORY IN BUFFALO

Albany Defeated the Bandits, 11-10, in the First Game of the 2022-23 Season

The Albany FireWolves (1-0) defeated the Buffalo Bandits (0-1), 11-10, at the KeyBank Center in Buffalo, New York on Saturday evening. The Bandits struck first in the contest, but Albany's new look offense fired back with four unanswered goals and maintained control throughout the game. Doug Jamieson remained stout in net for Albany, stopping 44 Buffalo shots on the night.

Buffalo controlled the game's opening faceoff but came up empty on their first possession as Jamieson stuffed Tehoka Nanticoke at the net. After multiple empty trips by both teams, Nanticoke opened the scoring by putting a shot just outside of Jamieson's left leg. Minutes later following a timeout, Tanner Thomson knotted the game back at one as he sniped one into the back of the net from deep. On the ensuing possession, newly acquired forward Connor Kelly dove across the crease and went over the left shoulder of Matt Vinc to give the FireWolves their first lead of the night. Wasting no time, another new member of the FireWolves, Ethan Walker, fired one into the net to grow Albany's early lead. Buffalo was unable to score in the final seconds of the quarter and Albany took a 3-1 lead into the second.

The Bandits won the initial faceoff of the new quarter and quickly had a good look on net, but Nanticoke was rejected once again by Jamieson. Following a delay of game penalty on Buffalo, Albany scored seconds later as Kelly notched his second of the contest. Less than a minute later, the Bandits were hit with another penalty, but were able to kill off the FireWolves power play. After a Josh Byrne shot bounced off Jamieson high into the air, Ian MackKay caught the rebound and shot on an open net to get one back for the Bandits. After multiple shot opportunities on the ensuing Bandits possession, Byrne bested Jamieson to close the gap to 4-3 halfway through the second period. About a minute later, Walker buried his second of the night to get one back for Albany. Coming out of a television timeout, Kyle Buchanan netted one after a nice feed from Buffalo's Dhane Smith. The FireWolves came up empty with the final possession of the second quarter but carried a 5-4 lead into the halftime break.

Albany FireWolves	38	15-25	2-4	16
Buffalo Bandits	55	10-25	1-1	16

After two scoreless minutes to open the second half, Albany was penalized with a five-minute goalie interference major as Walker crashed into Vinc. Despite being a man down, Charlie Kitchen was able to muscle his way through two defenders and find John Piatelli for a shorthanded goal – the rookie’s first of his career. With 30 seconds left on the major penalty, Albany was hit with minor, extending Buffalo’s man-up advantage for two additional minutes. Soon after, Byrne rolled one into the net for his second goal of the night. With six minutes to play in the third quarter, Hiana Thompson soared from behind the net and squeaked in his first goal with the FireWolves. Seconds later, another Albany newcomer, Kieran McArdle, fired a sidearm shot past Vinc to extend the lead to 8-5. Keeping their foot on the gas, Thomson buried a high shot for Albany’s third goal in less than two minutes. Buffalo was finally able to stop the bleeding as Nanticoke beat Jamieson for the second time in the game on a nifty shot with a minute to go in the quarter. Thirty seconds later, Chris Cloutier went airborne and scored another for the Bandits. Albany could not get a shot on net and maintained a 9-7 lead after three quarters of play.

Three minutes into the fourth, Buchanan took a shot from the deep center of the turf that bounced into the net. Buffalo then quickly tied it at nine goals apiece as Nanticoke collided with Jamieson, but only after he completed his hat trick. Nanticoke was ejected from the game for crashing into Jamieson with 11 minutes to go, giving Albany another power play opportunity. Albany was able to capitalize on the man-up advantage as McArdle scored his second goal of the contest with over a minute remaining on the power play. Back at even strength, Colton Watkinson entered his name into the score book with a transition goal that gave Albany a two-score lead with five minutes to go. After an interference infraction on Albany, Cloutier took the ball in transition and brought Buffalo back within a goal. The FireWolves were able to run out the clock securing their first win of the young season on the road in Buffalo. The FireWolves will meet the Bandits one more time this year in the regular season finale in Albany.

FIREWOLVES DROP HOME OPENER TO KNIGHTHAWKS

Albany Was Defeated by Rochester, 14-13

The Albany FireWolves (1-1) were defeated by the Rochester Knighthawks (3-0), 14-13, at the MVP Arena in Albany, New York on Saturday evening. Albany controlled the game's first half, but a strong third period by Rochester swung the momentum in their favor as they held on for the win on the road.

Rochester won the game's opening faceoff but were shut down by Doug Jamieson on their first possession. After another defensive stand, Albany ran out in transition and got on the board first as John LaFontaine gave Albany an early lead. Fresh out of a television timeout, the FireWolves added to their lead as Tanner Thomson fired one in as the shot clock was expiring. With five minutes to play in the opening period, Hiana Thompson soared across the crease and scored the third goal in a row for Albany. Less than 15 seconds later, Rochester notched their first of the night as Turner Evans beat Jamieson. Wasting no time, Albany got the goal back as Justin Scott bounced one past Ryan Hartley. With under two minutes to go, the Knighthawks netted their second of the contest as Ryan Smith collected a rebound and put one past the downed Jamieson. Rochester came up empty on their final possession of the quarter as Albany held onto a 4-2 lead after the first.

The FireWolves kept their foot on the gas as Connor Kelly buried his first of the night with Albany's initial possession of the second period. Following a Rochester penalty, Albany took advantage of the power play opportunity as Ethan Walker netted his first of the contest. The Knighthawks finally stopped the bleeding as UAlbany alum Connor Fields scored his first of the night as the shot clock was winding down. Following a foul on the FireWolves, Matt Gilray took a long pass and found the back of the net to cut the Albany lead down to two goals about halfway through the second quarter. The FireWolves quickly got a goal back as Thompson scored just outside the crease after a nice feed from Kelly. With just under six minutes to go in the half, Charlie Kitchen caught a pass in transition and weaved his way through multiple defenders before burying an acrobatic shot to push the FireWolves lead to 8-4. The Knighthawks had an extended next possession thanks to multiple rebounds before Thomas Hoggarth rolled one in from deep.

Neither team was able to score in the remaining four minutes and the FireWolves took an 8-5 lead into the halftime break.

Rochester continued their dominance from the dot, controlling the first faceoff of the second half, and immediately scored off the stick of Holden Cattoni. The Knighthawks continued their run as Curtis Knight added another, narrowing the Albany lead to just one goal. Keeping the momentum, Rochester tied the game halfway through the third quarter as Cattoni found the back of the net for the second time in the half. Just seconds later, the Knighthawks took their first lead of the game as Smith put one past Jamieson's right foot. Despite smothering defense, Fields was able to maintain control and roll one into the net for Rochester's fifth goal in a row. Following the goal, the Knighthawks were hit with a penalty, giving Albany their second power play chance of the night. The FireWolves were unable to convert on the man-up advantage, and soon after gave Rochester a power play try on an interference penalty. Being a man down did not matter as Colton Watkinson shrugged off a defender on a runout and netted Albany's first goal of the half. The Knighthawks quickly got the goal back as Smith completed his hat trick with just a minute left in the period. The scoring continued as Albany's Aaron Forster fired one in from deep. The FireWolves then forced a turnover on their side of the floor and Thompson rocketed one past Hartley to cap of his hat trick with less than a second to go in the period to knot the game at 11 apiece.

After nearly seven full minutes of scoreless action to start the fourth quarter, Albany regained the lead as Scott fired a missile past Hartley. The Knighthawks quickly tied it up at 12 as Curtis Knight found the back of the net. Just seconds later, Fields reclaimed the lead for Rochester on his third of the contest. Keeping up the pace, Albany got the goal back after a successful challenge on a crease jumping goal by John Piatelli. Fields quickly notched his fourth of the night to sway the lead back once again in Rochester's favor, 14-13. Albany turned the ball over on their final possession and the Knighthawks were able to run out the clock, handing the FireWolves their first loss of the season.

GEDDIE IMPRESSIVE IN NET FOR FIREWOLVES DEBUT

Albany Fell Short at Home to Halifax, 14-11

The Albany FireWolves (1-2) were defeated by the Halifax Thunderbirds (3-1), 14-11, at the MVP Arena in Albany, New York on Saturday evening. Justin Geddie had a solid night in net for his FireWolves debut, stopping 61 Halifax shots. The game was tight throughout, but the Thunderbirds were able to score the final four goals and come away with a win on the road.

Halifax secured the game's initial faceoff but were unable to get a shot on net. Following nearly 10 scoreless minutes to open the game, the floodgates opened. Each side playing with four on the floor after illegal substitution penalties, the scoring drought was broken as Charlie Kitchen bounced one into the back of the net. Halifax wasted no time answering as Chris Boushy caught a nice behind the back feed and scored from just outside the crease. The Thunderbirds quickly took over the lead as Boushy bounced his second goal past Geddie. The scoring continued as Hiana Thompson secured a nifty one-handed pass from Connor Kelly and notched his first goal of the contest. Less than a minute later, Kelly got one of his own as he regained the lead for Albany on a snipe from the center of the floor. With 25 seconds to go in the quarter, Ethan Walker found an opening coming off a screen and gave the FireWolves a two-score lead.

The pace continued into the second quarter as Halifax's point-leader Randy Staats buried his first of the contest while falling into the crease. Kelly got the goal back for the FireWolves as he notched his second of the night by bouncing one through Warren Hill's legs. Shortly after, Eric Fannell found space and bested Geddie for the team's fourth score of the night. Former FireWolf Ryan Benesch then tied the game at five on the ensuing possession firing one in from the right side. One possession later, Benesch found Boushy right in front of the net as he completed his hat trick to give Halifax the lead. Following a penalty on the Thunderbirds, Albany was able to capitalize as Kelly capped off a hat trick of his own while knotting the game at six with just under 10 minutes to play in the half. After nearly eight minutes without a goal, Austin Shanks broke the tie for Halifax. Despite a save by Geddie, Cody Jamieson was able to find the ball in the crease, and go around the back of the net and bury a one-handed goal while diving. With just a second to go in the half, Patrick Kaschalk ran the length of the floor and fired one past Hill, cutting the deficit to one, 8-7, heading into the break.

Following five minutes of empty trips and multiple penalties on both sides, Kieran McArdle was able to tie the game on a deflected ball that found its way across the goal line. Albany wasted no time putting another goal on the board as McArdle fed Thompson in front of the net for his second goal of the night. Halifax finally scored their first goal of the second half as Fannell found an empty net while Geddie was scrambling for a loose ball to tie the game at nine goals apiece heading into the final period.

Just seconds into the fourth quarter, Albany was penalized for roughing. Geddie remained stout throughout the Thunderbirds' powerplay, and following a defensive stand, Colton Watkinson came out of the penalty box and was hit in stride on his way to giving the FireWolves a 10-9 lead. Halifax quickly answered as Fannell capped off his hat trick by bouncing one into the net. Shortly after, the FireWolves ran the floor and found Kelly on the offensive end who drilled his fourth of the game. Following another Albany penalty, Halifax was able to take advantage as Boushy cleaned up a missed shot and put one into the back of the net from a step outside the crease. With just under seven to play, Staats came around a screen and released from deep to give the Thunderbirds a 12-11 lead. After an Albany holding penalty, Halifax added to their late lead as Clarke Petterson got one past Geddie. Fannell added another to the Thunderbirds lead as he jumped through the crease and scored a one-handed goal, his fourth of the night. Albany was then penalized for a five-minute high sticking major and Halifax was able to run out the clock, securing a 14-11 win on the road. The two teams will meet again Friday, January 13 at 6:30 p.m. in Halifax.

ALBANY WINS OVERTIME THRILLER IN HALIFAX, 11-10

McArdle Leads Wolves with Eight Points and Game-Winning Goal

The Albany FireWolves (2-2) defeated the Halifax Thunderbirds (3-2), 11-10, at the Scotiabank Centre in Halifax on Friday evening. The game was back and forth throughout, but the FireWolves were able to tie it late in the fourth and eventually win in sudden death overtime on Kieran McArdle's fourth goal of the night.

Halifax won the game's opening faceoff, and after empty trips by both sides, Warren Hill found Colton Armstrong in transition who ran the rest of the way before beating Doug Jamieson for the first goal of the night. Following an early unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Thunderbirds, Tanner Thomson flipped a behind-the-back pass to a cutting Ethan Walker who finished in front of the net to tie the game at one. Halifax was quickly hit with another penalty, but the Thunderbirds were able to score shorthanded as Wake:Riat Bowhunter fired one in from deep. After penalties on both sides, Jamieson stopped a Thunderbirds shot and found Colton Watkinson in transition who took advantage of a breakaway opportunity for Albany's second goal of the contest.

Albany wasted no time taking their first lead of the night early in the second quarter as Justin Scott ripped one in from deep in the center of the floor. The Thunderbirds quickly got the goal back as Chris Boushy caught a pass just outside the crease and was able to finish. Fresh out of a television timeout, John Piatelli came around a pick a landed a rocket in the back of the net to regain the lead for Albany.

After nearly 20 minutes of game time without a goal, Jackson Nishimura ended the drought as he ran out ahead of Halifax in transition and bounced one between Hill's legs to give Albany a 5-3 lead with just under seven minutes to go in the third quarter. Albany kept the momentum as McArdle scooped up a rebound in the center of the floor and added another for the FireWolves. The Thunderbirds finally scored their first goal of the half as Austin Shanks put one between Jamieson's legs to cut the Albany lead to 6-4. Seconds later, Eric Fannell got in close and buried a shot to bring Halifax within a goal. On a delayed penalty, Fannell scored again, this time from the center of the floor, to knot the game at six.

Albany was able to stop the bleeding as Tanner Thomson found some space in the deep center of the floor and sniped in his first score of the night. The Thunderbirds quickly brought it back to a two-goal lead as Fannell dove across the crease and completed his hat trick. With just under five to play, Kitchen fed a cutting McArdle who bounced one in to cut the Halifax lead to one. The Thunderbirds quickly reclaimed the two-goal lead as Armstrong took a long rebound the length of the floor and finished the play for his second of the night. McArdle stayed hot and completed a hat trick of his own after a great pass from Nishimura. With under a minute left, Albany pulled Jamieson from the net and immediately capitalized as Walker tied the game at 10. Halifax was unable to score with the final possession and the game went into overtime. HIANA THOMPSON RECORDS 100TH CAREER POINT IN LOSS TO RIPTIDE

New York Defeated Albany, 16-10

The Albany FireWolves (2-3) were defeated by the New York Riptide (1-4), 16-10, at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. New York jumped out to a hot start, scoring the game's four goals, and never looked back. Albany's Hiana Thompson recorded his 100th career point on an assist in the third quarter.

New York won the opening faceoff and after empty trips by both sides, Jeff Teat opened the scoring as he rifled one in from deep to give the Riptide an early 1-0 lead. After killing off the game's first penalty, the Riptide came down the floor and scored as Connor Kearnan snuck one under the cross bar. On the very next possession, Teat got his second of contest as he bounced one past Doug Jamieson. New York kept the momentum going as Larson Sundown cleared space in the center and found the back of the net to make it four goals in a row. Albany finally stopped the bleeding as Connor Kelly got the FireWolves on the board. The Riptide wasted no time getting the goal back as Sundown fought his way through the Albany defense and scored while he was falling to the turf.

Just 30 seconds into the second quarter, the Riptide won a fight for the ball in the center of the floor and added another goal to their lead as Kevin Brownell beat the shot clock. On the ensuing possession, newly acquired Brett Hickey pushed the New York lead to six goals, forcing Albany to make a change in net to Justin Geddie, who would finish the half for Albany before switching back to Jamieson. Keeping their foot on the gas, Teat was hit in stride and completed his hat trick just minutes into the second period. Seconds out of a TV timeout, the Riptide struck again as Tyler Digby drilled one from deep. Albany managed to get one back as Colton Watkinson was hit in transition and took it the rest of the way. With six and a half to go in the period, Teat notched his fourth goal to put the Riptide up 10-2. Just before the halftime break, Kelly ripped in his second goal of the contest.

The following possession, Tanner Thomson went low and scored another for Albany to cut the Riptide lead to 10-5. New York was able to score their first of the half as Teat buried his fifth of the contest. New York added another as a long rebound from an Albany shot rolled to mid-turf, allowing the Riptide run out in transition as Kearnan logged his second of the game. The pace continued as Thomson bounced one past Orleman for his second goal. New York refused to let Albany get within striking distance, as Hickey fired one into the net from the center of the floor. Following an Albany penalty, New York was able to capitalize as Teat netted number six on the night. The FireWolves had their third power play chance of the game after two dead ball penalties on New York and one on Albany. The FireWolves were able to take advantage of being a man up as McArdle went low and scored his second of the game.

Albany was hit with a penalty early in the fourth quarter, and the Riptide quickly capitalized as former FireWolf Reilly O'Connor bounced one between Jamieson's legs, giving New York a 15-7 lead. Teat continued his strong night as he found space in the center of the floor and went nearside low. TWO FIREWOLVES SURPASS CAREER MILESTONES IN LOSS TO WINGS

Philadelphia Defeated Albany, 13-5

The Albany FireWolves (2-4) were defeated by the Philadelphia Wings (3-4), 13-5, at the Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia on Saturday evening. Despite the loss on the road, two FireWolves players reached career milestones. Goaltender Doug Jamieson surpassed 2,000 career saves and Greg Downing played in his 200th career game.

Philadelphia took the game's opening faceoff, but both teams had empty possessions to start. Despite an early Wings penalty, Albany was unable to capitalize on the man advantage as the game remained scoreless five minutes in. After nearly half of the first period without a goal, Joe Resetarits found Ben McIntosh coming around a pick who then opened the scoring as he bounced one in for the Wings. Wasting no time answering, a cutting Connor Kelly was found by Kieran McArdle to tie the game at one. With five minutes to play in the period, Albany was guilty of their first penalty. Just seconds later, Blaze Riorden scooped a rebound up in front of the net and beat Jamieson to regain the lead for the Wings. On the ensuing Philadelphia possession, Albany was tacked with another penalty. After numerous shots on net, Jamieson remained stout as the FireWolves killed off the penalty. With just seconds to go in the quarter, Resetarits found space on the left side and buried one low to give the Wings a 3-1 lead.

Philadelphia kept the momentum early in the second half as newly acquired Wing Mitch Jones collected his own rebound and scored from just outside the crease. Coming out of the bench, Resetarits was hit in stride before rifling in his second of the night. After an Albany defensive stop, Mitch Jones intercepted the outlet pass and found Resetarits across the turf who completed his hat trick to put the Wings up 6-1 halfway through the second. Philadelphia kept their foot on the pedal as Sam LeClair fired one past Jamieson from deep to extend their lead with under two minutes to play in the half. With an empty net, the FireWolves were unable to score, as the Wings took a 7-1 lead into the halftime break.

Minutes into the second half, the FireWolves were penalized for holding and the Wings took no time to capitalize as Jones buried one from the center of the floor. With under five to play in the quarter, Riorden scooped up his own rebound and drilled a second chance effort, his second goal of the game. Albany once again had the final shot of the quarter, but were unable to score, with Philadelphia in front 9-1 after three quarters of play.

The Wings broke into double digits as LeClair beat Jamieson just over a minute into the fourth. Philadelphia made it 10 unanswered goals as Matt Rambo tossed a pass across the floor to McIntosh who notched his second of the night. Albany finally broke the drought as Colton Watkinson not only blocked a pass, but scooped the ball up and ran the length of the floor for a short-handed goal in transition. Still a man down, John LaFontaine went low on Higgins to cut the deficit to eight. Philadelphia quickly got one back as Resetarits buried his fourth of the night on the Wings power play. The lead quickly grew back to 10 as Rambo hesitated and fired one in from deep. Albany turned the Wings over and swiftly scored as LaFontaine rifled one over Higgins' left shoulder. After a Wings penalty, Kelly took a shot that was deflected off a Wings defender into the net, his second goal of the game. Philadelphia won the game's final faceoff and were able to run out the clock and cap off their first home win of the season, 13-5.

FIREWOLVES NEARLY COMPLETE COMEBACK AGAINST RIPTIDE

Newly Acquired Zac Tucci Strong in NLL Debut

The Albany FireWolves (2-5) were defeated by the New York Riptide (2-6), 14-12, at the Nassau Coliseum on Saturday evening. The Riptide went up 12-4 midway through the third quarter, but the FireWolves clawed their way back in, scoring seven unanswered goals and nearly completed the comeback. Newly acquired Zac Tucci gave Albany a boost from the faceoff dot, as the team won 12 of 30 attempts.

After both teams came up empty on each of their first possessions, the Riptide struck first as Jeff Teat made his way into the center of the floor and bounced one between Doug Jamieson's legs. Albany was quickly able to tie it up as Kieran McArdle found Ethan Walker on a slip who did the rest from just outside the crease. Halfway through the first period, the Riptide got out in transition and Matt Marinier netted his first goal of the season to regain the lead for New York. Out of a television timeout, Dan Lomas found some space on a pick and roll and buried one to put the Riptide up two. Wasting no time getting the goal back, Walker rifled in his second of the night from deep on the right side. On the next New York possession, Lomas made a move to the center and fired one off the pipe that found the back of the net.

Following four minutes of scoreless action to start the second period, Teat ran from right to left and notched his second goal of the contest, giving the Riptide a 5-2 lead. Teat completed his hat trick the next time the ball was in his stick as he came around a pick and had an opening in the center of the floor. Despite the Riptide being tacked with a five-minute major penalty, they were the ones to score as Teat beat Jamieson for the fourth time in the half. The FireWolves were finally able to stop the bleeding as McArdle went low on Steve Orleman. Albany had a six-on-four opportunity in the waning seconds of the quarter, but were unable to score, as the Riptide took a 7-3 lead into halftime.

Albany began the third period with just under a minute remaining on the major penalty, but were unable to capitalize after taking the first faceoff. Just as the Riptide player was running out of the penalty box, Larson Sundown buried a twister right in front of the net to add to the New York lead. On the ensuing possession, Lomas completed his hat trick as he went low from the right side. Albany subbed in Justin Geddie for Jamieson in net following New York's ninth goal of the night. The Riptide quickly reached double digits as Connor Kearnan beat Geddie one-on-one. After a slashing penalty on Albany, New York wasted no time capitalizing as Jack Kelly netted his first career NLL goal. Less than a minute later, New York was penalized for an illegal substitution. Following a defensive stand, Brett Manney was able to lob one to Colton Watkinson who finished in transition to cut the deficit to seven. Both teams were hit with penalties, and while playing four-on-four, Teat connected for the fifth time as he rifled one past Geddie. McArdle was able to answer as he stopped on a dime and painted the far pipe. Just seconds later, Nick Chaykowsky found the back of the net after scooping the ball up from the faceoff dot. The remaining six minutes of the third period were scoreless as New York doubled up Albany, 12-6, entering the final quarter.

The FireWolves scored the first goal of the fourth quarter as Tanner Thomson dove across the crease and found space to beat Orleman. The Riptide were then hit with two minor penalties, giving Albany a five-on-three opportunity with just over 10 minutes to play. Albany scored their fourth goal in a row as Walker found Kelly in close. Keeping the momentum, Thomson dashed across the center of the floor and buried a pretty behind the back shot, as the Riptide lead dwindled to 12-9 with eight minutes remaining. On the following possession, Kelly had his stick hit as he was shooting, but the ball managed to bounce into the net as Albany scored their sixth in a row. The FireWolves continued their run as Kelly capped off his hat trick as the team broke out in transition, cutting the Riptide lead to just one with three minutes left in the game. New York finally ended their drought, as a cutting Teat was able to execute in front of the net. Teat quickly got another one back for the Riptide as he fired one in from deep, his seventh goal of the game. With 50 seconds left, Walker completed his hat trick on a one-timer from Thomson, cutting the deficit to two. Despite a defensive stand with an empty net, Albany was unable to score on their final possession, and the Riptide held on to win, 14-12.

FIREWOLVES DEFENSE SOLID IN LOW SCORING AFFAIR

Las Vegas Defeated Albany, 12-10

The Albany FireWolves (2-6) were defeated by the Las Vegas Desert Dogs (3-5), 12-10, at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. The game went back and forth throughout, but the Desert Dogs shut out the FireWolves in the fourth quarter to hang on for a narrow victory. Despite the loss, Albany goaltender Doug Jamieson was stout in net, allowing just 11 goals while stopping 33 shots. Tanner Thomson led the Wolves with four goals and Kieran McArdle tallied seven points in the defeat.

Albany took the game's opening faceoff after a scrum for the ball at center turf. On their first possession, they drew a Las Vegas penalty, quickly gaining a man-up advantage. The FireWolves were able to capitalize as John Piatelli opened the scoring. Just seconds later, the Desert Dogs got the goal back as Brandon Clelland netted their first of the night. Shortly after, Las Vegas took the lead as John Wagner scored the game's third goal in just 20 seconds of game play. Fresh out of a television timeout, Albany tied the game up at two as Thomson went between the legs of goaltender Landon Kells. Keeping up the pace, Albany regained the lead as Ethan Walker caught a pass while just outside the crease and buried his first of the game. Following a holding penalty on the FireWolves, Zack Greer rifled one in from the right side to knot the game up at three goals apiece. With an almost identical shot as Greer, Reid Reinholdt found space on the right side and fired one into the back of the net. With just under two minutes to go in the quarter, McArdle juked out a Las Vegas defender and went low on Kells for a FireWolves goal.

After nearly six minutes of scoreless action to open the second quarter, the FireWolves were hit with a holding penalty, giving the Desert Dogs their second power play try of the game. Once again, it was Greer who scored a power play goal as he worked his way to the center of the floor and bounced one into the net, giving the lead back to Las Vegas. Albany wasted no time getting the score back, as Thomson was hit in stride before netting his second goal of the contest. The Desert Dogs once again regained the lead as Greer completed his hat trick after nice feed from Rob Hellyer. With just over a minute remaining in the half Sam Firth caught a pass in the middle and somehow found the back of the net as he was falling to

It took over three minutes for the first goal of the second half, but it came off the stick of Thomson who completed his hat trick and brought Albany within a goal. Las Vegas was tacked with a holding penalty, giving Albany a power play opportunity. Quickly, McArdle found Walker who was positioned behind the net before coming around the goal post for a dunk to tie the game at seven. The FireWolves found themselves on another man-up advantage with five minutes to go in the period and were able to regain the lead as McArdle put one between the legs of Kells. Less than a minute later, the Desert Dogs were penalized again, and Albany was able to extend their run as Thomson's shot had some back spin on it and found its way over the line for a goal. Las Vegas was finally able to stop the bleeding with under a minute to go in the quarter as Hellyer fought his way through traffic and bounced one in. With four seconds left, Connor Kelly jumped off one foot and fired a shot into the net, giving Albany a two-goal advantage heading into the final period.

The FireWolves were caught out of position fighting for a loose ball behind the net, leaving open space for Charlie Bertrand who scored easily to bring the Desert Dogs back within one. Las Vegas quickly tied the game at 10 as Hellyer rifled one between Jamieson's legs. The Desert Dogs continued their run and took the lead on a missile from Jon Phillips who connected from deep. Down a goal with six men on the floor, Albany turned the ball over, setting up an open net goal for Connor Kirst. The FireWolves were unable to score on their final possession as Las Vegas squeaked out a 12-10 victory.

FIREWOLVES WILL SEEK REVENGE AGAINST SWARM NEXT WEEKEND IN ALBANY

Georgia Defeated Albany, 20-4

The Albany FireWolves (2-7) were defeated by the Georgia Swarm (1-7), 20-4, at the Gas South Arena in Georgia on Saturday evening. The game was close after the first quarter, but the Swarm opened the flood gates in the second and never looked back, scoring six goals while shutting the FireWolves out. The two teams will meet again next weekend in Albany.

Both teams came up empty on each of their first few possessions, but after penalties on both teams midway through the period, former FireWolves forward Andrew Kew opened the scoring with a low shot from the center of the floor. The Swarm got their second goal of the contest minutes later as Seth Oakes buried a low shot on Justin Geddie. The FireWolves were able to get one back as Connor Kelly came from around the back of the net to dunk the ball in for a goal. Following a FireWolves penalty, Kew wasted no time notching his second of the night, giving the Swarm a 3-1 lead in the waning seconds of the quarter.

Georgia kept the momentum early in the second quarter as Lyle Thompson went low from the left side and added to the Swarm lead. After penalties on both sides, Shayne Jackson trailed a fastbreak and was hit in stride to give Georgia a four goal lead. On the next possession, Jackson got his second of the game as he found space just in front of the net. Georgia kept their foot on the gas as Bryan Cole scored in transition after an Albany turnover. Seconds later, Jackson completed his hat trick to give the Swarm an 8-1 advantage with just over six minutes remaining in the half. After an Albany penalty, Kew completed his hat trick as he rifled one in from the center of the floor. The FireWolves were unable to score with the final possession of the half as the Swarm took a 9-1 lead into the break.

Albany temporarily stopped the bleeding a minute into the second half as Hiana Thompson buried the FireWolves' first goal since the first quarter. The Swarm wasted no time getting the goal back as Hiana's brother Lyle scored a one-handed goal from behind the net. Thompson then scored on the Swarm's ensuing possession as he dove across the crease and netted his third of the night. After another Albany penalty, Kew fired in another power play goal, his fourth of the game. On their following possession, Georgia managed to get a couple offensive rebounds before Kew had an open look and capitalized once again. Albany notched their third of the game as John Piatelli took advantage of a FireWolves power play. The scoring continued for Georgia as Thompson went low from the center of the floor and netted his fourth of the night. Brendan Bomberry got into the scoring action as he came out in transition and drilled a twister from just outside the crease. The Swarm were penalized again at the end of the third, as Albany took about a minute remaining of a power play into the final quarter.

Still on a man advantage, Piatelli notched his second of the contest just seconds into the fourth quarter. Georgia was quick to get the score back as Thompson was wide open in front of the crease and beat Geddie from point blank. Keeping up the pace, Zach Miller walked in close and fired in his first of the game. After an inadvertent whistle, Kew completed a sock trick as he pushed the Swarm lead to 14. The Swarm recorded their 19th goal of the night as Oakes bounced one in from deep, his second. Despite being a man down, the Swarm made it 20 as Kew drilled his seventh goal of the contest.

JAMIESON AND ALBANY'S PENALTY KILL EFFORTS STRONG DESPITE OVERTIME LOSS

Georgia Defeats Albany, 9-8

The Albany FireWolves (2-8) were defeated by the Georgia Swarm (2-7), 9-8, in overtime at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. The game was tight throughout, with neither team leading by more than two goals at any point. Albany goaltender Doug Jamieson was stout in net, recording 52 saves. The FireWolves' penalty kill unit was strong as well, shutting down five of Georgia's seven power play opportunities while also scoring four shorthanded goals. Georgia's Lyle Thompson, a former University at Albany standout, scored the game-winning goal just seconds into the overtime period.

Georgia opened the game's scoring as former FireWolf Andrew Kew found a lane in the center of the floor and fired one off Jamieson's pads that bounced into the net. Midway through the period, Albany equalized as newly acquired Jake Fox buried a nifty behind the back shot. Minutes later, the Swarm regained the lead as Thompson rifled one in from the center. After Albany killed off a penalty despite multiple shots by Georgia, Leo Stouros took the ball from end to end and squeezed one into the net, tying the game at two with just seconds left in the period.

The Swarm were able to capitalize on an Albany turnover early in the new quarter as Kason Tarbell took it all the way down before getting one past Jamieson.
