MATCH PREVIEW

VS

6.4.22

7:00 PM CDT | MADISON, WI

Forward Madison will welcome FC Tucson for a match on Saturday, June 4th, 2022. The match will start at 7:00 pm CT at Breese Stevens Field. The two clubs faced off earlier this season where the squads managed to draw 1-1 in Tucson, Arizona. In the match, Christian Enriquez gave the Flamingos the lead with a goal in the 54th minute.

Forward Madison heads into Saturday's match after drawing 1-1 against Central Valley Fuego FC on May 28th. Jeremiah Streng earned Mingo of the Match honors as he scored a goal off a free kick to give the Flamingos the lead in the 82'. Looking ahead, Forward Madison will welcome Greenville Triumph SC to Breese Stevens Field on Saturday, June 11th, 2022.

Tucson enters Saturday's match following a 1-0 win over South Georgia Tormenta FC. After taking on Forward Madison this upcoming Saturday, FC Tucson will head home to host a match against Union Omaha on June 11th.

Coaches and USL League One 2022 Records

Forward Madison FC (1-3-4)

Head Coach: Matt Glaeser

FC Tucson (2-4-1)

Head Coach: Jon Pearlman

Key Players to Watch:

Forward Madison

Derek Gebhard: Since returning from injury, Gebhard has been on a tear. The striker has improved his passing accuracy significantly and is currently completing 84.4% of his passes. Gebhard also sits fourth on the team in tackles with nine. Expect the 26-year-old to help lead the FMFC attack while still contributing on defense.

Key Match Up

FMFC Strikers vs Tucson Strikers:

The key match up for this contest is the Forward Madison strikers against the FC Tucson strikers. In the first matchup between these clubs this season, FC Tucson controlled the possession and managed to get more shots on goal. Expect coach Matt Glaeser to improve his team's offensive strategy to ensure his squad can record quality shots on goal against Tucson. If the Flamingos can continue to push the counterattack with Mikey Maldonado and Matheus Cassini, FMFC should have no problem getting shots on the Tucson goalkeeper.

FC Tucson has struggled offensively recently, as they currently sit last in the league in shots and they're tied in second-to-last for goals scored. In their last match against FMFC, Tucson benefited from being a man-up thanks to a Cryus Rad red card, but they still struggled to produce offense. Expect Tucson to make some changes to their attack to ensure they can record more quality chances.

Keys to the Match

1. Limit Mental Lapses: The main key for Forward Madison heading into this match against Tucson is that they need to limit the amount of mistakes made. In the last match against Tucson, FMFC gave up a late goal to allow Tucson to draw. If the Flamingos can limit their mental lapses, they should have no problem taking and holding onto a lead on Saturday.
2. Finish Strong: Tucson has struggled getting shots on goal all season, as they sit last in the league in shots. If FMFC can gain some early momentum against Tucson they'll ideally gain the confidence they need to close out the match strongly and go into the next match with momentum. Expect FMFC to put a major emphasis on finishing strong, after allowing Tucson to claw their way back for a draw in the last match.
