QUOTEWORTHY

Here is what Head Coach Clint Peay and midfielders Noel Buck and Damian Rivera had to say ahead of Sunday night's season opener against New York City FC II:

New England Revolution II Head Coach Clint Peay

On Revolution II joining MLS NEXT Pro this season:

Peay: "I think obviously being more connected to the first team and the MLS, the league itself is going to be exciting for our guys. They're obviously all young guys who are striving to make it to the first team, so I think that the competitiveness of the games and the quality of the games will be high and I'm looking forward to it."

Midfielder Noel Buck

On getting valuable minutes with Revolution II for a second season:

Buck: "Yeah, they are really important for me. Especially coming into my second year, all these experiences add up. And coming into the new year, it's just another year to improve."

Midfielder Damian Rivera

On the camaraderie of the group bridging the entire organization together on one roster:

Rivera: "Like you said, with the academy guys getting called up kind of people already have relationships through the academy and some guys are training with the second team and stuff like that. But they're a good bunch of kids. And I played in the academy as well, so I do know a couple of the kids in there that are coming up and training with Revs II. And like me and Noel [Buck] coming down, me and Noel are close. So, I think we all get along very well. I think that's good for us and we'll have a lot of chemistry this year."

MATCH PREVIEW

New England Revolution II will make its first trip to Belson Stadium on Sunday evening to face New York City FC II in the opening match of the inaugural 2022 MLS NEXT Pro regular season. The contest kicks off at 5:00 p.m. ET and all 24 regular season games will stream on MLSNEXTPro.com. Through the team's first two seasons, 30 different players have made their professional soccer debuts, including 18 current and former members of the Revolution Academy.

Revolution II enters its third season under Head Coach Clint Peay and will once again feature a lineup that is a combination of New England's first-team players, MLS NEXT Pro signees, and current Revolution Academy youth players. Midfielder Noel Buck and defender Ryan Spaulding, the two players to appear in all 28 matches for Revolution II in 2021, both signed MLS contracts this offseason after excelling with the second team. Spaulding made his MLS debut on March 12 at Gillette Stadium. Buck, a Homegrown Player from Arlington, Mass., is one of several MLS signees likely to contribute with Revolution II this year alongside Revolution Academy alum Damian Rivera and forward Edward Kizza.

New England made several offseason moves to bolster the roster ahead of the 2022 season, signing seven players to pro contracts including Academy graduate Esmir Bajraktarevic. New England also built its roster through international signings as Revolution Technical Director Curt Onalfo brought in three Brazil natives in forward Marcos Dias (Vasco de Gama), defender José Ítalo (Clube de Regatas do Flamengo), and midfielder Ryan Lima (Botafogo F.R.). Revolution II also signed defender Michael DeShields and midfielder Trevor Zwetsloot, as well as 2022 MLS SuperDraft pick Ben Reveno, to MLS NEXT Pro professional contracts.

New York City FC II is entering its first season and will be playing all home matches at St. John's University's Belson Stadium. The club hired Matt Pilkington in February to serve as the club's head coach. Pilkington previously served as a head coach with NYCFC Academy since 2016. NYC's roster features Jonathan Jimenez, Nicholas Benalcazar, and Samuel Owusu who were all NYCFC's MLS roster ahead of this season.

New England's next game will be the home opener at Gillette Stadium, Revolution II's first home match open for fans to attend. They will take on Rochester New York FC on Sunday, April 3 at 6:00 p.m. ET. Revolution II Season Memberships and single-game tickets are on sale now. REVS II JOINS MLS NEXT PRO AHEAD OF INAUGURAL SEASON

New England Revolution II is one of 21 clubs joining MLS NEXT Pro for the new professional league's inaugural season in 2022.

Established by Major League Soccer, MLS NEXT Pro offers players the ability to complete an integrated player pathway from MLS NEXT to MLS first teams, giving both young and experienced professionals the opportunity to develop and showcase their talents within a competitive professional league. Cities across North America will experience the excitement and passion of professional soccer through the inclusion of both independent teams and MLS-affiliated teams.

New England Revolution II enters its third season in 2022 after playing its first two seasons in USL League One. Over the team's first two years of existence, 30 players have made their professional debuts with Revolution II, including 18 current or former members of the Revolution Academy. Designed to accelerate the development of the top prospects in New England's player pathway, Revolution II has already produced multiple players who became regular contributors at the MLS level, including inaugural team members Jon Bell and Maciel. This November, Maciel became the first Revolution II graduate to appear in the MLS Cup Playoffs on Nov. 30, 2021 while Bell became the first Revs II alum to start in international competition on March 16, 2022 when New England played Pumas in the Concacaf Champions League.

The 21 clubs competing in MLS NEXT Pro's inaugural season include 20 teams affiliated with MLS clubs and one independent club, Rochester NY FC. New England joins the league alongside Chicago, Colorado, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dallas, Houston, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New York City, Orlando, Philadelphia, Portland, Rochester, Salt Lake City, San Jose, Seattle, St. Louis, Toronto, and Vancouver. Eight additional MLS-affiliated teams will join MLS NEXT Pro in 2023, including: Atlanta United, Austin FC, Charlotte FC, D.C. United, LA Galaxy, LAFC, Nashville SC, and New York Red Bulls. Additional independent clubs will also join the league in 2023 and beyond.

The Revolution will play 24 matches during the league's inaugural season facing all Eastern Conference opponents. The regular season runs from March through September with the playoffs concluding in October.

NOEL BUCK AND RYAN SPAULDING SIGN MLS CONTRACTS

In only two seasons, five different players have ascended from Revolution II to sign with the first team, most recently the club's eighth Homegrown Player, Noel Buck, and defender Ryan Spaulding.

Buck signed his first professional contract with Revolution II in June 2021, one of six Academy players to sign a pro deal directly to the second team from the club's youth ranks: Meny Silva, Dennis Ramirez, Colby Quinones, Hikaru Fujiwara, and Esmir Bajraktarevic.

Spaulding, 23, signed with Revolution II on January 16, 2020 and played two seasons with the USL League One side, setting team records in games played (42), starts (38), minutes (3,402) while totaling four goals and three assists in that span. A resident of Cary, N.C., Spaulding earned eight elections to the USL League One Team of the Week over the past two years and was one of three defenders named to the 2021 All-USL League One First Team, the first Revolution II player to earn the honor.

ESMIR IS HERE: SIXTH ACADEMY PLAYER SIGNS WITH REVS II

Ahead of the 2022 season, New England Revolution II signed Revolution Academy midfielder Esmir Bajraktarevic to a professional contract. The Wisconsin native became the sixth Revolution Academy product to earn promotion to Revolution II. Bajraktarevic, 17, becomes second-youngest player to sign with Revolution II to date since the club began play in 2020.

Bajraktarevic joined the Revolution Academy's residency program in August 2021. The midfielder immediately began training with Revolution II and made his professional debut on Aug. 21. Bajraktarevic spent the final three months of the 2021 USL League One season with Revolution II, appearing in 11 games with five starts and logging 457 minutes. He netted his first professional goal on Sept. 11 at North Carolina FC, becoming the third different Academy player to score a goal in a professional match for Revs II in 2021. RIO TO REVS II: THREE BRAZILIANS ARRIVE IN NEW ENGLAND

New England added three Brazil natives this offseason in midfielder Ryan Lima, forward Marcos Dias, and defender José Ítalo. The trio joins midfielder Michel and now-first-team midfieler Maciael as the five all-tim Revolution II players who joined the club from Brazil.

Ryan, 20, becomes the third youth player from Brazilian side Botafogo F.R. to sign a professional contract with New England Revolution II since the team's foundation in 2020. Ryan joins New England after notching four goals in 29 matches for Botafogo's Under-20 team this season across more than 1,200 minutes played. The Brazil native also played in two matches in the 2021 Campeonato Brasileiro playoffs as Botafogo advanced to the quarterfinals. Ryan debuted with Botafogo's U-20s in 2020, appearing in 10 matches with one goal scored.

Dias, 20, comes to New England on a one-year loan from Brazilian club Vasco de Gama. The forward appeared in 87 matches, logging over 3,700 minutes, with 21 goals scored across all competitions. Dias' career began with Palmeiras where he made 14 appearances as a 17-year-old during the 2018-19 season.

Ítalo, 20, joins Revolution II from Clube de Regatas do Flamengo, where he was a central part of their Under-20 side in 2021. The João Pessoa, Brazil native appeared in 24 matches with Flamengo's U-20s last season, logging over 1,300 minutes played. REVS II BOLSTERS DEFENSE WITH THREE NEW ADDITIONS

Alongside Dias, Ítalo and Ryan, New England added Michael Deshields, Ben Reveno, and Trevor Zwetsloot to their roster.

DeShields, 23, signed his first professional contract with Revolution II on Nov. 30, 2020, but did not appear with the team before joining D.C. United for the 2021 campaign. In his collegiate days, DeShields played in 60 games with 49 starts for Wake Forest University, logging over 4,000 minutes with three goals, including two game-winners.

Reveno, 23, was drafted 52nd overall by New England in the 2022 MLS SuperDraft. The defender played five seasons of collegiate soccer, including two at UC Irvine and three at UCLA. Reveno made 49 appearances for the Bruins, including 47 starts, with one goal and six assists. As a redshirt senior in 2021, he logged a career-high 1,570 minutes between central defense and outside back. A native of San Jose, Calif., Reveno helped UCLA earn an NCAA Tournament bid and was recognized with a selection to the United Soccer Coaches Far West All-Region Second Team.

Zwetsloot, 22, joins the Revolution from the Melbourne Knights of Australia's National Premier League, where he made four appearances and recorded 295 minutes during the 2020-21 season. The defensive midfielder previously spent time in Germany with SV Werder Bremen, where he made 11 appearances with the Under-19 team and one with Werder Bremen II. The IMG Academy product and New Zealand native has represented his country at the Under-20 level, earning seven caps with one goal. Clint Peay is in his third season as the first head coach of Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side that began play in USL League One in 2020, following his appointment to the position on Nov. 20, 2019. Peay brings to the club more than 18 years of coaching experience with a focus on youth player development including an eight-year tenure working in the U.S. Youth National Team program and 10 years as a collegiate head coach and assistant.

Peay, 47, spent the 2019 season as an assistant coach with USL Championship side North Carolina FC, where he worked alongside Dave Sarachan and helped guide the club to an Eastern Conference playoff berth. An experienced scout and evaluator of up-and-coming talent, Peay worked on U.S. Soccer's technical staff from 2012-19, beginning as a member of the Under-17 staff. He was later named head coach of the U-14 Boys' National Team in 2016, before advancing to manage the U-15 Boys' National Team in 2018, where he succeeded current Revolution Assistant Coach Dave van den Bergh in that role.

Prior to joining U.S. Soccer, Peay built his resume over four coaching stints at the collegiate level, including four seasons as head coach at Richmond University from 2009-12. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Georgetown University in 2003, before moving on to Davidson College from 2004-07, where he helped the Wildcats to back-to-back appearances in the conference final in his first two seasons. He later worked as an assistant coach with George Mason in 2008, helping guide the Patriots to the Colonial Athletic Association conference title in 2008.

A proven winner at the game's highest levels, Peay enjoyed a decorated playing career spanning a decade from his collegiate days at the University of Virginia (1991-95) through five MLS seasons with D.C. United (1996-2000).

Before being promoted to the Revolution II staff, Santos was head coach of the Under-19 team after serving as the head coach of the Under-17 team during the 2017-18 season.

Prior to joining the Revolution Academy, Santos served as an assistant for Marquette University, where he coached for 10 seasons. Santos, 40, joined Marquette as a volunteer assistant in 2008 and served in that role for four seasons prior to being promoted to full-time assistant on head coach Louis Bennett's staff. While coaching at Marquette, Santos saw the Eagles claim two BIG EAST regular season titles (2011, 2013), a BIG EAST tournament championship (2013), and two NCAA tournament appearances (2012, 2013). STAFF BIOS

BRUCE ARENA
SPORTING DIRECTOR

Bruce Arena is in his fourth season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and oversees all soccer operations for the New England Revolution, including head coaching duties, roster management, scouting, and the oversight of Revolution II and the Revolution Academy.

In his first three seasons at the helm in New England, Arena has revived the Revolution by leading the side to three consecutive MLS Cup Playoff appearances. His .634 winning percentage with New England entering 2022 is the best of any manager in the club's history. Last season, Arena won his record fourth Supporters' Shield, the first in Revolution history, after guiding the team to 22 wins, 73 points, and 2.15 points per game - all MLS records. For his efforts, Arena was awarded with his league-leading fourth MLS Coach of the Year honor.

In 2020, his first full season in New England, Arena led the Revolution to the Eastern Conference Final. Arena's impact in New England was immediately evident upon his arrival in Foxborough. Arena made his return to the MLS postseason in 2019 by leading one of the most remarkable turnarounds in league history. After a 2-8-2 start had the Revolution sitting in last place in MLS, Arena went unbeaten in his first eight games at the helm and helped New England reach the postseason, ending a three-year drought for the club. The team's historic renaissance came despite Arena only making one in-season addition to the roster, bringing in Argentine striker Gustavo Bou via a club-record transfer in July.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joined the Revolution with one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, four Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. He has reached the MLS Cup final in seven of his 16 seasons coaching in the league. Arena has earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, tied for the most all-time, first winning the honor in 1997 with D.C. United before being recognized in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy.

With 275 combined regular season and postseason wins in MLS entering the 2022 season, and a regular season record of 240-136-112 (.607), Arena is the league's winningest active head coach and owns the second-best winning percentage in MLS history. Arena is the league's all-time leader in MLS Cup Playoff games coached with 55 (35-13-7), while his 35 playoff wins are also the most in league history.

On the international stage, Arena, 70, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup - the country's best showing since 1930 - as well as an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Boston. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16 and is now an assistant coach with F.C. Cincinnati.

CURT ONALFO
TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Curt Onalfo is in his fourth season as Technical Director of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on June 2, 2019. In his role, Onalfo works closely with Sporting Director Bruce Arena managing the club's day-to-day soccer operations, including oversight of Revolution II, the Revolution Academy and the scouting department.

The Sao Paulo, Brazil native and Ridgefield, Conn. product joins the Revolution following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. Onalfo has won MLS Cup as both a player and a coach, including one as a member of D.C. United in 1999, and three as an assistant coach with the LA Galaxy in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Onalfo owns 12 total years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by stints as head coach of D.C. United (2010), the then-Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While continuing as an assistant with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural head coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to take over head coaching duties with the Galaxy first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 - including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™ - and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 MNT in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup™, and briefly served as acting head coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo, 50, entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as interim head coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed head coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named head coach of D.C. United, where he would remain for eight months before departing the club.

After starring for Ridgefield High School, Onalfo played collegiately for Bruce Arena at the University of Virginia from 1987-1990. In four seasons with the Cavaliers, he earned a pair of All-ACC First Team selections and helped the team win the 1988 ACC Championship. He began his professional career with French side La Ciotat in 1991, before featuring for the Connecticut Wolves of the USISL from 1994-95, and Mexican second division side Tampico Madero in 1995.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the inaugural MLS Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in 1996, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four seasons in MLS, spending additional time with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.
