WHO WE ARE

The FireWolves' brand identity reflects the organization's deep roots in the National Lacrosse League, pays tribute to lacrosse's Native American heritage, and represents the team's commitment to serving the community throughout the Albany area.

Lacrosse's history goes back 1,000s of years on the lands of the Six Nations of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, which spanned from the Hudson River and the Mohawk Valley north into Quebec and Ontario in the Great Lakes region. The Albany area was originally inhabited by both Mohawk (Iroquois) and Mohican (Algonquin) tribes, and the roots of lacrosse began in what is now New York State and Canada as early as 1100AD. The Haudenosaunee (Iroquois for "People of the Longhouse") believe lacrosse, which they call Dehoñtjihgwa'és (translation: "they bump hips"), was a gift from The Creator. Also known as "The Medicine Game", lacrosse is believed to have healing powers and remains a central part of Native American communities throughout the Northeast.

The FireWolves are proud to call the Capital Region home and continue our lineage in the area that dates back to the National Lacrosse League runner-up Albany Attack in 2002. A through line beginning in the early 2000s, the wolf was part of the Attack's logo, while also being part of the logo and name of the New England Black Wolves that played in Connecticut from 2015 to 2020 before the franchise moved to Albany before the 2021-22 season. Native to the Adirondacks and also one of only three repeating clans throughout the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the wolf embodies many of our organization's key values: courage, strength, loyalty and leadership. On and off the field.

While the "FireWolf" is a mystical creature, the use of fire in the name represents the symbolism of community and gathering for ceremony. The Mohican tribes who originally inhabited the Capital Region called it Pempotowwuthut-Muhhcanneuw, meaning "the fireplace of the Mohican nation". We believe strongly in the power of sports as a common-ground meeting place for the community, and the entire FireWolves organization is excited to celebrate competition at the highest level and honor lacrosse's deep roots in the Capital Region.

In summary, the FireWolves are fierce competitors, hunt together and are loyal to the pack. The Albany FireWolves organization holds the values of teamwork, competitive desire and community focus in the highest regard as we honor the heritage of lacrosse and the National Lacrosse League teams that came before us, while working to create a positive impact throughout the Capital Region.

WEEK 21 MATCHUP PREVIEW

ALBANY FIREWOLVES VS PHILADELPHIA WINGS

The Albany FireWolves (3-13) are home again this Sunday, April 23, at 3:00 p.m. against the Philadelphia Wings (7-9). The two teams met in early February with Philadelphia coming out on top in a low-scoring affair, 13-5. The Wings are currently on the outside looking in for a playoff spot as they are a game behind Georgia and Halifax, and a loss to Albany this weekend would eliminate them from contention. This weekend's game can be watched on My4 Albany or ESPN Plus.

FireWolves Players to Watch:

Marshall Powless is rising star in this league and is just getting going with his new team. Since trading for him, Powless has appeared in five games for the FireWolves and has racked up 23 total points on six goals and 17 assists. Further, he has yet to score fewer than four points in any game with Albany this season. Powless was not on the team when Albany met Philadelphia earlier this season, but the team sure could have used him, only posting five goals in the previous matchup. Powless is a young forward that the team can build around and is a player that Capitol Region fans can look forward to watching for years to come.

Speaking of rising stars, John Piatelli has become one of Albany's primary scorers and works on the opposite side of Powless. Another guy who has been hot lately, Piatelli has scored multiple points in each of the team's last five games and has at least three points in four of those outings. Last weekend, the rookie scored two goals and an assist, contributing three total points despite the team only scoring six times. Powless and Piatelli will be a force as they continue to gel together and could give Philadelphia fits in this one.

Jonah Boehm was thrown into action last weekend in his first game of the season. Searching for answers at faceoffs, the FireWolves brought in Boehm to do just that. Last time out against the Wings, Philadelphia won all 22 faceoffs in the game. Needless to say, that can't happen again. Last weekend against the Swarm, he was 11-25 from the dot – a much needed improvement for the club. He has plenty of box experience having spent a few years with the Kitchener-Waterloo Braves in the Ontario Junior A Lacrosse League. If Boehm can win some faceoffs against one of the best in the world, it will go along way to helping the defense and Doug Jamieson see less volume and scoring opportunities from the Wings.

Opposing Players to Watch:

Joe Resetarits should be a familiar name for FireWolves fans after leading the team in points a season ago. He is doing it again this year for his new team as he sits at 97 total points and is looking to eclipse the century mark for the third time in his career. His 97 points, 36 goals and 61 assists all lead the Wings. He showed out against his former team when the two clubs last met, going for eight total points on four goals and four assists. While the Wings have a host of players who can score on any possession, Resetarits has proved to be one of the best in the business. Albany needs to home in on him and limit his opportunities or else he can put up points in a hurry for Philadelphia.

Mitch Jones was acquired by the Wings at the end of January to score and so far, he's yet to disappoint. He was Vancouver's leading scorer at the time of the trade and currently ranks second on the Wings with 75 total points in just 10 games since joining the team. Unfortunately for Albany, Jones was acquired the week of their first matchup with Philadelphia. In his debut game for the Wings, Jones posted six total points on two goals and four assists. He has played in 17 games on the season between Vancouver and Philadelphia and ranks fourth in the league with 110 total points and third with 70 assists. With Jones and Resetarits on the right and left side of the floor, opposing defenses are left picking their poison on nearly every possession.

Trevor Baptiste won every, yes, every, faceoff the last time the Wings and FireWolves met. Granted, Albany unfortunately lost one of the best in the world at the faceoff dot early in the season due to injury, but Baptiste is no slouch. In fact, Baptiste ranks second in the league in faceoff wins (287) and faceoff percentage (70%). Since losing Joe Nardella to injury, Albany has tried a multitude of options when it comes to winning faceoffs. Newly acquired Boehm will have his hands full in his second game with the FireWolves this weekend, going up against one of the best in the game. Any faceoff wins Boehm can provide will be an improvement over the last game and will take some pressure off the FireWolves defense.

Glenn Clark General Manager / Head Coach

Head Coach Glenn Clark brings over two decades of NLL experience as both a player and a coach with him to the Capital Region. He began his professional box lacrosse career in 1998 when he was drafted by the Ontario Raiders. One year later, the team moved to Toronto and became the Toronto Rock. Clark spent the majority of his playing career in Toronto, helping lead the Rock to five NLL championships. After the 2005 season, Clark signed with the Philadelphia Wings where he was named to the All-Star team for the third time in his career.

Clark wasted no time transitioning into coaching as he was named head coach of the Toronto Rock following the 2006 season. The Rock reached the playoffs before being defeated by the eventual champion, Rochester Knighthawks. Clark was at the helm of the Rock until the team's 2009 season.

Following his coaching stint in Toronto, Clark spent the next five years coaching at various levels including minors, Junior A Lacrosse, CLAX, and the Canadian national team. Clark returned to the NLL in 2015, being named head coach of the New England Black Wolves. In just his first season with the Black Wolves, Clark led the team to a six win improvement from the season prior, and won a playoff game. During his five seasons as head coach of the Black Wolves, the team successfully made the playoffs in each of them. The team found itself in first place in 2020 before the season came to a halt due to COVID-19.

Clark now resides in the Capital Region and is eager to start the 2022-23 season and work towards bringing Albany FireWolves fans a championship!

Clem D'Orazio Assistant General Manager / Assistant Coach

Coach Clem D'Orazio is no stranger to the Capital Region and looks forward to bringing professional box lacrosse to the area. Now entering his 10th year as a Lacrosse Director and Vice Principal of Everest Academy in Vaughan, Ontario, D'Orazio has traveled to the region many times for games with his teams having played at UAlbany, Union College, and other surrounding areas.

D'Orazio brings championship experience with him to Albany, having won five National Championships as a player for Brock University. Following his collegiate career, D'Orazio joined the Brock coaching staff where he helped lead the team to three more National Championships finals, winning one of them.

D'Orazio continued his coaching career within the Junior B and Senior A league's for four years before joining Coach Clark in 2015 with the Toronto Beaches in Junior A where he served as the GM for the past six years. Sticking with Clark, D'Orazio joined the staff of the New England Black Wolves that same year. After two years as Video Coordinator and Head Scout, D'Orazio was promoted to Defensive Coach. Last year, D'Orazio was named Assistant GM of the team.

D'Orazio keeps busy and wears many hats on the job, but is excited to return to the Capital Region and play in front of a packed arena at the Times Union Center!

Darryl Gibson Assistant Coach

Now entering his fourth season with Glenn Clark, Coach Darryl Gibson might be a familiar face to some Capital Region lacrosse fans. He began his NLL career right here in Albany as a member of the expansion team Albany Attack. Gibson spent two seasons with the Attack before joining the Toronto Rock in 2002, playing alongside Coach Clark for three seasons. In his first season with the Rock, Gibson returned to Albany where he led his team to a championship over the Attack, 13-12. Gibson scored the game-tying and game-winning goals of that game, both of which were assisted by Coach Clark.

After three seasons in Toronto, Gibson bounced around between a handful of other teams before retiring in 2012. Through 12 seasons, Gibson won two NLL Championships and was named to the 2006 All-Star team.

Following his successful career as a player, Gibson got his first experience on an NLL coaching staff as an intern with the Minnesota Swarm. After coaching in CLAX and Major Series Lacrosse, Gibson got the call from Coach Clark to join the New England Black Wolves as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

Kevin Montgomery Athletic Trainer

Kevin Montgomery, a Toronto native, is another member of the Albany staff that he been around Coach Clark and the organization for a handful of years. Playing a variety of sports through his school years, Montgomery enjoys being part of a professional team while being able to continue his passion within the medical field.

He began his journey into sports working as an athletic trainer for Canadian junior hockey teams and a private sports rehabilitation clinic. Montgomery then spent two years with the Toronto FC academy which serves as the development system of Toronto FC of the Canadian Major League Soccer club. Montgomery then transitioned into lacrosse where he teamed up with Coach Clark as a member of the Toronto Beaches in the Junior A League. Sticking with Clark, Montgomery joined the New England BlackWolves in 2016 and has been the organization's head athletic trainer ever since. Simultaneously, Montgomery also serves as the Head Therapist of the Track and Field program for York University in Toronto.

Mike McKay Goalie Coach/Video Coordinator

Mike McKay is yet another member of the team's coaching staff with a connection to the Capital Region. As a player, McKay was drafted by the Albany Attack, though he never actually played a game for the team. McKay then signed with Anaheim where he played his lone season as a player in the NLL.

Following his playing career, McKay quickly transitioned into coaching where he joined Coach D'Orazio in the Senior A Canadian Summer League. McKay then paired up with Coach Clark shortly after, serving as the Defensive Coordinator for the Toronto Beaches in the Junior A League. McKay joined the New England BlackWolves staff in 2017 under his current title, Goalie Coach and Video Coordinator. In 2019, McKay won a gold medal as the Video Coach for Team Canada at the World Indoor Lacrosse Championship alongside Clark.

As the Video Coordinator for the team, McKay handles team scouting, video breakdowns, in-game breakdowns, and a whole lot more. The Ontario, Canada native is enthusiastic about coming to Albany and sees a lot of potential in what he called an "untapped market with good lacrosse roots."

Mike Kettle Equipment Manager

Mike Kettell has been working hard behind the scenes in the NLL for the past 13 years and counting. A Philadelphia native, Kettell got his first work experience in sports working as a Student Manager for the Temple Owls football team.

It was with his time at Temple where he connected with the Equipment Manager of the Philadelphia Wings and began his journey in professional sports. What began as an internship in 2008, Kettell spent the next six years working with the Wings. Kettell then made the transition to Connecticut as a member of the New England BlackWolves in 2015.

CYBER SECURITY

THE WORLD IS A SCARY PLACE. ENSURE COMPLIANCE AND PROTECT YOUR COMPANY & CUSTOMER DATA.

A well-informed organization is a well prepared and secured organization. When people talk about security, they generally talk about anti-virus protection, firewalls and strong passwords. Anti-virus software has clear-cut cost savings in its reduction of needed interventions by IT personnel. Firewalls are your network's first line of defense against unwanted traffic. Encryption reduces costs by reducing the risks associated with a data breach and enables collaboration with third parties. While these are all integral components of a good security program, they are just part of the overall picture.

A cyber security program is the process of incorporating all areas of security and compliance into a company-wide practice to defend against potentially devastating data loss, theft, or attacks. Our collaborative methodology of assess, address, and maintain comprehensively integrates security best practices to secure user access to company resources, protect data from outsiders, provide a layered approach to perimeter and core firewall defenses, and educate users.

BENEFITS

- Fewer outbreaks of worms, viruses, and malware - resulting in less system damage, repair, replacement, and downtime
- No negative publicity due to a security breach
- Lower liability
- Increase compliance
- Streamline and clearly define roles and responsibilities, making information flow more quickly through an organization
- Provide checks and balances that reduce internal risks, thus saving money

FIREWOLVES OPEN UP NEW SEASON WITH A ROAD VICTORY IN BUFFALO

The Albany FireWolves (1-0) defeated the Buffalo Bandits (0-1), 11-10, at the KeyBank Center in Buffalo, New York on Saturday evening. The Bandits struck first in the contest, but Albany's new look offense fired back with four unanswered goals and maintained control throughout the game. Doug Jamieson remained stout in net for Albany, stopping 44 Buffalo shots on the night.

Buffalo controlled the game's opening faceoff but came up empty on their first possession as Jamieson stuffed Tehoka Nanticoke at the net. After multiple empty trips by both teams, Nanticoke opened the scoring by putting a shot just outside of Jamieson's left leg. Minutes later following a timeout, Tanner Thomson knotted the game back at one as he sniped one into the back of the net from deep. On the ensuing possession, newly acquired forward Connor Kelly dove across the crease and went over the left shoulder of Matt Vinc to give the FireWolves their first lead of the night. Wasting no time, another new member of the FireWolves, Ethan Walker, fired one into the net to grow Albany's early lead. Buffalo was unable to score in the final seconds of the quarter and Albany took a 3-1 lead into the second.

The Bandits won the initial faceoff of the new quarter and quickly had a good look on net, but Nanticoke was rejected once again by Jamieson. Following a delay of game penalty on Buffalo, Albany scored seconds later as Kelly notched his second of the contest. Less than a minute later, the Bandits were hit with another penalty, but were able to kill off the FireWolves power play. After a Josh Byrne shot bounced off Jamieson high into the air, Ian MacKay caught the rebound and shot on an open net to get one back for the Bandits. After multiple shot opportunities on the ensuing Bandits possession, Byrne bested Jamieson to close the gap to 4-3 halfway through the second period. About a minute later, Walker buried his second of the night to get one back for Albany. Coming out of a television timeout, Kyle Buchanan netted one after a nice feed from Buffalo's Dhane Smith. The FireWolves came up empty with the final possession of the second quarter but carried a 5-4 lead into the halftime break.

After two scoreless minutes to open the second half, Albany was penalized with a five-minute goalie interference major as Walker crashed into Vinc. Despite being a man down, Charlie Kitchen was able to muscle his way through two defenders and find John Piatelli for a shorthanded goal – the rookie's first of his career. With 30 seconds left on the major penalty, Albany was hit with minor, extending Buffalo's man-up advantage for two additional minutes. Soon after, Byrne rolled one into the net for his second goal of the night. With six minutes to play in the third quarter, Hiana Thompson soared from behind the net and squeaked in his first goal with the FireWolves. Seconds later, another Albany newcomer, Kieran McArdle, fired a sidearm shot past Vinc to extend the lead to 8-5. Keeping their foot on the gas, Thomson buried a high shot for Albany's third goal in less than two minutes. Buffalo was finally able to stop the bleeding as Nanticoke beat Jamieson for the second time in the game on a nifty shot with a minute to go in the quarter. Thirty seconds later, Chris Cloutier went airborne and scored another for the Bandits. Albany could not get a shot on net and maintained a 9-7 lead after three quarters of play.

Three minutes into the fourth, Buchanan took a shot from the deep center of the turf that bounced into the net. Buffalo then quickly tied it at nine goals apiece as Nanticoke collided with Jamieson, but only after he completed his hat trick. Nanticoke was ejected from the game for crashing into Jamieson with 11 minutes to go, giving Albany another power play opportunity. Albany was able to capitalize on the man-up advantage as McArdle scored his second goal of the contest with over a minute remaining on the power play. Back at even strength, Colton Watkinson entered his name into the score book with a transition goal that gave Albany a two-score lead with five minutes to go. After an interference infraction on Albany, Cloutier took the ball in transition and brought Buffalo back within a goal. The FireWolves were able to run out the clock securing their first win of the young season on the road in Buffalo. The FireWolves will meet the Bandits one more time this year in the regular season finale in Albany.

FIREWOLVES DROP HOME OPENER TO KNIGHTHAWKS

The Albany FireWolves (1-1) were defeated by the Rochester Knighthawks (3-0), 14-13, at the MVP Arena in Albany, New York on Saturday evening. Albany controlled the game's first half, but a strong third period by Rochester swung the momentum in their favor as they held on for the win on the road.

Rochester won the game's opening faceoff but were shut down by Doug Jamieson on their first possession. After another defensive stand, Albany ran out in transition and got on the board first as John LaFontaine gave Albany an early lead. Fresh out of a television timeout, the FireWolves added to their lead as Tanner Thomson fired one in as the shot clock was expiring. With five minutes to play in the opening period, Hiana Thompson soared across the crease and scored the third goal in a row for Albany. Less than 15 seconds later, Rochester notched their first of the night as Turner Evans beat Jamieson. Wasting no time, Albany got the goal back as Justin Scott bounced one past Ryan Hartley. With under two minutes to go, the Knighthawks netted their second of the contest as Ryan Smith collected a rebound and put one past the downed Jamieson. Rochester came up empty on their final possession of the quarter as Albany held onto a 4-2 lead after the first.

The FireWolves kept their foot on the gas as Connor Kelly buried his first of the night with Albany's initial possession of the second period. Following a Rochester penalty, Albany took advantage of the power play opportunity as Ethan Walker netted his first of the contest. The Knighthawks finally stopped the bleeding as UAlbany alum Connor Fields scored his first of the night as the shot clock was winding down. Following a foul on the FireWolves, Matt Gilray took a long pass and found the back of the net to cut the Albany lead down to two goals about halfway through the second quarter. The FireWolves quickly got a goal back as Thompson scored just outside the crease after a nice feed from Kelly. With just under six minutes to go in the half, Charlie Kitchen caught a pass in transition and weaved his way through multiple defenders before burying an acrobatic shot to push the FireWolves lead to 8-4. The Knighthawks had an extended next possession thanks to multiple rebounds before Thomas Hoggarth rolled one in from deep. Neither team was able to score in the remaining four minutes and the FireWolves took an 8-5 lead into the halftime break.

Rochester continued their dominance from the dot, controlling the first faceoff of the second half, and immediately scored off the stick of Holden Cattoni. The Knighthawks continued their run as Curtis Knight added another, narrowing the Albany lead to just one goal. Keeping the momentum, Rochester tied the game halfway through the third quarter as Cattoni found the back of the net for the second time in the half. Just seconds later, the Knighthawks took their first lead of the game as Smith put one past Jamieson's right foot. Despite smothering defense, Fields was able to maintain control and roll one into the net for Rochester's fifth goal in a row. Following the goal, the Knighthawks were hit with a penalty, giving Albany their second power play chance of the night. The FireWolves were unable to convert on the man-up advantage, and soon after gave Rochester a power play try on an interference penalty. Being a man down did not matter as Colton Watkinson shrugged off a defender on a runout and netted Albany's first goal of the half. The Knighthawks quickly got the goal back as Smith completed his hat trick with just a minute left in the period. The scoring continued as Albany's Aaron Forster fired one in from deep. The FireWolves then forced a turnover on their side of the floor and Thompson rocketed one past Hartley to cap of his hat trick with less than a second to go in the period to knot the game at 11 apiece.

After nearly seven full minutes of scoreless action to start the fourth quarter, Albany regained the lead as Scott fired a missile past Hartley. The Knighthawks quickly tied it up at 12 as Curtis Knight found the back of the net. Just seconds later, Fields reclaimed the lead for Rochester on his third of the contest. Keeping up the pace, Albany got the goal back after a successful challenge on a crease jumping goal by John Piatelli. Fields quickly notched his fourth of the night to sway the lead back once again in Rochester's favor, 14-13. Albany turned the ball over on their final possession and the Knighthawks were able to run out the clock, handing the FireWolves their first loss of the season.

GEDDIE IMPRESSIVE IN NET FOR FIREWOLVES DEBUT

The Albany FireWolves (1-2) were defeated by the Halifax Thunderbirds (3-1), 14-11, at the MVP Arena in Albany, New York on Saturday evening. Justin Geddie had a solid night in net for his FireWolves debut, stopping 61 Halifax shots. The game was tight throughout, but the Thunderbirds were able to score the final four goals and come away with a win on the road.

Halifax secured the game's initial faceoff but were unable to get a shot on net. Following nearly 10 scoreless minutes to open the game, the floodgates opened. Each side playing with four on the floor after illegal substitution penalties, the scoring drought was broken as Charlie Kitchen bounced one into the back of the net. Halifax wasted no time answering as Chris Boushy caught a nice behind the back feed and scored from just outside the crease. The Thunderbirds quickly took over the lead as Boushy bounced his second goal past Geddie. The scoring continued as Hiana Thompson secured a nifty one-handed pass from Connor Kelly and notched his first goal of the contest. Less than a minute later, Kelly got one of his own as he regained the lead for Albany on a snipe from the center of the floor. With 25 seconds to go in the quarter, Ethan Walker found an opening coming off a screen and gave the FireWolves a two-score lead.

The pace continued into the second quarter as Halifax's point-leader Randy Staats buried his first of the contest while falling into the crease. Kelly got the goal back for the FireWolves as he notched his second of the night by bouncing one through Warren Hill's legs. Shortly after, Eric Fannell found space and bested Geddie for the team's fourth score of the night. Former FireWolf Ryan Benesch then tied the game at five on the ensuing possession firing one in from the right side. One possession later, Benesch found Boushy right in front of the net as he completed his hat trick to give Halifax the lead. Following a penalty on the Thunderbirds, Albany was able to capitalize as Kelly capped off a hat trick of his own while knotting the game at six with just under 10 minutes to play in the half. After nearly eight minutes without a goal, Austin Shanks broke the tie for Halifax. Despite a save by Geddie, Cody Jamieson was able to find the ball in the crease, and go around the back of the net and bury a one-handed goal while diving. With just a second to go in the half, Patrick Kaschalk ran the length of the floor and fired one past Hill, cutting the deficit to one, 8-7, heading into the break.

Following five minutes of empty trips and multiple penalties on both sides, Kieran McArdle was able to tie the game on a deflected ball that found its way across the goal line. Albany wasted no time putting another goal on the board as McArdle fed Thompson in front of the net for his second goal of the night. Halifax finally scored their first goal of the second half as Fannell found an empty net while Geddie was scrambling for a loose ball to tie the game at nine goals apiece heading into the final period.

Just seconds into the fourth quarter, Albany was penalized for roughing. Geddie remained stout throughout the Thunderbirds' powerplay, and following a defensive stand, Colton Watkinson came out of the penalty box and was hit in stride on his way to giving the FireWolves a 10-9 lead. Halifax quickly answered as Fannell capped off his hat trick by bouncing one into the net. Shortly after, the FireWolves ran the floor and found Kelly on the offensive end who drilled his fourth of the game. Following another Albany penalty, Halifax was able to take advantage as Boushy cleaned up a missed shot and put one into the back of the net from a step outside the crease. With just under seven to play, Staats came around a screen and released from deep to give the Thunderbirds a 12-11 lead. After an Albany holding penalty, Halifax added to their late lead as Clarke Petterson got one past Geddie. Fannell added another to the Thunderbirds lead as he jumped through the crease and scored a one-handed goal, his fourth of the night. Albany was then penalized for a five-minute high sticking major and Halifax was able to run out the clock, securing a 14-11 win on the road.

ALBANY WINS OVERTIME THRILLER IN HALIFAX, 11-10

The Albany FireWolves (2-2) defeated the Halifax Thunderbirds (3-2), 11-10, at the Scotiabank Centre in Halifax on Friday evening. The game was back and forth throughout, but the FireWolves were able to tie it late in the fourth and eventually win in sudden death overtime on Kieran McArdle's fourth goal of the night.

Halifax won the game's opening faceoff, and after empty trips by both sides, Warren Hill found Colton Armstrong in transition who ran the rest of the way before beating Doug Jamieson for the first goal of the night. Following an early unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Thunderbirds, Tanner Thomson flipped a behind-the-back pass to a cutting Ethan Walker who finished in front of the net to tie the game at one. Halifax was quickly hit with another penalty, but the Thunderbirds were able to score shorthanded as Wake:Riat Bowhunter fired one in from deep. After penalties on both sides, Jamieson stopped a Thunderbirds shot and found Colton Watkinson in transition who took advantage of a breakaway opportunity for Albany's second goal of the contest.

Albany wasted no time taking their first lead of the night early in the second quarter as Justin Scott ripped one in from deep in the center of the floor. The Thunderbirds quickly got the goal back as Chris Boushy caught a pass just outside the crease and was able to finish. Fresh out of a television timeout, John Piatelli came around a pick and landed a rocket in the back of the net to regain the lead for Albany.

After nearly 20 minutes of game time without a goal, Jackson Nishimura ended the drought as he ran out ahead of Halifax in transition and bounced one between Hill's legs to give Albany a 5-3 lead with just under seven minutes to go in the third quarter. Albany kept the momentum as McArdle scooped up a rebound in the center of the floor and added another for the FireWolves. The Thunderbirds finally scored their first goal of the half as Austin Shanks put one between Jamieson's legs to cut the Albany lead to 6-4. Seconds later, Eric Fannell got in close and buried a shot to bring Halifax within a goal. On a delayed penalty, Fannell scored again, this time from the center of the floor, to knot the game at six.

Halifax took the lead early in the fourth quarter as Boushy completed a one-timer just outside the crease. On the following possession, the Thunderbirds notched their fifth goal in a row as Clarke Petterson fired one in from the left side. Albany was able to stop the bleeding as Tanner Thomson found some space in the deep center of the floor and sniped in his first score of the night. The Thunderbirds quickly brought it back to a two-goal lead as Fannell dove across the crease and completed his hat trick. With just under five to play, Kitchen fed a cutting McArdle who bounced one in to cut the Halifax lead to one. The Thunderbirds quickly reclaimed the two-goal lead as Armstrong took a long rebound the length of the floor and finished the play for his second of the night. McArdle stayed hot and completed a hat trick of his own after a great pass from Nishimura. With under a minute left, Albany pulled Jamieson from the net and immediately capitalized as Walker tied the game at 10. Halifax was unable to score with the final possession and the game went into overtime. In less than two minutes, McArdle called game by burying his fourth goal of the night as Albany took an 11-10 victory on the road.

HIANA THOMPSON RECORDS 100TH CAREER POINT IN LOSS TO RIPTIDE

The Albany FireWolves (2-3) were defeated by the New York Riptide (1-4), 16-10, at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. New York jumped out to a hot start, scoring the game's four goals, and never looked back. Albany's Hiana Thompson recorded his 100th career point on an assist in the third quarter.

New York won the opening faceoff and after empty trips by both sides, Jeff Teat opened the scoring as he rifled one in from deep to give the Riptide an early 1-0 lead. After killing off the game's first penalty, the Riptide came down the floor and scored as Connor Kearnan snuck one under the cross bar. On the very next possession, Teat got his second of contest as he bounced one past Doug Jamieson. New York kept the momentum going as Larson Sundown cleared space in the center and found the back of the net to make it four goals in a row. Albany finally stopped the bleeding as Connor Kelly got the FireWolves on the board. The Riptide wasted no time getting the goal back as Sundown fought his way through the Albany defense and scored while he was falling to the turf.

Just 30 seconds into the second quarter, the Riptide won a fight for the ball in the center of the floor and added another goal to their lead as Kevin Brownell beat the shot clock. On the ensuing possession, newly acquired Brett Hickey pushed the New York lead to six goals, forcing Albany to make a change in net to Justin Geddie, who would finish the half for Albany before switching back to Jamieson. Keeping their foot on the gas, Teat was hit in stride and completed his hat trick just minutes into the second period. Seconds out of a TV timeout, the Riptide struck again as Tyler Digby drilled one from deep. Albany managed to get one back as Colton Watkinson was hit in transition and took it the rest of the way. With six and a half to go in the period, Teat notched his fourth goal to put the Riptide up 10-2. Just before the halftime break, Kelly ripped in his second goal of the contest.

Albany came out firing to start the second half as the team's leading scorer, Kieran McArdle, came around a screen and buried one over Steve Orleman's left shoulder. The following possession, Tanner Thomson went low and scored another for Albany to cut the Riptide lead to 10-5. New York was able to score their first of the half as Teat buried his fifth of the contest. New York added another as a long rebound from an Albany shot rolled to mid-turf, allowing the Riptide run out in transition as Kearnan logged his second of the game. The pace continued as Thomson bounced one past Orleman for his second goal. New York refused to let Albany get within striking distance, as Hickey fired one into the net from the center of the floor. Following an Albany penalty, New York was able to capitalize as Teat netted number six on the night. The FireWolves had their third power play chance of the game after two dead ball penalties on New York and one on Albany. The FireWolves were able to take advantage of being a man up as McArdle went low and scored his second of the game.

Albany was hit with a penalty early in the fourth quarter, and the Riptide quickly capitalized as former FireWolf Reilly O'Connor bounced one between Jamieson's legs, giving New York a 15-7 lead. Teat continued his strong night as he found space in the center of the floor and went nearside low. With five minutes to go in the game, John Piatelli bounced one into the net, cutting the deficit to eight. Albany quickly scored another as McArdle completed his hat trick while wrapping around the back of the net. With under a minute to play, Ethan Walker buried a one-timer from just outside the crease for Albany's tenth goal of the night. The FireWolves came up empty on the game's final possession as the Riptide left the Capital Region victorious, 16-10.

TWO FIREWOLVES SURPASS CAREER MILESTONES IN LOSS TO WINGS

The Albany FireWolves (2-4) were defeated by the Philadelphia Wings (3-4), 13-5, at the Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia on Saturday evening. Despite the loss on the road, two FireWolves players reached career milestones. Goaltender Doug Jamieson surpassed 2,000 career saves and Greg Downing collected his 1,000th loose ball while playing in his 200th career game.

Philadelphia took the game's opening faceoff, but both teams had empty possessions to start. Despite an early Wings penalty, Albany was unable to capitalize on the man advantage as the game remained scoreless five minutes in. After nearly half of the first period without a goal, Joe Resetarits found Ben McIntosh coming around a pick who then opened the scoring as he bounced one in for the Wings. Wasting no time answering, a cutting Connor Kelly was found by Kieran McArdle to tie the game at one. With five minutes to play in the period, Albany was guilty of their first penalty. Just seconds later, Blaze Riorden scooped a rebound up in front of the net and beat Jamieson to regain the lead for the Wings. On the ensuing Philadelphia possession, Albany was tacked with another penalty. After numerous shots on net, Jamieson remained stout as the FireWolves killed off the penalty. With just seconds to go in the quarter, Resetarits found space on the left side and buried one low to give the Wings a 3-1 lead.

Philadelphia kept the momentum early in the second half as newly acquired Wing Mitch Jones collected his own rebound and scored from just outside the crease. Coming out of the bench, Resetarits was hit in stride before rifling in his second of the night. After an Albany defensive stop, Mitch Jones intercepted the outlet pass and found Resetarits across the turf who completed his hat trick to put the Wings up 6-1 halfway through the second. Philadelphia kept their foot on the pedal as Sam LeClair fired one past Jamieson from deep to extend their lead with under two minutes to play in the half. With an empty net, the FireWolves were unable to score, as the Wings took a 7-1 lead into the halftime break.

Minutes into the second half, the FireWolves were penalized for holding and the Wings took no time to capitalize as Jones buried one from the center of the floor. With under five to play in the quarter, Riorden scooped up his own rebound and drilled a second chance effort, his second goal of the game. Albany once again had the final shot of the quarter, but were unable to score, with Philadelphia in front 9-1 after three quarters of play.

The Wings broke into double digits as LeClair beat Jamieson just over a minute into the fourth. Philadelphia made it 10 unanswered goals as Matt Rambo tossed a pass across the floor to McIntosh who notched his second of the night. Albany finally broke the drought as Colton Watkinson not only blocked a pass, but scooped the ball up and ran the length of the floor for a short-handed goal in transition. Still a man down, John LaFontaine went low on Higgins to cut the deficit to eight. Philadelphia quickly got one back as Resetarits buried his fourth of the night on the Wings power play. The lead quickly grew back to 10 as Rambo hesitated and fired one in from deep. Albany turned the Wings over and swiftly scored as LaFontaine rifled one over Higgins' left shoulder. After a Wings penalty, Kelly took a shot that was deflected off a Wings defender into the net, his second goal of the game. Philadelphia won the game's final faceoff and were able to run out the clock and cap off their first home win of the season, 13-5.

FIREWOLVES NEARLY COMPLETE COMEBACK AGAINST RIPTIDE

The Albany FireWolves (2-5) were defeated by the New York Riptide (2-6), 14-12, at the Nassau Coliseum on Saturday evening. The Riptide went up 12-4 midway through the third quarter, but the FireWolves clawed their way back in, scoring seven unanswered goals and nearly completed the comeback. Newly acquired Zac Tucci gave Albany a boost from the faceoff dot, as the team won 12 of 30 attempts.

After both teams came up empty on each of their first possessions, the Riptide struck first as Jeff Teat made his way into the center of the floor and bounced one between Doug Jamieson's legs. Albany was quickly able to tie it up as Kieran McArdle found Ethan Walker on a slip who did the rest from just outside the crease. Halfway through the first period, the Riptide got out in transition and Matt Marinier netted his first goal of the season to regain the lead for New York. Out of a television timeout, Dan Lomas found some space on a pick and roll and buried one to put the Riptide up two. Wasting no time getting the goal back, Walker rifled in his second of the night from deep on the right side. On the next New York possession, Lomas made a move to the center and fired one off the pipe that found the back of the net.

Following four minutes of scoreless action to start the second period, Teat ran from right to left and notched his second goal of the contest, giving the Riptide a 5-2 lead. Teat completed his hat trick the next time the ball was in his stick as he came around a pick and had an opening in the center of the floor. Despite the Riptide being tacked with a five-minute major penalty, they were the ones to score as Teat beat Jamieson for the fourth time in the half. The FireWolves were finally able to stop the bleeding as McArdle went low on Steve Orleman. Albany had a six-on-four opportunity in the waning seconds of the quarter, but were unable to score, as the Riptide took a 7-3 lead into halftime.

Albany began the third period with just under a minute remaining on the major penalty, but were unable to capitalize after taking the first faceoff. Just as the Riptide player was running out of the penalty box, Larson Sundown buried a twister right in front of the net to add to the New York lead. On the ensuing possession, Lomas completed his hat trick as he went low from the right side. Albany subbed in Justin Geddie for Jamieson in net following New York's ninth goal of the night. The Riptide quickly reached double digits as Connor Kearnan beat Geddie one-on-one. After a slashing penalty on Albany, New York wasted no time capitalizing as Jack Kelly netted his first career NLL goal. Less than a minute later, New York was penalized for an illegal substitution. Following a defensive stand, Brett Manney was able to lob one to Colton Watkinson who finished in transition to cut the deficit to seven. Both teams were hit with penalties, and while playing four-on-four, Teat connected for the fifth time as he rifled one past Geddie. McArdle was able to answer as he stopped on a dime and painted the far pipe. Just seconds later, Nick Chaykovsky found the back of the net after scooping the ball up from the faceoff dot. The remaining six minutes of the third period were scoreless as New York doubled up Albany, 12-6, entering the final quarter.

The FireWolves scored the first goal of the fourth quarter as Tanner Thomson dove across the crease and found space to beat Orleman. The Riptide were then hit with two minor penalties, giving Albany a five-on-three opportunity with just over 10 minutes to play. Albany scored their fourth goal in a row as Walker found Kelly in close. Keeping the momentum, Thomson dashed across the center of the floor and buried a pretty behind the back shot, as the Riptide lead dwindled to 12-9 with eight minutes remaining. On the following possession, Kelly had his stick hit as he was shooting, but the ball managed to bounce into the net as Albany scored their sixth in a row. The FireWolves continued their run as Kelly capped off his hat trick as the team broke out in transition, cutting the Riptide lead to just one with three minutes left in the game. New York finally ended their drought, as a cutting Teat was able to execute in front of the net. Teat quickly got another one back for the Riptide as he fired one in from deep, his seventh goal of the game. With 50 seconds left, Walker completed his hat trick on a one-timer from Thomson, cutting the deficit to two. Despite a defensive stand with an empty net, Albany was unable to score on their final possession, and the Riptide held on to win, 14-12.

FIREWOLVES DEFENSE SOLID IN LOW SCORING AFFAIR

The Albany FireWolves (2-6) were defeated by the Las Vegas Desert Dogs (3-5), 12-10, at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. The game went back and forth throughout, but the Desert Dogs shut out the FireWolves in the fourth quarter to hang on for a narrow victory. Despite the loss, Albany goaltender Doug Jamieson was stout in net, allowing just 11 goals while stopping 33 shots. Tanner Thomson led the Wolves with four goals and Kieran McArdle tallied seven points in the defeat.

Albany took the game's opening faceoff after a scrum for the ball at center turf. On their first possession, they drew a Las Vegas penalty, quickly gaining a man-up advantage. The FireWolves were able to capitalize as John Piatelli opened the scoring. Just seconds later, the Desert Dogs got the goal back as Brandon Clelland netted their first of the night. Shortly after, Las Vegas took the lead as John Wagner scored the game's third goal in just 20 seconds of game play. Fresh out of a television timeout, Albany tied the game up at two as Thomson went between the legs of goaltender Landon Kells. Keeping up the pace, Albany regained the lead as Ethan Walker caught a pass while just outside the crease and buried his first of the game. Following a holding penalty on the FireWolves, Zack Greer rifled one in from the right side to knot the game up at three goals apiece. With an almost identical shot as Greer, Reid Reinholdt found space on the right side and fired one into the back of the net. With just under two minutes to go in the quarter, McArdle juked out a Las Vegas defender and went low on Kells for a FireWolves goal.

After nearly six minutes of scoreless action to open the second quarter, the FireWolves were hit with a holding penalty, giving the Desert Dogs their second power play try of the game. Once again, it was Greer who scored a power play goal as he worked his way to the center of the floor and bounced one into the net, giving the lead back to Las Vegas. Albany wasted no time getting the score back, as Thomson was hit in stride before netting his second goal of the contest. The Desert Dogs once again regained the lead as Greer completed his hat trick after nice feed from Rob Hellyer. With just over a minute remaining in the half Sam Firth caught a pass in the middle and somehow found the back of the net as he was falling to the ground. The FireWolves had the final possession of the half, but were unable to score, as Las Vegas held onto a 7-5 lead heading into the break.

It took over three minutes for the first goal of the second half, but it came off the stick of Thomson who completed his hat trick and brought Albany within a goal. Las Vegas was tacked with a holding penalty, giving Albany a power play opportunity. Quickly, McArdle found Walker who was positioned behind the net before coming around the goal post for a dunk to tie the game at seven. The FireWolves found themselves on another man-up advantage with five minutes to go in the period and were able to regain the lead as McArdle put one between the legs of Kells. Less than a minute later, the Desert Dogs were penalized again, and Albany was able to extend their run as Thomson's shot had some back spin on it and found its way over the line for a goal. Las Vegas was finally able to stop the bleeding with under a minute to go in the quarter as Hellyer fought his way through traffic and bounced one in. With four seconds left, Connor Kelly jumped off one foot and fired a shot into the net, giving Albany a two-goal advantage heading into the final period.

The FireWolves were caught out of position fighting for a loose ball behind the net, leaving open space for Charlie Bertrand who scored easily to bring the Desert Dogs back within one. Las Vegas quickly tied the game at 10 as Hellyer rifled one between Jamieson's legs. The Desert Dogs continued their run and took the lead on a missile from Jon Phillips who connected from deep. Down a goal with six men on the floor, Albany turned the ball over, setting up an open net goal for Connor Kirst. The FireWolves were unable to score on their final possession as Las Vegas squeaked out a 12-10 victory.

FIREWOLVES WILL SEEK REVENGE AGAINST SWARM NEXT WEEKEND IN ALBANY

The Albany FireWolves (2-7) were defeated by the Georgia Swarm (1-7), 20-4, at the Gas South Arena in Georgia on Saturday evening. The game was close after the first quarter, but the Swarm opened the flood gates in the second and never looked back, scoring six goals while shutting the FireWolves out. The two teams will meet again next weekend in Albany.

Both teams came up empty on each of their first few possessions, but after penalties on both teams midway through the period, former FireWolves forward Andrew Kew opened the scoring with a low shot from the center of the floor. The Swarm got their second goal of the contest minutes later as Seth Oakes buried a low shot on Justin Geddie. The FireWolves were able to get one back as Connor Kelly came from around the back of the net to dunk the ball in for a goal. Following a FireWolves penalty, Kew wasted no time notching his second of the night, giving the Swarm a 3-1 lead in the waning seconds of the quarter.

Georgia kept the momentum early in the second quarter as Lyle Thompson went low from the left side and added to the Swarm lead. After penalties on both sides, Shayne Jackson trailed a fastbreak and was hit in stride to give Georgia a four goal lead. On the next possession, Jackson got his second of the game as he found space just in front of the net. Georgia kept their foot on the gas as Bryan Cole scored in transition after an Albany turnover. Seconds later, Jackson completed his hat trick to give the Swarm an 8-1 advantage with just over six minutes remaining in the half. After an Albany penalty, Kew completed his hat trick as he rifled one in from the center of the floor. The FireWolves were unable to score with the final possession of the half as the Swarm took a 9-1 lead into the break.

Albany temporarily stopped the bleeding a minute into the second half as Hiana Thompson buried the FireWolves' first goal since the first quarter. The Swarm wasted no time getting the goal back as Hiana's brother Lyle scored a one-handed goal from behind the net. Thompson then scored on the Swarm's ensuing possession as he dove across the crease and netted his third of the night. After another Albany penalty, Kew fired in another power play goal, his fourth of the game. On their following possession, Georgia managed to get a couple offensive rebounds before Kew had an open look and capitalized once again. Albany notched their third of the game as John Piatelli took advantage of a FireWolves power play. The scoring continued for Georgia as Thompson went low from the center of the floor and netted his fourth of the night. Brendan Bomberly got into the scoring action as he came out in transition and drilled a twister from just outside the crease. The Swarm were penalized again at the end of the third, as Albany took about a minute remaining of a power play into the final quarter.

Still on a man advantage, Piatelli notched his second of the contest just seconds into the fourth quarter. Georgia was quick to get the score back as Thompson was wide open in front of the crease and beat Geddie from point blank. Keeping up the pace, Zach Miller walked in close and fired in his first of the game. After an inadvertent whistle, Kew completed a sock trick as he pushed the Swarm lead to 14. The Swarm recorded their 19th goal of the night as Oakes bounced one in from deep, his second. Despite being a man down, the Swarm made it 20 as Kew drilled his seventh goal of the contest.

JAMIESON AND ALBANY'S PENALTY KILL EFFORTS STRONG DESPITE OVERTIME LOSS

The Albany FireWolves (2-8) were defeated by the Georgia Swarm (2-7), 9-8, in overtime at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. The game was tight throughout, with neither team leading by more than two goals at any point. Albany goaltender Doug Jamieson was stout in net, recording 52 saves. The FireWolves' penalty kill unit was strong as well, shutting down five of Georgia's seven power play opportunities while also scoring four shorthanded goals. Georgia's Lyle Thompson, a former University at Albany standout, scored the game-winning goal just seconds into the overtime period.

Georgia opened the game's scoring as former FireWolf Andrew Kew found a lane in the center of the floor and fired one off Jamieson's pads that bounced into the net. Midway through the period, Albany equalized as newly acquired Jake Fox buried a nifty behind the back shot. Minutes later, the Swarm regained the lead as Thompson rifled one in from the center. After Albany killed off a penalty despite multiple shots by Georgia, Leo Stouros took the ball from end to end and squeezed one into the net, tying the game at two with just seconds left in the period.

The Swarm were able to capitalize on an Albany turnover early in the new quarter as Kason Tarbell took it all the way down before getting one past Jamieson. After five minutes of scoreless action, Thomas Vaesen went five-hole on Brett Dobson to knot the game at three goals apiece. Neither team scored in the remaining nine and a half minutes, as the game headed into the halftime break, tied 3-3.

In the waning seconds of an Albany major penalty, Thompson flipped a pass behind the back to Seth Oakes who scored the first goal of the second half, five minutes in. Despite another Albany penalty, the FireWolves were able to score shorthanded as Connor Kelly sniped one in from the left side. The Swarm wasted no time getting the goal back as Brendan Bomberry found space over Jamieson's shoulder for the goal. The FireWolves were able to tie the game once again after Kelly dove into the crease and buried a power play goal. With just three seconds remaining in the third, Shayne Jackson caught a pass in transition and gave the Swarm a one-goal lead heading into the fourth.

Albany tied the game back up minutes into the final quarter despite being shorthanded again. Colton Watkinson took the ball the length of the floor, but his shot hit off the crossbar before Kelly scooped up the rebound and completed his hat trick. Shortly after, the FireWolves took their first lead of the night as Tanner Thomson fired in a missile over the left side of Dobson. Keeping the momentum, Kieran McArdle secured a high bouncing rebound and immediately shot one into the top left corner of the net, Albany's third shorthanded goal in a row and fourth of the night. Thompson was able to stop the bleeding as he hesitated before rifling a dart past Jamieson. The Swarm then tied the game at eight as Thompson skipped a pass to Jackson who bounced one in for his second goal of the night. The game went to overtime tied at eight and Georgia took no time to end it as Thompson netted his third of the game to give the Swarm a 9-8 victory.

FIREWOLVES DEFENSE IMPRESSIVE AGAIN DESPITE LOSS TO ROCK

The Albany FireWolves (2-9) were defeated by the Toronto Rock (10-3), 12-6, at the FirstOntario Centre in Toronto on Saturday evening. Albany tied the game in the third period, but Toronto went on a run in the fourth while shutting the FireWolves to secure the victory at home. FireWolves goaltender Doug Jamieson had another solid night in net, recording 50 saves for the second game in a row.

Toronto was penalized early in the first quarter, but the Rock were still able to open the scoring while being a man down as Josh Jubenville ran the length of the floor and bounced one past Jamieson. Albany was able to quickly tie the game at one as Corson Kealey scooped up a rebound in close and dove across the crease to score the first goal of his career. After the FireWolves killed off a Rock power play that saw multiple shots on net, John LaFontaine ran out in transition and ripped an underhand shot into the back of the net to give Albany the lead. Toronto was unable to capitalize on another power play chance as Albany carried a 2-1 lead into the second quarter.

The FireWolves kept the early momentum as Hiana Thompson snagged a rebound in the center and went behind the back for the goal over Nick Rose's left shoulder. Minutes later, the Rock got a goal back as Stephen Keogh went five-hole on Jamieson. Toronto soon after tied the game as Tom Schreiber fired one into the top right corner of the net. Keogh notched his second of the quarter as he rifled one in from the left side. Following an Albany penalty, Toronto was able to capitalize on a power play for the first time in the contest as Dan Craig sniped one in to give the Rock a two-goal lead. With under a minute to play in the half, Brett Manney connected with Colton Watkinson in transition who ran the rest of the way to net Albany's fourth goal of the game. Toronto nearly scored on an empty net as time expired but maintained their 5-4 lead heading into the halftime break.

The Rock pushed their lead to two goals by scoring in the first minute of the second half as Craig got one under Jamieson's arm for his second of the night. With just five minutes to play in the third, John Piatelli made his way to the center of the floor after a nice pick by Jake Fox and fired in his seventh goal of his rookie campaign. Following a television timeout, McArdle found Tanner Thomson just outside the crease who then dove and bounced one into the net to knot the game at six apiece. Toronto wasted no time regaining the lead as Keogh completed his hat trick with a low shot from the outside. With 40 seconds to go in the quarter, Adam Jay added another for the Rock as he ran the length of the floor and snuck one in between Jamieson's legs.

Toronto grew their lead early in the fourth after Craig Small had a long rebound bounce right to him before he sunk one into an open net. After killing off a penalty for the fifth time on the night, Phil Mazzuca caught a pass from Latrell Harris in transition and he was able to beat Jamieson 1-on-1. Seconds later, Craig buried his second of the quarter to extend the Rock lead to five with just over six minutes remaining in the game. The Rock kept up the pace as Keogh found space on the left side and shot a missile over Jamieson's shoulder to double up Albany, 12-6. Albany was unable to score in the final quarter as Toronto capped off the victory at home.

CONNOR KELLY SURPASSES 100 CAREER POINTS IN LOSS TO RIPTIDE

The Albany FireWolves (2-10) were defeated by the New York Riptide (4-9), 13-10, at the Nassau Coliseum in Uniondale, New York on Saturday evening. Albany scored the game's first goal, then New York notched four in a row in the first quarter and never looked back. FireWolves forward Connor Kelly surpassed 100 career points early in the third quarter on his second of three goals in the contest.

The Riptide took the game's opening faceoff, but it was Albany who opened the scoring on their first possession as Ethan Walker buried one from just outside the crease. New York wasted no time answering as Scott Dominey ran out in transition after a FireWolves miss and took it the length of the turf for the score. The Riptide took the lead shortly after an FireWolves penalty as Connor Kearnan got in close and netted his first of the night. New York added to their early lead as Dan Lomas caught a feed from Jeff Teat and then went over Doug Jamieson's right shoulder for the goal. With just under seven to go in the first quarter, Mike Burke sniped one in to put New York up by three. With the shot clock winding down, Kelly came around a pick and hit the bottom right corner of the net to get one back for Albany.

It took nearly four minutes into the new period for the first goal, but Teat caught a pass over the middle and rifled a low ball into the net to push the Riptide lead to three. New York kept the momentum as Kearnan finished a one-timer in close for his second goal in as many quarters. Albany stopped the bleed as Jake Fox came around the back of the net for a one-handed dunk goal. Shortly after a FireWolves penalty, Teat went low and bounced in his second of the night. Just seconds later, Albany got the goal back as Walker caught a rebound and found space just over Cameron Dunkerley in net. New York quickly equalized as Teat went low again and complete his hat trick with just under two minutes remaining in the half. Neither team scored in the remaining minutes as the Riptide carried an 8-4 lead into the halftime break.

The FireWolves scored first in the second half as Kelly came around a screen over the middle and sniped one into the back of the net to cut into the Riptide lead. Following two Albany penalties, New York was able to capitalize on a five-on-three opportunity as Tyler Digby got in close and scored his first of the night. Still on a power play, Larson Sundown caught a pass just outside the crease and netted another for the Riptide, giving them a five-goal lead. Midway through the third, Kearnan completed his hat trick as he caught and shot a quick pass from the center of the floor. With just under five to go in the period Kelly notched his third as he went wrong side and low for the goal.

After a scoring drought by both teams, Kearnan leapt off one foot and buried his fourth of the night to push the Riptide lead to six halfway into the final period. Following an Albany turnover, Jack Kelly ran the floor and scored another for New York in transition. Shortly after, Fox recovered a loose ball behind the net and found newly acquired Marshall Powless who scored his first goal with his new team. Second later, Kelly came around a pick and rifled in his fourth of the night to cut the deficit to five with just under six minutes remaining. Keeping the momentum, Walker recovered a rebound a finished his hat trick. In the remaining seconds of the game, Walker notched his fourth of the night, but the Riptide ended the contest with a 13-10 victory.

FIREWOLVES NEARLY COMEBACK LATE IN THE FOURTH QUARTER AGAINST ROCK

The Albany FireWolves (2-11) were defeated by the Toronto Rock (11-4), 11-9, at the MVP Arena in Albany, New York on Saturday evening. It was a low scoring affair that went back and forth all night. Toronto carried a four-goal lead into the fourth quarter, and Albany was able to get within one towards the end of the period, but Toronto scored on an empty net late and was able to run the clock out to secure a road win in the Capital Region. FireWolves goaltender Doug Jamieson had another strong night in net, stopping 47 shots and allowed just 10 goals.

After a scrum for the ball, Toronto began the game with the first possession, but came up empty on offense. After multiple scoreless trips by both sides, the Rock struck first as Josh Dawick bounced one into the net to give Toronto an early 1-0 lead. Minutes later, Albany equalized as John Piatelli found space over the middle and went low on Nick Rose. On the next possession, the FireWolves struck again as Ethan Walker went five-hole to give Albany their first lead of the game. Wasting no time tying it, Tom Schreiber fired one in from deep in the waning seconds of the shot clock. Keeping up the pace, Marshall Powless collected a long rebound before connecting with Tanner Thomson who rifled one into the back of the net. Following an Albany crosschecking penalty, Dan Craig found a gap over Jamieson's left shoulder to knot the game at three apiece.

Toronto was first to score in the second period as Craig came around a screen and fired a sidearm shot past Jamieson. Following a near Albany goal, the Rock ran out in transition before Zach Manns capped off the fast break to give Toronto a two-goal lead. On the ensuing possession, Manns found a cutting Corey Small who was just outside the crease for the goal on the doorstep. Albany was held scoreless in the period as Toronto carried a 6-3 lead into the halftime break.

It took nearly 10 minutes for the first goal of the second half, but Walker managed to get one back for the FireWolves as he bounced one through Rose's legs. With just over two minutes to play in the period, the Rock scored their first of the second half as Brandon Slade ran the floor and ripped an overhand shot unassisted into the net. Less than a minute later, the Rock added to their lead as Challen Rogers snuck one between Jamieson's legs.

Albany won the first faceoff of the final quarter and wasted little time scoring as Thomson buried his second of the night. Toronto quickly got the goal back as Dawick bounced one past Jamieson to give the Rock a 9-5 lead with 12 minutes remaining in the game. After a television timeout, Walker found Piatelli who was outside the crease before brushing off a defender and notching his second of the contest. On the next Albany possession, Walker ran around a screen and a Rock defender on his way to his hat trick goal while narrowly avoiding the crease to bring the FireWolves within two. Toronto was able to stop Albany's momentum as Craig completed a hat trick of his own while diving across the crease. With three minutes to go, Powless went low on Rose and cut the deficit back to two. With just 40 seconds remaining, the FireWolves emptied the net before Piatelli fired in his third of the night to bring Albany within a goal. The Rock won the ensuing faceoff and quickly scored as Latrell Harris got an easy one on an empty net. Toronto took the final faceoff of the game and was able to run out the clock, capping off an 11-9 victory.

FIREWOLVES KEEP IT CLOSE ON THE ROAD AGAINST PANTHER CITY

The Albany FireWolves (2-12) were defeated by the Panther City Lacrosse Club (9-6), 12-8, at the Dickies Arena in Fort Worth on Saturday evening. Once again, it was a low scoring affair, thanks to the Albany defense, but Panther City went on a five-goal run between the second and third quarters and held on for the home victory.

Panther City secured the game's first faceoff, but came up empty on their opening possession. After a scrum for the ball, Marshall Powless found a cutting Ethan Walker who buried the first goal of the game for Albany. Following a save by Justin Geddie, he connected with Mike Byrne in transition, who looked ahead and found Hiana Thompson who did the rest to give Albany an early two-goal lead. The FireWolves maintained the momentum as Tanner Thomson wrapped around the back of the net and dunked the ball in for another goal. Panther City finally got on the board with two minutes to go in the opening period as Patrick Dodds bounced one past Geddie. Panther City cut the deficit to one as Will Malcom caught a pass on the right side and buried one with just 20 seconds to go in the quarter.

Three minutes into the second, the FireWolves struck again as Connor Kelly was hit in transition and found space over the right shoulder of Nick Damude. Panther City struck back shortly after as Phil Caputo rifled in his first of the night. With just over ten to go in the half, Dodds notched his second of the night to tie the game at four goals apiece. Following a brief scoring drought by both sides, Josh Medeiros ran out in transition and buried twister shot from just outside the crease to give Panther City their first lead of the night. Seconds later, Malcom found space on the right side and went five-hole on Geddie to push the Panther City lead to two goals with less than a minute to play in the first half.

The pace kept up in the second half as Jonathan Donville notched another for Panther City to grow their lead. Seconds later, Powless went behind the back for a nifty goal to keep Albany within two. Still within the first few minutes of the second half, Connor Sellars got another one for Panther City to put the club up 8-5. Albany quickly got the goal back as John Piatelli secured a rebound in front of the net and scored. Panther City was able to answer as former FireWolf Anthony Malcom got revenge against his old team. The momentum continued for Panther City as Nathan Grenon scored from just outside the crease after an unsuccessful FireWolves challenge.

After nearly four minutes of scoreless action to start the final period, Piatelli found space after beating a defender to bounce in his second goal of the contest. Following a penalty on Panther City Powless was wide open on the right side and netted his second of the contest to bring the Wolves within two. Panther City was able to stop the bleeding as Caputo went behind the back for his second of the night. Panther City added another as Matt Hossack scored on an empty net to grow the lead to four. Neither team scored in the final minute as Panther City held on to a 12-8 victory.

FIREWOLVES VICTORIOUS OVER KNIGHTHAWKS, 14-12

The Albany FireWolves (3-12) defeated the Rochester Knighthawks (9-7), 14-12, at the Blue Cross Arena in Rochester on Saturday evening. Albany's offense looked strong with nine players recording at least one point on the night. The FireWolves scored the game's first goal and held onto the lead for the remainder of the contest. The win snapped a 10-game losing skid for the FireWolves.

After a long fight for the ball, Rochester secured the opening faceoff behind the FireWolves net, but were unable to score. On Albany's first possession, Tanner Thomson came around a screen and buried a twisting shot over Rylan Hartley to take an early lead. Six minutes into the first, Nick Chaykowsky intercepted a pass and ran the length of the floor before capping off a transition goal. The FireWolves kept the momentum as Connor Kelly dodged a Knighthawks defender before finding space over Hartley's left shoulder. With 16 seconds to go in the opening period, Rochester finally got on the board as Connor Fields connected with Thomas Hoggarth who then rifled a shot into the top right corner of the net.

The FireWolves picked up right where they left off to start the second quarter as Kelly found space over the middle and fired in his second of the night to put Albany up 4-1. Rochester quickly got the goal back as Holden Cattoni walked in close and bounced one off Doug Jamieson for the goal. Wasting no time answering, Jackson Reid scooped up the loose ball on the ensuing faceoff and ran the floor before bouncing the ball into the net for his first career goal. Piling it on, John Piatelli ran around multiple Rochester defenders before netting one to grow Albany's lead. Midway through the quarter, Fields found Ryan Smith who was wide open in front of the net and did the rest for the score. The Knighthawks kept the momentum as Smith connected with a cutting Cattoni who fired one past Jamieson to cut the deficit to two. Following a penalty on Hartley for an illegal body check, the FireWolves were immediately able to capitalize as Thomson fired a missile past Hartley's right leg with 40 seconds left in the half. Albany held onto a 7-4 lead heading into the halftime break.

Rochester struck first in the second half as Fields and Cattoni executed a perfect pick-and-roll before Cattoni completed his hat trick. Quickly responding, Jake Fox went around the net and dunked the ball while Hartley was caught out of position. Out of a television timeout, Fields faked going low before drilling a fastball into the back of the net to once again bring the Knighthawks back within two goals. Albany was able to answer yet again as Fox came around from the back of the net to notch his second goal of the period. Playing four-on-four after penalties on both sides, Kelly capitalized on the space in the center of the floor before firing in his third goal of the evening. The Knighthawks had a brief power play with little time remaining on the Albany penalty, and took advantage as Curtis Knight bounced one in. The Knighthawks quickly scored again as Fields faked out a FireWolves defender and leapt across the crease for his second goal. With less than a minute to play in the period, Knight scored again to bring the Knighthawks within a goal near the end of the third quarter.

The FireWolves ended a three-goal Knighthawks run after Kelly found Thomson who then dove across the body of Hartley for his third goal of the contest. After a save by Jamieson, he threw a long outlet pass to Reid who was all alone and beat Hartley for the second time to push the Albany lead back to three goals. Keeping up the pace, Rochester scored their first of the final quarter as Cattoni swept to the middle of the floor and found a shooting lane where he scored his fourth of the game. Albany was able to scoop up a rebound before Ethan Walker flipped a behind-the-back pass to Kelly who was at the doorstep of the crease to score his fourth on the night. On a delayed Albany penalty, Hoggarth sat in front of the crease and rolled one into the net to cut the FireWolves' lead to two goals with just under three minutes remaining in the game. Working quickly, Rochester got back within a goal as Knight buried his third of the game. In an effort to avoid a shot clock violation, Kelly threw one towards the cage that skipped past Hartley to put Albany up by two with 30 seconds to go. Rochester emptied the net for their final possession but were unable to score, as Albany snapped a 10-game losing streak with a 14-12 victory over the Knighthawks.

FOUR FIREWOLVES RECORD THREE OR MORE POINTS IN LOSS TO SWARM

The Albany FireWolves (3-13) were defeated the Georgia Swarm (8-8), 15-6, at the MVP Arena in Albany on Saturday evening. Georgia scored the game's first five goals and were able to hold onto the lead for the duration of the contest. Four different FireWolves players scored at least three points in the loss.

After multiple empty trips by both sides to open the game, Georgia struck first as Adam Wiedemann scooped up the ball in transition and ran the floor for the goal. With eight minutes to go in the period, the Swarm added another as Andrew Kew twisted his way in close. After Georgia secured an offensive rebound, Kew was found open on the opposite side of the floor before bouncing in his second of the quarter. Georgia kept the early momentum as Shayne Jackson found space in the center of the floor after catching a nifty pass from Kew to go up 4-0. With under three to go, the Swarm scored another Jackson muscled his way in close for the score.

Despite committing the game's first penalty, Albany was able to score their first goal shorthanded as Ethan Walker faked out a defender before going airborne in front of the net. Minutes later, Georgia scored their first of the new quarter after a shot bounced off Doug Jamieson before Jackson scooped it up right in front of the net and capped off his hat trick. Kew quickly completed his hat trick as he shot from deep and backspin on the ball rolled it across the line. The FireWolves were able to answer as Marshall Powless showed off his stickwork and scored from just outside the crease. Growing their lead, Lyle Thompson was on the receiving end of a pick-and-roll before finessing his way towards the goal for the score. With just over a minute remaining in the half, the Swarm added another as Thompson found Bryan Cole who buried one top shelf. With six on the floor, Albany was unable to score before the end of the half and Georgia carried a 9-2 lead into the break.

Georgia carried the momentum into the second half as Brendan Bomberry maneuvered his way in close for the goal. While already on a powerplay, Georgia gained a two-man advantage after a delayed Albany penalty and were able to take advantage as Kew bounced one past Jamieson's left side. Briefly playing four-on-four, Bomberry shook loose after setting a screen and Thompson found him at the doorstep for his second of the night. Despite being shorthanded, the Swarm added another as Ryan Launchbury was wide open down the floor and capped off the transition with a goal. Just as the Swarm player was leaving the penalty box, Powless rifled one towards the net that bounced off Brett Dobson before crossing the line for his second of the game. Albany quickly scored another as Connor Kelly came around a screen and sniped one over the right shoulder of Dobson.

The Swarm were able to score their first goal since Albany's goalie change as Launchbury was able to get just outside the crease and cap off the possession with his second goal of the night. Just past the midway point in the final quarter, Kew fired a cross to Launchbury who completed his hat trick from close. Albany quickly got the goal back as Brett Manney kicked a loose ball to John LaFontaine who then found a cutting John Piatelli for the score. With just under two minutes to go, Powless connected with Piatelli in the middle of the floor who went five-hole for his second goal of the game. Despite a late penalty on Albany, the Swarm were able to kill off the remaining clock and hold onto a 15-6 victory over the FireWolves.
