Behind rookie manager Joe Altobelli, the Orioles beat the Philadelphia Phillies in five games to win their third World Series title. Cal Ripken and Eddie Murray finished 1-2 in the American League MVP voting. Tippy Martinez picked off three runners in one inning. Mike Boddicker was called up from the minors and won 16 games and the ALCS MVP Award. Scott McGregor led the team with 18 wins and capped the season with a shutout of the Phillies in Game 5. Tito Landrum hit a momentous homer to lift the Orioles past the Chicago White Sox in the ALCS. And Rick Dempsey went from imitating Babe Ruth during rain delays to winning World Series MVP honors.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the Orioles' 1983 World Championship season. The Orioles will commemorate that title year with a series of promotions and events throughout the 2008 season.

PETER ANGELOS—MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 14-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series twice, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a Major League Baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2131st consecutive game.

The Orioles' ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. Under Mr. Angelos, the Orioles have dramatically increased their stake in scouting and player development; in 2007, they became one of only four teams to field seven classified minor league teams with the addition of a Rookie-level team in the Gulf Coast League. The addition of Andy MacPhail to the position of President of Baseball Operations is paving the way to a new era of Orioles baseball designed to further fortify the player development and scouting areas while building on the talent already at the major league level.

In addition, Mr. Angelos' vision in creating the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network not only has provided an outlet for the Orioles to televise their games and other baseball and sports programming, but is designed to provide the funding mechanism necessary to compete over the long haul with the other teams that have established regional sports networks. In 2008, the MASN channel begins its fourth year televising Washington Nationals games and its second season as the Orioles' television outlet as part of its 24-hour programming schedule.

Mr. Angelos has had a dramatic effect on baseball beyond Camden Yards, Baltimore and the Mid-Atlantic region as well, as the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups. His involvement in those labor negotiations was hailed by both sides. Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969, setting the stage for a second such agreement in the fall of 2006.

The Orioles owner also has taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic 2-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort is being done in compliance with Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos also has taken constructive steps off the field. Over the years, he has improved 10,000 of Camden Yards' seats to address fan comfort. More than 6,000 seats had cushions installed prior to the 2004 season. In earlier seasons, he responded to complaints by having adjustments made to 3,300 seats along the left and right field lines that had been angled improperly toward center field. When he became principal owner, he rectified injustices that had been done to those season ticket holders who had their seats unfairly relocated when the club first moved into Camden Yards. In 2008, fans will experience major visual enhancements to Oriole Park with the introduction of a new expanded video screen, LED scoreboard and advertising panels; the first phase of a complete renovation of the ballpark's entertainment system.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including for the 13th straight year being sponsors of the Baltimore Symphony Gala.

On a personal level, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, became the first ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution.

The son of Greek immigrants, Mr. Angelos was born July 4, 1929 in Pittsburgh, PA. The family moved to Baltimore when he was an infant, and he was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to and served on the Baltimore City Council from 1959 to 1963, has long been active in civic and community endeavors. He currently is Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders that is spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's west side. He also is a board member and major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corp., which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain its presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Peter Angelos presently serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center- National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is also a member of: The Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Mr. Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis. John is an Executive Vice President with the Orioles, while Louis is an attorney with the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: Former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

TOM CLANCY—VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October--the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States—sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as the undisputed king of the techno-thriller, a literary genre he's credited with inventing, and a master at building realistic scenarios by "turning up the volume" on current events and political reality. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon and, most recently, Red Rabbit.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons, and government produced maps, all tribute to his lifelong fascination with technology and the military. Although severe myopia limited his personal involvement as a member of the armed forces to a brief stint in Loyola's ROTC program, the success of his books has resulted in his "adoption" by the military. He is regularly welcomed aboard jets, submarines, and destroyers, and permitted to ride in tanks to his heart's content. Admirals and generals give him access, Pentagon officials debrief him, and many of his books are required reading at our nation's war colleges.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.), and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine and Airborne.

JOHN P. ANGELOS-EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 15th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. In January 1999, he was named to the position of Executive Vice President. In his current capacity, Angelos oversees the Corporate Sales and Sponsorships, Financial Operations, Sales and Fan Services, Concessions, Ballpark Operations, Communications and Public Relations divisions of the ballclub.

Angelos joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman and oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations and Customer Service departments of the company to provide more personal service to fans when they call, write or visit Camden Yards.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, Angelos received a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from Duke University and a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore.

John resides in downtown Baltimore.

ROBERT AMES—VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 15th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. He was promoted to vice president in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Ames is responsible for general administration, accounting, information systems, human resources, purchasing, concessions, retail sales, insurance and special projects. He also serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable, credit and collections and the cash management departments.

JACK B. DUNN, IV
President and Chief Executive Officer of Forensic Technologies
International Corp.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received Bachelor of Science degrees in Microbiology and Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Ames is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs and the American Institute of CPAs.

Ames resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily, Lyndsay and Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is active in his church, Real Life Community Church, and currently serves on the church board. In his free time, Ames' passions include gardening and motorcycle riding with his son.

LOU KOUSOURIS-VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 15th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Kousouris has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

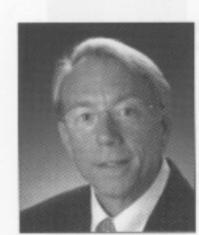

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Kousouris coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community, serving as chairman of the Boys & Girls Clubs of The Salvation Army and sitting on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of the The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command, and has helped raise over $4 million annually for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fund-raising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Kousouris was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Kousouris resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. They have two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who lives in Baltimore and works for a commercial real estate company; and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law, who operates Camp Puh'tok, a summer camp for children in northern Baltimore County.

ANDY MacPHAIL—PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

A member of one of baseball's most honored and respected families, Andy MacPhail returned to his childhood hometown of Baltimore on June 20, 2007, when he was named President of Baseball Operations for the Orioles. In his new position, he oversees all aspects of major league, minor league and scouting operations for the ballclub.

MacPhail, whose father and grandfather both are members of Baseball's Hall of Fame, had assisted Major League Baseball with a variety of projects for several months before he joined the Orioles organization. He spent the previous 12 years through the 2006 season as president and chief executive officer of the Chicago Cubs. Prior to joining the Cubs, he served as executive vice president and general manager of the Minnesota Twins for nine seasons.

MacPhail joined the Cubs in September 1994. Chicago reached the playoffs twice during his tenure, which also included a two-year stint as general manager, from July 2000 to July 2002. Prior to his arrival, the Cubs had reached the postseason only twice in the previous 50 seasons. In 2003, Chicago also won their first postseason series since 1908. As part of his duties with the Cubs, MacPhail oversaw the modernization and expansion of historic Wrigley Field. The Cubs had never drawn more than 2.4 million fans per year before MacPhail's arrival, but drew over 3 million fans in each of his final three seasons with the club.

In MacPhail's nine seasons as the Twins' general manager, Minnesota won two World Series championships, in 1987 and 1991. When he was named the Twins' GM in 1985 at age 32, he was the youngest person to hold that position in the majors. He was honored by The Sporting News as its 1991 Major League Executive of the Year and also earned United Press International's American League Executive of the Year award after building a team that went from last place to World Champions in one season.

MacPhail began his professional career in 1976 as business manager for the Cubs' Bradenton affiliate in the Rookie-level Gulf Coast League. The following year he moved to Chicago as an assistant in the Cubs' park operations department. He joined the player development department a year later and eventually became assistant director of player development and scouting before leaving the Cubs in 1982 to become assistant general manager of the Houston Astros.

He joined the Minnesota organization in August 1985 as vice president of player personnel and was promoted to executive vice president/general manager in November 1986.

MacPhail spent eight years growing up in the Baltimore area, while his father, Lee MacPhail, was general manager of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. Lee spent 45 years as a baseball executive and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. As GM of the Orioles, he oversaw the team's rise from second division to contender in the early 1960s. He also served as general manager of the New York Yankees, spent 10 seasons as the American League president and served as president of baseball's Player Relations Committee.

Andy's grandfather, Larry MacPhail, was also elected to the Hall of Fame, in 1978. During his executive career, Larry helped pioneer night baseball as owner of the Cincinnati Reds in 1935, won a National League championship as owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941 and won the World Series as owner of the New York Yankees in 1947.

Andy became the third member of the family to win The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award when he was honored in 1991; Larry earned the honors in 1939 and Lee was named in 1966.

MacPhail also served on MLB's negotiating committees following the 2002 and 2006 seasons, helping to work out new collective bargaining agreements with the MLB Players Association. Those were the first two agreements reached without a work stoppage in more than 30 years of labor negotiations between MLB and the players' union.

MacPhail is also one of five MLB executives on the newly-constituted 12-member committee to elect executives to Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Born in Bronxville, NY on April 5, 1953, MacPhail is a 1976 graduate of Dickinson College. He and his wife, Lark, live in Baltimore with their two sons, William and Andrew.

MIKE FLANAGAN—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

An Orioles Hall of Famer and first former Cy Young Award winner ever to assume a general manager-level position in baseball, Mike Flanagan begins his third year as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and will assist Andy MacPhail in returning the Orioles to their winning ways.

Flanagan has been involved with the Orioles organization for all but five years since being selected 7th round of the 1973 draft. He joined the front office in December 2002 as Vice President of Baseball Operations, sharing departmental duties with Jim Beattie, before being promoted Executive Vice President on October 11, 2005. His move to the front office came after he had poured a quarter-century into the Baltimore Orioles organization as a player, coach, instructor and broadcaster. Professionals in the game have long been impressed with his insight and skills as an evaluator of talent and of people.

"Flanny" compiled a 167-143 record and 3.90 ERA in 18 major league seasons with the Orioles and Toronto Blue Jays, including a 141-116 mark over 15 seasons with the O's. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 1979, when he went 23-9 with a 3.08 ERA and 5 shutouts. He was a member of two American League championship teams with the Orioles, in 1979 and 1983, as well as their 1983 World Championship team.

Flanagan was drafted and signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe in 1973 and made his major league debut in 1975. In 1983, when the Orioles won their last World Series Championship, he went 12-4 during the regular season despite missing nearly three months with ligament damage in his left knee. From 1977 through 1983 he made more starts (223) than any pitcher in the American League and was third in wins (109) over that time.

In 1987, he was traded to Toronto and pitched for the Blue Jays for 3 ? years, helping them win the American League East in 1989, a starter his entire career, he returned to the Orioles as a free agent in 1991, this time a reliever, and made 63 appearances out of the bullpen. On October 6, 1991, in the last game played at Memorial Stadium, Flanny entered in relief with one out in the 9th inning and, to the overwhelming delight of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out Detroit's Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch at the 33rd Street ballpark. He finished his career in 1992, pitching for the Orioles in their first season at Camden Yards.

Flanagan was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility, He ranks 3rd in club history in games pitched (450), innings pitched (2317.2) and starts (328), 4th in strikeouts (1297) and complete games (98), 5th in victories (141) and 7th in strikeouts (17).

Mike served as Orioles pitching coach in 1995, then spent two years as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He returned to the field in 1998 as pitching coach before heading back to the broadcast booth, where he remained for four seasons before being named Vice President for Baseball Operations. In addition to his broadcasting duties, Flanagan worked as a winter and spring pitching instructor with the club and also served in an advisory capacity to Orioles' Chairman and CEO Peter Angelos after stepping down as pitching coach for the second time in the 1998 season.

Flanagan, born December 16, 1951, is a native of Manchester, NH, and is a third-generation pro baseball player. Both his grandfather, Ed Sr., and his father Ed Jr., played in the Boston Red Sox organization. Mike attended the University of Massachusetts, where he played baseball and freshman basketball. While at UMass, he faced Julius "Dr. J" Erving and Rick Pitino in a frosh-varsity basketball game.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Sparks, MD. He has three daughters: Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall.

JOE JORDAN-DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Joe Jordan is in his fourth season as the Orioles' Director of Scouting. His first three drafts have been widely praised in baseball circles, helping to provide the Orioles' farm system with both deep and highly rated classes of both pitching and position talent.

Jordan, 46, was named to his current position on November 16, 2004, joining the Orioles after eight seasons with the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. He spent the 2003-04 seasons as National Crosschecker for the Marlins before coming to the Orioles. He began his scouting career in 1997 as an area scout for the Expos before being named Midwest Supervisor in 2001. He moved into the same capacity with Florida when most of Montreal's front office staff moved to the Florida organization in 2002, and was named National Crosschecker a year later.

Selected as a catcher in the 19th round of the 1985 draft by San Francisco, Jordan batted .213 in 33 games for Everett, the Giants' Class A team in the short-season Northwest League, in 1985. He was injured the following spring and was released at the end of spring training. He returned to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, received his degree in 1987 and spent three years as an assistant baseball coach for the Sooners, 1988-90.

Jordan spent seven years in the financial investment business before returning to baseball as a scout for the Expos in 1997.

Joe and his wife, Kim, have been married for 23 years. They live in Blanchard, OK, with their daughter, Alexandra, 14.

MATT KLENTAK-DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Matt Klentak enters his first season as Director of Baseball Operations with the Orioles, having been named to the position on March 4, 2008. In this role, he assists Andy MacPhail in all phases of baseball operations including scouting, player development, contract negotiations and the overall construction of the Major League roster.

Klentak spent the last four years working in Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department. While there, he interacted with the baseball operations departments of all 30 teams, providing advice and interpretations on the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and Major League Rules, serving as a key administrator in both the Salary Arbitration Support Program and the Rule 4 Draft Support Program, providing economic and baseball analyses for Owners

Meetings, GM Meetings and Scouting/Farm Director Meetings and serving as the primary contact for Club personnel regarding Major League contract terms, language and data maintenance in MLB's IT systems.

Klentak also was a key member of the MLB Collective Bargaining team that successfully negotiated a second consecutive CBA without a work stoppage in 2006. It was on this team that Klentak and MacPhail first worked together.

Prior to joining the Commissioner's Office, Klentak spent the 2003 season in the Baseball Operations department of the Colorado Rockies. While there, he gained experience in video and advance scouting, coordinated the inflow of all amateur scouting reports and authored several baseball/financial analyses throughout the season.

Born and raised in Medfield, MA, Klentak graduated in 2002 with a degree in Economics from Dartmouth College, where he was a four-year baseball letterman, three-year starting shortstop and team captain his senior year. The Big Green won two Ivy League Red Rolfe Division championships (2000 and 2001) during his playing days.

Klentak and his fiancée, Lauren, will be relocating to the Baltimore area shortly after their May wedding. They currently reside in New York City.

LEE MacPHAIL IV-DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

No stranger to the Orioles front office, Lee MacPhail brings a wealth of experience and pedigree to his position as Director of Professional Scouting.

Named to the position on October 30, 2007, MacPhail began his professional baseball career while still in high school as an intern in the Orioles' public relations office. He spent 10 years with the Orioles, 1986-95, eventually serving as assistant director of player development and scouting.

He spent the 1996 season as assistant to the general manager for the Texas Rangers, working mostly in amateur and professional scouting. Following the season, he was named Director of Scouting for Cleveland, a position he held for two years during which he coordinated drafts in which the Indians netted six big league players, including 2007 Cy Young Award winner C.C. Sabathia.

MacPhail, 38, was an area scout for the Minnesota Twins for 3 1/2 years (1999-2002) before spending five years in professional scouting and administrative capacities for the Montreal/Washington franchise, from 2002-06. He served as director of professional scouting for the team in Montreal before taking on duties as director of baseball administration and special assignment scout when the Expos relocated to Washington. Last year, he returned to the Twins as a professional scout.

Lee is the 4th generation in a family with deep roots in baseball. Both his great-grandfather, Larry MacPhail, and his grandfather, Lee MacPhail Jr., are members of Baseball's Hall of Fame. Larry was owner of the Cincinnati Reds, Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees in the 1930s & 40s. Lee Jr. was general manager of the Orioles (1958-65) and Yankees (1966-73) and served as president of the American League from 1974-83. His father, Lee III, was general manager of the Reading Phillies when he was killed in an automobile accident in 1969. His uncle, Andy MacPhail, is the Orioles' President of Baseball Operations.

Born in Baltimore and raised in the Hunt Valley area in Baltimore County, MacPhail attended Friends School. He graduated cum laude from Lafayette College in 1991. He is married to the former Kristin Grant, whose brother, Brad Grant, currently is scouting director for the Cleveland Indians. Lee and Kristin currently reside in Shaker Heights, OH, with their three children -- daughters Ellie and Olivia and son Quinn (Lee V).

SCOTT PROEFROCK-DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Scott Proefrock joined the Orioles on October 25, 2005, as Director of Baseball Administration. In addition to interpreting the Major League Rules and Basic Agreement with the MLB Players Association, Proefrock coordinates the team's baseball data system and prepares the Baseball Operations budget. He also assists Andy MacPhail with trades, free agent acquisitions, arbitration and contract negotiations, and player development and scouting.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Proefrock spent 10 1/2 seasons in a similar capacity with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. He joined Tampa Bay as Director of Baseball Administration on July 27, 1995, only four months after the franchise was awarded and 2 1/2 years before the organization would field a major league team. He was promoted to Assistant General Manager in January 1997.

Proefrock began his baseball career as a marketing intern with the Pittsburgh Pirates in August 1987. He was hired by the Pirates as Director of Marketing Information Systems in November 1987 and moved over to scouting and player development assistant in December 1989. A year later, he moved to the Atlanta Braves and spent five years there in scouting and player development capacities, the last as Assistant Director for Scouting and Player Development, before joining the Devil Rays.

Proefrock was born in Dayton, OH, and raised in Norwood, MA and Rochester, NY. He graduated from The College of William & Mary before earning a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts. He is also a certified public accountant.

Scott and his wife, K.K., a native of Wilmington, DE, and graduate of Baltimore's Loyola College, live in Phoenix, MD, with their four children, Casey (11), Megan (9), John (7) and Kate (5).

DAVID STOCKSTILL-DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

David Stockstill, a member of the Orioles' minor league staff for the past 13 years, was named as the club's Director of Minor League Operations on November 3, 2004. His title was changed to Director of Player Development this year.

Stockstill, 50, has served as a roving hitting instructor, manager, field coordinator and hitting coordinator for the Orioles' minor league department since 1994 before being elevated to the top farm system post. In his final two years before being named to his current position, he held the dual role as the organization's Minor League Field and Hitting Coordinator, overseeing on-field instruction throughout the Orioles' farm system.

Stockstill played professionally for 16 years after signing with the Chicago Cubs as a free agent in 1978. He played eight seasons between the Cubs, Rangers, Giants and Expos farm systems, including three seasons at AAA Oklahoma City, before moving to the Mexican League in 1986. He hit .283 with 27 homers and a league-leading 101 RBI with Class A Geneva in 1979, capturing Midwest League MVP honors. He finished his career by playing eight seasons in Mexico, including the last 1 1/2 years as a player-manager for Union Laguna, and finished with a .342 career batting average, third on the Mexican League's all-time list.

In 1994, Stockstill joined the Orioles' organization as a roving hitting instructor, a position he held through 2001. The next year, he was named Minor League Field Coordinator before taking over as manager at AA Bowie for the second half of the 2002 season and leading the Baysox to a 26-26 record.

Stockstill was born and still resides in Hurley, MO, outside of Springfield. He was an all-state baseball and basketball player at Hurley HS and is a graduate of John Brown University in Arkansas, where he was a two-time NAIA All-America. At John Brown, he played for former major league outfielder and former O's minor league hitting coordinator Wally Moon.

David's brother, John, serves as the Orioles' Director of International Scouting.

JOHN STOCKSTILL- DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

John Stockstill begins his third year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in January 2006 to oversee the club's major league and professional scouting, but with the creation of the Orioles' academy in the Dominican Republic and a renewed emphasis on amateur scouting outside the United States, his efforts will be focused on the club's international scouting in the Far East, Latin America and beyond.

Prior to joining the Orioles organization, Stockstill had spent his entire professional baseball career – as minor league player, scout and front office executive – with the Chicago Cubs. He had been Director of Scouting for the Cubs since September 1, 2000, after serving as Chicago's coordinator of scouting and national crosschecker since October 1998.

Stockstill was a 10th round pick in the 1978 draft and played four seasons in the Cubs' farm system, finishing with Class A Davenport in the Midwest League in 1981. He returned to college and received his B.S. degree in communications at Drury University in Springfield, MO, and served as an assistant basketball coach there before moving to Benedictine College in Kansas as an assistant basketball coach. He became Benedictine's baseball coach in 1986 and also rejoined the Cubs as an associate scout a year later. He became a part-time scout for the Cubs in 1989 before becoming a full-time area scout in 1989 and Midwest scouting supervisor four years later. He held that position for four years before being named scouting coordinator in 1998.

John's brother, David, serves as the organization's Director of Player Development. David was also a product of the Cubs minor league system.

John and his wife, Ann, have one son, Jackson, (6). They reside in White Hall, MD.

BRIAN GRAHAM-SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT COACH FOR THE MINOR LEAGUES

Brian Graham rejoined the Orioles on October 30, 2007, to serve as a special assignment coach for the club's minor league system. In his new capacity, he will help coordinate on-field operations for the Orioles' seven minor league teams during spring training and throughout the season, as well as their new academy in the Dominican Republic.

For the last six years (2002-2007), Graham served as Director of Player Development for the Pittsburgh Pirates, overseeing all aspects of the Pirates minor league operations. During that time, the Pirates were honored as Topps Baseball's "Organization of the Year" in 2002, and Pirates minor league teams finished with a combined winning percentage above .500 in four of the six seasons. Before going to Pittsburgh, Graham spent the 2001 season as field coordinator for the Florida Marlins.

In 2000, Graham was the Orioles' offensive and defensive coordinator coach, serving on the major league staff under Manager Mike Hargrove. In that position, he worked with the players on-field during spring training and batting practice before serving in an in-game scouting capacity.

Graham served as Cleveland's first base coach in 1998-99 after nine years as a manager in the Indians' farm system, 1990-97. He compiled a 704-491 record, finishing above .500 each year and reaching his league's playoffs each of his final eight seasons. In 1991, he was named the Carolina League Manager of the Year. In 1993, Baseball America named him "Best Managerial Prospect" in the Eastern League in a poll of the EL's managers. And in 1996, USA Today's Baseball Weekly named him Minor League Manager of the Year after he led AAA Buffalo to the best record in the American Association. Graham also managed Aguilas in the Dominican Winter League (1991) and coached and managed in the Arizona Fall League (1993-94).

Selected as a second baseman by Oakland in the 4th round of the 1982 draft, Graham batted .253 in five minor league seasons with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland, advancing as high as AA ball.

A graduate of Granite Hills HS in El Cajon, CA, Graham went to UCLA on a football scholarship and was a defensive back on the Bruins' 1978 Fiesta Bowl team. He played baseball for four years at UCLA, was named All-Pac 10 at second base in 1982 and finished as the school's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. He was elected to the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. Brian earned his B.A. degree in behavioral science from National University in San Diego in 1986.

Brian is married to the former Karen Gianni, who grew up in Dale City, VA. They have two children, son Jack (15) and daughter Kelsey (13), and reside Cranberry Township, PA, near Pittsburgh.

JUNE NAPOLI-COORDINATOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

June Napoli joined the Orioles in March as Coordinator of Baseball Operations after spending the last 7 1/2 years working in Major League Baseball's office in New York, where she served in a variety of positions.

Napoli served as Executive Assistant to Sandy Alderson, the former Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations for MLB. During her time in Baseball Operations, she was involved in the full spectrum of functions related to baseball front office. She most recently served as Executive Assistant to MLB's Executive Vice President of Business, Tim Brosnan.

Prior to coming to MLB, June was a real estate and corporate paralegal at a Long Island, NY, law firm.

June and her husband, Roger, have five children.

JOE CODD: THE ONE AND ONLY

Until he officially retired on January 1, 2008, Joe Codd had the distinction of being the only member of the Orioles' front office to have been with the team since its inception in 1954. As a member of the Orioles' ticket department for 54 seasons, Codd has thousands of memories and stories. He was friendly with many of the old-time players, including Gus Triandos, Milt Pappas, Skinny Brown and Andy Etchebarren. He even once drove Etchebarren's car from Baltimore to his home in California after the season ended. But Codd's all-time favorite Oriole is Brooks Robinson. "He used to come in to visit all the time and pick up tickets," he remembered. "One year, he even left his Gold Glove award here for me. I had to hide it in the safe." Codd lives in Oak Crest Village with his wife of 67 years, Kitty.

LORETTA ANN LANGE 1939-2008

Private is unquestionably the best word to describe Ann Lange, a long-time employee of the Orioles who passed away at the age of 68 on February 19, 2008 after a battle against cancer. She carried on a courageous fight against the disease for a long time, without anyone outside her family aware of what she was going through. That was exactly the way she wanted it.

During her years with the organization she served as an administrative assistant to members of the baseball operations department. Ann was thoroughly respected throughout the organization for her skills and never let the clock dictate her life in later years. She was known for having an even temperment, but could offer a strong challenge to situations and issues she did not agree with.

Survivors include two sons, Mark, of Orlando, Florida; and Brian, of Baltimore; as well as her mother, Margret Kircher, of Shrewsbury, Pennsylvania and two brothers, David Kircher and Jeff Kircher.

ORIOLES REACH IN THE COMMUNITY

The Orioles recognize the value of support from the community and believe it is important for the organization to give back by being involved in local programs and initiatives. Through OriolesREACH, the team "reaches out" to our community to bring the fun and excitement of Orioles Baseball directly to fans, and to help our neighbors improve their daily lives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles also have created several initiatives of our own under the current ownership group. Below is a summary of some of the efforts undertaken at the ballpark and in the community over the past year.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles Limited Partnership support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated over $8.0 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

AT THE BALLPARK

ORIOLES FANFEST

Oricles Fanfest attracted more than 10,000 fans to the Oricles Park at Camden Yards in March 2007. The day-long celebration of Orioles baseball included player autograph sessions, a team workout and batting practice, fan forums, interactive games, museum exhibits and a memorabilia sale. The memorabilia sale proceeds netted over $30,000 for the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

ORIOLES REACH FOOD DRIVE

The Orioles hosted their annual Food Drive to benefit the Maryland Food Bank the weekend of August 10-12 at Camden Yards. Oriole Wives, Oriole Advocates and WJZ-TV personalities were stationed at each entrance gate to collect non-perishable food items and monetary donations. The 21st annual event resulted in 8,243 pounds of food and a record-setting $30,000 in cash donations from fans attending games those three days. Food and non-perishable items were distributed to soup kitchens, food pantries and shelters throughout Maryland, and cash donations were used to purchase turkeys for Thanksgiving.

LATINO NIGHT AND CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

The Orioles held their annual Latino Night celebration and Cardboard to Leather baseball equipment collection last July. Highlights of the night included a pre-game party in the bullpen picnic area with visits from Latino Orioles players; a baseball equipment collection for youth in Nicaragua; a silent auction; and ballpark décor, music and video suited to the theme. A portion of the proceeds from the night were donated to the Hispanic Apostolate in Baltimore. The baseball items collected were donated to The Sebaco Valley League in Nicaragua. Members of the Oriole Advocates delivered the items to children in the league in a trip to Nicaragua in January 2008. Proceeds from the Latino Night silent auction helped subsidize the cost of shipping the baseball equipment that was collected from fans.

MILITARY APPRECIATION & ARMY BIRTHDAY NIGHT

The Orioles celebrated the 232nd birthday of the U.S. Army last June. In addition to scheduled on-field events and an American flag giveaway for all fans, the Orioles invited all active duty military and their guests to purchase Upper Reserve tickets for just $6 for the game in honor of the occasion. Captain Douglas Coutts of The Old Guard, an Operation Iraqi Freedom veteran and Baltimore native, threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch.

ORIOLES WIVES SILENT AUCTIONS

The Orioles and Orioles Wives partnered to host silent auctions of sports memorabilia during a homestand in June to benefit two Baltimore shelters, the Family Crisis Center and St. Vincent's Children's Center. The auctions raised over $40,000 for the

ORIOLES REACH TICKET PROGRAM

Over 10,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region were able to attend an Orioles game for free thanks to Orioles Reach. Orioles Reach is a program that provides a game ticket, transportation to and from the game, a hot dog and soda and an Orioles hat and t-shirt to underprivileged children. Numerous Orioles players helped these children to enjoy a game in 2007.

HIGH SCHOOL ALL STAR GAME

The best of Maryland's High School baseball players get the recognition their talents deserve through the High School All-Star Game. The Orioles have hosted the big event each year since 1980, giving young amateurs a chance to showcase their talents in a major eague ballpark.

K's FOR KIDS

Each time an Orioles pitcher recorded a strikeout last season, CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield donated $25 to the American Cancer Society's "Healthy Kids" program. A total of $25,000 was raised for the program in 2007.

SAVES FOR SHOCK TRAUMA

Kelly Insurance groups pays $2,000 for each Orioles save to benefit Shock Trauma at the University Maryland Medical Center. A total of $60,000 was donated to Shock Trauma in 2007.

HELPING THE HOMELESS Sakrete, together with the Baltimore Orioles, donated $8,600 last year to HomeAid, a leading national non-profit provider of housing for the homeless. The donation was the result of the "Sakrete Diamond Play of the Game" program, in which a play was selected as the best of that game for each Orioles home game in the first half of the season.

USED CELL PHONE COLLECTION

The Orioles and Verizon Wireless teamed up to raise money for HopeLine, a domestic violence prevention program, through the collection of no-longer-used cell phones at a game in May at Camden Yards. Fans were invited to bring their old cell phones to donate at ballpark entry gates. Verizon Wireless and the Oricles donated $5 to House of Ruth, a Baltimore-based domestic violence shelter, for each cell phone collected at Oriole Park, for a total of $10 per phone. Last year's collection resulted in a $5,000 donation to House of Ruth

DAY AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted over 33,000 youth through their annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), Day Camper Day (8,000), and Little League Days (15,000) last season. Little Leaguers had the opportunity to participate in a pre-game parade around the field at Camden Yards.

PRE-GAME VISITS

At nearly every home game, the Orioles host a variety of special need groups by bringing them on the field to observe batting practice. Guests include those with the Believe in Tomorrow and Make-A-Wish programs. Players meet and sign autographs for the guests.

HIGH FIVE FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The Orioles High Five Fundraising program gives organizations the opportunity to sell Orioles tickets to generate funds for special programs such as school clubs or civic organizations. It allows groups to not only raise money for themselves, but also provides an opportunity for the groups to participate in an activity together. The organization receives $5 for every ticket sold, and a variety of price categories and seat locations are available to fit any budget. In 2007, the Orioles helped raise $200,000 for hundreds of non-profit organizations.

JUNIOR ORIOLES DUGOUT CLUB

The Junior Orioles Dugout Club presented by Chick-fil-A offers an affordable way for kids and their families to attend Orioles games and receive special rewards available only to members. The Club is essentially a mini-season ticket package for kids 6-14 years old. In 2007, in partnership with Chick-fil-A, the Orioles donated $5 for every kit sold at a Chick-fil-A restaurant to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Over $20,000 was raised for JDRF through this program.

IN THE COMMUNITY

YOUTH BASEBALL CLINICS

Last April, the Orioles, in collaboration with the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation, hosted 50 youth from the Baltimore RBI League for a baseball clinic at Camden Yards. Youth were given a once-in-a-lifetime chance to learn and play baseball on their hometown major eague field. Youth participated in baseball drills and were treated to a pizza party courtesy of the Orioles.

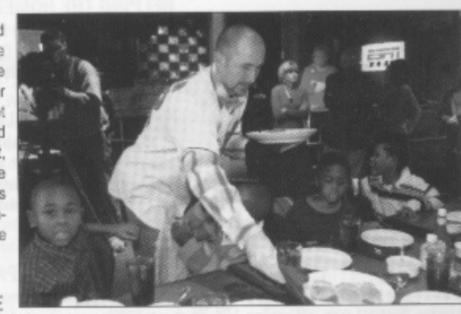

In June, over 300 youth from the Orioles sponsored RBI program and city-wide Little Leaguers participated in a clinic held at Carroll Park from 11:00 am-1:00 pm and current and former Orioles players and coaches instructed the participants in hitting, fielding and baserunning.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

The Reviving Baseball in the Inner City program encourages young adults ages 13-18 to stay in school and helps them to develop self-esteem while learning the skills and enjoyment of baseball. The program is a national Major League Baseball initiative administered and financially supported by the Orioles. Approximately 200 teenagers in Baltimore participated in RBI in 2007.

BRIAN'S BASEBALL BASH

Last August, second baseman Brian Roberts hosted the second annual Brian's Baseball Bash at the ESPN Zone in the Inner Harbor to benefit the University of Maryland Hospital for Children. Over $200,000 was raised for the hospital through ticket sales, live and silent auctions, sponsorships and donations. Many Orioles players attended the event, signing autographs and taking photos with fans. The Orioles donated $10,000 to provide tickets to patients and their families for the event. Roberts also sponsored the sale of baseball seam bracelets during the 2007 season to raise funds for UMHC.

KID'S HOLIDAY PARTY AT ESPN ZONE

The Orioles held their 29th annual holiday party for students last December. First through third graders from George Washington Elementary School were hosted for the day's festivities at ESPNZone at the Inner Harbor. Brian Roberts, Jay Gibbons, Jeremy Guthrie and Jamie Walker spent the day serving lunch, signing autographs and playing video games with the children. Former Orioles catcher Rick Dempsey served as Santa Claus. Each child received lunch, a game card to play in the "Sports Arena" at the restaurant and several gifts from the players.

SALVATION ARMY FOOD BASKET AND ANGEL TREE

Each year, Oricles front office employees donate non-perishable food items for donation to the Salvation Army Food Basket at Thanksgiving. During the Christmas season, employees purchase gifts for underprivileged children as part of the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program.

PLAYER AND BIRD APPEARANCES

Current and former Oricles players made nearly 200 appearances in the region and the Orioles Bird "flew" to over 200 destinations in the community in 2007. Orioles fans had the opportunity to meet their favorite players at locations throughout the region.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate memorabilia items to charitable, non-profit organizations for fundraising activities. Through 2007, the Orioles have helped raise over $35,000 for these organizations through proceeds from Orioles-donated items.

MANAGER AND COACHES

Manager Dave Trembley

Full Name: David Michael Trembley

Born: October 31, 1951 Opening Day Age: 56

Height: 5'10" Weight: 190 Bats: R Throws: R

Birthplace/Residence: Born in Carthage, NY...Resides in Daytona Beach

Shores, Fl

Contract Status: Signed through 2008

M.L. Service: Begins his 24th season in professional baseball, his second season in the majors and his first as a Major League manager.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Dave Trembley begins his first full season as the Orioles' manager after a whirlwind first season on the major league staff in 2007...After working 22 years in professional baseball, including 20 years as a minor league manager, Trembley was promoted to the Orioles' major league staff as bullpen coach and field coordinator prior to last season...Because of health issues with bench coach Tom Trebelhorn's wife, Trembley spent much of the first 2 1/2 months of the season in the dugout instead of the bullpen, serving as de facto bench coach to manager Sam Perlozzo...On June 18, with the Orioles holding a 29-40 record, Trembley was named interim manager, replacing Perlozzo...On August 22, the interim label was removed and Trembley was rewarded with a contract for 2008 and an option for 2009...The Orioles played well for two months under Trembley's charge (29-25 through August 21) before injuries and a lack of depth caught up with them over the final 5 1/2 weeks of the season...They finished 40-53 with Trembley as manager.

Prior to being promoted to the big league club, Dave compiled a 1369-1413 record, won two league titles and earned Manager of the Year awards in three leagues in 20 years managing in the minors...In December 2001, Baseball America selected him as one of minor league baseball's top five managers of the previous 20 years. He served as a coach in the inaugural Futures Game in 1999 and also served as manager for the Southern League and Double-A All-Star Games that season...Trembley worked in the Cubs, Pirates and Padres organizations before being named manager of the Orioles' AA Bowie team in 2003...In his first season with Bowie, he guided the team to a 13 1/2-game improvement over the previous season and was named winner of the organization's Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award...In two years at Bowie, his teams went 142-141...He managed the Orioles' AAA team at Ottawa in 2005 and 2006, combining to go 143-144...Trembley began his career in 1977 as a teacher and baseball coach at Daniel Murphy High School in Los Angeles...In 1980, he became head baseball coach at Antelope Valley College, a junior college in the Los Angeles area...He spent five years in that position before beginning his career in professional baseball as a Los Angeles area scout for the Chicago Cubs in 1984...The next season, he became an instructor in the Cubs minor league system until June, when he was named to coach at their Wytheville (VA) club in the Appalachian League...Trembley managed in the minors for the next 21 years, except for 1990 when he served as director of the day-to-day operation of Pittsburgh's minor league complex and spring training facility at Bradenton, FL...He began his managing career with the independent Kinston team in the Class A Carolina League in 1986...He joined the Pirates organization in 1987, guiding AA Harrisburg to the Eastern League title, earning EL Manager of the Year honors and being named Minor League Manager of the Year by Baseball America...In 1989 Trembley served as manager of the Eastern League All-Star team on its "Diamond Diplomacy" tour of the Soviet Union...He spent one year as manager of San Diego's AA Wichita team, in 1993, before rejoining the Cubs organization, where he managed 9 years (1994-2002) at three different levels...Trembley earned his second league title in 1995 when he guided Class A Daytona to the Florida State League title, earning league Manager of the Year honors and being named Class A Manager of the Year by both Baseball America and USA Today Baseball Weekly...He also was named "Best Managing Prospect" in the FSL by Baseball America following the '95 season...In 1999, he was named Manager of the Year in the Southern League after guiding AA West Tennessee to a pair of first place finishes before losing in the playoffs...Trembley earned his 1,000th minor league win as a manager on July 15, 2001...He managed instructional league teams in 16 of his 21 seasons in the minors and also managed one winter, 1986-87, with Navajoa in the Mexican Pacific League and coached third base the next two years for the Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Trembley has a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education, both from the State University of New York-Brockport...He also did graduate work in sports psychology at Penn State...Dave, his wife, Patti, and their son, Kevin, make their off-season home in Daytona Beach Shores, FL.

NO PLAYING EXPERIENCE NEEDED

Last year Dave Trembley became the 7th man in modern baseball history to manage in the majors without having played professionally in the majors or minor leagues... Hall of Fame exec Ed Barrow (1903-04 Detroit, 1918-20 Boston Red Sox), Hugo Bezdek (1917-19 Pittsburgh), Judge Fuchs (1929 Boston Braves). Ted Turner (1977 Atlanta), John Boles (1996, 1999-2001 Florida) and Carlos Tosca (Toronto, 2002-04) preceded him... Trey Hillman, hired as Kansas City's manager this season, becomes the 8th person to manage in the majors without having played professionally.

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC-HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955

Richie is in his 21st season as the Orioles' head Athletic Trainer, his 25th year with the big league club and his 32nd in the Orioles organization. He is only the third head Athletic Trainer in the 33 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954. He has served longer on the Orioles training staff and as a trainer in the organization than anyone, and this year will surpass the tenure of his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, as head trainer for the major league team.

Richie joined the Orioles organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to AAA Rochester in 1980. He served four years as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary (1980-83). During that time, he also assisted Salvon during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami, FL. He became Ralph's assistant trainer in 1984, serving four years before becoming head Athletic Trainer in 1988, as Salvon took over the assistant title before his untimely passing in July of that year.

Richie was elected in December 2007 to a two-year term as president of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He previously served as a board member and treasurer for the organization, as well as secretary of PBATS' Executive Committee. He also currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Bancells has also been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games, in 1993 at Camden Yards and in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park. In November 2002, he served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan. In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

In 2005, the Orioles created the Ralph Salvon-Richie Bancells Award for Excellence in the Field of Emergency Medical Service, to be given to local area medical professionals who think and act quickly and demonstrate excellence in the wake of an emergency medical situation. Richie was honored as the first recipient for his actions in diagnosing and promptly treating a stroke suffered by Orioles coach Elrod Hendricks, minutes before the team was to board a flight home from Tampa Bay earlier in the 2005 sea-

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by EKU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (27), Andrea (22) and Timothy (16). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL MBA, ATC—ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: December 26, 1965

Brian is in his 12th season as the Orioles Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 24th season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head athletic trainer for the Orioles' rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles' spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells) by EKU as a distinguished alumnus.

In May 2003, Brian was appointed to Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Board. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP).

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties.

He has authored or co-authored research papers and book chapters on shoulder and elbow injuries as it relates to the throwing motion by professional athletes, and has lectured on elbow rehabilitation.

Last year, Brian was selected to serve as an Athletic Trainer for the American League All-Star team for the game in San Francisco.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife, the former Nancy Swanson, were married on October 26, 1991. The have two sons, Brady (14) and Brett (11), and live in Towson, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and playing the drums.

JAY SHINER—STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: July 16, 1968

Jay begins his second season as the Orioles' major league strength and conditioning coach after 6 1/2 seasons working in the club's minor league system. Prior to joining the major league staff last year, he spent the previous three seasons as the Orioles' Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, where he worked closely with his predecessor with the Orioles, Tim Bishop, in implementing a uniform method of conditioning throughout the organization. He assisted the Orioles in spring training and worked closely with the rehab camp during the season in Sarasota, FL.

Prior to overseeing the organization's minor leaguers, Jay spent 3 1/2 years as strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles' AAA affiliates at Rochester and Ottawa. He joined the organization in 2000 from University Sports Medicine in Rochester, NY, where he was the Director of Sports Performance, providing services for athletes, teams and school systems in the Rochester area.

In 1997, he served as a health promotion specialist for Yagami Company, LTD, which included strength and conditioning services for professional baseball and soccer teams in Japan.

A native of Rochester, NY, Jay is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, with bachelor's degrees in both biology (with an emphasis on kinesiology) and organizational management from Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester. He competed as a professional kickboxer before retiring with a record of 23-2.

In addition to working with the players, Jay has volunteered his time to implement training and conditioning programs for members of the Orioles' front office work staff, including lectures on workouts and nutrition.

Jay is single and lives in the Hillendale section of Baltimore County.

JIM TYLER—ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 47th year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (27) and Joshua (26). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER—VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 20.

ERNIE TYLER—UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Born: April 30, 1924

Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man worked 3,819 consecutive home games at Memorial Stadium and Oriole Park, from Opening Day 1960 through July 27 of last year – ending his streak only so that he could travel to Cooperstown, NY – as Ripken's guest – to see the former Oriole inducted into the Hall of Fame. His string of games included 3,769 consecutive regular season, 40 post-season and 9 exhibition games, as well as the 1993 All-Star Game.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Orioles and Mets General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after games. Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March 1988.

In 2004, Emie was named winner of the Herb Armstrong Award, presented by the Oriole Advocates' Hall of Fame Committee to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to the Orioles.

Ernie and his wife, Juliane, have been married 61 years and live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children - Theresa, Regina, twins Phil and Jim, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Ernie, Juliane and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another. Sons Jim and Fred serve as the home and visiting clubhouse managers, respectively.

PHIL ITZOE—TRAVELING SECRETARY

Born: August 26, 1937

Planes, trains and automobiles – not to mention buses, hotels and all the other accourrements of the Orioles' team travel – have been the domain of Phil Itzoe for the past 40 years – the longest tenure of any traveling secretary in any of the four major sports leagues. In that time, he has booked and traveled in excess of 1.3 million air miles for the Orioles during regular season play (and that does not count spring training and post-season play, two post-season trips to Japan, as well as numerous bus and train trips).

Phil joined the Orioles in 1964 as assistant to the public relations director. In 1968, he took over the traveling secretary duties from Bob Brown, who became the Orioles' PR director. (Cleveland's Mike Seghi has the second longest tenure among current traveling secretaries, having started with the Indians in 1975.) In 1990, Itzoe was honored with the first Donald Davidson Memorial Award, given in honor of the late former Braves and Astros executive to the top traveling secretary in the majors.

A native of York, PA, Phil grew up in nearby New Freedom, PA. He played baseball and football at Susquehannock High School before transferring to York Catholic HS, where he played football. He attended York Junior College for two years before transferring to Millersville (PA) State College, earning three baseball letters while in college. After graduating from Millersville in 1960, he spent three years as a reporter for the York Dispatch before joining the Orioles. In January 2006, Itzoe was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Phil and his wife, TyLisa, live in Towson, MD, with their daughter, MariaLisa (17). Phil also has a son, Josh (33), who played a season in the San Diego Padres organization. Josh and his wife, Jessica, have a two-year-old son, Caleb.

NICOLE SHERRY—HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: October 29, 1977

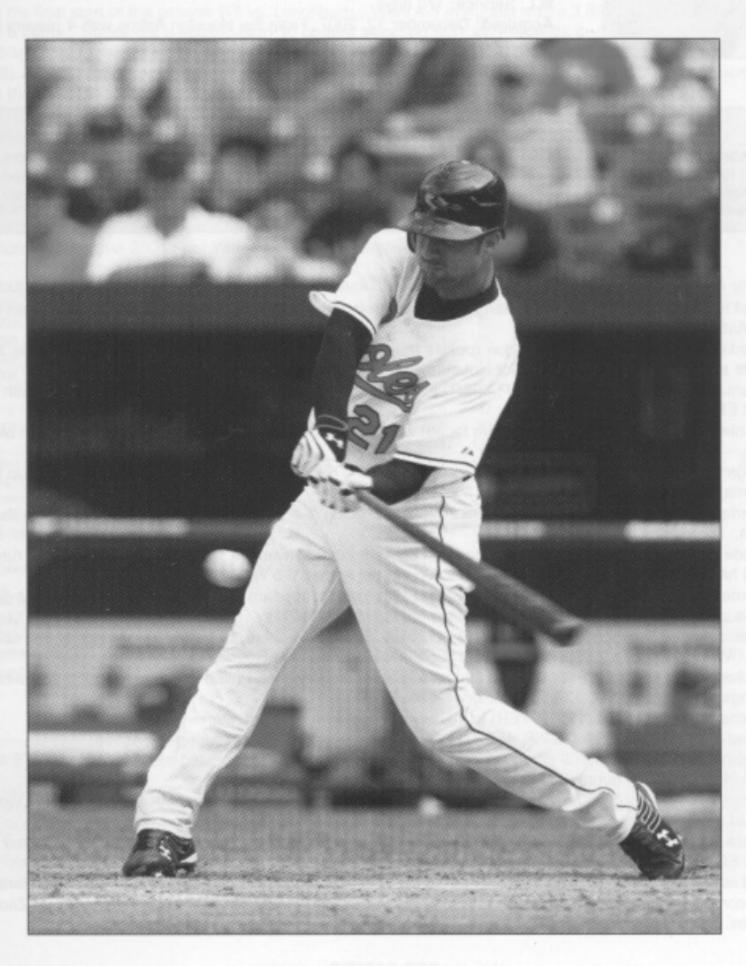

Nicole Sherry begins her second season as the Orioles' head groundskeeper. She returned to the Orioles organization in 2007 after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as Head Groundskeeper with a major league team. Nicole joins Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, as the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

After serving as the Orioles' assistant head groundskeeper from 2001 through 2003, Sherry spent three seasons (2004-2006) as the head groundskeeper for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, AA affiliate of the New York Yankees. She was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the EL's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

A native of Wilmington, DE, Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as assistant head groundskeeper. Nicole is single and resides in Baltimore.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fernway Park. Two former Orioles are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956. Joe Frazier (who later managerd the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat in the majors.

PRO CAREER

2006: Began the season with the Los Angeles Dodgers before being traded to Atlanta on 7/28...Appeared in 57 games between the two teams, going 5-6 with a 4.53 ERA and 9 saves in 17 opportunities...Appeared in only 11 games for Atlanta following the trade before being placed on the 15day disabled list after undergoing an emergency appendectomy on 8/23...Did not return the rest of the season...Was acquired by the Dodgers from Tampa Bay on 1/14 for pitchers Edwin Jackson and Chuck Tiffany...Led Dodgers bullpen with 46 appearances at the time he was traded...Did not allow an earned run in his first 12 games for Los Angeles...Had 8 saves in 9 opportunities, suffering a loss and blown save on 4/19 vs. the Chicago Cubs when he allowed 3 unearned runs in 2.0 IP...Had a 1.32 ERA and was 8-for-10 in save opportunities in April...Was 3-1 with a 3.29 ERA in May...Allowed 13 runs in 1.2 IP over 3 appearances, 6/2 vs. Philadelphia (0IP, 5ER) and 6/21 vs. Seattle (1.1IP, 4ER) with LA and his last appearance with Atlanta, 8/22 vs. Pittsburgh (0.1IP, 4ER)...Beside those outings, pitched to a 2.64 ERA for the season...Had a 2.61 ERA in 28 road games but a 6.59 ERA in 29 home games between LA and Atlanta...Had 6 holds each for the Dodgers and Braves...Pitched to a 1.86 ERA in his first 10 outings for Atlanta before allowing 4 earned runs in 0.1 IP in his final outing on 8/22 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered his only loss as a Brave...Went on the DL the next day...Had 9 saves in 16 opportunities with Los Angeles and was 0-for-1 with Atlanta...Combined between the teams to retire 42 of 57 first batters faced and allowed 10 of 25 inherited runners to score... His 8 blown saves tied for 5th most in the National League.

2005: Had a career-high 41 saves for Tampa Bay, 8th best in the majors... Was the only pitcher in baseball to save 40 or more games for a sub-.500 team...Became just the fourth pitcher to save 40-plus games on a team that lost 90 or more games, joining Tampa Bay's Roberto Hernandez in 1999 (43 saves/93 losses), Montreal's Ugueth Urbina in 1999 (41 saves/94 losses) and Florida's Bryan Harvey in 1993 (45 saves/98 losses)...Finished his Devil Rays career ranked 2nd in franchise history with 71 saves, behind Hernandez's 121...Improved his save total for the 3rd consecutive season and logged 96 saves over that time, 6th most in the majors...Saved 61.2% of the Devil Rays' wins (41 of 67)...Was Tampa Bay's representative on the American League All-Star team but did not appear in the game...Had 28 saves after the All-Star break, tied with the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez for most in the majors...Converted 41 of 49 saves but made good on 22 of his last 23 and 36 of his last 38 opportunities...Notched just 7 saves through the Rays' first 57 games, but had 34 over the last 105 games...Had 10 saves of more than one inning, tying him with Toronto's Miguel Batista for most in the majors... Was 2nd in the AL with 64 games finished, behind New York's Mariano Rivera (66)...Finished 123 games over the '04-'05 seasons, 2nd highest total in the majors behind Rivera (136)...Allowed only 6 of 31 inherited runners to score (19.4%), tied for 7th best in the AL...Saved 10 games in August and 11 in September...No other Devil Ray has ever had more than 10 saves in a month...Had 7 saves in 7 chances vs. the Yankees, tying the most ever against New York in one season (Chicago's Bobby Thigpen had 7 in 1990).

2004: Recorded a then-career-high 30 saves, becoming the second Tampa Bay pitcher to reach that mark, joining Roberto Hernandez...Ranked 6th in the American League in saves and saved 43% of the Rays' 70 wins...Only New York's Mariano Rivera (52.4%) and Minnesota's Joe Nathan (47.8%) saved a greater percentage of their team's wins in the AL...Converted 30 of 33 saves...His .909 save percentage was 4th in the AL and 7th best in the majors...Earned the win in all three of his blown saves...Converted 18 straight save opportunities between 6/16 and 9/24...Streak ended on 9/25 vs. Toronto on an unearned run with two out in the ninth inning, one shy of the club record 19 by Roberto Hernandez in 1999...Was 25 of 26 in save chances against AL foes...Had only 8 save chances after 8/4...Was 12-for-12 in saves on the road...Finished 59 games, 5th most in the AL...Opponents batted .198 (26-131) with men on base, 7th best among AL relievers...Opponents batted .091 (1-11) with bases loaded...Pitched a season-high 3.0 innings on 9/28 vs. Boston.

2003: Spent the entire season pitching in relief, including two-thirds of the season as Cleveland's closer before serving the last two months of the season as the set-up man for closer David Riske...Was 25 of 35 in save situations (71.4%)...His 10 blown saves were tied with Texas' Francisco Cordero for the major league lead...His 9 losses also led American League relievers...His 25 saves ranked 9th in the American League and his 73 appearances tied for 6th among AL relievers...Set Indians club record for most appearances by a right-handed pitcher, breaking the previous mark of 72 set by Steve Karsay in 2000...His .197 (26-132) average against with runners on base was the 9th lowest mark among AL relievers...Batters hit just .189 (18-95) off him with runners in scoring position...Opened the season earning saves in eight of his first 10 chances and closed 15 of his first 18 save situations through 6/20.

2002: Was a member of the Tribe's starting rotation before being converted to closer over the final 5 weeks of the season...His 7.1 strikeouts per 9.0 IP ranked 7th in the American League and his 82 walks was 4th highest in the AL...Won his first major league start on 4/5 at Detroit, taking a no-hitter into the 5th inning...Walked a career-high 6 batters in that game...Went 9-10 with a 4.44 ERA in 26 starts...Was named closer on 8/27 and made 13 relief appearances, going 1-1 with a 3.97 ERA (11.1IP/5ER) and 6 saves in 8 chances...Record his first career save on 8/28 vs. Detroit.

2001: Split his second professional season between AAA Buffalo and Cleveland...Was converted to relief at the conclusion of spring training and optioned to Buffalo...Spent two stints with the Indians, 5/13-5/23 and from 7/2 through the end of the season, and was one of the majors' dominant set-up men in the second half of the season...Was named to the Baseball Digest MLB All-Rookie Team as a relief pitcher...Made his major league debut on 5/13 vs. Tampa Bay, throwing 1.0 scoreless inning...In the second half with Cleveland, went 5-3 with a 2.91 ERA in 38 games, limiting hitters to a .185 (28-151) average...His 38 appearances led all American League pitchers in the second half and were 2nd to St. Louis' Steve Kline (39) in the majors...Did not allow an earned run over his first 8 big league appearances, a span of 10.1 IP...Recorded his first major league win on 7/28 vs. Detroit...His .103 (4-39) first-batter faced average was tops among AL relievers...Lefties hit .188 (13-69) with a home run and righties batted .193 (21-109)...Only 3 of his 24 inherited runners scored (12.5%)...Appeared in 3 games in the AL Division Series vs. Seattle, posting a 2.45 ERA.

2000: Split his first year in professional baseball between Class A Kinston and AA Akron, compiling a combined record of 6-11 with a 4.02 ERA in 27 starts...His 133 strikeouts were 3rd among Indians minor league pitchers and his 4.02 ERA was 10th in the farm system...His 152.1 innings pitched were 4th highest among Cleveland farmhands...Was on the disabled list 6/21-7/4 with a left oblique strain...Pitched 1.0 scoreless inning for the World Team in the All-Star Futures Game on 7/9 at Atlanta...Named by Baseball America as the No. 2 prospect in the Cleveland organization and 11th best prospect in the Eastern League following the season.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher, winning 17 straight without a loss from Sept. 22, 1968 through Aug. 3, 1969, all of them coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever is shared by Wes Stock, who won 10 straight decisions between Sept. 10, 1962 and April 29, 1964 (including a perfect 7-0 in 1963), and Sammy Stewart, who won 10 straight games in relief over a two-year span, July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984. Stewart also won a game in that stretch as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game winning streak.

2002: Began the season in the starting rotation for Class A Hagerstown before moving to the bullpen in July, making 16 of his final 17 appearances of the season in relief... Went 3-8 with a 5.33 ERA as a starter and was 2-2 with a 3.52 ERA out of the pen... Earned Howe SportsData's South Atlantic League Pitcher of Week honors, 5/31-6/6... Won his only start of the week on 6/2 vs. Lexington, allowing one run in 7.2 innings while striking out a season-high 10 batters.

3.1 innings in his final outing of the year on 8/31 at Bakersfield.

in his last 9 starts of the year, posting a 6.25 ERA...Pitched for the Mesa Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall

2001: Spent the season at Class A Salem-Keizer and helped the Volcanoes to the Northwest League championship...Went 2-0 with a 1.96 ERA in 5 games in August...Earned all 3 of his wins in his final 3 starts of the season.

PRO CAREER

DESCRIPTION OF THE PERSON.

DESIGNATION OF THE PERSON.

2006: Was 3rd on the team with 9 victories, the fewest in his three major league seasons...Also spent 25 days with AAA Ottawa, his first trip to the minors since he was recalled for a spot start on 5/13/04...Despite missing a combined 6 1/2 weeks on the disabled list and in the minors, led the American League with 104 walks allowed...Also had 2 complete games, one of 16 AL pitchers with more than one, and was tied for 15th in the league with 157 strikeouts...Would have led the AL and finished 2nd in the majors in strikeouts/9IP with 9.55 if he had pitched enough innings to qualify (needed 14.0 more)...Minnesota's Johan Santana (9.44) topped the AL while San Diego's Jake Peavy (9.56) led the NL...Also would have led the majors in walks/9IP with 6.32 if he had qualified, ahead of AL leader Gil Meche (4.05) of Seattle and the Chicago Cubs' Carlos Zambrano (4.84), the NL leader...Would have been the highest ratio in the majors since Oakland's Todd Van Poppel (6.87) in 1994...Led the majors with 17 wild pitches, including a club-record 4 on 6/25 vs. Washington...In his final start of the season on 9/28 at New York, took a no-hitter into the 9th inning before the Yankees' Robinson Cano's one-out single ended his no-hit bid...Settled for a one-hit, 7-1 victory, allowing 2 walks with 5 strikeouts...Became the 21st pitcher to throw a complete-game one-hitter against the Yanks since Orioles' Hoyt Wilhelm nohit the Yankees in 1958, the last time they had a complete-game no-hitter tossed against them...Walked 50 batters over his first 10 starts, the most since Tim Wakefield had 51 through 10 starts in 1993, and the most in so few innings (52.1) over 10 starts since Bobby Witt walked 53 in 50.0 IP in 1986, according to Elias Sports Bureau...Issued 7 bases on balls in his first start of the season on 4/7 vs. Boston, setting a club record with 6 walks in the first inning...Walked a career-high 9 batters and struck out 10 in 5.0 IP in his 2nd outing on 4/12 at Tampa Bay...Became the first pitcher with 9 or more walks and strikeouts in the same game since Pittsburgh's Tim Wakefield accomplished the feat in 10 innings on Opening Day 1993...Joined Steve Barber as the only Orioles pitchers to have 9 walks and strikeouts in the same outing...Barber had 11 walks and strikeouts in 11 innings on 8/13/61 vs. Boston...According to Elias, he became the only pitcher in the last 40 years to pitch 5.0 ininngs or less and have at least 9 walks and strikeouts in the same game...Walked 7 batters in back-to-back outings, 5/9 vs. Detroit and 5/14 vs. Kansas City, getting no-decisions in both starts... Was placed on the disabled list with right shoulder inflammation after his start on 5/14...In his first two starts after being activated on 6/5, pitched 11.0 scoreless innings while striking out 14 and walking 11...Went 0-5 with a 7.02 ERA (33.1IP, 26ER) over his next 6 starts, 6/15-7/13...Walked at least 5 batters in 11 of his first 16 starts, including 5 walks in 5.1 innings in a 15-1 loss on 7/13 vs. Texas to open the 2nd half...Was optioned to AAA Ottawa the next day...At the time, was 4-7 with a 5.25 ERA (85.2IP, 50ER) in 16 starts, with 75 walks and 90 strikeouts...Won the last 3 of his 4 starts at Ottawa...Was recalled from Ottawa on 8/8 and went 5-3 with a 4.04 ERA in his last 10 starts (62.1IP, 28ER), with 67 strikeouts and 29 walks...Pitched his second career shutout on 8/19 vs. Toronto...Matched his season-high with 10 strikeouts and walked only one batter...Followed the shutout with 7.0 scoreless innings for a win in his next start on 8/25 vs. Tampa Bay, running his scoreless innings streak to 16.0... Was winless in his next 4 starts, however, going 0-2 with a 7.78 ERA (19.2IP, 17ER) and pitching into the 6th inning only once...Walked 3 batters or less in 5 of 16 starts before being sent to Ottawa but walked 3 or less in 7 of 10 starts after returning from the minors...Represented his native Dominican Republic in the World Baseball Classic in March, going 1-0 with a 1.23 ERA (7.1IP, 3H, 1ER) in 2 starts...After earning the win vs. Australia on 3/10, pitched 4.0 hitless innings and struck out 7 vs. Venezuela on 3/14 as his team advanced to the WBC semifinals.

2005: Lowered his ERA nearly 1/2 run per game from his rookie season, from 5.00 to 4.52...Finished 0.2 innings shy of qualifying among American League leaders, pitching 161.1 innings...Would have been 2nd in K/9IP (8.76) and 4th in batting average allowed (.235), but also would have had the highest walks/9IP ratio (4.85)...Was 2nd in the league with 74 walks before going on the disabled list on 8/17...Issued a then-career-high 7 walks in his start vs. Texas on 7/25...Held right-handed hitters to a .174 batting average (48-276), lowest among American League hurlers, while lefties batted .285 (96-337) and had 12 of the 13 home runs hit off him...Became the first Orioles pitcher to win at least 10 games in each of his first two full seasons since Mike Boddicker in 1983 and 1984...Surrendered 5 or more earned runs in a game in 6 starts, 5 of those coming in his first 12 starts through 6/11...Allowed a season-high 8 runs on 8/6 at Texas...Allowed 2 earned runs or less in 15 starts...Allowed 3 earned runs or less 21 times, including 16 of his last 17 starts...Struck out at least 7 batters in 11 of his last 26 starts...Established a new career high for strikeouts in 3 straight games, 4/22-5/9, with a high of 11 while pitching 8.0 scoreless innings on 5/9 vs. Minnesota...Did not post his first win until his 3rd start on 4/17, allowing 3 runs in 6.0 innings to beat New York...Allowed at least 4 earned runs in 3 of his first 4 starts and completed 6.0 innings only once in that span...Worked 8.0 innings and allowed only one run but dropped a 1-0 decision on 5/3 vs. Toronto...Followed that outing with 8.0 shutout innings in a 3-0 win vs. Minnesota on 5/9...Lost 3 straight starts, 6/11-6/22...After working 5.2 innings to earn a no-decision on 6/27 vs. New York, he won a season-high 3 straight games in consecutive starts 7/2-7/14, allowing 3 earned runs in 20.0 IP...Lost his next 4 decisions over a span of 6 starts, 7/19-8/12, pitching to a 6.23 ERA (26.0IP. 18ER)...Was placed on the 15-day disabled list 8/23, retroactive to 8/17, with a strained middle back...He suffered the injury while warming up in the bullpen prior to his scheduled start at Oakland on 8/17...Made one rehab start for AA Bowie, before being activated on 9/2...Went 2-2 with a 2.40 ERA (30.0IP, 8ER) in 5 starts after coming off the DL...Allowed 3 earned runs in only one of the 5 outings, taking a no-decision in that start on 9/18 vs. Tampa Bay...Struck out 10 batters and pitched 7.0 innings of 4-hit, shutout ball to earn the victory in his first start off the DL on 9/6 vs. Toronto...Also earned the win in his next start, 9/12 at Texas, allowing 2 runs in 5.2 innings, but went 0-2 over his last 3 starts despite pitching to a 3.12 ERA (17.1IP, 6ER).

2004: Finished third in American League Rookie of the Year voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America after leading Major League rookies in wins (12), starts (27) and innings pitched (147.2) and finishing 7th in strikeouts (76)...Was named to Topps and Baseball Digest Major League All-Star Rookie teams...Was recalled from AA Bowie for a spot start in mid-May and remained in the starting rotation for the rest of the season... ## 2007

- *Was 2nd among AL rookies in ERA, strikeouts and innings pitched, 3rd in opponents batting average (.249) and tied for 3rd in wins and starts in his first year with the Orioles after being claimed off waivers from Cleveland on January 29.
- *Ranked 13th in the AL in ERA (3.70) and 14th with a .249 opponents batting average... Was also 9th in baserunners allowed per 9 innings (11.09).
- •Made 26 starts and 32 appearances on the season, missing 2 1/2 weeks in September due to a strained left oblique muscle... Went 6-5 with a 3.44 ERA (165.0IP, 63ER) in his 26 starts and 1-0 with a 7.84 ERA (10.1IP, 9ER) in 6 relief appearances.
- *Began the year in the bullpen and went 1-0 with a 3.38 ERA in his first 3 outings, pitching at least 2.1 innings and allowing one run in each...Picked up his first major league victory in relief on April 16 at Tampa Bay.
- •Made his first start for the Orioles on April 24 vs. Oakland, replacing Jaret Wright...Suffered his first major league loss that day despite allowing only one earned run in 5.0 IP.
- Went back to the bullpen when Wright was activated on April 29, making 3 more relief appearances, but returned to the starting rotation in early May when Wright was placed on the DL again.
- *Earned his first win as a starter on May 8 against Tampa Bay, allowing one run in 6.0 innings.
- *Established new career-highs in consecutive starts on May 13 at Boston and May 19 at Washington...Struck out 10 batters in 7.0 innings against the Nationals after a personal best of 8.1 innings in his previous start vs. the Red Sox.
- *Ranked 3rd in the AL with a 1.78 ERA in May (teammate Erik Bedard was 2nd with a 1.71 ERA) and was 4th in the league with a .193 opponents average in the month (Bedard was 2nd, .169)...Was also 3rd in the league with a 1.69 ERA and .182 opponents average in June.
- *Earned a "Quality Start" in 10 straight outings in May and June...Over that span, he worked at least 7.0 innings in 9 starts, pitching 6.1 innings in the other.
- *Allowed more than 2 earned runs in only 3 of his first 17 starts through June 26.
- *Surrendered 12 earned runs in 17.2 innings over his next 3 starts, July 1-12, then went 3-0 with a 2.59 ERA (24.1IP, 7ER) over his next four outings, July 17-August 2.
- *After allowing 4 home runs in his first 15 games (73.2IP), surrendered 19 homers over his last 17 games (101.2IP)...Allowed 1.18 HR per 9IP, the 7th highest rate in the league.
- *Had only 5 wins in 24 starts beginning May 13...The Orioles scored a total of 110 runs in his 26 starts, suffered 5 blown saves and went to extra innings 5 times.
- *Gave up 6 runs in 3 of his last 8 starts beginning August 8...His ERA went from 2.98, 3rd in the American League, to 3.70 (13th) in that time.
- *Left his start against Boston on September 9 due to a strained left oblique muscle...Returned for a final start on September 27, allowing 3 runs on 6 hits in 5.0 innings in the Orioles' victory over Toronto.
- *Pitched to a 2.59 ERA in day games, 9th in the AL, while holding opponents to a .194 batting average, 4th lowest during the day...In road games, held opposing batters to a .220 average, 3rd in the AL, and was 7th in the league with a 3.25 ERA.

2007

- *Played 151 games in his first season with the Orioles, making 142 starts at three positions: DH (78), 1B (49) and 3B (15).
- *Has hit 15 or more home runs in 6 consecutive seasons.
- +Was third on the team with 54 extra-base hits (34 doubles, 5 triples and 15 home runs).
- *Is one of 20 players with at least 25 doubles in each of the last seven seasons, starting in 2001, a list that includes Orioles teammate Kevin Millar.
- •Batted .365 (23-63) and hit 7 of his 15 homers vs. Tampa Bay, including a walk-off solo home run in the 10th inning on May 9.
- Had two season-high 10-game hitting streaks: May 4-13, during which he batted .357 (15-42), and June 4-15, over which he hit .474 (18-38).
- +Had 4 straight multi-hit games, June 12-15...Batted .406 (13-32) on that nine-game homestand.
- *Went 1-for-4 with a 3-run home run on June 27 vs. New York to snap a career-long 143-at-bat homer-less streak...His previous homer had come on May 10 vs. Tampa Bay.
- *Joined Brooks Robinson and Cal Ripken as only the 3rd Oriole to hit for the cycle, going 4-for-4 with 3 runs & 3 RBI on June 29 vs. the LA Angels...Tripled for his 1,000th career hit & collected his 200th double before adding a homer and single in that game...Is the only Oriole to accomplish the feat at home.
- •The June 29 game marked his 10th career 4-hit game and 10th time he has scored 3 runs in a game, both matching career-highs.
- *Batted .346 (62-179) with a .424 on-base percentage, .592 slugging percentage, 9 home runs and 28 RBI in 52 games beginning August 1.

- *Wore No. 19 for the Orioles last year but will switch to No. 17 in 2008.

PRO CAREER

2006: Combined to hit .267 with 21 home runs and 67 RBI in 131 games between Tampa Bay and Houston...Began his 7th major league season with the Devil Rays before being traded to the Astros on 7/12...Was one of only 10 players to hit at least 25 doubles and 20 homers in each of the the five seasons from 2002-06, along with Lance Berkman, Carlos Delgado, Carlos Lee, David Ortiz, Albert Pujols, Manny Ramirez, Alfonso Soriano, Miguel Tejada and Vernon Wells...Hit at least 21 homers each year, averaging 26...Hit .453 (29-64) vs. the National League in interleague play, the 2nd best interleague average in the majors in '06...Made his first career trip to the disabled list, 4/12-5/4, after suffering a strained left knee in a collision with teammate Nick Green on a foul ball on 4/11 vs. the Orioles...Missed 21 games, and his 131 games played was the fewest of his major league career...After hitting .182 in April and .175 in May, he batted a team-high .359 in June, matching his 2nd best month ever (also August 2003)... Was 8th in the AL in batting for the month... His first home run of the season was his first career walk-off shot on 5/19 vs. Florida's Yusmiero Petit in the 10th inning...Hit safely in 20 of his last 23 games (.433, 39-90) with the Rays to raise his average from .186 to .283...Collected 16 RBI, 18 XBH (2B-13, HR-5) and 12 multi-hit games during the stretch...Had just 7 extra base hits through his first 42 games...Went 3-for-3 with 3 doubles on 6/30 at Washington, becoming the first player to collect 300 extra base hits in Tampa Bay history...Was traded to Houston at the All-Star break in exchange for INF Ben Zobrist and RHP Mitch Talbot...Started 60 games, all at third base, for Tampa Bay, but split his starts with the Astros between third base (25 games) and right field (34)...Hit a 3-run home run in his Astros' debut on 7/13 at Florida...Went 3-for-4 with 2 homers and a career-high 6 RBI on 8/9 vs. Pittsburgh...Hit 2 solo home runs on 8/21 at Cincinnati, his 2nd multi-homer game of the season... His 23 RBI in August were the most by a Houston left-handed batter in one month since Luis Gonzalez had 23 RBI in May 1991...Drove in 34 runs in his last 52 games of the season...Reached base in 7 consecutive plate appearances, 9/24-26...Left Tampa Bay as the franchise's all-time career leader in games (798), at-bats (3,016), runs (399), hits (868), doubles (173), home runs (128), extra-base hits (307) and RBI (449)...Played in 649 of 688 Rays games after his permanent arrival on 5/28/02.

2005: His 22 homers and 92 RBI totals were his lowest since 2002...Was one of only five left-handed hitters to average 100 or more RBI over a 3-year span from 2003-05, along with David Ortiz, Carlos Delgado, Hideki Matsui and Bobby Abreu...Averaged 101 RBI, 25 homers and a .290 batting average over that time...Became the only Devil Ray player to hit at least 20 home runs in four seasons...Started 148 games, at the time the fewest of his three full seasons...Started games at right field, DH, first base and third base...10 of his 22 HR were either 3-run shots or grand slams...Only one of his 22 came in the 7th inning or later...Hit his 100th career homer on April 18 at Yankee Stadium off Jaret Wright, passing

Fred McGriff for most in club history...Had 14 home runs after the break, tying Jonny Gomes for most on the club...Also had 44 RBI after the break, 2nd to Jorge Cantu's 61...Hit 8 home runs in July, tying the club record for most HR in that month by a Devil Ray (also by Huff in 2004 and by Gerald Williams in 2000)...Also recorded 25 RBI, 2nd most in the AL in July behind Gary Sheffield (26)...Belted two grand slams in 5 games, the first slams of his career, July 22 vs. the Orioles off Bruce Chen and July 26 vs. Boston off Chad Bradford... Those two home runs were part of a stretch which he finished the season 3for-5 with the bases loaded following a 0-for-17 skid that dated back to 2003... Was named the AL Player of the Week for 7/25-31, batting .409 (9-22) with 2HR, 10RBI, 18TB, 6R and an .818 SLG pct., hitting safely in 6 starts... Was his first career weekly award... After hitting .320 (32-100) in July, batted .244 (49-201) the rest of the season...Hit .271 (23-85) in April...Entered season a career .229 hitter in April, his worst month...Hit just 2 home runs in April, one in May and 2 in June...Only once since he began playing regularly in 2002 had he hit as few as 2 in one month (June 2003 when he hit one)...Endured a 32game, 114 AB homerless stretch from 4/19-5/27, the 2nd longest of his career (37 games/137AB in 2001)...Best stretch came 7/15-8/5 when he batted .342 (26-76) with 7 HR and 23 RBI over 19 games, upping his average from .252 to .270...Gave the Rays the 4-3 "walk-off" win on 7/25 vs. Boston with a 10th-inning double off Curt Schilling... Was his first career walk-off RBI... His 13 intentional walks were 3rd in the AL behind Vlad Guerrero (26) and Ichiro Suzuki (23).

2004: Led Tampa Bay in batting (.297), home runs (29) and RBI (104) for the 2nd straight season...Became just the 2nd Ray to have two 100-RBI seasons, joining Fred McGriff ('99 and '00)...Made 155 starts, tied with Julio Lugo for the club lead...Made 85 at third base, 32 at DH, 30 at first base, 7 in left field and one in right field... The appearances in left field were the first of his career and the 87 games he played at third were the most he's ever played there...For the 3rd straight year his main position was a different position...In 2002 it was first base (45 games), in 2003 it was the OF (102 games)...Missed 3 games, 8/24-26, with the back injury that ended his consecutive games streak at 398...Had played every game since joining the Rays permanently from AAA Durham on 5/28/02...Consecutive game streak is the longest in Tampa Bay history and was the 2nd longest in the majors at the time to Miguel Tejada...Also missed a game at New York on 9/6 when he was unable to leave his house due to floods from Hurricane Frances... Was unable to make the team flight and joined the team in New York the next day... Was batting .186 in 28 games through 5/8, but batted .320 (159-498) the rest of the season in 129 games, with 26 home runs and 95 RBI... Had a 15-game hitting streak, 5/22-6/8, longest by a Devil Ray all season...Batted .393 (24-61) over the streak...Hit safely in a clubrecord 8 straight plate appearances (6 singles, a double and a homer), 9/22-24...Matched the longest such streak in the majors in 2004 along with Seattle's Ichiro Suzuki and San Francisco's Deivi Cruz...Batted .304 vs. left-handed pitching, his 3rd straight season over .300...Batted .323 (43-133, RBI-25) during the Rays' 26-7 run, 5/20-6/26...Finished August with a .385 average (37-96), the 2nd best monthly average in club history behind Fred McGriff's .422 in July 1999...Batted .325 (93-286) with 17 home runs and 53 RBI in 74 games vs. the AL East...Became the Rays all-time leader in games played on 9/20, passing Fred McGriff (578)...In the Boston series, 8/9-12, became Rays all-time leader in runs (278) and hits (603) surpassing McGriff (277 and 602 respectively)...Collected 5 RBI on 5/12 vs. Texas, tying his then-career high...Also had 5 RBI on 9/19/01 at Boston.

2003: Had the best offensive season in Tampa Bay history... Set franchise records for RBI (107), batting average (.311) and tied Jose Canseco's 1999 mark for home runs with 34... Also set club records for hits (198), doubles (47), extra base hits (84), total bases (353), runs (91), intentional walks (17) and slugging (.555)...He and Toronto's Vernon Wells were the only 2 players in the American League's top 10 in all 3 triple crown categories...Gary Sheffield and Albert Pujols were the only two in the NL...Was 9th in the AL in batting and home runs and tied for 8th in RBI...Finished 4th in the majors with 84 extra base hits, 21 more than any Rays player ever had...Only Pujols (95), Todd Helton (87) and Wells (87) had more...Was also 3rd in the AL in doubles, 4th in total bases, tied with Nomar Garciaparra and Alfonso Soriano for 5th in hits, and 7th in slugging...Only Manny Ramirez (28) and Carlos Delgado (23) had more intentional walks (17) in the AL...Also reached base 259 times, 6th most in the AL...Only 11 players in ML history (5 in the AL) matched his numbers for hits (198), doubles (47), home runs (34) and RBI (107)...That list is Chuck Klein (1930, 1932), Babe Herman (1930), Rogers Homsby (1929), Albert Pujols (2003), Lou Gehrig (1927), Todd Helton (2000), Alex Rodriguez (1996), Don Mattingly (1985), Frank Robinson (1962), Albert Belle (1998) and Hank Greenberg (1937)... Made 102 starts in right field, his first games in the outfield since his junior year at the University of Miami...His 6 errors tied Anaheim's Tim Salmon for most among AL rightfielders...On 9/6 vs. Oakland, became just the 3rd Devil Ray to steal home, but the first that didn't involve a double steal.

2002: Began the season at AAA Durham after being one of the last cuts in spring training...Suffered a broken cheekbone when he was hit by a throw during a workout prior to Durham's season opener and missed the first 3 weeks of the season...Did not join Tampa Bay until the 49th game of the season and ended up 9 plate appearances shy of qualifying with the AL's 7th best average at .313...Would have set the club record for highest average in a season...Became the first player since Detroit's Tony Clark in 1996 to lead his team in home runs after starting the season in the minor leagues...Only 4 others in the AL matched his numbers in home runs (23) and batting average (.313): Manny Ramirez, Mike Sweeney,

Magglio Ordonez and Jason Giambi....Had 97 hits from 7/19 through the remainder of the season, tops in the major leagues...His 103 hits after the All-Star Break tied Bernie Williams for most in the majors...Had the 2nd longest hitting streak in club history – 17 games – that ended 9/11 vs. Boston's Pedro Martinez...Set the club record for hits in a month (44) in August, breaking Randy Winn's mark of 42 set in June...Ranked 2nd in the AL to NYY Bernie Williams (47) for August.

2001: Began the season at Durham, but started 108 games in two stints for Tampa Bay, including 71 games at third base, 20 at DH and 17 at first base...Led the Rays with 20 errors, tops among American League rookies...Also was tied for 3rd among AL rookies with 34 extra-base hits.

2000: Spent the season at Durham until being recalled in August by Tampa Bay for his first big league action...Collected his first big league hit on 8/4 vs. the Orioles, a 2nd-inning single off Jose Mercedes...That hit began a season-best 6-game hit streak...Hit his first big league home run on 8/10 vs. Minnesota, a 3-run shot off Jason Ryan...Despite missing the final month of the AAA season, was named to the International League All-Star team at third base and earned IL Rookie-of-the-Year honors. 1999 Ended the regular season with a franchise-record 28-game hitting streak, 8/10-9/7 at AA Orlando, hitting .400 (46-115)...Also hit safely in all 8 playoff games (.316, 12-38).

1998: Began his pro career at Class A Charleston and collected 54 RBI in 69 games while hitting at a .321 clip...Named Topps South Atlantic League Player of the Month and the organization's co-player of the month for August as he hit .336 with nine home runs and 28 RBI.

PRO CAREER

2006: Was recalled from AA Bowie on 7/29 to make one start for the Orioles, losing to the Chicago White Sox, 13-11, in his major league debut... Was optioned back to Bowie the next day... Pitched 3.0 innings and allowed 13 baserunners in his only appearance for the Orioles... Gave up 7 runs in the 3rd after taking a 3-1 lead into the inning...Led Bowie in wins (13), innings pitched (156.0) and strikeouts (124) and tied Brian Finch for the lead with 26 starts... Topped Orioles farmhands in wins for the 2nd straight season...Was tied for 2nd in innings pitched and finished 5th in strikeouts...Won his last 4 starts for the Baysox to finish tied for 3rd in the Eastern League with 13 wins... Was 6th in the league in innings pitched and tied for 8th in strikeouts... Was named to the Eastern League All-Star team... Pitched a scoreless inning in relief to preserve the South's lead, allowing a hit and striking out one batter...Struck out a season-high 8 batters on 3 occasions, including his last two starts of the year... Was Bowie's Opening Night starter on 4/6 and earned the win vs. Reading, pitching 5.0 innings without allowing an earned run...After winning his first 3 starts of the season, won only one of his next 6 starts despite not allowing more than 3 runs in any outing...Earned the win on 6/8 at Trenton, pitching 8.0 scoreless innings and allowing only 2 hits...Made one relief appearance, working 4.0 innings to earn the win on 7/9 vs. Harrisburg...Entered in the 3rd inning after Hayden Penn completed a 2-inning rehab stint as starter...Pitched at least 5.0 innings in 19 of his 20 starts prior to being recalled...The lone exception came on 4/21 vs. New Hampshire, when he left the game after 1.2 innings because of a rain delay... Was 9-5 with a 4.13 ERA (120.0IP, 55ER) in 21 games for Bowie when he was recalled by the Orioles on 7/29...Went 4-1 with a 5.50 ERA (36.0IP, 22ER) in 6 starts after returning to the Baysox following his start for the Orioles...Allowed 6 runs in each of his first 2 starts, then pitched to a 3.75 ERA (24.0IP, 10ER) in winning his last 4 games.

2005: Had a breakout season with Class A Frederick... Was named Carolina League Pitcher of the Year and earned the Jim Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the Orioles farm system...Led the league in strikeouts (168), was tied for 2nd in wins (12), 3rd in ERA (3.49) and 4th in innings pitched (159.2)... Was 2nd on the Keys in ERA behind teammate Brian Finch's 3.38... Except for one fill-in start for AA Bowie, spent the season with Frederick, helping the Keys win their first CL title since 1990...Led Orioles minor leaguers in wins (12) and strikeouts (174)...Was 8th among all minor leaguers in strikeouts...Allowed 3 earned runs or fewer in 21 of his 28 starts between Frederick and Bowie and 2 earned runs or fewer in 14 starts...Pitched 7.0 or more innings in 8 starts...Pitched a 9-inning complete game and struck out 10 in a losing effort to Potomac on 8/15...Struck out a season-high 11 batters in a 7-inning win on 7/5 at Lynchburg...Had 10 strikeouts twice...Was 5-4 with a 3.49 ERA in 15 starts for Frederick when he was promoted to Bowie for a start on 6/25 vs. New Hampshire...Pitched 7.0 shutout innings, allowing 3 hits and 2 walks, but did not get a decision...Including his start at Bowie, pitched 6.0 shutout innings on 6/30 at Myrtle Beach and then did not allow a run through the first 4 innings of his start on 7/5 at Lynchburg to run his scoreless string to 17 innings...Won his first 4 starts after returning to Frederick...Beginning with his start at Bowie, went 4-0 over 5 starts, pitching to a 1.15 ERA (31.1IP, 4ER), from 6/25 through 7/20...Allowed 21 ER in his next 5 starts, 7/25-8/15, going 1-4 with a 6.23 ERA (30.1IP, 21ER)...Won 2 of his last 3 starts, then pitched 1.0 scoreless inning in relief in his final outing of the regular season to earn a save on 9/5 at Wilmington...Went 1-1 in the Carolina League playoffs...Beat Lynchburg in the semifinals, allowing one earned run in 5.1 IP, but lost his start in the championship series at Kinston, allowing 4 runs in 6.0 innings... Was rated as the 14th best prospect in the Carolina League by Baseball America.

2004: Spent the majority of the season at Class A Delmarva and was tied for 3rd on the team with 8 wins...Went 3-1 with a 1.85 ERA in 5 starts in June...Had 3 outings of at least 7.0 scoreless innings on the year...Was named Organizational Pitcher of the Month in July after going 3-2 with a 3.65 ERA in 6 starts...Made one start at Class A Frederick in August...Missed the final 2 weeks of the season with mononucleosis.

2003: Spent his second straight season at Rookie League Bluefield...After going winless in his first 5 starts, earned his first victory on 7/23 at Johnson City, pitching 5.0 scoreless innings...Posted a 1.93 ERA in July...Won his last start of the year on 8/21 vs. Johnson City, pitching a season-high 7.0 innings and allowing 2 runs.

2002: Started 9 of 11 outings for Bluefield...Earned the win on 6/29 vs. Princeton, pitching 6.0 innings and allowing one run on 2 hits...Pitched 5.0 or more innings in each of his 9 starts on the year.

2001: Spent his first professional season with the Gulf Coast Orioles...Made his first 3 appearances in relief before starting his final four games...Struck out a season-high 7 batters in 4.0 innings in his last start of the season.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Ballimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Oricles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Oricles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children learning areas. including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites. See page 413 for more information about the Sports Legends at Camden Yards.

For Museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539, or visit the Museum's web site at www.baberuthmuseum.com.

DID YOU KNOW...????

- *Onoles infleider Wayne Gross became the first player in major league history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 homers and had 18 RBI that season. The Los Angeles Dodgers David Ross hit 10 home runs and had 18 RBI in 2003. Orioles calcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs, set in 1992.
- *The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was in 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25 wins) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.
- *Onoles Hall of Fame hurler Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in 3 different decades.

PRO CAREER

2006: Went winless in 6 major league starts in September after going 7-4 with a 2.26 ERA in 14 starts for AAA Ottawa...Season was interrupted by an emergency appendectomy on 5/23, causing him to miss nearly 7 weeks of the season...Had been recalled to start for the Orioles that night at Seattle, but instead was placed on the disabled list...Was recalled again in September and made it through the 4th inning in only one of his 6 starts...Allowed 7 or more runs in 4 outings...With Ottawa, had the 2nd highest win total among International League pitchers with 14 or fewer appearances, behind Indianapolis' Brandon Duckworth (8 wins in 12 starts)... His 2.26 ERA would have been the 2nd lowest in the IL if he had enough innings to qualify...Held opposing AAA batters to a .221 batting average...Allowed 2 earned runs or less in 10 of his 14 starts, including 5 scoreless outings...Pitched at least 7.0 innings in 6 starts, including 4 of his last 5...Began the season at Ottawa, going 2-2 with a 1.48 ERA in 5 starts before joining the Orioles in Seattle...After recuperating from surgery at home in California, he spent a month rehabbing at the Orioles' minor league facility in Sarasota, FL...Started for AA Bowie in a rehab start 7/9 vs. Harrisburg, working 2.0 innings before returning to Ottawa...After working up to 6.0 innings in 2 of his 4 starts for the Lynx in July, was named the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Month for August after going 4-1 with a 1.98 ERA (36.1IP, 8ER)...Walked 8 and struck out 39 in his 5 starts...Was the International League Pitcher of the Week for 8/21-27, going 2-0 and allowing one earned run in 13.2 innings...Pitched 8.0 shutout innings, with a season-high 10 strikeouts, in his final start on 8/26 vs. Syracuse...Was recalled by the Orioles on 9/3 and made his first start that day at Oakland...Retired only 2 batters, allowing a career-high 8 runs, before being relieved...Pitched into the 4th inning in his next 2 starts, both losses, before working 6.2 innings on 9/20 at Tampa Bay without receiving a decision...Did not get a decision in his next start on 9/26 at New York, leaving in the 4th inning with a lower back strain...Started the Orioles' season finale at Boston on 10/1 and allowed 7 runs in 2.2 innings, absorbing his 4th defeat in a 9-0 rain-shortened 5-inning loss in which the Orioles did not get a hit.

2005: Spent most of the season at AA Bowie and made 8 starts in two stints with the Orioles...Became the 29th player in Orioles history to make his major league debut before the age of 21 when he started on 5/28 vs. Detroit...Was only the 3rd pitcher to do so since 1967, joining Storm Davis and Matt Riley...His contract was purchased from AA Bowie on 5/28 when Erik Bedard was placed on the disabled list with a sprained left medial collateral ligament...That night, he became the first pitcher who was not in the Orioles' Opening Day 5-man rotation to start a game...Did not get a decision in his debut, pitching 4.2 innings vs. Detroit...Left trailing, 3-2, but the Orioles tied the game before going on to lose, 5-3, to the Tigers...Had 2 more no-decisions before earning his first major league victory on 6/13 vs. Houston, despite allowing 5 runs in 5.2 IP...Won his next start vs. Colorado 6 days later, allowing 2 runs over 6.2 innings...Went 2-0 with a 4.23 ERA (27.2IP, 13ER), in his first 5 starts before surrendering 12 runs in 5.2 innings over his final 2 outings...Was optioned back to Bowie following his start on 6/30...Was recalled on 9/1 to make a fill-in start at Toronto and worked 5.0 innings to earn his 3rd win, 5-3... Was optioned back to Bowie following the game...Went 3-3 with a 3.12 ERA in his first 9 starts for Bowie before joining the Orioles in late May... Was 3rd in the Eastern League with 58 strikeouts and had held opponents to a .253 batting average at the time of his first recall... Was named Organizational Pitcher of the Month for April, going 2-1 with a 1.55 ERA (29.0IP, 21H, 5ER) in 5 starts while holding opponents to a .204 batting average...Pitched 6.0 no-hit innings and struck out 9 batters on 4/17 vs. Akron but was removed from the game because of a high pitch count... Two starts later, 4/29 vs. Reading, he struck out 10 batters and allowed one run in 7.0 innings to earn the win... After returning to the Baysox on 7/1, he went 4-3 with a 4.40 ERA in 11 games...Went 1-2 with a 7.06 ERA in his first 6 starts after rejoining Bowie, then went 3-1 with a 1.97 ERA over his final 5 outings before being recalled by the Orioles on 9/1...At Bowie, struck out 10 or more batters in a game 3 times, including a season-high 12 batters in 7.0 scoreless innings on 8/5 vs. Erie...Had 44 strikeouts in 32.0 IP in his final 5 starts for Bowie...Struck out 88 batters with only 13 walks in 10 games in April and August, but 36 strikeouts with 24 walks in 10 games between June and July with Bowie.

2004: Earned the Jim Palmer Prize as the Orioles' Minor League Pitcher of the Year...Combined to go 13-6 with a 3.81 ERA at Class A Delmarva and Frederick and AA Bowie...Was 3rd in the organization with 122 strikeouts and 10th with a 3.81 ERA...Combined to hold opposing batters to a .226 average (111-491)...At Delmarva, South Atlantic League opponents hit only .201 (30-149) off him...Began the season in Delmarva's bullpen...Made 7 relief appearances, going 2-0 with a 3.86 ERA (11.2IP, 5ER)...Moved into the starting rotation in late April and started the rest of the year...Went 2-1 with a 3.13 ERA in 6 starts for the Shorebirds...Was promoted to Frederick after beating Hickory on 5/31 and won 5 of his first 6 decisions (over 7 starts) for the Keys, pitching to a 3.05 ERA...Had a 3.02 ERA through July 22, but went 1-3 with a 5.56 ERA (22.2IP, 14ER) in his last 4 starts at Frederick...Earned another promotion to AA Bowie and made his final 4 starts of the season there...In his last 2 starts, combined to work 10.2 innings and allowed 9 hits and only 3 earned runs, posting a pair of wins...Worked a season-high 7.0 innings twice, both with Frederick, to match his career best set in 2003.

2003: Began the season at Rookie League Gulf Coast before being transferred to Rookie League Bluefield on 6/25...Posted a 2.45 ERA in August, striking out 27 batters in 25.2 innings, while holding opponents to a .245 average...Established season-highs with 7.0 innings pitched and 10 strikeouts on 8/20 vs. Bristol...Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing one hit and striking out 7, in his final start of the season on 8/25 at Pulaski.

2002: Reported to Rookie League Bluefield after signing in August, but did not appear in a game.

PRO CAREER

2006: Pitched in 72 games in his first full Major League season, tied with J.J. Putz for team lead in appearances...Was the only pitcher in the Majors to work 40.0 or more innings and not allow a home run...Among Seattle pitchers, only right-hander Calvin Jones (1991) worked more innings and gave up no homers...Was just one of four ML pitchers all-time to make 70 or more appearances and pitch in 40 or fewer innings...Inherited a staff-high 59 runners, ranking 5th in the American League...Allowed 14 to score (23.7%), ranking 11th in the AL...Had a 2.45 ERA at home (18.1IP, 5ER) and 5.82 on the road...Opponents batted .213 off him, including .143 by left-handed batters...Was 2-1 with a 3.42 ERA prior to the All-Star break and went 0-3 with a 5.51 ERA after the break...Notched first ML save on 4/5 vs. Los Angeles-Anaheim...Entered the game to face one batter 28 times, retiring 21.

2005: Started year with AAA Tacoma but was recalled by Seattle on 5/15...Retired only batter he faced after inheriting a bases loaded jam vs. New York on 5/16 but was optioned back to Tacoma following game...Was recalled for a second time on 7/31 and spent the remainder of the season with Seattle...Stranded 23 of 26 inherited runners (88%)...Was second among Seattle relievers with 4 wins...Did not allow an earned run in 22 of 29 appearances...Limited opposing hitters to a .194 batting average, including a .156 mark by left-handed hitters...Did not allow a run in his first 6 games with Seattle...Mariners were 11-2 in his 13 appearances, 8/30-9/29 (2-0, 2.45)...Was charged with his third loss after allowing 4 earned runs without retiring a batter in the season finale season 10/2 vs. Oakland...The outing raised his ERA from 3.32 to 5.21 and his batting average against from .156 to .194...Was on the disabled list while with Tacoma from 5/25-7/15 with a left shoulder strain...Made 3 rehabilitation appearances with Rookie-level Peoria.

2004: Had his contract selected from AAA Tacoma on 7/15...Was tied for 7th in the Pacific Coast League with 13 saves at the time...Had just 9 walks and 62 strikeouts in 50.1 innings...Made his major league debut on 7/16 vs. Cleveland, allowing 2 runs in 1.0 inning...Suffered a 5-4 loss in the second game of a doubleheader at Camden Yards on 8/3 for first ML decision... Earned his first ML win on 8/11 vs. Minnesota with 1.1 scoreless innings, retiring all 4 batters he faced...Had 6 consecutive scoreless outings, 8/6-25, spanning 8.0 IP...Earned his second win on 8/27 vs. Kansas City...Was shut down for the season after his outing on 9/6 because of workload... Held lefties to a .239 average (11-46).

2003: Began his second season with Winnipeg in the independent Northern League before signing as a minor league free agent with Seattle on 7/2...Went 1-0 and pitched to a 1.33 ERA in 16 games (16.0 IP, 2R/ER) with Winnipeg...Allowed only 8 hits and 4 walks while striking out 30 batters.

2002: Pitched for Winnipeg in the Northern League, going 3-5 with a 3.07 ERA in 38 games (41.0IP, 35H, 16R/14ER, 13BB, 61K).

2001: Pitched for Sioux Falls in the Independent Northern League, appearing in 48 games with 2 starts...Went 4-4 with a 2.45 ERA (58.2IP, 53H, 20R/16ER, 14BB, 45K).

2000: Made 13 starts in his second season with independent Evansville, going 3-5 with a 4.66 ERA (75.1IP, 71H, 45R/39ER, 35BB, 61K).

1999: Began his pro career with Evansville in the Independent Frontier League... Went 2-4 with a 3.15 ERA in 22 games including 4 starts (40.0IP, 20R/14ER, 18BB, 33K)...Had one complete game shutout and earned 2 saves.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Graduated from Austin Peay State University in 2000, the same school that produced fellow Orioles reliever Jamie Walker...Was in his fourth season playing in the independent leagues when he was signed by Seattle scout Charley Kerfeld as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 2003.

2008 BALTIMORE ORIOLES SPRING TRAINING INVITEES

2007 YEAR IN REVIEW

Jeremy Guthrie

YEAR IN REVIEW-THE ORIOLES IN 2007

The Orioles went 69-93 in 2007, finishing 4th in the American League East for the 9th time in the last 10 seasons. It was the Orioles' 10th straight losing season, extending the longest stretch in club history. The Orioles are one of three teams with a record below .500 in each of the last 10 years, along with Pittsburgh (15) and Tampa Bay (10). The Orioles finished 27.0 games out of first for the 2nd straight season. It matched the furthest out of first in the AL East they were all season, and their 24 games under .500 also matched a season-low. A loss on the final day of the season kept them from matching last year's record of 70-92.

NO CAMDEN OPENING: The Orioles began the season on the road for the first time since 1995 and the first time in a non-strike/lockout season since 1978, and were swept in their opening 3-game series at Minnesota...It was the first time the O's had started the season 0-3 since 1995...The Orioles then won 11 of their next 15 games and reached a season-high 4 games over .500 (11-7) on April 22...In all, they spent just 15 days at .500 or better, the latest coming at 27-27 on June 1...They were in 2nd place in the American League East as late as June 2, but were doomed by a 2-14 stretch beginning June 1.

TREMBLEY TAKES OVER: After starting the season 29-40 and falling to 5th place in the AL East with 8 straight losses, the Orioles named Dave Trembley as interim manager on June 18, replacing Sam Perlozzo...Under Trembley, who began the season as bullpen coach but also had served as bench coach during absences by Tom Trebelhom, the Orioles went 40-53...Trembley, who had spent 20 years as a minor league manager before being added to the major league coaching staff in 2007, had the interim tag removed on July 31...On August 22, he was named manager for the 2008 season, with an option for 2009.

WORKING THEIR WAY BACK: After losing their first game under Trembley on June 19, stretching their losing streak to 9 games, the Oricles went 21-14 to climb within 5 games of the .500 mark on July 31 (50-55)...They still were just 7 games under (58-65) after LHP Erik Bedard tied the club's single-season record for strikeouts and beat Texas on August 21.

WRETCHED STRETCH: The Orioles lost 28 of their last 39 games, a stretch that began with a Major League record-setting 30-3 loss to Texas in the first game of a doubleheader on August 22... That loss began the club's second 9-game losing streak of the season... The Orioles went 1-9 on their August 21-30 homestand, the worst record for a homestand of 10 games or more in club history... They went 2-10 on a homestand at Memorial Stadium in 1955... During the 9-game losing streak, the Orioles led in 7 of the 9 games but were outscored 72-11 from the 6th inning on.

HERE'S WHY: Over the last 39 games of the season, the Orioles were outscored 308-185...They averaged 4.74 runs per game, but O's pitchers posted a 7.61 ERA (349.0IP, 452H, 295ER) – 7.52 (164.0IP, 137ER) by the bullpen and 7.69 (185.0IP, 158ER) by starters – during that stretch...Over the final 39-game stretch, the Orioles allowed 8 (twice), 9, 10 (twice) and 11 runs in an inning....Orioles starters pitched 6.0 innings or more only 4 times in the last 25 games, posting a 8.97 ERA (106.2IP, 163H, 106ER) in that time.

FINISHING UP: After a 3-18 stretch, the Orioles won 8 of their final 18 games beginning September 13...They clinched 4th place in the AL East after beating New York, 10-9, on September 28 for their final win of the season.

SWEATING IT OUT: The Orioles had the most one-run losses (31) and the fewest one-run wins (13) in the majors, and 35 of their last 71 losses were by 2 runs or less, including 9 consecutive one-run defeats between May 13 and June 1. They played 8 straight games decided by 2 runs or less May 13-22, including 5 consecutive one-run games (May 15-20).

LET'S HANG ON TO WHAT WE'VE GOT: The Orioles held the lead in 120 of their 162 games...They led in 20 straight games, May 23-June 13, but went 9-11 over that time...It was their longest such streak since September 1-24, 1999, when they led in 22 straight games.

STREAKING: The Orioles had only a pair of 2-game winning streaks, August 14-15 and September 13-14, after their second season-high 6-game winning streaks, July 22-28...They also won 6 straight games May 26-31, and had three 4-game win streaks...In 2006, the Orioles did not win 4 in a row until August 16-19, their only 4-game winning streak of the season...In 2007, the Orioles had two 9-game losing streaks, June 9-19 and August 22-30...They also had an 8-game losing streak, three 5-game skids and a 4-game losing streak.

OUT AT HOME: The Orioles lost 18 of their last 23 home games and finished tied with Kansas City for the worst home record in the American League (35-46)...They lost 11 straight games at Camden Yards, August 22-September 7, which matched the longest home losing streak in club history...They also dropped 11 in a row at Memorial Stadium, September 7-26, 1987.

AGAINST THE EAST: The Orioles went 34-38 against AL East foes, losing 19 of their last 26 divisional games...They have not had a winning record against the AL East since 1997, losing 9 of the last 10 years...The Orioles went 11-7 vs. Tampa Bay, 9-9 vs. New York, 8-10 vs. Toronto and 6-12 vs. Boston.

ALL THOSE RUNS: The Orioles allowed 10 or more runs in 19 games - 11 of those coming in their last 39 games...They allowed 5 runs or more in an inning 24 times, with 14 of them coming in the last 39 contests.

PEN PROBLEMS: O's relievers, 13th in the AL with a 5.71 ERA, had the 5th highest bullpen ERA in the last 51 seasons (Tampa Bay's 6.16 last season is the highest)...It eclipsed the club's previous highest bullpen ERA, 5.58 in 2000.

WALKS MEAN RUNS: Oricles pitchers ranked 13th in the AL in ERA (5.17) despite allowing the 6th lowest batting average (.268) and slugging percentage (.412) and having the 5th most strikeouts (1,087)... However, they also walked a club-record 696 batters, most in the majors... The previous club record was 688 walks allowed in 1954, the team's first season in Baltimore.

MORE PITCHING WOES: The O's 6.89 staff ERA in September and 6.62 ERA in August both were the second highest posted in those months by a major league team since 1912, according to the Elias Sports Bureau (minimum 10 games)...Arizona had a 6.69 ERA in August 2005 and the Philadelphia Phillies had a 7.93 ERA in September 1930.

LUMBER NUMBERS: The Orioles were 9th in the American League with a .260 batting average and ranked 13th in runs per game (4.32) through June 18... After that date, the Orioles ranked 6th in the AL with a .280 batting average and 4.92 runs per game... The Orioles had a season-high 20 hits on September 28 after twice collecting 16 hits in a game... They reached double-figures in hits 74 times... The Orioles scored 4 or more runs in an inning 56 times in 2006, most in the majors, but had just 31 innings with 4 or more runs.

DEE-FENSE: The Orioles set club records and led the American League in both fielding percentage (.987) and fewest errors (79)...The previous club record for fewest errors in a 162-game season (81) and for highest percentage were both set in 1998...Their fielding percentage (.98701) was slightly better than the '98 team's (.98679).

STOLEN GOODS: The Orioles led the American League with 144 stolen bases, the 4th time in club history they topped the league in steals...The O's also led the AL in steals in 1963, 1973 and 2000...They had a season-high 5 stolen bases on May 27 vs. Oakland...They have been successful on 78.2% (265-339) of their steal attempts over the last two years, the best percentage in the AL.

ATTENDANCE RISES: Despite playing one fewer home date in 2007, the Orioles increased both their total and average attendance over the 2006 season...The Orioles drew 2,164,822 fans for 80 home dates in 2007, an average of 27,060 per game...That is up from the 2,153,139 total and 26,582 average for 81 dates in 2006...The Orioles' series vs. Boston August 10-12 drew 146,786 fans, the largest 3-date series in the history of Camden Yards...It eclipsed the previous high series – August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland – by 2,002 fans.

MEDIC!!: The Orioles used the disabled list 18 different times, with players missing 843 games...They began the season with two regular position players, CA Ramon Hernandez and OF Jay Payton, on the 15-day DL, and finished with six players on the 60-day DL, including four members of the expected original starting rotation (LHP Erik Bedard, LHP Adam Loewen, RHP Jaret Wright and RHP Kris Benson) as well as RHP Chris Ray, the team's closer.

8,000 AND GOING STRONG: On June 30 at Camden Yards, CA Ramon Hemandez hit a 3-run, 7th inning home run to right center off Los Angeles Angels pitcher Hector Carrasco for the Orioles' 60th homer of the season and the 8,000th since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954...The Orioles finished the season with 142 homers and rank 6th in the majors (4th in the AL) with 8,082 home runs over the past 54 seasons...The New York Yankees have the most homers in that time, 8,721.

SHOOTING BLANKS: The Orioles recorded back-to-back shutouts on July 22 and 24, their first consecutive shutouts since September 25-26, 2004...At that point, they had 7 shutouts for the season, but registered only 2 more over their final 63 games.

MAKING MILESTONES: LHP Erik Bedard set a new Orioles' record for strikecuts in a season with 221 when he fanned 3 batters in his final start of the season on August 26 vs. Minnesota, breaking a tie with Mike Mussina, who struck out 218 batters in 1997...Bedard, who missed the final five weeks of the season with a left oblique strain, led the majors until the final week of the season...Bedard became the third pitcher in club history to record 200 or more strikeouts in a season, joining Mussina (3 times) and Dave McNally (once)...On July 7 at Texas, Bedard tied the club single-game record with 15 strikeouts, beating the Rangers 3-0 on a 2-hitter... Mussina twice struck out 15 batters in a regular-season game, both in 2000 (he also did it in the 1997 ALCS)...2B Brian Roberts became the third Oriole to steal 50 bases in a season and tied Tampa Bay's Carl Crawford for the American League lead, becoming the first Oriole since Luis Aparicio in 1964 to lead the league in steals...Roberts moved into 3rd place on the club's all-time steals list with 186 and 9th place in doubles with 211...RHP Daniel Cabrera became the second consecutive Oricle to lead the AL with 18 losses (Rodrigo Lopez led the league in 2006) and also tied the second highest single-season loss total in club history...RHP Chris Ray moved into 10th place on the club's all-time saves list with 49.

OH, NO-NOI: The Orioles were the last team in the majors to be shut out this season, with the first coming on September 1 when they were no-hit by Boston rookie Clay Buchholz, 10-0... It was the 6th time in club history and the first time since Boston's Hideo Nomo held them hitless on April 4, 2001 at Camden Yards...The last time they were no-hit on the road was June 1, 1975 at Anaheim by the Angels' Nolan Ryan, the 4th of his record 7 no-hitters...The Oricles were shut out 4 times in September, tied with Kansas City for the most in the majors during the final month.

HIGH PITCH(ER) COUNT: The Orioles used a club-record 27 pitchers this season, three more than were used in 1996 and 2006...They also used 49 players overall, the 3rd highest total of players the O's ever have used in a season...The Orioles used 54 players in 1955 and 50 in 2000...In addition, 29 different players made their Orioles debut in 2007, bringing to 825 the total who have played for the club.

BABES WITH ARMS: Rookie pitchers combined to make 54 starts for the Orioles, the 5th highest total in the 54-year history of the club...Jeremy Guthrie made 26 starts, followed by Brian Burres (17), Garrett Olson (7) and Radhames Liz (4)...The club record is 69 starts by rookie pitchers in 1989...Rookie hurlers made 67 starts in both 2002 and 2004 and 66 starts in 1966.

TYLER ENDS STREAK: Miguel Tejada's consecutive game streak — 5th longest of all-time at 1,152 games — was not the longest streak to end in 2007...Umpire's Attendant Emie Tyler ended his consecutive games streak on July 28 to attend the Hall of Fame ceremonies and the induction of Cal Ripken in Cooperstown, NY... Tyler worked every Oricles game from Opening Day 1960 through July 27, a string of 3,769 regular season games at Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards...That total does not include 50 exhibition, post-season and All-Star games, for a total of 3,819 games... Tyler was invited to attend the induction ceremonies as Ripken's guest.

QUITE A COMEBACK: When the Orioles came from 6 runs down to win their game on April 16 at Tampa Bay, 9-7, it marked their biggest comeback since May 17, 2005, when they also came back from 6 down to win at Kansas City, 12-8...The win on April 16 was the 21st comeback victory of 6 or more runs in club history...They have come back from 6-run deficits 13 times, 7-run deficits 6 times and their biggest comeback win, overcoming an 8-0 deficit to win 11-10 at Boston on September 2, 1956.

QUITE A LETDOWN: The Orioles' 6-5 loss at Boston on May 13 marked the first time in team history that the ballclub lost a game in which it took a 5-run lead into the 9th inning, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...The Orioles have lost a number of games in which they took a 4-run lead into the 9th inning, the last time on June 22, 2006 when they took a 5-1 lead into the 9th against Florida, only to see the Marlins tie the game and then win it with 3 runs in the 10th inning.

SWEEPING: The Orioles and Twins became the 13th and 14th AL teams ever to sweep a season series of 7 games or more against an opponent, with the Orioles on both sides of the equation... The Orioles went 7-0 against the Royals, but were swept in all 7 games against the Twins in 2007...The Orioles have had 4 of the 14 sweeps and have been on the short end of the sweeps 3 times.

SWEEPS WEEKS: The Orioles swept consecutive series at home, April 12-14 vs. Kansas City and April 20-22 against Toronto...It marked only the second time since the start of the 1998 season the Birds have accomplished the feat in a pair of series of at least 3 games...The last time came August 3-9, 2004, when they swept Seattle (3 games) and Texas (4 games).

HALL OF FAME GAME: In a year in which Cal Ripken was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the Oricles defeated Toronto 13-7 on May 21 in the annual Hall of Fame Game in Cooperstown, NY...Aubrey Huff hit a 3-run homer before most of the regular players gave way in the early innings to farmhands from the Class A Frederick Keys...Brian Bock, who caught all 9 innings, was named the game's MVP after cracking a solo HR, grand slam and double for 3 runs and 5 RBI...RHP Brandon Erbe, the Orioles' 3rd round pick in the 2005 First Year Player Draft, struck out 6 in 4.0 scoreless innings for the win... The Orioles now are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games.

NOTES FROM FORT LAUDERDALE: The Orioles went 16-13 in spring training, the 13th time in the last 16 seasons they finished with at least a .500 record in spring training...The O's finished the exhibition season tops among American League teams in ERA (3.24), saves (12) and strikeouts (233)...Offensively, they scored the 2nd fewest runs (124) and hit the 2nd fewest home runs (16) in the league and were 12th in the AL with a .254 average.

2007 HIGHLIGHTS: The Orioles went 4-6 against Texas in 2007, the third consecutive year they have lost the season series...The O's lost 2 of 3 when they traveled to Texas July 6-8... In the first game Michael Young drove in the winning run with a single in the 10th to lift Texas to a 4-3 win... The next night, Erik Bedard fied an Orioles franchise record with 15 strikeouts in a complete game 3-0 shutout.... In the finale, Kevin Milwood allowed just one earned run in 6.0 innings, leading the Rangers to a 2-1 win...The Rangers took 2 of 3 from the Baltimore when they visited Camden Yards, August 20-22...After the series opener was postponed by rain, the Orioles scored 3 runs in the 1st and 5th innings, coasting behind Bedard for a 6-2 win on August 21...In the first game of the rescheduled August 22 doubleheader, the Rangers remped to a 30-3 win, marking the first time a team scored 30 runs since the Chicago Colts did it June 29, 1897...In the second game the Rangers earned a come-from-behind win by scoring 3 runs in the 8th off Jim Hoey for a 9-7 victory... The Birds split a 4-game series at Ameriquest Field, September 20-23... The Orioles scored 5 runs in the 10th inning to break open a 1-1 game and win the series opener 6-3... Texas took the next game, 3-2... In the third game Nick Markakis had a career high 5 RBI and the O's scored 6 runs in the final 3 innings to earn a come-from-behind 11-9 victory... In the finale Kevin Millwood, Joaquin Benolt, and C.J. Wilson combined to shut out the O's for a 3-0 Texas win...Bedard went 2-0 with a 1.13 ERA in 16.0 innings pitched, recording 26 strikeouts against the Rangers in 2007.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: The Orioles have lost the season series against Texas three straight seasons, their longest season series losing streak against the Rangers...Since the opening of Ameriquest Field in 1994, the Orioles have allowed 402 runs in 68 games there, an average of 5.9 runs per game...The Birds have allowed 7 or more runs a game 26 times in the current ballpark...On 5/23/99, the Orioles scored a then club record 10 runs in the first inning en route to a 15-6 win over the Rangers...Rafael Palmeiro became the first player to hit two home runs onto Eutaw Street in the same game when he accomplished the feat against the Rangers on 4/11/97...On 6/17/96, the Orioles and Rangers played to a 1-1 tie when rain forced play to stop in the sixth inning...The Rangers scored 26 runs against the Orioles on 4/19/96, including 16 runs in the eighth inning, which set an O's record for most runs allowed in a game and inning...The two teams set an AL record on 8/6/86 when the Orioles' Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets and the Rangers' Toby Harrah combined to hit three grand slams in a single game... Despite hitting both of their grand slams in the same inning, the Orioles blew a five-run lead and lost, 13-11...The loss plummeted the Birds from 2 1/2 games out of first to a string in which they lost 42 of their final 56 games and finished in last place for the first time in club history...Cal Ripken hit for the cycle against the Rangers on 5/6/84, making him only the second Origle to do so (Brooks Robinson was the other, 7/15/60 vs. Chicago)...Texas and Baltimore combined for 41 hits (Rangers - 22, Origles -19) in 11 innings on 5/14/83.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time Al-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 on his way to deliver food and medical supplies to earthquake. victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Carlos Delgado, John Smoltz, Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates celebrated their 45th anniversary in 2005. Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Cricies Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Oricles program (now the Dugout Club) back in '63, then administered if for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

Now in their 29th year, the Orioles Designated Hitters are a group of volunteers from throughout the community that help the Orioles increase their season ticket sales base. Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,600 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballolub with ticket sales to businesses. and organizations throughout the Crioles region.

Members of the 2008 Designated Hitters Advisory Committee include Steve Altman, Glenn Babcock, John Church. Hal Hackerman, Bill Jones. Bill Michael, Jody Palmisano, Robert Parker, and Reginald Warren.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: The Orioles lost 2 of 3 games to the Pirates at Pittsburgh's PNC Park in 2005, the only regular season meeting between the teams...The Orioles won the opener before losing the last two games...The Pirates have beaten the Orioles twice in the World Series, taking both the 1971 and 1979 titles in seven games... The Orioles won the first 2 games of the '71 series at home before losing the next 3 games at Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium...The Orioles won 3-2 in 10-innings in Game 6 to force a deciding 7th game, but Steve Blass pitched a complete game and Roberto Clemente hit his second homer in as many games to lift the Pirates to a 2-1 win....In 1979, the Orioles took a 3-1 lead in games before the Pirales stormed back to take the last three games, allowing only 2 runs... They won the 7th game, 4-1, at Memorial Stadium with the help of Willie Stargell's 3rd homer of the series.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. 0'S

WINNERS: Yankees Hall of Famer Jim "Catfish" Hunter, who retired in 1979, has beaten (and lost to) the Orioles more than any other pitcher. He was 26-24 against the Birds and is one of 11 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's. The others: Mickey Lolich (25-19), Andy Pettitte (22-6), Roger Clemens (22-14), Frank Tanana (22-19), Bert Blyleven and Whitey Ford (both 21-15), Jim Kaat (21-21), Luis Tiant (21-22). Eart Wilson (20-9) and Jim Perry (20-22).

Among active players, eight pitchers have double-digit career victories against the O's: Pettitte (22-6), Jamie Moyer (18-4), Roy Halladay (16-4). Tim Wakefield (14-13), Kelvim Escobar (13-5), Mike Mussina (10-6), Randy Johnson (10-7) and Kenny Rogers (10-9).

LOSERS: Hunter (26-24) at one point owned a 23-16 mark against the O's but went 3-8 in his last 11 decisions from 1976-79. There have been five other 20 game losers vs. the Orioles: Camilo Pascual (16-22), Jim Perry (20-22), Luis Tiant (21-22), Jim Kaat (21-21) and Fritz Peterson (15-21)

Among active players, only one pitcher has lost double-digit games against the O's: Tim Wakefield (14-13). Kenny Rogers (10-9) and relievers Tom Gordon (6-9) and Mariano Rivera (5-8) own the next most losses among active pitchers.

SNYDER WINS MOE DRABOWSKY COMBACK PLAYER AWARD

Catcher Brandon Snyder was named winner of the Moe Drabowsky Comeback Player of the Year Award, in honor of the late Orioles pitcher who spent 13 years in two stints as a coach and instructor in the club's farm system. Snyder, the Orioles No. 1 pick in the 2005 First Year Draft, missed the 2006 season after recovering from left shoulder surgery. He spent the 2007 season at Class A Delmarva and batted .283 with 11 home runs and 58 RSI. He ranked 3rd on the Shorebirds in games played (118) and at-bats (448).

THE ORIOLES "20-20" CLUB

Four different Orioles have had at least 20 homers and 20 stolen bases in the same season. Brady Anderson is the only player to do it more than once:

1969 - Paul Blair (HR-26, SB-20)

1975 - Don Baylor (HR-25, SB-32) 1976 - Reggie Jackson (HR-27, SB-28) 1992 - Brady Anderson (HR-21, SB-53) 1996 - Brady Anderson (HR-50, SB-21)

1999 - Brady Anderson (HR-24, SB-36)

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 217-178, in their 54-year history (including post-season)...They have a 124-77 advantage in Baltimore, including a 43-36 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. ORIOLES AMONG MAJORS LEADERS SINCE 1980: The Orioles have betted 130 grand slams starting in 1980, 4th in the majors over the last 28 years behind Boston (140), Seattle (139) and the New York Yankees (134). THREE IN ONE GAME: The Oricles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug. 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand stams for the Orioles, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand stams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987. TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit 2 grand stams in the same game and three times it has been done by an Oriole. Chris Holles hit a pair of grand stams on Aug. 14, 1998. at Cleveland, connecting in the 3rd and 8th innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the 5th and 6th innings at Washington on June 28, 1970. GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and fied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Emie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006. POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNaily are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history. OPPONENTS: The 2006 Orioles allowed a major-league leading and club record 12 grand slams... The previous club record was 9 allowed in 2000... The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Edgar Martinaz and Alax Rodriguez are the only players with 3 grand slams against the O's...12 players have hit 2, including 5 active players (Ken Griffey Jr., Travis Hafner, Manny Ramirez, Gary Sheffield and Jim Thome)...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up 2 grand slams against the Orioles and the 3rd to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955). GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for 2nd highest career grand slams. allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10... Dave McNally. Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, and Jesse Orosco are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing 4 apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed 4 grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Among current Orioles, Daniel Cabrera has given up 3 grand slams...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and five father-son combinations have played for the Oricles. The brother combos are the Ripkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 & 1996); and catcher Dick Brown (63-65) and his brother Larry ('73), an infielder. The father-son duos are third baseman Bob Kennedy ('54-55) and his son, catcher Terry ('87-88); outfielders Don Buford ('68-72) and his son Damon ('93-'95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. ('68) and John Jr. ('93), outfielders Dave May ('67-70) and his son, Derrick (1999); and outfielders Tim Raines Sr. and his son Tim Jr. (2001).

Raines Sr. and Jr. were only the second father-son teammates in major league history. Ken Griffey Sr. and Jr. played together for Seattle in 1990-1991.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Oricles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oricle Park at Carnden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit an inside-the-park home run off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Ferrway Park. It was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat on June 8, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees.

When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first inside-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat on May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen. Hentgen was victimized again on September 13 at Toronto, giving up an inside-the-park homer to Blue Jays catcher Greg Myers.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 23 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 40 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (14), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Red Sox (12), and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicofte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Stave Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80.

Three other Oricles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August; McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

(5) April 4, 2001 by Hideo Nomo for the Boston Red Sox at Camden Yards. The score was 3-0 and the losing pitcher was Sidney

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 53 seasons.

The Onoles pulled off their first triple play in eight seasons on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland...With Indians runners on first and second and none out in the 2nd inning, O's SS Melvin Mora allowed a short fly to left by Sandy Alomar to drop in front of him. The Cleveland runners – Travis Fryman at first and Will Cordero at second — apparently thought the infield fly rule had been called; it wasn't. Mora quickly picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who stepped on second base to force Cordero and tagged Fryman for the second out. Pitcher Sidney Porson then took the ball from Hairston and, after a slight delay, flipped the ball to first baseman Jeff Conine for the third out on Alomar, who had began to retreat to the dugout when the ball was hit into the air. After some discussion among the umpires and the ejection of Indians manager Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Oricles' previous triple play, and their last one at home, came August 25, 1992 at Oricle Park at Camdon Yards against California ...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaets Ined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Oricles at Oricle Park at Camdon Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent triple play involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st. Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

The Oricles have won a total of 58 Gold Gloves, more than any American League team since the awards were created.

Totals for each team: Cardinals 69; ORIOLES 58; Yankees 57; Reds 46; Braves 44.5; Pirates 43; Twins 39; Phillies 38.5; Giants 38; Tigers & Cubs 37; Red Sox 36; White Sox 35; Dodgers 34.5; Mariners & Senators/Rangers 33; Angels 32; Indians 29; Blue Jays 22; Expos/Nationals 21; Als 20; Astros & Padres 19; Royals & Mets 17; Brewers & Rockies 9; Martins 6.5; Diamondbacks 4 and Rays 0.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves, led by Brooks Robsinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves...Pitcher Greg Maddux ranks first with 17 Gold Gloves...Other Oriole multiple winners. Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer, Booby Grich & Mike Mussina (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripker (2 each).. Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career. Aparicio 9, Mussina has won 6 and Palmeiro 3.

DESCRIPTION OF REAL PROPERTY.

ALL-STAR NOTES

2B Brian Roberts was named to his second American League All-Star team in 2007, selected as a reserve...He was voted to start the game in 2005... Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel also represented the Orioles at the game in San Francisco in 2007.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998. They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

THREE IN A ROW: Shortstop Miguel Tejada was named to his 3rd straight All-Star team in 2006, becoming the 12th player in club history to make the team in at least 3 straight seasons... He joined Cal Ripken (1983-2001), Brooks Robinson (1960-74), Eddie Murray (1981-86), Boog Powell (1968-71), Frank Robinson (1969-72), Gus Triandos (1957-59), Jim Gentile (1960-62), Davey Johnson (1968-70), Jim Palmer (1970-72), Mike Mussina (1992-94) and Roberto Alomar (1996-98).

CAL'S FINALE: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish... It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2005 selections of 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada, 12 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors...In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the fourth player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle...He joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only 2-time winners...Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL...Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983...Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win...Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976...In 2005, Miguel Tejada won MVP honors with a home run, 2 RBI and a hand in 2 double plays to lead the AL to a 7-5 win at Detroit...Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored...Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in the 1958 All-Star Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium and was named the game's "unofficial" MVP...The official All-Star MVP Award was created in 1962.

HOME RUN DERBY: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after decling to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the 7th overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its 2nd year of existence. Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the only time they've made back-to-back post season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series...In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both...They are 6-2 overall (.750)...The O's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4...They are 21-16 (.568)...The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road...Only the New York Yankees (39 wins), Atlanta Braves (27 wins), Oakland A's (23 wins), and St. Louis Cardinals (22 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in championship games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590)...They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the 2nd best postseason record of any team...They also have a 2.69 ERA in postseason play, the 2nd lowest of any team.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808)...The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the

DID YOU KNOW...????

- *Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now pitching ceach for Class A Aberdeen, is one of only 15 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th pick overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980.
- *In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their career include Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, Doc Gooden, Bill Gulfickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Rick Sutcliffe, Bob Welch and Barry Zito.
- *Former Orioles pitcher Mit Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the 5th inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.
- *Orioles RHP Mos Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan more than 9 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix holds the Orioles regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever in a game, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.
- •The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured 4 players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).
- *Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit 3 triples in one game. He did it Sept. 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.
- +Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that 3 straight seasons since 1951.

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, begin play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Ave. below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to pro and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team makes its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moves to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Ave. and 25th Street) and adopts the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird would be used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams are formed. One, also named the Orioles, plays in the new Union Association; by mid-season they transferred to Lancaster, PA, and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, becomes a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team breaks up after a mere 13 games.

1892 - Baltimore joins the National League. Games are played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th streets.

1894-96 - With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles win three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler and Hughie Jennings.

1899 - With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finish their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joins the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles play two seasons in Baltimore before relocating to New York as the Highlanders – eventually to become the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joins the Eastern League. They are in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team wins the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles join the International League. They would be part of the league for the next 42 seasons until major league baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), enters the newly formed Federal League. The league would fold after just one season. The team plays at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Ave. between 29th and 30th streets; two years later, Jack Dunn buys the ballpark and renames it Oricle Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager and manager of the International League Orioles, signs 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname is born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 - The Orioles, led by Dunn, win a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years, 1920-24, future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove leads the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s - The city fields two teams in the Negro Leagues -- the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however, a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, leading the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracting interest from teams in the major leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, play their final season in the International League. After two votes fail, on September 29, American League owners approve the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 - Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium - now called Memorial Stadium -- Baltimore returns to the major leagues and the Orioles return to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles return to Baltimore by train - arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark - and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but go on to a 54-100

November 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swap 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards lays the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles get 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 - Brooks Robinson is signed; he makes his major league debut on September 17 but does not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.

July 8, 1958 - Memorial Stadium hosts its first and only All-Star

Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retires the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

September 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurls the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, Manager Paul Richards will introduce the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

May 9, 1961 – Jim Gentile becomes the first player in major league history to hit grand slams in consecutive at bats in a 13-5 win at Minnesota.

September 18, 1963 – Steve Barber becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California. He is the first of the Orioles' 20-game winners; they have had 23 more over the last 40 years, more than any other team.

June, 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, takes control of the ballclub as majority owner. He will lead the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles go to the postseason six times.

December 9, 1965 – The Orioles make arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completes the trade, which was begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail Jr. May 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hits the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorate the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

September 22, 1966 – 20-year-old Jim Palmer pitches a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer will win 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe 4 Straight?" The Orioles stun the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson wins the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell finish 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver is added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, is named manager of the Orioles. He goes on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Ferman

1969-71 - Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they capture three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earns the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the '70 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 - The Oricles win back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they are beaten by Oakland in the AL Championship Series both years.

June 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, begins to remake the club with a 10-player trade with New York. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez and Rick Dempsey come from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, is among those sent to New York.

September 18, 1977 - Memorial Stadium is filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

June 22, 1979 - Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the 9th caps a monumental comeback against Detroit and gives birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles win the AL pennant for the 5th time and take a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series. But the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" comes back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

November 1, 1979 – American League owners approve the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ends both local and public ownership of the club.

August 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken Jr. makes his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record is the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a midyear strike, baseball decides to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finish second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

October 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with 4 games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, take the first three games at Memorial Stadium to forge a tie for first. But the Brewers spoil the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced his retirement at the end of the season, is saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lose the first game of the AL Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox three straight games. They lose the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken is named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 - The Orioles lose a major league record 21 games to start the season.

May 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles play before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announces that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority have agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

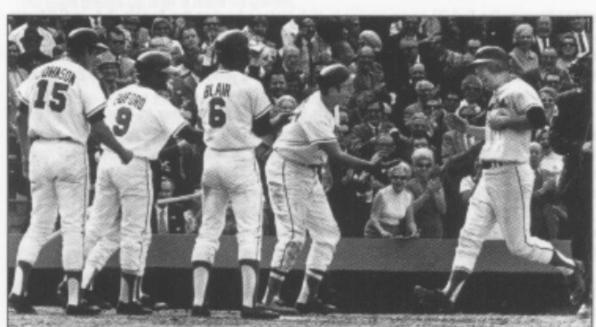

December 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs buys the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who had passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" is the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably lead the AL East into September. They eventually lose at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

October 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ends as the Orioles play their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken Jr. – who would add his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won in mid-season – hits into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit does not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles return in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

April 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushers in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Oricles beat the Indians, 2-0 on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helps revitalize the neighborhood and earns wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

July 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosts the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind. August 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos leads a group of investors – most of whom are Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approve the sale on October 4.

September 6, 1995 – The Iron Man tops the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken Jr. surpasses a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helps beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles draw 3,098,475 fans in the strikeshortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They will go on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

September 6, 1996 - Future

Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hits his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A major league-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles break New York's 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advance to the playoffs as the "wild card" team, finishing 2nd in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the AL Division Series before the Yankees – with help from 12-year-old Jeffrey Maier – end the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles go wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

September 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken Jr. ends his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor starts in his place at third base.

April 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken Jr. singles at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oricle and 24th player to reach that milestone. He is one of eight players with 3,000 hits and 400 home runs.

October 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken plays his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career will result in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame with the 3rd highest vote percentage in history.

July 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, begins 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2007, Cal Ripken Jr. became the 12th modern Oriole to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and the 6th whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat, joining Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Earl Weaver. All except Weaver – selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee – were elected in their first year of eligibility. (See "Oricles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Ripken received 98.53% of the vote total (537 of 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. His total of 98.53 percent was the third highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999). Also elected along with Ripken was former San Diego Padres outfielder Tony Gwynn, with 97.6 percent of the votes. They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th electees to spend their entire career with one team.

The 12 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include nine players, a manager and an executive:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%) Frank Robinson ('82, 89%) Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%) George Kell ('83, VCS+) Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%) Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)

Jim Palmer ('90, 93%) Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%) Earl Weaver ('96, VCS*) Lee MacPhail ('98, VCS*) Eddie Murray ('03, 85%) Cal Ripken Jr. ('07, 98%)

+Veterans' Committee Selection

In addition to Ripken, Robinsons, Palmer, Murray and Jackson also were elected in their first year of eligibility.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late '50s and early '60s, was named as a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager. Williams, an outfielder-first baseman as a player, managed 21 years in the majors with 6 different teams, winning two World Championships and four league titles.

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Along with the 12 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b) Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp) Roger Bresnahan (c) Dan Brouthers (1b) William Candy Cummings (rhp) Hughie Jennings (ss)
Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp) Wee Willie Keeler (of)
Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr) Joe Kelley (of-if)
Rogers Hornsby (2b) Rube Marquard (lhp)

Hughie Jennings (ss) Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Wee Willie Keeler (of) John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Joe Kelley (of-if) Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Rube Marquard (lhp) George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971.

Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

Native Marylanders in the Hall: Ripken, born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, is one of eight native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame and one of four who once played for the Orioles... The other former Orioles – all of whom played for the International League O's – were Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore)... The four native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles who are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudiersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

Among the Oriole items on display in the Hall of Fame's Museum are: the glove from Mike Bordick's major league-record consecutive errorless games streak in 2002; the jersey worn by Cal Ripken Jr. in his final major league game, Oct. 6, 2001; a jersey worn by Scott Erickson in Cuba, the first major leaguer to pitch on Cuban soil in 40 years on March 28, 1999; a base used by Roberto Alomar in the 1998 All-Star Game, when he was named MVP; the Lineup card from Ripken's 2,130th consecutive game (Sept. 5, 1995) to tie Lou Gehrig's record; the bat used by Eddie Murray to hit 2 home runs in Game 5 of the 1983 World Series; a Frank Robinson jersey; a glove used by Brooks Robinson in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP; the unique short-billed batting helmet worn by Brooks; and balls from no-hitters pitched by Hoyt Wilhelm (Sept. 2, 1958) and Jim Palmer (Aug. 13, 1969).

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their 6th scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on May 14, 2007. The Orioles are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one game postponed by rain. The results:

1961 Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2 1967 Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0 1983 St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1

1990 Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out

1998 Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1 2007 Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Farne are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last year, former outfielder B.J. Surhoff was elected, bringing membership in the Orioles Hall of Fame to 44 former players, coaches and managers.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2007, the Herb Armstrong Award was presented to the late Bill O'Donnell, who broadcast Orioles games on radio and television for 17 years before his untimely passing in 1982. His tenure with the club is second only to his long-time broadcast partner, Chuck Thompson. At the time of O'Donnell's death, they were the long-running announcing team in the major leagues. One of the highlights of his professional career came on June 22, 1979, when he called Doug DeCinces' game-winning home run against the Detroit Tigers at Memorial Stadium that came to symbolize "Orioles Magic."

WILD BILL HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out.

Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award. He will be remembered on a plaque displayed with the other honorees at the Sports Legends Museum, adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

Second-year outfielder Nick Markakis was named the winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award in 2007. Markakis earned the honor after winning the team's "triple crown", leading the Orioles and setting career-highs in batting average (.300), home runs (23) and RBI (112). Markakis also lead the team with 43 doubles and a .485 slugging percentage while playing in 161 games.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Eight players — Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3), Boog Powell (2) and Miguel Tejada (2) have won the award more than once.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl currently ranks 20th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 8th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons in the majors.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Oricles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Pembroke Pines, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage, as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON-5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record form most Gold Gloves by a non-pitcher with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, 4th in the AL and 5th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only eight players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star berth, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), an MVP (1983) and AL Rookie of the Year (1982) honors, two Gold Gloves and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. And he still owns five Major League or American League fielding records for shortstops. Cal was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Cal went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award among many other honors.

Cal and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown, MD with their children, Rachel and Ryan. He is active in youth baseball projects and is co-owner of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate, in addition to raising funds for the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation to benefit youth programs.

FRANK ROBINSON-20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of alltime in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 6th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians ('75-'77), he managed the San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), the Orioles ('88-'89) and the Montreal Expos—Washington Nationals ('02-'06).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 15th season as an analyst on Oricles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY-33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

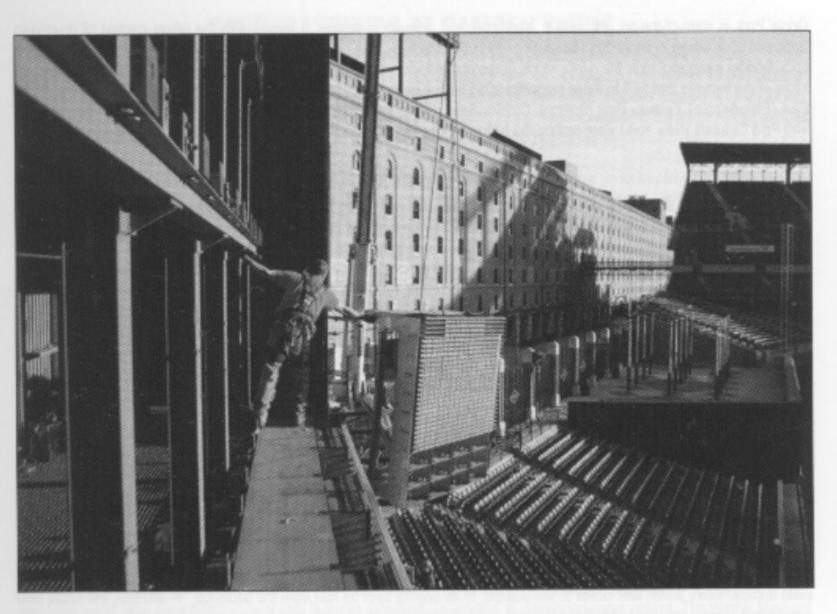

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks 8th all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. Eddie lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughters, Jordan and Jessica, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

A new ballpark entertainment system will enhance the fan experience at Camden Yards in 2008.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,290 and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an inlaid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, the entire field was re-sodded with an improved four way blend of Kentucky bluegrass that was grown on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. In conjunction with the re-sodding project, all new irrigation heads were installed. This past off-season, the warning track around the field was replaced.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to 7 feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter distance to the right field corner than down the left field line is compensated by a 25' high wall, which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Babe's Irish Pub) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

SCOREBOARDS

This past off-season, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority contracted with Mitsubishi to purchase a new video system for Oriole Park at Camden Yards, replacing the Sony JumboTRON video board and Daktronics matrix and out-of-town boards used since the park opened in 1992. The new state of the art equipment includes a Mitsubishi DiamondVision LED video board and LED scoreboard in center field, an LED out of town scoreboard display in right field, and LED "ribbon" boards along the club level and upper deck fascia.

The new DiamondVision LED video board sits atop the LED scoreboard, reversing the placement of the previous system. The new LED out of town scoreboard in right field features statistical information in addition to game scores. The narrow auxiliary matrix boards along the club level and upper deck were replaced with LED ribbon boards, providing better definition, brighter images and wider viewing angles.

In order to preserve the traditional feel of Oriole Park while providing fans with the most modern technology, the Orioles hired an expert design team comprised of Janet Marie Smith, Gary McAuliffe and Sam Berkow to work with the Maryland Stadium Authority to deliver major technological upgrades while preserving the ballpark's historic aesthetic. Smith (Struever Bros.) is an original Camden Yards designer and the lead designer for the Boston Red Sox' ongoing renovation of historic Ferway Park. McAuliffe (PMK Consultants) is an audio/video design expert who specializes in sports facilities and other major public venues. Berkow (SIA Acoustics) is an audio expert with experience in acoustical design projects, including amphitheaters and stadiums.

Phase two of the ballpark improvements, which include major control room upgrades, new HD televisions throughout the ballpark, and improvements in the coverage and quality of the ballpark sound system, will be completed in time for the 2009 season, if not sooper.

The large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore will remain on top of the centerfield boards. The main scoreboard system also supports two weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

FOUL POLES

When the Oricles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Oricles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Babe's Irish Pub) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes there are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 47'.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 72 luxury suites, each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites are leased on a yearly basis. There are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several of which hold 10-18 people, and three larger party suites that can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

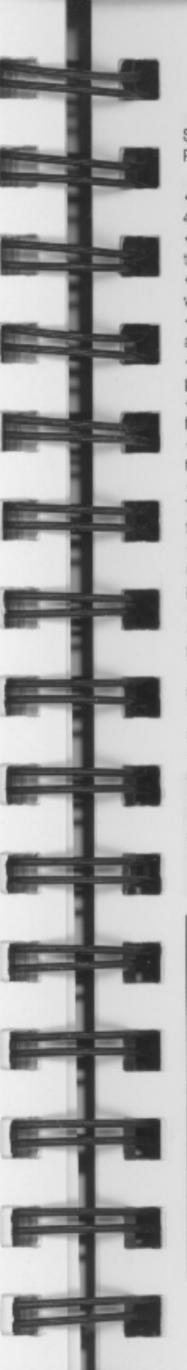

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,850 Eutaw Street Reserve seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

Total seating in the ballpark is 48,290. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, many exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

- Prior to the 2008 season, the ballpark entertainment system, including the video and scoreboards, were replaced. See page 415 for more information on these upgrades.
- *Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
- *Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, ten seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
- +Also prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5' rotational signs were also added to the wall.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
- The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- •Expanding on improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- *Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- *Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.
- Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- *Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
- The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
- +Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

FIRSTS AT ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

FIRST GAME: April 6, 1992 vs. Cleveland Indians

FIRST PITCH: Thrown by Rick Sulcliffe

FIRST PITCH AND GAME TIME TEMPERATURE: 3:20 pm EDT; it was a ball. Temperature was 63 degrees

FIRST BATTER: Kenny Lofton, Indians center fielder, flied out to right fielder Joe Orsulak on a 3-2 pitch

FIRST HIT: Cleveland's first baseman Paul Sorrento, singled to left-center with one out in the top of the 2nd inning

FIRST ORIOLES HIT: Orioles first baseman Glenn Davis led off the bottom of the 2nd inning with a single to center

FIRST RUN: In the 5th inning. O's designated hitter Sam Horn walked, went to 2nd base on 3rd baseman Leo Gomez's single and scored on catcher Chris Holles' double

FIRST RBI: Catcher Chris Hoiles hit a ground-rule double (ball bounced over the left-center fence) to score Sam Hom

FIRST DOUBLE: Chris Hoiles, driving in Sam Hom for the ballpark's first RBI

FIRST STRIKEOUT: Sutcliffe victimized Cleveland's right fielder Mark Whiten in the 2nd inning

FIRST HOME RUN: Cleveland's Paul Sorrento (3-run homer), 1st inning, off Bob Milacki, April 8

FIRST ORIOLES HOME RUN: Mike Deversaux, leading off the 4th inning (off Cleveland's Jack Armstrong), April 9

FIRST STOLEN BASE: Cleveland's Mark Lewis (against Ben McDonald and Chris Hoiles), 3rd inning, April 9

FIRST GRAND SLAM: Randy Milligan, 7th inning, off Les Lancaster, April 17, vs. Detroit

FIRST MULTI-HOME RUN GAME: Milligan (2), off Detroit's Scott Aldred (one on) and Les Lancaster (grand slam). April 17

FIRST TRIPLE: Cal Ripken, 6th inning. April 17 vs. Detroit, off Scott Aldred

FIRST SAVE: Gregg Olson, April 19 vs. Detroit, in a 3-2 victory

. Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22) and Eddie Murray (33).

- *Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.
- +Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Emie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.
- Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).
- Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home. runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- *Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.
- In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "Right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."
- Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.
- In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

Oricle Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2007, over 40,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available yearround. Public tours are available between mid-February and mid-December. For ticket and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234.

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbraed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Omithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern priole. But later studies showed that, while the two pirds sometimes interpreed. the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

ATTENDANCE

APPROACHING 100 MILLION: The Orioles have drawn 98,385,866 fans in their 54-year history, leaving them a little more than 1.6 million shy of reaching the 100 million mark in all-time attendance.

In 2008 – their 17th season at Oriole Park at Camden Yards – the Orioles will surpass the total attendance that they drew from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 years at Memorial Stadium, the club drew 49,845,588 in 38 seasons (2,716 dates), an average of 18,353 fans per game.

The Orioles have drawn 48,540,278 fans in 16 seasons at Camden Yards. They have drawn an average of over 38,708 fans for 1,254 home dates. They need to draw just under 1.5 million fans to reach the 50 million mark at Camden Yards.

TOP SEASONS: The Orioles have drawn four of the 20 highest single season attendance totals in major league history.

2007: The Orioles drew 2,164,822 fans to Camden Yards, for 80 home dates, an average of 27,060 fans per game. The total was an increase of more than 11,000 fans over the previous season despite playing one fewer home date.

The Orioles had nine sellouts in 2007, including the 6th largest crowd in Camden Yards history on August 11, when 49,242 fans attended the game against the Boston Red Sox.

The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 750 of 1,254 regular season dates at Oriole Park (60%), including 12 of 80 home dates in 2007.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007 series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Carnden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 146,784 set August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland. The Orioles also drew their 6th largest three-date series at Carnden Yards in 2007, with 144,290 attending the 3-game set vs. New York, July 27-29.

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did it for five consecutive years. The team has drawn 3 million or more fans in nine of the 14 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MASN is the television home of the Baltimore Oricles. The independent regional sports network is owned by the Oricles and Washington Nationals and gives fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game. Before and after each game, the network carries the exclusive pregame and postgame show, O's Xtra.

When both the Orioles and Nationals play simultaneously, MASN offers a second channel, MASN2, to provide the live telecast of the other game. All of MASN's cable and satellite distributors also carry MASN2, on a consistent channel throughout the season. (visit www.masnsports.com for local listings). Selected MASN Orioles games are simulcast over-the-air on WJZ-TV, Channel 13 in Baltimore.

MASN is the Official Cable Network of the Baltimore Ravens and carries primetime Ravens programming throughout football season. MASN carries hundreds of NCAA football, basketball and lacrosse games, as well as feature programming including the Caribbean Series.

MASN's exclusive television territory covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.masnsports.com.

GARY THORNE

Gary Thorne is one of the most recognizable voices in sports broadcasting, having covered Major League Baseball, the National Hockey League, the Olympics, NCAA basketball, football and hockey during his illustrious 40-year broadcasting career. This year marks his 23rd season of play by play coverage of MLB and his second on Orioles' MASN broadcasts.

Thorne has broadcast seven World Series and eight All-Star Games for MLB International TV and 12 NHL seasons, including Stanley Cup playoffs and finals for ABC/ESPN. He broadcast New York Mets games on radio and TV for 13 seasons, including the 1986 World Series. This season is his 18th year of MLB coverage on ESPN and his second year broadcasting Orioles games on MASN.

Thorne has covered three Olympics with CBS and NBC and has received three Emmys, two for his work with Mets TV and one for his work broadcasting New Jersey Devils hockey.

Thorne's first appearance on ESPN was in July 1988 for the inaugural Triple-A All-Star Game. He served as the original host and moderator in 1988 for "The Sports Reporters," the network's Sunday morning roundtable program.

In 1989, Thome served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and was a back up play-by-play announcer (behind Al Michaels) on ABC's Thursday night MLB telecasts. From 1990 to 1993 he called two primary MLB games per week. Thome also served as an on-the-field reporter for the World Series and covered the World Series Trophy presentation for ABC.

Thorne has also done play-by-play on SportsChannel America's National Hockey League telecasts (1988-92) and New Jersey Devils telecasts on SportsChannel New York (1987-92). Prior to that, he was the play-by-play commentator and director of broadcasting for the Maine Guides (1984), a Triple-A ball club which he co-owned from 1984-88. He also covered University of Maine hockey games for WBGW-AM and WABI-TV and radio from 1977-86.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, member of the Army JAG Corps and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 12th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. Jim will work exclusively on the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network again in 2008. He will host "O's Xtra," MASN's Orioles pre-game and post game shows, sharing the studio with Orioles Hall of Famer Rick Dempsey. Jim will also call games on MASN with Buck Martinez or Jim Palmer. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 30 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 49, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles' first radio voice, Emie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In 1996, he called the National League Division Series in which the Atlanta Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a thrilling 7-game series. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim makes several appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub as well as helping various charities. He is an active part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which annually raises money for cancer research for children.

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

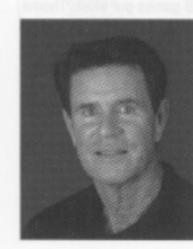

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Hunter resides in Fallston, MD with his wife Bonnie. They have three children. Jimmy (23) is a graduate of York College, PA and is working in the television field. Jeff (21) is a junior at York College and Allie (17) is a junior at Fallston High School, and a member of the school's state championship field hockey team. They also have two faithful dogs, Bobby and Sadie.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 16th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 411.

BUCK MARTINEZ

Buck Martinez returns for his sixth season as an Orioles television analyst, bringing a wealth of baseball experience to the broadcast booth. He will team with Gary Thorne or Jim Hunter to provide color commentary for Orioles games.

In addition to his Orioles duties, Martinez is in his fourth year as a co-host on "MLB This Morning," a news-magazine style baseball show that airs weekday mornings on XM Satellite Radio, and will continue his work as an analyst on ESPN's Wednesday night national MLB telecasts in 2008.

Martinez' extensive resume includes over 31 years as a player and manager in the American League and over 23 years of experience in baseball broadcasting on television and radio. Beginning in 1967 when he was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, Martinez spent 23 years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Kansas City Royals, Milwaukee Brewers and Toronto

Blue Jays organizations. He appeared in the postseason with Kansas City in 1976, batting .333 in the 5-game ALCS against the New York Yankees, and wrote two books about his experiences with the Blue Jays, "From Worst to First" (1985) and "The Last Out" (1986).

Martinez, 59, also served as manager for Toronto in 2001 and part of the 2002 season, compiling a 100-115 record. In 2006, he managed the United States team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic, a 16-team international tournament that featured some of the best players in the world competing for their home countries.

Martinez' first experience with broadcasting came in 1982, when he covered the American League Championship Series, the World Series and the All-Star Game for the Telemedia Radio Network. His television broadcast career began in 1987 as a color commentator for the Toronto Blue Jays on The Sports Network. He began working with ESPN radio and television in 1992, a position he held through the 2002 season. In 1995, Martinez was awarded a Sports EMMY Award for his work on ESPN's coverage of Cal Ripken's 2,131st consecutive game.

A California native, Martinez attended Sacramento City College, Sacramento State University, and Central Missouri State University. He and his wife, Arlene, reside in Clearwater, FL. They have one son, Casey, a 47th round pick by Toronto in the 2000 First Year Player Draft.

RICK DEMPSEY

Former Orioles catcher and 1983 World Series MVP Rick Dempsey is in his second year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team after five years on the club's coaching staff. He will team with Jim Hunter to host the "O's Xtra" pre- and post-game shows on MASN, and will also serve as an analyst on a selection of game broadcasts.

This season marks Dempsey's 41st year working in professional baseball. He played for 24 major league seasons with six teams, including 11 1/2 with the Orioles. Dempsey is tied for 8th all-time in seasons played and is one of only three catchers, along with Tim McCarver and Carlton Fisk, to play in four decades. He played on three World Series teams and won two championships, including 1983 when he was named the World Series MVP in the Orioles' 4-games-to-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Rick batted .233 with 96 home runs and 471 RBI in his career, which began with the Minnesota Twins in 1969. He was traded to the New York Yankees in 1973 and, in 1976, to the Orioles as part of a 10-player swap that also brought the O's Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor...He became the Orioles' regular catcher in 1977 and for 10 years was the Orioles' primary backstop, catching a club-record 1,222 games. After leaving the Orioles, Dempsey played for Cleveland (1987), Los Angeles (1988-90) and Milwaukee (1991) before returning to the Orioles for his final season in '92. He ranks 14th all-time with 1,633 games caught and had a .988 career fielding percentage.

Dempsey began his post-playing career as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' major league coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. From 2002-2006, he served as a first base coach, third base coach and bullpen coach on the Orioles coaching staff.

Rick and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John, who was a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system, and Christian. Rick's younger brother Pat was a minor league catcher for several teams, including the Orioles. His nephew, Gregg Zaun, is a former Orioles catcher now with Toronto. The son of an actor, Rick entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1997.

AMBER THEOHARIS

Amber Theoharis returns to the Orioles' broadcast team on MASN this season as a sideline reporter, providing live in-game coverage and player interviews for MASN's pre and post-game shows O's Xtra. In addition to her television duties with MASN, Amber is the sports talk radio host of 'The A List with Amber Theoharis' on the Orioles' flagship radio station, WHFS-FM, and is also a columnist for the Baltimore-based newspaper Press Box, where her weekly editorial The Broadside gives a female's view on sports.

This fall, the Baltimore area native will enter her 5th season covering the Baltimore Ravens as host of MASN's post-game show Ravens Xtra.

Prior to joining MASN, Amber was the weekend sports anchor and reporter at FOX45 in Baltimore, and also hosted Ravens Wired, a weekly NFL magazine show. Throughout her career Amber has held on-air positions at WSYX-TV in Columbus, OH; WNBC-TV in New York City; New 12 Long Island and WBOC-TV in Salisbury MD. She began her career behind the scenes at WJLA-TV in Washington, D.C.

An Emmy-award-winning sports journalist who was recently named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, Amber is a proud graduate of the University of Maryland, College Park.

RADIO

Announcers: Joe Angel and Fred Manfra

CBS Radio's WHFS-FM 105.7 returns as the flagship station for the Oricles in 2008, airing all 162 regular season games and 12 spring training games. In addition to game broadcasts, WHFS and WJFK-AM 1300 programming for the upcoming year includes a weekly Hot Stove Show during the off-season, daily All-Access Pre- and Post-Game shows, and weekly Insider Roundtable and Manager's shows throughout the season.

This is the 8th year of the Oricles' partnership with Clear Channel Communications to broadcast all Oricles games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. The majority of the games will air on WTEM (980 AM). This is the second year of the Oricles' partnership with WOYK-AM ESPN 1350 in York, PA. In all, there are 2 stations on the Oricles Radio Network, covering four states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Oricles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel returns for his 5th straight season as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio. He will work exclusively on radio, teaming with Fred Manfra.

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe has broadcast Major League Baseball for 30 years, including seven seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-07. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 60, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago seven years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured

O.J. Simpson as running back.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in Major League Baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

In his nearly 31 years of radio work with Major League Baseball, Joe has broadcast two World Series, 30 postseason games and six no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN Column," "Wave it bye bye" and "Hasta la vista pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in Weston, FL, and have three grown children, Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 16th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL Radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 through 2006.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984); Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988); Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992); and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early 70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work. Fred is on the advisory board of the Salvation Army of Baltimore and the board of the Albert Close Foundation in Harford County, and Marlene is president of the board of the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland and is also involved with Stella Maris hospice center. They have two adult daughters—Michelle, who works in Los Angeles, CA, and Stephanie, who resides in Coconut Grove, FL.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis enters his 37th year as a local sportscaster and begins his second year on the Orioles broadcast team as host of Orioles pre- and post-game shows on WHFS-FM. He will also do some work on television as a co-host of "O's Xtra," MASN's pre- and post-game shows. Davis previously spent 17 seasons as a host on Orioles telecasts on Home Team Sports (HTS) from 1984-2000.

A five-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Davis began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL Radio, had two stints at WCBM-AM and spent 17 years as a sportscaster for the "Rouse & Company Show" on WQSR-FM.

Tom's national sports broadcasting experience includes work with NBC-TV and NBC Radio, where he covered the NFL, 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1988 Summer Olympics. He also did play-by-play for a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

Davis served as play-by-play announcer for the first game played at M&T Bank Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Baltimore Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run in 1999.

In addition to his work on Orioles broadcasts, Davis serves as a sports update anchor on Baltimore's ESPN Radio 1300 AM on weekday mornings and co-hosts a sports talk show each Saturday afternoon on the station. He also produces and hosts

A graduate of Calvert Hall College High School, Davis received a BS degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He lives in Baltimore County with his wife Bonnie and is the father of two adult children, Malinda and Tad. He also has a stepdaughter, Mandi, and a grandson, Hunter.

DAVE JOHNSON

Former major league pitcher and Baltimore native Dave Johnson will serve as co-host of the Orioles' pre- and post-game shows on WHFS-FM, as well as serving as a color analyst on MASN's coverage.

Johnson spent all or parts of five seasons in the majors, including three seasons with the Oricles, 1989-91. In his second week with the O's, he earned American League 'Player of the Week' honors with a pair of complete-game victories in early August. After helping the '89 "Why Not?" club stay in the pennant race to the final weekend of the season, Johnson led the 1990 Orioles with 13 wins and O's starters with a 4.10 ERA, while finishing second on the staff in starts and innings pitched. He went 21-24 with a 4.84 ERA and 7 complete games in 66 appearances for the Orioles.

After graduating from Overlea High School in eastern Baltimore County, Johnson drove a tractor-trailer for several years before enrolling at Baltimore Community College, leading the school to the 1982 Junior College World Series. He was signed as an undrafted free agent by Pittsburgh in 1982 and made his big league debut with the Pirates in 1987. He finished his playing career in 1993 with Detroit after compiling a 22-25 record and a 5.11 ERA.

His first experience in broadcasting came in 1996, when he served as color analyst for Home Team Sports' production of the 16-to-18 year old Babe Ruth World Series. He also spent two years as a post-game analyst for Comcast SportsNet before joining the Orioles' flagship stations last year.

Dave also currently serves as the co-host of The Tom Davis Show live on ESPN-1300 and MASN each Saturday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. He currently runs Dave Johnson's Baseball Academy, providing baseball instruction to individuals, groups and summer camps. He lives in Kingsville, MD with his wife, Tera. Their oldest son, Steven, is a pitcher in the Los Angeles Dodgers' organization, and their youngest, Daniel, is a senior at Perry Hall High School.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick.

Award: Emie Harwell (54-'59), Herb Cameal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.
