IXI NEWS & NOTES

- ★ With a pair of losses to Pittsburgh last season, Indy Eleven let the tie in the all-time regular season series slip away. Indy now trails in the series with a 3W-5L-2D mark, although it has drawn even at 2-2-1 in games played in the Circle City. Pittsburgh gained the upper hand in 2022 with a pair of wins exactly one month apart, starting on July 6 with a 1-0 win in the Steel City and concluding with a 2-0 victory at Carroll Stadium on August 6.
- ★ As a sign of the tightness of the series, nine of the 11 all-time meetings in official competitions have been either draws or games decided by one goal. In addition, five of the 11 matches have seen the result shift late with either an equalizing (1) or go-ahead goal (4) scored past the 75th minute.
- ★ Indy Eleven has one familiar face to the Riverhounds in the person of defender Robby Dambrot. Indiana's Team traded for the defender from Akron, Ohio, last August 2, just days prior to the two sides' meeting at Carroll Stadium. Prior to joining the Boys in Blue, Dambrot scored one goal in five appearances during his lone season in Pittsburgh in 2022.
- ★ Forward Solomon Asante became the fourth member of the Boys in Blue to earn a USL Championship Team of the Week distinction on Tuesday. The Ghanaian earned a "bench" nod to the Week 7 TotW following his goal and assist against Monterey Bay F.C. last weekend. "Solo" is the fourth player to earn a Team of the Week recognition so far in 2023, joining Yannik Oettl (Week 1), Bryam Rebellon (Week 3), and Adrian Diz Pe (Week 3 - bench).
