Under his guidance, LAFC has won the 2022 MLS Cup, two Supporters' Shield trophies (2019, 2022), and became the first team in MLS history to defeat three Liga MX teams in the 2020 Scotiabank Concacaf Champions League en route to an appearance in the CCL Final. Under Thorrington's guidance, LAFC leads MLS in wins, points, and goals scored since joining the league in 2018, while also setting a league-record +48 goal differential in 2019 when the club also tied an MLS record with 85 goals scored.

Originally born in Johannesburg, South Africa before being raised in Los Angeles, Thorrington enjoyed a 17-year playing career that included spells in England, Germany, and Major League Soccer. Thorrington spent time with European clubs Manchester United FC, Bayer Leverkusen, and Huddersfield Town before embarking on a career in MLS with the Chicago Fire, Vancouver Whitecaps FC, and D.C. A finalist for the 2022 MLS Coach of the Year award, Cherundolo was just the second head coach in MLS history to win the Supporters' Shield as a first-year manager in the league, while leading the team to 21 regular season wins, which are the most-ever for a first-year head coach in MLS.

One of the most decorated players in the history of the U.S. Men's National Team, Cherundolo spent more than 15 years playing in Germany's Bundesliga, before beginning a coaching career in Germany that saw him spend time as a Bundesliga first-team assistant, youth head coach and a position in the German National Team youth development program.

Cherundolo played every minute at right back for the U.S. in the 2010 World Cup.

Known as "The Mayor of Hannover" for his service as the long-time captain for Hannover 96, Cherundolo began his coaching career developing talent in the Hannover youth system from 2014-2018 and served as the head coach for the U-17 squad. Cherundolo also worked as an assistant for Hannover's first team.

He joined the coaching staff of Bundesliga team VfB Stuttgart as an assistant in 2018, and then moved to coach in the German National Team youth system. Ahead of the 2021 USL Championship season, Cherundolo was named the head coach of LAFC's affiliate, the Las Vegas Lights.

LOS ANGELES FOOTBALL CLUB. FOUNDATION

MISSION:

The LAFC Foundation furthers our Club's mission of uniting the world's city through the world's game, bringing joy to people, and being a force for good in our community by supporting critical programs and bringing the indomitable Black & Gold spirit wherever we go.

WORK IN ACTION:

The LAFC Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization, is the social impact arm of the Los Angeles Football Club. Established in 2018, we're dedicated to supporting local organizations, partners, and infrastructure that not only bring the world's game to more young people, but also brings them the life skills and resources they need to be successful off the pitch. Our superpower is our ability to leverage our LAFC brand and our passionate community of fans and stakeholders. Bringing the indomitable Black & Gold spirit wherever we go helps make our good work even better.

We do this in many ways.

- Safe Places for Play

In partnership with MLS and local public schools, we're honored to have installed 25 futsal courts at schools in underserved communities across the greater-LA area over the last 4 years. Foundation staff visit principals, physical education teachers, and after school staff at each site, and are always inspired to see how these courts are universally utilized as a space for learning, play, and wellness.

- Sports Programming & Success off the Field

While we continue to grow our portfolio of courts, we also focus on making sure the courts are being utilized. We work with our partners to develop high quality, complementary programming for the students and neighborhoods at each court. Finally, using our futsal sites as launching pads, we're also bringing additional programs to address COVID-19 related learning loss, improve health and wellness outcomes, and provide social emotional development tools that will serve our participants for years to come.

By supporting the programming and infrastructure that allow young people to access our favorite game, we provide more than fun and physical exercise – it's a pathway to success beyond the pitch, building fundamental life skills and friendships along the way.

In addition, we're proud to be members of the Alliance, a joint Diversity Equity and Inclusion initiative led by LA84 in partnership with all 11 LA professional sports franchises. Together we look to address racial injustice and issues uniquely facing communities of color.

To date, we've had the privilege to positively impact over 30,000 youth in the Los Angeles area. We are excited to watch this number grow exponentially in the years to come – and couldn't do any of it without you.

A LOOK BACK AT A HISTORICAL 2022

On January 3, 2022 – history changed for the Black & Gold. Outside of fans heading back to Banc of California Stadium in a full sense of normalcy, LAFC's General Manager & Co-President John Thornington welcomed the 2022 season with the introduction of Steve Cherundolo, the Club's second manager in franchise history.

The Black & Gold started strong, going unbeaten in their first five games, tripling the goal count on opponents. Three goals came off the foot of former Golden Boot Winner Carlos Vela, who opened Week 1 as the MLS Player of the Week following a hat-trick performance against the Colorado Rapids.

LAFC only saw one loss in mid-April enroute to a 10-game winning streak, halted by a heated 2-1 match with LA Galaxy in the season's first edition of El Trafico.

Over the next 12 matches heading into the summer transfer window, the Black & Gold would ignite a second winning-streak, capturing 23 points to retain the top seed of the Western Conference for 16-consecutive weeks.

However, it was July of the 2022 season – where history was made again. LAFC shook the soccer world, where within two weeks of each other, two global football icons, Giorgio Chiellini and Gareth Bale, signed to don the Black & Gold. On July 17, 2022, both took the field to make their MLS debut in a 2-1 at Nashville SC, part of another seven-game winning streak spanning through August 20, 2022 with a dominating 19-5 goal differential.

In between their third winning-streak of 2022, LAFC hailed three players to the MLS All-Star Game on Aug. 10, 2022, where Vela, Ilie Sanchez and Diego Palacios took the pitch together against Liga MX in St. Paul, Minn. Vela scored in the opening minutes of the match, leading the MLS All-Star team to victory.

Returning from the league break, LAFC sealed a victory in Wayne Rooney's opening stretch as the DC United manager, before hitting the only skid of the season with three consecutive western conference losses in late August. The Black & Gold closed out the last quarter of regular-season play unbeaten seven-of-nine matches, including a dramatic 2-1 finish at Portland to secure the Club's second Supporters' Shield in franchise history.

The Club's standing boated Head Coach Manager Steve Cherundolo to a MLS Coach of the Year Nomination and positioned Cristian Arango as a MLS MVP finalist.

Entering the postseason as the top-ranked Club in MLS, LAFC awaited an opponent from Round 1 play that paved way to another El Trafico, hosted at Banc of California Stadium. Meeting for the second time in the Western Conference Semifinal, the heated rivalry boasted five yellow cards. But the dramatics in the 3-2 LAFC victory saw Bouanga's MLS brace equalized by the Galaxy, before Cristian Arango sealed the victory at the 90'+3 mark of the match to send LAFC to host the Conference Final.

Hosting the Western Conference Final for the second time in Club history, LAFC welcomed Austin FC to Southern California, who offered the Black & Gold two of their nine losses in 2022. In front of a 22,000 sold-out crowd, LAFC opened the game firing away with a Cifuentes shot ricocheted of the post within the first 15' and Vela creating a close-chance in the box for Bouanga just minutes after. But a key cornerkick in the 29th minute saw Vela connecting with Arango to open the score column against Austin. Scoring chances flared with Austin goalkeeper Brad Stuver getting the best from Murillo finding Vela on a break to the box and Cifuentes squared up one-on-one to close the half. In the 61', Vela nailed a cornerkick to the box ricocheted off Austin, where the own-goal lifted LAFC 2-0. In the 80', a fortunate bounce of an Austin pass fell to the feet of Mahala Opoku that stamped LAFC's path to the MLS Cup in a 3-0 victory.

In a celebrity-studded scene, including the likes of Justin Bieber and Colin Hanks, LAFC hosted the Philadelphia Union on November 5, 2022 as the No.1 seeds from each conference battled for MLS Cup. Kellyn Acosta opened up the score sheet off a set-piece early in the 28' taking a 1-0 lead after the half. Setting the stage for the second half, the Union equalized in the 59', where a three-minute scoring spree in the 83' saw an exchange of goals to end regular-play level at 2-2. With extra time found shots galore and Gareth Bale entering his first MLS postseason match in the 97', a fastbreak nearly 10 minutes saw LAFC goalkeeper sacrificing position resulting in a red card, among a broken leg, where the man-down vulnerable Black & Gold would up an assuming game-winning goal in the 124' of extra time.

However in the 128', MLS history would be made again. Marking as the latest score in MLS postseason history, Gareth Bale headed in a cornerkick that is still reverberating within the soccer world that sent LAFC into penalty kicks to determine a victor.

With John McCarthy replacing the ejected Crepeau, the Union were held scoreless by a defiant goalkeeper facing his former team upon the biggest stage. Having blocked two shots and LAFC found the back of the net, Ilie Sanchez blasted a shot past MLS Goalkeeper of the Year Andre Blake to seal the Club's first MLS Cup in franchise history.

While season accolades include Carlos Vela representing on the MLS Best XI, LAFC closed the historical season with Cherundolo becoming the first manager in MLS history to win the Supporters' Shield and MLS Cup as a first-year head coach.

Los Angeles Football Club 4 – Seattle Sounders 1

LAFc controlled much of Monday night's Round of 16 match against the Seattle Sounders, securing a 4-1 win behind Diego Rossi's brace as the Uruguayan extended his place atop the race for the Golden Boot presented by Audi.

Rossi got the scoring underway in the 14th minute, giving LAFc a 1-0 lead from the penalty spot. LAFc then doubled their advantage in the 39th minute through Latif Blessing, when the Ghanaian midfielder's curling shot deflected off Shane O'Neill's arm.

The Sounders clawed one back in the 75th minute via Will Bruin, but LAFc started to pull away in the 82nd minute, as Rossi capitalized on an Arreaga turnover to easily make it 3-1. Brian Rodriguez then added a fourth in the 89th minute, cutting onto his left foot and finishing back across goal.

Orlando City 1 (5) – Los Angeles Football Club 1 (4)

The Black & Gold were held without a shot on goal through 60 minutes, and then scored on their first shot of the game for the 1-0 lead.

The breakthrough arrived three minutes after Orlando had a golden opportunity of their own, when goalkeeper Kenneth Vermeer saved Nani's penalty kick in the 57th minute. The chance was granted when LAFc left back Diego Palacios tripped up Orlando right back Ruan on a slide tackle.

Looking set for a tournament exit, Orlando finally found their equalizer in the 90th minute through former-LAFC left back Joao Moutinho. He rose highest on a Nani corner kick, heading home at the back post to make it 1-1.

Orlando City made all five of their penalty kicks in the shootout while. Jordan Harvey rattled his attempt off the crossbar and Nani scored the clincher, deciding matters after a 1-1 draw in regulation time.
