CLUB FACTS & NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

4-0 loss vs. Detroit City

A set piece opened the scoring for Detroit City in the 23rd minute, as Devon Amoo-Mensah headed a Maxi Rodriguez free kick across Justin Garces' six-yard box. Captain Stephen Carroll toe-poked Amoo-Mensah's cross from close distance to take the 1-0 advantage for the visitors.

Rhys Williams gained possession of a loose ball on the right side of Atlanta's box, putting in a cross for Antoine Hoppenot to head past Garces and double Le Rouge's lead in the 33rd minute.

Detroit City made it 3-0 in the 42nd minute after Matt Lewis sent a ball up the right touchline, which Hoppenot flicked on for Pato Botello Faz with his backheel. Botello Faz ran into the box and converted the opportunity from six yards out with his right boot.

Jonantan Villal almost scored his first professional goal in the 60th minute, as the 16-year-old rattled the goal post with a curling effort from 20 yards out.

Substitute Michael Bryant scored Detroit City's fourth and final goal inside the Atlanta box, touching down a Deklan Wynne cross before finding the back of the net in the 78th minute.

Two Atlanta players would be sent off before the final whistle, Darwin Matheus for dissent in the 79th minute and Nigel Prince with a sliding challenge in the 86th.

BUILT BY ATLANTA

THE ACADEMY

Building for the future. Promoting from within. The Atlanta United Academy has been preparing young soccer players to move up within the Atlanta United system since its inception in 2016. In that time, eleven players have signed Homegrown contracts with the first team.

ATL UTD 2 continues to be a great stepping stone for several players from the Academy to the First Team. Recent examples include Tyler Wolff, George Campbell and Jackson Conway.

Last year, ATL UTD 2 featured one of its youngest starting XI average age ever at 19.6 years old against top USL Championship contender, Louisville City FC, which had an average age of 26.8 years old in the match. The youngest-ever starting XI for ATL UTD 2 was 19.4 years old in 2019 against North Carolina FC.
