THANK YOU MURPH

— A GIANT AMONG THE GIANTS —

“Murph!

You have taken care of all the guys over the years. I have known you since we both came to the San Francisco Giants at Seals Stadium in 1958. That’s a long time ago, man! We have seen a lot together, done a lot together, and gotten through it all - together. You are my friend. You are my brother. Congratulations on your retirement. You deserve it. See you around!”

Your pal,

Willie Mays

“I want to wish my wonderful friend Mike Murphy a happy retirement. I never thought this day would happen. Murph spent decades caring for the players, the front office, and the clubhouse staff and was like a father to so many. He takes with him a lifetime of experience and incredible memories. Congratulations on your retirement and enjoy spending quality time with Carole and your dog Abby!”

-Orlando Cepeda

“Congratulations to Murph on his retirement! I can’t thank him enough for his guidance in baseball and life. He has been an amazing clubhouse leader to us all in the 65 years with the organization, and I wish him and his wife Carole all the best on this next chapter in his life as he celebrates his retirement.”

-Juan Marichal

“Mike Murphy came into my life nearly 54 years ago when my dad first signed with the Giants. What I remember as a kid was that Murph always made sure we never were without bubble gum or baseballs to play with. He treated us kids like we were just as important as our dads. When I signed with the Giants in ‘93, I soon realized Murph hadn’t changed. He treated everyone equally - from rookie to veteran. He welcomed our families, making them feel just as special as I did as a kid. Murph was the best Clubhouse Manager in the game. I never had to worry about my uniform - in fact, he would often change it out if he didn’t think it was clean enough or met his standards. He just had a way about him and managed to do his job, knowing every player’s preferences and making each guy feel as important as the next.

Murph is a legend and to me, the locker room that was my office so many years will always be Murph’s Clubhouse.”

- Barry Bonds

“Congratulations on your retirement, Murph! So happy I was able to share a clubhouse with you for so many years. You always made it feel like home. Thank you for everything you’ve ever done for me and the rest of the team. You’re a legend and you’re the best!”

- Brandon Crawford

“My memories of Murph are a lot. He was always on top of everything I needed. He treated me and all the players with respect. He is a legend. Murph had a saying for all the players as he welcomed them to the team ‘I am here when you come and I will be here when you leave’. I wish him all the best and I know I will miss him and he will be missed by all.”

- Tito Fuentes

“Mike Murphy was the best person I ever met in the game of baseball. He never said ‘no’ to anything and his comment to me that I had the cleanest, simplest locker he’d ever seen in all his years of baseball is a compliment I’ll never, ever forget!”

- J.T. Snow

“Murph congratulations on your retirement and the Giants won’t be the same without you. Thank you for making your clubhouse the best in the bigs and for taking such great care of all your players. Also thanks for taking care of my shed all these years too. Love you Murph.”

- Kirk Rueter

“Murph was every Giants players favorite uncle. There wasn’t anything he wouldn’t do for one of his players. He was the first one to greet me when I became a Giant and he was the last one to give me a hug when I retired! I love that guy!”

- Duane Kuiper

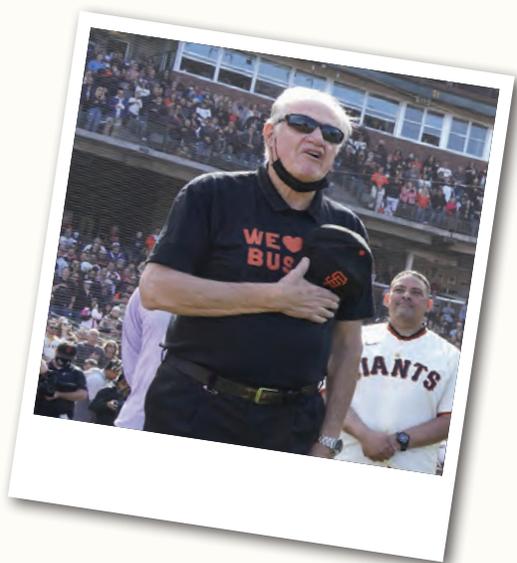

“Murph has been the unsung hero of the Giants organization since 1958. He would not have it any other way. He is the bridge between every generation of ball player who wore San Francisco across their chest. He has taken care of us, protected us and walked us out of the game when our careers were over. He loved us all like we were his own children.

And for all of us who were lucky to have had Murph as our Clubbie, we simply say, thank you Murph!”

- Mike Krukow

“Murph congratulations on your retirement, it is definitely well deserved! You are truly the best that ever did your job in the business of baseball and you’re in a Hall of Fame all by yourself! I am glad to be a small part of your life and our friendship will last on! I hope you and Carole get a chance to do all the things that you guys have been wanting to do for years! You are always in my heart and thought of often.”

- Will Clark

“It was really special to have a clubhouse manager that worked in the Giants clubhouse when Willie Mays played. Talking to Murph you always got a glimpse of the past, but also understood how important the present was to him. One of my favorite memories throughout my career was giving Murph a big hug after we won the 2010 World Series, and seeing the joy on his face! Murph, it was a privilege to be in your clubhouse all those years. The San Francisco Giants organization benefited greatly from your years of service and leadership.”

- Buster Posey

GAYLORD PERRY

- FOREVER GIANT -

1938-1922

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1991, Gaylord Perry began his professional career with San Francisco in 1962 and spent 10 seasons in a Giants uniform from 1962-1971. He was named an All-Star for the first time in his career in 1966 after going 21-8 with a 2.99 ERA in 36 games (35 starts). Four years later in 1970, Perry led the National League in wins (23), games started (41), shutouts (five) and innings pitched (328.2) en route to finishing the year 23-13 with a 3.20 ERA. He garnered All-Star recognition for a second time in his career and finished second in the Cy Young voting.

As a Giant, Perry went 134-109 with a 2.96 ERA in 367 career games (283 starts) and tossed 125 complete games (including 21 shutouts). In San Francisco Giants history (1958-present), Perry ranks second in wins, ERA, complete games, shutouts and innings pitched (2,294.2). His 283 career starts are fourth-most in SF-history and his 1,606 strikeouts are fifth-most. He's one of just seven pitchers in the SF-era to win at least 100 games with the club. Perry's No. 36 was retired by the Giants in 2005 and the Giants later erected a statue of Perry outside of Oracle Park in August of 2016 at the Second & King St. entrance to the ballpark.

Perry went on to have a 22-year Major League career that saw him become the first pitcher to win a Cy Young Award in both the National and American Leagues. In his 22 Major League seasons with San Francisco, Cleveland (1972-75), Texas (1975-77, 80), San Diego (1978-79), New York-AL (1980), Atlanta (1981), Seattle (1982-83) and Kansas City (1983), Perry was 314-265 with a 3.11 ERA and 303 complete games in 777 career games (690 starts). His 314 career wins are 17th-most all-time in Major League history and he's one of eight pitchers in MLB history to win at least 300 games while striking out at least 3,500 batters.

The Williamston, NC native was a five-time 20-game winner (1966, 1970, 1972, 1974 and 1978) and five-time All-Star (1966, 1970, 1972, 1974 and 1979).

MISSION ROCK

SAN FRANCISCO'S NEWEST WATERFRONT NEIGHBORHOOD

Mission Rock represents over 13 years of planning and community input to turn 28 acres of asphalt and a historic pier into an exciting new neighborhood and community gathering point for San Francisco residents and visitors. The project is a public-private partnership with the San Francisco Giants, Tishman Speyer, and the Port of San Francisco to build a waterfront mixed-use neighborhood just south of Oracle Park. At full completion, Mission Rock will deliver at least 1,000 housing units - 40 percent of which will be affordable for low- to moderate-income households and approximately 1.4 million square feet of high quality offices and life science research space. Phase one of the multi-phase project is currently under construction with the grand opening projected for late 2023. This phase consists of four buildings - two residential (537 units), two commercial (550,000 square feet) - one of which will serve as the new global and North American headquarters for Visa, a five-acre China Basin Park, and 85,000 square feet of retail and restaurant space. In June 2021, Mission Rock was certified Gold under the US Green Building Council's LEED for Neighborhood Development program. Mission Rock was recognized for its innovative and integrated approach to smart growth, social equity and green building practices.

Visa's Global & North American HQ ▲

The Visa building at Mission Rock is designed by Henning Larsen, Adamson Associates, and Y.A. Studio. Inspired by the geologic rock formations of "Devil's Postpile" near California's Yosemite National Park, the 13-story commercial building will have 360-degree retail at the ground floor.

◀ The Canyon

The Canyon, the project's first residential building, will begin welcoming residents this spring. Designed by MVRDV and Perry Architects, The Canyon was inspired by Californian rock formations, with a narrow valley running between steep rocky walls that extend all the way up the tower's western façade. The building has 23 stories and will include ground floor retail, office space, and 283 apartments, including 102 Below Market Rate units.

Apartments ▶

The project's second residential building consists of 23 floors, 254 apartments, including 97 Below Market Rate units, and ground floor retail. Clad in a luminous green tile façade, this tower was designed by Studio Gang and Quezada Architecture. Fans will be able to follow the progress of its construction this season as its verticality increases and the façade gets installed. The projected completion of the building is in 2024.

Life Science/Office ▲

Designed by WORKac, Adamson Associates, and Y.A. Studio, this life science/office building will have eight floors, including ground floor retail. The building is conceived as a series of layers that shift horizontally to create a dynamic sense of topography, while also producing a series of inviting outdoor terraces. Building completion is expected by spring 2023.

◀ China Basin Park

China Basin Park is a 5-acre waterfront park and the cultural centerpiece of Mission Rock designed by SCAPE, Miller Company, and Min Design. Firmly rooted in the character of Mission Bay neighborhoods, the park extends the Bay Trail around a generous central lawn that frames panoramic views of the Bay Bridge. Along 3rd Street, an entry plaza fuses the connection between Oracle Park and Mission Rock, bridging into a series of public amenities, including a plaza, public restrooms, and an intimate tree grove. Carless 'paseos' reach into the adjacent neighborhood between buildings, softened by native street plantings and flexible seating areas. The inland portion of the park will open in fall of 2023.

Larry Baer ►► President & Chief Executive Officer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. A limited partner and board member of the ownership group, Baer was named CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years. In 2021, the Giants won an all-time franchise record 107 games and the National League West title.

Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day operations of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed Oracle Park -- the first privately financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, Oracle Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." In 2008, Oracle Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award. ## Farhan Zaidi >>> President of Baseball Operations

Farhan Zaidi enters his fifth season as the President of Baseball Operations for the Giants, joining the organization on November 6, 2018. In his four seasons at the helm, the Giants have posted a collective winning percentage of .538 (294-252), which ranks as the fifth-highest mark among all National League teams behind the Dodgers (.670), Braves (.589), Cardinals (.559) and Brewers (.548).

Last year, the Giants finished at 81-81 and were in playoff contention until the final weekend of the season. Outfielder Joc Pederson and left-handed pitcher Carlos Rodón, two of Zaidi's major acquisitions in the offseason, had All-Star campaigns and infielder Thairo Estrada, acquired from the Yankees two seasons ago, had a breakout season.

In 2021, the team clinched the NL West and the top record in Major League Baseball, finishing the year with a 107-55 record, the best regular season in franchise history - spanning 139 regular seasons of play - surpassing the 1904 New York Giants (106-47-5). Following the season, Zaidi was named MLB's 2021 Executive of the Year along with being named the MLB Executive of the Year by Baseball America. The organization also enjoyed success at the minor league level, with the Low-A San Jose Giants and the High-A Eugene Emeralds each winning their league championships.

In his second year with the Giants in 2020, the team finished one win away from their first playoff berth since 2016. The Giants posted the sixth-best winning percentage among all big-league teams from mid-August on and enjoyed strong campaigns from Zaidi acquisitions Alex Dickerson, Mauricio Dubón, Wilmer Flores, Darin Ruf, Donovan Solano, and Mike Yastrzemski on the offensive side and Jarlín García, Kevin Gausman, and Drew Smyly on the pitching staff.

In Zaidi's first season with the organization in 2019, the Giants won 77 games, a 4-game improvement over 2018, and the farm system had an overall win-loss record of 415-401 (.509), the 11th-best winning percentage of all organizations, a 15-place improvement from the 2018 ranking. Five of seven Giants' stateside affiliates reached the playoffs in 2019, with Sacramento winning the Triple-A National Championship.

Prior to joining the Giants, Zaidi spent four years as the Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager, joining the club in November 2014. Working alongside President of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman, Zaidi helped pilot the Dodgers to four consecutive division titles while advancing to the National League Championship Series from 2016-18, and the World Series from 2017-18. The Dodgers posted one of the best seasons in club history in 2017, when the team established a Los Angeles record with a MLB-best 104 wins and won the National League pennant, earning recognition from Baseball America as its Organization of the Year. Los Angeles posted the second-best winning percentage in all of baseball (.584, 379-270) during Zaidi's four-year stint.

Zaidi began his career with the Oakland A's, where he spent 10 seasons from 2005-2014. He began as a baseball operations analyst before being promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in 2009 and Assistant General Manager/Director of Baseball Operations in 2014. During Zaidi's tenure with the A's, the team reached the postseason four times, including three straight seasons from 2012-14.

Before entering baseball, Zaidi served as business development associate for Small World Media, the fantasy sports division of The Sporting News, and worked as a management consultant for the Boston Consulting Group. Zaidi earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1998. While at MIT, he was named a Burchard Scholar and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He completed his Ph.D in Economics from the University of California, Berkeley in 2011.

Pete Putila ►► General Manager

Pete Putila (pronounced puh-TELL-uh) enters his first season as the General Manager for the Giants, joining the organization on October 10, 2022. Putila is the 10th person to hold the title of General Manager for the Giants since the team moved to San Francisco in 1958, joining Chub Feeney (1947-1969), Horace Stoneham (1970-1975), Spec Richardson (1976-1981), Tom Haller (1981-1985), Al Rosen (1986-1992), Bob Quinn (1993-1996), Brian Sabean (1996-2015), Bobby Evans (2015-2018) and Scott Harris (2019-2022).

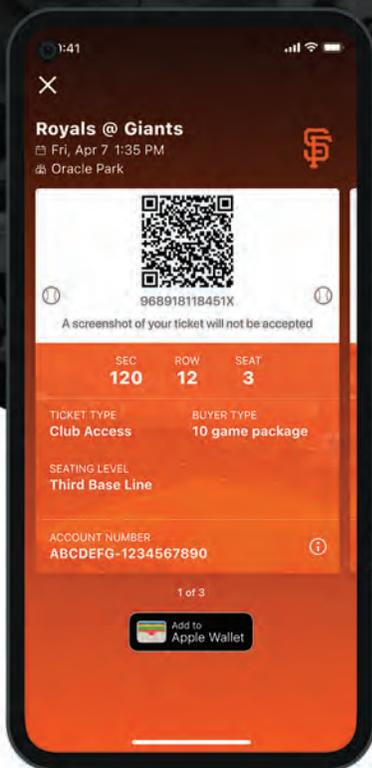

Putila comes to the Giants after having spent the prior 12 seasons with the Houston Astros, most recently as Assistant General Manager, where he was involved with all aspects of baseball operations including a focus on amateur scouting, international scouting, player development and sports medicine & performance. The Astros combined regular season record during his three years as an Assistant GM was 230-154 (.599), the second-best winning percentage of any team in the Majors since 2020. The Astros won 2 World Series Championships and 4 American League Pennants during Putila's time with the Astros.

He originally joined the Astros organization in 2011 as a baseball operations intern supporting baseball operations, player development, amateur scouting, and pro scouting. He was hired full-time to the position of baseball operations assistant in September of 2011 where his duties were expanded to include Major League advance scouting support. In 2013, he was promoted to baseball operations coordinator where he began working in conjunction with the decision sciences department to integrate research insights, decision-aids, and technology into player development processes across the Major and minor league levels. He also traveled with the Major League team in 2014 and 2015, conducting advance scouting and replay review. In 2015, he was promoted to assistant director of minor league operations where he assisted in all aspects of Major and minor league player development and minor league operations. A year later in 2016 he was promoted to director of player development where he oversaw Major and minor league player development while assisting with the integration of scouting research and technology.

Putila is a graduate of West Virginia University where he received his bachelor's degree in sport management and served as the baseball team's student manager.

A native of Carmichaels, Pa., Putila and his wife Amethyst currently reside in Potrero Hill with their German Shorthaired Pointer Donut.

Last season, Kapler's Giants finished 81-81, third place in the NL West. With the club's win on April 30 last season, Kapler notched his 150th victory as the manager of the Giants. The last Giants manager to record 150 wins in their first 250 games managed was Bill Joyce in 1898.

In 2021, Kapler was named the NL Manager of the Year after guiding the Giants to a franchise-record 107 wins and their first NL West title since 2012. Kapler joined Dusty Baker (1993, 1997 and 2000) as the only other Giants manager to win the award. He was also named the 2021 The Sporting News NL Manager of the Year. Kapler led the Giants to the best overall record in Major League Baseball (107-55) for the first time since 2000.

In his first year as the Giants manager in 2020, Kapler guided the club to a 29-31 (.483) record over the 60-game season that was shortened due to COVID-19. San Francisco finished in third place in the NL West and fell one win shy of making the expanded postseason. It was the team's best winning percentage since finishing 87-75 (.537) in 2016.

Kapler spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as the manager of the Phillies where he guided them to a 161-163 (.497) combined record. In his first season, 2018, Kapler's Phillies finished 80-82, a 14-win improvement from 2017. The 2019 Phillies finished 81-81, reaching the .500 mark for the first time since 2012.

Prior to joining the Phillies, he was the Director of Player Development for the Dodgers from November 2014 until he was named the Phillies manager in October 2017. During those three seasons overseeing the Dodgers minor league system (2015-2017), their minor league clubs went a combined 1,299-1,128 (.535) that included eight first-place finishes. The .535 winning percentage over that span was the fourth-best among all Major League teams and the second-best among National League clubs, trailing the Phillies .548 mark. In that span, the Dodgers system produced future Major Leaguers Cody Bellinger, Walker Buehler, Max Muncy and Gavin Lux.

In 2013, Kapler served as a Coach for Team Israel during the World Baseball Classic qualifiers. From 2011-2013, he served as a Special Assignment Scout for the Tampa Bay Rays. He began his coaching career in 2007, taking a season out of his playing career to serve as the Manager of Class-A Greenville of the South Atlantic League in Boston's minor league system.

As a player, Kapler played in parts of 12 seasons in the Majors from 1998-2010 with Detroit (1998-1999), Texas (2000-2002), Colorado (2002-2003), Boston (2003-2006), Milwaukee (2008) and Tampa Bay (2009-2010). A former 57th-round pick by Detroit in 1995, Kapler batted .268 over 1,104 career games with 176 doubles, 82 home runs and 386 RBI.

He made his Major League debut on September 20, 1998 for Detroit vs. Minnesota, going 1-for-4 with a stolen base. In the minors that season, Kapler was named the Southern League MVP after leading the league in runs (113), hits (176), doubles (47), home runs (28), RBI (146), extra-base hits (81) and total bases (319). USA Today Baseball Weekly and The Sporting News tabbed him as the Minor League Player of the Year for 1998.

In 1999, Kapler established his career high in homers (18), playing in 130 games for the Tigers. Following the '99 season he was traded to Texas along with LHP Alan Webb, IF Frank Catalanotto, RHP Francisco Cordero, C Bill Haselman and LHP Justin Thompson in exchange for OF Juan Gonzalez, RHP Danny Patterson and C Gregg Zaun.

In 322 career games with Texas from 2000-2002, Kapler batted .280 with 73 doubles, 31 homers and 155 RBI. In his first game with Texas, Opening Day (April 3, 2000), Kapler homered in each of his first two at-bats, becoming the first Ranger in franchise history to homer in each of his first two at-bats with the team. Later that season, he established a Rangers franchise record that still stands today with a 28-game hitting streak from July 17-August 15.

On July 31, 2002, Kapler was traded to Colorado along with OF Jason Romano and cash considerations in exchange for OF Todd Hollandsworth and RHP Denny Reyes.

In 2004, Kapler played in a career-best 136 games while hitting .272 for the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox. His playing career also included a 38-game stint for the Yomiuri Giants of the Nippon Professional League in 2005 before returning to Boston later that season.

Outside of coaching and playing, Kapler spent the 2013 season working as an analyst for FS1.

Collaterally, Kapler attended Cal State Fullerton before attending Moorpark College in Moorpark, CA. In 1995, Kapler led Moorpark in home runs and RBI while batting .337 in his one season there. He was later inducted into the Moorpark College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

Kapler makes his offseason home in San Francisco and has two sons, Chase and Dane.

Giants
Bullpen & Catch-

Craig Albernaz embarks on his fourth season with San Francisco as the club's Bullpen and Catching Coach on Gabe Kapler's staff. Last season, the Giants bullpen posted a 4.06 ERA, 20th out of the 30 Major League teams overall and eighth in the National League. Over the season's final two months, however, the Giants 'pen posted a 3.62 ERA, sixth-best in the NL (14th in MLB), and threw the most innings of any bullpen in the Majors (266.1). The next closest team, the Minnesota Twins, had their bullpen throw only 248.2 innings from August 1 through the end of the regular season.

In 2021, the Giants' bullpen posted a Major League-leading 2.99 ERA, the lowest ERA posted by a Giants bullpen since 2010 (also 2.99). SF relievers also posted the lowest WHIP (1.13) and allowed the fewest walks (189) of any team in the Majors. The Giants became the second team in MLB history to feature six relievers with at least 50 appearances and an ERA under 3.00.

Albernaz guided the bullpen to a 4.24 ERA in 2020, the fifth-best figure in the National League, including a Major League-best 2.60 ERA and a .206 opponents average over SF's final 36 games of the season.

In 2019, Albernaz served as one of the Minor League Field Coordinators for the Tampa Bay Rays, a club he's spent a majority of his professional career with in both a playing and coaching capacity.

His coaching career began with the Rays in 2015 when he was a Hitting Coach at Rookie-level Princeton before holding the same role with Hudson Valley in 2016. In 2017, he began the season with Triple-A Durham as their Third Base and Catching Coach before managing Short-Season Hudson Valley when their season began. He guided the Renegades to a New York-Penn League championship after finishing the regular season 44-32 and defeating Staten Island in the semifinals two games to one in the best-of-three series. They swept a best-of-three Championship Series with Vermont to claim the crown. The Durham team that he began the 2017 season coaching with also won its championship that season.

In 2018, Albernaz was promoted to Class-A Bowling Green and repeated the feat, guiding the Hot Rods to a Midwest League championship. Bowling Green won a minor-league best 90 games in a campaign that earned him Midwest League Manager of the Year honors. Overall, his club went 90-49 during the regular season before nearly sweeping their way through the playoffs. They went a combined 5-1 in the playoffs, only dropping Game 2 of the Midwest League finals.

As a player, Albernaz spent eight of his nine minor league seasons in the Rays organization as a catcher, reaching as high as Triple-A Durham. He spent one season in the Tigers organization (2014) before moving to the coaching ranks. Over his nine minor league seasons he played in 371 career games and threw out 44 percent of would-be basestealers (145-of-329).

Albernaz was originally signed by the Rays as a minor league free agent on March 15, 2006. He graduated from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL in 2005 where he was a three-year letterwinner for the Tritons.

Andrew Bailey enters his fourth season with the Giants organization as the Pitching Coach on Gabe Kapler's staff. In 2022, the Giants pitchers posted a 3.85 ERA, 13th-best in the Majors and seventh best in the NL. Giants pitchers allowed only 132 home runs all season last year, fewest in the Majors, while walking 441, fifth-fewest in MLB. SF's starting pitchers posted a 3.68 ERA in 2022, seventh-best in MLB and third-best in the NL behind only the Dodgers and Mets. As a group, Giants starters were worth 17.2 fWAR, third-best in MLB behind Houston (19.4) and Philadelphia (17.5). Lastly, the starter's 3.10 FIP was tops in MLB.

The Giants pitching staff finished the 2021 season with a 3.24 ERA, the second-best figure in the Majors behind the Dodgers (3.01) and issued the fewest amount of walks of any team in the Majors (416). For just the fourth time in franchise history and the first time since 2000, the Giants had five pitchers who made at least 20 starts and each had a win percentage of .500 or better (Johnny Cueto, Anthony DeSclafani, Kevin Gausman, Logan Webb and Alex Wood).

Bailey served as the Bullpen Coach for the Los Angeles Angels in 2019, his first and only year in the role. In 2019, the Angels bullpen had the second-most wins of any bullpen in the American League (44) while also pitching the second-most innings of any AL bullpen. The bullpen group finished the year with a 4.64 ERA.

In 2018, his first year as a coach after retiring from playing in February, he joined the Angels coaching staff as a Coaching Assistant and Video Replay Coordinator.

As a player, Bailey was a two-time American League All-Star as well as the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year. In his first Major League season, Bailey went 6-3 with a 1.84 ERA for the Oakland A's while posting 26 saves en route to being named the AL Rookie of the Year as well as the first of his two All-Star selections. He struck out 91 batters over 83.1 innings for the A's in 2009.

His second All-Star selection came in 2010, when the right-hander posted a 1.47 ERA and 25 saves in 42 games for the Athletics. In 2011, his final season in Oakland, he saved 24 games to become one of three players in Major League history to record 24 or more saves in each of his first three Major League seasons. The other two to accomplish the feat were Kazuhiro Sasaki from 2000-2002 and Billy Koch from 1999-2001.

From 2012-2017, Bailey played with the Red Sox (2012-2013), Yankees (2015), Phillies (2016) and Angels (2016-2017) before retiring in 2018. In 265 career Major League games, Bailey was 16-14 with a 3.12 ERA and 95 saves. He missed the entire 2014 season after recovering from right shoulder surgery.

He graduated from Wagner College (NY) in 2006 and set a school record with his 237 career strikeouts. In his time there, he led the team to three consecutive NEC tournament appearances. He had his number (17) retired by the school on January 28, 2010.

Bailey was selected by Oakland in the sixth round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft when current Giants President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi was in Oakland.

He and his wife, Amanda, have three children, Theodora, Matthew and Vivienne.

- An injury to Curt Casali left the Giants needing a catcher in SF and Bart was recalled on July 6.

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

► PCL PITCHER OF THE WEEK (7/31/22 W/SACRAMENTO)

Was born in Corona, CA, a city in Riverside County in Southern California. Corona is located 45 minutes southeast of Los Angeles and is known as the Circle City due to Grant Boulevard's three mile circular layout.

Came to the Giants organization in the Mark Melancon trade with Atlanta on July 31, 2019 with RHP Daniel Winkler.

Graduated from Corona High School where as a senior he was named the 2015 Corona High School Male Athlete of the Year and earned 2015 First-Team All-State and All-Section honors. He threw two no-hitters and a 10-inning one-hitter. Beck was also a two-year starting quarterback during high school. He was taken by Milwaukee in the 34th-round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft but elected to attend Stanford.

DOWN ON THE FARM

In 2016 Beck became the third Stanford freshman to start Opening Day since 1988. He led Stanford starters in ERA (2.48) and strikeouts (76) and was top 10 in the Pac-12 in both categories. Was named a first-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings and Baseball America.

Was drafted again, this time by the Yankees in the 29th round of the 2017 MLB Draft as a sophomore despite not playing all season due to a stress fracture in his back.

Was drafted by Atlanta in the fourth round of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft as a junior. Beck received All-Pac-12 honors that year, going 8-4 with a 2.98 ERA (30er, 90.2ip) over 15 starts.

I GOT YOUR BECK!

Tristan's mom Lucy (class of 1984) and older sister Megan (class of 2010) both attended Stanford. The Beck brothers helped their sister move in as a freshman.

The tradition continued in 2016 with Tristan. Two years later, younger brother, Brendan, became the fourth Beck to attend Stanford. The two were teammates for one season (2018) before Tristan got drafted by the Braves after his junior season.

As noted above, Tristan was drafted by the Yankees in the 29th round in 2017. Four years later they selected his brother, Brendan, in the second round. Brendan, also a starter, had Tommy John in summer 2021 and hasn't thrown a professional inning.

2019

Struck out 90 in 81.1 minor league innings and was selected to participate in the AFL. In six starts with Scottsdale he went 1-2 with a 3.63 ERA (9er, 22.1ip) with 23 strikeouts.

2020

Did not play due to the Covid-19 pandemic. He and Brendan were each other's catch partner's during the shutdown.

2021

Tristan was a non-roster invite to Giants Spring Training in 2021 but only saw action in one Spring Training game.

2022

Worked a total of 111.1 innings between Double and Triple-A, by far the highest of any season in his pro career.

2022 SEASON

- Worked a total of 111.1 innings in 2022, by far the most he's thrown in any of his professional seasons in his career...was limited to 37.1 innings due to injury in 2021, did not pitch in 2020 and threw 81.1 innings in 2019.
- Struck out 116 batters in his 111.1 innings (9.38 K/9ip).
- Began the season with Double-A Richmond and went 0-1 with a 2.57 ERA in three games started...struck out 19 batters over 14.0 innings of work.
- Promoted to Triple-A Sacramento at the end of April and spent the rest of the season there.
- Posted a 5-8 record with a 5.64 ERA over 20 games (19 starts) with the River Cats.
- Had a 3.32 ERA (14er, 38.0ip) over his final seven starts with Triple-A Sacramento...struck out 37 batters in his 38.0 innings.

Sarasota is a city south of Tampa on Florida's Gulf Coast that was once the winter home of the Ringling Brothers Circus.

3.8

He is extremely fast and stole 44 bases in 50 attempts in 2022. He has been timed at 3.8 seconds from home to first.

Between all three levels in 2022, Brown recorded 24 doubles, seven triples, 23 home runs, and 44 stolen bases with a .346/.437/.623 line. He became one of five minor leaguers since 2006 to have eclipsed 20 home runs, 20 stolen bases, a .300 average, .400 on-base percentage, and a .600 slugging percentage in a single season. The other four are Corbin Carroll (2022), Josh Rojas (2019), Brandon Belt (2010) and Nelson Cruz (2008).

YOU CAN QUOTE ME...

In an interview with Andrew Baggarly, Jim Gabella, the Giants' area scout who filed the first reports on Brown after watching him at Division II Florida Southern University said "This is a big thing to say, but I'll say it anyway: He had as many tools in the draft as anyone in America. Everything you look for, he's got."

GOING PROSPECTING

Brown enters the 2023 campaign as the Giants sixth-best prospect according to Baseball America. The publication also rates him as being the system's best hitter for average and best overall athlete.

Brown played five seasons for the Moccasins at Florida Southern before being drafted in 2021. He was the Sunshine State Conference Player of the Year after slashing .387/.462/.793 with 13 homers.

His father, Herb, was a running back at Kutztown State in Pennsylvania.

2022 SEASON

- Started the season at Single-A San Jose and appeared in 59 games and racked up 14 home runs and 23 stolen bases with a .346/.427/.636 slash before he was promoted.
- In 43 games with the Eugene Emeralds, Brown added another nine homers and 21 stolen bases to his season tally with a .350/.454/.612 line.
- An injury cut Brown's season short after he appeared in just one game at Double-A.
- Had one of the best statistical seasons of any Giants minor leaguer in the 21st century...between all three levels, Brown recorded 24 doubles, seven triples, 23 home runs, and 44 stolen bases (50 attempts) with a .346/.437/.623 triple-slash.

Was born in Río Grande, Puerto Rico. The name of the town literally translates to "Great River," and the municipality is known for its lavish hotels, championship-worthy golf courses, iconic restaurants, and the El Yunque rainforest.

Attended Pedro Falu Orellano High School in Río Grande, Puerto Rico.

Missed part of the 2021 season with right elbow impingement and only pitched in six games.

Originally an 18th-round pick of the Guardians in the 2016 MLB draft.

Got engaged in Yabucoa, PR in November of this past offseason to his long time girlfriend.

In 2021, he started Tamo en Salsa, a 100% handmade sauce company, based in Luquillo, PR.

Burgos' father is named Ramon and his parents were going to name him after his dad but they decided on Raymond because they knew one day he was going to be a big leaguer and they wanted a name that sounded nice.

His second cousin, Obed Díaz played in the Marlins organization from 2015-2018 as a pitcher.

Raymond likes to read books in both English and Spanish. Reading in English helped him learn the language as he'd look up words he didn't know.

2022 SEASON

- Was moved into a multi-inning relief role last season and had one of the best seasons of his career...he posted an 8-3 record with a 2.08 ERA over 37 relief appearances.
- Burgos recorded 67 strikeouts to 22 walks over his 65.0 innings pitched at High-A Lake County.
- He set a single-season career high in both appearances (37) and innings pitched (65.0).
- From June 1 through the end of the season, Burgos posted a 1.49 ERA (8er, 48.1ip) with 48 strikeouts.

PUNCHOUTS

Recorded 151 strikeouts last season setting a new career high that he previously set in 2014 with Tampa Bay (149). His 9.08 K/9 was the second best of his career behind 2021 (9.45) and his 3.51 SO/BB ratio was the best of his career.

Was born in Boston, MA but the family moved to Vero Beach, FL when he was two. Vero Beach used to be the Spring Training home of the Dodgers before they moved to Arizona in 2009.

CATCHIN' UP

After being drafted in 2006, Cobb made his professional debut for Princeton in the Appalachian League on August 6. His catcher that day was current Giants Bullpen & Catching Coach Craig Albarnaz.

DRIVEN

Went to Driveline following the 2020 season. He'd heard good things about it but after talking with Alex Wood, who was with LA, while training during the shutdown in 2020, he made up his mind to go.

Made three Spring Training starts in 2015 before leaving his outing on March 17 with elbow tightness. Cobb ended up missing the entire 2015 season and part of 2016 after undergoing Tommy John surgery. The surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews. Prior to the injury, Cobb had been named Tampa Bay's Opening Day starter.

0.99

Cobb's first inning ERA since the beginning of 2021 which leads the MLB (min. 30ip).

THROUGH MY RAY-BANS...

- Made his Major League debut with Tampa on May 1, 2011 vs. the Angels and earned his first win just over a month later at the Angels on June 7, 2011.
- In 2013, his third season in Tampa Bay, Cobb finished with a 2.76 ERA in 143.1 innings pitched...his ERA would have been fourth-best in the American League but he fell short of qualifying by 19.2 innings.
- He fell 19.2 inning short of qualifying because he was on the injured list with a concussion from June 16-August 14 after taking a line drive off the bat of Eric Hosmer on June 15.
- In 2014, his 2.87 ERA was sixth-best in the American League and was the fourth-best in Rays history.
- Set a Rays franchise record of 82.1 consecutive homerless innings from July 18-September 28, 2014.
- Set a club record by making 12 straight starts allowing two runs or fewer from July 9-September 11, 2014.
- Worked 7.1 no-hit innings to start the game on September 11, 2014 at the Yankees before allowing a double to Chris Young.
- In 2017, his final season in Tampa, he set career bests in wins (12), innings pitched (179.1) and starts (29).

BIRD WATCHING...

Signed a four-year contract with Baltimore on March 21, 2018 and ended up spending three years there before being traded to the Angels in February of 2021.

Slated to be Baltimore's Opening Day starter in 2019 but missed the start after landing on the IL with a right groin strain. Made just three starts total in 2019, dealing with a lumbar strain and eventually undergoing lumbar surgery.

Made 28 starts (the second-most of his career) in his first season with the O's in 2018 and posted a 2.56 ERA in 11 starts after the All-Star Break.

Made 10 starts for the O's in the shortened 2020 campaign and led the team in innings pitched (52.1).

When Alex was a child he served as a Dodgers bat boy during Spring Training for three years while they were in Vero Beach.

Grew up a Red Sox fan and his family would make a nearly annual summer trip back to Boston, where Cobb was born, and take in a game at Fenway Park.

In addition to playing baseball at Vero Beach High School, Cobb was also a star quarterback. He returned in 2013 to have his high school baseball number (12) retired during a halftime ceremony.

Was also the Homecoming King during high school. Cobb is the school's first alumni to play in the Major Leagues.

Alex and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Chloe and Everly.

His older brother, R.J., is a U.S. Army commander (4th Brigade, 101st Airborne) and was awarded a Purple Heart for his time in Iraq.

The couple has a Schnauzer mixed breed named Oscar, who won a poll on MLB.com as MLB's Best Baseball Dog. Cobb found Oscar as a stray in Port Charlotte during Spring Training 2015 and eventually adopted him.

Alex's mom, Lindsay Miller-Cobb, was a nurse practitioner who passed away from a stroke at age 49 while Alex was in high school.

Alex's father, Rick, is an accountant.

2022 SEASON

- Finished his first season with SF posting a 3.73 ERA over 28 starts
- His 149.2 innings were more than each of the last three seasons...he posted a career high in strikeouts (151) and his 3.73 ERA was his best over a full season since 2017 (3.66)...the 28 starts matched the second-most of his career (also 2018) and one shy of his career-best 29 from 2017.
- Missed time from April 19 to May 1 with a right adductor strain that he suffered while running to cover first base...his second IL stint was from June 4-19 after he was scratched from a start due to back tightness and hamstring pain, however he landed on the IL with a neck strain.
- His 9.08 K/9 was the second best of his career and his 3.51 SO/BB ratio was the best of his career...he had two double digit strikeouts games (4/12 vs. SD and 7/29 vs. CHC).
- Had a 1.30 ERA in the first inning, fourth-best in MLB behind ATL's Max Fried (0.90), KC's Brady Singer (1.13) and ARI's Zac Gallen (1.16).
- Used his splitter 42.5% of the time which was second in all of MLB behind ATL's Kirby Yates...Cobb had the highest splitter usage among starters...opponents were 66-for-269 (.245) with 62 strikeouts and a .227 xBA in at-bats ending with the splitter.
- He saw an uptick in velocity last on all his pitches...his splitter averaged 89.6 mph which was 2.1 mph faster than at any point in his career...his sinker averaged 94.8 mph, 2.1 mph faster his second fastest velocity.
- Gave up nine home runs in 149.2 innings giving him a 0.54HR/9 which was sixth best in MLB.
- Cobb has allowed 14 home runs total in 243.0ip over the last two seasons and his 0.52 HR/9 is the best in MLB (min 240ip) over that span.

SWITCHING IT UP

Swung both right and left handed as a kid but was more comfortable hitting lefty. His father encouraged him to work more on his left-handed swing. He throws right-handed, but writes left-handed.

CRAZY EIGHTS

After wearing #30 for his years in New York with the Mets, Conforto will wear #8 for the Giants. It's the second time he's worn the number in Orange and Black as he donned the number during his collegiate career at Oregon State.

Homered twice in Game 4 of the 2015 World Series, becoming the fifth rookie (at the time) to hit two homers in a World Series game and first since Andruw Jones in 1996. He was the third-youngest player (at the time) to have a multi-homer game in the World Series.

Overall, he was just the second Met to have a multi-homer game in the World Series (Gary Carter in Game 4 of the 1986 World Series was the other).

Has two dogs, Griffey and Kali. Each pup had a cardboard cutout in the stands at Citi Field in 2020.

CONFORTO CARES

With the Mets, Conforto hosted pediatric cancer patients from local hospitals at select games through "Conforto Cares". The children were given a tour of Citi Field, the opportunity to take batting practice inside the Mets batting cages and to enjoyed lunch with Michael. Each child was given a Conforto Cares t-shirt and a Mets gift bag. The program focused on bringing awareness to pediatric cancer and the challenges that these children face every day. Michael hosted kids at the ballpark as well as visited children and their families at hospitals throughout the city.

Plays PUBG (PlayerUnknown's Battlegrounds) on Xbox to unwind and forget about baseball. Plays with Los Angeles-NL's Max Muncy. Also enjoys "Call of Duty: Warzone."

Got engaged to his long-time girlfriend, Cabernet Burns, during the 2020-21 offseason. They were married on December 12, 2021.

Cabernet is the VP at Prom Series. The company is run by baseball wives with the mission to curate once in a lifetime experiences for foster teens to build confidence and self worth.

Was born in Vancouver, WA, a city on the north bank of the Columbia River. The city is characterized by border economics with neighboring Portland, Oregon. Because the state of Oregon has no sales tax but one of the highest state income taxes, many Vancouver residents prefer to shop in neighboring Portland where they do not pay sales taxes, then live and work in Vancouver where they do not pay state income tax. For the same reasons, the city is popular with retirees.

WELL ISN'T THAT A COINCIDENCE....

Attended Union High School in Camas, WA, where he was named 2012 Class 4A Greater St. Helens Player of the Year as a senior after batting .405 with three homers, 17 RBI and 18 stolen bases. Had been committed to play collegiately at Arizona State before signing with Milwaukee.

CATCH 22

Though originally a catcher, Coulter was converted to outfielder in 2015 while in the Brewers organization. He had gone six professional seasons without appearing behind the dish before catching four games for Cardinals Triple-A Memphis in 2021 and 11 more in 2022.

A RECORD YEAR...

Named Robin Yount Performance Award Winner as the Brewers Minor League Player of the Year in 2014. Tied the Wisconsin franchise single-season home run mark with 22 in 2014, also matched by Khris Davis (2010) and Victor Roache (2013).

INDY BALL

Spent two seasons in the Independent Leagues (2019-20) before the Cardinals purchased his contract from the Sioux Falls Canaries and signed him to a minor league contract on May 12, 2021.

AFL PLAY

Also played for Glendale in the Arizona Fall League as a 20-year old in 2014, batting .174 with a home run and three RBI.

Owns his own company, Steelhead Tools, which produces massage tools for athletes.

Signed as a minor league free agent with the Giants on December 20, 2022. After signing, Coulter posted on Instagram that it had been a few years since he played for the Giants - he played on a Giants Little League team in his hometown when he was eight years old.

2022 SEASON

- Spent the whole season with Triple-A Memphis and hit .297 with 14 doubles, a triple, nine homers, 33 RBI and a .910 OPS.

FTTB

Cheered on Giants teams led by Barry Bonds and Jeff Kent. His parents, Mike and Lynn, had season tickets and regularly took Brandon and his three younger sisters to games. Each spring the family headed to the Cactus League in Scottsdale, AZ to soak in the sun and collect autographs. Come summer, the Crawfords spent nights at Candlestick Park. In the now famous picture taken by the San Francisco Chronicle, Crawford (age five) and his family at a game at Candlestick Park in 1992 in what was considered possibly the last series at Candlestick Park as the Giants were rumored to possibly be moving to Florida. When the team moved here to Oracle Park, his family purchased a brick outside on Willie Mays Plaza.

His Player's Weekend nickname is DJ BC Raw. Comes up with the BP music mixes that are played during Giants' batting practice at Oracle Park.

GRAND DEBUT

Made his MLB debut on May 27, 2011 at Milwaukee. Hit a grand slam in the 7th inning to become only the sixth player in MLB history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game.

HEADS UP, 7-UP

On August 8, 2016 at Miami, Crawford became the first player in 41 years to record seven hits in a game, going 7-for-8 (five singles, double, triple, 10 total bases). He tied the NL record for hits in one game, set by Baltimore's Wilbert Robinson in 1892 and tied by Pittsburgh's Rennie Stennett in 1975.

1st Giant to win a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger in the same season (2015) since Barry Bonds in 1997.

His sister Amy, a former softball player at UCLA, is married to another former Bruin, Gerrit Cole, who now pitches for the Yankees.

Enters the 2023 campaign with 11 years, 94 days of service time, the longest of any active player on the Giants roster.

Attended UCLA, where he was a physiological sciences major. Played baseball for the Bruins from 2006 to 2008, and started 179 straight games where he helped lead the team to the NCAA Regionals in three consecutive seasons. Was named the team's MVP in 2006 and 2007.

Married to Jalyne Dantzcher on November 26, 2011. They have two daughters named Braylyn Ann (December 18, 2012) and Jaydyn April (March 8, 2014), and two sons named Braxton Michael (January 15, 2016) and Bryson Ryder (June 18, 2018).

Brandon and Jalyne celebrated their 10 year wedding anniversary on November 27, 2021 by renewing their vows in Hawaii with friends and family.

CRAWFORD IN THE COMMUNITY

The four-time MLBPAA Giants Heart & Hustle Award winner (2015-2016, 2018 and 2021) is involved with the following organizations: Crawford Family Golf Tournament benefitting ALS Cure Project, "Catch A Cure" to benefit Peckham Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders at Rady Children's Hospital, Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation, Giants Community Fund - Jr. Giants, Good Tidings Foundation, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, Nancy & Stephen Grand Family House, Step Up to the Plate for Education / All-Star Teacher, Big League Impact, Casa Colina & Guide Dogs for the Blind.

In partnership with the Good Tidings Foundation, San Francisco Recreation and Parks, and shortstop Brandon Crawford, the Giants Community Fund restored the Gilman Playground baseball field in 2021 to create a safer, equitable, state-of-the-art location for children to play baseball and softball. The field features a brand-new grass infield and outfield, a refurbished plaza entryway to the field, a fresh coat of paint on the backstop and new dugout fencing and benches. Crawford, Giants broadcaster Dave Flemming, Giants Public Address Announcer Renel Brooks-Moon and Giants teammates were on hand to dedicate the new field last August as pictured on the left.

- Made his 11th Opening Day start, tying Robby Thompson for fourth-most in the SF era...is also one of four Giants in the SF-era to make at least 10-consecutive Opening Day starts...the others are Willie Mays (15 in CF from 1958-72), Barry Bonds (12 in LF from 1993-2004) and Thompson (11 at 2B from 1986-1996).

During his down time, he enjoys playing video games, visiting zoos, museums and aquariums. His game of choice is Call of Duty.

HI, MY NAME IS...

His full name is Jonathan Gregory Davis. He has gone by J.D. since he was in elementary school. The "D" in J.D. stands for Davis. He says he does not go by J.G. because "it doesn't flow quite as well." When he was in school, he listed J.D. as his full name on tests until his teacher asked him to write Davis as well to keep track while grading papers.

His pregame ritual includes eating a grilled cheese sandwich before every game, but he does not see himself as superstitious.

2021 INJURIES

Missed more than half of the 2021 season as he was plagued by left hand injuries. Went on the injured list a final time on September 26 for a sprained left hand and underwent surgery to repair a torn ligament in that hand on October 5. Dr. Thomas Graham performed the procedure in Dayton, OH.

- In the first year of his new three-year contract with the Giants, DeSclafani was plagued by the remnants of a right ankle injury he suffered towards the end of last season...he made only five starts during the regular season, going 0-2 with a 6.63 ERA and 17 strikeouts.
- He first went on the IL with right ankle inflammation on April 22, a day after he'd allowed five runs on nine hits in 5.0 innings to the Mets at Citi Field...saw Dr. Anderson, a foot and ankle specialist in Green Bay, WI on April 25 and an MRI confirmed the right ankle inflammation...after a few weeks, DeSclafani was transferred to the 60-day IL on May 16 and would not be eligible to return until June 21...he came off as scheduled on June 21 but only made two more starts before going back on the IL with the same right ankle inflammation on June 28.
- After going on the IL a second time, DeSclafani elected to have surgery on the right ankle to fix his peroneal tendon which is on the outside of the ankle joint...the surgery was performed by Dr. Robert Anderson in Green Bay, WI on July 21 and he missed the remainder of the season.
- Never pitched more than 5.0 innings and never threw more than 83 pitches in any of his five starts for SF... also made two rehab starts with Triple-A Sacramento trying to return from the injury during his first IL stint.

Born in Bejuma, which is a small town in the Carabobo state of Venezuela. The city is a 45 minute drive to the capital of the Carabobo state, Valencia, where current Giants IF Wilmer Flores was born.

ON THE RISE

Had a career year in '22, his second season with SF, setting career-bests in every offensive category. Ranked among the team leaders in stolen bases (21, 1st), hits (127, 1st), doubles (22, 3rd), RBI (62, 3rd), runs scored (71, 3rd) and games played (3rd, 140).

21 His 21 stolen bases in 2022 were the most by a Giants infielder since Omar Vizquel stole 24 bases in 2006.

PUT ME IN COACH

In parts of three Major League seasons, Estrada has played all over the diamond. He's logged games at second base (155), shortstop (68), third base (13), left field (24), right field (three) and center field (one).

HI, MY NAME IS...

His first name, Thairo, pronounced TYE-row, is family derived. As Estrada tells it, his dad and uncle are named Jairo and so they just added a 'T' there to make it sound different, to make it sound more American. "I guess my mom knew I would come to the States and that would make it easier on people," Estrada said.

Grew up idolizing Yankees shortstop Derek Jeter. Estrada was originally signed by the Yankees as a shortstop and would hear Jeter speak while he was in their minor league system.

His 109.3 mph homer off MIA's Elieser Hernandez on June 3, 2022 is the hardest hit ball of his career.

2018 OFFSEASON

In January of 2018, Estrada was shot during a robbery attempt while at a café with his wife in his hometown of Bejuma. He missed Spring Training plus the first part of the 2018 season. Doctors were unable to remove the small-caliber bullet but he was cleared to play early in the season. The bullet was removed in July at a hospital in Tampa after a lower back injury in June ended his season.

"It was hard in Venezuela in 2017-18," Estrada told reporters in 2021. "There were rarely people who had any cash, for safety, everything was done through cards and through cell phones. So somebody came up to me and asked for money, and I said the only things I had were my cell phone and credit card. The guy didn't believe me and decided to take a shot at that point."

Returned home to Venezuela for the first time in four years this past offseason (2022). He spent time at home and also drove an hour to work out with Wilmer Flores near Valencia.

Thairo and his wife, Lorena, have one daughter, Arantza.

2022 SEASON

- The 21 steals were tied for seventh-most in the NL.
- Had two trips to the IL (July 3-8 on the Covid IL for symptoms but never tested positive and July 31-August 7 on the concussion IL after being struck in the head by a Mark Leiter Jr. changeup on July 30).

Was born in Springfield, IL, the state capital of Illinois. It was home to Abraham Lincoln, who lived in Springfield from 1837 until 1861, when he went to the White House.

20/20

Was named the 2022 Flying Squirrels Most Valuable Player. Became the first 20-20 player in team history, clubbing 21 home runs and stealing 20 bases.

Set single-game Flying Squirrels team records with 13 total bases and five runs scored while also tying the team record with five hits on May 29, 2022 against the Hartford Yard Goats.

Flying Squirrels manager Dennis Pelfrey said. "He is one of the best players in our organization. The way he plays the game, he never takes a play off. It doesn't matter if he's having a good day or a bad day. He plays hard."

CARDINAL RULE(S)

After hitting .208 with 11 RBI as a freshman at Louisville, Fitzgerald played in all 64 games as a sophomore, hitting .264 with three homers, 17 doubles and 24 RBI.

Went off as a junior, starting 66 of 69 games at shortstop and hitting .315 with eight homers and a team-best 65 RBI. He also led the team in hits and total bases.

Helped lead the Cardinals to a College World Series berth. Louisville lost to eventual 2019 College World Series champion Vanderbilt in the semifinals.

2019

Played for three Giants affiliates after being drafted in 2019, working his way up from the Arizona Rookie league to Low-A Augusta. Fitzgerald ended up playing 19 games in Augusta and a few more during their postseason run that ended in the South Atlantic League Division Series.

THE BOURBON TRAIL...?

When the Covid-19 pandemic shut down minor league baseball the Lexington Legends and Florence Freedom formed the Battle of the Bourbon Trail league.

The league was comprised of four teams: the Legends, the Legendas, the Freedom and the Y'all. They played Wednesday through Sunday for a seven-week span.

Fitzgerald played on the Y'all's and told the Richmond Times he used that time to tinker where he added a leg kick at the plate to better his timing.

The leg kick he added was one aspect of a range of experimenting with his swing that helped him experience a power surge when he returned to MiLB play in 2021.

40

Since '21, Fitzgerald has hit 40 homers in 228 games. In his first pro season (2019) he hit one in 48 games.

Fitzgerald also used 2020 as a time to finish his Finance degree at Louisville. He officially graduated in December of 2020.

Graduated from Rochester (IL) High School where he played four seasons of baseball. In 2016 he was the No. 2 player in the state of Illinois according to Perfect Game and also was the Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year after hitting .500 with 15 doubles, nine homers and 42 steals as a senior.

B

Was selected by Boston in the 30th round of the 2016 draft out of high school but elected to attend Louisville.

A

He grew up rooting for the Atlanta Braves and the Atlanta Falcons despite living in Illinois. One of his favorite players was Chipper Jones.

THE FAM

His father Mike was a two-time first-round choice (1983 January and 1984 June secondary Drafts) and appeared in games for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1988, and his brother, Mike, played collegiate baseball at Indiana State and professionally with the San Diego Padres organization.

WE ARE NOT OF RELATION

Has been asked for much of his life if he was related to the former Diamondbacks outfielder Luis González but they, alas, are not. SF's Luis grew up in Tucson and the D-Backs' Luis was one of his favorite players. The two finally met this last year at Oracle Park and took a photo together. The two each signed the photo and gave one another a copy as a keepsake.

Attended the University of New Mexico where he was both a pitcher and a position player. He batted .359 with eight homers, 41 RBI, 19 doubles and 14 steals as a junior. On the mound that year, he made 10 appearances. Overall he pitched in 21 games in his three-years on campus.

Luis' and his family came to the US when he was nine. He and his older sister, Paloma, didn't speak much English upon arriving. They watched a lot of Disney channel shows like "That's So Raven," "Drake & Josh" and "The Suite Life of Zack & Cody" to help better learn the language.

2022 SEASON

- Played his first full season in the big leagues, appearing in 98 games while hitting .254 with 31 runs scored, 17 doubles, two triples, four home runs and 36 RBI along with 10 stolen bases.
- Made 89 starts (57 starts in RF, 24 in LF, five in CF & three as the DH).
- Batted .309 (21x68) with runners in scoring position.
- Hit his first career home run on April 25 at Milwaukee, hitting a two-run, go-ahead shot off RHP Jake Cousins to give the Giants a 4-2 lead.
- Named the NL Rookie of the Month for May...he hit .368 with seven doubles, one homer, 13 RBI and had a .910 OPS in 23 May games.
- Threw 1.1 scoreless innings in May 15th's 15-6 loss to St. Louis...also hit a three-run homer that night off Albert Pujols.
- Ended up appearing in five games as a pitcher for SF, most by a Giants position player in a single season since 1901 when Charlie Hickman did so in nine games.
- Pitched in back-to-back games May 22-23, the first Giants position player to do so since 1906.
- Was on the 10-day IL from June 23-July 9 with a low back strain, an injury he couldn't fully heal from and that eventually ended his season, being placed on the IL a second time with the same injury on Sept. 25.
- Hit .289 with six homers and 13 RBI in 20 games at Triple-A Sacramento...11 of those 20 games came in April.

Was born in La Vega, Dominican Republic. The city is known as the Carnival epicenter of the Dominican Republic for its tradition and culture.

Is in camp this year as a two-way player. Has one appearance on the mound in his pro career.

Missed the majority of the 2021 season due to a cartilage tear in his right knee. Underwent right knee surgery on April 28 for an articular cartilage and meniscus cartilage repair, performed by Dr. William Robertson in Arlington. Suffered the injury while pursuing a fly ball to left field on April 12, his first career start in the outfield.

Made the Rangers' Opening Day roster for three straight seasons (2019-2021).

On August 10, 2018, he hit three home runs (all solo) at Yankee Stadium in Texas' 12-7 victory.

HAVIN' A RECORD YEAR

Was named the Ranger organization's Tom Grieve Minor League Player of the Year in 2017, ranking among the organizational leaders in hits (2nd, 140), RBI (3rd, 62), average (4th, .298), and walks (T-5th, 47). He was also tabbed Team MVP by the Express after leading the team in average, runs (78), hits, and multi-hit games (38).

Guzmán had more than two dozen family and friends at his three-homer game at Yankee Stadium on August 10, 2018 that included his mother, Margot, and father, Manuel, among others. It was the first time Manuel saw Ronald play in a Major League game. They chose that game because his father is afraid of planes and from the DR to New York is only one flight whereas flying to Texas would be two.

SHOWTIME

In 2019, he teamed up with Buckner International and donated over 180 pairs of shoes to youngsters in his hometown in the Dominican Republic.

16

Graduated from high school at age 16.

Has a son, Ronald Jr. born September 9, 2019.

Enters the 2023 season as baseball's top left-handed pitching prospect and the 18th overall prospect by MLB.com.

The Athletic's Keith Law has Harrison as the 12th-best prospect entering 2023 on his Top-100 list. BaseballAmerica ranks Harrison as the 38th-best prospect entering the season and the second-best prospect in SF's system entering 2023.

Finished second in the minors with 186 strikeouts in 2022. Only D-Backs prospect Brandon Pfaadt had more (218).

He averaged 14.81 strikeouts per 9.0 innings over the 2022 season, the highest rate for a pitcher in the minors (min. 100ip) in a season dating back to 1960.

In his two minor league seasons, Harrison has struck out 343 batters in 211.2 innings pitched (14.58 K/9ip). Looking at it another way, Harrison has fanned 343 of the 907 total batters he's faced in his brief career (37.8%).

Harrison has actually pitched in two parks that Guinn pitched in on his way to the Majors. Guinn pitched for the San Jose Bees in 1973, the same ballpark where Harrison pitched in 2021.

2021 /ATL

Was born in Fort Lauderdale, FL, a city on Florida's southeastern coast, known for its beaches and boating canals. It runs along oceanside highway A1A and is lined with upscale outdoor restaurants, bars, boutiques and luxury hotels.

STELLAR YEAR

In 2021, Jackson went 2-2 with a 1.98 ERA and 31 holds over 71 appearances out of the Braves bullpen. Among pitchers with as many appearances, his 14 earned runs were tied for the second-fewest in baseball. His 31 holds were second-most in MLB.

Had Tommy John Surgery last April to reconstruct his right UCL and missed the entire 2022 season. Dr. Keith Meister performed the surgery in Arlington, TX.

62.9%

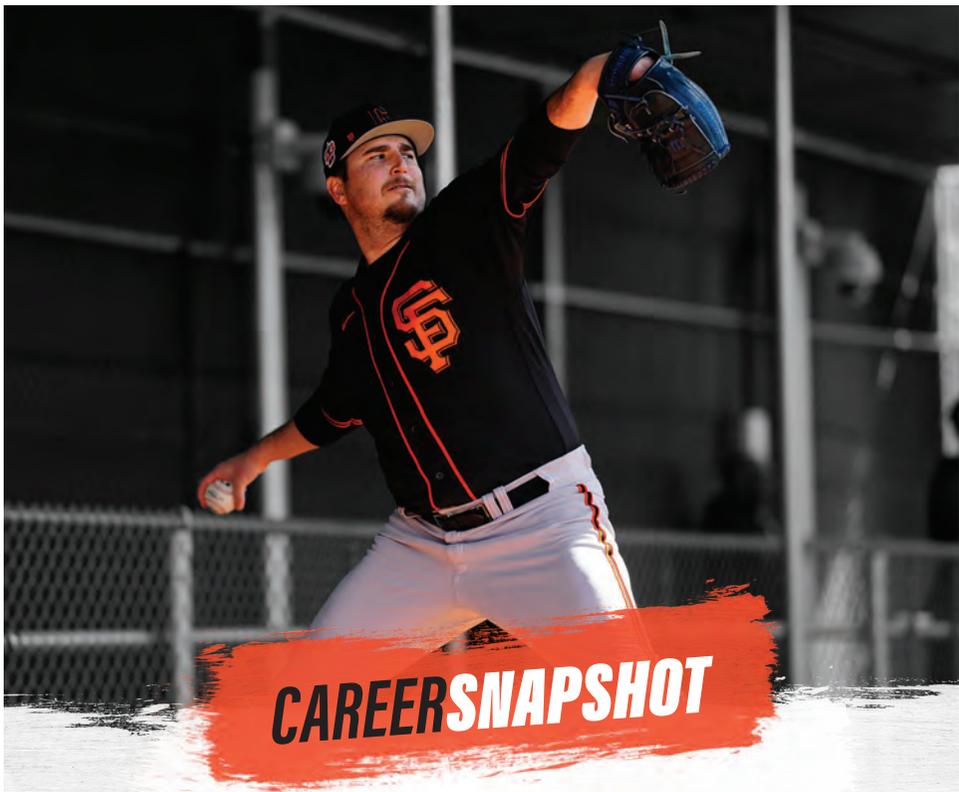

His groundball percentage in the shortened 2020 season. In 2019 it was 60.5% but in 2021 it dipped to 53.2%.

9.40

Jackson's strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched ratio for his career. He was at 9.90 K/9ip in 2021.

BIG TIME TIMMY JIM?

Told reporters that the reason he started pitching was because of Tim Lincecum. At the time Lincecum had won back-to-back Cy Youngs and Jackson was a similar build so he tried to mimic his pitching motion. He said it did help him throw harder but he didn't know where it was going.

Born in Fair Oaks, CA, which is part of the Sacramento metropolitan area in Northern California, about 100 miles from Oracle Park. California governor Gavin Newsom maintains his private residence in Fair Oaks, foregoing living in the Governor's Mansion.

CALL IT A COMEBACK (STORY)...

Released by Tampa on the last day of Spring Training in 2018. Long made the decision to stop playing baseball and went back to school to take summer classes and get his EMT certification. Had an end goal of being a firefighter.

The time off also allowed his back to fully heal (he'd suffered two herniated discs during his junior year at Sac State but pitched through it). In October 2018, he decided to give baseball another shot.

Trained at Optimum Athletics in Sacramento and had one of his posted bullpen videos picked up by @PitchingNinja (run by Rob Friedman) on Twitter. The White Sox saw the video and a few days later he signed there.

SHOWTIME

Impressed with SF in Spring Training in 2021 and then made his MLB debut on June 9 at Texas in relief. He picked up his first Major League win on June 20, 2021 vs. Philadelphia.

THE COUNT

Struck out seven batters in his Major League debut as a reliever. The last Giant to strike out at least seven in a Major League debut as a reliever was John Montefusco on September 3, 1974 vs. the Dodgers.

12.8 SECONDS

Finished 2022 with the second-fastest pitch tempo with bases empty in MLB at 12.8 seconds...with runners on base, Long ranked fifth at 19.1s.

DO NOT PASS GO

Batters were a mere 3-for-17 (.176) with runners in scoring position and two outs off Long in 2022.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by Tampa Bay in the 18th round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft.

Signed by Chicago-AL as a minor league free agent on March 5, 2019.

Signed by San Francisco to a minor league contract on November 17, 2020.

Placed on the 10-day injured list from July 4-July 27, 2021 (low back strain).

Placed on the 60-day injured list from August 26, 2022 through the end of the 2022 season (right oblique strain).

His first MLB win was on Father's Day with his dad in the crowd on June 20, 2021 vs. Philadelphia at Oracle Park. He retired 10 of the final 11 batters he faced.

Attended Sacramento State University and is a 2013 graduate of Del Campo High School in Fair Oaks, CA.

THE BIG AIRBENDER

Grew up a Giants fan in the Sacramento-area but went to more A's games. Barry Zito, a left-handed starter with both clubs who also had a big curveball, was his favorite pitcher. Long says that his curveball isn't modeled after Zito's but it's turned into one like his, which is pretty cool.

MAMA I'M COMING HOME

When the lefty got the call-up from Richmond to Triple-A Sacramento in 2021, he called his mother and told her he is "coming home," and tears were shed. And plans were made. For his Triple-A debut that Saturday, he said there were about 150-200 friends and family filling Sutter Health Park. Which brings this back to his homecoming, in which a boisterous Sacramento crowd watched him strike out the first eight batters he faced.

CALL ON ME

River Cats manager Dave Brundage had fun with Long when telling him he was going to the Majors for the first time, telling him he was going from the bullpen back to the rotation in five days. It dawned on Long that would be Wednesday – Sacramento's day off. "So wheels started turning," Long said. "He said, 'Sorry, so the only team you'd be able to pitch for on Wednesday would be against the Rangers,' and it was hugs, handshakes."

His parents are Trent Long and Liza Mineni. He has one sister, Ali, who played volleyball at St. Francis College. Sam was a Communications major at Sac State. He also graduated high school early in December, 2013.

2022 SEASON

- Made his first career Opening Day roster with the Giants.
- His season was cut short after landing on the 60-day IL on August 26 with a right oblique strain that led him to miss the remainder of the year.
- Worked primarily as a reliever and made 22 appearances out of the bullpen for the Giants.
- Appeared in eight games over three stints with the River Cats.
- Was converted to a starter role with Sacramento after he was optioned on August 3.
- Finished the year with the second-fastest pitch tempo with bases empty in MLB at 12.8 seconds...with runners on base, Long ranked fifth at 19.1s.

VS. BOSTON

Born in Valparaiso, IN and spent his entire youth growing up there. He attended both South Central High School (Union Mills, IN) and Andean HS (Merrillville, IN) before attending Indiana State for college.

BAY GAME, BAY SLANG

IT'S A BAY THANG

Manaea's 50 wins, 641 strikeouts and 128 starts with the A's were the most by an A's pitcher over the previous 18 seasons dating to 2004. # WHAT'S IN A NAME? WELL, EVERYTHING

Manaea has a variety of different gloves that he uses when he pitches and he's given a corresponding name to each of the gloves. In the past he's used gloves with the name of SheHulk, Crestineth, Midnight and Abraham Lincoln. He has yet to name his gloves for this season. Manaea has even named his car (Sasha) and his bike (Salsa Azul).

Following the 2022 season, Manaea and former Padres teammate Joe Musgrove went on a nine-day expedition to Antarctica. What started out as an idea on a fishing boat became a fundraiser for the Challenged Athletes Foundation, a charity with the mission to provide opportunity and support to people with physical challenges so they can pursue active lifestyles. Musgrove and Manaea went with their girlfriends and a larger group, including Landis Sims (a 16-year-old who was born without arms and lower legs), and two Paralympic athletes. Musgrove would set the record for fastest pitch in Antarctica (threw it 86 mph), raising money and awareness for the Challenged Athletes Foundation in the process. He warmed up with Manaea on their ship, throwing five pitches to him.

OH, HEYYY

On April 3, 2022, the Padres played the A's in a Spring Training game at Hohokam Stadium in Mesa, AZ. Manaea was slated to start for Oakland against the Padres. At 8:45 am that morning, he was traded to the Padres. San Diego brought him a uniform and hat, and he ended up starting for the Padres against the A's that game.

If you tell Sean to be somewhere at a time, he will be there. Exactly at that time. For example, Manaea said, "I'll be there at 12:37. Expect me there. And I will be there at 12:37."

Has bought a few camera lenses and messed to mess around with photography in his free time.

SUP, FAM?

Manaea is known as 'The Throwin' Samoan.' His dad, Faaloloi, is American Samoan, and Sean went to Samoa and got a traditional Samoan tattoo on his right arm back in 2014. It was finished later in Los Angeles.

Faaloloi Manaea met Sean's mother, Opal, while stationed in Indiana during the Vietnam War. Sean was born and raised in Indiana, and he attended Indiana State. Growing up, his family was the only Samoan American family in Wanatah, Indiana, population just over 1,000.

BROS

Dane, Sean's brother, is in the Navy and serving as a hospital corpsman third class at Camp Pendleton. On April 24th's Military Appreciation Day at Petco Park in 2022, Sean started against the Dodgers, and Dane embraced with Sean on the mound when the team took the field. It was only the second time Dane had seen his brother pitch in a big league game. "It's very special," said Sean. "My mom, I just texted her, and she was crying. It's a beautiful moment."

INK

In the 2019 offseason, Sean and Dane got a matching tattoos of "DoodleBob," the Spongebob character. He is a living two-dimensional drawing resembling SpongeBob Squarepants. Sean's tattoo is located on his left leg.

52

Manaea has worn #55 throughout his entire career but knew that he couldn't wear the number in San Francisco out of respect for Tim Lincecum. How did he settle on #52? He called his mom and asked what number he should wear and she told him she was born in '52 (1952) so he should use that one.

2022 SEASON

- Appeared in 30 games for San Diego, making 28 starts, in his only season for the Padres.
- Struck out 156 batters in 158.0 innings for an 8.9 K/9ip ratio...Manaea was one of 12 lefties in the Majors with at least 155+ strikeouts on the season and only one of six lefties in the NL...the others were SF's Carlos Rodón (237), SD's Blake Snell (177), ATL's Max Fried (170), LAD's Julio Uriás (166) and MIL's Eric Lauer (157).
- Limited left-handed batters to a .187 average with a .600 OPS against.
- Allowed a career-high 29 homers...the 29 homers were third-most among qualified pitchers and his 1.76 HR/9ip ratio was second-highest in the Majors behind only Josiah Gray's 2.30 HR/9ip (min. 25 starts).
- Limited left-handed batters to a .187 average with a .600 OPS against.
- Posted a 6.16 ERA on the road, the highest road ERA among qualifying pitchers in 2022...had a 3.62 ERA at home in Petco Park.
- While Manaea's ERA was 4.96, his xERA was 4.05, almost a full run lower.
- He produced a 38.2% groundball rate according to Fangraphs, the lowest of his career...his groundball rate was 42.0% in 2021 and 50.3% in the shortened 2020 season.
- Had a 2.85 walks per 9.0 innings rate, the highest of his career since 2017 (his second full season in MLB) when it was 3.12.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

GOLD GLOVE
2019, 2020

A.L. WILSON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
2019

Was born in Mayagüez, PR, which is located on the western coast of the island. Every year in late January/early February, the city celebrates its patron saint festival.

Originally drafted by Cleveland in the 33rd round of the 2008 draft out of Lake City Community College (now called Florida Gateway College)

DID YOU KNOW?

Did not learn English until he was in college at age 17 when he moved to Florida. Pérez felt language was very important to be a pro catcher so he went back to college and mastered the language. He says speaking English helped him take charge and be a leader as a catcher.

Suited up for Puerto Rico in the 2017 World Baseball Classic. Pérez appeared in one game during the tournament.

Played for Mayagüez in the Puerto Rican Winter League from 2009-2015 and in 2021-2022. He played for Lacey in the Dominican Winter League in 2018.

GOOD AS GOLD

Won the first of his two Gold Gloves in 2019 and was the first Cleveland catcher to win a Gold Glove since Sandy Alomar in 1990. Pérez also earned a BIS Fielding Bible Award and was named the Major League Defensive Player of the year by Wilson.

Accumulated 30 DRS, most of any catcher in 2019 and was the highest total by a catcher since Baseball Info Solutions started tracking the metric in 2003. He posted a .997 fielding percentage and did not record a passed ball in 118 games (993.2 innings) behind the plate.

Backed up his Gold Glove in 2019 with another in 2020, becoming just the second catcher in Cleveland history to garner multiple Gold Gloves (Ray Fosse in 1970-71). He was also a repeat winner of a Fielding Bible Award (Baseball Info Solutions) and finished third in the AL in defensive runs saved.

65

The number of games Pérez has appeared in the last two years due to injury. Only played in 32 of the 60 games during the shortened 2020 season as well.

12

The number of framing runs saved by Pérez in 2019, fifth-most in MLB. For reference, Buster Posey had 7 in 2019.

3.62

Pérez's catcher's ERA in his nine seasons in the Major Leagues.

35.7%

Pérez's caught stealing percentage for his MLB career (84-of-235).

BIRTHPLACE | PLEASANTON, CA, USA

M.L. SERVICE | 7 YEARS, 36 DAYS

HOW OBTAINED | SIGNED TO A MINOR LEAGUE CONTRACT ON FEBRUARY 3, 2023

Born in Pleasanton, CA and still resides in the Bay Area in Danville. Piscotty attended Amador Valley High School in Pleasanton before playing collegiately at Stanford.

Drafted in the supplemental round (36th overall) of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals.

YAAAAY AREA

Is one of many players with Bay Area / Northern California ties in camp this spring with San Francisco. Scott Alexander (Santa Rosa), Brandon Crawford (Mountain View), J.D. Davis (Elk Grove), Mitch Haniger (Mountain View), Joc Pederson (Palo Alto), Sam Long (Fair Oaks) and Logan Webb (Rocklin) are all on the Major League roster. The non-roster invites from the greater Bay Area are: Brett Cumberland (Turlock), Sam Delaplane (San Jose), Nick Duron (Salinas), Kyle Harrison (San Jose), Trevor Hildenberger (Mountain View), Joe Ross (Berkeley) and Drew Strotman (Sunnyvale).

THE MORE YOU KNOW...

The pick that the Cardinals used to draft Piscotty in 2012 was the compensation pick they received when Albert Pujols signed with the Angels.

CARDINAL RULES

Piscotty is one of four players in camp this spring that went to Stanford. Tristan Beck, Erik Miller and Austin Slater are the others. Piscotty was a junior in 2012 when Slater was a freshman.

Graduated from Amador Valley High in Pleasanton where he was a four-year letterman in baseball and also played one year of varsity basketball. Piscotty was a team captain on the team as both a junior and senior. He was named the league's MVP as a senior.

Was selected by the Dodgers in the 45th round of the 2009 draft out of high school but did not sign and elected to attend Stanford.

Piscotty actually went to Stanford baseball games as a kid when his uncle would take him for his birthday.

DOWN ON THE FARM...

Spent three years on campus at Stanford from 2010-2012 where he was first-team All-Pac 10 in 2011 and 2012 as a sophomore and junior.

Piscotty started all 172 games during his career at Stanford and hit .340 with 132 career RBI. In 2011 he led the Cape Cod league in batting (.349).

Signed by San Francisco to a minor league contract on February 3, 2023.

454' LONGEST HR DISTANCE

Piscotty's 454' three-run home run off the Giants Dereck Rodríguez on August 16, 2020 at Oracle Park is his longest career homer.

111.6 MPH HARDEST BATTED BALL

Piscotty's 111.6 mph single on April 13, 2018 off Seattle's Mike Leake at Safeco Field is the hardest hit ball of his career.

111.1 MPH HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

Piscotty's 111.1 mph home run off the Giants Dereck Rodríguez on August 16, 2020 at Oracle Park is the hardest hit homer of his career.

ALS CURE PROJECT

Piscotty's mother, Gretchen, was diagnosed with ALS in May of 2017. After the season, Piscotty requested and was granted a trade to Oakland so that he could be closer to his mother as she fought the disease. Gretchen passed in May of 2018 and in 2019, Stephen and his father, Mike, founded the ALS Cure Project in honor of Gretchen with the sole purpose of finding a cure for ALS.

In 2020, the A's designated sections 106, 107 and 108 the ALS Cure Project Foul Zone. The sale of cardboard cutouts in the section helped raise $76,000 for the foundation. Each time a fan bought a cutout in those sections, a photo was taken and then given for Piscotty for him to sign. He signed over 1,200 photos in total. If a foul ball was "caught" (hit your cutout), he'd also sign the ball before it was mailed to the fan.

It was somewhat of a full-circle moment as Stephen and his younger brothers, who grew up A's fans, would run around the Coliseum as kids chasing after foul balls. Their family had season tickets in Section 220 and they'd take the foul balls home they did get and put them in a case. Stephen's younger brother, Austin, also ended up playing one season in the A's minor league system in 2018 after he was drafted out of St. Mary's earlier that year.

291 The number of games that Piscotty went without making an error in the outfield while playing with the A's from July 25, 2018 to his final game with the Athletics on August 14, 2022.

Piscotty and his wife, Carrie, have one child, Aiden, and make their offseason home in Danville.

Originally selected by the Tampa Bay Rays in the third round of the 2018 draft out of Rice University in Houston.

HOOT, HOOT

Played three seasons at Rice and burst on to the scene as a freshman, garnering Freshman All-America honors by Baseball America, among others, and was named the C-USA Freshman of the Year. As a junior, he was first-team C-USA after ranking among the league's best in hits (82), batting average (.346), home runs (eight), total bases (122), slugging (.515) and on-base percentage (.431).

KEEPING BUSY IN 2020...

During the Covid-19 shutdown in 2020, Proctor received permission to play for the Eastern Reyes del Tigre of the Constellation Energy League. That is the same team that 2021 Giant Scott Kazmir pitched on during the shutdown to begin reviving his career once again.

After playing in the Independent League, Proctor was added to the Rays 60-man player pool on September 9 and spent the rest of the year at the Alternate Training Site.

Following the season, Proctor then took off for Australia and played for Perth in the Australian Baseball League from the end of 2020 through January, 2021. He slashed .324/.452/.544 with four doubles, three homers and 17 RBI in 21 games for the Heat.

IT IS. OUTTA. HERE!

Proctor and his wife, Madison, were married this past December in Texas.

One of the members of Proctor's wedding party was Seaver Whalen, the younger brother of fellow NRI Brady Whalen. Seaver and Proctor were roommates together in the Rays minor league system.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by Minnesota in the 11th-round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Twins scout Rick Sellers.

Placed on the 10-day injured list on July 27, 2021 (left middle finger sprain)...transferred to the 60-day IL on September 18, 2021 and missed the remainder of the 2021 season.

Welcomed by San Diego on April 7, 2022 along with OF Brent Rooker and cash. RHP Chris Paddack, RHP Emilio Pagan, and a PTBNL went to Minnesota in return.

Welcomed by Milwaukee on August 1, 2022 along with RHP Dinelson Lamet, IF Esteury Ruiz and LHP Robert Gasser. LHP Josh Hader went to San Diego in return.

Signed by San Francisco to a three-year Major League contract on December 28, 2022.

Taylor graduated from Chatfield High School in Littleton, CO.

Taylor attended the University of Kentucky for three years from 2010-12, going 13-18 with a 5.35 ERA in 45 games (42 starts) for the Wildcats. He was an 11th-round pick of the Twins in 2012.

When Taylor received the call-up to the Major Leagues on April 13, 2016, he kept the exciting news to himself for more than three hours -- he was waiting until Tyler finished practice with the Richmond Flying Squirrels. Only after telling Tyler did he call his parents.

2022 SEASON

- Spent most of Spring Training with the Minnesota Twins before being traded to San Diego on April 7 along with OF Brent Rooker and cash considerations... RHP Chris Paddock, RHP Emilio Pagan and a PTBNL went to Minnesota in return.
- Posted a 0.44 ERA with 17 saves in 18 opportunities over his first 20 games of the season with San Diego (20.1ip, 1er).

- Acquired by Milwaukee on August 1 along with RHP Dinelson Lamet, LHP Robert Gasser and OF Esteyru Ruiz...LHP Josh Hader went to San Diego in return.
- Went 3-3 with three saves in six opportunities in 24 games with Milwaukee after the trade...posted a 5.48 ERA (14er, 23.0ip) in those games while striking out 36 batters in 23.0 innings.
- Left-handed batters went 1-for-21 with 13 strikeouts vs. Rogers during his time with Milwaukee.
- Posted an 11.8 K/9ip ratio in 2022, his best over a full season just slightly above his 11.7 K/9ip ratio during his All-Star season with Minnesota in 2019.
- His 31 saves between San Diego and Milwaukee were a career-best, narrowly beating out his 30 saves from 2019.

Taylor and Tyler Rogers are set to become the fourth set of twins to play for the same team (see below). The two are known as “mirror image” twins, which Scientific American says is an “unofficial phenomenon” affecting one-quarter of identical twins. Only some traits are mirrored; one twin might have a freckle on one cheek, while it’s on the opposite cheek on the other twin. In the case of the Rogers brothers, Taylor is left-handed and Tyler is right-handed.

With Tyler’s Major League debut in 2019, he and Taylor became the 10th set of twin brothers to both play in the Major Leagues and the seventh set to do so in the same season. The other nine are listed below:

- Jose Canseco (1985-2001) / Ozzie Canseco (1990-1993)
- Stan Cliburn (1980-1980) / Stu Cliburn (1984-1988)
- Marshall Edwards (1981-1983) / Mike Edwards (1977-1980)
- Ray Grimes (1920-1926) / Roy Grimes (1920-1920)
- George Hunter (1909-1910) / Bill Hunter (1912-1912)
- Bubber Jonnard (1920-1935) / Claude Jonnard (1921-1929)
- Damon Minor (2000-2004) / Ryan Minor (1998-2001)
- Eddie O’Brien (1953-1958) / Johnny O’Brien (1953-1959)
- Joe Shannon (1915-1915) / Red Shannon (1915-1926)

IT TAKES TWO TO TANGO

On April 11, 2022 vs. San Diego, Tyler & Taylor both made appearances, marking the second time in MLB history that two twin brothers pitched in the same game and the first time for opposing teams. The only other time it happened in MLB history prior to last season was on July 31, 1956 when Johnny & Eddie O’Brien, primarily position players for their careers, both pitched for Pittsburgh.

STICKING TOGETHER

According to Elias, Taylor and Tyler Rogers will be the fourth set of twins to play on the same team in Major League history. The last set of twins to do so were Jose and Ozzie Canseco, who both played for Oakland in 1990. The other two sets of twin teammates are: Eddie and Johnny O’Brien for the Pirates in 1953 and 1955-58 and Joe and Red Shannon for Boston in 1915.

Both brothers say they would have become firefighters had they not succeeded in baseball. There are four generations of firefighters in their family. Their father, Scott, a career firefighter for more than 30 years, was an Operations Chief in Lakewood, CO and recently retired this past offseason. Their great grandfather also served as did their great-great-grandfather, who emigrated from Ireland and traveled to Denver in a covered wagon

The brothers started the Rogers Family Foundation, dedicated to the mental wellness of first responders. “The military has done great job, bringing post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) to the forefront, letting people in the military know it’s okay to seek help,” Taylor said. “There’s a misconception that all firefighters do is go into burning buildings. That’s a small portion of what they actually do. The things they do affect their mental state.”

Born and raised in Littleton, CO, which is located nine miles south of Denver and 55 miles north of Colorado Springs. Littleton is the hometown of former San Francisco Giant Dave Dravecky.

Unlike his twin brother Taylor, who has a more traditional delivery for his pitches, Tyler is a submariner, with his knuckles barely staying off the ground as he delivers the ball to the plate. It was at Garden City Community College where he became a submarine pitcher. His coach at the time, Chris Finnegan, suggested Tyler try a submarine style motion.

LUCKY NO. 7

Spent seven seasons in the Giants' minor league system before getting his first call to the big leagues. A 10th-round pick in 2013, Rogers moved steadily through the system before reaching Triple-A for the first time in 2016. It took parts of four seasons and 179 appearances at the highest level of the minors before he finally earned his first taste of big league action in 2019.

177

The number of appearances Rogers has made since the start of the 2020 season, most in the Majors. The next closest reliever is RHP Scott Barlow, who has appeared in 72 games since the 2020 campaign.

SIXTY-EIGHT

After leading the National League in appearances in both 2020 and 2021, Rogers appeared in 68 games last season, still tied for sixth-most in the National League.

84.2

The average exit velocity of opposing hitter's balls in play off Rogers in 2022, second-lowest among qualified pitchers behind NYY's Jonathan Loáisiga (83.9 mph). Rogers' average exit velo last year was lower than his number from 2021 (85.4 mph).

Tyler and his wife, Jennifer, welcomed their first child, Jack Ryan Rogers, last April.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

WORLD SERIES
CHAMPION
2019 W/WSH

Was born just across the Bay in Berkeley, CA. The town was also the birthplace of famous actors Ben Affleck and Andy Samberg.

Is one of many players in camp that grew up in the greater Bay Area, joining Scott Alexander, Brandon Crawford, Mitch Haniger and Joc Pederson among others.

Was part of the 2019 World Series champions squad, starting Game 5 for the Nationals after Max Scherzer was scratched with neck spasms.

Threw 5.0 innings as a starter and allowed four runs on five hits with a strikeout in the spot start and also pitched in one other WS game.

Has undergone Tommy John surgery twice in his career. The first surgery came in 2017 and his second came last season after exiting a rehab start for Double-A Harrisburg early after feeling elbow pain. The second surgery was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles.

2021

Appeared in 20 games (19 starts) for Washington in 2021 but missed time because of right elbow inflammation.

2020

Opted out of the season due to COVID concerns. Ross' father is a pediatrician at Stanford Children's Hospital and his mother is an ER nurse in Oakland.

Older brother, Tyson, has appeared in 196 Major League games for Oakland (2010-12), San Diego (2013-16, 2018), Texas (2017), St. Louis (2018) and Detroit (2019). He also signed a minor league contract with SF on January 14, 2020 and was invited to camp that spring. He was assigned to the Giants Alternate Training Site, but just as his brother Joe, decided to opt out of the season.

Joined the Nationals as part of the three-team, 11-player deal that brought Trea Turner from San Diego and sent Wil Myers to the Padres in December of 2014.

Was originally drafted in the first round (25th overall) by the Padres in the 2011 draft.

Attended Bishop O'Dowd High School in Oakland, CA. Went 5-4 with a 0.92 ERA during his senior season. Has committed to playing baseball at UCLA before signing with the Padres in the 2011 Draft.

IS THERE A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE?

His father, Dr. Willie Ross, provided live-saving assistance at Oracle Park in 2021 while attending a Nationals game. He performed the Heimlich maneuver on a woman choking on a hot dog in the stands.

Joe's mother, Jean, noticed that the fan was having difficulty during the game. The fan, who was also a nurse, signaled she was okay but later when Willie walked over the woman couldn't talk and he jumped into action.

Born in Laguna Hills, CA, which is located in south Orange County in Southern California. It's a short 15-minute drive from Laguna Hills to Laguna Beach, the city of the hit MTV reality television show from that ran from 2004-2006.

Originally selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the seventh round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft out of USC.

Sabol attended Aliso Niguel High School in California where he had a .338 average with 11 home runs, 73 RBI and a .418 on-base percentage in 126 career games. In 2015, Sabol was rated as the No. 64 player in the nation in his class and seventh-best catcher by Perfect Game.

Won a gold medal at the Pan Am Games in Colombia with Team USA's U15 squad in 2013, hitting .409 in 11 games. Was teammates with the White Sox Andrew Vaughn and former first overall pick Mickey Moniak.

Also competed in the 2014 U17 Team USA National Team Development Program where he was the MVP. He was also a two-time trials participant for the U18 squad.

TROJAN HORSE

Attended USC and spent three years with the Trojans before being drafted. Sabol hit .268 with eight doubles, three triples, three homers and 22 RBI in 55 games as a junior.

ANOTHER TROY...

Sabol's second cousin is former USC Trojan and Pittsburgh Steeler Troy Polamalu. Blake's mom used to babysit Troy.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Sabol's father, Rob, played baseball during his college days at Long Beach State. Rob was an outfielder.

Sabol has two brothers, Stefan and Jarrett. Stefan was drafted by the Mets in the 2012 draft out of Oregon and played five years in the minors, mainly as an outfielder.

Stefan and Michael Lorenzen are the same age and Blake was a bat boy on Lorenzen's travel ball teams as a kid.

Blake and Lorenzen have worked out together in the offseason and Stefan credits him with helping him get acclimated to being around Major Leaguers.

Some of Sabol's other workout partners in the offseason have included Noah Syndergaard and Albert Pujols.

GOOD JUJU?

After Sabol signed in contract at PNC Park after being drafted by the Pirates in 2019, he went out to dinner with one of his best friends from college, NFL wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster.

Has been used as both a catcher and an outfielder since joining the professional ranks (something that he also did in college). He's caught 94 career minor league games while playing 77 in the outfield. He's played mostly in left field when playing the outfield.

SAMOAN ROOTS

Is half Samoan and told reporters in Scottsdale this spring he's hoping that he can catch Sean Manaia in a Major League game, which would make an all-Samoan battery.

Is planning to have his mom cook some authentic Samoan food for Manaia this spring since he never had it growing up in Indiana.

2022 SEASON

- Spent a majority of the season at Double-A Altoona in the Pirates organization before a late-season promotion to Triple-A Indianapolis.
- In 98 games with the Curve, Sabol slashed .281/.347/.486 with 23 doubles, five triples, 14 homers, 60 RBI, nine steals and an .833 OPS.
- Had only one down month offensively at the plate (June when he slashed .213/.286/.400) but otherwise enjoyed a solid campaign in Double-A...he slashed .278/.337/.494 in 20 July games before going .329/.364/.544 in 21 August games with Altoona before his promotion to Triple-A.
- Played mostly catcher with the Curve, appearing in 58 games there...also saw action in left field (nine games), right field (one game) and DH (29 games).
- His time defensively was more evenly split in Triple-A: eight games at catcher, 12 in left field and five at DH.
- Only caught 13.6 percent of basestealers between Double and Triple-A last year (9-of-66).
- After his promotion to Triple-A, Sabol put together a .296/.426/.543 slash line with nine extra-base hits, one steal and a .969 OPS in 25 games.
- Following the season he was selected by Cincinnati in the Major League phase of the Rule 5 draft on December 8...was acquired by San Francisco hours later.

AT SAN DIEGO STATE

Went to San Diego State University, where he hit .323 with four doubles and nine RBI in the shortened 2020 season as a junior. Was also a closer for the Aztecs, recording six saves in 16 games that year.

Received second-team All-Mountain West recognition in 2019 as a sophomore after finishing the season with a .315 batting average, five home runs, 36 RBI and a .415 OBP.

As a freshman, Schmitt became the first SDSU player since Stephen Strasburg in 2007 to be named a freshman first-team All-American by Baseball America after setting SDSU's single season earned run average record with a 0.28 mark (min. 30ip).

Enters the season having the best infield arm and bring named the best defensive infielder in the Giants system for the second consecutive year according to Baseball America. Schmitt was named a 2022 MiLB Gold Glove winner after committing 10 errors across three levels (High-A Eugene, Double-A Richmond and Triple-A Sacramento) (169 total chances).

Will be spending his first Spring Training in Major League camp in 2023.

Giants legend Will Clark had this to say about Schmitt last season. "He is a Gold Glove third baseman right now, without a shadow of a doubt. This boy can flat-out pick it, and he's starting to come around as far as offensively."

Took up surfing when he was younger but doesn't do it as much now.

Before attending and playing baseball collegiately at San Diego State, Schmitt used to go to their games when he was younger. He went to the games with his mom, who is also an SDSU alum.

DYK?

Schmitt says he modeled part of his game after former Giants IF Evan Longoria.

Spent summer 2020 during the Covid shutdown working out at home. He and his dad built a batting cage on the side of the house and his dad helped him work on groundballs.

2022 SEASON

- Began the year with High-A Eugene and hit .273 with 14 doubles, 17 homers and 59 RBI in 93 games with the Emeralds.
- His 17 homers were tied for third-most in the North-west League while his slugging percentage (.272) and OPS (.837) both ranked second.
- Earned a mid-season promotion to Double-A Richmond on August 10 and appeared in 29 games for the Flying Squirrels, hitting .342 with 10 doubles, three homers and 16 RBI.
- Was promoted to a Triple-A after Richmond's season ended and went 5-for-15 (.333) with a homer and three RBI in four games with the River Cats.
- Stood out for his impressive arm and was named 2022 MiLB Gold Glove winner after committing 10 errors across all levels (169 total chances).
- According to Baseball America, Schmitt has the best infield arm and is the best defensive infielder in the Giants system for the second consecutive year.

CONNECT FOUR

With Stripling beginning his professional career in the Dodgers organization, he's quite familiar with a few of his new Giants teammates from their times in Los Angeles. Farhan Zaidi was the GM of the Dodgers for most of Stripling's career there while Gabe Kapler was the organization's Director of Player Development from 2014-2017 when he was coming through the minor leagues.

Teams up again with lefty Alex Wood, who Stripling calls one of his best friends in baseball. Wood was in Stripling's wedding.

Also teams up with OF Joc Pederson. The two were roommates in 2013 when both were playing for the Double-A Chattanooga Lookouts.

Stripling and his dad attended Rangers Opening Day in 2004, which was Gabe Kapler's first career game with Texas after an offseason trade (Kapler homered twice). Stripling's dad told Ross it was Kapler's MLB debut and later in life when Ross was a prospect in the Dodgers system his dad told him he should tell Gabe when he meets him he was at his MLB debut. Stripling did but Kapler didn't correct him. It wasn't until this offseason when he was researching Kap he realized he'd made the mistake.

Stripling and his wife, Shelby, have one son, Jaxon. They are expecting their second son during Spring Training 2023.

Co-Hosted a weekly podcast called Big Swing Podcast from 2019 though mid-2021. He and his co-host, Cooper Surles, logged 130 episodes with 70+ guests during the run.

QUITE A GIG

Played college baseball at Texas A&M, where he starred for four seasons, going a combined 32-11 with a 3.10 ERA in 71 games (50 starts) before being taken by the Dodgers in the fifth round in 2012. His father, uncle, brother and grandfather all went to A&M as well.

A STANDOUT CAMPAIGN

As a junior in 2011, went 14-2 record with a 2.29 ERA. The 14 wins led the country and were third most for single season in Texas A&M history. Selected as an All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association/Rawlings (First Team), Collegiate Baseball (Third Team) and College Baseball Insider (Honorable Mention).

Was taken in the 9th round by Colorado following his junior year but returned for his senior season.

FEATHER IN THE CAP N' GOWN

On May 12, 2012, he threw the 11th no-hitter in school history, a 1-0 victory over San Diego State. He walked one and struck out seven in the 106-pitch effort. Stripling had been scheduled to participate in graduation ceremonies that day but pitched in the game because his coaches wanted to keep him on a regular rotation for the playoffs.

Attended Southlake Carroll HS where he only played one year of varsity baseball and didn't pitch until his senior year after a broken leg rendered him unable to play the infield. He went 14-0 with a 1.60 ERA.

Also lettered in basketball, where he was a forward, and football, where he was a wide receiver.

Stripling was a success in the classroom as well at Southlake Carroll, graduating 11th in his class of over 600 with summa cum laude distinction. He earned a prestigious President's Endowed Scholarship to A&M.

2022 SEASON

- Set career bests in wins (10), starts (24), innings pitched (134.1), WHIP (1.02) and ERA (3.01) in his second full season with the Blue Jays.
- In his 24 starts, Stripling went 9-4 with a 2.92 ERA, allowing 11 homers with 14 walks and 100 strikeouts... Toronto went 17-7 in those 24 games.
- Was 1-0 with a 4.09 ERA in eight relief appearances.
- Logged a 2.64 ERA (30er, 102.ip) in 19 starts after rejoining the rotation on June 6...his 2.64 ERA in that span was sixth-best in the AL in that span (min. 10gs) while his 6.83 K/BB was third-best and his 0.94 WHIP was fourth-best.
- Toronto went 15-4 over his 19 starts as a team after Stripling rejoined the rotation.
- Had one stint on the IL from July 31-August 17 with a right hip strain.
- Made his 100th career start (200th overall career appearance) on September 9 at Texas.
- Allowed three earned runs or fewer in 16 straight starts from June 16-September 14, one shy of the longest streak in Blue Jays franchise history.

▶ 2017 NYPL MID-SEASON ALL-STAR (HUDSON VALLEY)

▶ NYPL PITCHER OF THE WEEK (7/23/17 W/ HUDSON VALLEY)

Born in nearby Sunnyvale, 40 miles south of San Francisco down in the South Bay. Strotman went to high school in Cupertino, enrolling at Homestead High when he posted a 0.54 ERA while hitting .358 as a senior.

Originally selected by Tampa Bay in the fourth round of the 2017 draft out of nearby St. Mary's College.

YAY AREA

Stayed close to home for college, attending St. Mary's in Moraga where he played for three seasons. When he was taken by the Rays in the fourth round, he became the highest Gael selected in the MLB draft since 2012. As a junior, Strotman was 6-1-1 with a team-best 75 strikeouts. He earned All-WCC Honorable Mention as a junior.

Underwent season-ending Tommy John surgery on June 11, 2018 after making only nine starts for Low-A Bowling Green. The surgery was performed by Dr. Koco Eaton. Entering 2018, Strotman was rated as the #19 prospect in the Rays system according to Baseball America. He didn't pitch again until roughly a year later, July 11, 2019 with the GCL Rays.

2019

Returned to action after Tommy John surgery and made nine starts during the regular season. Played for Salt River in the Arizona Fall League following the season.

2020

Did not play in 2020 since the minor league season was canceled due to Covid-19. He was not a part of the Rays player pool but did participate in the Fall Instructional League.

2021

Began the season with Triple-A Durham and appeared in 13 games as a starter before being traded to Minnesota in the Nelson Cruz deal on July 22.

During the Covid shutdown he launched a review blog called BingeWorthy (bingeworthy.blog) to give his reviews on all the latest streamable shows & media.

His favorite TV show all-time is Friends, just like Giants IF Wilmer Flores.

As a child, Strotman attended golf camps at Deep Cliff Golf Course in Cupertino, CA. Later in life when he was older he went back to work the camps to help teach and monitor the campers.

When he was in college at St. Mary's he began to practice yoga with his teammates. As a group, they couldn't get through a class without laughing but it became something he took seriously on his own time.

It's now led him to a point where he likes to seek out local yoga clinics wherever he currently is.

2022 SEASON

- Began the year with Triple-A St. Paul in the Twins organization working exclusively out of the bullpen for the first time in his professional career.
- Was claimed off waivers by Texas from Minnesota on September 19.

► 2016 BASEBALL AMERICA ROOKIE ALL-STAR (KINGSPORT)

► SAL PITCHER OF THE WEEK (6/25/17 W/COLUMBIA)

Born in Toms River, NJ, which is near the span of 141 miles of oceanfront that is known as the Jersey Shore. Former MLB third baseman Todd Frazier grew up in Toms River and helped lead Toms River East to a LLWS in 1998.

Originally selected by the New York Mets in the fifth round of the 2015 draft out of Dwyer High School.

Szapucki and his family moved to Florida when he was 10 years old and the lefty graduated from Dwyer High School in Palm Beach, FL. He was committed to play collegiately at the University of Florida before signing with the Mets after being drafted out of high school.

Underwent Tommy John surgery on July 19, 2017 after making six starts with Low-A Columbia to start the season. Szapucki missed the rest of the 2017 season.

He also missed the entire 2018 season recovering from the surgery and did not pitch in game action again until 2019.

2019

RELIEF

After spending his entire pro career as a starter, Szapucki was transitioned to the bullpen at Triple-A Syracuse at the end of July 2022, just before being acquired by the Giants at the Trade Deadline. Born in Lawrenceville, GA, a suburb of Atlanta located 30 miles northeast of downtown. The city is the birthplace of hip hop group Migos and House of Cards actor Michael Kelly.

Was a Physical Education major at the University of West Alabama. Worked primarily as a starter and led the Gulf South Conference as a junior with 118 strikeouts.

Averaged 16.4 strikeouts per nine innings across 38 minor league appearances in 2022, the third-highest figure across all minor league levels (min. 40ip).

Was part of a combined no-hitter for High-A Eugene along with LHP Nick Swiney and RHP Nick Avila on May 1, 2022, in Eugene's 3-0 shutout over Tri-City (Angels Affiliate).

Spent the canceled minor-league season in 2020 at Full Count Baseball, a facility in his home state of Georgia. He returned from the pandemic with a fastball that sat in the upper-90s and reached 100 mph.

In 13 appearances between Rookie-ACL Giants Orange and Low-A San Jose in 2021, Waites struck out 66% of the hitters he faced (31 strikeouts, 47 batters faced).

Was born in Dallas, TX, which is home to several professional teams that bear the name of the city, including NBA's Mavericks, NFL's Cowboys, NHL's Stars and MLS' FC Dallas.

Was originally selected by Seattle in the fifth round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of Oklahoma State University.

IT'S DONOVAN...

Walton was named after his Grandma Glover's father and it always bothered her when they wrote "Donnie" in the newspaper starting in high school. He then changed his official name from Donnie to Donovan to make her happy.

COWBOY UP

Attended Oklahoma State University and was on the College Baseball Hall of Fame Brooks Wallace Shortstop of the Year Award Watch List as a sophomore. Hit .337 with 44 RBI and a .428 OBP as a senior and helped lead the Cowboys to the 2016 College World Series.

Walton became the only OSU player and one of only 10 in conference history to earn All-Big 12 First Team honors three times in a career.

His father, Rob, has been the OSU pitching coach for over a decade following a standout career for the Cowboys.

Growing up, Walton's favorite player was the switch-hitting Braves third baseman, Chipper Jones. Like Jones, Donovan was a switch hitter. He began when he was 7 years old and continued through the first season of his professional career with the Mariners. Now, he exclusively bats left-handed.

Made his MLB debut on September 10, 2019 and the first thing he did was call his dad and tell him, "We did it".

14

Hit his first career grand slam (3rd career homer overall) on June 5, 2022 at Miami (off Braxton Garrett). In doing so, he became the 14th player in the SF-era to hit a grand slam for his first homer with the club.

A FATHER-SON MOMENT

Made his pitching debut on June 3, 2022, an emotional moment for Donovan. His father, Rob Walton, was an pitching prospect whose dream to pitch in the Majors was cut short just before he was to be promoted in 1988 by Baltimore. In the last game he was scheduled to pitch in the minors before he was promised his debut, Rob tore his rotator cuff and never pitched again.

Donovan told the Chronicle that he called his dad once the game was over. "He was laughing. He said I made him look bad as a pitching coach".

Became the youngest Giant to start a winner-take-all postseason game at 24 years, 330 days old when he started Game 5 of the 2021 NLDS.

TWENTY-FOUR

Number of consecutive starts Webb went without taking a loss from May 11, 2021 until April 19, 2022 (including two NLDS starts). The streak set a franchise record, breaking the mark of 22 set by Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell from 1936 through 1937.

STANDING O

The Giants won 18 consecutive regular-season home games that Webb started from September 8, 2020-May 24, 2022. The 18 games run matched Atlee Hammaker's stretch (18, 1982-83) for the longest by any Giant in the modern era. The streak was snapped on June 9, 2022 with SF's 4-2 loss to the Rockies.

Webb was committed to play collegiately at Cal Poly before signing with the Giants after being drafted in 2014.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by San Francisco in the fourth round of the 2014 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Keith Snider.

Placed on the restricted list from May 1-July 28, 2019 (80-game suspension).

Placed on the injured list from April 18-20, 2021 (medical reasons).

Placed on the 10-day injured list from May 20 (retro to May 18)-May 29, 2021 (right shoulder strain).

Placed on the 10-day injured list from June 3 (retro to May 31)-July 9, 2021 (right shoulder strain).

Placed on the 15-day injured list from October 2-6, 2022 (low back strain).

Grew up in Rocklin, CA, which is located in Placer County approximately 22 miles from Sacramento.

Grew up going to both A's and Giants games but mostly A's because his father was a fan. Logan's favorite A's: Tim Hudson, Bobby Crosby and Stephen Vogt (who would catch him in his major league debut with the Giants).

Threw for 3,767 yards with 47 touchdowns and 18 interceptions in his football career at Rocklin (CA) High School. Was the starting quarterback his junior and senior seasons.

Married Sharidan Morales on December 5, 2021 in Sacramento, CA.

He is considered legally blind because of astigmatism, which causes blurred vision. Diagnosed in 3rd or 4th grade when he was having a hard time seeing the ball. Wore glasses until age 11 or 12, which made football difficult, then switched to contacts. He still usually wears glasses when he's not playing ball but only at night.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in June of 2016 and returned a season later in 2017.

His dad Erik played one season on the Serra High baseball team in San Mateo with Barry Bonds.

After having a breakout season in 2021, he was commonly referred to as "Baby Ace".

2019 SEASON

2019 was a roller-coaster ride. It began with an 80-game suspension for PEDs while playing for Double-A Richmond. When he returned, he made stops at every level from Arizona rookie to Low A, Double A, a single start in Triple A, then his Major League debut on August 17 in Phoenix. He became the youngest Giants pitcher to make his debut as a starter since then 20-year-old Madison Bumgarner in September 2009.

MESS WITH THE BULL AND...

He drinks three Red Bulls before every start. One right before he gets to the field, one before he starts stretching with the trainer, and then one as he finishes his warm-up pitches in the bullpen.

Roots for the Sacramento Kings and Oakland Raiders.

QUITE A RUN

Held opponents to two runs or fewer in 14 consecutive outings between May 11-September 2, 2021. In doing so, he became the first Giant in over a century to boast such a streak since Ferdie Schupp went 16 consecutive starts allowing two runs or fewer between 1916-1917. Only 12 other players in the modern era (since 1901) had a streak of at least 14 such games. See chart below for the full list since 1901

Clubbed his first career homer on the final day of the 2021 regular season, October 3, against the San Diego Padres off Nabil Crismatt. Webb earned the win that day as the Giants clinched the NL West Division title.

According to KCRA news in Sacramento, many fans and friends of Webb packed into CJ's Pizza Bar & Grill in Rocklin to watch Webb start Game 1 of the 2021 NLDS. The eatery is said to hold a special place in the hearts of Webb and his family.

Webb told The Athletic that the day after the 2021 regular season finale he drove back to Rocklin, put on a Maxx Crosby jersey and invited some of his friends over to watch Monday Night Football. His friends tried to talk to him about his upcoming playoff starts but all he wanted to talk about was a high school football game they all played when Webb was the quarterback.

ELEVEN

Webb turned in a 11-game winning streak from May 11, 2021 through April 13, 2022. The last Giant to win 11 consecutive decisions was Jason Schmidt, who won 12 straight from April 26-July 17, 2004.

Webb's favorite snack food are Cheez It crackers.

2022 SEASON

- Made his first career Opening Day start on April 7 vs. Miami. At 25 years and 141 days old, became the youngest Opening Day starter since Madison Bumgarner in 2014 (24 years, 242 days).
- Following up on a breakout 2021 campaign, set career bests in wins (15), games started (32), innings pitched (192.1), ERA (2.90), quality starts (19) and strikeouts (163).
- His 192.1 innings, 32 starts and 15 wins were all tops on the team.
- With his 15 victories, Webb became the eighth Giants righty 25 years or younger to win at least 15 games in a season in the SF-era (1958-present)...he joined Juan Marichal (1962, 1963), Russ Ortiz (1999), Tim Lincecum (2008, 2009), Liván Hernández (2000) and John Montefusco (1975) (Stats, LLC).
- Finished among the NL leaders in wins (15, T-5th), ERA (2.90, 7th), innings pitched (192.1, 7th) and winning percentage (.625, T-8th)...his 32 starts were tied for fifth-most in the Majors.
- Owned a 56.8% groundball percentage, second-best in the Majors among qualified starters (best in the NL), trailing only Houston's Framber Velez (67.3%).
- His 0.51 homers/9.0ip ratio was fourth-best in the Majors behind STL's Jose Quintana (0.43), HOU's Framber Valdez (0.49) and TEX's Martin Perez (0.50)
- Went 9-6 with a 2.91 ERA (32er, 99.0ip) at home in 17 starts, with the Giants as a team going 11-6 in his home outings.
- Two of those six losses came at the hands of the Dodgers. In those games, Webb allowed 10 runs on 15 hits in 9.0 innings (10.00 ERA)...Webb's home ERA against everyone else was 2.20 (22er, 90.0ip).
- His 3.02 ERA in his first 37 Oracle Park starts is third-lowest by any pitcher since Oracle opened in 2000 through their first 37 regular season starts. Only Jason Schmidt (2.53 ERA) and Madison Bumgarner (2.97) had lower ERAs in their first 37 career starts at Oracle.
- Webb went 24 consecutive starts without a loss (including two NLDS starts), a streak that came to an end on April 19 at the Mets in Game 2 of a doubleheader...the loss was his first since May 5, 2021.
- The 24 starts without taking a loss in his previous (including the postseason) set a franchise record, breaking the mark of 22 set by Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell from 1936 through 1937.
- On May 30 at Philadelphia he allowed multiple homers in a start for the first time since the second game of his Major League career...he had gone 52 starts without surrendering multiple homers, marking the then longest active streak in the Majors among starters and the longest by a Giant since Tim Lincecum went 67 straight from 2008 through 2010.
- Entered his start June 9 with a streak of 18 consecutive home starts with a team win, tied with Atlee Hammaker (18, 1982-83) for the longest by any Giant in the modern era.
- Since the start of 2021, the Giants as a team are 39-19 (.672) when Webb takes the ball in a starting capacity in the regular season...the .672 team winning percentage ranks third-best in the Majors at that time (min. 45gs) behind Julio Urias (47-16, .746) and Max Scherzer (36-17, .679) according to Stats, LLC...Webb in that stretch is 26-12 with a 2.97 ERA (112er, 339.2ip).

Was born in Coral Springs, FL, a city in Broward County approximately 20 miles northwest of Fort Lauderdale. The city is the current training home of the Florida Panthers NHL team.

Originally selected by Colorado in the fourth round of the 2016 draft out of high school. Was committed to play at Miami before signing with Colorado.

Graduated from Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, FL, the same institution as Major Leaguers Anthony Rizzo and Jesus Luzardo. Led MSD to a state championship in 2016.

He lost his father, Dale, to cancer when he was just 10 years old. In honor of his father, Welker has written M-P-P—or Make Pop Proud—on the infield dirt since high school. He also has the acronym tattooed on his chest. His father, Dale Welker, was a well-respected professional golfer.

His mother took on the role of his training partner, driving him to practices and hitting deep tennis ball after deep tennis ball with her racket so he could field them.

PARKLAND STRONG

Welker, a graduate from Stoneman Douglas, had left the school just two years prior to the tragic shooting that took the lives of 17 people. He was wrapping up practice at Talking Stick when he received a text message from his friend, "I was in shock. Total disbelief".

Welker knew name after name on the list of victims. He was friends with athletic director Chris Hixon and football coach Aaron Feis, both of whom died in the shooting. Feis, who was killed while throwing himself in front of students to protect them, was a security guard at the school and let Welker into the building each day.

As a middle school student in Parkland, Walker rode the bus to school for three years with Nikolas Cruz, the gunman who confessed to the killings. Upon learning the news, he called both of high school coaches, Eagles head coach Todd Fitzgerald and assistant David Taylor who also served as a security guard at the school. "They were at the scene still and were telling me the rundown of what actually happened".

On February 23, 2018, all Major League teams wore Stoneman Douglas caps for their Spring Training contests to honor the 17 victims. Welker brought his own. The last time he'd worn that, Welker was celebrating a state championship with his teammates "The last time I wore this hat I was over there playing baseball. That's what got me here, so it meant a lot to me".

Welker and Jesús Luzardo, his high school teammate, have held a baseball camp for kids annually since the tragedy. Major Leaguers Jonathan India, A.J. Puk, Sandy Alcántara, Lewis Brinson and Miguel Rojas are among some of the players that have joined the camp that intends to restore the Parkland community. "Baseball is something I can use to help people, and maybe represent the school and lift people up even more",

TOUGH RUN

Welker was a part of the Rockies 60-man player pool in 2020 but did not appear in any games. In 2021, Welker only played in 52 combined games because he was suspended 80 games for violating MLB's Drug Prevention & Treatment Program. In 2022, he only played in 10 games before undergoing season-ending shoulder surgery in June.

PATH TO SF

Welker was DFA'ed by Colorado in July of 2022 after his shoulder surgery and claimed off waivers by the Giants. He was on the Giants 40-man last season, outrighted in the offseason and then re-signed with SF on a minor league deal.

Welker actually made his MLB debut against the Giants on Sept. 8, 2021 with Colorado.

Welker still does occasionally play golf, shooting around a 79, but primarily sticks to baseball.

2022 SEASON

- Only appeared in 10 games for Triple-A Albuquerque as he lost most of the season after undergoing left shoulder surgery to repair an impingement in the labrum.
- Spent two days on the Major League roster from April 17-19 but did not appear in any games with the Rockies.

Was born in Vancouver, WA, a city on the north bank of the Columbia River. The city is characterized by border economics with neighboring Portland, Oregon. Because the state of Oregon has no sales tax but one of the highest state income taxes, many Vancouver residents prefer to shop in neighboring Portland where they do not pay sales taxes, then live and work in Vancouver where they do not pay state income tax. For the same reasons, the city is popular with retirees.

Attended Union High School in Camas, WA, and was teammates with fellow NRI Clint Coulter.

Had committed to play collegiately with the University of Oregon and but opted for professional baseball, arguing that baseball would eventually pay for his college should pro ball not work out for him.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

His father, Shawn, is a Milwaukee Brewers area scout and played four seasons in the Padres organization. Shawn, a 15th-round pick of the Padres in 1989, was organizing Brady's graduation party while working in the 2016 draft with the Brewers.

Brady expected to go in the first 10 rounds, an indicative that his decision to play professionally over attending Oregon would be the right choice. Disappointed that his name was not called on the first day, he attended his high school graduation ceremony, and then his all-night party before coming home the next morning.

Brady got about an hour of sleep before his phone alerted him that the Cardinals were on the line. He was told they were about to draft him. "My whole family watched my name being called on TV," Whalen told The Columbian. "Just a great experience."

Brady's older brother, Caleb, was a senior at University of Portland. The day following Brady's selection, Caleb discovered he himself had been drafted by Milwaukee in the 38th round - from none other than his father. Brewers scouting director Ray Montgomery asked Shawn to make the announcement on MLB's conference call. "Boy, that was really emotional," Shawn Whalen said. "But a real thrill for a dad and a scout to be able to do such a thing for one of their kids."

Caleb was an outfielder and spent two seasons in the Brewers organization. The week had been extra special for Shawn, who had been battling thyroid cancer for the two years that preceded his sons' draft. "Surreal," Shawn Whalen said. "I can't put it into words without getting emotional."

His younger brother, Seaver, is a Loyola Marymount grad who also spent one season at Santa Clara University. Seaver was drafted by the Tampa Bay Rays in the 32nd round of the 2017 draft and spent three seasons in the Rays minor league system. Seaver was in fellow NRI Ford Proctor's wedding this past offseason as the two were roommates in the minors together in the Rays system.

Attended the University of Georgia where he was named second team All-SEC in 2012 after going 7-3 with a 2.73 ERA in 16 games (15 starts). The 2.73 ERA was the best by a Bulldog starter since 1989.

Was originally signed by Braves scout Brian Bridges. Bridges is now one of the Giants National Cross Checkers under Senior Director of Amateur Scouting Michael Holmes.

He and his wife, Suzanna, make their offseason home in Georgia. The couple welcomed their first child, a son named Asa Francisco, on September 21, 2022.

When he was a freshman at Georgia, he lived a few doors down from future NFL wide receiver AJ Green.

Describes himself as a superstitious person but has gotten better in recent years. However, he has never, ever intentionally stepped on the foul lines on a baseball diamond.

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

► 2013 NYP MID-SEASON ALL-STAR (W/ ABERDEEN)

Born in San Diego, CA, the second largest city in California and eighth most populous city in the United States. The city, which was part of the Mexican Empire, is home to the busiest single-runway airport in the world.

Originally selected by Baltimore in the 10th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

Went to Poway High School, and was teammates with former Giants Alex Dickerson and Connor Joe. Hit .390 with five home runs and 37 RBI as a senior, earning first-team All-CIF and Palomar League Player of the Year honors.

Poway High is also the high school that former Giants skipper Bruce Bochy's son, Brett, attended. Brett was a few years ahead of Austin, though.

Attended Fresno State University, where he was teammates with Aaron Judge. Was named to the Mountain West Academic All-Conference team as a senior after finishing the season with a .279 batting average and .992 fielding percentage for the Bulldogs.

WYNNTER BALL

Played winter ball for three years, spending the 2016 and 2017 campaigns with Dominican League Los Toros Del Este and playing for the Leones Del Escogido in 2019. Hit .234 across the three seasons, collecting a homer and 13 RBI. Also played for the Peoria Javelinas of the Arizona Fall League in 2016. Hit .300 with a .404 OBP in 12 games for the Javelinas.

Has known Giants hitting coach Justin Vele over a decade, and the two played together in the Baltimore Orioles system in 2014 a High-A Frederick.

Wynns was taken four rounds before the Orioles took teammate Mike Yastrzemski in 2013.

Made his Major League debut on May 5, 2018 with Baltimore. Played the Mets and recorded a single in his first ML at-bat.

Teammate Alex Cobb was his pitcher when he made his debut at Citi Field

Wynns also goes by his nickname, Winnie.

For Players Weekend in 2018, Wynns had a special pair of cleats with Pooh Bear eating honey on the front, honey on the side and a quote from Christopher Robin on the other shoe.

Hit his first home run two days after his Major League debut in just his second ML game (at Toronto off Tyler Clippard).

Had signed with the Toros de Tijuana of the Mexican League on October 26, 2021, but signed a minor league contract with the Phillies just five months later.

73

The number of home runs Yastrzemski has through his first 448 games in the Majors since debuting in 2019. The last Giant with more than 73 homers in their first 448 games with the team was Matt Williams, who hit 76 in his contests from 1987-1991.

GRAND FINALE

Hit his second career grand slam on July 15, 2022 vs. Milwaukee's Josh Hader in the 9th inning. The walk-off blast to center field gave the Giants an 8-5 victory in a game they had trailed 5-2 entering the 9th inning. Yaz became the first Giant to hit a walk-off grand slam since Bobby Bonds did it on September 3, 1973 vs. the Dodgers.

His father, Carl Michael (who also went by Mike), was a third-round pick by the Braves in 1984 and played in the minors from 1984-88, reaching as high as Triple-A in the White Sox organization. His father passed away in 2004.

Also received the 2020 Bill Rigney "Good Guy" award from the Bay Area chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The "Good Guy" award is presented annually to A's and Giants players who show extraordinary cooperation with the media.

IT'S ABOUT TIME...

Made his Major League debut May 25, 2019 after 703 games and 2,600 at bats in the minors and riding more 200,000 miles on buses. He spent four long years in Triple-A, always seemingly on the verge of making the big leagues.

SINGLE DIGIT FUN

He was offered No. 8 – his grandfather's number for 23 seasons with the Red Sox – but chose No. 5 instead when he was called up to San Francisco.

Posted an .852 OPS and hit 21 homers during his rookie season with SF in 2019. The only other Giant rookie in the SF era (1958-present) to post an .850 OPS and hit at least 20 homers was Orlando Cepeda in 1958.

Became the fifth player in the live-ball era to make his Major League debut in May or later and end up leading his team in homers that season. Yaz was tied for the team lead in homers (21) with Kevin Pillar in 2019.

Clubbed three homers on August 16, 2019 at Arizona, becoming the second Giants rookie in franchise history with a three-homer game. OF Jarrett Parker had the other on September 26, 2015 at Oakland. Yastrzemski's three-homer game came in his 70th career MLB game. His grandfather Carl had one three-homer game in his entire career (May 19, 1976 at Detroit).

Hit 21 homers in 2019, becoming the first Giants rookie to hit 20 or more homers in a season since Dave Kingman hit 29 in 1972.

He hit a combined 33 homers between Triple-A Sacramento and the Giants in 2019. He'd never hit more than 15 in a year entering 2019.

VandyBoys

Played collegiately at Vandy and was roommates with former Giants Tyler Beede and Curt Casali during his time there. Also played with current Major Leaguers Dansby Swanson, Walker Buehler, Tony Kemp, Bryan Reynolds, Sonny Gray and teammate Sam Selman at Vanderbilt.

Graduated from Vanderbilt with a bachelor of sciences degree in crime and society.

YAZ AND THE MLB DRAFT

Selected in the 36th round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft by Boston but did not sign and elected to attend Vanderbilt...was also drafted after his junior season at Vanderbilt by Seattle (30th round, 2012) but returned to school.

Before the 2013 draft, a National League scout told the The New York Times that Yastrzemski "had outstanding makeup but would probably have to overachieve to reach the majors" because his power was limited.

Grandpa Carl, however, countered in the same story that he was 26 before he discovered his own power. "He'll learn to hit with power," he said. "Right now, the main thing is to hit for average and drive in runs.

Drafted by Baltimore in the 14th round in 2013 and signed. Didn't receive an invite to his first big league camp (with the Orioles) until 2019, when he was 28 years old. Traded to the Giants in March 2019 in exchange for minor league pitcher Tyler Herb.

Married his college sweetheart Paige Cahill on November 10, 2018 in Nashville, TN. The two welcomed their first child, Quinley Mae, on December 3, 2021.

His first concert was the Backstreet Boys when he was eight. He rode in a limo for the first time to the show.

Enjoys golfing in his spare time.

His favorite pizza topping is pepperoni.

TB12

Grew up a Patriots fan and his favorite non-baseball athlete is Tom Brady.

Works with Heart and Armor, a Bay Area organization, since 2021 to connect more deeply with veterans. Yastrzemski and the group had conversations about mental health, resilience, history and taking care of one another.

2022 SEASON

- Made his third career Opening Day roster with San Francisco and appeared in a career-high 148 games.
- Tested positive for Covid on April 24 prior to the game in Washington...felt symptoms the day before (sore throat) and when they persisted he got tested...was placed on the IL on April 25 and missed eight games before being reinstated from the IL on May 4.
- Hit .309 (34-for-110) with 23 runs, nine doubles, four homers, 15 RBI and a .909 OPS over his first 34 games of the season.
- Recorded a career-high five RBI on June 3 at Miami... went 2-for-5 with a double and a home run.
- On July 15 vs. Milwaukee's Josh Hader in the 9th inning, he hit his second career grand slam, a walk-off blast to center field that gave the Giants an 8-5 victory in a game they had trailed 5-2 entering the 9th inning... he became the first Giant to hit a walkout grand slam since Bobby Bonds did it on Sept. 3, 1973 vs. LAD.
- Had a 0-for-27 hitless streak from August 13-21 and hit just .074 (4-for-54) from August 13-31.
- Recorded his fourth career multi-homer game on August 7 at Oakland.
- Drove in 12 runs over his last 15 games while hitting .286 (16-for-56) with four doubles and five homers.
- Hit .261 (23-for-88) with 13 XBHs (8 2Bs, 3B, 4 HRs) in 26 games in September, up from .119 in 26 games in August.
- 36 of his 66 hits after June 1 went for extra bases (21 doubles, two triples and 13 homers).

Scottsdale Stadium

The 2020 campaign marked the opening of a new clubhouse and world class training facility at Scottsdale Stadium. Nestled in the heart of historic Old Town Scottsdale and surrounded by art galleries, restaurants and boutique shops, Scottsdale Stadium has become the home of not only the San Francisco Giants and the Arizona Fall League, but also of numerous special events, festivals, concerts, and parties. Designed by the architects of Camden Yards in Baltimore, the stadium is adorned with turn-of-the-century lamps, framed antique baseball gloves, and sidewalk bricks in the shape of home plate.

Headlining Phase 1 of the Scottsdale Stadium renovations was the new multi-story clubhouse and event center on the Osborn Road side of the ballpark. The 10,000 square-foot event facility is the largest in downtown Scottsdale and is used year-round by the Giants and the City of Scottsdale. The event space currently holds the team's dining room. The Giants also utilize the space if rain keeps them from working out outside.

The new clubhouse sits at the base of the three-story, 40,000 square foot building and includes 10 televisions, plenty of comfortable seating, and mood lighting that can be changed with a flick of a switch. In the back of the building is the first floor of the two-story world-class weight room and training facility, which has views of the back field at Scottsdale Stadium, where the Giants do workouts in the spring and hold simulated games. The second floor includes a float tank for players to recover. The third floor has a lounge for players to hang out and includes two decks overlooking the stadium.

From the fan side, there is now an expanded entrance to Scottsdale Stadium off Drinkwater Blvd that also includes a new box office. Fans also notice aesthetic changes to the ballpark in right field where there are new right field concourse bleachers with standing room decks as well as an expansion of the Charro Lodge in right field. The expanded Charro Lodge increases shade and capacity for Giants Spring Training games.

Ford C. Frick Award Winners

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

Mel Allen and Red Barber were the first two recipients in 1978. A single winner has been selected in each year following.

The annual Frick Award ballot is created by a subcommittee of the voting electorate. A new election cycle has been established starting with the 2017 Award, rotating annually between Major League Markets (team-specific announcers); National Voices (broadcasters whose contributions were realized on a national level); and Broadcasting Beginnings (early team voices and pioneers of baseball broadcasting). This cycle will repeat every three years.

The Frick Award Committee casts ballots during November, and the results are announced during the Baseball Winter Meetings in December. The Frick Award electorate is comprised of the living Frick Award recipients and four broadcast historians/columnists.

Voters are asked to base their selections on "Commitment to excellence, quality of broadcasting abilities, reverence within the game, popularity with fans, and recognition by peers." To be considered, an active or retired broadcaster must have a minimum of 10 years of continuous major league broadcast service with a ball club, network, or a combination of the two.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during Hall of Fame Weekend. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Frick Award winner in 1988.

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Pacific Bell Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. ## THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS ARE DEDICATED TO ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH INNOVATION AND EXCELLENCE ON AND OFF THE FIELD

In a collaborative effort, the Giants Community Fund, the club's 501(c)(3) non-profit, and the team's Community Relations Department, work to identify, develop, support and raise awareness for people, issues and programs that are important to our fans and communities throughout the Bay Area and Northern and Central California.

Each season, the Giants strive to serve our community by raising awareness for important causes, providing memorable experiences for our fans and inspiring the next generation of baseball and softball players. Here are some of our favorite moments from the 2022 season that celebrate the incredible people that make up the Giants Family.

CHILDHOOD CANCER AWARENESS

The Giants were joined by families, nurses and doctors from local Bay Area hospitals, cancer treatment centers and nonprofits who took the field along with players, kicked off the game with the ceremonial first pitch and were featured as honorary Play Ball Kids. Additionally, in lieu of traditional player photos on the scoreboard, Giants players were drawn by children who have faced a cancer diagnosis. Jalyne and Brandon Crawford teamed up with Tiny Turnip to provide special t-shirts for kids battling cancer who were at the game that night.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

The San Francisco Giants are determined to bring important conversations about mental health to the forefront in their work to end the stigma surrounding mental health. We believe that by supporting those around us, providing resources and openly discussing the value of healthy life habits, we can continue to prioritize mental wellness within the organization and for our community. In partnership with the Giants Mental Health team, the Giants raised awareness in May and in September for the importance of prioritizing mental health.

GIRLS NIGHT

The Giants hosted the annual Girls Night event that focused on the 50th Anniversary of Title IX, including a pregame panel discussion and announcing the winner of the Alexis T. Busch Award during a pregame ceremony. In recognition and remembrance of Alexis T. Busch, who served as the Giants bat girl in 2000 and 2001 and the first bat girl in MLB history, the award is presented annually to a woman in the Giants organization who has made a contribution to the advancement of girls and women in sports. The 2022 Alexis T. Busch Award winner was Alyssa Nakken. Before the game, the Giants invited women who are leaders in Bay Area sports, from athletes to coaches to executives, who have achieved great success while being difference-makers in their communities to participate in a pregame panel discussion.

GUN VIOLENCE PREVENTION

On June 3, National Gun Violence Awareness Day, the Giants wore an orange ribbon on their uniforms to honor those whose lives have been taken or forever changed by senseless and preventable gun violence. The Giants also teamed up with the Warriors, A's, 49ers, Sharks, Earthquakes and NBC Sports Bay Area to lend our collective voices to those who are impacted by gun violence each year. In addition to raising awareness, the Giants donated $50,000 to our longtime partner, Everytown for Gun Safety.

JUNIOR GIANTS

Junior Giants, the flagship program of the Giants Community Fund, is a free, noncompetitive, coed baseball and softball program for youth ages 5-18. Through the power of the game, youth are introduced to important life lessons so that they may be Giants on the field, in the classroom and in the community. In 2022, the Fund reached a new service record—reaching 30,000 youth across 80+ leagues and 70+ schools.

NIKE CITY CONNECT

The Giants in partnership with Nike created a unique themed jersey featuring the Golden Gate Bridge Towers peeking over the thick San Francisco fog. These jerseys represent the fusion of cultures, vibrancy from the City streets, having a dream and believing in yourself, and the impactful work in the diverse communities of San Francisco. City ConnectED highlighted the stories of perseverance, hard work, dedication, grit and drive. These stories define success as impact – on their community, on those less fortunate, on their friends, family and teammates. Each story is a piece of San Francisco.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff, are expected to give back to the community and our fans. Players and uniformed personnel do this through developing their own community programs or supporting existing programs in the form of appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and appearances. The front office staff supports many of the organization's community initiatives and actively volunteers their time throughout the year. The Giants also donated over 52,000 tickets through MLB's Community Commissioner's Initiative to organizations and community groups to bring people to games in 2022 who may not have had the opportunity to attend otherwise. In addition, autographed memorabilia was donated to hundreds of nonprofit organizations throughout Northern California to assist in fundraising efforts.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Each season, the Giants team up with community organizations to raise awareness for various causes. The Giants used TV and radio broadcast spots, social media posts and in-game assets to support these causes. Programs included: Alzheimer's Awareness, Salute to the Military, Pediatric Cancer Awareness, Until There's A Cure, Strike Out Violence Day, Mental Health Awareness, Lou Gehrig Day, Junior Giants Stretch Drive, Heritage Nights, Step Up to the Plate for Homelessness, and many others.
