International Call-Ups, Alumni on USMNT, and 2 Big Rivalries | Championship News & Notes, Week 3

It's international week, and both current and former USL Championship players will be on duty for World Cup Qualifying and exhibition contests ahead of the resumption of the Concacaf Nations League this summer.

Add to that two of the USL Championship's longest-standing rivalries in action this weekend, and there's plenty to keep an eye out for over the next five days. Here's a look ahead at what you should know, and an update on upcoming landmarks and the Week 3 Discipline Report.

NEWS AND NOTES

ANSWERING THE INTERNATIONAL CALL

Twenty-eight players from the USL Championship will represent their nations this week after being called up for 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifying, and international exhibitions at both the senior and U-20 international level in the upcoming two weeks.

Six players will feature in 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifying, with San Diego Loyal SC's Nikko Boxall already having made two appearances in two victories for New Zealand in the Oceania Football Confederation qualifying tournament in Qatar. Three players have also been called up to represent El Salvador in FC Tulsa's Joaquin Rivas and Ronaldo Rodriguez and El Paso Locomotive FC's Eric Calvillo, a USL Championship title-winner a season ago with Orange County SC.

A pair of players, Miami FC's Lamar Walker and Speedy Williams – the latter a three-time USL Championship title winner during his career – have also been called in by Jamaica.

Some of the USL Championship's top young talent will also be in action for the United States and Mexico U-20 Men's National Teams as they visit South America in preparation for the Concacaf Men's U-20 Championship in Honduras this June. El Paso Locomotive FC's Diego Luna – a finalist for the Championship's Young Player of the Year award a season ago – and Orange County SC's Kobi Henry – a 2021 USL Championship title winner – are with the U.S. squad, while the Las Vegas Lights FC duo of Antonio Leone and Christian Torres are with Mexico's squad.

LAYING THE FOUNDATION FOR THE USMNT, CANMNT

The United States Men’s National Team will enter its final three games of FIFA 2022 World Cup Qualifying this weekend, facing contests against Mexico, Panama and Costa Rica in a bid to claim one of the three automatic berths for the 2022 FIFA World Cup in Qatar in November. Among the squad named by Head Coach Gregg Berhalter are 14 players that competed in either the USL Championship, USL League One and USL League Two at the start of their careers. That group combined for more than 250 combined appearances and almost 20,000 minutes in the USL’s senior divisions.

In addition to alumni on the United States' squad, the USL Championship, League One and League Two also count nine former players in the squad for Canada's Men's National Team this week, including 2018 USL Championship Goalkeeper of the Year Maxime Crepeau, and 2017 USL Championship title winner Mark-Anthony Kaye. Those nine players have accounted for 308 appearances across the three leagues – with goalkeeper Dayne St. Clair having played in each of League Two, League One and the Championship – and almost 24,000 minutes of action across the three leagues.

TWO NOTABLE RIVALRIES RENEW THIS WEEKEND

Following the drama of the Derby del Camino Real this past weekend that saw New Mexico United take a 2-1 win against El Paso Locomotive FC, ending Locomotive FC's 23-game home regular season undefeated streak in the process, two more of the USL Championship's top rivalries are on tap this weekend. Louisville City FC plays host to Indy Eleven in the Louisville Indianapolis Proximity Association Football Contest – or LIPAFc for short on Saturday night at Lynn Family Stadium – while Rio Grande Valley FC hosts San Antonio FC in the South Texas Derby on Sunday night at H-E-B Park.

In the LIPAFc, for the first time in the series since Indy joined the Championship the Boys in Blue are the reigning holders of the crown. A season ago, Indy took the regular season series with a 2-1-1 record and in the process won on the road in Louisville for the first time and broke a 10-game undefeated streak LouCity had established since the 2018 season. Louisville City FC now holds a 7-3-5 record in the series across the Championship's regular season and playoffs going into Saturday's game.

For the South Texas Derby, the Toros and San Antonio have squared off against each other more than any other opponent in their Championship histories, with SAFC holding an 8-6-7 edge in the series after claiming the first postseason meeting between the sides with a 3-1 victory in the Western Conference Semifinals of the 2021 USL Championship Playoffs. The regular season series last year ended all square, with each team taking one victory apiece and two games ending drawn.

LOS DOS' AGUIRRE COMES CLOSE TO CHANCES CREATED RECORD

The LA Galaxy II's Daniel Aguirre delivered an outstanding individual performance in the LA Galaxy II's 2-1 defeat by San Antonio FC on Saturday night, including recording 10 chances created in the attacking third of the field. Since the USL Championship partnered with Opta prior to the 2017 season, it marked only the fourth time a player had recorded double-digit chances created in a single game, and the second time it had been accomplished by a Galaxy II player.

Most Chances Created in Single USL Championship Game

Jorge Hernandez, LA Galaxy II – 11 at Las Vegas Lights FC, 8-27-21

Zach Mathers, Tacoma Defiance – 11 vs. Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC, 9-16-17

Daniel Aguirre, LA Galaxy II – 10 vs. San Antonio FC, 3-19-22

Aodhan Quinn, Orange County SC – 10 vs. Portland Timbers 2, 8-1-18

DANE KELLY PASSES 15,000 REGULAR SEASON MINUTES

After recording his 100th regular season in his debut for Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC, Dane Kelly surpassed 15,000 regular season minutes in his home debut for the Hounds. The Jamaican became the 12th player to surpass 15,000 regular season minutes in the league, and also moved within one appearance of tying legendary Colombian forward Jorge Herrera for third place in the Championship's all-time regular season appearances list.

Following the retirements of George Davis IV and Taylor Mueller at the end of the 2021 season, Kelly is the active leader in regular-season appearances in the USL Championship on 230 and is only 13 appearances from passing Davis for the league's all-time lead. Should Kelly appear in 32 of 34 regular season contests this season, he would become the first player to reach 250 regular-season appearances in the Championship's history.
