Years With Riverhounds: 4

Hometown: Lexington, South Carolina

College Attended: Clemson University and College of Charleston

Previous Team(s): Cleveland City Stars, Maritzburg United (south Africa), Miami FC

Hunter returns for his fourth season as the Riverhounds star goalkeeper. Gilstrap, the USL-2 Goalkeeper of the Year in 2010, helped the Riverhounds produce the stingiest defense in the USL-2 during the 2010 campaign, by allowing the fewest goals in the League. A veteran of the USL Division, Gilstrap joins the Riverhounds coming from the Cleveland City Stars. Gilstrap was drafted with the 13th overall pick in the 2006 USL-1 Draft by Miami FC. He then transferred to the Cleveland City Stars in 2007, appearing in 20 regular season games in two seasons with the team, leading them to the USL Second Division championship in 2008. In 2009, Gilstrap finished among the top seven goalkeepers in four statistical categories, including saves and shutouts.

#2 Rob Vincent

Rob Vincent

Position: Midfielder

Date of Birth: 10-26-90

Hometown: Liverpool, England

College: University of Charleston (West Virginia)

Previous Teams: West Virginia Chaos

Entering his rookie campaign as a professional, Rob comes to the Riverhounds by way of the University of Charleston (West Virginia). During his collegiate career, Vincent was honored as a Division II All-American all four years. While at Charleston, Vincent played for the Carolina Dynamos and West Virginia Chaos of the USL Premier Development League.

#3 Anthony Vazquez

Position: Defender

Nickname(s): Vaz

Date of Birth: 03-12-89

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Belford, New Jersey

College Attended: St. John's/ Monmouth University

Previous Team(s): Puerto Rico Islanders FC

A member of the Puerto Rican Men's National Team in the 2010 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers in March of 2008, Anthony brings international experience to the Riverhounds back line. After finishing his collegiate career at Monmouth University, Vazquez signed with the Puerto Rico Islanders of the North American Soccer League for the 2012 season and received quality minutes in his rookie campaign, including ten starts as he became a defensive anchor for the NASL Club.

#4 Nikola Katic

Position: Defender

Nickname(s): Tupi/ Bam Bam/ Rocky

Date of Birth: 06-01-86

Years With Riverhounds: 5

Hometown: Makarska, Croatia

College Attended: Illinois Central College, Western Illinois University

Previous Team(s): Chicago Fire PDL

Niko, the physical and hard-nosed Croatian defender, will enter his fifth professional season, all with the Riverhounds organization. His dedication to the club, specifically within the Riverhounds Academy, has made him a fan-favorite in Pittsburgh. Katic will be looked at to provide tenacity in the back. Before coming to the Riverhounds, Katic was top defender for the Springfield Demize and he also played for the Chicago Fire, both in the USL Premier Developmental League. He came to the United States from Croatia to attend Western Illinois University, where he majored in marketing and was a two-year starter and captain. In 2006, Katic was honored as n NJCAA All-American after he scored 5 goals and had 8 assists. In college, Katic was selected to the All-Summit League Second Team, named to the All-Summit League All-Tournament Team and to the NSCAA/Adidas All-Midwest Regional Team.

#5 Sterling Flunder

Position: Defender

Date of Birth: 02-14-86

Years With Riverhounds: 4

Hometown: Bothell, Washington

College Attended: Marshall Unvierstiy

Sterling, a shutdown left back, returns for his fourth professional season with the Riverhounds. On record Flunder has 2 goals in 2 seasons with the Riverhounds. Flunder is determined to create quality opportunities from the back line and increase his offensive production in 2013 system. Flunder has dedicated a great deal of time during the off-season to increase his fitness and develop his attacking abilities. During his rookie season, Sterling played a major role in helping to make the Riverhounds defense the stingiest in the entire USL 2nd Division. Sterling's competitive nature, athleticism and ability to attack will make him a dynamic defender this year.

#6 Richard Costanzo

Position: Midfielder/Defender

Nickname(s): Ricardo, Richboy

Date of Birth: 02-17-86

Years With Riverhounds: 2

Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

College Attended: University of Maryland

Previous Team(s): Rochester Rhinos, Minnesota Thunder

Richie has four years of professional playing under his belt. As voted on by the team as this year's captain, Costanzo starts the 2013 campaign in a defensive role as opposed to his midfield role of a year ago. Prior to the Riverhounds, Costanzo had a two-year stint with the Rochester Rhinos, where he appeared in 39 matches in bedded four goals helping the Rhinos to two regular-season titles. His rookie campaign was spent with the Minnesota Thunder in 2009, with having 20 appearances. In the 2012 season, the Hounds used Costanzo's tenacious style of play in the center of the field which allowed him to have creativity and record 2 goals and 1 assist. Costanzo went to Thomas Jefferson High School where he led the team to three consecutive state championship games.

#7 Darren Amoo

Position: Forward

Nickname(s): Dazza

Date of Birth: 06-02-88

Years With Riverhounds: 2

Hometown: Accra (Ghana)

College Attended: Liberty University

Darren is entering his second professional season with the Riverhounds. He added a different dynamic to the Riverhounds attack in the 2012 season with 3 goals and 1 assist. A dominant left-footed player, Amoo is extremely creative, strong and has deceptive pace that will cause problems to most defenders. Amoo played collegiately at Liberty University in Virginia. In his three seasons at Liberty, Amoo recorded 37 goals in 58 games and earned Big South honors each year.

#8 Michael Green

Position: Defender

Date of Birth: 12-25-89

Years With Riverhounds: 2

Hometown: Strongsville, Ohio

College Attended: University of New Mexico

Michael enters his second year with the Riverhounds. A three-year starter for the University of New Mexico, Green played in every game (81) during his career as central midfielder for the Lobos. Green looks to control the tempo of the game by maintaining possession and changing the point of attack. Green recorded 8 goals and 14 assists in his career with the Lobos. Green will look to help anchor the Hounds defense in his new centerback role for the 2013 season.

#9 Stefan Lundberg

Position: Midfielder

Date of Birth: 04-12-89

Years With Riverhounds: 3

Hometown: Lower Burrell, Pennsylvania

College Attended: Duquesne University

Returning for his third season with the Riverhounds, Stefan possesses the ability to attack with speed. From the flank, Lundberg's pace and agility cause problems for the defense. With this dynamic, he can either beat his marker to the end line or turn inside drive towards the mouth of the goal. Lundberg joined the Riverhounds after an impressive collegiate career at Duquesne University. While playing for the Dukes, Lundberg garnered honors, which included Atlantic-10 All-Rookie Team, Atlantic-10 Second Team All-Conference, and Atlantic-10 First Team All-Conference. Lundberg grew up in Lower Burrell, PA where he attended Kiski Area High School.

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Airdrie, Scotland

Previous Team(s): Arminia Bielefeld, Agovv Apeldoorn, Wiedenbruck

Kevin joins the Riverhounds this season after playing several years of soccer in Europe. Having played for the amateur club VfL Theesen in Bielefeld, he switched to the Arminia Bielefeld youth team in summer 2003. In 2009, Kerr signed a professional contract with Arminia Bielefeld where he remained for two years. In March 2010, Kerr made his debut in the 2. Fußball-Bundesliga during the Ostwestfalen derby. He signed for AGOVV Apeldoorn of Netherlands' Eerste Divisie in January 2012 after his contract in Bielefeld had expired the previous summer. Kerr then returned to Germany and played 19 matches and scored 4 goals for SC Wiedenbrück of the Fußball-Regionalliga West.

#11 Felix "Alfonso" Motagalvan

Position: Midfielder

Nickname(s): Fonz, Al, Alfie

Date of Birth: 02-11-87

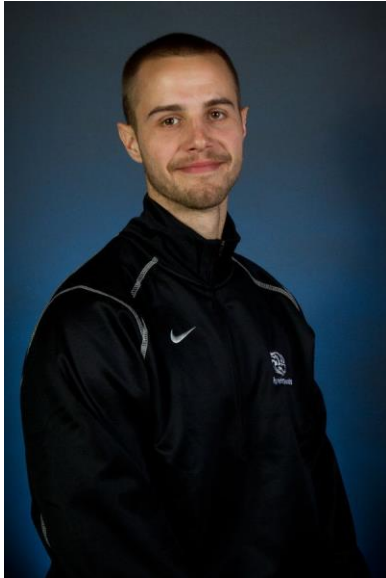

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Gilroy, California

College Attended: UCSB – University of California Santa Barbara

Previous Team(s): Rochester Rhino, Ft. Lauderdale Strikers

A crafty and composed central midfielder, Alfonso comes to Pittsburgh with three years of professional experience under his belt. His most recent stop was in Florida, with the Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the North American Soccer League. Prior to his one-year stint with the Strikers, Motagalvan played two seasons for the Riverhound's long-time regional nemesis, the Rochester Rhinos. Motagalvan has been in off-season training with Chivas USA of Major League Soccer, and arrived hungry to win a championship.

#12 Michael Seth

Position: Forward/Midfielder

Date of Birth: 09-20-87

Years With Riverhounds: 4

Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

College Attended: Penn State Behrend

An attacking player for the Riverhounds, Mike returns for his fourth season with the Club. Seth brings determination to the field every time the whistle blows. Seth's ability to attack on the ground and through the air creates an uncomfortable environment for his marker. Seth, a home-grown talent and Baldwin High School graduate, began his career with the Riverhounds as a development player in 2009, and has worked hard to earn a spot on the Hounds 2013 Team.

#13 Louis Rolko

Position: Defender

Date of Birth: 09-07-84

Years With Riverhounds: 4

Hometown: Hudson, Ohio

College Attended: Baldwin-Wallace College

Previous Team(s): Charleston Battery

Louie returns for his fourth season with the Riverhounds at centerback. Rolko has been an integral part of the Riverhounds, both on and off the field during his tenure. Rolko joined the Riverhounds after playing two seasons with the Charleston Battery in the USL First Division from 2008-2009. Rolko played for the Sioux Falls Spitfire in the fourth division Premier Development League during the off-season while he attended Baldwin-Wallace.

#14 Seth C'deBaca

Position: Midfielder

Date of Birth: 04-28-88

Years With Riverhounds: 2

Hometown: Albuquerque, New Mexico

College Attended: Georgetown University

Seth returns for a second season with the Riverhounds, previously playing for D.C. United U-23 Team. A crafty player on top of the ball, C'deBaca can play as an outside or attacking midfielder. Playing collegiately for Georgetown University, C'deBaca converted 7 goals and dished out 21 assists, while appearing in 76 games for the Hoyas.

#15 Andrew Marshall

Position: Defender

Nickname(s): Marsh, Marshy

Date of Birth: 01-17-84

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Ellicott City, Maryland

College Attended: Towson University

Previous Team(s): Harrisburg City Islanders, Crystal Palace
Baltimore

Coming to Pittsburgh for his eighth professional season, Marshall will impact the Riverhounds back four with his ball-winning ability, composure, and veteran savvy. Spending the last two seasons with the Riverhounds intra-state rival, the Harrisburg City Islanders, Marshall played a key role in the Islanders back-to-back USL PRO playoff berths, highlighted by the 2011 USL PRO Championship marathon loss to the Orlando City Lions in penalty kicks.

#16 Ryan Kinne

Position: Midfielder/Foward

Date of Birth: 08-31-89

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Naugatuck, Connecticut

College Attended: Monmouth University

Previous Team(s): New England Revolution

A young and shifty attacking minded midfielder, Ryan was drafted 42nd overall in the 2011 MLS Super Draft by the New England Revolution. Following a year with the Revolution, Kinne signed with Connecticut FC Azul of the USL Premier Development League and rescored 8 goals in 2012 season. Kinne starred for Monmouth University from 2007-2010 and Hermann Trophy semi-finalist in both his Junior and Senior seasons.

#17 Jhonny Arteaga

Position: Forward

Date of Birth: 11-24-86

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Stamford, Connecticut

College Attended: Dominican College

Previous Team(s): NY Red Bulls, FC NY, LKS Lomza

Jhonny returns to the USL PRO this season after spending the 2012 season with the New York Red Bulls of Major League Soccer. During his brief stint with the Red Bulls, Arteaga gained valuable experience playing, training and learning from four world-renown strikers in Australian National player Tim Cahill, French National player Thierry Henry, and United States players Juan Agudelo and Kenny Cooper.

#18 Jose Angulo

Position: Forward

Date of Birth: 01-13-88

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Barranquilla, Colombia

Previous Team(s): NY Red Bulls, FC, Newark Ironbound Express Team, Central Jersey Spartans, Harrisburg City Islanders

Jose comes to the Riverhounds with valuable MLS experience after playing for the New York Red Bulls last season. Prior to his time with the Red Bulls, the New Jersey native decided to go professional after high school, having a brief stint in Europe. Returning to the U.S. in 2009, Angulo played for the Newark Ironbound Express Team in the USL Premier Development League. In 2010, Angulo returned to New Jersey, where he played for the Central Jersey Spartans, scoring 10 goals. Signing his first professional contract back in 2011 with the Riverhounds long-time in-state rivals, Harrisburg City Islanders, Angulo led the team in goals with nine in 26 matches. The Riverhounds are very excited to see what Angulo brings to the Club this season.

Position: Defender/Midfielder

Nickname(s): Kut

Date of Birth: 09-05-81

Years With Riverhounds: 8

Hometown: Freehold, NJ

College Attended: Duquesne University

Previous Team(s): Charleston Battery

Returning for his 10th professional season, Jason will rotate between defense and midfield this season for the Hounds, depending on the needs of the team. Kutney adds speed and versatility to the Riverhounds and will be instrumental in helping to create dangerous situations in the attacking third. Kutney joined the Hounds in 2006 after spending the 2 previous seasons with the Charleston Battery of the United Soccer Leagues' 1st Division. He returned to the Riverhounds in 2008 after the team's hiatus year, not only as a player, but also as part of the new ownership group that has been leading professional soccer into the future of Pittsburgh. In the off-season, Kutney has been instrumental in the development of the Riverhounds new home, Highmark Stadium.

#20 Matthew Dallman

Position: Midfielder

Date of Birth: 03-09-85

Years With Riverhounds: 2

Hometown: Portland, Oregon

College Attended: University of Portland

Previous Team(s): IMG Academy, UNIV. Portland, FC Nordsjaelland, Arminia Bielefeld, Sportfreunde siegen

Entering his eighth professional season, Matt signed for his second year with the Riverhounds. Prior to joining the Hounds, Dallman played at Arminia Bielfeld where he made 31 appearances and scored eight goals for their second team. In 2009, he moved to Sportfreunde Siegen and spent two and a half seasons with the club. He returned to the United States and was invited into training camp and made several appearances with Chivas USA.

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Rahway, New Jersey

College Attended: Villanova University

Previous Team(s): Seattle Sounders FC

Mike was drafted 27th overall in the 2010 MLS SuperDraft by the Seattle Sounders FC. During his time in Seattle, Seamon recorded 20 appearances and played a role in the Sounders 2010 and 2011 US Open Cup Championship campaigns. A physical and strong midfielder, Seamon will step into one of the most talented central midfields the Riverhounds have ever seen.

#23 Daniel Holowaty

Position: Forward

Nickname(s): "Dah"

Date of Birth: 08-26-89

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Strongsville, Ohio

College Attended: Rochester Institute of Technology

Previous Team(s): Dayton Dutch Lions

Daniel enters his first season with the Riverhounds after spending the 2012 season playing for the Dayton Dutch Lions. Holowaty attended Rochester Institute of Technology, where he led the team. He was named the RIT Male Athlete of the Week twice and was an All-Liberty League first team selection. Holowaty become one of only a few players in RIT's history to sign a professional contract.

#24 Ryan Hulings

Position: Goalkeeper

Date of Birth: 07-19-91

Years With Riverhounds: 1

Hometown: Dayton, Ohio

College Attended: Baldwin Wallace University

Ryan joins the Riverhounds after playing collegiately at Baldwin Wallace University. Ryan enjoyed a solid soccer career thus far, as one of the top goalies in the OAC and Great Lakes Region. Hulings recorded 169 careers saves, playing in a total of 47 games, and 11 shutouts while at Baldwin Wallace.
