LAST TIME OUT

2-2 draw vs. The Miami FC

Miami opened the scoring just before the halftime break. After a freekick was taken quickly, Christian Sorto lobbed the ball into the area from the right flank and found the head of an unmarked Callum Chapman-Page for the first goal of the night.

ATL UTD 2 equalized off a moment of brilliance from Matheus. Raimar cut inside from the left and played a through ball to the Venezuelan, whose first touch opened up the Miami defense and Matheus was able to slot the ball past Jake McGuire.

Miami went ahead again in the 70th minute as captain Paco Craig darted through the midfield before playing a through ball to Kyle Murphy in between two Atlanta defenders. Murphy, Miami's leading goalscorer this season, finessed a strike into the bottom left corner of Vicente Reyes' goal to regain the lead for the hosts.

In the 81st minute, Atlanta found the equalizer once again with some help from the Miami defense. Midfielder Joshua Perez, in an attempt to make a headed clearance from a corner kick, headed the ball into his own net ensuring the point for ATL UTD 2.

BUILT BY ATLANTA

THE ACADEMY

Building for the future. Promoting from within. The Atlanta United Academy has been preparing young soccer players to move up within the Atlanta United system since its inception in 2016. In that time, eleven players have signed Homegrown contracts with the first team.

ATL UTD 2 continues to be a great stepping stone for several players from the Academy to the First Team. Recent examples include Tyler Wolff, George Campbell and Jackson Conway.

Last year, ATL UTD 2 featured one of its youngest starting XI average age ever at 19.6 years old against top USL Championship contender, Louisville City FC, which had an average age of 26.8 years old in the match. The youngest-ever starting XI for ATL UTD 2 was 19.4 years old in 2019 against North Carolina FC.
