Fusion Seeks Revenge in Rematch with MetroStars

The Fusion returns home this Sunday at 3:30 p.m. to take on Eastern Conference rivals the MetroStars. In their only prior meeting, the Fusion lost to the MetroStars, 4-2, at Giants Stadium May 23. The MetroStars roster includes Tony Meola, who started for the U.S. in the 1990 and 1994 World Cups, as well as goalscorers Eduardo "El Tanque" Hurtado of the Ecuadoran National Team and Giovanni Savarese of the Venezuelan National Team.

Match to Honor Injured Police Officers: Sunday's match, presented in conjunction with the Fraternal Order of Police, will serve as an important fundraiser for two seriously injured Broward County Sheriff's Deputies: Daniel Hodess and David Stark. The afternoon will be highlighted by a special halftime demonstration by the Broward County Sheriff's Office's SWAT Team, including helicopter units.

TV Change: ESPN will not be broadcasting Sunday's game against due to scheduling conflicts. As a result, the game will not be televised locally. Madison Square Garden Network will be televising the game in the New York/New Jersey area.

Fusion Acquires Parra from MetroStars: The Fusion this week obtained defender/midfielder Carlos Parra, 21, from the MetroStars in exchange for defender/midfielder Ramiro Corrales, 21. Parra does not count against the Fusion roster because he is a Project-40 developmental player; he is currently a member of the U.S. Under-23 National Team.

Home, Sweet Home: The Fusion returns from the longest road trip of the season to Lockhart Stadium, where it currently has a four-game winning streak. The team lost all four games on the road trip.

Short-Handed Fusion Wilts in Dallas Heat: The Fusion lost Sunday, 2-0, to the Dallas Burn at the Cotton Bowl, playing the last 65 minutes with 10 men after midfielder Matt Kmosko received his second yellow card. The match – played in 100-degree heat – marked the first time the Fusion had played two MLS games in a single week. The Fusion lost last Thursday to the Rapids in Colorado, 3-0.

Fusion Holds Fourth Place: The Fusion is 5-8 with 11 points, in fourth place, one point ahead of the New England Revolution. The top four teams in each conference advance to the playoffs.

Fusion Chases MetroStars: The MetroStars occupy third place at 6-6 with 16 points, five points ahead of the Fusion. In their only prior meeting, MetroStars midfielder Jim Rooney earned MLS Fujifilm Player of the Week honors for his two-goal, one-assist performance. Miami also gave up a goal and an assist to British-born midfielder/forward Paul Dougherty, as well as a goal on an 18-yard full volley by "El Tanque" Hurtado.

Sibling Rivalry: Fusion Vice President and General Manager Leandro Stillitano will also be seeking to avenge the May 23 loss against his brother, MetroStars Vice President and General Manager Charlie Stillitano.

Kmosko Suspended: Kmosko will sit out Saturday's game after receiving a red card against Dallas. Prior to his ejection, Kmosko had played every minute this season for the Fusion. Kmosko currently is a close second to Kansas City's Mark Chung on the MLS all-time minutes played list.

Fusion by the Numbers: The Fusion is 4-0 in games when it scores first, 4-0 in one-goal games and 3-0 when leading at the half. However, the Fusion is 0-8 in games where its opponent scores first; on the road, the Fusion is 1-6 and has been outscored 19-3. The Fusion is last in the league in goals scored, with 11 goals in 13 games.

Comeback Efforts Denied: Comeback efforts by the Fusion have been thwarted in four-straight games by late goals from the opposition. The Fusion has given up a league-high eight goals in the final 10 minutes of play.

Musical Lineups (Cont.): Fusion Head Coach Cacho Cordoba has now fielded 12 different lineups in 13 games. With Kmosko serving a one-game suspension, Sunday's game will mark the 13th different lineup.

Kozic Injured: The week after receiving his first start, midfielder Alen Kozic, a Project-40 developmental player, was injured in practice and will miss Sunday's game with a sprained knee. After starting Kozic against Dallas, Cordoba was forced to substitute him in the 34th minute to bring on a flank player Kmosko was ejected. Kozic, a 21-year-old former Florida International University standout, made his debut for the Fusion May 28 against Colorado, playing 23 minutes as a substitute. Kozic's father, Refik, played for the Tampa Bay Rowdies in the now-defunct North American Soccer League.

Cullen Leads Rookies in Minutes: Rookie defender Leo Cullen, the first selection overall in the 1998 MLS College Draft, continues to make a strong case for MLS Bandai Rookie of the Year, having started all 11 of the Fusion's games. Cullen has played 1162 minutes – all but eight of the total for the Fusion – to lead all of the picks from the 1998 college draft. Only Jeff Cassar (1170) has played more minutes for the Fusion.

Herrera Sidelined: Argentine midfielder Marcelo Herrera sat out the last two games with a strained lower back. Herrera had started 10 of the Fusion's 11 prior games; he missed the May 9 match versus Columbus due to suspension.

Quote of the Week:

Fusion Head Coach Cacho Cordoba, after the Burn game: "It was an even match when we were playing 11 on 11. But when we got the red card, everything was different. The heat is the same for both teams, but when you have only 10 players, the game changes completely."

Vote for Fusion All-Stars: Fans can place their votes for the 1998 MLS All-Stars at the Fusion's next two home games, at Kmart stores nationwide and on the Internet (www.mlsnet.com). This year's All-Star Game is the first to feature fan balloting and the first to feature a U.S. MLS team versus an international MLS team. Fusion players on the ballot for the U.S. team are midfielder Matt Kmosko and defender Cle Kooiman, while the international ballot features Colombian midfielder star Carlos Valderrama, Argentine Marcelo Herrera and Colombian midfielder Diego Serna. The All-Star Game will be held Aug. 2 at 2:30 p.m. at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando. Valderrama currently ranks second among international midfielders, trailing only D.C. United Bolivian playmaker Marco Etcheverry.

Fusion on the Air: "Fusion Talk" – a half-hour radio show on South Florida sports radio WQAM, 560 AM – airs at 11:00 am each Sunday and is hosted by Phil Schoen, who is also seen nationally on ABC/ESPN soccer telecasts... "Radio Free Futbol," a one-hour soccer radio show, airs at 5:00 p.m. each Saturday on WAXY, 790 AM. The show is hosted by soccer journalist Jeff Rusnak and Sunshine Network soccer analyst Ray Hudson... "Miami Ahora" – a Saturday morning show on WLTV, Channel 23 – features a 15-minute segment with Fusion Head Coach Cacho Cordoba. The show, which airs at 11:00 a.m., also features game highlights, previews and soccer instruction for children.

Please note the following changes from the 1998 Fusion Media Guide:

- Fusion Head Coach Carlos "Cacho" Cordoba was born Nov. 5, 1958 (not Nov. 11, as listed on page 12).
- Fusion midfielder Nelson Vargas was mistakenly listed as a defender on page 42.
- The telephone number in the Fusion press box is 954/958-9135 (as listed on page 2), not 954/958-1350 (page 96).
- The MLS All-Star Game takes place Aug. 2 at 3:30 p.m. ET (as listed on page 87), not 2:30 p.m. (inside front cover).
- The location of the USISL headquarters – Tampa, FL – was mistakenly omitted from page 102.
