SEASON SUMMARY

Under first-year head coach Mike Zimmer, the Minnesota Vikings showed potential and promise for the future. The Vikings young roster improved from their 5-10-1 season in 2013 to win 7 games in 2014 despite a myriad of circumstances. The Vikings owned a 5-3 record in year 1 of 2 at their temporary home, TCF Bank Stadium.

Both 2014 first-round selections, LB Anthony Barr and QB Teddy Bridgewater, flashed potential during their initial campaigns. Barr, who was the No. 9 overall pick last May, finished the season with 99 tackles, the fifth most among Vikings rookies all time. Bridgewater, who was the final pick in the first round, had the best season for a rookie QB in franchise history.

Bridgewater put together an impressive rookie season after being thrust into the lineup in Week 3 following Matt Cassell's season-ending foot injury. Appearing in 13 games and making 12 starts (6-6), Bridgewater finished with an 85.2 passer rating, one of many franchise rookie records broken by the 22-year-old. Bridgewater hit his stride late and built momentum to carry over into his second season.

From Week 13 through Week 17, Bridgewater ranked tied for first in completion percentage (72.1), second in passer rating (103.0), second in yards per attempt (8.79) and third in touchdown percentage (5.7) among all NFL passers. Bridgewater was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, becoming the first QB in team history to earn the honor. Bridgewater is the 10th Viking to be named to the all-rookie team since 2007.

The Vikings defense showed immense improvement from 2013 to 2014 under the tutelage of Zimmer. The defense allowed 113 less points in 2014, the biggest improvement in the NFL from 2013. The defense, which ranked 31st in 2013, jumped to 14th in the NFL behind the play of S Harrison Smith and CB Xavier Rhodes. Smith, who led the team with five interceptions, showed his versatility becoming the only player in the NFL to record at least 3.0 sacks and 3 interceptions in 2014. Rhodes led the Vikings in passes defended for the second consecutive season and ranked tied for fourth in the NFL with 18 passes defended.

In his first season as a full time starter, DE Everson Griffen proved his worth by collecting a career high and team-leading 12.0 sacks and earning Pro Bowl alternate honors.

The Vikings currently hold the 11th pick the 2015 NFL draft and a total of 7 picks

NORSEMAN NOTABLES

- S Harrison Smith became the 4th DB in Vikings history to record at least 3 sacks (3.0) and 3 INTs (5) and the only player in the NFL in 2014 to do so. Smith also led the Vikings in tackles for the 1st time in his career with 120.
- DE Everson Griffen started all 16 games for the 1st time in his career and set career highs in tackles (75), sacks (12.0) and TFLs (21). Griffen's 12.0 sacks led the team and ranked 2nd in the NFC and 4th in the NFL among all DEs.
- QB Teddy Bridgewater's 85.2 passer rating was the 7th best in NFL history among rookie QBs. Bridgewater's 64.4 completion percentage also ranks 3rd all-time for a rookie QB.
- Since 2011, special teams coordinator Mike Priefer's first year in Minnesota, the Vikings are tied with the Ravens and the Eagles for the most special teams TDs with 8 (4 kickoff returns, 2 punt returns, 2 blocked punt returns).

- WR Greg Jennings led the team with 742 receiving yards and 6 receiving TDs, 4 of which came in the final 6 games. Jennings moved into the top 100 on the all-time receptions list in 2014, finishing at 91st with 552 career receptions.
- In 2014, the Vikings defense allowed 113 less offensive points than in 2013, the biggest improvement in the NFL. The Vikings offensive points per game allowed in 2014 (20.3) ranked 13th in the NFL, improving from 32nd in 2013 (27.4).
- In the the month of December, Bridgewater ranked 1st in yards per attempt (9.18), 2nd in completion percentage (72.3%), 4th in passer rating (99.8) and 6th in passing yards (1,092) among all NFL passers.

MIKE ZIMMER

NFL Head Coach: 1st Year
Overall NFL Experience: 21st Year
Coaching Experience: 36th Year
Overall NFL Record: 7-9 (.438)
Regular Season: 7-9 (.438)
Postseason: 0-0

Mike Zimmer was hired as the 9th Head Coach in Vikings history on January 15, 2014. A veteran defensive coordinator, Zimmer enters his 21st season on an NFL sideline, the past 14 working as defensive coordinator for Cincinnati (2008-13), Atlanta (2007) and Dallas (2000-06).

Zimmer has been a part of 11 playoff teams in his NFL tenure and teams that have won 7 Division titles. He coached the Cowboys DBs when the team won Super Bowl XXX over Pittsburgh after the 1995 season. Since 2009, Zimmer's Bengals defenses ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense 4 times, climbing to #3 in 2013. Since 2011, the Bengals ranked #2 in the NFL with 139 sacks (46.3 per season) and have allowed 18.8 points per game, ranking #4 in the NFL in points allowed. The 2013 Bengals posted 20 INTs, the 5th-best mark in the NFL.

Zimmer's arrival in Cincinnati for the 2008 season signaled a franchise turnaround on the defensive side of the ball. The Bengals notched top-10 defensive rankings in 2009, '11, '12 and '13 after only cracking the NFL's top 10 once in 18 seasons prior to Zimmer joining the team. During his tenure, Zimmer coached Geno Atkins as he became one of the top DTs in the NFL, earning consensus All-Pro honors in 2012 and Pro Bowl berths in 2011 and 2012. In 2013, LB Von-taze Burfict continued his rise from an undrafted rookie free agent in 2012 to a Pro Bowler in 2013. Atkins became the 1st Bengals defensive lineman since Tim Krumrie in 1988 to earn a Pro Bowl trip and Burfict was the 1st Bengals LB to be honored since Jim LeClair in 1976. Over the 2012 and 2013 seasons, the Bengals had 4 different players earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors-Michael Johnson, Carlos Dunlap, Atkins and Burfict.

Zimmer led top-10 defenses for Dallas in both a 4-3 and 3-4 scheme. The 2003 Cowboys defense ranked #1 in the NFL with only 253.3 yards per game allowed. During Zimmer's tenure in Dallas as DBs coach (1994-99) and Defensive Coordinator (2000-06) the team ranked in the top 5 of NFL scoring defense a total of 6 times. The 1995 Cowboys hoisted the Lombardi Trophy in Super Bowl XXX with a win over Pittsburgh and one of Zimmer's pupils, CB Larry Brown, won the Super Bowl MVP award with a pair of INTs in the game. Brown is 1 of only 3 DBs to earn Super Bowl MVP honors in the history of the game.

Before moving to the NFL ranks, Zimmer spent 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. He spent his final 5 seasons in the college ranks as defensive coordinator at Washington State from 1989-93. Zimmer was at Weber State from 1981-88, serving as defensive coordinator from '83-88. He entered the coaching profession at Missouri where he served as an assistant from 1979-80.

Zimmer played QB and later LB at Illinois State, earning a degree in physical education. He has 3 children, son Adam and daughters Corri and Marki. Adam is coaching the Vikings LBs after having spent time with Kansas City, New Orleans and Cincinnati as an assistant LBs and DBs coach. The father-son duo has both earned Super Bowl titles with Adam's coming following the 2009 season when the Saints won Super Bowl XLIV over Indianapolis. Coaching is a family tradition with the Zimmers as Mike's father, Bill, earned Illinois Hall of Fame honors as a prep football and wrestling coach. Zimmer played football, baseball and wrestled at Lockport Township High School in suburban Chicago. Both Bill and Mike Zimmer have been inducted into the Lockport Hall of Fame and Bill is also in the Bradley University (Peoria, IL) Hall of Fame.

Vikki Zimmer, Mike's wife of 27 years, passed away in Cincinnati on October 8, 2009. The Pro Football Writers of America recognized Zimmer overcoming the tragedy and the Bengals #4 ranked defense playing a key role in winning then AFC North title by voting him the winner of the Halas Award for the season, an annual award presented to the individual in the NFL that overcame the most adversity to succeed.

DECEMBER 30, 2014 Vikings Head Coach Mike Zimmer

Before I forget I want to thank everybody, all of the media here, for putting up with me. I know sometimes I'm not the easiest guy to deal with but I try to do be honest with you all of the time I can. And also to the fans. I think the fans this year were great. You think back 11-and-a-half months ago when I came here, I think they embraced us and my coaches and the way that we tried to instill what we're trying to teach here. We've had a long season and we were able to have a bunch of alumni come in, a lot of the former players and got a chance to visit with some of our team, so those things were all good. I talked to the team yesterday before they got out of here. There were some good things that happened throughout the course of the year but not enough good things. We didn't finish where we needed to finish and nothing in the NFL is guaranteed, nothing in the NFL stays the same. Anything that we did last year, whether it be good or bad, next year will be a different season and there will be different players, different teams that we're playing against, different players on those teams and so things happen so quickly. The most important thing for us is that right now that they get away from here for a little bit, they replenish their bodies, they refresh, and get back together as a football team and continue to try to preach the messages like I have up here on these signs, upstairs, that we get back to work and accomplish some of the goals that we want to get done.

Q: You said on Sunday that you'd feel more comfortable today giving an assessment of your overall season. In terms of your job as a coach how do you think you did this season?

A: Well honestly I never felt overwhelmed from the day I walked in. I was really lucky to walk into a place like this that has such a great support group. The people upstairs - the ownership, Rick [Spielman] and Rob Brzezinski and George [Paton] and [Scott] Studwell and all of those guys - they've helped me in so many different ways. And then I was fortunate enough to have really good people that I could lean on like Norv Turner, who has been through this for quite a bit of time. Are there some things that I would do differently? Sure. Did I make some mistakes? Sure. But I felt like each and every day I came to work that I gave this team and the fans and the organization the very best I could give them. I believe in my heart that I'll be even better next year with everything that I do just because I've been through all of these different things. Were there things that surprised me? Sure. During games were there things that happened that the referee had to explain something to me? Yeah, but I don't think that's unique with any coach, let alone a first-year guy. The feedback that I got from the players was very positive. Now they might be just telling me stuff but it was very positive from the ones I talked to.

Q: How do you feel handling game management situations for the first time?

A: I think any time when you look at things realistically, again, I don't feel like I'm one of those guys that's going to say, "Hey, I did everything right or wrong," or even if I did I'm not going to say it. I think in retrospect you can always say well because it didn't turn out the way you wanted it to turn out you would have done it differently. The times when I made those decisions, most of the times, I felt like I was making the right ones. Just like when I make a call on defense, I'll cuss myself out I guess for, "you shouldn't have made that call then," and that happens throughout the course of the game, but probably not as much as when I did it on defense.

Q: Does the end of the Buffalo game still gnaw at you a little bit?

A: Yeah, and that was part of the reason. I think hopefully I learned from that. Everything was so helter skelter. A team shouldn't convert on fourth-and-20 but everything was so helter skelter at the time and it turned out to be such a critical play in the season and the game, but like Sunday when it was fourth-and-9 and it was kind of the same situation - everything was kind of helter skelter, the clock was going down, they were going up, we couldn't get the call - I called timeout on that one. Now they converted the fourth down but I think I learned from the Buffalo game in that situation. I've said this before, I've never liked to use timeouts on defense; I think there are times to do it. Most of the head coaches that I've worked for don't like to waste them on defense because guys should be able to get lined up and do those things but I felt like in that situation last week against Chicago that it was a time to do it and it didn't work out. So you say to yourself, "Well, maybe if we don't call it." I think you can second-guess yourself on a lot of different things.

Q: How much turnover do you foresee on the roster?

A: All of those things are going to depend on when we sit down next week and we go through our player evaluations, cap-wise, all of the different scenarios that come up, we'll talk about that. I do expect that there will be turnover. I know that myself, Rick, the scouts, the coaches are committed to turning over every rock possible to look to keep working on acquisition of talent whether it's in the Canadian Football League or college or free agency. We're going to work diligently on trying to improve this football team the very best we can. I'm not just talking about personnel, I'm talking about schemes, I'm talking about everything that we can do. I do think I have a much better idea of the players now than I did, obviously, at this time a year ago. I think seeing them in the game-type situations, seeing them every day in practice, seeing them in the meetings help to figure out what they can do better, what they don't do quite as well and things that we can change and try to make us more successful than we were.

Q: You emphasized the defensive side more in free agency in the draft. Will you make more of an emphasis on the offensive side this offseason?

A: Really what we're going to try to do is improve the football team the very best we can. We're going to continue to look whether it's defense, offense, special teams. It doesn't matter to me how we win football games. I do think we have a good, young nucleus of talent here. I think a lot of guys have stepped up this season that improved, that showed that they have the ability but kind of the same thing I said to them - nothing that they did a year ago will matter next year when we come back in April. It's about continually developing and getting better each and every week.

Q: How close are you to establishing the culture that you want in this organization?

A: One of the things that I wanted to try to do when I came here was to try to change the culture as much as I possibly could. I think in a lot of ways it's moving in that direction as far as developing the mindset, developing the mental toughness, all of the things that I said really in the first press conference I ever had. I don't believe we're there yet. I think there's still a lot of preaching, a lot of sweat and pushing that I'm going to have to make sure that I continue to do but I do think that the players, for the most part, feel like the program is going in the right direction.

Q: Regardless of the economic factors and maybe even political factors, do you want Adrian Peterson back on this team?

A: Well as I've said many, many times Adrian was always great with me. I think he's a good person, I think, obviously, he's a great running back. If it works out that way, and things work out, and he gets his life in order - that's the most important thing, he gets his life in order - he gets the opportunity to come back then I will be in his corner whatever the decision is made.

Q: Do you believe he still adds value to the team?

A: I think he'd add value to any team to be honest with you. I think the kid's a heck of a football player. I was just watching our offensive tape, I was starting to go back right now with evaluating our players and I started with the offense in St. Louis. There's a good recollection on my mind right now of him.

Q: When do you need to have that settled from an organizational standpoint?

A: Part of it is our hands are partly tied with the NFL and what the timeframe that they give us but also it's partly up to Adrian and make sure he's doing what he has to do in order to get back, reinstated off the suspension. Those are all factors that we have to factor in. We would love to know ASAP just so that we can start going. You know a guy like him, your football team and offense can be different if you have him and if you don't have him. It's how you want to build the team around him, at least in my opinion anyway. I haven't talked to Rick about a lot of these questions that you're asking yet because we just finished the season but we'll sit down and we'll visit about all of this.

Q: Do you think that there is any credence to the fact that he hasn't had as much wear-and-tear on his body given that he has 15 games of not getting pounded? Does that hurt him or does that help him?

A: He didn't take any punishment other than the one game and he's a pretty resilient guy and I'm sure that he's going to be in shape and all of those things. Again, I can only go on what I saw from him and how he was with me. When I first got the job, you know one of the things that I wanted to make sure I did was to develop a relationship with Adrian to try to cultivate him into working with me and this program. I felt like over, really the short period of time that we were together, that we had done that. I really like the kid and I hope what's best for him.

Q: Do you think it was fair, the decision that were made on him?

A: I don't know that it's my job to decide on fair, it's just what it is and what they decided. If I said it was fair or unfair it wouldn't matter; the outcome is still the same to this point. I don't think it's fair that [Phil] Loadholt got hurt or [Brandon] Fusco or anything else but you deal with it.

Q: How much does that change what you guys wanted to do offensively and how long did it take to recover?

A: Well it changed quite bit and then Fusco got hurt the third game and Cassel got hurt the third game I believe it was, something like that, a lot of things it changes. We're not making excuses about that stuff. It happens to every team in the league - guys get hurt and they get lost for the season. You hope that those things never happen but it does each and every week in the NFL. As I've said before, it's really survival of the fittest and toughest, and physical teams and mentally tough teams usually find a way to get it done.

Q: How do you think the secondary did in your first year? And do you believe you have a good foundation?

A: I think they improved. We're not where I want to be yet. I think we still have so much more work to do as far as those things. I'm pretty tough on those guys especially. I think we have talent back there, yeah. Honestly at every position we're looking to get better. It doesn't matter where it is, we're looking to get better if we can. We need to continue to look at every possible place we can to find better.

Q: How do you evaluate Captain Munnery's season?

A: It was up and down, I think. He had some good games and some rough games, but he has the ability to do what we're asking him to do, if he does it.

FROM HEAD COACH MIKE ZIMMER

Q: What's your plan for Cordarrelle Patterson this offseason?

A: I talked to someone today about Cordarrelle, about working with Cordarrelle, about getting those two guys together. Somebody that I trust, somebody that I think would be a great influence for him and I'm not going to talk about who it is. That's part of the thing that I said last week about I have a plan for him, but we're not allowed to coach him, that's partly why it's up to him. I think this would be good for him and hopefully he will follow through and get to where he needs to get to.

Q: Is it a coach or a former player or an instructor?

A: Kind of all three.

Q: Is the goal trying to help him on the field or do you want to help him off the field as well?

A: No, Cordarrelle, he's really a good kid, he's really a good kid. He's very respectful in everything he does. It's not really about life, although I'm sure this guy will teach him something about life, too. It's more about playing, being a receiver.

Q: Do you think Chad Greenway still good enough at his age to be a starter next season?

A: I do, I do. I love Chad. Chad's a good guy. You'd have to ask him, but I think even at his stage in his career, he probably learned some things this year. We asked him to do a lot of different things that he probably hasn't done before. He's the kind of guy that we'd like to have. Now, I don't know what's going to happen with him, or anybody else. I would be the first one, if it wasn't going to work out or Chad didn't want to be here, I'd expect that him and I would have the first conversation of anyone. I have total amount of respect for him and I will treat him with the same kind of respect.

Q: Do you get involved with any of the player's salaries?

A: No, I'm not a money man, I'm a coach, that's all I do, is I try to coach. They work out the monetary values, they work out the contracts and that's why these players have agents. That's why we have Rob Brzezinski and Rick (Spielman) to handle those things. Once they make the decision, like I talked to Chad last year after he did, I just try to coach them. Guys that are here I try to coach, guys that we keep trying to get more guys in here and I keep trying to coach them.

Q: Was your emphasis on stopping the run and not being as successful at it as you would have liked the most disappointing thing of the season?

A: In some games, each game is a little bit different, I think. Each game is a little bit different in the fact that you're trying to take away certain things, and I don't believe defensively we were at the point where we could just kind of do whatever we wanted to do. We had to kind of pick our spots in a lot of different ways, still right now. I know that we finished 14th in the league in defense, but that's really not a big deal, it's really not a big deal to me. It's not anywhere close to where I want to be. Did we make some strides in some areas? Yeah, I think so, but it's not really what I'm looking for.

Q: Did you see enough from the duo of Matt Asiata and Jerick McKinnon to carry your running game in the future?

A: I don't know. I think both of them did a good job and they both have different qualities. I think those are all things that we'll talk about as we get going more this next week.

Q: Do you expect to keep your staff intact for next season?

A: Well, you know Clint Kubiak took a job with [the University of Kansas]. I don't anticipate, but there's always the possibility that things may change. I think we've got a good coaching staff here, and I'll be sitting down with them more this week. A lot of it honestly, a lot of it's about, do they want to be here? How's the relationship between us going forward? And then some guys, they might not be able to work out things contractually, but overall, I anticipate most of them to be back, yeah.

Q: Considering you have Teddy Bridgewater at quarterback how does that change your offensive offseason focus compared to last year?

A: The quarterback spot, we obviously thought we had Adrian (Peterson), we thought the offensive line was in a pretty good spot and the quarterback was the key thing and the main focus was trying to improve the defense. I think we're fortunate in the fact that we learned an awful lot about Teddy this year and the progress that he's made. He's still got to get a lot better to get to where we want to go. He's got to improve in the offense and things like that, but yeah, I think it will allow the focus to move to another spot, other spots, not one spot, but other spots, we've got a lot of spots we've got to get better at. I think that helps solidify probably the number one question that was going on at this point in time last year. Actually this time last year I was getting ready to get beat in a playoff game.

Q: What does it mean for this team next year to take the next step and make the playoffs?

A: I mean, that's really why you play, is to go to the playoffs and have a chance to win the Super Bowl. We're not a playoff team right now, and as I said, things are going to change so much in these next six months, the teams that we play will be different, their personnel will be different. Right now, our number goal is to how can we improve this football to get to where we want to get to, the kind of football team that we want to have, the kind of players that we want to represent the Minnesota Vikings? And then we will start worrying about more things like that next year. You know, we finished third in the division, before we can worry about the playoffs we've got to worry about doing better in the division than what we did. So, right now, it is what it is. And again, nothing that happened a year ago, good or bad will matter next year at all.

Q: What do you think of the schedule for next year it looks pretty tough?

A: I hope they're saying the same thing about us. We played the NFC South last year, probably people thought, "Wow, those are pretty good teams." That's kind of what I told the players, things change so much in football and pro football now that you really don't know, just because it says the Denver Broncos, you don't know who they really are until you get ready to play them, with the number of injuries, the free agency, the draft, all of the different things. Hopefully they're looking at our schedule next year when it's time to play us and say, "These guys are pretty good."

Q: Are you going to get away at all and decompress in some warmer weather?

A: Yeah, I'm going to head out this weekend, and then I'll be back. Trying to think where else I'm going. I got a pretty full schedule, yeah.

Q: Red wine and an iPad in your hands?

A: I will, a little red wine, a tractor.

Q: Considering you had some success through all of the different situations in your first year as a head coach, do you kind of pat yourself on the back after waiting so long to get your first head coaching job?

A: I don't really pat myself on the back too much, my arms aren't that long. I kind of go back and think of the same thing when I was a coordinator, I'll let other people decide what kind of job they think I did or didn't do, and the same thing for me. If I don't work hard this offseason, if I don't perform well next year, none of it will matter. Yesterday, quite honestly, yesterday was not a good day for me. When you see guys I respect like Marc Trestman, Rex Ryan, these guys, Mike Smith, they end up getting fired and you go back think, "Hey, Mike Smith, he won 12 games his first two years, Trestman is one game from missing the playoffs his first year, then they get fired." I never like to see coaches get fired. Obviously, if some wouldn't I wouldn't have a job and other guys wouldn't have a job, that's just part of it, but that doesn't mean you have to hope ill will for other people. I understand the expectations for coaches and our job is to win now, that's just the way that it is. I got off on a tangent. It's about patting me on the back, yeah. I think that we did some good things this year. I think we did. I think the team practiced their rear ends off, they studied, they bought in. We changed so many things, the food, the meeting room here, the outdoor practice at the end of the year, we changed so many things, the weight room, how we travel, all kinds of different things and I think that the players, I'm not sure they all liked it, but they pretty much bought into what we're trying to do and that was the biggest thing for me, was that we establish the routine, establish the mindset, establish what we're trying to do and force feed them into what we want to get accomplished. Hopefully, we will continue to get better in the things that we did good and we need to improve a whole bunch in the areas that we did not do good. We've got so many areas that we need to get better at. I've got a whiteboard in my office that I had put in when I got here, I've already wrote down a bunch of things that I want to start going to there, but I wanted to make sure that I finished the season, I gave the players my very best effort through the Chicago game and then I could start thinking about where we need to go from there.

Q: Have you had any type of conversations with Matt Cassel about accepting a back-up role?

A: I have not, I have not. Until we finish evaluations and all of those things, but Teddy (Bridgewater) is the quarterback, there's no doubt in my mind. He's the quarterback regardless of, I won't say that.

Q: Is there a moment that will really stick with you, good or bad?

A: I don't know that there was any one moment, I mean there's so many highs and lows throughout the season. If you go back and you think about, I reflect back a lot on the first day I got here with the team, we went and we practiced and how hard they practiced and how fast and the tempo, and everything. Then you go back and you think about the preseason games and how well we played. Then the very first game we played our rear ends off in St. Louis, and then things started happening and getting kind of out of whack there for a while. I think the resiliency of this football team, kept fighting. There's a lot of stuff that went on, they kept going. The coaches did a good job of keeping them focused. We didn't sit there and say, "Woe, is me, this happened or this guy got hurt." It was, let's go play football. This is what we do. This is what we all dreamed about. I don't know. It will be in my book. I'm kidding.

Q: With all of the adversity and such a young roster, is there a lasting effect that will carry over?

A: I hope that's part of it, but I also hope that it gives them the idea that this football doesn't last long all of the time. Nothing is guaranteed for us. Nothing is guaranteed next year. A guy gets hurt it's not guaranteed he's going to make it back. A guy gets hurt and he doesn't get a chance to play anymore. Really, nothing is guaranteed. I hope our players understand that part about it. We have to play each week like it's our last game, our last chance to go out there and perform and hopefully we get a chance to continue to play, because like I said before, we want passionate, smart, tough, competitors who love the game of football. That's really what we're looking for, is guys that that's what it's all about. It's not about the money and going out and being a celebrity. It's about doing the very best thing that we can do to become the best football team here for the Minnesota Vikings.

2014 VIKINGS COACHING STAFF

NORV TURNER
Offensive Coordinator

Norv Turner enters his 30th season of NFL coaching in 2014 and his 1st as Offensive Coordinator of the Vikings. A veteran head coach and coordinator, Turner has 15 seasons as an NFL head coach under his belt and as an offensive coordinator for Dallas he helped the Cowboys win Super Bowl XXVII (vs. Buffalo, 1992) and XXVIII (vs. Buffalo, 1993).

Turner most recently served as Offensive Coordinator in Cleveland for the 2013 season and has 8 total seasons as a coordinator- Dallas (1991-93), San Diego (2001), Miami (2002-03), San Francisco (2006) and Cleveland (2013). His 3 stints as a head coach came with Washington (1994-2000), Oakland (2004-05) and San Diego (2007-12).

Since 2007, Turner's teams have ranked in the NFL's top 5 in offensive points 3 times and the 2010 Chargers notched the #1 offense in the league with a 395.6 yard per game output. Turner's system has produced the NFL's leading rusher on 5 different occasions- Emmitt Smith (1991-93), Ricky Williams (2002) and LaDainian Tomlinson (2007). With Cleveland in 2013, Browns WR Josh Gordon led the NFL with 1,646 yards and 9 TDs on 87 catches in only 14 games, doubling his yardage output from the season before. Gordon joined Michael Irvin as WRs under Turner who led the NFL in receiving.

Turner honed his coaching skills at USC from 1976-84 under John Robinson, who had been on the Oregon staff when Turner was a QB from 1971-74. His first taste of coaching came as a graduate assistant in 1975 at Oregon before joining Robinson at USC.

Turner joined Robinson's LA Rams staff (1985-90) and was part of a successful program, winning the NFC West in 1985, earning 4 trips to the playoffs in 6 seasons with the club and working closely with pioneering Rams offensive coordinator Ernie Zampese. In 1991, Turner began a 3-season stint as offensive coordinator for Dallas, helping future Hall of Famer Troy Aikman develop into one of the NFL's greats. In Turner's 1st season, Smith led the NFL in rushing and Michael Irvin led the NFL in receiving, the 1st time since the 1970 merger that teammates led the league in each category, a feat only achieved one time since (Indianapolis, 1999). Smith led the NFL in rushing each season and in 1993 earned NFL MVP honors, the only Dallas player to win the award.

The foundation Turner laid in Dallas helped him earn the head coaching job in Washington from 1994-2000, posting 4 winning seasons, claiming the NFC East in 1999 and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. Turner went on to serve as head coach in Oakland (2004-05) and most recently San Diego (2007-12) where he won 3 straight AFC West titles (2007-09) and finished 2nd in the Division the other 3 seasons, advancing to face New England in the 2007 AFC Championship game and posting a 56-40 record in regular season action. Turner was honored as USA Today NFL Coach of the Year in 2009.

Turner was raised in the Bay Area suburb of Martinez, CA and attended Alhambra High. As a standout QB and DB, Turner earned a scholarship to Oregon where he was a 3-year letterman for the Ducks (1972-74). Turner's brother, Ron, was an NFL coach with Chicago, Indianapolis and Tampa Bay and currently is head coach at Florida International University, returning to the college ranks where he had been a head coach twice. Turner and wife, Nancy, have 3 children. The eldest, Scott, serves on the Vikings coaching staff working with the QBs after working as an assistant coach with Carolina (2011-12) and Cleveland (2013).

GEORGE EDWARDS
Defensive Coordinator

George Edwards makes his Vikings debut in 2014 as the Defensive Coordinator. This will be Edwards' 3rd stint as an NFL Defensive Coordinator after working in Washington (2003) and Buffalo (2010-2011) in the same capacity. The 2014 season will be Edwards' 17th season in the NFL and 24th season as a coach, all spent on the defensive side of the ball.

Edwards returned to Miami for his second stint as LBs coach for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. In both seasons, Edwards saw 2 starting LBs with at least 100+ tackles. In 2013, newcomers Philip Wheeler (118) and Dannell Ellerbe (101) finished 1st and 3rd on the team in tackles, respectively.

Edwards served as Defensive Coordinator with the Buffalo Bills in 2010 and 2011. While with the Bills, Edwards led a base 3-4 defense, however the unit was flexible and played out of multiple fronts throughout his tenure. During his time with the Bills, defensive tackle Kyle Williams emerged as a defensive presence and was named to his first Pro Bowl and produced career numbers in sacks (5.5) and fumble recoveries (2) in 2010. Also under Edwards' watch in 2010, the Bills' pass defense allowed an average of 192.0 passing yards per game to rank 3rd in the AFC, while producing 9 fumble recoveries to tie for 4th in the AFC and forcing 12 fumbles to tie for 5th in the AFC.

From 2005-2009, Edwards was the LBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. His first 3 years with Miami were spent tutoring the linebackers before focusing on the inside linebackers in 2008. Under Edwards, Zach Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl following both the 2005 and '06 seasons and was named as the NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year for the 2006 season.

Edwards spent the 2004 season as the Cleveland Browns Linebackers coach. Before that, Edwards was with the Washington Redskins for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In 2003, Edwards was named the Defensive Coordinator for the 1st time in his career. Following the '03 season, linebacker LaVar Arrington and cornerback Champ Bailey were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad. In 2002, Edwards served as the Redskins' assistant defensive coordinator/LBs coach, as Arrington accounted for the most productive season of his NFL career with 107 tackles and 11 sacks and earned his 2nd consecutive Pro Bowl berth.

Edwards entered the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys and remained there from 1998-2001. Serving as the LBs coach, Edwards worked under Defensive Coordinator Mike Zimmer who led the Cowboys' defensive attack. Under Edwards' guidance, Dexter Coakley, a 3rd-round draft choice in 1997, was selected to the Pro Bowl twice over the 4-year span (1999, 2001), as he was Dallas' 2nd-leading tackler all 4 years.

Before making the leap to the NFL ranks, Edwards held collegiate assistant posts at Florida (1991), Appalachian State (1992-95), Duke (1996) and Georgia (1997).

A 4-year letterman at Duke University, Edwards was twice named the special teams captain and an honorable mention All-ACC selection at linebacker in 1989.

A native of Siler City, N.C., Edwards and his wife, Jami, have a son, B.J.

MIKE PRIEFER
Special Teams Coordinator

Mike Priefer enters his 4th year with the Vikings organization as the Special Teams Coordinator. The 13-year NFL coaching veteran has held the same title with the Denver Broncos and Kansas City Chiefs in years past.

Priefer's special teams units are known for creating big-play opportunities. Since entering the League, Priefer has seen his units account for 18 scores (9 KOR, 6 PR, 1 blocked punt, 1 botched FG and 1 safety). He has also seen his squads block 19 kicks (7 punts, 8 FGs, 4 PATs) since 2002.

Since joining the NFL, Priefer has helped David Tyree (ST), Chris Hanson (P), Blair Walsh (K) and Cordarrelle Patterson (RS) earn Pro Bowl nods. Both Walsh and Patterson were named 1st-Team Associated Press All-Pro as rookies, 2 of only 3 Vikings rookies to earn 1st-Team honors in team history. Priefer went to the playoffs with the Giants in 2005 (NFC East Champions), 2006 with Kansas City (Wild Card) and 2012 with the Vikings (Wild Card). In 2012, Priefer was named Special Teams Coach of the Year as voted on by his NFL counterparts and his units ranked #1 in the NFL by the acclaimed Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings.

In 2013, the Vikings showcased the #1 KR man in the NFL, Cordarrelle Patterson, and the #2 PR man in Marcus Sherels. Patterson was named 1st-Team All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl after his record-breaking season. Patterson was also named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September and NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his Week 8 performance vs. Green Bay. The rookie broke the Vikings' single-season kick return record with 1,393 kick return yards, on 43 returns, and a 32.4 return average with 2 KR TDs, leading the NFL in all categories. The 32.4 KR average is 4th-highest in the NFL since the 1970 merger and highest since 1985. Patterson tied the single-season team-record with 2 KR TDs (105t, 109t), also leading the NFL. Patterson's 109-yard KR TD (10/27/13 vs. GB) was the longest kick return in NFL history. The Vikings average starting position was the 27.2 yard line in 2013. That is the best starting position in the NFL since the NFL moved kickoffs to the 35-yard line in 2010. Not to be outdone, PR Marcus Sherels set the team-record with a 15.2 PR average, good for 2nd in the NFL in 2013.

The 2012 season saw the Vikings' special teams units reach new heights. Priefer's KOR unit ranked 2nd in the NFL with a 24.6 average start following kickoffs. Rookie kicker Blair Walsh made NFL history going 10-10 on FGs of 50+ yards while being selected to his first Pro Bowl along with being named 1st-Team All-Pro by the AP.

Priefer could not have asked for a better start to the 2011 season, his 1st in Minnesota. Harvin took the opening kickoff, Week 1 at San Diego, 103 yards for a TD. Harvin later made NFL history in Week 12 at Atlanta when he returned a kickoff 104 yards before being stopped at the 3-yard line. It was the longest non-scoring play in League history.

Prior to joining the Vikings in 2011, Priefer had served as an NFL special teams coach for 9 seasons - Jacksonville (2002), New York Giants (2003-05), Kansas City (2006-08) and Denver (2009-10).

From 1994-2001, Priefer coached special teams at the collegiate level, working for Navy (1994-96), Youngstown State (1997-98), VMI (1999) and Northern Illinois (2000-01).

Priefer owns a bachelor's degree from Navy and received a master's degree from the University of Maryland in 1997. His father, Chuck, was a long-time coach who worked in the NFL (Detroit, Green Bay and San Diego) for 17 seasons and coached at the collegiate level for 12 years.

Priefer was born in Cleveland and moved frequently as a coach's son, graduating from high school in Green Bay. He is married to Debbie, and the couple has four children: Samantha, Michael Jr., Wilson and Katie.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

The Vikings began a 2-year stint at TCF Bank Stadium in 2014 hoping to continue the strong home record they have held throughout their history. The Vikings are currently 5-4 in their 9 regular season games at TCF Bank Stadium. The Vikings have amassed the 3rd-most home wins by an NFL team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The club moved from Metropolitan Stadium following the 1981 season, playing at Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome starting in 1982. The Vikings played 260 regular season and playoff games indoors, notching a 168-92 record. In 2010 the team endured the loss of the final 2 home games of the season following the collapse of the Dome roof due to heavy snows and blizzard conditions. The Vikings played "host" to the NY Giants at Detroit's Ford Field and played the regular season home finale at TCF Bank Stadium on the University of Minnesota campus when Chicago visited for a Monday Night Football matchup on 12/20/10. Ironically, the game was 29 years to the day since the last outdoor Vikings game in Minnesota, the finale at Met Stadium on 12/20/81 against Kansas City.

A SPECIAL KIND OF THIELEN

WR Adam Thielen, a native of Detroit Lakes, MN and product of Minnesota State University (formerly Mankato State), has been making the most of his opportunities since he was signed as a rookie free agent following the rookie tryout camp and eventually landed a spot on the 2013 Vikings practice squad where he stayed all season. In 2014, Thielen earned his 1st career start at New Orleans (9/21/14), led the team in receptions at Green Bay (10/2/14) and scored his 1st career TD vs. Carolina (11/30/14) on a blocked punt return. For his performance against Carolina, Thielen was recognized as the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. In the 2014 finale vs. Chicago, Thielen notched his 1st career receiving TD on a 44-yard strike from Teddy Bridgewater, the only TD scored in the 13-9 Vikings victory.

Vikings GamePlan will return for a eighth season as the team's pregame TV show. Hosted by Paul Allen, GamePlan features interviews with current players and Head Coach Mike Zimmer, game film review, expert analysis and more.
