LAST MEETING

New York fell to Indy, 2-0, on Saturday, May 21, at Michael A. Carroll Stadium.

Indy took the lead in the 30th minute off a throw-in from the far side of the field that took a few deflections off New York players and found its way into the back of the net.

They doubled their advantage right before the half. Noah Powder sent a long lead pass up the field to Jonas Fjeldberg, who made a run from the halfway line, collected the ball on a breakaway, and sent a shot into the net.

Derrek Chan made his first professional start in the match in his second appearance of the season. He recorded three saves in net.

Indy will visit MSU Soccer Park for the first time since April 28, 2019, where it fell to Red Bulls II, 2-1, on a game-winner from Tom Barlow in the second half.

SSERWADDA SIGNS WITH FIRST TEAM

In two seasons with Red Bulls II, Sserwadda made 14 appearances, 12 starts, and logged 1,069 minutes. He also was named to the USL Championship Team of the Week in just his fourth appearance for the club last season.

TWO MINUTES FROM HISTORY

Red Bulls Academy midfielder Sam Williams is two minutes away from 2,000 over his two seasons playing with Red Bulls II. FACING THE FORMER SQUAD

Jeremy Rafanello will face his former club, Indy Eleven, for the second time this season. The Delran, New Jersey native made nine appearances, logged 310 minutes, and scored his first professional goal with Indy in 2020.

A WORTHY DEBUT

Nathan Worth made his professional debut on Saturday, June 25, against El Paso Locomotive FC. At 15 years and 120 days old, he became the youngest player in USL Championship to appear in a match this season. Worth is the second-youngest player to appear in a match in club history (Serge Ngoma, 15 years and 77 days), and the youngest-ever to start a match. In league history, he is the 11th youngest to appear in a match and third-youngest to start.

RAFA'S STRONG SECOND YEAR

Jeremy Rafanello has started 15 of a possible 16 matches that he has appeared in this season, totaling 1,370 minutes, which ranks second on the team. He also ranks second on the team in goals with two and has also tallied an assist.

FIRST TEAM CALL-UPS

Steven Sserwadda, Juan Castillo, and O'Vonte Mullings have all spent time on various short-term loans with the first team over the past month. Sserwadda was with the team for their matches against Toronto FC and New York City FC. Castillo was loaned for both matches against Charlotte, and Mullings was loaned for the U.S. Open Cup match against Charlotte.

50 APPEARANCES

Jeremy Rafanello made his 50th USL Championship appearance in New York's last match on May 27. The midfielder made 39 with Red Bulls II, nine with Indy Eleven, and two with Philadelphia Union II. He is also approaching 5,000 career minutes, needing 1,400 to reach that milestone.
