2017-19	Baylor	Head Coach
2020-22	Carolina Panthers	Head Coach

Matt Rhule is in his third season as head coach of the Carolina Panthers after being named the fifth head coach in franchise history on January 8, 2020. Rhule has spent 24 years as a coach in the college and NFL ranks.

In his second season at the helm, Carolina earned a 5-12 record and saw vast improvements in a number of defensive categories. The unit finished second in the league in yards allowed per game (305.9), a category the defense ranked 18th (360.1) in 2020. The unit improved from 31st to ninth in third down conversions, 18th to fourth in passing defense, and 22nd to fourth in first downs allowed per game. Defensive end Brian Burns earned his first Pro Bowl selection and cornerback Stephon Gilmore was also named to the squad. Offensively, wide receiver DJ Moore became the third player in franchise history to produce three consecutive seasons with 1,000 receiving yards.

In his first season in Carolina, the Panthers posted a 5-11 record in 2020 and were competitive in nearly every contest, playing 11 games decided by eight points or fewer which tied for second-most in the NFL.

In 2020, the Panthers led the NFL with 15 fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead with three fumble recovery touchdowns. Offensively, Carolina became the fifth team in the Super Bowl era to have four different players (DJ Moore 1,215, Robby Anderson 1,111, Curtis Samuel 1,051 and Mike Davis 1,015) record over 1,000 scrimmage yards.

Rhule joined Carolina after three seasons (2017-19) as the head coach at Baylor University, where he helped rebuild the Baylor program, guiding the team from a 1-11 finish in his first season to a 7-6 record and a bowl berth in 2018 to an 11-3 record and appearance in the Big 12 Championship and the Sugar Bowl in 2019. Baylor's appearance in the Sugar Bowl was just the second-ever in school history, and under Rhule's leadership the Bears became the first Power 5 program to go from 11 losses (2017) to 11 wins (2019) within two seasons. Rhule was only the second coach in Baylor history to make bowl trips in two of his first three seasons.

Rhule went to Baylor after four seasons as head coach at Temple University. In his head coaching debut at Temple, (2013-16), Rhule took the Owls from a 2-10 mark in his first season to a 6-6 record in 2014 and two consecutive 10-win seasons in 2015 and 2016. He guided the Owls to the school's first-ever back-to-back 10-win seasons. Rhule led Temple to the 2016 AAC championship with a 34-10 victory over Navy in the title game and earned a bid to the Military Bowl. Rhule returned to Temple after coaching with the New York Giants under head coach Tom Coughlin in 2012.

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Rhule spent six seasons as an assistant at Temple under head coaches Al Golden and Steve Addazio.

From 2002-05, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. He also was part of the staffs at UCLA (2001), Buffalo (1999-2000) and Albright College (1998).

A native of New York City, Rhule played linebacker at Penn State from 1994-97. He holds a master's degree from Buffalo. Rhule and his wife Julie have three children, Bryant, Vivienne and Leona.

BECOME A MEMBER OF MVP!

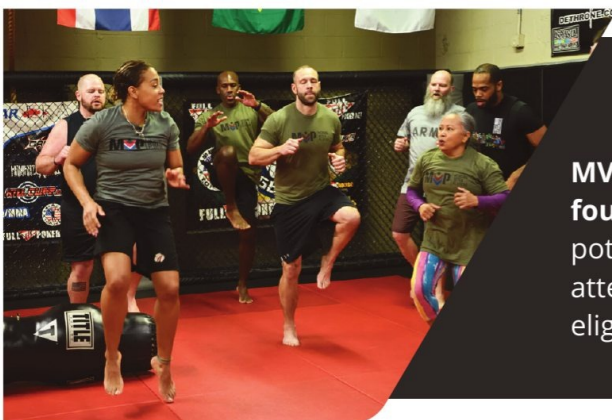

Merging Vets + Players empowers combat veterans and former professional athletes by connecting them after the uniform comes off; providing them with a new team to assist with transition, promote personal development, and show them they are never alone.

ABOUT MVP

Merging Vets and Players (MVP) is a free weekly program for combat veterans and former professional athletes who gather once a week to work physically and mentally as individuals and as a team. Sessions consist of a workout with modifications available and a post-workout chat called "The Huddle."

MVP is a community that empowers its members to lean on one another while navigating the labyrinth of transition once the uniform comes off after service or sport. In creating a new team, our members face the challenges head-on together rather than alone. By staying connected beyond the weekly sessions through various events, communication, and trusted resources, members experience an ecosystem of support.

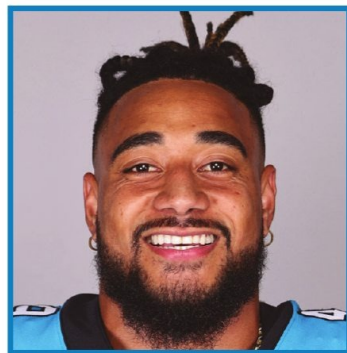

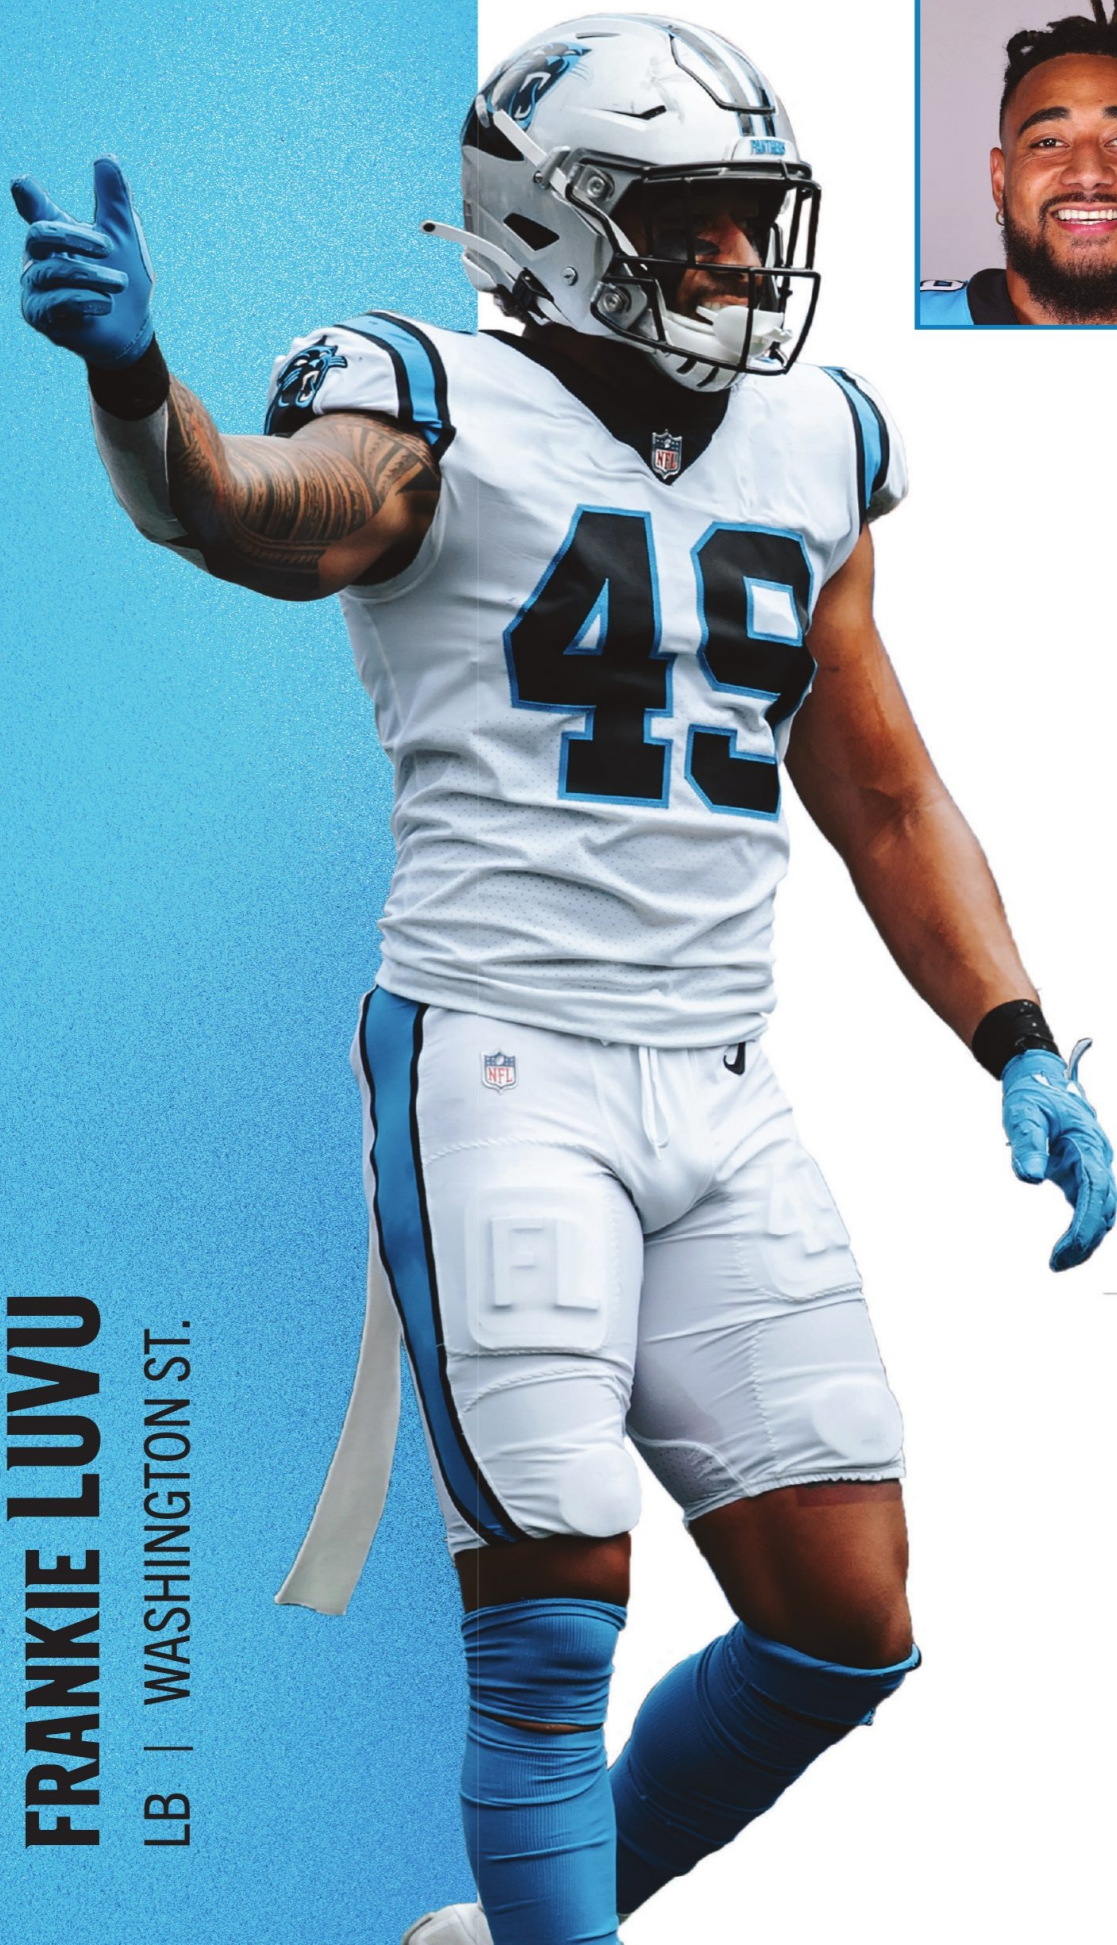

JOIN TODAY

MVP Chapter locations and times can be found online on our website. To participate, potential members MUST sign up online prior to attending program. For clarity on program eligibility visit: www.vetsandplayers.org/join
