Media Information

Press Credentials

- Media representatives should direct all requests to Cory Walton, Senior Associate Sports Information Director.
- Due to the limited number of seats available on press row, priority is given to daily newspapers, major magazines and electronic media in the geographic areas of the competing teams. Internet sites, other than the official sites of the two participating teams, requesting credentials should contact the Duke Sports Information Department regarding its policy.
- Duke reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

Photo Credentials

- Due to limited space on the baseline and the inability to create a double row for photographers, virtually no freelance photographers are allowed to shoot during the season.
- There are permanent strobe lights in Cameron Indoor Stadium, thus installation by any other media agency is very limited.

Radio Credentials

- Passes for non-broadcasting radio stations will be allotted on a first-come, first-serve basis and will be limited to stations with full-time sports directors.
- If a radio network is requesting a stringer to cover the game, the request needs to be made by the network, not the individual.
- Radio spotters and statisticians are available for a fee, but the Duke Sports Information Department must be notified at least 10 days in advance.
- Radio stringers who are requesting live, cell phone interviews following a game need to contact Cory Walton, Senior Associate Sports Information Director. These requests will be handled if a player has completed interviews in the open locker room with the media in attendance. If a radio stringer goes directly to a player or a coach, he or she may be asked to leave the locker room area.

Parking

- Media parking at Cameron Indoor Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made well in advance of game day.
- The media parking lot is located in the Blue Zone off Wannamaker Drive. Visiting media should access the media parking lot off Duke University Road and proceed to the Blue Zone lots located closest to the East Gate of Wallace Wade Stadium.

Media Will Call / Media Entrance

- The media will call / media entrance is located on the North side of Cameron Indoor Stadium (Krzyzewskiville / Morton Plaza). All media should enter the building at the media entrance.
- Media will call opens two hours prior to the scheduled tip-off time.

Locker Room Policy

- The Duke locker room operates under an equal access policy designed for easy coverage of the basketball program.
- For both home and road games, the Duke locker room will be open to working media after an approximate 10-minute "cooling off" period. At least one full-time staff member of the Duke Sports Information Department will be present at all times to help with any requests.
- Mike Krzyzewski will address the media following each game at a specified location. At home, the postgame press conference will take place in the Bill Brill Media Room located in the northeast corner of Cameron Indoor Stadium.
- Still photography is not permitted in the Duke locker room unless approved in advance by Cory Walton, Senior Associate Sports Information Director.

Interview Procedures

- Student-Athletes All interviews with Duke basketball student-athletes must be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Please contact Cory Walton, Senior Associate Sports Information Director, for Blue Devil player requests.
- Interview requests must be made at least one day in advance.
- There will be no interviews on the day of a game. There are no exceptions to this rule for any purpose, including national television broadcasts.
- Coaches All interviews with Duke head coach Mike Krzyzewski can be arranged through Jon Jackson, Senior Associate AD/External Affairs. However, it is strongly recommended that media utilize the Atlantic Coast Conference's weekly teleconference
- Requests for interviews with assistant coaches or basketball staff also should be arranged through Walton.

Practice Coverage

 Most Duke practices are closed to all outside parties. Media members can contact Cory Walton, Senior Associate Sports Information Director, about attending a specific practice session.

Live Video Streaming Applications

- The use of live video streaming applications, such as Periscope and Meerkat, is not permitted at Duke basketball media functions, including press conferences, student-athlete media availability and open locker room sessions.
- During live game action, use of such applications are in violation of the ACC multimedia guidelines and is thus strictly prohibited.
- Please contact Cory Walton, Senior Associate Sports Information Director, with questions regarding this policy.

Media Releases / Game Notes

- General Duke basketball releases, as well as game notes packages, will be emailed to a media distribution list and posted to GoDuke.com, the official website for Duke Athletics.
- To join the distribution list, send an email to Cory Walton at cwalton@duaa.duke.edu or call (919) 668-1712.
- Game notes packages will be available at least one day prior to each game.

Radio Information

- The radio broadcast booths are located on the east side of the stadium and are suspended from the ceiling.
- Access to the booths is through section six off the upper concourse.
- Three phone lines, an ISDN line, and a dry pair to the press interview area are accessible to the visiting radio network as designated by that school's sports information office.
- Verification of your network or the need for additional lines must be ordered directly from Associate Director of Game Operations Ryan Cakerice at (919) 613-5752.
- Space is guarenteed for only one broadcast crew from a visiting school. Student stations will generally not be permitted to broadcast due to space limitations. Requests for additional broadcast crews need to be made through the visiting SID office.

Telephones

- Courtesy telephones are available only for media use in the Bill Brill Media Room located in the northeast corner of Cameron Indoor Stadium during all Blue Devil home basketball games.
- There are also both ethernet and wireless connections available for writers and photographers at each home game.
- Courtside phones are available on an extremely limited basis due to line restrictions and safety. Please contact Cory Walton prior to ordering any phone lines from the Duke OIT.
- The main press row phone number at Cameron Indoor Stadium is (919) 684-6186.

NBA Scouts

- NBA scouts may request tickets to Duke home basketball games. Requests for tickets should be made in advance via email on team letterhead and directed to Cory Walton.
- Scouts will be charged for the tickets. Since seating is very limited in Cameron Indoor Stadium, these requests are handled on a first-come, firstserve basis.
- Only one representative per team will be permitted because of space limitations.
- Parking accommodations are available on request.
   NBA scouts will be directed to Blue Zone along with credentialed media.
- Tickets will be left at MEDIA WILL CALL on the north side of Cameron Indoor Stadium unless the team and the Duke Sports Information Office make other arrangements.

Duke Basketball on Social Media

- The official Twitter account of the Duke Basketball team is @Duke MBB.
- The official InstaGram account of the Duke Basketball team is @Duke MBB.
- The official Facebook page of the Duke Basketball team is /dukembb.

Media Information

GoDuke.com

- Duke fans and media can access unparalleled coverage of the Blue Devils men's basketball team, as well as Duke's other varsity sports, online at GoDuke.com, the official website of Duke Athletics.
- Powered by NeuLion, Duke fans also get access to the latest video features, media notes, player biographies and breaking news related to the men's basketball team.
- A subscription to Blue Devil Network Plus includes daily audio updates from Mike Krzyzewski, video highlights, including full game replays and condensed games, access to the Blue Devil IMG Sports Network's live broadcast of games, live press conference coverage, postgame locker room access, video features and much more.
- GoDuke.com content is also available through apps built for the iPhone, iPad and android devices.
- The website also features an auction website where fans can bid on Duke basketball tickets and memorabilia, and a DVD Store outfitted with over 200 Duke games and the 100 Years of Duke Basketball DVD.
- One of the first ".com" websites for college athletics in the country, GoDuke.com continues to seek out and implement the newest available technology in the web and mobile spaces.

Duke Basketball Statistics Database

- The most extensive collegiate statistical database in the country, the Duke Basketball Database includes biographical information on every Duke player and the result of every game in Duke history, dating back to 1905-06.
- Powered by StatsGeek, the database includes every box score since the late 1930s, season and career stats for every player, team results and in-depth stat analysis, plus much more.
- The Duke Basketball Database can be found at http://goduke.statsgeek.com/basketball-m/.

GoDuke The Magazine

- GoDuke The Magazine continues to provide Blue Devil fans with features, columns and in-depth coverage of Duke athletics.
- After 18 years of covering Duke athletics in newspaper format, Blue Devil Weekly evolved into a monthly magazine in 2009-10.
- Featuring many of the staff members who produced BDW, including publisher Johnny Moore, editor John Roth and several prominent columnists, GoDuke The Magazine is published 11 months out of the year and is a Blue Devil IMG Sports Network production.

Duke Coaches Corner

• The Duke Coaches Corner features Mike Krzyzewski and Bob Harris bringing Duke fans a daily five-minute update on Duke basketball. The program can be heard daily on GoDuke.com and in the Durham-Raleigh area on 620 AM WDNC.

ACC Coaches Teleconference

- The ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on nine teleconferences during the 2015-16 season. The season's first teleconference will take place on Monday, January 4, and continue through Monday, Feb. 29.
- Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the conference's website, the ACC.com, each Monday afternoon.
- Coaches who have a Monday night game will not take part in that day's teleconference. The ACC office will distribute each week's order of coaches prior to each teleconference.
- Because this service is for the media only, the phone number can only be given out by the Duke Sports Information Department at (919) 684-2633 or the ACC office at (336) 851-6062.

Inside Basketball With Duke's Coach K

- The popular weekly television show, "Inside Basketball with Duke's Coach K," is back for another successful season.
- The 30-minute, action-packed program features Mike Krzyzewski and his expert analysis of the ACC and national basketball issues. It also has Duke highlights and informative player features.
- A production by IMG College, the show airs locally on WTVD-TV on Sundays at noon, and Saturday mornings in the state of North Carolina and the Southeast on Fox Sports South.

Basketball and Beyond with Coach K

- Mike Krzyzewski hosts his own Sirius XM Satellite Radio program. Now in its 11th season, "Basketball and Beyond with Coach K" offers a mix of topical issues, such as the state of college basketball, interviews with special guests, including business leaders, entertainers, media members, coaches and athletes, and Krzyzewski's personal perspective on principles for life on and off the court.
- Coach K and his co-host, sportscaster Dave Sims, can be heard on the hour-long program each week during basketball season.

Duke Basketball Radio Show

- Hosted by the Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club, the Duke Basketball Radio Show featuring Jeff Capel returns for its sixth year.
- The show begins in December and airs live on WDNC 620 The Buzz. Check GoDuke.com for day and time changes dictated by Duke's game schedule.
- Fans are invited to join Coach Capel on location in the Bull Durham Bar at the Washington Duke Inn.
- The show is a production of the Blue Devil Sports Network from IMG College.

Blue Devil IMG Sports Network

- A state-wide radio audience follows all the action of Duke men's basketball on the Blue Devil IMG Sports Network. The network provides in-depth pregame coverage, live play-by-play of all the action and postgame interviews straight from the locker room via satellite each game.
- Each game broadcast begins with the one-hour Tipoff Show and concludes with the Locker Room Report, featuring Coach K and Blue Devil players.
- North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Harris, now in his 40th season as the voice of the Blue Devils, calls all the action for Duke fans each game. John Roth handles color commentary, while John Rose makes it all sound great as on-site network engineer.

Duke Basketball Notebook

111th Season of Basketball

- Duke is entering its 111th season of basketball in 2015-16. The Blue Devils have compiled a 2,062-853 record to rank fourth all-time in victories.
- Only Kentucky (2,178), Kansas (2,153) and North Carolina (2,140) have more wins than Duke.
- Duke's all-time .707 winning percentage is also the fifth-best in NCAA history, behind only Kentucky (.764), North Carolina (.736), Kansas (.722) and UNLV (.708).

Blue Devils Return Six Letterwinners

- In 2015-16, Duke returns six letterwinners from last year's national championship team, including one returning starter in senior Amile Jefferson. Graduate student Marshall Plumlee and juniors Matt Jones and Nick Pagliuca give the Blue Devils four upperclassmen on the 13man roster.
- Jefferson has been a regular in the starting lineup over the past two seasons, while Jones has drawn starting assignments in each of his first two seasons with the program and Plumlee has seen his playing time increase as a highenergy big man off the bench.
- Sophomore Grayson Allen is back in the fold and will look to build on his breakout performances in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, while classmate Sean Obi is set to take the floor for Duke after sitting out the 2014-15 season as a transfer from Rice.

Duke Welcomes Second Consecutive Top-Ranked Recruiting Class

- For the second year in a row, Duke's recruiting class topped the ESPN RecruitingNation rankings, as Brandon Ingram, Chase Jeter, Luke Kennard, Derryck Thornton and Antonio Vrankovic headline a seven-man class of newcomers.
- Ingram, Jeter and Kennard were all McDonald's All-Americans in 2015, while Vrankovic was a nominee for the game and Thornton was considered a frontrunner to make the game in 2016 before reclassifying.
- ESPN ranked Ingram the No. 3 overall recruit and No. 1 small forward in the class, while Jeter checked in at No. 11 overall (No. 4 center), Thornton was ranked No. 17 overall (No. 3 point guard) and Kennard was tabbed No. 24 overall (No. 6 shooting guard).
- Freshmen Brennan Besser and Justin Robinson, son of NBA Hall of Famer David Robinson, round out the class.

Opportunities Availabile for Current Blue Devils

- The departures of three first-round NBA Draft picks Jahlil Okafor, Justise Winslow and Tyus Jones and a four-year stalwart in Quinn Cook have presented the current crop of Duke players wth an opportunity to make their marks on the program from a statistical standpoint.
- As a team, Duke returns just 24.0 percent of its scoring (19.0 ppg), 32.3 percent of its rebounding (11.9 rpg) and 16.6 percent of its assists (2.5 apg) from last season.

- Senior Amile Jefferson is one of the top returning rebounders in the ACC after averaging 5.8 boards per game a year, and is responsible for more than half (226-of-448) of the Blue Devils' returning production on the glass.
- Jefferson and junior Matt Jones combined to score 473 points (12.1 ppg) a year ago, which translates to 66.1 percent of Duke's returning scoring.

Jefferson Looking to Make Duke History in the Classroom

- Already one of just eight players in program history to be named to the All-ACC Academic Team three times, senior Amile Jefferson has a chance this season to become the first Duke player to earn the honor for a fourth time.
- A history major, Jefferson is the program's first three-time All-ACC Academic Team member since Ryan Kelly (2010-11, 2013) and the first to do so in three consecutive seasons since Mike Dunleavy (2000-02).

Current Blue Devils Among Tallest Squads in Duke History

- Entering the 2015-16 season, the 13 players on Duke's roster have an average height of 79.231 inches, making this year's team the third-tallest in program history.
- Ten of Duke's 11 scholarship student-athletes heading into the 2015-16 season stand 6-5 or taller.

2015-16 Duke Blue Devils

Tallest Teams in Duke History - Average inches 1. 1988-89 (13 players) 79.385 2. 1993-94 (13 players) 79.308 3. 2015-16 (13 players) 79.231 4. 1990-91 (13 players) 78.692 5. 1987-88 (12 players) 78.667 1991-92 (12 players) 78.667

Trio of McDonald's All-Americans Join the Fold

- With Brandon Ingram, Chase Jeter and Luke Kennard arriving on campus, Duke will have seven McDonald's All-Americans on its roster.
- Duke has now had seven or more McDonald's All-America selections on its roster 11 times under head coach Mike Krzyzewski, including four of the last nine years.
- Duke, Arizona, Kansas and Kentucky are the only programs nationally to post top-10 classes in ESPN's recruiting class rankings in each of the last three seasons. The Blue Devils' 2014 and 2015 classes were both ranked No. 1 nationally.

Former Captains Continue to Play Prominent Roles

- Duke's 2015-16 coaching staff will once again feature three former team captains in Jeff Capel (associate head coach), Nate James (assistant coach) and Jon Scheyer (assistant coach).
- Head coach Mike Krzyzewski has had three former Duke captains on his staff every year since 1996-97, a period in which the Blue Devils won three NCAA championships, 10 ACC Tournament titles and eight regular season ACC crowns.
- As Duke players, Capel, James and Scheyer combined to score 4,794 points, collect 1,412 rebounds and hand out 1,020 assists.

Sustained Success

- Duke has won 20 or more games 50 times in its 110 years of basketball. Including its 35-4 mark a year ago, Duke has won at least 20 games for 19 consecutive seasons.
- The Blue Devils have recorded 30 or more wins 14 times under Coach K, including five of the past six seasons.
- Duke is one of 10 programs nationally to win at least 25 games in each of the last three seasons along with Arizona, Gonzaga, Kansas, Louisiana Tech, Louisville, Michigan State, Stephen F. Austin, VCU and Wichita State.

AP Poll Streak

• Entering the 2015-16 season, Duke has been ranked in the AP poll an NCAA-best 155 consecutive weeks. The last time Duke was not ranked in the top 25 of the AP Poll was the final poll of the 2006-07 season.

- Duke is the only school to finish in the top 10 of the AP Poll in each of the last eight seasons.
- Duke's current streak is the second-longest in program history and the seventh-longest consecutive weeks ranked streak in NCAA history.

13 Matt Jones

G • 6-5 • 200 • JR-2L DeSoto, Texas (DeSoto)

Career

- One of Duke's three captains entering the 2015-16 season
- Earned a spot on Duke's starting rotation midway through sophomore season, serving as a starter in 14 contests ... averaged career highs in points per game (6.0), field goal percentage (.410), three-point field goal percentage (.376), free throw percentage (.714), rebounds per game (2.3), assists per game (1.0) and steals per game (0.9)
- Excellent spot-up shooter ... can consistently knock down long-range shots from the wing
- One of the nation's most relentless defenders who has quick hands and feet that allow him to disrupt an opponent's offense
- Ability to bypass defenders off the dribble and get to the rim

2014-15

- Named to NCAA South Regional All-Tournament Team

Mike Krzyzewski

The Michael W. Krzyzewski Leadership Head Coach 36th Season at Duke Army, 1969

Winning seasons, superb graduation rates for his players and a basketball team that is as close as family, are all attributes that reflect on the man who is now in his 36th season as the head coach of the Blue Devils, Mike Krzyzewski.

Although some still stumble with pronouncing and spelling his name, when people speak of the highest level of success in the college basketball world, the name Krzyzewski (Sha-shef-skee) immediately comes to mind. Coach K further solidified his status in the upper echelon of coaching on Nov. 15, 2011, when he became the winningest coach in college basketball history with a 74-69 Duke win over Michigan State at Madison Square Garden. Krzyzewski returned to MSG Jan. 25, 2015, to achieve another historic milestone when he became the first NCAA Division I men's basketball coach to reach 1,000 career wins with a 77-68 victory over St. John's.

"There will be others that win more, but it is kind of neat to be the first one to 1,000," Krzyzewski said of the accomplishment. "I am proud of that, too: It's not just the number of wins, but the quality of opponents we've had. To win the 1,000th here, you need to be a lucky guy. I love my place, Cameron, but this is a magical place, as well."

In 35 seasons at Duke, Krzyzewski, a Hall of Fame coach and 12-time National Coach of the Year, has built a dynasty that few programs in the history of the game can match.

The numbers under Coach K are staggering:

- Five National Championships (1991, 1992, 2001, 2010, 2015)
- Five gold medals as head coach of USA Men's National Team
- 1,018 career wins (most in NCAA history)
- 945 victories at Duke
- 433 ACC wins (most in ACC history)
- 88 NCAA Tournament victories (most in NCAA history)
- 12 National Coach of the Year honors (eight seasons)
- Seven National Players of the Year (nine honors)
- Six National Defensive Players of the Year (nine honors)
- 31 NCAA Tournament bids

Weeks Ranked No. 1 Among Active Coaches

- 52 NBA Draft selections, including 31 in the first round
- · 20 NBA Lottery picks
- 10 Consecutive Top 10 AP Poll finishes (1997-2006)

Entering the 2015-16 season, Coach K owns a 1,018-310 record in 40 years of coaching, including a 945-251 mark in 35 seasons in Durham.

Krzyzewski's victory total offers evidence of his success, but even more impressive are the five national championships. The fifth title came last season with a 68-63 win over Wisconsin in Indianapolis, marking the third time Duke has captured the crown in the city. In addition to the 2015 run to the title, Krzyzewski led Duke to NCAA championships in 1991, 1992, 2001 and 2010. Only two coaches since John Wooden have led their programs to back-to-back championships (Coach K and Billy Donovan) and Krzyzewski's five titles are also second only to Wooden (10) in NCAA history.

In 2005-06, Krzyzewski passed Wooden to move into first on the chart of coaches who have led their respective schools to a No. 1 national ranking. Coach K has now led Duke to the top spot in the AP poll in an NCAA-record 16 seasons, including 11 times in the last 18 years. Under Krzyzewski, Duke has played far more games as a No. 1 ranked team (218) than it has as an unranked team (141). He has guided the Blue Devils to a 190-28 mark as the top-ranked team in the AP Poll.

Coach K and the Blue Devils have been a fixture on the national basketball scene with 20 consecutive NCAA Tournament berths from 1996-2015 and 31 in the past 32 years. Overall, he has taken his program to postseason play in 32 of his 35 years at Duke and is the winningest active coach in NCAA Tournament play with a stunning 88-26 record for a .772 winning percentage. On March 20, 2005, Krzyzewski surpassed Dean Smith's career tournament win total of 65 with a 63-55 triumph over Mississippi State in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

To top off an incredible year in 2001, after Duke won its third national championship, Krzyzewski was named to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame class along with Temple's John Chaney and former NBA star Moses Malone. The induction ceremony was held in Springfield, Mass., on October 5, 2001. In typical Coach K fashion, he was adamant in sharing the honor with those around him.

"I hope that all of those youngsters who have played for me and the people who have worked with me will share in this honor," he said. "My mom always told me to associate myself with great people and great institutions. I've tried to do that at the United States Military Academy and at Duke University, two of the great institutions in the world. As a result, I've been around some amazing people.

"I never thought I'd be worthy enough to be in the Basketball Hall of Fame. It's not anything you set out trying to achieve. Basically, you go about your business and try to be as good as you can be all the time. Again, I get back to coaching great players and being with great assistants. They bring out the best in you."

Duke Highlights

Success stories do not just happen overnight. They take time, and the latest chapter in Duke Basketball is no exception. Krzyzewski inherited a Duke squad in 1980-81 with a thin talent base outside of All-America Gene Banks, Kenny Dennard and Vince Taylor. The squad hustled its way to a bid in the NIT, but it was obvious that the recruiting trail was Krzyzewski's only answer if the team was to succeed in the long run.

He landed a recruiting class in 1982 made up of Johnny Dawkins, Mark Alarie, David Henderson, Jay Bilas, Bill Jackman and Weldon Williams. It was rated one of the nation's best and put Duke on the map to stay. Joining that powerful group was guard Tommy Amaker in 1983. Duke won 24 games with the nucleus of Dawkins, Alarie, Amaker, Bilas and Henderson in 1984 and earned the first NCAA bid under Coach K.

With the class of Dawkins, Alarie and company now seniors, the 1986 Duke Blue Devils won a then NCAA-record 37 games while claiming Big Apple NIT, ACC regular season, ACC Tournament and NCAA East Regional titles. They established a school record with a 21-game winning streak during the year (that has since been broken), went undefeated at home, advanced to the NCAA Championship game in Dallas and played more games (40) than any other team in college basketball history.

With the loss of the five seniors, many expected Duke to drop considerably in 1987, but not Krzyzewski. The team won 24 games and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual national champion Indiana. Amaker ended his career as the National Defensive Player of the Year, closing out a season that Coach K looks back on as the one that demonstrated the winning consistency of the program.

The 1987-88 campaign began Duke's amazing streak of five straight NCAA Final Four appearances as the Blue Devils won 28 games, claimed the ACC title, won another East Regional championship and found themselves in Kansas City. Senior Billy King followed Amaker by winning the second straight National Defensive Player of the Year award by a Blue Devil.

The role of leadership again fell to the senior class in 1988-89. This time, it was the National Player of the Year Danny Ferry, Quin Snyder and John Smith taking the reins. They guided the team to another trip to the NCAA Final Four with a win over heavily favored Georgetown in the East Regional final.

In 1989-90, seniors Alaa Abdelnaby, Robert Brickey and Phil Henderson led the way to the Final Four with a 29-9 record, landing just one game shy of the title in Denver. The group won its third consecutive East Regional championship with an overtime triumph over top-seeded Connecticut.

Then came the 1990-91 season that forever changed the face of basketball at Duke. After the 30-point loss to UNLV in the 1990 championship game, Krzyzewski's team was determined to avenge the defeat. The Blue Devils won the regular season ACC title and posted four consecutive lopsided victories in the Midwest Region for yet another trip to the Final Four.

In the semifinals, Duke got another shot at the Runnin' Rebels, who were undefeated, and this time Coach K masterfully led the Blue Devils to a 79-77 victory to earn a matchup with Kansas for the title. Duke's crowning glory came on April 1, 1991, with a 72-65 victory over the Jayhawks as Christian Laettner earned MVP honors in Duke's first national basketball championship.

In 1992, the stage was set for an unprecedented chapter in college basketball history, and Coach K and his squad were up to the task. Behind the National Player of the Year Laettner and fellow All-Americans Bobby Hurley and Grant Hill, the Blue Devils rolled to a 34-2 record and held the No.1 ranking from start to finish (18 polls). Duke won its second consecutive NCAA crown with a convincing 71-51 victory over Michigan. Along the way, the Blue Devils captured their fifth consecutive regional championship, won the ACC regular season and tournament titles and equaled the school record to that point for ACC victories with 14.

"Hoved my 1991 team, but this team was a great team," said Krzyzewski following the 1992 championship. "It met every challenge and at the Final Four it showed its true personality by winning both games in the second half with what I like best, defense."

In 1993-94, the Blue Devils and Coach K were back knocking at the door of another national championship. Duke piled up a 28-6 overall record, won the ACC regular season championship, was ranked from start to finish in the nation's top 10, captured the Southeast Regional title with an upset win over top-seeded Purdue and advanced to the national championship game before bowing to Arkansas, 76-72, in Charlotte.

The Blue Devils finished the 1998-99 campaign equaling the Duke record for most wins with 37, winning the NCAA East Regional title, capturing the ACC Tournament crown for the first time since 1992, recording the first 16-0 record in the ACC regular season, securing a school-record 32-game winning streak during the year and wrapping it all up as the NCAA runner-ups. Elton Brand was the consensus National Player of the Year, Shane Battier was the NABC National Defensive Player of the Year and Trajan Langdon was a first team All-America for Duke.

In 1999-2000, Duke finished with a 29-5 record, its fourth consecutive outright ACC regular season championship with a 15-1 record, its second consecutive ACC Tournament title and the final regular season No.1 ranking in both major polls. Senior Chris Carrawell and Battier, then a junior, were named consensus All-Americans, and Battier earned his second consecutive National Defensive Player of the Year award. The Blue Devils accomplished this despite losing four starters from their 37-2 squad that advanced to the national championship game in 1999. Duke also had seven freshmen, the most on a Blue Devil team in school history, on its roster.

On November 17, 2000, Krzyzewski's numerous accomplishments at Duke were recognized as the fabled Cameron Indoor Stadium court was named Coach K Court in his honor in a postgame ceremony.

Continuing to build on his well-earned reputation as one of the top college basketball coaches of all time, Coach K led Duke to its third national championship in 2001, joining just three other coaches - Wooden (10), Adolph Rupp (4) and Bob Knight (3) - who won three or more NCAA titles. The Blue Devils finished the season with a 35-4 record, including 10 consecutive victories to end the year, their third consecutive ACC Tournament championship, fifth straight ACC regular season championship and the TiVo Preseason NIT title. Duke also was ranked at the top of the final Associated Press poll for the third consecutive season, marking just the second time in NCAA history a program had accomplished that feat (Wooden's UCLA squads did it from 1971-73).

With its 82-72 victory over Arizona in the 2001 national championship game, Duke ended a four-year run with 133 victories. The Blue Devils lost just 15 games during that four-year span. The 133 wins broke the previous NCAA standard of 132 set twice by Kentucky from 1995-98 and 1996-99.

Individually, Coach K passed two major milestones in 2000-01: his 500th victory at Duke (98-85 over Villanova) and his 600th win overall (79-53 over sixth-ranked North Carolina in the ACC Tournament final). He reached 600 career wins faster than all but 10 coaches in college basketball history.

Under Krzyzewski's guidance, not one, but two of his student-athletes earned National Player of the Year awards in 2001 (Battier was the consensus selection, while Jason Williams earned the NABC award). It was the first time in college basketball history that two players from the same team received National Player of the Year recognition by the major outlets. Battier and Williams were both unanimous first team All-Americans, and Battier, the sixth overall pick in the 2001 NBA Draft, earned his third consecutive National Defensive Player of the Year award.

"Ithoroughly loved coaching these kids," said Krzyzewski following the 2001 national title. "They've been so good. They've given me their hearts, their minds, and not only that, they've given it to each other ... I get real close to the guys on my team. That's the most rewarding thing about what I do."

Krzyzewski led Duke to another outstanding season in 2001-02. The Blue Devils finished 31-4 overall, won the ACC Tournament title for a record fourth consecutive year, were a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for a record fifth straight season and finished No. 1 in the final AP poll for the fourth consecutive season, another NCAA first. Three Duke players - Williams, Mike Dunleavy and Carlos Boozer - earned All-America honors and Williams became just the seventh repeat winner of National Player of the Year honors in college basketball history. That Duke threesome also departed for the NBA, where all three were drafted. Williams and Dunleavy were selected second and third, respectively, making them just the second set of teammates to be taken among the top three picks of the NBA Draft (UCLA's Lew Alcindor and Lucious Allen went one and three in 1969).

In perhaps one of his finest coaching jobs, Krzyzewski led a 2002-03 team featuring six freshmen to a 26-7 record, its record fifth consecutive ACC Tournament championship and the school's sixth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16. Senior Dahntay Jones, the squad's leading scorer, was Duke's Ione All-ACC representative and an honorable mention All-America selection. Jones became Coach K's 17th first round pick in the 2003 NBA Draft.

Guided by the leadership of senior point guard Chris Duhon, Duke returned to the Final Four for the 10th time in a 19-year period in 2003-04. Duke finished the season 31-6 and won its sixth ACC regular season crown in eight seasons with a 13-3 league mark. Duke reached the No. 1 national ranking for four weeks during the season, marking the seventh consecutive year that it had reached that height (only UCLA's streak of 12 straight years of achieving the No. 1 ranking from 1964-75 is longer). The Blue Devils ended the year by dropping a one-point decision to eventual national champion Connecticut in the Final Four in San Antonio. Duhon, J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams each earned All-America honors, bringing Coach K's total selections to 19 in 24 seasons at that point. In the 2004 NBA Draft, Luol Deng, after playing just one season at Duke, was selected seventh overall and Duhon was taken in the second round.

The 2004-05 squad featured Daniel Ewing, who would become the 36th NBA Draft pick under Krzyzewski, Redick, a National Player of the Year choice, and Williams, the National Defensive Player of the Year honoree. The Blue Devils went 27-6 and captured the ACC Tournament championship.

In 2005-06, the Blue Devils posted a 32-4 record, including a 14-2 mark in regular season league play. Duke captured the NIT Season Tip-Off crown and went on to win both the ACC regular season and tournament titles. Krzyzewski's 10th ACC Tournament championship came in the 1,000th game of his coaching career, a 78-76 win over Boston College at the Greensboro Coliseum on March 12. Redick, a consensus National Player of the Year honoree, set the ACC career scoring and the NCAA three-point field goal records and Williams grabbed National Defensive Player of the Year honors for the second year in a row. Redick and Williams also became the ninth set of teammates selected as AP first team All-Americans and the first since Jason Williams and Shane Battier accomplished the feat in 2001.

Duke featured the school's youngest team in more than 60 years in the 2006-07 season with 10 of the 12 players on the roster being either freshmen or sophomores. Despite the youth, the squad recorded a 22-11 record and reached the NCAA Tournament. Coach K recorded his 700th career victory at Duke against Georgia Tech, making him the second-fastest coach in NCAA history to record 700 wins at one school.

Coach K had the Blue Devils among the top teams in the nation during the 2007-08 campaign as the team won 22 of its first 23 games. Krzyzewski became only the sixth head coach to reach 800 career wins with a victory at N.C. State. Duke would go on to finish the year 28-6, reaching the NCAA Tournament for the 13th consecutive season. DeMarcus Nelson was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year and a third team All-American, while Kyle Singler was the ACC Rookie of the Year and a Freshman All-American.

In 2008-09, Coach K led Duke to a 30-7 record, the school's 10th 30-win season, and to the ACC Tournament championship. The Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and reached a No. 1 ranking in the middle of the season. Gerald Henderson was a first team All-ACC performer while the team featured four players with over 1,000 career points in Henderson, Greg Paulus, Jon Scheyer and Singler.

The 2010 National Championship team used a stingy defense, hardnosed rebounding and a potent three-man scoring attack to finish the year 35-5 overall. The Blue Devils held opponents to 61.0 points per game, the second-lowest in school history, and averaged 39.0 rebounds per contest for the second-most during Krzyzewski's tenure at Duke. The Blue Devils also featured the nation's top scoring trio as Scheyer, Singler and Nolan Smith combined to average 53.3 points per game. Duke won every possible championship they competed for in 2009-10, winning the NIT Season TipOff, ACC regular season and ACC Tournament on the way to reaching the NCAA Final Four for the 11th time under Krzyzewski.

In 2010-11, Krzyzewski led the Blue Devils to a 32-5 record, the ACC Tournament championship and the CBE Classic title. The Blue Devils spent 11 weeks atop the AP Poll and were ranked in the top 5 of the AP and USA Today/ESPN Coaches Polls for the entire season. Smith became the seventh player under Coach K to average over 20.0 points per game and was a unanimous first team All-America selection and the ACC Player of the Year. Singler also capped off his record setting career with All-ACC and All-America accolades in 2011. Krzyzewski, the 2011 NABC District II Coach of the Year, became the second coach in NCAA history to post 900 career wins with a 73-71 victory over Michigan on March 20 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Krzyzewski guided a young 2011-12 team to a 27-7 record, including a 13-3 ledger in league play. Duke spent the entire season ranked in the top 10 of the AP poll and collected 10 wins over NCAA Tournament teams. The Blue Devils posted a 74-69 win over Michigan State at Madison Square Garden on Nov. 15 to give Coach K his NCAA-best 903rd career coaching victory. Duke also ran the table at the Maui Invitational, including a championship game win over 2012 NCAA Tournament runner-up Kansas, to improve to 16-0 all-time in the event. The Blue Devils registered a buzzer-beating win at North Carolina and erased a 20-point deficit with 11 minutes to play in a dramatic come-from-behind win over N.C. State in 2012. Rivers garnered third team NABC All-America and ACC Rookie of the Year honors, while averaging a team-high 15.5 points per game. He also became just the seventh freshman in league history to earn first team All-ACC honors. Juniors Mason Plumlee and Seth Curry were third team all-conference picks, while Plumlee also earned CoSIDA first team Academic All-America accolades.

With a talented senior trio of Curry, Ryan Kelly and Mason Plumlee, Krzyzewski led the Blue Devils to a 30-6 record and an NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2012-13. Duke spent the entire season ranked in the top 10 of the AP Poll, including five weeks ranked No. 1 overall. Krzyzewski's squad registered wins over No. 2 Louisville, No. 3 Kentucky, No. 4 Ohio State and No. 5 Miami, marking the third time in school history the Blue Devils have posted at least four or more wins over top-5 teams. Duke also recorded its 17th undefeated season at Cameron Indoor Stadium with a 16-0 mark at its home venue. The Blue Devils won the 2012 Battle 4 Atlantis, capping off the tournament with an impressive win over eventual national champion Louisville. Duke also became the fourth program in NCAA history to reach the 2,000-win plateau with a 66-50 victory over Creighton in the third round of the NCAA Tournament. Plumlee, a first team Academic All-America as well as consensus second team All-American, became the second player under Coach K to average a double-double, while also topping the 1,000-point and 1,000-rebound marks for his career. Curry, who battled through a seasonlong lower leg injury, went on to grab Sporting News All-America honors after averaging 17.5 points per game with 95 three-point field goals.

In 2013-14, Krzyzewski guided a young and talented group led by sophomore Rodney Hood and freshman Jabari Parker to a 26-9 record and a trip to the ACC title game. The Blue Devils posted a 17-0 mark at home to run their Cameron Indoor Stadium win streak to 33 games. Parker averaged 19.1 points and 8.7 rebounds per game en route to earning National Freshman of the Year accolades as well as consensus first team All-America honors. He set or tied nine Duke freshman records and was named ACC Rookie of the Week a league-record 10 times. Hood, a transfer from Mississippi State, was tabbed as a second team All-ACC selection after averaging 16.1 points per game and shooting a conference-best 42.0 percent from three-point range. Both players entered the NBA Draft following the season with Parker being selected No. 2 overall by the Milwaukee Bucks and Hood going to the Utah Jazz with the 23rd pick. Krzyzewski became the second Division I men's coach in NCAA history to record 900 wins at a school when he reached the milestone in a Jan. 25 win over Florida State.

Duke's 2015 National Championship run was fueled by the evolution of senior leader Quinn Cook and the talented freshmen trio of Tyus Jones, Jahlil Okafor and Justise Winslow. While that group garnered a majority of the notoriety throughout the season, it was the steady contributions of the rest of the roster (Grayson Allen, Amile Jefferson, Matt Jones and Marshall Plumlee) that helped make the season so special. With a roster of eight recruited scholarship players by January, Duke won 18 of its final 19 games to close the year with a 35-4 record, including 11 wins over nationally ranked opponents. The Blue Devils also posted three road wins over top-10 teams for the first time in program history going into hostile environments and defeating No. 2 Wisconsin, No. 6 Louisville and No. 2 and then-undefeated Virginia. Okafor averaged 17.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game while shooting 66.4 percent from the field en route to earning consensus first team All-America and National Freshman of the Year honors. He set or tied 10 Duke freshman records and became the first freshman in ACC history to earn conference player of the year accolades. Cook garnered second team Sporting News All-America and second team All-ACC honors, while establishing career-highs in scoring (15.3), field goal percentage (.453), free throw percentage (.891), three-point percentage (.395) and three-point field goals (102). Tyus Jones, a third team All-ACC pick, enjoyed a remarkable season filled with clutch performances on the biggest stages. He averaged 11.8 points and 5.6 rebounds per game, while setting Duke freshman records for games started (39), minutes played (1,322) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.86:1). Jones was at his best in NCAA Tournament play earning Final Four and South Regional Most Outstanding Player honors. He became just the fourth freshman to earn Final Four MOP accolades and is the first Blue Devil to capture regional and Final Four MOP recognition in the same year. Winslow averaged 12.6 points and 6.5 rebounds per game to earn honorable mention All-ACC honors. He was also outstanding in the NCAA Tournament and was named to the NCAA South Regional All-Tournament and NCAA Final Four All-Tournament teams. In addition to its success on the court, Duke excelled in the classroom by placing five members on the ACC All-Academic team for the first time in program history.

"This has been my best group, as far as being together, that I've coached in 40 years," said Krzyzewski of the 2014-15 team. "For them to be so close and respond in such a magnificent way to what most people would call pressure situations is uncommon. Winning a National Championship is uncommon, but if you have an uncommon group, you have a better chance to do it."

On the court, Coach K has averaged more than 25 wins a season during his career at Duke and posted 14 30-win seasons, including 30 or more victories in 11 of the last 18 years. Krzyzewski's 14 30-win seasons are the most by any coach in college basketball history.

He has directed his teams to 12 Final Fours, tied for the most by a coach in NCAA history. Since 1985, Krzyzewski has an NCAA-record 88 NCAA Tournament victories, 23 more than the next-closest active coach (North Carolina's Roy Williams has 65 NCAA wins during this period). From 1986 to 2015, every Duke class except four (1998, 2008, 2009 and 2011) has played in at least one Final Four. Incredibly, 70 of 80 players who have completed four years of eligibility at Duke since 1986 have played in the Final Four, with 65 having played in at least one NCAA Championship game.

Obviously, Coach K has put a recruiting plan in motion that attracts the nation's best players each year. Seven members of this year's Duke team earned McDonald's All-America accolades as prep stars, including freshmen Brandon Ingram, Chase Jeter and Luke Kennard. Joining the rookies are Grayson Allen, Amile Jefferson, Matt Jones and Marshall Plumlee.

"There was no magic wand," said Krzyzewski. "It was a matter of hard work and organization and a little bit of luck. We had a plan and we stuck to it. In many ways it may have been better that there wasn't an abundance of talent when we arrived. If that had been the case, we may have taken certain things for granted instead of building a solid foundation.

"When things got tough, I always remembered something Vic Bubas told me just after I had come to Duke," recalled Krzyzewski. "He said, 'When you are building something that is going to be really strong, it takes time.' That gave me encouragement."

Numerous Honors

Although he has earned nearly every award imaginable, Krzyzewski was rewarded with the ultimate honor in basketball in 2001 when he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. He entered the Hall of Fame with Temple coach John Chaney and former NBA star Moses Malone. Since that induction, Krzyzewski has also been inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame (Sept. 11, 2009), Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame (2010) and Duke Athletics Hall of Fame (2011).

Krzyzewski was honored in December of 2011 as Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated. He shared the SI cover with Tennessee coaching legend Pat Summitt.

TIME magazine and CNN named Krzyzewski "America's Best Coach" in 2001 as part of a joint venture between the two media outlets. The criteria for the selection were not limited to any sport or any level of play.

"No college hoops coach has won more in the past two decades," wrote Josh Tyrangiel of TIME, "and Krzyzewski has accomplished all this with a program that turns out real-deal scholar athletes - kids who go to class, graduate and don't mind telling everyone about it."

In all, Coach K has been named the National Coach of the Year 12 times in eight different seasons by major organizations, including UPI and Chevrolet (1986), Naismith (1989), the NABC (1991), The Sporting News and Naismith (1992), Basketball Times (1997), the NABC and Naismith (1999), Chevrolet (2000) and the Victor Awards (2001). In 2004, he was named the Claire Bee Coach of the Year that honors the active Division I men's basketball coach who has made the most significant positive contribution to his sport during the preceding year.

In 1992, The Sporting News named him the Sportsman of the Year, becoming the first college coach to win the honor. The magazine said, "On the court and off, Krzyzewski is a family man first, a teacher second, a basketball coach third, and a winner at all three. He is what's right about sports..."

Coach K has been voted the ACC Coach of the Year five times, most recently in 2000. His five ACC Coach of the Year awards are second all-time among the coaching giants of the league.

His players know how special their coach, mentor and friend is.

"I played for the greatest college coach of all-time," said Shane Battier, one of the most decorated players in the history of the game. "It was an amazing journey."

Two-time National Player of the Year Jason Williams echoed Battier's sentiments: "It's a dream to play for a guy like that - a guy who's just a rock, who believes in you every second you're on the court. I love Coach K. I'd run through a brick wall for him."

Mike Krzyzewski & USA Basketball Experience Mike Krzyzewski has been a driving force in the USA's international basketball development program and will continue to be in the years ahead. Quinn Cook mirrored some of those same sentiments from Williams and Battier following Duke's championship run in 2015. "Coach K is the greatest. He wasn't focused on getting his fifth championship. He was focused on getting our first together. We're all just blessed to be a part of this Duke program. To be next to Coach, he's been like a father to me and to have him next to me and having his arm around me as we watched 'One Shining Moment' was probably the best moment of my life."

In 2005, Krzyzewski became the youngest recipient of the Distinguished Graduate Award at the United States Military Academy. He garnered another prestigious military honor in 2014 when he was awarded the George Catlett Marshall Medal, the highest award presented by the Association of the United States Army. The Marshall Medal is awarded annually to an individual, who has exhibited selfless service to the United States of America.

"As an exceptional patriot, Mike Krzyzewski is not only an American icon familiar to the nation while pacing on the sidelines during a Blue Devils basketball game, but he is also an extraordinary mentor to our nation's youth – both military and civilian," said AUSA president Gen. Gordon R. Sullivan, USA, Ret. "He is acclaimed for successfully molding character, mentoring our young men and women, and developing leadership through his example and athletic programs."

Krzyzewski has been named the USA Basketball Coach of the Year in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2012 and 2014. He was named recipient of the United States Sports Academy's 2012 Amos Alonzo Stagg Coaching Award after guiding Team USA to the gold medal in the London Olympics. Krzyzewski also received the Stagg Coaching Award in 1992 and 2009.

Coach K and USA Basketball

Krzyzewski has been a prominent figure on the USA Basketball scene throughout his career. On Oct. 26, 2005, his role on the international basketball world was thrust into the limelight when he was named head coach of the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team.

During his tenure at the helm of Team USA, the Men's Senior National Team has amassed an extraordinary 75-1 record and has secured gold medals at the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championship, 2012 London Olympics and 2014 FIBA World Cup as well as a bronze medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championship.

Coach K helped USA Basketball regain its position in international basketball during his first stint as the national team coach (2005-08) by instilling the same team-first principles he utilizes as the foundation for success at Duke.

In his first competition as head coach of the program, Krzyzewski led a team that included former Duke standouts Elton Brand and Shane Battier to an 8-1 record and a bronze medal finish at the 2006 FIBA World Championship in Japan.

The following summer, Coach K led the USA squad to a gold medal in the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, posting a 10-0 record and winning by an average of 39.5 points per game. They defeated Argentina, 118-81, in the gold medal game to automatically qualify for the 2008 Olympics.

In the summer of 2008, Krzyzewski guided the USA squad to a gold medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. Team USA reclaimed Olympic gold with a 118-107 victory over Spain in the championship game, while also further changing a negative perception of basketball in the United States along the way. Team USA averaged 106.0 points per game with an average margin of victory of 27.9 points per game during its gold medal run and also restored a tarnished image by winning over fans and fellow athletes with its presence off the court in Beijing. While earning praise for its unselfish play on the court, members of Team USA were equally admired for their patriotic support of American athletes in their quests for Olympic gold.

"It has been tagged as the most selfish basketball nation on Earth, but the U.S. showed teamwork and intensity normally not seen at any place other than, say, Duke University," said Los Angeles Times columnist Bill Plaschke during Team USA's gold medal run in 2008.

On July 21, 2009, it was announced that Krzyzewski would return as the head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team.

"When you have a good thing going you don't mess with it. Mike and the staff did an incredible job last quad and he is more than entitled to have another run at it. I've said it over and over, he was the right guy at the right time and that is still true," said Jerry Colangelo, who served as the Managing Director of the USA Basketball Men's National Team program, at the time of the announcement.

Krzyzewski's second term as the national team coach began with a gold medal performance at the 2010 FIBA World Championship in Istanbul, Turkey. With a group that featured six players under the age of 22, Team USA posted a 9-0 mark to capture the gold medal in the FIBA World Championship for the first time since 1994. The U.S. squad had a +24.9 points per game scoring margin with double-digit wins in eight of nine contests.

Team USA once again claimed Olympic gold in 2012 in London, posting a 107-100 win over Spain. While some experts speculated that outside shooting could be the downfall of the 2012 squad, Coach K and his staff gave the players the confidence to take their open shots against international teams' zone defenses. The group, led by Kevin Durant and Carmelo Anthony, responded by setting an Olympic record with 129 three-point field goals (16.1 3pg.) and shooting 44.0 percent from three-point range during the tournament. Team USA's finest shooting performance came in a 156-73 win over Nigeria in pool play. Krzyzewski's group set Olympic records for three-pointers (29, including 10 from Anthony), three-point percentage (.630) and points scored (156) in the win.

Krzyzewski closed out his second quadrennial in charge of the USA Men's Senior National Team with a 50-game win streak, while becoming the first U.S. coach of multiple Olympic teams since the legendary Henry Iba, who won gold in 1964 and 1968 and coached the team that lost the controversial 1972 gold-medal game to the Soviet Union.

Following the 2012 London Olympics, Krzyzewski announced that he would not return as head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team. Colangelo continued to stay in touch with Coach K throughout the season and stepped up his courtship in May. On May 23, 2013, USA Basketball and Colangelo got their wish when it was announced that Krzyzewski would return as head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team from 2013-16.

"About four years ago, I was asked about Coach K's return, and what I said then is still true now - when you have a good thing going, you don't mess with it," said Colangelo. "He was and still is the right man to coach the USA National Team. We've seen the value of continuity and Coach K's return gives our national team program another four years of continuity. Together, we have been able to build on the program's successes of each year and again establish the United States as the world's number one basketball country."

"It is tough to give up something you've absolutely loved doing for seven years, the people you're doing it with, and most importantly, the country you're doing it for," said Krzyzewski. "As a result of my ongoing desire to coach, I've decided I'd like to continue as head coach of the Men's National Team especially since USA Basketball wanted me to do so. It just seems like the right thing to do. There is no greater honor than to coach your country's team and to be afforded the unique opportunity to be the National Team coach three times is incredible."

Krzyzewski once again took advantage of the opportunity at the 2014 FIBA World Cup leading Team USA to a 9-0 mark and the gold medal despite guiding a squad absent of USA Basketball mainstays LeBron James, Anthony, Durant and Russell Westbrook. With six players averaging double figures, the USA led the 24-team World Cup field in scoring offense (104.6 points a game), scoring margin (+33.0), field goal percentage (.524), rebounding (44.8), rebounding margin (+9.0), defensive rebounds (29.9), assists (20.4), steals (12.1) and turnover margin (+8.3). The USA's +33.0 points per game differential was the most of a U.S. men's team in a FIBA World Cup or Olympic Games since the 1994 World Championship (+37.8).

"I said previously, if we were to have won this year with all of the adversity that we went through this would be the sweetest of all of the championships, and I feel that way," said Colangelo following the 2014 FIBA World Cup. "The amazing thing about all that has happened is that we have used so many different players to win these championships, which is a testament to the game in our country and the depth of talent that we have, and to our staff and the leadership of Coach K and our assistant coaches. I couldn't be more proud of our team."

USA Basketball has won each of the past two FIBA World Cup (formerly World Championship) events to join Brazil (1959 and 1963) and Yugoslavia (1998 and 2002) as the only countries to earn back-to-back FIBA world titles since the event was initiated in 1950.

Duke players have also had a prominent impact in the Olympics as eight of Krzyzewski's former players have competed for five different countries in the Olympics. In 2012, former Blue Devils Luol Deng (Great Britain) and Martynas Pocius (Lithuania) competed in the London Olympics.

Krzyzewski supports his players' efforts to participate in international basketball with over 100 former Duke players competing in international tournaments, including three current players - Brandon Ingram, Chase Jeter and Luke Kennard - who have competed on USA Basketball teams at various international events.

"Duke players have been pretty well schooled fundamentally," said Colangelo on the Blue Devils' success with USA Basketball. "They have been well coached and really understand what it takes to be successful and what it necessitates in the way of work so it is really good bloodlines."

Six former Blue Devils (Elton Brand, Chris Duhon, Kyrie Irving, Christian Laettner, Jabari Parker and Shelden Williams) have earned USA Basketball Male Athlete of the Year honors. Irving earned the accolade after pacing the U.S. to a 9-0 record and a gold medal at the 2014 FIBA World Cup, taking home tournament MVP honors in the process. Parker claimed the award in 2011 after helping Team USA to a perfect 5-0 record and the gold medal at the 2011 FIBA Americas U16 Championship. Williams, who led the U.S. team to an 8-0 record and a gold medal at the World University Games in Turkey in 2005, was also named the USA Basketball Male Athlete of the Year, while Duhon earned the same honor in 2001 after leading the World Championship for Young Men Team to the gold medal in Japan. Brand was named USA Basketball Male Athlete of the Year in 1998, while Laettner was the first Blue Devil to claim the award in 1991.

Krzyzewski has always been an active part of USA Basketball in various roles, serving as past chairman of the Player Selection Committee for all of the United States' teams, including the 1991 Pan Am and 1992 Olympic teams. Coach K was an assistant to Chuck Daly (a former Duke assistant coach) at the Olympics and won the gold medal in Barcelona with the 1992 "Dream Team." Christian Laettner was a member of that team, while 1994 graduate Grant Hill was a part of "Dream Team II" in Atlanta.

Coach K was the USA head coach in 1990 when he led the Americans to a bronze medal at the World Championships and a silver medal at the Goodwill Games in Seattle. He also paced Team USA to a silver medal at the 1987 World University Games and was a special assistant to Bob Knight at the 1984 Olympics. In addition, he has had previous coaching duties at the National Sports Festival (gold medal in 1983) and Pan Am Games.

The Coaching Tree

Sustained success under Mike Krzyzewski has presented coaching opportunities for several of his former players and assistant coaches from both Army and Duke. In all, over 20 of Coach K's former players or assistants are coaching in the collegiate or professional ranks, including six Division I collegiate head coaches Tommy Amaker (Harvard), Mike Brey (Notre Dame) Chris Collins (Northwestern), Johnny Dawkins (Stanford), Bobby Hurley (Arizona State) and Steve Wojciechowski (Marquette). In addition, former player Billy King is a general manager of the Brooklyn Nets, while Quin Snyder is the head coach of the Utah Jazz and Grant Hill is a part of the new ownership group of the Atlanta Hawks.

Krzyzewski has had 11 former players spend a portion of their coaching careers as members of the Duke staff, including his entire staff for the 2015-16 season.

Success On and Off the Court

When Coach K came to Duke in the spring of 1980, he found a program that was searching for strong leadership and a rebirth of the success that Blue Devil fans had come to know and love. As he enters his 36th season at the helm, the numbers more than prove the faith that former athletic director Tom Butters put in the young, unproven coach to assemble a basketball program consistently ranking in the upper echelon of the country.

Krzyzewski runs a quality program from top to bottom, from the players he recruits to the performance of his teams on the floor, year in and year out.

"I want Duke basketball to be good on a continuing basis," said

Krzyzewski. "All along it has been my goal to give Duke a program that will last, one that will be nationally ranked and worthy of postseason play every year."

No words can better describe the basketball program he has established at Duke University. Krzyzewski has led his Blue Devils to overwhelming success while building a program that will continue to flourish in the years to come.

The term "student-athlete" is used over and over in college athletics, but the Duke basketball team truly exemplifies the ideal. During Krzyzewski's time in Durham, the Blue Devils had 64 All-ACC Academic Team selections, including a program-best five members in 2015.

Krzyzewski has had five different players collect a total of eight CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades, including Mason Plumlee who garnered first team honors in 2012 and 2013. Plumlee, along with Shane Battier, Mike Gminski and Jim Spanarkel, are the only two-time first team Academic All-America selections in Duke basketball history. In June of 2015, Battier became the first player under Krzyzewski and Duke's second overall to be inducted into the CoSIDA Academic Hall of Fame (Mike Gminski, 2006).

Prior to Duke

Krzyzewski's teams take nothing for granted on the court. The core of their success is pressure man-to-man defense, developed over the years with hard work in practice, commitment to excellence and attention to detail. Coach K's players believe in their system and know that when they win, it is largely because of excellent team defense.

His disciplined, mentally tough teams could be seen as an outgrowth of Coach K's own upbringing. He went to West Point to enroll in the U.S. Military Academy and receive a quality education, play basketball and become an officer in the Army.

From 1969-74, Krzyzewski served his country. He directed service teams for three years and then followed that up with two years as head coach of the U.S. Military Academy Prep School in Belvoir, Va.

In 1974, he resigned from the Army having attained the rank of Captain. When Krzyzewski was just 26, Bob Knight, his former coach at Army, called and offered him a graduate assistant slot at Indiana University. That 1975 squad posted an 18-0 Big Ten mark and a 31-1 record.

Prior to joining the Duke program, Krzyzewski spent five years building the program at his alma mater in West Point. He led the Cadets to one NIT berth, one ECAC playoff appearance and a five-year record of 73-59.

Community Service

Krzyzewski has been heavily involved in community service both locally and on the national stage throughout his coaching career. He is currently an honorary co-chair of C-Change, while also assuming vital roles with the Duke Children's Hospital, the Jimmy V Foundation for Cancer Research and the NABC Foundation.

On Jan. 18, 2014, the 41st President of the United States and co-founder/chairman of CEO Roundtable on Cancer [C-Change], George H.W. Bush, traveled to Durham to recognize Krzyzewski for his personal commitment and leadership in working toward eliminating cancer as a public health threat.

Krzyzewski is also on the board of the Jimmy V Foundation for Cancer Research and has been active in the foundation since inception in 1993. Most recently, he and his wife, Mickie, hosted the 2013 V Foundation Napa Valley Wine Celebration, an event that raised more than $9 million for cancer research.

Currently an honorary chairman of the Duke Children's Hospital, Krzyzewski participates annually in the Children's Hospital Radiothon and was extremely active in past events such as the Duke Children's Miracle Network Telethon and the Duke Children's Classic.

Coach K's charitable activities also include the establishment and funding of the Emily Krzyzewski Center, a community center in Durham named after his mother. The Center's mission is to inspire economically disadvantaged students to dream big, act with character and purpose, strive for academic excellence, and reach their highest potential as future citizen leaders. In 2002, several of Duke's former basketball stars, including Grant Hill, Christian Laettner, Shane Battier, Mike Dunleavy and Danny Ferry, returned to campus for the Duke All-Star Charity Hoopla, with the game and surrounding events helping raise significant funds for the Duke/Durham Neighborhood Partnership and the Emily K Center.

Krzyzewski's emphasis on education and literacy was recognized in 2000 when he was named the first recipient of the GTE Reads with the NABC Literacy Champion Award. In honor of Krzyzewski's selection, GTE (now Verizon) donated $10,000 to support Duke Athletics' literacy program, Verizon Read with the Blue Devils.

The USBWA honored Krzyzewski in 2012 with the Wayman Tisdale Humanitarian Award, given annually to an individual involved in college basketball who has made a significantly positive impact on society.

Krzyzewski, along with his Duke and USA Basketball teams, have also been active in the military community by participating in Hoops for Troops and the Wounded Warriors Project.

Coach K and the Duke Community

The students at the university are also an important part of Coach K's life. He appreciates their support and often finds a way to include the students, especially those camped out in Krzyzewskiville, a tent community erected each season outside of Cameron Indoor Stadium for students wanting to get a head start on securing entrance to games. He has been known to treat the fans camping out for days, or even weeks, to a pregame strategy session in Cameron or to buy them pizzas while they wait in line. He knows that the unique relationship between his team and the student body is what makes Duke special. The "Cameron Crazies" are regarded as some of the best fans in all of sports.

The university also recognized his vital role on campus, awarding him Duke's highest honor – the Medal of Honor – at the University Founders' Day Convocation in 1997.

In September 2001, Krzyzewski and his wife Mickie created the Krzyzewski Family Scholarship Endowment for Duke students from the Carolinas. The $100,000 scholarship, the result of the Krzyzewskis' gift and additional funds from The Duke Endowment of Charlotte, will provide assistance to undergraduates from North and South Carolina.

"Mickie and Mike Krzyzewski both do so much for our university," said former Duke President Nan Keohane following the gift. "Their many contributions to our athletic program are well known, and their support of undergraduate academic and residential life at Duke should be, as well."

During the fall of 2002, Coach K received an Honorary Alumnus Award from the Duke Medical Center for his contributions to the Duke Children's Health Center. Krzyzewski and his family have made the center a focal point in their efforts to raise the standard of clinical care for children.

Coach K: Author

Add another piece to Krzyzewski's already impressive resume – bestselling author. Coach K has co-authored two books with Texas writer Don Phillips published by Warner Books. "Leading with the Heart," emphasizing Krzyzewski's successful strategies for basketball, business and life, was released in 2000. It reached the New York Times best-seller list.

The story of Duke's 2001 national championship season, "Five-Point Play," was released in the fall of 2001. The book relives Duke's journey toward the 2001 NCAA title, the school's third in an 11-year span.

Krzyzewski also co-wrote a book with Duke Sports Hall of Famer Bill Brill entitled "A Season is a Lifetime" following the 1992 national championship. Following the 2008 Olympics, Krzyzewski and his daughter Jamie K. Spatola co-authored their second book together, titled "The Gold Standard: Building a World-Class Team." The book was released on April 6, 2009, and featured Coach K's guide to team building, illustrated with experiences from his three years coaching the team that would ultimately win Olympic gold.

Krzyzewski and his daughter Jamie also wrote "Beyond Basketball: Coach K's Keywords For Success," which was released in October 2006.

Jeff Capel

The Homeland Foundation Associate Head Coach Fifth Season at Duke Duke, 1997

Former Duke standout Jeff Capel joined the Duke staff as an assistant coach on May 6, 2011 after spending the previous nine years as the head coach at Virginia Commonwealth (2002-06) and Oklahoma (2006-11). He was promoted to associate coach in July of 2013 and then named associate head coach prior to the 2014-15 season.

Capel owns a 175-110 record as a head coach with three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Elite Eight in 2008 with Oklahoma.

In four seasons at Duke, Capel has seen the program compile a 118-26 record with a 53-15 mark in ACC regular season play. The Blue Devils have earned a top three seed in the NCAA Tournament four times, won the NCAA Championship in 2015 and reached the Elite Eight in 2013. Capel has also been instrumental on the recruiting trail helping Duke secure commitments from nine McDonald's All-America selections. The Blue Devils have landed the No.1 recruiting class in the country in each of the past two years.

Capel took over as court coach and scout with the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team in July of 2013 and assisted the staff throughout Team USA's gold-medal run at the 2014 FIBA World Cup in Spain.

Last season, Capel was instrumental in the evolution of a young Blue Devil team. With three freshmen in the starting rotation and five underclassman in an eight-man rotation Duke won 18 of its final 19 games en route to the 2015 NCAA Championship. The Blue Devils finished the season 35-4 overall (15-3 in the ACC) and ranked No. 1 in the Final USA Today Coaches Poll. Freshman Jahlil Okafor averaged 17.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game, while earning unanimous first team All-America and National Freshman of the Year accolades. He also became the first freshman in league history to receive ACC Player of the Year honors. Justise Winslow, a freshman out of Houston, also thrived in the Duke system averaging 12.6 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. He was terrific during Duke's NCAA Tournament run earning South Regional and Final Four all-tournament team recognition. Capel helped deliver a freshman class that averaged 46.1 points per game, third-most in ACC history.

Capel played a key role in the development of National Freshman of the Year Jabari Parker as well as All-ACC wing Rodney Hood as Duke posted a 26-9 record overall with a 13-5 mark in league play in 2014. The high-scoring tandem combined for 35.2 points and 12.6 rebounds per game in guiding the Blue Devils to the ACC title game and the program's 18th straight 20-win season.

In 2012-13, Capel helped guide Duke to a 30-win season and a 14-4 record in league play. The Blue Devils went 6-3 against AP top 25 teams with wins over No. 2 Louisville, No. 3 Kentucky, No. 4 Ohio State and No. 5 Miami. He saw the senior trio of Seth Curry, Ryan Kelly and Mason Plumlee combine to average 37.5 points and 17.8 rebounds per game. Curry and Plumlee both earned second team All-America honors as well as first team All-ACC Quinn Cook. The sophomore point guard recorded 21 double-figure scoring games while averaging 11.7 points, 3.8 rebounds and 5.3 assists per game. Cook was named MVP of the Battle 4 Atlantis and was also a third team All-ACC pick by ACSMA.

In his first year back in Durham, the Blue Devils posted a 27-7 record, including a 13-3 mark in the ACC. Duke earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and finished the year with 10 wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Capel helped mentor a trio of All-ACC performers (Austin Rivers, Seth Curry and Mason Plumlee) in 2011-12.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach under his father, Jeff Capel II, at Old Dominion University for the 2000-01 season. In 2001, he joined the coaching staff at VCU as an assistant and was promoted to head coach of the Rams for the 2002-03 season-making him, at the time, the youngest head coach in Division I men's college basketball (27 years old).

Capel guided the Rams to an 18-10 mark overall in 2002-03 to tie a school record for wins by a first year coach. VCU also went 12-6 in league play to finish second in the Colonial Athletic Association.

In 2003-04, VCU's CAA Tournament championship game victory over George Mason catapulted the Rams to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1996. The Rams lost in the first round to Chris Paul and Wake Forest, but not before putting a major scare into the fourth-seeded Demon Deacons, 79-78. VCU closed the year 23-8 overall and 14-4 in league play. The 23 wins were the most for the program since the 1995-96 season and marked the 11th 20-win season in school history.

Capel's 2004-05 squad finished 19-13 and competed in the National Invitation Tournament, marking just the third time in program history that VCU made consecutive postseason appearances. In his final year, Capel guided the Rams to a 19-10 record, including an 11-7 mark in league play.

Capel compiled a 79-41 (.658) record, including a 50-22 (.694) mark in the CAA, over four years as head coach at Virginia Commonwealth prior to being named the head coach at Oklahoma on April 11, 2006.

While at Oklahoma, Capel led the Sooners to a 96-69 (.582) record overall with two NCAA Tournament trips (2008 & 2009) and was a major factor in the recruitment and development of 2009 National Player of the Year Blake Griffin. Griffin would go on to become the first player from Oklahoma to be selected No. 1 in the NBA Draft, the 2011 NBA Rookie of the Year and the 2011 NBA Slam Dunk champion.

In his first year in Norman, Capel guided his squad to a 16-15 mark despite the departure of three key members of the recruiting class prior to his arrival.

Capel signed Griffin, a McDonald's All-American, in his first full recruiting class and the Sooners quickly showed vast signs of improvement. Oklahoma finished the year 23-12 overall and 9-7 in Big 12 play. The Sooners reached the semifinals of the Big 12 tournament and earned a sixth-seed in the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Capel earned his first NCAA Tournament victory with an opening round win over St. Joseph's before losing to third-seeded Louisville.

Associate Coach, Duke, 2013-2014

Associate Head Coach, Duke, 2014-present

In 2008-09, Oklahoma experienced one of the best seasons in school history as the Capel-led Sooners finished 30-6 for the program's fifth 30-win season all-time and reached the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. The Sooners opened the year 25-1 to reach No. 2 in the AP Poll before Griffin was sidelined for a week with a concussion suffered during a late February contest. Capel's Sooners were granted a No. 2 seed for the NCAA Tournament, and easily beat Morgan State, Michigan and Syracuse to reach the Elite Eight. Oklahoma fell to eventual NCAA champion North Carolina, 72-60, despite another outstanding performance from Griffin. The unanimous All-America selection and National Player of the Year finished the NCAA Tournament with 114 points and 60 rebounds, becoming the first player to reach such milestones in over 40 years.

With the early departure of Griffin as well as the graduation of two other starters, Oklahoma was left with an inexperienced although talented team for the 2009-10 season. With two returning starters and three McDonald's All-Americans on the roster the Sooners were ranked in the top 20 of the preseason polls. After a 13-9 start to the season, injuries and youth caught up to the Sooners as the team dropped its final nine games of the season to finish 13-18 overall.

Capel's roster was further depleted for the 2010-11 season as three highly recruited players left school early. In all the Sooners had to replace four of their top five scorers heading into Capel's fifth season at Oklahoma. Despite a roster that featured just two upperclassmen who would play more than 10 minutes per game and two players taller than 6-foot-7, the Sooners battled to a 14-18 record on the year. Seven of Oklahoma's top eight scorers on the season were freshmen or sophomores, and those seven players accounted for 70 percent of the team's points on the year.

Capel also has coaching experience on the international level with USA Basketball. In the summer of 2010, he led a USA team featuring Kyrie Irving and Austin Rivers to a 5-0 record and the gold medal at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship in San Antonio, Texas. He was also an assistant coach on a gold-medal-winning USA Men's World University Games Team that featured Duke's Shelden Williams and went 8-0 in Turkey in 2005.

Following his career at Duke, Capel played professionally for two years. He spent the 1997-98 season playing for the Continental Basketball Association's Grand Rapids Hoops. In 1999-2000, he played in France before returning to Grand Rapids. Capel was also drafted in 1997 by the Raleigh Cougars of the USBL.

During his successful playing career as a Blue Devil, Capel racked up 1,601 points, 433 assists and 220 three-point field goals. He finished his career among Duke's all-time leaders in minutes played, three-point field goal percentage, three-point field goals and assists. He was a four-year starter for the Blue Devils, helping the team to an 83-46 record and a trip to the 1994 NCAA Championship game. Capel started 28 games as a freshman for a Duke squad that lost to Arkansas in the 1994 national championship game, 76-72.

On February 2, 1995 in the regular season game played at home against North Carolina, with Duke trailing 95-92 at the end of the first overtime, Capel hit a running 40-foot shot at the buzzer which sent the game into double-overtime. Although Duke lost the game 102-100, Capel's shot was hailed as one of the most memorable plays in Duke basketball history and it was nominated for an ESPY Award for College Basketball Play of the Year.

Capel led the Blue Devils in scoring as a junior (16.6 ppg.) and helped Duke to a No. 8 final AP ranking as a senior. He averaged 26.5 points over Duke's two NCAA Tournament games in 1997, the same season he was named an Academic All-ACC selection.

A standout prep performer, Capel was named the 1993 North Carolina High School Player of the Year after averaging 23.8 points, 5.1 rebounds and 7.7 assists for 31-1 state champion Fayetteville South View. He also set school career records for points (2,066), rebounds (668) and assists (663).

Capel, who graduated from Duke with a bachelor's degree in history in 1997, and his wife, Kanika, married in 2003. They have two daughters, Cameron and Sydney, and a son, Elijiah.

Capel's younger brother, Jason, was a four-year starter at North Carolina and was the head coach at Appalachian State from 2011-14.

Nate James
The Pagliuca Family
Assistant Coach
Ninth Season at Duke
Duke, 2001

Former Duke standout Nate James has been a member of the Blue Devils' staff since the 2007-08 season, serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for one year and spending three seasons as an assistant coach prior to being named a special assistant on April 8, 2011. James returned to the role of assistant coach prior to the 2013-14 season after the departure of former associate head coach Chris Collins.

The Washington, D.C., native is joined on Mike Krzyzewski's staff by fellow former Duke team captains Jeff Capel (associate head coach) and Jon Scheyer (assistant coach).

In five total seasons as an assistant coach, James has helped the Blue Devils to a 158-30 (.840) record with three ACC Tournament titles and NCAA championships in both 2010 and 2015. Duke has earned three No. 1 seeds, a No. 2 seed and a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament during James' five seasons as an assistant coach.

Duke has averaged 30.4 wins per season since James joined the staff prior to the 2007-08 campaign. During that time, the Blue Devils have also produced a total of 13 NBA Draft picks, including 11 first-round picks and six lottery selections.

With James on the bench, the 2014-15 Duke team featured one of the nation's most effective offensive attacks, ranking third nationally in both field goal percentage and adjusted offensive efficiency, as well as sixth nationally in scoring offense.

Following the program's fifth national championship, three Duke players – Jahlil Okafor, Justise Winslow and Tyus Jones – were taken in the first round of the 2015 NBA Draft for just the second time in program history.

From 2009-11, James helped lead Duke to three consecutive ACC Tournament championships, winning at least 30 games in each of those three seasons.

As a coach who won a national championship with the Blue Devils as a player in 2001, James' insight helped the Duke squad as it made its run to the NCAA title in 2010 along with ACC regular season and tournament championships. That season, James helped guide one of the nation's top defenses as the Blue Devils held opponents to just 61.0 points per game and ranked 14th nationally in rebound margin.

James played in 135 games with 63 starts from 1997-01. He scored 1,116 points, had 500 rebounds and shot 47.3 percent from the floor for his career. While known primarily for his defensive and rebounding prowess, James made 111-career three-point field goals. Duke won or shared the ACC regular-season championship in all five years that James was on the team, a feat achieved by no other player in league history.

A two-time team captain, James brought a warrior mentality to the court that set an example for his teammates and led to numerous Duke victories. Sometimes that meant scoring, as in the 26 points he had against Texas to help Duke win the 2001 Preseason NIT or the career-high 27 that he scored against Clemson later that year. James' warrior spirit usually showed in the way he went after loose balls and rebounds, the way he defended and the way he attacked weight training workouts. As a senior, he was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team and garnered third-team All-ACC recognition from the league's media.

One of James' most significant contributions to the 2001 NCAA crown was the way he handled his move out of the starting lineup late in the season. James had started 29 consecutive games heading into the regular season finale against North Carolina, but Krzyzewski wanted to rework his lineup with James coming off the bench following an injury to Carlos Boozer. James accepted the move and averaged better than 24 minutes per game in Duke's nine postseason victories.

James' unselfishness prompted Krzyzewski to state that James may have been the biggest winner of all: "When he walked off the court in Minneapolis, he was not only a champion in basketball - Nate James was a champion in life."

With 117 career victories, James is among the winningest players in school history, standing in a tie for 10th in ACC history along with Danny Ferry, Andre Dawkins and Quinn Cook. Duke posted a winning percentage of .867 (117-18) with James on the court, placing him seventh on the Duke career list. Along with his five ACC regular-season championships, he was also a member of three ACC Tournament championship squads at Duke.

James also made his mark on the Duke record books as a player. He is one of 64 players in program history to score more than 1,000-career points and now ranks 53rd on the program's all-time list with 1,116 points in his career. He is one of 47 players in Duke history with 500-career rebounds and ranks 23rd all-time at Duke with 147-career steals.

Following his career at Duke, James played professionally in the United States and overseas from 2002-07. After being named the Carolinas Basketball League Most Valuable Player in 2003, James spent various parts of the next five seasons playing in Bosnia, Brazil, France, Germany, Greece, Holland, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Philippines, Poland and Russia. He was also with the Philadelphia 76ers during their training camp in 2004.

In the off-season, James has directed a summer basketball camp with former Blue Devil Chris Carrawell in Durham. The camp teaches the importance of fundamentals in the game of basketball and life.

James earned his degree in sociology, with a minor in African-American studies, from Duke in 2001. He is married to Bobbi Baker-James and currently resides in Durham. The couple has one son, Nathaniel Drake James III.

Jon Scheyer

The Steve & Judy Pagliuca Assistant Coach Third Season at Duke Duke, 2010

Former Duke All-America Jon Scheyer joined the Blue Devil coaching staff as a special assistant on April 29, 2013, after spending the previous three years playing professionally. He is in his second season as an assistant coach after being promoted to that position in April of 2014 upon the departure of former associate head coach Steve Wojciechowski.

The Northbrook, III., native is joined on Mike Krzyzewski's staff by fellow former Duke team captains Jeff Capel (associate head coach) and Nate James (assistant coach).

Scheyer, who lettered at Duke from 2007-10 and sparked the Blue Devils to two ACC championships and the 2010 NCAA championship, helped lead Duke to a 35-4 record, a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the 2015 NCAA championship in his first season as an assistant coach.

Scheyer helped mold the 2014-15 Blue Devils into one of the nation's most potent teams on the offensive end of the floor, as Duke ranked third nationally in both field goal percentage and adjusted offensive efficiency, as well as sixth nationally in scoring offense.

In addition to the program's fifth national title, Scheyer's first season as a Duke assistant coach culminated with three Blue Devils - Jahlil Okafor, Justise Winslow and Tyus Jones - selected in the first round of the 2015 NBA Draft. The occasion marked just the second time in program history that Duke produced three first-round picks in one draft.

In 2013-14, Scheyer's duties as a special assistant included assisting the coaching staff in developing game strategies, breaking down game film, planning practices and contributing in staff meetings.

Scheyer was one of the most versatile players in Duke history, concluding his playing career as the only player in school history to record at least 2,000 points, 500 rebounds, 400 assists, 250 made three-point field goals and 200 steals. He averaged 14.4 points per game while scoring in double figures 114 times (sixth-most in Duke history) and leading the Blue Devils to a 115-29 record, including a 45-19 mark in ACC play.

A two-time team captain, Scheyer scored 2,077-career points to rank 10th on Duke's all-time scoring list. He also ranks third all-time at Duke in made free throws (608) and free throw percentage (.861), fourth in three-point field goals (297) and sixth in free throw attempts (706). He played in 144 consecutive games, tied for the second-longest streak in Duke history.

As a senior during the 2009-10 season, Scheyer took over starting point guard duties for the Blue Devils and averaged 18.2 points, 4.9 assists and 1.6 steals per game to guide Duke to a 35-5 and its fourth national championship. He was a consensus second-team All-America, while also receiving first-team All-ACC, ACC All-Tournament, NCAA South Region All-Tournament and NCAA All-Final Four honors.

Scheyer started all 40 contests as a senior, averaging a team-high 36.8 minutes and leading Duke in scoring at 18.2 points per game. His 38 double-figure scoring games on the season are tied for third on the Blue Devils' single-season chart.

As a junior, Scheyer averaged 14.9 points, 3.6 rebounds and 2.8 assists while helping Duke to a 30-7 record and the ACC championship. He garnered ACC Tournament MVP honors after averaging 21.7 points and 4.0 rebounds per game in wins over Boston College, Maryland and Florida State. Scheyer tallied 29 points in the title game on 6-of-10 shooting from the field (4-of-6 from three-point range) and 13-of-15 shooting from the free throw line.

Jon Schever as a Blue Devil

Scheyer was a double-figure scorer in each of his first two seasons in Durham, scoring 799 points combined as a freshman and sophomore. He earned ACC All-Freshman Team honors in 2007 after averaging 12.2 points and 3.3 rebounds per game. He also made 61 three-point field goals in 2006-07, third-most by a freshman at Duke.

Scheyer earned McDonald's All-America and first-team Parade All-America honors in 2006 coming out of Glenbrook North High School. Already recognized as an elite scorer, his legend grew when he scored 21 points in 75 seconds at the Proviso West Holiday Tournament as a senior. He closed his career as the fourth-leading scorer in Illinois high school basketball history with 3,034 points. He is also the only player in Illinois history to rank in the top 10 all-time in points, assists and steals.

A two-time Gatorade Illinois Player of the Year and three-time all-state selection, Scheyer was named to the 100 Legends of Illinois Basketball in 2007.

Following his graduation from Duke in 2010, Scheyer played professionally with the Rio Grande Valley Vipers in the NBA Developmental League and overseas with the Maccabi Tel-Aviv and Gran Canaria organizations.

David Bradley

Director of Basketball Operations 12th Season at Duke Duke, 2004

David Bradley, a 2004 Duke graduate, enters his second season as the director of basketball operations and his 12th year as a member of the Duke basketball support staff.

Bradley works in conjunction with the coaching staff, support staff, Legacy Fund team, compliance office, sports information office and facilities department on a daily basis to ensure that all team-related functions are accomplished in a timely manner. He coordinates with college basketball executives at Nike to supply the team with the equipment and apparel needed for each season, while also managing the logistics associated with a 40-person basketball program.

Bradley has been involved in Duke basketball's recruiting efforts for more than 15 years, including managing the team's Duke Blue Planet brand. During that time, Bradley's work included production of the team magazine, designing and maintaining the team's website, coordinating and designing various video features, producing graphics, launching numerous social media accounts and maintaining a statistical database for recruiting.

Currently, Bradley works with Duke basketball's creative coordinator to ensure all team recruiting and branding needs are met.

The West Simsbury, Conn., native earned his bachelor's degree from Duke, graduating with cum laude honors in sociology. In addition, he assisted the director of basketball operations with all aspects of the recruiting process and was named Club Sports Athlete of the Year.

Bradley and his wife Gina, assistant director of athletics for business operations at Duke, reside in Durham with their dog, Piper.

Kevin Cullen

Director of Information Technology Eighth Season at Duke Duke, 2007

Kevin Cullen, a 2007 Duke graduate, enters his third year as director of information technology after serving the previous five years as Duke basketball's video coordinator. In this role, he is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the team's film and video needs, including opponent scouting, coordinating film exchange, managing the video room and supplying coaching staff with game film. In addition, Cullen has also served in a similar video coordinator capacity with USA Basketball since 2008.

He also works in coordination with the director of basketball operations to help perform administrative duties and assists at the K Academy and Coach K Basketball camps.

Cullen joined the program after spending one year as a support manager with Sportstec, USA. In his previous position, he trained Sportstec customers to use the software and develop workflows to enhance the product. He also managed customer accounts in the Southeast United States and developed the platform for Sportstec's future user interface.

A Durham, N.C., native, Cullen was a student manager and assistant video coordinator for the men's basketball program as an undergraduate. In addition to assisting the staff and team with logistics relating to practice, scouting, games and travel, he worked closely with the director of basketball operations to coordinate all video needs for the staff. He was the 2007 recipient of the Gopal Varadhan Senior Manager award.

He and his wife, Holly, reside in Durham.

Kenny King

The Steve & Melinda Duncker Academic Support Director / Student Life & Campus Relations Coordinator 14th Season at Duke Duke, 2000

Kenny King enters his 14th year working with the Duke basketball program on a full-time basis. King returned to his alma mater during the summer of 2002 as the basketball program's academic and recruiting coordinator. While his primary focus remains the team's academic endeavors, his role in 2007-08 was broadened to include all aspects of student life.

King's main responsibilities include class scheduling, tutoring, time management and long-term academic and career planning, and serving as the liaison for campus affairs. As the scope of the program has become more global, King continues to strengthen communication between the undergraduate faculty while expanding his reach to include the graduate, professional and international communities. In addition to his academic and campus duties, King is also involved in Duke's day-to-day basketball operations. He assists the Blue Devil coaching staff with various recruiting responsibilities. King also assists with the direction of Mike Krzyzewski's basketball camp and the K Academy.

King served four years as a student manager at Duke from 1996-2000. Following his graduation in 2000, King worked at Morgan Stanley for two years as an analyst in the Fixed Income Division both in their New York and London offices.

King, a native of Harrison, N.Y., graduated cum laude from Duke with a Bachelor of Science in economics and a minor in chemistry. He also earned his MBA from Duke's Fuqua School of Business in the spring of 2008. A graduate of Iona Preparatory School, King and his wife, the former Robin Hutchison, have three sons, John Kenny III "Jack", William and Alexander, and one daughter, Kathryn.

Will Stephens

Associate Director of Sports Performance 17th Season at Duke N.C. Central, 1987

Associate director of sports performance William Stephens is in his 17th season with the Duke athletics program. Stephens is the sports performance coordinator for men's and women's basketball.

Stephens is a native of Whiteville, N.C. A 1983 graduate of West Columbus High School in Cerro

Gordo, N.C., Stephens was a Three Rivers first team all-conference offensive lineman in 1982. He graduated from N.C. Central University in 1987 with a degree in criminal justice. Rogers graduated from the U.S. Military Academy in 1947 and served in the Army until 1977, when he retired as a colonel. Before coming to Duke, he served as an officer representative, basketball advisor and recruiting coordinator for

Jose Fonseca

Athletic Trainer

Jose Fonseca is in his 12th year as basketball athletic trainer at Duke University. Fonseca arrived at Duke after spending two seasons in a similar role at University of Nebraska, where he also assisted with the Cornhuskers' nationally-ranked football program.

Prior to Nebraska, he was the athletic trainer for men's basketball and baseball at East Tennessee State University from 1999-2002.

Originally from San Salvador, El Salvador, Fonseca earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science with an emphasis in athletic training at The Pennsylvania State University in 1997. He returned to Penn State to earn his master's degree in kinesiology in 1999.

He is married to the former Janna Cinnamon of Omaha, Neb. The couple has one son, Pedro "Pete," and one daughter, Alexis.

Nick Potter

Asst. Director of Athletic Rehabilitation

Nick Potter is in his 10th year as the assistant director of athletic rehabilitation at Duke University. He is an instructor in the doctor of physical therapy program in Duke's School of Medicine

Potter entered his current position after completing the sports physical therapy fellowship at Duke Sports Medicine. Prior to his fellowship, he completed a combined orthopedic residency/manual therapy fellowship at Sports Medicine of Atlanta.

Originally from Buffalo, N.Y., Potter earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine with emphases in athletic training and pre-physical therapy at Mercyhurst College in 2001. He was a four-year letterman on the men's soccer team, helping the Lakers to four GLIAC Championships and a NCAA national semifinal appearance in 1998. Potter earned his doctorate in physical therapy from Duke in 2004.

Potter and his wife, Ciara, reside in Raleigh with their son, Conor.

Ty Rogers

Creative Coordinator

Ty Rogers begins his first season as creative coordinator for the Duke men's basketball program. In this role, Rogers works with Duke's director of basketball operations to ensure all team recruiting and branding needs are met.

Prior to Duke, Rogers worked as a staff assistant with the men's basketball program at Indiana University, managing the Hoosiers' social media channels with emphases on graphic design and visual media.

A 2010 graduate of Indiana University, Rogers lettered in baseball for the Hoosiers from 2008-10. Following a stint as a pro baseball player in the Frontier League, Rogers was an assistant baseball coach at Parkland College, Bradley University, Oakland University, Eastern Illinois University and Indiana University.

Dave McClain

Director of Athletic Equipment

Dave McClain enters his 22nd year with the Duke athletics department. He works with the men's basketball program, olympic sports, intramurals, club sports and physical education classes as the equipment manager.

He is responsible for the organization and upkeep of the team's uniforms and equipment for both practices and games.

McClain, a native of Mooresville, N.C., is a 1988 graduate of Clemson University with a bachelor of science degree in industrial education.

McClain and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Ashley and Kristin. The McClain family resides in Mebane.

Gerry Brown

Executive Assistant to Mike Krzyzewski

Gerry Brown begins her 29th season with Duke Basketball and her 21st season as Coach Krzyzewski's assistant. She works closely with numerous senior university and athletic administrators and the Duke basketball staff in coordinating coach Krzyzewski's calendar and speaking engagements on and off campus, and assists Coach K with all of his travel and recruiting responsibilities. Brown is also in charge of coordinating all of Coach Krzyzewski's autograph requests in addition to the ticket requests that the basketball office receives and those of the coaching staff and players.

This is her 31st year working at Duke University. She has also worked for the Physical Education Department and the Athletics Ticket Office.

Brown and her husband, Philip, reside in Durham. They have two grown children, Philip and Megan, a grandson, August Noah Brown, and a granddaughter, Lela Rae Brown.

Laura Ann Howard

Administrative Assistant

Laura Ann Howard is in her 25th season in the Duke basketball office as an administrative assistant. She works closely with the Blue Devil assistant coaches, assisting them with their schedules, travel and recruiting responsibilities. Howard coordinates administrative duties involving the Duke basketball staff and players. She is also in charge of coordinating all player autograph requests.

Howard and her husband, Steve, reside in Durham with their two daughters, Rachel Ann and Emma, and their son, Jake.

Lindy Frasher

Performance Development Coordinator

Lindy Frasher begins her 13th season working with the Duke basketball team.

Under the supervision of Dr. Keith Brodie, Frasher provides guidance and support to student-athletes, instructs them on performance enhancement techniques and consults with the coaching staff to evaluate the team's progress and well-being. Frasher is visible at the team's practices and at coaches' meetings to give the student-athletes and staff a non-basketball perspective on the development of the team.

In addition to her responsibilities at Duke, she begins her seventh year as psychology instructor and student advisor at Durham Academy.

Frasher graduated magna cum laude from Wake Forest University in 1999 with a B.S. in psychology and minors in Spanish and theater. She earned her master's degree in clinical psychology from Pepperdine University in 2001

The middle daughter of Mike Krzyzewski, Frasher and her husband, Steve, reside in Durham. They have three sons, Quin, Remington and Caden.

Jon Jackson

Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Jon Jackson was named Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs in July of 2014 after serving as Associate Athletics Director in various roles since 2007. Jackson oversees Duke Athletics' marketing, ticket operations, digital media, sports information and video operations departments. Additionally, he is responsible for Duke Athletics' strategic communication, including that of its highly visible and successful men's basketball program. Jackson handles media activities specifically relating to Duke Head Basketball Coach Mike Krzyzewski. He serves as the department's liaison with campus communication groups and is the primary administrator for the Blue Devils' wrestling program, which as a non-scholarship program has placed in the top 30 nationally the past two seasons.

Jackson was named Duke Sports Information Director in January 2000 and remained in that position for eight years. He arrived at Duke after serving as an Assistant Athletics Director for Communication at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. While at SMU, Jackson oversaw the media efforts for all 17 of the school's intercollegiate sports and was the primary contact for the Mustang football and men's basketball programs. He began his SMU career as an Assistant Sports Information Director in 1991.

Jackson went to SMU after working for one year as a Staff Assistant at the University of Florida in 1990-91 and three years as a student assistant at the Penn State University SID office. He also interned with the United States Olympic Committee during the summer of 1990. A native of Lebanon, Pa., Jackson graduated from Penn State with distinction in 1990 with a B.A. in mass communications.

Jackson and his wife Cheryl reside in Durham. He has two children -daughter Kailey and son Evan.

Cory Walton

Sr. Associate Sports Information Director

Cory Walton joined the Duke Athletics staff in August of 2015 and serves as a Senior Associate Sports Information Director. In this role, he serves as the primary communications contact for the men's basketball and men's golf programs.

Walton came to Durham following a twoyear stint as the men's basketball and men's golf communications contact at the University of Arizona. Prior to his tenure in Tucson, he worked in the sports information departments at the University of Missouri, University of Notre Dame, University of Florida, Ohio University and Purdue University.

A native of Mishawaka, Ind., Walton graduated from the University of Missouri in 2006 and earned induction into the Kappa Tau Alpha journalism and mass communications honor society. He is married to Meghan Gannon of Mercerville, N.J.

Bradley Amersbach

Assistant Sports Information Director

Brad Amersbach joined the Duke sports information staff in July of 2013 as a sports information staff assistant and was promoted to assistant sports information director in July of 2014.

Amersbach currently serves as the secondary contact for the men's basketball program and as the primary contact for the cross country and women's tennis teams.

A native of Royersford, Pa., Amersbach is a 2008 graduate of Millersville University, where he earned a degree in secondary English education. Following graduation, he taught 10th, 11th and 12th grade English at Spring-Ford High School in Royersford, Pa., for five years. During his time at Spring-Ford, Amersbach earned a master's degree in public administration, with a concentration in sport & athletic administration, from West Chester University.

While earning his master's degree, Amersbach completed an internship in West Chester's Sports Information Department, contributing to the football program's media guide and assisting with the annual Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) East football media day.

Amersbach currently resides in Durham.

Mike Cragg

Deputy Director of Athletics/Operations

Mike Cragg, a 29-year veteran of sports administration, helps lead the Duke athletics department in his role as Deputy Director of Athletics/Operations. During his time at Duke, Cragg has been an integral leader and strategic planner within virtually every area and aspect of the athletics department and thus his role as Duke's chief operations officer.

He currently serves as the senior administrator for the men's basketball program as well as overseeing all of the facilities & planning for all 26 of Duke's intercollegiate sports. He has worked directly under Dr. Kevin White, Duke's Vice President and Director of Athletics, for the past five years, and serves on his executive staff committee responsible for the day-to-day administration of the department.

Cragg has one of the more unique set of responsibilities in all of college athletics – a testament to his long-term dedication and successful track record in the growth of the entire department. Duke annually ranks among the most successful programs both on and off the fields of intercollegiate competition with top graduation rates and Top 20 annual NACDA Directors' Cup finishes.

At Duke since 1987, his chief responsibilities are to oversee the administration, operations and fundraising for Duke's highly successful men's basketball program. The senior administrator of the program since 2000, he helped found the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund and has been responsible for helping raise over $115 million, while also completing the program's naming gift endowment program with over $25 million in philanthropic gifts.

At the same time, Cragg also leads Duke's athletics facilities team and serves as the chief strategist for over $150 million in new or planned facilities construction at Duke since 2000. He was a member of the pivotal strategic planning team that created "Unrivaled Ambition" in 2008 and then a Master Facilities Plan, which serves as Duke's current blueprint and mission for the athletics department within the framework of a world-class higher education institution.

Two of the more recent major projects were the $18.5 million Michael W. Krzyzewski Center - Dedicated to Academic & Athletic Excellence and the Pascal Fieldhouse, which serves as the football program's practice facility. Pascal Fieldhouse is an LED certified building and is considered one of the top football practice facilities in the country.

Cragg oversees the Bostock Group , Duke's current $100 million facilities planning group with a focus on transforming the football program and impacting all 26 sports. The comprehensive plan began with construction in 2013 of new lacrosse/soccer practice and student recreation practice fields. Recently completed are the Morris Williams Track & Field Stadium as well as Kennedy Tower, which serves as the press box for Koskinen Stadium and the new track & field facility. Extensive renovations and upgrades are planned for Duke's Olympic sports student-athlete training and health complex and Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Cragg works closely with the football program in focusing on facility needs, including the ongoing reconstruction of historic Wallace Wade Stadium into a modern day, fan-engaging experience. A new suites and club tower will take form in the near future along with a more intimate field experience. Duke's strategic and innovative thinking will help put the program among the nation's leaders in the decades ahead.

In addition, Cragg is the day-to-day contact with Nike, Inc., as part of the school's comprehensive all-sport partnership. The 48-year-old previously served as the director of media relations for 10 years at Duke.

Joining the department in May of 1987 as an assistant sports information director, he was promoted to Sports Information Director in 1990, and then spent 10 years in that role before moving into the director's position of the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund during the fall of 1999. He helped coordinate media operations at numerous national events, including serving on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Final Four Media Coordination Committee in 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998 and 2000.

In 2004, Cragg was promoted to Associate Athletics Director and, in 2008, was again promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director, adding the administration and day-to-day oversight of all facilities for intercollegiate and recreation use at Duke.

Cragg is active in national leadership programs within intercollegiate athletics as a member of the National Association of Collegiate Director of Athletics (NACDA) and 1A Athletics Directors' Association. Cragg is currently in the 1A Fellows program and attended the 1A Annual Institute in 2011 and 2013. He has also received a certificate in advance sports administration from the Sports Management Institute (SMI).

Cragg has numerous administrative responsibilities within the basketball program, including the coordination of the annual K Academy basketball fantasy camp, the Duke Venture Capital Co-Investment Fund, the Coach K / Fuqua Conference on Leadership and the establishment of the Fuqua / Coach K Center of Leadership & Ethics (COLE).

The Basketball Legacy Fund is a unique and intimate donor program established to endow the basketball program as well as finance basketball-related projects. Partners in the Fund, which is now at 41 active members, give a minimum gift of $1 million and have provided over $115 million in funds since its inception. Serving as Chairman of the Fund is former Duke All-America and multiple All-NBA performer Grant Hill.

Cragg grew up Yakima, Wash., and then received his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from the University of Washington in 1986.

He and his wife, Paige, recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary and have lived in Durham since 1987. They have two children in college - Shelby, a senior at Ringing College for Art & Design, and Michaela, a junior at Wake Forest University.

Duke Basketball Legacy Fund

Duke basketball and world-class success are synonymous. Building the financial infrastructure of the program through the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund and its other development initiatives are imperative to continue that success. Coach K's driving force behind the mission to build an everlasting basketball program speaks for his desire to see the program sustained well past his coaching days.

The Legacy Fund began in January 2000 with the aim to establish a comprehensive endowment fund for player scholarships, coaches' salaries and operational budget, build a capital fund to enhance historic Cameron Indoor Stadium, address year-round training needs and meet the overall demands of the program well into the future. Each of the 41 active partners to the fund have contributed a minimum of $1 million each and contributed a total of over $115 million to date. In September of 2012, Steve and Judy Pagliuca gave a $2.5 million gift to endow two assistant coaching positions and to name the annual Coaches' Award for Duke Basketball. The gift officially closes the named endowment opportunities (head coach, three assistant coaches, 13 scholarships) that were presented when the Legacy Fund was created in 2000.

One of Duke's all-time greats and one of only 13 players in school history to have his jersey number retired, Grant Hill has once again led the Blue Devils by serving as the Chairman of the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund. He accepted the position, as he has everything in his life, with a full commitment to excellence. The six-time NBA All-Star and three-time college All-American led off the fundraising initiative with a $1 million gift to endow a scholarship in his and his wife Tamia's names.

The contributions of Legacy Fund members has also led to several facility upgrades, including renovations to Cameron Indoor Stadium, the Schwartz/Butters Athletic Center and the building of Michael W. Krzyzewski Center - Dedicated to Academic & Athletic Excellence.

The Legacy Fund has also funded a foreign basketball trip to London in 2003, upgraded recruiting travel with strategic use of private planes and fully funded and outfitted the Duke Basketball Museum & Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in the Schwartz/Butters Athletics Center in 2010.

Several other programs have grown from the initial and unique Legacy Fund development plan. In 2002, Duke became just the second school to initiate a Venture Capital Co-Investment Fund within an athletic department, and that group now numbers 17 strong, with each investor giving a $50,000 gift. Duke basketball's connection with the Fuqua School of Business has translated into the annual Coach K / Fuqua Conference on Leadership and six years ago established the unique Fuqua / Coach K Center on Leadership & Ethics.

Another anchor to the year-round Duke Basketball efforts has been the summer basketball fantasy camp, the K Academy. Each year campers from around the country join Duke's former players for a five-day, one-of-a-kind Duke basketball experience. This past summer, 80 campers and over 30 former Duke players came to Cameron for the experience.

As National Coach of the Decade for the 1990s and Duke's visionary leader, Coach K endeavors to secure the future of the program. With the creation of the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund, the program's heralded past as well as its future success will be forever linked.

Debbie Krzyzewski Savarino

Assistant Director of Athletics/Special Events/Director of the Legacy Fund

Debbie K. Savarino joined the Duke staff in 2002 as the primary fund raiser for Duke's sports performance research facility, The K Lab. In 2004, she was named Assistant Director of the Legacy Fund and External Relations Director for Men's Basketball, and was subsequently named Assistant Director of Athletics for Special Events and Director of the Legacy Fund in 2015.

Savarino is responsible for all special events involving the team within the Duke and Durham communities to include Countdown to Craziness, the annual team poster production, the end of season banquet and the K Academy while maintaining the relationships with the Duke Children's Hospital, The Emily K Center and The Jimmy V Foundation.

As Director of the Legacy Fund, Savarino is part of a fundraising team that has 41 active partners and has raised more than $115 million for the program. This team has fully endowed the basketball program to include all player scholarships and coaching positions. Monies raised have also built and maintained the facilities used by the program.

Savarino also works hand in hand with Duke Corporate Education and Fuqua School of Business as a designer and facilitator for corporate events based on team work and leadership skills. These programs have been implemented by some of the world's top corporations.

A 1993 Duke graduate with a degree in Sociology, Savarino is active in the Durham community serving on the board at the Emily K Center and volunteering with the Duke Children's Hospital. Debbie and her husband, Peter have four children, Joey, Michael, Carly and Emmie.

Rachel Fish Curtis

Executive Director of Athletics Environmental Branding/Director of the Legacy Fund

Rachel Fish Curtis has worked for the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund since July 2001. She was promoted to assistant director of the Legacy Fund in July of 2003, to associate director in 2007 and to director in 2015. In 2012, Curtis was also named Duke's director of athletics environmental branding and was promoted to executive director in 2015.

Curtis is responsible for coordinating both fund-specific events and other special events at Duke, including the K Academy. She also coordinates the activities of the Venture Capital Co-Investment Fund.

In addition, Curtis oversees the implementation of all display and design components for all athletics facilities. Most recently, she oversaw renovations of the basketball nuitrition room, player lounge and practice facility as well as updates and renovations to the Taishoff Aquatic Pavilion, Murray Building and wrestling practice facility.

Curtis, a 1996 graduate of Duke, and her husband, David, reside in Durham with their three children, Ben, Sophie and Tilly.

Angela Cox

Administrative Assistant/Legacy Fund

Angela Cox was named administrative assistant for the Duke Basketball Legacy Fund in September of 2014. In this role, Cox assists the deputy director of athletics/operations as well as helps coordinate the day-to-day operations of the legacy office.

Previously, Coxserved as an electromyography technician for the Division of Neurology at the Duke University Medical Center, where her responsibilities included performing nerve conduction studies on patients while maintaining supplies for EMG machines, assisting the director with budget preparation and coordinating the annual chemodenervation workshop.

In addition to her time as an electromyography technician, Cox also held the position of medical secretary for the Division of Neurology for 25 years. During her time as medical secretary, Cox scheduled consultations and studies for patients, gathered relevant information and compiled records for new patients, served as the liaison with administrative personnel and acted as time manager for office personnel.

Cox, a Durham native, currently resides in Bahama.

Kevin M. White

Vice President & Director of Athletics Adjunct Prof. of Business Administration St. Joseph's College, 1972

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 64, joined the Duke family after leading Notre Dame's athletics program to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom from 2000-08. He also has held a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. In 2006, White was named the General Sports TURF Systems Division I-A Central Region Athletic Director of the Year while at Notre Dame. In 2013, White was named one of four NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision recipients of the Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by NACDA. A testament other espect he has garnered within college athletics, White earned multiple high profile awards in 2014-15, including the National Football Foundation's John L. Toner award, Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, Bobby Dodd AD of the Year, and the 2015 Carl Maddox Sports Management Award.

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate impact on Duke Athletics. In addition to leading the department to unprecedented success in competition, he reshaped the organization into a more efficient and modern department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents though consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke's fundraising efforts during an economic downturn; completed partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams; commissioned a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

Since White's arrival, Duke has captured seven NCAA Championships—women's tennis in 2009, men's basketball in 2010 and 2015, men's lacrosse in 2010, 2013 and 2014, and women's golf in 2014 – and 17 ACC titles. On the strength of 20 teams participating in postseason competition and robust finishes in several sports, Duke ranked 20th in the 2015 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determine an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The 20th-place showing marked the 12th consecutive year that Duke has ended among the nation's top 20 programs. In 2011, Duke placed fifth, matching the school's best finish in the rankings and its 1171.50 points earned were the most in program history. In White's seven years at Duke, the Blue Devils placed 17th (2009), 10th (2010), fifth (2011), 16th (2012), 12th (2013), ninth (2014) and 20th (2015) in the Directors' Cup standings.

Sixty-eight Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during the past seven seasons with 11 - men's basketball (2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015), men's lacrosse (2010, 2013, 2014) and women's tennis (2009, 2010, 2014) - reaching No. 1. In all, 118 Blue Devil teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition during White's Duke tenure. In 2014-15, Duke captured its fifth NCAA Championship in men's basketball, while the women's golf and lacrosse teams both advanced to the NCAA semifinals.

Individually, 244 student-athletes earned All-America, 417 All-ACC and 211 All-Region or District honors the past seven years. During White's tenure, Duke boasts 12 NCAA individual champions in Curtis Beach (indoor track and field heptathlon in 2012 and 2014), Juliet Bottorff (outdoor track and field 10k in 2011), Mallory Cecil (women's tennis in 2009), Abby Johnston (three-meter diving in 2011), Nick McCrory (platform diving in 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2014), and Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber in 2009, 2011 and 2012).

Academically, Duke teams continued strong performances under White. In the 2014-15 academic year, 25 of 26 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better, while 123 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the fall semester, and 94 did so in the spring. Overall, 479 Blue Devil student-athletes made the latest All-ACC Honor Roll and continued an amazing stretch wherein Duke led the conference for the 27th time in the past 28 years.

In two key elements in tracking a department's academic success, Duke ranked among the nation's best again. Duke posted a 98% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 16 teams achieved a 100% GSR. Also, an ACC-best 15 Blue Devil teams were ranked in the top 10% of their respective sports in the most recent Academic Performance Rate (APR) Report, including the men's basketball and football teams. In the 2015 report, Duke (992) ranked second among all FBS schools, behind only Wisconsin (998). In all, Duke totaled the highest APR scores among ACC institutions in 12 of the league's 25 sports baseball (996), women's fencing (1000), football (992), women's golf (1000), men's lacrosse (1000), women's lacrosse (1000), rowing (1000), men's swimming and diving (1000), men's tennis (1000) and volleyball (1000).

Four Duke student-athletes were selected as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, while 51 others received National Scholar-Athlete or Scholar All-America accolades. In White's seven-year tenure, former women's tennis player Parker Goyer won a Rhodes Scholarship (2009), while track and field student-athletes Sally Liu (2009) and Allie Speidel (2011) earned Marshall Scholarships.

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, over 500 Duke student-athletes across all sports participated in a combined effort of more than 2,000 community service hours during the 2014-15 academic year.

White's commitment to the overall mission of the university remains clear. A portion of ticket sales Blue Devil regular season home sporting events are directed annually to the Duke University Libraries and the Rubenstein-Bing Civic Engagement program. Per White's vision from 2011, the Duke Athletics Library Fund has generated significant unrestricted revenue for the Duke University Libraries to support teaching and research across the institution. The civic engagement program was started in 2015 in a partnership with Stanford University. The foundation of the venture includes student-athletes from both Duke and Stanford working together in under-resourced communities in the United States and abroad. Through immersive three-week summer service assignments, the student-athletes will have opportunities otherwise not afforded them during the school year due to academic and athletic responsibilities.

In fall of 2012, Duke University announced the $3.25 billion Duke Forward fundraising campaign for priorities across Duke's 10 schools, Duke Medicine and a range of university programs. Included in the campaign is a $250 million goal for Duke Athletics to be divided three ways – for facility enhancements and support ($100 million), endowment income ($50 million) and operating funds ($100 million). Several facility projects have been initiated, including numerous renovations to Wallace Wade Stadium, modifications to the front of Cameron Indoor Stadium, and the new Scott Pavilion, which will house several of Duke Athletics' administrative units, as well as new strength and conditioning and sports medicine areas.

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, The Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White has served on numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Council, formerly the association's highest governing body. In 2012, White was among a select group of college and professional administrators asked to serve on the recently formed Expert Advisory Board for the Knight Commission. Moreover, he was the secretary of NCAA Football, a non-profit corporation acting as the "collective voice to promote college football."

Always in demand as a visionary leader, White currently serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) Board of Directors and on the Advocates for Athletic Equity Board of Directors.

For several years, he was a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. In addition, he previously was an ex-officio member of the Sugar Bowl Committee during his tenure at Tulane, was a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee while at Arizona State, and also worked closely with the Fiesta Bowl during his stay in Tempe.

Given his background and success, it is not surprising that 23 current directors of athletics were mentored by White. That impressive list of current ADs includes:

Prior to joining Notre Dame in 2000, White served as athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, where he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan. He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter. Additionally, White was recognized with honorary degrees from Loras College (2012), the United States Sports Academy (2007) and St. Joseph's College (2001).

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and 12 grandchildren.

2014-15 News & Notes

BY THE NUMBERS

- Mike Krzyzewski became the first coach in NCAA Division I men's basketball history to record 1,000 career wins with a 77-68 win over St. John's Jan. 25, 2015. He led the Blue Devils to a 35-4 record for his NCAA-leading 14th season with 30 or more victories.
- Mike Krzyzewski moved into second place in NCAA history with five NCAA Championships and 12 Final Four appearances.
- Jahlil Okafor averaged 17.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game to earn consensus first team All-America status. He was the 18th Duke player overall and just the second freshman (Jabari Parker 2014) to accomplish that feat.
- Quinn Cook, a Sporting News second team All-America selection, averaged a career-high 15.3 points per game while also posting career bests in field goal percentage (.453), three-point percentage (.395), three-point field goals (2.62 3pg.) and free throw percentage (.891). Cook finished his career as Duke's all-time assist-to-turnover leader (2.52:1).
- Duke was the only team in the NCAA with three freshmen to average double figures in scoring. Jahlil Okafor (17.3 ppg.), Justise Winslow (12.6 ppg.) and Tyus Jones (11.8 ppg.) combine for 41.7 points per game (52.6 percent of Duke scoring). The Blue Devils were 23-2 when the trio combined to score 40 or more points in a game.
- A freshman led the Blue Devils in scoring in 29 of 39 games. Jahlil Okafor has paced the offensive attack 14 times, while Tyus Jones (8), Justise Winslow (6) and Grayson Allen (1) also led Duke in scoring. The rookie class also accounted for 26 of Duke's 33 20-point games on the year (Okafor 14, Jones 7, Winslow 4, Allen 1).
- Justise Winslow averaged 6.5 rebounds per game to become the second player 6-6 or under to average 6.0 rpg, under Coach K. Chris Carrawell averaged 6.1 rpg. in 1999-2000.
- Duke's starting backcourt of Quinn Cook and Tyus Jones combined to shoot 89.0 percent (242-of-272) from the free throw line. The remaining six players in the Duke rotation were 342-of-561 (.610) from the charity stripe.
- Jahlil Okafor recorded the third-highest field goal percentage (.664) in Duke history, finishing the year 279-of-420 from the field. He shot 70 percent or better from the field 20 times on the year and finished eighth in the NCAA in field goal percentage.
- Tyus Jones scored a game-high 23 points, including 19 in the second half of play, in the NCAA title game. He became the fourth freshman in NCAA history to earn Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors. Jones was also the MOP of the South Regional.
- Jahlil Okafor scored 657 points on the season to become the second Duke freshman and the seventh ACC rookie to top the 600-point mark. Okafor became the first freshman in ACC history to earn conference player of the year accolades.
- Justise Winslow averaged 14.3 points, 9.3 rebounds, 2.7 assists, 1.7 blocks and 1.5 steals in NCAA Tournament play. He was 28-of-55 (.509) from the field, including 8-of-14 (.571) from three-point range over the six-game span.
- Duke held each of its six NCAA Tournament opponents under 65 points, marking the first time in program history it accomplished that feat. The Blue Devils allowed just 56.3 points per game on 38.0 percent shooting in the NCAA Tournament.

• Quinn Cook set a Duke record (4th in ACC history) with at least one three-point field goal in 45 consecutive games. Cook's 102 three-point field goals on the season is tied for eighth at Duke.
• Duke's freshman class set an NCAA Championship game record with 60 points in the win over Wisconsin. The group accounted for all 37 points by the Blue Devils in the second half of play.

NON-CON HOME WIN STREAK

 Duke has won an NCAA-best 116 consecutive non-conference home games. Duke's last home loss against a non-conference foe was an 83-82 decision against St. John's on Feb. 26, 2000.
 Duke has also won 108 straight games at Cameron against unranked non-conference opponents (also dating back to the

FRESH SCORING PUNCH

- · Duke's four-man freshman class Grayson Allen, Jahlil Okafor, Tyus Jones and Justise Winslow - combined to average 46.1 points per game, the third-most by a freshman class in ACC history.
- · Okafor (17.3 ppg.), Winslow (12.6 ppg.) and Jones (11.8 ppg.) were the only trio of freshmen to average double figures in the NCAA. They became the first Duke freshman class and the third group in ACC history to close the year with three double-figure scorers.
- Duke freshmen scored a season-high 67 points in the season opener against Presbyterian, tied for the most by a freshman quartet in Duke history.
- · All four freshmen reached double figures in the opener, marking the fifth time in program history four freshmen have scored 10 or more points in a game. The group also accomplished that task in the NCAA Championship game while combining for 60 of Duke's 68 points.

The Duke Basketball Tradition

Duke University's love affair with the sport of basketball dates back to the very first collegiate game played in the state of North Carolina on March 2, 1906, when Duke was still Trinity College. Although Trinity lost that initial game to Wake Forest by a 24-10 score, it wasn't long before the sport caught on and won respect throughout campus.

The father of the sport was Wilbur Wade "Cap" Card. A 1900 Trinity graduate, Card went to Harvard for postgraduate work and then returned to his alma mater and introduced the sport in the spring of 1906.

It was greeted with enthusiasm by the school paper, The Chronicle. In a front page story on Jan. 30, 1906, The Chronicle reported the anticipated arrival of a new sport.

"It is well-nigh a certainty that Trinity is to have another game added to her list of athletic sports in the near future. The game in question is basket ball, one of the most fascinating and most intensely interesting indoor sports known today.

"Anyone witnessing it will never forget it. The play is extremely fast and vigorous, yet open enough for an onlooker to follow the movement of the ball and the players."

The assessment still holds true over 100 years later.

H.E. Spence, a reserve player in the first game, gave it the following critique. "It was easy to explain the small scores. First of all, the game was very much slower. The ball was tossed up at the center at the beginning of each quarter as well as the beginning of the game and the half. It was also thrown up after each point scored.

"Then, too, it was very difficult to throw goals when your guard was tattooing your ribs with his elbow, bumping you with his hip, stepping on your toe, or grabbing you by the belt."

Card's second season produced a winning record, and his fourth team went 8-1.

For the next decade-and-a-half, basketball at Trinity/Duke witnessed a constant changing of the guard, with no fewer than 10 different coaches handling the team from 1913 until 1928.

While basketball in North Carolina may have started at Trinity College in 1906, the real birth of the game came 20 years later on the day Eddie Cameron accepted a position at Duke.

Cameron not only became the winningest basketball coach in school history, and an extremely successful football replacement as well, he became Duke athletics.

Cameron and his troops entered the Southern Conference and advanced all the way to the tournament finale in the school's first year in the league. That success has continued throughout the years with the likes of Gerry Gerard, Harold Bradley, Vic Bubas, Bill Foster, and finally Mike Krzyzewski guiding one of the most prestigious programs in all of college athletics.

Duke has never experienced more than three losing seasons in succession and currently owns a streak of 87 consecutive years of 10 wins or more. The Blue Devils have won 20 or more games 49 times and 30 or more contests 14 times in school history. Now through 110 seasons of play, Duke has collected the fourth-highest win total in college basketball history with 2,062 victories to its credit.

Individually, nine Blue Devils have earned National Player of the Year honors (11 times), six have been chosen National Defensive Player of the Year (nine times), 41 have been named All-America and 13 have been selected ACC Player of the Year.

In 2006, Duke's J.J. Redick earned National Player of the Year recognition by the Associated Press, Wooden, Naismith, Rupp, NABC, USBWA, Basketball Times and The Sporting News. Redick became a repeat National Player of the Year – the eighth in college basketball history – after winning the Rupp Award as a junior in 2005. After becoming the ACC's all-time leading scorer and earning All-America recognition for the second consecutive year, Redick went on to win the Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete as a senior. First team All-American Shelden Williams was named National Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season in 2005-06.

Duke's Jason Williams was the seventh player in history to repeat as National Player of the Year (2001-02). In 2001, Shane Battier and Williams became the first teammates to share National Player of the Year honors by the major outlets. Battier joined UNLV's Stacey Augmon and Wake Forest's Tim Duncan as the only three-time winners of the NABC National Defensive Player of the Year award.

 ${\it Duke\ players\ all-time\ NCAA\ rank\ in\ parentheses}$

Chris Carrawell, 1997-00

Shane Battier, 1998-01

From the beginning the goal was clear: win the national championship.

Head coach Mike Krzyzewski made no bones about it as he began his 11th season at Duke University. He told his 13 players, assembling in the locker room for the first time in September, that it was their goal.

Leading up to the glory-filled 1990-1991 season were many anxious moments, including a 30-point loss to UNLV at the 1990 NCAA championship game, Krzyzewski being wooed by the Boston Celtics, and a tiring summer which had Coach K leading the USA team (with Christian Laettner and Bobby Hurley) to medal-winning performances at the Goodwill Games and the World Championships.

All of those were memories and lessons as the 1990-91 schedule got underway at the Dodge NIT in mid-November.

Duke rushed out to two quick and decisive victories in Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Blue Devils then headed to the Big Apple and Madison Square Garden, where they faced fellow 1990 Final Four member Arkansas, whom the Blue Devils had defeated to earn a trip to the championship game. This time the Razorbacks turned back Duke and advanced to the title game with a 98-88 win.

The month of December featured a road loss to Georgetown in the ACC/Big East Challenge and a key road victory at 11th-ranked Oklahoma which snapped the Sooners long home court winning streak. Duke triumphed 90-85 and finished the month with a 10-2 record.

The opening day of the ACC slate had the Blue Devils traveling to 18th-ranked Virginia. The Cavaliers crushed Duke 81-64, making it time for a re-commitment to the season by the Blue Dev-

Freshman Grant Hill broke his nose at a late night practice session which caused him to miss the next three ACC games. Duke won all three of those games, thanks in part to the emergence of sophomore Thomas Hill. The 6-4 guard/forward had 22 points in an 89-67 win over Wake Forest and then added 20 more against fifth-ranked North Carolina five days later in Duke's 74-60 victory over the Tar Heels.

The ACC regular season championship came down to the final game against the chief rival - North Carolina. The eighth-ranked Blue Devils hustled out to a 20-point margin in the early parts of the second half. The fourth-ranked Tar Heels came back but could never catch Duke as the Blue Devils posted an 83-77 victory.

A week later, the two squads met again in the ACC Tournament championship game. This time, Carolina triumphed, 96-74, to hand Duke a decisive loss and leave the Blue Devils with a 26-7 record heading into the NCAA Tournament.

It was apparent early that the Blue Devils meant business in their chance to go to Indianapolis. Duke disposed of Northeast Louisiana, Iowa and Connecticut with little resistance leading up to the Midwest Regional title game against Big East member St. John's. Pacing the victory, Hurley earned MVP honors in the region with 20 points in the title game and a remarkable 6.75:1 assist-turnover ratio in the four NCAA games.

Up first in the Final Four was UNLV, a team owning a 34-0 record and had rarely been challenged. The fight was on and Duke kept the pressure on the Runnin' Rebels. Finally, it came down to a little over two minutes to play and the Blue Devils down by a 76-71 count.

Hurley connected on a three-pointer when all seemed lost to make it 76-74 with 2:14 to play. Then Duke put on the defensive pressure and UNLV ran out the shot clock without a shot being taken. Next, Brian Davis took charge with a driving layup and a foul shot to give Duke a 77-76

After a Larry Johnson free throw tied the score, the ball landed in Laettner's hands on the offensive side and he was fouled with 12.7 seconds to play. He calmly converted the two charity tosses to give Duke a 79-77 lead which never changed.

Two nights later, in the most famed game of the college basketball season, Duke took the court against Kansas, which had defeated North Carolina in the semifinals.

The fatigued Blue Devils never faltered as Hurley and Grant Hill teamed up for a spectacular alley-oop dunk in the opening minutes to set the tone and Laettner proved steady with a record-setting 12-for-12 performance from the free throw line.

It was a crowning glory to the spectacular season as the Blue Devils brought home the title with a 72-65 victory over the Jayhawks. Laettner earned MVP honors and Hurley averaged 12 points and eight assists in the two games. Sophomore Bill McCaffrey added 16 points in the title game to also earn a slot on the All-Final Four team.

The season was complete, the dream a reality. Duke had won the national championship and along the way captured the ACC regular season crown, a record 16-0 home record, its eighth straight NCAA appearance, a fourth straight Final Four berth and fifth in the last six years, and Krzyzewski was named the Kodak/NABC National Coach of the Year.

1992 NCAA Champions

The 1991-1992 Duke men's basketball season preview began this way: "When four starters return to any college basketball team there is always cause for celebration. When the four starters return from a team that captured the national championship the year before, the possibilities seem endless."

With a roster that included ACC Athlete of the Year Christian Laettner, All-ACC guards Bobby Hurley and Thomas Hill, sophomore Grant Hill and four additional returning letterwinners, the Blue Devils were poised to defend their title.

On December 14, Duke faced future NCAA championship opponent Michigan in Ann Arbor. The Blue Devils were 6-0 heading into the night, having swept four of the five previous teams by at least a 25-point margin. After leading by as many as 17 points early in the second half, Duke came back from a two-point deficit when Hurley scored five points in the last two minutes of play to secure an 88-85 victory.

The ACC season started strong, with solid victories over Virginia, Florida State, Maryland, Georgia Tech and N.C. State.

On February 1, 1992, Duke celebrated its 500th win in Cameron Indoor Stadium with a 100-71 blowout against Notre Dame.

The first real challenge of the ACC season came against perennial rival North Carolina on its home court in Chapel Hill. Hurley broke his foot midway through the first half, but played anyway as the ninth-ranked Tar Heels posted a 75-73 upset victory over top-ranked Duke.

As tournament time approached, Duke had only suffered two losses: one to North Carolina and a second against Wake Forest in late February when Duke squandered a 10-point lead in the game's final five minutes to fall to the Demon Deacons 72-68.

Brian Davis and Laettner had won just about every prize imaginable in their four-year Duke careers except one, the ACC championship. Duke recorded wins over Maryland and Georgia Tech to reach the finals. The Blue Devils registered a crushing 94-74 defeat of North Carolina in the 1992 ACC final that brought redemption after the previous year's 22-point loss to UNC in the same game. Laettner left nothing to chance with 25 points, 10 rebounds and seven steals. Five others hit double-figures, including Grant Hill who hit all eight of his shots and added seven assists.

With eight straight trips to NCAAs, Final Four berths every year but one since 1986, and the 1991 title securely under its belt, the 1992 Duke squad was looking to make history when it opened the tournament on March 19.

Duke, the top-seed in the East Regional, posted wins over Campbell, lowa and Seton Hall to reach the Elite Eight.

The Blue Devils' Elite Eight matchup against Kentucky on March 28, 1992 saw two of the most famed programs in basketball history take aim at each other. Kentucky did everything possible to dethrone the champions and appeared to have Duke right where it wanted them with 2.1 seconds to play in the overtime period after Sean Woods drove by Hurley and banked in a one-handed shot over Laettner for a one-point lead.

Then, in a season equally filled with magical moments and overwhelming adversity, a miracle took place. Grant Hill flung the undefended inbounds pass to Laettner who leaped to catch the ball over John Pelphrey and Deron Feldhaus. Time seemed to stand still as Laettner faked to his right, turned to his left and lofted an 18-footer that found nothing but net as time expired. The Spectrum crowd erupted as the Duke players jumped on Laettner to celebrate another trip to the Final Four and a 104-103 victory over Kentucky

Up next was Indiana, an intriguing matchup between the two winningest programs in NCAA Tournament history. The beginning of the second half, which began with Duke trailing by five points, 42-37, turned into one of Duke's finest moments of the season. The Blue Devils reeled off 13 straight points and then made it a 21-3 surge to open the first 10 minutes of the frame to make the score 58-45 in favor of Duke. Free throws by Antonio Lang and Cherokee Parks closed out the 81-78 victory as the Blue Devils headed to the NCAA championship game for the third consecutive season.

The billing Michigan and Duke had entering the Metrodome on April 6th to decide the national champion read: "The Fab Five meets The Victory Tour."

Grant Hill made his first start since February when he was inserted for an injured Davis, scoring 18 points and grabbing 10 rebounds as Duke stumbled out of the blocks but hung tough in trailing by just one at the half, 31-30. The Blue Devils turned up the defensive pressure in the second frame, forcing Michigan into 29 percent shooting from the field and just 20 second-half points.

With 13.5 seconds remaining and a comfortable 20-point cushion, Coach K gave his starters one last curtain call to an incredible season-long journey. A roar echoed through the dome as players exchanged high-fives and hugs to start the celebration of the 71-51 victory.

The story of the 2001 championship season began in the spring and summer of 1999. After losing in the 1999 NCAA Final, Duke lost four of its superstars to the NBA which seemingly depleted the team. But after a successful 2000 campaign, which saw the Blue Devils win the ACC Championship, the team returned in the fall of 2001 ready to go all the way.

The Blue Devils started off the season hot by winning the Preseason NIT. In the process Coach K picked up his 500th win at Duke by knocking off Villanova at home. After that game the Cameron Indoor Stadium floor was officially renamed Coach K Court. Throughout November and December the team continued to roll. The three-point shot proved to be extremely valuable as on any given possession guards Jason Williams and Chris Duhon, or forwards Shane Battier, Mike Dunleavy, and Nate James, could knock down long range jumpers.

In the last game before Christmas break, Duke lined up against Stanford. After leading the whole game, however, the Blue Devils missed free throws in the final seconds. Stanford came down and banked in the winning shot.

After the break, Duke rattled off nine straight wins, including victories over four ranked teams. In that stretch was one of the great games in Duke history. Playing against Maryland at College Park, the Blue Devils found themselves down 89-77 with 1:05 to go in the game. However, James and Williams outscored Maryland 13-1 to send the game to overtime. In the extra session, Battier took over, scoring Duke's last six points and blocking a game-tying shot at the buzzer.

Duke lost its first ACC game of the year against North Carolina, but rebounded and rolled over the next three ACC opponents before losing at the buzzer in Virginia.

Duke's victory over Georgia Tech on Feb. 21 featured the retirement of Battier's #31 jersey. The next game at Wake Forest was special as well as Duhon came back from an injury in the first half to knock down the game winning shot at the buzzer.

Duke's final home game of the year saw a perturbed Maryland team looking for a settling of scores after the Blue Devils' last-minute antics in College Park. Duke led 60-51 with 15:30 left in the second half, but with just under 10 minutes remaining, Boozer fractured his right foot and a stunned Duke team watched as Maryland posted a 91-80 win on senior day.

In the season finale in Chapel Hilll, the Blue Devils came out firing as their new offense surprised the Tar Heels. With Duhon and sophomore Casey Sanders now starting, the Devils ran North Carolina into the ground, 95-85.

In the ACC Tournament, Duke ran over N.C. State to set up a third meeting with Maryland. At the end of another intense game, James' tap-in at the buzzer gave Duke an 84-82 win. The Blue Devils headed to the finals to face North Carolina once again. In a repeat performance, Duke took a 50-30 halftime lead and ran away with a victory and the ACC Championship.

The NCAA Tournament campaign started out well as the Blue Devils easily rolled over Monmouth and topped a Missouri team coached by former Blue Devil star Quin Snyder.

As Duke moved onto the Sweet 16 in Philadelphia to play UCLA, the whole team was back in action. A recovered Boozer came in during the first half and helped spark a 12-0 run. In the second half, Williams scored 19 straight points for the Blue Devils to propel the team to a tough Facing USC in the regional final game, Duhon's clutch three-point shooting in the second half proved to be the key as Duke moved on to the Final Four, beating the Trojans 79-69.

The stage was set in Minneapolis for Duke to battle the Terrapins for the fourth time in a little over two months. Duke trailed by as many as 22 points in the first half before shaking off an 11-point deficit at halftime to complete the biggest comeback in NCAA Tournament semifinal history. Duke took the lead with Williams' three-pointer, 73-72, with under seven minutes to go in the game, closing out the game 95-84 to advance to the Big Dance.

Only one game remained. Inside the Metrodome on April 2, Duke took on fifth-ranked Arizona. The game was a back-and-forth affair throughout, with Duke riding the all-around play of Battier and three-point shooting of Dunleavy for an 82-72 victory.

Battier played all 40 minutes, scoring 18 points, grabbing 11 rebounds and handing out six assists. Dunleavy led Duke with 21 points, including a career-high five three-pointers, while Boozer registered a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds.

With its 82-72 victory, Duke became the first No.1 ranked team to win the national championship since UCLA in 1995.

The story of the 2010 championship team is one of teamwork, hard work and consistent growth. Despite returning four starters from an ACC Championship team that won 30 games a year before, the Blue Devils were often overlooked and ignored as a title contender in 2010.

A group of seniors (Jon Scheyer, Lance Thomas & Brian Zoubek) that endured a 22-11 record as freshmen, along with junior standouts Kyle Singler and Nolan Smith set out to do something special with a group that most considered good but not great.

The Blue Devils started strong with six straight wins, including a 68-59 victory over 13thranked Connecticut in the championship game of the NIT Season Tip-Off. Duke outrebounded the Huskies, 56-43, in the contest with Thomas and Zoubek each grabbing 11 boards.

Duke suffered its first setback of the year, despite 28 points from Singler, on Dec. 2 at Wisconsin. The 73-69 loss was Duke's first in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

The team won the next seven games, with six of the victories coming by 20+ points. Duke climbed to No. 5 in the AP poll and Scheyer established himself as an All-America candidate along the way. The senior guard netted a career-high 36 points on 7-of-9 shooting from three-point distance against Gardner-Webb and totaled 31 points in a win over Iowa State in Chicago.

Duke dropped an ACC road contest to No. 20 Georgia Tech despite 25 points and six assists from Scheyer before returning home to post wins over Boston College and Wake Forest.

The skeptics reemerged following another road loss for the Blue Devils, this time at the hands of N.C. State. The Wolfpack shot 58.2 percent from the field in an 88-74 victory.

Duke's road woes changed in a primetime contest at Clemson with ESPN College GameDay on site. The Blue Devils avenged a 74-47 loss in 2009 at Littleiohn with a 60-47 win over the 17th-ranked Tigers. Smith paced the team with 22 points on 8-of-13 shooting.

Duke hit a stumbling block again in Washington, D.C., against Georgetown with President Barack Obama and Vice President Joe Biden on hand. The Hoyas dismantled the Blue Devil defense, shooting an opponent-record 71.7 percent from the field

Duke returned home to top 21st-ranked Georgia Tech and added road wins over Boston College and North Carolina. On Feb. 13, in his 1,000th career game at Duke, Mike Krzyzewski moved Zoubek into the starting lineup, and the senior center responded with 16 points and a career-best 17 rebounds against the Terrapins. He followed up with a 16-rebound effort two games later and suddenly the Blue Devils had an interior toughness to go with the NCAA's highestscoring trio in Scheyer, Singler and Smith.

Duke entered March ranked fourth in the polls with a 25-4 record. On senior night at Maryland, it took a few unfortunate bounces and a clutch performance by Greivis Vasquez to snap the Blue Devils' four-game road win streak and an eight-game win streak overall.

The Blue Devils put everything together in their next game, an 82-50 dismantling of North Carolina. Scheyer, Singler and Smith combined for 65 points and Duke jumped out to a 53-26 halftime lead. The Tar Heels had 15 turnovers and made just 16 field goals in the contest.

In the ACC Tournament, Duke posted wins over Virginia and Miami to reach the championship game. Tournament MOP Singler went 14-of-16 from the foul line, and Scheyer hit a clutch three-point field goal in the final 30 seconds to secure a 65-61 victory over Georgia Tech and Duke's ninth ACC title in the last 12 years.

The Blue Devils grabbed a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in school history and advanced through Jacksonville by handily defeating Arkansas-Pine Bluff and California. Duke then posted a hard-fought, 70-57, win over Purdue as Singler netted 24 points and the Blue Devils posted a +21 rebound margin for the game. Left standing in the way of the program's first Final Four appearance since 2004 was Baylor. Duke trailed at the half but used timely three-point shooting and 23 offensive rebounds to claim a 78-71 victory. Smith scored a career-high 29 points and Thomas came up with several hustle plays down the stretch in the win.

Duke returned to Indianapolis, the site of its first NCAA title, to face West Virginia in the Final Four. The big three combined for 63 points as the Blue Devils shot 52.7 percent from the field in a 78-57 dismantling of the Mountaineers.

The title game pitted Duke against hometown Butler and its 25-game win streak. The seesaw battle came down to the final seconds with the outcoming hanging in the balance until a halfcourt shot caromed off the rim at the buzzer giving the Blue Devils a 61-59 victory and the program's fourth NCAA title. Singler, the Final Four MVP, led the way with 19 points, while Zoubek added 10 rebounds including one in the final five seconds.

With the win in the title game, Krzyzewski's team completed its climb from good to very good to great.

The 2014-15 campaign served as a redemptive year for the Blue Devils. After an early second-round exit from the NCAA Tournament the previous season against Mercer. Duke welcomed an impressive foursome of freshmen (Grayson Allen, Tyus Jones, Jahlil Okafor and Justise Winslow) to Durham to help bolster a lineup that included senior leader Quinn Cook. The Blue Devils showcased unparalleled maturity and focus that was evident from the outset.

Duke opened the season with victories in its first 14 games, including 10-point wins over No. 19 Michigan State (81-71) and No. 2 Wisconsin (80-70). In both matchups, fans saw their first glimpse of a reoccurring theme throughout the year - Tyus Jones performing when the pressure was greatest. He helped put the game out of reach in Duke's games against the Spartans and Badgers, scoring 17 second-half points against Michigan State and netting a team-high 22 points on 7-of-11 shooting versus Wisconsin.

Duke suffered its initial two setbacks of the season against NC State and Miami. The first of Duke's four losses took place in Raleigh, N.C., where the Blue Devils were unable to defend the perimeter against a locked-in Wolfpack squad, surrendering 10 three-point field goals en route to an 87-75 loss. After returning home to Cameron, Duke looked to right the ship against Miami, but the Hurricanes had other plans as the Blue Devils' 41-game home court win streak came to an end with an 87-75 defeat. Duke's perimeter defense once again struggled, as Miami connected on 10-of-20 three-point attempts.

In a significant defensive shift, the Blue Devils transitioned to a zone defense against No. 6 Louisville, holding the Cardinals to just 18of-61 shooting, the lowest field goal percentage by a Duke opponent all season. Offensively, Duke relied on team captain Amile Jefferson, who netted a career-high 19 points on 6-of-7 shooting.

Duke returned to Durham and downed Pittsburgh, 79-65, bringing head coach Mike Krzyzewski's all-time career wins total within one victory of 1,000. A win against St. John's in one of the most historic arenas in basketball, Madison Square Garden, would clinch the achievement for Krzyzewski.

Duke trailed at the break against St. John's, but a second-half push, fueled by 13 points from Tyus Jones, helped give the Blue Devils a 77-68 win and Krzyzewski his 1,000th victory.

The young Duke team once again bounced back from a loss at No. 8 Notre Dame with a road win against a top-10 opponent. While competing on College GameDay, the Blue Devils dropped No. 2 Virginia, 69-63, thanks to timely three-point shooting and a combination of man-to-man and zone defense. Five three-point field goals over win over a top-10 opponent, the first time in program history such a feat was achieved.

Duke concluded the regular season on an 11-game win streak. During the stretch, Duke shot 81.0 percent to rout 10th-ranked Notre Dame at home by 30 points, tying for the best first-half shooting performance in program history. Matt Jones hit 5-of-7 field goal attempts to net 15 of his career-high 17 points in the first half.

Duke produced a thrilling two-point overtime victory over No. 15 North Carolina in its following home game, as Tyus Jones scored the final nine points in regulation to force overtime against the Tar Heels. He joined Cook in scoring a game-high 22 points, while shooting a combined 57.1 percent from beyond the arc in the process.

The Blue Devils would conclude regularseason ACC play with a 15-3 mark after defeating North Carolina, 84-77, in the Dean Dome. Tyus Jones put together a well-rounded game, scoring 24 points, six rebounds and seven assists en route to becoming the first Duke freshman in program history to register at least 20 points, five rebounds and five assists in his first two games against the Tar Heels.

Duke went into the ACC Tournament ranked No. 2 nationally and on an 11-game win streak, which was extended to 12 games after the Blue Devils defeated NC State, 77-53. Notre Dame defeated Duke, 74-64, in the ACC Tournament semifinals.

Duke garnered its 13th No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. After advancing through the second and third rounds with wins over Robert Morris and San Diego State in Charlotte, the Blue Devils traveled to Houston, where they outlasted Utah in a low-scoring affair and defeated Gonzaga to earn their 16th appearance in the Final Four.

An early onslaught from 23rd-ranked Michigan State set Duke behind by eight points before the first media timeout, but the Blue Devils went on a 23-6 run of its own in a Final Four matchup. Winslow's team-high 19 points helped bypass the Spartans, 81-61, in Indianapolis, Ind., the site of Duke's 1991 and 2010 national titles.

In the national championship game, Duke faced No. 3 Wisconsin. Tyus Jones garnered Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors, the first freshman ever to earn the honor after scoring a game-high 23 points. He was joined by fellow freshmen Allen (16), Okafor (10) and Winslow (11) in scoring 60 of the team's 68 total points, the most by a group of freshmen in a national championship game.

In The Polls

The Duke basketball program has held a prominent spot in the national basketball scene since the beginning of the post-World War II era. The final national rankings are just one measuring stick in which the Blue Devils are among the elite in the history of the sport.

In the Coach K era, which began in 1980-81, Duke has finished in the Associated Press top 25 a total of 29 seasons, including seven times as the No. 1 team in the nation. With consecutive AP number one finishes from 1999-2002, Duke became the first school in college basketball history to be ranked at the top of the final AP poll for four straight years.

Here is a look at some of the notes from Duke and the rankings:

- ▶ Duke has been ranked No. 1 at some point in the season in 19 of the past 30 years (AP & USA Today nolls).
- ▶ Mike Krzyzewski has spent more weeks ranked in the top 25 (545 weeks), top 10 (479) and No. 1 (109) than any other active coach (AP poll only).
- ▶ Duke has been ranked No. 1 in 96 weeks since 1990, the most by any school in the nation. The next closest school is North Carolina at 52 weeks during the same time period.
- ▶ Duke has been No. 1109 weeks (218 games, 190-28) in the AP poll since 1986.
- ▶ Of the 1,196 games coached at Duke by Mike Krzyzewski, 1,055 of them have come as a ranked team (88.2 percent). Duke's record as a ranked team since 1981 is 868-187 (.823).
- ▶Under Coach K, Duke has played more games as a No. 1 team (218) than it has as an unranked team (141).
- ▶ The Blue Devils were ranked in the top 25 of the AP poll in 380 consecutive games (Nov. 20, 1996-Feb. 11, 2007).
- ▶ Duke has been ranked No. 1 in the nation 127 weeks overall, the second-highest figure in NCAA history behind only UCLA (134).
- ▶ Duke finished in the top 10 for 10 consecutive seasons from 1997-2006 second all-time behind UCLA (13 straight years 1967-79).
- ▶ Duke's 1991-92 team is one of only 12 schools in college basketball history to be ranked No. 1 for the entire season.
- ▶ Duke has been ranked in 358 of the last 360 AP polls (dating back to the 1996-97 season). The Blue Devils have been ranked in the top 10 for 327 weeks in that span.

Duke and the No. 1 National Ranking

Since the 1997-98 season, Duke has been ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll 72 weeks, 35 more than the next closest team (North Carolina). The Blue Devils reached the top ranking in seven consecutive seasons from 1998-2004, becoming just the second program in NCAA history to accomplish that feat. UCLA holds the record with 12 consecutive seasons being ranked No. 1 at some point (1964-75). Duke finished the season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll for four consecutive seasons (1999-2002), an unprecedented feat in college basketball history.

Retired Jerseys

Duke has set aside a day to recognize one of its own on 13 occasions. Thirteen banners hang from the rafters of Cameron Indoor Stadium, honoring each of those events. It's officially known as Retirement Day.

There is no higher honor than having your basketball number and jersey retired. The names, listed in alphabetical order, reverberate in prestige — Shane Battier, Johnny Dawkins, Danny Ferry, Mike Gminski, Dick Groat, Art Heyman, Grant Hill, Bobby Hurley, Christian Laettner, Jeff Mullins, J.J. Redick, Jason Williams and Shelden Williams.

Though there are no 'official' criteria to have a jersey retired at Duke, a player must achieve at a national level – earn National Player of the Year or National Defensive Player of the Year honors, set an NCAA record, win a gold medal representing his country in the Olympics or earn All-America recognition. What distinguishes Duke's retired jersey players from many other schools is the main criteria. No jersey will be retired at Duke unless the player has earned his degree.

Groat was the first Blue Devil to be so honored when his No. 10 was officially retired on May 1, 1952. It would not be until February 20, 1980, that the next jersey would be retired at Duke – Gminski's No. 43. In the early 1990s, Heyman's No. 25 and Mullins' No. 44 were retired nearly three decades after their Duke playing days.

After Mike Krzyzewski's arrival in 1980 and Duke's dominant run that began in the middle of that decade, nine players had their jerseys retired, starting with Dawkins in 1986 and ending with J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams in 2007.

Shane Battier began his career at Duke with a solid freshman season as an ACC All-Freshman Team selection, averaging 7.6 points and 6.4 rebounds per game in 1997-98. By his sophomore year, Battier was proving to be an outstanding defensive player, earning his first of an eventual three NABC National Defensive Player of the Year awards. Battier helped lead the 1999 Blue Devils to the NCAA Championship game and a 37-2 record, making them the number one team in the final AP poll. The honors kept mounting in Battier's junior year. In addition to the NABC Co-Defensive Player of the Year award, he earned second team All-America, first team All-ACC, first team All-ACC Tournament and first team Academic All-America honors. He led Duke in scoring (17.4 ppg), blocked shots (70) and three-point percentage (.444). Battier's outstanding career at Duke was capped with a national championship in 2001 along with the ACC regular season and tournament titles. As a senior in 2000-01, Battier averaged 19.9 points, 7.3 rebounds, 2.3 blocks, 2.1 steals and 1.8 assists. He was named the 2001 consensus National Player of the Year, NABC National Defensive Player of the Year, first team All-America, Verizon Academic All-America, Final Four Most Outstanding Player, ACC Co-Player of the Year, ACC Tournament Most Valuable Player, first team All-ACC and ACC All-Defensive Team. Battier was the sixth pick in the 2001 NBA Draft and was named to the 2002 NBA All-Rookie Team. He was a two-time NBA All-Defensive Team selection (second team) and the winner of the Twyman-Stokes Teammate of the Year award in 2014.

Johnny Dawkins was part of the freshman class that would be the beginning of modern Duke basketball. Dawkins was a Freshman All-America and second team All-ACC selection in 1983, scoring in double figures in 27 of 28 games. As a sophomore, Dawkins averaged 19.4 points per game and was selected to the second team All-ACC and first team All-ACC Tournament. Dawkins earned first team All-America and first team All-ACC honors as a junior, averaging 18.8 points per game and was the team MVP for the third year in a row. As a senior in 1985-86, Dawkins led the team to a 37-3 record and the NCAA Championship game as well as the Big Apple NIT title, ACC regular season title, and ACC Tournament title. He was named the National Player of the Year, East Regional MVP, All-Final Four, first team All-America, first team All-ACC and ACC Tournament MVP. He led Duke in scoring for four consecutive years. Duke's second all-time leading scorer, Dawkins amassed 2,556 points in his career as a Blue Devil. He is Duke's all-time leader in field goals made and field goals attempted. He was the 10th pick overall in the 1986 NBA Draft and played in the NBA from 1986-95. He was on the Duke coaching staff for 11 years and is currently the head coach at Stanford University.

As a freshman in 1985-86, Danny Ferry was an integral part of the record-setting Blue Devil team that was 37-3 and made it to the National Championship game as well as winning the ACC Championship. By Ferry's sophomore season, he led Duke in scoring, rebounds and assists, earning him second team All-ACC honors. As a junior, Ferry averaged 19.1 points per game and led the team in scoring, rebounding, minutes, free throw percentage and blocked shots. During his junior season, he was first team All-America, a National Player of the Year finalist, ACC Player of the Year, winner of the McKevlin Award for the ACC's top athlete, MVP of the ACC Tournament and the NCAA East Regional and was first team All-ACC. In Ferry's senior year, he helped his team advance to the Final Four and led the ACC with a 22.6 scoring average. Among the numerous accolades he earned his senior year were: National Player of the Year, first team All-America, ACC Player of the Year, winner of the McKevlin Award, MVP of the East Regional and USA Today Collegiate Achiever of the Year. He was the first player in ACC history to compile 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 500 assists. Ferry was the number two pick in the 1989 NBA Draft and he played in the NBA from 1990-2003, winning the NBA championship in 2003 with the San Antonio Spurs.

Mike Gminski got off to a huge start as a freshman Blue Devil, averaging 15.3 points and 10.7 rebounds per game and subsequently being named ACC Co-Rookie of the Year in 1977. His sophomore year, Gminski led Duke to the ACC Championship and the NCAA Championship game. Gminski averaged 20.0 points and 10.0 rebounds per game on his way to earning first team All-ACC, All-NCAA Final Four, All-East Regional and CoSIDA Academic All-America. In Gminski's junior season, he was named ACC Player of the Year, first team CoSIDA Academic All-America and team Co-MVP along with Jim Spanarkel. Gminski averaged 18.8 points per game and 9.2 rebounds as the Blue Devils claimed a first-place tie in the ACC. In Gminski's senior year, he was a first team All-America selection and averaged 21.3 points and 10.9 rebounds per game. For the third time, Gminski was All-ACC and was named to the All-ACC Tournament first team. His senior year of 1979-80, Gminski was also named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team for the third time and was the Big Four Tournament MVP. He finished his career at Duke with 2,323 points, 1,242 rebounds and 345 blocked shots. He ranks second on Duke's all-time rebounds and blocked shots list and is fifth on Duke's career scoring chart. In 2006, he was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Gminski was the number seven pick in the 1980 NBA Draft and played 14 years in the NBA with New Jersey, Philadelphia, Charlotte and Milwaukee.

As a sophomore in 1949-50, Dick Groat was second team All-Southern Conference, averaging 14.5 points per game. By his junior season of 1950-51, Groat was named the Most Valuable Player of the Southern Conference Tournament and won the McKevlin Award for the Southern Conference Athlete of the Year. He made several All-America squads and was an all-state selection as well. In his junior year, Groat scored a national record of 831 points. He also set the national free throws made record with 261. Groat's senior year of 1951-52 was marked by even more prestigious honors as he was named the National Player of the Year and once again the recipient of the McKevlin Award. Additionally, Groat was a first team All-America selection on the baseball diamond and he led the Blue Devils to their first College World Series appearance. After graduating from Duke, Groat was a first-round draft pick in the 1952 NBA Draft. A two-time All-America, All-Big South and All-Big Four selection in baseball, Groat went on to play 14 years in Major League Baseball. He was a three-time All-Star with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals and was named the National League MVP in 1960 with a league-leading .325 batting average as the Pirates won the World Series. He also won a second world title with the Cardinals in 1964. Groat became the first Blue Devil to have his jersey retired on May 1, 1952.

Art Heyman immediately made a huge impact at Duke as part of the freshmen team in 1959-60, averaging more than 30 points per game and recording a single-game high of 47 points. As a varsity co-captain his sophomore year, Heyman earned All-America honors and was the nation's number eight scorer with a 25.2 scoring average. He also averaged 10.9 rebounds per game and led Duke in nearly every statistical category in 1960-61. Once again an All-America selection as a junior in 1962, Heyman averaged 25.3 points and 11.2 rebounds per game. After leading the Blue Devils in nearly every statistical category, Heyman was a near unanimous selection on the All-ACC first team. As a senior in 1962-63, Heyman left his mark on Duke by helping the team earn its first trip to the Final Four. Heyman was the 1963 ACC Player of the Year and ACC Tournament MVP as his team captured the ACC Championship. For the third year in a row. Heyman earned All-America honors along with being named the National Player of the Year. He scored 29 points and pulled down 12 rebounds in the NCAA semifinals against Loyola and was named Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four. Heyman's 25.1 scoring average ranks first in Duke's career record book. After graduating from Duke, Heyman was the top player taken in the 1963 NBA Draft.

Grant Hill got off to a solid start as a freshman, earning Freshman All-America, ACC All-Freshman and second team All-ACC Tournament honors playing on Duke's first national championship team in 1990-91. Hill's sophomore season was once again marked by being a part of the national championship team that was the top-ranked squad in the country from start to finish. He averaged 14.0 points, 5.7 rebounds and 3.7 assists on his way to earning second team All-America honors by UPI, honorable mention All-America accolades by the Associated Press, All-Final Four, second team All-ACC, Basketball Times All-Region and USBWA All-District honors in 1992. In Hill's junior year, he averaged 18.0 points and 6.4 rebounds per game. He was awarded the Henry Iba Corinthian Award for the nation's top defender as well as being named second team All-America by UPI and USBWA, third team All-America by AP and first team All-ACC. In 1994, Hill's senior season, he led the Blue Devils back to the Final Four and averaged 17.4 points and 6.9 rebounds per game. He became the first player in ACC history to have more than 1,900 points, 700 rebounds, 400 assists, 200 steals and 100 blocked shots. Hill was first team All-America, Street & Smith's National Player of the Year, a finalist for the Wooden Award, Naismith Award and RCA/USBWA Award given to the National Player of the Year. Hill also garnered ACC Player of the Year, Southeast Regional MVP and All Final-Four honors on his way to being the number three pick in the 1994 NBA Draft. Hill, the 1995 co-winner of the NBA Rookie of the Year Award, was a six-time NBA All-Star.

Bobby Hurley made an immediate impact on Duke as a freshman, starting in all 38 games as the Blue Devils advanced to the 1990 Final Four. In his first year he was named first team Freshman All-America by Basketball Times and honorable mention All-America by The Sporting News. In Hurley's sophomore season of 1990-91, the Blue Devils captured the ACC title and their first national championship and Hurley earned honorable mention All-America accolades by AP. Hurley was named All-Final Four, third team All-ACC and Midwest Regional MVP. In 1991-92, Hurley's junior year, Duke went 34-2 and once again won the national championship along with the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament Championship. Hurley averaged 13.2 points and 7.6 assists as he was named NABC first team All-America and a National Player of the Year finalist. He was also the MVP of the Final Four, third team All-America by AP and UPI, second team All-ACC, first team All-ACC Tournament and All-East Regional. Hurley was named consensus first team All-America, first team All-ACC and was a finalist for the Wooden Award given to the National Player of the Year as a senior in 1992-93. He averaged 17.0 points and 8.2 assists and set the NCAA career assists record with 1,076. Hurley's 264 three-pointers set the school record and still rank sixth all-time at Duke. Hurley also set the school record for assists in a season with 289 as a sophomore and holds the top three single-season assist marks at Duke. Hurley was the number seven pick in the 1993 NBA Draft. He had a five-year NBA career with Sacramento and Vancouver. Hurley is currently the head coach at Arizona State University.

Christian Laettner has become a name synonymous with success, as he was part of four Duke Final Four teams. As a freshman in 1988-89. he averaged 8.9 points per game and was named All-East Regional and second team All-ACC Tournament. In Laettner's sophomore season of 1989-90, he averaged 16.3 points and 9.6 rebounds and was named third team All-America, second team All-ACC and MVP of the East Regional. The third trip was the charm for Laettner as the 1991 team captured Duke's first National Championship. Laettner's awards mounted his junior year as he was named second team All-America, MVP of the Final Four, the McKevlin Award winner for ACC Athlete of the Year, first team All-ACC and All-Midwest Regional. Laettner averaged 19.8 points, 8.7 rebounds, had 75 steals, 44 blocked shots and a 57.5 field goal percentage. As a senior in 1991-92, Laettner once again helped lead the Blue Devils to the National Championship, the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament Championship as the squad compiled a 34-2 record and managed to hold the No. 1 position in the national rankings every week of the season. Laettner was the National Player of the Year, ACC Player of the Year, ACC Athlete of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP and MVP of the East Regional. With 2,460 points and 1,149 rebounds during his collegiate career, Laettner ranks third in both categories in the Duke record books. His 713 free throws made at Duke are a school record. Laettner was the third player taken in the 1992 NBA Draft and played 12 seasons in the NBA.

Jeff Mullins came to Duke as a high school All-America honoree from Lexington, Ky. As part of the freshmen team in 1960-61, Mullins was putting up big numbers for the Blue Devils, averaging a team-high 24.6 points per game. Mullins' sophomore season, and his first on varsity, culminated with All-ACC and All-Tournament team honors after he averaged 21.0 points and 10.4 rebounds per game while shooting 51.4 percent from the floor. In his junior year of 1962-63, Mullins, along with Art Heyman, led the Blue Devils to Duke's first Final Four. Mullins was an All-America honoree and was selected to both the All-ACC and All-Tournament teams. He averaged 20.3 points on 54.9 percent field goal shooting and pulled down 8.0 rebounds per game. Mullins was once again an All-America selection as a senior in 1964 after leading Duke to the Final Four for the second straight year. He averaged 24.2 points and 8.9 rebounds per game and earned ACC Player of the Year as well as ACC Tournament MVP accolades. Mullins also received the McKevlin Award, given to the ACC Athlete of the Year. Mullins is fourth on Duke's career scoring average list with 21.9 points per game from 1962-64. Mullins finished his Blue Devil career with 1,884 points and went on to play on the gold medal-winning 1964 U.S. Olympic basketball team. He became a five-time NBA All-Star and as a member of the 1975 Golden State team, was the first Duke player to be a part of a NBA championship team.

J.J. Redick entered Duke as a McDonald's All-America and with a reputation as one of the best pure shooters in the game. He closed his career as the leading scorer in ACC history with 2,769 career points and the NCAA record holder with 457 three-point field goals made (both records have since been surpassed). Redick, a two-time National and ACC Player of the Year, also ranked second among the NCAA's all-time leaders in free throw percentage (.912). During his freshman campaign, Redick averaged 15.0 points per game en route to third team All-ACC honors. He claimed third team All-America honors and led Duke to a 31-6 record and a trip to the 2004 Final Four by averaging 15.9 points as a sophomore. Redick shot an ACCbest 95.3 percent (143-of-150) from the free throw line, including a conference-record 54 consecutive made free throws. Redick took his game to new heights in 2004-05, averaging an ACC-best 21.8 points while earning unanimous first team All-America and ACC Player of the Year accolades. Redick also claimed the 2005 Rupp Award as National Player of the Year after reaching double-figures in scoring 31 times, including 21 games with 20 or more points. As a senior, Redick recorded the most prolific scoring season in school history and became the second Duke player and only the eighth overall in college basketball history to repeat as National Player of the Year. He also repeated as a first team All-America (unanimous selection) and as the ACC Player of the Year. The Roanoke, Va., native led the ACC and finished second in the NCAA in scoring at 26.8 points per game, while shooting 47.0 percent (302-of-643) from the field and 42.1 percent (139-of-330) from three-point range. He scored in double-figures in all 36 games, including 28 games with 20+ points, 14 games with 30+ points and three 40+ point games. Redick also claimed the James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete following his senior campaign.

Jason Williams entered Duke as a McDonald's All-America and the winner of the Morgan Wootten Award, given to the top prep player in the nation. Williams was a starter from his very first game and ended his first year as The Sporting News National Freshman of the Year in 2000. In his freshman year, Williams averaged 14.5 points, 4.2 rebounds, 6.5 assists and 2.4 steals per game. He also collected ACC Tournament Most Valuable Player, Basketball Times first team Freshman All-America and Associated Press ACC All-Freshman team honors. As a sophomore in 2000-01, Williams helped lead the Blue Devils to their third national championship and had Duke's second-highest season points total with 841. Williams was named the National Player of the Year by the NABC and Point Guard of the Year by ESPN. He was an All-Final Four team, unanimous first team All-ACC, first team ACC All-Tournament and first team All-America selection as well as a finalist for both the Wooden and Naismith Awards. The accolades continued to mount for Williams in his third and final season as a Blue Devil. Williams received the Naismith and Wooden Awards for National Player of the Year and was also named Player of the Year by AP, Basketball Times, NABC, The Sporting News, USBWA, CBS Sportsline, ESPN the Magazine, ESPN.com and collegeinsider.com. Williams was selected to the first team All-ACC and the first team All-ACC Tournament and ended his collegiate career with 2,079 points, 644 assists, 313 three-point field goals and 235 steals. Williams was a starter in all 108 games from 2000-02 and was the second overall pick in the 2002 NBA Draft. In addition to his basketball prowess, he graduated from Duke in just three years.

Shelden Williams arrived at Duke with the nickname 'The Landlord' and lived up to the moniker by controlling the lane for four seasons as a Blue Devil. As a freshman, Williams averaged 8.2 points, 5.9 rebounds and 1.6 blocks per game, while earning ACC All-Freshman honorable mention honors. In 2003-04, Williams' number grew to 12.6 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3.0 blocks as he helped guide Duke to the Final Four. He also received several All-America and second team All-ACC accolades as a sophomore. As a junior, Williams became the first player on a Mike Krzyzewski team to average a double-double (15.5 points & 11.2 rebounds). He also registered a Duke record 122 blocks, while earning NABC National Defensive Player of the Year honors. Williams claimed NABC National DPOY honors for the second straight year and set Duke records for career blocked shots and rebounds as a senior. Williams, a consensus first team All-America in 2006, finished third in the league in scoring at 18.8 points per game and became the 11th player in ACC history (first Blue Devil) to lead the conference in rebounding (10.7) in back-to-back years. Williams blocked four shots on Jan. 18, 2006, against N.C. State to become Duke's all-time blocked shots leader (moving past Mike Gminski). The Forest Park, Okla., native grabbed 14 rebounds against George Washington on March 18, 2006, to pass Gminski as the leading rebounder in Duke history. Williams also became just the third Blue Devil to register a triple-double on Jan. 11, 2006, against Maryland when he finished with 19 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocks against the Terrapins. Williams closed his career at Duke first in rebounding (1,262) and blocked shots (422). He also became the first player in NCAA history to register 1,750 points, 1,250 rebounds, 400 blocks and 150 steals in a career.

Duke In The NBA

A total of 65 former Duke players have appeared on a NBA roster. In 2015, Jahlil Okafor, Justise Winslow and Rodney Hood became the 50th, 51st and 52nd draft selections under Mike Krzyzewski. Duke has had 20 players selected in the NBA Draft Lottery, the most in the nation since the system was put into place in 1985. In 1999, Duke became the first program in the history of the NBA Draft to have four players from the same school selected in the first round. Three of the four – Elton Brand (Chicago), Trajan Langdon (Cleveland) and Corey Maggette (Seattle) – were lottery picks. In 2002, Jason Williams (2nd overall) and Mike Dunleavy (3rd) became the first college teammates in the history of the NBA Draft to be the first two collegians selected. Overall, 31 Duke players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft in the Coach K era.

International Basketball

The Duke Blue Devils have a long history of success in international basketball competition dating back to 1964 when Jeff Mullins became the first Blue Devil to play for and win a gold medal with the U.S. Olympic basketball team. Since that initial appearance, Duke players and coaches have competed on the international stage nearly 150 times, winning 76 medals along the way. Blue Devil players and coaches have accounted for 56 gold medals in international competition through the years, including five from Mike Krzyzewski as a national team head coach.

Mullins, Tate Armstrong (1976), Christian Laettner (1992), Grant Hill (1996) and Carlos Boozer (2008) each have Olympic gold medals, while Krzyzewski was an assistant coach on the 1992 gold medal team and captained the 2008 and 2012 championship squads. Former Blue Devil standout and assistant coach Johnny Dawkins was an alternate on the 1986 Olympic team and was also a part of the staff for 2008 Olympic team.

Krzyzewski has been a part of 14 medal-winning USA Basketball teams beginning with a gold medal as an assistant coach at the 1979 Pan American Games. He has been a part of 10 gold medal-winning teams as well as two silver medalist and two bronze medalist programs over the past 33 years. After becoming the head coach of the Men's Senior National Team in 2005, Krzyzewski has led the program to a 75-1 record in international competitions, including an active streak of 63 consecutive wins. Coach K returned to the helm of the program on May 23, 2013 for his third four-year stint that will conclude with the 2016 Rio Olympics.

Duke's consistent presence on the international scene is evident by the program having at least one current or former Blue Devil compete on a USA Basketball team every year since 1988. "Duke players have been pretty well schooled fundamentally," said USA Basketball chairman Jerry Colangelo. "They have been well coached and really understand what it takes to be successful and what it necessitates in the way of work so it is really good bloodlines."

USA Men's Senior National Team - 2006-present

With the USA Men's Senior National Team in a tailspin following a sixth-place finish at the 2002 World Championships and bronze medal showing at the 2004 Greece Olympics, USA Basketball chairman Jerry Colangelo tabbed Mike Krzyzewski to lead the resurrection of the program on Oct. 26, 2005. Over the next six international events, spanning eight years, Coach K and Team USA amassed an extraordinary 75-1 record en route to winning gold medals at the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championship, 2012 London Olympics and the 2014 FIBA World Cup as well as a bronze medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championship.

Krzyzewski and Team USA suffered their only loss together in the 2006 FIBA World Championship in the semifinals against Greece. The program has responded by winning the next 63 games to re-establish the U.S. as the preeminent basketball power in the world.

Coach K helped USA Basketball regain its position in international basketball during his first stint as the national team coach (2005-08). By instilling the same team-first principles he utilizes as the foundation for success at Duke, he helped build a program that achieved its ultimate goal by claiming the 2008 Olympic gold medal with a 118-107 win over Spain. In the process, Team USA also restored a tarnished image by winning over fans and fellow athletes with its presence off the court in Beijing. While earning praise for its unselfish play on the court, members of Team USA were equally admired for their patriotic support of fellow Americans in their quests for Olympic gold.

On July 21, 2009, it was announced that Krzyzewski would return as the head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team and in the 2012 London Olympics, he became the first U.S. coach of multiple Olympic teams since the legendary Henry Iba, who won gold in 1964 and 1968 and coached the team that lost the controversial 1972 gold-medal game to the Soviet Union.

Team USA once again claimed gold in 2012 with a 107-100 win over Spain. While some experts speculated that outside shooting could be the downfall of the 2012 squad, Coach K and his staff gave the players the confidence to take their open shots against the international team's zone defenses. The group, led by Kevin Durant and Carmelo Anthony, responded by setting an Olympic record with 129 three-point field goals (16.1 3pg.) and shooting 44.0 percent from three-point range during the tournament. Team USA's finest shooting performance came in a 156-73 win over Nigeria in pool play. Krzyzewski's group set Olympic records for three-pointers (29, including 10 from Anthony), three-point percentage (.630) and points scored (156) in the win.

"He is a legendary coach. I love playing for him and talking to him on off days and before practice. I have been blessed in coming straight out of high school to have a college coach and be able to play for him since '05. It means a lot to me and I have been humbled by it."

- LeBron James

"[Coach K] is successful because he understands his audience and he understands how to adapt. He is a great communicator, he is very passionate about the game and he cares about the guys."

- Kobe Bryant

"Coach K has the same thing that makes all of us players great -- the ability to be confident, but not arrogant. There is not much difference in him than any of us players. In 2006, I was just a year removed from the ACC and I had all the reasons to not like him and now I absolutely love him. He is just such a great guy and a great family man. He is somebody that you can trust and somebody that I'd go to battle with any day."

- Chris Paul

"Coach K just knows the game and he is a great motivator. He holds everybody to a certain standard. Everything is about family and team. I have learned a lot over the past few years while playing for him."

– Kevin Durant

"The amount of respect that he commands and the amount of respect the guys have for him is great. Whether on the college level or the pro level, he is obviously one of the best coaches, so having him here and knowing his knowledge of the game, the way he relates to pro players it makes it easy. It makes it seamless."

- Blake Griffin

"I have so much respect for him as a human being, as a father, as a leader, as a coach, it doesn't get any better than that."

- Jerry Colangelo

Krzyzewskiville

41 games

36 games

Though tents popped up from time to time at Duke before the arrival of Mike Krzyzewski in 1980, Krzyzewskiville – named "Tent City" prior to that – came to form as we know it today in 1986 when the popularity of the team soared with its immense success. After its humble beginnings when only a handful of students erected tents in the courtyard area outside of Cameron Indoor Stadium, Krzyzewskiville has grown and is now an integral part of the Duke culture. Today, more than a thousand students camp out for their place in line in order to get the best seats at games, sometimes for as long as 10 weeks.

The increased growth of K-ville has brought on more rules. Currently, there are two games per season designated as "tenting" games, one of which is always the North Carolina contest. At least one person needs to man the tent at all times unless the head line monitor, who is essentially the mayor of K-ville, declares a grace period for weather. Generally, there are 12 people in each tent, which are often adorned with numbers and phrases to differentiate themselves.

Coach K addresses the students prior to each of the designated tenting games, and is known to send pizzas to them for their dedication to the Duke basketball team. Keeping true to its emphasis on schoolwork, Duke officials made sure that wireless internet access is available in K-ville during a recent courtyard renovation so students could handle their academic requirements during the spring semester.

Duke's "Sixth Man", better known as the Cameron Crazies, is among the best cheering sections in all of sports. Their creativity is emulated, but never matched, at other schools around the nation. Largely because of their fervent support, the game experience at Cameron Indoor Stadium has become an event itself and a destination for many die-hard sports fans in the United States.

Duke Dominance

Duke has dominated college basketball for the last 18 seasons. Among Duke's incredible accomplishments from the 1997-98 through 2014-15 seasons were the 2001, 2010 & 2015 NCAA Championships, five Final Four appearances, five consecutive ACC regular season championships from 1998-2001, 10 ACC Tournament titles, including an unprecedented five consecutive ACC Tournament titles from 1999-2003, five years ranked number one in the final AP poll and a national-high 545 victories, an average of 30.3 per season. The following is a look at Duke compared with several prominent programs during that 18-year period.

<sup>1</sup>Duke's Elton Brand was the unanimous National Player of the Year in 1999. Shane Battier was the consensus National Player of the Year in 2001, but he shared the award with Blue Devil teammate Jason Williams (NABC). Duke was the first program in college history to have two National Player of the Year honorees from the same team in the same season. Williams was the consensus winner in 2002. J.J. Redick won or shared all of the major Player of the Year awards in 2006. Of a possible 84 National Player of the Year honors awarded by the Associated Press, U.S. Basketball Writers Association, Wooden Award, Naismith Award, Rupp Award and the National Association of Basketball Coaches the past 14 seasons, Duke players have collected 28 of them. Duke has had four Player of the Year winners in the past 11 seasons.

&lt;sup>3</sup> Duke's 11 consensus first team All-Americas from 1998-2015 are the most by any program in the nation. Elton Brand (1999), Chris Carrawell (2000), Shane Battier (2001), Jason Williams (2001, 2002), J.J. Redick (2005, 2006), Shelden Williams (2006), Nolan Smith (2011), Jabari Parker (2014) and Jahlil Okafor (2015) were the Blue Devils' first team All-America honorees during that time.
