EXPANDING INTERNATIONAL HORIZONS

EXPANDING INTERNATIONAL HORIZONS

USL has long been a leader when it comes to international influence of players, clubs, and executives in North America. Given the organization's unique landscape of clubs from the youth to professional ranks, USL provides many opportunities for foreign clubs to develop affiliations and partnerships with its franchises.

Identifying talented players and creating new commercial opportunities is a priority for clubs around the world, and USL provides clubs the best platform to connect these opportunities with clubs that desire to have a presence in North America.

In 2008, USL embarked on an international development initiative to connect USL clubs with foreign counterparts. As part of this initiative, USL partnered with Beswicks Sports, the specialist sports division of the United Kingdom-based legal group Beswicks. As USL's representative in the UK to broker partnerships between British football clubs and USL franchises, Beswicks Sports has been able to open up new avenues for clubs from across the Atlantic to make new professional partnerships.

The partnership with Beswicks Sports paid immediate dividends for USL, formalizing affiliations with English clubs such as Burnley and Stoke City FC. In addition, Beswicks was integral to the hiring of former West Ham United player Anthony Hudson when he took the coaching reins at Real Maryland FC of the USL Second Division for the 2009 season.

More recently, Beswicks helped broker the deal that led to UK-based VisionPro Sports Institute's 2011 partnership with USL and the Brandon, Fla. Flames, resulting in the creation of a boys academy in Brandon and the announcement of new teams in USL PRO, the PDL, the W-League and the Super-20 League.

"The interest levels in USL and its various leagues have never been higher throughout Europe," said Gary Mellor, partner at Beswicks. "European clubs recognize that USL provides them with unequalled access to North American young talent as well as the opportunity to forge strategic partnerships and the commercial opportunities that follow."

ALEC PAPADAKIS – CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As Chief Executive Officer of USL, Papadakis serves as USL's top executive as well as an owner. Also the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Partner of NuRock Soccer Holdings, Papadakis has 35 years of domestic and international experience as a franchise attorney.

As a player in the North American Soccer League for the Atlanta Chiefs and the Boston Minutemen, Papadakis had a long, successful career in the United States at the collegiate and professional level, earning numerous accolades. He played in Atlanta for three seasons, the first two with the Chiefs and the third with the Apollos, appearing in 39 games. He finished his career with the Boston Minutemen in 1974. His teams captured conference regular season championships in 1971 and 1974.

Papadakis attended Hartwick College (New York) where he was a three-time First Team All-American. He received his law degree in 1976 at the University of Akron, where he also served as an assistant soccer coach.

TIM HOLT – PRESIDENT

Tim Holt joined USL in 1999 originally serving as the A-League & Super Y-League Operations Director. He added the responsibilities of overseeing the operations of all USL senior leagues in 2002 and was named Vice President in 2004. Holt became President following the acquisition of USL by NuRock Soccer Holdings in 2009.

Holt's numerous responsibilities include the day-to-day management of USL business operations, developing and implementing the strategic plan for all USL leagues, the supervision of compliance with league regulations and policies, franchise relations, personnel management and regular communication with the leadership of the US, Canada, Bermuda and Antigua & Barbuda Federations. During his period of leadership with USL, the organization has become the largest system of elite soccer leagues in North America.

Holt served on the US Soccer Federation (USSF) Board of Directors from 2003-06, and is currently Co-Chairman of the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup Committee. Holt also serves USSF as a member of its Professional Council and has been a member of its Credentials and Open Cup Disciplinary Committees. From 2005-09, he was the Men's Professional Representative on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Board of Directors. In 2006, Holt was named one of Soccer America's 'Rising Stars,' recognizing the top American soccer executives under the age of 35, and has an extensive network of relationships at all levels of American soccer.

A native of suburban Philadelphia and product of the respected FC DELCO youth club in eastern Pennsylvania, Holt is a member of the Radnor (PA) High School Soccer Hall of Fame and still ranks amongst the school's all-time top leading scorers. Holt graduated "With Distinction" from Penn State University with a BS in Management and went on to earn his Masters Degree in Sport Administration at Florida State University.

CHRIS ECONOMIDES - SENIOR DIRECTOR, USL PRO AND MISL

A member of the USL Hall of Fame as a Builder, the former co-owner and co-founder of both the Rochester Rhinos and Carolina RailHawks joined USL in November of 2008. He was a regular member of the USL-1 Executive Committee and helped guide the Rhinos to four league and Open Cup championships. His success helped earn recognition on Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal's Top 40 Under 40 list of sports executives in 1999 and the 2001 USL-1 Executive of the Year honor.

DAVID WAGNER - LEGAL COUNSEL & PRO LEAGUES OPERATIONS DIRECTOR

Wagner joined USL in June 2010 and works with Chris Economides on USL PRO and MISL operations while also overseeing the company's legal department, administering all of USL's franchise documents, contracts and trademarks. Wagner, who served as a league operations intern for USL in 2008, obtained his law degree in 2010 from Syracuse University College of Law. He received a master's in Media Management from Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications in 2010 and his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in 2007 from SUNY Geneseo.

USL PRO TEAM SERVICES STAFF

CASEY ARMSTRONG - DIRECTOR, CREATIVE SERVICES

Armstrong joined USL in March, 2010 after three years as a creative designer for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers. She manages and designs USL print and graphics projects while working with team marketing and communications representatives to provide enhanced support and guidance for all team creative projects. She has also developed style guides and templates for team use in operations, marketing and communications, and assists expansion franchises in brand creation. Prior to joining the Buccaneers Armstrong served as senior graphic designer for Westgate Resorts. A graduate of the University of Central Florida (Graphic Design), Armstrong founded Jet Set Designs in 2003.

ELIZABETH EASTMAN - PLAYER REGISTRAR & AGM COORDINATOR

A graduate of Sacred Heart University's John F. Welch College of Business (Fairfield, CT), Eastman joined the USL staff in 2011. She earned a Bachelor of Science in both Sport Management and Business Administration at Sacred Heart, and was a John F. Welch Scholar, Gold Medal recipient in Sport Management, and a member of the NCAA Division I women's soccer team and women's softball team. Eastman previously worked with the American Hockey League's Bridgeport Sound Tigers, the U.S. Soccer Federation's Referee Program, and Sacred Heart University's Athletics Department.

BRAD FREEMAN - CONTROLLER

Freeman joined USL as controller in 2011 and oversees all accounting, human resources and IT functions for the organization. After graduating from Florida State University, Freeman joined Vestal & Wiler in Orlando then later Deloitte & Touche in Tampa where he serviced clients in the manufacturing, real estate development, utilities, hospitality, and insurance industries. Freeman later became the Florida Controller for Anthony & Sylvan Pools, a national manufacturer of pools.

FRANCISCO MARCOS – FOUNDER & INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

One of the undisputed leaders in the growth of soccer in North America, Marcos played collegiately at Hartwick College, where he graduated in 1968. Marcos joined the Tampa Bay Rowdies in 1974 as director of public relations and director of soccer operations and development, and shifted to the NASL's Dallas Tornado in 1979, where he served as vice president of player personnel. In 1980 he joined the Calgary Boomers before returning to Tampa in 1981 as executive VP of the Rowdies.

Marcos' greatest soccer vision – a group of national leagues blanketing the United States – took off in 1986 with the birth of USL. In 2007 Marcos was honored with the U.S. Soccer Werner Fricker Builder Award, the greatest recognition bestowed by U.S. Soccer upon members. The award is presented annually to an individual who has worked tirelessly in furthering the interest of the sport of soccer without regard to personal recognition or advancement. Adding to his list of honors, Marcos was nominated for Induction into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame in 2011 and 2012.

PETER MELLOR – NATIONAL TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

A former professional goalkeeper and longtime member of the U.S. National Team coaching staff, Mellor became USL's first national technical director in February of 2010. A staff coach with the United States Soccer Federation since 1992, Mellor manages the technical aspects of USL's player development programs and assists USL teams in scouting, development and advancement of players. A professional goalkeeper for two decades, Mellor played 17 years in the top three tiers of English professional soccer with Manchester City, Burnley, Fulham, Hereford United and Portsmouth, as well as a stint playing in the NASL in 1981 for the Edmonton Drillers. He also served as the England U-23 National Team goalkeeper from 1969-70. Mellor also played for Fulham against West Ham in the prestigious 1975 FA Cup Final at Wembley stadium in London England.

Mellor's acclaim in the USA, however, is for his coaching. He joined the U.S. National Team staff in 1992 and became one of the foremost goalkeeping instructors in the United States. He has worked with every level of the US Men's National Team program and was an assistant and goalkeeping coach with the U17 residency program from 1999-2003, and was an assistant coach for the 2000 USA Men's Olympic Team which finished fourth in Australia. In 2003 Mellor then moved on to an assistant coach position with Real Salt Lake (MLS).

NICHOLAS MURRAY – COORDINATOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Murray joined USL in 2010 from The Tampa Tribune, where he spent eight years as both a freelance sports reporter and staff member. While there he served as the beat writer for the USSF Division 2-Pro League while also being the lead writer for prep soccer and an assistant editor. Murray has covered multiple Florida high school championship games, SYL North American Finals and Disney Soccer Showcases. He also covered the 2009 NCAA Division II Men's and Women's Final Four. Murray has contributed to ESPN HS, and had his work has appeared in the Newark Star-Ledger, the Daytona Beach News-Journal, the Austin American-Statesman, the Miami Herald, the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel and the Manchester Evening News (England).

JAY PREBLE - DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Preble joined USL as director of communications in 2010 after 13 years in a similar role with the Tampa Bay Lightning of the National Hockey League. He oversees the development of strategic communications plans for all USL leagues and teams as well as USL's team services plan to increase media relations efforts. He also serves as USL's main contact for national and international media. A 1992 graduate of the University of South Florida (Mass Communications/Public Relations), the South Florida native also previously worked as a sports writer for The Tampa Tribune and The Associated Press.

STEVEN SHORT - DIRECTOR, LEAGUE GROWTH & PARTNERSHIPS

Short joined USL in 2010 and is focused on driving USL's expansion into current and new markets. In addition to league growth, Short is also responsible for effectively partnering with external businesses in order to promote USL. A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Short previously served as a marketing assistant with multiple organizations including the University of Tennessee Athletic Department and Electronic Arts, and served as an event management intern with Disney Sports Attractions. He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee where he earned a Master of Science in Sport Management ('05) and a Bachelor of Science in Communications and Public Relations ('03).

SETH WITKOWICZ - DIRECTOR, NEW MEDIA

Witkowicz joined the USL staff in early June of 2008 and was named director, new media in 2010. In addition to managing the social media efforts of USL and its teams, Witkowicz oversees all broadcasting efforts for the league. A native of Lincoln, Nebraska, the University of Nebraska graduate completed his graduate studies at the University of Miami and St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Seward, Nebraska. He previously served a three-year stint as the director of communications with the American Council of Engineering Companies in Lincoln and had a two-year stop in Miami as a Public Relations Associate with the Miami-Dade County Health Department.

PLAYER & TEAM DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT STAFF

TONY WAITERS - TECHNICAL ADVISOR

Former Canadian National Team coach Tony Waiters joined USL as a technical advisor in 2010. One of the most respected coaches in North America, Waiters works directly with USL National Technical Director Peter Mellor to support the development of all USL leagues from the Super Y-League to USL PRO. Based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Waiters focuses mainly on using his wealth of coaching experience to promote and develop the USL pyramid in Canada while also supporting the growth of USL teams in the U.S. and the Caribbean.

Not only was Waiters the first Director of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America's Goalkeeping Institute, he remains a National Staff Coach for the NSCAA and U.S. Soccer. He also has served as an English FA Staff Coach, a Canadian Soccer Association Staff Coach, a coaching director at the Liverpool Youth Development Program, a member of the FIFA Panel of Instructors and a member of the CONCACAF Coaching Commission. He was inducted into the Canadian Soccer Hall of Fame as a builder in 2001.

Waiters is best known as the only coach to lead Canada to the World Cup Finals, accomplishing the feat in 1986. He also led the Vancouver Whitecaps to the 1979 title in the now-defunct North American Soccer League.

ABOUT THE U.S. SOCCER FEDERATION

As the governing body of soccer in all its forms in the United States, U.S. Soccer has played an integral part in charting the course for the sport in the USA for almost 100 years. In that time, the Federation's mission statement has been very simple and very clear: to make soccer, in all its forms, a preeminent sport in the United States and to continue the development of soccer at all recreational and competitive levels.

To that end, the sports exponential growth in the past two decades has been nothing short of remarkable. Multiple soccer-specific stadiums have opened their doors to resounding success, and new arenas around the country are currently being planned and built. The National Training Center in Carson, California is entering its seventh year of existence, and in 2007 the U.S. Soccer Development Academy kicked off with much fanfare at the state of the art facility.

The progress of soccer in the United States has been astounding and is all the more astonishing when one considers where the sport was a mere 20 years ago. In 1989, the U.S. Men's National Team hadn't played in a World Cup in 40 years and the U.S. Women's program was just four-years old. U.S. Soccer was playing games in small stadiums that were rarely filled to capacity. There were few games being televised (and none without commercials during play). There were no soccer-specific stadiums, and there were no high-level professional outdoor leagues of which to speak.

Since that time, the state of U.S. Soccer has evolved significantly. The U.S. MNT has played in six consecutive World Cups, and advanced to the quarterfinals at the 2002 event. U.S. Soccer is a world leader in women's soccer at every level, and the team has won two Women's World Cups, along with three Olympic Gold Medals. The United States has also hosted three World Cups with the support of its members and strong organizational abilities.

Coaching continues to get bigger in the United States, and with more classes being offered around the country, the number of licensed, well-educated trainers and managers is larger than ever. As soccer continues to grow, the education level amongst coaches has been tailored to match the expanding pool of talent in the United States, and in 2006 the U.S. Soccer offered its first ever Goalkeeper Coaching License.

In 2007, full-time officials were hired for the first time in the federation's history, and more programs are being planned as U.S. Soccer continues to set positive trends for referees in CONCACAF to help improve referee development across the spectrum of all grades and at all ages.

For more information on all U.S. soccer programs, visit the official organization website at ussoccer.com.

US OPEN CUP

Dating back to 1914, the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup is the oldest cup competition in United States soccer and is among the oldest in the world. Open to all affiliated amateur and professional teams in the United States, the annual U.S. Open Cup is a single-elimination tournament.

NATIONAL TEAMS

The U.S. Soccer Federation is charged with the responsibility of managing the senior and youth national teams that participate in official FIFA competitions.

FIFA WORLD CUP

In addition to the U.S. men competing in their sixth consecutive World Cup, the US Soccer Federation has played host to three FIFA World Cup events. The U.S. hosted the 1994 Men's World Cup and the FIFA Women's World Cup of 1999 and 2003.

The Dewar Cup is awarded to the tournament champion

Dating back to 1914, the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup is the oldest cup competition in United States soccer and is among the oldest in the world. Open to all affiliated amateur and professional teams in the United States, the annual U.S. Open Cup is a single-elimination tournament.

A total of 64 professional and amateur teams will compete in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup when it kicks off in May. The tournament will feature all 16 U.S.-based MLS clubs, the 10 U.S.-based USL PRO teams, six additional professional clubs, 16 qualifiers from the PDL and 16 amateur qualifiers.

Although the tournament proper, conducted by the USSF, only consists of 64 teams, qualifying for the event includes nearly 100 clubs total from United Soccer Leagues and Major League Soccer alone. The USASA's National Open tournament provides hundreds of other teams from around the country the opportunity to qualify for the honor of competing in the event.

The U.S. Open Cup is a single-elimination tournament, with games tied after regulation being decided in two 15-minute overtime halves. If neither team scores during the overtime period, the winner is decided on penalty kicks. The team that advances the furthest from each level except Division 1 earns a $10,000 cash prize. The runner-up takes home $50,000, while the champion collects $100,000. The winner also will have the team's name engraved on the historic Dewar Challenge Trophy, the oldest trophy in American team sports.

US OPEN CUP REVIEW

The Richmond Kickers carried the USL flag in the 2011 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, making their deepest run in the tournament since their victory in 1995 as they reached the semifinals while creating a new piece of history along the way.

Led by David Bulow, who finished the tournament as its top scorer with six goals, the Kickers became the first lower division team in the tournament's history to win a pair of road games against MLS opposition. After taking victories against USL PRO's Dayton Dutch Lions and Pittsburgh Riverhounds in the opening two rounds, Richmond went on the road and stunned the Columbus Crew 2-1, Matt Delic ate's goal with five minutes to play proving the game-winner.

Two weeks later in the quarterfinals, the Kickers did it against Sporting Kansas City, as second-half goals by Shaka Bangura and Bulow gave them a 2-0 victory. In addition to their second win on the road against MLS opposition, the Kickers also became the first visiting team to earn victory at SKC's LiveStrong Sporting Park, a venue where Sporting only lost twice in MLS play all season while finishing top of the Eastern Division regular season standings.

Richmond's run came to an end at the hands of the Chicago Fire, who claimed a 2-1 victory against Leigh Cowlishaw's side at Toyota Park. After falling behind 2-0 midway through the second half, William Yomby pulled a goal back for the Kickers, but while their rally came up short, the poise and quality of play they displayed throughout their run impressed all who saw them.

Elsewhere, USL PRO teams gave their MLS counterparts a run for their money, but were unable to find a way through into the later stages of the tournament. USL PRO champion Orlando City came close to forcing overtime against FC Dallas, only to see a stoppage time goal eliminate them 3-2, while the Los Angeles Blues fell 2-1 to eventual MLS Cup champions the Los Angeles Galaxy.

The PDL saw two teams reach the third round, with 2011 champion Kitsap Pumas giving the Seattle Sounders a test in their meeting at the Starfire Sports Complex. The Chicago Fire Premier, who saw a record 11 players selected in the MLS SuperDraft this past January, also made it to the third round before falling to Sporting Kansas City.

With the expansion of the Open Cup to 64 teams this season, allowing 16 members of the PDL and all 10 of USL PRO's U.S.-based teams to participate, the tournament appears set to take an even larger place in the U.S. Soccer community in the coming year and beyond.

2012 TEAMS

USL PRO

USL also features a full-time National Technical Director, Peter Mellor, to assist teams with player identification and to help create opportunities for player advancement both domestically and internationally. Mellor, a longtime U.S. Soccer Staff Coach, oversees the annual USL Men's Combine at IMG Academies in Bradenton, Florida, which has helped more than 150 players sign professional contracts with USL, MLS and international squads since its debut in 2006.

Recent beneficiaries of the event include rising star Tom Heinemann, who signed with the Charleston Battery following the 2008 Combine. Heinemann was named MVP of the 2010 USL-2 title game, finished the 2010 season in the USSF D2 League and is now a member of the Columbus Crew of MLS.

USL PRO, formed from the merger of USL's First and Second Divisions into a single league property prior to the 2011 season, was designed to help ensure the long-term stability of professional soccer in North America.

USL PRO is the strongest, best operated and most experienced North American men's professional soccer league below MLS, both on and off the field. Focused on franchise stability and longevity, USL PRO features 11 teams in 2012 and an unprecedented six teams with more than a decade of operational experience. The league is focused on aggressive but deliberate growth by adding teams fully capable of meeting USL and USSF standards, which are located in markets that further promote regional league play.

USL PRO is a national league featuring a predominantly regional competition model to build natural rivalries and reduce travel-related costs. The U.S. Soccer Federation-affiliated league benefits from the leadership of the dedicated and experienced professional staff at USL's Tampa headquarters as well as the developmental support of USL's proven and integrated system of leagues.

USL's professional staff includes not only experienced league administrators, but also a large staff of sports professionals to assist teams in the areas of franchise development, international partnerships, marketing, ticket sales, corporate sponsorships, communications, new media, broadcast production, web services and player registration.

Orlando City goalkeeper Sean Kelley wasn't expecting to play much of a role in the USL PRO Championship Game.

"In a game like that, if I were to have to come in, something would have had to go wrong," he said.

Something went wrong for Orlando City, with starting goalkeeper Miguel Gallardo being sent off just after the halftime break, but Kelley turned in an MVP performance as the Lions capped an outstanding season by defeating the Harrisburg City Islanders 3-2 in a penalty shootout after the two teams had played to a 2-2 draw through regulation and overtime.

"He comes in every day, trains so hard and at times it must be hard for him when he's behind Miguel," Orlando coach Adrian Heath said. "Tonight it was strange; I said to him before the penalties that I had a feeling he was going to be big."

Kelley saved the City Islanders' first two penalties in the shootout, denying Nelson Becerra and Jose Angulo with saves to his right, and the Lions held a 2-0 advantage after Lewis Neal and Yordany Alvarez both scored. But Harrisburg got back on even terms as J.T. Noone and Stephen Basso each scored and Orlando's Charlie Campbell and Luke Boden both skied their shots, leaving the teams tied 2-2 entering the final round of shots.

Harrisburg's Sainey Touray missed that shot wide left to open the fifth round, opening the door for Devorn Jorsling to give the Lions the championship, and he obliged, shooting low into the left corner of the net to send the majority of the crowd of 11,220 at the Florida Citrus Bowl into massive celebrations.

"I don't know if I've ever been in a game that crazy before," Lions midfielder Jamie Watson said. "It's an unbelievable feeling right now."

While both teams had chances in the first half - the best falling to Harrisburg's Brian Schofield, who shot over the crossbar from 15 yards after beating Orlando's offside trap - the game didn't come alive properly until the second half. Four minutes after the break Touray was played in down the left channel and was brought down outside the penalty area by Gallardo, who was shown a red card for preventing a goal-scoring opportunity.

That gave the City Islanders the upper hand, and they tried to take advantage with Touray proving a constant menace, knifing past his marker in the 62nd minute only for Kelley to smother his shot as he closed down on the attacker.

But while they were down to 10 men, Orlando continued to push men forward at every opportunity, taking the game to the City Islanders as the half wore on. Watson had a glorious opportunity in the 70th minute as he broke through on goal and rounded Harrisburg goalkeeper Chase Harrison, only for a heavy touch to allow defender Geoff Bloes to recover and clear to safety.

The Lions' pressure paid off in the 89th minute, though, when Lawrence Olum appeared to have given his side a dramatic victory after arriving late at the top of the penalty area to be found by a pass from Lewis Neal and rifling a shot home from 15 yards into the right side of the net.

But the drama was just beginning. Harrisburg threw everything forward in stoppage time, and off a third consecutive corner the City Islanders found their reward. Kelley came for the cross, but couldn't gather, and Noone was on hand to poke the ball home from six yards out with what proved to be the final kick of regulation.

Harrisburg then took the lead five minutes into overtime, Touray heading home a near-post corner from Jason Pelletier to give his side the lead. The City Islanders almost added to their lead in the 110th minute, with Angulo's header coming back off the post and being scrambled to safety by Orlando's defense.

Five minutes after Langley's header almost sealed the City Islanders' second USL Championship, the Lions gave themselves a chance at their first. A good ball into the penalty area found Dennis Chin, and he was brought down by Bloes, earning the defender a red card and Orlando a penalty kick and a chance to tie. Neal calmly slotted home from the spot to tie the game.

Either side could have won the game at the death, with Touray's header with a minute to go flashing just wide of Orlando's right post and Harrison saving brilliantly from Chin to deny the Lions, but Orlando wouldn't be denied in the shootout, with Kelley proving the hero. After a season that saw the side win both the regular season title and the league championship, the victory was a sweet one.

GENERAL INFORMATION

ROSTERS

USL PRO rosters may consist of a maximum of 26 players, with 18 designated for each game. Each team is permitted a maximum of seven (7) foreign players on its active game-day roster and on its master roster.

ROSTER FREEZE

USL PRO has a Roster Freeze Date after which no team may register any new players. For 2012, that date is July 20.

TRANSFER WINDOWS

From the 2011 season and until further notice, FIFA will not register player transfers that take place outside of the following transfer windows:

- January 15 through April 15 (primary window)
- July 15 through August 14 (secondary window)

AMATEUR PLAYER DEFINITION

An amateur player is defined by the following: A player who does not receive payment for playing soccer and who has signed an amateur registration form with U.S. Soccer or Canadian Soccer Association. Amateur players may be reimbursed for certain expenses as allowed by USSF/CSA/NCAA rules.

POINT SYSTEM

The standard FIFA (3-1-0) system awards three points for a regulation or overtime victory. In the case of a tie, each team will be awarded one point.

GAME CLOCK

All games are comprised of 90 minutes (two 45-minute halves). No overtime is utilized.

LAWS OF THE GAME

USL PRO adheres to all the Laws of the Game as dictated by FIFA, soccer's international governing body.

SUBSTITUTIONS

Five (5) substitutions are allowed per league game with no re-entry permitted.

STANDINGS TIEBREAKERS

The breaking of ties in the final league standings, playoffs and finals is accomplished by applying the following criteria, listed in order of importance:

The following two guidelines will be followed during the implementation of USL PRO tiebreakers for all ties involving three or more teams:

- 1) The tiebreaker will determine the winner first.
- 2) The tiebreaker will continue to be followed in order to determine the ranking of the remaining teams without restarting from the beginning.

- 1) Head-to-head record based on total points in league games
- 2) Total wins in league games
- 3) Goal difference in league games
- 4) Goals scored in league games
- 5) Total points within smallest grouping. If number of games is unequal, then point percentage will be used.

6) Ranking based on points earned against top four group finishers. This tiebreaker will not be used if four or fewer teams comprise the group. If number of games is unequal, then point percentage applies.

7) Point percentage outside/smallest division or conference in League games

8) Total points in all regular season and Open Cup Qualifying games combined. If number of games is unequal, then point percentage applies

9) FIFA Fair Play – Team with fewest disciplinary points in League games. (If number of games is unequal, points will be divided by games played to arrive at a common basis for comparison.)

10) Lottery conducted by USL at league office

Point Percentage: number of total points earned / maximum possible points (3 per game)

* Should more than two teams involved have played each other an UNEQUAL number of times, this tiebreaker will be skipped.

*Group: term used to describe the primary unit in which a team competes

*Point Percentage: number of total points earned / maximum possible points (3 per game)

SCHEDULES

Teams will once again play 24 games in the 2012 season with a maximum of four games played against any single opponent.

PLAYOFFS

The 2012 USL PRO Playoffs will include the top six finishers in the single-table format, with the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds receiving a first-round bye the weekend of August 24-26. The semifinals featuring the four remaining teams will be played the following weekend, with the 2012 USL PRO Championship set for the weekend of September 7-9. All playoff rounds feature a single-game knockout format.

NINE SELECTED FOR USL HALL OF FAME

MEN'S, WOMEN'S AND MISL WINGS CREATED

Nine men and women who have proven to be highly influential in North American soccer were chosen for induction into the United Soccer Leagues Hall of Fame in 2011. For the first time, the USL HOF was divided into three distinct wings to increase the recognition for those who have helped make USL a success through the years because of their tremendous efforts and personal sacrifices made on behalf of the sport of soccer in North America.

The USL Hall of Fame Class of 2011 was inducted at the USL Hall of Fame Banquet Presented by Demosphere on Friday, December 16, 2011 at the Hilton Clearwater Beach. Honorees were chosen through a vote of current Hall of Fame members and USL teams.

2011 USL MEN'S HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Builder – Kyle Krause, Des Moines Menace

Krause acquired majority ownership of the Menace in 1998 and created a dynamic, growing club that is one of the most successful soccer franchises in the country. He has expanded the youth side, essentially developing an entire program from beginner to professional. Average home game attendance hovers near 3,500 for the Menace, setting a PDL record in 2004. Krause's dedication can be seen by the continued success of PDL team and its players. The 2011 season marked the Menace's sixth trip to the US Open Cup and 11th to the playoffs. More than 50 Menace alums have gone on to careers in the ranks of USL PRO, MLS and other professional leagues.

Coach – David Irving, Wilmington Hammerheads

The face of the Wilmington franchise, Irving has led the Hammerheads to two championship games, winning the USL Second Division title in 2003, the same year that the Hammerheads reached the quarterfinals of the U.S. Open Cup after defeating Major League Soccer's FC Dallas 4-1 in the fourth round. The Englishman was also pivotal in securing the return of the Hammerheads to Wilmington after hiatus in 2010, upon which he then led the side to second place in the USL PRO regular season standings.

2011 USL WOMEN'S HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Builder – Tim Schweitzer, Northern Virginia Majestics

The longtime general manager of Northern Virginia FC has spearheaded the development of thousands of players during the past 13 years. Not only is Northern Virginia one of the top youth clubs in the country with teams competing for regional and national titles, but the club has operated the W-League's Majestics since 1999. Northern Virginia FC is a full-service club dedicated to the USL vision of North American soccer development.

Coach – Lee Horton, Charlotte Lady Eagles

As the only head coach in the history of the Lady Eagles, Horton has been a model of consistency through the past 10 seasons. With an overall record of 107 wins, 31 losses and 9 ties, Horton has guided the team to eight playoff appearances including a W-League championship (2001), two championship game defeats (2000 and 2002), as well as conference championships (2000, 2001, 2002, 2006). Horton is a member of the North Carolina Soccer Coaches Hall of Fame and has been the head boys and girls soccer coach at Charlotte Latin School for more than 20 years, winning 11 NC State Championships during that time.

Player – Florence Omagbemi, Hampton Roads Piranhas

Omagbemi was a key figure for the Hampton Roads Piranhas for seven seasons, helping the club capture the 2003 W-League Championship. Omagbemi appeared 76 times for the Piranhas as they won a pair of division titles in 2003 and 2004. Internationally, Omagbemi joined the Nigerian national team at age 16 and became captain at 17, playing at the 1991, 1995, 1999 and 2003 World Cups. She is Nigeria's most-capped player, and played in the 2000 Olympic Games in Australia. Omagbemi finished fourth in the voting for the top African women's player of the 20th Century by the Confederation of African Football.

Player – Christine Sinclair, Vancouver Breakers, Vancouver Whitecaps Women

The leading goal-scorer in the history of the Canadian Women's National Team, Sinclair played four seasons in the W-League for the Vancouver Breakers and the Vancouver Whitecaps Women. The dominant forward scored 23 goals and added 10 assists for the Whitecaps during her three-year spell with the club, and has been named the Canadian Soccer Association Women's Player of the Year each of the past six years (2005-2010), while also being nominated by FIFA for the World Player of the Year award five times.

2011 MISL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Builder – Edwin Hale Sr., Baltimore Blast

Edwin Hale Sr. has twice been the principal owner of the Baltimore Blast, first owning the club from 1989-92 before re-purchasing the club in 1998. During Hale's second stint, the Blast have become a league power, winning their first league championship in almost two decades in 2003. That victory triggered a remarkable run of success that saw the Blast win another five championships, the most recent coming in 2009. In addition to his work with the Blast, Hale has also been a respected member of the Baltimore business community, and is currently the CEO of Visit Baltimore, formerly the Baltimore Area Visitors and Convention Association.

Coach – Keith Tozer, Milwaukee Wave

Keith Tozer has become an indoor soccer icon as the coach of the Milwaukee Wave, a position he has held since 1992. A former player, Tozer began his coaching career with the Louisville Thunder in 1984, winning a championship in 1987. Since becoming the Wave's coach, Tozer has won five championships while appearing in another four finals, claiming the club's first title in six seasons with victory in the 2010-11 MISL Championship.

Player – Tatu, Dallas Sidekicks, Wichita Wings

Tatu was one of the most accomplished players in the MISL's history, scoring 857 goals during his 19-year career, the second most in indoor soccer history. A dominant force for the Dallas Sidekicks, with whom he won four championships, Tatu won the league MVP award six times. Later in his career, he also acted as the player/coach for the Sidekicks, winning Coach of the Year honors in the 2003-04 season, one season after his retirement from the field.

UMBRO – A LONG HISTORY WITH USL

Umbro's involvement with USL since 1996 will continue into 2012 as the two organizations continue a new partnership following the sale of USL by Nike.

Umbro was acquired by Nike at the beginning of 2008, and Nike maintained Umbro as its own unique identity and brand as it has done with other subsidiaries such as Converse, Cole Haan and Hurley.

Formerly a part owner of USL, Umbro had reaffirmed its commitment to United Soccer Leagues in 1999 and 2006 when it announced Umbro International, Ltd. had purchased an additional 30 percent of USISL, Inc. stock on both occasions. The apparel manufacturers had been involved with the ownership of USL since first acquiring partial ownership in 1996.

Umbro, one of the world's leading international brands of soccer uniforms, footwear, equipment and soccer-related apparel, is the proud sponsor and official equipment supplier of United Soccer Leagues.

Founded in 1924, Umbro built a strong reputation as supplier to the world's best soccer teams and leading grass roots sponsor of the game in the United States. Umbro and its double diamond logo are recognized on all seven continents, in the sport's largest arenas, which are home to the world's greatest soccer teams.

Umbro's vast knowledge of the equipment needs of soccer players, its commitment to excellence, and its dedication to producing the very best soccer products are major factors in the company's emergence as a complete soccer resource and one of the leading soccer apparel companies in the United States.

Utilizing four major hubs in the United States,

USL PARTNERSHIPS

United Soccer Leagues has outstanding partners in various categories which enhance the operations of its leagues and teams. The current partnership roster includes Prozone Sports, The Sport Source, Demosphere, Uni-Sport, T4 Soccer and Enterprise Rent-A-Car.

England, Brazil and the Far East (Hong Kong), the company is structured as a multi-national organization, a key to making an impact on a truly international sport.

Umbro's knowledge of what it takes to play soccer, along with its long association with the world's best players, has positively influenced the company's ability to produce high-performance soccer products.

Well-positioned as a technological leader, Umbro has also been highly successful in spearheading soccer performance fabrics for match play and training sessions. Umbro uniforms are built with superior moisture transportation qualities, making them equally comfortable in autumn weather, when most of the world plays soccer, to the hot, humid environments that surround the World Cup.

Umbro was the first company to take fabric made from recycled materials and put it on the professional playing field.

The name Umbro is derived from the original name of the business – Humphreys Brothers. In 1924, Harold and Wallace Humphreys started their company with $50 in capital, two sewing machines, a slot-knife cutter and a delivery motorcycle.

USL MAKING A DIFFERENCE KIDS KICKING CANCER

A cancer diagnosis for a child can translate into missing typical childhood experiences, such as playing soccer, that are often taken for granted. Due to treatment and other various factors, some children may find it challenging to participate in sports teams and athletic events with their friends and family. However, exercise and activity can lead to a healthier lifestyle for kids – physically and emotionally – and frequently aid childhood and adolescent cancer survivors in their development. USL has teamed up with Iris S. & Bert L. Wolstein's Kids Kicking Cancer program in an effort to provide children with this opportunity.

United Soccer Leagues recognizes and understands the importance of the outstanding work being done by Kids Kicking Cancer, and has chosen to offer its unwavering support to this much-needed program.

Although the initiative has expanded since its founding to include golf, tennis, basketball, and swimming, the Kids Kicking Cancer program began with a soccer clinic in 2006. To this point, UH-Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital has been the primary host of this annual soccer event in Cleveland for the past four years. With the support and reach of USL, which has teams in more than 100 markets, the Kids Kicking Cancer program will collaborate with USL clubs to expand the initiative across North America. The clinics at the local level will continue to serve the same purpose: encouraging cancer patients to be active and to recognize the health benefits of physical activity.

C A N C E R

ABOUT IRIS S. & BERT L. WOLSTEIN'S KIDS
KICKING CANCER PROGRAM

Iris S. & Bert L. Wolstein's Kids Kicking Cancer (<http://www.rainbowbabies.org/kkc>) program emerged from a generous $1 million gift from Iris S. Wolstein, in memory of her husband Bert L. Wolstein, and a tradition was born. It is the largest gift UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital (<http://www.rainbowbabies.org>) in Cleveland, Ohio has ever received to address physical fitness in chronically ill children. Kids Kicking Cancer allows UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital, in partnership with the University Hospitals Ireland Cancer Center, to offer a series of annual athletic skills clinics for children on and off treatment for cancer.

In addition to offering free soccer, golf, tennis, basketball and swimming clinics, Kids Kicking Cancer presents an annual 12-week exercise program to encourage physical activity and fitness at home year-round. Pediatric sports medicine experts and licensed physical therapists incorporate athletic conditioning; registered dietitians teach proper diet and nutrition; and skilled therapists lead group psychosocial support and lessons in self-esteem, confidence and self-awareness.
