Álvarez, Baty Headline Rumble Ponies who made MLB Debut with Mets in 2022

BINGHAMTON, NY – Francisco Álvarez and Brett Baty headlined a total of five players who began the season with the 2022 Binghamton Rumble Ponies and made their Major League debut with the New York Mets later in the same season. The other three were RHP José Butto, LHP Nate Fisher, and RHP Bryce Montes de Oca. Having five players make that jump in the same season is tied for the second-most in a season in Binghamton franchise history.

Álvarez made his major league debut on September 30th with the Mets. The 21-year-old catcher played in five major league games with a home run and an RBI. Álvarez wowed fans at Mirabito Stadium last year with his monumental home run blasts and infectious energy. Among his accolades, Álvarez hit home runs in four of his first six games with Binghamton and in the month of June, exploded for 10 homers and 24 RBI. During his Rumble Ponies tenure, the Venezuelan native hit .277 with 18 home runs, 47 RBI, and a .921 OPS in 67 games. He enters the 2023 season as MLB.com's #3 overall prospect, and the top ranked prospect in the Mets system.

Álvarez wowed fans at Mirabito Stadium in 2022, highlighted by a terrific June, hitting 10 homers along with 24 RBI. The 21-year-old catcher made his major league debut with the New York Mets on September, 30th 2022 against the Atlanta Braves at Truist Park.

Baty made his MLB debut in dramatic fashion on August 17th, becoming the fifth player in franchise history to homer on his first Major League pitch in the Mets 9-7 victory over the Atlanta Braves at Truist Park. The 23-year-old third basemen played in 11 major league games and hit two home runs with five RBI. Baty was recognized as the New York Mets 2022 Minor League Player of the Year, was named to the 2022 MiLB Double-A All-Star Team, and begins the season as MLB.com's #21st ranked overall prospect, and #2 in the Mets system.

Butto made his major league debut on August 21st, starting for the Mets against the Phillies at Citizens Bank Park. Butto had an impressive 10.53 K/9 rate with Binghamton in 2022, finishing 6-5 with a 4.00 ERA. He is currently MLB.com's 15th ranked prospect in the Mets organization.

Fisher gained national attention for one of the great stories of the baseball season. After working as a banker during the Covid-19 pandemic, Fisher made his major league debut pitching on August 21st in a relief outing against the Phillies. The 26-year-old lefty allowed just one hit over three scoreless innings as the Mets rallied past the Phils 10-9 at Citizens Bank Park. Fisher signed a minor-league contract with the Chicago White Sox this past offseason.

Montes de Oca made his major league debut on September 3rd against the Washington Nationals. The hard-throwing righty made three major league appearances finishing with two walks and six strikeouts. Montes de Oca's triple-digit fastballs brought Rumble Ponies fans to their feet last year, as he pitched in 12 games for the Ponies with a 3.77 ERA, holding opponents to a .181 batting average.

Álvarez, Baty, Butto, Fisher, and Montes de Oca join exclusive company. Over the last 30 seasons, more than 800 players have donned a Binghamton Mets or Binghamton Rumble Ponies uniform. Now only 71 of them have played for the B-Mets/Ponies and made their Major League debut with the New York Mets in the same year. For a full list of all the players who have achieved this feat go to page 14.

After starting the year with Binghamton, Baty became the fifth Mets player to homer on his first major league pitch on August 17th, 2022 against the Atlanta Braves at Truist Park. c/ Matt Kipp

Max Scherzer Makes Rehab Start in Binghamton in Front of Record-Setting Crowd

BINGHAMTON, NY – New York Mets pitcher Max Scherzer made a rehab start on Tuesday June 19th, 2022 for the Binghamton Rumble Ponies in front of a record-setting crowd of 7,491 at Mirabito Stadium against the Reading Fightin Phils. Scherzer, throwing to Mets Catcher James McCann, went three and a third innings, allowing three hits and two runs, with one walk and six strikeouts on 65 pitches. Scherzer electrified the Rumble Ponies faithful from the start striking out all three batters he faced in the first inning. He left to a roaring standing ovation as he walked off the mound in the middle of the fourth inning.

Scherzer went on to make an additional rehab start for the Rumble Ponies on Tuesday June 29, 2022 against the Hartford Yard Goats in front of a sellout crowd at Dunkin' Donuts Park in Hartford, CT. Scherzer pitched four and two thirds inning, allowing four hits, three runs, two earned, with one walk and eight strikeouts on 80 pitches.

The 38-year old three-time Cy Young Award winner, eight-time all-star, and 2019 World Series champion is entering his second season with the Mets. He finished his first season with the Mets 11-5 with a 2.29 ERA in 23 starts.

New York Mets RHP Max Scherzer makes a rehab start for the Binghamton Rumble Ponies on June 21, 2022 against the Reading Fightin Phils in front of a record-setting 7,491 fans at Mirabito Stadium.

Binghamton Rumble Ponies to Play as “Cóndores de Binghamton” as Part of Copa de la Diversión Event Series

BINGHAMTON, NY – The Binghamton Rumble Ponies are proud to participate as the Cóndores de Binghamton as part of Minor League Baseball’s Copa de la Diversión event series. Cóndores de Binghamton will take the field on three occasions – Friday May 12th vs. Hartford, Thursday July 20th vs. Erie, and Friday September 15th vs. Reading.

The Rumble Ponies are proud to be one of 95 on-field Hispanic identities across Minor League Baseball (MiLB) as part of MiLB’s national season-long campaign. Through the success of the Copa program, now in its sixth season, MiLB has solidified its commitment to the long-term growth of its U.S. Latino/a communities and its diversity and inclusion efforts across the country.

Whether patrolling the mountain cliffs of the Andes or the hills of the Southern Tier, the condor inspires awe in all who see it. Cóndores de Binghamton are majestic, graceful, and athletic birds, evoking the ballplayers who call Binghamton home. The colors of the uniforms of Cóndores de Binghamton honor the flags of Venezuela, Colombia, and Ecuador, nations where baseball is a treasured sport and where so many great players in the minor and major leagues hail from.

Rumble Ponies Honor Legacy of Bud Fowler During 2022 Season

BINGHAMTON, NY— During the weekend of July 23, the Binghamton Rumble Ponies honored the legacy of 2022 National Baseball Hall of Fame Inductee Bud Fowler. July 23rd's game at Mirabito Stadium against the Hartford Yard Goats was "The 9 Night", which the Rumble Ponies hosted with Security Mutual Life. It is part of "The Nine", a Minor League Baseball initiative specifically designed to honor and celebrate the historic impact numerous Black baseball pioneers had on the sport.

John W. Jackson Jr., better known as "Bud Fowler" is believed to be the first Black player to play professional baseball more than 60 years before Jackie Robinson broke Major League Baseball's color barrier. He played for the Binghamton Bingos in 1887 and played professionally starting in 1878. Fowler was posthumously elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame through the Early Baseball Era Committee. He was officially enshrined in Cooperstown on Sunday July 24, 2022.

Despite Saturday night's game being rained out, the evening was a wonderful way for local businesses and vendors to connect with the community at the ballpark. Additionally, fans received a Bud Fowler Bobblehead,

Ponies players and coaches wore special Binghamton BINGOs themed jerseys, and a special pre-game video telling Fowler's story was shown on the video board.

Binghamton Rumble Ponies President David Sobotka said, "Bud Fowler Night was a wonderful way to usher in our team's participation in "The Nine": honoring a new Hall of Famer who graced a Binghamton uniform but also was the embodiment of the racism that robbed the game of so much talent over six decades."

This season, on September 1st, the Rumble Ponies will continue to honor Fowler's legacy as part of African American Heritage Night. A Bud Fowler memorial marker will be unveiled as part of the new Harriet Tubman Freedom Trail that will mark important area locations and events in the history of civil rights for Black Americans. The marker will note the fight against racism that Fowler endured to pursue his talents. The Freedom Trail is a project led by Binghamton University's Harriet Tubman Center for Freedom and Equity.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

While professional baseball in Binghamton, NY dates back to 1877, the Binghamton Rumble Ponies' story begins in 1992. It was that year that the New York Mets organization moved their Double-A affiliate, the Bills, from Williamsport, Pennsylvania approximately 125 miles northeast to Binghamton, New York.

The team was renamed the Binghamton Mets and welcomed with open arms by a city that had suffered 23 years without a professional baseball team to call their own. When tickets went on sale for the inaugural season, thousands of fans braved the rain and waited in a line that snaked for blocks through the city.

Binghamton Municipal Stadium was constructed in nine months for $4.6 million and hosted its first B-Mets game on April 19, 1992 after three-straight postponed games. Binghamton's house-warming party was a strong one as they defeated the Harrisburg Senators 1-0 in front of 5,126 fans.

Fans brave the rain for Binghamton Mets tickets in 1992

Led by Eastern League Manager of the Year, Steve Swisher, the B-Mets treated their fans to a stellar inaugural season. They went 79-59, finished 2nd in the Eastern League, and earned a trip to the postseason. The B-Mets dispatched the Harrisburg Senators in the semi-finals in four games, winning a 14-inning marathon to clinch the series.

Trailing the Canton-Akron Indians 2-1 in the Eastern League Championship Series, the B-Mets rallied to take Game 4 and earned their first title with a 5-2 win in the decisive fifth game. Bobby J. Jones, the staff ace and Eastern League Pitcher of the Year, earned the win in the championship game.

In their first season, the B-Mets welcomed 278,492 fans to Municipal Stadium, the highest single-season attendance for any team to ever call Binghamton home. The record stands to this day.

During the winter after the 1993 season, a group of local businessmen teamed up to make the Binghamton Mets a truly local product. Mike & Chris Urda, George Scherer and David & William Maines purchased the team from New York Mets in January 1994.

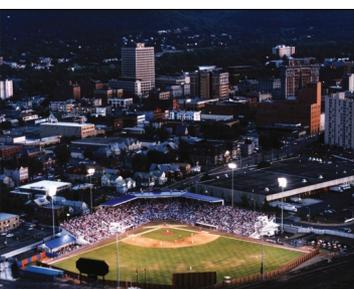

The 1994 season was another banner year for the B-Mets and the city. Binghamton became the center of the Double-A universe on July 11, 1994 when the team hosted the Double-A Association All-Star Game. 6,524 fans packed into Municipal Stadium and watched the American League defeat the National League 10-4.

The All-Star Game would not be the only excitement Binghamton would see that season. The B-Mets won the North Division under John Tamargo with a wire-to-wire performance, finishing the year at 82-59. The B-Mets deftly swept the New Haven Ravens in three games in the North Division Championship, with each game decided by a single run.

Binghamton faced the Harrisburg Senators in the Eastern League Championship. After the B-Mets dropped the series opener, ace Bill Pulsipher got the team back on track in a big way in Game 2 on September 2. The hulking left-hander baffled the Senators for nine innings, hurling the first no-hitter in Binghamton Mets history. His win tied the series.

In Game 3, the B-Mets trailed by two in the ninth, Edgardo Alfonzo hit a game-tying two-run homer before Frank Jacobs belted a walk-off solo shot. In Game 4, Chris Roberts secured Binghamton's second championship in three years, twirling a complete game in front of 5,259 fans at Municipal Stadium.

In 1996, with Chris Saunders racking up a franchise-record 105 RBI, the team went 76-66 and made the postseason. Unlike 1992 and 1994, this club was not able to supply the magic in the postseason falling to the Portland Sea Dogs in the North Division Championship series.

Binghamton punched their ticket to the playoffs in 1998, 2000 and 2004, but made first-round exits each time.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

In 2001, the naming rights for the stadium were sold to the New York State Electric and Gas Company. The franchise would call NYSEG Stadium home from 2001 through 2020. In 2021, the Rumble Ponies announced a groundbreaking naming rights agreement with Mirabito. The stadium is now called Mirabito Stadium.

After a nine-year postseason drought, the B-Mets compiled one of their best seasons in franchise history in 2013. The club racked up a record 86 wins with Eastern League Most Valuable Player Allan Dykstra and Manager of the Year Pedro Lopez. The B-Mets won their first regular season division title since 2000, but were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Trenton Thunder.

With the game tied in the bottom of the ninth, Jayce Boyd ripped a walk-off double into the right-field alley, giving the B-Mets their first Eastern League Championship in two decades. Catcher Xorge Carrillo was named Postseason MVP.

In 2015, Lopez navigated the B-Mets to a 77-64 record and secured a postseason berth for the third straight year, a franchise record. The team's all-time winningest manager was inducted into Binghamton's Baseball Shrine in September 2015, but his club was swept in the Division Series by Reading.

In December 2015, John Hughes acquired full ownership of the franchise from Mike Urda. The new president made it clear that professional baseball would be played in Binghamton for years to come.

On November 3, 2016, the new Rumble Ponies identity of the team was unveiled at Benjamin Franklin Elementary School in Binghamton. The name reflects Binghamton's standing as the "Carousel Capital of the World."

Nearly a century ago, local businessman and philanthropist George F. Johnson commissioned and funded the construction of six carousels to be enjoyed free-of-charge by the public throughout the Binghamton area. Almost 100 years later, these cherished artifacts continue to be used and beloved by the community.

Riding the momentum of a new name and image, in addition to several improvements to Mirabito Stadium, the Rumble Ponies embarked on their first season with vigor in 2017. The team welcomed more than 190,000 fans over the course of the season. The average attendance of 3,289 people per game was the best for the franchise in ten years.

The #BingItHome Campaign helped land the 2020 All-Star Game

Season All-Star later that season.

The Rumble Ponies teamed up with their fans in a "#BingItHome" social media campaign in the summer of 2017 to convince the Eastern League to award Binghamton the rights to host the 2020 Eastern League All-Star Game.

In 2018, the Rumble Ponies welcomed Tim Tebow to the Southern Tier. The former NFL quarterback added to his legend, launching a homer in his first plate appearance en route to being named a Mid-

As the Rumble Ponies head into their 31st season, over 5.6 (7) million fans have entered Mirabito Stadium to watch their beloved team that continues to be a fixture of the community.

BALLPARK HISTORY

After the Binghamton Triplets disbanded in 1968, their home park, Johnson Field in nearby Johnson City was demolished to make way for New York State Route 17. In 1991, when the New York Mets announced they would move the Williamsport Bills, their Double-A affiliate, from Pennsylvania to Binghamton, New York, the city put plans together to build the B-Mets a brand-new ballpark.

Opened in April 1992, Binghamton Municipal Stadium immediately became a hot spot in the city. In its inaugural season, the ballpark welcomed 278,492 fans, the highest single-season attendance for any team to ever call Binghamton home.

Municipal Stadium under construction in 1992

Fans have seen many memorable moments at the park, including the clinching game of all three Eastern League Championships (1992, 1994 & 2014). Joe Crawford tossed the second no-hitter in team history and first at home on May 5, 1996, and Bob Keppel added a no-hitter to the franchise list when he baffled the Portland Sea Dogs on August 2, 2003.

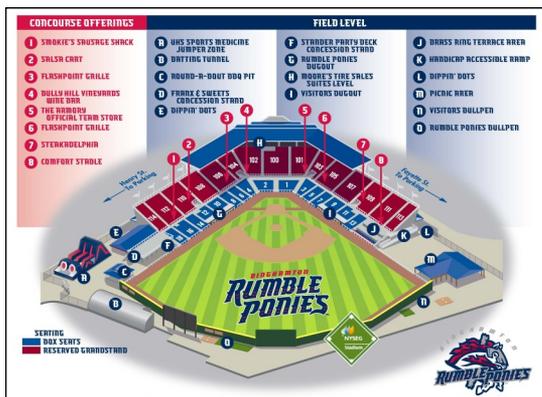

Renamed NYSEG Stadium in 2001, The ballpark underwent significant renovations for the 2017 season. A new batting tunnel was constructed beyond the right-field wall, a party deck was constructed down the first-base line, and a brand-new right-field entrance welcomed fans to the stadium. The home of the Rumble Ponies enjoyed more improvements for the 2019 season, including a state-of-the-art videoboard, brand-new seats throughout the park, and a renovated home clubhouse.

In 2021, the Rumble Ponies announced a groundbreaking new naming rights agreement with Mirabito. The stadium is now called Mirabito Stadium.

BALLPARK LAYOUT

Mirabito Stadium has a capacity of 6,012. A party deck on the first-base line and a terrace seating area along the third-base line were added for the 2017 season. There are 31 sections of seating, including 16 box seat sections and 15 reserved grandstand sections. The stadium also offers six luxury boxes which hold approximately 20 individuals each. The picnic area down the left field line can accommodate 600.

The Rumble Ponies clubhouse is located beneath the stands on the first base line. The visitors' clubhouse is located beneath the stands on the third base line. A batting cage shared by both teams is located beyond the right-field fence and was constructed in 2017.

The Rumble Ponies bullpen is located beyond the right-center field fence. The visitors' bullpen is located down the left-field line. The building past the center-field wall is used to store maintenance equipment. The videoboard beyond the right-field fence was installed in 2019 to replace the aging videoboard previously added to the park in 2007.

The view from the press box at Mirabito Stadium blends the baseball tradition of the Southern Tier with the city's industrial past sprinkled with the beauty of the surrounding area.

The city of Binghamton became a major manufacturing center in the 19th century thanks in large part to the development of the railroads. Because there was no navigable path via waterway from Binghamton to the Atlantic Coast, the railroads shipped most the goods produced in the Southern Tier. The city became a key producer of cigars, shoes and high-tech products. The rail yard beyond the left-field wall houses more than a dozen rails. The lengthy freight trains that roll through seven days a week have occasionally been struck by B-Mets and visitors with long home runs during the stadium's 26-year history.

Geographically, the city of Binghamton sits in a bowl-shaped valley at the confluence of the Susquehanna and Chenango Rivers. The rolling hills far beyond right field are located in the hamlet of Popes Ravine, which is part of the town of Kirkwood, a suburb of Binghamton.

Binghamton, New York

Officially settled in 1802, Binghamton is a community of 47,376 located in the Southern Tier, approximately seven miles north of the New York-Pennsylvania border. Serving as the county seat of Broome County, the area now comprised of the city of Binghamton and its immediate suburbs was purchased by William Bingham, a wealthy native of Philadelphia, in 1792. Located in the valley at the confluence of the Susquehanna and Chenango Rivers, this newly acquired land offered an area easy to settle compared to the rolling hills that dominate the Upstate New York geography.

The community was originally known as Chenango Point before incorporating as the Town of Binghamton in 1834. Taking advantage of the flat, yet limited landscape, Binghamton originally developed as an agricultural town. That changed in the 1840's when the Erie Railroad was constructed to connect Binghamton to the Atlantic Coast. The area quickly became a major manufacturing and transportation hub.

The town progressed to city-status in 1867. At that point, nearly 9,000 people called the area home. Cigars were the first major product shipped out of Binghamton. However, that industry became trumped by the shoemaker Endicott Johnson in the early 1920's. Founded by Henry Bradford Endicott and George F. Johnson, the company's factories dominated the Triple Cities of Binghamton, Johnson City and Endicott and employed nearly 20,000 people during the Roaring 20's. It saw its highest production during World War II when it pumped out 52 million pairs of shoes a year.

As the shoe-producing industry began to fade following the war, the development of high-tech products took center stage. The Link Trainer, a flight simulator developed in Binghamton in the 1930's, was used to prepare pilots during World War II and enticed many technology companies to set up shop in the area.

The International Business Machines Corporation, commonly known as IBM, was founded in Endicott and continues to be a key employer in the area. Major defense contractors like Lockheed Martin, BAE Systems and Rockwell Collins also showcase plants in the Southern Tier.

Downtown Binghamton

Binghamton has been referred to as the "Parlor City" and "Carousel Capital of the World" over its 210-year history. It gained its Parlor City moniker in the latter portions of the 19th century for its attractive Victorian homes, stately mansions and neat streets. With six historic wooden carousels donated by George F. Johnson, the city earned its more self-explanatory "Carousel Capital of the World" nickname early in 1900's.

Boasting a heavy concentration of Italian immigrants in the 1920's, the Southern Tier became the birthplace of the spiedie (pronounced spee-dee). The sandwich consists of small, marinated pieces of chicken, pork, lamb, or beef traditionally served on soft Italian bread. Agostino Iacovelli and Peter Sharak are credited with introducing the tasty delicacy to the area. The name derives from the Italian word "spiedini," which refers to pieces of meat cooked on a skewer. The city celebrates this sandwich every summer at the Spiedie Fest and Balloon Rally, which is highlighted by a spiedie cook-off and hot-air balloon showcase.

During the winter, sports fans in Binghamton can catch a minor league hockey game with the Binghamton Senators, an affiliate of the Ottawa Senators playing in the American Hockey League. The Southern Tier is also home to the State University of New York at Binghamton, a highly-regarded public institution that fields 19 Division I teams.

Golf is another major sport in the area. There are over a dozen courses within a 20-mile radius of Mirabito Stadium. The En-Joie Golf Course in Endicott has hosted a Champions Tour event called the Dick's Sporting Goods Open since 2007. Dick's Sporting Goods was founded in Binghamton in 1948. The course also hosted the B.C. Open, a PGA Tour tournament, every year since 1971 until major flooding washed out the competition in 2006.

BINGHAMTON'S BASEBALL SHRINE

This season marks the 29th year for the Binghamton Baseball Shrine committee. The special group was formed in 1993 by then-Binghamton Mets general manager R.C. Reuteman to recognize the rich baseball legacy of the Greater Binghamton Area. Reuteman was posthumously inducted into the shrine in 2016. This year's class will be the 25th induction class for the Shrine.

In order to be inducted into the Binghamton Baseball Shrine, an inductee must no longer be an active player and have accomplished at least one of the following:

-Played for a Binghamton professional baseball team and performed in outstanding fashion or achieved success in Major League Baseball after playing in the Binghamton area

-Born and/or raised in the Greater Binghamton Area and achieved success in Major League Baseball or a Binghamton professional team (i.e., Bingsos, Crickets, Triplets, Mets, etc.)

The same general rules apply for non-playing members of the Shrine. Examples include George F. Johnson, John H. Johnson, John Fox and Jerry Toman. On rare occasions the committee has the right to go outside the criteria to recognize a significant event in the Greater Binghamton Area.

WEARING THE JERSEY

Over the course of 30 seasons, over 800 different players have worn a Binghamton Mets or Rumble Ponies jersey. Of those players, 342 also played in the Major Leagues.

In the team's history, 174 B-Mets/Ponies made their Big League debut with the New York Mets. Overall, 226 New York Mets have, at one time, played for the B-Mets/Ponies.

Just 71 players have donned a B-Mets/Ponies uniform and gone on to make their Major League debut for the New York Mets in the same season. See page 14 for a full list.

ROWDY GETS READY TO RUMBLE

Following their franchise rebranding in November 2016, the Binghamton Rumble Ponies introduced their new mascot to the Southern Tier in 2017 without a name on Parade Day, the city's annual celebration for St. Patrick's Day.

After receiving over 1,000 fan submissions, the team narrowed down their five finalists to Bing, Buster, Ross, Rowdy and Rumbleton.

The anticipation built following another fan vote. The new mascot was christened "Rowdy" at the Meet the Ponies dinner days before Opening Day in April 2017.

PULSIPHER'S POSTSEASON NO-NO

Heading into Game 2 of the 1994 Eastern League Championship Series, the B-Mets trailed the Harrisburg Senators 1-0. Binghamton looked to their ace Bill Pulsipher to even the series on Monday, September 12.

In the regular season, the lefty racked up a team-best 14 wins and notched a 3.22 ERA. His 28 starts and 201 innings pitched that season still stand as franchise records.

With his father in attendance at Riverside Stadium in Harrisburg, Pulsipher struck out eight, walked four and allowed just three balls to leave the infield. The southpaw worked around a walk in the ninth to complete the first no-hitter in B-Mets history. Binghamton won the next two games of the series, earning their second Eastern League title in three years.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Over 30 seasons, the B-Mets/Ponies have played 3,995 games and seen over 800 different players wear the uniform. However, only two players have ever hit for the cycle.

Josh Satin became the first in franchise history, performing the feat on June 24, 2011 in Bowie against the Baysox. He launched a solo homer in the first inning, reached on an infield single in the third, doubled in the fifth, and legged out a triple to left in the seventh to complete the historic night. His three-bagger was just the fifth of his career.

On May 13, 2018, Jeff McNeil joined the club on the road against the Portland Sea Dogs. He tripled to start his day in the first inning, singled in the third, and ripped a double in the fourth. In the eighth, he blasted a payoff pitch from Teddy Stankiewicz over the right-field wall to complete the feat.

BOYD'S TITLE-CLINCHING DOUBLE

The B-Mets grabbed the first two games of the 2014 Eastern League Championship Series on the road in Richmond before returning home with a chance to clinch in Game 3.

On September 12, a crisp Friday night in the Southern Tier, 5,904 fans packed NYSEG Stadium and watched B-Mets starter Steven Matz carry a no-hitter into the eighth inning.

With the game tied in the ninth inning, Binghamton put two runners aboard for pinch-hitter Jayce Boyd. Facing Flying Squirrels reliever Steven Okert, Boyd deposit a 2-2 pitch into the right-field alley. Gavin Cecchini scored from second base, giving the B-Mets their third championship in franchise history and first title in 20 years.
