Owner/Chairman

E. Stanley Kroenke

E. Stanley Kroenke's journey to bring professional football back to Los Angeles culminated on Jan. 12, 2016 when National Football League owners ratified his proposal to return the Rams to Southern California.

Eleven years after NFL owners unanimously approved Kroenke to assume sole ownership of the franchise in 2010, he celebrated the opening of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park – a 298-acre development with a 70,240-seat stadium as its crown jewel, which hosted Super Bowl LVI last February. The Rams culminate the stadium's first season with fans in attendance with world championship won in their home stadium, in their home city of Los Angeles.

The state-of-the-art stadium rises from nearly 100 feet below ground on the former site of the Hollywood Park Racetrack and serves as the home to the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. Additionally, the multi-purpose project serves as a West Coast campus for the National Football League, houses NFL Media's headquarters, features hosting capabilities for future Super Bowls, NFL Drafts, and Pro Bowls.

"I think what Stan has built here and done here, in his creativity with this whole development, this probably is going to redefine this area of Los Angeles for the next century," Chargers Owner/Chairman Dean Spanos told The Associated Press. "It's going to be something that L.A. is going to be very proud to have."

Equipped with decades of real estate development experience, a passion for sports and a one-of-a-kind vision, Kroenke orchestrated the Rams' return home by privately financing the construction of a world-class stadium befitting the culture and style of Los Angeles.

"Stan has the vision, resources, inspiration and creativity to create the right setting for the NFL in Los Angeles," said Dallas Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones. "I have great admiration for his talent and skills, and I have great confidence in his leadership ability in guiding our league back into this very important community. He sees the big picture, knows how to do things on the big stage, and he knows how to do what's best for the long term future. Stan Kroenke is a valuable asset to the National Football League."

In the months leading up to the opening of SoFi Stadium, Kroenke was named Los Angeles Business Journal's Business Person of the Year for 2020. The Rams' return to Los Angeles was named 2016's top sports moment at the 12th Annual L.A. Sports Awards.

DELIVERING A GLOBAL DESTINATION

In a marriage of sports, retail, commercial and residential development, Kroenke constructed a 3.1 million-square-foot stadium expandable up to 100,000 seats that will anchor an urban village, complete with a 6,000-seat performance venue called The YouTube Theater, 300 boutique hotel rooms, 2,500 modern residences, more than 1.5 million square feet of retail, office, conference and meeting space. More than 20 acres of public parks, open space, pedestrian walkways and bicycle paths will divide the district into thirds, offering residents and visitors a regional gathering place in the center of the Los Angeles basin.

"(The) project is uniquely tied to Kroenke's vision of where global sports and entertainment are heading and his zeal to be at the forefront," sports reporter Liz Clarke detailed in The Washington Post in 2019.

In addition to hosting NFL games, SoFi Stadium and the district at Hollywood Park will transform the area into a year-round sports and entertainment destination that will deliver an unparalleled experience for residents and visitors. Beyond Super Bowl LVI in 2022, the stadium has been awarded the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympics and the College Football Playoff National Championship and Wrestlemania in 2023.

"Los Angeles is a world-class city with a great record as sensational hosts to college football championships, Olympics, Super Bowls and other top events," said Bill Hancock, executive director of the College Football Playoff. "Of course, the new stadium will be spectacular."

"It's iconic," said Dallas Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones to the Los Angeles Times. "I've tried to run from the word. But this stadium, there was no way Stan was going to cut costs in any way that would compromise the overall, long-term sense of quality or value. It needs to be like Mt. Rushmore."

The NFL recently opened NFL Los Angeles, a 450,000 square foot Class A building with 214,063 square feet of office space and 74,922 square feet of studio and studio support space to serve as the home for NFL Network, NFL.com, NFL RedZone, the NFL app and many other department's supporting the league's media and business operations. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility features NFL Media's first outdoor studio which will be able to host audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use.

"As home to the Rams and Chargers, and now NFL Los Angeles, SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park will be an attraction for NFL fans year-round," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "Thanks to Stan's vision, we know Hollywood Park will be the place to be – not just for football, but for entertainment and events, for living and for working. We are excited for NFL Los Angeles to join this transformative project."

The NFL's largest stadium was designed to reflect the climate, characteristics and culture of Southern California, and to capitalize on the site's near-perfect weather, a transparent roof canopy covering 19 acres was developed. Under the lightweight roof made of ETFE, all sides of the building will remain open, allowing for a natural integration between the indoor and outdoor public spaces.

"That stadium is off the charts," said Al Michaels, the play-by-play voice for NBC's Sunday Night Football. "It's very different. It's very special."

Kroenke and project developers officially broke ground on SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park on Nov. 17, 2016.

E. Stanley Kroenke Continued

"It's amazing how much earth has been moved," said Jacksonville Jaguars Owner Shad Khan who also regarded the stadium as "the eight wonder of the world" in a piece written by ESPN. "It's going to be a phenomenal building," San Francisco 49ers CEO Jed York added to the story. "It's going to be the place that you need to see a game."

ENRICHING THE COMMUNITY

Within months of relocating to Southern California, Kroenke's Rams instituted their first local community improvement project in partnership with the Inglewood Unified School District as a continuation of the team's commitment to service.

"The (community improvement) project, being completed through a grant from the Rams, is a visible manifestation of Stan Kroenke, the NFL and the Rams organization to the school children of Inglewood," said Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts. "The Rams have shouted, 'Inglewood kids count,' and I salute them for their investment in the learning environment for our children."

Under Kroenke's leadership, philanthropic activities remain essential to the mission of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. Project developers are committed to positively impacting the Greater Los Angeles Region and the City of Inglewood through world-class entertainment, outreach activities, the creation of new jobs, and local revenues.

"In shifting the center of gravity of West Coast sports to Inglewood, Kroenke has elevated the profile of the community and seeded the area with opportunity for years to come," added Farmer. "A project of this magnitude changes the landscape both literally and economically."

In partnership with the City of Inglewood, Kroenke committed to a 100 percent union job site with priority given to residents of Inglewood and designated local zip codes. Since breaking ground in 2016, more than 17,000 people worked on-site to help construct SoFi Stadium. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal has been established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. At the completion of the stadium construction in Summer of 2020, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $750 million in construction contracts and local area residents have received more than $93 million in wages.

As a whole, the City of Inglewood's general fund is expected to receive tens of millions in annual revenue from SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. According to initial estimates, the city is projected to receive $13 million in sales tax revenue during construction from equipment and materials purchased alone. Inglewood will also benefit through other avenues such as ticket taxes, sales tax from retail operations, property taxes and a hotel occupancy tax. These funds will help balance the city's budget, improve and expand city services and infrastructure, enhance public safety and maintain open green space. Revenues from Kroenke's entertainment district will also fund new after-school sports programs among other after-school activities for Inglewood's youth.

In recognition of their leadership in giving back to the greater Los Angeles region, Kroenke's Rams were honored in 2019 by both the Anti-Defamation League Los Angeles with their Corporate Leadership Award and by Make-A-Wish Tri-Counties as The Wish Champion Award.

AN INTERNATIONAL SPORTS LEADER

Regarded as one of the world's leading sports proprietors, Kroenke's teams have won titles in the NFL, NHL, MLS, and the National Lacrosse League. Kroenke's sports holdings include Arsenal FC (Barclays English Premier League), which won its 13th FA Cup in 2017. From 2000-2014, Kroenke owned the NBA's Denver Nuggets and the NHL's Colorado Avalanche, which are now a part of a family trust. Kroenke's Denver-based company, Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE), owns the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer and the Colorado Mammoth of the National Lacrosse League. Kroenke also owns Altitude Sports & Entertainment, which produces Rams preseason games.

"It is evident that Stan knows how to achieve success in the sports world," Rams General Manager Les Snead said. "His teams have won championships in five different sports and he has experience in building a contender. The success we have experienced through the NFL Draft and free agency, would not have been possible without Stan's support and his willingness to take risks to build our team."

On Jan. 12, 2017, Kroenke hired Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history – to lead the Rams. McVay's 33 wins in his first three years is the franchise's most wins since the 1974-76 seasons, and his record through the first four seasons (43-21 in 64 regular season games) of his coaching tenure is amongst the best start of all head coaches hired since 2000.

Since onboarding McVay, the Rams have appeared in two Super Bowls with one world championship, and five consecutive winning seasons. McVay became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl at the age of 36 and the youngest head coach to win AP Coach of the Year at 31 in 2018. The Rams' 62 wins under McVay (including playoffs) are second to only the Chiefs since 2017. He is the second-fastest coach in franchise history to reach the 50-win mark.

According to The New York Times, 1997 was the first season to allow NFL owners to own cross-sport franchises. Among current NFL ownership, only two have had three teams win a playoff game/series in the same year in North America. Kroenke was the latest to accomplish the feat as the Avalanche and Nuggets also made remarkable playoff runs during the 2018-19 season. Both the Avalanche and Nuggets secured first-round playoff wins, and Los Angeles advanced to the club's fourth Super Bowl (2018-19 season). The late Paul Allen's Seattle Seahawks (NFL), Portland Trail Blazers (NBA) and Seattle Sounders FC (MLS) previously did so in 2014.

"Mr. Kroenke is committed to building sustainable, winning teams," McVay said. "We're excited to continue that journey as we welcome our fans into our new home in Inglewood."

Kroenke currently serves on the NFL's Broadcast Committee. He has worked on multiple league committees, including the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee. Kroenke also worked alongside his fellow owners to reach a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players Association in 2011.

E. Stanley Kroenke, named after baseball legends Enos Slaughter and Stan Musial, was born in Cole Camp, Mo., and grew up in Mora, Mo. Kroenke and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh, Vice Chairman of KSE and KSE UK. In 2017, Kroenke and Josh became owners of two eSports franchises – the Los Angeles Gladiators of the Overwatch League and the Los Angeles Guerrillas of the Call of Duty League.

Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and he is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (2009 Enshrinement Class).

Los Angeles Rams

Executive Staff Bios

Chief Operating Officer

Kevin Demoff

College: Dartmouth

NFL Year: 18

Rams Year: 14

Kevin Demoff is in his 14th year as Chief Operating Officer with the Rams. In this capacity, Demoff serves as the team's top front office executive and liaison to owner and chairman, Stan Kroenke, on all organizational matters.

After serving on the working group that helped Kroenke return the Rams – Los Angeles' original professional sports team – home to L.A., Demoff is playing a significant role in delivering on Kroenke's vision to design and construct Hollywood Park, the 298-acre sports and entertainment district in Inglewood that features SoFi Stadium, the home of the Rams. Beyond the stadium, the campus includes the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater, an office complex that is the home of the NFL's West Coast headquarters, a retail district that is under development, and is currently the largest entitled real-estate project in Southern California.

Demoff, working with General Manager Les Snead and Head Coach Sean McVay, helped deliver on Kroenke's promise of bringing a Super Bowl Championship to Los Angeles, with the Rams making history and topping the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 at SoFi Stadium. Not only were the 2021 Rams only the second team in 56 years to play in (and win) the Super Bowl in their home stadium, but the Rams were the first team in NFL history to host the AFC or NFC Championship in the same stadium where the Super Bowl would also be played.

Immediately on the heels of the National Football League's historic return to Los Angeles in 2016, Demoff and the Rams helped lead a regional effort to bring the Super Bowl to SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. Since winning the bid, the goal of the Super Bowl Host Committee was to utilize the spotlight of the NFL and the Super Bowl to create lasting social and economic impact on communities across Los Angeles. The Business Connect program engaged 225 local, diverse-owned companies and brought them contracting opportunities, professional development training and networking events. Not only was the program successful in its inaugural year, Business Connect will continue to be used across the decade in partnership with other high-profile events that are coming to the region, many of which are due to Kroenke's commitment to build SoFi Stadium. Demoff and the Rams have also joined forces with the LA24 Olympic Bid Committee, chaired by Casey Wasserman, to help deliver the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games to Los Angeles. In addition, SoFi Stadium will host the College Football Playoff final and Wrestlemania in 2023.

As part of the Super Bowl Host Committee's Legacy Program, Champions Live Here, more than $800,000 in grants were awarded to 56 local, non-profit organizations who are making a direct impact on their communities. In addition, Micronomics projected in 2021 that Super Bowl LVI would have an economic impact up to $477 million across the greater Los Angeles region.

Beyond the impact of Super Bowl and other major events that will now be hosted in LA and Inglewood, the Hollywood Park development is expected to generate hundreds of millions in new annual economic activity across the region. During construction, there were upwards of 3,500 construction workers on-site daily, with Inglewood residents given priority placement, and more than 17,000 workers stepped on the stadium site since it broke ground in November 2016. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal for construction was established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. During construction, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $754 million in construction contracts and local area residents earned more than $129 million in wages. In addition, in partnership with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition (ARC) and 2nd Call, more than 100 union workers who were previously incarcerated found employment opportunities during the construction of SoFi Stadium. Once fully operating, the stadium and retail components together are expected to generate thousands of additional jobs with long-term regional benefits.

In Demoff's tenure with the Rams, he has shaped the club's business efforts with a focus on delivering a best-in-class experience for fans and partners, building a team that reflects Los Angeles, and increasing the club's presence in the community. Demoff spearheaded the organization's efforts to become one of the strongest philanthropic partners in professional sports. That focus has led the team to receive numerous awards for their charitable efforts as they continue to become part of the fabric of the greater Los Angeles region.

With a strong commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, Demoff has intentionally built one of the most diverse front offices in sports. The Rams rank in the top quartile of all NFL teams in terms of racial and gender diversity across the organization. As a result, the San Fernando Valley Business Journal recognized the organization with a 2022 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Award and the LA Chamber of Commerce recognized the team with the Distinguished Business Leader Award. Looking to expand that commitment beyond Los Angeles, Demoff helped found the Black Sports Business Symposium, which aims to create new opportunities for diverse professionals in the world of sports, and to increase Black representation in the industry. He also regularly supports programs aimed at increasing diversity across the NFL, including the Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum and Quarterback Coaching Summit.

Demoff's commitment to DEI also extends to the team's community efforts which are largely focused on providing access and opportunity for young people from Black and Brown communities in Los Angeles. Each year, the Rams partner with LA Promise Fund to provide paid internships to deserving students from Los Angeles public high schools and expose them to career opportunities in professional sports. In 2020, the Rams became the first team in professional sports to partner on a corporate residency program with College Track, whose mission is to support students with limited resources to chart their course to and through college. The Rams have also created a season-long mentorship program, Pathways to Success, which pairs minority students with Rams front office members and provides a variety of professional workshops and job shadowing opportunities. In 2021, the team created the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship program to provide up to four years of financial support for 13 students from under-resourced communities who are among the first in their families to pursue post-secondary education. The scholarship, introduced in honor of the 75th anniversary of Washington becoming the first Black player signed by an NFL team in the modern era, also includes advisement support from Fulfillment Fund, an educational non-profit partner of the Rams.

Social justice has long been at the heart of the Rams community outreach efforts as the team focuses on addressing education inequities, food insecurity, homelessness, community-police relations and youth justice – all injustices that unfairly burden the Black and Brown communities and prevent advancement. Since 2017, the Rams have funded a City Year team to support students within Los Angeles Unified School District and Inglewood Unified School District, City Year is a national organization that mobilizes AmeriCorps members for a year of full-time service in underserved communities to serve as tutors, mentors and role models for students to help them graduate high school, college and become career-ready young professionals. Inspired by City Year's mission, Demoff joined the board in 2020.

Demoff also serves on the executive board of the United Way of Greater Los Angeles, and since 2017 he has served as the chair of its annual campaign which helps United Way transform lives and communities by creating pathways out of poverty for the most vulnerable residents through education, housing and financial stability. In May of 2019, the Rams teamed up with United Way of Greater Los Angeles for the 12th Annual HomeWalk, a 5K family run/walk to raise public awareness and funds to end homelessness. Through this partnership, the two organizations worked collaboratively to create an unforgettable experience for runners, walkers, fans and fundraisers of all ages. After a virtual HomeWalk in 2020, Demoff helped bring the event to SoFi Stadium in November of 2021 as the event was renamed Walk United LA, which rallied the community to help providing housing, education and opportunity for all. Since 2019, the event has raised more than $2 million and the Rams and United Way will be hosting the 2022 Walk United LA at SoFi Stadium again this November as part of United Way's Centennial.

Another community pillar for the organization is the Watts Rams youth football team which is coached by officers from the Los Angeles Police Department. The Los Angeles Rams formally adopted the program in 2019 to use the game of football to help bridge the gap between law enforcement and communities of color and then worked with Inglewood Parks and Recreation to rename their youth flag football league the Inglewood Rams. Each of the 22 teams in the Inglewood Rams flag football league is named after a current Rams player with Inglewood police officers serving as coaches and mentors.

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country in March 2020, the Rams partnered with KABC on a "Te'LA'thon for Los Angeles," which raised $2.2 million to benefit both LA Regional Food Bank and United Way of Greater Los Angeles to help those affected by COVID-19. The organization also made a commitment to fund monthly mobile food distributions in Black and Brown communities including two mobile distributions at SoFi Stadium that provided more than 7,000 families with nutritious food. In addition to these efforts, the Rams annually host the Taste of the Rams event to raise money to address the food insecurity of 1 in 5 Angelenos. Introduced in 2016, the event has raised roughly $1,000,000 for LA Regional Food Bank and allowed them to provide more than 2.5 million meals to Angelenos in need.

In March of 2021, Demoff teamed with former Los Angeles Unified School District Superintendent Austin Beutner and the Rams official health partner, Cedars-Sinai, to make Hollywood Park a vaccination site for LAUSD teachers and staff. In two months, approximately 17,000 vaccines were administered to help reopen schools in the safest way possible.

In the wake of unimaginable tragedy that struck the Southern California region in 2018, the Rams hosted the Kansas City Chiefs at the LA Memorial Coliseum on November 19 for a game that currently stands as the highest scoring Monday Night Football game ever and will be remembered for bringing LA Together. After a mass shooting and wildfires affected and displaced thousands of residents in the Southern California region, the Los Angeles Rams stood in solidarity with Angelenos to honor and pay tribute to affected individuals, their families and first responders who worked tirelessly to keep the region safe. Under Demoff's leadership, the Rams wrapped their arms around the community in a number of ways including giving away thousands of game tickets to those affected by the tragedies and honoring victims and the community through in-game elements including the National Anthem, coin toss and torch lighting. The Rams partnered with CBS 2 and United Way of Greater Los Angeles on a telethon that raised more than $2.1 million benefiting the relief efforts, and in addition more than $250,000 was raised for a variety of charities supporting the relief efforts through in-game 50/50 raffles, jersey auctions and player ticket donations tied to the game.

The Rams have received multiple accolades recognizing their impact on the greater Los Angeles region. Just in the past year, the Salvation Army recognized the team with their annual Humanitarian Award and the Los Angeles Business Journal recognized them with the “Business Angel of the Year” award as part of their 2022 Nonprofit and Corporate Citizenship Awards. Additionally, the LA Chamber of Commerce honored the organization with the Distinguished Business Leader Award and the Valley Industry & Commerce Association (VICA) inducted the Rams into the 2022 San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame.

Reinforcing the Rams’ commitment to the Los Angeles community, Demoff was selected to sit on the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce’s CEO Council. He also serves on multiple boards including the LA Coalition for the Economy & Jobs, the Los Angeles Sports Council, and the Los Angeles Sports and Entertainment Commission, as well as its philanthropic initiative, ChampionLA. Additionally, Demoff is part of the American Cancer Society’s CEOs Against Cancer, which is a partnership of the world’s leading CEOs and the American Cancer Society dedicated to eliminating unnecessary deaths and suffering from cancer.

Los Angeles Business Journal has recognized Demoff for five consecutive years on its annual LA500 list, honoring the most influential leaders and executives in Los Angeles. Demoff was recognized by the Sports Business Journal as one of its “Forty under 40” class members of 2016 and in 2010 he was named one of the “NFL’s 10 Future Power Brokers” by Sports Illustrated. Prior to joining the Rams, Demoff spent the previous four seasons (2005-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as a consultant before being named Senior Assistant in 2006. In this capacity, Demoff assisted General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, strategic planning and both college and pro scouting. During his tenure with the Buccaneers, the team captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007 while posting a winning record in three of his four seasons.

From 2001-04, Demoff served as Director of Football Operations for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League. Demoff helped direct the team to its first-ever playoff berth and in his final three seasons with the club, the Avengers posted a record of 28-18, third-best in the Arena Football League, qualifying for the playoffs in each of those seasons.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif., Demoff received a bachelors’ degree in history from Dartmouth College in 1999 and a Masters in Business Administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 2006, where he serves on the MBA Leadership Council.

Kevin and Jennifer have two children – a daughter, Claire and a son, Owen.

General Manager

Les Snead

College: Auburn

NFL Year: 28

Rams Year: 11

Les Snead is entering his eleventh season as General Manager of the Los Angeles Rams and was hired for the position in February of 2012. In his role as General Manager, Snead partners with Head Coach Sean McVay to direct all personnel decisions for the club. In addition, Snead coordinates all aspects of the club's football operations with the Head Coach and joins forces with C.O.O/ Executive Vice President of Football Operations Kevin Demoff and Vice President, Football & Business Administration Tony Pastoor to direct the team's business ventures.

Snead's tenure has been marked by strategic, aggressive moves that have created a strong core nucleus of talent and depth throughout the roster. Snead set his philosophy in motion just days after his hiring and has continued it through the 2022 NFL Draft.

After guiding the Rams through an organizational rebuild and transition back home to Los Angeles, Snead and the Rams have continued to thrive in the contention phase of NFL roster building and have created a team-building philosophy and model that other clubs are beginning to emulate. Under Snead's guidance, the Rams have recorded five consecutive winning seasons, reaching the postseason four of the last five with two Super Bowl appearances and one world championship.

The Rams' recent Super Bowl LVI victory was made possible due to a series of trades executed by Snead for established and proven players. In January of 2021, Snead traded for veteran QB Matthew Stafford. Ahead of the team's final preseason game, Snead acquired former RB Sony Michel from the Patriots. Additionally, following a strong start to the season, Snead made more moves to complete an already talented roster, acquiring star outside linebacker Von Miller and signing former WR Odell Beckham Jr. Each addition proved to be paramount to the Rams' championship run.

Since becoming General Manager, Snead has orchestrated 37 trades, which is eleventh-most in the NFL since 2012. The Rams have selected 96 players in the NFL Draft under Snead with five receiving All-Pro honors, the second most drafted All-Pro selections since 2012. During Snead's tenure, the Rams have also acquired All-Pro players such as DB Jalen Ramsey, LB Bobby Wagner and recently retired T Andrew Whitworth.

Shortly after the team's Super Bowl-winning season concluded, Snead signed free agent WR Allen Robinson, traded Robert Woods to the Titans in exchange for a 2023 sixth round pick, and added a star-caliber veteran and six-time All-Pro Bobby Wagner.

In the 2022 NFL Draft, the Rams were without a first-round draft pick for the fifth-straight season after trading early picks to acquire proven talent and reward the team's core-nucleus with long-term contracts. The Rams were busy on Days 2 and 3 with eight selections in Rounds 3-7. Snead's first selection in Round 3 was Wisconsin G Logan Bruss to help solidify a strong position group that already features two Wisconsin Badgers in T Rob Havenstein and G David Edwards. With the team's seven picks on Day 3, Snead added depth to the secondary by selecting DBs Decobie Durant (Round 4) and Derion Kendrick (Round 6), as well as Safeties Quentin Lake (Round 6) and Russ Yeast (Round 7).

Snead also traded for DB Troy Hill, who previously spent five seasons with the Rams from 2016-2020, sending a 2023 fifth round pick to Cleveland. He also added to the offensive backfield with the selection of RB Kyren Williams (Round 5). Snead and his staff then made a late round trade with Tampa Bay to select OLB Daniel Hardy.

With a total of nine picks in the 2021 Draft, Snead and his staff selected four offensive players and five players to bolster the defense. On Day 2 with the 57th overall pick (Round 2), Snead selected WR TuTu Atwell out of Louisville and LB Ernest Jones with the 103rd overall pick (Round 3). The following day, the Rams picked DL Bobby Brown (Round 4) out of Texas A&M, DB Robert Rochell (Round 4) out of Central Arkansas, and former WR/TE Jacob Harris (Round 4) out of Central Florida. For the team's three picks in the final round, the Rams selected RB Jake Funk out of Maryland, WR Ben Skowronek out of Notre Dame, and former OLB Chris Garrett out of Concordia-St. Paul.

Leading up to the 2020 NFL season, Snead led negotiations in the signing of free agent OLB Leonard Floyd, who has registered 20.0 sacks and started every game in his two years with the Rams. Snead also signed DL A'Shawn Robinson, a linchpin of the Rams defensive front, and Pro Bowl K Matt Gay.

Snead added offensive support with the Rams' first two picks in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft by selecting RB Cam Akers 52nd overall out of Florida State and WR Van Jefferson 57th overall out of Florida. The team's later picks such as OLB Terrell Lewis (Round 3) out of Alabama, Terrell Burgess (Round 3) out of Utah, and S Jordan Fuller (Round 6) out of Ohio State which helped improve a defense that eventually became the league's number one ranked unit during the regular season. That draft class also included selections such as TE Brycen Hopkins (Round 4) out of Purdue and G Tremayne Anchrum (Round 7) out of Clemson.

The Rams made six trades in the 2019 NFL Draft, including a trade out of the first round to acquire additional draft capital. L.A. used its first pick of the Draft to select S Taylor Rapp out of Washington in the second round (No. 61 overall), before making three selections in the third round that included key contributors such as RB Darrell Henderson out of Memphis, DB David Long Jr. out of Michigan and G/T Bobby Evans out of Oklahoma. The 2019 Draft class also featured late round picks such as DT Greg Gaines (Round 4), G David Edwards (Round 5) and S Nick Scott (Round 7), who have played significant and meaningful snaps during their time with the Rams.

Snead took a different approach to the 2018 offseason compared to previous years, making trades to acquire players and bolster draft capital. From the start of the new league year on March 14 through the completion of the 2018 NFL Draft, Snead and his staff executed 11 trades that resulted in the acquisition of players such as CBs Marcus Peters and Aqib Talib, and WR Brandin Cooks. Additionally, the Rams landed coveted free agent DT Ndamukong Suh. Prior to the start of the 2018 season, L.A. rewarded two former first-round picks in DT Aaron Donald and RB Todd Gurley II with long-term contracts, making both Donald and Gurley the highest paid players at their positions following a 2017 season when they won Associated Press Defensive and Offensive Player of the year accolades, respectively.

In the 2018 Draft, Snead selected 11 players, despite not having a pick in the first two rounds. L.A. used its first two picks on offensive linemen picking T Joseph Noteboom (No. 89 overall) out of TCU and C Brian Allen (No. 111 overall) from Michigan State. The Rams used seven of the remaining nine selections to bolster depth along the defensive front. All 11 picks were on the roster entering the 2019 offseason program.

From 2012-2017, Snead made 52 selections in the Draft, with five earning All-Pro honors, the most in the league during that timeframe. Snead's draft choices included back-to-back Associated Press Rookie of the Year honorees in Donald (2014 Defensive Rookie of the Year) and Gurley (2015 Offensive Rookie of the Year). Both players went on to earn AP Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year honors following the 2017 season.

The Rams have reaped early dividends from many of Snead's initial selections, particularly in the early rounds. Of the 13 players Snead selected in the first or second round of his first four drafts, seven were named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team following their first season. In total, 10 players drafted by Snead have made an All-Rookie Team.

Despite not owning a first-round selection, Snead was active in free agency during the 2017 offseason to supplement the young talent accumulated through the draft on the Rams roster. The first moves made by Snead with Head Coach Sean McVay were the signings of Pro Bowl T Andrew Whitworth and WR Robert Woods.

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Snead maneuvered trades to select TE Gerald Everett (No. 44 overall) out of the University of South Alabama. The Rams used three of their first four selections on pass catchers, selecting WR Cooper Kupp (No. 69 overall) and WR Josh Reynolds (No. 117 overall), in addition to S John Johnson III with the second of two third round selections (No. 91 overall). As a group, the 2017 draft class started 26 games as rookies, led by Johnson who started 11 games at safety. The 2017 rookie class was highlighted by Kupp being named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Kupp went on to eventually capture the receiving triple crown, becoming the first player since 2005 to lead the NFL in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in 2021. Kupp also won the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year Award and become Super Bowl LVI MVP that same season.

The 2016 season kicked off with a blockbuster pre-draft trade from No. 15 overall to No. 1 overall with the Tennessee Titans to select Cal QB Jared Goff. The trade sent the Titans the Rams' first-round draft pick (No. 15), two second-round draft picks (No. 43, No. 45), and a third-round draft pick (No. 76) in 2016. Tennessee also obtained Los Angeles' first-round and third-round picks in the 2017 NFL Draft. In addition to receiving the No. 1 overall pick, Los Angeles received the Titans' fourth-round (No. 113) and sixth-round (No. 177) selections in 2016.

The Rams' 2016 Training Camp roster was the youngest roster in the NFL. Since the Snead administration has been in place, the Rams boasted the youngest roster during the 2012, 2014 and 2016 seasons. The Rams were the second-youngest team in 2015.

In 2015, Snead led a draft that focused on revamping the run game. The process began by selecting Gurley No. 10 overall and then selecting four offensive linemen with the team's next six selections, highlighted by Wisconsin T Rob Havenstein (No. 57 overall). Havenstein has gone on to start all 99 regular season games played and 10 postseason contests with the organization. The Rams boasted the third youngest offensive line in the NFL during the 2015 season, which showcased Havenstein who did not allow a sack as a rookie.

Gurley became just the third Rams rookie running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark since Hall of Famers Eric Dickerson (1983) and Jerome Bettis (1993). Gurley led all rookies in rushing and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards (1,106). His season culminated with a Pro Bowl berth, Pro Football Writers of America Rookie of the Year Award and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, marking the second-consecutive year that a Rams rookie took home NFL rookie honors (Donald –DPOY 2015). Gurley had his best season as a pro in 2018, leading the league with 2,093 scrimmage yards and 19 total touchdowns to earn Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year accolades.

Snead and his staff made a total of 11 selections in the 2014 draft. With their first-round pick, they selected Donald, a Pittsburgh All-American who earned Pro Bowl honors and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the year after posting 9.0 sacks, the second most by any NFL defensive tackle that season. Donald bested his rookie performance in year two and garnered 11.0 sacks, which tied for most in the league at his position on his way to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod and went on to win Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2018. After becoming the highest paid defensive tackle in NFL history, Donald thanked Snead and the Rams with a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most by an interior defensive lineman in league history, earning his second-consecutive AP Defensive Player of the Year honors. Since Donald was drafted in 2014, he's been selected to the Pro Bowl every season and has received First-Team All-Pro Honors seven of the eight years in the NFL.

Snead and his staff have had plenty of success with undrafted free agent signings over the last eight years. Of the 53 players on the team's final 2016 roster, 15 joined the Rams as undrafted rookie free agents under Snead's watch. That group included Pro Bowl P Johnny Hekker, LS Jake McQuaide and special teams standout LB Cory Littleton, who blocked two kicks during the 2017 season. Other undrafted free agent signings that have contributed to the Rams success have been G Coleman Shelton, QB John Wolford and T Alaric Jackson.

Snead inherited a roster that had endured one of the most difficult stretches in league history in St. Louis from 2007 to 2011. The team posted a 15-65 record (.188 winning percentage), the worst ever by an NFL team during any five-year period. The Rams' 15 wins during that stretch were the fewest in the league, and Detroit, which had the second-lowest win total during the same time frame, recorded 10 more wins than the Rams with 25. From 2012-15, the Rams logged 27 wins to increase their winning percentage to .422.

In the spring of 2012, Snead directed a trade that sent the second overall pick in the 2012 draft to Washington in exchange for the sixth and 39th picks that year, along with Washington's first round picks in both 2013 and 2014. Snead made two additional trades in April of 2012 that allowed the Rams to make four of the first 50 selections in the 2012 draft. The surplus of picks allowed the Rams to strategically maneuver in the 2013 Draft as well. With the Rams sitting at No. 16, Snead surmised that he wouldn't be able to stand pat and land highly-coveted WR/PR Tavon Austin, so he worked out a deal with the Buffalo Bills. The Rams moved up to Buffalo's eighth spot and selected the speedy playmaker from West Virginia. Austin scored six touchdowns as a rookie – four receiving, one rushing and one on a 98-yard punt return. In the Rams' win at Indianapolis in 2013, Austin became one of three rookies in NFL history to score three touchdowns of 50 yards or more, joining Hall of Famer Gale Sayers and Randy Moss.

With the 22nd pick, which the Rams owned as part of the Washington trade, Snead made another deal that helped the club recoup a significant portion of what he sent to Buffalo. The Rams swapped places with the Atlanta Falcons, and with the 30th selection, Snead was able to secure the player he targeted at No. 22 - Georgia LB Alec Ogletree. As a rookie, Ogletree led the Rams with 155 tackles and added 1.5 sacks, six forced fumbles and an interception.

Prior to joining the Rams, Snead spent 13 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons serving as the club's director of player personnel from 2009-11, a pro scout, and the team's director of pro personnel. During his time in Atlanta, Snead was part of a personnel staff that signed, traded for, or drafted 16 players that earned Pro Bowl honors.

Snead helped construct a roster that was one of the NFL's best over a four-year span. From 2008-11, the Falcons had four consecutive winning seasons winning 43 games, the fifth-most wins in the NFL over that time period. The Falcons played in one Super Bowl and two NFC Championship games during Snead's time with the club.

Snead joined the Falcons after three seasons (1995-97) in the pro scouting department of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was hired by the Jaguars prior to the franchise's first season and helped put together a team that garnered an AFC Championship berth in just its second year of existence. Jacksonville won its first division title in Snead's final year with the team.

Snead played tight end for Auburn from 1992-93 and was part of the Tigers' perfect 11-0 team in 1993. He also earned Southeast Region Academic All-American honors during his college career.

The Eufaula, Ala. native holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and planned to attend medical school until he was offered a graduate assistant coaching position at his alma mater. He earned a Master of Education degree at Auburn while working as a graduate assistant and he also served as an administrative assistant of football operations in 1995 at Auburn.

In addition to his duties with the Rams, Snead also sits on a pair of advisory boards, including GAMEBREAKER, a soft shell headgear company powered by D3O Impact Technology to help alleviate some of the abrasions that come with playing any contact or non-contact sport. Snead also serves as a board member on the Curry School Foundation Board at UVA, a dynamic group of professionals who have committed themselves as fundraisers and ambassadors of the school, promoting Curry's work among their networks of colleagues and acquaintances.

Snead is married to Kara Henderson Snead, a former sports media personality who has worked for NFL Network co-hosting NFL Total Access and providing in-depth interviews, pregame and postgame reports and sideline reports for a variety of shows across the network including NFL Total Access, Around the League, NFL GameDay Morning and NFL GameDay Final. Kara graduated cum laude from Duke University. She began her career as a production assistant at ESPN and later ABC News. Her on-air career began at NESN in 1998 as the co-host of NESN's "Front Row". From 2000 to 2003, she worked at CNN as a reporter and anchor.

Together, the couple has three children: two sons, Logan and Tate, as well as a daughter, Cannon.

Vice President,
Football & Business Operations

Tony Pastoors

College: Dartmouth

NFL Year: 13

Rams Year: 13

Tony Pastoors enters his 13th season with the Rams after joining the team prior to the 2010 season. He serves as the vice president of football and business administration.

In this role, Pastoors works directly with Chief Operating Officer Kevin Demoff on all aspects of Rams operations. He partners with General Manager Les Snead and Head Coach Sean McVay in the development and implementation of the club's strategic plans for player signings and player acquisitions.

As the club's chief negotiator, Pastoors is responsible for the team's salary cap management, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. Pastoors partners with Snead and McVay in the day-to-day management and execution of the team's football operations. In addition, he serves as a liaison to club's business operations including marketing, partnerships, finance, ticketing, community relations, administration, and communications. Pastoors serves as part of the Rams' executive leadership team and represents the club at a league level, attending NFL league meetings on behalf of the organization.

Pastoors has played a pivotal role in the evolution of the Rams' team-building philosophy and his work has allowed the team to add star-level talent over the last handful of years. There isn't a significant roster or contractual decision that doesn't run through Pastoors and while many have deemed the Rams roster constructing methods as "unconventional" dating back to 2018, numerous clubs around the league have started to adopt the practices that Pastoors, Snead, and McVay have put into place. In both 2021 and 2022, Pastoors was honored in The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40" list.

In the past year, Pastoors has helped execute a trade for veteran quarterback Matthew Stafford along with the mid-season trade for Von Miller as well as the acquisition of Odell Beckham Jr., which helped put the Rams over the edge en route to their Super Bowl LVI victory. During the 2019 season, Pastoors worked closely on the trade deal that brought All-Pro defensive back Jalen Ramsey to the Rams and helped sign outside linebacker Leonard Floyd leading up to the 2020 season.

"Rams vice president Tony Pastoors has in the last six years proven masterful at finding creative ways to provide Snead and McVay with virtually any player they desire," said Gary Klein of The Los Angeles Times.

Pastoors continues to find creative ways to structure contracts and extend player deals in a way that creates cap space and flexibility for the future. In partnership with Snead this offseason, Pastoors calculated new deals for Matthew Stafford, Aaron Donald, and Cooper Kupp, as well as signed highly-touted free agents such as perennial All-Pro linebacker Bobby Wagner and receiver Allen Robinson.

He also has worked closely with McVay and Snead to keep much of the team's Super Bowl roster intact and extend lynchpins of the offensive line such as left tackle Joe Noteboom, center Brian Allen, right tackle Rob Havenstein, as well as tight end Tyler Higbee and others over the last few years.

In January of 2017, Pastoors worked alongside Owner and Chairman Stan Kroenke, COO Kevin Demoff and Snead to reshape the culture of the Rams football operation and usher in a new era. The group led a broad coaching search that resulted in the hiring of Head Coach Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history.

Born and raised in Minneapolis, Minn. Pastoors received his degree from Dartmouth College, where he played football for Head Coach Buddy Teevens.

Tony and his wife Emily, have two daughters Charli and Kiley.

Executive Vice President,
Consumer Revenue and Strategy

Dan August

College: Dartmouth

NFL Year: 16

Rams Year: 7

The 2022 season marks Daniel August's seventh season with the Los Angeles Rams and his first as executive vice president of consumer revenue and strategy.

In his role, August is involved with key strategic initiatives and oversees various aspects of ticketing and the gameday experience. Executive Vice President, Community Impact and Engagement

Molly Higgins

College: Northern Iowa
NFL Year: 21
Rams Year: 21

Molly Higgins is the executive vice president of community impact and engagement for the Los Angeles Rams. In her role, Higgins oversees the Rams community outreach and social justice efforts and aims to use the team's platform to fight for equality, drive equity and provide access and opportunity for youth.

Through various programs and initiatives, Higgins and her team work to address issues of poverty that disproportionately impact communities of color including education inequities, housing and food insecurities, community-police relations, youth justice and mentorship.

One of the Rams' signature programs is the Watts Rams youth football program consisting of 125 boys and girls who are coached by LAPD officers. Using the game of football, the goal of the program is to help bridge the divide between the Watts community and law enforcement allowing the kids to see the officers as human beings and mentors, while allowing the officers to get to know the community members they serve. The Rams fund all components of the program and throughout the year, provide engagement opportunities with current players and enrichment and educational experiences to help the kids dream beyond their current reality.

Beyond the Watts Rams, Higgins is driven by the fact that talent is equally distributed, but opportunity is not. With that as a focus, Higgins has placed an emphasis on the Rams being a collaborative partner in the education space with the goal of helping to close the achievement gap for low-income students. Through year-round school engagement including the Rams Readers literacy program, PLAY 60 youth health and wellness field days, mentorship programs, internship opportunities, incentive campaigns, playground builds, campus beautifications, career chats, college field trips and funding City Year student success coaches, the Rams are committed to ensuring a child's education and upward mobility are not dictated by their zip code.

Last season, the Rams added an additional educational program when the team introduced the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Rams becoming the first professional sports team in the modern era to sign an African-American player, Kenny Washington, in 1946. The scholarship provides up to four years of financial support for 13 students who are among the first in their families to pursue a post-secondary education.

This season, the team will continue their efforts to support the 1 in 5 Angelenos who struggle with food insecurity with efforts like mobile food drives as well as Taste of the Rams, which Higgins introduced in 2016 upon the team's return to Los Angeles. To date, the event has raised more than $1 million dollars for LA Regional Food Bank and provided more than 4 million meals to Angelenos in need.

In November of 2022, the Rams will host the 2nd annual WalkUnitedLA at SoFi Stadium to help United Way's efforts to break the cycles of poverty through homelessness and housing, education and economic opportunity initiatives. Other areas of focus include growing the game of youth and high school football and celebrating the contributions of our military members and veterans through our year-round salute to service efforts. Additionally, each year, the team participates in a variety of special events to raise awareness and funding for numerous local non-profits throughout the greater LA region to improve the lives of Angelenos.

Beyond the organization's charitable priorities, the Rams community impact team works to understand each player's areas of interest and then aligns them with causes that they are passionate about to enable them to personally impact their community. When Andrew Whitworth joined the Rams in 2017, Higgins worked with him to create a community impact strategy. Last season, his impact was recognized when he has awarded the NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year, the league's most prestigious honor that recognizes a player's commitment to philanthropy and community impact, as well as excellence on the field.

In addition to Higgins' community impact and engagement responsibilities, she is part of the Rams' executive team that helps shape the organization's off the field strategy.

The Sports Business Journal named Higgins to their 2020 class of "Game Changers." In 2019, the United Way of Greater Los Angeles recognized Higgins with an EmpowerHer Award for her commitment to advance equity in Los Angeles. During her time in St. Louis, Higgins was a recipient of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis' "Spirit of Justice Award" honoring individuals who have demonstrated accomplishment, leadership and integrity in facilitating and promoting justice. In 2014, Higgins was recognized as one of St. Louis' "Most Influential Business Women" by the St. Louis Business Journal. Higgins was named to the St. Louis Business Journal's 30 under 30 list in 2006, an annual award that honors 30 St. Louis-area business leaders under the age of 30.

Prior to joining the Rams, Higgins worked in public relations for Unigraphics Solutions, a NYSE-listed global computer software company.

The Rams' 62 wins under McVay (including playoffs) are second to only the Chiefs since 2017. He is the second-fastest coach in franchise history to reach the 50-win mark. McVay also was the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl during the 2018 campaign and was the youngest coach to win AP Coach of the Year at the age of 31.

He won 70% of his first 50 games, which is the sixth-best winning percentage of all-time among coaches with at least 50 games. The Rams have not finished a regular season with a losing record since McVay took over in 2017.

The Rams offense thrived during the 2021 season and in Matthew Stafford's first year under center. Under McVay's guidance, the Rams offense ranked in the top 10 in total offense and fifth in passing offense. Stafford threw for almost 5,000 yards and Receiver Cooper Kupp won the Triple Crown, leading the league in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

The Rams would have sent four starters to the 2021 Pro Bowl had they not been preparing for Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium. On offense, Kupp was selected to his first Pro Bowl. On defense, DB Jalen Ramsey earned his fifth straight Pro Bowl nod and DT Aaron Donald earned his eighth-straight Pro Bowl nod. K Matt Gay was selected as the starter in his first Pro Bowl. The Rams also had four players selected as alternates including QB Matthew Stafford, former OT Andrew Whitworth, OLB Leonard Floyd and C Brian Allen. Kupp, Ramsey and Donald were All-Pro selections.

In a season that was anything but normal due to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, the Rams defense flourished earning the league's No. 1 ranked unit and dominating in three different categories. The Rams defense held opposing offenses to only 16.8 points per game, 281.9 yards per game, 190.7 passing yards per game and held each opposing quarterback to under 300 net yards passing. McVay won his third-career postseason contest, this time against a familiar opponent on the road against the Seattle Seahawks in a Wild Card game before falling to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the Divisional Round.

In 2020, DL Aaron Donald became the third player in league history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year three times. He was also named the PFWA Defensive Player of the Year for the second time and joined teammate CB Jalen Ramsey on the PFWA All-NFL Team. Donald finished the season with 13.5 sacks.

L.A. finished 10th in the league in rushing, averaging 126.1 yards per game led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a 61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest which marked the longest run by a Rams player in the McVay era.

The Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

In a win-and-in Week 17 contest against the Arizona Cardinals, McVay helped QB John Wolford earn his first-career win in his first-career NFL appearance and start. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passing attempts for 231 yards.

McVay's third season as head coach in 2019 produced his third-consecutive winning season, as the team finished with a 9-7 record. Finishing with a winning record in three-consecutive seasons had not been accomplished by a Rams team since 1999-2001, and it was only the third time since 1980 the franchise accomplished the feat. Additionally, McVay became the first head coach since 2016 to have a winning record in each of their first three seasons as a head coach. He became the fourth Rams head coach to have a winning record in three-consecutive seasons.

In his third year working with QB Jared Goff, McVay helped the fourth-year passer throw for over 4,000 yards for the second-consecutive season, becoming the first quarterback in franchise history to do so. Goff also climbed up the Rams' passing leader board, closing out the season sixth on L.A.'s all-time passing leader board.

Under McVay's guidance, the Rams had multiple wide receivers finish the season with over 1,000 receiving yards. WR Robert Woods posted his second-consecutive season with over 1,000 receiving yards, ending the season with 1,134. WR Cooper Kupp posted his first season with over 1,000 receiving yards, totaling a team-best 1,161. The 2019 campaign was the first time since 1999-2002 the Rams had consecutive seasons with multiple receivers recording over 1,000 yards.

McVay also helped orchestrate an offensive line that lost two starters during the season. Despite changes in personnel and position, L.A.'s offensive front managed to post six games without allowing a sack, good for a single-season franchise record.

The defense received a boost when L.A. acquired Pro Bowl CB Jalen Ramsey via trade in Week 7 of the 2019 campaign.

The defense went on to finish with the fourth-most sacks in the league (50.0) and was ranked 13th overall.

In McVay's second season guiding the Rams, the 32-year-old leader turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history. The Rams posted a 13-3 record, which tied for the second-best record in franchise history. His team won a pair of playoff games and advanced to the Rams' fourth Super Bowl appearance days after his 33rd birthday, becoming the youngest NFL head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl.

The 2018 Los Angeles Rams built on the successful foundation McVay and company created in their first season in 2017. With the guidance of McVay, the Rams' passing attack finished among the top 10 in passing yards per attempt (8.33, 4th), passing yards per game (295.6, 5th) and touchdowns (32, tied for 8th). Goff set career-bests, amassing 4,688 passing yards, the second-best single-season output in Rams history.

In the run game, RB Todd Gurley II followed up an MVP-caliber 2017 season with an equally impressive 2018 campaign in which he led the NFL in touchdowns (21) and points scored amongst non-kickers (132) for the second-consecutive year. His 17 rushing touchdowns were a career-high and the second-most single-season rushing scores in Rams history.

Following his second season as an NFL head coach, McVay ranked 17th on Fortune Magazine's World's Greatest Leaders Top-50 List. McVay is joined on the list by the likes of Bill Gates and Jacinda Ardern, the Prime Minister of New Zealand. The complete rankings are found in the May 2019 issue of Fortune.

L.A. added star power to its defensive unit following the 2017 season. The Rams played stout defensive football down the stretch, securing a first-round bye in the 2018 playoffs. The Rams held the Patriots offensive attack to only 13 points in Super Bowl LIII. The defense was led by Donald, who posted a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most ever by a defensive tackle. Donald recorded 183.5 sack yards, the most ever by a defender in a single season. As a unit, the Rams ranked sixth with 1.6 takeaways per game.

In his first season guiding the Rams, McVay completed one of the greatest offensive turnarounds in NFL history. He helped the Rams move from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team in 2017, marking the first time in league history a team has gone from last to first in scoring. The first-year head coach led the Rams to an 11-5 record and their first NFC West title since the 2003 season. McVay guided the Rams to their first playoff berth since 2004.

Following his first season in L.A., McVay was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year, becoming the youngest head coach to ever win the award. Gurley brought home Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Donald was named the Defensive Player of the Year, marking the first time in the 45 year history of the awards there was a sweep of three of the league's top awards. The Rams placed eight players in the 2018 Pro Bowl, the most in a single season by the franchise since the 1999 campaign.

Under McVay's guidance in 2017, Goff flourished, earning his first Pro Bowl appearance. Goff completed 296-of-477 (62.1 percent) of his passes for 3,804 yards with 28 touchdowns and seven interceptions posting a 100.5 QB rating on the season. Gurley led the league in scrimmage yards finishing the year with 2,093 yards, including 1,305 rushing yards and 788 receiving yards. Additionally, Gurley was the league's highest-scoring non-kicker posting 19 total touchdowns on the season.

The Rams' defense posted the fourth-most sacks (48.0), tied for sixth in interceptions (18) and finished the 2017 campaign fifth in total takeaways with 28. The 28 takeaways directly resulted in 126 points for L.A., the second-best total in the NFL.

In his first season as head coach, the Rams' special teams unit played an integral part in the team's success and was rewarded with a total of four special teamers being named to the Pro Bowl. The L.A. special teams unit was a top-10 finisher in 18-of-22 statistical categories in the 2017 special teams rankings.

Before joining the Rams, McVay completed his third season as Washington's offensive coordinator in 2016 after initially being promoted to the position on January 15, 2014. Prior to his promotion during the 2014 offseason, McVay spent three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

The 2016 Washington offensive unit broke many franchise records and ranked in the top-three in a number of statistical categories. The Washington offense became the first unit in franchise history to average over 400 yards per game (403.4) and notched a franchise record 6,545 total net yards.

Washington Quarterback Kirk Cousins finished the year with single-season team records in completions (406) and passing yards (4,917) and matched his team record for 300-yard passing games (seven). His 4,917 passing yards ranked third in the NFL in 2016 and are the 15th-most in a season in NFL history. Cousins closed out the season ranked second in the NFL in passing yards per game (297.4), passing yards per play (7.84) and yards per play (6.4), in addition to being the league's third ranked offensive team, averaging 403.4 yards per game.

From 2015-16, Cousins threw for 9,083 yards, the fourth highest output by a quarterback trailing only Drew Brees (10,078), Matt Ryan (9,535) and Philip Rivers (9,178).

The Washington offense had eight players finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garcon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones), tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single-season in NFL history. McVay's group posted a breakout campaign in his second year as offensive coordinator in 2015, including record-setting performances by Cousins and tight end Jordan Reed. McVay's scheme and tutelage helped Cousins break the Washington records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in a single season. Reed was a direct beneficiary of McVay's work, spending 2013 as a member of his unit during McVay's time as tight ends coach and being a focal point of the offense in 2015 when Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns (one shy of the team record) in 2015.

Collectively, McVay's 2015 offense recorded Top 10 rankings in third down percentage (43.5, fifth in the NFL), red zone scoring percentage (61.2, eighth), yards per play (5.6, 10th) and points per game (24.3, 10th). Washington also led the NFL with a team-record 69.5 completion percentage in 2015.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2014, McVay helped the Washington offense to a Top 10 league ranking in yards per play (5.7) despite starting three different quarterbacks. His work with the three passers was instrumental in setting a team record for completion percentage (66.5 percent, later broken in 2015) and helping facilitate the explosive debut season of wide receiver DeSean Jackson. Jackson averaged a league-best 20.9 yards per reception and became only the fourth player in team history to lead the NFL in that category.

In 2013, McVay played a crucial role in Reed's development, as the then-rookie compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Washington's single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Washington tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit was productive despite losing starting TE Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the reserve/injured list.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Washington's history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant for Washington in 2010 in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season. The Washington offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history.

McVay joined the Washington coaching staff prior to the 2010 season after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League (UFL). The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

During his time in Tampa Bay, McVay worked closely with wide receiver Antonio Bryant, who recorded career highs in receptions (83), receiving yards (1,248), and touchdowns (seven), en route to winning The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year Award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

Offensive Coordinator

Liam Coen

College: UMass

NFL Coaching Year: 4

Rams Coaching Year: 4

Liam Coen was named the Los Angeles Rams offensive coordinator on March 2, 2022. Coen returns to L.A. after spending the 2021 season as the University of Kentucky's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In 2021, the Wildcats ranked fifth in scoring offense (32.3 points per game) and eighth in total offense (425.2 yards per game) in the SEC, including fifth in the conference in rushing offense at 199.5 yards per game. Under Coen's guidance, quarterback Will Levis finished sixth in the SEC in passing yards with 2,826, while running back Chris Rodriguez Jr. and wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson each finished with the second-most rushing (1,379) and receiving yards (1,334), respectively, in the conference.

Prior to joining Kentucky's coaching staff, Coen spent three years on the Rams' staff from 2018-20. He served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2018 and 2019 before taking on assistant quarterbacks coach in 2020, when he helped Jared Goff post his fourth-consecutive season with 3,800 or more passing yards.

In 2019, Coen helped L.A.'s receiving unit produce two receivers with over 1,000 receiving yards for the second-consecutive season, a feat that had not been accomplished since a streak of four seasons from 1999-2002. Former Rams Receiver Robert Woods posted his second-consecutive 1,000-yard season, finishing with 1,134. WR Cooper Kupp tallied his first 1,000-yard season, leading the team with 1,161 receiving yards.

With the help of Coen, the Rams quickly acclimated 2018 offseason acquisition Brandin Cooks into the league's No. 3 scoring offense. Cooks' 1,204 receiving yards and fellow WR Robert Woods 1,219 receiving yards were career-highs. They became the first Rams receiving duo to surpass 1,000 yards each since Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce in 2006.

Coen spent the 2016-17 seasons serving as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine. Coen was the signal caller for Maine for two years under Joe Harasymiak and was instrumental in QB Dan Collin's emergence in 2016, as well as the growth of freshman QB Chris Ferguson in 2017.

Under Coen in 2017, the Black Bears had the fourth-best scoring offense in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA), which was spearheaded by RB Josh Mack who led the FCS in rush yards.

Mack rushed for 1,335 yards and nine touchdowns, averaging 5.5 yards per carry and 133.9 rushing yards per game during the 2017 campaign. As a unit, the Black Bears averaged 24.6 points and 388.4 total yards per game during the 2017 season, after putting up 22.3 points and 357.6 total yards per contest in 2016.

Prior to his time at Maine, Coen spent the 2014-15 season as the pass game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Massachusetts, where he mentored First-Team All Mid-American Conference QB Blake Frohnapfel.

He previously served as the quarterbacks coach at Brown University in 2010 and from 2012-13. He was also the pass game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island in 2011.

Coen earned his bachelor's degree in communications from UMass in 2008 and was a four-year starter at quarterback for the Minutemen and led UMass to the 2006 FCS National Championship game. In his playing career, Coen rewrote the school's record book and he currently holds nearly every major career passing record in UMass history.

Defensive Coordinator

Raheem Morris

College: Hofstra

NFL Coaching Year: 20

Rams Coaching Year: 2

Raheem Morris enters his second season as the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. He was hired by the team on Feb. 1, 2021.

Morris reunited with Rams Head Coach Sean McVay for the third time in their coaching careers after working together with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008 and the Washington Football Team from 2012-2014.

Morris joined the Rams after serving as defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons before being promoted to interim head coach from Week 6 through the conclusion of the 2020 season.

During the 2021 season that culminated with a Super Bowl championship, the Rams averaged 1.5 turnovers a game and recorded 25 during the regular season. Through 17 games, Morris' unit allowed only two teams to score more than seven points in the first quarter. Under Morris' leadership, the Rams' defense featured three players (Aaron Donald, Leonard Floyd and Von Miller) that ranked in the top 20 in sacks. Additionally, Morris' defensive unit ranked third in sacks with 50 and fifth in tackles for loss with 85 during the regular season.

Additionally, the Rams defense ranked sixth in the NFL in opponents rushing yards per game (103.2), sixth in opponents rush yards (1,754), and fifth in yards per rush (3.96). Morris' unit held opponents to a 51.8% red zone efficiency rate, which ranked eighth-best in the NFL.

Morris also led a secondary that ranked fifth-best in opponents passer rating (83.8) and third in interceptions (19). The secondary finished second in the NFL with 17 opponent passing touchdowns allowed and a 0.89 opponent pass touchdown to interception ratio rate.

In 2020, after an 0-6 start, the Falcons named Morris as their interim head coach after entering the season as the defensive coordinator. In the final 11 games of the season, Morris helped the franchise win four games.

Under the guidance of Morris, the Falcons defense finished the 2020 season tied for sixth in the league in red zone defense (82.1 percent) and sixth in rush defense (104.8 yards per game).

Morris began the 2019 season focused on the receiving corps but turned his attention to the secondary after the bye week following a tumultuous start. Over the final eight games, the team went 6-2 and the defense went from having the lowest amount of takeaways in the first half of the season (four) to finishing with the second-most in the NFL (16) after Week 9. The defense also catapulted from the bottom of the league rankings to the top-10 in sacks (32nd to 10th), scoring efficiency (32nd to ninth), and red zone efficiency (31st to 6th) over the final eight weeks of the season.

In 2018, Morris' coaching played a part in helping the offense average 290.8 passing yards per game, which was the fourth-best average in the league. The passing attack continued to improve from 2017 to 2018, with the offense averaging 50 more pass yards per game and totaling 15 more passing touchdowns in the year span. Under Morris' guidance, first-round draft pick Calvin Ridley led all rookies in receiving yards (821) and touchdowns (10). He also helped Mohamed Sanu reach a career-high in receiving yards as well. Sanu's 838 receiving yards was the first time in his career topping 800-plus receiving yards.

He also played a role in another great year from six-time Pro Bowler, Julio Jones. Jones recorded 1,677 receiving yards, which was the second-highest total in his career and hauled in 113 passes, which was the third time in his career that he's posted 100-plus receptions in a season.

During Morris' second year as the wide receivers coach in 2017, his group hauled in 214 receptions for 2,848 yards and 13 touchdowns. Morris' coaching played a hand in Sanu achieving a career-high for receptions, a mark he set the previous year under Morris' tenure. Sanu finished the year with 67 receptions for 703 yards and tied a career-high with five touchdown receptions. Morris also played a crucial role in another impressive year from Jones, who was selected to go to his fourth straight Pro Bowl after hauling in 88 receptions for 1,444 yards and three touchdowns.

After spending his first season with the team as assistant head coach/defensive passing game coordinator, Morris transitioned to the offensive side of the ball in 2016 and was named the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach. In his first season coaching the wide receivers, Morris worked with one of the best receivers in the game in Jones. Jones recorded 1,409 receiving yards, which was second in the NFL that season. His entire receiving group teamed up for 223 catches for 3,226 yards and 22 touchdowns. The unit included Taylor Gabriel, who recorded a career-high six receiving touchdowns and Mohamed Sanu who tallied a then career-high 59 receptions.

During Morris' first year in Atlanta, he was named the assistant head coach/defensive passing game coordinator to help out with the secondary and their efforts to slow down the passing attack of the opposing teams. The defense only allowed 19 passing touchdowns, which was tied for the third-lowest total in the NFL that season. The defense also forced 15 interceptions that year, which ranked within the top 10 in the league. These numbers gave the defense a 1.27 touchdown to interception ratio, which was the seventh-best touchdown-to-interception ratio in the NFL in 2015.

Morris joined the Falcons after spending three seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Washington Football Team. In 2012, he helped Washington's defense finish tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways and oversaw a unit that tied a league-high with 94 passes defended and ranked fifth in the NFC with a 3.3 interception rate.

Prior to arriving in Washington, Morris spent three seasons as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2009-2011. He was the league's youngest head coach in 2009 and in 2010, his team finished with a 10-6 record. The Buccaneers made their best turnaround in franchise history in 2010 after going 3-13 in 2009.

Morris served in multiple capacities with the Buccaneers during two different stints with the team before he was promoted to head coach. He spent two seasons as the team's defensive backs coach from 2007-08, when the Buccaneers ranked second in the NFL allowing 170.5 passing yards per game. During that span, the Buccaneers ranked among the league leaders with 22 interceptions.

He spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Kansas State in 2006, where he helped seven Wildcats conference honors. Morris' unit featured two first-team All-Big 12 selections and one second-team honoree.

Morris made his NFL coaching debut with Tampa Bay as a defensive quality control coach in 2002, when the club won Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers defense allowed an NFL-low 12.3 points per game, the third-best scoring defense since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant with the Bucs in 2003 and as assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

In 10 seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers finished fifth in total defense five times, while leading the league in 2002 and 2005. He also helped the team finish as the top-rated pass defense three times (2002, 2004 & 2007).

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports, and video breakdown. He moved on to Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris served as defensive backs coach at Hofstra from 2000 to 2001 before joining the Buccaneers. He also held a defensive minority internship position with the New York Jets in the fall of 2001. Morris played safety at Hofstra from 1994-97 and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. He is an Irvington, N.J. native.

Special Teams Coordinator

Joe DeCamillis

College: Wyoming

NFL Coaching Year: 34

Rams Coaching Year: 2

Joe DeCamillis is entering his second season as the special teams coordinator for the Rams. The 34-year NFL coaching veteran was hired by the team on Feb. 1, 2021.

In 2021 under the leadership of DeCamillis, the Rams special teams unit finished sixth in field goals made (32) and led to Kicker Matt Gay's first Pro Bowl selection. Gay's only two misses during the regular season were from 40+ and 50+ yards and he ranked third in the NFL with 144 points scored. DeCamillis also helped Gay finish third for all players in the 2021 postseason with 35 points scored, making 8 of his 10 field goal attempts and converting all extra point attempts.

According to TruMedia, the Rams ranked fifth in the NFL with 11.32 yards per punt return and fifth in net punting average (42.59 yards per game) in the 2021 season. With the guidance of DeCamillis, the Rams made a midseason move to acquire receiver and return specialist Brandon Powell, who earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after returning two kicks for 75 yards, including one which he returned 61 yards for a touchdown on the road in Minnesota. The Rams punting unit also recorded three punts inside the 5-yard line, which was tied for 10th best in the league.

Prior to joining the Rams, DeCamillis spent the four seasons prior with the Jacksonville Jaguars in his second stint with the franchise. In 2020, Jacksonville ranked seventh in net punting average (42.4), eighth in gross punting yards (3,051) and allowed only 196 punt return yards by their opponents.

The Jaguars 2019 special teams unit was ranked fourth in the NFL in the Dallas Morning News' annual special teams rankings. Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin uses a points system based on 22 categories to rank each of the 32 NFL teams' special teams units at the end of each season. P Logan Cooke and K Josh Lambo became the first teammates to lead the league in net punting average (min. 10 punts) and field goal percentage (min. 15 attempts), respectively, in the same year since net punting average first began being tracked in 2000. Cooke posted a 44.5-yard net punting average in 2019, tied for the highest mark in the NFL (min. 10 punts) and tied for the fourth-highest since the stat began being tracked in 2000. Lambo was named to the Associated Press All-Pro second team, becoming the first placekicker in franchise history to make an Associated Press All-Pro team.

In 2018, DeCamillis oversaw the special teams unit that finished first in the NFL in opposing kick return average (17.8) and second in opposing punt return average (5.0). Cooke, who was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 Draft, recorded a franchise-record 37 punts inside the 20, the third-most in the NFL and the most among rookies. His 41.3 net punting average was the highest for a single season in franchise history. In Week 15 against Washington, WR Dede Westbrook scored a TD on a 74-yard punt return, marking the third-longest punt return in franchise history.

In 2017, DeCamillis oversaw a mid-season kicking change as Lambo, who was acquired by Jacksonville prior to the team's Week 7 contest, finished the season 19 of 20 on FGs (95.0 pct.), including 12 of 12 at TIAA Field. Lambo's 95.0 field goal percentage was the best mark in Jaguars single-season history among kickers with at least 10 FG attempts. P Brad Nortman landed a career-high 29 punts inside the 20, which was tied for fifth in franchise history. DeCamillis' unit also converted on all three fake punt tries, one of which RB Corey Grant rushed 56 yards for a TD against the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 10.

DeCamillis spent 2015-16 as the special teams coordinator for the Denver Broncos. In 2016, his unit ranked seventh in the NFL in both opponents' punt return average (6.8) and opponents' kickoff return average (20.2), while finishing 11th in the NFL in kick return average (22.9).

DeCamillis' units have accounted for 32 total kick return scores during his 34 seasons coaching special teams in the NFL.

Before returning to Denver, he spent two seasons (2013-14) as Chicago's assistant head coach/special teams, instructing a unit that allowed a league-low 18.3 yards per kick return while generating two TD returns (one PR, one KR) and three takeaways. In 2013, WR Devin Hester turned in one of the best seasons of his career under DeCamillis, posting his second-highest kickoff return average (27.6) and fourth-highest punt return average (14.2).

Prior to coaching with the Bears, DeCamillis served as special teams coordinator with Dallas from 2009-12. During that time, the Cowboys tied for the most punt return TDs (six) in the NFL, including a franchise-record three in 2010 by the rookie duo of WR Dez Bryant (two) and CB Bryan McCann (one).

As Jacksonville's special teams coach from 2007-08, DeCamillis' coverage unit ranked second in the NFL in average opponent field position after kickoffs (25.3- yard line) with 34 opponent returns being downed inside the 20-yard line.

DeCamillis had a 10-year run coaching special teams for the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2006)—the first seven years under Head Coach Dan Reeves, whom he worked in his first two NFL coaching roles with the Broncos and New York Giants.

He coached special teams for the Giants from 1993-96, as the club accounted for the fourth-most kick return scores (six) in the NFL during that period. RB David Meggett tied for second in the league with three punt return TDs during his final two years with the Giants (1993-94), ranking fourth in the NFL with his 11.3-yard punt return average in that two-year span.

DeCamillis began his NFL career in Denver in 1989 assisting with the club's football administration for two years before serving as a defensive quality control coach from 1991-92 under Reeves. An all-state quarterback and wrestler at Arvada (Colo.) High School, DeCamillis went on to become an All-America wrestler at the University of Wyoming. He was born on June 29, 1965, and is married to Dana. They have two daughters, Caitlin and Ashley.

During Beake's nine seasons in Denver, the Broncos allowed the third-fewest total yards (327.4) and seventh-fewest points (21.8) in the league. The Broncos were also one of just two NFL teams (Seattle) to finish in the top 8 against the run (seventh/106.4 ypg and pass (second/221.0 ypg) during that span.

In his first year as defensive pass game specialist, Beake continued to push the Broncos secondary working directly with safeties such as Justin Simmons and Kareem Jackson. Beake worked extensively with the Broncos' outside linebackers in 2018 as Miller was selected to his seventh Pro Bowl and Chubb set the franchise rookie record for sacks (12).

In his two seasons (2011-12) with the Browns, Beake worked with one of the youngest offenses in the NFL, helping to develop a quarterback group that included draft choices Colt McCoy and Brandon Weeden.

Offensive Line

Kevin Carberry

College: Ohio

NFL Coaching Year: 6

Rams Coaching Year: 2

Kevin Carberry enters his second season with the Rams as the team's offensive line coach.

Carberry joined the Rams after spending three seasons at Stanford as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach.

Under Carberry's guidance, the Rams finished the 2021 regular season tied for sixth in least sacks allowed with 31. The unit started the same five linemen 13 of 17 games played. There were two weeks of the regular season where the offensive line unit did not allow a sack and they allowed just one sack on only seven occasions in 2021.

Carberry's unit also finished seventh-best in QB sack rate (4.9%) and third-best in pressures allowed per dropback (26.8%). In 2021, the Rams offensive line finished on top of the league rankings in average time to pressure allowed on offense (2.67 seconds) and 14th in average time to throw (2.79 seconds).

Despite playing just six games in 2020 compared to 12 in 2019, Stanford saw improvement in rushing touchdowns (15 in 2020 vs. eight in 2019), on third down (48 percent in 2020 vs. 39 percent in 2019) and in red zone offense (touchdowns on 78 percent of attempts in 2020 vs. 47 percent in 2019). Across Carberry's tenure, the Cardinal offensive line produced three All-Pac-12 selections – Walker Little (First Team) and Nate Herbig (Second Team) in 2018, followed by Drew Dalman, who received Second-Team recognition in 2019 and First Team recognition in 2020.

Dalman went on to be drafted by the Atlanta Falcons in the fourth-round of the 2021 Draft. Little was a second-round selection by the Jags in 2021. Herbig signed with the Philadelphia Eagles following the 2019 Draft. Foster Sarell joined the Baltimore Ravens following the 2021 Draft as an undrafted free agent.

In his third season in 2020, Carberry helped the Cardinal offense finish first in the PAC 12 in third and fourth-down conversion rate. Additionally, Stanford finished third in the Pac 12 in total offense averaging 420.2 yards per game. In a COVID-plagued season, Stanford won four-straight road games to end the year.

In his second season in 2019, the Cardinal run game began to take shape behind a retooled and healthy offensive line. Stanford started the same offensive line combination in all six games.

Senior center Drew Dalman anchored the line, earning first-team All-Pac-12 recognition. Walter Rouse also earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors from his left tackle spot.

The Cardinals scored 15 rushing touchdowns in just six games during the 2020 campaign, a marked improvement from rushing for just eight touchdowns in 12 games during 2019. The Cardinals improved on third down (48% in 2020 vs. 39% in 2019) and red-zone offense (78% TDs in 2020 vs. 47% TDs in 2019).

In his second season, Stanford started six different offensive line combinations, losing three week one starters to season-ending injuries. Four true freshmen started at least one game, including three for each of the final six games of the season. C Drew Dalman led the group in starting all 12 games to earn All-Pac-12 second team honors, while RT Foster Sarell earned honorable mention after starting 11 games. Freshman LT Walter Rouse played in all 12 games and started the final 11 after All-American Walker Little was injured in the season opener. Barrett Miller started the final eight games of the season at left guard and Jake Hornibrook the final six at right guard. Branson Bragg also started a game at right tackle before suffering a season-ending injury.

In his first season at Stanford in 2018, the Cardinals boasted two All-Conference performers on the offensive line, as Walker Little took first-team All-Pac 12 honors while Nate Herbig was a second-team selection. The 2018 Cardinals saw a string of injuries and caused Carberry to use eight different starting lineups in a 13-game schedule. Despite the injuries, Stanford ended the season with a win over Pitt in the Sun Bowl, finishing with a 9-4 record.

Carberry spent the 2016-17 seasons as the assistant offensive line coach with the Washington Football Team and the 2014-15 seasons as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys.

While with Washington, Carberry and offensive line coach Bill Callahan presided over one of the league's top units, producing two Pro Bowlers (tackle Trent Williams and guard Brandon Scherff) for the first time since 1991. The unit helped Washington to the third-ranked offense in the NFL, allowing the team to average more than 400 yards per game for the first time in team history and allowing only 23 sacks -- fourth in the NFL.

The tutelage and guidance of Carberry and Callahan were paramount in helping the Washington offense overcome a season-long rash of injuries and still average nearly 325 yards/game in 2017. Washington used 36 unique groups of offensive linemen (including seven different combinations of six-lineman groupings), as well as eight different starting lineups along the offensive line. Members of the unit were once again honored for their excellence, as Scherff earned his second Pro Bowl selection and Williams earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl nod despite battling a year-long knee injury. Together, Scherff and Williams became the first Washington offensive line duo collectively named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons since the 1983-86 seasons.

Carberry was key in the development of sixth-round draft pick Chase Roullier in Washington. As a rookie, Roullier played in 13 games while making seven starts.

In Dallas, Carberry assisted Mike Pope in coaching the tight ends in 2015, when Jason Witten led the team in receptions with 77 and finished second with 713 receiving yards. Carberry also aided in the development of rookie Geoff Swaim. The Cowboys finished fifth in the NFL in rushing yards/attempt (4.6).

In 2014, Carberry assisted Callahan with the offensive line. The Cowboys won their first NFC East title since 2009 and finished second in the NFL in rushing (147.1) with running back DeMarco Murray leading the league in rushing and setting a franchise record with 1,845 yards.

Carberry spent the first five seasons of his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a defensive graduate assistant at Kansas (2009-11) and coaching defensive ends at Stephen F. Austin (2012-13). He helped the Lumberjacks defense lead the Southland Conference with 31.0 sacks in 2012 and he also assisted with special teams. At Kansas, he coached with the defensive line and outside linebackers.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Carberry competed in training camps of the Cleveland Browns (2005) and Carolina Panthers (2006) and spent the 2005 season on the practice squad of the Detroit Lions. He also played for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in the spring of 2006. From 2007-08, he played in the Arena Football League for the New York Dragons and Philadelphia Soul and was a member of the Soul's 2008 Arena Bowl Championship squad.

Carberry also coached during his playing career, serving as the defensive coordinator, defensive line and inside linebackers coach at St. Ignatius College Prep (Ill.), during his AFL years in 2007-08. In 2006, he was a varsity assistant for Illinois state champion St. Rita High School, his alma mater.

Carberry, a four-year letterman at Ohio, earned All-MAC honors as senior team captain. The defensive lineman graduated from Ohio in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in marketing and earned his master's in sports administration from Kansas in 2010.

Carberry is married to his wife, Emily. The couple has one son, Frank, and one daughter, Elizabeth.

Eric Henderson is entering his fourth season with the Los Angeles Rams, his second season as the defensive line/run game coordinator.

He joined the Rams after a two-year stint with the Los Angeles Chargers as an assistant defensive line coach.

In 2021 with the leadership of Henderson, the Rams defense ranked third in sacks with 50 and fifth in tackles for loss (85) during the regular season.

Henderson also helped the Rams' defense finish sixth in the NFL in opponents rushing yards per game (103.2), and fifth in yards per rush (3.96). The Rams' defense held opponents to a 51.8% red zone efficiency rate, which ranked eighth-best in the NFL.

Henderson also elevated the play of DT A'Shawn Robinson, who had a stellar performance in Super Bowl LVI with six tackles (five solo), 1.0 sack, one tackle for loss, three pressures and one quarterback hit. With the fundamentals implemented by Henderson along the defensive line in 2019, the Rams rushing defense allowed only 3.74 yards per rush, the sixth-best average in the league. The improvement marked a more than 1.0 yard per rush improvement from the 4.86 yards per rush allowed during the 2018 season, prior to Henderson's arrival.

In Henderson's second season coaching the Chargers defensive line, the defense finished with 38.0 total sacks and DE Melvin Ingram led the team with (7.0). Ingram was also one-of-seven Bolts to be selected for the 2019 Pro Bowl. It was also his second consecutive appearance.

Henderson spent the 2016 season at the University of Texas - San Antonio where he was the defensive line coach. The Roadrunners went on to play in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl against New Mexico. Henderson coached Marcus Davenport, who recorded 6.5 sacks during the 2016 season. Davenport went on to be selected No. 14 overall by the New Orleans Saints in the 2018 NFL Draft, the highest Roadrunner ever drafted and only the second draft choice ever from UTSA.

Prior to joining the Roadrunners, Henderson spent three seasons at Oklahoma State from 2013-15. He was named defensive quality control coach during his third season after being a graduate assistant from 2013-14. During the three seasons at Oklahoma State, the Cowboys had a 27-12 record and made three bowl appearances. Zak Kromer

College: Oklahoma

NFL Coaching Year: 7

Rams Coaching Year: 6

Zak Kromer enters his seventh NFL season, sixth with the Los Angeles Rams and his second as offensive assistant.

During his first five seasons with the Rams from 2017-2021, Kromer primarily worked with the offensive line. With the help of Kromer, the offensive line has anchored one of the most productive offenses in the NFL over his time with Los Angeles. Heading into the 2022 season, Kromer is working closely with the tight end unit.

In his fourth season in L.A. in 2020, Kromer helped a rushing attack that finished 10th in the league, averaging 126.1 rushing yards per game. The team was led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a 61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest. It marked the longest rush of the McVay era.

In 2019, with the help of Kromer's adjustments throughout the season due to injury along the offensive front, the offensive line did not allow a sack in a franchise-best six games, while also allowing the fewest sacks in the league (22).

Kromer spent the 2016 season with the Buffalo Bills as an entry-level coaching assistant. Prior to the Bills, he spent four seasons at the University of Oklahoma as a student assistant for the football program.

Kromer earned a bachelor of arts degree in communications.

He is the son of the longtime NFL offensive line coach Aaron Kromer, who has 18 seasons of NFL experience.

Greg Olson

College: Central Washington

NFL Coaching Year: 21

Rams Coaching Year: 4

A veteran of 21 NFL seasons, this will be Olson's third stint with the Rams, and second with McVay, after serving as the club's quarterbacks coach in 2017. Olson has over 10 years of experience as an offensive coordinator at the NFL level. He returns to Los Angeles from Las Vegas, where he was the Raiders offensive coordinator from 2018-21.

He was previously the offensive coordinator while the franchise was in St. Louis (2006-07) and later the quarterbacks coach in McVay's first season (2017). In 2017, Olson helped former 2016 No. 1 overall pick Jared Goff to a breakout second NFL season – Goff completing 62.1 percent of his passes for 3,804 yards with 28 touchdowns and only seven interceptions.

Olson's time in St. Louis was highlighted by the 2006 campaign when the Rams became only the fourth team in league history to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Marc Bulger), a 1,500 yard rusher (Steven Jackson) and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). Bulger, Holt and Bruce were subsequently named to the Pro Bowl that year as the Rams finished with the NFL's No. 6 total offense and No. 3 passing offense.

Under Olson's guidance from 2018-21, the Raiders offense ranked 10th in yards per game (361.8), 9th in yards per play (5.73), 7th in pass yards per game (253.2), 13th in third down conversion rate (41%), and 3rd in fourth down conversion rate (61.3%).

In Olson's first season with the Jaguars, he helped the offense improve from the 32nd-ranked unit in 2014 to the 14th-ranked offense in 2015. Olson orchestrated a Jaguars offense that scored nearly eight more points per game in his first season in Jacksonville than the previous campaign, with the 376 points being the fifth-highest point total in a single season in franchise history. Olson's high-scoring 2015 Jacksonville offense also saw the team score a club record 51 points in a match-up with the Colts in Week 15. The Jaguars scored 44 touchdowns in 2015, the third-most in a single season in franchise history.

Under Olson's tutelage in 2015, Jaguars QB Blake Bortles threw for 4,428 yards and 35 touchdowns in his second NFL season.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Olson was the offensive coordinator with the Oakland Raiders for two seasons from 2013-14. In 2014, he worked closely with Raiders' first-round pick, QB Derek Carr. Carr threw for 3,270 yards and 21 touchdowns in his rookie campaign under Olson.

Additionally, Olson worked with Raiders QB Terrelle Pryor, who set the single-season franchise record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 576.

Olson spent four seasons with the Buccaneers from 2008-11, with the final three seasons coming as offensive coordinator. Olson helped develop QB Josh Freeman, the Bucs' first round draft pick in 2009. In Freeman's first three seasons as the club's starting quarterback, he threw for nearly 9,000 yards with 51 touchdowns.

In 2010, Olson's second season at the helm of the Tampa Bay offense, the Buccaneers were the NFL's youngest team, but still went on to set franchise records in yards per play, yards per pass play, passer rating and fewest interceptions thrown. Additionally, the Buccaneers offense finished in the top-five in franchise history in points scored, total offense and third down percentage.

After being elevated to offensive coordinator during training camp of the 2009 season, Olson's offense improved throughout the year. Freeman, while working alongside Olson, set Buccaneer rookie records for touchdown passes and passing yards. Olson arrived with the Buccaneers after spending two seasons as the Rams offensive coordinator from 2006-07.

Before working with the Rams, Olson spent two seasons with the Detroit Lions, first as quarterbacks coach before being elevated to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach midway through the 2005 season. In the final three games of the 2004 season, Olson took over play-calling duties in Detroit and helped the Lions average 403.6 yards per game.

Olson came to Detroit after working one season as quarterbacks coach for the Chicago Bears in 2003. Prior to his time in Chicago, Olson spent one season as tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator at Purdue.

Olson began his NFL coaching career as the San Francisco 49ers quarterbacks coach in 2001. In his lone season with the 49ers, Olson helped QB Jeff Garcia throw for a career-high 32 touchdowns and career-bests in completion percentage and passer rating.

Prior to his break into the NFL, Olson was the quarterbacks coach at Purdue, where he played a prominent role in the development of future Super Bowl-winning QB Drew Brees. Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000 under Olson and ended his career as the Big Ten's all-time leader in passing yards, touchdown passes, total yards, completion percentage, completions and attempts.

Olson was an assistant at Idaho for three seasons after spending four seasons at his alma mater, Central Washington, from 1990-93. At Central Washington, he worked with QB Jon Kitna, who would go on to have a 17-year career in the NFL.

Olson began his coaching career under Dennis Erickson, serving as a graduate assistant at Washington State in 1987.

Olson played quarterback collegiately at Spokane Falls Junior College before going to Central Washington from 1983-84.

Greg Olson and his wife, Lissa, are the parents of two children (twins): Kenny and Grayce. Kenny plays football at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and Grayce plays volleyball at UCLA.

Johnson did not play in the team's bowl game appearance, and Peetz helped senior wide receiver and former quarterback Jontre Kirklín throw for three touchdowns, which tied for third-most for a "quarterback" in a bowl game for the Tigers.

Peetz also spent two years with the Carolina Panthers, coaching the quarterbacks in 2019 when Christian McCaffrey put together a record-breaking season. In 2019, McCaffrey led the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,392) and became just the third player in NFL history with over 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. He also set the NFL record for receptions by a running back with 116 in 2019, becoming only the second player in league history with 1,000 rushing yards and 100 receptions in the same season.

In 2020, Peetz helped Carolina produce four players with over 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season as the Panthers became only the fifth team in the Super Bowl era to accomplish such a feat. Bridgewater completed 69.2 percent of his passes and threw for 3,733 yards and 15 TDs for the Panthers in 2020. The Panthers' offense also produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in 2020 with Robby Anderson and D.J. Moore both eclipsing the mark.

Peetz joins the Rams with 10 years of NFL experience and has worked with quarterbacks such as Bridgewater (Panthers), Derek Carr (Raiders), Kirk Cousins (Commanders), Chad Henne (Jaguars) and Blaine Gabbert (Jaguars).

NFL stops for Peetz included the Oakland Raiders (2015-17), Washington Commanders (2014) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2012). Peetz spent the 2013 and 2018 seasons as an offensive analyst with Alabama. He also coached at Santa Barbara City College in 2006 and at UCLA in 2007. He was a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2008-11 before moving to an on-field coaching position with the franchise in 2012.

Peetz coached quarterbacks in his final two seasons in Oakland (2016-17), serving as assistant quarterback coach in 2016 and quarterbacks coach in 2017. Raiders quarterback Derek Carr earned two of his three consecutive Pro Bowl selections working with Peetz. He originally joined the team as a senior offensive assistant in 2015, working primarily with the running backs. He helped Latavious Murray earn Pro Bowl honors after rushing for 1,066 yards and six touchdowns, the first 1,000-yard rushing season by a Raider since 2010.

Peetz spent one year with Washington as the offensive quality control/assistant wide receivers coach in 2014. In his one season working with Peetz, Washington wide receiver DeSean Jackson led the NFL with an average of 20.9 yards per reception and led the team with 1,169 receiving yards.

Peetz played defensive back and a long snapper at Nebraska from 2003-05. While at Nebraska, he was twice named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach work. He graduated from Nebraska in exercise science in December of 2005.

Peetz and his wife Maggie have seven children – Gianna, Julia, John Robert, Emma, William, and George.

Yarber has also been crucial in the development of Receiver Van Jefferson, who had a breakout 2021 season starting all 17 games and hauling in 50 catches for 802 yards and six touchdowns. With Yarber's leadership, mid-season acquisition Odell Beckham Jr. was able to quickly acclimate to the Rams offensive system and play a key role in the offensive production during the Rams' Super Bowl run.

Kupp recorded his first 1,000-yard season of his career with 1,061 receiving yards while also leading the team in receptions (94). Kupp finished with a career-high 220 yards on seven receptions against the Bengals in the Rams' International Series win. Cooks (1,204) and fellow wideout Robert Woods (1,219) posted career-highs in receiving yards while becoming the first Rams receiving duo to surpass 1,000 yards each since Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce in 2006.

During the 2017 season, the newly-acquired Woods recorded a then personal-best 781 yards receiving, which ranked third amongst the 2017 free agent wide receiver group. Rookie WR Cooper Kupp finished with a team-best 869 yards receiving, the second-most amongst all rookies and was named to the Pro Football Writers Association (PFWA) All-Rookie team.

Prior to joining the Rams in 2017, Yarber spent the previous five seasons with the UCLA Bruins in the same capacity. Previously, he held NFL coaching positions with the Seattle Seahawks, San Francisco 49ers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Yarber joined the Bruins staff as receivers coach in 2012. During his tenure, seven of Yarber's wide receivers were selected in the NFL Draft, including three of his Bruin receivers in the 2016 NFL Draft.

The Bruins pass offense ranked 18th in the nation (295.6 yards per game) in 2016. The season saw the emergence of receivers Darren Andrews, Jordan Lasley and Kenneth Walker. Andrews ranked 10th in the Pac-12 in receptions per game and led the team with 55 catches. Lasley came on strong over the course of the season and recorded 41 receptions while leading the team with six touchdowns. Walker caught 22 balls and scored four times.

Jordan Payton was invited to the Senior Bowl and then chosen by Cleveland in the 2016 NFL Draft. Payton became UCLA's all-time receptions leader during the 2015 campaign and became the first Bruin to ever catch 200 career passes. He also moved up to third on the all-time receiving yards list and ranked among the nation's top 25 in receiving yards (1,106) and receiving yards per game (85.1). Thomas Duarte, a Miami Dolphins draft selection, earned second-team all-conference honors after registering 10 touchdown catches which ranks fourth on the all-time school single-season list and was 17th in the NCAA. Devin Fuller, drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, moved up to the top six in career receptions.

In year two at UCLA, Yarber helped senior Shaq Evans, a fourth-round selection of the New York Jets in the 2014 NFL Draft, finish his career ranked tied for 10th on the school's all-time reception list. Evans earned an invite to the Senior Bowl and the NFL Combine after catching nine scoring passes in 2013, tied for ninth on the all-time school list.

In 2011, Yarber worked as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams. Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber came to Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) on the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight scores before being invited to the Senior Bowl and becoming a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards after the catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). He coached Ken Simonton, who was inducted into the Oregon State Hall of Fame after setting program records that still stand today. Simonton posted records in career rushing yards (5,044); attempts (1,041); touchdowns (59) and 100-yard games (26). Simonton was the first Beaver to gain 1,000 or more yards in three seasons. His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft. Johnson also earned a Senior Bowl invitation.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive assistant/assistant running backs coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, Idaho.

College: The former high school quarterback began his career at Wisconsin as a tight end before moving to offensive line prior to the start of training camp in 2016. He played in 37 games (31 starts) at right tackle and elected to forgo his senior season and declare for the 2019 NFL Draft. As a junior in 2018, he earned his third letter after starting 10 games at right tackle before missing the final three due to a knee injury. Edwards was part of an offensive line that paved the way for Doak Walker Award winner Jonathan Taylor and the Wisconsin rushing attack which led the Big Ten and ranked no. 6 nationally averaging 273.4 yards per game. Edwards made his college debut in 2016 at the Lambeau Field College Classic vs. LSU.

Personal: Edwards was a three-star recruit that played three seasons at quarterback for the Downers Grove North. He also played defensive end, outside linebacker and long snapper, helping to lead his team to a pair of state quarterfinal appearances. As an option quarterback, he generated more than 2,000 yards and garnered all-area status as a sophomore. The senior team captain also was a four-year letter winner and two-year team captain in basketball in high school. He is the son of David and Pamela Edwards. His father played football at Indiana University. He majored in finance, investment and banking.

Community Impact: In partnership with EVERFI's Character Playbook last year, David Edwards helped kickoff the Rams' four-month virtual Mental Health series for LA region students grades 6-9. He virtually led a 45-minute session for more than 700 students and discussed mental wellness basics with Rams Sports Psychologist Carrie Hastings. Edwards has also served as a volunteer coach and a food pantry helper in his hometown community.

2021 Game Summaries

Weather: 71 degrees, sunny - Attendance 70,445 - Time 2:48

The moment was five years in the making, and met with a worthy build-up. A pre-game opening ceremony began the festivities, then the legendary Michael Buffer's "Let's get ready to ruuummmble!" christened it prior to kickoff. The Rams followed through with a memorable performance in the first regular season game at SoFi Stadium with fans in attendance. Quarterback Matthew Stafford needed just two passes to throw his first touchdown as a Ram, finishing 20 of 26 overall for 321 yards and three touchdowns, and the Rams defense generated a pair of takeaways to lead Los Angeles (1-0) to a 34-14 win over the Chicago Bears (0-1) Sunday night at SoFi Stadium. Wide receiver Van Jefferson caught Stafford's first touchdown pass as a Ram and finished with two receptions for 80 yards in addition to the score. Wide receiver Cooper Kupp led Los Angeles in receiving with seven catches for 108 yards and one touchdown. Running back Darrell Henderson Jr. led the Rams in rushing with 16 carries for 70 yards and one touchdown. Linebacker Kenny Young had a hand in both of L.A.'s takeaways, tipping a pass by Bears quarterback Andy Dalton that led to an interception by cornerback David Long Jr., and also recovering outside linebacker Justin Hollins' sack-fumble. Here's the complete game recap, presented by SoFi: Including the return on the opening kickoff, the Bears reached the redzone in just three plays. However, the Rams defense held strong with Young tipping Dalton's pass and Long collecting it for the interception. Three plays later, new Stafford launched a 67-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Van Jefferson to give the Rams an early 7-0 lead with 10:36 left in the first quarter. Nearly six minutes later, the Rams extended their lead to 10-0 late in the first quarter with a 53-yard field goal from kicker Matt Gay, then turned their second takeaway of the game – a sack-fumble Hollins that was recovered by Young – into points. Aided by a 13-yard completion from Stafford to Jefferson on 4th and 1 from the Bears 32, the Rams tacked on another field goal from Gay, this time from 22 yards out, to extend their lead to 13-0 with 11:39 left in the second quarter. A 3-yard touchdown run by Bears running back David Montgomery with 34 seconds in the first half left cut the Rams' lead to 13-7 by halftime. However, the Rams answered quickly on the opening drive of the second half, with Stafford connecting with wide receiver Cooper Kupp for a 56-yard touchdown pass to give them a 20-7 lead. The Bears responded on the ensuing series with a 3-yard touchdown run by rookie quarterback Justin Fields to pull back within six, but the Rams answered with a scoring drive punctuated by a 1-yard touchdown run by running back Darrell Henderson Jr. to go back up by double digits, 27-14, with 1:14 left in the third quarter. Henderson's touchdown was set up by a 17-yard completion from Stafford to Kupp, as well as a 37-yard completion from Stafford to tight end Tyler Higbee. Looking to answer Los Angeles again, Chicago went for it on 4th and 15 from the Los Angeles 30-yard line, but rookie cornerback Robert Rochell broke up Dalton's pass intended for wide receiver Darnell Mooney to force the turnover on downs. The Bears faced that long distance because of a sack by Rams outside linebacker Justin Hollins on 1st and 10 from the Rams' 25. A late two-yard, fourth-quarter touchdown pass from Stafford to wide receiver Robert Woods gave Stafford his third of the night and extended the Rams' lead to 34-14 with 3:17 left.

Kicker Matt Gay's 38-yard field goal with 2 minutes and 23 seconds left in the fourth quarter and cornerback Jalen Ramsey's interception eight seconds later lifted the Los Angeles Rams (2-0) to a 27-24 Week 2 win over the Indianapolis Colts (0-2) on Sunday at Lucas Oil Stadium. Tied at 24 with 2:27 left in the fourth quarter, the Rams took a 27-24 lead on Gay's field goal, then saw Ramsey intercept the second pass thrown by Colts quarterback Jacob Eason – who replaced Carson Wentz after Wentz sustained an ankle injury on the previous drive – to come away with the win, as the Colts could not muster anything on their final possession. Quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 19 of 30 pass attempts for 278 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. Both of his passing touchdowns went to wide receiver Cooper Kupp, who also finished with nine catches for 163 yards. Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day led the Rams defense with nine total tackles, one sack and two QB hits. Safety Taylor Rapp also finished with nine total tackles and half of a sack. The Colts returned the opening kickoff to their own 41 and quickly made their way to the Rams' 1-yard line. Though the Colts had four chances to get into the endzone, they were denied via a fourth-down goal-line stand thanks to Floyd's sack. Eight plays later, the Rams' offense got them on the board with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp for a 7-0 lead with 3:18 left in the first quarter. Indianapolis answered with a 48-yard field goal on the ensuing drive to cut the Rams' lead to four early in the second quarter. It appeared to be on its way to taking a lead over Los Angeles in wake of tipping and intercepting a Stafford pass, until Wentz's shovel pass intended for tight end Jack Doyle was intercepted by linebacker Troy Reeder at the L.A. 3-yard line and returned two yards. The 16-play, 79-yard drive that followed ended with a 34-yard field goal by Matt Gay to give the Rams a 10-3 lead with 1:51 left in the first half, before the Colts trimmed the Rams' lead back to four with a 46-yard field goal at the end of the first half. The Rams extended their lead to 17-6 on the opening drive of the second half. Keyed by a 43-yard catch-and-run by Kupp on a screen pass from Stafford, Los Angeles capped off the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Henderson. With the Colts inside the Rams 10 late in the third quarter, linebacker Kenny Young was ejected for contact with an official. Three plays later, Wentz completed an 8-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Zach Pascal, then found tight end Jack Doyle for the 2-point conversion to cut the Rams' lead to 17-14 with 3:43 left in the third quarter. The Rams trailed for the first time after the Colts recovered a botched snap by Rams longsnapper Matthew Orzech in the endzone early in the fourth quarter to go up 21-17. However, it took the Rams just four plays to respond on the ensuing drive, as Stafford found Kupp for a 44-yard completion, then a 10-yard completion for a touchdown to regain the lead 24-21 with 12:09 left in the fourth quarter. Rams defensive lineman Aaron Donald's near sack of Wentz midway through the fourth quarter forced the Colts to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Blankenship that tied the game at 24. However, Wentz was shaken up as he fell to the ground after throwing the ball to avoid the sack. The Rams managed to add a 38-yard field goal by Gay on the ensuing series. Three plays later, Ramsey picked off Eason to seal the victory. The Colts were unable to manufacture anything on the final drive.

A strong offensive performance led by quarterback Matthew Stafford and wide receivers Cooper Kupp and DeSean Jackson powered the Los Angeles Rams (3-0) to a 34-24 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2-1) Sunday afternoon at SoFi Stadium. Stafford finished 27 of 38 for 343 yards and four touchdowns, Kupp nine catches for 96 yards and two touchdowns and Jackson three receptions for 120 yards and one touchdown to help the Rams remain undefeated. Tight end Tyler Higbee (five receptions for 40 yards) accounted for Stafford's other passing touchdown. With Darrell Henderson Jr. (ribs) inactive, Sony Michel carried the load at running back with 20 carries for 67 yards, both team-highs. Linebacker Kenny Young and defensive lineman Aaron Donald both authored strong performances for Los Angeles' defense. Young posted a team-high 10 total tackles, plus one sack, one QB hit and one forced fumble, while Donald had three total tackles, one sack-fumble and one pass breakup. The sack moved Donald into a tie with defensive end Leonard Little for most career sacks in Rams franchise history (87.5). Here is the complete game recap, powered by Verizon: Both teams traded 3-and-outs at the start of the game. The Rams went with Jake Funk at running back on their first offensive series, then Michel on their second. Wide receiver DeSean Jackson was also in for the Rams on that second series, and was targeted deep downfield by Stafford on 3rd and 10, but Bucs cornerback Ross Cockrell was there to break up the pass. Los Angeles eventually settled in on their third offensive series, riding Michel, a 12-yard completion to Higbee and 22-yard completion to Kupp to get into Tampa Bay territory. The drive ended with a six-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Higbee to give the Rams a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter. However, Tampa Bay answered on the following drive with a 2-yard touchdown run on a jet sweep by wide receiver Chris Godwin to tie the game 7-7 with 4:03 left in the first half. The Rams responded with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp, and maintained that 14-7 lead at halftime after Bucs kicker Ryan Succop's 55-yard attempt as time expired at the end of the first half missed wide right. The Rams were also helped on the drive by Donald notching his first career sack against Tom Brady, a sack-fumble, to be specific, that contributed to the Bucs settling for that field goal. The Rams extended their lead to 21-7 on the opening drive of the second half, as Stafford connected with Jackson for a 75-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter, but the Bucs pulled within seven again after a 1-yard touchdown run by Brady a little over four minutes later. The Rams answered with a scoring drive of their own, as Stafford found Kupp for a 10-yard touchdown to regain a 14-point advantage with 7:23 left in the third quarter. Looking to answer again, the Bucs instead had their drive stall with a 3-and-out, followed by a shanked punt by punter Bradley Pinion that traveled only 15 yards and set the Rams up at the Bucs 42-yard line. After the shanked punt, the teams traded field goals – a 48-yarder by Gay and 26-yarder by Succop – to give the Rams a 31-17 lead at the end of the third quarter. Los Angeles later mounted a 8-minute scoring drive to add another field goal by Gay (26 yards) to extend their lead to 34-17 midway through the fourth quarter. The Bucs added a touchdown with 1:10 left on a 7-yard pass from Brady to Bucs running back Giovanni Bernard to cut the Rams' lead to 10, but their ensuing onside kick was recovered by Kupp.

Safety Taylor Rapp posted a team-high 12 total tackles, while defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day added eight total tackles and one sack. Outside linebackers Leonard Floyd and Terrell Lewis each chipped in a sack as well. Here is the complete game recap, powered by Cedars-Sinai: Helped by a 20-yard completion to Jefferson and an 18-yard completion to Higbee, the Rams opened the game scoring first with a 42-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay for an early 3-0 lead. After a 3-and-out by the Cardinals punctuated by Floyd sacking Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray for a 14-yard loss, the Rams looked to expand their lead with a deep shot downfield from Stafford to Jackson, but Cardinals cornerback Byron Murphy jumped in front of the underthrown ball for the interception. Arizona then capitalized on the takeaway with a 41-yard touchdown pass from Murray to wide receiver A.J. Green to take a 7-3 lead over Los Angeles with 5:50 left in the first quarter. Riding runs of 15, nine and 15 yards by Henderson on the following series, the Rams answered the Cardinals' touchdown with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Jefferson to regain the lead, 10-7. However, the Cardinals responded with another touchdown on the ensuing series – a 14-yard pass from Murray to tight end Maxx Williams – to regain the lead 14-10 early in the second quarter. Trailing by four, the Rams committed their second turnover of the game via a fumble by running back Sony Michel that was recovered by the Cardinals at the Rams 21 yard line. Aided by an 18-yard scramble to convert on 3rd and 16 from the Rams 27, the Cardinals also capitalized on that turnover with a 1-yard touchdown run by running back James Conner to go up 21-10. A 22-yard field goal by Gay with 3:22 left in the first half cut the Rams' deficit to eight, but the Cardinals milked the remaining time with a field goal-scoring drive to take a 24-13 lead into halftime. Receiving the second half kickoff, Arizona opened the third quarter extending their lead to 14 with a 55-yard field goal by Prater. Los Angeles reached Arizona territory on the ensuing series, but couldn't answer as Gay's 46-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. Its deficit grew to 21 late in the third quarter with a 1-yard touchdown run by Conner. The Rams were on the doorstep of potentially making it a two-possession game on the ensuing possession, reaching the Cardinals 1-yard line. However, forced to go for it on 4th and goal for the 1, they were unable to convert after Stafford's pass intended for tight end Tyler Higbee fell incomplete. A 23-yard field goal by Prater extended Arizona's lead to 37-13 with 3:38 left in the game. Stafford connected with Woods for a 14-yard touchdown pass with 1:14 left to cut the Rams' deficit to 17.

The crowd was fired up after a defensive stand by the Seahawks gave them a chance to potentially regain the lead over the Rams with 2:17 remaining. Rams safety Nick Scott had other ideas. Scott's interception on Seahawks quarterback Geno Smith's pass intended for Tyler Lockett gave the Rams the ball back and set up a successful 47-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay to give Los Angeles (4-1) a 26-17 win over Seattle (2-3) at Lumen Field. Here is the complete game recap: The Rams punted on their first two offensive possessions, but thanks to a big 4th down stop at their own 29-yard line by their defense, appeared to be finally breaking through on their third, only to have that series end with Stafford getting intercepted in the endzone after getting inside the Seahawks 10-yard line. Four plays later, Reeder's interception off a Wilson pass tipped by cornerback Jalen Ramsey got the Rams the ball back near midfield, but the Rams went 3-and-out and were forced to punt. The Seahawks then scored the game's first points on the ensuing drive. Helped largely by a 47-yard defensive pass interference penalty against cornerback Robert Rochell which moved them to the Rams 22, Wilson threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver DK Metcalf two plays later to put Seattle up 7-0 with 9:04 left in the first half. Los Angeles responded with a scoring drive lasting nearly eight minutes that ended with a 31-yard field goal by Gay to cut their deficit to four with 1:12 left until halftime. Seattle almost answered with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to wide receiver Tyler Lockett on the ensuing drive, but the play was negating by a holding penalty on Seattle left tackle Duane Brown. Forced to eventually settle for a 35-yard field goal attempt by kicker Jason Myers, the Seahawks saw the attempt miss wide left. The Rams took their first lead midway through the third quarter when, two plays after Stafford launched a 68-yard completion to wide receiver DeSean Jackson, Henderson found the endzone from five yards out. The ensuing extra point attempt by Gay was blocked, however, making it 9-7 Rams. After another defensive stand, the Rams found the endzone again. Aided by back-to-back 20-yard receptions by Woods, Stafford found Higbee for a 13-yard touchdown pass to extend the Rams' lead to 16-7 with 4:48 to go in the third quarter. On the ensuing defensive series, Donald sacked Wilson to give him 88.5 for his career, breaking the Rams' career franchise record, and the Seahawks were forced to punt. The punt was blocked by outside linebacker Jamir Jones, but Seahawks punter Michael Dickson managed to recover the loose ball and kick the ball again, pinning the Rams at their own 11. Geno Smith replaced Russell Wilson early in the fourth quarter, with Wilson shortly thereafter declared questionable with a finger injury. However, Seattle's offense didn't skip a beat, as Smith led them on a 10-play, 98-yard scoring drive that ended with a 23-yard touchdown pass from him to Metcalf and cut the Rams' lead to 16-14 with 9:16 remaining. However, the Rams answered with a scoring drive of their own six plays later, as running back Sony Michel rushed for a 2-yard touchdown to put them up 23-14 with 6:11 left. The drive was helped by a 24-yard completion from Stafford to Woods and 33-yard completion from Stafford to Kupp, with Kupp making the catch while sliding. Scott's interception set up the 47-yard field goal by Gay to give the Rams a 26-17 lead with 24 seconds left.

A complementary effort in all three phases paved the way for a 38-11 Rams victory over the New York Giants (1-5) on Sunday at MetLife Stadium. The win also helped L.A. (5-1) stay a perfect 3-0 on the road this season. Three of the four takeaways created by the Rams defense – a sack-fumble by outside linebacker Ogbo Okoronkwo and an interception by safety Taylor Rapp – directly led to 21 of their 38 points. The Rams scored 28 of their 38 points and secured three of their four takeaways by halftime. Rapp finished with two interceptions overall, snagging another late in the third quarter that led to a 13-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matthew Stafford to wide receiver Cooper Kupp. Rookie Robert Rochell also notched the first interception of his NFL career. Kupp caught his 30th and 31st career touchdowns, surpassing Rams legend Isaac Bruce's 29 for most such scores through a player's first 60 games in franchise history. Kupp finished with a team-high nine receptions for 130 yards overall in addition to the pair of touchdowns. Running back Darrell Henderson Jr. tallied 107 yards from scrimmage and two total touchdowns in the win, while quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 22 of 28 passes for 251 yards and four touchdowns with one interception. Additionally, all four of punter Johnny Hekker's punts landed inside the 20, while Matt Gay made his lone field goal attempt and all five of his extra point attempts. Here is the complete game recap: The Giants got on the board first with a 27-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano for a 3-0 lead with 9:21 left in the first quarter. Twice the Rams got into Giants territory on each of their first two drives, but each time they were forced to punt. The second punt attempt was initially a successful conversion on a 15-yard pass from punter Johnny Hekker to wide receiver Ben Skowronek, but offsetting unsportsmanlike conduct penalties negated the play and forced the Rams to punt anyway. Nonetheless, the Rams broke through on their third possession with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to wide receiver Robert Woods to take a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter. The scoring drive was set up by a 28-yard completion from Stafford to Kupp. Okoronkwo's sack-fumble on Giants quarterback Daniel Jones set the Rams up at the Giants 12 following Floyd's recovery. The Rams elected to go for it on 4th and 1 from the Giants 3 and successfully converted with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp, giving them a 14-3 lead. A second takeaway – this time an interception by Rapp – led to Los Angeles' third score, as Henderson found the endzone four plays later via a 2-yard touchdown run by Henderson to go up 21-3. A 25-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Henderson expanded the Rams' lead to 28-3 by halftime. Kicker Matt Gay's 31-yard field goal expanded the Rams' lead to 31-3 late in the third quarter, coming at the end of a 9 minute and 15 second drive, then Stafford threw his second touchdown pass to Kupp and fourth overall to give the Rams a 38-3 lead early in the fourth quarter. Stafford was replaced by John Wolford on the next offensive series. The Giants added a 4-yard touchdown run by running back Elijah Penny and two-point conversion on a completion from Jones to tight end Kyle Rudolph, but with the Rams still up 27, it was too little, too late to make a difference with 6:21 left in the game.

Big performances by quarterback Matthew Stafford and wide receiver Cooper Kupp and a late fourth-quarter interception by cornerback Jalen Ramsey lifted the Rams (6-1) to a 28-19 win over the Lions (0-7) on Sunday at SoFi Stadium. The Lions were threatening to score after the Rams regained the lead on a 5-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp, reaching the Rams 12-yard line on the ensuing possession. Ramsey ensured their lead would be preserved by intercepting Lions quarterback Jared Goff in the endzone. From there, the Rams managed a 47-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay on the ensuing possession to put the game out of reach, then Rams safety Nick Scott made a diving interception on the Lions' final possession to clinch the victory. Stafford reached, and later eclipsed, 300 career passing touchdowns, becoming the seventh-fastest QB to reach the mark. At 301, he passed former Broncos quarterback John Elway for 12th on the NFL's corresponding all-time list. Stafford finished the game 28 of 41 for 334 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions. Kupp, meanwhile, hauled in 10 of 13 targets for 156 yards and two touchdowns – all team-highs. Here is the complete game recap: The Lions scored on the game's first possession, taking an early 7-0 lead after running back D'Andre Swift took a screen pass from Goff 63 yards for a touchdown. Detroit then successfully recovered an onside kick following that touchdown. It was forced to punt near midfield and the end of the ensuing series, but instead faked it with punter Jack Fox completing a pass to cornerback Bobby Price for the fourth-down conversion. Set up at the Rams' 33 following that completion, the Lions were held to a 37-yard field goal and increased their lead to 10. By that point, the Rams finally took their first offensive snaps with 7:23 left in the first quarter. Stafford completed a 16-yard pass to Tyler Higbee and 29-yard pass to Kupp to quickly move them into Lions territory, and the Rams managed a 33-yard field goal by Gay to cut their deficit to 10-3 with 2:55 left in the first quarter. The Lions regained a 10-point lead via kicker Austin Seibert's successful 47-yard field goal attempt early in the second quarter, but the Rams answered on the ensuing series with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Van Jefferson. The Rams then gained the first lead of the contest on a 2-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp with 1:23 left in the first half. The Lions tacked on a 41-yard field goal by Seibert on the following possession with four seconds left in the first half to cut the Rams' halftime lead to one. The Lions used another fake punt, this time safety C.J. Moore taking the snap and running 28 yards for the fourth down conversion, to move into Rams territory midway through the third quarter. However, they would turn the ball over on downs after linebacker Kenny Young stopped Swift for no gain on 4th and 1 from the Rams 18. The Rams faced their own 4th and 1 on the ensuing drive, but from the Lions 46, and didn't convert, giving the ball back to the Lions. While Detroit could only manage a 31-yard field goal at the end of the drive, they regained the lead 19-17 with 1:43 left in the third quarter. Los Angeles ensured it would answer. Helped by a 59-yard completion from Stafford to Kupp, L.A. reached the Detroit 19 just before the end of the third quarter, then reached the endzone four plays later via a 5-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp. Wide receiver Robert Woods took the ball in for the ensuing two-point conversion, giving the Rams a 25-19 lead. The Lions threatened on the following possession, reaching the Rams 12, but Jalen Ramsey's clutch interception ensured the Lions came up empty. The Rams added a 47-yard field goal by Gay on the following possession to extend their lead to 28-19 with 58 seconds left. Though the Lions reached midfield on their final offensive possession, Scott came up with a diving interception to dash any chances of a Lions comeback and secure the win for the Rams.

The Rams (7-1) reached a season-best four-game win streak with their 38-22 victory over the Texans (1-7) on Sunday at NRG Stadium. Making his first NFL start, Rams rookie linebacker Ernest Jones snagged the first interception of his NFL career, a takeaway that set up a Los Angeles touchdown. Defensive lineman Aaron Donald had his first multi-sack game of the season with 1.5, while outside linebacker Leonard Floyd had his second with 2.0. On offense, quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 21 of 32 pass attempts for 305 yards and three touchdowns – one to running back Darrell Henderson Jr., one to wide receiver Robert Woods and one to wide receiver Cooper Kupp – before being pulled after the third quarter. Kupp posted a team-high seven catches for 115 yards in addition to that touchdown, while Henderson posted 14 carries for 90 yards and one rushing touchdown in addition to his receiving score. Woods collected three catches for 35 yards, and also rushed for a 16-yard touchdown. Here is the complete game recap: The Rams got on the board first with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Henderson at the end of the game's first possession. Similar to their first offensive series, the Rams would lean on explosive runs by Henderson, who had carries that went for 16 and 19 yards on the drive. However, it ended with a turnover on downs on 4th and 1 at the Texans 3 after Stafford's pass for Henderson was incomplete. A 27-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay extended the Rams' lead to 10-0 midway through the second quarter. On the ensuing Texans possession, Jones picked off Texans quarterback Davis Mills and returned the interception 19 yards, setting up the Rams at the Texans 12. Five plays later, Stafford connected with Woods for a 2-yard touchdown pass to put the Rams up 17-0 with 6:09 left in the first half. A 52-yard catch-and-run by Kupp put the Rams at the Texans 12-yard line just before the two-minute mark of the first half. Four plays later, Henderson punched it in from one yard out to put the Rams up 24-0. The Texans put themselves in position to potentially add three points at the end of the first half, but kicker Ka'imi Fairbairn's 45-yard field goal attempt missed wide right as time expired. The Rams expanded their lead to 31-0 via an 11-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp midway through the third quarter, a play set up by a 68-yard completion from Stafford to wide receiver Van Jefferson. Woods' rushing touchdown late in the third quarter made the their lead 38-0. The Texans did not score their first points of the game until midway through the fourth quarter – after the Rams had pulled most of their starters – on a 1-yard touchdown run by running back Rex Burkhead. They recovered the ensuing onside kick attempt, then scored a second touchdown via a 45-yard pass from Mills to wide receiver Brandin Cooks reduced the Rams' lead to 24 with five minutes remaining. A 9-yard touchdown pass from Mills to tight end Brevin Jordan, then rushing 2-point attempt made it 22 answered in a six-minute span for Houston, cutting Los Angeles' lead to 38-22 with 2:35 remaining. The Texans attempted a second onside kick following the touchdown from Mills to Jordan, but the Rams recovered with 2:27 remaining. While the Rams were forced to punt on the ensuing possession, punter Johnny Hekker's punt was downed by wide receiver Ben Skworonek at the Texans 2. And between the shallow field position and 16-point deficit with two minutes remaining, there wasn't enough time for the Texans to complete a comeback.

The Rams (7-2) saw their four-game win streak snapped with a 28-16 loss to the Titans (7-2) Sunday night at SoFi Stadium. Cornerback Jalen Ramsey tallied three tackles (one for loss), an interception and a pass breakup for the Rams' defense, while outside linebacker Leonard Floyd and defensive lineman Aaron Donald each chipped in one sack as well as three QB hits and two QB hits, respectively. Quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 31 of 48 pass attempts for 294 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions in the loss. Wide receiver Cooper Kupp surpassed 1,000 yards receiving on the season with 95 yards on 11 receptions, becoming the 15th player in NFL history to hit 1,000 receiving yards through the first nine games of a season. His reception total also made him the new franchise record-holder for most receptions through the first nine games of a single season, surpassing Torry Holt's 66 in 2003. Wide receiver Robert Woods led Los Angeles' receivers with 98 receiving yards on seven receptions. Here is the complete game recap, presented by American Airlines: The Rams' first drive ended with a punt after back-to-back sacks on third and fourth down. However, thanks to cornerback Jalen Ramsey's interception on the following possession, they were able to get the ball back four plays later. The takeaway led to Los Angeles' first points, a 34-yard field goal by Gay for a 3-0 lead with 3:46 left in the first quarter. The Titans then took the lead early in the second quarter, intercepting Stafford's attempt to throw the ball away to avoid a safety, then reaching the endzone via a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to tight end Geoff Swaim to go up 7-3. The Rams were backed up deep in their own territory after Titans punter Brett Kern's 57-yard punt was downed at the Rams 4-yard line. The Titans intercepted Stafford on his next pass attempt, with safety Kevin Byard returning it 24 yards for a touchdown to increase their lead to 14-3. They expanded their lead to 21-3 just before the 2-minute warning of the first half on a 1-yard run on a bootleg by Tannehill on 4th and goal from the Rams 1. Keyed by Stafford completions of 20 and 15 yards to Jefferson and a 26-yard screen to Higbee, the Rams initially scored their first touchdown on a 4-yard pass from Stafford to Higbee. However, officials overturned the call upon further review, saying Higbee stepped out of bounds before making the catch. The Rams instead settled for a 22-yard field goal by Gay to cut their deficit to 15 midway through the third quarter. The Rams opened the fourth quarter with a 54-yard field goal by Gay to reduce their deficit to 21-9. A third-down stop at midfield gave the Rams another chance to cut into the Titans lead, but they were unable to capitalize after Stafford's pass on 4th and 1 from the Titans 40 fell incomplete, resulting in a turnover on downs with 6:39 left in the fourth quarter. The Titans added a 1-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter by running back Adrian Peterson to make it 28-9, a drive advanced and aided by a pair of roughing the passer penalties against the Rams. The Rams scored on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to running back Sony Michel to cut their deficit to 12, but coming with 24 seconds remaining in the game, there wasn't enough time left to further chip away at their deficit. The Rams' ensuing onside kick attempt went out of bounds, giving the ball back to the Titans to run out the remaining clock to secure the victory.

The Rams (7-3, 1-2 NFC West) fell to the 49ers 31-10 Monday night at Levi's Stadium. San Francisco (4-5, 1-3) controlled the time of possession 39:03-20:57, making it difficult for Los Angeles' offense to get opportunities. San Francisco was also 8 of 14 on third down, while Los Angeles was 3 of 10. Wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. and outside linebacker Von Miller both made their Rams debuts, each getting the start Monday night. Beckham finished with two catches for 18 yards, while Miller had three total tackles. Quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 26 of 41 passes for 243 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions in the loss – the lone touchdown pass going to tight end Tyler Higbee – while wide receiver Cooper Kupp had 11 receptions for 122 yards. Safety Taylor Rapp had 10 total tackles, plus the first full sack of his career and one QB hit. Linebacker Troy Reeder had a team-high 11 total tackles. Here is the complete game recap: Beckham recorded his first catch as a Ram on their first offensive series, but that drive ended with Stafford overthrowing Beckham deep and getting intercepted by 49ers safety Jimmie Ward three plays later. The 49ers capitalized on the takeaway with an 18-play, 93-yard scoring drive that ended with an 8-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo to tight end George Kittle for a 7-0 lead. The series chewed 11 minutes and three seconds off the clock. Stafford was intercepted a second time by Ward on the ensuing drive after his pass bounced off Higbee's hands and into Ward's, who returned the pick 27 yards for a touchdown to increase San Francisco's lead to 14-0. Thanks to a 29-yard completion to Kupp on the ensuing drive, Stafford was able to bounce back and get the Rams on the board with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Higbee to cut the Rams' deficit to seven early in the second quarter. However, the 49ers again mounted another long, clock-draining scoring drive, one that ended with an 8-yard rushing touchdown by wide receiver Deebo Samuel to put them back up by 14 with 5:24 left in the first half. The 91-yard scoring drive almost didn't happen – the Rams made a stop on 3rd and 2 from the 49ers 17-yard line, but an offsides penalty against Los Angeles kept the drive alive. Similar to the previous touchdown scoring drive, a big play in the passing game put the Rams in position to score. However, they wouldn't come away with points. Reaching the 49ers 17-yard line, the Rams faked the field goal attempt but were unable to convert as punter Johnny Hekker's pass to tight end Kendall Blanton was completed short of the first down. Kicker Robbie Gould's 50-yard field goal with 4:38 left in the third quarter extended the 49ers' lead to 24-7. Garoppolo found Samuel for a 40-yard touchdown pass with 11:07 left in the game to make it 31-7. On the ensuing drive, Rams reached the 49ers 11-yard line. Forced to go for it on fourth down, they were unable to convert after Stafford's pass intended for wide receiver Van Jefferson fell incomplete with 6:05 remaining. The Rams added a 37-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay to make it 31-10 with 3:48 left.

The Rams (7-4) fell to the Packers 36-28 on Sunday at Lambeau Field. A 6-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matthew Stafford to running back Darrell Henderson Jr. pulled the Rams within three of the Packers (9-3) before halftime, but the Packers' 16-point third quarter created too big of a deficit for the Rams to overcome in the second half. Stafford completed 21 of 38 pass attempts for 302 yards with three touchdowns and one interception in the loss, while wide receiver Van Jefferson added three receptions for 93 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Cooper Kupp's 96 receiving yards brought him to a new single-season career-high, bringing him to 1,237 on the season. Defensive lineman Greg Gaines chipped in seven total tackles, one sack and one QB hit for the Rams defense. Here is the complete game recap: The Rams reached their own 41 and were forced to punt on their first possession. That ensuing 53-yard punt by punter Johnny Hekker was downed at the Packers 6-yard line. The Packers reached the Rams 38 but were forced to punt thanks to tight coverage by Rams cornerback Darius Williams on Packers wide receiver Allen Lazard deep down the right sideline. Green Bay initially brought out kicker Mason Crosby for a 56-yard field goal attempt before calling a timeout and choosing to punt instead. However, two plays after the punt, Packers linebacker Rashan Gary's sack-fumble of Stafford at Rams 12-yard line and the ensuing recovery by outside linebacker Preston Smith set up Green Bay at the Los Angeles 7-yard line. Green Bay converted the takeaway into points via a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Aaron Rodgers for a 7-0 lead with 2:11 left in the first quarter. L.A.'s unsuccessful 4th down conversion on 4th and 1 from their own 29 gave Green Bay another chance to add to their lead early, but a third-down sack of Rodgers by defensive lineman Greg Gaines allowed the Rams to hold the Packers to a 45-yard field goal, keeping the deficit at 10 early in the second quarter. It didn't take long for the Rams to answer, though. Facing a 3rd and 8 from the Rams' own 21, Stafford launched a 79-yard touchdown pass to Jefferson to pull Los Angeles within 3 with 12:42 left in the second quarter. The Packers used an explosive play to manufacture their response on the ensuing drive, as Rodgers' 54-yard completion to wide receiver Randall Cobb on 3rd and 3 from their own 32 quickly moved them into Rams territory. However, thanks to cornerback Dont'e Deayon's coverage on Cobb on 3rd and 5 from the Rams 9-yard line, the Rams managed to hold the Packers to a 28-yard field goal and keep their deficit at 13-7. Initially, the Rams weren't able to answer the Packers again, until rookie cornerback Robert Rochell recovered a muffed punt by Cobb at the Packers 25. After a go-ahead touchdown pass from Kupp to Jefferson was overturned and ruled incomplete upon further review, the Rams settled for a 36-yard field goal by Gay to reduce their deficit to 13-10 midway through the second quarter. Completions of 28 yards to Cobb and 43 yards to wide receiver Davante Adams helped the Packers respond, as Rodgers found Cobb again at the end of the drive for a 7-yard touchdown pass to make it 20-10 Green Bay with 4:21 left in the first half. The Rams answered the Packers' touchdown with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Henderson to cut their deficit to three on the ensuing drive. The Rams were on the verge of getting the ball back with the chance to potentially tie or take the lead, but they lined up offenses on the punt that followed the third-down stop, giving the Packers a first down. Though the Packers reached the 49 after the fresh set of downs, they were still forced punt, mitigating the damage. However, the ensuing punt was fair-caught by Kupp at the Rams' own 10, and with 11 seconds remaining, the Rams chose to take a knee and run out the remaining clock to halftime. Receiving the second-half opening kickoff, the Packers erased 7 minutes and 42 seconds off the clock with a 13-play, 75-yard scoring drive that ended with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Rodgers to running back A.J. Dillon and increased their lead to 27-17 midway through the third quarter. A 3-and-out forced by the Rams defense with 5:10 left in the third quarter appeared to give the Rams a chance to cut into the 10-point deficit, but wide receiver J.J. Koski's fumble on the ensuing punt return was recovered by Green Bay at the Los Angeles 28. Despite the turnover, the Rams managed to hold the Packers to a 29-yard field goal. On the ensuing possession, Stafford was intercepted by Packers cornerback Rasul Douglas, who returned the pick 33 yards for a touchdown. The ensuing 2-point attempt was unsuccessful, but the touchdown increased the Rams' deficit to 36-17 late in the third quarter. A 54-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Beckham, followed by a 2-point completion from Stafford to Kupp, gave the Rams some life early in the fourth quarter, cutting it to 36-25. However, they were unable to eat further into that 11-point deficit and forced to punt each of their next two offensive possessions. On their third chance in the fourth quarter, the Rams reached added a 39-yard field goal with 18 seconds remaining to cut the Packers' lead to 36-28, but their ensuing onside kick attempt was recovered by the Packers.

Complementary football paved the way for a 37-7 Rams victory over the Jaguars (2-10) on Sunday at SoFi Stadium. Los Angeles (8-4) rode a 65-yard return on the opening kickoff by Brandon Powell to its first points, also scoring 10 points off two turnovers created by its defense to gradually build its lead. Explosive pass plays also played a key role in setting up the Rams' additional scoring opportunities. Rams quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 26 of 38 pass attempts for 295 yards and three touchdowns, while wide receiver Cooper Kupp added eight receptions for 129 yards and one touchdown in the win. Kupp's production made him the fourth wide receiver in Rams history to record 100 receptions in a single season, joining Isaac Bruce (119, 1995) and Torry Holt (117, 2003; 102, 2005), and also gave him a new single-season career high in receiving touchdowns with 11. Wide receivers Odell Beckham Jr. and Van Jefferson each accounted for Stafford's other two passing scores, giving them both their second touchdown in as many games. Jefferson had six receptions for 41 yards in addition to his touchdown, Beckham two for 28. In the feature back role, running back Sony Michel carried the ball 24 times for 121 yards and one touchdown. Defensive lineman Aaron Donald set the tone for the Rams' defense with five total tackles, 1.5 sacks, two QB hits and one forced fumble. Additionally, kicker Matt Gay made all three of his field goal attempts and all four of his extra point attempts. Offensive linemen Brian Allen suffered a knee injury on the first play of the game and did not return; he was replaced by Coleman Shelton. Here is the complete game recap: The Rams started off with great field position thanks to a 65-yard return by Powell on the opening kickoff. Reaching the Jaguars 34 on that series, the Rams managed a 40-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay for an early 3-0 lead. Donald's forced fumble on Jaguars running back James Robinson on the ensuing drive, and Ramsey scooping the loose ball and ensuing returning it eight yards, put the Rams offense back on the field at the Jaguars 27. Two plays later, Stafford completed a 27-yard pass to Beckham, which helped set up a 5-yard touchdown run by Sony Michel to give the Rams a 10-point lead with 10:25 left in the first quarter. The Jaguars got on the board early in the second quarter via a one-yard touchdown run by running back Carlos Hyde, cutting the Rams' lead to 10-7. The Rams answered with a 44-yard field goal by Gay on the ensuing series to make it 13-7. Gay's 37-yard field goal with 19 seconds left in the first half gave the Rams a 16-7 lead by halftime. A 43-yard catch-and-run by Kupp on their opening offensive series of the second half helped set up the Rams' second touchdown, a 29-yard pass from Stafford to Kupp that expanded the Rams' lead to 23-7 with 11:43 left in the third quarter. A little over eight minutes later, Stafford found Jefferson in the back of the endzone for a 2-yard touchdown pass to give the Rams a 30-7 lead. Defensive lineman A'Shawn Robinson's forced fumble on Hyde late in the third quarter – recovered by safety Taylor Rapp – gave the ball back to Los Angeles' offense, and it would cash in with a 1-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Beckham to grow their lead to 37-7 with 10:52 left in the fourth quarter.

Missing six of 22 starters? Not a problem for the Rams. Playing without starting center Brian Allen, running back Darrell Henderson Jr., right tackle Rob Havenstein, cornerback Jalen Ramsey, tight end Tyler Higbee and cornerback Dont'e Deayon, the Rams overcame those absences with a strong complementary performance across all three phases for a pivotal 30-23 win over the Cardinals Monday night at State Farm Stadium. Los Angeles (9-4, 2-2 NFC West) was helped by a sharp performance from its offense, a pair of takeaways by its defense leading directly to points and another reliable performance by kicker Matt Gay. Quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 23 of 30 pass attempts for 287 yards and three touchdowns, connecting with wide receivers Van Jefferson, Odell Beckham Jr. and Cooper Kupp on each of those scores. For Kupp, his performance (13 receptions, 123 yards, one touchdown) moved him past 5,000 career receiving yards, while Jefferson (two receptions, 58 yards in addition to touchdown) and Beckham (six catches, 77 yards in addition to touchdown) each caught their third touchdown in as many games. Defensive lineman Aaron Donald paced L.A.'s defense with a dominant performance, finishing with five total tackles, three sacks, two QB hits and one pass breakup against Arizona (10-3, 4-1). Outside linebacker Leonard Floyd added a team-high 8 total tackles, plus one interception, one QB hit and two pass breakups, while linebacker Ernest Jones notched his second career interception and six total tackles. Meanwhile, Gay made all three of his field goal attempts – including a season-long 55-yarder – and all three of his extra point attempts. Here is the complete game recap: Donald sacked Cardinals quarterback Kyle Murray on the first play of the game, but a 13-yard run by running back James Conner and 14-yard catch by tight end Zach Ertz quickly made up for the six-yard loss and a false-start penalty. A 17-yard catch by wide receiver A.J. Green set up Arizona at the Los Angeles 35, but L.A. held it to a 53-yard field goal by kicker Matt Prater for an early 3-0 Arizona lead. Meanwhile, the Rams quickly went 3-0 on their first offensive series, with the ensuing punt fair-caught by Cardinals wide receiver Rondale Moore at their own 33. The Cardinals reached the Rams 4-yard line, but Donald putting pressure on Murray and tipping his pass led to an interception at the goal line by Jones, who returned it 31 yards to the Rams own 32-yard line. Los Angeles cashed in 10 plays later with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Beckham to take a 7-3 lead with 12:53 left in the second quarter, aided by tough running from Michel and several big catches by Kupp. The Rams extended their lead to 10-3 midway through the second quarter on a season-long 55-yard field goal by Gay, but the Cardinals answered on the ensuing drive with a 1-yard touchdown run by Conner to tie the game 10-10. That score was set up by a 41-yard completion from Murray to wide receiver Christian Kirk. However, Los Angeles answered with an explosive play of its own, using a 40-yard catch-and-run by Beckham to set up a 35-yard field goal by Gay that gave them back the lead 13-10 with 35 seconds until halftime. Prater's 53-yard field goal with one second left at the end of the ensuing drive tied the game at 13 at halftime. The Rams opened the second half with a 52-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Jefferson, then Floyd intercepted Murray and returned the pick 11-yards to the Cardinals 19 on the Cardinals ensuing possession. The Rams capitalized eight plays later with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp to take a 27-13 lead with 9:45 left in the third quarter. The Rams' momentum appeared to gain more steam on the ensuing series, forcing the Cardinals to turn the ball over on downs on 4th and 2 from the Rams 14 after Cardinals wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins dropped Murray's pass. However, the Rams were forced to punt on the ensuing series after Stafford was sacked on 3rd and 6 at their own 41. The Cardinals in turn capitalized on that stop, as Conner's eight-yard touchdown run at the end of the ensuing drive reduced the Rams' lead to seven with 13:38 left in the fourth quarter. A 33-yard field goal by Gay gave the Rams a 30-20 lead midway through the fourth quarter, set up by an impressive 44-yard sideline catch by Kupp. The Rams defense then made a huge fourth-down stop on the ensuing series, stuffing Conner on 4th and 1 at their own 37. The Rams were forced to punt on the ensuing drive. The Cardinals added a 49-yard field goal by Prater with 37 seconds left on the ensuing drive, then recovered the onside kick attempt that followed at their own 48. However, an offensive holding penalty and false start penalty on back-to-back snaps derailed the drive, which ended with Donald getting his third sack of the game to clinch the victory.

Another big game from wide receiver Cooper Kupp and a strong second-half performance by the defense helped the Rams (10-4, 3-2 NFC West) defeat the Seahawks 20-10 Tuesday night at SoFi Stadium. With the victory over Seattle (5-9, 2-3), the Rams moved into a first-place tie with the Cardinals in the NFC West. Kupp set the franchise single-season record for receptions, as his nine receptions gave him 122 on the year; he also finished with 136 receiving yards and two touchdowns for an NFL-record 10th-straight game of 90 or more receiving yards. Meanwhile, outside linebacker Von Miller recorded his first sack as a Ram, adding six total tackles (two for loss) and 2 QB hits. Kicker Matt Gay made both of his field goal attempts – including a 55-yarder – and both of his extra point attempts, while quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 21 of 29 pass attempts for 244 yards with two touchdowns and an interception in the win. Here is the complete game recap, presented by Hyundai: The Rams advanced into Seahawks territory on opening drive, but the drive was stalled by a pair of penalties, including a holding call that negated a 16-yard catch-and-run by Michel. However, a running into the kicker penalty against the Seahawks on the Rams' ensuing punt attempt gave the Rams five more yards, enough to put Gay in range for a successful 55-yard field goal try and give them an early 3-0 lead. Donald blowing up a screen on 3rd-and-5 on the next series mitigated the damage of the Seahawks reaching midfield, forcing them to punt. However, Stafford was intercepted at the Seattle 6 by safety Quandre Diggs, who returned the pick 25 yards to the Seattle 31. The Rams defense again rose to the challenge, with Miller sacking quarterback Russell Wilson for a 9-yard loss on 3rd and 2 to force the Seahawks to punt. Similarly, the Rams' third offensive series ended with Stafford getting sacked on third down, forcing them to punt, but their defense stepped up on the ensuing possession with an impressive leaping pass breakup on 3rd down to force the Seahawks to punt. Yet, when the Rams got the ball back for their fourth offensive possession, it ended without points again, as Stafford's pass intended for Kupp fell incomplete, resulting in a turnover on downs on 4th and 2 at the Seattle 32. The Seahawks then needed only three plays to reach Rams territory, as a 34-yard completion from Wilson to tight end Gerald Everett moved them to the Rams 14-yard line. However, Wilson getting sacked by Floyd, plus a pair of incompletions by Wilson and a false start penalty against the Seahawks forced Seattle to settle for a 39-yard field goal by kicker Jason Myers, leaving the two teams tied 3-3 at halftime. Receiving the second half kickoff, the Seahawks used the opening drive after halftime to mount a 11-play, 75-yard touchdown-scoring drive to take a 10-3 lead, with running back DeeJay Dallas scoring on a 4-yard run. The Rams answered with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp for a 10-10 tie with 6:31 remaining in the third quarter, then regained the lead 17-10 with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter after Stafford connected with Kupp for a 29-yard touchdown pass. Gay's 35-yard field goal with 1:51 remaining extended the Rams' lead to 20-10. The Seahawks' last gasp was a deep, 48-yard heave by Wilson toward the endzone intended for wide receiver DK Metcalf, but the ball hung in the air long enough for Rams safety Taylor Rapp to jump in front of it for the interception, securing the victory.

A big day by running back Sony Michel and timely plays by their defense and their special teams lifted the Rams (11-4) to a 30-23, playoff-clinching win over the Vikings (7-8) on Sunday at U.S. Bank Stadium. The victory also gave the Rams control of first place in the NFC West. Michel kept the Rams offense moving with 27 carries for 131 yards and one touchdown. Wide receiver Cooper Kupp tied Torry Holt (2003)'s franchise record 100-yard receiving game in a single season with his 10th on Sunday, finishing with 10 catches for 109 yards. Wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. hauled in his fourth touchdown catch in five games, also finishing with four receptions for 37 yards. On special teams, wide receiver Brandon Powell had a 61-yard punt return for a touchdown, the Rams' first since 2015 and first special teams and non-offensive touchdown of the season. Meanwhile, linebacker Travin Howard recorded his first interception of his career, plus four total tackles and two pass breakups. He played most of the game in place of rookie linebacker Ernest Jones, who exited the game late in the first quarter with an ankle injury and was ruled out in the second half. Quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 21 of 37 pass attempts for 197 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions. Here is the complete game recap: After a third-down stop by their defense on the opening series, the Rams offense returned the favor with a 1-yard touchdown run by Michel on the ensuing drive to take a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter. Los Angeles' kickoff coverage unit did its job on the ensuing kickoff, stopping Minnesota at their own 9. That didn't stop Minnesota from reaching the L.A. 9, but linebacker Travin Howard, who replaced an injured Ernest Jones (ankle) on the drive, corralled a deflected Kirk Cousins pass for an interception in the endzone, which he then returned 19 yards to the L.A. 17 for a big redzone stop. However, the Rams were forced to punt on the ensuing possession and unable to come away with points. The Rams lost center Brian Allen to injury with 10:41 left in the second quarter and had to reshuffle their offensive line, moving Edwards back to left guard, Shelton back to center and putting in rookie Alaric Jackson in at left tackle. Still, they didn't miss a beat, allowing Michel to keep churning out runs that set up an eventual 32-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay for a 10-0 lead with 6:40 left in the second quarter. The Vikings had another prime scoring chance a little over two minutes later after linebacker Anthony Barr intercepted Stafford, setting them up at the Rams 11-yard line. However, thanks in part to a sack for a 7-yard loss by Los Angeles defensive lineman Greg Gaines, Minnesota was held to a 23-yard field goal, cutting L.A.'s lead to 7 with 2:34 left in the first half. Gay later drilled a 31-yard field goal to extend the Rams' lead to 13-3 just before halftime. Stafford was intercepted a second time on the opening drive of the second-half, but the Rams defense stepped up and stopped the Vikings at midfield following the change of possession, forcing them to punt. However, Stafford was intercepted again on the ensuing possession, as Barr's second pick set the Vikings up at the Rams 2. Running back Alexander Mattison punched it in on the ensuing play to reduce the Rams' lead to 3 with 11:10 left in the third quarter. Powell then provided a spark with a 61-yard punt return for a touchdown put them up 20-10 midway through the third quarter. The Vikings reached the Rams 6-yard line on the ensuing possession, but another redzone stand by the Rams defense forced them to settle for a 24-yard field goal, reducing the Rams' lead to seven. The Rams answered with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Beckham Jr. to make it 27-13 with 11:37 left in the fourth quarter, only to have the Vikings respond with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Cousins to wide receiver K.J. Osborn, cutting the Rams' lead back to seven with 8:21 remaining. Gay's 24-yard field goal with 2:03 remaining gave the Rams a 30-20 lead. The Vikings added a 44-yard field goal with 32 seconds left, but the ensuing onside kick was recovered by the Rams, allowing them to run out the remaining time and punch their ticket to the playoffs.

The Rams (12-4) rallied to defeat the Ravens 20-19 in a thriller on Sunday at M&T Bank Stadium. A one-yard touchdown run by running back Sony Michel pulled the Rams within two early in the fourth quarter. The Ravens (8-8) responded on the ensuing series with a field-goal-scoring drive of their own to go up 19-14. While the drive by Baltimore erased 7 minutes and 34 seconds off the clock, the Rams still had four and a half minutes to mount a go-ahead scoring drive. Keyed by 15-yard completions from quarterback Matthew Stafford to tight end Tyler Higbee and wide receiver Ben Skowronek, the Rams reached the Ravens 9-yard line at the two-minute warning. Faced with a 4th and 5 from the Ravens 12-yard line, Stafford hit Beckham for a 5-yard completion to give them the conversion, then found Beckham again for a 7-yard touchdown to put them ahead 20-19 with 57 seconds left. The Rams went for 2 but were unable to convert. On the ensuing drive, the Rams defense answered the call. Outside linebacker Von Miller notched his second sack of the game on 1st and 10 from the Ravens 38, resulting in an 8-yard loss, and the Ravens were unable to do anything from there, securing the Rams' fifth-straight win. Wide receiver Cooper Kupp set the Rams' franchise single-season record for receiving yards in the win, his 95 yards giving him 1,829 on the year and moving him past Isaac Bruce's 1,781 in 1995. With a touchdown catch in addition to his six receptions and 95 receiving yards, Kupp became just the second player in NFL history with 1,700 (or 1,800) receiving yards and 15 receiving touchdowns in a single season, joining Jerry Rice (1995). Stafford completed 26 of 35 pass attempts for 309 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, plus a lost fumble. Michel posted 19 carries for 74 yards in addition to his touchdown. Here is the complete game recap: The Ravens reached the Rams 40 on the opening series, but Donald's third-down tackle for loss forced them to punt, with the ensuing punt downed at the Rams 4-yard line. The Rams managed to put kicker Matt Gay in position for a 56-yard field goal attempt via three consecutive completions from Stafford to Higbee for a total of 44 yards, but Gay missed wide right for only his second miss this season. The Rams forced the Ravens to punt near midfield again, but were once again backed up deep in their own territory. This time, Stafford threw an interception which was returned by safety Chuck Clark and returned 18 yards for a touchdown to put the Ravens up 7-0 with 1:58 left in the first quarter. Stafford was intercepted a second time by Clark early in the second quarter, when Clark leapt into the air and snatched a deep pass intended for Beckham at the Baltimore 4-yard line. Helped by a 15-yard scramble on 4th and 1 from the Los Angeles 23 to keep the change-of-possession drive alive, Baltimore capitalized on the turnover with a 22-yard field goal by kicker Justin Tucker to increase its lead to 10-0 with 3:44 left in the first half. Safety Jordan Fuller's interception provided L.A. with a much-needed boost just before the half, helping set up an 18-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to cut to reduce Baltimore's lead to three with 58 seconds left until halftime. However, the Ravens managed to add a 46-yard field goal 2 seconds before halftime for a 13-7 lead at the break. Leonard Floyd active, Cam Akers and Terrell Lewis among Rams' inactives for Week 17 at Ravens. Starting the second half with the ball, the Rams reached the Ravens 11, but the drive ended after Ravens outside linebacker Tyus Bowser stripped the ball loose from Stafford, with the Ravens recovering at their own 20. The Ravens converted that turnover into points via a 46-yard field goal by Tucker which extended their lead to 16-7 with 4:42 left in the third quarter. A key defensive stop fueled by outside linebacker Leonard Floyd late in the third quarter led to a scoring drive that pulled the Rams within two, as Michel's one-yard touchdown run made it 16-14 Ravens early in the fourth quarter. The Rams held the Ravens to a field goal on the ensuing 7-and-a-half minute drive by the Ravens, making it a five-point game with 4 minutes and 30 seconds left, leaving the Rams plenty of time for Stafford to find Beckham for what would be the game-winning touchdown. Miller stepped up with the first-down sack on the ensuing Ravens offensive series to help clinch the win.

The Rams (12-5) fell to the 49ers 27-24 in overtime on Sunday at SoFi Stadium, snapping a five-game win streak. The 49ers (10-7) won the toss and took possession of the ball first in overtime, ending that drive with a 24-yard field goal by kicker Robbie Gould to go up 27-24 with 2:45 left in overtime. The Rams were unable to respond with points on the ensuing series, as quarterback Matthew Stafford's pass deep down the right sideline intended for wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. was intercepted with 1:52 left, ending the game. Despite the loss, the Rams still won the 2021 NFC West division title thanks to the Cardinals' loss to the Seahawks. It's the Rams' third in five seasons under head coach Sean McVay. The Rams are the No. 4 seed in the NFC and will host at least one playoff game, starting with the Wild Card round against the No. 5-seed Cardinals. Stafford connected with wide receiver Cooper Kupp for a 4-yard touchdown pass to put the Rams up 24-17 with 2:29 remaining. However, the 49ers would answer late with a game-tying 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo to wide receiver Jauan Jennings, eventually leading to overtime with the Rams unable to get anything going with the final 26 seconds left in regulation. Stafford completed 21 of 32 pass attempts for 238 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions in the loss – his other two touchdowns going to tight end Tyler Higbee – while Kupp finished with seven receptions for 118 yards and one touchdown. Defensively, safety Taylor Rapp and defensive back Jalen Ramsey each came up with an interception; Ramsey's interception set up the 4-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp. Here is the complete game recap: Helped by a 46-yard completion from Stafford to Kupp, the Rams scored the game's first points via a 43-yard field goal by Gay for an early 3-0 lead. That opening drive erased nearly nine minutes off the clock. The Rams then expanded their lead to 10-0 with 10:26 left in the second quarter following a 2-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Higbee on 4th and 1 from the 49ers 2-yard line. Stafford found Higbee again less than four minutes later for a 15-yard touchdown pass that grew the Rams' lead to 17-0. That series was aided by a 31-yard punt return by Brandon Powell. With less than four minutes left in the first half, Rapp intercepted 49ers quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, but the Rams were forced to punt near midfield on the ensuing possession. After adding a field goal as time expired at the end of the first half, the 49ers opened the second half scoring on that opening drive, capping the series off with a 16-yard touchdown run by wide receiver Deebo Samuel to cut the Rams' lead to 17-10 with 10:32 left in the third quarter. The 49ers made it 17 unanswered with Samuel's 24-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Jauan Jennings on a trick play, tying the game 17-17 with 1:46 left in the third quarter. On the ensuing possession, Stafford was intercepted by 49ers cornerback Emmanuel Moseley, giving the ball back to the 49ers at their own 32, but the Rams defense got the third down stop as time expired at the end of the third quarter, forcing the 49ers to punt and minimizing the damage of the turnover. Midway through the fourth quarter, the 49ers were driving and had reached the Rams 17. Then Ramsey stepped up and came down with a juggling interception in the endzone, returning it 10 yards to the Rams 8-yard line with 7:42 left in the fourth quarter. The Rams capitalized on the takeaway with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp at the end of the ensuing drive to regain the lead 24-17 with 2:29 left. On the ensuing series, Rams outside linebacker Von Miller sacked Garoppolo for a 9-yard loss on third down, forcing the 49ers to punt. But with the Rams unable to manufacture anything on the ensuing drive, the 49ers were given another chance to potentially tie the game or take the lead. The 49ers did, as, despite starting from their own 12-yard line, Garoppolo found Jennings for the game-tying 14-yard touchdown pass with 26 seconds left to force overtime. In overtime, Gould's 24-yard field goal put the 49ers ahead 27-24, with Stafford's interception on the ensuing drive ending the game.

Led by balanced offensive production and complementary performances from their defense and special teams, the Rams defeated the Cardinals 34-11 Monday night at SoFi Stadium in the Wild Card round of the playoffs. With the victory, the No. 4-seed Rams advanced to face the No. 2-seed Buccaneers in Tampa Bay in the divisional round on Sunday at 12 p.m. pacific time (NBC, Peacock, Universo). Quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 13 of 17 pass attempts for 202 yards and two touchdowns – connecting with Odell Beckham Jr. (four receptions, 54 yards) and Cooper Kupp (five receptions, 61 yards) on those scores – and also rushed six times for 22 yards and a touchdown. Led by running backs Sony Michel and Cam Akers, the Rams rushed for 140 yards overall, ultimately outgaining the Cardinals 375-182 in total yards of offense. Akers finished with 17 carries for 55 yards, Michel 13 carries for 58 yards. Meanwhile, the Rams' defense held the Cardinals to 0-for-9 on third down and picked off quarterback Kyler Murray twice, with cornerback David Long Jr. accounting for one of those picks and returning it for a touchdown. On special teams, all five of punter Johnny Hekker's punts landed inside the 20, while kicker Matt Gay made both of his field goal attempts and all four of his extra point attempts. Here is the complete game recap, presented by Audi: After forcing the Cardinals to go 3-and-out on the opening series, the Rams used a 35-yard run by Michel on their first offensive snap of the game to reach the Cardinals 45-yard line. A penalty and a sack derailed the drive, forcing the Rams to punt from their own 48, but Hekker's punt was downed at the Cardinals 9-yard line, advantageous shallow field position that helped the Rams defense force another 3-and-out. Wide receiver Brandon Powell's 8-yard return to the Rams' own 48 gave them a short field to work with off the ensuing Cardinals punt. Aided Stafford completions of 17 yards to Beckham and 22 yards to Higbee, Los Angeles capitalized via a 4-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Beckham for a 7-0 lead with 3:50 left in the first quarter. The Rams successfully challenged a Stafford 1-yard quarterback sneak for a touchdown that was originally ruled short, extending their lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter. Like the first score, it was set up by an explosive pass play – specifically a 31-yard completion from Stafford to a wide-open Beckham. That lead expanded to 21-0 midway through the second quarter when pressure by Reeder forced an errant Murray throw that Long intercepted and returned 3 yards for a touchdown. A 48-yard punt by Hekker, and a big hit by Rams safety Nick Scott on Cardinals wide receiver A.J. Green that the Rams successfully challenged and overturned from an incompletoion to a fumble, had a hand in backing the Cardinals up that deep into their own territory. The Rams snagged a second interception after defensive lineman Marquise Copeland picked off Murray near midfield, but the Rams were forced to punt on the ensuing possession. Still, they ultimate had done enough to carry a 21-0 lead into halftime. The lead grew to 28-0 after a 40-yard completion from Beckham to Akers on a trick play set up a 7-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp. The Cardinals finally got on the board with 4:11 left in the third quarter via a 2-yard touchdown run by running back James Conner, then a successful 2-point conversion to make it 28-8. Although the Rams answered with a 37-yard field goal by Gay, the Cardinals would find the endzone again Cardinals kicker Matt Prater's 55-yard field goal out the Rams' lead to 31-11 with 10:17 remaining. Gay's 46-yard field goal nearly six minutes later put the Rams back up by 23.

It took overcoming a chaotic fourth quarter and a game-winning field goal by kicker Matt Gay, but the Rams earned a 30-27 win over the No. 2-seed Buccaneers on Sunday at Raymond James Stadium to advance to the NFC Championship game. With the victory, the Rams will host the No. 6-seed 49ers in the NFC Championship game on Sunday, January 30 at 3:30 p.m. pacific time at SoFi Stadium. Click here to purchase tickets, click here to learn about suites. The Rams led 27-13 late in the fourth quarter when Buccaneers quarterback Tom Brady fired a 55-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mike Evans to reduce the Rams' lead to seven with 3:20 remaining. Tampa Bay then recovered a fumble by running back Cam Akers at the Los Angeles 30 on the ensuing possession, giving it a chance to tie the game. It reached the Los Angeles 9-yard line, facing a 4th and 1 with 46 seconds left, and converted with a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Leonard Fournette, tying the game 27-27 with 42 seconds left. With 35 seconds to go, Rams quarterback Matthew Stafford fired a 20-yard completion to wide receiver Cooper Kupp, then connected with Kupp again for 44 yards to put the Rams at the Tampa Bay 12 with three seconds left. From there, Gay drained the game-winning, 30-yard field goal as time expired, sending the Rams to the NFC Championship. Stafford completed 28 of 38 pass attempts for 366 yards and two touchdowns, also rushing for another touchdown, while Kupp hauled in nine receptions for 183 yards and one touchdown. Here is the complete game recap, presented by Audi: After the Rams forced the Buccaneers to punt following a third-down pass breakup by cornerback Darius Williams, the Rams used a pair of explosive plays – a 20-yard completion from Stafford to Beckham, followed by a 29-yard completion from Stafford to Higbee – to get on the board first with a 26-yard field goal by Gay for an early 3-0 lead. That lead expanded to 10-0 with 3:28 left in the second quarter when Stafford connected with tight end Kendall Blanton for a 7-yard touchdown pass, the first touchdown of Blanton's NFL career. The Bucs answered with their first points of the contest on the ensuing possession via a 45-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Succop to reduce the Rams' lead to seven. The Rams responded with a 70-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp to go up 17-3 early in the second quarter. Following Succop's missed 48-yard field goal attempt, the Rams added a 40-yard field goal from Gay to go up 20-3 with 2:19 left in the first half. A Nick Scott interception 19 seconds later gave the Rams another chance to build on that lead, but they were unable to capitalize due to Akers' fumble at the Bucs 1-yard line which was forced and recovered by safety Antoine Winfield. However, the Bucs chose to run out he remaining 19 seconds, leaving the halftime score 20-3. Wide receiver Brandon Powell's 33-yard punt return once again gave the Rams advantageous field position, and they capitalized on the ensuing possession via a 1-yard touchdown run by Stafford to expand their lead to 27-3 midway through the third quarter. The Bucs added a 31-yard field goal by Succop late in the third quarter to make it 27-6. A fumble by Kupp on the ensuing possession gave the ball back to Tampa Bay at the Los Angeles 30, and, with a 4th-and-9 conversion keeping the drive alive, Tampa Bay cut further into the L.A. lead with a one-yard touchdown run by Fournette late in the third quarter. Rams outside linebacker Von Miller recovered his own forced fumble on a strip-sack of Brady, giving the Rams the ball at the Bucs 25 early in the third quarter. However, after the Rams took over, the first snap went over Stafford's head and was recovered by the Buccaneers and returned five yards to the Rams 45-yard line. The Buccaneers went for it on 4th and 14 from the Rams 36, but were unable to convert, resulting in a turnover on downs giving the ball back to the Rams. The Rams had a chance to increase their lead to 30-13 on the ensuing possession, but Gay's 47-yard field goal missed short, keeping it a two-possession game with 6:36 remaining. The Bucs reached the Rams 31 after the change of possession following the missed field goal, but gave the ball back to the Rams after failing to convert on 4th and 9 from there. Brady connected with Evans on a 55-yard touchdown pass with 3:20 left, cutting the Rams' lead to 27-20. On the ensuing possession, the Bucs recovered a fumble by Akers at the Rams' 30. Fournette's 9-yard touchdown run tied the game 27-27, but still left plenty of time for the Rams to get the win with 46 seconds remaining. All Stafford needed was two completions totaling 64 yards to Kupp to put the Rams and Gay in position to win. Gay delivered, putting the Rams into the NFC Championship game.

January 30, 2022 - SoFi Stadium- Inglewood, CA.

Weather: 62 degrees, sunny - Attendance 73,202 - Time 2:57

Goodbye, six-game losing streak to an arch division rival. Hello, NFC Champions and the Super Bowl. The Rams rallied to defeat the 49ers 20-17 on Sunday at SoFi Stadium to punch their ticket to Super Bowl LVI, where they will face the Cincinnati Bengals at SoFi Stadium on Sunday, February 13 at 3:30 p.m. PT. Tied at 17 with 6:32 remaining, the Rams – helped by 25-yard completion from quarterback Matthew Stafford to wide receiver Cooper Kupp – mounted a go-ahead scoring drive capped off by a 30-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay for a 20-17 lead with 1:46 remaining. On the ensuing series, defensive lineman Aaron Donald pressured 49ers quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo into an errant pass that was tipped and intercepted by linebacker Travin Howard, which Howard returned six yards to the 49ers 13-yard line. From there, the Rams entered victory formation to run out the remaining 69 seconds and secure the victory. Stafford completed 31 of 45 pass attempts for 337 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Kupp was on the receiving end of both of those touchdowns, also finishing with 11 catches for 142 yards. Wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. added nine catches for 113 yards. Here is the complete game recap, presented by Audi: The teams traded 3-and-outs on their respective opening possessions. The Rams' second possession reached the 49ers' 3-yard line, but Stafford's pass intended for Kupp was deflected, then intercepted in the endzone by 49ers safety Jimmie Ward. The Rams eventually broke through with a 97-yard scoring drive ending with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp for a 7-0 lead midway through the second quarter. However, the 49ers responded a little over two and a half minutes later with a 44-yard screen pass for a touchdown from quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo to wide receiver Deebo Samuel to tie the game 7-7. The Rams were positioned to answer on the ensuing drive, but Gay's 54-yard field goal attempt missed short to the right. Following the change of possession, the 49ers added a 38-yard field goal from kicker Robbie Gould as time expired for a 10-7 halftime lead. Los Angeles' third-down stop early in the third quarter helped gain some momentum, but it was halted at the San Francisco 43 after it unsuccessfully challenged that the ball was short of the line to gain on 4th and 1 from that spot. On the ensuing possession, the 49ers extended their lead to 17-7 on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Garoppolo to tight end George Kittle with 1:59 left in the third quarter. L.A. answered with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp on the ensuing drive to reduce its deficit to three early in the fourth quarter. A third-down stop at their own 45 gave the Rams another chance, despite unsuccessfully challenging 49ers fullback Kyle Juszczyk being down by contact. The unsuccessful challenges left the Rams without any timeouts or challenges with 10:01 left in the game. The 49ers appeared to be going for it on 4th and 2 from that spot, but wound up taking the delay of game penalty and punting. Gay's 30-yard field goal gave the Rams a 20-17 lead with 1:46 to play. On the following series, Donald got to Garoppolo, and Howard corralled the tipped the tipped pass to clinch the victory.

Weather: 82 degrees, sunny - Attendance 70,048 - Time 3:26

When it mattered most, three of the Rams' biggest playmakers stepped up big-time. Quarterback Matthew Stafford's go-ahead touchdown pass to wide receiver Cooper Kupp with 1:25 left, followed by defensive lineman Aaron Donald's fourth-down pressure of Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow on the ensuing drive lifted the Rams to a 23-20 victory over the Bengals in Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium, giving them their first Super Bowl title in Los Angeles. Trailing 20-16 with 6:20 remaining, the Rams reached the Bengals 8-yard line with under 2 minutes remaining. Facing a 3rd-and-goal from that spot, Stafford's pass intended for Kupp was broken up, but a defensive holding call against the Bengals kept the drive alive. On the next play, Stafford fired what was initially the go-ahead, four-yard touchdown pass to Kupp, but it was negated by off-setting penalties. A pass interference penalty against the Bengals on the next play advanced the ball to their 1-yard line with 1:38 left. Stafford then connected with Kupp from one yard out for the go-ahead touchdown pass to put the Rams up 23-20 with 1:25 left. Quarterback Joe Burrow opened the Bengals' ensuing series with a 17-yard completion to wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase and 9-yard completion to wide receiver Tee Higgins to move them to midfield. Needing to convert on 4th and 1 from the Rams 49 to keep the drive alive, Donald slammed the door shut pressuring Burrow into an incompleteness that resulted in a turnover on downs. Stafford completed 26 of 40 pass attempts for 283 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions in the victory. Kupp tallied eight receptions for 92 yards and two touchdowns, while wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. posted two receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown before exiting the game late in the first half with a knee injury. Meanwhile, the Rams defense collected seven sacks, led by Donald and outside linebacker Von Miller's two each. Here is the complete game recap, presented by Audi: The Rams opened with a 3-and-out, but managed to get the ball back shortly thereafter thanks to a big fourth-down stop at midfield on the ensuing series. Helped by a 20-yard catch-and-run by Kupp on 3rd-and-3, Los Angeles got on the board on their second offensive series via a 17-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Beckham for a 7-0 lead with 6:22 left in the first quarter. A 46-yard, one-handed grab by wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase put Cincinnati in position to potentially answer late in the first quarter, but it could only come away with a field goal after Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow misfired on his next three pass attempts, with Miller and Ramsey each breaking up one. Connecting with Beckham for 35 yards and Henderson for 25, the Rams quickly responded on the following drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Kupp. While the extra point attempt was unsuccessful, the score still gave the Rams a 13-3 lead early in the second quarter. The Bengals pulled close again, though, as a 7-minute and 4-second scoring drive capped off by a 6-yard touchdown pass from running back Joe Mixon to wide receiver Tee Higgins cut the Rams' lead to three with 5:47 left in the first half. As the Rams were looking to answer, they lost Beckham to a knee injury. Four plays later, Stafford was intercepted by Bengals safety Jessie Bates III in the endzone on a deep pass intended for wide receiver Van Jefferson. Neither team could muster anything on either of their next two possessions, leaving the Rams with a 13-10 halftime lead. The Bengals took the lead 17-13 on the first play of the second half, as Burrow fired a 75-yard touchdown pass to Higgins put to them ahead. Sixteen seconds later, Stafford's pass slipped through wide receiver Ben Skowronek's hands and into cornerback Chidobe Awuzie's for the interception at the Rams 31. The Bengals went for it on 4th and 1 from the Rams 22 and converted via Burrow scrambling for the first down, but Donald's second sack of the drive and game secured the third-down stop for Los Angeles, holding Cincinnati to a field goal. However, Los Angeles still faced a 7-point deficit early in the third quarter. L.A. added a 41-yard field goal by Gay on the ensuing series to cut its deficit to four with 5:58 left in the third quarter. Its next points would not come until 1:25 in the fourth quarter on Stafford's second touchdown pass to Kupp, but it gave them back the lead 23-20. Donald's pressure on the following drive made sure they wouldn't need to answer, clinching the victory.

Watts Rams

Watts Rams is a youth football program coached by LAPD (Los Angeles Police Department) officers. The Rams fund all football components of the program, including uniforms and equipment. The team also provides engagement opportunities with current players, alumni, coaches, scouts and the football operations staff. Both programs work together to develop opportunities that focus on character development and community service for the participants. Rams head coach Sean McVay and LAPD Officer and Watts Rams head coach Zarren Thompson announced the partnership at Rams Training Camp in 2019.

Leading up to the Rams NFC Championship matchup against the San Francisco 49ers, the Rams and Nike hosted Watts Rams youth football players for a special surprise at Dymally High School. Former Rams receiver Odell Beckham Jr. virtually joined the event to present 19 Watts Rams players with tickets to Super Bowl LVI. The Super Bowl ticket surprise, provided by the NFL, was a part of a season-long incentive program for Watts Rams players who participated in the NFL's We Run as One kickoff commercial and showcased academic excellence and strong character on and off the field throughout the season.

Leading up to the 2022 season, the Rams rookie class joined the Watts Rams to kick off their five-day summer camp at SoLa's Tech and Entrepreneurship Center, which offers high-quality educational programming alongside leadership and entrepreneurship development. The tech camp, hosted by the Rams, focused on web design and other tech skills.

Rams Readers and Ride with Rampage

To kick off the Rams Readers literacy program and in celebration of Read Across America Day, the Rams announced "Ride with Rampage," a book that takes readers on a journey throughout Los Angeles before reaching SoFi Stadium for game day. As part of the announcement, the Rams hosted outdoor reading sessions of the book for local first through third grade students. Additionally, first through third grade students in Inglewood Unified School District (IUSD) and Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) received a copy of Ride with Rampage, Rams Readers crayons and an activity guide. The Rams Readers program encourages students to explore the excitement that reading can provide while helping improve literacy rates among students in our neighboring communities.

Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship

The Rams created the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to celebrate Kenny Washington and his impact on the Rams and the NFL. The scholarship provides up to four years of financial support and advisement from Fulfillment Fund (FF), a partner of the Los Angeles Rams, for 13 students from lower-resourced communities who are among the first in their families to pursue post-secondary education. Each student selected embodies Kenny Washington's core values – perseverance in the face of adversity, dedication to their goals and the Los Angeles community, fortitude through breaking barriers and inspiring others around them to make a difference.

Following the 2021 season, the Rams recognized the 13 Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship recipients at Fulfillment Fund's Sip & Celebrate event at SoFi Stadium. Johnathan Franklin, Rams Director of Social Justice and Football Development, and scholarship recipient Donte Lewis shared a few remarks at the event. Scholarship recipients received a Kenny Washington-Rams stole, Rams game ball and a scholarship certificate.

"pLAYmakers" Program

In January 2022, the Rams launched the "pLAYmakers" Program that recognizes 13 Angelenos each year for their efforts to fight injustice and pioneer with purpose in their communities as part of the NFL's Inspire Change platform. Each month, a "pLAYmaker" will be selected for their impact on the Los Angeles community and showcased on the Rams website. All 13 "pLAYmakers" will receive a financial grant from the Rams to support their community work and be recognized on the field at SoFi Stadium during a Rams home game.

Pathways to Success Mentorship Program

In 2021, the Rams piloted the Rams Pathways to Success Mentorship Program, a tailored approach to support professional development and exploration of careers in the sports industry among high school students. During the four-month program, mentors and mentees met monthly for virtual workshops focused on personal and professional development. The workshops featured breakout sessions designed to discuss goal setting, self-discovery, social etiquette, interview preparation, financial literacy, leveraging technology and building a personal brand. This summer at Rams Training Camp, the team launched the second year of this comprehensive staff mentorship program.

LA Promise Fund Internship Program

In partnership with LA Promise Fund, the Rams created a summer internship program for deserving high school and college students. The program exposes students from underserved communities to opportunities in the professional sports industry. It expands their skills, experiences and network as they prepare for college or enter the workplace following high school graduation.

Kickoff for Charity

Every year, the Rams host a Kickoff for Charity event to help celebrate the start of the football season. The event features a season preview from Rams head coach Sean McVay and guests have the opportunity to dine with a Rams player as the entire roster is in attendance.

While the Los Angeles Rams were gearing up to play their final preseason game against the Cincinnati Bengals, the team took a break to host the annual Kickoff for Charity event, presented by UNIFY Financial Credit Union. Proceeds from the event benefit the Los Angeles community through the Rams Foundation.

WalkUnitedLA

In 2021, the Rams and United Way of Greater Los Angeles teamed up to host the 14th annual WalkUnitedLA 5K at SoFi Stadium. The largest annual event to end homelessness, WalkUnitedLA works to address the intersectional causes of poverty and benefit the diverse community organizations working to build a more equitable Los Angeles. The event included live entertainment featuring Rams Cheerleaders, team mascot Rampage, DJ Mal-Ski and stories from those who formerly experienced homelessness. In 2021, the event raised close to $900,000 to fight poverty. Since 2007, more than 125,000 people from Los Angeles County have raised over $9.5 million to end homelessness for over 20,000 of our unhoused neighbors.

This year, Rams Legend Andrew Whitworth, winner of the Walter Payton Man of the Year and Super Bowl LVI Champion will be the honorary chair for WalkUnitedLA. The signature community family 5K walk/run to end poverty will be held Saturday, Nov. 12, 2022, at SoFi Stadium.

Taste of the Rams

The sixth annual Taste of the Rams event was virtual for the second consecutive year in 2021. The event brought together 500 hunger-relief advocates and raised nearly $250,000 to benefit Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. The funds raised provided nearly one million nutritious meals for individuals experiencing food insecurity in Los Angeles County.

Since 2016, this annual event has raised $1,000,000, enough for the Food Bank to provide more than three million meals to people in need. The Food Bank helped in kicking off the 2021 Taste of the Rams event with recurring honorary chair, receiver Cooper Kupp, joined by teammates Troy Reeder, Terrell Burgess, Tyler Higbee and Ben Skowronek. NFL Network's Andrew Siciliano hosted guests as the emcee throughout the event. Attendees enjoyed specially prepared meal kits by Steve Samson, chef and owner of Rossoblu and Superfine Pizza.

Rams partner with City Year

Since 2017, the Rams have funded a City Year team to support elementary students at Grape Street Elementary in Watts and Crozier Middle School in Inglewood. City Year is a national organization that mobilizes AmeriCorps members for a year of full-time service in underserved communities to serve as tutors, mentors and role models to help students become career-ready young professionals. In March, the Rams and UNIFY Financial Credit Union partnered with City Year Los Angeles to lead a school beautification project at Inglewood Unified School District's Woodworth-Monroe K-8 Academy. During the event, Rams Cornerback David Long Jr., Legend Chris Draft and volunteers painted murals on campus to inspire students as they adjusted to being back in the classroom following their transition from distance learning to in-person learning due to the pandemic.

Salute to Service

As part of the Rams' year-round military appreciation efforts, Salute to Service Week returned for a fourth consecutive year with activities that culminated with the team's Salute to Service game on Sunday Night Football against the Tennessee Titans. Throughout the week, the Rams partnered with veteran service organizations and nonprofits to support the military community and honor, empower and connect with service members, veterans and their families.

Building on a longstanding partnership with American Red Cross, Rams Cheerleaders, Rampage and front office staff visited Madrona and Round Meadow Elementary to help students personalize holiday cards of appreciation for active-duty military members and veterans. The cards were distributed to military members serving domestically and overseas during the holidays. Rams center Brian Allen and tight end Tyler Higbee connected with students virtually during the classroom visits.

The Rams also hosted a virtual Cleats for Character assembly for 11 high school football programs, including the Leadership Military Academy. Rams Director of Social Justice and Football Development Johnathan Franklin led a virtual Q&A session with Legend and Super Bowl XXXIV Champion Torry Holt. During that week, the Rams, Merging Vets & Players (M.V.P.) and CLUBWAKA (World Adult Kickball Association) teamed up to host the first-ever adult kickball tournament at SoFi Stadium. The event featured exclusive stadium tours for guests and a 16-team kickball tournament with all proceeds benefiting M.V.P.

On Friday, Nov. 5, the Rams and Rocket Mortgage refurbished the dining hall at US VETS-Inglewood. Rams Legend Todd Lyght, Rampage, Cheerleaders and front office staff joined volunteers and U.S. VETS staff to refurbish, update and redecorate the dining hall. Following the beautification project, the Rams provided lunch for veterans, their families and community supporters.

For the team's Salute to Service game on Sunday Night Football, the Rams celebrated current and former military members in a variety of ways:

Marine Corps Veteran and Purple Heart recipient Brad Kite, of Brad and Hildy, performed the National Anthem.

U.S.-shaped American flag held by service members was displayed on the field during the National Anthem.

Members of the 2nd Battalion, 1st Marines were in attendance.

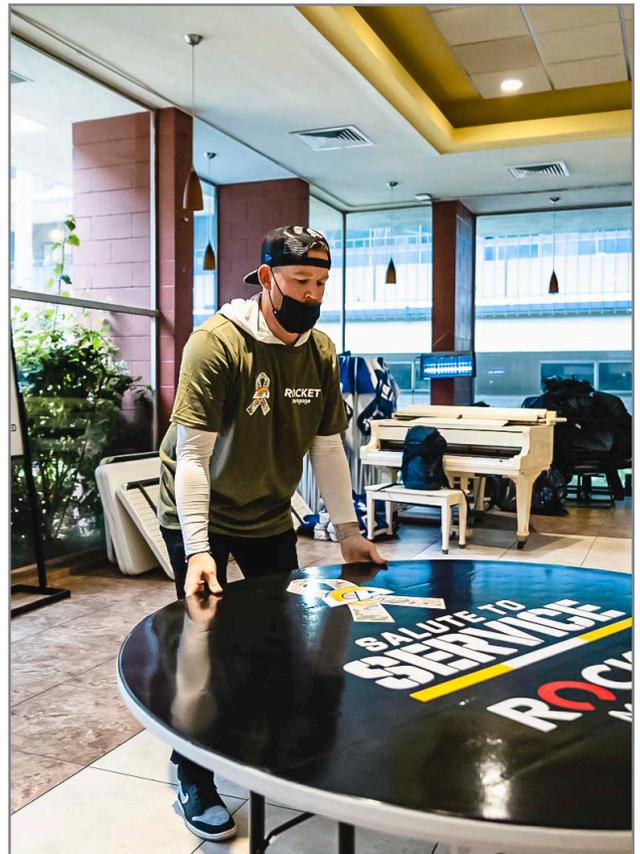

Veterans who work for Turner Construction and helped build SoFi Stadium were in attendance.

To honor the 13 service members who lost their lives in the Afghanistan bombing, 13 seats remained empty and were dressed in red, white and blue floral wreaths.

Rams quarterback Matthew Stafford and his wife, Kelly, donated 88 tickets to Abbey Gate Marines for the game.

Rams offensive lineman Rob Havenstein donated 10 suite tickets to Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) families.

Military veteran and member of Rams security staff, Armando Ulloa, was recognized as Military Hero of the Game during the 1st quarter.

A Crucial Catch

After nearly a decade of supporting breast cancer, the NFL and the American Cancer Society (ACS) continue to expand their efforts to support the fight against cancer. The NFL's Crucial Catch campaign aims to fight cancer through early detection and risk reduction. Every season, each NFL team raises awareness during their Crucial Catch game. Last season, during the week leading up to the Rams' Crucial Catch game against the Arizona Cardinals at SoFi Stadium, team mascot Rampage surprised ten Crucial Catch Captains at their homes to present them with personalized jerseys and tickets to the game. As part of the effort, All-Pro cornerback Jalen Ramsey surprised a young cancer fighter and Crucial Catch Captain, Silas Hoffman, with a FaceTime call after receiving word that he was his favorite player and a source of inspiration during cancer treatments. Rams receiver Tutu Atwell also recorded a video message for each Crucial Catch Captain. During the Crucial Catch game, the ten captains were recognized on the field during halftime. Since 2012, NFL funding has reached more than one million people nationwide and more than $20 million has been raised and donated to ACS through the partnership with the league and its 32 clubs.

Make-A-Wish® Foundation

The Rams and the Make-A-Wish® Foundation have a longstanding partnership dating back to 1995. Over the years, the two organizations have hosted LA Rams Night of Wishes to raise money to help grant the wishes of children who are battling life-threatening medical conditions. In 2021, former Rams tackle and team captain Andrew Whitworth co-hosted the event alongside NFL Network host Andrew Siciliano and philanthropist Andrew Firestone. The evening featured a live auction and entertainment. Rams receivers TuTu Atwell and Ben Skowronek, tight ends Tyler Higbee and Jacob Harris, safety Terrell Burgess and former punter Johnny Hekker attended the event to participate in an onstage game of "RAMily-FEUD", inspired by Family Feud. Over the past three years, the LA Rams Night for Wishes has raised more than $425,000.

In April 2022, the Rams teamed up with Make-A-Wish® Tri-Counties to grant the wish of a local high school student and cancer fighter, Diego Garcia. Rams running backs Jake Funk and Javian Hawkins, receiver Ben Skowronek, tight end Jacob Harris, Director of Strength and Conditioning Justin Lovett as well as members of his staff surprised Diego with a new home gym to help his journey to recovery. The Rams also provided Diego with a TV, Bluetooth speaker, weight belt, team-branded gear, and a $500 Dicks Sporting Goods gift card.

PLAY 60

PLAY 60 is an NFL initiative that aims to create a healthier next generation and tackle childhood obesity by encouraging kids to be active for at least 60 minutes every day. Through the Rams' year-long engagement of youth in fitness initiatives with in-school, after-school and team-based programs, the club is committed to expanding this platform and improving health and wellness for local youth. Since 2016, the Rams have hosted 56 PLAY 60 events and football clinics for more than 6,800 students (as of August 2022) in the Inglewood community.

Fuel Up to PLAY 60

Created in partnership with the NFL and National Dairy Council, Fuel Up to PLAY 60 (FUTP 60) is a leading national in-school health and wellness program with a primary focus on helping schools meet their wellness goals and encourage youth to consume nutrient-rich foods. Developed by FUTP 60 and the NFL, the Hometown Grant program provides teams and farmer-funded dairy organizations the opportunity to identify deserving schools and districts and provide them with funding to help meet their health and wellness needs. In February 2021, the Rams and FUTP provided Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) with a $10,000 Hometown Grant to expand student health and wellness in partnership with America's Dairy Farmers. The grant was awarded during a virtual school assembly for 96th Street Elementary students and featured former Rams punter Johnny Hekker. Since the fall of 2014, FUTP 60 has helped award more than $700,000 in equipment and grants to schools throughout California.

Academic Challenge

The Rams know that football develops strong character, health and wellness of both mind and body. The same standard holds for excellence in the classroom. Since 2017, the Rams have collaborated with USA Football to host the Los Angeles Rams High School Football Academic Challenge to encourage academic achievement amongst varsity high school football programs.

Last season's Academic Challenge featured 13 varsity high school football programs. Each program submitted the cumulative GPA (Grade Point Average) of its players at the beginning and end of the 2021 season. Additionally, each team participated in weekly one-hour study halls and monitored academic progress throughout the season. At the end of the season, the Rams hosted assemblies for more than 500 students at George Washington Preparatory High School and Alexander Hamilton High School to recognize each varsity football program as Rams Academic Challenge winners and award each program with $2,500 grants on behalf of USA Football. Since its launch, the Academic Challenge has provided varsity football programs from Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) and Inglewood Unified School District (IUSD) with more than $20,000.

Los Angeles League of Champions Girls Flag Football

Last season, the Rams and Chargers launched the Los Angeles League of Champions Girls Flag Football program. The Rams and Chargers co-sponsored eight high school teams and provided uniforms (courtesy of Nike), stipends for coaches, coaching manuals, officials, athletic trainers, equipment and transportation for the five-week season. To officially kick off the league, the Rams and Chargers hosted a jersey unveiling at SoFi Stadium. The jerseys were revealed to players from all eight participating high schools in the Rams and Chargers' locker rooms.

The Los Angeles League of Champions Girls Flag Football program creates more opportunities for young women to engage in football, with the goal of eventually sanctioning girls high school flag at the state level. The second season of the Los Angeles League of Champions Girls Flag Football program will begin in October 2022.

Beyond the Bell Rams Flag League

In 2021, the Rams partnered with Beyond the Bell (BTB) after-school sports league to launch a flag football league for Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) middle school students. To commemorate the league, the Rams provided reversible jerseys to 5,028 students at 110 LAUSD middle schools. The schools also received flag football kits with ten footballs, 50 flag belts and three kicking tees. As an extension of the partnership, the Rams sent a coed flag football team (ages 13-14, 10 players and 2 coaches) to compete in the National NFL Flag Championship taking place in Las Vegas, during NFL Pro Bowl Week. Players competed in the tournament championship and attended the Pro Bowl game.

Inglewood Rams

The Rams adopted the Inglewood Parks and Recreation Flag Football League in 2019, renaming the program the Inglewood Rams. The league consists of four divisions and 22 teams with 215 youth participants (ages 5-12). Each team is named after one of the Rams' current players (i.e. Team Stafford, Team Donald, Team Ramsey). The Rams fund all football components of the Inglewood Rams program, including uniforms and equipment. In 2021, the team hosted ten skills clinics for participating youth. Each clinic introduced the fundamentals of flag football, technique, agility and conditioning training, offensive and defensive concepts, and player alignment. To kick off the 2021 season, the Rams provided all 215 league participants with "Inglewood Rams Flag Football" t-shirts.

RISE with the Rams

For the past five seasons, the Rams have teamed up with RISE for a season-long leadership and community building program featuring local high school football programs with a cross-section of races and socioeconomic backgrounds. The initiative is designed to harness the unifying power of sports and build relationships, leadership, understanding, acceptance and cultural competency for student-athletes and coaches. In 2022, the program featured six sessions for varsity football teams from varsity football players from Bell High School, Los Angeles High School, Oaks Christian School and Simi Valley High School. The program kicked off on Thursday, July 14, with a 90-minute discussion in the Rams' locker room at SoFi Stadium about understanding identities, perspective taking and the importance of diversity.

Sean McVay's Virtual Chalk Talk

Last year, for the second consecutive year, Rams head coach Sean McVay led a virtual Chalk Talk leadership summit for over 150 high school football coaches from schools throughout Southern California and more than 2.7k viewers. During the hour session, McVay discussed his coaching journey and leadership philosophies while encouraging the high school coaches to establish a sound culture for their programs and realize the impact they have on their athletes. Since June 2020, McVay has engaged with more than 370 Southern California high school football coaches with his virtual Chalk Talks.

Virtual Mental Health Sessions

Last season, the Rams partnered with EVERFI's Character Playbook to kick off the first installment of a virtual Mental Health Series for 575 students in the Los Angeles region. The students (grades 6-9) joined multiple 45-minute virtual panel discussions featuring Rams players, cheerleaders, Rams Legends and Rams Sports Psychologist Carrie Hastings. Students defined mental health, differentiated between stress and anxiety, identified the symptoms and learned tips on managing mental health in everyday life. As part of the league-wide initiative, the NFL sponsored five schools and more than 800 students in the LA region to have access to EVERFI's mental wellness curriculum. The league-sponsored schools included Bell Senior High, El Camino Real Charter High School, Francisco Bravo Medical Magnet High, Kern Union High School and Newbury Park High School.

Character Chats with Los Angeles County Probation

Last season, the Rams hosted youth housed by the Los Angeles County Probation Department for tours of SoFi Stadium and a panel discussion in the team's locker room. The chats provide mentorship by introducing career pathways and facilitating rehabilitative dialogue for youth preparing to reintegrate into society.

Free Youth Football Camps and Clinics

The Rams partner with local nonprofits and youth football programs to host free football clinics throughout Southern California. Youth participate in football-related drills and competitions. The clinics also feature character education sessions that focus on transferrable life skills attained through sport and teamwork.

The Rams, Health Net and LA Care partnered with Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) and Los Angeles Department of Public Health to promote COVID-19 vaccination awareness and education for students and faculty. Throughout the 2021 season, the team hosted football clinics, grab-n-go food distributions and COVID-19 vaccination clinics for LAUSD students.

In celebration of Women's History Month, the Rams hosted four free girls flag football clinics for local youth (ages 7-14). During the clinics, attendees participated in football-related drills and competitions led by eight Women's Football Alliance (WFA) players. Additionally, Rams staff members and Nike representatives participated in panel discussions about their experiences playing sports and how the skills they gained as athletes translate to working as women in professional sports.

Rams partner with Watts-Native STIX

For the second consecutive year, a Watts native, rapper and producer, STIX, teamed up with the Rams to address social injustices. In 2020, STIX produced an original song titled "It Takes All Of Us," which was one of the phrases highlighted by the NFL for their continued commitment to social justice. Rams team captains selected the phrase to be on the helmet sticker for the 2020 season. The music video, filmed in Inglewood, Watts and South Los Angeles, debuted during the Rams virtual Kickoff for Charity event. All proceeds generated by the event supported the team's efforts to help bridge the digital divide disproportionately impacting under-resourced students in Los Angeles. Additionally, the Rams and STIX produced a PSA featuring players reading an original spoken-word piece written by STIX. The PSA debuted last season before the opening game at SoFi Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday Night Football. Last season, the Rams partnered with Stix, Sisters of Watts, Eastside Riders and the Watts Rams to host a holiday distribution event for families in need.

My Cause My Cleats

Last season, Rams players brought awareness to charitable causes when the team hosted the Jacksonville Jaguars at SoFi Stadium as part of the NFL's My Cause My Cleats campaign. For the sixth consecutive season, NFL players raised awareness for nonprofit organizations and causes on-field during Week 13 and 14 games. Last season, more than 900 players around the league participated in the campaign, including 34 Rams players and three Rams coaches. Organizations supported include American Cancer Society, Boys and Girls Club of America, Down Syndrome Association of Los Angeles, Jordan McNair Foundation, RISE, Special Olympics and many more.

Giving Tuesday

In honor of "Giving Tuesday" in 2020, Rams players awarded $750,000 to 25 nonprofits focused on social justice across the greater Los Angeles region. Following the deaths of Breonna Taylor and George Floyd, Rams players came together to discuss how they could help address the injustices that continue to plague society. The players decided to pull resources together to financially support organizations doing critical work focused on long-term systemic change. The Rams invited 25 social justice nonprofits to share information about their work, those they serve and how the players could assist. After listening and learning, the players awarded each organization with a donation ranging from $20,000 to $50,000. Recipients included A Place Called Home, Brotherhood Crusade, College Track, Heart of Los Angeles (HOLA), Homeboy Industries, SoLa I Can Foundation, Anti-Recidivism Coalition, Liberty Hill Foundation, Operation Progress, Partnership for Los Angeles Schools, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles (BBBSLA), Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles (BGCMLA), Children's Institute, Fulfillment Fund, St. Joseph Center, BOSS, Communities in Schools (CIS), Covenant House, HomeLight Family Living, LA Family Housing, LAPD Community Safety Partnership, LA Regional Food Bank (LARFB), Los Angeles Room and Board, Sharefest and Social Justice Learning Institute (SJLI).

Los Angeles Rams Community Service Team

In partnership with UNIFY Financial Credit Union and City Year of Los Angeles, we led a school beautification project at Inglewood Unified School District's Woodworth-Monroe K-8 Academy in March 2022. The beautification project kicked off the Rams Community Service Team, powered by UNIFY, which unites Rams fans through service opportunities and encourage civic engagement in the Los Angeles community. Throughout the year, the Community Service Team will continue to coordinate service events that include support from Rams players, coaches, staff and volunteers who will serve shoulder to shoulder to inspire change and make a lasting impact in Los Angeles.

Staff Days of Service

Each month, the Rams front office staff takes time out of the office to volunteer with local nonprofits. Since returning home to Los Angeles in 2016, Rams staff members have provided more than 10,000 hours of community service, impacting 50 local nonprofits and 58 schools (as of August 2022) through the Staff Day of Service program.

Community Involvement Project

The cornerstone volunteer effort of the Staff Day of Service program is the team's Annual Community Improvement Project. Rams players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff unite to assist a local nonprofit, school or community in need. Since returning home to Los Angeles, the team has funded and built a new playground and completed mural projects for elementary schools in Inglewood, Watts, South Central and East LA.

Community Blitz Day of Service

In 2018, the Rams introduced the inaugural Community Blitz Day of Service during the holidays. Rams staff work alongside community partners to host volunteer projects at various local nonprofits. Since the program began, Rams players, cheerleaders, Rampage, and front office staff have distributed holiday meals and gift cards to more than 10,000 Southern California residents battling food insecurity, hosted shopping sprees for hundreds of children served by local nonprofits and hospitals, as well as hosted a holiday party and gift distribution for children with incarcerated family members.

Last season, the Rams partnered with Pechanga Resort Casino and the LA Regional Food Bank to host a large-scale, drive-thru food distribution at SoFi Stadium for the second consecutive year. Rams safety Nick Scott, cheerleaders, Rampage, Rams staff and Pechanga volunteers greeted visitors and loaded holiday meal kits into vehicles. The team also worked with Albertsons/Vons/Pavilions (AVP), Pepsi and St. Joseph Center to lead a holiday grocery distribution for more than 300 families at St. Joseph Center. Former Rams defensive tackle Sebastian Joseph-Day, cheerleaders, Rampage, and volunteers distributed grocery bags stuffed with ingredients needed for a holiday feast.

Rams Official Auction Site

In 2020, the organization launched Rams Auctions, an official auction site where fans can bid on Rams memorabilia, game-worn gear, autographed items and more. All proceeds from the auction sales and donations benefit the Los Angeles Rams Foundation to support the team's community outreach programs. To kick off bidding on the site, fans had a chance to bid on a replica of the Knot Standard suit designed by running back Cam Akers that he wore to his NFL debut at SoFi Stadium. The auction site has raised $125,000 (as of August 2022).

Certified #RamsHouse

In 2020, the Rams launched the Certified #RamsHouse program to support businesses throughout the Los Angeles region. The Rams focus efforts on the small businesses of Season Ticket Members and Black-owned businesses in Inglewood and throughout Los Angeles. Each Certified #RamsHouse receives branded window decals, banners, shirts, hats and other items to showcase their Rams pride. As part of the program, Rams fans are encouraged to visit Certified #RamsHouse businesses on preferred days and share their experiences on social media using #RamsHouse. Since the launch of the Certified #RamsHouse program, the team has supported 34 small businesses in Inglewood.

50/50 Raffle

Last season when the Rams clinched the NFC West division, the team's 50/50 Raffle raised a total of $342,975, which set the new NFL record, breaking the previous record of $332,110 set during Super Bowl LIV. The Rams also broke the league's single-season 50/50 Raffle record by surpassing $1.7 million. Previously, the record was $1.6 million set by the Eagles two years ago. Since 2017, fans have the opportunity to purchase 50/50 raffle tickets on game day. The winner receives half (50%) of the jackpot total from the game's raffle ticket sales and the other half (50%) benefits the Los Angeles Rams Foundation.

Rams Commitment to Social Justice

Addressing Community-Police Relations and Mentorship

The Rams goal in the following programs is to spark a healthy relationship with communication between the people of Los Angeles and those in law enforcement roles. By having more communication outside of law infraction and emergency situations, the hope is that an avenue of communication without fear involved will be given to these two groups.

The Watts Rams

The Watts Rams, a youth football program coached by LAPD officers, was adopted by the LA Rams in 2019. The Rams fund all football components of the program, including uniforms and equipment. The Rams also provide engagement opportunities with current players, alumni, coaches, scouts, as well as business and football operations staff. The two football organizations develop joint programs that focus on character development and community service.

Operation Progress and "Fighting For Light, The Concrete Rose"

On December 28th 2020, The Los Angeles Rams and Pepsi, in partnership with Albertsons/Vons/Pavilions, Operation Progress and content creators Shamrock Studio / DLP Media Group, launched "Fighting For Light, The Concrete Rose," a short film that tells the inspiring story of amateur boxer Meryland Gonzalez, a 14-year-old Watts Native and nine-time national boxing champion determined to thrive in the face of difficult surroundings. The film tells the story of a rose growing in Watts, California. A rose that blooms in the most adverse of conditions, but blooms, nonetheless. Helping along the way is Operation Progress (OP), a non-profit organization whose mission is to empower underserved youth to become educated, ethical and productive adults who reach their full potential and positively contribute to society. Watts-native Brandon "Stix" Salaam-Bailey composed and performed the vocal track for the film. This film builds on the work the Rams and Operation Progress have done together, including a virtual five-week character development series for middle school students in Watts that was hosted this past fall. Each week, Rams players joined Operation Progress scholars to explore different character traits such as personal responsibility, perseverance and self-discipline. The Rams' head of security, Dave Love, who spent 28 years with LAPD and served as an Operation Progress mentor, conceived and spearheaded the program. The Rams players also awarded Operation Progress with a $30,000 social justice grant to help fund their monthly grocery program. One of the film's highlights shows Love with Los Angeles Rams Head Coach Sean McVay surprising Meryland with a game ball over Zoom.

Addressing Homelessness

With more than 66,000 homeless Angelenos, homelessness is a defining issue of Los Angeles and something the Rams refuse to turn a blind eye to. That's why the team has chosen to join the fight against homelessness. Whether it's single mothers and families, military veterans or people who have fallen on hard times because of a loss of job or medical crisis, homelessness has many faces. Unfortunately, many of those faces are Black. While blacks represent only 9 percent of Los Angeles County, they represent 1/3 of the homeless population in Los Angeles. In addition to serving as the presenting sponsor of United Way's HomeWalk, the nation's largest event to end homelessness, we work with local non-profits throughout the year to serve our homeless neighbors in need.

Los Angeles Rams And Rocket Mortgage Kick Off Partnership By Supporting Local Vets

To introduce the partnership to the Los Angeles area, and build on both organizations' long-standing commitments to honoring servicemen and women, the Rams and Rocket Mortgage teamed up around the NFL's Salute to Service platform. On Friday, November 13 the Rams and Rocket Mortgage worked together to beautify the Inglewood, Calif., location of U.S. VETS, the nation's largest veteran services nonprofit which has decades-long roots in the LA area. As part of the effort, the new partners completely refreshed the location's outdoor space and brought the spirit of the Rams House to U.S. VETS. U.S. VETS provides housing, counseling, career services and comprehensive support to 5,500 veterans and their families.

Te'LA'thon

The Los Angeles Rams hosted a virtual "Te'LA'thon," on Tuesday March 24th, 2020 to assist Southern California response efforts during an unprecedented global health crisis. All contributions benefitted the United Way of Greater Los Angeles' Pandemic Relief Fund in direct support of community partners including Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. The UWGLA's Pandemic Relief Fund also provided immediate relief to low-income individuals, students and families at imminent risk of homelessness as well as the unsheltered residents across LA County who are experiencing disproportionate hardship due to health and economic impacts of coronavirus (COVID-19). Relief programs include providing low-income students crucial access to technology for continued academic instruction, supplying medical and hygiene materials to shelters and healthcare providers and working to meet the city's evolving demand for food assistance.

Addressing Food Insecurities

The Rams have partnered with Los Angeles Regional Food Bank in countless ways, including introducing the Taste of the Rams in 2016 to raise money to address the food insecurity of 1 in 5 Angelenos (prior to COVID-19). The fifth annual Taste of the Rams event went virtual this year, attracting more than 400 Angelenos and raising more than $100,000 to benefit the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. To date, this annual event has raised $750,000, which is enough for the Food Bank to provide 3 million meals to neighbors in need. Rams Receiver Cooper Kupp served as this year's Honorary Chair and recruited teammates such as Quarterbacks Jared Goff and John Wolford, Receiver Van Jefferson and Safety Terrell Burgess to virtually come together to help raise funds in support of the Food Bank's mission to combat hunger in Los Angeles. NFL Network's Andrew Siciliano hosted the virtual event and longtime supporter of the LA Regional Food Bank, Rossoblu and Superfine Pizza Chef Steve Samson, served as the evening's chef. 1 in 5 people in LA County are faced with food insecurity. It's estimated that 2 million people in our community may not know where their next meal is coming from. Thanks to financial and food donations, volunteers and community events such as the Taste of the Rams, the LA Regional Food Bank can feed more than 900,000 LA residents every month.

Rams Commitment to Social Justice

Addressing Social Change Through Sport With A1liance: Los Angeles

In a historic collaboration to pursue change in communities of color and develop meaningful programs, the 11 professional sports organizations in Los Angeles County and Orange County joined together to launch - The ALLIANCE: Los Angeles, a comprehensive five-year commitment to drive investment and impact for social justice through sport. Following the recent protests nationwide, the 11 teams united to address racial injustice, develop educational opportunities, and support other important issues facing communities of color, particularly Black communities. The 11 teams will advocate for social justice, address disparities and take actions to help end racial inequality. This commitment includes supporting the Play Equity Fund's social justice movement in Los Angeles, and in Orange County amplifying the work of Accelerate Change Together (ACT) Anaheim, which was formed in 2013. These innovative and positive models of engagement are aimed to inspire similar actions throughout the nation.

Rams and Corona Extra Celebrate Frontline Healthcare Heroes for Superbowl LVI

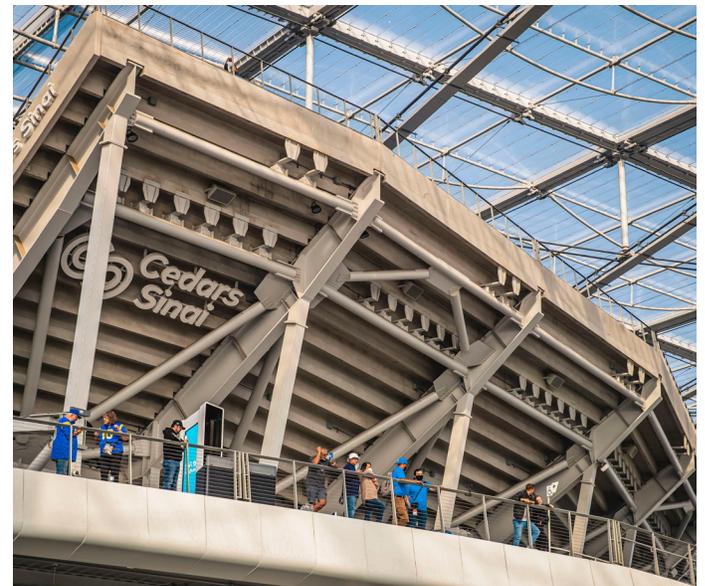

On Super Bowl Sunday, the Rams teamed up with Corona Extra to donate meals and gameday watch kits to frontline healthcare heroes at Cedars-Sinai. As part of the effort, Corona Extra collaborated with the Rams to provide meals for more than 1,000 doctors, nurses and other staff as they continue to work around the clock combating the spread of COVID-19. Rams Defensive Lineman Michael Brockers and team mascot Rampage recorded their own "thank you" video message that was delivered to 16 Cedars-Sinai healthcare heroes along with gameday watch kits that featured personalized Rams jerseys, t-shirts, co-branded hats, a Postmates gift card and more.

Hollywood Park Opens as Vaccination Site for Teachers and District Staff

Hollywood Park alongside Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD), Cedars-Sinai, and Anthem Blue Cross partnered together for the opening of the Hollywood Park vaccination site for teachers and district staff. The site was available to all teachers and education staff from LAUSD, who serve nearly 650,000 students across more than 700 miles, as well as LA County charter schools in efforts to reopen schools in the safest way possible. Rams Left Tackle Andrew Whitworth and Linebacker Kenny Young attended the event and shared a few remarks about their passion for assisting the Los Angeles community during this time.

Training Camp

2022 saw the Rams return to their familiar home of training camp at UC Irvine. It was the 52nd training camp in Southern California for the franchise. The 2020 season marked the first time the Rams held training camp at their team facility (on the campus of California Lutheran University), after the NFL mandated its teams to conduct training camp from their own facilities in 2020 due to COVID-19. Over the course of the Rams' history, the team has held training camp at several locations in the Southern California area, including: Compton College (1946), Loyola University (1947-48), University of Redlands (1949-60), Chapman College (1961-66), California State-Fullerton (1976-71, 1973-90, '93), California State-Long Beach (1972), their team facility on the campus of CLU (2020), and UCI (1991-92, 1994, 2016, 2021, 2022).

SoFi Stadium Information

SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park has transformed the site of the former Hollywood Park Racetrack to a year-round sports and entertainment destination for the enjoyment of people throughout Southern California, as well as visitors to the region.

SoFi Stadium is the centerpiece of the near 300-acre mixed-use development, and has a seating capacity of 70,000, expandable up to 100,000, with 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats, and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space, making it the largest stadium in the NFL. Hollywood Park also includes the 2.5 acre American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat performance venue, YouTube Theater, both of which are located under the same roof canopy as the stadium. SoFi Stadium is the home field for the Super Bowl LVI Champion Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. The state-of-the-art venue hosted Super Bowl LVI and will host the College Football National Championship Game in 2023, WrestleMania 2023, World Cup in 2026, and the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the Olympic Games in 2028.

Located just six miles off the coast, a short drive from LAX and the City of Inglewood's future Crenshaw/LAX Line, Hollywood Park is poised to become an iconic global destination for millions to enjoy. This privately-funded development is 3.5 times the size of Disneyland park and twice as big as Vatican City. It is also the largest urban mixed-use development under construction in the Western United States. In addition to SoFi Stadium, YouTube Theater, American Airlines Plaza and Lake Park, Hollywood Park's Phase 1 includes 500,000 square-feet of retail, a 450,000 square-foot office building, the NFL Media Building, and 314 residences. When complete, Hollywood Park will have up to 2,500 residences, a hotel, a retail district reaching up to 890,000 square feet, up to 5 million square feet of creative office space and more than 25-acres of public parks and open space.

The NFL opened their new West Coast Headquarters at Hollywood Park in September 2021 and it houses operations for NFL Media, which includes NFL Network, NFL RedZone, the NFL app, NFL.com, NFL Fantasy and the NFL's social media lab, plus staff across a variety of departments, including marketing, club business development, and media sales. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility will feature NFL Media's first outdoor studio, which will be able to host audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use.

One of the hallmarks of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park is the long-term impact it will have on the city of Inglewood and the surrounding region. More than 17,000 jobs were created over the course of the stadium's construction period. During the construction of the stadium, Inglewood businesses earned more than $105 million in revenue and Inglewood residents earned more than $38 million in wages. SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park held over 30 events, with an emphasis on Inglewood, in 2021 through community engagement efforts focused on four areas. These areas include: STEAM education, sustainability, financial empowerment and health and wellness.

The open-air SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space.

Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

Across the three spaces, SoFi Stadium has the flexibility to host anywhere from one cohesive event or three separate events concurrently.

On the free-standing roof canopy each panel is covered in a special LED light system. The LED roof screen is 12 acres long or 6.5 city blocks. With over 216,000 LED's, the roof turns into a dynamic display for passengers flying into and out of LAX.

The roof canopy features a single-layer of Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE), which creates a semi-clear cover that protects from weather elements. The ETFE has a 65 percent frit pattern, which reflects 40 percent of visible and solar rays and 42 percent of UV rays. As a result, the temperature is expected to be 4 degrees cooler inside the building than outside.

The oval-shaped 120-yard-long Infinity Screen by Samsung video board is the first HD video system ever built into a stadium. The Infinity Screen is the first-of-its-kind, and the only dual sided, center-hung 4k videoboard ever created. It is a 70,000 square foot, high-def television that spans from one end of the field to the other, the biggest in sports.

The Infinity Screen's oval display features approximately 8 million pixels, spaced 8 millimeters from center to center and can be uniquely or congruently programmed with statistics, live and/or animated content.

In addition, SoFi Stadium Stadium features five levels of an additional 20,000 square feet plus ribbon board throughout the bowl. SoFi Stadium has 90,000 square feet of digital LED in its seating bowl alone.

The first-ever soccer event was the 2022 Leagues Cup Showcase featuring four of the continent's most popular clubs – Los Angeles Football Club, LA Galaxy, Club Deportivo Guadalajara and Club América. The first ticketed concert with fans was held on July 18, 2021, featuring Kaskade.

BTS marked SoFi Stadium's first four sellouts of a single act and holds the record for most tickets sold.

SoFi Stadium

Unique Elements of SoFi Stadium

SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space.

Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air plaza named American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park utilizes 26m gallons of reclaimed water a year for landscape irrigation and maintenance, saving an equal amount of drinkable water for the region.

There are 5,000 trees onsite.

SoFi Stadium was named “Best New Concert Venue” in 2021 by Pollstar Magazine, a leading industry trade publication.

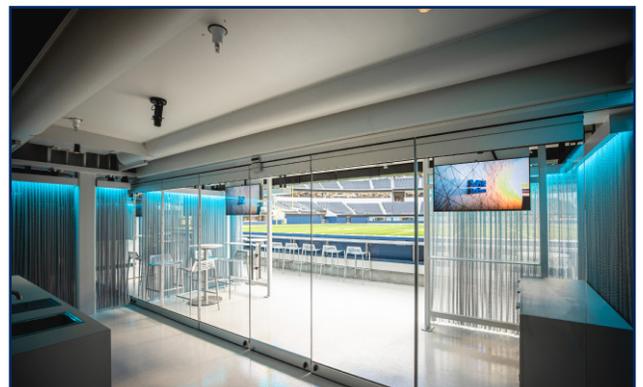

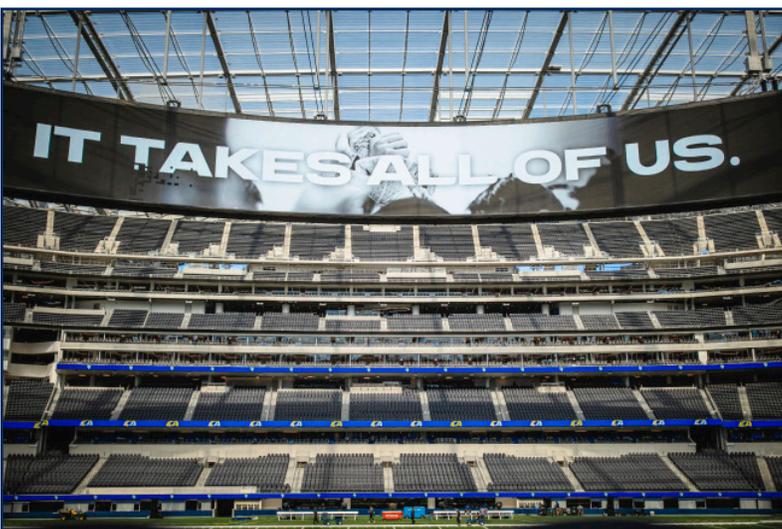

On a clear day, you can see the Pacific Ocean to the West, the Santa Monica Mountains, and the Hollywood Sign to the North. To date, SoFi Stadium has hosted over 2 million fans.

SoFi Stadium features the first-ever dual-sided halo video board, the Infinity Screen by Samsung. Consisting of 70,000 sq. ft. of digital display, the experience will be similar to watching a 55"-60" television, from every seat in the stadium.

The Infinity Screen by Samsung is comprised of multiple screens, allowing the event host to show consistent or varied content.

In addition, SoFi Stadium features an additional 20,000 square feet of digital display on other LED ribbon boards in the bowl.

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Renovations

The University of Southern California and United Airlines announced a new agreement to name the field at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Under this 10-year deal commencing in August 2019, the field at the historic landmark, memorial to World War I veterans and home of the USC Trojans, will be referred to as United Airlines Field at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

USC and United worked together to reach an agreement that retains the original venue name while still providing funding to support a $315 million project to restore and preserve the Coliseum and upgrade its facilities for fans, athletes and the community.

The Coliseum Renovation Project will restore one of the most iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

During the 2019 season, the Rams played their home games at a renovated Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Upgraded features will include Wi-Fi connectivity, new stadium seats with cupholders, additional aisles, improved concession stands, more ADA seating and a new Scholarship Tower which includes a press box and sky deck, as well as premium seating options.

RB Todd Gurley rushed 14 times for 101 yards, a 7.2-yard average in the 2017 Wild Card game. Gurley is the first Rams running back to notch a 100-plus yard game in his postseason debut since Jim Gillette had 17 carries for 101 yards vs. Washington (12/16/45).

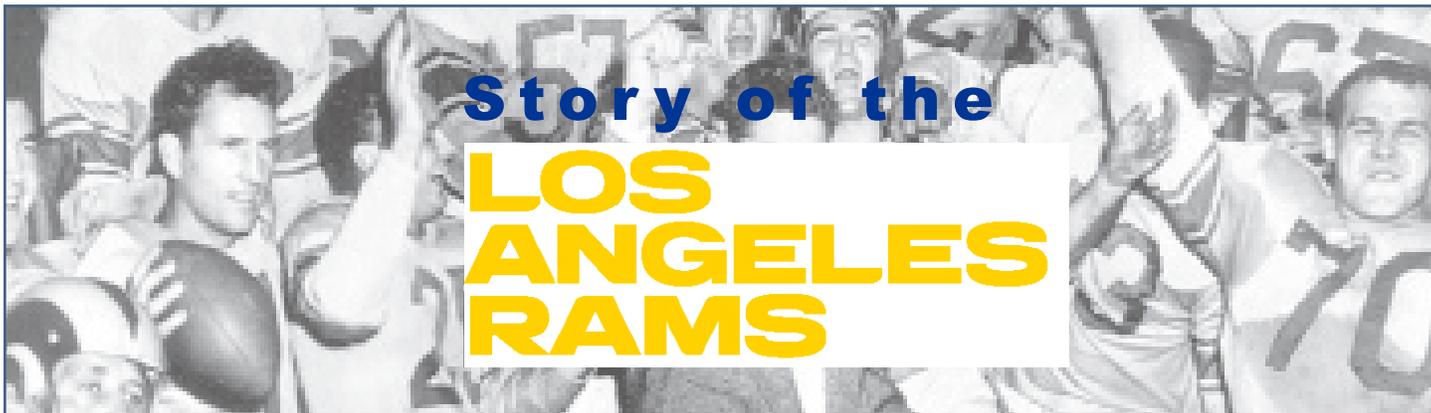

In Week 11 of the 2018 season, the Rams defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 54-51 in a shootout thriller, ending on CB Troy Hill picking off Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes II in the final moments of the game.

The game hosted in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum marks as the highest scoring game in the 49-season history of Monday Night Football.

History of the Rams

Story of the

LOS ANGELES RAMS

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Another Rams team in Cleveland had played in the American Football League in 1936 and finished with a 5-2-2 record, second best in the league. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach of new NFL franchise. Rams finish with 1-10 record. Home games are played in Municipal Stadium and League Park. Bob Kelley is radio play-by-play announcer.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses at start of season. Rams win first three under Lewis but finish with 4-7 record. Home games are played in Shaw Stadium, named after high school on Shaw Avenue in Cleveland.

1939 Earl (Dutch) Clark becomes head coach. Rams finish at .500 for first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player. Trophy is named after NFL president. Hall is first Ram to earn first team All-Pro honors.

1940 Rams drop back to 4-6-1 record. Fullback Johnny (Zero) Drake is all-NFL first team.

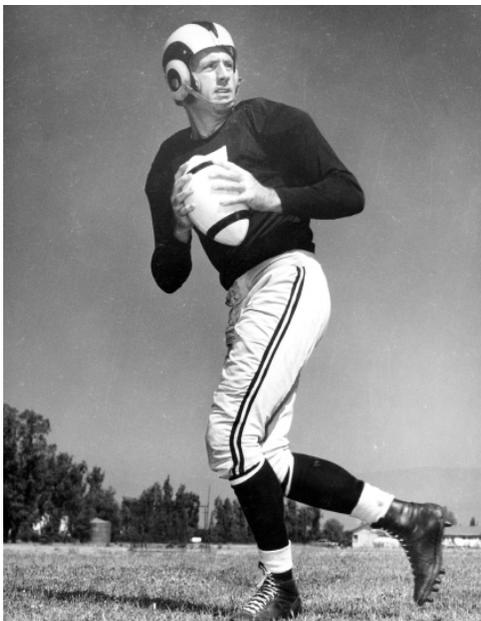

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr., purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish fifth in NFL West.

1942 Evans resigns before season. Charles (Chile) Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Maj. Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. After three seasons in Municipal Stadium Rams return to play all home games in League Park. Team finishes 5-6. Clark resigns as head coach after season with overall, 16-26-2 record.

1943 Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime restrictions and shortages. On April 16, Reeves buys out Levy. On loan to Detroit, Riley Matheson is all-NFL selection.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager. Chile appoints Aldo (Buff) Donelli as head coach. Donelli once held the distinction of being the Pittsburgh Steelers' head coach and Duquesne University's head coach at the same time. Team of free agents and pickups finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Bob Waterfield, a third-round future draft choice in 1944 from UCLA, joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1 season and to first NFL West title. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for NFL championship, Dec. 16. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Riley Matheson, Jim Benton, Eberle Schultz and Jim Gillette receive all-Pro honors. Benton caught 10 passes for NFL record 303 yards in 28-21 win at Detroit, Nov. 22. Benton's mark stood as NFL record for 40 years, broken by Chiefs' Stephone Paige, who had 309 yards in 1985 game against San Diego. Eddie Kotal joins team as NFL's first, fulltime college scout.

1946 Reeves receives approval to move franchise to Los Angeles, Jan. 11. Rams sign halfback Kenny Washington, March 9, and end Woody Strode, March 21. They are first African-American players in the modern NFL and join team one year before Jackie Robinson breaks baseball color barrier with Brooklyn Dodgers. After 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but slowed by injuries in 6-6 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy; to Edwin and Harold Pauley, and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. Snyder resigns, Sept. 3, and Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Rams are first professional franchise with team insignia or logo on helmet. They introduce headgear with painted Rams horns, designed by halfback Fred Gehrke, an industrial design artist in off-seasons. By 1960, all pro teams except Cleveland have logos on helmets. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Rams wins first six games, capped by 27-24 victory over Chicago Bears before NFL regular-season record crowd of 86,080 in Los Angeles Coliseum, then hang on with 2-2-2 finish to win first NFL West title since moving from Cleveland. Heavy rain and sloppy field at Coliseum conspire against Rams as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win in NFL title game.

1950 NFL absorbs All-America Football Conference, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence and Rams competition from Los Angeles Dons. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead Rams to 24-14 division playoff win over Bears, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal beats Rams, 30-28. Waterfield is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club.

1951 Rams win third straight NFL West title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Norm Van Brocklin to Fears, for first NFL title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener 37-7 to Cleveland, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hampton Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for NFL West title. Rams lose Western playoff in Detroit 31-21. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Rams finish with 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in NFL West. Rams defeat eventual world champion Detroit twice; Rams 37-34 victory over Lions Nov. 1 is witnessed by 93,751 in Coliseum, a pro football record.

1954 Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. Norm Van Brocklin is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Split end Bob Boyd is lone Ram to be named all-Pro. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Les Richter give team hard-fought, 8-3-1 record for NFL West title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum 38-14.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Rams publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6. Rams set standing professional record with attendance of 102,368 for game with San Francisco, Nov. 10.

1958 Van Brocklin goes to Eagles in preseason trade. Bill Wade sets several Rams passing records en route to 8-4 season. Rams twice draw home crowds of more than 100,000.

1959 Rams lose last eight games and finish 2-10, their poorest record since 1937. Ollie Matson, acquired in trade with Chicago Cardinals March 23 for 9 players, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner, Jan. 26. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named head coach. Rams post 4-7-1 record.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, and John Guzik to Chicago for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow, and 1962 first draft choice, which enables Rams to draft future Rams greats Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen the following year. Rams finish with 4-10 record.

1962 Rams make North Carolina State quarterback Roman Gabriel second pick in first round and Utah State defensive tackle Merlin Olsen third pick in first round of draft. Dick Bass provides bright spot in 1-12-1 season with all-Pro selection. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare is named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley, and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. After 0-5 start, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0. Rosey Grier is acquired from New York Giants and joins Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen, and Lamar Lundy to form original Fearsome Foursome.

1964 Rams sign 10-year contract to play in "new look" Coliseum "stadium-within-a-stadium." Seating capacity is lowered from 100,000-plus to 72,000 with installation of temporary seats that close off several thousand permanent seats. Fourteen rookies make the squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record. Deacon Jones unofficially records first 20-sack season in league history with 22.

1965 After winning only one of first 10 games, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed as head coach.

1966 After court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 and one of the outstanding radio sportscasters in history, dies in September. Team finishes 8-6, best record since 1958.

1967 Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Don Hewitt begins 28-year tenure as equipment manager. Rams record first unbeaten preseason with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay 28-7 in NFL Western Conference Championship Game. Rams win Playoff Bowl game in Miami in January over Cleveland 30-6. Game featured losing teams from conference finals. George Allen receives NFL Coach-of-Year honors by The Sporting News. Jones establishes unofficial NFL record with 26 sacks.

1968 Team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1. Attendance is more than one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach but rehired two weeks later. Deacon Jones is named NFL Defensive Player of Year for second straight season after registering 24 sacks.

Los Angeles Rams "Fearsome Foursome" defensive ends David "Deacon" Jones and Lamar Lundy, defensive tackles Merlin Olsen and Roger Brown pursue in a 34-10 win over the Baltimore Colts on Dec. 17, 1967 at Memorial Coliseum.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack E. Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20 but beat Dallas 31-0 in Playoff Bowl. QB Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as NFL's most valuable player. T Bob Brown, T Charlie Cowan, G Tom Mack, Gabriel, DE Deacon Jones, DT Merlin Olsen and DB Eddie Meador give Rams a team record seven all-Pro selections.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January points Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta, and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

After five years at Cal State-Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State-Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in year, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, best in Rams history, and Knox is NFL Coach of the Year. Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC Player of the Year. Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms; team had worn blue and white since 1965.

1974 After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title, and 1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest total in NFC. Jack Youngblood, Isiah Robertson, and Monte Jackson are named all-Pro. Merlin Olsen is invited to a league-record 14th Pro Bowl.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Pat Haden earns NFC player-of-year award. Rams announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

Club moves offices and in-season training facility to Juliette Low elementary school in Anaheim and rename the facility Rams Park. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins seventh straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. 1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games and the Rams finish last in NFC with 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last five games with neck injury. In Jones place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Ray Malavasi is dismissed as head coach.

1983 Spearheading one of the most dramatic turnarounds in NFL history, Rams owner Georgia Frontiere hires former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted in the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4-4). Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team, winning at Dallas before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records, and is All-Pro. Robinson is NFC coach of the year.

1985 Rams' season falls one game short when they lose to Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week 5. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week 12. Eric Dickerson sets NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in Rams' first playoff win, 20-0, at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team.

On defense rookie LB James Laurinaitis became on the second rookie in franchise history to lead the team in tackles. K Greg Zuerlein set a new team record with seven field goals of 50 yards or more, including a team-record 60-yarder. In the 2013 Draft, the Rams traded up in the first round to select WR Tavon Austin and used their second first round selection on LB Alec Ogletree.

2013 Defensive End Robert Quinn put together one of the best seasons among pass rushers in team history. He was named to the Pro Bowl and First-Team All Pro, and established a new franchise single-season sack record with 19.0. He led the NFC and was half a sack shy of NFL leader Robert Mathis of Indianapolis and was also second to Mathis in forced fumbles (Mathis-8, Quinn-7). As a defensive unit, the team ranked No. 9 against the run, marking the first time the team cracked the top-10 in the category since 2001. The offense started the season ablaze as TE Jared Cook set a new record for most receiving yards in a season by a Rams tight end in his debut with the team. Cook caught seven passes for 141 yards and two touchdowns in the team's Week 1 victory vs. the Arizona Cardinals. Quarterback Sam Bradford was on pace for the best season of his career until he was sidelined with a knee injury in Week 7 against the Carolina Panthers. In his absence, Kellen Clemens took over the reins and rookie RB Zac Stacy emerged. Stacy, a fifth-round draft selection, started in the final 12 games of the year and registered 969 yards in his first NFL season. The Rams boasted one of the NFL's top special teams units and was led by P Johnny Hekker, a Pro Bowler and First-Team All-Pro, who set an NFL single-season record with a 44.2-yard net punting average.

Hekker led the NFL in punts, gross average, net average and punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He's the first player to lead the league in all three categories since the NFL began tracking punts inside the 20 in 1976. On January 12, 2016, the Rams were officially approved to move back to the greater Los Angeles area for the 2016 season and beyond.

2016 One of the most significant years in franchise history, the Rams relocated back to Los Angeles, the club's home for nearly 50 years from 1946-94, with the move being approved on January 12. The organization began the move from St. Louis to Southern California by holding OTAs in Oxnard, followed by training camp at UC Irvine and finally settling at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks for the regular season. Big moves continued for the club, as they traded six total draft picks to Tennessee for the No. 1 overall pick - a pick they would use on QB Jared Goff - in the 2016

On Nov. 17, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke and Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts were on hand to break ground on the new L.A. Stadium and Entertainment District at Hollywood Park. Anchored by a 70,000 seat open-air stadium, the 298-acre mixed use development will include 1.5 million square space, 1,500 residences, a hotel and more than 20 acres of public parks.

After a Week 14 match-up against the Falcons, the Rams parted ways with Head Coach Jeff Fisher after five seasons with the club and named special teams coordinator John Fassel as the Interim Head Coach for the remaining three games.

Following the season, three Rams were named to the 2017 Pro Bowl in Orlando, Fla. - DT Aaron Donald, P Johnny Hekker and LS Jake McQuaide. Donald became the third defensive tackle in Rams history to make three consecutive Pro Bowls. Hekker made his third career trip to the NFL's annual All-Star game and McQuaide earned the honor for the first time in his career.

2017 The Los Angeles Rams ushered in the Sean McVay era with white horns on their helmets and the organization's first NFC West crown since the 2003 season and the franchise's first playoff berth since 2004. L.A. finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and was the league's top-scoring team, just one season after finishing as the 32nd ranked scoring team. The Rams improved from 14.0 points per game in 2016 to 29.9 points per game under McVay's guidance.

The impressive turnaround resulted in a trio of awards on the eve of Super Bowl LII in Minneapolis. DT Aaron Donald was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, McVay was named the AP Coach of the year and RB Todd Gurley II was honored as the AP Offensive Player of the Year, the first time in the history of the awards that one team has swept the top three awards.

Rams DT Aaron Donald (DPOY), HC Sean McVay (COY) and RB Todd Gurley II (OPOY) were all award recipients at the 2018 NFL Honors Ceremony in Minneapolis on the eve of Super Bowl LII.

Rams RB Todd Gurley II rushed 14 times for 101 yards, a 7.2-yard average in the Wild Card game, becoming the first Rams running back to notch a 100-plus yard game in his postseason debut since Jim Gillette had 17 carries for 101 yards vs. Washington (12/16/45).

Dick Vermeil (1999), Chuck Knock (1973), and George Allen (1967). Of these four, only McVay and Allen were first-year head coaches. In NFL history, McVay is just the 14th rookie head coach overall to receive the award after Detroit's George Wilson first won the honor as a first-year head coach in 1957.

Donald became the first player in Rams history to ever earn the distinction of AP Defensive Player of the Year. His year also concluded with First Team All-Pro recognition for the third-consecutive season and he was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth-consecutive season.

Gurley led the NFL in touchdowns (19), points scored among non-kickers (114) and scrimmage yards (2,093) in addition to finishing second in rushing yards (1,305). Gurley became the first Ram to win Offensive Player of the Year since Hall of Fame RB Marshall Faulk took home the award in 2001. Faulk (1999, 2000, 2001) and fellow Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson (1986) were previously the only Rams to earn AP Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Despite playing in only 14 games, K Greg Zuerlein led the league in scoring (158), spearheading a Rams special teams unit that was among the best in the league in 2017.

L.A. hosted its first playoff game in the Coliseum since the 1979 season, but fell to the Atlanta Falcons, falling by a score of 26-13 in the NFL Wild Card.

2018 The Los Angeles Rams (13-3, 2-1) finished the 2018 season tied for the second-most regular season wins in franchise history and made the organization's fourth Super Bowl appearance.

Under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sean McVay, L.A. won its second-consecutive NFC West title, a feat last achieved by the Rams during the 1978-79 seasons. L.A. earned the second-seed in the NFC and hosted the Divisional Round of the playoffs, before claiming the NFC title in New Orleans to earn the right to compete in Super Bowl LIII.

Individually, DT Aaron Donald had himself a season for the record books, establishing a new franchise record 20.5 sacks in a single season, while posting an NFL record 183.5 sack yards. Donald also led the league in tackles for loss (25) and quarterback hits (41) en route to earning his second-consecutive Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award. Following the 2018 campaign, Donald earned his fourth-consecutive First-Team All-Pro selection. He was the only unanimous selection in this year's voting, receiving all 50 of the panel's votes at defensive tackle.

RB Todd Gurley II led all running backs in All-Pro vote getting, receiving 25 of the 50 votes to propel him to his second-straight All-Pro Team. Gurley, who finished 200 yards shy of his second-consecutive 2,000 scrimmage yard season after sitting out the last two weeks of the season, put up 21 total touchdowns and ended the year with the second-most rushing yards per game (89.4) behind Cowboys RB Ezekiel Elliott, who was named a second-team All-Pro.

A pair of special teams aces also earned All-Pro accolades in P Johnny Hekker and special teamer/LB Cory Littleton. It marked Hekker's sixth-straight All-Pro honors and the first for Littleton, who is in his first season as a full-time starter at linebacker, and joined the team as an undrafted free agent in 2016.

Donald, Gurley and Littleton were joined by QB Jared Goff as the team's four Pro Bowl selections. It marked the second-consecutive Pro Bowl selection for the third-year signal caller.

Goff, set a career-high in single-season passing yards in 2018, becoming the fourth Rams quarterback in franchise history to reach 4,000 yards passing, and leading Los Angeles to a second-straight NFC West title.

Goff completed 62.1 percent of his passes this season and threw 32 touchdowns. The former Cal Bear posted a single-season career-best 101.1 QB rating and finished with 4,688 passing yards, which was the fourth-highest passing output in the NFL this season. Goff has 9,581 career passing yards and ranks eighth on the franchise's passing leaders list.

Donald became just the third player to repeat as AP DPOY, joining J.J. Watt (2014-2015) and Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor (1981-1982). A man redefining the defensive tackle position, Donald led the NFL with 20.5 sacks this season, the most by an interior defensive lineman in a single season in NFL history. The 20.5 QB takedowns tied for the fourth-most in a single season over the last 25 seasons among any position.

K Greg Zuerlein connected on all four of his field goal attempts and both extra points in the team's NFC Championship Game victory over the New Orleans Saints, including and most notably a 57-yard game-winning field goal in overtime. QB Jared Goff ended the season with 4,638 passing yards, surpassing the 4,000-yard threshold for the second-consecutive season. Goff is the only quarterback in franchise history to do so in consecutive seasons and he joins Hall of Famer Kurt Warner as the only QBs to ever have multiple 4,000-yard seasons with the organization.

2019 The Rams (9-7) closed out the last season of its 38-year residency at the Los Angeles Coliseum in 2019, doing so with a winning record for the third-consecutive season under Head Coach Sean McVay.

The season saw multiple Rams post record-setting performances offensively, while also identifying emerging talent on the defensive unit that stepped up in big moments.

In his third year under McVay's offensive scheme, QB Jared Goff continued to attack opponents through the air, ending the season with over 4,000 passing yards for the second-consecutive season. Goff is the only Rams QB to toss for over 4,000 yards in consecutive seasons and he joins Hall of Famer Kurt Warner to have over 4,000 yards in multiple seasons with the organization. The gunslinger ended the year with 22 passing touchdowns, giving him 20-plus passing TDs for the third-consecutive season.

Goff operated behind a makeshift offensive line that dealt with position changes and injuries throughout the season. Despite those challenges, the unit did not allow Goff to be sacked in a franchise-record six games and ended the season allowing a league-best 22 sacks.
