Forward Madison FC stays at home to prepare for a match against North Carolina FC on Saturday, September 17th at 5:00 pm CT. The USL League One match will kick off at Breese Stevens Field, in Madison, Wisconsin. The last time the 'Mingos took on North Carolina, on August 24th, the match resulted in a 0-0 draw.

The Flamingos will play their second consecutive match at home following a 2-5 loss to the Chattanooga Red Wolves SC on September 10th. Mele Temguia scored his first goal of the season against Chattanooga, while Mikey Maldonado tallied a goal and earned USL League One Team of the Week Honors. Next up for the 'Gos, the squad will take on Central Valley Fuego FC on Wednesday, September 21st at 9:30 pm CT. North Carolina heads to Wisconsin after a 4-1 loss to the Hailstorm on September 3rd. Looking ahead for NCFC, they'll travel to Arizona to take on FC Tucson on September 20th.

Coaches and USL League One 2022 Records:

Forward Madison FC (7-11-7)

Head Coach: Matt Glaeser

North Carolina FC (6-5-12)

Head Coach: John Bradford

Key Players to Watch:

Raiko Arozarena: Arozarena has had some of his best matches of the season against North Carolina FC. The Cuban goalie has recorded a clean sheet and allowed only two goals in two matches against NCFC. Coming off a rough game against Chattanooga, the 25-year-old is almost certainly going to bounce back with a strong performance against one of the worst offensive teams in the league.

Alann Torres: The 18-year-old has been solid in the midfield since Alvin Jones went down with a hamstring injury. Torres holds the fifth best passing accuracy on the team (88%), while he has also contributed a lot defensively recently (18 tackles and five clearances on the year). Expect the Pink and Blue midfielder to see a key role creating chances on the counter while ultimately providing defensive solidity for the 'Mingos.

Cyrus Rad: With Eric Leonard ruled out and Mitch Osmond questionable for Saturday's match against NCFC, Rad will be taking on an important role on the Flamingos' backline. As the only starter expected to play on Saturday, Rad will probably have a focus on shutting down North Carolina's top striker, Garrett McLaughlin. Expect Rad to continue to contribute heavily on offense, even though he'll likely be the best 'Mingo defender on the backline Saturday.

Key Match Up:

Forward Madison FC Backline vs. North Carolina FC Backline

The key match up for this contest is the Forward Madison FC backline of Mitch Osmond, Cyrus Rad, Mele Temguia, and Cesar Murillo Jr. versus the North Carolina FC backline of Jordan Skelton, Gustavo Fernandes, Christian Lue Young, and Max Flick. The last two matches between these backlines have both been very close, as both squads have combined to allow a total of three goals in the prior two matches. This match might be difficult for the Forward Madison backline as they'll be without Eric Leonard and Mitch Osmond is considered questionable. If Mitch Osmond doesn't end up playing, Cyrus Rad will likely stay at left back, while Mele Temguia will probably play center back with Cesar Murillo Jr. at right back. If Osmond does end up playing, he'll play right back with Temguia in the middle and Rad on the left side. While the injuries are a concern for the Flamingos, they are going up against one of the worst offensive teams in the league. North Carolina FC is currently tied in second-to-last with only 28 goals scored on the year. Whether or not Osmond plays, the Forward Madison backline will need to play aggressively in order to shut down North Carolina. The other side of this matchup features a North Carolina FC backline that has allowed the second-most number of goals on the season (41). North Carolina's backline is entering Saturday's match following a brutal 4-1 loss at the hands of Northern Colorado. Their backline will look to bounce back against Forward Madison after playing strongly defensively in the matches leading up to the Hailstorm match. If NCFC hopes to win against the Flamingos they'll need to shut down the FMFC strikers and prevent quick counter attacks as that is how Forward Madison has scored a majority of its goals this season. Expect this matchup between backlines to be a good one!

Keys to the Match:

Record Quality Set Pieces - Forward Madison struggled from set pieces in the last match against North Carolina FC. The Flamingos recorded eight first half corner kicks and couldn't log many quality chances off those set pieces. After recording a set piece goal against Chattanooga, Forward Madison will need to continue to work on its set piece opportunities to ensure they can record quality chances this time against NCFC.

Grab An Early Lead - Forward Madison has played a lot better this season when scoring first against opponents, especially when at home. If the FMFC strikers can tally a goal or two in the first half, that should give the 'Mingos enough confidence to continue to score and defend their own goal adequately. Expect coach Matt Glaeser to start the match with his best strikers on the pitch in hopes of gaining momentum for his club early in the contest.

Previous and Next Match:

Forward Madison battles North Carolina on Saturday following a 2-5 loss to Chattanooga on September 10th. Looking ahead, the Flamingos will hit the road to take on Central Valley Fuego FC on Wednesday, September 21st.

North Carolina heads to Breese to face off with the 'Mingos after losing 4-1 to the Hailstorm. After they take on FMFC, NCFC will travel West for a match against FC Tucson on September 20th.
