Detroit Tigers Mission Statement

One of the most storied franchises in professional sports, each year it is the goal of the Detroit Tigers to field a championship team and play an exciting brand of Major League Baseball. Equally important, the Tigers place an emphasis on good value, while providing an entertaining, safe and most enjoyable experience. We want families to continue making Comerica Park their place to come and have fun, and take home life-long memories. Off the field, the Tigers take pride in maintaining a civic leadership role and have a long-standing commitment to making a social impact within our communities.

OWNERSHIP

Chris llitch is the chief executive officer of llitch Companies, spanning some of the world's bestknown brands in food, sports, entertainment, and other industries.

Together, these businesses employ thousands of people, positively transform communities through entrepreneurship and philanthropy, and create unforgettable moments that bring individuals, families, and fans together.

Over his 34-year career, Chris has remained steadfast in his vision that all llitch companies have a powerful capacity to improve lives. "We're proud to create opportunities for people across the globe through meaningful careers, small business ownership, and products and services that bring people joy."

True to Mike and Marian Ilitch's entrepreneurial spirit that serves as the foundation of the organization, Chris leads with a focus on planning, innovation, and the pursuit of new opportunities. This approach has resulted in the companies' revenue more than quadrupling since he became CEO in 2004, outperforming the S&P 500 over the same time.

In addition to serving as CEO of Ilitch Companies, Chris holds positions as chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers, and other leadership roles throughout the companies.

Chris is actively engaged in the community as Chairman of Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Tigers Foundation and the Detroit Red Wings Foundation.

llitch Companies, the organization's colleagues and owners, and llitch foundations have donated more than $250 million to worthy causes, have served over 6.5 million meals to those in need, and have donated thousands of volunteer hours in support of community programs and organizations.

OWNERSHIP

Beyond his work at the Ilitch Companies and Ilitch Charities, Chris serves on the Executive, Economic Reform, On Field, and Legislative Affairs committees of Major League Baseball.

Additionally, he serves on the Board of Governors for the National Hockey League as well as the Strategic Planning & Innovation and Media & Content Committees.

He also serves on the board and executive committees for Business Leaders for Michigan, the Detroit Economic Club, and the Downtown Detroit Partnership. He is also an advisory board member of the Harvard Kennedy School Taubman Center for State and Local Government.

He has served on host/hospitality committees for the NCAA Men's Frozen Four Hockey Championship (co-chair), the NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament, Super Bowl XL, and the Major League Baseball All-Star game (chair). He will serve as the 2023 Senior Corporate Chair for the 68th Annual Detroit Branch NAACP Fight for Freedom Fund Dinner.

A graduate with a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan, Chris is a proud father of three and resides with his wife, Kelle, and their family in metro Detroit.

Harris enters his first season as the Tigers President, Baseball Operations after being named to the position on September 19, 2022.

• Joined the Tigers after spending the previous three seasons as the General Manager for the San Francisco Giants, playing a key role in constructing the Giants roster. The 2021 team won the National League West Division and finished the season with a 107-55 record, the best regular season record in franchise history. During his three seasons in San Francisco, the Giants posted a 205-163 (.557) record, the fourth-best winning percentage among NL teams and the eighth-best mark in the Majors over that span.

- Prior to joining the Giants, he spent seven years working in the Chicago Cubs' baseball operations department, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager. Under Cubs President Theo Epstein and GM Jed Hoyer, he assisted in all potential player acquisitions, contract and trade negotiations, and player evaluations while overseeing several departments.
- While with Chicago, the Cubs reached the postseason in four consecutive seasons from 2015-18 and ended a 108-year World Series drought by beating the Cleveland Indians in 2016.
- Harris started with the Cubs in 2012 as Director of Baseball Operations after serving two years at Major League Baseball as the league's Coordinator of Major League Operations. With MLB, he provided transaction support and analysis to all 30 clubs and worked on the First-Year Player Draft, the Rule 5 Draft, the World Baseball Classic and various industry studies within the league office.
- Harris also worked for the Washington Nationals in 2008 and the Cincinnati Reds in 2010.

- A native of Redwood City, CA, Harris attended Columbia Business School while working at MLB and later transferred to Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management to complete his MBA in 2015. He also graduated from UCLA in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in economics and studied at the London School of Economics in 2007.
- Harris and his wife, Elle, were married in December, 2022. They reside in Metro Detroit.

Enters his 11th full season in the Tigers organization and second as Vice President/Assistant General Manager after being named to the role on August 31, 2021.

- Reporting directly to the President of Baseball Operations, he assists with leading the organization's day-to-day Major League operations, including player procurement, contract negotiations, roster construction, salary arbitration, payroll projections, and compliance with MLB rules and the CBA.
- Oversees the Major League Clubbouse, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nutrition and Mental Skills departments.
- Serves as the Baseball Operations liaison for ballpark special projects.

Former Position: Righthanded Pitcher Years as Professional Player: 4 (2009-2012)

Enters his third season on the Tigers coaching staff, serving as pitching coach. Though he is one of the youngest coaches in the Major Leagues, Fetter has a wealth of experience across baseball, including most recently as the pitching coach at the University of Michigan for three seasons (2018-20).

- In 2022, the Tigers bullpen was one of the best units in the American League throughout the season, finishing with a 3.43 ERA (617.0IP/235ER), which ranked sixth in the AL and eighth in the Majors... Detroit's 3.43 bullpen ERA was the club's lowest since the 1990 team had a 3.26 ERA (505.0IP/183ER).
- Made an immediate impact on the Tigers pitching staff in his first season in 2021, as the team's ERA dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021, the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span...among the many individual accomplishments from 2021, Fetter helped lead Casey Mize to the most quality starts by any Major League rookie, Tarik Skubal to establish a new franchise rookie strikeout record, Gregory Soto to earn his first career All-Star Game appearance and a no-hitter from Spencer Turnbull.
- Established as one of the brightest pitching minds in college baseball, he helped the Wolverines identify and develop elite pitchers, aiding the team's run to the College World Series Finals in 2019...during that 2019 run, his staff was ranked 10th in the nation and led the Big Ten Conference with a 3.46 ERA (635.0IP/344ER), while finishing seventh in the nation with just 7.44 hits allowed per game.
- Under his tutelage at Michigan, his alma mater, the team had four pitchers drafted in the top three rounds of the 2019, 2020 and 2021 MLB Drafts.
- Prior to his time with the Wolverines, he was the Minor League pitching coordinator with the Dodgers (2016-17), pitching coach at Ball State University (2016-17), professional scout with the Angels (2013-15) and assistant pitching coach for Double A San Antonio (2013).
- He and Tigers manager A.J. Hinch crossed paths while both were in the San Diego organization, where Fetter was a righthanded pitcher from 2009-12 and Hinch was the Vice President of Scouting and Assistant General Manager from 2011-14.
- Was drafted in the ninth round of the 2009 MLB Draft by San Diego...played four seasons of professional baseball, posting a combined 6-11 record and 3.56 ERA (179.2IP/71ER) at the Single A level, striking out 162 and walking just 49.
- He was a standout player at Michigan, earning All-Big Ten honors three times and helping the team to three conference championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances...his 332.1 innings pitched ranks as the highest total in school history, while his 28 career wins and 281 career strikeouts each rank as the third-highest.

Begins his second season on the Tigers coaching staff and his first year as the club's third base coach after spending 2022 as the first base coach.

- Has 33 years of managing or coaching experience at the professional level and has won five Minor League Manager of the Year awards...in 18 seasons as a Minor League skipper, he has a 1,243-1,177 (.514) record, leading four clubs to league titles.
- Prior to joining Detroit's Major League staff, he spent the previous four seasons as the manager at Triple A Lehigh Valley in the Philadelphia Phillies organization...led Lehigh Valley to the playoffs in 2018 and was named International League Manager of the Year.
- Before joining the Phillies, Jones was on the Chicago Cubs Major League staff from 2014-17 as the third base coach and the infield instructor...was a part of the Cubs World Series team in 2016.
- Spent 11 years in the San Diego Padres organization, including the final seven seasons (2007-13) as the roving Minor League infield coordinator, following four years as a manager, which included managing Double A Mobile to a share of the Southern League title in 2004.
- While with the Padres, was a three-time winner (2003-04, 2010) of the Jack Krol Award, given annually to acknowledge excellence in player development in the Padres system.
- Worked four years in the Red Sox Minor League system as field coordinator (2002) and manager for Pawtucket (1999-2001), where he led the team to a then-franchise record of 82 wins in 2000.
- Was first base coach for the Oakland A's in 1998 following eight seasons (1990-97) as a Minor League manager in the organization...was named Manager of the Year four times: with Single A Madison in 1991, Double A Huntsville in 1994 and Triple A Edmonton in both 1996 and 1997, when he led the team to consecutive Pacific Coast League titles.
- Originally signed by the Cubs as a non-drafted free agent in 1982, Jones appeared in 899 Minor League games, hitting .284/.437/.370 with 114 doubles, 33 triples, 23 home runs and 291 RBI.

Lombard enters his third season on the Tigers coaching staff as bench coach, after serving as the first base coach with the Dodgers for the previous five years. Lombard also coaches Detroit's outfielders as well as the club's baserunners. His transition to coaching came following a 16-year playing career in professional baseball.

- His 2020 campaign served as a career highlight, helping the Dodgers to a World Series championship... also coached the club's baserunners and outfielders, helping a number of elite players develop and excel at the Major League level.
- Prior to his time with the Dodgers he spent the 2015 season as Atlanta's Minor League field coordinator, preceded by parts of six seasons working in the Red Sox player development system.
- With Boston he served three years as the organization's Minor League outfield and baserunning coordinator (2013-15), two as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Red Sox (2011-12) and one as the hitting coach for Single A Lowell (2010)...as manager of the GCL Red Sox his teams went 59-61, and the 2012 club reached the GCL finals.
- Prior to becoming a coach he played six seasons in the Major Leagues, including three seasons with Atlanta (1998-2000) and one each with Detroit (2002), Tampa Bay (2003) and Washington (2006)...over his career in the big leagues he batted. 281/.340/.621, knocking 12 doubles, three triples and eight home runs, while driving in 21 RBI and stealing 23 bases.
- During his 2002 campaign with the Tigers he established career highs with 72 games played, 58 hits, 11 doubles, three triples, five homers and 13 RBI.
- Played 1,213 Minor League games in his career, combining to post a .262/.355/.437 slashline, with 212 doubles, 55 triples, 143 home runs and 540 RBI...went 318-for-408 in stolen base attempts over that span, and committed just three errors in 2,015.1 innings played to post a .994 fielding percentage.
- Was an All-American high school running back who signed to play football and baseball at the University of Georgia before opting to begin his professional baseball career...was drafted by Atlanta in the second round of the 1994 MLB Draft out of The Lovett School (GA).
- Graduated from the University of Phoenix with a bachelor's degree in psychology.
- His late mother, Posy, was a civil rights activist who marched alongside Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., among many other courageous and selfless acts to promote equality.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Missed most of the 2022 season while rehabbing from an injury, but returned in September to pitch in 10 games and help the Mariners to the playoffs.

- Began the season with the San Francisco Giants before being traded to Seattle on August 2.
- Sidelined from March 27-September 1 with a left elbow strain.
- Made his season debut with Seattle on September 1 at Detroit, throwing a scoreless inning...marked his first appearance in relief since August 18, 2017 vs. Los Angeles (NL).
- Had his longest outing of the season on October 5 vs. Detroit, tossing 3.0 hitless innings with one walk and five strikeouts.
- Appeared in one game during the American League Division Series vs. Houston, giving up a hit and walking one in a third of an inning.

Limited to 15 starts in 2021 after missing much of the season due to injury.

- Earned the start on Opening Day for the second straight season, throwing 5.2 shutout innings and giving up three hits with four walks and two strikeouts vs. Cleveland...marked the 13th time since 1901 that a Tigers Opening Day starter has thrown at least 5.0 shutout innings (last, Jordan Zimmermann on March 28, 2019 at Toronto)...became the first Tigers southpaw since Mickey Lolich (1970-74) to make consecutive Opening Day starts.
- Turned in his longest start of the season on April 24 vs. Kansas City, throwing 8.0 innings and giving up two runs, only one earned, on three hits and three strikeouts...was his longest start since July 31, 2018, when he pitched 8.0 scoreless innings vs. Cincinnati.
- Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for April, compiling a 2-3 record with a 2.27 ERA (35.21P/9ER) and 24 strikeouts in six starts...ranked sixth in the American League in innings pitched and ERA during the month, while he was seventh in WHIP (0.93) and ninth in FIP (3.05).
- Posted a 1.94 ERA (41.2IP/9ER) through his first seven starts of the season...became the fifth Tigers starter since 2013 to have a sub-2.00 ERA through his first seven starts, joining Jordan Zimmermann (1.50 in 2016), Max Scherzer (1.72 in 2014), Justin Verlander (1.55 in 2013) and Anibal Sanchez (1.97 in 2013).
- Sidelined from June 14-August 29 with left forearm strain.
- Placed on the injured list on September 11 with a left elbow strain and missed the remainder of the season.

One of baseball's most durable pitchers during the abbreviated 2020 campaign, Boyd made 12 starts spanning 60.1 innings.

- Posted a 3-7 record and 6.71 ERA (60.1IP/45ER) on 67 hits, 22 walks and 60 strikeouts during the club's 58-game sprint season...started his year 0-4, but won three of his final six outings...posted a season high in strikeouts on August 17 at Chicago (AL), punching out nine over just 4.0 innings pitched.
- Lefthanded batters hit just .135 (5x37) off him this season, while righties batted .304 (62x204).
- Tossed the second complete game of his career in the first game of the doubleheader on September 4 at Minnesota...punched out eight hitters over 6.0 innings pitched, but took the loss after allowing two solo home runs...became the first Tigers pitcher to throw a complete game and take the loss since Michael Fulmer on May 27, 2017 at Chicago (AL).
- Threw 1,086 total pitches, which was the 10th highest total for any American League pitcher in 2020... also led Tigers pitchers in starts, innings pitched and strikeouts.

Established career highs in several categories in 2019, including games started (32), innings pitched (185.1) and strikeouts (238), while he tied a career high in victories (nine).

 Set a franchise record with 11.56 strikeouts per nine innings, which ranked fourth in the American League and sixth in the Major Leagues...also ranked fourth in the AL and 10th in the Majors with a 4.76 strikeout-to-walk ratio, sixth in the AL and 10th in the Majors with 238 strikeouts, ninth in the AL with a 1.23 WHIP and 10th with a .247 (178x721) opponent batting average.

- Finished the season with 238 strikeouts, which is the fifth-highest, single-season total by a lefthanded pitcher in franchise history...became the first Detroit pitcher to strike out 200-or-more batters in a season since Justin Verlander in 2016 and just the third southpaw in club history to reach the mark, joining Mickey Lolich (seven times) and Hal Newhouser (twice).
- Posted seven games with 10-or-more strikeouts during the season, which is tied for the sixth-highest total by a Tigers pitcher since 1908 and the most since Justin Verlander had eight such games in 2016.
- Recorded double-digit strikeouts in each of his first two starts of the season, fanning 10 on March 29 at Toronto and 13 on April 3 at New York (AL)...became the first Tigers pitcher since at least 1908 to open the season with consecutive double-digit strikeout performances.
- Notched seven consecutive quality starts from April 3-May 8, compiling a 4-1 record with a 2.58 ERA (45.11P/13ER) and 53 strikeouts...limited opponents to a .190 (31x163) batting average over that span.
- Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May, compiling a 3-2 record with a 2.55 ERA (35.11P/10ER) and 40 strikeouts...ranked fifth in the American League in ERA, while he was 10th in strikeouts.
- Struck out 10-or-more batters in three consecutive starts from June 26-July 13, striking out 11 on June 26 vs. Texas, 13 on July 4 at Chicago (AL) and 10 on July 13 at Kansas City...became just the fourth Detroit pitcher since 1908 to strike out 10-or-more batters in three consecutive games, joining Mickey Lolich (three times), Denny McLain and Justin Verlander.

Made 30-or-more starts in a season for the first time in his career in 2018, making 31 starts.

- Finished the season ranked 10th in the American League with a .228 (146x639) opponent batting average...among AL pitchers following the All-Star break, he ranked seventh in WHIP (1.08) and 10th in opponent batting average (.230, 63x274).
- Excelled at Comerica Park, posting a 6-3 record with a 2.63 ERA (78.2IP/23ER) and 69 strikeouts in 14 starts, while he went 3-10 with a 5.89 ERA (91.2IP/60ER) and 90 strikeouts in 17 road starts...ranked fourth among AL pitchers with a 2.63 home ERA (min. 75.0 innings pitched).
- Started the season by throwing 6.0-or-more innings and allowing one run-or-less in each of his first three starts...became the first Tigers lefthanded pitcher since at least 1908 to work at least 6.0 innings and give up one run-or-less in each of his first three starts of the season.

IN THE COMMUNITY

- In September of 2018, Matthew and his wife, Ashley, launched Kingdom Home, a nonprofit organization that exists to end child sex slavery through prevention. Located in Uganda, Kingdom Home provides a place of refuge, restoration and hope for children at risk. Over 100 children, both girls and boys, have been taken in from sex trafficking, gender-based violence, forced child marriages and abandonment. The organization has three homes and provides for each child's material, emotional, educational and spiritual needs, including access to an education and vocational training. This is accomplished largely through child sponsorships. The goal is for these children to live safe and free, while reducing the likelihood that they would enter the sex trade or exploitative labor in the future.
- In addition to Kingdom Home, Boyd is a very active member in the Detroit and Lakeland communities. During the 2020 season he played a significant role in the club's efforts in the area of COVID-19 prevention and relief, while continuing to help in other important spaces such as honoring veterans, first responders and those in need.
- In 2019 and 2020, Boyd contributed and served as a spokesman for the Detroit Tigers participation in MLB's league wide Home Plate Project which, in 2020, resulted in a gift of $30,000 to Detroit Public Schools Community District to help feed students as a result of the unanticipated school closures due to COVID-19.

SFASON HIGHLIGHTS

Saw the first Major League action of his career in 2022, starting 15 games.

- Made his Major League debut in the second game of the doubleheader on April 23 vs. Colorado, allowing three runs on three hits with two walks and three strikeouts in 5.0 innings.
- Allowed just one run on three hits and three strikeouts in 5.0 innings in his second big league start on April 30 at Los Angeles (NL)...became the first Tigers pitcher to begin his big league career by throwing 5.0 innings-or-more and allowing three hits-or-less in each of his first two starts since Victor Santos in 2001.
- Began his career by throwing at least 5.0 innings and allowing no more than three runs in each of his first four starts, the first Tigers pitcher to do so since Kyle Lobstein in 2014.
- Struck out a season-high seven batters on June 4 at New York (AL), allowing two runs on three hits with one walk in 6.0 innings.
- Earned his first Major League win on June 11 vs. Toronto, throwing 5.2 shutout innings with seven hits allowed and two strikeouts.
- Recorded the longest start of his rookie season on June 16 vs. Texas, tossing 7.0 scoreless innings with three hits allowed, two walks and six strikeouts...extended his streak of scoreless innings to 13.0, which was the longest by a Tigers rookie starting pitcher since Michael Fulmer in 2016.
- Placed on the injured list on July 21 (retroactive to July 18) with a right forearm muscle injury and missed the rest of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

• Selected to participate in the MLB Futures Game prior to the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2018 at Nationals Park in Washington, DC and in 2019 at Progressive Field in Cleveland.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Limited to 12 starts during the 2022 season after missing much of the season due to injury.

- Made his season debut on April 11 vs. Boston, allowing just one run on one hit with two strikeouts in 6.0 innings...the outing was just the fourth since the start of the 2008 season where a Tigers pitcher no older than 24 years old tossed 6.0-or-more innings and allowed no more than one hit.
- Sidelined from April 20 (retroactive to April 17)-August 2 with right shoulder inflammation.
- Pitched into the seventh inning for the first time as a Major Leaguer on August 7 vs. Tampa Bay, tossing 7.0 shutout innings with four hits allowed, three walks and seven strikeouts...also threw 7.0 innings on August 19 vs. Los Angeles (NL) and September 16 vs. Chicago (AL).
- Struck out a career-high eight batters in 6.0 shutout innings on August 24 vs. San Francisco...was the first Tigers pitcher to toss at least 6.0 innings, allow no runs or walks and strike out at least eight since Michael Fulmer did so in a shutout at Texas on August 14, 2016.
- Placed on the 60-day injured list on September 29 with a right forearm strain and missed the rest of the season.

Made the first 18 starts of his Major League career in 2021...also started seven games with Triple A Toledo. • Put together his best start of the season for Toledo on June 9 vs. Louisville, picking up the win after

- allowing two runs on four hits with two walks and eight strikeouts in 6.0 innings.
- Made his Major League debut on June 17 at Los Angeles (AL), tossing 5.0 innings and allowing two runs on four hits with two walks and three strikeouts...struck out Justin Upton to end the second inning for his first big league punchout.
- Earned his first big league win on June 23 vs. St. Louis, allowing two runs on five hits with two walks and a strikeout in 5.2 innings...became the first Tigers starter to earn a win in one of his first two games since Michael Fulmer won his debut on April 29, 2016.

- Recorded his first career quality start and picked up the win on July 21 vs. Texas, throwing 6.0 innings and allowing two runs, one earned, on four hits with two walks and four strikeouts...became the first Tigers rookie to allow no more than two earned runs in five of his first six starts since Drew Smyly held opponents to two-or-fewer earned runs in each of his first six starts in 2012.
- Made his final three starts of the season against Chicago (AL)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first Tigers pitcher to face the same opponent in three straight starts, all within a single season, since 1978 when Jim Slaton (June 1-13) and Milt Wilcox (May 31-June 12) had three consecutive starts vs. Milwaukee.
- Finished the season strong, working 5.0 shutout innings on October 2 at Chicago (AL), allowing two hits with one walk and a career-high seven strikeouts...allowed three runs-or-less in seven of his last nine appearances.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Started only two games for the Tigers in 2022 after suffering a season-ending injury in April.

 Placed on the injured list on April 15 with a right elbow sprain and missed the rest of the season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

Completed his first full Major League season in 2021, starting 30 games.

- Led all rookies with 12 quality starts, while he ranked eighth among American League pitchers (min. 140.0 innings pitched) with a 1.14 WHIP.
- His 3.71 ERA was the fifth lowest among Tigers rookie since 1947 and the lowest since Michael Fulmer had a 3.06 ERA (159.0IP/54ER) in 2016.
- Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career.
- Earned his first big league victory on April 12 at Houston, throwing 7.0 shutout innings with five hits allowed and two walks, while striking out five...became the first Detroit rookie to throw 7.0-or-more scoreless innings since Michael Fulmer threw a shutout on August 8, 2016 at Texas.
- Allowed just one earned run over his first two starts, becoming the fourth Tigers rookie since 2000 to allow no more than one combined earned run in his first two starts of a season, joining Robbie Ray (2014), Drew Smyly (2012) and Andy Van Hekken (2002), who each allowed one earned run.
- Threw his first career complete game in the first game of the doubleheader on April 29 at Chicago (AL), going 6.0 innings and allowing three runs on four hits and three walks, while striking out six...was the first Tigers rookie pitcher to go the distance since Michael Fulmer on August 16, 2016 at Texas.
- Turned in the longest outing of his career on May 17 at Seattle, throwing 7.2 innings and allowing a run on three hits and three walks, while striking out seven.
- Posted five consecutive quality starts from April 29-May 23, over which he had a 2-1 record with a 2.25 ERA (32.0IP/8ER) and 26 strikeouts...the streak was tied for the longest by a Tigers rookie since Justin Verlander had eight straight in 2006 and the longest by a Major League rookie since Atlanta's Mike Soroka had a six-game streak in 2019.
- Named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May after posting a 2-0 record and 1.74 ERA (31.0IP/6ER) with 27 strikeouts...ranked fourth in the American League in ERA and opponent batting average (.162) during the month, while he was fifth in WHIP (0.87).
- Allowed three-or-fewer runs in 14 straight starts from April 29-July 19, over which he had a 4-3 record with a 2.97 ERA (78.2IP/26ER) and 65 strikeouts...the streak was the longest by a Tigers pitcher since Jack Morris had 16 consecutive starts from July 9-September 17, 1983.
- Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month for July, compiling a 1-1 record with a 3.18 ERA (22.2IP/8ER) and 16 strikeouts in five starts...among American League pitchers with at least 22.0 innings pitched during the month, he ranked seventh with a 1.01 WHIP.
- Contributed on both sides of the ball on August 24 at St. Louis, throwing 5.0 shutout innings and also drawing a four-pitch bases loaded walk in his first big league plate appearance...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first player at any position to draw a four-pitch bases loaded walk in his first MLB plate appearance since Cubs pitcher Courtney Duncan on May 5, 2001 vs. Los Angeles (NL)...
 the last Tigers player at any position to walk with the bases loaded (of any pitch count) in his first big league plate appearance was pitcher Daryl Patterson vs. Chicago (AL) on April 13, 1968.

One of the top prospects in baseball, he appeared in the first seven games of his Major League career in 2020...posted an 0-3 record and 6.99 ERA (28.1IP/22ER) on 29 hits and 13 walks, while striking out 26.

 Was selected from the alternate training site prior to the game on August 19 at Chicago (AL) and made his Major League debut that night...tossed 4.1 innings in his debut, allowing three runs on seven hits with no walks and seven strikeouts...became the first pitcher in Tigers history to strike out seven-ormore batters while not issuing a walk in his debut and the first MLB pitcher to do so since Stephen Strasburg with Washington on June 8, 2020 vs. Pittsburgh.

- Had the best start of his season on September 11 at Chicago (AL)...did not factor into the decision, allowing two runs on one hit with two walks and five strikeouts in 5.1 innings...he faced the minimum through the first five innings and carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning before allowing a double to Yolmer Sánchez...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the no-hit bid was the longest by a Detroit rookie pitcher since Michael Fulmer threw 6.2 innings without giving up a hit on June 1, 2016 at Los Angeles (AL).
- Was very successful with his fastball in 2020, holding opponents to a .136 (3x22) batting average against that pitch...that figure ranked ninth in the American League among pitchers that threw at least 140 four-seamers during the season.
- Ranked as the No. 3 prospect in the Tigers organization and the No. 28 prospect overall by Baseball America following the season...also rated as possessing the best changeup in the Tigers system.

Put together an impressive 2019 season, compiling an 8-3 record with a 2.55 ERA (109.1IP/31ER), 0.94 WHIP and 106 strikeouts in 21 starts between Single A Lakeland and Double A Erie.

- Named to the Eastern League midseason All-Star Team.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first Major League Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and onehalf games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the Major Leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

MIKE ILITCH (1929-2017)

- Table
- Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.
- Signed with the Tigers in 1952 and played in minor league baseball for four seasons, with several clubs, and mostly as a second baseman, before an injury derailed his career.
- He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shog grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 27 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.
- The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.
- The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.

 Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.

- In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.
- One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many - businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. In 2020, Little Caesars opened a new headquarters in a nine-story, 234,000 square foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.
- Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.
- The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and the Tigers would go on to host the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.
- Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.
- The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than 6.5 people.
- Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.

- The charitable reach of Mike & Marian Ilitch and the Ilitch companies has expanded to more than $250 million in grants and giving since 2000. Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, continue to carry on the mission of supporting deserving causes and organizations across the community.
- As part of this charitable legacy, Mike & Marian Ilitch have personally gifted nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University
   – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million dedicated to establish the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, which will train and educate the next generation of the city's great entrepreneurs.
- Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:
  - o The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
  - o SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
  - o Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
  - o US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
  - o National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
  - o Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)
- Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H.
  McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.
- Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.
- In 2004, Mike Ilitch and his wife, Marian, named Chris Ilitch as CEO of Ilitch Companies. Following the passing of Mike Ilitch in 2017, Chris succeeded his father as chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

JULY 8, 1941 American League 7, National League 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hallof-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in All-Star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and a RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with a RBI.

JULY 10, 1951 National League 8, American League 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped a then All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in All-Star history. The American League thipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing what was then an All-Star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star games. Stan Musial also established a new All-Star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched a then All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Rohinson was named as the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game, playing right field, in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

TIGERS POSTSEASON HOME RUNS

TIGERS IN HALL OF FAME

HALL OF FAME

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in Major League history.
- His Major League record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years, and single-season Major League record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the Major League record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (297) and fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tigers teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in Major League history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Was the Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- Won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons from 1907-20.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and led the league in RBI in four of the five years from 1907-11.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both Major Leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), while leading the Tigers to the final of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career with the Tigers, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number, as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tigers club as playermanager in 1934, leading a turnaround that culminated with Detroit winning back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Series Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 American League Most Valuable Player, after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
   The following season, led the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the - ninth inning in Game Six to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Navin Field.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally regaining consciousness...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times during his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and
- $100,000...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
  Also named AL Most Valuable Player in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 Major League seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- · Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season, en route to his career record of 309.
- Is the all-time Major League leader in triples, legging out 309 during his career.
- A lifetime .309 hitter, Crawford was known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914, finishing runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (American League Most Valuable Player).
- · Helped the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1957.

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average...Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13-of-16 full seasons, had 200-or-more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.
   Named the American League Most Valuable Player in 1937 after hitting a career-high .371 to lead the league...finished runner-up to teammate Mickey Cochrane for the Most Valuable Player award in 1934.
- In 1929, led the American League in eight categories including hits, runs, doubles, triples, stolen bases, games, putouts and fielding percentage.
- Hit 15-or-more home runs in a season six times, and had 100-or-more RBI seven times.
- Drilled 60 doubles in 1936, a Tigers record for a lefthanded hitter.
- Batted .375 and handled 39 chances without an error in the 1935 World Series to help Detroit to the title.
- Member of the American League pennant-winning Tigers clubs in 1934 and 1940.
- Had his uniform No. 2 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Hank Greenberg's No. 5 was retired.
- Served as the Tigers general manager from 1951-53.

HALL OF FAME

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II, and another season lost to injury...captured two American League Most Valuable Player awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tigers record 63 doubles, just four short of the Major League mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the Majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as AL Most Valuable Player in 1935 after leading the league with 36 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in a career-high 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.
   In 1928 chased Pabe Puth's 11 year old single season home run record (60) hefore anding the year with a league record.
- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL Most Valuable Player honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career best .340 and led the league with 50 doubles, 41 home runs and 150 RBI...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two home runs and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first seven full seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for seventh-highest in Major League history.
- Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold by the Tigers to the Pirates on January 18, 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

Rated second only to Rogers Hornsby among righthanded hitters of his era, Harry Heilmann batted .390-or-better four times in his career, including .403 in 1923, to capture a quartet of batting titles.

- Bettered the .400 mark (.403) in 1923 to lead the league, collecting 211 hits and driving in 115 runs...in all, batted .340-or-better eight times.
- Led the American League with 237 hits in 1921 and hit .394 to win his first batting title...also won the league batting crown in 1923, 1925 and 1927.
- From 1921-29, drove in at least 100 runs in eight out of nine seasons...drilled at least 40 doubles in eight of his last 10 seasons as a player.
- In 1927, finished runner-up to the Yankees' Lou Gehrig in AL Most Valuable Player balloting, after hitting .398 and winning his final batting title.
- His 1921 total of 139 RBI would have led the league, but Babe Ruth drove in 171 runs that season...three times he ranked second in the AL in slugging percentage behind Ruth.
- Was sold to the Cincinnati Reds on October 14, 1929, where he played in 1930 and 1932...batted .333 in 1930 with 19 home runs, two off his career best, and 91 RBI.
- After his playing career, broadcasted Tigers games on the radio from 1934-51.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1952.

Detroit's manager from 1907-1920, Jennings piloted teams which featured all-time greats Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Sam Crawford, and he led the Tigers to three consecutive American League pennants from 1907-09.

- An outstanding shortstop in his playing days, had his best years with the National League's Baltimore Orioles between 1893 and 1899...drove in more than 100 runs three times, batted .398 in 1896 and led the league in fielding four times.
- With Detroit, served as player-manager from 1907-1918, although he only appeared in a handful of games and had just nine at-bats in those 12 years..became full-time manager for his final two seasons in a Tigers uniform.
   Although his Tigers up the two seasons in a the World Sorting each time the Cube and once
- Although his Tigers won three straight league titles, they lost in the World Series each time, twice to the Cubs and once to the Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1945.

If any player defined the Tigers during the last half-century it was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player ever elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility...at the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20-or-more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankees catchers Yogi Berra and Elston Howard, respectively...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, *The Sporting News*chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the Majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in AL history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .379 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15-of-16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and 1967 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300-or-better and drilled 20-or-more home runs nine times. each during his career.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time designated hitter and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.
- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old American League record for hits by a righthanded batter.
   Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.
- Had his No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tigers player ever to have his number retired.
- Has spent every year since 1976 in the Tigers organization, first as a television color analyst (1976-2001) and more recently as a Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager.

The American League's foremost third baseman in the 1940s and '50s, George Kell is one of just 17 third basemen enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Won the 1949 American League batting crown with a .343 average, nosing out Boston's Ted Williams on the final day of the season.
- Selected to 10 All-Star Games, including eight straight between 1947 and 1954.
- Batted over .300 nine times and led the AL in hits in 1950 and 1951...also led the league in doubles both seasons.
- Was acquired by the Tigers on May 18, 1946, from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for outfielder Barney McCoskey.
  In seven seasons with the Tigers from 1946-52, he batted below .300 just once, in 1952, when he was traded to the Red - Sox 39 games into the season.Known for sure hands and a strong, accurate arm, he led AL third basemen in fielding percentage seven times.
- Wore uniform No. 21 from 1946-50 and No. 7 in 1951-52 with the Tigers.
- Was included in an eight-player trade on June 3, 1952, in which he, Dizzy Trout, Hoot Evers and Johnny Lipon were sent from the Tigers to Boston in exchange for Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Bill Wight, Fred Hatfield and Don Lenhardt.
- Also played for the White Sox and Orioles before retiring in 1957.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1983.
- Began broadcasting full-time after retiring as a player, and, except for 1964, called Tigers baseball every year from 1959-96...retired from broadcasting in January, 1997.

A lifetime .330 hitter, outfielder Heinie Manush played for six teams over 17 seasons, but entered the Hall of Fame as a Detroit Tiger after playing his first five years with the club.

- Played his first three seasons in the big leagues for manager Ty Cobb and won his lone batting title in 1926 under Cobb's tutelage, batting .378...overtook Babe Ruth by going six-for-nine in a doubleheader on the last day of the season.
- In 1928, his first season with the St. Louis Browns, collected 241 hits, just 16 short of George Sisler's 1920 Major League record...again batted .378 but lost the batting title by a single point to Washington's Goose Goslin.
- Topped the 200-hit mark four times in his career...also posted 40-or-more doubles six times, leading the league in 1928 and 1929, and topped the American League with 17 triples in 1933.
- Finished as runner-up to Jimmie Foxx for the batting title in 1933 after hitting .336...was selected to his only All-Star game in 1934.
- In 7,654 career at-bats, fanned just 345 times (never more than 30 times in a season).
- Was traded from Detroit to the St. Louis Browns on Dec. 2, 1927, along with Lu Blue in exchange for Chick Galloway, Elam Vangilder and Harry Rice.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1964.

One of seven players in Major League history to win a World Series with three different teams, Jack Morris was among the top pitchers in the Majors in the 1980s and into the early 1990s.

- Earned five All-Star selections during his career, was named the American League Babe Ruth Award winner in 1984 and 1991 and was selected the AL Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News in 1981...finished in the top five in AL Cy Young Award voting four times.
- Spent 14 of his 18 Major League seasons in a Tigers uniform, pitching in 430 games, including 408 starts, and compiling a 198-150 record with a 3.73 ERA (3042.2IP/1262ER) and 1980 strikeouts...he ranks second in franchise history in games started, third in strikeouts, fourth in innings pitched, fifth in wins, eighth in complete games (154) and shutouts (24) and ninth in appearances.
- Helped the Tigers to the 1984 World Series championship, making three starts in the postseason and going 3-0, including two complete game victories in the Fall Classic.
- Following his 14 years in Detroit, he went to Minnesota, where he led the Twins to the 1991 World Series title...won MVP honors after tossing 10.0 shutout innings in Game 7 vs. Atlanta.
- Pitched for Toronto in 1992-93, winning World Series championships in both seasons.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Modern Baseball Era Committee in December, 2017.
- On August 12, 2018, he became the seventh Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 47).

The only pitcher in Major League history to win back-to-back league Most Valuable Player awards, Hal Newhouser, Detroit born-and-raised, was one of the most dominant pitchers of the 1940s.

- Captured his first Most Valuable Player award in 1944 after leading the Majors with a 29-9 record and 187 strikeouts... his 29 victories tied George Mullin's 1909 club record.
- Named Most Valuable Player again the following season, becoming just the third American League pitcher to lead baseball in wins (25), ERA (1.81) and strikeouts (212) all in the same season...his 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched also led the Majors.
- Spent 15 of his 17 big league seasons in a Tigers uniform and during that span was a seven-time All-Star... led the American League in victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each and hurled back-to-back 300-plus inning seasons in 1944 and 1945.
- From 1944-48, won 20-or-more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 107 complete games and 993 strikeouts...also allowed just 40 home runs and twice posted an ERA under 2.00 during that span.
- Retired in 1955 after two seasons as a reliever with Cleveland.
- On July 27, 1997, he became the fourth Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 16).
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1992.

One of the best shortstops of his generation, Alan Trammell spent all 20 seasons of his Major League career in a Tigers uniform, joining Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players in franchise history to spend the entirety of their 20-plus year career in the Olde English 'D'.

- Hit .300-or-better in seven seasons and finished his career with 2,365 hits, 412 doubles and a .285 career batting average.
- Earned six All-Star Game selections, four Gold Glove Awards at shortstop and three Silver Slugger Awards.
- Led the Tigers to the 1984 World Series Championship, earning Most Valuable Player honors after hitting .450 with two home runs and six RBI over the five-game series.
- Enjoyed the best season of his professional career in 1987, when he finished second in the voting for American League Most Valuable Player after posting career bests with a .343 batting average, 205 hits, 28 home runs and 105 RBI, while leading the Tigers to the AL East Division title.
- Became the 35th manager in Tigers history in October, 2002 and was the team's manager from 2003-05.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Modern Baseball Era Committee in December 2017.
- On August 26, 2018, he became the eighth Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 3).

KENNY GRAHAM

Director, Hitting

Entering his fourth season with the Tigers, Graham serves as the Director of Hitting. His major focus is on hitting development and strategies, establishing an organizationwide hitting protocol with a focus on utilizing data and technology to aid growth and performance.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Graham spent the previous three seasons as the Minor League hitting coordinator for Milwaukee. Before that he spent seven seasons in various Minor League roles in Toronto's system, including as the co-hitting coordinator (2015) and hitting coach at Single A Lansing (2012-13, 2015), Single A Bluefield (2011) and Single A Auburn (2010). He also managed the organization's Gulf Coast League affiliate in 2014 and served as the hitting coach for the Independent League's Gary RailCats for two seasons (2008-09).

He attended Indiana University and was an outfielder on the baseball team before moving into coaching at the University of Indianapolis as the hitting coach, while receiving his Masters Degree in Curriculum and Instruction.

EUCLIDES ROJAS

Director, Latin American Player Development

Rojas begins his second season with the Tigers, following a nine-year stint (2011-19) as Pittsburgh's Major League bullpen coach. Under his leadership, the Pirates relief corps posted a 3.58 ERA (4882.0IP/1943ER) and converted 69.7% of its saves, both marks ranking fourth in the Major Leagues over that span.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Rojas spent six seasons as Pittsburgh's Latin American field coordinator (2005-10) and as a roving minor league instructor in 2002 with an emphasis on the club's Latin American program. Other stops during his coaching career came in Boston (Major League bullpen coach, 2003-04) and Miami (pitching coach with Gulf Coast and Florida State League affiliates, 1996-2001).

A native of Cuba, Rojas was a member of the Cuban National Team from 1982-1994 and ranks as the alltime leader in Cuban baseball with 342 career relief appearances and 90 saves. After coming to the United States he was selected by Miami in the 30th round of the 1995 MLB Draft (signing scout was former Tigers and Marlins executive, Dick Egan), and went on to pitch in the Marlins farm system for the 1995-96 seasons. He has also pitched on Olympic, World and Pan American championship teams.

GABE RIBAS

Director, Pitching

Entering his second season with the Tigers, Ribas is responsible for working across all departments within the club's baseball operations to implement a dynamic pitching program spanning the entire player development system.

Prior to his time with Detroit he held the title of Pitching Coordinator (Performance) with the Dodgers. With Los Angeles, Ribas worked across many areas within player development, including coaching staffs, performance science, strength and conditioning, baseball analytics and others to construct and maintain a highly individualized and comprehensive pitching development program.

Ribas also spent 11 seasons coaching in college baseball with stops at Bowdoin College, Northwestern University, The College of the Holy Cross, Northern Colorado University and Santa Clara University.

A graduate of Northwestern University, Ribas was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the 14th round of the 2002 amateur draft and was the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2003, winning 17 games.

RYAN SIENKO

Director, Coaching, Field & Catching Coordinator

Sienko is in his second season as the Tigers Director of Coaching and Field Coordinator, where he coordinates the organization's on-field activity and all coaching initiatives.

He comes to Detroit after six seasons (2015-20) as a catching coordinator/assistant coordinator with the Dodgers. His responsibilities with Los Angeles included instilling catching philosophies at all levels of the club's player development system, maximizing the impact of receiving metrics, conducting drills and skill work with players, coordinating player plans, working with the research and development department and traveling to all affiliates

Prior to his time with the Dodgers, Sienko was an associate scout for the Orioles from 2007-15 and from 2002-07 was the Director of Baseball Operations and instructor with the National Pitching Association. In 2005 he founded Catch & Throw, an organization with the mission of providing quality professional catching instruction to support the health and performance of catchers. Sienko also coached at the high school level, including at Torrey Pines High School and Canyon Crest Academy.

SPRING TRAINING

TIGERS SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

SPRING TRAINING

PUBLIX FIELD AT JOKER MARCHANT STADIUM TIGERTOWN SPRING TRAINING IN LAKELAND, FLORIDA

FACTS AND FIGURES

Stadium Location: 2301 Lakeland Hills Blvd., Lakeland, FL 33805 Seating Capacity: 9,598

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2023 for their 87th season in Lakeland, and their 58th at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In July 2014, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 20 additional years, ensuring their winter home remains in Lakeland for an unprecedented 100 years, through 2036.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100, and was recently upped again to more than 9,500. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972, and a food/picnic court that was added in 1994 to enhance the fan experience.

Thanks to the support of the City of Lakeland, Polk County, the State of Florida and Publix, Joker Marchant Stadium underwent significant renovations prior to the 2017 season, improving training facilities for players, meeting space for the coaching staff and the gameday experience for fans.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a Major League team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium is 443-361-34 and 4,443,985 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

COMERICA PARK Home of the detroit tigers

FACTS AND FIGURES

Location: 2100 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, MI, 48201

Seating Capacity: 40,988

First Game: April 11, 2000 vs. Seattle Mariners

Playing Field Fences: The left field fence is six feet, 10 inches high. Starting with the 2023 season, the center field wall was lowered from 8.5 feet to seven feet, the right-center field wall was lowered from 13 to seven feet, and the right field wall was lowered from 8.5 feet to seven feet high. Area: The ballpark itself encompasses over 788,000 square feet. Including the outbuildings, the total square footage is over one million.

Lighting: Comerica Park contains 16 light towers, each standing five stories tall and containing a total of 840 light fixtures. In 2023, Comerica Park replaced 840 metal-halide fixtures with 472 LED fixtures. (424 White LED Field Lights, and 48 RGBW LED Lights). The newly installed system includes 48 color-changing, red-green-bluewhite (RGBW) LED fixtures strategically located throughout the stadium's light towers to illuminate the playing surface. Light Quality – the 424 LED fixtures produce a whiter and more uniform light on the field, improving the visibility for players when tracking the ball.

Dugouts: Connected to clubhouses by tunnels. Visitors on first base side, home on third base side.

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit, featuring a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind, and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for visitors of all ages.

THE DISTRICT DETROIT

The District Detroit is a premier sports and entertainment destination unlike any other in the country. This onestop shop for dining, sports and live entertainment offers eventgoers, residents and visitors a dynamic environment to live, work and play. The area features three major, multi-use venues and all four of the city's largest professional sports teams within walking distance of one another. Venues include the award-winning Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Pistons and world-class entertainment, Comerica Park, home to the Detroit Tigers, and the Detroit Lions' Ford Field. The Fox Theatre, Detroit's crown jewel, continues to be one of the most iconic theaters and music venues in the world. The District Detroit is an ideal landing spot for guests to connect and celebrate before, during or after an event, and offers something for everyone.

THE CONCOURSES

Comerica Park's concourses are among the most generous of any sporting venue. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, though it becomes wider in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Fans are treated to a tour through the rich history of Detroit Tigers baseball as they walk through the main concourse at Comerica Park. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history, complete with artifacts and exhibits. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring rich memories from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the Brushfire Grill behind third base and the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court behind first base, each featuring a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies. Comerica Park is a cashless facility. Guests may remit cash for a prepaid debit card at Comerica Bank Cash2Card machines located throughout the ballpark.

MOBILE WALLET

As part of the Comerica Bank Park Perks program, Comerica Bank customers who upload their debit or credit card to the Comerica Bank Mobile Wallet located in the MLB Ballpark App will receive a $25 credit towards their orderahead or in-seat delivery purchase! Please note: in-seat delivery is only accessible for Tiger Den and On-Deck Circle seat locations

THE SCOREBOARD

One of the most stunning features at Comerica Park is the high definition LED video board in left field. The Daktronics board measures approximately 48 feet high and 127 feet wide, and utilizes the latest in LED technology to offer excellent clarity and contrast of video images. In addition to the main board, a five-foot high and 100-foot wide LED display is positioned beneath the main board to provide pitcher statistics and other information. The state-of-the-art technology continues on top of the board with a script Tigers logo that utilizes LED technology, allowing the lettering to change color and be animated for special events throughout the season.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the Hi-Chew Carousel is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Also, the Fly Ball Ferris Wheel, a baseball-themed ferris wheel, is located in the Brushfire Grill. The stunning Chevrolet Fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water. Enjoying these rides will be cashless only in 2023.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park, and 2,000 in the two Gallagher Suite Levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower, and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two Gallagher Suite Levels, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

EXTENDED PROTECTIVE NETTING

Installed prior to the 2018 season, Comerica Park features a new and enhanced protective netting system, which extends from sections 140 to 116. The enhanced netting covers a much greater area than previously and is some of the thinnest in baseball, reflecting the organization's commitment to providing a fan-friendly, safe and enjoyable experience at a Tigers game.

COMERICA PARK STATUES

Comerica Park features larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends, which overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, Al Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by sculptor Omri Amrany, and were cast in stainless steel. Gate A features a sculpture of Hall of Fame broadcaster Ernie Harwell, greeting fans as they enter Comerica Park.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL TIGER CLUB

The MotorCity Casino Hotel Tiger Club features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertainment space. There is seating for 300 patrons with a view of right field, a bar for 200, the Witherell Lounge and a banquet facility.

JIM BEAM CHAMPIONS CLUB The Jim Beam Champions Club combines the perks of luxury seating with an open and relaxed lounge atmosphere. The Jim Beam Champions Club opened in 2006 and is located on the suite level down the left field line.

LITTLE CAESARS PARTY SUITES

The Little Caesars Party Suites debuted in 2021 and are located at suites 250 & 251. Combined, the suites can hold up to 70 guests and provide an immersive look into the combined histories of Little Caesars Pizza, the Detroit Tigers and Detroit as a city. Since 2022, single game leases of the Little Caesars Party Suites includes exclusive menu offerings. Contact us at 313-471-2260 to learn more!

THE COMERICA LANDING

Ahead of the 2023 season, the Comerica Landing underwent an extensive renovation, including the addition of the Lite Lounge, featuring a unique social setting with a relaxed outdoor environment which amplifies the Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub. Fans in this area can sit comfortably in high-end outdoor furniture, with a nearby fire feature, big flat screen TVs, and enjoy a ballgame.

THE CHEVROLET PAVILION

The Chevrolet Pavilion features 1,800 square feet of entertainment space under the scoreboard in left field, near the Gallagher Entry. It offers a variety of food, beverage and bar options, including Atwater Brewery selections. The Chevrolet Pavilion provides a relaxing atmosphere with excellent views of the field, and multiple TVs to catch the action

COMERICA PARK

MILLER LITE PITCHER'S PUB

The Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub is open to the public and located on the Comerica Landing in right field. Boasting a fun and relaxed atmosphere, flat screen TVs, and decor celebrating Detroit Tigers pitchers past and present, this is a great destination for a bite to eat and a beverage.

BLUE MOON BASES LOADED BAR

Located behind section 330, the Blue Moon Brew House delivers features such as lounge seating, private restrooms, and excellent beverage offerings. This upper deck lounge is air conditioned, heated and open to the public.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL OFF-RAMP BAR

The MotorCity Casino Hotel Off-Ramp Bar features an over 50-foot bar with various beer selections on tap and nine large screens, creating the ultimate viewing experience of the scoreboard feed during the game and inning breaks. Located next to the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the bar is also accessible from all levels via ramp.

THE VIZZY HARD SELTZER VIEW

Located above the Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub in right field, the Vizzy Hard Seltzer View offers a panoramic view of Comerica Park and is open to the public, but is available for groups to purchase.

ABSOLUT BEVERAGES

Located at Section 141, Absolut Beverages offers a variety of frozen daiquiris, cold beer, and limited specialty cocktails. MEIJER MARKET

Located at Section 143, the new Meijer Market featuring Green Dot Stables offers a large variety of sliders and fries, as well as cold beverages and packaged snacks.

MILLER LITE MARKET & BLUE MOON BISTRO

The Miller Lite Market & Blue Moor Bistro across from the Chevrolet Pavilion are the best spots to quickly grab food or beverage throughout the game. The Miller Lite Market, located at section 149, will now feature Taqueria El Rey. Blue Moon Bistro is located at section 151.

GATED ENTRANCES

There are four gated entrances to Comerica Park: Comerica Entry, Rocket Mortgage Entry, Gallagher Entry, and Gate D with each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures and Pewabic tile accents.

MOBILE-ONLY ENTRY

Comerica Park employs mobile ticketing as the primary method of entry for all games at the ballpark. Tigers fans can enter the ballpark utilizing the easy-to-use Major League Baseball Ballpark App, which has emerged as the preeminent application for buying, selling or transferring baseball tickets across MLB. Further, in cooperation with our partners at StubHub, fans also have the option to use the StubHub App to enter the ballpark.

FANTASTIC FIREWORKS

Not only is Comerica Park known for explosive action on the field, but also in the skies above. Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select Fridays throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting atmosphere.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park. Comerica Park has also partnered with Kulture City to provide sensory-friendly amenities and accessories which are available to fans at the Guest Services Office at Section 130.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. ## COMERICA PARK

In 2023, Comerica Park is entering its 24th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Over two decades, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth All-Star game in Detroit, and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League, 7-5, behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a then-Major League record, belting 24 home runs in the first round, and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first postseason game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees, 6-0, and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDOÑEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordoñez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street offering into the Detroit sky for a game-ending, three-run home run, propelling the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series, and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007, in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park, and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952, at Briggs Stadium.

MIGUEL CABRERA JOINS THE 3,000 HIT CLUB On April 23, 2022, Miguel Cabrera collected the 3,000th hit of his Major League career, hitting a first inning single to right field against Colorado Rockies starter Antonio Senzatela. Cabrera joined Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players to reach the milestone while wearing the Olde English 'D'. Cabrera became the 33rd player in MLB history, and the first Venezuelan-born player to reaching 3,000 hits. A crowd of 37,566 witnessed the history making hit and the Tigers 13-0 victory over the Rockies in the first game of a doubleheader.
