ABOUT PHOENIX RISING FC

Phoenix Rising FC is coming off a 2-0 loss against Oakland Roots SC last weekend. It has been a difficult year for the club that typically prides itself in being one of the best in the league. Normally a fiery offense that most defenses need to worry about, Phoenix comes in as the second-to-last club in the Western Conference standings. It has lost four of its last five matches while being outscored 9-4 during that stretch.

LOOKING AHEAD AT THE MATCH

SD Loyal is back home after nearly three weeks as its quest to clinch a spot in the 2022 USL Championship playoffs continues. Coach Landon Donovan's team needs a win to secure a spot in the postseason for the second consecutive year. The club is coming off its third-straight loss, a 1-0 defeat at Western Conference leader San Antonio FC last weekend. Despite solid performances on both ends of the field, SD Loyal was unable to find the net with a late rally. SD Loyal is looking to get back to its winning ways against Phoenix Rising FC, a team in which the club has developed an intense rivalry with. Donovan's team comes into the match in second place in the Western Conference, while Phoenix sits second to last in the standings but is still not out of the playoff picture. SD Loyal beat Phoenix 3-2 the last time the teams met in the desert on March 26. Saturday's match is the first of five remaining regular season contests for Donovan's team, including three on the road (Sept. 24 at Las Vegas Lights FC; Oct. 1 at Orange County SC; Oct. 15 at Sacramento Republic FC) and two at home (Sept. 17 vs. Phoenix Rising FC; Oct. 9 vs. New Mexico United).

LAST TIME THEY MET

In the first matchup between the clubs this season, SD Loyal went into the desert and beat Phoenix 3-2 with goals by Evan Conway, Kyle Vassell and Alejandro Guido. Phoenix made it a close match with goals by James Musa and Luis Seijas, but it was Guido's 76th minute score that proved to be the difference maker. Guido's first goal of the 2022 USL Championship season was not only the game-winner but it also broke Phoenix's 22-match unbeaten home streak. The club hadn't lost at home match since a 3-2 win by SD Loyal on Sept. 19, 2020. Guido's score was one for the highlight reels. The Chula Vista native blasted a right-footed shot after finding a window of space. He dribbled up field before defenders closed in and fired his shot, blasting it into the left wall of the Phoenix net past goalkeeper Ben Lundt.

ABOUT SD LOYAL

SD Loyal is in its third season after becoming an expansion and playing in its inaugural season in the USL Championship in 2020. It is coming off its first ever playoff appearance, a 2-0 loss against San Antonio FC in the first round. It was SD Loyal's first season playing more than 20 games with a revamped schedule that included 32 matches, mostly against teams in its geographical region. SD Loyal finished third in the Pacific Division with a 14-12-6 record and 48 points in a season that had several milestones.

Its first season in 2020 was a turbulent one for the club due the COVID-19 pandemic. It got to play its inaugural game in front of a sold-out home crowd then competition came to a halt in March. The league revamped the schedule and resumed play in July. SD Loyal went on to a 6-5-5 record under first-year coach Landon Donovan, finishing in fourth place in the Group B standings.

It finished the season with a forfeit in its regular season finale against Phoenix Rising FC after SD Loyal players walked off the pitch after a homophobic slur was used against one of its players before halftime. SD Loyal was in position to make a push for the playoffs before the forfeit. It was the second forfeit by SD Loyal in 2020. Donovan's team also forfeit a match against L.A. Galaxy II after a racial slur was used against one of its players.

Launched on June 19, 2019, San Diego Loyal is one of the newest members of USL Championship Western Conference. San Diego Loyal plays for America's Finest City and is led by some of the best in sport. The Club is led by Chairman Andrew Vassiliadis, who is the youngest principal owner in USL Championship. Team operations are led by President Ricardo Campos. The Executive Vice President of Soccer Operations Landon Donovan, one of the most decorated soccer players in the U.S., leads the technical side as both EVP and Team Manager. San Diego Loyal is built on four core pillars – Completion, Commitment, Connection, Camaraderie. San Diego Loyal holds training camps at the Chula Vista Elite Athlete Training Center.

Home matches are played at Torero Stadium located on the University of San Diego campus. It has hosted numerous important soccer events including the U.S. Women's National team and MLS clubs LA Galaxy, Chivas USA and Club Tijuana. It's also the temporary home to National Women's Soccer League's expansion team San Diego Wave FC.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- SD Loyal is coming off a 1-0 loss at San Antonio FC last weekend, its third-consecutive loss for the first time this season

- With a 16W-9L-4D record and 52 points after 29 matches played, SD Loyal is 11 points behind first place San Antonio FC (20W-5L-3D, 63 points), who has clinched a playoff spot.

The Spanish goalkeeper comes from Levante UD of La Liga. He is coming off a season at Mallorca of the Spanish second division where he appeared in one match after being sent there on loan. He has played for a handful of teams in that division but has had La Liga experience with Levante since 2017. Vegas became the SD Loyal starting goalkeeper at the start of the 2022 season. He quickly displayed his global experience, helping SD Loyal to its best start in franchise history. Prior to coming to San Diego, Vegas made his La Liga debut in May 2018, keeping a clean sheet in a 4-2 away loss against Celta de Vigo. He was loaned to second division club Deportivo La Coruña for a year after spending the campaign as a third-choice behind Oier Olazábal and Aitor Fernández in July 2019.

San Diego Loyal SC signed goalkeeper Duran Ferree on Sept. 14, 2022. The San Diego native made club history as the first local product to climb the SD Loyal professional pathway, and the youngest-ever signing. Ferree first joined the inaugural Loyal Select team on April 22, 2021. After a standout season with Loyal Select, Ferree signed a USL Academy contract on Jan. 28, ahead of the 2022 USL Championship season. Training every day with the first team, Ferree continued to reach new heights and saw his first inclusion in the SD Loyal 18-man roster on April 30, 2022 at Tampa Bay Rowdies.

Martin returns for his third season with SD Loyal. The Fresno, Calif. native has continued to be a force on the flanks for Donovan's squad. Tallying one goal and three assists in 2021, Martin uses his speed and physicality to help in the attack. Martin was named to the league's Team of the Week in September 2021 and was also part of the first XI for the team's first ever post season match. Martin was also a consistent starter in the inaugural season for SD Loyal, working the left side of coach Landon Donovan's three-man defensive backline. He has quickly become a dominant force on the field.

He played in 17 games and started in two in 2021, but when he was on the field it was quality work from the North Carolina native. He was the fastest American to earn 100 caps and played for the U.S. in three FIFA World Cups. His individual awards include the 1999 FIFA U-17 World Championship Golden Ball Award, FIFA's Best Young Player of the 2002 World Cup, the CONCACAF Gold Cup MVP in 2013, a Gold Cup Best XI selection four times and U.S. Soccer Athlete of the Year a record four times.
