STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY
BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 23/23

Steve Bisciotti wants consistency. His goal is to have the Ravens in the playoff hunt every season, avoiding dips that plague some franchises.

The Ravens are one of only six teams (New England – 12, Green Bay – 11, Baltimore – 9, Kansas City – 9, Pittsburgh – 9 and Seattle – 9) to earn at least nine postseason berths in the last 14 years (2008-21), with Baltimore winning at least one game in seven of those nine playoff campaigns. Additionally, during this span, the Ravens have compiled the NFL's second-most postseason victories (11, tied with Green Bay), trailing only New England (16).

Baltimore has also captured playoff berths in 10 of the last 16 years, and during John Harbaugh's tenure, has advanced to three AFC Championship games (2012, 2011 and 2008), winning Super Bowl XLVII in 2012.

"We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal. We want to be a consistent winner that avoids big lulls and not being in the playoffs for any length of time."

Under Bisciotti, the Ravens are part of an elite group: They are one of 15 NFL teams with multiple Super Bowl victories. Five franchises have won one title. Eight others have earned a berth in the game and lost, while four teams have never advanced to the Super Bowl. More importantly, with the Super Bowl XLVII Championship, the Ravens (two) joined the Patriots (six) and the Buccaneers, Giants and Steelers (two each) as the only teams that have won more than one NFL title since the turn of the century in 2000.

The passionate Bisciotti, who at 62 is the NFL's fourth-youngest owner (Kansas City's Clark Hunt, 57, Arizona's Michael Bidwill, 57 and Washington's Daniel Snyder, 57), bought a minority interest in the Ravens from Art Modell in 2000, completing the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004.

Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship team. Today, his influence in the NFL continues to rise. He served for several years on two important ownership committees: Broadcast and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 23rd year as an owner of the Ravens, hired Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Along with the Super Bowl XLVII victory during the 2012 season, Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first five years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern-day (since 1970) head coach to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons, while his 11 playoff victories tie for the fifth most ever by a head coach in the first 14 seasons of an NFL coaching career.

"We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success," Bisciotti says of Harbaugh, who in 2019 was named NFL Coach of the Year after guiding Baltimore to a franchise-best 14-2 record. "There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

Since taking over as the Ravens' full owner, Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs a total of 10 times, including the AFC's No. 1 seed in 2019 with a 14-2 mark and second-straight AFC North title. His 2004 (9-7), 2013 (8-8), 2017 (9-7) and 2021 (8-9) teams missed the playoffs by just one game. Baltimore has also captured five division crowns under his leadership.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His

QUOTE THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area who we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."
– Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."
– Longtime Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams

"[Steve] is a great leader. The players love him. They love when he's around. He's an inspiration to all of our guys, to me, to this organization. He sets the tone here. It's a great organization because of his vision."
– John Harbaugh on Steve Bisciotti

father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (Md.) State University in 1982 with a degree in liberal arts, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (at age 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees.

Aerotek is part of Allegis Group, the largest staffing firm in the United States and the largest privately held talent management firm in the world. The company, headquartered just outside Baltimore, has offices throughout North America, Europe and Asia Pacific. Allegis Group has over 18,000 internal employees and over 160,000 employees assigned to client locations. These include engineers, scientists, IT professionals, accountants, attorneys and industrial workers.

Before purchasing the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level, or even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm OK if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, is quietly dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities and created The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice, although, in 2020, it was announced that the foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $5 million to assist vital programs supported by Catholic Charities from more than 200 locations in Baltimore City and nine Maryland counties.

In August of 2020, the foundation and the Ravens also jointly distributed $1 million to support social justice reform in Baltimore, with a committee of current and former Ravens players determining the 28 programs chosen to receive funds from the contribution.

Additionally, at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, Steve and Renee's foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $1 million to support four nonprofit organizations – the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland, the Baltimore Community Foundation and the Maryland Food Bank – in their efforts to combat the public health crisis.

In June of 2021, Steve and Renee honored Ozzie Newsome – the Ravens' longtime personnel executive and Pro Football Hall of Famer – by making a $4 million gift in his name to Maryland's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Through their foundation, the $4 million donation created the Ozzie Newsome Scholars Program, which funds scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates who attend an HBCU in Maryland.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing and boating. He and his wife, Renee (Foote), are the parents of two sons: Jason and Jack, both of whom reside with their families in the Baltimore area.

(Bisciotti is pronounced: bih-SHAH-tee.)

PRAISE FOR BISCIOTTI

CBS Sports on Steve Bisciotti: "Steve Bisciotti doesn't make himself a huge part of the story, but the decision to hire coach John Harbaugh in 2008 has worked out pretty well. According to Forbes, the team has doubled in worth since Bisciotti became owner, but he also understands how to raise morale."

Sports Illustrated on Bisciotti: "Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field."

Longtime NFL writer Rick Gosselin on Bisciotti becoming one of the most influential NFL owners: "I think the obvious guy, if he wants that platform, is Steve Bisciotti with the Ravens. That's a model franchise. They win. They have continuity. They aren't making knee-jerk reactions, firing coaches right and left. They're probably one of the three or four model franchises in the NFL today. Now, he's a quiet guy, but if he wanted to have a voice and be a player in league matters, I think he's the guy that has the greatest opportunity to do it." (via The Athletic, July, 2020)

QUOTE THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts players if I could wear their helmets."

SASHI BROWN

PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: HAMPTON / HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 5/15/76, BOSTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/1

On April 1, 2022, longtime sports executive SASHI BROWN became the Ravens' team president, succeeding Dick Cass, who retired after 18 years with the organization.

Brown, 46, assumes the responsibilities held by Cass, overseeing all business areas of the organization, including finances, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, stadium activities, communications and business ventures.

"We're excited to attract an accomplished leader like Sashi," owner Steve Bisciotti stated.

"He's very smart and has good judgement," added Cass about Brown. "He's thoughtful, and what you really notice are his people skills, poise and presence."

For the three years (2019-21) prior to his Baltimore arrival, Brown worked at Monumental Sports & Entertainment, last serving as President of Monumental Basketball (Wizards, Mystics and Go-Go) and as a special advisor to the CEO.

Brown also previously accrued 13 years of NFL experience, including five seasons (2013-17) with the Cleveland Browns, where he served two years (2016-17) as executive vice president of football operations. Prior to that, he spent eight years (2005-12) with the Jacksonville Jaguars, last serving as senior vice president and general counsel.

In 2015, Brown was named to the Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list.

He began his career as an attorney at the Washington, D.C.-based law firm WilmerHale.

2019-21: (with Monumental Sports & Entertainment) In November 2021, Brown was promoted to special advisor to the CEO and President of Monumental Basketball... He oversaw various operations for the Wizards, Mystics and Go-Go, including research and information systems, technology, equipment, communications, finance, facilities, security and player engagement... He originally joined Monumental Basketball as the chief planning and operations officer in July 2019.

2013-17: (with Cleveland Browns) Brown was promoted to executive vice president of football operations in January 2016, leading the development of an organizational vision and strategic plan for rebuilding football operations... He oversaw all football operation functions, including salary cap and contracts, scouting, medical, equipment, video, travel, security, facilities and athletic performance... Originally hired by Cleveland as its executive vice president and general counsel, Brown worked in both football and business capacities... Upon his arrival, he was responsible for overseeing the team's football administration functions and player contract negotiations... On the business side, his duties included commercial contracts, government affairs, risk management, intellectual property issues, litigation and stadium matters.

"There are some big shoes that I will not fill entirely Day One, but I look forward to growing into and hopefully filling out in time. It's an important responsibility and charge, just as it is taking over one of the leadership roles here, for this great organization and this great community of Baltimore. I take all that very seriously."

2005-12: (with Jacksonville Jaguars) Brown spent eight years as Jacksonville's senior vice president and general counsel... He was involved in both football and business operations, which included playing a key role in helping negotiate the naming rights deal for EverBank Field.

2002-05: (with WilmerHale) Brown represented clients in a variety of matters, including sports-related transactions, venture capital and private equity deals, as well as mergers and acquisitions.

COLLEGE: Brown earned his bachelor of arts degree (mass media) from Hampton University in 1998 and a juris doctorate degree from Harvard Law School in 2002.

PERSONAL: Brown has a longstanding history of civic involvement, having served on the boards of directors for the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Cleveland Development Advisors, Jacksonville Housing Authority, Jacksonville Museum of Science and History and the MaliVai Washington Kids Foundation... He is currently on the board of trustees at Hampton University and is the chairman of the Ravens Foundation, Inc... He's also on the board of Delivering Good, a non-profit organization that supports people affected by poverty and tragedy... Though he was born in Boston, Brown mostly grew up in Middletown, CT... While attending Hampton University, he spent time as a radio play-by-play announcer and analyst for the school's football and basketball teams... He also hosted a radio show focused on jazz music, which he remains passionate about today... Sashi and his wife, Paige, have two sons (Robeson and Ellison) and two daughters (Zora and Ananda).

In April of 2022, Sashi Brown (right) succeeded Dick Cass (left) to become the third president in the Ravens' 27-year history.

ERIC DeCOSTA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: COLBY
BORN: 4/10/71, TAUNTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/27

ERIC DeCOSTA's loyalty, love and pride for the Baltimore Ravens are unmatched. A pillar of the organization's well-laid foundation, DeCosta has been with the franchise since Day One, first beginning as an intern during the inaugural 1996 season and then ascending to the personnel department's chief decision-maker in 2019.

Prior to being named executive vice president and general manager – succeeding the legendary Ozzie Newsome – DeCosta, 51, received GM interview offers annually from multiple teams in recent years.

However, he never seriously considered leaving Baltimore. Simply put, Eric's respect for – and thorough understanding of – the Ravens' culture aligned perfectly with his pursuit of a dream job.

"I'm the kind of person who appreciates people who stick with things," DeCosta admits. "Even when I think about athletes I've admired, people I've admired, they've had long tenures in different places. But I love this community. My family is from this community. I love the people I work with day to day. Anyone who knows me knows that."

In 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti first approached DeCosta about becoming general manager one day. Years later, they decided Eric would continue to serve as Newsome's top lieutenant through 2018, helping groom him for the GM role and setting up a seamless transition.

"Did I have chances [to leave]? Yes," DeCosta shares. "Did I have a lot? Yes. Did I ever really consider it? Not really, because every time I'd go to bed thinking that maybe I would consider something, I'd wake up and say, 'What are you, crazy? You know you're going to have the job someday that you've dreamed about, so just wait and make it perfect.'"

From an outside perspective, the imminent ascension might have spawned challenges in DeCosta's relationship with Newsome. That was never the case, however, because the duo

"He's an outside-the-box thinker, but his football beliefs are based on substance, history and collected wisdom. He can see the unintended consequences that come with certain big decisions. He'll push the envelope to make sure we're covering all possibilities."

– Ravens EVP Ozzie Newsome on Eric DeCosta

has always had a remarkable connection – one that forged a rare professional partnership and an extraordinary friendship.

"Ozzie basically took a 25-year-old kid who had no experience in the NFL, who was so different from him, and gave me a chance and accepted me," DeCosta says fondly. "He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person."

A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," which includes members of the personnel staff who started with the team as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input, DeCosta quickly moved up the ranks. He was first a personnel intern (1996), then area scout (1997-2002), then director of college scouting (2003-08), then director of player personnel (2009-11) and then assistant GM (2012-18).

It became evident early in DeCosta's tenure that he was destined for NFL success. Brimming with passion, resourcefulness, a relentless attitude and an advanced aptitude, he quickly earned his co-workers' respect.

"When Ray Lewis walked into camp his first day, he never really was truly a rookie," Ravens SVP of football operations Pat Moriarty recalls. "He was Ray Lewis, our starting linebacker. [That same year of 1996], I think Eric was never 'Eric the Intern.' He was more than a scout."

Raised in Taunton, MA, DeCosta set his sights on becoming an NFL GM from the age of 6. His interest first piqued in 1978, when, contrary to many of his friends who were Patriots and Broncos fans, he began to follow the Cowboys.

ERIC DeCOSTA

"I was fascinated by the Cowboys and Tom Landry, Gil Brandt, Tex Schramm – the whole notion of scouting and building a football team," DeCosta states. "Doing things differently than all the other teams did back then really appealed to me."

Throughout much of his upbringing, Eric would study the NFL – particularly the draft – in a detailed manner that continuously amazed friends and family members.

His passion for the game of football was also quite evident on the field. Though, admittedly, he was never the biggest, fastest, smartest or most talented athlete, DeCosta was undoubtedly the hardest worker – someone always seeking ways to make himself better and gain a competitive edge.

While attending Colby College in Maine, the undersized linebacker went on to become a three-year captain and starter. He knew every assignment on the gridiron, holding himself to the highest of standards, all while inspiring teammates to reach new levels.

After graduating from Colby in 1992, DeCosta took part in a graduate coaching fellowship for the football team at Trinity University, where he would also earn a master's in English. But as time passed, he became uncertain about where a coaching path would lead. Looking to maximize his options, Eric applied to law school and prepared to pursue a new career, rather than cling to his football passion.

However, a chance encounter reinvigorated DeCosta's football pursuits in 1995, when he met someone who had completed an internship with Washington's NFL team. Upon learning of such NFL opportunities, Eric immediately sent resumes and letters to all 32 clubs. In response, he received rejection notices from all but one team – Washington – which hired him to serve as a training camp intern.

Thanks to that experience, DeCosta had finally – and successfully – broken into the NFL. The following year (1996), he landed the Ravens' personnel internship during their first-ever season. Coincidentally, he accepted Baltimore's offer the same day he learned that he had been placed on the University of Connecticut Law School waitlist.

"I was willing to take a chance," DeCosta affirms, "because I knew that once I got to Baltimore, I'd do everything to make the most of my opportunity."

The rest, as they say, is history – something bolstered by loyalty, love and pride from a man who helped build an organization, just as much as the organization built him.

1996-2022: (with Baltimore) 2021: Signed All-Pro TE Mark Andrews and OLB Tyus Bowser to long-term extensions... Andrews earned his second Pro Bowl by producing single-season franchise records in receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,361), while also leading all NFL TEs in both categories... Bowser set new career highs in tackles (56), sacks (7) and QBHs (15)... First-round draft picks WR Rashod Bateman (27th) and OLB Odafe Oweh (31st) made significant contributions as rookies. 2020: Ravens earned their third-straight playoff berth by posting an 11-5 regular season record... Baltimore's rushing attack finished No. 1 in the NFL (191.9 ypg) and produced the third-most yards (3,071) in a 16-game NFL season... Three players – QB Lamar

WR Marquise Brown, who DeCosta tabbed with the Ravens' first pick (25th overall), tied a franchise record for most receiving TDs (7) by a rookie... During the offseason, DeCosta signed free agent Pro Bowlers S Earl Thomas III and RB Mark Ingram II – and traded mid-season for standout CB Marcus Peters – all of whom earned All-Star honors again in 2019 as part of Baltimore's NFL-record-tying (Dallas, 2007) 13 players to be named to the Pro Bowl. 2018: TE Hayden Hurst and QB Lamar Jackson were selected in the first round... Jackson led the Ravens to a 6-1 record and AFC North title in the season's final seven games... Six rookies, including standouts Jackson, TE Mark Andrews, T Orlando Brown Jr. and RB Gus Edwards started multiple games. 2017: In the first round, selected CB Marlon Humphrey, who played in all 16 games (five starts) as a rookie... Ravens signed CB Brandon Carr and S Tony Jefferson to bolster the defense in free agency. 2016: Draft picks T Ronnie Stanley (No. 6 overall), G/T Alex Lewis (fourth round) and CB Tavon Young (fourth) earned significant playing time as rookies... Ravens also signed key free agents WR Mike Wallace and S Eric Weddle, who earned his fourth Pro Bowl in his first year as a Raven (earned his fifth and sixth in '17 & '18). 2015: WR Breshad Perriman (first) and TE Maxx Williams (second) were tabbed early in the draft... Also drafted DT Carl Davis (third), OLB Za'Darius Smith (fourth) and TE Nick Boyle (fifth), all of whom made important contributions. 2014: Ravens signed five-time Pro Bowl WR Steve Smith Sr. and RB Justin Forsett, who earned his first Pro Bowl, finishing fifth in the league with a career-best 1,266 rushing yards... Also drafted LB C.J. Mosley, a four-time Pro Bowler and the team's first-ever rookie Pro Bowler. 2013: Ravens signed Pro Bowl OLB Elvis Dumervil, DE Chris Canty and LB Daryl Smith as key free agents...Smith led the Ravens in tackles (123), and Dumervil was second with 9.5 sacks. 2012: Promoted to assistant general manager following the NFL Draft...Strong moves both in free agency and the draft helped Baltimore win Super Bowl XLVII...Free agent WR/RS Jacoby Jones, who earned his first Pro Bowl, rookie free agent K Justin Tucker, and draft picks OLB Courtney Upshaw (second round), G Kelechi Osemele (second round) and RB Bernard Pierce (third round) each made significant contributions en route to the title. 2011: Baltimore signed key free agents FB Vonta Leach, who earned two Pro Bowls with the Ravens (2011-12), and S Bernard Pollard, who started 26 games in two seasons (2011-12)...Team selected CB Jimmy Smith in the first round and standout WR Torrey Smith in the second round. 2010: Ravens traded for Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, added quality veteran free agent DE Cory Redding and strengthened team depth, including TEs Ed Dickson (third round) and Dennis Pitta (fourth round) through the draft. 2009: Promoted to director of player personnel, following six successful seasons as scouting director...Ravens drafted All-Rookie team honoree T Michael Oher (first round) and picked up CB Lardarius Webb in the third round...Also signed free agent K Billy Cundiff, who earned his first Pro Bowl in 2010. 2008: Instrumental in selecting QB Joe Flacco (18th overall), the Super Bowl XLVII MVP, and RB Ray Rice, a three-time Pro Bowler...Also served on the eight-member committee to interview head coach John Harbaugh. 2007: Ravens drafted 2011 Pro Bowl G Ben Grubbs, the team's first-round pick (29th overall), and eight-time Pro Bowl G Marshal Yanda in the third round. 2006: Drafted All-Rookie Team standouts DT Haloti Ngata (12th overall), a five-time Pro Bowler, and S Dawan Landry (fifth round)...Baltimore also selected Pro Bowl P Sam Koch (sixth round). 2005: Selected All-Rookie Team honoree WR Mark Clayton (22nd overall), who had a record-breaking first year in Baltimore, and C/G Jason Brown (fourth round). 2003: Was named director of college scouting...Drafted 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and 2003 Defensive Rookie of the Year OLB Terrell Suggs, a seven-time Pro Bowler. 1998-2002: Was the Ravens' Midwest area scout...Researched and analyzed draft-day trades and evaluated free agent prospects for the pro personnel department...Worked with both college and pro scouting staffs on the draft and free agency. 1998: Was

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)
BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 25/15

Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh is in his 15th season at the Ravens' helm. The 2019 NFL Coach of the Year has led Baltimore to a playoff berth in nine (2008-12, 2014 & 2018-20) of his 14 previous seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second World Championship.

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's impossible to ignore Harbaugh's significant success. Here's a look at the NFL's third-longest-tenured head coach (Bill Belichick – 23 seasons & Mike Tomlin – 16 seasons) entering the 2022 campaign:

- Since Harbaugh's 2008 Baltimore arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's fifth-most total victories (148, including playoffs). He has also led the Ravens to 137 regular season wins since 2008, ranking as the NFL's fifth most.
- Under Harbaugh, Baltimore is one of six teams (NE, GB, KC, Pit. & Sea.) to earn a playoff berth in nine of the past 14 seasons.
- The Ravens' 11 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB) for the NFL's second most (New England, 16). Of those Baltimore victories, an NFL-best eight have come on the road.
- Harbaugh's 11 playoff victories tie (Pete Carroll, Mike Holmgren & Bill Parcells) for the fifth most by a head coach in the first 14 seasons of an NFL coaching career (Joe Gibbs – 17, Bill Belichick – 15, Chuck Noll – 14 & Bill Cowher – 12).
- Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a head coach in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.
- Harbaugh is one of 14 coaches to earn at least nine playoff berths in his first 14 seasons (Tony Dungy, Bud Grant & Marty Schottenheimer – 11; Pete Carroll, Bill Cowher, Mike Holmgren & Mike McCarthy – 10; Harbaugh, Joe Gibbs, Chuck Knox, Chuck Noll, Sean Payton, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin – nine).
- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.

- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012) and have won at least one playoff game in seven of their nine postseasons with him as head coach.
- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career
- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011, 2012 and 2013), the former 49ers' head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.
- With Harbaugh, the Ravens have posted an 82-31 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past 14 seasons, ranking as the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.726) during that span (2008-21).
- In 2019, the Ravens recorded a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, also earning the franchise's first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.
- Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to four AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19).

From his job interview with the Ravens, to his first press conference, to his consistent action and talk about Baltimore, it is all about "the team" for Harbaugh. Signs can be seen around the Ravens' complex:

"The Team, The Team, The Team."

Despite his continued success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome], Eric [DeCosta] and the scouts. It's about Dick [Cass], Sashi [Brown] and the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best."

Unlike other NFL head coaches, "Harbs" took the road less traveled. Most NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word "coordinator" after "offensive" or "defensive," or they emerge from leading big-time college programs. Before becoming the Ravens' head coach in 2008, John was the Eagles' secondary coach (2007), and prior to that, Philadelphia's special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and a 14-year collegiate coach. (Harbaugh grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

In 1998, then-Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired Harbaugh, who quickly established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches. Subsequently, he was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring Harbaugh, the Ravens talked with over 40 people about the energetic coach. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," team owner Steve Bisciotti stated. "We obviously picked the right person."

Simply put, Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he stated. "We seek the highest levels."

ADDITIONAL RAVENS NOTES DURING HARBAUGH ERA:

Maintaining a strong defensive tradition during his time in Baltimore (2008-21), Harbaugh's defense has allowed the NFL's fewest scrimmage touchdowns (431), second-fewest points per game (19.2) and the second-fewest net yards per game (319.0). In 2018, Baltimore produced the NFL's No. 1 defense (292.9 ypg) and the No. 2 scoring defense (17.9 ppg). The Ravens finished four-straight seasons (2008-11) as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3 (record has since been eclipsed by Seattle, 2012-16).

Additionally, from 2014-16, Baltimore's defense was one of three teams (Den. & Sea.) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in yards allowed each season. Harbaugh's red zone defense has also finished in the Top 5 in seven of his 14 seasons, including first overall in 2011 and second in 2014, 2012 and 2008.

The Ravens' offense has also experienced record-setting success during the Harbaugh Era. In 2019, Baltimore finished No. 1 in the NFL in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while it was No. 2 in total yards (407.6). In 2019, the Ravens also became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. Baltimore set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296 yards), besting the 1978 Patriots' 3,165. Additionally, in 2019, the Ravens set season team records for touchdowns (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296) and first downs (386, eclipsed in 2021). This attack was led by unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, who accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including a league-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores. Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards, setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB. A year later, in 2020, Baltimore's attack registered the second-most total TDs (55), points (468) and rushing yards (3,071) in franchise history. The 2020 Ravens also produced the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack (191.9 ypg), with their 3,071 rushing yards standing as the third most in a 16-game NFL season. (The Ravens own two of the Top 3 marks.) Producing a revolutionary rushing attack over the past several seasons, the Ravens have rushed for an NFL-high 11,287 yards (173.6 ypg) since QB Lamar Jackson's rookie campaign (2018).

On special teams, an impressive seven Ravens have earned 14 combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Harbaugh: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-21), LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20), P Sam Koch (2015) and RS Devin Duvernay (2021). A byproduct of the Ravens consistently producing one of the NFL's top special teams units during Harbaugh's tenure, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin ranked the Ravens in the Top 6 of his annual comprehensive ratings system in seven-consecutive seasons (2012-18). (This includes a No. 1 ranking in 2015.) In 2021, Baltimore's special teams unit finished No. 1 in both Gosselin's rankings and Football Outsiders' DVOA ratings.

NFL ASSISTANT COACH: 1998-2007 (with Philadelphia)

Harbaugh's special teams in Philadelphia were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, the Eagles' units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, Philly ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite ratings (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

"What separates John from a lot of different coaches is that he watches every player. He has a tremendous work ethic, he has a passion for it, and he works well [with the scouts]. He has tremendous credibility with the scouts because they know he's done the work. That's what I love; that's a joy. He has a strong opinion, but it's always backed up by the tape and by what he wants on this team, and the scouts and coaches always respect that."

– EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on John's involvement with the draft process

JOHN HARBAUGH

"I like the message that John brings. He doesn't talk like a guy who has been here for over 10 years. It's amazing how he tends to rejuvenate himself and his message, and we're lucky to have a leader like him."

– Ravens Owner Steve Bisciotti

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams from 29th to first in the NFL.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers earned three Pro Bowl honors. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the then-Top 2 punting averages (38.4 in 2005 and 37.4 in 2004) in Eagles history. Under "Harbs," 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and return specialist Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8-yard punt return average in 2005.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Among John's 38 years of coaching is a two-year stint (1995-96) as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati, finishing 6-5 both seasons with the Bearcats. He coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the collegiate level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the tight ends at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried. While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers and running backs, and he served as the recruiting coordinator.

Over eight years, Harbaugh recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR average in 1995) and the second-ranked returner (current Ravens pass game coordinator/secondary Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR average in 1993). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator, under former Ravens offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the defensive backs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

COACHING HONORS: Leading the 2019 Ravens to a franchise-record 14-2 season and No. 1 seed in the playoffs, Harbaugh was named the Associated Press and PFWA NFL Coach of the Year. He was also named AFC Coach of the Year by the NFL 101 Awards and "Greasy" Neale Pro Coach of the Year (Maxwell Football Club) in 2019. In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (Ohio) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue. Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

HARBAUGH COACHING FAMILY: Harbaugh is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2011-14. (The University of Michigan hired Jim as its head football coach following the 2014 NFL campaign.) In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between head coaches who are brothers, John's Ravens bested Jim's

HARBAUGH IMMORTALIZED WITH STATUE AT ALMA MATER

In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue.

"I don't think you can even express what something like this means. I've been trying to figure it out," Harbaugh said. "There's nothing like Miami. There's nothing like being back here. Words can't describe my gratitude for being part of this."

The cross-country visit from Jim (then head coach of the 49ers) was a surprise: "There have been a lot of proud moments, but I've never been more proud of [John] than I am today," Jim said. "I always prided myself on being the tallest Harbaugh, but that all changed today when they unveiled that statue."

JOHN HARBAUGH

MAKING HIS MARK

Entering 2022, John Harbaugh owns the fourth-best winning percentage (.607) among active NFL head coaches (minimum 100 games), compiling a strong 148-96 record (including playoffs).

49ers, 16-6, in a 2011 Thanksgiving Night primetime special. The Ravens, of course, then topped the 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII. The brothers' sister, Joani, is married to longtime collegiate basketball coach Tom Crean.

COLLEGE: Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award as a defensive back for the Redhawks. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan.

COMMUNITY IMPACT: Devoted to his family and Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He served on the board of the Port Discovery Children's Museum and is a contributor to numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House, and she is on the Board of Trustees at The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore. In 2020, the couple made significant donations to help fund the distribution of meals to healthcare workers serving on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic. John and Ingrid are also involved with Compassion International, which is an organization that aims to positively impact the long-term development of children living in poverty globally.

Harbaugh is a strong advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (He was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, the late Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh has also visited numerous military installations, including bases in the Persian Gulf as part of the inaugural NFL USO Coaches Tour (2009), the Naval Special Warfare Center in Coronado, Calif., (2011), Andrews Air Force Base – just two days after the capture of Osama Bin Laden (2011) – and undisclosed locations in Turkey and Afghanistan.

In 2008, Harbaugh helped institute Military Appreciation Day – an annual event that takes place during Ravens training camp. Since its establishment, over 10,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet Ravens players and coaches. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. In 2017, he donated New Era hats to soldiers in Afghanistan. The hats represented all four of the major professional sports leagues and several from the NCAA as well. Additionally, he has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has sent care packages to troops overseas.

PERSONAL: A history buff, Harbaugh has taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, during offseason team activities to learn about the Civil War. Near the end of the 2017 training camp, he surprised the entire team by cancelling practice on two occasions, loading everyone on buses to visit The Pentagon and Arlington National Cemetery and another day visit to the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. The trips were opportunities for players, coaches and staff to receive behind-the-scenes tours of the historic locations and show appreciation for what each represents.

John attended Pioneer (Ann Arbor, MI) HS, where he and his brother, Jim, were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2016. John and Ingrid have a daughter, Alison, who is a junior lacrosse player at the University of Notre Dame.

General Raymond Odierno, then-Chief of Staff of the Army, presented John Harbaugh with an Outstanding Civilian Service Award at Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, VA, on May 23, 2012.

JOHN HARBAUGH

HARBAUGH FAST FACTS

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in nine (2008-12, 2014 & 2018-20) of his 14 seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. In 2019, Coach Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach ever to win The Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Award.

Here are several more Harbaugh quick hits:

Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a HC in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.

Under Harbaugh, Baltimore is one of six teams (NE, GB, KC, Pit. & Sea.) to earn a playoff berth in at least nine of the past 14 seasons. Baltimore is also one of 10 teams (KC, Buf., GB, LAR, NE, NO, Phi. Sea. & Ten.) to make the playoffs in at least three of the past four seasons (2018-21).

In 2019, the Ravens posted a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, earning its first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.

Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to four AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19).

The Ravens' 11 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB) for the second most in the NFL (New England - 16).

Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011 & 2012).

"Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.

Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.

With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.

With his daughter, Alison, by his side, John celebrated the Ravens' 34-31 Super Bowl XLVII victory over the San Francisco 49ers at the Superdome in New Orleans (2/3/13). CBS Sports' Jim Nantz interviewed Harbaugh on the victory stage.

HARBS IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Ravens own an 11-8 playoff record under head coach John Harbaugh, a mark that includes a 34-31 victory in Super Bowl XLVII vs. the San Francisco 49ers.

2019 NFL COACH OF THE YEAR

CB Marcus Peters (third), FB Patrick Ricard (first), T Ronnie Stanley (first), S Earl Thomas III (seventh), K Justin Tucker (third) and G Marshal Yanda (eighth).

2018

- Winning six of its last seven games – all with QB Lamar Jackson as the starter – Baltimore (10-6) captured its first AFC North Division title since 2012 (and fifth ever), earning a playoff berth for the seventh time during Harbaugh's 11-year tenure... The Ravens returned to the postseason for the first time since 2014, but fell at home in the Wild Card round, 23-17, to the Los Angeles Chargers.
- The Ravens produced the NFL's No. 1 defense, allowing 292.9 yards per game...Baltimore also permitted the league's second-fewest points per game (17.9), just behind Chicago's 17.7... With 2018 Pro Bowlers LB C.J. Mosley (fourth), S Eric Weddle (sixth) and DT Brandon Williams (first), Baltimore ranked No. 1 in total defense for the second time (2006) in team history...The Ravens have produced a Top 10 defense in eight of Harbaugh's 11 seasons at the Ravens' helm.
- Boasting the NFL's No. 2 rushing attack (152.6 ypg), the Ravens racked up the second-most rushing yards (2,441) in franchise history...Baltimore also produced a franchise-record 5,999 total yards...Over the team's final seven games (with Jackson as starter), Baltimore piled up an NFL-high 1,607 rushing yards (229.6 ypg)...RG Marshal Yanda earned his seventh Pro Bowl nod, helping Jackson finish with the NFL's most rushing yards (695) by a QB.
- K Justin Tucker (a Pro Bowl first alternate) made 35-of-39 FGAs and scored a franchise-record 141 points for the third-straight season, becoming the NFL's only kicker to surpass the 140 mark in each of the past three years (2016-18)...Baltimore ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (11.5), with RS Cyrus Jones posting the league's fourth-best mark (13.2).

- Winning six of its last nine games, Baltimore finished second in the AFC North with a 9-7 record, falling one game short of earning a playoff berth (lost on tiebreaker with Buffalo) for the seventh time in Harbaugh's 10-year tenure... The Ravens needed a home win over Cincinnati in Week 17 to make the 2017 playoffs... However, Baltimore's hopes were dashed when the Bengals produced a 49-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-12 with just 44 seconds remaining to earn a hard-fought, 31-27 victory that closed out the season in heartbreaking fashion.
- The Ravens produced NFL bests in interceptions (22), takeaways (34) and shutouts (3 – the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots)...Baltimore's +17 turnover differential ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while its defensive passer rating (72.4) and 5 defensive touchdowns (tied with Det. & Phi.) were each second best... Baltimore allowed just 18.9 points per game, which ranked sixth best in the league...It marked the seventh time during the John Harbaugh Era (since 2008) that the Ravens produced a Top 10 scoring "D."...Behind Pro Bowlers LB C.J. Mosley, OLB Terrell Suggs and S Eric Weddle, Baltimore's defense ranked 12th overall (325.1 ypg).

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH: YEAR-BY-YEAR

- Over the season's last nine games, Baltimore scored the NFL's second-most points per contest (29.4)...During this span, the Ravens also ranked No. 1 in fewest giveaways (5) and No. 2 in sacks allowed (10)...Baltimore finished the year ranking ninth overall in points per game (24.7) and seventh (tied) in both giveaways (17) and sacks allowed (27).

- Football Outsiders tabbed Baltimore's special teams as the NFL's No. 1 overall unit in 2017...The Ravens' ranking (9.2%) was the NFL's eighth highest in a season since 1986...In the annual special teams report from senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore ranked in the league's Top 5 for six-straight seasons (No. 4 in 2017)...The most accurate kicker in NFL history, K Justin Tucker connected on 34-of-37 FGAs and all 39 PATs to earn first-alternate Pro Bowl honors...P Sam Koch posted NFL bests in both punts inside the 10 (16) & 20 (40), with the 40 boots inside the 20 setting a new franchise record...Baltimore also ranked No. 1 in kickoff return average (27.5), No. 5 in punt return average (10.1) and No. 1 in opponent KOR average (18.6).

- The Ravens finished second in the AFC North with an 8-8 record (4-2 in division play) behind the 11-5 Pittsburgh Steelers...The Ravens entered Game 15 at Pittsburgh with the opportunity to tie for first in the division, but dropped a dramatic 31-27 decision when the Steelers scored the winning TD with 9 seconds left... Baltimore played the NFL's second-most games (12) that were decided by 8 points or fewer...In posting a 6-2 record at M&T Bank Stadium, the Ravens boasted the NFL's No. 1 defense in both points (14.8) and yards allowed (260.3) at home.

- Through the first 12 games, Baltimore's defense ranked No. 1 in the NFL in yards allowed, and the unit finished seventh overall (322.1 ypg). (The Ravens became one of three teams – Den. & Sea. – to rank in the NFL's Top 10 defenses from 2014-16.)...Allowing 89.4 rushing yards per game, the Ravens ranked No. 5 vs. the run...Baltimore's ninth-ranked pass defense (232.8 ypg) tied (KC & SD) to produce the NFL's most INTs (18)...Earning his second Pro Bowl in three seasons, ILB C.J. Mosley helped the Ravens allow the league's ninth-fewest points (20.1 ppg), while free agent acquisition S Eric Weddle was spectacular in registering a team-high 4 INTs (tied with Mosley) and a career-high 13 PD.

- QB Joe Flacco set a single-season franchise record by throwing for 4,317 yards, adding 20 TDs...TE Dennis Pitta produced 729 receiving yards while leading the NFL in catches (86) by a TE. (Pitta also set the Ravens' single-season TE record for receptions.)... Pro Bowl FB Kyle Juszczyk led the league in receptions (37) and receiving yards (266) by a fullback, while also serving as a lead blocker for RB Terrance West (774 yards)...G Marshal Yanda earned his sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl honor, marking the longest active streak among NFL guards, and C Jeremy Zuttah was selected to the All-Star game as an alternate.

- In earning his second Pro Bowl and becoming a unanimous first-team All-Pro selection, K Justin Tucker produced perhaps the greatest season ever by an NFL kicker...Tucker scored a single-season franchise-record 141 points, connecting on 38-of-39 FGs (lone miss was a block) and 27-of-27 PATs...Tucker's 38 FGs ranked first in the NFL, while he was 10-for-10 from 50-plus yards, tying (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most such kicks in NFL single-season history...Amazingly, an NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made came from 40 yards or beyond (he was 24-of-24 on such boots)...LS Morgan Cox earned his second-straight Pro Bowl invitation.

- The Ravens finished third in the highly-competitive AFC North, posting a 5-11 record...It marked just the second time Baltimore did not make the playoffs in Harbaugh's eight seasons...The Ravens had 20 players on Injured Reserve (NFL's second most), including eight key starters (DE Chris Canty, QB Joe Flacco, RB Justin Forsett, TE Crockett Gillmore, T Eugene Monroe, WR Steve Smith Sr., OLB Terrell Suggs and C Jeremy Zuttah)...Baltimore played an NFL-record 14 games decided by 8 points or fewer (tied, 1994 NY Giants) and played an NFL-high (tied, Chicago) seven games decided by 3 points or fewer (4-3 record).

- Despite starting four different QBs (Joe Flacco, Matt Schaub, Jimmy Clausen & Ryan Mallett) for the first time in franchise history, Baltimore posted the then-second-most total net yards (5,749) in team annals...The Ravens also set a franchise record by averaging 266.9 passing yards per game, thanks in part to a unit that allowed the NFL's third-fewest sacks (24)...Leading the O-line was G Marshal Yanda, who earned his fifth-straight Pro Bowl nod...WR Kamar Aiken finished with team highs in catches (75), receiving yards (944) and receiving TDs (5).

- The Ravens boasted the NFL's top overall special teams unit, ranking No. 1 in both senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's annual comprehensive ratings system and the Pro Football Focus rankings – It was Baltimore's fourth-straight ranking in Gosselin's Top 5...P Sam Koch and LS Morgan Cox (a "need" player) earned their first Pro Bowl honors, with Koch posting a 42.9 net average (second in the NFL) and allowing 5.0 yards per return (the NFL's second-best figure)...The Ravens blocked a kick (2 PATs, 2 FGs and 1 punt) in five-straight contests, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1983 (Atlanta)...Baltimore's 5 blocked kicks in 2015 tied (Oakland) for the NFL's most.

- The Ravens ranked No. 8 in total defense, marking the 11th time the unit finished in the NFL's Top 10 in 13 seasons (2003-15)...In the season's final eight games, Baltimore posted the NFL's No. 2 overall defense and the No. 1 pass defense...Second-year LB C.J. Mosley tallied 116 tackles, 4 sacks and 7 PD, adding 1 FF and a 41-yard FR-TD...OLB Elvis Dumervil, whose leadership was valuable in the absence of OLB Terrell Suggs (Achilles tear), posted a team-high 6 sacks and made the Pro Bowl as an alternate.

- The Ravens produced a 10-6 regular season record, earning their sixth playoff berth in seven seasons...Baltimore, one of three AFC North teams to make the postseason, finished third in the division behind Pittsburgh (11-5) and Cincinnati (10-5-1), but advanced to the Divisional Playoff round after capturing a 30-17 Wild Card victory in the Steel City...The Ravens' bid to reach their fourth AFC Championship game under Harbaugh was cut short in New England, where Baltimore fell to the Patriots, 35-31, after holding two 14-point leads during a thrilling battle.

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH: YEAR-BY-YEAR

- The Ravens set single-season franchise records by scoring 409 points and producing 5,838 yards (since broken) of offense... Baltimore gave up just 19 sacks (second fewest in team history), which ranked only behind Denver's 17 as the NFL's fewest allowed... QB Joe Flacco tallied career bests in yards (3,986, since surpassed) and touchdown passes (27), while key free agent addition WR Steve Smith Sr. reached the 1,000-yard receiving milestone for the eighth time in his career (1,065 yards on 79 catches)... WR Torrey Smith posted 11 receiving TDs, the second most in Ravens single-season history... First-time Pro Bowl RB Justin Forsett produced a career-high 1,266 rushing yards (the NFL's fifth most) and led the league in runs of 20-plus yards (a team-record 17); Forsett's single-season franchise-record 5.4 rushing average also ranked as the NFL's No. 1 mark among running backs.

- Led by OLB Terrell Suggs and 2014 Pro Bowl selections OLB Elvis Dumervil and rookie LB C.J. Mosley, Baltimore racked up the NFL's second-most sacks (49, tied with Philadelphia), boasted the No. 2 red zone defense (42.6) and allowed the fourth-fewest rushing yards per game (88.3).

- P Sam Koch produced the NFL's No. 3 gross average (47.4) and No. 1 net average (43.3), setting the Ravens' single-season records for each... Highlighted by his third-career 108-yard KOR-TD, RS Jacoby Jones ranked second in the NFL in KOR average (30.6)... As a team, the Ravens were No. 1 in the league with a 28.3-yard KOR mark.

- For the first time since Harbaugh's 2008 arrival, Baltimore did not make the playoffs, falling one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North... Baltimore played an NFL-high nine games decided by 3 points or fewer, compiling a 5-4 record in those contests... How close were the Ravens to making the playoffs? They were tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter in the season-ending loss at Cincinnati, needing a victory to secure what would have been their sixth-straight postseason berth.

- OLB Terrell Suggs (10) and OLB Elvis Dumervil (9.5) combined for 19.5 sacks, with Suggs earning his sixth Pro Bowl invite... NT Haloti Ngata was elected to his fifth Pro Bowl, while CB Lardarius Webb's 22 PD ranked as the NFL's second most.

- WR Torrey Smith tallied 1,128 receiving yards, the second most in single-season team history (Michael Jackson - 1,201 in 1996) and had a career-high 65 catches, posting the NFL's fifth-best yards-per-catch average (17.4)... Undrafted rookie WR Marlon Brown's 7 receiving TDs tied (Torrey Smith, 2011) for the most by a rookie in team history, while he also finished second (Smith, 2011) in catches (49) and receiving yards (524) by a Ravens' rookie... G Marshal Yanda also earned his third Pro Bowl honor.

- Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker set franchise records in FGs made (38) and FGs attempted (41) and produced a then-franchise-record 140 points (tied for sixth in NFL)... Tucker also had 6 FGs of 50-plus yards and kicked 3 game-winning FGs, including a team-record 61-yarder at Detroit.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

- The Ravens captured a second-consecutive AFC North title with a 10-6 mark before sweeping four playoff games to win Super Bowl XLVII: 24-9 over the visiting Colts on Wild Card weekend; 38-35 in double overtime at Denver in the Divisional Round; 28-13 at New England in the AFC Championship – shutting out the Patriots, who owned the league's top offense, in the second half; and then topping the 49ers, 34-31, in New Orleans at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome after jumping to a 28-6 third-quarter lead... Showing a resolve that was a hallmark of that championship team, the Ravens overcame a three-game December losing streak and 53 games lost to defensive starters to win the title.

- Baltimore set a then-franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most points per game (24.9)... The Ravens scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg... Baltimore also surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a franchise single-season record low.

- The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular: In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), WR/RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7)... Rookie K Justin Tucker, an undrafted free agent signing, made 30-of-33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

- Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and Jones (first).

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH: YEAR-BY-YEAR

• En route to winning Super Bowl XLVII, the Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history by averaging 410.3 yards of offense per game (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass), scoring 31.0 points per contest and allowing just 22.0...WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while Jones posted a 29.4-yard receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl)... With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008)... Flacco finished the Super Bowl 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating (eighth-best mark in SB history) and earned game MVP honors...The Ravens' defense was also stout during the playoffs, registering 10 takeaways (6 INTs and 4 FRs) to produce a +6 turnover differential.

• Producing a second-straight 12-4 record (13-5 overall), Baltimore won the AFC North, sweeping the division for the first time in team history...The Ravens were 6-0 against playoff teams (7-1 including postseason), matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers...In what was a franchise first, the Ravens also went unbeaten at home (9-0 with a playoff win over Houston)... Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over the Texans, and then fell, 23-20, in a heartbreaking AFC Championship thriller at New England.

• The Ravens' defense, which finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed.

• RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in rushing (1,364)...Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs...WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

• Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2)...Baltimore, Indianapolis (a then-NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10...The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row (the Ravens later extended their record to five years in 2012).

• In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7...Baltimore then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl...Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to take over a sub-.500 team and then win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

• After posting a 9-7 record, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09)...Behind the NFL's ninth-ranked scoring offense (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards (300.5 ypg) and points allowed (16.3 ppg), the Ravens upended the Patriots (33-14) in the Wild Card round, becoming the first road team to win a playoff game at New England since 1978.

• For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

• Five Ravens were voted into the Pro Bowl, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and Rice (first), who tallied the NFL's second-most yards from scrimmage (2,041)...Rookie T Michael Oher, who started all 16 games, finished second for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) and earned All-Rookie team honors.

• In Harbaugh's initial Baltimore season, the Ravens produced an 11-5 record and advanced to the AFC Championship game... Baltimore won the Wild Card game at Miami (27-9) and the Divisional game at the AFC's top-seeded Tennessee Titans, 13-10...Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens (23-14) in the AFC title matchup at Heinz Field...This first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team...The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following that regular season campaign established a new league standard in this same category... With the 13 total victories in 2008, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco).

• Baltimore's stifling defense ranked No. 2 in the NFL by allowing 261.1 yards per game and was No. 3 in points allowed per game (15.3)...The Ravens also produced an NFL-best 26 INTs, including five returned for touchdowns...S Ed Reed tied his career high (2004) with a league-leading 9 INTs.

CHRIS HORTON

A RICH HISTORY OF SPECIAL TEAMS

SEVEN PRO BOWLERS

• Seven Ravens have earned 14 combined Pro Bowl honors during the John Harbaugh Era (2008-21): ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016, 2019-21), LS Morgan Cox (2015, 2016, 2019-20), P Sam Koch (2015) and RS Devin Duvernay (2021).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER

• Five-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who the Ravens signed as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (326) since entering the NFL in 2012. With a 91.1% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (326-of-358 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2017, Koch led the NFL in both punts inside the 10 (16) and the 20 (a franchise-record 40). After 16 seasons, Koch retired in May 2022 having played in more regular season games (256) than any other Raven.

YOUNG RAVENS MAKING THEIR MARK

• In his second season (2021), WR/RS Devin Duvernay earned first-team All-Pro honors and his first Pro Bowl nod after finishing No. 1 in the NFL in PR average (13.8) and No. 7 in KOR average (24.1). He also led all NFL players with 6 PRs gaining 20-plus yards.

• In Week 3 of 2020 vs. KC, rookie WR/RS Devin Duvernay returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD. It marked the NFL's first KOR-TD of 2020 and was the Ravens' sixth KOR-TD since 2011, which tied with KC for the NFL's second most (Minnesota - 7). He became the fifth Ravens rookie and the youngest (23 years, 16 days) in franchise history to register a KOR-TD.

RAVENS RETURNERS SCORE BIG

• Dating back to 2011, six different Ravens have returned punts for touchdowns: Michael Campanaro, Kaelin Clay, Tandon Doss, Cyrus Jones, Jacoby Jones and Lardarius Webb.

MIKE MACDONALD

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: GEORGIA
BORN: 6/26/87, BOSTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 8/8

MIKE MACDONALD re-joined the Ravens after spending the 2021 season as Michigan’s defensive coordinator. Prior to his time with the Wolverines, Macdonald spent seven seasons (2014-20) in Baltimore, serving most recently as the linebackers coach from 2018-20. During his time with the Ravens, he also coached defensive backs (2017), was a defensive assistant (2015-16) and worked his first year (2014) as a defensive coaching intern.

- In 2021, his lone season coordinating Michigan’s defense, Macdonald helped guide the Wolverines to their first Big Ten title since 2004 and an appearance in the College Football Playoff semifinals.
- While in Ann Arbor (2021), his unit produced the nation’s No. 8 scoring defense (17.4 ppg), while finishing 20th in yards per game allowed (330.9) and 11th in red zone TD efficiency (45.7%)...Macdonald also played an instrumental role in the standout performance of DE Aidan Hutchinson, who earned first-team All-America honors and was a Heisman Trophy finalist, after producing a career-high and single-season school record 14 sacks.
- From 2018-20, Macdonald led a Ravens linebackers corps that helped Baltimore produce the NFL’s No. 1 overall defense (307.8 ypg) during that span, while also permitting the league’s fewest points per game (18.2)... Veteran linebackers Matthew Judon (2019-20) and C.J. Mosley (2018) also each earned Pro Bowl nods under Macdonald’s tutelage.
- In 2020, Baltimore allowed the NFL’s second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game...The Ravens also owned the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%) and produced a league-high 25 FFs.

- The Ravens upheld their strong defensive tradition in 2019, allowing the NFL’s third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game...Baltimore also ranked fifth against the run (93.4 ypg) and No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg), en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North Division title.
- In 2018 the Ravens produced the NFL’s No. 1 defense, allowing 292.9 yards per game, while also permitting the league’s second-fewest points per game (17.9).
- Alongside secondary coach Chris Hewitt in 2017, Macdonald helped guide a defensive backfield that contributed to the NFL’s most INTs (22) and forced turnovers (34). Baltimore also finished second in the league in both defensive passer rating (72.4) and defensive TDs (5), and its 3 shutout performances were the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots.
- In 2016, Macdonald worked with then-secondary coach and current Bills defensive coordinator/assistant head coach Leslie Frazier, helping guide a unit that finished seventh overall (322.1 ypg) and produced a league-leading (tied, KC & SD) 18 INTs.

2021: (with Michigan) In his lone season coordinating Michigan’s defense, Macdonald helped guide the Wolverines to their first Big Ten title since 2004 and an appearance in the College Football Playoff semifinals... While in Ann Arbor, Macdonald’s unit was the nation’s No. 8 scoring defense (17.4 ppg), while finishing 20th in yards per game allowed (330.9) and 11th in red zone touchdown efficiency (45.7%)...Macdonald also played an instrumental role in the standout performance of DE Aidan Hutchinson, who earned first-team All-America honors and was a Heisman Trophy finalist after producing a career-high and single-season school record 14 sacks.

STEVE SAUNDERS

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

COLLEGE: MILLERSVILLE
BORN: 3/23/70, MYERSTOWN, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 7/7

STEVE SAUNDERS is in his seventh year with the Ravens. In his current role as head strength & conditioning coach, he oversees the strength and conditioning program. In 2017, he served as the director of performance, after originally joining the organization in 2016 as the team's director of performance and recovery. Saunders guides all speed, strength training and recovery initiatives, working closely with the team's athletic training department. His focus includes player injury prevention, recovery and energy system training in an effort to maximize performance.

Saunders founded Power Train Sports Institute in 1999, and prior to joining the Ravens, grew Power Train from a single unit to a 200-employee operation in 28 locations nationwide. Best known for his work with longtime Steelers LB James Harrison, who was the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, Saunders has trained hundreds of NFL, NHL and MLB athletes. For over a decade, he directed one of the nation's top NFL Combine training programs, preparing first-round selections in football, baseball and hockey.

2016-21: (with Baltimore) Continued to implement a training regimen that has produced the team's most productive offseason programs, averaging 99 percent of players in attendance...In the past five seasons, players have experienced a continued decrease in nuisance injuries and increased performance benefits from Saunders' program.

2019: Helped Baltimore capture two-straight AFC North titles (2018-19), including a franchise-best 14-2 regular season in 2019. 2018: Named head strength and conditioning coach. 2016: Named director of performance and recovery.

1999-2017: (with Power Train Sports Institute) Founded (1999) and built Power Train into one of the world's leading providers of best-in-class sports performance training... Professional athletes benefit from Saunders' proprietary energy training system based on speed and conditioning programs, strength and rehabilitation.

2013-14: (with Team Lokomotiv) Hosted and trained the three-time Russian Superleague champion Lokomotiv Yaroslavl, currently of the Kontinental Hockey League.

2012: Named to the Under Armour Training Council, a collection of the world's highest-caliber strength and conditioning professionals.

2011: Guided more than 90 NFL athletes through rehabilitation, training, speed, strength and conditioning programs during the 2011 NFL lockout.

2005-09: Independently contracted by more than 20 Steelers players for advanced strength and speed training, rehab and recovery during the 2005-09 seasons, assisting the team to two Super Bowl titles (2005 and 2008).

COLLEGE: Graduated from Millersville (Lancaster, PA) University, where he was a captain and four-year starter at DT...Earned multiple All-ECAC and All-PSAC honors.

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Myerstown, PA...Attended Eastern Lebanon County (Myerstown, PA) HS, where he was a standout in football, basketball and baseball...Saunders and his wife, Emily, have five children: two daughters (Lily and Morgan) and three sons (Logan, Stone and Major).

JAMES URBAN

QUARTERBACKS COACH

COLLEGE: WASHINGTON AND LEE
BORN: 12/1/73, SPRINGFIELD, IL
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 19/5

JAMES URBAN is in his fifth season with the Ravens as quarterbacks coach and has guided a room led by 2019 unanimous NFL MVP Lamar Jackson for nearly his entire Baltimore tenure. Urban, a 19-year NFL coaching veteran, has experience as part of three prolific NFL offenses. He spent seven seasons (2011-17) with AFC North rival Cincinnati, coaching the team's wide receivers. Prior to joining Cincinnati, Urban entered the NFL ranks with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2004. After five seasons in two roles under then-head coach Andy Reid, he was promoted to quarterbacks coach in his final two seasons (2009-10), guiding Pro Bowlers Donovan McNabb (2009) and Michael Vick (2010), both of whom excelled under Urban's direction.

- For the past four years, Urban has mentored QB Lamar Jackson, helping him earn unanimous NFL MVP honors in 2019, becoming the youngest player to earn the award (22 years, 358 days), in his second NFL season.
- Jackson enters the 2022 campaign 37-12 as a regular season starter...In 2021, he surpassed Hall of Famer Dan Marino by becoming the first QB in league history to reach 35 career victories before the age of 25.
- Entering 2022, Jackson ranks seventh all time in rushing yards (3,673) among NFL QBs...His 10 career performances with 100+ rushing yards are tied (with Michael Vick) for the most by a QB in NFL history.
- In 12 starts in 2021, he completed 246-of-382 passes for 2,882 yards, 16 TDs and 13 INTs (87.0 rating), while adding team-high 767 yards and 2 TDs, en route to his second career Pro Bowl nod.
- In 2021, Jackson recorded at least 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards in seven games, tying Randall Cunningham (1990) and Jackson's 2019 campaign for the most such performances in single-season NFL history. In 2020, Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second-straight season, becoming the first NFL QB ever with multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

- In 2019, the Ravens lead the NFL in scoring (33.2 ppg) for the first time in team history...Additionally, Baltimore posted a franchise record 64 total TDs, 6,521 total net yards and 3,296 rushing yards.
- In 2019, Jackson became the only QB in NFL history to produce at least 3,000 passing yards (3,127) and 1,000 rushing yards (1,206) in a single season...His 1,206 rushing yards are an NFL single-season record by a QB.
- Jackson was responsible for an NFL-best 43 total TDs (36 passing & 7 rushing) in 2019...His 36 TD passes led the NFL and are the most in franchise single-season history...Jackson's 6.9 rushing average also led the NFL, while his three games with 5 TD passes, four games with 4 TD passes and eight games with 3 TD passes were each the NFL's highest such marks.

2018-21: (with Baltimore) 2021: QB Lamar Jackson was instrumental in helping Baltimore's offense finish No. 6 in the NFL (378.8 ypg), with a run game that ranked third (145.8 ypg) and a passing attack that made the NFL's biggest improvement from 2020 (+61.8 ypg)...In 12 starts, he completed 246-of-382 passes for 2,882 yards, 16 TDs and 13 INTs (87.0 rating), while adding team-high 767 yards and 2 TDs, en route to his second career Pro Bowl nod...Jackson recorded at least 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards in seven games, tying Randall Cunningham (1990) and Jackson's 2019 campaign for the most such performances in single-season NFL history...On 10/11/21 vs. Ind., Jackson threw for a single-game franchise record 442 yards, surpassing QB Vinny Testaverde's previous franchise mark of 429 yards (on 10/27/96 vs. STL)...In the game, Jackson also passed for 4 TDs, completed 86% of his passes (37-of-43) and added 62 yards on the ground. 2020: Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second-straight season, becoming the first NFL QB ever with multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons... Jackson also completed 64.4% of his passes for 2,757 yards,

CRAIG VER STEEG (pronounced ver-STEGG), who owns 39 years of overall coaching experience, is in his 15th year working with the Baltimore offense and his second as the team's running backs coach. As one of John Harbaugh's original coaching hires (2008), Ver Steeg has assisted Ravens offenses in numerous areas, including game preparation, game and practice analysis and guiding players. Prior to the NFL, Ver Steeg guided several players who benefited under his tutelage on the collegiate level, including QB Alex Smith and RB Ray Rice.

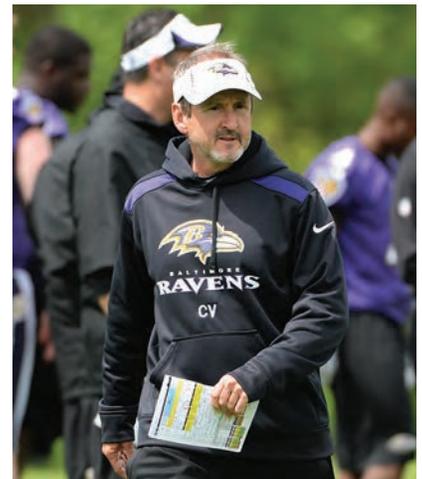

- From 2018-21, Baltimore rushed for 100-plus yards in 43 consecutive games, tying for the longest streak in NFL history (Pit. 43 – 1974-77).
- Baltimore finished with the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack (191.9 ypg) for the second-straight season in 2020, producing the third-most rushing yards in a 16-game NFL season (3,071).
- In 2019, the Ravens earned a second-straight AFC North title and a franchise-best 14-2 record. Led by 2019 NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, the Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6)...Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season.
- Baltimore boasted the NFL's No. 2 rushing attack (152.6 ypg) in 2018.
- Super Bowl XLVII MVP QB Joe Flacco (2008-18) led the Ravens' offense during much of Ver Steeg's tenure in Baltimore, setting career highs in passing yards (4,317 in '16), TDs (27 in '14) and completion pct. (64.9 in '16).

2008-21: (with Baltimore) 2021: Despite season-ending injuries to RBs J.K. Dobbins, Gus Edwards and Justice Hill prior to Week 1, Baltimore finished with the league's No. 3 rushing attack (145.8 ypg)...Veteran RBs Devonta Freeman

(576 – 5 TDs) and Latavius Murray (501 – 6 TDs) combined to rush for over 1,000 yards and 11 TDs. 2020: The Ravens registered an NFL-best six games with at least 200 rushing yards, producing a franchise record 404-yard output in Week 17's victory at Cincinnati...Baltimore tallied the third-most rushing yards (3,071) in a 16-game season, while Dobbins ranked No. 3 among NFL rookies in both rushing yards (805) and rushing TDs (9)...The Ravens had three players – QB Lamar Jackson (1,005), Dobbins (805) and Edwards (723) – rush for over 700 yards each for the second-straight year. 2019: Baltimore set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165)...RB Mark Ingram II, who rushed for 1,018 yards and posted 15 total TDs, tying a single-season team record and ranking fourth overall in the NFL, earned Pro Bowl honors for the third time in his career... Baltimore also set season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), fewest turnovers (15) and first downs (386), which was eclipsed in 2021 (394). 2018: The Ravens finished second in rushing (152.6 ypg) en route to winning the AFC North title. 2017: Baltimore ranked ninth in points per game (24.7) and seventh (tied) in both fewest giveaways (17) and sacks allowed (27). 2016: QB Joe Flacco set a career and Ravens single-season high with 4,317 passing yards and a 64.9 completion percentage. 2015: Behind four different starting QBs for the first time in team history, Baltimore posted the NFL's No. 8-ranked passing offense (266.9 ypg), including a franchise-record 4,271 net passing yards. 2014: Offense set then-single-season franchise marks in total points (409)...WR Torrey Smith recorded 11 TD receptions, the second most in team history (Michael Jackson, 14 in 1996)...Baltimore's 19 sacks allowed were the second fewest both in the NFL in '14 and in team history...Pro Bowl RB Justin Forsett produced a career-best 1,266 rushing yards and led the NFL in runs of 20-plus yards (team-record 17). 2012: Baltimore surrendered just 16 giveaways, setting a franchise single-season low and tying for the NFL's second

ASST. HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME
 BORN: 7/28/80, KILLEEN, TX
 EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 18/6 (7 PLAYING, 11 COACHING)

ANTHONY WEAVER, who is in his 13th overall season of coaching, reunited in 2021 with the Ravens, the team that drafted him in 2002. Following a seven-year NFL playing career along the defensive line – with his first four seasons in Baltimore (2002-05) and his last three in Houston (2006-08) – Weaver began coaching (as a graduate assistant with the University of Florida) in 2010. He held his first NFL coaching position with the New York Jets in 2012, before joining the Bills’ staff in 2013, serving on the Browns’ staff for two seasons (2014-15) and joining the Houston Texans in 2016 as defensive line coach, where, in 2020, he added defensive coordinator responsibilities. In 2022, after one season as the Ravens’ run game coordinator/defensive line coach, Weaver was promoted to assistant head coach/defensive line.

- Promoted to assistant head coach/defensive line for the Ravens in 2022, after one year serving as run game coordinator/defensive line coach.
- Weaver has coached multiple Pro Bowlers, including J.J. Watt (2018) and Jadeveon Clowney (2016-18), and guided the development of several young D-linemen.
- Weaver’s units have helped their teams earn standout defensive rankings in several seasons.

2021: (with Baltimore) 2021: Weaver’s D-line played an integral role in the Ravens’ No. 1 rush defense (84.5 ypg) and No. 3 third-down defense (34.8%).

2016-20: (with Houston) 2020: Promoted to Texans defensive coordinator/defensive line. 2019: Houston won its second-straight AFC South division title. 2018: DE J.J. Watt and DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney had 16 and 9 sacks, respectively, both earning Pro Bowl nods. 2017: Defense produced 85 TFL, ranking as the second most in single-season franchise history. 2016: Texans produced the NFL’s top-ranked defense (301.3 ypg) for the first time in franchise history, winning their second-straight AFC South title...Houston also gave up the NFL’s fewest first downs (17.0) and second-fewest net passing yards per game (201.6)...Mentored Clowney, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

2014-15: (with Cleveland) 2015: Assisted in the development of rookie DTs Danny Shelton and Jamie Meder, as well as DE Desmond Bryant, who led the team with a career-high 6 sacks. 2014: D-line unit contributed to a defense that ranked No. 1 in the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1) and finished tied (with SF) for fourth in takeaways (29)...Hired by his former Ravens coach, Mike Pettine, the then-Browns’ head coach.

2013: (with Buffalo) Weaver’s D-line accounted for 43 of the defense’s franchise-record 57 sacks...Buffalo was the NFL’s only team to have three players (Mario Williams – 13; Kyle Williams – 10.5; Jerry Hughes – 10) record double-digit sacks...Marcell Dareus, Mario Williams and Kyle Williams each earned Pro Bowl honors.

2011: (with North Texas) Helped guide the Mean Green LBs, including former Ravens player and current inside linebackers coach Zach Orr.

2010: (with Florida) Weaver entered the collegiate ranks under Urban Meyer as a graduate assistant for the Gators.

NFL PLAYER: (2002-08) Drafted in the second round (52nd overall) by the Ravens in 2002, Weaver appeared in 103 career regular season games (98 starts) between Baltimore (2002-05) and Houston (2006-08)...He recorded 260 tackles, 15.5 sacks, 5 FFs, 5 FRs, 20 PD and 3 INTs during his career.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year starter at Notre Dame, where he earned All-America honors as a standout defensive end for the Fighting Irish...Voted Team MVP in 2001 and was one of four captains that senior season.

PERSONAL: Attended Saratoga Springs (NY) HS, where he played both football and basketball and received the National Football Foundation scholar-athlete award...In 2010, he was inducted into the Saratoga Springs Blue Streaks Hall of Fame...He was also inducted into the Capital Region (NY) Hall of Fame (2011)...Anthony and his wife, Kristin, have two sons: Anthony Jr. and Justus.

 BORN: 6/18/71, LIMA, OH
 EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 2/2

KEITH WILLIAMS is in his second season as the team's pass game specialist, working closely with WRs coach Tee Martin in mentoring the Ravens' wide receivers. Williams has extensive experience coaching wide receivers, a group he guided for 18 years at the collegiate level, including with Nebraska from 2015-17.

- Has worked as a personal wide receivers coach for a number of top NFL wideouts, including Pro Bowlers Tyreek Hill and Davante Adams.
- Williams served as the wide receivers coach for the San Antonio Commanders of the AAF in 2019...In his only other NFL experience, Williams spent 2008 with the San Diego Chargers in a minority internship coaching position.
- In 2021, under Williams' guidance, TE Mark Andrews (1,361) and WR Marquise Brown (1,008) became just the second Ravens tandem to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Michael Jackson (1,201) & Derrick Alexander (1,099), who accomplished the feat in 1996.

2021: (with Baltimore) 2021: Helped guide All-Pro TE Mark Andrews to produce single-season franchise records for receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,361)...Andrews' 1,361 receiving yards also rank third most by a TE in league history and were sixth overall in the NFL in 2021...Andrews and WR Marquise Brown formed the first duo in Ravens' franchise history with double-digit catches in the same game (each had 10 on 12/19 vs. GB).

2015-17: (with Nebraska) Mentored the Cornhuskers' wide receivers under head coach Mike Riley. 2015: Under Williams' leadership, Nebraska's wideouts flourished, with the group combining for more than 200 receptions, nearly 2,800 yards and 23 TDs...Nebraska ranked in the Top 3 in the Big Ten in passing offense, scoring offense, total offense and third-down conversions.

2012-14: (with Tulane) Spent three seasons as Tulane's receivers coach, helping develop the Green Wave wideouts, who as a unit, combined for more than 150 receptions, close to 1,900 yards and 18 TDs in 2013...Among them was Ryan Grant, a two-time first-team All-Conference USA receiver who proceeded to play five seasons in the NFL after being selected by Washington in the fifth round of the 2014 Draft.

2009-11: (with Fresno State) Coached the receivers at Fresno State...Guided three of his wideouts to earn All-WAC honors, including first-team choice Jalen Saunders (2011)...Bulldogs made two bowl appearances in Williams' three seasons.

2005-08: (with San Jose City College) Was SJCC's offensive coordinator and coached the wide receivers for four years.

2001-04: (with San Jose State) Joined the staff at SJSU and coached the wide receivers for four years...Under Williams' leadership, four Spartans receivers ranked among SJSU's all-time leaders in receiving yardage.

2000: (with Solano College) Started his coaching career at Solano College in Northern California.

PRO PLAYER (1994-96): Signed an NFL rookie free agent contract with Washington in 1994...Played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League in the spring of 1995 and then joined the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League (1995-96).

COLLEGE: Played wide receiver for San Diego State (1991-93)...Was a part of the Aztecs' 1991 Freedom Bowl team...He was also a member of the SDSU track and field team, finishing with a bronze in the WAC Outdoor Track & Field Championships 100M with a 10.31 time...Earned his bachelor's in Public Administration from San Diego State (1996).

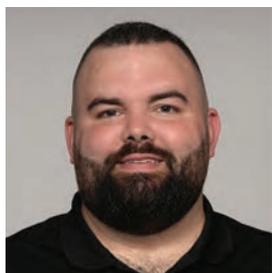

PERSONAL: A Stockton, CA, native, Williams attended Tokay (Lodi, CA) HS, where he excelled in both football (wideout and safety) and track, earning All-San Joaquin County Section honors in both sports...He holds the 100M (10.44) and 200M (21.2) records at Tokay...Keith and his wife, Ayana, have a son, Keyan, who is the wideouts coach at Missouri Southern, and daughter, Kaya, who attends Jacksonville University as a junior soccer player for the Dolphins.

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

BORN: 2/6/62, HOPEDALE, OH

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 2/2

Jay Peterson enters his second season with the Ravens and first as defensive assistant. In his new role, Peterson works closely with the inside linebackers. In 2021, Peterson joined Baltimore's coaching ranks as assistant linebackers/quality control coach, marking his first full-time NFL Coaching stint. Peterson took part in several NFL Minority Coaching Internships over the course of his career, including twice with the Ravens (2007 & 2019), and spent training camps with the Bears (2001), Lions (1997) and Colts (1995). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Peterson spent 30 years as a collegiate coach, including stints at Wayne State University (2019-20), Eastern Michigan (2014-18; 2004-08), Miami (OH) (2011-13; 1991-98), Illinois State (2009-10) and Northwestern (1999-2003). Following his playing career at Miami University (OH), Peterson joined the coaching ranks as a high school assistant in Ohio (1985-90). Peterson and his wife, Freda, have a daughter, Jada.

MATT ROBINSON

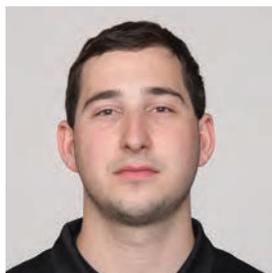

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: MARYLAND

BORN: 12/31/91, COLUMBIA, MD

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 2/2

Matt Robinson is in his second season in Baltimore and first as defensive assistant. He originally joined the Ravens in 2021 as a coaching fellow, working with the defensive staff, and specifically, assisting with the outside linebackers. In his new role, Robinson works primarily with the defensive backs. Prior to his Baltimore arrival, Robinson spent two seasons as a defensive assistant at the University of Maryland, initially joining his alma mater as a graduate assistant in 2019 before earning a promotion to defensive quality control in 2020. He first entered the coaching ranks as a defensive graduate assistant with the University of Connecticut, a post he held for two seasons (2017-18). Robinson played five seasons (2010-14) for the Terrapins, seeing time at both defensive back and linebacker. He signed with the Jacksonville Jaguars as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2015 but suffered a hamstring injury during training camp. Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and a master's degree in supply chain management from Maryland.

DANIEL STERN

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: YALE

BORN: 1/11/94, BALTIMORE, MD

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 7/7

Daniel Stern is in his seventh season in Baltimore and first as offensive assistant. Stern works closely with the WRs, as well as assists with drawing the playbook, opponent analysis and self-scouting. He also is responsible for scripting situational periods of practice and advising head coach John Harbaugh on in-game clock/game management and coaches' challenges. Since 2019, Stern has been responsible for studying game management, situational football and the NFL playing rules/officiating, advising Harbaugh and the team in these areas. Preceding his offensive coaching responsibilities, Stern was a football research coach, organizing the coaching staff's use of third party data for opponent and self-scouting, video breakdown and around the league studies. He also managed the coaching research internship program. Stern earned his B.A. from Yale University, where he spent three seasons as an undergraduate assistant to the football team – assisting with coaches' video, opponent game breakdowns and football operations – as well as doing independent coursework in football strategy research. Stern grew up in Baltimore (Park School) and coached youth football while in high school.

OZZIE NEWSOME

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: ALABAMA

BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SHOALS, AL

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 45/27 (13 PLAYING / 32 FRONT OFFICE)

OZZIE NEWSOME's legacy is unlike any the game of football has produced. Simply put, "The Wizard" will forever remain in a class of his own.

Flourishing at every point of his football career, Newsome has not just followed a successful path, he has blazed the trail. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV and Super Bowl XLVII championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager in 2002.

(In 2019, Newsome's longtime top lieutenant, Eric DeCosta, took over as the Ravens' EVP & GM. However, Newsome maintains a significant role within the organization as its executive vice president.)

"If Ozzie wasn't already in the Hall of Fame as a tight end, they would be putting him in as a general manager," Hall of Fame GM Bill Polian stated.

"Ozzie is special as a person," head coach John Harbaugh states. "Obviously, he's great at what he does – that's proven. He's been great at everything that he's done. If you look at his history, he's a Hall of Famer; he's in every Hall of Fame there is and still counting. For me, it goes beyond that; it goes to who he is as a person – the type of husband he is, the type of father he is, the type of friend he is, confidant, advisor, just all-around good person with a great heart and a strong faith."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped onto the gridiron with the hope of playing college football. That dream turned into a reality when he became a standout at Alabama under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round (23rd overall) of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the game's history. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a TE until Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (HOFer Tony Gonzalez now owns the catches and receiving yards marks, while Antonio Gates holds the TDs record).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a comprehensive role – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowl honors, Ogden became the first Ravens' draft choice elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2013), while Lewis was enshrined in 2018. Fittingly, the duo joined Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Another top Newsome draft pick, S Ed Reed (2002), received a gold jacket in 2019, giving the Ravens three first-ballot Hall of Famers – all selected by "The Wizard."

OZZIE NEWSOME

"He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person. So, I am extremely happy that Ozzie is going to play such a significant role moving forward for this organization."

– Ravens EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on Ozzie Newsome

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 23 drafts (1996-2018) – all led by Newsome – Baltimore tabbed 24 first-rounders who have earned a total of 66 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens had a high pick, they didn't miss. Of the eight players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, OLB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis, the 2003 NFL Offensive Player of the Year, and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year) earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis was twice named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap (31st) went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; Reed (24th) was chosen an All-Star nine times and earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004; QB Joe Flacco (18th) was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP, leading the Ravens to their second World Championship in 2012; LB C.J. Mosley (17th) became the first Ravens rookie to garner Pro Bowl honors following an exceptional 2014 season (and again in 2016-18); and QB Lamar Jackson (32nd) was named just the second-ever unanimous NFL MVP in 2019.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history with Newsome at the helm, he drafted 25 players who earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-21), Pro Bowl LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20) and Pro Bowl FB Patrick Ricard (2019-21), who signed as rookie free agents in 2002, 2012, 2010 and 2017, respectively, Baltimore produced 29 homegrown Pro Bowlers under Newsome's leadership.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Ozzie has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with scouts who work under him. Over time, Newsome developed the Ravens' methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. Now led by DeCosta, the "process" includes 31 members of the scouting department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Much of Baltimore's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," a group that consists of members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

DeCosta and Newsome, who is on the NFL's Competition Committee and the NFL Player Care Foundation Board, encourage all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that they want to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, one of the biggest strengths of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"We've been fortunate to have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, and our methods and philosophies have become engrained," Newsome affirms. "We have had great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

With leadership from Newsome, Baltimore also fosters an environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven Way," Baltimore creates a synergy that manufactures success among scouts, coaches and players. As a result, the Ravens have had many assistants move on to become or return as head coaches, both on the collegiate and NFL level: Jim Caldwell (Lions), David Culley (Texans), Jack Del Rio (Jaguars/Raiders), Vic Fangio (Broncos), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Thomas Hammock (Northern Illinois), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Hue Jackson

"[Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

JOE HORTIZ

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: AUBURN

BORN: 11/8/75, PHILADELPHIA, PA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 25/25

JOE HORTIZ is in his 25th season with the Ravens and fourth as director of player personnel. Hortiz works closely with George Kokinis, the team's other director of player personnel, to oversee all aspects of college and pro scouting for Baltimore. The pair serve as GM Eric DeCosta's chief personnel evaluators. Baltimore recorded a franchise-best 14-2 season in 2019, earning its second-straight AFC North title. Including the year 2019 MVP Lamar Jackson was selected (2018), Hortiz spent 10 seasons (2009-18) as the Ravens' director of college scouting. He was responsible for all aspects of the college process, coordinating the schedules and cross-checking duties of the area and national scouts. Hortiz also managed the team's draft preparation and the evaluation and ranking process of hundreds of NFL draft-eligible prospects. Hortiz, who joined the organization in 1998, spent eight years as a scout for Baltimore, covering the Northeast and Southeast regions before becoming a national scout for three seasons (2006-08). In 2007, the Ravens selected Auburn G Ben Grubbs (29th overall), who was scouted by the fellow Auburn alum Hortiz and became a Pro Bowler in 2011. A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club" (see chart on page 67), Hortiz originally joined Baltimore as a personnel assistant in 1998.

1998-2022: (with Baltimore) 2022: Ravens selected S Kyle Hamilton (No. 14, Notre Dame) and C Tyler Linderbaum (No. 25, Iowa) in the first round...Undrafted free agent FB Patrick Ricard ('17) earned his third-straight Pro Bowl. 2021: WR Rashod Bateman (No. 27) and OLB Odafe Oweh (No. 31) both made an impact as rookies, while Oweh earned AFC Def. Player of the Week (Week 2) and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team... 2020: Ravens selected LSU LB Patrick Queen in the first round, and he later went on to earn 2020 All-Rookie Team honors. 2019: Former Ravens WR Marquise Brown (No. 25) was selected in the first round...Several Ravens draft picks earned their first Pro Bowl honors during Baltimore's franchise-best 14-2 season: TE Mark Andrews ('18 draft), T Orlando Brown Jr. ('18), CB Marlon Humphrey ('17), Jackson ('18), OLB Matthew Judon ('16) and T Ronnie Stanley ('16). 2018: Jackson (No. 32 overall) was selected in the first round...Brown Jr. and Andrews (both third round) played all 16 games, while Andrews set a franchise record for most receiving yards (552) by a rookie TE in a season. 2017: Baltimore selected Humphrey with the 16th-overall pick, and as a rookie, he tallied 34 tackles (30 solo) 2 INTs and 11 PD. 2016: Ravens have had significant contributions from the draft class, including starts from Stanley (first round), G/T Alex Lewis (fourth), CB Tavon Young (fourth) and Judon (fifth), who signed a multi-year contract with NE following the 2020 season. 2015: TE Nick Boyle (fifth round) played all 16 games, helping lead a young TEs group... Fourth-rounder OLB Za'Darius Smith earned a lucrative deal with the Packers following 2018 season and made his first Pro Bowl in '19. 2014: First-rounder LB C.J. Mosley (17th overall) became first-ever Ravens rookie to earn Pro Bowl honors (the four-time Pro Bowler was also named in 2016, 2017 and 2018)... Mosley became the highest paid inside LB in the NFL when he signed with the Jets in the '19 offseason. 2013: Ravens selected four players, including NT Brandon Williams, who spent nine seasons as the key cog in the middle of the Ravens' D-line (2013-21)...Draft picks C Ryan Jensen, FB Kyle Juszczyk and T Rick Wagner, each of whom developed into premier NFL players at their respective positions, earned multi-year contracts with other NFL clubs. 2012: Ravens drafted Alabama OLB Courtney Upshaw (second round), Iowa State G Kelechi Osemele (second) and Temple RB Bernard Pierce (third), all of whom helped the Ravens win Super Bowl XLVII...Osemele is a two-time Pro Bowler (2016-17) and named first-team All-Pro in 2016. 2011: Selected CB Jimmy Smith (Colorado) and WR Torrey Smith (Maryland) in the first two rounds...Torrey set team rookie receiving records in catches (50), yards (841) and TDs (7)...Jimmy spent 11 seasons in the Baltimore defensive backfield...OLB Pernell McPhee (fifth) and QB Tyrod Taylor (sixth) were also selected. 2010: Ravens drafted key contributors TEs Ed Dickson (third round) and Dennis Pitta (fourth), DE Art Jones (fifth) and WR/RS David Reed (fifth), who had the NFL's longest KOR (103 yards), setting a then-franchise record in 2010. 2009: Promoted to director of college scouting after eight years as an area scout...In Hortiz's first draft as head of college scouting, Baltimore selected All-Rookie Team performer T Michael Oher (Mississippi) with the 23rd-overall selection and CB/RS Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State). 2008: Scouted players across the country, with a primary focus on the eastern half, where seven of 10 Ravens draft picks, including Super Bowl XLVII MVP QB Joe Flacco, were selected in the '08 NFL Draft. 2007: Team's first-round draft pick G Ben Grubbs was selected from Hortiz's focus area and attended his alma mater (Auburn). 2006: Promoted to national scout... Covered the eastern half of the country, including the Big East, Big Ten, MAC, ACC, SEC and Conference USA. 2003-05: Served as Ravens Southeast area scout and covered the SEC, ACC and C-USA. 2001-02: Scouted the Northeast. 1998-2000: Worked with the pro and college scouting staffs as a football personnel assistant...Responsibilities included assisting then-GM Ozzie Newsome and Sr. VP of football administration Pat Moriarty, who manages the salary cap, and performing "the box" workout across the country for three spring seasons.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Joe and his wife, Jennifer, have four boys, Joey (15), Jack (14), Jameson (11) and Julian (9)... While earning his B.S. in accounting from Auburn, Joe was an undergraduate assistant coach for Terry Bowden and the Tigers' football team from 1995-97...Worked with both the QBs and WRs and coached the scout team LBs and secondary... Also coordinated Auburn's summer football camps...Jennifer is also an Auburn alum...Son of Joe and Marlene Hortiz, Joe attended Salesianum (Wilmington, DE) HS.

GEORGE KOKINIS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: HOBART
BORN: 2/27/67, WETHERSFIELD, CT
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 32/26

Now in his 32nd NFL season, GEORGE KOKINIS is one of the longest-tenured Ravens in Baltimore's player personnel department. Kokinis is one of GM Eric DeCosta's chief personnel evaluators and works closely with Joe Hortiz to oversee all aspects of college and pro scouting for Baltimore. Kokinis began his NFL career with the Cleveland Browns in 1991, moving with the franchise to Baltimore in 1996. After advancing through the scouting ranks in the early seasons, Kokinis was named the Ravens' director of pro personnel in 2003 and spent six seasons at the post. He was hired to be the Cleveland Browns' general manager in 2009. As a longtime member of Ozzie Newsome's staff, Kokinis returned to the franchise in 2010, bringing a wealth of player personnel experience and knowledge back to Baltimore.

2010-22: (with Baltimore): 2019: The personnel department made 139 roster transactions that aided in a franchise-best 14-2 season for the Ravens, who earned their second-straight AFC North title...Named director of player personnel by new general manager Eric DeCosta following the draft... Under DeCosta's leadership, Kokinis and Joe Hortiz, the team's two directors, oversee all college and pro scouting efforts. 2010: Re-joined the team as the Ravens' senior personnel assistant.

2009: (with Cleveland) 2009: Named the Browns' general manager on Jan. 26, 2009.

1996-2008: (with Baltimore) 2003-08: Kokinis became the team's director of pro personnel in 2003, overseeing all aspects of the pro football personnel department...In his six years as director, his role included assisting evaluating free agent talent, monitoring waiver wire transactions, and handling contract negotiations for later-round draft picks.

2000-02: Promoted to the Ravens' assistant director of pro personnel in 2000, the year Baltimore won Super Bowl XXXV... Conducted the advance scouting of Ravens opponents and provided reports to the coaches. 1996-99: Was the Ravens' Northeast area scout for four years before moving over to pro personnel...Was among the group of Browns' staffers invited by Art Modell to move to Baltimore with the franchise.

1991-95: (with Cleveland) Began his NFL scouting career with the Browns in 1991 after serving an internship in the team's operations department.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Graduated from Hobart College with a B.A. in psychology and earned his master's degree in sports management at the University of Richmond (1991), while working as a graduate assistant coach for the Spiders' baseball team...He played both football and baseball during his collegiate career, earning ECAC Baseball Player of the Year honors in 1989 as a pitcher for the Statesmen, and was selected to represent the conference in a New York vs. New Jersey All-Star Game played at Yankee Stadium...Kokinis was a two-sport athlete at Wethersfield (CT) HS...George and his wife, Elizabeth, have a daughter, Marissa (23), a 2021 Vasaar College graduate, and twins, Peter and Ella (18).

"George has been with us from the beginning. We've worked together for over 20 years. Not only is he one of the best player evaluators and personnel guys in the league, but he is one of my top trusted advisers and friends. I value his substantial football knowledge and his recommendations in helping build our team. Plain and simple, George helps us win football games."

RAVENS DRAFT PRAISE

"What the Ravens do better than anyone, and this was under Ozzie [Newsome] and is now under [Eric] DeCosta – they let the draft come to them. They don't let plans laid out beforehand prevent them from doing the right thing. They just take the best guy. I've seen it over and over again."
– Albert Breer, The MMQB

"If [the 2022] draft class pans out the way I think it will, DeCosta could have two of the best draft classes of the past 20 years since 2018 (the last being Lamar Jackson, Orlando Brown Jr., Mark Andrews, Hayden Hurst, Bradley Bozeman)."
– Conor Orr, The MMQB

"Eric DeCosta works hard and does a great job. He's been with this organization for a long time. ... Eric helped build a Super Bowl winner, all under the leadership of Ozzie Newsome, who is a Hall of Fame player and a Hall of Fame GM."
– Mel Kiper Jr., ESPN

BORN: 9/29/69, HOUSTON, TX
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 26/20 (7 PLAYING / 19 FRONT OFFICE)

O.J. BRIGANCE, a former Ravens and Baltimore Stallions (CFL) LB, is the Ravens' senior advisor to player engagement. Brigance, who has three championship rings – two Super Bowl rings with the Ravens (2000 and 2012) and a CFL Grey Cup ring with the Baltimore Stallions (1995) – has been an inspiration to the entire Ravens organization for his perseverance and courage while fighting Lou Gehrig's Disease (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis) the past 15 years. In June 2014, Brigance was honored by the Pro Football Writers Association with the George Halas Award, given to the NFL player, coach or staff member who has overcome the most adversity to succeed. The NFL has saluted Brigance many times, earning the Best Overall Player Development Program award for two-straight years (2005-06) and also receiving the Most Outstanding Internship Program Award in 2005. In 2007, the NFL once again honored Brigance's program, this time with the Outstanding Continuing Education Program Award. In 2008, the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation also saluted O.J. with its Johnny Unitas Tops in Courage Award for his strength in his battle against ALS. Brigance played seven years for three NFL teams (Miami, Baltimore and St. Louis) before joining the Ravens' front office in 2004.

2004-22: (with Baltimore) Supports director of player engagement Jameel McClain in assisting all Ravens players with each phase of their careers...Brigance has made significant contributions to the Ravens' player development program, including organizing a number of player internships in high school football programs, financial institutions and real estate groups...The life skills programs O.J. provided to the players have been highly effective...Brigance's wife, Chanda, has also been very active with the organization, having spent a number of years as the Lady Ravens group facilitator...She coordinated the involvement of the players' and coaches' spouses and significant others with team-related events, including the Ravens' Family Food Drive and other charity functions and team-building activities...After being diagnosed with ALS (2007), Brigance has chosen to make the most of the opportunity by raising money and awareness for the fight against the disease...He established his own foundation, the Brigance Brigade Foundation (brigancebrigade.org), whose mission is to equip, encourage and empower people living with ALS...O.J. was the honorary chair of the Johns Hopkins University Packard Center for ALS Research's annual Fiesta 5K run six times (2008-13), helping raise over $1 million in those six years...The Ravens organization supported O.J. each year, drawing the entire Ravens team in 2008 to run in the race...Brigance Brigade hosted the 10th annual 5.7K race in Baltimore in 2022 helping to support people living with ALS. 2013: Brigance published a book, Strength of a Champion, sharing his incredible story. 2008: Brigance earned an Emmy Award as the host of the team's weekly

TV show, Ravens Report. 2005: Lady Ravens participated in the team's Hurricane Katrina relief collection...Chanda has also organized seminars for the group on benefits, financial education and empowerment.

NFL/PRO PLAYER: 2001-02: (with St. Louis) Brigance retired from the NFL after a two-year stint with the Rams.

2000: (with Baltimore) Significant special teams contributor on the Ravens' first Super Bowl championship squad...Was second on team with 25 special teams tackles and led Ravens with 10 special teams stops in the postseason, including the very first special teams tackle in Super Bowl XXXV.

1996-99: (with Miami) Entered the NFL with the Miami Dolphins as a free agent...Was voted team captain twice in four seasons...His Dolphins teammates also selected him as the Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 1999...Brigance was involved in a number of different community organizations, including Habitat for Humanity, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and the Daily Food Bank. 1999: Honored with the NFLPA's Unsung Hero Award.

1994-95: (with Baltimore Stallions) Helped the CFL team earn a Grey Cup Championship in 1995.

1991-93: (with British Columbia Lions) Brigance's professional football career began in the CFL with the British Columbia Lions...Spent three seasons with the Lions (1991-93) and was named an All-Conference LB.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Graduated from Rice with a degree in managerial studies in 1992...Four-year letterman and three-year starter at LB...Brigance, who served on the board of directors for Aunt Hattie's Place, a home for young men, received the NFL's Winston/Shell Award in 2005, which is given annually to the player development director who demonstrates commitment and dedication in developing unique and innovative ideas and solutions to advance the NFL's player engagement mission...O.J. also served on the board of directors for Unified Community Connections.

MICHELLE ANDRES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF RAVENS MEDIA

COLLEGE: FURMAN
BORN: 1/21, MADISON, WI
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 17/17

MICHELLE ANDRES, who joined the Ravens in 2006, is in her 17th season with the team after being promoted to senior vice president of Ravens Media in 2015. She leads the franchise’s digital media, productions and business intelligence departments.

Andres is responsible for digital fan engagement, including social media, mobile, web, online sales, email, photography and television programming. She also oversees fan-centric digital technology like VR, AR, AI, CTV/OTT and more.

Lastly, Andres leads business intelligence initiatives, including fan demographics, business analytics and CRM.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Andres spent nine seasons with the NBA’s Orlando Magic – seven in public relations overseeing corporate communications and government relations and two leading the franchise’s newly-formed interactive marketing department.

Andres was a lecturer at Georgetown University’s Sports Industry Management Graduate Program for four years (2013-16), teaching sports digital media and enhanced consumer engagement.

A native of Gainesville, FL, Andres earned her master’s degree in political campaign management from the University of Florida and her bachelor’s degree in political science from Furman University.

BRAD DOWNS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

COLLEGE: ROBERT MORRIS
BORN: 2/22/77, WILLIAMSPORT, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 21/21

BRAD DOWNS, who is in his 21st season with the Ravens, was elevated to senior vice president of marketing in 2020. Downs leads the team’s advertising, branding, game entertainment, fan development, promotions and partnership activation efforts.

Under Downs’ guidance, the team’s youth initiatives were revamped, led by the creation of RISE, a first-of-its-kind youth football platform to encourage participation in the sport and engage with youth through high school football players. The organization is widely recognized as a leader in fan engagement, due in large part to the continued success of its Purple fan club for women.

The Ravens’ gameday experience has consistently ranked among the NFL’s best, with 2021’s overall game entertainment ranking landing at No. 2 in the league, according to the NFL’s annual Voice of the Fan Survey. Downs oversees the Ravens’ premier pre-game destination, RavensWalk, which has ranked No. 1 in the league for pre-game entertainment outside the stadium, as well as other categories that, in 2021, ranked in the Top 3: team/fan rituals (1), entertainment during breaks (3), pre-game on-field entertainment (3) and halftime entertainment (3).

Prior to joining the Ravens, Downs was a regional marketing manager with Adelpia Business Solutions, where a key part of his role was leading the naming rights partnership of Adelpia Coliseum when it was the name of the Tennessee Titans’ home stadium.

In 2016, Downs was named one of Baltimore Business Journal’s “40 Under 40” honorees, and in 2017, he was inducted into the Sport Management Hall of Fame at his alma mater, Robert Morris University.

Downs also serves on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc. and The Family Tree in Baltimore. He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Zachary (8) and Carter (6).

BRANDON ETHERIDGE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL COUNSEL

COLLEGE: YALE / HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 6/5/85, BALTIMORE, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 9/7

BRANDON ETHERIDGE is in his seventh season as the Ravens' general counsel, following a 2021 promotion to senior vice president. He is responsible for oversight of all legal, compliance and risk management matters for the Ravens. Etheridge also leads the organization's government affairs efforts and plays a significant role in the Ravens' social justice reform work, helping strengthen governmental, law enforcement and community relations. He is a member of the Maryland and D.C. Bar Associations.

In 2019, Etheridge advised on legal matters during the three-year, $120 million M&T Bank Stadium improvements project, also coordinating with the Department of Homeland Security to help the stadium secure SAFETY Act designation. In 2018, he was instrumental in the administration and initial distribution of funds for the Ravens' Social Justice Fund. Additionally, he has become heavily involved in the club's criminal justice and police reform advocacy efforts.

From 2014-16, Etheridge was part of the NFL Management Council, providing counsel to teams on matters like the Collective Bargaining Agreement, player contracts, discipline and healthcare. He also represented clubs in arbitration proceedings and advised on employment matters.

Prior to his time at the NFL, Etheridge worked from 2011-14 for the international law firm of Covington & Burling in Washington, D.C. He represented numerous clients in the sports industry, including the NFL.

Etheridge earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Yale University, where he was also a two-time letterman as an OLB/DE. He then attended Harvard Law School, where he earned a J.D. in 2011.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Maryland's Prince George's and Howard Counties, for much of his youth (grades 4-12), he attended the McDonogh School, which is located just a few miles from the Ravens' Owings Mills facility.

In 2014, Etheridge was named to Forbes' "30 Under 30" list as one of the "Sports World's Brightest Young Stars," and in 2018, he was honored as a member of the Baltimore Business Journal's "40 Under 40" class.

Etheridge serves on the Board of Trustees for the Baltimore Community Foundation and the McDonogh School. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he was selected by Maryland Attorney General Brian Frosh to serve on the Attorney General's COVID-19 Access to Justice Task Force.

COLLEGE: ROCKHURST (KANSAS CITY, MO)
BORN: 12/29/67, TULSA, OK
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 24/24

JEFF GOERING, who joined the club in 1999, oversees the Ravens' finance and information technology departments. He also works with the team's insurance and risk management matters. In terms of financial operations, Goering leads the strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting, tax and audit processes. He also serves as the primary financial liaison with the Maryland Stadium Authority, working with various stadium contractors and event promoters. In overseeing the I.T. department, he focuses on matters such as hardware/software applications and network security/infrastructure.

Prior to being named SVP of finance in 2015, Goering served as the Ravens' VP of finance/chief financial officer (2008-14). He was elevated to senior director of finance in 2004 after spending five years as the organization's controller.

Previously, as a PricewaterhouseCoopers senior consultant in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his Master of Science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who previously served on the board of the Ravens Foundation, earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (21) and Carly (19), and a son, Daniel (16).

BAKER KOPPELMAN

SENIOR VP OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: GUILFORD (GREENSBORO, NC)
BORN: 2/7/67, BALTIMORE, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/27

BAKER KOPPELMAN has been with the Ravens since their 1996 inception. He oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level concierge service, upper level programming and retail sales, and he assists with attracting events to M&T Bank Stadium. In relation to his roles, Koppelman contributes to internal committees tasked with reviewing and improving overall fan experience.

Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), where he graduated in 1990.

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens prior to their inaugural 1996 season.

Koppelman has helped M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens host a Metallica concert (May 2017), Beyonce's World

Formation Tour (June 2016), Billy Joel and One Direction concerts (both July 2015), Jay-Z and Beyonce's On the Run Tour (July 2014), and The Legends of The Summer Tour, featuring Justin Timberlake and Jay-Z (August 2013). Baltimore also hosted a U2 concert in June 2011, Monster Jam in June of 2011-13, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan (2009), Manchester City and Inter Milan (2010), Tottenham and Liverpool (2012), and Arsenal and Everton (2022), and the CONCACAF Gold Cup (2013 and 2015). M&T Bank Stadium has also hosted several premier college football games, including the annual Army-Navy showdown on four occasions (2000, 2007, 2014, 2016) and six NCAA Lacrosse Final Four tournaments (2003, 2004, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2014).

Koppelman is a graduate of St. Paul's School (Baltimore) and was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016 for his contributions as a team manager (football, wrestling and basketball) and a four-year member of the varsity baseball team. He is also a board member of the Baltimore chapter of the American Heart Association. Baker's wife, Reba, is the Ravens' senior director of finance.

ELIZABETH MEARMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

COLLEGE: MARYLAND, BALTIMORE COUNTY (UMBC)
BORN: 5/25, BALTIMORE, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 19/19

ELIZABETH MEARMAN joined the Ravens in 2004 and was promoted to senior vice president in 2020. Originally hired as the organization's first-ever director of human resources, Mearman designed, developed and implemented many of the HR practices currently in use for the team.

For the past 18 years, she has been responsible for hiring, onboarding, benefits administration, performance management, compensation management, employee relations, organizational development and employee engagement and satisfaction. Additionally, in 2020, she was asked to lead the team's internal DEIB efforts.

Mearman also serves on the Board of the Ravens Foundation, and since 2014, has been the lead contact with the Ravens' charitable partner, The One Love Foundation. She also serves on the Regional Advisory Board in Baltimore for One Love.

Additionally, Mearman partnered with several other NFL teams to implement the first-of-their-kind NFL human resources meetings. The event has become an annual gathering where HR leaders from nearly every team meet to discuss HR strategy, develop best practices and tackle issues that are unique to professional sports.

In 2019, Mearman and her team created/hosted the first-ever HBCU Career Combine, and in 2021, they took the Combine virtual when eight NFL teams participated to provide students from HBCU's a look into the world of working in sports.

Prior to the joining the Ravens, Mearman worked five years as an HR manager for the Allegis Group, a private staffing firm in Baltimore, MD. She holds her bachelor's degree in psychology from UMBC and her PHR.

Mearman lives in Millersville with her husband, Joe, their two children, Taylor (4) and Joseph (1), and their three rescue dogs, Sammi, Charlie and Frankie.

KEVIN ROCHLITZ

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF SALES OFFICER

COLLEGE: WYOMING
BORN: 1/5/71, CASPER, WY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 20/20

KEVIN ROCHLITZ joined the Ravens in 2003 and was named senior vice president/chief sales officer in 2019. He leads the Ravens’ corporate sales department, which includes national and regional partnerships, broadcasting contracts – including day-to-day operations with WBAL-TV, WBAL Radio and 98Rock – and M&T Bank Stadium suite sales.

Among the contracts completed by Rochlitz are partnerships with MedStar Health, Safeway, Visa, Coca-Cola, MillerCoors, Anheuser-Busch, Verizon, Southwest Airlines, Maryland Lottery and McCormick. At M&T Bank Stadium, he created and sold the Talon Pub, as well as the club level bars. He also led the recent negotiations with sports gaming partners Caesars/Horseshoe Casino, BetMGM and Draft Kings.

In 2022, Rochlitz led the sale of the Advance Business Systems Suite Level at M&T Bank Stadium, while in 2014, he guided a sales team that completed a 10-year, $60 million partnership extension with M&T Bank, including the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and several community-focused programs. In 2012, Rochlitz coordinated a partnership with Under Armour, which led to the team’s training facility being named the Under Armour Performance Center.

Rochlitz also spent five years as senior VP of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders. He coordinated the new stadium construction and sold naming rights for each venue (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, Ohio, and Dr Pepper Ballpark in Frisco, Texas). From 1996-97, he was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA Division I-A for the University of Miami.

Rochlitz serves on the Syracuse University Sports Management Advisory Board and on the Maryland SPCA Advisory Board. He is also a member of the Signal 13 Foundation with the Baltimore City Police Department.

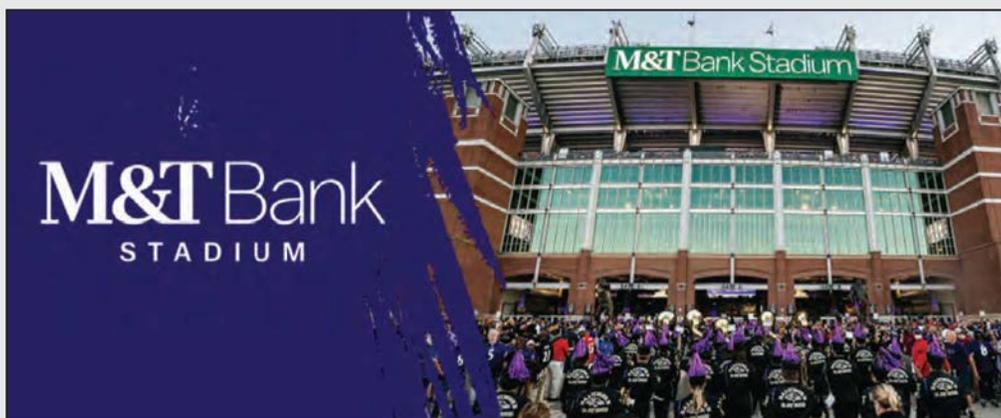

Named a Baltimore Smart CEO Executive of the Year in 2016, Rochlitz was also chosen to participate in the Leadership Baltimore County program from 2015-16. In 2011, he was selected by the U.S. Department of Defense and Secretary Robert Gates to join the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference to better understand and promote the U.S. military.

Rochlitz earned a degree in marketing from the University of Wyoming, where he sits on the Business Advisory Board. In May of 2021, he was named the Distinguished Alum for the university’s College of Business. Rochlitz and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter, Riley (19), who is in her sophomore year at Wyoming.

RAVENS AND M&T BANK PARTNERSHIP

On May 21, 2014, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

The partnership, which began as a 15-year agreement in 2003 and was extended through 2027, has proven to reach far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives. (For more information on the partnership, please see the “Gameday” section of the 2022 Baltimore Ravens Media Guide.)

M&T Bank’s Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local Baltimore-area teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities. Three finalists are chosen annually based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and their demonstrated commitment to education.

CHAD STEELE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

COLLEGE: WINTHROP
 BORN: 10/11/74, WEST POINT, NY
 EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 24/21

CHAD STEELE, who is in his 21st season with the Ravens, oversees the public and community relations departments. Steele is the organization's primary contact and spokesman for the team's communications efforts, and he directs strategic efforts promoting brand communication endeavors in coordination with football and business operations.

Steele and the Ravens' public relations department are three-time recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award (2010, 2012 & 2016), a prestigious annual honor that is voted on by the 300-member Pro Football Writers of America and given to the NFL P.R. staff that consistently strives for excellence in its dealings and relationships with the media. (The Ravens have also been finalists seven other times during Steele's tenure.)

Steele has been invited to assist the NFL's PR operations at six Super Bowls and currently serves as chairperson of the NFL's Football Publicity Committee. He was the first person ever chosen by the league office as a conference PR director for two-consecutive Pro Bowls in Honolulu, HI.

Originally a 1998 season-long intern with the Ravens, he rejoined the team in 2002 following three seasons with the San Francisco 49ers' media relations department. Steele also worked two training camp internships with the Carolina Panthers (1996-97).

Steele, who was selected to attend Stanford University's Executive Education Program for NFL Managers in 2005, was also asked by the NFL league office, along with veteran NFL players and team player development directors, to lead discussions on media professionalism with the 2007 NFL draft class. In May 2016, he was chosen by the University of Maryland to be the keynote speaker at its Communications School graduation.

Steele serves on the boards of the Irvine Nature Center, Sutton Scholars, Sacred Heart School Advancement Fund and the Stevenson University Brown School of Business and Leadership.

Steele, who is a 1997 graduate of Winthrop University (business administration), led the Eagles' basketball team as co-captain. He and his wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Dylan (12), and a son, Colton (8).

RICH TAMAYO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: STATE UNIVERSITY AT STONY BROOK
 BORN: 5/13/81, QUEENS, NY
 EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 7/7

RICH TAMAYO is in his seventh season with the Ravens after being promoted to senior vice president of stadium operations in 2022, following the retirement of longtime executive Roy Sommerhof. Originally hired as the Ravens' first-ever director of guest experience in 2016, Tamayo now oversees all aspects of M&T Bank Stadium, including gameday parking and transportation, security, guest services, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

While serving as the Ravens' director of guest experience, Tamayo was responsible for creating and developing standard-bearing initiatives that ensure the best experiences for fans on gameday.

Under Tamayo's leadership, the Ravens partnered with the Disney Institute to roll out the "Common Purpose and Quality Standards" program to over 2,500 gameday employees. He helped lead the hiring, onboarding and managing of both full-time and gameday team members, while also overseeing the service relationship of all operating partners at M&T Bank Stadium.

During his time in that role, Tamayo was responsible for the creation of the first comprehensive and all-inclusive employee Rewards/Recognition Program. He also created the "Welcome to the Flock" and "Season Kickoff" trainings to greet new and returning gameday team members each year. (Both programs are now considered NFL best practices.) Additionally, Tamayo is a valued contributor to the NFL's Guest Services and Security Committee.

Impressively, in 2019, Tamayo and his team were rated the NFL's No. 1 gameday staff by the league's annual Voice of the Fan survey.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Tamayo spent 14 years working for Disney, holding several positions that focused on maximizing guest experience initiatives.

A native of Queens, NY, Tamayo earned a B.A. in social science from State University at Stony Brook. He and his wife, Ashley, have one son (Zak) and three daughters (Madison, Reagan & McKinley).

DICK CASS

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 19/19

Following 18 years as the Ravens' team president, DICK CASS retired on April 1, 2022. Throughout his impressive career, Cass made an indelible impression while overseeing all business areas for the Ravens, including finances, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, communications and business ventures.

When Steve Bisciotti became the team's majority owner in 2004, his first hire was Cass as president. For the nearly two decades after, Cass provided a wealth of business knowledge, legal and negotiating expertise, philanthropic principles, and a calm and consistent leadership style.

Under his direction, Cass helped create the organizational culture for which the Ravens are known today. Most recently, he led the organization through challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic and worked at the forefront of the team's social justice reform efforts, engaging local and federal legislators to enact policy change. With roots deeply entrenched throughout the Baltimore community, Cass has overseen countless initiatives with the goal of creating better opportunities and circumstances for those most in need. An impactful presence on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., Cass has also served on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute and Baltimore Community Foundation.

Understanding the value of creating a world-class gameday experience for Ravens fans, Cass spearheaded multiple M&T Bank Stadium improvement/enhancement projects, reaching investment levels over $200 million. Through these efforts, the Ravens have consistently ranked among the NFL's best in gameday experience, as recognized by the annual Voice of the Fan survey. Cass also led the construction and subsequent expansion, at a total cost of more than $90 million, of the Ravens' Under Armour Performance Center, which continues as one of the NFL's best training facilities.

Since his 2004 Baltimore arrival, Cass has helped guide Ravens teams that have won five AFC North titles, clinched 10 postseason berths, appeared in three AFC Championship games and won one Super Bowl (XLVII in 2012). During his tenure, Baltimore has produced the NFL's fifth-best overall winning percentage (.586), including the league's third-best mark at home (.713).

Prior to joining the Ravens, Cass spent 31 years (1972-2003) as a partner at D.C.-based law firm Wilmer, Cutler and Pickering. He served as chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and was a member of its Management Committee. Some of his significant contributions to WC&P included: counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee (2003); counsel to the owner of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets during the team's relocation to New Orleans (2002); counsel to Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modell family (2000 and 2004); counsel to the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Washington Commanders to Daniel Snyder (1999); counsel to Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium (1980s); and advisor to the NFL in connection with the Collective Bargaining Agreement that brought free agency and a salary cap to the NFL (1992-93).

Born in Washington D.C., Cass graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968 before graduating from Yale Law School in 1971. He and his wife, Heather, have two children: a daughter, Courtney (Ryland Sumner), and son, Willy (Madelaine), and three grandchildren.

DICK CASS' LASTING IMPACT

Dick Cass (far right) watches practice with owner Steve Bisciotti (left) and EVP Ozzie Newsome (middle). For 18 years, Cass oversaw all business areas for the organization, including finances, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, communications and business ventures.

Throughout his time with the Ravens, Dick Cass led the organization's commitment to making a positive impact on the Baltimore community. Many of the Ravens' outreach initiatives, including multiple playground builds (above) for local children, were spearheaded by Cass.

After working for the Baltimore Orioles for four years in special event management, she joined the Ravens in 2011 to provide oversight of the team's philanthropic initiatives. In her role as vice president of community relations, Darney is responsible for developing, implementing and administering the team's overall strategic charitable outreach efforts. This includes orchestrating over 300 player appearances annually that include hospital and school visits, food, toy and book drives, and fitness, education and literacy events. Additionally, Darney continues to serve as the executive director of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., where she manages and directs all fundraising, grant programs and initiatives executed by the team's charitable arm. Through this dual role, Darney annually manages the distribution of millions of dollars in combined contributions to over 2,000 nonprofit organizations throughout the Baltimore area. In 2019, Darney was named one of Baltimore Business Journal's "40 Under 40" honorees. Darney and her husband, Ed, have two daughters, Ava (8) and Julia (5).

FRONT OFFICE EXECUTIVES

JOAN FENNEKOHL VICE PRESIDENT OF TEAM TRAVEL

COLLEGE: MILLERSVILLE

BORN: 5/4, COATESVILLE, PA

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 23/23

Joan (Sieracki) Fennekohl is in her 23rd season with the Ravens. She oversees all aspects of team travel, including contracting with hotels, charter aircrafts and buses. Additionally, Fennekohl is responsible for all logistical details related to team travel, including aircraft manifests, catering, hotel room assignments and itineraries. She also oversees the team's commercial travel, which includes events such as the NFL Combine, college pro days, the player offseason program and training camp. A two-time Super Bowl champion, Fennekohl was part of the Ravens' operations team during both their 2000 and 2012 championship victories. Prior to joining the Ravens, her extensive travel background includes work as a corporate travel agent as well as a customer service agent and supervisor for various airlines at BWI Airport. Fennekohl graduated from Millersville University with a bachelor's degree in communications. She resides in Baltimore with her husband, Eric.

SIMON GELAN VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: MORGAN STATE

BORN: 3/19/83, COLLEGE PARK, MD

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 13/1

Simon Gelan returned to the Baltimore Ravens for his second stint with the club after rejoining the team in July 2022. He is responsible for directing the day-to-day operations of the team, including at the Under Armour Performance Center, summer training camp and minicamps, team travel and catering for the players, coaches and staff. Gelan spent the last three years as the director of team logistics and business process liaison for the Chicago Bears, where his responsibilities included home game operations, team travel, budgeting and master planning. Gelan also spent nine years with the Cleveland Browns in numerous roles, most recently as the director of football operations. In his first stint with Baltimore, Gelan worked for one season in the operations department. Prior to that, he spent time with the Chicago Bears and San Francisco 49ers in their respective equipment departments. A native of College Park, MD, Gelan is a graduate of Morgan State University. He and his wife, Lywanda, have two daughters, Camille and Savannah.

PATRICK GLEASON VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

COLLEGE: COLORADO

BORN: 7/21/82, DENVER, CO

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 18/18

Patrick Gleason is in his 18th season with the Ravens, serving as the primary point of contact for player and assistant coach interview requests. He is responsible for the development and execution of all football publicity efforts, also working closely with the organization's digital media, broadcasting and marketing departments. Additionally, Gleason plays a significant role in organizational messaging and communication to Ravens stakeholders. He is part of a Ravens' staff that has earned three (2010, 2012 & 2016) Pete Rozelle Awards, an honor given by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL PR team that strives for excellence in its relationships with the media. (The Ravens have also been finalists six other times during his tenure.) Gleason has been invited by the NFL to help direct PR efforts for five Pro Bowls. He originally joined the franchise as an intern in 2005 after graduating from the University of Colorado, where he spent four years working in the sports information office. Gleason currently sits on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc. He and his wife, Erin, have a son, Jackson (4).

FRONT OFFICE EXECUTIVES

KATE KASABULA VICE PRESIDENT OF CLIENT SERVICES

COLLEGE: DUKE

BORN: 3/12, BALTIMORE, MD

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 20/20

Kate (Kaiser) Kasabula is in her 20th season with the Ravens. She oversees a team that ensures the execution and fulfillment of all corporate partnerships, totaling over 150 contracts. Kasabula and her team serve as liaisons between partners and internal departments to fulfill assets such as media, hospitality, signage and promotions. During her time with the Ravens, Kasabula has served in various roles within the corporate sales department, both in sales service and as an account executive, and she was a staff member during the Ravens' 2012 Super Bowl season. Prior to the Ravens, she attended Duke University, where she played on the women's lacrosse team. At Duke, Kasabula was a four-time All-American, a Tewaaron Trophy finalist, given annually to the most outstanding college lacrosse player, and an ACC 50th Anniversary Team selection. Additionally, she earned a silver medal with the United States Women's World Cup Lacrosse Team in 2005. Prior to her collegiate endeavors, Kasabula attended Notre Dame Prep in Towson, MD, and was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010. She was also honored by the US Lacrosse Baltimore Chapter and was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2014. Kasabula and her husband, Brian, have two children, Connor (9) and Caroline (7).

ASHEESH KINRA VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

EDUCATION: CTREC

BORN: 10/16/78, BANGALORE, INDIA

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 17/2

Asheesh Kinra is in his second season with the Ravens after joining the team in June 2021. Prior to moving to Baltimore, he served for 12 years as the vice president of information technology for the Washington Commanders. In that role, he worked with both the Commanders' business and football departments helping to ensure their IT systems were efficient and productive. He also led the rebrand process to acquire the domain and update all technology to the new brand name for the then-Washington Football Team. Kinra also managed IT for team owner Daniel Snyder's ancillary businesses. In addition to his time with Washington, he has worked in law firms, software security companies, an IT consultant company assisting biotechnology, real estate and financial firms. In June 2022, Kinra attended Stanford University's "NFL League of Leaders," an executive education program that brings together 40 leaders from both the clubs and the league office to accelerate the leadership development of the NFL's senior-level talent at Stanford Graduate School of Business. He currently lives in downtown Baltimore.

JAY O'BRIEN VICE PRESIDENT OF BROADCASTING & GAMEDAY PRODUCTIONS

COLLEGE: LOYOLA (BALTIMORE)

BORN: 2/11/83, HELMETTA, NJ

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 19/19

Jay O'Brien leads Ravens Productions, an award-winning team responsible for all brand video, including social and digital video content, in-stadium game presentation, television shows and preseason game broadcasts. He also serves as executive producer of the Ravens' gameday production, which was recognized by the NFL's 2021 Voice of the Fan survey as the league's top video board content and No. 2 in game entertainment. O'Brien was the Ravens' lead to debut the team's Mixed Reality Raven in partnership with The Famous Group in 2019 and received the 2020 Sports Business Award for Best in Sports Technology. He also played lead roles in the Ravens' pioneering partnerships with Skycam and Intel True View to enhance the team's fan experience. More recently, O'Brien and Ravens Productions received the team's first-ever national Sports Emmys Award for Outstanding Long Feature for their NFL Network co-production of "The Gift of Gaba." O'Brien has earned 21 regional Emmy Awards, and in 2017, the Baltimore Business Journal named him to its "40 Under 40" list. He serves on the board of the Ravens Foundation, earned an undergraduate degree in journalism from Loyola College and a master's in business administration from Towson and the University of Baltimore. O'Brien and his wife, Alex, have a daughter, Siena (7), and a son, Shea (5).

FRONT OFFICE EXECUTIVES

CRAIG SINGLETERRY VICE PRESIDENT OF SECURITY

COLLEGE: CCBC ESSEX

BORN: 12/13/63, BALTIMORE, MD

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 17/17

Craig Singleterry oversees all security-related matters for the organization, including ownership, players, coaches and staff. He is responsible for security measures taken at the team hotels, serves as a personal security escort, directs security at the team's training facility and provides personal safety/security outside of work-related functions. Singleterry also provides education on the NFL's personal conduct policy, as well as training and best practices related to state, traffic and weapons laws. Prior to joining the Ravens, Singleterry spent 21 years with the Baltimore City Police Department, with his first five years in patrol before serving five years with the northeast district drug and vice unit. In his final 11 years with the BPD, Singleterry worked with the Police Athletic League, or "PAL," where he oversaw three centers that each supported over 200 Baltimore City youth ranging in ages from six to 16. The PAL centers offer after school and summer drop-in programs that place an emphasis on sports, community and education services and mentorship. Born and raised in Baltimore, Singleterry grew up in East Baltimore and attended Eastern High School. Devoted to his work in the community, he has hosted a coat drive at Baltimore's Helping Up Mission for the last 12 years around Thanksgiving. Singleterry and his wife, Sandy, have been married for 35 years. The couple has two children: a son, Craig Jr. (35), and a daughter, Ashley (31).

CODY WILLIAMS VICE PRESIDENT OF STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

COLLEGE: DELAWARE

BORN: 3/21/87, GLEN COVE, NY

EXP. [NFL/RAVENS]: 11/11

Cody Williams is in his 11th season with the Ravens and leads a business intelligence team that is responsible for data analytics, insights and strategy for all business functions of the organization. In working closely with internal stakeholders, Williams helps identify and implement data-driven strategies that help achieve business goals. He originally joined the Ravens as a digital media intern in 2012 and is proud to have been a member of the organization during its Super Bowl XLVII championship run. Williams and his wife, Aubrey, have two sons, Connor (4) and Keegan (2), and will welcome a third baby boy in 2022.

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

UNDER ARMOUR
PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Ravens moved into their Owings Mills, MD, training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 83,962 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres. Almost all of the project's physical construction was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

When the 2016 season concluded, the Ravens launched a $45 million project to upgrade and expand the Under Armour Performance Center. The massive construction undertaking was fully completed in the summer of 2018.

Over an 18-month project, the Ravens demolished the facility's original one-story north wing, which housed much of the organization's business operations. A new two-story wing was constructed, increasing the area from 9,095 square feet to 23,000 square feet. That expansion created more space for the business side while also providing additional room to enhance the football team's facilities, including the players' locker room, team auditorium, position meeting rooms, scouting/coaching offices and cafeteria.

The Ravens have held training camp at their facility since 2011, and part of the recent renovation project included purchasing more land that surrounds the UAPC. The added space is used for parking and allows the organization to safely host nearly 2,000 fans per day during training camp. In all, there are 775 parking spaces at the facility (525 paved and 250 grass spots).

The Under Armour Performance Center's total building measures 232,864 sq. feet.

The Under Armour Performance Center's practice fields and new north wing.

In the spring of 2018, the Ravens renovated player meeting rooms and the team's locker room (new version shown above) as part of the facility's recent overall expansion.

The Under Armour Performance Center's new north wing (middle right) achieved the prestigious LEED Gold level certification, further recognizing the Ravens' commitment/dedication to sustainability and environmental stewardship.

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The facility includes an updated full-service kitchen/cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer high-speed Internet capability.

“Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us. Steve [Bisciotti] delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex.”
– Ravens Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome

The Ravens' have a world-class weight room and conditioning and recovery center, providing players everything they need to train at peak performance.

The Ravens have three Bermuda grass fields on the grounds of their training complex at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills.

The Under Armour Performance Center houses a state-of-the-art production studio the team utilizes for in-house digital and TV broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field made of Shaw Sports Turf that the team uses for offseason training purposes or when the weather becomes inclement.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS FOUNDATION

Weekend Backpacks founder, Sandie Nagel, recognized as a 2021 Community Quarterback honoree

2021 Ravens Scholars

The Ravens Foundation, Inc. is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth and their families with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

Charitable Partners – The Ravens Foundation recognizes and gives financial and volunteer support to several Baltimore-area charitable partners, including Leveling the Playing Field, Next One Up and Reading Partners.

Ravens Youth Football Grant – Alongside Under Armour, the Ravens Foundation provides grants for new football equipment and apparel for football teams in Maryland. Packages include jerseys, cleats, field equipment or heat and hydration support for all teams within the program. Since its launch eleven years ago, the grant has awarded apparel to over 6,000 area children.

Ravens PLAY 60 Grant – Now in its 16th year, the Ravens' PLAY 60 Grant has supported over 250 programs and more than 40,000 youth with over $1.5 million in funding to encourage physical fitness and nutrition education among youth.

Ravens Scholars – For 13 consecutive years, the Ravens have recognized at least five outstanding high school seniors by awarding a $5,000 renewable scholarship ($20,000 over four years) to support each scholar's respective college education. Since 2010, the team has committed over $1.2 million in scholarship funding.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

In 2021, the Ravens supported a number of local causes and organizations through financial and in-kind donations, including:

$7.06 MILLION CONTRIBUTED to Social Justice efforts (since 2016)

$4.2 MILLION COMMITTED by the Ravens in support of domestic violence and sexual assault awareness (since 2014)

2.1 MILLION+ MEALS DONATED by players and coaches (2021)

$1.5 MILLION DONATED to local nonprofits through the PLAY 60 Grant (since 2007)

$550,000+ BOOKS DISTRIBUTED to children through the Ravens' Book Mobile program (2021)

$425,000+ RAISED for the Maryland Food Bank through the annual Food and Funds Drive (2021)

12,000 TICKETS DONATED to local nonprofits, first responders and active / retired military (2021)

PARTNER SUPPORT

In 2021, the Baltimore Ravens worked alongside 22 different sponsors to plan 71 unique activations impacting and support the extended Baltimore community. The Ravens work closely with partners to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, player foundations and associated local charitable organizations. Through a wide variety of activities and events, the Ravens and various partners make a positive impact in the Maryland area while strengthening ties between the Ravens, their partners and the community.

2022 SIGNATURE PROJECT

On June 6, the Baltimore Ravens hosted their annual organization-wide volunteer day to establish new educational spaces at Baltimore City's Franklin Square Elementary/Middle School.

Nearly 200 volunteers, including 52 players and the entire 2022 rookie class, joined representatives from Heart of America as they flocked together to create educational spaces that are safe, innovative and vibrant learning environments.

2022 Rookie Class

Throughout the day, volunteers planted 30 trees, constructed an outdoor classroom, renovated the computer room with new mobile furniture and painted the hallways, while also adding graphics and murals throughout the school. Lastly, influenced by the needs outlined by Baltimore County Public Schools, volunteers assembled education packs, including age-appropriate books, school and art supplies, STEM activity kits and personal protective equipment.

2021 SIGNATURE PROJECT

Fully funded by the Ravens Foundation, Inc., the Ravens continued the long-standing commitment to making a difference in the Baltimore community through their annual signature project.

For its 2021 signature project, the Ravens Foundation partnered with Heart of America to transform new spaces for Baltimore City students at Edgcombe Circle and Curtis Bay elementary schools. Approximately 100 volunteers made up of Ravens executives and staff members took part in the restoration events.

The group was divided between the two schools and tasked with building a new outdoor classroom at Edgcombe Circle – providing a COVID-friendly way for classes to be held outdoors – and peace and meditation rooms at both schools to support students' mental health and wellness.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

In association with the NFL's Salute to Service Campaign, the Ravens honor veterans and active duty members of the military all year in many ways, including hosting military members at training camp and practices, visiting veteran hospitals, hosting families from Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) at the Under Armour Performance Center (right), and showing support through care packages, letters and daily communication. At each home game, the Ravens honor groups that include military representatives, first responders, veterans and/or wounded warriors through the CSX Seats for Service program. Additionally, the team honors active and veteran service members with the Cigna Hometown Hero Award during an in-game presentation.

FEMALE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The Ravens annually host their L.I.F.T. (Leading and Inspiring Females to Thrive) Conference, a leadership seminar for female student-athletes from local high schools. Freshmen, sophomores and juniors are invited to participate in a day of leadership workshops, guest speakers and a team-building workout at the Ravens Under Armour Performance Center. Student-athletes who serve as both an "untitled leader" and "unsung hero" for their sports programs can apply through the team's website to be considered for the event. The program is designed to empower the next generation of female student-athletes and develop their leadership skills both on and off the field. In 2022, students heard from head coach John Harbaugh and Olympic gold medalist Helen Maroulis.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Ravens RISE is the team's football outreach program that provides all youth and high school athletes opportunities to "Play Like A Raven." The program offers football clinics and 7-on-7 tournaments throughout the state, Ravens home game ticket donations, monetary donations to area football programs, opportunities to play at M&T Bank Stadium and recognitions including High School Coach of the Week and Year as well as Team Mom of the Year. To date, there are over 500 youth football programs involved with Ravens RISE throughout the state of Maryland. Interested players, coaches and parents are encouraged to register at www.baltimoreravens.com/rise and become part of the Ravens RISE youth football movement.

PLAY 60

Each year, the Ravens continue their commitment prioritizing and promoting healthy nutrition and active lifestyles among today's youth through the NFL PLAY 60 Campaign. The team delivered virtual and in-person programming through instructional fitness activities and insight. Traditionally, through special partnerships with the American Dairy Association North East, Carroll County Project ACES (Active Children Excel in School) and Baltimore and Howard County Public School Systems, the team delivered the PLAY 60 message to more than 199,000 local youth across the Baltimore metro area. Nick Boyle (right) joined fellow teammates to run drills with 50 Special Olympics athletes through the annual PLAY 60 All-Abilities clinic.

BALTIMORE RAVENS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Baltimore Ravens and T. Rowe Price partnered once again to facilitate the High School Leadership Institute. In its third year, the program continued its mission to develop and empower high school students to become collaborative leaders and productive members of their communities. The institute works with ADDO, a leadership organization, to encourage students to learn valuable leadership lessons, introduce them to local industry leaders, expose them to leadership insights and equip them with tools needed to make an impactful difference in their communities. The 2021 programming included 100 students from Baltimore County, Baltimore City and other select Baltimore-area high schools as they participated in a detailed leadership experience.

PURPLE

Purple, presented by Safeway, is a celebration of our female fans in the Ravens Flock! Purple serves as an exclusive space for all female fans to connect over their love of the Ravens. Designed with you in mind, Purple provides a forum to stay involved with the team and each other through updates, events, special offers, and more! Each year, members of Purple participate in the annual A Purple Evening. The cornerstone event which traditionally draws 5,000 female fans to M&T Bank Stadium features on-field activities, fan forums, player Q&A stage programming, autographs, photo opportunities and exclusive stadium access. In 2019, Purple Rising was established as a program designed to celebrate female athletes in conjunction with the Ravens RISE program to share their success in the classroom, community and on the playing field.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

Since 2016, the Ravens have donated over $7.06 million to local organizations promoting social justice while encouraging players to be at the forefront of change. In the summer of 2021, the Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation honored Ozzie Newsome by donating $4 Million to Maryland's four Historically Black Colleges and Universities to fund scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates. A gift of $1 million was presented to each of Maryland's four HBCUs: Bowie State University, Coppin State University, Morgan State University and the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. In September (2021), Calais Campbell joined Al Roker of NBC's The Today Show to announce the donation of 3,000 laptops and 12 months of free Internet services to the students of Digital Harbor High School in Baltimore and surrounding communities.

Steve Bisciotti & Ozzie Newsome

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Thanks to Ravens players, thousands of families annually receive support, including food and presents, during the holidays. The 2021 food distributions and meal services featured the support of more than 26 players, including Tyus Bowser, Daelin Hayes, Marlon Humphrey, Odafe Oweh, Marcus Peters, James Proche, Ronnie Stanley, Justin Tucker (right) and Ar'Darius Washington. In December, in lieu of the team's 16th Annual Holiday Helpers event, Calais Campbell treated students from Bridges Baltimore to a holiday gift distribution alongside fellow teammates. Students were provided with gifts for themselves and to share with family, in addition to group activities and a pizza party provided by Papa Johns. In addition, 12 players led their own/participated in shopping sprees for local underserved youth.

— CAREER HIGHLIGHTS —

- Baltimore is 37-12 in the regular season with Jackson as its starter...Since his first NFL start (Week 11 of 2018), his 37 wins are tied (with Josh Allen) for fourth most among QBs, trailing only Aaron Rodgers (41), Patrick Mahomes (40) and Tom Brady (40)
- Ranks seventh all time in rushing yards (3,673) among NFL QBs
- His 10 career performances with 100+ rushing yards are tied (with Michael Vick) for the most by a QB in NFL history
- Jackson has 16 career games with 2-plus passing TDs & 50-plus rushing yards, joining Josh Allen, Russell Wilson, Steve Young, Michael Vick, Randall Cunningham and Cam Newton as the only players with 10-plus such games since 1950...Jackson's 16 games of 2-plus passing TDs and 50-plus rushing yards are the most all time in a QB's first four seasons
- Surpassed Hall of Famer Dan Marino on 10/17/21 vs. LAC by becoming the first QB in league history to reach 35 career victories before the age of 25

- Joined Cam Newton (first five seasons) as the only quarterbacks in history with at least 500 rushing yards in each of their first four seasons
- Is the only QB in NFL history with multiple 3+ passing TD and 100+ rushing yard performances (11/7/21 vs. Min. & 12/22/19 at Cle.)
- In 2021, eclipsed 3,000 rushing yards in his 48th-career game, becoming the fastest QB in NFL history to reach that mark (Mike Vick – 61 games)
- In 12 starts in 2021, completed 246-of-382 passes for 2,882 yards, 16 TDs and 13 INTs (87.0 rating), while adding team-high 767 yards and 2 TDs...Earning his second career Pro Bowl nod, he recorded at least 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards in seven games, tying Randall Cunningham (1990) and Jackson's 2019 campaign for the most such performances in single-season NFL history...Was instrumental in helping Baltimore produce the NFL's sixth-ranked offense (378.8 ypg) and third-best rushing attack (145.8 ypg)
- On 10/11/21 vs. Ind., Jackson threw for a career-high (and single-game franchise record) 442 yards, surpassing his previous mark of 324 at Miami in 2019...Jackson passed for 4 TDs and 0 INTs, completing 86% of his passes (37-of-43)...He became the first player in NFL history to pass for 400 yards while also completing at least 85% of his passes, and his 86% completion rate was the highest of any player in NFL history with at least 40 attempts
- Started in 15 games in 2020, completing 242-of-376 passes for 2,757 yards and 26 TDs, while adding a team-high 1,005 rushing yards to become the first QB in NFL history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons
- In 2020, Jackson led a Baltimore offense that produced the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack (191.9 ypg), which posted the third-most yards (3,071) ever in a 16-game NFL season...Baltimore also owned the seventh-best scoring offense (29.3 ppg) and fourth-best third-down offense (48.8%)
- In 2020, tied Dan Marino for the best record through a QB's first 30 starts (25-5) in NFL history...Also became the fastest QB to produce 30 regular season wins in NFL history, doing so in just his 37th start
- Completed 17-of-24 passes for 179 yards, while adding a team-high 136 of Baltimore's postseason franchise-best 236 rushing yards in the 20-13 Wild Card Playoff win at Ten. (1/10/21)...His 136 rushing yards were the third most by a QB in NFL postseason history, and he joined QB Colin Kaepernick as the only QBs in NFL playoff history with multiple 100-yard rushing outputs

8 LAMAR JACKSON

- The Ravens tallied a franchise-record 24 rushing TDs, including 7 by Jackson, in 2020
- In 2020, Jackson led Baltimore to five-straight victories to close out the regular season, guiding the team to its third-consecutive playoff berth
- Named the 2019 NFL MVP, earning all 50 first-place votes to make him only the second unanimous MVP in NFL history (Tom Brady, 2010)...Became the youngest QB to ever win MVP, at 22 years and 358 days old (on Dec. 31, 2019)
- In 2020, Jackson rushed for 1,005 yards, becoming the first QB in NFL history with multiple 1,000-rush yard seasons

— NOTE THE QUOTE —

"You watch Jordan, and he reminds you a lot of Sam [Koch] coming out of college. The leg strength is a part of it. A lot of guys have big legs, but they don't have all the other pieces. So, you look at it in terms of the footwork, the technique, they get the ball out quick, the hands, the efficiency, where the drop goes, the ability to control the punt, right, left and the depth of it. Those are all things that we looked at with Jordan, and it reminds you a lot of Sam."

— Head Coach John Harbaugh

2021: (PENN STATE – 12/0)

- Served as Penn State's primary kicker, punter and kickoff specialist, averaging 46.0 yards on 63 punts, including a career-best 76-yarder... Also connected on 16-of-23 FGAs after being selected as a team captain for the second-straight season

— NOTE THE QUOTE —

"This is a very intriguing player. I remember watching him on tape early on. It was just like, 'Man, this guy is making plays all the time.' He lines up as a receiver; he's catching the ball as a wide receiver. He lines up at tight end. They motion him. They run him in boots – in the drag boots and things – and he's just really electric. He runs downfield. Sometimes he blocks people and knocks them off their feet downfield. He's just an interesting guy, but when you watch him, it's not like an obvious position fit; he's just a playmaker-type guy."

— Head Coach John Harbaugh

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- WR Marquise Brown recorded 6 receptions for 69 yards and 1 TD, adding 1 carry for 5 yards. With his 10-yard TD reception, Brown has 7 TD grabs in his last seven contests (since Week 12, 2020), marking the second-most TD receptions in the NFL over that span (Davante Adams – 8).
- QB Lamar Jackson finished 19-of-30 for 235 passing yards and 1 TD, adding 12 rushes for 86 yards. With 235 passing yards, Jackson (7,320) passed Vinny Testaverde (7,148) for the third-most career passing yards in franchise history.
- In his Ravens' debut, RB Latavius Murray posted 10 carries for 28 yards, including an 8-yard TD run late in the fourth quarter. The score was set up by a 49-yard reception by WR Sammy Watkins, who finished his Ravens' debut with 4 receptions for a team-high 96 yards.
- LB Patrick Queen helped guide Baltimore's defense with a team-high (tied, CB Marlon Humphrey) 9 tackles (6 solo) and 1 sack.
- With CB Anthony Averett's overtime INT, the first of his career, Baltimore has forced a turnover in 28 of its last 30 games. It marked the NFL's second goal-line INT in the overtime period since 2001 (when data became available).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Under John Harbaugh (since 2008), Baltimore owns a 16-2 record in home primetime games, ranking as the NFL's best winning percentage (.889). The Ravens have won 14 of their last 15 home primetime games, including four straight on Sunday Night Football.
- Baltimore has rushed for 100+ yards in 41 straight games, marking the second-longest streak in pro football history. Also, since QB Lamar Jackson became Baltimore's starter, the Ravens have rushed for at least 200 yards in an NFL-high 21 games.
- With his 107 rushing yards on 16 carries (6.7 avg.), Jackson eclipsed 3,000 rushing yards in his 48th-career game, becoming the fastest QB in NFL history to reach that mark (Mike Vick – 61 games).
- WR Marquise Brown posted a game-high 113 receiving yards and 1 TD on 6 catches, marking the third 100-yard game of his career (and his fifth including postseason).
- OLB Odafe Oweh forced his first-career fumble – also making his first-career fumble recovery on the play – to halt the Chiefs' potential game-winning drive with 1:26 remaining.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- K Justin Tucker's 66-yard game-winning field goal is the longest field goal made in NFL history, surpassing K Matt Prater's previous NFL record of 64 yards in 2013. Tucker's previous career long, a 61-yarder, was also a game-winner in an 18-16 contest at Detroit (12/16/13).
- This marks Tucker's seventh-career game with multiple 50-plus-yard conversions, tying K Brandon McManus and K Matt Prater for the most in NFL history.
- QB Lamar Jackson has recorded either a rushing or passing TD in 39 consecutive games played, marking the longest active streak by a QB.
- With a 31-yard rush this afternoon, his longest since Week 14 of 2020, Jackson now has 19 career rushes of 25-plus yards and surpassed QB Mike Vick (18) for the most such rushes by a QB in his first four seasons in NFL history.
- The Ravens have won 11 straight games against NFC opponents, dating back to Week 13 of 2018 at Atlanta. This ranks as the NFL's longest-active streak in games played against the NFC.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens improved to 3-1 for the ninth time under head coach John Harbaugh (since 2008). The nine occasions mark the most 3-1 or better starts by an NFL team through the first four games of a season during that 14-year span (2008-21).
- With 3 FGs, K Justin Tucker reached 300 FGM in his 148th-career game, becoming the fastest kicker in NFL history to reach that mark.
- QB Lamar Jackson threw for 316 yards, marking his second-career 300-yard output and the second-most passing yards in his career (324 yards at Miami; 9/8/19). With 8,162 career passing yards, Jackson surpassed QB Kyle Bolter (7,846) for the second-most passing yards in franchise history.
- Jackson is the first QB in NFL history to notch at least 1,000 passing yards (1,077) and 250 rushing yards (279) through a team's first four games of a season.
- CB Anthony Averett sealed the victory with a fourth-quarter interception in the end zone. It marked his career-high second INT of the season, adding 3 solo tackles.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Lamar Jackson threw for a career-high (and single-game Ravens record) 442 yards, surpassing his previous mark of 324 at Mia. (2019). Jackson passed for 4 TDs and 0 INTs, completing 86% (37-of-43). According to ESPN Stats & Information, Jackson became the first player in NFL history to pass for 400 yards while also completing at least 85% of his passes.
- TE Mark Andrews set career highs in receptions (11) and receiving yards (147), also tying a career high with 2 TD catches and setting a personal best with two 2-point catches. Andrews became the first NFL player since 1970 merger to have 2 receiving TDs and two 2-point conversions in a game.
- OLB Odafu Oweh tallied 3 tackles, 1 sack and 1 FF to become first Ravens rookie to notch 3 sacks and 2 FFs through his first five career games. Oweh also joins T.J. Watt and Chandler Jones as the NFL's only defenders in 2021 with at least 3 sacks, 2 FFs and 1 FR.
- DE Calais Campbell's fourth-quarter blocked FG was the 8th blocked kick of his career, which tied Craig Terrill for the third most since 1970 NFL merger. Only Shaun Rogers (14) & Julius Peppers (12) have produced more blocks.
- Under John Harbaugh (since 2008), Baltimore owns a 17-2 record in home primetime games, ranking as the NFL's best winning percentage (.895). At home on Monday Night Football during this span, Baltimore is 3-1.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens improved to 5-1 for the second-straight season and for the fourth time in franchise history (also 2000 & 2012).
- The Ravens' defense limited Los Angeles to a season-low 208 yards of offense, including just 26 rushing. The 26 rushing yards are the fewest allowed by Baltimore since 11/25/19 at the Rams, and it ties (2006 at TB) for the 10th fewest allowed in a game in Ravens franchise history.
- QB Lamar Jackson surpassed Hall of Famer Dan Marino by becoming the youngest QB in league history to reach 35 career victories. Jackson, who turns 25 in January, is 35-8 as a starter, producing the NFL's most wins by a QB since he became a starter in Week 11 of 2018.
- Three different RBs (Le'Veon Bell, Devonta Freeman & Latavius Murray) each scored a rushing TD, marking the second such instance in a Ravens' game since 2018 (Javorius Allen, Alex Collins & Kenneth Dixon) and the third in team history (Le'Ron McClain, Willis McGahee & Ray Rice – 2009).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Lamar Jackson rushed for a game-high 88 yards on 12 carries (7.3 avg.), marking his 21st game with at least 75 yards rushing. The 21 such games tie Michael Vick for the most by a QB in NFL history. Jackson has now recorded 14 straight games with a passing TD, ranking as second-longest streak ever by a Ravens' QB. (Jackson holds the team record of throwing at least 1 TD in 15 straight games, from 2019-20.)
- WR Marquise Brown posted 5 catches for 80 yards and 1 TD, including a spectacular 39-yard score on the Ravens' opening series of the second half. Brown notched his sixth TD reception, tying him with WR Michael Jackson (1996) for the most by a Raven through seven games in a season.
- CB Marlon Humphrey tallied a team-high 7 tackles (tied, CB Anthony Averett). Humphrey also recorded his first INT and FF of the season. It marks the first time in his career that he's had an INT and FF in the same game. Humphrey has posted 9 FFs since 2020, which rank No. 1 in the NFL.
- OLB Justin Houston finished with a game-high 4 QB hits, adding 2 total tackles. The 4 QB hits are the most he's had in a game since 2019 when playing for Indianapolis (also 4 vs. Houston). It marked the seventh time in Houston's career that he's tallied at least 4 QB hits in a game.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens improved to 6-2 for the seventh time in team history (also 2006, 2010-12, 2019-20) and for the third-consecutive season. (Baltimore is 6-2 for the sixth time under head coach John Harbaugh.)
- The Ravens won their 12th-straight game against an NFC opponent, dating back to 2018 at Atlanta.
- The 36-yard FG in overtime marked K Justin Tucker's 18th-career game-winning boot (including playoffs). Tucker has connected on 53 consecutive fourth-quarter/OT FGAs.
- QB Lamar Jackson became the first QB in NFL history to record multiple career games with at least 3 TD passes and 100 rushing yards, also doing so in 2019 vs. Cle. He also produced his 22nd-career game with at least 75 rushing yards, setting a new NFL record (was previously tied with Michael Vick). It was also Jackson's 10th regular season game with 100+ yards rushing, tying Vick for the most in NFL history.
- WR Marquise Brown produced a game-high 9 receptions for 116 yards, marking his third 100-yard game in 2021 and the fifth of his career.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- OLB Justin Houston recorded his 100th-career sack, becoming the 37th player in league history to reach the coveted century mark. Since entering the league in 2011, Houston's 100.5 sacks are the league's fourth most, trailing only Von Miller (110.5), Chandler Jones (103) and J.J. Watt (102).
- TE Mark Andrews recorded 6 catches for 63 yards and 1 TD, giving him 204 career receptions. Andrews reached the 200-reception milestone in his 54th-career game, becoming the second-fastest Raven to secure 200 career receptions (Ray Rice; 51 games).
- OLB Odafe Oweh recorded 4 tackles (3 solo), 2 TFL and 1 sack, marking his fourth sack of the season. The 4 sacks are the third most by a rookie this season (Azeem Ojulari – 5.5 & Micah Parsons – 5) and the most by a rookie Raven since OLB Matthew Judon (4 in 2016).
- Through his first four career games, WR Rashod Bateman has recorded 18 receptions, 15 of which have converted for a first down. The 15 first down receptions are the most by a Ravens' rookie through his first four career games in franchise history, while his 18 receptions tie (Marquise Brown, 2019) for the most by a Ravens' rookie through the first four games of a career.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore has won 13 straight games vs. NFC opponents, dating back to Week 13 of 2018 at Atlanta. This ranks as the NFL's longest active interconference winning streak and ties (Miami and New Orleans) for the second-longest such streak since the 1970 merger (New England — 17 wins from 2005-09).
- The Ravens have won a league-high five games in 2021 in which they've faced a fourth-quarter deficit, marking the most such victories in Ravens' single-season history. Via Elias Sports, Baltimore became the fourth team in the last 40 seasons to record five or more fourth-quarter comeback wins in their first 10 games (1982 Raiders, 2009 Colts and 2016 Lions).
- QB Tyler Huntley made his first-career NFL start, leading the Ravens to a dramatic fourth-quarter game-winning drive. Huntley joined Chase Daniel (2013) and Robert Griffin III (2012) as the only QBs in NFL history to eclipse 200 passing yards and 40 rushing yards, while completing at least 70% of their passes, in their first NFL start.
- OLB Tyus Bowser recorded 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks (-18 yards), including a game-sealing takedown of QB Andy Dalton as time expired, and 1 FF in the victory. It marked the first game of his career in which he notched multiple sacks and a FF, and he became the first Raven in 2021 to achieve the feat. (It was his third-career multi-sack performance.)

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Under head coach John Harbaugh (since 2008), the Ravens have produced an 18-2 record at home in primetime games. This .900 winning percentage is the NFL's best home mark in primetime during this span.
- Baltimore held the Browns – who entered the game with the NFL's No. 1 rushing offense (156.8 ypg) – to a season-low 40 yards.
- LB Patrick Queen registered a team-high (tied, CB Marlon Humphrey) 8 total tackles (all solo), including 2 TFL, and 1 FR.
- K Justin Tucker made 3 FGs, hitting from 52, 25 and 49 yards. With the 52-yarder in the first quarter, Tucker has now made 46 FGs from 50-plus yards since entering the league in 2012, ranking as the NFL's second most (Matt Prater – 51). Tucker's 46 makes from 50-plus yards are also the most by a kicker in the first 10 seasons of a career in NFL history.
- OLB Odafe Oweh became the NFL's only rookie in 2021 to post a sack, FF and FR in the same game. (He had 4 tackles, 1 sack, 1 FF and 1 FR in the game.)
- OLB Tyus Bowser tallied 4 total tackles, 1 sack, a game-high 3 QB hits and 1 PD. He has 5.5 sacks on the season, marking a new career high. (Previous best was 5 sacks in 2019.)

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- In the Ravens/Steelers rivalry, 21 of the last 27 matchups (since 2008) have been decided by one score. Of those, 15 have been decided by 3 points or fewer.
- In the second quarter, RB Devonta Freeman capped a 16-play, 99-yard TD drive with a 3-yard rushing score. The 99-yard drive was the longest drive in the 51-game history of the Ravens/Steelers rivalry.
- Baltimore has rushed for 100+ yards in 17 consecutive games vs. an AFC North opponent and in 18 consecutive December contests.
- For the 10th time (in 12 games) this season, Baltimore controlled the time of possession, holding the football for 36:30 compared to Pittsburgh's 23:30.
- TE Mark Andrews had 4 catches for 50 yards, including 3 first-down receptions. He now owns 45 chain-moving grabs in 2021, the most by a TE in Ravens' single-season history. He has also recorded a catch in 44 straight games, marking the third-longest streak in franchise history (Todd Heap – 74 games; Derrick Mason – 46).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Filling in for the injured QB Lamar Jackson (ankle – did not return), who left the game at the beginning of the second quarter, QB Tyler Huntley completed 27-of-38 passes for a career-high 270 yards and his first-career TD (99.7 rating), while adding 45 rushing yards on 6 carries (also career highs).
- TE Mark Andrews finished with a team-high and career-high-tying 11 receptions for 115 yards and 1 TD, marking his third 100-yard outing this season and the fifth of his career. With 926 receiving yards in 2021, Andrews owns the Ravens' single-season record for the most receiving yards by a TE, surpassing Todd Heap's previous franchise record (855 in 2005).
- WR Rashod Bateman posted a career-high 7 receptions and 103 receiving yards, including two grabs of at least 30 yards. It marked his first-career 100-yard performance, and both of his 30-plus-yard grabs put the ball in the red zone, where Baltimore capitalized with a TD each time.
- K Justin Tucker has posted eight games with multiple 50-plus-yard FGM, breaking a tie with K Brandon McManus and K Matt Prater for the most such outings in NFL history.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- TE Mark Andrews tallied 10 catches for a game-high 136 receiving yards and 2 TDs on 13 targets. With his performance, Andrews produced the 13th 1,000-yard receiving season in Ravens history (and the first by a tight end).
- QB Tyler Huntley, who started for an injured Lamar Jackson, scored 2 rushing TDs (the first of his career), leading Baltimore back from 14 down in the fourth quarter and setting up the Ravens' potential game-winning 2-point conversion attempt. In two career starts (also at Chicago in Week 11), Huntley has thrown for 434 yards and produced 4 total TDs (2 passing & 2 rushing). His 434 yards and 4 total TDs are the most by a Ravens' homegrown QB in the first two starts of a career. Huntley also became the first Raven in team history to pass for 2 TDs and rush for 2 TDs in a game.
- LB Patrick Queen produced a career-high 13 total tackles, including 11 solo. His previous high was 12 total tackles at Washington in 2020.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Josh Johnson, who was signed by the Ravens on Dec. 16, started (Lamar Jackson/ankle and Tyler Huntley/COVID-19 were both out). It marked Johnson's ninth-career NFL start and his first since 12/30/18 while with Washington. Johnson's 304 passing yards were the most by a Ravens' QB in his first start with the team (Eric Zeier, 302 in 1997).
- In the second quarter, Baltimore completed a 13-play, 90-yard drive that ended with a 2-yard RB Devonta Freeman TD run. The drive marked the fifth 90-plus yard TD drive by the Ravens in 2021, the most in Baltimore's single-season history. The five such drives are second most in 2021, trailing only the 49ers (6).
- TE Mark Andrews (125 receiving yards) reached the century mark five times in 2021, including in three straight games. The five games with 100-plus receiving yards are a Ravens' single-season high, while the three straight occurrences tie Qadry Ismail (1999) for the most consecutive games reaching the mark in franchise history. Andrews' 100 receiving yards and 1 TD each in three straight games tie Jimmy Graham (2013) for the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history.
- Baltimore competed in the game with 10 practice squad players dressed as either COVID-19 replacements or standard elevations, including nine who saw game action.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- With 6 catches for 89 receiving yards, TE Mark Andrews (1,276 receiving yards) set a new single-season franchise record. Andrews surpassed WR Michael Jackson's previous franchise record of 1,201 receiving yards in 1996.
- Baltimore's defense recorded a season-high 3 turnovers (2 INTs – including an INT-TD – and 1 FR) against the Rams.
- S Chuck Clark recorded 7 tackles (4 solo) and tallied 2 INTs (on back-to-back possessions), including 1 returned 17 yards for a TD. This marks his first-career multi-INT game and first INT-TD. (It was Clark's second-career defensive TD, previously recording a 65-yard FR-TD in Week 9 of 2020 at Indianapolis.) Clark's 2-INT game is the first multi-INT performance by a Raven since CB Jimmy Smith recorded 2 INTs in Week 17 of 2018 vs. Cleveland.
- K Justin Tucker scored 13 points and recorded his 130th point of the season, becoming the first kicker in NFL history to reach 130-plus points in six consecutive seasons. He has also made at least 30 FGs in a season seven times in his career, marking the most 30-plus FGM seasons in NFL history.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- With the 16-13 OT loss to the Steelers, Baltimore dropped its sixth-straight game to close out the 2021 campaign and finish with an 8-9 record. Five of the Ravens' last six losses were decided by a combined 8 points: at Pittsburgh (1), at Cleveland (2), vs. Green Bay (1), vs. LA Rams (1) and vs. Pittsburgh (3).
- Baltimore played in its NFL-high fourth overtime game of the season, finishing 2-2 in such contests in 2021. Since 2008 (during the Harbaugh Era), the Ravens and Steelers have squared off in five overtime contests, tying (Chargers-Chiefs) for the most OT games in a division series over that span.
- TE Mark Andrews recorded a team-high 8 catches for 85 yards. With 107 receptions in 2021, Andrews surpassed WR Derrick Mason (103 in 2007) to set a new Ravens' single-season record. Andrews closed the season with five consecutive outings of 85-plus receiving yards, marking the longest streak of 85-plus receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history.
- With 3 catches for 27 yards, WR Marquise Brown (1,008 yards) eclipsed 1,000 receiving in 2021. Joining with TE Mark Andrews, the pair became the second Baltimore tandem to each reach the 1,000-yard mark in the same season (1996: Michael Jackson - 1,201 & Derrick Alexander - 1,099).
- With 20 first downs vs. Pittsburgh, Baltimore set a new franchise single-season record with 394 first downs, surpassing the 2019 campaign (386).

JOHN HARBAUGH

Justin Bert/AP

An emotionally-charged and thrilling six weeks kicked off the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 campaign. Despite playing their first four games in an 18-day span, the Ravens produced a 5-1 record, marking the best start ever under John Harbaugh. Highlighted by a season-opening victory on Monday Night Football against division foe Cincinnati and an exhilarating, last-second triumph over AFC rival

New England, the Ravens immediately demonstrated the type of heart and resolve that would allow them to conquer anything in an NFL season.

Climbing to 9-2, Baltimore tied (2006) the then-best record to begin a season in franchise history. Following their Bye Week, the battle-tested Ravens won four-straight games – three of which occurred in hostile road clashes. Though a rash of injuries to key contributors left them shorthanded, the Ravens remained relentless and emerged victorious in hard-fought contests at Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Baltimore's grit was never more on display than in Week 12 at San Diego, when Ray Rice converted a fourth-and-29 catch – later voted "NFL Play of the Year" – to send the game into overtime and help capture the comeback win.

While able to secure the AFC North Title with a decisive victory over the New York Giants in Week 16, the Ravens closed out the regular season by dropping four of their last five games. This stretch included three-consecutive defeats – two by three points – to begin December, all against emerging playoff contenders. Many outsiders perceived the run of losses to be Baltimore's late-season demise, but the Ravens felt otherwise. As each wintry week passed, the team's resilient chemistry never faded, nor did its genuine belief that the best was yet to come.

On Wild Card weekend, before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted Ray Lewis in his final home game, Baltimore pummeled the Colts, 24-9, kick-starting an incredible playoff run. Holding Indy without a touchdown, the Ravens' defense was led by Lewis, who returned to action for the first time since tearing his triceps in Week 6.

"I think we're all appreciative, grateful for the opportunity to be here and to witness this historic moment in sports," head coach John Harbaugh said after the win. "And, it wasn't just about one guy [Lewis]. Nobody understands it more than the one guy we're talking about. It was about a team. It was about a city, a fan base, a great sport, about a great career."

Fresh off an emotional victory over Indianapolis, Baltimore traveled to No. 1 seed Denver for a Divisional Playoff bout. Riding an 11-game win streak, the heavily-favored Broncos had beaten the Ravens, 34-17, in Charm City four weeks prior.

But despite its underdog status, Baltimore approached the game with the brazen attitude of a champion. It was a boldness reinforced by strength gained while facing adversity throughout the season. It was also a resiliency the team had developed and a brotherhood that leaders such as Harbaugh, Lewis, Terrell Suggs, Joe Flacco and Rice had cultivated from Day One.

In what became the fourth-longest game (4:11) in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double OT, producing an electrifying victory-turned instant classic.

LB Ray Lewis emerges from the M&T Bank Stadium tunnel for the final home intro of his career prior to the Wild Card win over Indianapolis (1/6/13).

WR Jacoby Jones secures QB Joe Flacco's deep pass, connecting for a 70-yard TD to send the Divisional Playoff at Denver (1/12/13) into overtime.

As part of 21 unanswered points by Baltimore, WR Anquan Boldin scores a fourth-quarter TD in the 28-13 AFC Championship victory at New England (1/20/13).

Facing third-and-3 with 31 seconds remaining in regulation, Flacco found Jacoby Jones, who had blazed past defenders down the right sideline, to manufacture an improbable 70-yard touchdown bomb. The crowd-silencing connection cut the deficit to 1, with Justin Tucker then quickly tying the game at 35 to force overtime. Near the end of the extra period, Corey Graham intercepted Peyton Manning, ultimately setting up a 47-yard game-winning field goal by Tucker in double OT and sealing the Ravens' 38-35 win.

"Thanks for bearing witness to one of the greatest football games you're ever going to see," stated Harbaugh after the victory, which sent Baltimore to the AFC Championship for a second-straight season and third time in five years. "That football game did the game of football proud."

Next up was an AFC Title bout with the No. 2 seed Patriots, who just 12 months prior had knocked out Baltimore in the exact same setting. Though the Ravens' hearts were battered following the 2011 playoff loss, the defeat served as an influential lesson and a unifying force. It was an outcome that simultaneously marked the bitter end of a poignant journey, but also some inspiration for a determined 2012 Ravens team.

All season long, as they grinded away for a chance to finish what they had started the year before, the Ravens got what they wanted. And this time, they didn't disappoint.

The Patriots, who owned the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense, were shut out in the second half by a dominant Ravens "D" that found ways to constantly frazzle Tom Brady and pummel his normally-potent attack. In defeating New England, 28-13, Baltimore clinched a berth in Super Bowl XLVII, seizing the franchise's second conference title.

"Congratulations to our players, to our coaches," Harbaugh said. "[Tonight] was about a football team playing really good football in one of the biggest moments that football has to offer, and that's what I am so proud of as a football coach."

On Feb. 3, 2013, the AFC Champion Ravens battled the NFC Champion 49ers in Super Bowl XLVII. It was the first time in NFL history that two brothers, John and Jim Harbaugh, faced each other as head coaches in a championship game.

"We've seen it all this year," Harbaugh stated before the game. "We've had injuries; we've had adversity; we've had exhilaration; we've had great moments. That's what a season is made of. The team that navigates all these things the best, in the end, will be the one true champion."

And in the end, no team navigated its voyage better than the 2012 Ravens. In what would become a timeless NFL masterpiece – one bursting with drama at every turn – Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, becoming the NFL's one true champion.

After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Ravens produced a valiant goal-line stand to clinch their second Super Bowl title. Overcoming a feverish 49ers' second-half comeback and a bizarre 34-minute power outage in the third quarter, Baltimore started fast and finished strong, all while entertaining millions of spectators around the globe.

Spurred by Flacco, who was named the game's MVP after completing 22-of-33 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns, the Ravens capped a remarkable journey – one that will forever live in football lore.

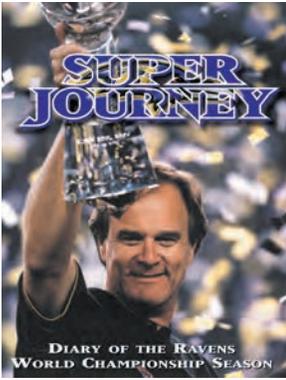

"We've got a lot of resolve. That's why we won the game," stated Harbaugh, who with the victory set an NFL record for most playoff wins (nine) in a head coach's first five seasons. "It wasn't perfect, it wasn't pretty, but it was us."

John Harbaugh hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Ravens' thrilling 34-31 victory over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2/3/13).

SUPER BOWL XXXV

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ended the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' "Super Journey" began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown.

Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied through the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a then-Super Bowl record with four INTs, and their +5 overall turnover margin ranks as the second-best mark in a Super Bowl. The most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

RAVENS HISTORY

COLTS HISTORY

12/28/46 - Baltimore was awarded the bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks and three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for the World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant and was later deemed "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

12/27/59 - The Colts won their second-straight World Championship over the Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/8/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

1/12/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at the Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

1/17/71 - Jim O'Brien kicked a 32-yard FG with five seconds left as Colts won Super Bowl V vs. Dallas, 16-13, in first AFC-NFC Super Bowl.

7/26/72 - Robert Irsay traded the L.A. Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colts.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on a 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

1996

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - The Ravens opened their first Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD, campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including RB Errict Rhett (2/17), FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24) and CB Rod Woodson (2/25).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder/Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

RAVENS HISTORY

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season then-scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. With the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading tight end in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed the record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL (21.3 ppg allowed), and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

SEPT. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

OCT. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs. Pittsburgh.

NOV./DEC. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games by a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the NY Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards in 2000.

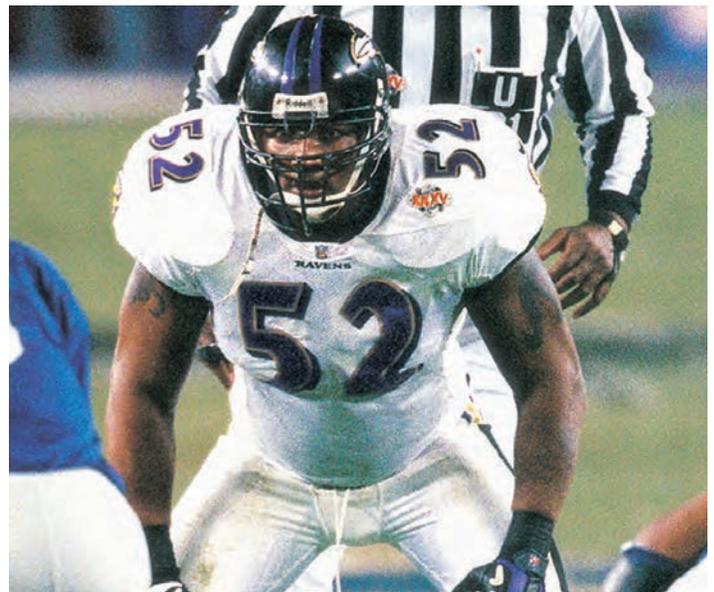

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press.

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG. Then, Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason-record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

LB Ray Lewis was named the 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl XXXV MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

RAVENS HISTORY

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' victory parade.

JULY/AUG. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th-consecutive game and second-consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a missed FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both then-all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - RB Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles kept a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third-consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five-consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set a then NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD, through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11/02.

9/30 - CB Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - QB Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nail-biter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, as the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; and Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as the team's LBs coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year, $75 million agreement included naming rights, as well as jointly administered community-based programs. The then-147-year-old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first-year players on the roster (seven rookies) and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third-youngest team in the NFL (Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and 2 TDs. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season versus the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A then-team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalius Thomas.

12/28 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning its first-ever AFC North Division title.

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - The late Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billick being the other) were on the same staff.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

4/13 - The Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster. The deal included installation of Sportexe Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field, with both parties sharing costs.

The NFL approved new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the Baltimore Ravens in April 2004.

10/4 - Former Pro Bowl DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor at halftime of Baltimore's Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq.ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD, during the Bye Week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters became home to over 200 Ravens employees.

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/7 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QBs coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two nationally-televised games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his 10th-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee, in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and rush for 3,500 yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout vs. Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five-straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the RavensVision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier 27-0 shutout on Nov. 26 at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' "D" dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a Bye Week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for the season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

(60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed set a franchise record and were No. 2 in the NFL to Indy's 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final game, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired in Philadelphia by Ray Rhodes in 1998 and was then retained by Reid.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' Bye Week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18-consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor during a win over Oakland just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie benchmark.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' 4 INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only 7 during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute, 43-yard field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history (at the time). According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (4) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high 9 INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for clinching the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' "D" finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-straight season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (3 INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its 4 turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the then-second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and 2 TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (the then-most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indy (a then-NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10.

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever clinched the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco posted a Ravens' then-season best 93.6 QB rating and established then-career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

1/9 - In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons (2008-10). Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

In the victory, the Ravens set then-franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff records (since broken) with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a then-franchise postseason-record 115.4 QB rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

1/30 - The Pro Bowl was played in Hawaii, with five Ravens earning 2010 All-Star honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth).

2/14 - Harbaugh and the Ravens agreed to a contract extension (with terms undisclosed).

3/4 - The NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement between the clubs and NFL Players Association, which was signed in March of 2006, expired.

3/11 - The NFL Players Association decertified, declaring itself out of the business of representing players. In exchange for giving up rights under union labor law, the players were able to take their chances in court under antitrust law.

3/12 - NFL owners lock out the players – creating the NFL's first work stoppage since 1987.

RAVENS HISTORY

7/25 - Following an offseason that contained no minicamps, OTAs or workout programs due to the lockout, the NFL Players Association and the league's owners reached an agreement in principle on their 10-year labor deal, creating a new CBA. After a 31-0 vote by the owners to approve the deal on July 21 (the Oakland Raiders abstained), the NFLPA would later ratify the CBA on Aug. 5.

9/11 - Marking the 10th Anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, the Ravens honored all military and those whose lives have been lost in the home opener against Pittsburgh. Baltimore prevailed, 35-7, in a contest that saw the Ravens force a franchise-record 7 takeaways.

12/24 - With a 20-14 win vs. Cleveland, the Ravens went undefeated at M&T Bank Stadium, matching the Packers and Saints as the only teams to go undefeated at home in 2011. Following the victory, John Harbaugh dedicated the "game ball" to the team's fans for their support during the undefeated home campaign, which marked a franchise first.

WR Torrey Smith's game-winning TD catch at Pittsburgh helped the Ravens go 12-4 in 2011 and sweep the AFC North for the first time in team history.

1/1 - After a 24-16 victory at Cincinnati, the Ravens became the only NFL team to earn a playoff berth the past four seasons (2008-11), also winning the AFC North by sweeping the division for the first time in franchise history.

The Ravens, producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season, matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers.

QB Joe Flacco, who started every game under head coach John Harbaugh, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever (at the time) by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11).

The Ravens, who finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top

3 for points allowed. Overall, Baltimore's "D" ranked third in both yards allowed (288.9 ypg) and sacks (48).

Despite playing eight games against defenses ranked in the NFL's Top 8, the Ravens were 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in the league in rushing. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). Flacco produced his third-consecutive 3,500-yard/20-TD season and was 13 yards shy of his then-career high with 3,610 passing yards (3,622). WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

1/15 - Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, helping John Harbaugh become the first head coach in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons (2008-11). The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Texans, and for the first time in team history (regular season or playoffs), Baltimore did not commit a single penalty.

1/22 - The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. But, a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Lee Evans pass fell incomplete, and K Billy Cundiff's last-second 32-yard FG attempt sailed wide left, sealing the victory for New England.

1/29 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2011 Pro Bowlers, eight Ravens earned All-Star honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), FB Vonta Leach (second), RB Ray Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first).

2/4 - OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. It marked the fourth time in 12 seasons that a Raven had earned the prestigious honor: Suggs (2011), S Ed Reed (2004) and LB Ray Lewis (2003 & 2000). Additionally, C Matt Birk was named the 2011 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year. The award recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence.

6/8 - The Ravens and Under Armour, whose global headquarters are located in downtown Baltimore, joined forces in a wide-ranging collaboration that features multiple community-focused initiatives. The 10-year agreement included naming rights for the team's practice facility in Owings Mills, which was renamed the Under Armour Performance Center.

9/6 - Art Modell, whose remarkable 43-year NFL career made him a regular finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died of natural causes at Johns Hopkins Hospital at the age of 87. As owner of both the Cleveland Browns (1961-1995) and the Baltimore Ravens (1996-2003), Modell directed teams that produced 28 winning seasons, 28 playoff games, two NFL Championships (1964 and 2000), three other appearances in NFL title contests (1965, '68 and '69) and four visits (1986, '87, '89 and 2000) to AFC championships.

9/27 - RB Jamal Lewis, the Ravens' all-time leading rusher, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the Ravens' 23-16 win over Cleveland on Thursday night.

12/26 - For their 2012 season efforts, six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and RS Jacoby Jones (first).

12/30 - The 2012 Ravens finished with a 10-6 record en route to earning their fifth-straight playoff berth and second-consecutive AFC North title. Under head coach John Harbaugh, Baltimore became the only NFL team to make the playoffs in each of the past five seasons (2008-12). The Ravens, who earned the playoffs in six of the past seven seasons, seized the franchise's fourth-ever division title with a 4-2 mark in AFC North play and an 8-4 conference record.

The Ravens set a then-single-season franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most per game (24.9). Baltimore scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg. Baltimore also surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a then-franchise single-season record low.

The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular. In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7). Rookie K Justin Tucker made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the then-second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and also the then-second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

Harbaugh became just the third coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to guide his team to the postseason in each of his first five seasons (2008-12), joining Bill Cowher and Chuck Knox. "Harbs" also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis announced that he would retire at the end of the Ravens' playoff run, closing one of the greatest careers in NFL history. "I talked to my team today," Lewis said. "I talked to them about life in general. And everything that starts has an end. For me, today, I told my team that this will be my last ride."

1/6 - Before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted LB Ray Lewis in his final home game, the Ravens held the Colts without a touchdown, winning 24-9 in the 2012 Wild Card Playoff. Lewis, in his 17th and final season, finished with 13 tackles and 1 PD in his first game since tearing his triceps on Oct. 14.

1/12 - In what became the fourth-longest game in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double overtime of the 2012 Divisional Playoff at Denver, producing a thrilling victory that will go down as one of the greatest wins in franchise history. Rookie K Justin Tucker's 47-yard field goal in the second overtime period sent Baltimore into the AFC Championship for the second-straight season. The Ravens tied the contest at 35 with :31 remaining in regulation on a remarkable QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Jacoby Jones 70-yard TD bomb, spurring the incredible comeback.

1/20 - The Ravens earned a trip to their second Super Bowl in franchise history, defeating the No. 2-seeded Patriots, 28-13, in the AFC Championship at New England. The Ravens' defense shut out the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense in the second half, and QB Joe Flacco threw 3 TDs in leading Baltimore to victory.

2/1 - In a ceremony held in New Orleans two days before Super Bowl XLVII, Jonathan Ogden, an 11-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' first-ever draft pick (fourth overall in 1996), was announced as a 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

2/3 - For the first time in any of the four major pro sports, two head-coaching brothers (John and Jim Harbaugh) faced each other in a championship game. After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Baltimore Ravens needed a goal-line stand to clinch their second World Championship, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans, LA, at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Ravens' "D" delivered the critical stand late in the fourth quarter, overcoming a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage.

With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008). Flacco and Montana did not throw an INT during those respective postseasons. Flacco finished the game 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating.

In 2012, Flacco also became the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to make the playoffs in each of his first five seasons. Also winning at least one playoff game in each of those postseasons, he compiled nine playoff victories, which tie (Tom Brady) for the most among QBs in the first five seasons of a career.

The Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history. Averaging 410.3 yards of offense (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass), Baltimore scored 31.0 points per game while allowing just 22.0. WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while WR Jacoby Jones posted a 29.4 receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards. (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl.)

The Ravens' defense registered 10 takeaways (6 INTs and 4 FRs), helping produce a +6 overall turnover differential during their playoff run. The unit also posted 9 sacks in four playoff games, including 4.5 by OLB Paul Kruger.

2/5 - Baltimore celebrated the Ravens' Super Bowl XLVII Championship as thousands of fans lined the streets of Charm City and completely filled M&T Bank Stadium for a celebration. Fans also gathered at City Hall and cheered when the Ravens arrived to kick off the parade route with the franchise's second Lombardi Trophy.

6/5 - As guests of President Barack Obama, the Ravens visited The White House and were honored for winning Super Bowl XLVII. Said the President: "Now, I imagine there were times last year when these players were the only ones who knew that they'd make it here to show off this trophy. Because, during the year, they lost player after player to injury; they dropped four of their last five regular season games. In the playoffs, they trailed Denver by a touchdown with 70 yards and less than a minute to go. ... And then, in the Super Bowl, just when it looked like they had the momentum, the lights went out for a half hour. ... But these Ravens always pulled through."

8/3 - T Jonathan Ogden, an 11-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' first-ever draft pick (fourth overall in 1996), was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame during a ceremony in Canton, OH. Ogden was presented by Ravens GM and executive VP Ozzie Newsome. Stated Ogden: "[The Ravens were] a new team, and we were new to the city [in 1996]. We were all rookies together. I watched us grow, myself as a player and the fans as an NFL city from infancy to one of – if not the best – football towns in the National Football League, with undoubtedly the best and most passionate fans that I've ever seen, and I want to thank you guys for being that."

9/22 - LB Ray Lewis, the Ravens' all-time leading tackler and second-ever draft choice, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 30-9 win over Houston.

12/8 - In a remarkable and most-memorable contest that set NFL records for the most points scored (36) in the last 2:05 of a game and most lead changes (six) in a fourth quarter, the Ravens found a way to beat the Vikings, 29-26. In the span of 121 seconds late in the game, 36 points were scored, including the winning TD by Baltimore with 4 seconds left. That score came when Joe Flacco, who led the game-winning, 5-play, 80-yard drive, hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 9-yard TD strike. This wild battle started with a near-blizzard snowfall that made it difficult for QBs to find receivers beyond the line of scrimmage.

12/27 - For their 2013 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: DT Haloti Ngata (fifth), OLB Terrell Suggs (sixth), K Justin Tucker (first) and G Marshal Yanda (third).

12/29 - For the first time since 2008 – the year the Ravens hired John Harbaugh – Baltimore did not make the playoffs, coming one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North after falling 34-17 in the finale at Cincinnati. Tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter of the game, Baltimore needed only that win to clinch a postseason berth.

WR/RS Jacoby Jones posted a 108-yard KOR-TD to open the second half of Super Bowl XLVII. Jones also added a 56-yard TD catch during the game, helping set a Super Bowl single-game record for most combined yards (290).

Ray Lewis (above) was inducted into the Ravens' Ring of Honor (detailed on previous page) in 2013, following his incredible 17-year NFL career.

1/27 - Gary Kubiak was hired as the team's offensive coordinator following the departure of Jim Caldwell, who was named Detroit's new head coach.

5/21 - M&T Bank and the Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

10/12 - QB Joe Flacco became the fastest player in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to toss 5 TDs (16 minutes and 3 seconds into the game) in the 48-17 victory at Tampa Bay. The Ravens' offense gained 475 yards vs. the Bucs, with the 48 points scored marking the most in Ravens road game history.

10/19 - TE Todd Heap, the Ravens' all-time leader in receiving TDs (41), was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 29-7 win over Atlanta.

12/23 - For their 2014 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: OLB Elvis Dumervil (fourth), RB Justin Forsett (first, originally voted a first alternate), LB C.J. Mosley (first, becoming the first Ravens rookie to earn the distinction) and G Marshal Yanda (fourth).

12/28 - Beating the Browns 20-10, the Ravens produced a 10-6 regular season record en route to earning their sixth playoff berth in seven seasons. The Ravens set then-single-season franchise records by scoring 409 points (including a team-best 206 on the road) and producing 5,838 yards of offense. QB Joe Flacco posted career bests in yards (3,986) and touchdown passes (27). Baltimore tallied the NFL's second-most sacks (49, tied with Philadelphia) and boasted the No. 2 red zone defense (42.6), also allowing the league's sixth-fewest points per game (18.9). P Sam Koch produced the NFL's No. 3 gross average (47.4) and No. 1 net average (43.3), setting the Ravens' single-season records for each.

1/3 - Behind an offensive line that included two rookie starters (LT James Hurst and RG John Urschel), the Ravens won, 30-17, at the host Steelers in a Wild Card matchup, producing their NFL-best 10th playoff victory since 2008. Baltimore's defense was stout, holding Pittsburgh out of the end zone for three quarters and sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger five times. The win marked Baltimore's first-ever playoff triumph in the Steel City and gave the Ravens their 10th all-time postseason road victory, tying Green Bay (existing since 1919) for the most in pro football history.

1/10 - In a tense Divisional battle at New England, the Ravens' bid to play in their fourth AFC Championship game in seven seasons came to an abrupt end in Foxborough with a narrow 35-31 defeat to the Patriots. New England erased two 14-point Baltimore leads to win the contest, becoming the first team in NFL history to accomplish the feat.

1/20 - Marc Trestman was hired as the team's offensive coordinator following the departure of Gary Kubiak, who was named Denver's new head coach.

7/28 - Constellation and the Ravens announced an agreement to construct a 375-kilowatt (DC) solar generation project at the team's headquarters and training facility in Owings Mills...The roof-mounted solar power system expanded the current energy services relationship...Constellation owns and operates the solar power system, while the Ravens finance the electricity generated by the solar panels from Constellation under a 20-year power purchase agreement...The solar power system went into full operation on May 26, 2016.

8/5 - The Ravens announced fan experience and gameday enhancements at M&T Bank Stadium, including a $6.5 million investment in an expansive Wi-Fi system, a revolutionary 3-D video system called freeD that shows replays from every possible angle and new safety measures to ease entry into the stadium and ensure top-of-the-line security for everyone.

9/13-10/26 - Starting with a season-opening loss at Denver, five of Baltimore's first seven games of the 2015 campaign were on the road, with the Ravens dropping close contests at the Broncos, at Oakland, at San Francisco and at Arizona... The last time an NFL team opened the season playing five of its first seven games on the road was in 2000...That team – 16 years prior – was the eventual Super Bowl XXXV-winning Ravens...Following the Sept. 13 game at Denver, the Ravens traveled to San Jose, CA, where they stayed and practiced for an entire week at San Jose State leading up to a Week 2 matchup with the Raiders in Oakland...Baltimore also held the Saturday pre-game walk-through at Stanford University.

11/22 - S Ed Reed, the Ravens' all-time leader in interceptions (61) and NFL's all-time record-holder in INT return yards (1,590), was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 16-13 win over St. Louis.

12/22 - For their 2015 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LS Morgan Cox (first, who was selected in January as a "need" player), OLB Elvis Dumervil (fifth, who was added as an alternate in January), P Sam Koch (first) and G Marshal Yanda (fifth)...Each player represented the Ravens in Hawaii on Jan. 31, 2016.

RAVENS HISTORY

Legendary safety Ed Reed, who ranks first in NFL history with 1,590 INT return yards, was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor in 2015.

1/3 - The Ravens concluded their 5-11 season with a 24-16 defeat at Cincinnati...Baltimore played an NFL-record 14 games decided by 8 points or fewer (tied, 1994 NYG) and posted a season-high (tied, Chi.) seven games decided by 3 points or fewer (4-3 record)...Baltimore had 20 players on Injured Reserve (the NFL's second most), including eight starters, with 12 starters missing a combined 71 games... Additionally, the Ravens played four different starting QBs (Joe Flacco, Matt Schaub, Jimmy Clausen & Ryan Mallett) for the first time in franchise history.

1/16 - Ted Marchibroda, former head coach of the Baltimore Colts and the first head coach in Baltimore Ravens history, passed away peacefully at his home in Virginia at the age of 84...Marchibroda spent 12 seasons as an NFL head coach, including time with the Baltimore Colts (1975-79), Indianapolis Colts (1992-95) and Baltimore Ravens (1996-98). Stated Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome: "Ted is a founding father of the Ravens. He was a tremendous competitor and a tough man with a gentle soul. In a way, he set the Ravens' path. He wanted players who owned what he called 'a football temperament.' Those are players who love all aspects of the game – the mental part, lifting weights, practice and the physicality. That eventually became what we now call 'Playing Like a Raven.' Ted taught me more about football. He was classy in every way."

3/18 - CB Tray Walker, a 2015 fourth-round draft selection, passed away following a serious motorbike accident in Southeast Florida...Walker was involved in the accident on March 17...On March 26, approximately 45 members of the Ravens organization – teammates, coaches and front office staff – joined Walker's family and friends at the 93rd Street Community Baptist Church to celebrate his life.

Said John Harbaugh: "Tray was a young man with a good and kind heart. He was humble and loved everything about being part of the Ravens' team. He loved his teammates, the practice and the preparation, and that showed every day. He was coachable, did his most to improve and worked to

5/10 - For the first time since 2002, the Ravens returned to natural grass on the playing field of M&T Bank Stadium... Baltimore grounds crews removed the artificial Shaw Sports Turf in February and began laying sod in the stadium in early May.

"To me, [playing on grass is] Baltimore," John Harbaugh stated. "It epitomizes what Baltimore is all about, the history of football in Baltimore. A Baltimore football team should be playing on a grass field, ultimately. It's a recognition of that. I like the grass. I think it's the AFC North, it's the Baltimore Ravens – it just seems right."

9/17 - At the age of 65, Clarence Brooks, the Ravens' longest-tenured assistant coach, passed away at a hospital in Weston, Fla., following a battle with esophageal and stomach cancer...The beloved Brooks – referred to by most as "C.B." – originally joined the organization in 2005 and served 11 seasons as defensive line coach...The following day (9/18), Baltimore played at Cleveland and rallied from 20 points down to beat the Browns, 25-20.

11/6 - With the Ravens' 21-14 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach John Harbaugh (81) surpassed Brian Billick (80) for the most regular season wins by a head coach in team history.

11/10 - Baltimore debuted an all-purple uniform as part of the NFL's "Color Rush" game for the Week 10 matchup against the Cleveland Browns...The Ravens won, 28-7, in a game that was played on Thursday Night Football at M&T Bank Stadium...Unlike the purple jerseys the Ravens typically wear, the Color Rush uniforms (shown on WR Steve Smith Sr. below) displayed gold numbers and stripes on the pants.

RAVENS HISTORY

12/20 - For their 2016 season production, seven Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LS Morgan Cox (second, who was selected in January as a “need” player), FB Kyle Juszczyk (first), LB C.J. Mosley (second), K Justin Tucker (second), S Eric Weddle (fourth, who was added as an alternate in January), G Marshal Yanda (sixth) and C Jeremy Zuttah (first, who was added as an alternate in January)...These players represented the Ravens in Orlando on Jan. 29, 2017.

1/1 - For the 12th time in the past 14 seasons, the Ravens boasted a Top 10 defense and became one of three teams – Den. & Sea. – to finish ranked in the NFL’s Top 10 in each of the past three years (2014-16)...The Ravens’ defense ranked seventh overall (322.1 ypg) after the team played its final game of the season at Cincinnati (27-10 defeat) on New Year’s Day.

Additionally, WR Steve Smith Sr. played in the final game of his storied 16-year NFL career, capping one of the greatest runs by a receiver in league history...Smith Sr. finished with the seventh-most receiving yards (14,731) in NFL history and with 1,031 receptions (12th in league annals).

Producing arguably the best season ever by a kicker, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the then-fifth-best percentage in NFL single-season history...In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for the fifth-best streak ever at the time), Tucker’s 38 FGs ranked No. 1 in the league, while an NFL single-season record 24 of his 38 FGs came from 40 yards or beyond.

1/13 - David Modell, the son of Art, passed away after battling cancer for almost two years. Modell, 55, served as president of the Ravens from the team’s beginning in 1996 through the Super Bowl XXXV championship in 2000 and continued in that capacity until 2004. From the selection of the team name and colors, to the move to M&T Bank Stadium in 1998, to the hiring of Brian Billick, David coordinated the efforts as team president. His fingerprints are still present on many of what have become Ravens favorites and traditions.

In January of 2017, the Ravens announced a three-year, $120 million self-funded investment that will enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium, including the addition of new 4K ultra-high definition video displays.

1/31 - The Ravens announced a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium...Improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities and club level enhancements...In January, the Ravens also launched a $45 million construction project to upgrade their Owings Mills training facility (the Under Armour Performance Center).

JULY/AUG. - Due to renovations and construction at the Under Armour Performance Center, for just the second time in team history, the Ravens did not have fans attend training camp...The other occurrence came in 2011 following the NFL lockout...However, Baltimore still held three free and open stadium practices for fans to attend in 2017 (two at M&T Bank Stadium and one at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis).

9/23 - The Ravens, playing in their first-ever international game, lost, 44-7, to the Jaguars in front of 84,592 fans at London’s Wembley Stadium...It marked the third-largest crowd to ever watch a Ravens’ game.

10/26 - In front of a national audience on Thursday Night Football, the Ravens notched the franchise’s 200th victory (regular season & playoffs combined) with a dominating 40-0 performance vs. Miami at M&T Bank Stadium.

11/19 - Baltimore posted its third shutout of the season and first-ever win at historic Lambeau Field by defeating the Packers, 23-0...The Ravens became the first team to register three shutouts in a single season since the 2003 Patriots and recorded their 13th overall in franchise history (most in the NFL, tied with NE, since their 1996 inception).

12/19 - For their 2017 season production, three Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LB C.J. Mosley (third), OLB Terrell Suggs (seventh) and S Eric Weddle (fifth)...These players represented the Ravens in Orlando on Jan. 28, 2018.

12/31 - Winning six of its last nine games, Baltimore finished second in the AFC North with a 9-7 record in 2017, falling one game short of earning a playoff berth (lost on tiebreaker) for the seventh time in John Harbaugh’s 10-year tenure.

All the Ravens needed to make the 2017 playoffs was a home win over Cincinnati in Week 17 (Dec. 31)...However, Baltimore’s hopes were dashed when the Bengals produced a 49-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-12 with just 44 seconds remaining to earn a hard-fought, 31-27 victory that closed out the Ravens’ season in heartbreaking fashion.

The Ravens produced NFL bests in INTs (22), takeaways (34) and shutouts (3 – the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots)...Baltimore’s +17 turnover differential ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while its defensive passer rating (72.4) and 5 defensive TDs (tied with Det. & Phi.) were each second best.

Over the season’s last nine games, Baltimore scored the NFL’s second-most points per contest (29.4)...During this span, the Ravens also ranked No. 1 in fewest giveaways (5) and No. 2 in sacks allowed (10).

RAVENS HISTORY

Football Outsiders tabbed Baltimore's special teams as the NFL's No. 1 overall unit in 2017...The Ravens' ranking was the NFL's eighth highest in a season since 1986...In the annual ST report from senior writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore finished No. 4 and has ranked in the Top 5 for six-straight seasons.

1/9 - Don "Wink" Martindale was hired as the Ravens' new defensive coordinator following the retirement of Dean Pees.

1/21 - Ravens TE Benjamin Watson, Panthers TE Greg Olsen and Texans DE J.J. Watt were named the three finalists for the prestigious 2017 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. (Watt was eventually named the winner on Feb. 3.)

2/3 - In a ceremony held in Minneapolis the night before Super Bowl LII, Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' second-ever draft pick (26th overall in 1996), was announced as a 2018 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

2/13 - It was announced that the Ravens and Bears would play on Aug. 2 in the annual Hall of Fame Game to kick off the 2018 Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Week in Canton, OH.

5/17 - The Ravens introduced their new Flock Friendly Fare, dramatically reducing pricing on gameday concessions to further enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium.

In total, 21 of the most popular menu items were reduced, creating up to 53 percent savings on a single item and a 33 percent average price reduction.

"We constantly ask our fans for feedback, and the price of concessions has regularly been discussed," Ravens president Dick Cass stated. "We listened, and we have made adjustments. This price reduction, along with the $120 million we've invested in stadium enhancements over the last three years, will make our gameday experience better."

Of all the items receiving reductions, 12 included food options, while nine beverage items reduced in cost. The menu also included a $5 domestic beer (12 ounces) option for the first time ever.

7/12 - The Ravens announced an enhanced ticketing process, providing fans a simple, smart and secure way to enter games at M&T Bank Stadium...Beginning in 2018, traditional paper tickets were no longer used. Instead, the following two options were implemented:

Ravens season ticket holders received a PSL Owner Season Ticket card – much like a credit card – to enter the stadium. Or, fans could now access tickets via their smartphone by using the Ravens Mobile App.

8/2 - For the first time in team history, the Ravens played in the annual Pro Football Hall of Fame game in Canton, OH... Baltimore bested the Bears, 17-16, just two nights prior to LB Ray Lewis' Hall of Fame induction.

8/4 - LB Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' second-ever draft pick (26th overall in 1996), was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame during a ceremony in Canton, OH. Lewis was presented by his daughter, Diaymon.

Stated Ravens longtime GM/EVP Ozzie Newsome, who drafted Lewis in 1996: "For 17 years, we could point to No. 52 and tell the other players: 'Follow his lead. Practice like Ray practices. Prepare like Ray prepares. Be a great teammate like him.' It was our privilege to have him as a Raven. We are all better for having him here. His play on gamedays speaks for itself. Even in that small group who have the honor of being a Hall of Famer, Ray stands out. When you talk about the great players of all time, no matter position, he is among the greatest of the great."

8/6-9 - Prior to their second preseason game vs. the Rams, Baltimore hosted Los Angeles for several joint practices at the Under Armour Performance Center.

8/17-20 - Leading up to their third preseason game at Indy, the Ravens traveled to the Hoosier State for three days of practice at Grand Park Sports Campus in Westfield, IN.

10/14 - The Ravens dominated the Titans in a 21-0 shutout at Nissan Stadium...Baltimore's "D," under first-year coordinator Don Martindale, set a team record with 11 sacks...Tennessee produced just 106 total yards, marking the second fewest ever allowed by a Ravens' defense (this figure included 51 net passing yards, which set a new single-game Baltimore record at the time)...Baltimore also became the first team since the 1934 Lions to not allow a TD after halftime in each of its first six games of a season.

Baltimore produced a franchise-record 11 sacks during a 21-0 shutout of the Titans in Tennessee (Oct. 14).

RAVENS HISTORY

11/18 - In a 24-21 home win over Cincinnati, Baltimore produced the then-fifth-most rushing yards (267, tied) in franchise history...Rookies QB Lamar Jackson (117) and RB Gus Edwards (115) each rushed for over 100 yards, marking the first time in NFL history that a team had a rookie QB & RB each surpass 100 rushing yards in a game (Jackson's 117 also stand as the most in league history by a QB in his starting debut)...Filling in for injured Joe Flacco (hip), Jackson completed 13 of 19 passes for 150 yards, 0 TDs and 1 INT.

11/25 - John Harbaugh notched his 100th regular season win as head coach of the Ravens in a 34-17 victory over Oakland at M&T Bank Stadium.

12/18 - The NFL announced that three Ravens were voted to the Pro Bowl for their outstanding performances during the 2018 season: LB C.J. Mosley (fourth), S Eric Weddle (sixth) and G Marshal Yanda (seventh)...DT Brandon Williams was later added to the squad on Jan. 15 after originally being selected as an alternate.

12/30 - Winning six of its last seven games – all with QB Lamar Jackson as the starter – Baltimore (10-6) captured its first AFC North Division title since 2012 (and fifth ever) by beating Cleveland, 26-24, at M&T Bank stadium...The Ravens earned a playoff berth for the seventh time during head coach John Harbaugh's 11-year tenure, returning to the postseason for the first time since 2014.

In 2018, the Ravens produced the NFL's No. 1 defense, allowing 292.9 yards per game...Baltimore permitted the league's second-fewest points per game (17.9), behind Chicago's 17.7...The Ravens ranked No. 1 in total defense for the second time (2006) in team history and produced a Top 10 defense for the eighth time during Harbaugh's 11 seasons.

Boasting the NFL's No. 2 rushing attack (152.6 ypg), the Ravens racked up the then-second-most rushing yards (2,441) in franchise history...Baltimore also produced a then-franchise-record 5,999 total yards...Over the team's final seven games (with Jackson as starter), the Ravens piled up an NFL-high 1,607 rushing yards (229.6 ypg), with Seattle (1,190) rushing for the next-highest total.

Baltimore was one of two teams (Pittsburgh) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in both total defense (first) and total offense (ninth)...Prior to 2018, this feat had never been accomplished by a Ravens team.

1/6 - Baltimore fell at home in the Wild Card round, 23-17, to the Los Angeles Chargers...LAC then lost at eventual Super Bowl Champion New England in the Divisional round...Lamar Jackson (21) became the youngest QB to ever start an NFL postseason game.

1/11 - Greg Roman was promoted to be the team's offensive coordinator, succeeding Marty Mornhinweg.

2/2 - In a ceremony held in Atlanta the night before Super Bowl LIII, Ed Reed, a nine-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' all-time leader in INTs (61), was announced as a 2019 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

S Ed Reed became the third "homegrown" Raven (T Jonathan Ogden - 2013 & LB Ray Lewis - 2018) to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

8/3 - S Ed Reed, a nine-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' top draft pick (24th overall) in 2002, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame during a ceremony in Canton, OH.

Stated Reed, during his 36-minute induction speech: "Baltimore, I love that city. You all are the reason why I did it so hard, why I gave so much on that football field."

8/19-21 - Prior to their third preseason game at Philadelphia, the Eagles hosted the Ravens for several joint practices at the NovaCare Complex.

9/8 - Setting team records for the most points (59) and yards (643) in a game, the Ravens won spectacularly in their season opener at Miami, drubbing the Dolphins, 59-10...Baltimore set an NFL record for most points (42) in the first half of a season opener while establishing a team mark for scoring in any half...QB Lamar Jackson produced a perfect passer rating (158.3), throwing a team-tying-record 5 TDs and completing 17 of 20 passes for 324 yards.

9/29 - Brian Billick, the first coach in Ravens history to win a Super Bowl (2000 season), was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor at halftime of the game against the Browns... Billick led Baltimore to four playoff berths in nine seasons (1999-2007), producing an 85-67 overall record, including a 13-3 mark in 2006.

10/6 - The Ravens stopped the Steelers, 26-23, in overtime, at Heinz Field when K Justin Tucker nailed a 46-yard FG with 5:26 left in the extra period...Entering the contest, Baltimore had lost two in a row, but with this victory, kicked off what would become a franchise-record 12-game winning streak during the 2019 regular season.

12/12 - The Ravens clinched a second-consecutive AFC North title when they overwhelmed the Jets, 42-21, at M&T Bank Stadium on Thursday Night Football...For the first time in team history, the Ravens improved to 12-2, with QB Lamar Jackson throwing 5 TD passes and breaking the single-

CAREER SNAPSHOT

Ray Lewis, a 2018 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee and 13-time Pro Bowler, was the Ravens' second-ever draft choice (26th overall in 1996). Lewis helped guide the Ravens to two Super Bowl titles during his career, capturing the Lombardi Trophy in 2000 and 2012.

Following the 2012 campaign, Lewis, who will be forever known as the greatest linebacker of his generation and one of the best defensive players in NFL history, retired after 17 seasons. Here is a brief look at his storied pro career:

- In 2000, Lewis led a defense that established a 16-game single-season record for fewest points (165) and fewest rushing yards allowed (970), recorded four shutouts (one shy of the post-1970 merger record), and finished first league-wide in six key defensive categories.
- Was the second player in NFL history to win both NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl MVP awards (2000)...DT Harvey Martin of Dallas won Defensive Player of the Year in 1977 and was co-MVP of Super Bowl XXII with DT Randy White.
- Is the only player in NFL history with at least 40 career sacks and 30 career INTs (41.5 sacks and 31 INTs).
- Posted a franchise-record 2,643 career tackles, including a single-season team-best 225 stops in 2003.
- Led the Ravens in tackles in 14 of his 17 seasons, registering at least 150 stops 11 times.
- Returned 3 of his 31 INTs for TDs.
- Had a team-record and career-high 25 tackles at NYG (9/14/97).
- Posted seven career 20-tackle games.
- Is second only to Jack Ham (53) in takeaways by a LB in NFL history with 50 total (31 INTs and 19 FRs).

PERENNIAL PRO BOWLER

LB Ray Lewis was invited to 13 Pro Bowls during his career, tying Hall of Famer Reggie White for the most by a defender in NFL history. Lewis played in 12 Pro Bowls, missing the 2006 Hawaiian classic due to a hand injury. Here are the defenders who have earned the most Pro Bowls during their careers.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award recognizes an NFL player for his excellence on and off the field. The award was established in 1970 and then renamed in 1999 after the late Hall of Fame Chicago Bears running back, Walter Payton. Each team nominates one player who has had a significant positive impact on his community. In 2011, Ravens C Matt Birk (left) won the prestigious NFL honor.

Note: The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known in-season jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven in a game. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who wore both 73 and 97 jerseys.

Shutout Fast Fact:

- The Ravens have posted an NFL-high 14 shutouts since their 1996 inception, a mark that included three opponent “blankings” in 2017. That season, Baltimore became the fifth team – and first since 2003 (NE) – in 30 years to record at least three shutouts in a season. Dating back to 2017, the Ravens’ four total shutouts tie (NE) for the NFL’s most.

2021 PRIMETIME THRILLER VS. COLTS

On Monday Night Football, (10/11/21), the Ravens prevailed in another thrilling game when Baltimore overcame a 19-point deficit to beat the visiting Colts, 31-25, in OT. Down 22-3 late in the third quarter, QB Lamar Jackson led a furious comeback, with Baltimore scoring 22 unanswered points, aided by a DT Calais Campbell blocked FG in the fourth quarter. Jackson finished the night 37-of-43 (86.1%) for a franchise-record 442 passing yards and 4 TDs (2 each to TE Mark Andrews & WR Marquise Brown). Jackson also found Andrews for two 2-point conversions, including a connection that sent the game to OT. Andrews recorded a personal-best 147 receiving yards on 11 catches, while Brown hauled in 9 balls for 125 yards. Stated head coach John Harbaugh afterward: "Well, that was exciting. Did everybody get their money's worth tonight? I'm just so proud of these guys, Marquise, Lamar, Calais and all the guys. Our fans were just off the charts. Our fans were incredible, and they stuck with us. It was a frustrating game, and our fans stuck with us throughout the course of the game. That's a big deal to players and coaches, I promise you. It really gives you a lot of energy. We have great fans."

- The Ravens are 67-32 all time in preseason play.
- Under head coach John Harbaugh (2008-21), Baltimore has compiled a 40-12 record in the preseason.
- Entering 2022, the Ravens have not dropped a preseason game since 2015, posting an impressive 20-0 record over the past five seasons that were played (2016-19, 2021).

ATTENDANCE RECORDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-97 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. Capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous marks of 70,107 and 69,084. In 2018, with the addition of the Bud Light Touchdown Club, official capacity was reduced to 70,745.

GAMEDAY

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T Bank Stadium is where NFL excitement begins any given gameday. And that's because Baltimore Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since earning their first Super Bowl title in 2000, the Ravens have posted an impressive home record of 128-49, the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.723), entering 2022.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as a premier NFL sports facility. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including stunning 4K ultra-high definition displays on the RavensVision video boards, a high-density Wi-Fi network, state-of-the-art concourse designs and new LED Sports Lights. Combined with these exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 70,745, this impressive structure draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 133 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park at Camden Yards and the Ravens' home. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds and the Ravens.

M&T BANK STADIUM ENHANCEMENTS

In 2019, the Ravens completed a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium. Demonstrating a continued commitment to create an exceptional gameday atmosphere, the improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities, a redesigned club level, updated suites and LED Sports Lights.

“Our constant improvements help provide our fan base the gameday experience, convenience and service they deserve,” Ravens president Sashi Brown stated. “We strive to uphold our tradition of creating one of the most exciting gameday atmospheres in sports.”

The stadium, which originally cost $220 million to build, opened in 1998. Since then, the Ravens have spent approximately $100 million on past enhancements, including a $45 million investment from 2013-15 to install Wi-Fi capabilities, advanced LED video displays, redesigned concession stands and upgraded concourses.

PHASE ONE

Phase One of the three-year project was completed prior to the 2017 season and was highlighted by two dramatic, 4K ultra-high definition video displays (see photo above), which doubled the width of the stadium’s previous standard HD boards. The boards, measuring approximately 200 feet wide and 36 feet high, equal the highest resolution and clearest picture of any stadium video display in the U.S.

The Ravens also expanded the audio/video control room and installed 4K cameras, lenses and control equipment. An investment was also made in 11 manned cameras and additional robotic cameras, which provide fans with more angles of live action, statistics and replays than ever before.

New LED ribbon displays were also installed around the seating bowl’s suite level. In total, the Ravens installed more than 28,000 square feet of video displays.

PHASES TWO & THREE

Phases Two and Three of the M&T Bank Stadium enhancements project continued following the 2018 season and continued into the spring/summer of 2019. These improvements included the following:

Escalators & Elevators:

Escalators and elevators to the 500 level were installed to improve crowd flow and ensure convenience for fans accessing seats in the stadium’s upper level. (The first escalator to the upper concourse opened in November of the 2018 season.)

“Corner Notch” Suites & Video Boards:

New suites were built into each open notch of the stadium’s upper bowl. Large 4K ultra-high definition video boards (see photo below), measuring approximately 33 feet wide and 44 feet high, were installed atop each of the four suites, providing fans with additional in-game content, NFL highlights/scores, statistics and fantasy information.

Club Level:

All concessions stands and bar/lounge areas on the stadium’s club level received upgrades. These developments enhanced the area’s general design/comfort, audio/visual capabilities, quality of service and food options.

Improved Kitchen Facilities:

The stadium underwent kitchen renovations to include new equipment improving the quality of food and providing more options at concessions stands throughout the entire venue.

Sound System:

A new sound system in the seating bowl was installed prior to the start of the 2018 NFL season.

VIDEO SCREENS, WI-FI AND NEW LED SPORTS LIGHTS

• In 2017, the Ravens made an investment to create a more immersive gameday experience for their fans. Designed and created by Prismview, a Samsung Electronics Company, the updated and enhanced RavensVision ultra-HD 4K video screens each measure 36 feet high and 201 feet wide. Each display is the equivalent of a 2,448-inch flat panel television. It would take over 1,000 40-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) displays. Each display has extreme contrast face plastics combined with over 6 million individual LED pixels providing brilliant images in bright sunlight and during night events.

• The high definition resolution allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

• The two giant screens are made up of modular LED panels – 13 inches wide by 6.5 inches tall. Each of these premium LED modules contain 512 pixels, spaced only 10mm - 0.39" - apart. Due to the massive size of these displays, these panels were assembled from 50 sections. Each display weighs in at an amazing 76,500 pounds.

• In a historic launch of in-venue video technology, in 2017, the Ravens became the first team to have a permanently installed SkyCam. Typically reserved for the NFL's largest broadcasts, including the Super Bowl and other primetime games, SkyCam delivers its immersive and signature "Quarterback View" for every home game. Its nearly invisible support cables can withstand over 800 pounds each, while the camera system can reach speeds over 25 miles per hour.

• In addition to the main video boards, in 2018, the Ravens installed four new corner displays to add to the fan viewing experience. Each of the four LED video displays measure over 34 feet wide by 44 feet high – a bonus of over 6,081 square feet of screens.

• In cooperation with WJHW, VPC and the Ravens' production team, BeckTV, a leader in broadcast design and installation, created a leading-edge production facility for M&T Bank Stadium. The control room, which was upgraded again in 2022, includes state-of-the-art systems for 4K/HD replay, graphics and cameras to help produce world class programming. In addition to 11 manned cameras, the Ravens have 15 robotic cameras contributing to the gameday production.

• The 2017 addition of four LED ribbon boards on the Club Level and Suite Level fascia further elevate the in-stadium atmosphere. These dynamic displays measure a combined 2,373 feet with almost three times the pixel resolution over the previous ribbon boards, providing amazing clarity throughout the stadium. This improvement adds excitement and aims to increase fan engagement.

• With over 28,000 square feet of total display area, the RavensVision displays, corner displays and LED ribbons combine over 20 million pixels to create one of the most captivating experiences in the NFL.

• Two high definition video boards measuring 8 feet high and 30 feet wide were installed at the concourse entrances of Gates A and D in 2013. (Approximately 60 percent of fans enter Gate A for all stadium events.)

• Prior to the 2015 season, the Ravens invested $5 million in a project to install Wi-Fi access for fans at M&T Bank Stadium. From 2015-17, the throughput capability was 2 gigabits per second (GBPS). In 2018, the stadium boasted a throughput capability of 10 GBPS, or an increase in capability that is five times greater than the previous three seasons.

• Additionally, in 2015, the Ravens installed the capability to show 360-degree replays with a newly-implemented and upgraded Intel freeD system. By using 38 cameras placed around the stadium, fans can view angles of action previously impossible to see. The Ravens were the first NFL franchise capable of providing 360-degree shots, and the technology won a Sports Emmy Award for best in Technical Achievement from Super Bowl 50.

• Lastly, in 2019, the top of the stadium was furnished with new LED Sports Lights. These lights provide more energy efficiency and the capability to instantly switch on and off. In all, Musco Sports Lighting installed 416 new light fixtures atop the stadium that produce a brighter light with less glare and the ability to create dynamic light shows.

SIGHTLINES

- Front row seating in the lower level is 6 feet above the grass playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

SEATING

- With a seating capacity of 70,745, the stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball park to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park at Camden Yards' size. ADA seating is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the stadium's 133 suites are between 20-24 ticketed premier areas. Each features upscale lounge furniture, a private kitchen, high-definition TVs, Wi-Fi, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal catering. Many other exclusive amenities and events are also available to suite owners.

AMENITIES/DESIGN

- As part of a two-year, $35 million investment in 2013, the Ravens enhanced the fan experience with improvements to video boards, concessions stands and all concourses.
- All 16 lower concourse concessions stands were upgraded, with these enhancements improving the speed of service, and also the freshness and quality of food, much of which is prepared directly in front of fans.
- Additional concession stand improvements included digital menu boards and full upgrades to all condiment counters. Renovations to the 24 upper concourse concessions stands were completed prior to the 2014 NFL season.
- Additionally, in 2013 and 2014, all concourses were redesigned with a "Ravenized" theme, influenced by the brick and steel look of M&T Bank Stadium's exterior and buildings on the Camden Yards complex. These features include support columns wrapped in brick, purple accent lighting and enhanced directional signage throughout each of the venue's concourses.
- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Eight public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic. Two additional escalators (to upper concourse) opened in 2018 and 2019, respectively, to provide guests with easier accessibility to the upper level of the stadium.
- There are 44 concessions stands, including 601 total points of sale, in the upper, lower and club levels with gameday fare, including Baltimore's signature favorites, such as crab cakes.
- Club level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.
- Fans can easily access the stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside Gate B and the transit system has stops within walking distance.
- Parking in stadium lots is limited to permit holders, but downtown garages are available for gameday parking, just a short walk away. Parking in offsite lots can be reserved in advance with SpotHero at www.baltimoreravens.com/stadium/directions-parking.
- For a safe and convenient ride, fans may take advantage of two driver pick up zones. If exiting near Gate A, walk up Ravens Walk, cross Lee Street and meet your ride at Home Plate Plaza. If exiting near Gate D, head down Warner Street and meet a driver at the Horseshoe Casino pickup lane.
- Tailgating is welcomed in select lots at M&T Bank Stadium. For complete Tailgate Lot information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-7283.

- In October 2002, after the passing of iconic QB Johnny Unitas, the Ravens erected a statue (left) of the Colts' legend outside Gate A. The piece was sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail, who was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the

- In 2014, the Ravens unveiled in this plaza area a second statue (left) – one of former LB Ray Lewis, another Baltimore icon and perhaps the greatest defender in NFL history. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that has brought Baltimore and Maryland two Super Bowl Championships (2000 and 2012).

M&T BANK STADIUM

On May 21, 2014, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

The partnership, which began as a 15-year agreement in 2003 and was extended through 2027, has proven to reach far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives.

“M&T Bank’s partnership with the Ravens isn’t about a name on a building – it’s about combining the strengths of our two teams to build a better, stronger Baltimore,” said the late M&T Bank president and COO Mark Czarnecki.

M&T Bank provides banking products and services in more than 1,000 branches and 2,200 ATMs that span 12 states across the northeastern U.S., from Maine to Virginia and Washington, D.C. Trust-related services are provided in select markets in the U.S. and abroad by M&T’s Wilmington Trust-affiliated companies and by M&T Bank. In 2021, M&T Bank and the M&T Charitable Foundation contributed nearly $34 million to nonprofit organizations throughout the bank’s footprint.

“Our partnership with M&T is based on shared values and has produced impact on both companies and this community,” said Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti. “This agreement is a natural extension of our strong relationship and mutual commitment to pursuing excellence and strengthening this region. We look forward to continuing to work with M&T and helping those in need.”

A component of the partnership was the initiative to establish a Judith P. Hoyer Early Child Care and Family Education Center (Judy Center), which provides comprehensive services to increase school readiness for at-risk children under age five and their families. The Judy Center is located at Arundel Elementary/Middle School in the Cherry Hill section of Baltimore City and is being organized through the Baltimore Community Foundation (BCF). The Ravens and M&T provided a total of $600,000 in funding for the project.

M&T BANK HONOR ROWS

Since 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens have honored over 15,000 young people from a range of organizations, including Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Greater Chesapeake, recognizing their outstanding volunteer work. For each Ravens home game, 125 young people receive tickets, Honor Rows t-shirts, a pre-game on-field visit and official in-game recognition on the RavensVision HD video screens.

M&T BANK TOUCHDOWN FOR TEACHERS

The Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities. Three finalists are chosen annually based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and their demonstrated commitment to education. The 2022 grand prize was awarded to Shayla Proctor (pictured at right), who is a second grade special education-academic life skills teacher at Deep Run Elementary School in Elkridge, Md. The three finalists each received a personalized Ravens jersey, and were also awarded $1,000 in grant funds, while Deep Run Elementary was surprised with a check for $4,000 in grant funds in Ms. Proctor's name. Additionally, in May, Ravens mascot Poe and cheerleaders, along with CB Marlon Humphrey, made a surprise visit in which Humphrey presented Ms. Proctor with the jersey and check during an outdoor field-day event at the school.

RAVENS FOUNDATION PARTNER

Since the inception of the partnership with M&T Bank in 2003, more than $1 million has been allocated from M&T to the Ravens Foundation, Inc. to support a range of community initiatives.

Each year, M&T Bank employees volunteer to help at Ravens community events, including food drives, Habitat for Humanity builds, playground builds, back-to-school supply distributions and Earth Day clean-ups.

In June 2022, the Ravens and Heart of America joined forces to renovate Franklin Square Elementary School into a learning community large enough to support a new influx of students from a neighboring Baltimore City public school that is closing. Renovations were made to the cafeteria, gymnasium, computer lab, school hallways and teacher's lounge. The day-long project was aided by 196 Ravens volunteers – 52 of them players – in addition to staff members and executives, including team president Sashi Brown.

PARTNERSHIP FACTS

On gameday, M&T Bank is featured on an array of interior and exterior stadium signage and branding, seen by 70,745 fans and millions more on TV. As the Ravens' official bank, M&T Bank provides banking services with five Reverse ATMs located throughout the stadium, in an effort of going cashless. The partnership is based on shared values and reaches far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives, combining the strengths of the two organizations to build a better, stronger Baltimore.

M&T BANK STADIUM: THE GOLD STANDARD

In 2013, the Ravens, in partnership with the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), earned a LEED-certified Gold designation for M&T Bank Stadium from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC). The venue then received LEED Gold re-certification in 2019.

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) strives to deliver energy- and water-efficient, healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-savings buildings, homes and communities.

M&T Bank Stadium became the first existing outdoor professional sports facility in the United States – including all NFL and Major League Baseball stadiums – to receive USGBC's Gold rating. A LEED certification is recognized across the globe as the premier mark of achievement in green building.

SAFETY & SECURITY RECOGNITIONS

In June of 2022, M&T Bank Stadium received the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security (NCS4) Facility of Merit Award. The Facility of Merit Award recognizes a facility that has performed above and beyond normal operations to demonstrate an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security.

M&T Bank Stadium was recognized for its leadership in addressing safety and security issues as part of the 2022 National Sports Safety and Security Conference & Exhibition from June 28-30 in Orlando, Fla.

M&T Bank
STADIUM

In April 2020, the Ravens announced that M&T Bank Stadium had been recognized by the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) with a SAFETY Act Designation, acknowledging excellence in gameday security practices.

The Ravens received the SAFETY Act Designation for the M&T Bank Stadium Security Program, a comprehensive program that includes the screening of visitors and packages, emergency plans, threat assessments, physical and electronic security equipment, and trained personnel. The security program applies to the entire stadium property, including the seating bowl and suites, gates, loading dock, inner and secondary perimeters, field, locker rooms, utility and mechanical systems, and command center.

SUSTAINABILITY FACTS FOR M&T BANK STADIUM

- All construction associated with M&T Bank Stadium's $120 million improvement project from 2017-19 was designed using LEED standards.
- The 2019 change from metal halide sports lights to LED sports lights reduces energy consumption by 50%.
- The stadium's efficient irrigation system and adaptive vegetation reduces 30% of its potable water for outside irrigation.
- Electricity at the stadium was reduced from 15,952,984 kilowatt hours in 2005 to 10,881,579 in 2012.
- The electricity savings of 5,071,405 kilowatt hours can heat about 440 homes for a year.
- Installation of waterless urinals & water-efficient restroom fixtures saves over 3 million gallons of water per year.
- There is a 43% water reduction in the stadium with the installation of over 400 waterless urinals.
- 38% of M&T Bank Stadium staff use alternative transportation to work, contributing to the stadium's carbon footprint reduction of 123,070 metric tons of greenhouse gas emissions per year.
- 71% of regularly-occupied spaces have access to outdoor views of Baltimore.
- The stadium is 27% above the national average in energy efficiency.
- The stadium recycles 31% of its regular waste.

IN-GAME ENTERTAINMENT

MASCOT POE

The gameday experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere by providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' fun-loving mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly to your next function, please visit: www.baltimore Ravens.com/fans/mascots.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' Cheerleaders are the longest-tenured co-ed squad in the National Football League. With over 50 athletes in total, the squad is comprised of both a dance and a stunt team. Cheerleaders also spend time in our community helping raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. To schedule an appearance, visit: www.baltimore Ravens.com/cheerleaders.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Celebrating 75 years of existence in 2022, Baltimore's Marching Ravens (formerly Colts) is comprised of over 150 members. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the Ravens' current musical ensemble. BMR is deeply involved in the Baltimore community, appearing at several parades and events each year. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, visit: www.baltimore Ravens.com/fans/marching-ravens.

LIVE RAVENS

The Ravens' live mascots, Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit: www.baltimore Ravens.com/fans/mascots.

M&T BANK STADIUM PLAYING SURFACE

In May of 2016, the Ravens switched from artificial turf to natural grass at M&T Bank Stadium. As former team president Dick Cass stated, "The players really wanted to play on grass, and that was a key consideration." Baltimore had natural grass in the stadium when it first opened in 1998, but the Ravens changed to an artificial turf from Sportex Momentum Turf for the 2003 season, and then replaced that with a newer Shaw Momentum 51 turf prior to the start of 2010. The Ravens now play on this new strain of grass, developed on a sod farm in North Carolina, that is a mixture of Bermuda and some rye. Officials believe it is more robust than what was previously played on in the stadium. The Ravens also use special artificial lights/lamps to keep grass growing where the field is shaded, particularly during the winter months.

All Ravens games can be heard on 98Rock WIYY (97.9 FM), WBAL 1090 AM/101.5 FM, ESPN 630 AM (Washington, D.C.), baltimore Ravens.com and in the Ravens mobile app (when fans are in Baltimore). This network broadcasts each game with affiliates spanning five states – Maryland, Delaware, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and West Virginia – and Washington, D.C. The Spanish radio broadcast of all Ravens games can be heard on Radio La Mera Mera 1050 AM and WTTZ 93.5 FM.

In 2022, two of the Ravens' three preseason games will be called on TV by Sandusky, the "Voice of the Ravens," with CBS Sports' Evan Washburn (seen at right with Sandusky) handling sideline reporting duties. (The crew's booth analysis role will be announced in late-July.)

The Emmy Award-winning preseason TV broadcasts and pre-game shows are produced by Ravens Productions, led by coordinating producer Matt Brevet, producer Andy Bock and director Dan Reagan. They air on WBAL-TV, WJLA (Washington, D.C.), WGAL (York/Lancaster/Harrisburg, Pa.), WWCW (Roanoke, Va.), WUPV (Richmond, Va.), WTVZ-TV (Norfolk, Va.), and WMDT (Delmarva area). Broadcasts are also simulcast on all radio affiliates.
