NEWS AND NOTES

HOUNDS' FORBES SET FOR 200TH REGULAR SEASON APPEARANCE

Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC's Kenardo Forbes is on course to make his 200th regular season appearance in the USL Championship on Saturday when his side visits FC Tulsa at ONEOK Field, which would see the Jamaican midfielder become the 13th player to reach the landmark in league history and second this season following Louisville City FC's Paolo DelPiccolo.

Forbes has been one of the all-time greats in the Championship, earning All-League selection five times in the past six seasons. The 33-year-old's numbers since the USL Championship partnered with Opta prior to the 2017 season have highlighted both his durability and his capability as a two-way player, sitting as both the Championship's all-time assist leader (46) while amassing significant numbers elsewhere. Here's a look at the key categories for Forbes since 2017, and his overall rank over the past five-plus regular seasons.

Both El Salvador and Grenada were drawn in a group with the United States in League A, with the two countries each having featured current Championship players in recent selections. Elsewhere in League A, the Championship is likely to be represented in the squads of Jamaica, which was drawn alongside Mexico and Suriname.

USL ACADEMY PLAYERS GET OPEN CUP OPPORTUNITIES

The past midweek of Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup action saw USL Championship sides look to offer opportunities to some of their up-and-coming USL Academy signings, with a total of 20 players currently signed to USL Academy contracts this season seeing action.

Leading the way was San Antonio FC, which featured five outfield players in its starting lineup in a 3-1 victory against D'Feeters Kicks SC, including 17-year-old midfielder Henrik Sakshaug, who notched a pair of goals in the victory for his first in the professional ranks.

TAMPA BAY'S SEBASTIAN GUENZATTI HAS BEEN MIAMI FC NEMESIS

Since the start of the 2019 USL Championship season, no player has recorded more goals than the Tampa Bay Rowdies' Sebastian Guenzatti with 51 tallies. For the Rowdies' captain, there have been a few teams that have been favorites to face in that span, including Tampa Bay's in-state rival Miami FC, against which he has recorded six goals in seven meetings between the sides since Miami joined the Championship for the 2020 season.

Guenzatti has averaged a goal every 94 minutes against Miami ahead of the two teams meeting this Saturday at Al Lang Stadium, while having also scored six times against the Charleston Battery and Atlanta United 2 in Rowdies colors. That's not the best goal/minutes ratio against a single team since the start of the 2017 season, however. Overall, there have been 27 instances of a player having recorded at least five goals in a minimum of five appearances that have averaged better than a goal every 100 minutes, including Louisville City FC's Cameron Lancaster getting two entries in the top five over that span.

USL Championship's Best Strike Rate vs. Individual Opponents (2017-present, min. 5 goals/5 games)

1. Amando Moreno vs. Real Monarchs SLC – 5 goals, 51.4 Mins/Goal
2. Cameron Lancaster vs. Memphis 901 FC – 7 goals, 53.3 Mins/Goal
3. Lindo Mfeka vs. OKC Energy FC – 6 goals, 54.5 Mins/Goal
4. Cameron Lancaster vs. Sporting Kansas City II – 8 goals, 58.9 Mins/Goal
5. Daniel Rios vs. Charlotte Independence – 7 goals, 60.3 Mins/Goal

USMNT TEAMMATES LANDON DONOVAN, CONOR CASEY MEET ON SIDELINES

Since the appointment of Preki as the first Head Coach in Sacramento Republic FC history in 2014, there have been a total of 10 former United States Men's National Team players lead clubs from the sidelines in the Championship's history. On Saturday, we'll get the second instance where two former players that were selected for an official FIFA tournament alongside one another for the USMNT will square off.

Conor Casey's Charleston Battery and Landon Donovan's San Diego Loyal SC will meet on Saturday at Torero Stadium with the two having previously been teammates for the United States at the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup in South Africa. Both players featured in the United States' famous 2-0 victory against Spain in the Semifinals of the tournament, with Donovan in the starting lineup and Casey coming on as a second-half substitute.

Donovan and SD Loyal had previously squared off with Steve Cherundolo and Las Vegas Lights FC a season ago, marking the first instance of this scenario in the Championship. Cherundolo and Donovan competed alongside each other at the 2006 and 2010 FIFA World Cup. The lone prior instance of United States teammates that competed together at a FIFA event coaching at the same time in the league was in 2016 when John Harkes led FC Cincinnati and Steve Trittschuh led Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC. Due to the lack of cross-conference competition at that time, the 1990 FIFA World Cup teammates did not face one another as head coaches.
