SCHEDULE AS OF 10/20/23
SUBJECT TO CHANGE

HOME PHILIP HUGH FOREVARS AWAY

ON THE COVER:

The 2023 Houston Astros, the reigning World Series Champions, are led by Manager Dusty Baker, who's guided the club to three postseason berths in his three years at the helm. Overall, the Astros have made the postseason in a club record six consecutive seasons, and have played in the World Series in four of the last six seasons, winning twice (2017, 2022).

Baker, who enters the season ranking ninth all-time in Major League history in managerial wins, also ranks fourth all-time in postseason managerial wins (51), including a 28-14 (.667) record in the postseason with the Astros. By virtue of the Astros winning 105 games last season, Baker became just the fourth manager in MLB history to win 100 games in a single season in both leagues (also, Sparky Anderson, Whitey Herzog and Tony LaRussa). A steady presence for the Astros since his arrival, Baker is making his second straight appearance on the club's Media Guide.

Second baseman Jose Altuve, returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the ninth time in his career (also, 2013, 2015-19, 2021-23) and the third consecutive. Altuve is coming off his eighth career All-Star season, which is a franchise record, topping Hall of Famer Craig Biggio (seven selections).

Perennial MVP contender and the Astros third baseman Alex Bregman is making his third appearance on the cover (also, 2019, 2021), while left fielder Yordan Alvarez returns for his second (also, 2020).

Two breakout stars from the 2022 season will be making their debuts on the Astros Media Guide cover in shortstop Jeremy Peña and starting pitcher Framber Valdez. Peña had a magical rookie season in 2022, which culminated in him earning the MVP of the American League Championship Series and the World Series. Valdez also had a stellar 2022 season, in which he served as the Astros Opening Day starter, was the winning pitcher in the All-Star Game and starred in an undefeated postseason.

ASTROS IN THE COMMUNITY

OVERVIEW

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

2022, the first full season under the leadership of Paula Harris, Executive Director, Astros Foundation and Senior VP of Community Affairs was a very successful one for the Foundation, as $5.3 million was donated to community programs. The Astros also embraced the community of Uvalde, Texas, after the shooting at Robb Elementary School, engaging in community activities, having a Uvalde Strong Day at Minute Maid Park, making 2023 Astros Caravan stops in the community and making Uvalde Little League a Community Leader Little League.

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2022, the Astros Youth Academy softball team made it to the finals of the MLB Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities World Series Championship.

Each year, the Astros Foundation continues to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

To learn more about the Astros Foundation and community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation. Also follow along on social media, on Twitter: @AstrosCares, Facebook: Facebook.com/AstrosFoundation and Instagram: astrosfoundation.

ASTROS ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including promotional or autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at Astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros. We seek to harness the passion of our fans to support youth sports and education programs, the recognition/honor of our nation's military, childhood cancer and domestic violence awareness and efforts to reduce homelessness. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros MLB Youth Academy and the Astros RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).

The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala, Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, The MVP Series, the Astros Foundation/AT&T SportsNet Charity Broadcast and more.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred and Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was awarded to the Astros Community Leaders program in 2017.

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and down to Uvalde, Texas, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY

2801 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77088

The Astros Youth Academy is the cornerstone of the Astros Foundation with the initiative to provide youth baseball and softball to the young athletes in the Greater Houston Area. The Academy's experienced staff serve over 20,000 participants providing free baseball and softball instruction, life-skills training, academic support, and initiatives to young athletes year-round. The Astros Youth Academy staff plays a vital role in the expansion and development of the Foundations' Community Leader program.

The Academy is also home to the Houston Astros RBI program and host summer camps and year-round clinics. Astros RBI is in its 10th year as an Astros Foundation-run program. The Astros RBI program has established a legacy of success nationally, particularly the Astros RBI Softball Team, which has won three recent MLB RBI World Series titles (2018, 2019 and 2021). The Astros RBI Senior Boys advanced to the MLB RBI World Series in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2022 and the Junior Boys advanced to this prestigious event in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Since 2014, over 200 RBI members have received baseball or softball opportunities to continue playing at the collegiate level, with 31 AYA members receiving baseball/softball college opportunities in 2022. Since 2015, 9 RBI members have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams.

ASTROS FOUNDATION IN 2022

The 2022 season, the first full year under the leadership of Paula Harris, Executive Director, Astros Foundation and Senior VP of Community Affairs was a very successful one for the Foundation, as $5.3 million was donated to community programs.

The Astros also embraced the community of Uvalde, Texas, after the shooting at Robb Elementary School, engaging in community activities, having a Uvalde Strong Day at Minute Maid Park, making 2023 Astros Caravan stops in the community and making Uvalde Little League a Community Leader Little League.

The Astros Foundation participated in granting the 10,000th wish for the Make-a-Wish Foundation Texas Gulf Coast and Louisiana on Oct. 4 at the Astros game against the Philadelphia Phillies. The wish kids ranged in ages from 12 to 18 and signed a one-day contract, were presented with custom Astros jerseys and special goodies, and enjoy the opportunity of a lifetime to meet players during batting practice prior to the start of the game, among many other special activities.

The 2022 Astros Foundation Charity Game, presented by AT&T SportsNet was once again a successful event for the Astros, as proceeds from the telecast benefitted the Astros Foundation, the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Houston, Kids' Meals and the Uvalde Little League.

The Astros Foundation also put on the Diamond Dreams Gala presented by Chevron in November of 2022, a wonderful night of fundraising for the Astros Foundation and New Hope Housing, an organization combatting homelessness by providing housing and support services for those in need. The event featured a fantastic dinner, live and silent auctions and a concert by Boyz II Men.

The Astros Foundation could not have had the success they did in 2022 without World Champion Volunteers, a group of over 2,800 that served over 19,000 hours at 626 events for over 94 partner organizations. The Astros volunteers were named the 2022 Volunteer Group of the Year by Kids Meals.

Additionally, in February of 2023, the Astros Foundation and Minute Maid Park hosted the first Cactus Jack HBCU Classic, a round-robin collegiate baseball tournament featuring six Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

Since rejoining the team in 2012 as the official mascot of the Houston Astros, Orbit has quickly become one of the most popular mascots in baseball and all of sports! During pregame, you can often find him giving a fun Astros “welcome” to top athletes, entertainers and dignitaries from around the world. During the game itself, be on the lookout for some of Orbit’s signature shenanigans which can happen on the field or even right next to you in the stands.

Whether it’s on the dugout, in the stands or on the field, Orbit’s hilarious hijinks have garnered attention from some of the world’s top media outlets, including ESPN, MLB Network, FOX Sports, CBS Sports, SB Nation, Yahoo! Additionally, Orbit offers a series of educational assembly shows geared toward elementary schools that cover topics such as literacy, anti-bullying, having character, making smart choices during Red Ribbon Week, STEM and preparing for the STARR test.

In 2019, Orbit joined the team on their trip to Monterrey, Mexico, as they played the Los Angeles Angels as a part of MLB’s International Series. This was Orbit’s fourth international trip, including a trip to Japan (2014) and Mexico (2016) and Taiwan (2018).

In 2017, Orbit released his very first children’s book, Orbit’s First Day of School! The book covers topics such as making new friends, how to handle bullies, embracing differences, celebrating strengths and practicing respect. JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of a new era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitions, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus win seasons in five of the last six years (did not reach the mark in 2020 due to a shortened season because of the COVID-19 pandemic). Not only have the Astros reached the postseason each of the last six seasons, but they have advanced to the ALCS in all six of those years, becoming just the second team in MLB history to advance to six-straight LCS. In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant. Last season in 2021, the Astros won their fourth American League West Division title and third American League pennant in five seasons. Overall, three of the club's four World Series trips, including the 2017 World Series Championship, have come under Crane's ownership.

In order to make the experience at Minute Maid Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several large-scale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley and the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites were the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Minute Maid Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it redeveloped into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new nickname, Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Jim continued to add to the Astros minor league system acquiring the Sugar Land Skeeters franchise to serve as the Astros Triple A affiliate prior to the 2021 season. In January of 2022, the Skeeters underwent a successful re-brand to the Sugar Land Space Cowboys.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country.

Passion for the Game

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation transitioned to the newly renovated Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

Jim also acquired Davaco, a leader in high-volume remodels and technology deployments for global brands. He then started a software company, Modiant, as well as Crane Safety, a commercial safety supply company.

Stepping Up and Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. Since he took ownership of the club, the Astros Foundation has donated and invested over $50 million into the Houston community and beyond.

In 2021, the Astros Foundation led the way in the fight against COVID-19, partnering with the City of Houston to use Minute Maid Park as both a COVID-19 testing site and as a vaccination site.

In April of 2020, during the early stages of the pandemic, Jim stepped up to connect the Astros Foundation with Crane Worldwide Logistics, which resulted in millions of medical supplies being delivered to Houston hospitals within the Texas Medical Center. The goal of the partnership was to provide funding, logistics and transportation support for much-needed medical supplies and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) being used by healthcare professionals to treat COVID-19 patients.

In 2020, Jim also connected the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide with Astros players Carlos Correa and Martin Maldonado plus other MLB players from Puerto Rico to assist with delivering medical supplies to the island during the COVID-19 pandemic. In that endeavor, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide covered 100% of the freight and transportation costs and also coordinated the logistics to get those much-needed medical supplies to Puerto Rico.

Crane and the Astros Foundation are the first to jump to action after natural disasters in the area, holding supply drives at Minute Maid Park to support relief efforts for communities impacted by storms. Most recently, drives were held to collect supplies for communities in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Laura in 2020 and Hurricane Ida in 2021. In 2021, the Astros Foundation and Alex Bregman held a water distribution drive to support local Houstonians during recovery from Winter Storm Uri.

In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey in 2017, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

In 2018, when the City of Houston was in danger of losing the Houston Open golf tournament, Jim helped establish the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that the historic, PGA Tour tournament would remain in Houston. As a result, since 2019, the Houston Open has been presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has had a tremendous impact on the Houston community, becoming the single-biggest fundraiser for the Astros Foundation. The Astros Golf Foundation spearheaded a $34 million renovation to Memorial Park Golf Course, which now plays host to the Houston Open. One of the key goals of the Astros Golf Foundation is to provide much-needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth programs.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. One of his first initiatives after purchasing the Astros was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won MLB's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. As part of the program, a multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment, tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities that I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. In 2019, Jim was recognized as the MD Anderson "Living Legend" and was also presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event. He also won the 2019 Houston Sports Award Executive of the Year award. In May of 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

DANA BROWN

GENERAL MANAGER

Dana Brown was named the 14th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Jan. 25, 2023.

Brown becomes the second African-American general manager in Astros history, joining Bob Watson (1994-95).

Brown joins the Astros after spending the last four seasons (2019-22) with the Atlanta Braves organization as their Vice President, Scouting. In that role, he oversaw several successful drafts in which the Braves selected impact players such as outfielder Michael Harris, right-handed pitcher Spencer Strider and infielder Vaughn Grissom. In 2022, Harris earned National League Rookie of the Year honors while Strider finished second.

The Braves success in recent years, which includes five straight division titles and a World Series championship in 2021, has in large part been the result of a solid farm system.

Prior to joining the Braves, Brown spent nine seasons (2010-18) with the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assistant to the general manager. In that span, the Blue Jays earned an American League East Division title in 2015 and a Wild Card berth in 2016. The postseason appearance in 2015 was the first for the Blue Jays since 1993.

Before his stint in Toronto, Brown served as the Director of Scouting for the Nationals/Expos franchise for nine seasons (2001-09). During his tenure, the Nationals/Expos would draft over 40 players that would go on to appear in the Major Leagues. Seven players drafted in that span would earn All-Star status, including Ian Desmond, Stephen Strasburg and Ryan Zimmerman.

Brown's career also includes an eight-year stint with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he served as their area scouting supervisor and east coast cross checker.

Brown also played professionally for three seasons as an outfielder in the Phillies minor league system after being drafted out of Seton Hall University in the 35th round of the 1989 June Draft. In three minor league seasons as an outfielder, Brown hit .262 in 280 games with 82 stolen bases, advancing as high as Double-A in his final season in 1991.

One of his teammates at Seton Hall was Astros Hall of Famer Craig Biggio. Brown also played with three other future Major Leagues while at Seton Hall: former All-Star and MVP first baseman Mo Vaughn, shortstop John Valentin and left-handed pitcher Kevin Morton. Brown was inducted into the Seton Hall Hall of Fame in 2008 and the New Jersey Sports and Entertainment Hall of Fame in 2012 for notable accomplishments in baseball.

JEFF BAGWELL

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO BASEBALL OPERATIONS & COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Jeff Bagwell, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Astros Hall of Fame in 2019, was one of the greatest sluggers of all-time.

In his current role as Special Advisor to Baseball Operations & Community Outreach Executive, Jeff is an active member of the Astros front office staff and of the Houston community. In addition to making public appearances and acting as an ambassador for the organization, Jeff can also be heard on the club's TV and radio broadcasts, serving as a part-time color analyst on both platforms.

He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record a 30-homer, 30-stolen base season, which he accomplished twice (1997, 1999). Under Bagwell's leadership, the Astros won four division titles and made the playoffs six times, reaching the National League Championship Series in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his 16th season as a special assistant to the General Manager. In this role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, and Major and minor league talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development program.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was officially inducted into the HOF during the annual ceremony in Cooperstown on July 26, 2015. Craig was also inducted to the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 homers, 1,175 RBI, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 25th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the 2nd-most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history (sixth all-time overall).

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (drafted '16) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame. Cavan was drafted by the Blue Jays and made his Major League debut for Toronto in 2019. On Sept. 17, 2019 in Baltimore, Cavan hit for the cycle, making he and his father just the second father-son duo to each hit for the cycle in an MLB game; Quinn is a member of the Notre Dame softball team.

DUSTY BAKER JR. 12

MANAGER

Full Name: Johnnie B. Baker Jr. Born: 6/15/49 in Riverside, CA
Opening Day Age: 73 Resides: Granite Bay, CA
Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, San Francisco Giants (1988); Hitting Coach, San Francisco Giants (1989-92); Manager, San Francisco Giants (1993-2002); Manager, Chicago Cubs (2003-06); Manager, Cincinnati Reds (2008-13); Manager, Washington Nationals (2016-17); Manager, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Dusty Baker was named the Astros 19th field manager in franchise history on Jan. 29, 2020.

In what was his 25th year as a Major League manager, the 2022 season was perhaps Baker's most memorable as he guided the Astros to a World Series championship. En route to the title, Baker's Astros posted one of the most dominant seasons in recent history. After leading the American League with 106 wins, the Astros went 11-2 in the postseason, which included a combined 7-0 record in the ALDS (3-0 vs. Seattle) and ALCS (4-0 vs. New York), before defeating the Phillies in the World Series in six games. The title was Baker's first as a manager and second overall as he was a part of the championship 1981 Dodgers club as a player. Additionally, Baker has now won three pennants as a manager in his career, including in back-to-back seasons as the Astros skipper (2021-22).

Baker also reached another historic milestone in 2022 when he became just the 12th manager and first African-American manager ever to reach 2,000 career wins with a 4-0 victory over the Mariners on May 3. The future Hall of Famer enters the 2023 season with 2,093 career wins, which ranks ninth all-time. For his efforts, Baker was named 2022 Coach/Manager of the Year by the Houston Sports Awards Association.

In Baker's three seasons at the helm, the Astros have gone 28-14 (.667) in the postseason, giving them more playoff wins than any other club in that span. Baker's win percentage (.667) in the postseason is the best in club history. Baker's Astros are also 230-154 (.599) in the regular season, giving him the best winning percentage of any manager in franchise history (min. three seasons).

The 2021 season included multiple highlights and historical milestones for Baker. Most importantly, he led the Astros the AL pennant, marking the club's fourth trip to the Fall Classic in franchise history. It also marked the second time that Baker had led his club to the World Series.

Along the way, the Astros captured the AL West Division title, making Baker the first manager in Major League history to win division titles with five different clubs. In the postseason, the Astros defeated the White Sox in the ALDS in four games and then the Red Sox in the ALCS, rallying from 2-1 deficit to capture the pennant in six games. For his efforts, Baseball America named Baker as their 2021 Manager of the Year.

Baker's first season in Houston, 2020, was a memorable one, as his Astros had an outstanding postseason run, falling just one win shy of a return to the World Series. The Astros were 8-5 in the postseason with series wins in the Wild Card round at Minnesota and in the ALDS vs. Oakland. Making the club's performance even more impressive was that the club had to overcome a great deal of injuries to key players. The Astros were forced to use a club-record and MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 that made their MLB debuts in 2020.

When the Astros qualified for the playoffs, Baker once again made history, becoming the first manager in MLB history to take five different teams to the postseason. Baker also managed the Giants (1997, 2000, 2002), Cubs (2003), Reds (2010, 2012-13) and Nationals (2016-17) into the playoffs.

A three-time BBWAA NL Manager of the Year (1993, 1997, 2000), Houston is Baker's fifth managerial stop. His last four were with San Francisco (1993-2002), Chicago (2003-06), Cincinnati (2008-13) and Washington (2016-17).

An All-Star, Gold Glove, Silver Slugger, and World Series winner during his 19-year playing career, Baker has produced 12 postseason teams during his 25-year managerial career, including nine division championships (San Francisco, 1997 & 2000; Chicago, 2003; Cincinnati, 2010 & 2012; Washington, 2016-17, Houston 2021-22, and three wild card appearances (San Francisco, 2002; Cincinnati, 2013; Houston, 2020).

Baker has World Series experience as a player, coach and manager, having played in the Fall Classic in 1977, 1978 and 1981 with the Dodgers. As a manager, prior to 2022, Baker guided both the 2002 Giants and 2021 Astros to the World Series and was a coach on the 1989 NL Champion Giants club.

Baker finished his Giants managerial career with 840 victories in San Francisco, which ranks third in club history. Following his stint with the Giants, Baker served as Cubs manager for four seasons (2003-06), where he enjoyed early success as well. Despite inheriting a club that had finished with a 67-95 record the previous season, Baker guided the Cubs to the NL Central Division title in 2003 with an 88-74 mark. That club would ultimately fall just one win shy of reaching the World Series, falling to the Marlins in the NLCS in seven games. His 2003-04 Cubs teams were the first to post back-to-back winning records in Chicago since 1971-72.

A successful six-year stint in Cincinnati would follow, as he guided the Reds to three playoff appearances, including two NL Central Division titles. As a manager of the Nationals (2016-17), Baker won back-to-back NL East titles in both seasons at the helm.

Baker is also one of only two individuals in MLB history to produce at least 1,800 hits as a player and win at least 1,800 games as a manager, joining Joe Torre on that list. A seven-time All-Star (twice as a player: 1981 & 1982; three times as a member of the coaching staff: 1994, 1997 & 2001; twice as manager: 2003 & 2022), Baker has had success at every managerial stop in his career. His teams have finished first or second 17 times in his 25 years, and Baker is just the seventh manager in MLB history to win 90-plus games on 12-or-more occasions (source: Elias).

As a player, Baker tallied 242 home runs and 1,031 RBI in his 19-year career (2,039 games) that included stops with the Atlanta Braves (1968-1975), Los Angeles Dodgers (1976-1983), San Francisco Giants (1984) and Oakland Athletics (1985-1986). Baker finished in the top 10 in MVP voting twice (1980 & 1981), and won two Silver Slugger Awards, a Gold Glove, and earned two All-Star selections.

Early in his career, as an everyday player with the Braves in the 1970s, Baker found himself hitting fifth, behind Hank Aaron, during the historic 1973 and 1974 seasons as Aaron closed in on the all-time HR record.

Baker played in four postseasons (1977, 1978, 1981 & 1983), which included three World Series (1977, 1978, 1981). He earned the NLCS MVP award with the Dodgers in 1977, hitting .357 with a .438 on-base percentage and .837 slugging percentage, two home runs and eight RBI in four games against Philadelphia, and a World Series ring, playing left field for the 1981 Dodgers.

Born Johnnie B. Baker Jr. on June 15, 1949 in Riverside, CA, "Dusty" Baker currently resides in California with his wife, Melissa, and has two children, Natosha and Darren. A 1967 graduate of Del Campo High School in Carmichael, Calif., Baker attended American River College in Sacramento, Calif. Baker's son, Darren, was selected by the Washington Nationals in the 2021 MLB Amateur Draft from the University of California (Berkeley).

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Miami Marlins (2010-13); Third Base Coach, New York Yankees (2015-17); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2018-present)

Joe Espada was named the Astros bench coach on Nov. 6, 2017.

The 2023 season is his sixth with the Astros and his 13th overall on a Major League coaching staff. In addition to his bench coach responsibilities, Espada also serves as infield coach and has mentored some of the game's biggest stars, including 2022 AL Gold Glove winner Jeremy Pena, who became the first rookie shortstop ever to win a Gold Glove. In 2021, both Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel earned Gold Glove Awards, while the Astros earned the Rawlings AL Team Gold Glove Award.

Additionally, under Espada's tutelage, the Astros have led the American League in fielding percentage in four of the last five seasons and have led the Majors in three of the last five seasons.

Prior to joining the Astros, Espada spent four seasons (2014-17) in the New York Yankees organization, first, as a professional scout in 2014, and then as third base coach from 2015-17. During his Yankees coaching tenure, the Yankees earned two playoff berths (2015 & 2017), advancing to the ALCS in 2017.

A native of Santurce, Puerto Rico, Espada attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still owns the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top overall career batting average of .442. He managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for Carolina (2014-15) and Manati (2012-13) and coached third base for Team Puerto Rico in the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classics. Active in the community both in Puerto Rico and in Houston, Espada has given countless clinics to youth baseball groups, including at the Astros Youth Academy. MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2019-20); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2021-present)

With the departure of veteran pitching coach Brent Strom following the 2021 season, Josh Miller took on an expanded role as Astros pitching coach in 2022 and the results were historic. Houston's pitching staff led the American League in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), opponents batting average (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season. Additionally, the club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 was tops in the Majors and third-best in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to the Astros outstanding postseason run in 2022 as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a miniscule 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 opponents average and an 0.95 WHIP in the postseason.

The 2023 season will be Miller's third as Major League Pitching Coach. Previously, he served as the Astros bullpen coach for two seasons (2019-20).

The 2023 season will also mark his 17th season with the Astros and his fourth at the Major League level. Prior to joining the Major League staff, Miller spent the 2018 season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator. He also served as the Astros complex pitching coordinator for two seasons from 2016-17, overseeing the Astros pitching programs at their complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Miller began his coaching career in 2013 as a pitching coach at Rookie Level Greeneville, which followed a two-year stint as a pro scout for the Astros. He next spent three total seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, helping to lead the club to an Appalachian League Championship title in 2015.

A veteran of seven minor league seasons as a pitcher in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and Independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10), he posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

In 2022, López returned to his role as the Astros first base coach after filling in for Gary Pettis as the club's third base coach from September 2020 through the 2021 season while Pettis recovered from multiple myeloma.

The 2023 season is López' fourth on the Astros Major League staff, but his 25th season in the Astros organization. He joined the Astros Major League staff in 2020 after a successful two-year stint as manager of the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks (2018-19). In 2018, López was named the Texas League Manager of the Year after guiding the Hooks to an 82-56 record and a spot in the postseason.

In 2023, Lopez will miss a portion of the Astros Spring Training camp while serving as the manager for Team Venezuela in the World Baseball Classic, whose roster will include Jose Altuve, Luis Garcia and several other star Major League players. His Venezuela club will hold their early workouts at the Astros Spring Training complex in West Palm Beach before departing for the start of the tournament. Lopez, who was born in Valencia, VZ, has some previous experience participating in the World Baseball Classic as he served as the quality control coach for Venezuela in the 2017 WBC.

Overall, Lopez spent 12 seasons managing in the Astros farm system. Prior to managing the Hooks, he had stints at Buies Creek (2017), Quad Cities (2013-14, 2016), Lancaster (2015), Greenville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League (2008). In 2013, López led Quad Cities to a Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. That team featured 16 future Major Leaguers, including two future All Stars in shortstop Carlos Correa and right-handed pitcher Lance McCullers Jr.

Additionally, López was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoategui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. As a 38-year-old, López was the youngest manager in the league and became the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, López earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award, as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, López served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and was a full-time scout from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, López was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was a little-known, 16-year-old free agent at the time.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, López played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998). He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his playing career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

López and his wife, Helen, reside in Orlando, Fla. They have two children, Omar Eduardo and Emily Gabriela.

GARY PETTIS

8 THIRD BASE COACH

Full Name: Gary George Pettis Born: 4/3/58 in Oakland, CA
Opening Day Age: 64 Resides: San Clemente, CA
Bats/Throws: Switch/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Chicago White Sox (2001-02); First Base Coach, New York Mets (2003-04); First Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2007-12); Third Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2013-14); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Gary Pettis returned to his familiar third base coaching box in 2022 after missing time while recovering from multiple myeloma. In 2021, Pettis was away from the club at the start of the season before returning in July, resuming his duties as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis was named the Astros third base coach on Oct. 17, 2014. In addition to that position, Pettis is the club's outfield and baserunning instructor. He played a key role in Kyle Tucker earning his first career Gold Glove Award in 2022. Additionally, Astros outfielders have the highest combined fielding percentage (.991) in the Majors from 2017-22.

Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers, spending his last two seasons (2013-14) as their third base coach after spending six seasons (2007-12) as the club's first base coach. Over those eight years, Pettis also served as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis also served on the Major League staffs of the New York Mets (2003-04) and Chicago White Sox (2001-02) as first base and outfield coach. Pettis began his coaching career as a roving minor league instructor for the Angels (1995) and White Sox (1997-2000), and later had a two-year stint as Milwaukee's Triple A hitting instructor (2005-06).

The former outfielder was a five-time Gold Glove winner during his 14-year Major League career with the California Angels (1982-87), Detroit Tigers (1988-89, 1992), Texas Rangers (1990-91) and San Diego Padres (1992). He amassed 354 career steals and stole at least 40 bases five times during his career, which included a pair of 50-steal seasons. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams. Pettis hit .346 (9x26) for the Angels in the 1986 ALCS vs. Boston.

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple has two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante, who currently is a receiver in the NFL for the Chicago Bears, was a second-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2018 after starring as a consensus All-American at the University of Washington. He owns the NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns with nine. Kyler is a model/actor, who appeared on the television soap opera Days of Our Lives for four years (2015-18), appearing in over 120 episodes.

COACH

Full Name: Daniel Firova Born: 10/16/56 in Refugio, TX
Opening Day Age: 66 Resides: Laredo, TX
Bats/Throws: Right/Right

Dan Firova was named Astros quality assurance coach on Jan. 28, 2021. However, during the 2021 season, he served as the Astros first base coach when Omar Lopez took over as third base coach to fill in for Gary Pettis returned to his third base coaching position in 2022, with Lopez moving back to first base.

The 2023 season will be Firova's third on the Astros Major League staff. Prior joining Houston, Firova's previous Major League coaching stint was for two seasons (2016-17) as the Washington Nationals bullpen coach, under Dusty Baker, who was the club's manager at that time. The Nationals won the NL East in both 2016-17. In 2016, the Nats posted an MLB-best 3.35 ERA.

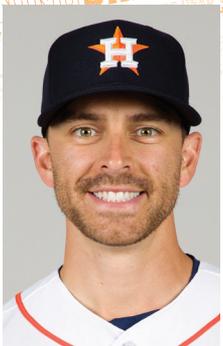

Prior to his stint with the Nationals, Firova enjoyed a long run of success as a manager for 19 seasons in the Mexican League, where he won three championships as skipper of the Mexico City Tigres (1997, 2000-01). His last managerial stop in the Mexican League was for two seasons with the Piratas de Campeche (2014-15). For his career, Firova won more games as a manager in league history than any other non-native of Mexico. He is fourth all-time in victories among all managers in the Mexican League.

A native Texan, Firova was born in Refugio (birthplace of Nolan Ryan) and played several seasons of professional baseball as a catcher after being drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the second round of the 1980 January Draft (secondary phase). He would reach the Major Leagues for two brief stints with the Mariners in 1981-82, and for a one-game stint with Cleveland in 1988.

Firova's hobbies include darts and basketball. He and his wife, Esther, reside in Laredo, TX. They have four children, Chanel, DJ, Joaandre and Ishmael.

JEREMIAH RANDALL

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremiah Randall was named the Astros Major League head athletic trainer on Nov. 9, 2015. The 2023 season will be his eighth atop the Astros athletic training staff.

Randall and his staff proved to be invaluable in 2020 and 2021 as they oversaw much of the Astros COVID-19 safety protocols as the club navigated through two challenging seasons. Randall oversaw the testing of players and staff, which became a daily occurrence in 2020 during the Astros extended playoff run.

NOTES

- After defecting from Cuba in 2016, Alvarez's journey took him first to the Dominican Republic, then to Haiti, where would eventually establish residency.
- While working to establish residency, Alvarez crossed paths with fellow Cuban Yuli Gurriel, who was also working to establish residency...Alvarez grew up idolizing Gurriel, who was a star in the Cuban league during Alvarez's childhood...the two would later become teammates and friends, sharing the same clubhouse with each other for Alvarez's first four professional seasons (2019-22).
- After establishing residency in Haiti, Alvarez signed his first professional contract with the Dodgers and their scouts Ismael Cruz and Mike Toscar.
- Spent less than two months in the Dodgers organization and did not play in a professional game with them before being acquired by Houston in exchange for reliever Josh Fields...Fields posted a 2.61 ERA in three seasons with Los Angeles while Alvarez blossomed into one of the top prospects in baseball before debuting in 2019...the Astros scouts credited with the identification of Alvarez as an amateur include Charlie Gonzalez and Oz Ocampo.
- Went six years, from the moment he defected from Cuba, until August of 2022, without seeing his father (Agustin Alvarez), mother (Marilyn Cadogan Reyes) and little brother (Yonder), who's turning 16 in 2023...with the help of Astros Owner & Chairman Jim Crane, who worked with an immigration lawyer, the three secured visitor visas to eventually make it to the United States...the next step for the family is to apply for residency, with their goal being a permanent move to Florida, where Yordan makes his offseason home...despite being apart for six years, Yordan still talked to his parents daily by phone.
- Has had several eye-opening moments in his career, with perhaps the top regular season moment coming on Sept. 9, 2019, when he became the first Astro to hit a homer into the third deck at Minute Maid Park (off A's RHP Paul Blackburn)...that shot landed in section 337, row 1, seat 18, a seat location that no longer exists after the addition of the Michelob Ultra View Deck.
- Played his first four seasons (2019-22) under his rookie contract...signed a six-year contract extension with the Astros on June 6, 2022, which will keep Alvarez in an Astros uniform through 2028.

- Hit .311 (288x927) with 56 doubles, 56 HR, 218 RBI and a .956 OPS (.395 OBP/.561 SLG) in 250 minor league games in four years prior to his MLB debut.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has pitched in parts of three seasons (2020-22) in Houston, going 26-17 with a 3.57 ERA (129ER/325IP) in 63 games (57 starts).
- Had a strong second full season in 2022, finishing the year as a 15-game winner, while making 28 starts...ranked tied for fourth in the AL in wins, ninth in opponent average (.222) and 10th in strikeouts per 9.0 (8.98)...finished the year on a career-long seven game winning streak.
- Tossed the eighth immaculate inning in franchise history on June 15, 2022, at TEX, striking out 1B Nathaniel Lowe, 2B Ezequiel Duran and 3B Brad Miller in the frame...later was joined in that game by RHP Phil Maton, who also tossed an immaculate inning in the 7th inning against those same three hitters...according to MLB.com's records, marked the first time in MLB history for a game to feature two immaculate innings.
- A POSTSEASON veteran after three MLB seasons, helped the Astros to the 2022 World Series title by tossing 5.0 scoreless innings in relief in the Astros 18-inning win in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA...pitched the final 5.0 innings of the Astros win, allowing just two hits and no walks...became the second Astro to work 5.0 scoreless in relief in a postseason game, joining LHP Framber Valdez (Game 1 of the 2020 AL Wild Card Series at MIN)...Garcia was also just the second pitcher in postseason history to work 5.0-plus scoreless relief innings which all came in extras, joining RHP Yusmeiro Petit (6IP in Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS vs. SF).
- Named the Astros 2021 Rookie of the Year by the Houston BBWAA and finished second in the AL ROY voting, trailing only OF Randy Arozarena...led AL rookie pitchers in WAR (3.0), wins (11), innings (155.1) and strikeouts (167)...his strikeout total was the second-highest by a rookie in club history, trailing RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Had a breakout season in 2020 and ended up making his MLB debut with the Astros on Sept. 4, 2020 after never appearing in a game at the Double A or Triple A levels...would also make his postseason debut as the starting pitcher for the Astros in Game 5 of the 2020 ALCS vs. TB, throwing 2.0 scoreless innings...became the youngest pitcher in Astros history to start a potential elimination game in the postseason (23 years, 307 days old).

NOTES

- Was signed as a 20-year-old non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela on July 2, 2017...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- As an amateur in Venezuela and prior to signing with the Astros, had trouble finding baseball cleats in Venezuela for his size 12 feet...Garcia's mom, who is a social worker, had a friend with a connection to Major League Baseball and made the ask for new cleats on behalf of her son...her friend with the MLB connection happened to be the sister of Astros bullpen catcher Javier Bracamonte, who regularly sends equipment back to his native country of Venezuela...without knowing who they were for, Bracamonte provided the cleats, which eventually made it back to Garcia...finally in 2021, at some point during Garcia's rookie season, Bracamonte was surprised to find out that the kid from Venezuela who needed size 12 cleats was Garcia, who was in his first full season with the Astros.
- Is the third player in club history to wear the #77 after Pudge Rodriguez (2009) and Pedro Feliz (2010)...was assigned the number when he joined the club in midseason of 2020 and opted to keep it moving into the 2021 campaign...he has a special connection to the number, which was worn by him in photo ops on international signing day in 2017...the #77 signing day jersey was pulled randomly for photos by the Astros international staff.
- Prior to it being outlawed this season, had one of the most unique windups in the Majors, which was a mix of rocking a baby and a salsa dance...Garcia does not have a strong origin story for his windup, instead saying he wanted a windup that he felt could be repeatable...it's so unique that it's been mimicked by all, from Major Leagues, including Shohei Ohtani, to little leaguers, including Spring Branch 9-year-old Charlie Strong, who started using Garcia's windup in his little league games...after a video of Charlie went viral, Luis insisted on hosting Charlie at Minute Maid Park, which happened on May 25, 2022...Charlie threw out a ceremonial first pitch that day, using the unique windup, with Luis serving as his catcher.
- Is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2023 season...this Spring Training will be his third with the Major League club.

2022 SEASON:

- Second-year starter picked up 15 wins in his 28 starts...ranked tied for fourth in the AL in wins... had a very similar season to his rookie year of 2021, when he finished second in the AL Rookie of the Year voting...set career highs in wins and innings (157.1) in 2022...also posted a 1.13 WHIP, a tick better than in 2021 (1.18).
- Finished the season riding a career-long, seven-game winning streak, which ranked as the seventh-longest in the AL this season...his streak began on Aug. 12 and spanned his last eight starts...in those outings, worked to a 3.20 ERA (16ER/45IP).
- Went 11-3 with a 4.46 ERA (42ER/84.2IP) in 15 home games...pitched better on the road, posting a 2.85 ERA (23ER/72.2IP) in 13 games.

- Gets his outs via the strikeout and fly ball, as he ranked fifth in the AL in fly ball percentage (43.6%) among those with 150+ IP.
- Has dominated right-handed hitters in his career, limiting them to a .193 average (120x622)...lefties have hit almost 70 points higher against Garcia, posting a .259 average (151x582)...in 2022, those numbers are close to evening out as he limited righties to a .213 (67x315) average and lefties to a .234 (64x274) mark.
- Made his second consecutive OPENING DAY roster and pitched the Astros fifth game of the season on April 12 at ARI.
- Made history in the 2nd inning on June 15 at TEX, tossing the 8th immaculate inning in franchise history...struck out 1B Nathaniel Lowe, 2B Ezequiel Duran and 3B Brad Miller on nine pitches in the frame...later was joined in that game by RHP Phil Maton, who also tossed an immaculate inning in the 7th inning against those same three hitters... according to MLB.com's records, marked the first time in MLB history for a game to feature two immaculate innings.
- Went 1-1 in the POSTSEASON with a 1.59 ERA and six strikeouts in 5.2 IP, working solely as a reliever...tossed a heroic 5.0 scoreless innings in relief in the Astros 18-inning win in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA...pitched the final 5.0 innings of the Astros win, allowing just two hits and no walks... became the second Astro to work 5.0 scoreless in relief in a postseason game, joining LHP Framber Valdez, who did so in Game 1 of the 2020 AL Wild Card Series at MIN...Garcia was also just the second pitcher in postseason history to work 5.0-plus scoreless relief innings which all came in extras, joining RHP Yusmeiro Petit (6IP), who did so for the Giants in Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS vs. SF.

- Became the eighth rookie in Astros history to post an 11-win season and the first since RHP Collin McHugh also won 11 games for the Astros in 2014.
- Among Astros pitchers, ranked second in strikeouts (167), tied for second in starts (28) and third in innings (155.1)...with 155.1 innings pitched this season, set a career high in innings...his previous high was 108.2, reached in the minors in 2019.
- Stymied RHH on the season, holding them to a .182 (52x286) average and a .548 OPS.
- Made five starts for the Astros in the POSTSEASON, going 1-3 with a 8.04 ERA (14ER/15.2IP)...had a rough couple starts to his open his postseason, in Game 3 of the DS at CWS (5ER/2.2IP) and Game 2 of the LCS vs. BOS (5ER/1IP).
- Returned to pitch in Game 6 of the DS vs. BOS and tossed 5.2 scoreless innings en route to the win, which advanced the Astros to the WS...carried a no-hitter through 5.2 innings.
- Made two starts in the World Series and was handed the loss in both: Game 3 at ATL (1ER/3.2IP) and Game 6 vs. ATL (3ER/2.2IP).

- Has allowed a .178 (192x1077) opponent batting average in his three-year career...among pitchers to toss 300+ innings over the 2020-22 seasons, Javier ranks first in the Majors in that category, almost 20 percentage points lower than second-place Corbin Burnes (.195).
- Has been a strong POSTSEASON performer in his young career, posting a 4-1 record with a 2.20 ERA (8ER/32.2IP) with four holds in 14 appearances, including two starts...has allowed just 14 hits in his 32.2 innings of work for a .127 opponent average, while striking out 48 hitters.
- Was the starter in two combined no-hitters in 2022, which came on June 25 at NYY (7IP) and in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series at PHI (6IP)...became the first pitcher in Major League history to start two combined no-hitters in a career.
- During the no-hitter on June 25 at NYY, began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became just the third player since 1961 to have a streak of 13+ innings, joining Corey Kluber (2014) and Aroldis Chapman (2020-21).

- Had a strong sophomore season in 2021, working in the rotation (nine starts) and bullpen (27 apps)... finished his season with a .186 opponent batting average, which ranked first in the AL (min. 90 IP), allowing just 67 hits in his 101.1 IP...held righties to a .155 mark (33x213) and a .587 OPS...also owned the second-lowest ground ball percentage in the Majors at 28% (min. 90 IP).

NOTES

- Grew up an outfielder before transitioning to pitching at the age of 16...less than two years later, signed by the Astros as a 17-year-old international free agent out of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Roman Ocumarez and Leocadio Guevara.
- Received the nickname "El Reptil" (the reptile) during his time in the Astros minor league system, due to his poise, calm demeanor and slow, calculated movements on and off the mound...originally given the name by his High A Manager Morgan Ensberg and his pitching coach at the level, Drew French...Ensberg was a former All-Star player for the Astros, playing for the club from 2000-07.
- Works predominately with his low to mid 90s fastball, which has been nicknamed the invisibal by his teammates...his fastball, which is a four-seamer, has a ride with high spin rates...coupled with his three-quarters arm slot, the pitch has strong deception to hitters...he follows that pitch up with a slider and a 12-6 curveball, which registers in the top 92nd percentile of spin rates in the Majors.
- Just three years in the Majors, Javier has already been an author of several special moments, none bigger than starting the club's combined no-hitter in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series...the night was extra-special for Javier, who had flown his father, Cecilio, and mother, Trinidad Mieses, in from the Dominican Republic for the game...in talking with his parents the night before the game, Cecilio and Trinidad predicted that their son, Cristian, would throw a no-hitter in Game 4...Javier tossed 6.0 innings of no-hit ball the next day...his mother had seen him pitch before in the United States, but that night was his fathers first time to watch his son pitch in the Majors in person.
- Was originally added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2019...with exactly 3,000 years of service time, was eligible for arbitration this offseason...the Astros and Javier avoided that process by agreeing on a five-year contract that will keep Javier in an Astros uniform through the 2027 season...the deal was officially signed on Feb. 10, 2023.

- Finished third in the 2020 AL Rookie of the Year voting...led AL rookies in ERA (3.48) and in opponent average (.188, min. 150 batters faced).

- In the 2020 postseason, was the winning pitcher in the Astros ALDS Game 4 victory over the A's, and their Wild Card Series Game 2 win over the Twins... both games were series clinchers...joined Charlie Morton (2017) as the only pitchers in Astros history to record two wins in series-clinching games in a single postseason.

- Was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2019, while also being named to the Second Team for MLB Pipeline's Prospect Team of the Year... recorded a 1.74 ERA (22ER/113.2IP) with a career-high 170 strikeouts between three levels in the Astros system...led all of minor league baseball in opponent batting average (.130) in 2019, which was 31 points ahead of the next best pitcher, Padres top prospect Mackenzie Gore (.161)...his 1.74 ERA was the second-best mark in all of minor league baseball, behind only Gore's mark of 1.69.

2022 SEASON:

- Third-year swingman pitched primarily out of the rotation this season, making 25 starts compared to just five relief appearances...was great in both roles, as a starter posting a 2.81 ERA (40ER/128.1IP) and as a reliever a 1.26 ERA (2ER/14.1IP).
- Was one of most dominant pitchers in AL this year... among pitchers with 140+ innings pitched, had lowest opponent batting average in AL (.170)...was 16 points lower than the second-place and the AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (.186).
- His .170 opponent batting average this season falls in line with his career opponent batting average of .178...among pitchers to toss 300+ innings over the 2020-22 seasons, Javier has posted the lowest opponent batting average of any pitcher, besting 2nd-place RHP Corbin Burnes (.195)... right-handed hitters are hitting .143 (76x530) against Javier in his career...since 2020, Javier's .143 opponent BA vs. righties is also the lowest in the Majors (min. 420 batters faced).
- Also ranked second in K's per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95) this season...his 11.74 K's per 9.0 ratio trailed only RHP Shohei Ohtani (11.87) (min. 140IP).
- In addition to his high strikeout rate and extremely low opponent batting average, induced pop ups at an elite rate...posted the highest fly ball percentage (56.9%) in the Majors this season (min. 140 IP).
- Was great the entire season, but finished the year in an extremely dominant stretch...over his last six starts, he posted a 1.08 ERA (4ER/33.1IP) with 44 strikeouts, a .127 opponent batting average and a 0.75 WHIP.
- Did not allow a run over his final four starts (23IP) and his last 25.1 innings...marked the longest active streak in the Majors at the end of the season and ranked as the third-longest in the AL this season... including his two starts this postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...Javier allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.

- On June 25 at NYY, pitched 7.0 innings of the Astros combined no-hitter...combined to toss it with RHP Hector Neris (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP)... marked the Astros 14th no-hitter in club history and their third combined no-hitter...C Martin Maldonado was behind the plate for the no-hitter.
- During the no-hitter on June 25 at NYY, Javier began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became just the third player since 1961 to have a streak of 13+ innings, joining Corey Kluber in 2014 and Aroldis Chapman in 2020-21.
- Struck out a career-high 14 hitters in 7.0 innings of dominant work on July 1 vs. LAA...marked the most strikeouts by an Astros pitcher since RHP Gerrit Cole also struck out 14 on Sept. 24, 2019 at SEA.
- Had an absolutely prolific POSTSEASON, making his first two playoff starts and tossing 6.0 innings of Astros combined no-hitter in G4 of the WS...overall, was 2-0 with a 0.71 ERA in playoffs, striking out 16 in 12.2IP...allowed just two hits and one run, which came in a 1.1 inning relief appearance in G1 of ALDS at SEA.
- The no-hitter in Game 4 of the World Series was just second no-hitter ever in WS history and third ever in playoff history (RHP Don Larsen's perfect game on 10/8/56 in G5 of WS and RHP Roy Halladay on 10/6/10 in G1 NLDS)...is the only combined no-hitter in playoff history.
- Became just the seventh pitcher ever to start two no-hitters in a single season, with only one other pitcher ever split his no-hitters between reg. and postseason games (Halladay)...Javier is the first pitcher ever to start two combined no-hitters in a career...also joined teammate RHP Ryan Pressly as only pitchers ever to pitch in two combined no-hitters in career.
- In the start before the no-hitter, went 5.1 scoreless innings in G3 of ALCS at NYY...struck out five and allowed just one hit.
- Finished postseason on a 12-inning scoreless streak.

2021 SEASON:

- Finished his second MLB season, recording a 3.55 ERA (40ER/101.1IP) with 130 strikeouts, a .186 opponent batting average and a 1.18 WHIP.

- Had a breakout 2022 season at the Major League level, which was highlighted by a 17.0-inning scoreless streak to begin the season...the streak spanned 11 appearances, from April 30-June 21, and ranks as the longest by an Astros rookie reliever to start a season in club history (per Elias).

- Neris now owns his own ranch in Villa Attagracia, where he stables 15 horses and 300 cows...during the season, Neris' mother watches after his horses...Neris also claims to be an expert horse rider.
- Growing up, Neris had many interests outside of baseball and didn't devote himself to the game until a later age...he credits this devotion to a local trainer named Jose Neval, who persistently invited Neris to train...Neris reluctantly began training with Neval at the age of 17 and was eventually seen by a Cleveland scout who was on hand to look at a different player working out with Neval...that interest proved to Neris that this was the direction he wanted to go with his career.
- Did not sign with Cleveland, but less than a year later, he entered into a handshake agreement with the Royals...that deal was voided by MLB when questions about his identity were raised.
- Two years later, he officially signed with the Phillies at the age of 20 on April 29, 2010...signed by Phillies scout Koby Pérez.
- Spent 12 years in the Phillies system (2010-21) before reaching free agency after the 2021 season...signed by the Astros in free agency to a two-year contract on Nov. 30, 2021, which covers the 2022-23 seasons.
- At the time of his signing with Houston, one of Neris' reasons for signing with the Astros was his desire to pitch in the postseason, which the Phillies had missed in each of his eight seasons (2014-21) in Philadelphia...Neris got his wish in 2022, pitching in eight postseason games for the Astros, including three scoreless appearances against his former club, the Phillies, in the 2022 World Series.

- Known as an aggressive strike-thrower, since his debut season of 2019, he ranks sixth in the AL in walks per 9.0 (1.89) (min. 325 IP)...in 2022, he ranked ninth in the AL in walks per 9.0 (2.08).

NOTES

- Signed by the Astros as a 19-year old, non-drafted free agent out of Mazatlán, Sinaloa, Mexico on March 2, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Carlos Alfonso and Raul Lopez.
- Formerly known as José Luis Hernandez, José began going by the last name of Urquidy, at the start of the 2019 season...Urquidy made the change in honor of his mother, Alma Urquidy, who raised him in Mazatlán, supported his baseball journey and prioritized his school, delaying his professional signing until the age of 19.
- Is one of 11 Mexican-born players to appear in at least one game for the Astros and is one of seven pitchers... has pitched more innings (342.0) as an Astro than any other Mexican-born player, besting RHP Aurelio Lopez, who pitched 116.0 innings for the Astros in the 1986-87 seasons.
- In 2019, became just the second Mexican-born pitcher to earn a win as a starter in the World Series joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela, who did so in 1981...that feat earned him a meeting with Mexican president Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador, who hosted him at his office in Mexico City.
- For the first time in his career, is set to play for Team Mexico in the 2023 World Baseball Classic...forms a formidable top three in RHP's rotation along with LHP Julio Urias and RHP Taijuan Walker.
- José has a pet pig named Josefa, who was named by combining José and his wife's name, Estefania...Josefa is a favorite of Astros sideline reporter Julia Morales, who featured the pig on an Astros broadcast in the 2021 season...Josefa grew too large to be cared for by José and now lives on a comfortable ranch owned by one of José's friends.
- Was added to the 40-man roster on July 2, 2019, the date of his MLB debut...was left unprotected in the 2018 Rule 5 Draft, but went undrafted...has accumulated just over three years of service time across parts of four Major League seasons...was eligible for arbitration for the first time this offseason and settled with the Astros on a one-year deal for the 2023 season.

- Pitched in one game during the POSTSEASON, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings and giving up just one hit in Game 3 of the WS...struck out four.

- Left-hander has gone 41-23 with a 3.38 ERA (193ER/514.1IP) and 497 strikeouts in 98 games (76 starts) in the Majors with Houston from 2018-22.
- After bouncing between bullpen and rotation his first two seasons (2018-19), has ascended to the top of the Astros rotation over the last three years (2020-22)...has been one of the best pitchers in the AL in that span, going 33-15 with a 3.05 ERA in 64 games (63 starts)...in that time span, he ranks first in the AL in GB% (67.1%), second in wins (33) and fourth in ERA (3.05) and ninth in opponent avg. (.225).
- Has been a groundball machine in his Major League career...owns a career 66.6% groundball percentage, which ranks as the lowest percentage in the Majors from 2018-22 (min. 500 IP)...since ground ball percentage started being tracked in 1987, Valdez's career ground ball percentage is the highest ever posted by a starting pitcher...he edged out RHP Brandon Webb (65.1%) in that category.
- Has held left-handed hitters to a .204 average (78x383) and a .594 OPS in the Majors...has allowed just five homers to left-handed hitters in his career.
- Known as a workhorse, Valdez ranked third in the Majors in innings pitched (226.1IP) in 2022, including the postseason...in 2021, Valdez missed the first two months of the season, but after his return, he led the Majors in innings pitched (172.1)...he also led the Majors in innings in 2020 (94.2IP)...since the start of the 2020 season, Valdez ranks fourth in the Majors in innings (475.1), trailing only RHP Gerrit Cole (493.2), RHP Sandy Alcantara (489) and RHP Aaron Nola (482.2).

NOTES

- Was signed by the Astros as a 21-year-old non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...at 21-years old, Valdez was five years older than most amateur free agent signees from the Dominican Republic...according to Valdez, other teams had been skeptical of potential arm issues and didn't want to take a chance on him because of his age.
- Originally a position player, Valdez began pitching at the age of 16 and had interest from scouts within a couple years of his conversion...by the age of 21, Valdez was finally seen by the Astros at a workout staged by an independent trainer in Guayacanes, DR, a small town just west of San Pedro de Macaris...after seeing him throw just a handful of pitches, the Astros invited him to throw at their Dominican Academy and promptly signed him following that tryout...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- In 2022, used his curveball 29% of the time, registering most of his K's on the breaker (132 of 194), which checks in with a spin rate in the 90th percentile of all MLB curves...he learned the pitch from fellow Dominican and former Brewers prospect Angel Ventura, who pitched in parts of eight minor league seasons (2011-19) with the Brewers...Ventura's curveball was nicknamed "The Ax".
- At times early in his career, Valdez would struggle with his command and subsequently, his body language...in the 2019 offseason, sought the help of Dr. Andy Nunez, who's part of the Astros mental skills group in the Dominican Republic...Nunez specializes in helping the organization's young Latin American players get in the right frame of mind and prepare them for life in the United States...with this help, Valdez adopting the mantra "attitude above everything"...he credits this thought process in his improvements made to his focus, composure and on-field body language.
- Added to the Astros Major League roster in September of 2018...surpassed three years of service time last season, making him eligible for arbitration...avoided the process by agreeing to a one-year deal with the Astros covering the 2023 season...is under club control through 2015.

HOUSTON ★ ASTROS

READY 2 REIGN

2022 CLUB NOTES

CHAMPS AGAIN! Behind a strong pitching staff and timely hits, the Astros secured their second World Series championship in franchise history (also, 2017)...this was the club's fifth World Series appearance and their fourth in the last six seasons.

ASTROS WORLD SERIES APPS. RESULT

2005	Astros vs. White Sox	White Sox in 4
2017	Astros vs. Dodgers	Astros in 7
2019	Astros vs. Nationals	Nationals in 7
2021	Astros vs. Braves	Braves in 6
2022	Astros vs. Phillies	Astros in 6

IN THE POSTSEASON: This was the Astros 16th appearance in the postseason in club history in what was the 61st year of the franchise that began in 1962...this season marked the 11th time in club history for the Astros to make the postseason as a division winner, which includes division titles in the NL West (1980, 1986), NL Central (1997-99, 2001) and AL West (2017-19, 2021-22).

SIX STRAIGHT: The Astros have made the postseason in six straight seasons (2017-22), which extended their franchise record, and for the seventh time in the last eight seasons (since 2015)...only the Yankees and Dodgers have also played in the last six postseasons.

SIX YEARS OF DOMINANCE: According to ESPN Stats, the Astros are the first franchise to post a .620 winning percentage and multiple titles over a six-year stretch since the 1953-58 Yankees...the Astros are 541-329 (.622) over the last six seasons (2017-22).

POSTSEASON VETS: Since 2017, the Astros have played more postseason games (86) and have earned more postseason wins (53) than any other club...the Astros are 53-33 in that span with a .616 winning pct. in the postseason.

PITCHING WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS:

The Astros pitching staff posted a 2.29 ERA (32ER/126IP) with 160 K's and a .172 opponent average this postseason...their team ERA was the lowest posted by any team in a single postseason run (min. 1.3g) since the 1996 Atlanta Braves had a 1.89 ERA in 16 games.

THE BULLPEN'S BEST: In the postseason, the Astros bullpen posted a 0.83 ERA (5ER/54.1IP), while allowing just 23 hits and recording 70 strikeouts...their bullpen ERA was the lowest ever posted by any team in a single postseason run (min. 50 IP), besting the 1996 World Series Champion Yankees, who had a 1.81 ERA (12ER/59.2IP) in 15 games.

FRAMBER'S FALL: LHP Framber Valdez went 3-0 with a 1.44 ERA (4ER/25IP) with three quality starts in four chances this postseason...in his postseason career, Valdez is 7-2 with a 3.41 ERA (26ER/68.2IP) in 13 career postseason games (12 starts)...Valdez's seven career postseason wins rank second in club history, trailing only RHP Justin Verlander (9)...his seven career postseason wins also make him the winningest Dominican-born pitcher in MLB postseason history, surpassing RHP Pedro Martinez (6-4), with his win in Game 6 of the World Series.

POSTSEASON VET: RHP Justin Verlander went 2-0 in four starts this postseason and now has a lifetime 16-11 record and a 3.64 ERA in 35 games (34 starts) in playoff action...as an Astro, Verlander is 9-6 in the postseason and is the franchise leader in career postseason wins...all-time in MLB postseason history, he ranks first in strikeouts and second in wins.

1. Andy Pettitte: 19-11
1. Justin Verlander: 230
2. Justin Verlander: 16-11
2. Clayton Kershaw: 213
3. John Smoltz: 15-4
3. John Smoltz: 199

NOT SO SECRET WEAPON: RHP Cristian Javier worked three times this postseason, going 2-0 with a 0.71 ERA (1ER/12.2IP)...Javier has been a huge weapon for the Astros to use in the postseason in his career, going 4-1 with a 2.20 ERA (8ER/32.2IP) in 14 career postseason games, which includes two starts and nine multi-inning relief appearances...in those games, he's been utterly dominant, allowing just a .127 (14x110) opponent average, while striking out 48 with 32.2 innings.

FINISHING ON FIRE: Including his two starts this postseason (0ER/11.1IP), RHP Cristian Javier finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts, which dated back to Sept. 14...Javier allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.

THE KING: RHP Ryan Pressly is 11-for-11 in career postseason save opportunities, giving him the most postseason saves in Astros club history...this postseason, Pressly did not allow an earned run in 11.0 innings, recording 13 strikeouts and converting all six save chances successfully.

TRAFFIC: 3B Alex Bregman reached base safely in all 13 of the Astros games this postseason, hitting .294 (15x51) with five doubles, three homers, 11 RBI, a .379 OBP and a .948 OPS.

2022 CLUB NOTES

BALL GO FAR, TEAM GO FAR: The Astros homered in 11 of their 13 games this postseason, combining to hit 17 longballs among six players, including a team-leading four by SS Jeremy Peña...the Astros pitching staff allowed just 13 homers this postseason, 11 being solo shots..

THE HOT CORNER: 3B Alex Bregman has played six full seasons in the Majors (2017-22) and has advanced to at least the ALCS in every full year, now making four World Series appearances, winning two...he's got 15 career postseason homers (six in the World Series) and 47 career postseason RBI, both Major League records for a third baseman.

THE 100 CLUB: After starting the postseason 0x23 in his first five games, 2B Jose Altuve recovered to hit .314 (11x35) over his last eight games...by doing so, he became the sixth player in MLB history to reach 100 career postseason hits.

ALL-TIME HITS IN THE POSTSEASON

- | | |
|------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Derek Jeter 200 | T4. Jorge Posada 103 |
| 2. Bernie Williams 128 | T4. Jose Altuve 103 |
| 3. Manny Ramirez 117 | 6. Yadier Molina 102 |

FIRST THINGS FIRST: 1B Yuli Gurriel hit safely in 10 of his 12 postseason games, checking in with a .347 (17x49) average, with two homers and four RBI...Gurriel leads the Majors in postseason hits over the last two years (2021-22) with 36, immediately ahead of 3B Alex Bregman (28)...he now has 87 career postseason hits, which ties him with 1B Albert Pujols for the most postseason hits by a first baseman in MLB history...additionally, Gurriel went the first 11 games and 48 PAs without a strikeout, which tied as the fourth-longest streak in MLB postseason history.

ABOUT THE POSTSEASON ROSTER: The Astros rostered 29 different players throughout the postseason...a veteran team, the Astros carried nine players with no postseason playing experience into October: RHP Hunter Brown, IF Mauricio Dubón, IF David Hensley, C Korey Lee, IF/OF Trey Mancini, RHP Seth Martinez, RHP Rafael Montero, RHP Hector Neris and SS Jeremy Peña...Lee and Martinez were the only two to not appear in a postseason game this season.

PEÑA'S A FIRST: According to STATS, SS Jeremy Peña is the only player in MLB history to win a Gold Glove, LCS MVP and World Series MVP in their entire career...Peña reached all three in his first MLB season.

ABOUT THE WORLD SERIES: The Astros won the 2022 World Series, defeating the Phillies in six games...it was a true team performance, with contributions from all parts of the roster, including a dominant pitching staff and in particular an untouchable bullpen...the staff allowed just three runs per game, with the relievers working to a 0.84 ERA (2ER/21.1IP)...the Astros pitching staff recorded 71 strikeouts in the series, the most ever in a World Series.

FALL STARS: The Astros were led in the World Series by LHP Framber Valdez (2-0, 1.46 ERA), RHP Bryan Abreu (4g, 0ER/5IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (5g, 0ER/5.2IP), who all were dominant in their outings...at the plate, the club was led by SS Jeremy Peña (.400, 10x25), the series MVP, and postseason stalwart 2B Jose Altuve (.308, 8x26).

ABOUT THE MVP: SS Jeremy Peña won the World Series MVP after leading the club in hits in the series, while hitting safely in all six games in a .400 clip (10x25)...he had game-winning RBI in Game 2 and Game 5, including a three-hit performance in Game 5...by winning the MVP, Peña became the third rookie (first rookie position player) to win World Series MVP, following the Marlins Livan Hernandez in 1997 and the Dodgers Larry Sherry in 1959.

ROOKIE IN NAME ONLY: This World Series featured a pair of rookie shortstops in the Astros SS Jeremy Peña and the Phillies SS Bryson Stott...per Elias, prior to this series, there had never been a World Series game in which both teams started rookie shortstops...additionally, in Game 5, Peña became the first rookie shortstop in Major League history to hit a home run in a World Series game.

THE WINTER CLASSIC: The Astros won the World Series on Nov. 5, the latest date the World Series has been played on in Major League history.

FRAMBER'S FALL CLASSIC: LHP Framber Valdez went 2-0 with a 1.46 ERA (2ER/12.1IP) with 18 strikeouts in his two starts in the World Series...he had nine strikeouts in each start, including a run of five straight strikeouts in Game 6...according to Stats LLC, he joined the Dodgers Sandy Koufax in 1963 Game 1 at NYY as the only lefties to record five consecutive strikeouts in a World Series game.

2022 CLUB NOTES

FIGHTING THROUGH: The Astros had a few players banged up throughout their postseason run, including C Martin Maldonado, who was playing with a sports hernia all October...Maldonado had his injury repaired with surgery on Nov. 15...additionally, 3B Alex Bregman suffered a fractured left index finger on a slide into 2nd base in the 8th inning of Game 6 of the World Series...Bregman will not require surgery.

YORDAN SEALS IT: LF Yordan Alvarez was the hero of the World Series clinching game (Game 6), after he hit a three-run, go-ahead homer in the 6th inning...it was his third game-winning homer in the 6th inning (or later) this postseason, which tied him with Troy Glaus (3 for Anaheim in 2002) for the most in a single Postseason...additionally, Alvarez's homer, which went over the batters eye in center field, measured at 450', the second-longest World Series homer since Statcast data is available (since 2015) behind Atlanta's Freddie Freeman (460) in 2021 Game 5.

A HALL OF FAMERS FIRST: RHP Justin Verlander, who was pitching in his fifth World Series (2006, 2012, 2017, 2019, 2022) this season, earned his first World Series win in Game 5...his Game 5 start was his ninth career start in the Fall Classic...he recorded the win after tossing 5.0 innings of one-run ball.

PINEAPPLE SEASON: Postseason veteran 1B Yuli Gurriel reached a few notable milestones in Game 4 of the World Series, including collecting his 12th career World Series RBI, the most ever by a Cuban-born player...also, he picked up a stolen base at the age of 38 years and 146 days in Game 4, becoming the oldest player to record a steal in the World Series since the Yankees Paul O'Neill (38.247) swiped a bag in Game 3 of the 2001 World Series vs. ARI..

YOUR TURN ROOK: DH David Hensley got two starts in the World Series, in Game 3 and Game 5...Hensley has just 34 career regular season plate appearances under his belt, which all came this season...per Elias, only two other position players in MLB history had fewer career regular season plate appearances when making a start in the World Series: Jack Sheehan (6) for Brooklyn in the 1920 World Series and Buddy Myer (8) for Washington in the 1925 World Series.

NO-NO! NO WAY?: In Game 4 of the World Series, the Astros pitched the third no-hitter in postseason history, the second no-hitter in World Series history and the first combined no-hitter in postseason history...just a few of many notes on the night:

- RHP Cristian Javier (7IP) was the starter, as he combined with RHP Bryan Abreu (1IP), RHP Rafael Montero (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP) to turn in the historic trick.
- the offense scored all of their runs in the 5th, plating five for the franchise's biggest inning in World Series history.
- the other no-hitters in MLB postseason history: Roy Halladay (PHI) in the 2010 NLDS (G1) vs. CIN; Don Larsen (NYY) in the 1956 WS (G5) vs. BKL.
- Javier became the 10th pitcher in World Series history with a no-hit bid of 6-or-more IP and the first since Jerry Koosman (NYM) (6 IP) in the 1969 WS at BAL (G2).
- the starter Javier and the closer Pressly both were also a part of the Astros combined no-hitter back on June 25 at NYY...they are now the first pitchers in MLB history to be a part of two combined no-hitters in their careers.
- C Christian Vázquez was behind the plate for the no-hitter, becoming the second catcher to catch a no-hitter in the World Series, joining C Yogi Berra, who caught Larsen's no-hitter in the 1956 World Series.

BLAST OFF!: In the 1st inning of Game 2 of the World Series, 2B Jose Altuve, SS Jeremy Peña and DH Yordan Alvarez all doubled within a span of four pitches...they became the first teammates in World Series history to start a game with three consecutive extra-base hits.

TUCK'S NIGHT: In Game 1 of the World Series, RF Kyle Tucker became the first player in Astros history with a multi-homer game in the World Series...it also marked the eighth multi-homer game in Astros postseason history and the first since Michael Brantley hit two in Game 4 of the 2020 ALDS vs. OAK, which was played at Dodger Stadium...the previous seven instances for the Astros all came in the Division Series.

SEVEN STRAIGHT TO START: The Astros won their first seven games this postseason, a streak that was snapped in Game 1 of the World Series...it marked the club's longest postseason win streak in franchise history...they became the fifth team in MLB history to begin a postseason with seven straight wins, also the 1976 Reds (7), 2007 Rockies (7), 2014 Royals (8) and 2020 Braves (7).

2022 CLUB NOTES

PHILLY CONNECTIONS: The World Series was special for most, in particular OF Chas McCormick, who was born and raised in West Chester, PA, as a Phillies fan...McCormick stayed local in college, attending D2 Millersville College (PA) before being drafted by the Astros in the 21st round in 2017...the series was also big for RHP Hector Neris, who spent the first 12 years of his professional career in the Phillies organization before signing with the Astros as a free agent prior to 2022...McCormick started all six games of the World Series, while Neris worked three scoreless appearances (2IP) in the Fall Classic.

42 YEARS LATER: Prior to the World Series, the Astros and Phillies had some postseason history, as they faced off against each other in the 1980 NLCS, a five-game series that went the distance in favor of the Phils...it was a heartbreaker in Houston as the loss eliminated the Astros from their first postseason appearance in franchise history... Game 5, which was played at the Astrodome, lasted 10 innings and was one of four extra-inning games that series...the NLCS MVP went to Phillies 2B Manny Trillo, while the Astros best player was CF Terry Puhl, who hit .526 (10x19) with three RBI in the five games.

BACK IN THE ALCS: The Astros have advanced to the ALCS for six straight years, a feat that has only been accomplished by one other club in Major League history, the 1991-99 Braves...that Braves team advanced to every LCS played from 1991-99, excluding the 1994 season, which did not have a postseason.

2022	Astros vs. Yankees	Astros in 4

ABOUT THE ALCS: The Astros swept through the Yankees in the ALCS for the club's first sweep of a seven-game series in club history...the Astros pitching was the reason, as the club posted a 1.50 ERA (6ER/26IP) and allowed just nine runs in the four games...the offense produced 18 runs in the series, including four apiece off the bats of 3B Alex Bregman (.333, 5x15, HR, 4 RBI) and the series MVP SS Jeremy Peña (.353, 6x17, 2 HR, 4 RBI).

WE WANT HOUSTON!: When the Astros eliminated the Yankees in the ALCS, it marked the fourth time for Houston to bounce New York in the postseason...according to MLB.com's Sarah Langs, four times is the most any team has eliminated the Yankees from the postseason in their storied history...Houston dispatched New York in the 2015 Wild Card Game in New York, and in the ALCS in 2017, 2019 and 2022.

MV-PEÑA: Rookie SS Jeremy Peña was named the ALCS MVP...according to Elias, Peña became the fifth rookie to earn MVP honors in an LCS, following Mike Boddicker in 1983, Liván Hernández in 1997, Michael Wacha in 2013 and Randy Arozarena in 2020.

ROOKIE OPENS BUSINESS IN THE ALCS: In Game 1 of the ALCS, SS Jeremy Peña doubled twice and homered, becoming the fifth rookie in MLB history with three extra-base hits in a playoff game, also Carlos Correa (2015 ALDS), Evan Longoria (2008 ALDS), Jacoby Ellsbury (2007 WS) and Jim Gilliam (1953 WS).

BOUT THE ALDS: The Astros swept the Mariners in a hard-fought ALDS series, winning Game 1 by two runs and Games 2 and 3 by one run in each contest...if an MVP was awarded for the series, it would have gone to LF Yordan Alvarez, who hit two homers and posted seven RBI in the series...Alvarez's homers were both game winners, a walkoff shot in Game 1 and a late-inning go-ahead homer in Game 2...the Astros pitching staff was led by their bullpen, which combined to allow just one run in 20.1 innings (0.44 ERA).

DÉJÀ VU: SS Jeremy Peña homered in the 18th inning of Game 3 of the ALDS, which accounted for the only run in the contest...he is now one of only three rookies to hit a homer in extra-innings in the postseason, including fellow Astro Chris Burke, who hit his memorable shot in the 18th inning of Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS, which sent the Astros to the LCS...joining Peña and Burke on that list is the Guardians Oscar Gonzalez, who did so in Game 2 of the 2022 Wild Card Series vs. TB.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Minute Maid Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

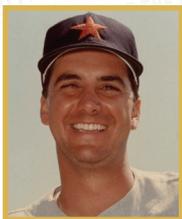

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Minute Maid Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

In 2023, the Astros will induct another two franchise icons into the Astros Hall of Fame as the Class of 2023: Bill Doran and Bill Brown.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

Al Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt .45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt .45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. ELITE COMPANY

Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Bagwell is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, setting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

CREDENTIALS

The Houston Astros utilize MLB's online credentialing system. All media credential requests and applications for coverage of the Houston Astros must go through MLB's online credentialing system at <http://credentials.mlb.com>. Additionally, all credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros Spring Training, regular season, Wild Card and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

SECURITY: To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- Enter the ballpark at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- Provide photo identification.
- Sign in at the media entrance.
- Allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- Clearly display working credentials at all times.
- Allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- Observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with a season credential, BBWAA credential or media identification badge. Entrances to these lots are located on St. Emanuel St., Preston St. and Texas Ave.

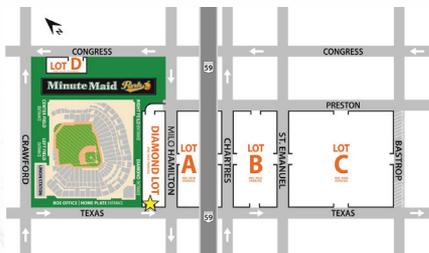

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Club Level behind home plate and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the First Base Entrance (level C) prior to the opening of gates and after the game. The escalators on the main concourse are available at all times.

Media dining is open to accredited members of the media only. Spouses/children are not allowed in the media dining room. Cash and credit card accepted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible via the press box elevator. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are determined by Major League Baseball. The Astros clubhouse opens approximately four hours before game time and closes once the team takes the field for batting practice. When the team does not hit outside or under unusual circumstances, the Astros will use their discretion on when to open and close the clubhouse. All times are approximate and subject to change.

General clubhouse rules include:

- Absolutely no autographs or gifts of any kind.
- Do not sit in the player's chairs.
- No still photography in the clubhouse.
- No shooting B-roll inside the clubhouse.
- When shooting video interviews, please make sure it is only of the player at his locker or in front of a wall while he is giving the interview. Players should be shot from the chest up.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly specifying field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PHOTOGRAPHER WORK ROOM: A photographer work room is located on the Service Level behind home plate.

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.

2023 SEASON

MINUTE MAID PARK

READY2REIGN

The 2023 season marks the 24th year of baseball at Minute Maid Park. The venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the World Series (2005, 2017, 2019), the 2014 Civil Rights Game, Super Bowl LI Opening Night, major concert events, weddings, graduations, galas, and COVID-19 vaccine drives.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 55 million visitors during the facility's 22-season tenure.

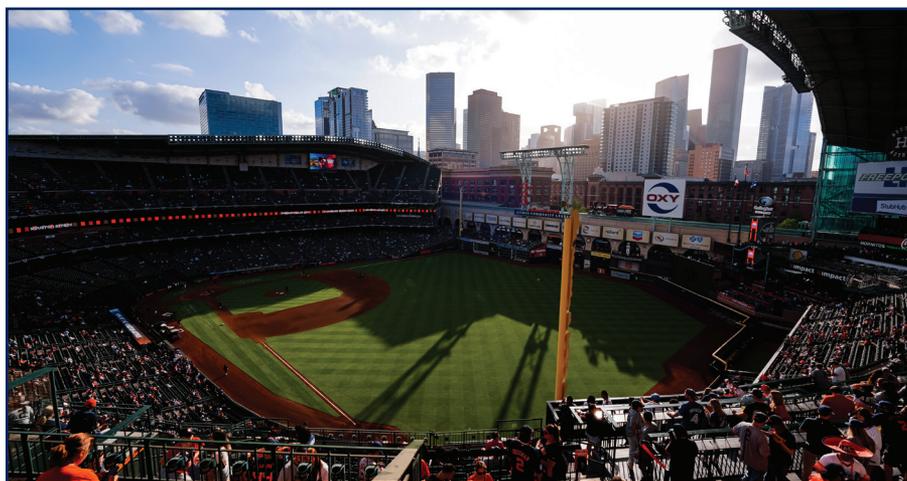

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home — the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated the pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD:

Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS:

More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF:

Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS:

Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chefs Jimmy Coatsworth and Scott Strickland who have partnered with Aramark to bring their signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY:

Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Prior to the 2023 season, the video boards and ribbon boards in the stadium were replaced with new 4K Samsung LED boards. Ross Video now powers the control room and integration allowing the Astros to provide fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS:

Prior to the 2017 season, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites Shake Shack, Torchy's Tacos and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level to create the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, Gallagher Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to 120 people.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

- The roof may only open once during a game.
- The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
- The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.
