DANIEL SNYDER

CO-OWNER / CO-CEO

Dan Snyder is Co-Owner and Co-CEO of the Washington Commanders. A self-made man and an entrepreneur at heart, Dan Snyder's life is marked by an enduring passion for the people, the team and the community he loves. He has been a key member of the leadership team since he and his wife Tanya Snyder acquired the team in 1999. A D.C.-area native, Dan Snyder is a lifelong Washington fan who grew up attending Washington Commanders – then Redskins – games with his father Gerald. His childhood and adolescence were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the team. To Snyder, football is family. He has put his passion into action since purchasing the team 23 years ago, consistently leading the franchise to new prominence in the community, in business and across the National Football League.

Dan Snyder continues to be one of Washington's most engaged and impactful community leaders and philanthropists. Shortly after purchasing the franchise, one of Dan and Tanya Snyder's first actions was to create the Washington Commanders Charitable Foundation, which launched in 2000, to bring together the team and its corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on area youth across the Washington, D.C.-Maryland-Virginia area. Under Dan and Tanya Snyder's leadership, the Washington Commanders Charitable Foundation has contributed more than $31 million to the local community and grown to impact more than 178,000 area youth each year.

Beyond the team's expansive charitable foundation efforts, Dan and Tanya Snyder have identified numerous ways to support and contribute to communities in-need around the world, primarily through contributions to disaster relief, COVID-19-related relief, social justice, Children's National Hospital and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC). Dan and Tanya Snyder have donated hundreds of thousands of dollars and mobilized widespread resources to support Ukrainian response efforts, hurricane relief efforts across the U.S. and internationally in the Caribbean, Haiti, Indonesia and Thailand. As a longtime supporter of the Children's National Hospital Foundation, Dan Snyder's support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center. He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the NCMEC. Each day, the Center fields hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. Dan and Tanya Snyder were honored with the Charles B. Wang International Children's Award in 2014. Dan Snyder's support has also extended to the military community. Under his leadership, the organization created Salute, the team's official military appreciation club which coordinates the team's decades-long military appreciation initiatives into one comprehensive, year-round platform. This first-of-its-kind program in the NFL serves, supports and thanks the military community by hosting a variety of events, including pre-game parties for military members, re-enlistment ceremonies at both team headquarters and FedExField, military appreciation events and more. Snyder also contributed to the construction of the USO Warrior and Family Center at Fort Belvoir.

Under his leadership, the Washington Commanders remain at the forefront of marketing and business operations in the NFL. The organization has evolved to be innovative with an entirely new, best-in-class leadership team at the Senior Vice President level and above, including Tanya Snyder as Co-CEO and Jason Wright as Team President, making the Commanders leadership team the most diverse in the National Football League. As part of this cultural and business transformation, Dan and Tanya Snyder led the organizational rebrand. The pair also hired a first-of-its-kind Chief Creative & Digital Officer to oversee the organization's storytelling and brand marketing strategies while also developing engaging new content to drive even greater value for fans and team sponsors. In addition to their collaborative work around the team's rebrand, Dan and Tanya Snyder worked closely with senior leadership to launch an in-house content studio. Dan Snyder also leads the team's active stadium search.

During the Snyder's 23 season tenure, 30 different Washington players have earned a total of 62 Pro Bowl appearances, 14 have been named All-Pro per the Elias Sports Bureau and 20 draft picks have been selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. In addition, five players – Darrell Green, Bruce Smith, Deion Sanders, Champ Bailey and Jason Taylor – have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to acquiring the Washington Commanders, Dan Snyder founded and acted as Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc., making him the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time. From its launch in 1985, Snyder Communications, Inc. grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees with 77 offices across 17 countries and more than $1 billion in annual revenue. The company's client base included 200 of the Fortune 500, to which it provided targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services. It was acquired by Havas in 2000 for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising and marketing industry. Snyder is also Founder and Chairman Emeritus of inVentiv Health and Founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates radio stations across the Washington, D.C.-Maryland-Virginia area. Snyder is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and he is enshrined in the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

Dan Snyder is the proud father of three children and a beloved dog, Tackle. Dan and Tanya Snyder reside in Virginia.

TANYA SNYDER

CO-OWNER / CO-CEO

Tanya Snyder is Co-Owner and Co-CEO of the Washington Commanders. She has been an integral part of the executive team since Dan and Tanya Snyder acquired the team in 1999, spearheading the launch and continued commitment of the Washington Commanders Charitable Foundation and expanding her role over the years into various aspects of the organization. Since 2000, Tanya has led “the team behind the team” and guided social and community efforts across the organization. Under her stewardship, the Charitable Foundation has contributed more than $31 million to the local community and grown to impact more than 178,000 area youth each year.

In 2021, Tanya Snyder was named Co-CEO, becoming a catalyst for the evolution of the Washington Commanders into a franchise of the future. Under her leadership, the Commanders have undergone a cultural and business transformation that includes a new, innovative leadership team at the Senior Vice President level and above, as well as an organizational rebrand. The Commanders have assembled a best-in-class leadership team – the most diverse in the National Football League – with Tanya at the helm.

A breast cancer survivor and longtime advocate for cancer awareness and research, Tanya Snyder and Zeta Tau Alpha co-founded the THINK PINK® campaign for breast cancer awareness within the NFL in 1999 by passing out 8,000 handmade pink ribbons at FedExField to remind fans that early detection saves lives. This gesture launched a pink movement each October throughout the league and across the nation, and what started at FedExField has resulted in nearly 10 million pink ribbons pinned leaguely and millions of lives touched around the world to date. Tanya’s community impact, especially her breast cancer awareness and advocacy efforts, has been recognized by a number of organizations including the American Cancer Society with “Mother of the Year” honors (2013), Men Against Breast Cancer with the Gloria Heyison Inspiration Award (2012), and Zeta Tau Alpha Foundation with the ZTA THINK-PINK!® Ambassador Award (2008).

An Atlanta native, Tanya Snyder is the proud mother of three children and a beloved dog, Tackle. Dan and Tanya Snyder reside in Virginia.

RON RIVERA

HEAD COACH

33RD NFL SEASON // (26 COACHING/9 PLAYING)/ 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his 26th season coaching in the NFL and his third as Washington's head coach in 2022.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoff appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC

South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defended. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

RIVERA STRONG

Throughout the 2020 NFL season, the Washington Football Team family supported their head coach by wearing "Rivera Strong" apparel that supported Ron Rivera and his battle with squamous cell carcinoma. JASON WRIGHT

TEAM PRESIDENT

As President of the Washington Football Commanders, Jason Wright is responsible for leading the organization's business divisions, including operations, finance, sales, and marketing. In addition to leading a historic transformation of a sports franchise, he is the first Black team president in the history of the NFL and currently is the youngest team president in the League. He is the fourth former NFL player to become president of a team.

Prior to joining the Washington Football Team, Jason was a partner in McKinsey & Company's Washington DC office. His work focused on expanding the value of large, complex organizations through operations and culture transformations. Jason specialized in steering companies through their toughest moments - in crisis and turnaround scenarios. From systemic personnel misconduct to financial distress to COVID-19 response, Jason's tenure at McKinsey supported a range of multi-national, corporation-specific challenges, while also leading the company's global inclusion and anti-racism strategies.

His deep passion for intentional change that profoundly expands opportunities for historically marginalized populations resulted in his work co-founding McKinsey's Black Economic Institute. A research entity that analyzes the racial wealth gap, the Institute today serves as a prominent voice in public discussions regarding racial equity in corporate America. This advocacy, combined with his data- and results-oriented approaches, have been sought out by leading organizations, such as The Greater Washington Partnership, where Jason helps lead its Inclusive Growth Strategy Council as co-chair. The Inclusive Growth Strategy Council is a regional collaborative that dissects and identifies a blueprint for the region to address long-standing gaps in income, services, employment, and access to capital for lower-income populations.

Jason's commitment to faith, family, and community is marked by his service on the Board of Trustees at Union Theological Seminary, where he is helping the institution better equip a changing student body focused on community organizing and social entrepreneurship. His leadership, passion for community change, and business acumen have been noted nationally and regionally, with Jason being awarded as a "Top 40 under 40" by Black Enterprise magazine, Sports Business Journal's "Best Hire of 2020," and standing as a member of The Economic Club of Washington D.C., where he serves alongside DC-based executives supporting a range of initiatives in the DMV.

Jason spent seven years as a running back in the NFL and was team captain and NFLPA player representative for the Arizona Cardinals during the 2011 NFL lockout. He has a B.A. in psychology from Northwestern University, where he was an Academic All-American student athlete, a two-time All-Big Ten football selection, and the president of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He received his M.B.A. in Operations and Finance with honors, from the University of Chicago-Booth School of Business.

CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Mission Statement: The Washington Commanders Charitable Foundation is ever-present in the community, constantly working to achieve its mission of making a positive and measurable impact in the lives of children that need it most. Since the Snyder family created the Charitable Foundation in 2000, the organization has given back more than $31M to the community and currently provides support and services to more than 179,000 individuals (mostly children) annually, focusing on supporting education, children's health and wellness and preparing them for their future.

Capital Investment Project – During training camp in July 2021, The Foundation made a $75,000 donation to support Richmond's Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Facilities to assist with the renovation and additional upgrades for the Hotchkiss Field Community Center. This donation was made with the goal of continuing to invest in the future of children in the RVA community. The Foundation was also able to surprise one of the organizations that utilizes the facility, RVA League for Safer Streets, with a gift of $15,000 in brand new sports equipment ahead of its upcoming season. Additionally, Team President Jason Wright and Washington Legends Gary Clark, Chris Baker and Tim Hightower met with players and offered words of wisdom in a character-building workshop. RVA Leagues for Safer Streets provides services to its area community through basketball, unifying families and reducing crime.

Back to School Fair – In August 2021, The Foundation hosted over 1,000 Washington D.C. metro area students at the 7th Annual Back to School Fair at FedExField. Children and their guardians in attendance received school supplies, sports equipment, haircuts and much more to prepare for the upcoming school year. The goal, as it has been since 2015, was to provide low-income children with a central place to be completely prepared for the upcoming school year. The Back to School Fair initiative will return this August.

Hispanic Heritage -- On September 28, 2021, The Foundation kicked off the 2021-2022 Washington Reads Program with a virtual Hispanic Heritage Month celebration with 200+ students across DC, Maryland and Virginia. Washington tight end and first Chilean-born NFL player, Sammis Reyes, surprised students with a reading of the book La Frontera, shared his journey to the NFL, talked about his heritage and concluded the event with a Q&A with students.

Breast Cancer Awareness & Crucial Catch – For the 23rd year in a row, The Foundation hosted its annual Breast Cancer Awareness game as the organization encouraged fans to “Think Pink” in the fight against breast cancer. To promote early detection awareness, Co-Owner and Co-CEO Tanya Snyder helped hand out 45,000 pink ribbon pins to fans entering the game, as the organization has surpassed nine million ribbons given out over the last two-plus decades. The team also hosted the All-Star Survivors, 30 women whose lives have been affected by breast cancer, to honor and recognize them at the game. Washington staff also kicked off National Breast Cancer Awareness Month in partnership with the National Breast Cancer Foundation, by packaging 335 HOPE Kits filled with essential items for women currently battling breast cancer in the DMV.

All-Star Survivors -- On Oct. 12, The Foundation hosted the 13th annual All-Star Survivors Celebration, an event focused on supporting and celebrating 30 All-Star Survivors, women whose lives have been affected by breast cancer, and their families. During the event, the breast cancer survivors, or “All-Stars”, were treated to lunch, makeup consultations and massages. They also received new jeans donated by Gap Inc., custom Color Bar jewelry donated by Kendra Scott, spa services courtesy of Lansdowne Resort and Spa, wigs and scarves provided by the American Cancer Society, and a Washington gift bag. Attention to the little details played a big role in the mission to make these women feel special.

Alumni Homecoming -- On October 16th, 2021, over 30 Washington Alumni, Jackie Taylor & family came together with Washington's partners, Out Teach and Pepsi Stronger Together, for a garden build at Burrville Elementary School in Washington, DC to launch the Sean Taylor Legacy Project as part of the Team's Alumni weekend of activities to honor the life and legacy of Sean Taylor. The garden will allow 325+ students to grow their STEM knowledge each year.

Trunk or Treat – In October 2021, The Foundation partnered with Dreams for Kids DC for a Halloween Trunk or Treat. The students were able to visit five themed cars where they received an assortment of candy, Washington swag items, toys and more. After Trunk or Treating, participants hit the dance floor alongside members from the Entertainment Team and Washington Legend Joshua Morgan.

Harvest Feast – On November 22, 2021, volunteers assisted in assembling 7,500 bags of dry goods, perishables and beverages that were distributed to 2,500 families the following day at Washington's 19th Annual Harvest Feast presented by Ryan Homes. In total, the event distributed roughly 90,000 pounds of nutritious packaged food and fresh produce in addition to 50,000 pounds of turkey in a drive-thru format at FedExField. Through partnership with the Capital Area Food Bank that benefits the DMV region, Washington has gifted nearly 1,602,335 pounds of packaged and fresh food and 640,500 pounds of turkey since 2003.

Digital Divide Grant -- As part of the National Football League's Inspire Change initiative to reduce barriers to opportunity, Washington awarded two grants -- in the amount of $15,000 apiece -- to two critical organizations in the District of Columbia and Prince George's County, Maryland that are working to bridge the digital divide. Inspiring change begins with a commitment to equity in all forms, and these organizations are demonstrating a determined approach to breaking down barriers in technology access. The Foundation and the National Football League are proud to serve the community through these two far-reaching organizations.

Everfi306 + BGC Partnership -- With Washington players leading the charge, along with help from alumnus Doug Williams, The Foundation partnered with EverFi and the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Washington to bring an African American History program (known as Everfi306) to students in the DC metro area. The goal of the partnership, and the team's $50,000 donation towards this program, was to educate and encourage kids and teens of all races and backgrounds to have difficult conversations and use their voices to create positive change. During this year's Program Kickoff, Washington Alumni Tim Hightower and Joshua Morgan provided insight to the students about how a program like Everfi306 helps to change a limiting narrative and expand the dreams of those in young Black communities.

Washington Winter Wonderland -- On Dec. 14, 2021, The Foundation hosted 200 elementary school students from D.C. and Prince George's County Public Schools at FedExField for a holiday-themed winter wonderland experience. Students were served lunch by Washington special guests, including Tanya Snyder, alumni and the Entertainment Team before they rotated through different holiday-themed activity stations. These activities included photos with the day's special guests, face painting, arts and crafts, ornament making, cookie decorating and story time, as well as a surprise visit with Santa during which each child received several personal gifts.

Amazon Books Holiday Event – In connection with the Washington Reads program, the team partnered with Amazon Books to bring 50 students from Randle Highlands Elementary School, a Ward 7 D.C. school, to Amazon Books' storefront location in Georgetown. Washington Co-Owner & Co-CEO, Tanya Snyder, and alumni joined the event, where students were treated to breakfast and surprised with gifts for the holiday season.

Toys for Tots -- The Foundation and the U.S. Marine Corps teamed up for the Toys for Tots toy drive benefitting children across neighboring communities in the DMV. More than 70 U.S. Marines from across the DMV area were on-hand at our Dec. 12th game to help collect toys and monetary donations. Since 2011, The Foundation has raised nearly $280,000 for the Toys for Tots initiative.

Toy Giveaway – Washington's Toy Giveaway, the grand finale of the team's month-long Season of Giving initiative, was organized in partnership with surrounding community groups to provide presents for local youth who would benefit most from the gifts. During the day, the team distributed more than 10,000 toys and team gifts to thousands of these families. Some selected dolls and science kits, others picked out jerseys and board games. Every single one of these families, though, left with a present that couldn't be wrapped in paper or placed under a tree -- the joy of a child with a gift of their own for Christmas.

My Cause, My Cleats -- As part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign, more than 70 Washington players and coaches created custom cleats to raise awareness for initiatives and causes they are passionate about. Players revealed their passions beyond the game and wore their hearts on their feet in Week 13 of the 2021 season. The Foundation then auctioned off select players' and coaches' game-worn cleats, raising more than $30,000 in the initiative's seventh year, to support their chosen non-profit organizations.

High School Coach of the Week Program -- The High School Coach of the Week program is a league-wide initiative, recognizing area high school football coaches who continuously demonstrate hard work and dedication to their football programs by creating successful football teams and players both on and off the field. During the Coach of the Week selection process, the committee considered how each nominee demonstrated the importance of player health and safety, which includes their philosophies on teaching the fundamentals of the game, proper tackling techniques, concussion management practices, and adherence to heat and hydration guidelines. The chosen coaches were honored in-game with an on-field moment in January during the 2021 season. Additionally, each coach chosen throughout the high school football season received a $2,000 donation from The Foundation to their football program to provide additional resources and training to recipients and their coaching staff. After all 10 coaches were selected, the committee nominated a coach for the Don Shula NFL High School Football Coach of the Year award who demonstrates a commitment to the health and safety of their players as well as the exemplary characteristics of the late Coach Don Shula. Coach Michael Nesmith, head football coach of Paint Branch High School (PBHS) in Burtonsville, MD, was named the Washington Football High School Coach of the Year.

National Gun Violence Awareness Day: On National Gun Violence Awareness Day, the Washington Commanders locked arms with other Washington, DC-based sports teams, pledging a combined donation of more than $85,000 to Everytown for Gun Safety's Community Safety Fund, providing direct investment, peer convenings and capacity building to community-based violence intervention programs. Additionally, the Commanders' Rookie class came together to wear orange shirts recognizing the day.

Rookie Community Club Initiative -- The Rookie Community Club Initiative is a platform to introduce Washington Commanders' rookies to the DMV community and community partners that are an integral part of the franchise. Through Coach Ron Rivera's commitment to community outreach, the program has increased participation initiatives that fulfill the mission of The Foundation. The 2022 Rookie Community Club Initiative events included the B.R.A.K.E.S Safe Driving, Capital Area Food Bank Packaging and a Big Bus Tour of Washington, D.C.

B.R.A.K.E.S Save Driving -- The Washington Commanders teamed up with B.R.A.K.E.S (Be Responsible and Keep Everyone Safe), a national teen driving program, to hold free safe driving lessons at FedExField for teenagers aged 15-20. During the Safe Driving session, two dozen Washington players received important lessons for best driving practices. B.R.A.K.E.S. course graduates are 64% less likely to get into a crash in their first 3 years of driving.

Capital Area Food Bank -- Washington rookies helped package 585 boxes of meals to help feed families in the DMV community. Capital Area Food Bank leads the team's regional efforts to provide equitable access to food for those struggling with hunger and food insecurity. The Commanders are proud to have a long-standing partnership with Capital Area Food Bank with a variety of events throughout the year.

WASHINGTON SALUTE

Washington Salute - the Commanders' official military appreciation and outreach program. Salute recognizes the duty to serve and support those who have courageously fought for our freedom, and an opportunity to thank our military for their continued selfless efforts to serve the United States. Washington Salute allows service members to connect with the team and with each other, sharing stories, experiences and the shared passion of the Commanders fan base and service members. Washington Salute includes free year-round events and activities supporting the program's four pillars: education, family services, health and wellness, and job creation. It also features team news, social media updates and photo sharing. Additional features include contests and sweepstakes, photo galleries, special events, promotional giveaways, meet & greets with players and alumni and discounted offers.

Military Combine: 100-150 Salute members go through a simulated "combine" similar to what team prospects go through. This event is typically in the spring, held around the same time as the NFL Combine. The event has been hosted at the St. James Sports Complex and The Commanders practice facility.

Touching Base Tour: In past years, Salute has traveled to up to 15 bases in MD, DC, and VA and provided giveaways and lunch to service members.

Military Appreciation Day at Training Camp: 150 guests hosted at training camp practice. Lunch, giveaways, raffles, and autograph opportunities were included.

Game Day Events: USO Metro Club hosts up to 500 club members, active-duty service members and veterans on gameday with drinks, food, raffles, alumni appearances, discounted ticket opportunities and service member in-game recognition moments.

TAPS (Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors): event held in conjunction with Salute: As a part of Salute to Service week, Washington hosted five Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) families for a special practice viewing at The Commanders practice facility in Ashburn, Virginia. After practice, alongside current players, Washington Legend Doug Williams and Head Coach Ron Rivera told the TAPS families that Washington players would be wearing helmets with the initials of their loved ones during the upcoming game against Tampa Bay. For Washington personnel and TAPS, marking players' helmets with the initials of troops who have passed is a sacred and personal gesture that embodies and furthers a commitment Washington has forged to recognize the sacrifice and service of these families. In 2015, Washington became the first NFL team to partner with TAPS. Since then, nurturing that relationship and spotlighting the important work TAPS spearheads has been a top priority for Washington.

Pack4Troops events at FedExField: Active-duty service members representing Fort Belvoir (Navy/Army/Air Force) alongside the USO of Metropolitan Washington-Baltimore helped pack care packages and write uplifting holiday messages for deployed military members

USO Care Package Event at FedExField: On March 10, 2022, the Washington Commanders and USO staff teamed up to pack 4,000 Care Packages comprising more than 24,000 items for troops deployed to Eastern Europe in response to the Ukrainian crisis. The Care Packages, which included hygiene essentials such as combs, razors, shaving cream, toothbrushes and toothpaste, as well as team merchandise and snacks, are the last items troops receive before deploying overseas and an invaluable resource. The event was the largest USO packaging event to date. Co-Owners and Co-CEOs Tanya and Dan Snyder, Washington Commanders Staff, active duty service Members, 15 Washington Alumni including Ken Harvey, Doc Walker, Fred Smoot, Dexter Manley and Women of Washington Wives were in attendance to help box care packages. Additionally, prior to the event, Co-Owners and Co-CEOs Tanya and Dan Snyder donated $300,000 to support response efforts for the ongoing crisis in Ukraine to the USO, DC-based World Central Kitchen, International Rescue Committee, and Save the Children.

USO Care Package Delivery at BWI Airport: On April 26, 2022, the Washington Commanders partnered with the USO to deliver care packages to troops deploying from BWI Airport. Washington Commanders Co-CEO and Co-Owner Tanya Snyder was in attendance as well as Head Coach Ron Rivera, his wife Stephanie Rivera, and players Jamin Davis and Jonathan Allen to hand deliver care packages that Commanders staff and USO members assembled at FedExField.

Marching Band & Fight Song: After taking a two-year hiatus, Washington's 85-year-old marching band is back for the Commanders inaugural season. The 60-person band features professional musicians from across the DMV and is composed of woodwind, brass and percussion instruments. The 2022 Marching Band will be led by Washington's first-ever Music Director, Maestro Jeffrey Sean Dokken. Dokken will work closely with Assistant Director Brittney Lynn, Percussion Instructor David Constantine, and the rest of the gameday leadership team to bring renewed musical energy back to FedExField. Also returning after a two-year hiatus is the team's historic Fight Song, which will retain its iconic tune. The Marching Band will premiere the new version during the Commanders preseason home game.

Hype Squad: The Commanders Hype Squad is made up of 30 team members who audition every year. The Hype Squad are experts in delivering a best-in-class guest experience and celebrating the most unforgettable moments with Commanders fans. Hype Squad members are all around the stadium to help get fans excited about the game. Additionally, Hype Squad members are available for game seat visits for any types of celebrations, e.g., birthdays, first games and anniversaries.

Command Force: The Washington Commanders Command Force is one of the league's most diverse entertainment team groups. The 44-person team is comprised of dancers, gymnasts, breakers, b-boys and b-girls and Beat Ya Feet dancers. Command Force performances aim to bring to life the rich culture of D.C.'s world-renowned and iconic dance scene through high-energy, hip hop-based choreography incorporating tricks, stunts, visuals, Beat Ya Feet, and elements of street funk at all home games and Commanders events year-round throughout the DMV.

NEW AT FEDEXFIELD

Additions to FedExField for the 2022 season include a total of 2,095 mesh seats across 12 total sections in the club level as well as 12 4-Top tables in the West Endzone, 21 2-Top tables in the East Endzone, and 224 new half moon private tables located in both endzones of the club level.

DMV Local Food Vendors: The Commanders are excited to bring local DMV food vendors to FedExField this fall as part of the annual Flavors of the DMV Showcase. Eight vendors include EllaRay's Café, Everything Legendary, KitchenCray, Seafood At The Shack, Suit2Cook, South Mountain Creamery, Casa De Avila Tacos and Fireman's Café.

Command the Canvas: A new initiative at FedExField, the Command the Canvas art installation project will bring select DMV-based artists to display their artwork around the stadium in places including ramps, large walls on the Main and Upper Concourse and in specialty areas like Legends Plaza and Touchdown Club. These artists are experts in a variety of styles including graphic design, sculptures, mixed media, portraits and more. Artists stories and tour information can be found online on Commanders.com.

Grubhub: Additionally, the team is excited to extend its partnership with Grubhub through the 2022 season with an easy and innovative mobile ordering option at FedExField, as part of the team's elevation of the overall gameday experience for fans and guests. Ticketed fans can place food and beverage orders for select vendors at the stadium through the Grubhub app when at FedExField, as well as pay directly and pick up their order through designated concession lanes for contactless pickup.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, & INCLUSION

The Washington Commanders' Diversity, Equity & Inclusion efforts are driven through engaging programs, educational trainings, impactful initiatives and a talent pipeline focused on diversity.

STAFF ENGAGEMENT THROUGH ERGs:

The Washington Commanders offers employee resource groups (ERGs) to all employees. During onboarding, staff are presented with the ERG offerings and encouraged to participate in offered programs and take advantage of resources. All full-time employees may participate. Allies are also encouraged to join.

ERG offerings include:

The Black Engagement Network ("BEN"): BEN's mission is to foster a community of support that Washington Commanders' employees of the African Diaspora (African American/Black) can utilize for professional and personal development by facilitating networking events, mentorship opportunities, seminars, and other activities meant to enhance the overall employee experience. The organization is the go-to resource for African American/Black Commanders employees. Its goal is to be recognized internally and externally as the gold standard ERG in the NFL by spearheading the Washington Commanders' commitment to be the best place to work in sports for members of the African American/Black community.

The Women's Initiative Network ("WIN"): WIN's mission is to empower, support and enrich women to succeed and advance at the Washington Commanders, both personally and professionally. WIN, in partnership with its allies, aims to achieve these goals by supporting the hiring, development and retention of women at the Washington Commanders. Additionally, WIN works to make the Washington Commanders a safe space for women to foster peer connections and share their experiences.

The Commanders Pride Network: The Commanders Pride Network's mission is to empower LGBTQ+ colleagues at the Washington Commanders and develop an organization-wide culture of intentional allyship through support and belonging. This will be done by offering community, professional development, networking, and educational programming.

Washington's ERGs have spurred far-reaching programs such as Shop Black, a directory of small Black-owned businesses on the Commanders website, Educator of the Month, a program which recognizes an African American teacher going above and beyond in the DC area to serve their classroom, the Dress to WIN clothing drive, a clothing drive designed to collect professional attire for women at local shelters, and the Commanders' participation in the Capital Pride Parade & Festival.

Commanders Programming

INSPIRE CHANGE: Leading up to last season's Inspire Change game, the Washington Commanders held a panel session for employees on the topic of criminal justice reform and systemic racism, featuring the story of Sean K. Ellis and his lawyer, Rosemary Scapicchio. Sean is a Boston, MA native and was wrongfully convicted of murdering a police officer at the age of 19. Over the course of 21 years and 4 trials, Sean was finally granted his freedom with the help of Rosemary. Prior to the event, staff were encouraged to watch Sean's Netflix documentary, Trail 4.

CAPITAL PRIDE PARADE: In 2021, the Commanders participated in the annual Washington D.C. Capital Pride celebration. The festivities started on Saturday June 11th, where approximately 60 Commanders employees and their families, as well as 20 entertainment team members, marched in the Pride Parade and distributed Pride-themed Commanders swag along the parade route in downtown DC. Other marchers that shared the streets with the Commanders included the Washington Mystics basketball team and members of the DC Gay Flag Football League. Celebrations continued through Sunday, June 12th, where the Commanders sponsored the official "Sports Village." Fans that celebrated in the Sports Village received additional Commanders' Pride swag and had the opportunity to meet and take photos with alumni in attendance including Fred Smoot, Doc Walker and Brian Mitchell, as well as members of the Commanders Entertainment Team.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, & INCLUSION

Juneteenth Panel Discussion: Each Juneteenth, the Commanders offer staff the day off to observe the holiday. Additionally, the company offers the opportunity to learn about this important day in American history. In 2021, Washington hosted an African Studies professor from Howard University to teach staff the history of Juneteenth. This year, the Commanders collaborated with other trailblazers across the league to steer enlightening and impactful conversation with a panel discussion. Panelists included Patrick Claybon, NFL Network Anchor; Dr. Nyaka Niilampti, NFL VP of Wellness & Clinical Services; Whitney Meyer, Chief Impact Officers for the Jacksonville Jaguars; and Washington's own Jennifer King, Assistant Running Backs Coach.

DE&I ON GAMEDAY: During the 2021 Inspire Change game, the Commanders highlighted several DE&I driven activations including:

Shop Black Holiday Market: The Black Engagement Network hosted the first-ever Shop Black Holiday Market on Washington's Inspire Change game against the Seahawks on Nov. 29, 2022. Seventeen local DMV businesses participated in the event sponsored by Vistaprint. Throughout the game, fans had the opportunity to shop and browse products in the Party Pavilion. Washington Legend Doug Williams had the honor of cutting the ribbon to open the market prior to kickoff.

In-Game Recognition: During the game, two DE&I centric recaps were featured on the video board. The first feature was the Shop Black Small Business Bootcamp. Powered by the Black Engagement Network, this bootcamp taught small Black-owned businesses key tools to accelerate their online stores. This recap powered the economic advancement extension of the Inspire Change initiative. The second in-game recognition was a video recap of the Inspire Change panel discussion featuring Sean K. Ellis & Rosemary Scappichio. This highlight helped push forward the criminal justice reform extension of Inspire Change.

HBCU Halftime: Halftime show featured the Bowie State University Band Educator of the Month. Established by the team's Black Engagement Network, Educator of the Month spotlights a Black educator in the DMV that goes above and beyond to support their classroom. During the Inspire Change game, these educators are invited recognized on the field and presented with an official ball customized with their name.

CULTURAL CELEBRATIONS: EVERYDAY CHAMPIONS:

As part of the team's Everyday Champions campaign, members from the team's diverse employee populations are highlighted via cultural celebrations throughout the year. Each cultural month is met with a social media post from the team, programming for staff, and the opportunity to highlight Washington's employees. These employee highlights are referred to as the team's Everyday Champions.

Notable programs include:

Black History Month Fireside Chat w/Doug Williams: Doug Williams, HBCU graduate and first Black quarterback to win a Super Bowl, was featured in a fireside chat with staff share with staff his life stories, moments of triumph, and talk about what Black History Month means to him.

Latinx Heritage Month Celebration: The Washington Commanders invited Antonio Tijerino, Executive Director of the Hispanic Heritage Foundation, to have a conversation on Latinx culture, history, and his connection to the Washington Commanders.

MARTIN MAYHEW

GENERAL MANAGER

33RD NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/24 FRONT OFFICE) // 6TH WITH WASHINGTON

Martin Mayhew enters his second season as General Manager of the Washington Commanders after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joined Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

“Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization,” said Head Coach Ron Rivera. “He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991.”

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club’s vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team’s Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team’s general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit’s winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew’s tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew’s nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington’s personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

MARTY HURNEY

EVP OF FOOTBALL/PLAYER PERSONNEL

31ST NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH WASHINGTON

Marty Hurney enters his second season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Commanders after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joined Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team’s public relations department.

“Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past,” said Head Coach Ron Rivera. “He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come.”

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club’s interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney’s tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. Carolina was just the fourth team in NFL history to have consecutive players win rookie of the year honors since the awards inception in 1967.

Hurney’s other notable first round selections include DE Julius Pepper (2002), T Jordan Gross (2003), CB Chris Gamble (2004), LB Thomas Davis Sr. (2005), RB DeAngelo Williams (2006), RB Jonathan Stewart (2008), WR DJ Moore (2018) and DE Brian Burns (2019). Peppers was selected to the Pro Bowl nine times, was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2002 and is the Panthers’ all-time leader in sacks. Gross started at tackle for the Panthers for 11 consecutive seasons, made three Pro Bowls and is the Panthers’ all-time leader in games started. Gamble started at cornerback for the Panthers for nine seasons and is the all-time franchise leader in interceptions. Davis Sr. was selected to three Pro Bowls along with gaining First Team All-Pro honors in 2015 and is the Panthers all-time leader in tackles. Stewart and Williams went on to compile 7,318 rushing yards and 6,846 rushing yards, which is No. 1 and No. 2 in Panthers’ history, respectively. Moore has led Carolina in receiving and posted 1,000-plus receiving yards in consecutive seasons and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2018. Burns ranked No. 4 among rookies in sacks in 2019 and led the Panthers with 9.0 sacks in 2020.

During Hurney’s tenure as Panthers GM, he also had considerable success in free agency and through trades. Hurney executed trades for TE Greg Olsen and long snapper J.J. Jansen who were both Pro Bowlers. Olsen holds the franchise record for receiving yards among tight ends and ranks No. 3 overall in receiving yards in franchise history. He also acquired RB Stephen Davis, QB Jake Delhomme, LB Mark Fields and G Mike Wahle via free agency. All four players were named to Pro Bowls during their time with Carolina. Delhomme ranks second behind only Cam Newton as the franchise’s leader in passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to being named general manager of the Panthers in 2002, Hurney held the position of coordinator of player operations from 1999-2001 and director of football administration in 1998.

Before joining the Carolina Panthers organization, Hurney held the role of coordinator of football operations with the San Diego Chargers under Pro Football Hall of Fame and Washington Ring of Fame executive Bobby Beathard.

Hurney began his career as a reporter covering Washington in the 1980s. After developing relationships with Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Bobby Beathard and Head Coach Joe Gibbs, Hurney joined Washington’s public relations department in 1988.

Hurney is a native of Wheaton, Md. and attended Catholic University in Washington D.C. Before joining Washington’s public relations department, he worked for the Montgomery Journal, Washington Star and Washington Times.

ROB ROGERS

SVP FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

28TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Rob Rogers enters his 28th season in the NFL and third with the Washington Commanders in the role of Senior Vice President of Football Administration. In this role, Rogers works for the football senior leadership team on the development of player budget parameters, roster management, contract proposals, negotiation strategies and salary cap management. Rogers also oversees the club's football analytics department along with being one of the main liaison's between the football and business operations.

Prior to coming to Washington, Rogers held the title of executive director of player finance and football research. In this role, he worked closely with the Panthers general manager on the development of player budget parameters, roster management, contract proposals, negotiation strategies and salary cap management. He also oversaw the Panthers football analytics department and worked on research and analysis of player contracts and statistics. He directly conducted the majority of contract negotiations with player representatives during his time in this role.

Before gaining the title of executive director of player finance and football research, Rogers was the director of football administration for 11 years (2008-18). He negotiated contracts for all of the Panthers first round and other draft selections during a 16-year span (2003-19) along with numerous free agents. He also worked with the front office on issues dealing with the NFL Collective Bargaining agreement and as the club's liaison to the NFL Management Council, he kept the Panthers in compliance with all NFL personnel, contract and labor-related issues.

Starting in 2013, Rogers worked on developing efforts in analytics, football research in personnel, opponent analysis and self-scouting along with sports science and next gen statistics. He developed the in-house salary cap management database and also designed the current pro scouting system in Carolina and in the mid 90s worked with in-house developers to design and implement the initial opponent analysis and self-scouting system. Rogers worked extensively with Coach Rivera in Carolina on on-going efforts to develop game management analysis and practices.

Rogers is also a member of the NFL Club Services Committee, which is a group made of various front office executives from around the league, tasked with providing guidance and feedback on technology integration initiatives to the development staff of the NFL Management Council. He has served on the committee since 2002.

Rogers joined the Carolina Panthers in 1995 and worked as a quality control assistant along with helping out on the in-house business analytics team. He is a 1993 graduate of Harvard University and holds a degree in government.

Rogers and his wife Clair have two children: daughter Emma and son Brady.

24TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

- Jack Del Rio enters his 24th season coaching in the NFL and his third as the Commanders Defensive Coordinator in 2022 after being named to the position on Jan. 2, 2020.
- In 2021, Del Rio oversaw a defense that featured defensive tackle Jonathan Allen, who set career-highs in sacks (9.0) and quarterback hits (30). Washington's defense allowed the eighth-fewest rushing yards per game and recorded the best defensive tackle team grade in the NFL according to Pro Football Focus.
- In 2020, Del Rio helped lead a defense that ranked in the top 10 in total yards per game (6th), passing yards per game (5th), interception rate (8th), redzone percentage (3rd) and total points per game (7th).
- Del Rio has accumulated 35 combined seasons of NFL experience, including 24 as a coach and 11 as a player. He has held head coaching roles with the Oakland Raiders, Denver Broncos (interim) and Jacksonville Jaguars. He has also coached 29 players to a total of 57 Pro Bowl selections.
- From 2015-17, Del Rio was the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders. In 2016, he guided the Raiders to a 12-4 record, marking the franchise's first 12-win season since 2000. The Raiders earned a postseason berth for the first time since 2002 and landed an NFL-high seven players on the AFC Pro Bowl squad. Del Rio was selected as the recipient of the Maxwell Club's Greasy Neale Professional Coach of the Year Award, becoming the sixth Raiders coach to earn NFL Coach of the Year honors. In addition, he was named the AFC Coach of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101.
- As defensive coordinator with the Denver Broncos from 2012-14, Del Rio was part of three-straight AFC West titles and helped lead Denver to an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII following the 2013 campaign. It marked his second stint under Head Coach John Fox, as the two also spent the 2002 season together in Carolina.
- Prior to joining the Broncos in 2012, Del Rio spent nine seasons at the helm in Jacksonville. During his head coaching tenure (2003-11) with the Jaguars, the club ranked sixth in the NFL in yards per game allowed (317.3) and eighth in points per game allowed (20.3).
- Under Del Rio, the Jaguars made two playoff appearances in 2005 and 2007, highlighted by the club's first postseason win in eight seasons with a 31-29 road victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2007 AFC Wild Card Game.
- During his lone season as a defensive coordinator with Carolina in 2002, he inherited the NFL's worst defense statistically (371.4 yards per game allowed) and turned it into the league's second-ranked unit (290.4 yards per game allowed). Additionally, the 2002 Panthers squad led the NFL in rushing average against (3.7 avg.) and ranked second in third down efficiency (32.9 percent) and sacks (52).
- As linebackers coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, Del Rio tutored a talented group that included Peter Boulware, Ray Lewis and Jamie Sharper. Baltimore's 2000 team set the NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points while recording four shutouts and forcing a league-best 49 turnovers. Lewis was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV that season after a playoff run in which the defense surrendered just one touchdown in four games.
- Del Rio began his coaching career with the New Orleans Saints under Head Coach Mike Ditka, serving as an assistant strength coach in 1997 before moving on to coach the linebackers in 1998.
- A veteran of 11 seasons as an NFL linebacker, he was selected in the third round (68th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft by New Orleans and went on to make the NFL's All-Rookie Team and earn the Saints' Rookie of the Year award.
- Del Rio was a four-year starter at the University of Southern California, where he earned consensus All-American honors as a senior and was runner-up for the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's best lineman or linebacker. Named co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl, Del Rio recorded 340 career defensive stops, including 58 tackles for a loss. A standout catcher on the USC baseball team, Del Rio was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981. He was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in May 2015.
- Del Rio was a three-sport star in football, baseball and basketball at Hayward (Calif.) High School. He earned a degree in political science from the University of Kansas while playing for the Chiefs.
- Del Rio and his wife, Linda, have three daughters, Lauren, Hope and Aubrey, and a son, Luke, who also works for Washington as an offensive quality control coach and assistant quarterbacks coach.

NATE KACZOR

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

15TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH WASHINGTON

- Nate Kaczor (pronounced Kat-sir) enters fourth third season as special teams coordinator with Washington in 2022. He will be entering his 15th NFL season and has held positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Tennessee Titans and Tampa Bay Buccaneers during his NFL career.
- In 2021, Kaczor led a special teams unit that finished with the sixth-most total return yards in the NFL which was the most by the organization since 2015. The unit also allowed 643 kickoff return yards, the seventh fewest in the NFL. Washington punted for an average of 47.4 yards, the seventh-most in the league.
- In 2020, Kaczor helped standout punter Tress Way record the highest single season net punting average [44.3] in franchise history. Way broke his own record from 2019 [44.1], also under the direction of Kaczor. Way also set a franchise record for most punting yards in a single game, punting 10 times for 511 yards against the Rams in Week 5. Washington led the league in net punting yards in 2020 with 3,325.
- In 2019, Kaczor helped guide punter Tress Way to his first Pro Bowl selection. Way was also named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team. Way finished the season No. 2 in net average (44.1) and No. 2 in punt yardage (3,919) and No. 7 in punts inside the 20 yard line (30). Under Kaczor's guidance, Washington ranked No. 4 in the league in kickoff return average (25.2) and No. 5 in kickoff return yardage (833) despite fielding one of the league's youngest rosters.
- Under Kaczor's guidance, Tress Way became the first Washington punter since Matt Turk in 1997 to be named to the Pro Bowl. Steven Sims Jr. (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 12) and Tress Way (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 13) were also the first players in the history of the franchise to receive the honor of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in consecutive weeks.
- During Kaczor's three seasons with Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers were one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL, allowing only 6.6 yards per return, the fourth-lowest mark in the league during that span.
- Punter Bryan Anger was a standout during Kaczor's tenure with the Buccaneers. In his first year with the team, Anger set Buccaneers records for both punts inside the 20 (37) and net punting average (42.7), with both of those ranking in the top five in the NFL in 2016. In the three seasons that Anger spent under Kaczor's tutelage, Anger ranked top 15 in the league in punts inside the 20 and net average while only recording 14 touchbacks.
- Kaczor came to Tampa Bay having spent the previous four seasons with the Tennessee Titans, the final three as the teams' special teams coordinator (2013-15) after being hired as the assistant offensive line coach in his first season (2012). In 2015, the Titans tied for the NFL lead in special teams takeaways, while in 2013 Kaczor's unit ranked third in the league in opponent punt return average and eighth in kickoff return average.
- Kaczor entered the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working there from 2008-11. During those four years, Jacksonville had one of the league's top special teams coverage units, allowing the lowest punt return average in the NFL (6.5 avg.) and the eighth-lowest kickoff return average (21.8 avg.). In each of Kaczor's final two seasons, Montell Owens earned Pro Bowl recognition as a special teams player.
- Prior to joining the NFL, Kaczor spent 17 years coaching in college, the final two working as co-offensive coordinator (2007) and tight ends coach (2006) at Louisiana-Monroe. In his only season as co-offensive coordinator, the team ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense and averaged its most points scored since 1993.
- Before his time at Louisiana-Monroe, Kaczor spent two seasons (2004-05) as the co-offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Idaho and four seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Nebraska-Kearney (2000-03). Kaczor began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Utah State, working as an offensive assistant for nine seasons (1991-99), helping the team win three conference championships.
- A center at Utah State, Kaczor was a team captain, who earned all-conference honors in 1989. A native of Scott City, Kansas, he and his wife, Angie, have two children, Kaylee and Micah, who is currently a pitcher in the Colorado Rockies organization.

SCOTT TURNER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

11TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

- Scott Turner is entering his third season as the offensive coordinator of the Commanders after being hired on January 8, 2020. He will be entering his 11th NFL season and has held positions with the Carolina Panthers, Cleveland Browns and Minnesota Vikings during his NFL career.
- In 2021, Turner aided several players reaching significant milestones, including Wide Receiver Terry McLaurin and Running Back Antonio Gibson, both of whom reached the 1,000 receiving and rushing yard plateau respectively. Washington had a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for the first time since 2014.
- McLaurin has recorded 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons under Turner, becoming the first receiver to record two-straight 1,000-yard seasons in Washington since Henry Ellard did so in 1994-96.
- Turner led an offense that recorded the sixth-most rushing yards and the sixth-most rushing yards per game in the NFC. Washington averaged 30:44 minutes of offensive possession, the 10th-most in the NFL.
- In Turner's offense, running back J.D. McKissic recorded the second-most receptions [80] and fifth-most receiving yards [589] for a running back in a season in franchise history.
- Washington started four different quarterbacks during the 2020 season, combining for the second-most completions in a single season in franchise history [389].
- Under Turner's tutelage, two players amassed 1,000 yards in 2020. Running back Antonio Gibson became the first Washington rookie to gain 1,000 scrimmage yards since Alfred Morris in 2012, as Terry McLaurin became the first Washington wide receiver with 1,000 yards in a season since 2016.
- The offense in Washington took leaps in the second half of last season, registering 2,916 second-half scrimmage yards. It marks the seventh-most in a single season in club history and most since 2016 [3,635], since the stat was officially recorded in 1991.
- Turner came to Washington from Carolina, where he served as quarterbacks coach as well as interim offensive coordinator in 2019.
- In 2018, Turner helped quarterback Cam Newton post a franchise-record 67.9 completion percentage, despite playing through injury. The Panthers finished 10th in the league in net yards [373.3], the second-highest season average in club history.
- Turner served as quarterbacks coach with the Minnesota Vikings from 2014-16, helping quarterback Sam Bradford to set a then-NFL record in completion percentage [71.6].
- In 2014, he assisted Teddy Bridgewater in setting virtually every franchise rookie passing record, and producing the third-best completion percentage [64.6] and seventh-highest passer rating [85.2] in NFL history for a rookie.
- As the wide receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2013, Turner helped Josh Gordon to become the first Browns player in history to lead the NFL in receiving yards [1,646] and became the first player in NFL history with back-to-back 200-yard receiving games.
- In 2013, Turner coached wide receivers for the Cleveland Browns, helping Josh Gordon to the best receiving season in Browns history. Despite appearing in just 14 games, he became the first player in Browns history to lead the NFL in receiving yards (1,646).
- Turner entered NFL coaching with two seasons as offensive quality control coach for the Panthers in 2011 and 2012. The Panthers recorded two of the top four seasons in franchise history in terms of net yards, setting the all-time mark with 389.8 yards per game in 2011 and 360.7 in 2012. Newton was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2011. His 14 rushing touchdowns broke the NFL record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback and were just one shy of the NFL record of rushing touchdowns by a rookie.
- Prior to Turner's first stint in Carolina, he spent three seasons at the University of Pittsburgh, two as an offensive assistant and the last as wide receivers coach. Turner made his coaching debut in 2005 as a graduate assistant at Oregon State before serving as the offensive coordinator at South County (Va.) Secondary School from 2006-07.
- A three-year letterman at Nevada-Las Vegas from 2002-04, Turner graduated with a degree in psychology. He served as a reserve quarterback for the Rebels as a junior and senior and played on special teams as a sophomore after being redshirted as a freshman. He earned his college degree in psychology from UNLV in 2006.
- Turner is the son of former NFL Coach Norv Turner. The two previously coached together in Carolina, Minnesota and Cleveland. Turner graduated from Oakton High School in Vienna, Va. when his father was the Head Coach of the Washington Football Team. He and his wife, Robyn, have two children – a son, Harry (7) and a daughter, Rose (5).

JUAN CASTILLO

TIGHT ENDS

26TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WASHINGTON

- Juan Castillo is entering his 26th year of coaching in the NFL. He spent the previous two seasons with the Chicago Bears as the offensive line coach and has worked with three other teams on both sides of the ball, primarily along the offensive line.
- Castillo has spent time with the Bears (2020-21), Buffalo Bills (2017-18), Baltimore Ravens (2013-16) and Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2012), where he worked five seasons with Commanders Head Coach Ron Rivera, who was the team's linebackers coach from 1999-2003.
- In 2021, Castillo helped the Chicago offense rush for over 2,000 yards, the seventh-most in the NFC. Running Back David Montgomery recorded 21 rushes of 10 or more yards, tied for the sixth-most in the NFL.
- In his first season with the Bears in 2020, Castillo navigated an offensive line group that featured six different starting combinations throughout the season and still produced a 1,000-yard rusher in David Montgomery. Montgomery's 1,070 rushing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and he went on to record three 100-plus yard performances. Castillo developed two first year players who were both undrafted free agents from Notre Dame in 2019, Sam Mustipher and Alex Bars, into key starters on the line over the last six weeks of the season. Mustipher started seven games at center and Bars started six games at right guard, one at left guard, and one at center.
- Castillo served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator with the Buffalo Bills from 2017-18. Under his watch, the Bills' rushing attack ranked in the top 10 both seasons. Buffalo finished sixth in the NFL and second in the AFC with 126.1 yards per game in 2017 and fifth in the NFL with 124.0 yards per game on the ground in 2018.
- Prior to Buffalo he spent four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the run game coordinator in 2013 and offensive line coach from 2014-16.
- As Philadelphia's offensive line coach from 1998-2010, the Eagles made nine postseason appearances and rushed for an average of 1,854 yards and 12 touchdowns per season. In 2010, the Eagles finished first in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 145.2 yards per game on the ground. During his 13 seasons as the offensive line coach in Philadelphia, five different players earned nine Pro Bowl honors including three-time selection tackle Tra Thomas (2001-02, 2004), guard Shawn Andrews (2006-07) and tackle Jason Peters (2009-10). He finished his Eagles tenure as the team's defensive coordinator in 2011-12.
- Castillo earned a bachelor's degree in health/kinesiology in 1986 and a master's in education administration in 1990 from Texas A&I (now Texas A&M-Kingsville), where he was a three-year letterman (1978-80) at linebacker for the Javelinas.
- Following college, Castillo spent two seasons (1984-85) with the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers as a linebacker before moving to the coaching ranks. Castillo attended Port Isabel High School in Texas, where he was an all-state linebacker. On July 4, 2009, Port Isabel celebrated "Juan Castillo Day," in which Castillo received a key to the city and in 2015 Castillo was inducted into the Lone Star Conference Hall of Honor, which recognizes outstanding individuals who have brought pride and honor to the conference through their contributions either as an athlete or coach/administrator.
- Castillo has four sons: Gregory, who played cornerback at the University of Iowa and is currently a scouting coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs, John, who is currently interning in Washington D.C., Andres, who played football at the University of Delaware and is a paralegal, and Antonio, who is currently a senior at Lady Bird Johnson High School in San Antonio, Texas and a member of the cross-country team.

LUKE DEL RIO

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

3RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WASHINGTON

- Luke Del Rio is entering his third season coaching in the NFL, his third as Washington's offensive quality control coach and his first as the assistant quarterbacks coach in 2022. He previously coached tight ends and quarterbacks at Santa Margarita Catholic High School.
- A former collegiate quarterback, Del Rio began his college career at the University of Alabama where he was the backup QB as a true freshman to three-time national champion quarterback AJ McCarron. He then moved to Oregon State where he served as the backup to former Minnesota Vikings quarterback Sean Mannion. Del Rio played his final three years at the University of Florida where he would go on to be 7-1 as a starter in the SEC.
- Del Rio's collegiate career highlights include a win over Georgia, a 320-yard 4-touchdown performance against Kentucky, and then in his senior year, came off the bench to lead a 14-point comeback against Kentucky to extend Florida's winning streak over the rival Wildcats to 31 games. Del Rio also served as a team captain for the Gators in 2016 and served on the leadership committee.
- Del Rio was a state champion quarterback at Valor Christian High School. In addition to his state championship at Valor Christian High School, Del Rio was an Elite 11 quarterback, first team all-state and team captain for the Eagles.
- Del Rio has played under the tutelage of Nick Saban (Alabama), Mike Riley (Oregon State) and Jim McElwain (Florida). Del Rio, a native of Jacksonville, Fla., graduated from the University of Florida in 2016 with a Bachelor's degree and then earned his Master's degree in 2018, also from the University of Florida, in Business.
- He is the son of Washington defensive coordinator Jack Del Rio.

CRISTIAN GARCIA

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

2ND NFL SEASON // 2ND WASHINGTON

- Cristian Garcia is entering his second season coaching in the NFL and second with the Commanders. Previously, Garcia spent the 2020 season working with Georgia Tech's staff as a graduate assistant having a quality control role.
- Garcia spent the 2019-19 seasons with UNLV as a defensive quality control coach.
- A former collegiate linebacker, Garcia finished his college career at the University of Florida and was one of four team captains. He played linebacker and was a key member of Florida's special teams. He played in all 11 games in 2017 as a reserve linebacker and was named the Orange Bowl FWAA Courage Award Player of the Week after he recorded four tackles and one tackle-for-loss at Kentucky.
- The Gainesville Police Department credited Garcia for preventing a sexual assault during the summer of 2016 and he appeared on ABC's Good Morning America to discuss the story. Later, he was honored at the Vice President's House by former VP and current President Joe Biden with one of the administrations inaugural "It's On Us" Courage Awards.

CHRIS HARRIS

DEFENSIVE BACKS

17TH NFL SEASON (8 PLAYING/9 COACHING) // 3RD WASHINGTON

- Chris Harris enters his ninth season coaching in the NFL and his third as Washington's defensive backs coach in 2022.
- In 2020, Harris' group allowed 3,068 net passing yards, Washington's fewest since 2004 [2,977]. He also led cornerbacks Ronald Darby and Kendall Fuller to becoming the first two Washington teammates to both record 11 or more passes defended in a season since Josh Norman and Bashaud Breeland both did so in 2016 and assisted Fuller in notching four interceptions, tied for the seventh-most amongst all players in 2020.
- Harris joined Washington after serving as the Los Angeles Chargers assistant secondary coach from 2016-19. In 2019, the Chargers defense ranked sixth in the league, only surrendering 313.1 yards per game. The group also ranked fifth in the NFL in passing yards per game, only allowing 200.3 yards per game.
- Harris began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach for the Chicago Bears, working primarily with the team's safeties. He coached in Chicago from 2013-14.
- An eight-year NFL pro, Harris was a sixth-round pick of the Chicago Bears (181st overall) in 2005. He played four seasons with the Bears over two separate stints (2005-06 and 2010-11). Harris was named second team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010 and was named one of the Bears' Brian Piccolo Award winners as a rookie in 2005. Besides Chicago, Harris also played for the Carolina Panthers (2007- 09), Detroit Lions (2011) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2012), totaling 422 tackles, 16 interceptions, 13 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 37 passes defended. He appeared in 101 career games and made 88 starts. In 2007, Harris racked up a franchise-record eight forced fumbles for the Panthers.
- Harris is a native of Little Rock, Ark., and played collegiately at Louisiana-Monroe (2001-04). Harris and his wife, Kenetria, have three sons – Jayce, Jaxon and Jett – and a daughter, Skylar.

JIM HOSTLER

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

23RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WASHINGTON

- Jim Hostler enters his 23rd season of coaching in the NFL and his third season with the Commanders. After holding the position of wide receivers coach in 2020, Hostler was promoted to the role of senior offensive assistant following the 2020 campaign.
- In 2021, Hostler helped Wide Receiver Terry McLaurin and Running Back Antonio Gibson, both reach the 1,000 receiving and rushing yard plateau respectively.
- Washington had a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for the first time since 2014.
- McLaurin has recorded 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons under Hostler, becoming the first receiver to record two-straight 1,000-yard seasons in Washington since Henry Ellard did so in 1994-96.
- In 2020, Hostler assisted multiple receivers in achieving career-highs including second-year wide receiver Terry McLaurin as he became the first 1,000-yard receiver for Washington since 2016, and first to do so in 13 games since 2013. Hostler also assisted wide receiver Cam Sims in setting career-highs in almost every category, helping him register 251 YAC, the most in a single season for an undrafted Washington receiver in franchise history.
- Prior to arriving in Washington, Hostler spent 20 years in the NFL coaching ranks with the Panthers, Packers, Colts, Bills, Ravens, 49ers, Jets, Saints and Chiefs.
- In 2019 with Carolina, Hostler led the Panthers receiving corps to top-10 finishes in receiving yards, receptions, receiving yards per game and receptions per game.
- Hostler developed the Ravens receiving group from 2008-13, which played an integral role in the team's Super Bowl XLVII win. During the 2012 campaign, Baltimore's wideouts registered the second-most receiving yards in a season in franchise history to that point.
- Before joining the NFL coaching ranks, Hostler spent 10 seasons coaching at the college level, including nine seasons (1990-92, 1994-99) in a variety of roles at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. In between stints at IUP, Hostler spent the 1993 season as offensive coordinator at Juniata College.
- A four-year letterman and two-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference all-conference selection, Hostler was a standout cornerback at IUP from 1986-89. During his collegiate playing career, he helped the Indians capture two conference titles and make three trips to the PSAC Division II playoffs.
- He earned a bachelor's degree in criminology from IUP in 1989. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Hostler attended Bethel Park High School in Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Jen, have three sons, Clint, Grant and Cooper, and a daughter, Attie.

RANDY JORDAN

RUNNING BACKS

19TH NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/10 COACHING) // 9TH WASHINGTON

- Randy Jordan enters his ninth season as the Commanders running back coach in 2022 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.
- In 2021, Jordan assisted Running Back Antonio Gibson reach 1,000 rushing yards for the first time in his career. Gibson led the NFC in rushing attempts with 258 and finished second with 1,037 rushing yards, both career-highs. He also had a career-high 1,331 scrimmage yards (1,037 rushing, 294 receiving) with 10 touchdowns (seven rushing, three receiving). Gibson recorded the most offensive touchdowns within a player's first two seasons in franchise history, and has two consecutive seasons with 10-plus touchdowns. He is the first Washington player to do so since RB Stephen Davis in 1999-2000 and 2000-01.
- In 2020, Jordan contributed to the development of rookie running back Antonio Gibson and veteran running back J.D. McKissic in both the run and pass game. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gibson rushed for the second-most touchdowns for a rookie in franchise history [11] and became only the second Washington player to rush for 11 touchdowns and record 1,000-plus scrimmage yards in their rookie season [Alfred Morris]. Both running backs finished with over 950 scrimmage yards, only the second time in franchise history two running backs achieved the feat, and the first time since 1983.
- A nine-year NFL veteran as a player from 1993-2002, Jordan appeared in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.
- Before joining Washington, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at his alma mater, North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994.
- Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference.
- Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002.
- Jordan played running back for the University of North Carolina and earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication in 1993. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven – a volleyball player at the University at Buffalo – and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

MALCOLM BLACKEN

SENIOR DIRECTOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

- Malcolm Blacken is entering his third season as Senior Director of Player Development after serving seven seasons as Director of Player Development for Washington. Blacken was named to the elevated position on January 9, 2020.
- Blacken's hiring served to start his third stint with Washington after having previously served as a strength and conditioning coach for Washington on two occasions (1996-2000 and 2010). In his last season in Washington in 2010, Blacken was responsible for assisting with all aspects of the Redskins' strength and conditioning program.
- In his current role, Blacken guides the development and education of Washington players as it pertains to both their personal and professional lives. His guidance covers topics including but not limited to: financial education; healthy and unhealthy relationships; total wellness and mental health; league policies on substance abuse, performance enhancing drugs and personal conduct; social responsibility; social media; decision making; stress and time management; team history and tradition; and the expectations of being a player in the National Football League.
- In addition, Blacken works hand-in-hand with Washington's Charitable Foundation and was a principal figure in instituting the team's Rookie Community Club, which annually takes the team's rookies and immediately integrates them into the Washington, D.C. area community through a series of service efforts. He also provides assistance with continuing education and offers guidance for players' academic pursuits.
- From 2011-12, Blacken served as Director of Speed, Strength & Conditioning for the University of Colorado. He worked directly with the football program on a day-to-day basis while overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs of all 16 of Colorado's varsity programs.
- In between his first two stops in Washington, Blacken spent nine years as the Detroit Lions' strength and conditioning coach from 2001-09. Blacken was an assistant strength coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995 and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well. For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where he oversaw the program for all of the university's varsity sports.
- Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.
- Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies running back from 1984-88 and was a four-time letter winner. While at Virginia Tech, Blacken was a two-time winner of the Super Iron Hokie Award (1987-88), which is given yearly to the football program's strongest player at each position.
- Off the field, Blacken is an accomplished artist whose paintings have been displayed across the country. Recently, he participated in the 2016 NFLPA Smocks and Jocks art auction in Houston for Super Bowl LI and the 2019 NFLPA Smocks and Jocks art auction in Atlanta for Super Bowl LIII, with proceeds donated to the retired players fund. More about Blacken's art can be accessed by visiting ArtByMalcolm.com.
- Blacken currently resides in Ashburn, Virginia, with his wife, Marcy. The couple has two children, Maya and Bo.

ANTONIO GIBSON

RUNNING BACK

24

Height: 6-2 Weight: 220 DOB: June 23, 1998 NFL Year: 3 College: Memphis

NFL Highlights

- Drafted by Washington in the Third Round (66th Overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft.
- Named First Team All-Conference running back by the PFWA in 2021.
- Rushed for 1,000 yards for the first time in his career in 2021.
- Finished second in the NFC in rushing yards in 2021 with 1,037.
- Became the first rookie to score three touchdowns on Thanksgiving Day since Randy Moss in 1998 and first Washington player to rush for three touchdowns since Robert Kelley in 2016.
- Tied Charlie Brown [1982] for most games in a row with a touchdown by a rookie with five-straight consecutive scoring contests.
- Surpassed 1,000 scrimmage yards on the season in Week 17, becoming the seventh rookie to do so in franchise history and first since Alfred Morris in 2012.
- Joined Alfred Morris as the only two rookies in franchise history to surpass 1,000 scrimmage yards and record 11 touchdowns. He became the 17th player for Washington overall to achieve the feat.

2021 (WAS)

- Played in 16 games with 14 starts. Had a career-high 258 carries for 1,037 yards and seven touchdowns. Added 42 receptions for 294 yards and three touchdowns.
- Became the first Washington running back to record 1,000-plus rushing yards in a single-season since RB Adrian Peterson did so in 2018.
- Had a career-high 1,331 scrimmage yards (1,037 rushing, 294 receiving) with 10 touchdowns (seven rushing, three receiving). Is one of five running backs with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 scrimmage touchdowns in each of the past two seasons, joining Melvin Gordon, Derrick Henry, Aaron Jones and Jonathan Taylor.
- Recorded the most offensive touchdowns within a player's first two seasons in franchise history. He has two consecutive seasons with 10-plus touchdowns. He is the first Washington player to do so since RB Stephen Davis in 1999-2000 and 2000-01.
- Finished second in the NFC in rushing yards (1,037), trailing only Minnesota running back Dalvin Cook.

2020 (WAS)

- Played in 14 games with 10 starts. Had 170 carries for 795 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns. Added 247 receiving yards on 36 receptions totaling 1,042 scrimmage yards.
- Became the seventh rookie in franchise history to post 750+ rushing yards. His 795 yards ranks sixth all-time in Washington history behind Robert Griffin III's 815 in 2012.
- Finished tied for first among rookies in rushing touchdowns (11), fifth in rushing yards (795) and fifth in yards from scrimmage (1,042).
- He became the fourth rookie in franchise history to post multiple games with two-plus rushing touchdowns [Alfred Morris, Robert Griffin III and Skip Hicks].

College Performance

- Played wide receiver at Memphis for two seasons. Had 44 receptions for 834 yards and 10 touchdowns. Rushed 33 times for 369 yards and four touchdowns.
- Transferred to Memphis from East Central Community College in Mississippi.

Personal

COMMANDERS PUBLIC RELATIONS 2022 MEDIA ACCESS POLICY

CREDENTIAL POLICY

The Washington Commanders grant credentials and media access based on merit as guided by the priorities listed below. Because of the limited space available at the Commanders Facility in Ashburn and FedExField, these priority guidelines are intended to facilitate the most efficient use of space for working media covering the Washington Commanders and the NFL.

Full credential request policies are detailed below. For more information about obtaining media credentials, please contact Sean DeBarbieri and Samantha Fristachi.

The Commanders prioritize outlets in the following order:

1. Broadcast partners, including television and radio personnel responsible for live broadcasts of Washington Commanders games.
2. Local beat reporters who cover the team on a daily basis for large-scale local outlets, including newspapers, wire services, radio stations and television affiliates that cover the Washington Commanders and the NFL on a regular basis.
3. Large-scale national outlets, including national newspapers, magazines, television stations, websites and more.
4. Washington, D.C. metro area community publications and stations.
5. Out-of-town community outlets on specific assignment to cover Commanders personnel of unique interest to the outlet's market (e.g.: a player's hometown newspaper).
6. Blogs, Internet radio and other independent outlets, whose merit and credential consideration is subject to the discretion of Commanders Public Relations.

Policies for visiting scouts are handled separately in accordance with the 2022 Scouting Policy as distributed to all NFL teams prior to the season.

The following guidelines will be observed in granting access:

1. Season credentials will be reserved for organizations that provide consistent and substantial coverage of the Washington Commanders. Please be advised that a season media credential does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of seasonally credentialed Commanders beat reporters who produce daily on-site reports, all credentials at both locations are approved and issued on a daily and/or game-by-game basis.
3. Passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function with proper notice and approval by Commanders Public Relations. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation and will affect all future credentialing decisions by Commanders Public Relations for that outlet.
4. As the result of limited work space, credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on the National Football League or the Washington

Commanders, and employs for that website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. Priority for these sites will be based on potential audience at the discretion of Commanders Public Relations.

6. Commanders personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding Commanders events; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation may: a) request Commanders Public Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Director of Football Communications.

7. Commanders Public Relations reserves the right to change this policy at any time.

MEDIA PORTAL/MEDIA GUIDE

The Commanders Public Relations department has a media website (washington.1rmg.com) designed to serve the needs of all media members who cover the organization. The site contains the annual media guide and weekly game guides including stats, rosters, personnel bios and much more.

PRESS INFORMATION

All Commanders press releases and weekly media packets are distributed via e-mail. Please contact the Commanders Public Relations department to be added to the team's email distribution list for all press releases and media advisories.

Media can access the latest league press information from the NFL's media website at www.nflcommunications.com.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom at The Park is located inside the annex building adjacent to the main entrance. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Press conferences, rosters, transcripts and other information will be available in this area.

VIDEO STREAMING

Media availabilities, open practice sessions and other team activities on club premises may not be broadcast live by an individual or media outlet without prior approval from the Washington Commanders. This includes the use of social media applications such as Facebook Live and Periscope among others.

PRACTICE ACCESS

During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to local media who regularly cover the team for designated periods. Upon arrival at the practice facility, please go to the media workroom where a member of the public relations staff will escort you to practice. To request a Commanders Media Credential, email Samantha Fristachi (samantha.fristachi@commanders.com) at least one (1) day prior to your scheduled visit. Any media member without a Commanders Media Credential provided by the Washington Commanders Public Relations department will not be permitted access to the facilities. NO INFORMATION FROM PRACTICE THAT MAY COMPROMISE THE TEAM'S COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE IS ALLOWED TO BE DISTRIBUTED VIA ANY MEDIA PLATFORM. This includes personnel groupings, formations, injury speculation, specific plays and more as judged by Commanders Public Relations. Failure to comply could lead to revocation of credentials.

RON RIVERA INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Ron Rivera will conduct a weekly news conference in the Media Annex on Wednesday and Friday. One-on-one requests should be sent to Sean DeBarbieri (sean.debarbieri@commanders.com).

COORDINATOR INTERVIEWS

During the regular season, both the offensive and defensive coordinators will be available after practice on Thursday. The special teams coordinator will be available after practice on Friday if requested. Charlie Mule (charles.mule@commanders.com) serves as the primary media contact for coordinators. All requests for coordinators beyond that time will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the coaches' scheduling availability.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

All requests for assistants must be arranged through the Commanders Public Relations Department with at least 24 hours notice. Position coaches will be available on a rotation after practice on Friday along with one-on-ones per request. Position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. No position coaches should be contacted directly by telephone (at an office line, at home or by cell phone) or by email. Charlie Mule (charles.mule@commanders.com) serves as the primary media contact for assistant coaches.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

The Commanders locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods after roster cutdown. The locker room is generally open to the media for 45 minutes following practices on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays of normal game weeks. All one-on-one requests should be arranged through the Commanders PR department at least 48 hours in advance. All interviews must be conducted inside the locker room unless additional permission is granted by a Commanders PR staff member. NO B-ROLL, STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR LIVE STREAMING IS ALLOWED INSIDE THE LOCKER ROOM. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged through Commanders PR prior to the day of the scheduled interview. All times are subject to change without prior notice.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Demand for credentials is high, and as such, the size and legitimacy of each media outlet requesting access will be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to the discretion of Commanders Public Relations. Full details on credentialing decisions are available at the beginning of this policy.

For home games, all requests must be submitted through the team's online credentialing system no later than 5 p.m. ET on Tuesday of that particular game week.

For away games, all requests must be e-mailed to Samantha Fristachi (samantha.fristachi@commanders.com) and must include attending media members' name, job title and media affiliation.

JULIE DONALDSON

A Senior Vice President and member of the Washington Commanders executive leadership team, Julie is a permanent member of the gameday radio broadcast and the broadcast face of the organization on and off the field. The first woman to be a regular on-air member of an NFL radio broadcast booth, Julie also adds her input and vision toward all of the team's in-house creative content. During a decade-long tenure as a reporter, anchor and host for NBC Sports Washington (NBCSW), Julie has covered nearly every team, athlete and major sports story in the Washington, D.C., and Baltimore region, as well as across national and international sporting events. Julie most recently served as host of NBCSW's Emmy Award-winning NFL pregame and postgame shows and contributed regularly to its other football programs and coverage. In addition to her work with NBCSW, Julie also has frequently held on-air roles for NBC Sports and NBC Olympics. She has held three Olympic assignments as a News Desk Host during the 2018 (PyeongChang) 2016 (Rio) and 2014 (Sochi) Olympic Games, and often serves as a weekend Sports Desk host for NBC Sports. Before that, Julie hosted NBCSW's live NBA gameday shows, and was an anchor and reporter for several NBCSW news, analysis and entertainment shows, including SportsNet Central, Training Camp Daily and Football Central. Julie joined NBCSW in August 2010 after stops in some of the nation's top markets, including Boston, New York and Miami. Donaldson served as a sports anchor and reporter for Boston's WHDH-TV (NBC). Prior to WHDH, she was a reporter for SportsNet New York (SNY) for two years, including the network's inaugural season. A University of Florida graduate, Julie began her career in Miami where she held a variety of positions for FOX Sports, including FS Florida and FS South. She served as a reporter for FS Florida's Sports Rap, hosted SEC and ACC men's basketball shows for FS South. She contributed to national broadcasts as a sideline reporter for ACC Sunday Night Hoops.

BRAM WEINSTEIN

Bram Weinstein is in his third season as the play-by-play voice of the Washington Commanders. Bram can be heard on air weekdays from 3-6ET on ESPN 630 the Sports Capital and has had a quarter century-long on-air career that includes seven years at ESPN mainly as an anchor on the outlet's flagship program "Sportscenter." Bram is a lifelong fan of the Burgundy & Gold, growing up in Silver Spring, MD and attending games as a kid when the team played at RFK Stadium. This is his second stint on the official team broadcast, having served as the sideline reporter in 2006-2008. Bram also owns Ampire Media, a digital video/podcast network focused on DMV sports, and he is an adjunct professor at his alma mater American University.

LONDON FLETCHER

After hanging up his cleats in 2014, Washington Ring of Honor member London Fletcher returns to the organization in a new capacity this season as a member of the Commanders broadcast team. Originally undrafted out of John Carroll University, London spent 16 seasons in the NFL, including seven as a member of the Burgundy & Gold. London started in each game he appeared for Washington, totaling 112 consecutive starts. While in Washington, London recorded at least 111 tackles each season, earned four straight trips to the Pro Bowl from 2009 to 2012 and was named an All-Pro in 2011 & 2012. London currently resides in Charlotte, NC with his wife and three kids.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought a National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Washington 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939

Washington set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939

Washington and the NY Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Washington history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but Washington won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhh! - Dec. 8, 1940

Despite Washington gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941

Washington brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941

There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and Washington held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing and completed just ONE pass — but it was good for a touchdown. They then captured another touchdown on an interception and Washington suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up - Dec. 26, 1943

Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early, tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945

OVERTIME GAMES

In 1974, the NFL established overtime to decide regular season games. Since then, Washington has compiled a 25-16-2 record in overtime games.

Nov. 2, 1975 - RFK Stadium Washington 30, Dallas 24

Ken Houston returned a Roger Staubach interception 14 yards, and Billy Kilmer scored the winning touchdown after 6:34 of overtime action.

Nov. 16, 1975 - Busch Stadium St. Louis 20, Washington 17

The Cards scored with 20 seconds remaining on a catch by Mel Gray to force overtime. St. Louis won the coin toss and marched to set up a 37-yard Jim Bakken field goal to win after seven minutes of play.

Nov. 23, 1975 - RFK Stadium Oakland 26, Washington 23

George Blanda's 27-yard field goal decided the contest after 7:13.

Sept. 27, 1976 - Veterans Stadium Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Mark Moseley's 29-yard field goal won the Monday night game with 12:49 elapsed in overtime.

Nov. 12, 1978 - RFK Stadium Washington 16, New York Giants 13

Washington won on Moseley's 45-yard field goal after 3:32 elapsed.

Nov. 15, 1981 - Giants Stadium Washington 30, New York Giants 27

Moseley kicked a 49-yard field goal on the game's final play to force overtime and a 48-yard field goal to win with 3:44 elapsed.

Sept. 12, 1982 - Veterans Stadium Washington 37, Philadelphia 34

Washington sent the game into overtime on a 48-yard field goal by Moseley with :01 to play. Moseley won the game with a 26-yarder.

Nov. 2, 1986 - RFK Stadium Washington 44, Minnesota 38

Jay Schroeder engineered a four-play, 63-yard drive ending with a Gary Clark 38-yard touchdown pass.

Dec. 26, 1987 - Metrodome Washington 27, Minnesota 24

Ricky Sanders' 51-yard touchdown reception from Doug Williams with less than two minutes remaining tied the score at 24. Ali Haji-Sheikh kicked the 26-yard game-winning field goal after Sanders' 36-yard kickoff return in overtime.

Dec. 17, 1988 - Riverfront Stadium Cincinnati 20, Washington 17

Jim Breech connected from 20 yards out seven minutes into sudden death.

Nov. 4, 1990 - Pontiac Silverdome Washington 41, Detroit 38

Chip Lohmiller's 34-yard field goal 9:10 into overtime capped the Washington comeback that equalled the team's greatest in history. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge's 12-yard run tied the game with :18 seconds remaining.

Nov. 3, 1991 - RFK Stadium Washington 16, Houston 13

Darrell Green intercepted a Warren Moon pass which set-up Lohmiller's 41-yard field goal 5:01 into overtime moving Washington to a 9-0 record. The Oilers tied the game with less than two minutes in regulation and had a chance to win after Brian Mitchell fumbled the kickoff, but Ian Howfield's 33-yard attempt

Oct. 16, 1994 - RFK Stadium Arizona 19, Washington 16

Arizona scored the tying touchdown with :19 left in regulation. Arizona's game-winner was set up by Terry Hoage, who intercepted a Heath Shuler pass and returned it 12 yards to the 23. Peterson kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal.

Oct. 8, 1995 - Veterans Stadium Philadelphia 37, Washington 34

Down 10 points in the 4th quarter, Gus Frerotte guided the team back with a touchdown pass to Henry Ellard and Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal tied it up with :52 left. In OT, Washington stalled on its opening drive and the Eagles' Gary Anderson won the game with a 35-yard field goal.

Oct. 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

Nov. 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Washington history, the team led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove to the Washington 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then missed a 29-yarder that was negated because the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32 yards.

Nov. 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium San Francisco 19, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers' Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

Sept. 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, Washington won with 13:24 left in overtime when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, threw a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westbrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Kenard Lang forced and recovered a fumble on the Washington 35-yard line.

Nov. 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime, Washington turned the ball over three times, but the defense forced two punts and the Giants missed a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, Washington drove to the Giants 36-yard line, but a 54-yard field goal attempt fell short with 11 seconds left in overtime.

Sept. 12, 1999 - FedExField Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the club's first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

Nov. 28, 1999 - FedExField Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kickoff return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

Dec. 26, 1999 - 3Com Park Washington 26, San Francisco 20

Washington overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 left in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

Oct. 1, 2000 - FedExField Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected on a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game-winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

Oct. 21, 2001 - FedExField Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal Washington's first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. Washington forced overtime by overcoming a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter thanks to a 67-yard interception return for touchdown by LaVar Arrington and an 85-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks to Rod Gardner.

Sept. 21, 2003 - FedExField New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

Oct. 2, 2005 - FedExField Washington 20, Seattle 17

With a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, Washington went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

Nov. 27, 2005 - FedExField San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17. With 0:35 remaining, Washington had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

Oct. 1, 2006 - FedExField Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with 0:06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80 yards on three plays for the game-winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss for a 68-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

Dec. 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and send it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and, six minutes into the extra time, running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

Sept. 9, 2007 - FedExField Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, Washington won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as Washington got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

Nov. 4, 2007 - Meadowlands Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

Dec. 6, 2009 - FedExField New Orleans 33, Washington 30

Saints quarterback Drew Brees drove 80 yards at the end of regulation to tie the game at 30-30. In overtime, the Saints marched down the field setting up an 18-yard field goal by kicker Garrett Hartley to seal the victory.

Sept. 19, 2010 - FedExField Houston 30, Washington 27

After holding the Texans on the first possession of overtime, Washington drove to the Houston 34-yard line, but kicker Graham Gano pushed a 52-yard attempt wide right. On the ensuing drive, Neil Rackers connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Houston the win.

Oct. 10, 2010 - FedExField Washington 16, Green Bay 13

LaRon Landry intercepted an Aaron Rodgers pass on Green Bay's second overtime possession and Washington drove 24 yards to set up a game-winning 33-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano in the team's Week 5 win against the eventual Super Bowl champions.

Nov. 21, 2010 - LP Field Washington 19, Tennessee 16

After missing a potential game-winning field goal at the end of regulation, Graham Gano redeemed himself in overtime, capping off a 10-play, 57-yard drive with a 48-yarder on the club's first overtime possession to secure a 19-16 road win.

Dec. 26, 2010 - EverBank Field Washington 20, Jacksonville 17

A 20-yard touchdown run by Jacksonville quarterback David Garrard in the final three minutes of regulation helped the Jaguars force overtime. Jacksonville won the toss and elected to receive, but on their third offensive play of overtime, cornerback Kevin Barnes intercepted Garrard, setting up Graham Gano for a 31-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 20, 2011 - FedExField Dallas 27, Washington 24

Washington quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donté Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. Washington missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 - FedExField Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

OVERTIME GAMES

Nov. 3, 2013 – FedExField Washington 30, San Diego 24

Leading 24-21 on Homecoming Weekend, the team's defense faced first-and-goal from its own 1-yard line with 21 seconds remaining. After stopping Danny Woodhead on first down, Washington forced two Philip Rivers incompletions and forced the Chargers to settle for a game-tying 19-yard field goal by Nick Novak. Washington took the ball on the first possession of overtime and promptly drove 78 yards in 10 plays, winning the game on fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day.

Oct. 27, 2014 – AT&T Stadium Washington 20, Dallas 17

Led by quarterback Colt McCoy in his first start with the team, Washington earned their first overtime win against the rival Cowboys since Nov. 2, 1975. On Monday Night Football, McCoy completed 25-of-30 passes for 299 yards, including engineering a nine-play, 58-yard drive culminating in a 40-yard Kai Forbath field goal on overtime's first possession. Rookie cornerback Bashaud Breeland batted away a fourth down pass on the ensuing Cowboys possession, giving the team a 20-17 win.

Oct. 11, 2015 – Georgia Dome Atlanta 25, Washington 19

Washington trailed by three with 24 seconds remaining in regulation. Quarterback Kirk Cousins led the Redskins 46 yards in four plays, and kicker Dustin Hopkins hit a then-career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to force overtime with the teams tied at 19-19. Washington received the ball to start overtime, but on the seventh play of the drive, wide receiver Ryan Grant slipped in his route, allowing Falcons cornerback Robert Alford to intercept a Cousins pass and race 59 yards down the right sideline for the game-winning touchdown.

Oct. 30, 2016 – Wembley Stadium Washington 27, Cincinnati 27

In Washington's first game in London, Washington and Cincinnati treated an international audience to a back-and-forth game that featured five lead changes. Trailing 27-24 with 3:15 remaining, quarterback Kirk Cousins engineered a 10-play, 45-yard drive to set-up kicker Dustin Hopkins for a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining in regulation. In overtime, Hopkins pulled a potential game-winning 34-yard field goal wide left. Washington forced a fumble on the Bengals' ensuing possession, and a potential Hail Mary pass for the Redskins on their next drive sailed out of bounds, resulting in the team's second tie of the overtime era.

Nov. 19, 2016 – Mercedes-Benz Superdome New Orleans 34, Washington 31

A battered Washington squad led the eventual NFC North champion Saints, 31-16, with under six minutes remaining in New Orleans, but the Saints engineered touchdown drives of 75 yards and 87 yards and converted a two-point conversion to send the game to overtime at 31-31. After a Washington three-and-out to open the extra period, the Saints drove 51 yards to set up Wil Lutz's game-winning 28-yard field goal.

Dec. 22, 2019 – FedExField NY Giants 41, Washington 35

In a game that looked like it was going to get out of hand early, Washington outscored the New York Giants 14-0 in the fourth quarter to force overtime. New York won the coin toss and elected to receive and QB Daniel Jones led an 11 play, 66 yard drive that was capped with a three yard touchdown pass to TE Kaden Smith to seal the victory. The loss sealed Washington's fate finishing last in the NFC East, but guaranteed the team the No. 2 overall selection in the 2020 NFL Draft.
