Team Returns to Minnesota State University, Mankato for 47th Consecutive Year

In 2012, the Minnesota Vikings will call Mankato their summer home for the Verizon Vikings Training Camp for the 47th-straight season. Only the Green Bay Packers have held camp at the same location for a longer period of time (55 years at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wisconsin). This year players will report on Thursday, July 26, and camp will extend through Thursday, August 16.

More than 45,000 fans took part in all the fun and fanfare in the Vikings Village last year. The Village, as well as the Northland Ford Autograph Zone where fans can get their favorite players' autographs following selected practices, will return in 2012.

On July 27, the Vikings will hold their first open practice session at 10:30 a.m. followed by daily practices throughout camp. All regular practices are free and open to the public. The team will hold a night practice in Blakeslee Stadium on Saturday, August 4. Fans are encouraged to check Vikings.com for the most up-to-date schedule and event listings, as practice times and are subject to change.

The first player and Head Coach Leslie Frazier availability will be Thursday, July 26, as players check in from noon - 4:00 p.m. at Gage Tower dormitory. The next player availability will be following the first practice on Friday, July 27, which is scheduled to run from 10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Head coach Leslie Frazier will conduct his first press conference on Friday, July 27, at the conclusion of the morning walk-thru scheduled to end at 11:30 a.m.

2012 TRAINING CAMP MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is located in Visitors Lot #4, which is directly across from Pennington Hall. Please show your credential when exiting the lot and parking will be free. Satellite trucks can park along Ellis Avenue South, directly beside the media parking lot (see map).

CREDENTIAL PICK-UP

Media members must present valid media identification at Pennington Hall prior to receiving a training camp credential. A business card with a driver's license or an ID badge from your respected outlet is required. No children will be given media credentials at any time. There are no exceptions to this policy.

PRACTICE POLICIES

* All practices are open in their entirety during training camp. Filming/photography will be allowed through the ENTIRE practices until Saturday, August 4. The Vikings ask that video focus on individual players as opposed to specific plays. Beginning August 6, filming will be allowed through individual drills only.

* Members of the media ARE allowed to blog and/or "tweet" from the practice field during training camp.

* Due to safety precautions, no tripods are permitted along the sidelines; however, they are allowed in the end zones.

* Also due to safety precautions, no kneeling or sitting is permitted while on the practice field.

* Media members must stay behind the white lines surrounding the practice fields. Please do not go in between the fields.

* No food or drink (except water, which is provided by the team) is allowed on the fields.

* In the event of an injury, all photography and video must stop. Please do not report on injuries until the team has provided an update.

* Media members are asked to respect the difference between a player being coached and a player being admonished. While the former is allowed to be reported, the latter is not.

* Please do not report on offensive or defensive strategy, including formations, personnel groupings or unconventional plays.

* Media members are asked to NOT wear Vikings apparel, as this is a working environment.

* Media members are also asked to NOT seek autographs and/or photos with players. If a media member is caught doing this, he/she will be asked to leave.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

* Please let a member of the Vikings public relations staff know which players you would like to visit with during media availability. The PR staff will make every effort to connect you with those players at the conclusion of practice.

* Player/coaches interviews will take place in the assigned area adjacent to the east side of the tennis courts. Do not stop players on the practice fields and please step off to the side while conducting interviews to allow other players access to the locker room.

* Head Coach Leslie Frazier, as well as coordinators Bill Musgrave, Alan Williams and Mike Priefer, will be available on specified days throughout camp. Any requests to speak with the coordinators outside of those days or a position coach at any time must be approved through a member of the Vikings public relations staff.

* Media are asked to understand that because of the high demand for certain players (e.g. Jared Allen, Percy Harvin, Adrian Peterson, etc.), these players will not speak every day; if traveling, please make arrangements with the PR department ahead of time to ensure access to a specific player.

* Media members may wait for players outside of the locker room behind the chain-link fence for 30 minutes following the conclusion of practice.

* Access to the team's dorm rooms is not permitted.

VIKINGS HOST FIRST SEASON OPENER SINCE 2007

The Vikings will host their first game on NFL Kickoff Weekend since 2007 when they take on the Jacksonville Jaguars at Mall of America Field in Week 1. The last time the Vikings opened their season at home was in 2007 when RB Adrian Peterson scored his first NFL TD on a 60-yard reception in a 24-3 Vikings win over the Atlanta Falcons. Last season, Jacksonville posted a 5-11 record while finishing in 3rd place in the AFC South. The Vikings will face a tough task in defending Jaguars RB Maurice Jones-Drew, who rushed for an NFL-high 1,606 yards last season, including 8 TDs. On defense, Jacksonville ranked 6th in the League in giving up only 313.0 yards per game. The Jaguars defense also ranked 3rd in the League with forcing their opponents into three-and-outs on 29.2 percent of their drives.

In the past ten opening games, the Vikings are 5-5, with the most recent a 24-17 loss at San Diego in 2011. The last time the Vikings met Jacksonville, RB Adrian Peterson rushed for 80 yards and 1 TD in a 30-12 Vikings win in 2008. There are a couple of Vikings who have put themselves in the record book for opening game highs in recent years. In 2009, Peterson ran for 180 yards and 3 touchdowns at Cleveland, both franchise records for opening games. In 2007 vs. Atlanta, Kevin Williams returned an interception for 54 yards for a touchdown, which is the 3rd longest interception return in Vikings history on opening day.

HEAD COACH LESLIE FRAZIER

NFL Head Coach: 2nd Year
Overall NFL Experience: 20th Year
Coaching Experience: 25th Year
Overall NFL Record: 6-16
Regular Season: 6-16
Postseason: 0-0
Record with MIN: 6-16

Leslie Frazier begins his 2nd full season as Head Coach of the Vikings in 2012 with a core of young talent in place and a team motivated for success. With the unique perspective of a Super Bowl winner as a player and coach, Frazier has a proven track record of success. His 1st title came as a starting CB with the 1985 Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. Frazier marks his 14th season as an NFL coach in 2012 and has another 11 years of collegiate coaching experience. In his 13 seasons as an NFL coach, Frazier has coached on 7 playoff teams and been a part of 6 division championships.

Entering 2012, the Vikings have added talent and improved the depth on the roster. The club selected T Matt Kalil with the #4 pick in the Draft and traded up to select S Harrison Smith at #29, giving the club a rare pair of 1st-rounders and took CB Josh Robinson with their 3rd-round choice. Kalil is the Vikings highest draft pick since Hall of Famer Chris Doleman at #4 in 1985 and the 2nd-highest offensive lineman drafted in team history behind Hall of Famer Ron Yary at #1 in 1968. Smith is only the 3rd DB selected in the 1st round in Vikings history. Key free agent pickups TE John Carlson and WR Jerome Simpson give the club more offensive firepower while DBs Chris Carr and Zack Bowman improve backfield competition.

Since taking over as Head Coach for the final 6 games of the 2011 season Frazier has had to contend with injuries to marquee players and a QB position that was in flux before 1st-rounder Christian Ponder took control of the job. The Vikings of 2011 flashed the talent that is in place on the roster but struggled with inconsistency and injuries during a 3-13 campaign. Individually, DE Jared Allen came close to NFL history with a 22.0-sack season, breaking the Vikings record and coming within reach of the NFL's single-season mark. Allen was recognized with an Associated Press 1st-Team All-Pro nod and a starter's job in the Pro Bowl. He was joined at the Pro Bowl by LB Chad Greenway, who marked the 3rd of the past 4 Vikings' 1st-round draft picks to earn Pro Bowl honors. Offensively, Percy Harvin showed his dynamic playmaking ability as he set Vikings records for rushing by a WR, returned his Vikings-record 4th career kickoff for a TD and set career-highs for receiving. Rookie TE Kyle Rudolph earned All-Rookie with his 3 TDs in the 2nd half of the season and gave a glimpse into the future with his receiving skill.

Frazier notched a 3-3 record on an interim basis, including winning his opening contest at Washington and an upset win over eventual NFC East champion Philadelphia. His steady and consistent personality and coaching style helped the Vikings prepare weekly under unprecedented circumstances in a harrowing three-week span. The team endured the collapse of the roof on their home stadium, forcing the club to play home games at Detroit's Ford Field against the NY Giants and at TCF Bank Stadium on the campus of the University of Minnesota against the Chicago Bears. Following the chaotic two weeks, the team experienced a two-day weather delay of a Sunday Night Football game at Philadelphia to Tuesday night, turning a routine road trip into a three-night extended stay.

The Vikings 2010 defense ended the season ranked #8 in the NFL, the 3rd straight season the Vikings ranked in the top 10 in total defense for the first time since 1992-94. Vikings DE Jared Allen led the team with 11.0 sacks and anchored a defensive line that allowed only 10 rushing TDs. Offensively, the Vikings were stifled by injuries and started 3 QBs during the season. The running game continued to excel as Pro Bowler Adrian Peterson notched 1,298 yards and 12 TDs. Frazier's defense led the NFL in 2009 with 48.0 sacks and the team ranks 5th in the NFL with 162.0 sacks from 2007-10. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL in 2009, the 2nd straight season ranked #6 in total defense. The mark was the 1st time since 1993-94 the team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in consecutive seasons.

The 2009 Vikings used a dynamic front line to continue their tradition of stopping the run and put pressure on opposing QBs. The unit ranked #2 in the NFL against the run after leading the league for the previous 3 seasons. The Vikings tied for the NFL lead by allowing only 5 rushing TDs. The NFL-best 48 sacks posted by the Vikings was the 5th-most in team history and Allen led the way with 14.5. Frazier's 2008 defensive unit ranked #6 overall in the NFL and #1 in the league against the run, making the Vikings the 1st squad since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to lead the league in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. The Vikings #6 rank in total defense was the highest since the 1994 season.

The 2008 Vikings had to overcome the season-ending injury to emerging star E.J. Henderson at MLB in the 4th game and did not have the services of priority free agent signee Madiou Williams at FS until the 9th game of the year as he recovered from preseason injury. The club lost its top nickel back, Charles Gordon, for the 2nd half of the season and 3-time Pro Bowl DT anchor Pat Williams was sidelined the final 2 regular season games and Wild Card playoffs with a shoulder injury. The depth of the roster and the preparation of the coaching staff kept the team on track despite those setbacks.

In his debut season with the Vikings in 2007, the team maintained its dominance against the run, posting the #1 rush defense in the NFL and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry.

Frazier came to Minnesota after coaching DBs with Indianapolis and serving as Special Assistant to Head Coach Tony Dungy for 2 seasons. The 2006 Colts defense clamped down on opponents throughout the playoff run on the way to a win in Super Bowl XLI.

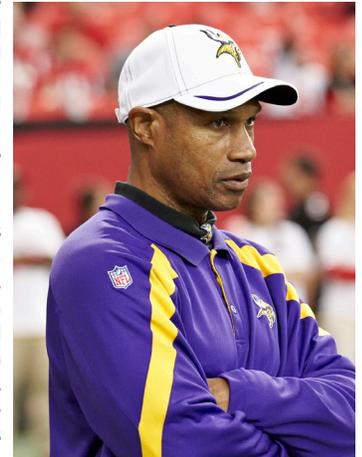

In his 1st season with Indianapolis in 2005, the Colts ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense for the season after ranking 29th overall in 2004.

Prior to his tenure with Indianapolis, Frazier served as defensive coordinator with Cincinnati in 2003 and '04 where he helped the Bengals go .500 in consecutive seasons for the 1st time in 12 seasons. Frazier's NFL coaching debut came from 1999-2002 with Philadelphia where he worked with the Eagles DBs.

Frazier had spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before returning to the NFL. In 1997 and '98 he worked with the DBs at Illionis on Ron Turner's staff, who Frazier would face 10 seasons later in the Super Bowl. Before his time at Illionis, Frazier stated the Trinity College football program from the group up as the school started a football team with him as the head coach in 1988. Frazier turned the team into a winner, claiming Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles twice. The school, now known as Trinity International University, named the football field in Frazier's honor in 1997 in tribute to his impact on the campus.

As a player, Frazier was part of the legendary Chicago Bears defense that keyed the Super Bowl XX win over New England. He was a starter at CB on the 1985 Super Bowl team and played for the Bears from 1981-86. He led Chicago in interceptions in 1983, '84 and '85 but his career was cut short by a severe knee injury suffered in the Super Bowl. During his career he had 20 interceptions in 64 games and returned a pair for TDs. Frazier was an All-America DB and standout baseball player at Alcorn State University. In 2007, Frazier was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame.

Frazier (4/3/59) was born in Columbus, MS and attended Columbus High School. He and wife Gale have 3 children- Kieron, Chantel and Corey, who plays DB at Rice. He holds a degree in business administration and was active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his playing career. Currently, Frazier works closely with All-Pro Dad, an organization that stresses the importance of fathers taking an active role and putting family first.

BILL MUSGRAVE
Offensive Coordinator

Bill Musgrave enters his 2nd season as Offensive Coordinator of the Vikings in 2012 and 20th NFL campaign overall as both a player and coach.

The 2011 Vikings offense tallied 75 rushes of 10+ yards, keeping defenses off balance through creative personnel packages. WR Percy Harvin's role in the offense was greatly enhanced as the 3rd-year player set a career-high with 87 receptions, the 6th-most in the NFL for the season and 4th-most among WRs. Harvin set a Vikings record with 52 carries for 345 yards and 2 TDs on the ground, ranking among the NFL's all-time leaders for rushing by a WR.

A former NFL signal-caller himself, Musgrave was a backup to Joe Montana and Steve Young in San Francisco from 1991-94, working under coaches Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan and Gary Kubiak.

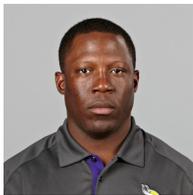

He played from 1995-96 with Denver where he backed up John Elway when Shanahan took over the reins as Broncos head coach.

With Atlanta from 2006-10, Musgrave helped mold the Falcons offense, highlighted by an impressive 2010 season, leading the way for a 13-3 regular season mark.

Prior to coaching in Atlanta, Musgrave worked with the Redskins QBs in 2005. Musgrave worked with Jacksonville in 2003-04, serving as offensive coordinator/QBs coach. Byron Leftwich was the Jaguars regular starter at QB and Musgrave worked with youngster David Garrard, a 2nd-year pro in 2003, keeping him prepared as he played in 6 games and started 2 during Musgrave's tenure with the Jaguars.

During the 1999 and 2000 campaigns, Musgrave worked with the QBs in Carolina and also served as offensive coordinator in 2000 under George Seifert. Musgrave's first NFL coaching experience came at Oakland in 1997 as QBs coach and he worked at Philadelphia under Ray Rhodes in 1999, serving as offensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season.

A standout QB at Oregon from 1987-90, Musgrave was a 3-year team captain for the Ducks and led the team to consecutive bowl bids in 1989 and 1990. A native of Grand Junction, CO, Musgrave and wife, Neely, have 4 children.

ALAN WILLIAMS
Defensive Coordinator

A strong background teaching defensive play and a winning pedigree give Alan Williams a foundation for taking the Vikings defense back to the top of its game as he assumes the Defensive Coordinator duties for Minnesota in 2012. In Williams' previous 11 NFL seasons, he was part of 10 straight playoff teams, 7 Division champions and advanced to Super Bowl XLI and XLIV.

Williams enters his 12th season of NFL coaching in 2012 and is reunited with a former colleague as his new boss. Williams and Leslie Frazier served on the Indianapolis staff in 2005-06, working with the defensive backs. The duo reached the pinnacle following the 2006 season when the Colts won Super Bowl XLI over Chicago. Williams got his first taste of NFL coaching in 2001 with Tampa Bay as part of Tony Dungy's staff, who he followed to Indianapolis the following season.

In Williams' decade working with the Colts DBs, the club ranked in the top 6 in NFL passing defense 5 times and finished out of the top 15 only once.

The Colts' playoff success was in part due in part to the defense snaring interceptions at record rate. In the 9 straight Colts playoff appearances from 2002-10 the team snared 18 INTs, 2nd in the NFL over that span to only New England's 22. From 2002-10 the Colts allowed 20+ TD passes only 2 times and had 10+ INTs each year.

Williams got his break as an NFL coach in 2001 with Tampa Bay under head coach Tony Dungy where he joined a defensive staff that included Monte Kiffin and Mike Tomlin along with John Lynch, Ronde Barber and Donnie Abraham in the backfield. The Bucs went 9-7 and advanced to the NFC Wild Card playoffs.

Williams grew to pursue football as a career during 9 seasons as a player and coach at William & Mary. He was a standout RB from 1988-91, ending his career with over 2,500 yards of total offense and set a school record with 4 TDs in playoff action against Massachusetts. After graduation from the College in 1992 he coached prep football and track at Norview High in his home town of Norfolk, VA from 1992-95 before returning to his alma mater. From 1996-2000, the opening 2 seasons as RBs coach and the final 3 as DBs coach from 1998-2000.

Williams and wife, Lisa, have 3 sons- Christian, Solomon and Nathan.

MIKE PRIEFER
Special Teams Coordinator

Mike Priefer begins his 2nd year with the Vikings organization as the Special Teams Coordinator. The 11-year NFL coaching veteran has held the same title with the Denver Broncos and Kansas City Chiefs in years past.

Priefer's special teams units are known for creating big-play opportunities. Since coming in the league, Priefer has seen his units account for 13 scores (6 kick returns, 4 punt returns, 1 blocked punt, 1 botched field goal and 1 safety). He has also seen his squads block 15 kicks (7 punts, 6 field goals, 2 extra points) since 2002.

Priefer could not have asked for a better start to the 2011 season. Percy Harvin took the opening kickoff, Week 1 at San Diego, 103 yards for a TD, the 1st opening kickoff returned for a TD in Vikings history. Harvin later made NFL history in Week 12 at Atlanta when he returned a kickoff 104 yards before being stopped at the 3-yard line. It was the longest non-scoring play in League history. The Vikings set a team record in 2011 with a 26.9 average on KORs, good for 2nd in the NFL.

During the 2010 season in Denver, Priefer had 3 players rank in the Top 10 in each of their respective categories. Eddie Royal was 6th in the NFL with an 11.9 punt return average. Rookie Eric Decker was 10th in KOR average at 25.3 per return. Kicker Matt Prater was tied for 6th in TBs with 20.

Before joining the Broncos, Priefer coordinated Kansas City's special teams from 2006-08 following stints as an assistant special teams coach with the New York Giants (2003-05) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2002). His coaching career began at his alma mater, the U.S. Naval Academy, as a graduate assistant in 1994, and he owns 17 years of coaching experience at the professional and collegiate levels.

Priefer entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Jaguars in 2002 as their assistant special teams coach. That season, punter Chris Hanson earned the first Pro Bowl selection of his career.

From 1994-2001, Priefer helped coach special teams at the collegiate level, working for Navy (1994-96), Youngstown State University (1997-98), Virginia Military Institute (1999) and Northern Illinois University (2000-01).

Priefer was born on Aug. 21, 1966, in Cleveland. He is married to Debbie, and the couple has four children: Samantha, Michael Jr., Wilson and Katie.

2011 SEASON REVIEW

2011 Season Summary

The 2011 season was highlighted by exceptional play from some of the Vikings' veteran leaders. DE Jared Allen led the League in sacks with 22.0, just a half-sack shy of Michael Strahan's NFL record of 22.5. Allen also set the new Vikings all-time single season sack record, surpassing Chris Doleman's 1989 effort of 21.0 sacks. Allen was selected to the 2011 All Pro team as well as being named to his 4th Pro Bowl. Allen will be joined by teammate Chad Greenway in Honolulu. Greenway will be making his 1st career Pro Bowl appearance. Greenway set a new career-high in tackles this season, amassing 174, good for 10.8 tackles a game and 24 more tackles than last season.

WR Percy Harvin, in just his third year in the NFL, set career-highs in receptions with 87 - good for 6th in NFL, receiving yards with 967, and rushing yards, totalling 345 yards on 52 attempts. Harvin had a career-high 9 total touchdowns on the season, 6 receiving, 2 rushing - a Vikings single season record, and 1 on kickoff return. Harvin also set the Vikings record for rushing attempts by a wide receiver this season with 52.

RB Adrian Peterson set a Vikings record in all-time rushing touchdowns with 64, passing Chuck Foreman in Week 2 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Peterson managed his third consecutive season with 12 or more rushing touchdowns, a Vikings record. Peterson will also look to break the Vikings all-time rushing record in 2012 as he trails Robert Smith by just 66 yards.

The Vikings rookie tight end Kyle Rudolph also had a great first season with the team. Rudolph was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie Team as well as National Football Post's All Rookie Team. Rudolph ended the year with 26 catches for 249 yards and 3 touchdowns.

The Vikings named Rick Spielman General Manager on January 3rd, 2012. "This establishes the organizational structure that will lead to the long term success of the Vikings. Having watched Rick over the years, we have the utmost confidence that he will help us reach our ultimate goal of winning championships" - Vikings Owner/Chairman Zygi Wilf

"Rick has proven to be a valuable member of the organization since joining the Vikings in 2006. With Rick's and Coach Frazier's leadership, the Vikings are well-positioned to win next season and beyond"- Vikings Owner/President Mark Wilf.

The Minnesota Vikings coaching staff coached the North squad in the 2011 Senior Bowl on January 28 in Mobile, Alabama. The only other time a Vikings coaching staff led a team in the Senior Bowl was 1980 when Bud Grant's led the North team to a 57-3 win over the South team.

Following a flurry of trades, the Vikings landed two first round draft selections. The Vikings took USC tackle Matt Kalil with the 4th overall selection followed by selecting Notre Dame safety Harrison Smith with the 29th overall pick.
