Hubert Davis

Head Coach • 11th Year at Carolina • Second as Head Coach

Hubert Davis led the Tar Heels to the 2022 NCAA East Region championship, a win over Duke in a historic Final Four matchup and a berth in the national championship game, all in his first season as a head coach. The 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina received two National Coach-of-the-Year awards as UNC won 17 of its last 21 games and came within a few possessions of securing the program's seventh NCAA Tournament title.

Davis was named the 20th head coach of the University of North Carolina men's basketball program on April 5, 2021. He became the fourth former Tar Heel player to become UNC's head coach and the first Black head coach in Carolina men's basketball history.

Davis played for Dean Smith at Carolina from 1988-92 and was an assistant coach on Roy Williams' staff from 2012-21. He played a key role coaching, recruiting and scouting and was the head coach of the UNC junior varsity program for six seasons from 2013-19.

"I said (to Coach Davis) keep what's good but don't get stuck," UNC Director of Athletics Bubba Cunningham told the media at the 2022 Final Four. "Change what needs to be changed to be modern and current. And I think that's what Hubert brings — a current mentality to the historical tradition and success that we've had."

Davis led the Tar Heels to a 29-10 record, including 15-5 in the ACC to tie Notre Dame for second place, just a game out of first. The Tar Heels went 7-3 on the road in league play, including five straight victories at Clemson, Louisville, Virginia Tech, NC State and fourth-ranked Duke when UNC won 11 of 13 games to conclude the regular season.

The 29 wins were the second most by an individual in his first season as Carolina's head coach and equaled the 10th most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach.

The Tar Heels shook up the college basketball scene in a 94-81 win at Duke when they scored 55 second-half points, all five starters played the entire second half and four scored 20 points for the first time in UNC history in Mike Krzyzewski's final game at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

UNC entered the NCAA Tournament as an eight seed but played some of its best basketball in winning the East Region. The Tar Heels had 51 assists on 62 field goals and sank 24 three-pointers in the first- and second-round wins over Marquette and Baylor, when it crushed the Golden Eagles by 32 points and eliminated the defending NCAA champion Bears in overtime after leading by 25 points in the second half in front of a heavily partisan Baylor crowd in Fort Worth, Texas.

Carolina trailed UCLA with two minutes left in the Sweet 16 but went on an 8-0 run to beat the Bruins and overpowered Saint Peter's, 69-49, in the regional final to send the Tar Heels to the Final Four for a record 21st time.

"I want every player that played for Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams, whether it's in person, TV, highlights — I want them to be able to identify and go, That's the Carolina I went to," Davis said during the Final Four. "It's really important for me that this program, with my own personality in my own shoes, looks exactly like the program that Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams ran."

Davis became just the second individual to play for and serve as head coach of the same school in Final Four history; the fourth to take his team to the national championship game in his first season as a head coach; the seventh to play in and be a head coach in the Final Four; and the 10th to lead his team to the Final Four in his first season as a head coach.

The Tar Heels defeated Duke, 81-77, in the national semifinals, the first time the two great rivals ever played in the NCAA Tournament. The game featured a dozen ties and 18 lead changes, 13 of which came in the second half. Over the final 15:42, the margin for either team exceeded a single possession for a little more than just one minute. Carolina would score nine different times in the second half either to break a tie or reverse the lead, including field goals or free throws by all five Tar Heel starters.

"Hubert Davis may be the nicest person I know, and he's the best father I've ever seen," Jay Bilas said to the Washington Post in New Orleans. "He's a perfect balance of cutthroat competitor and incredibly nice, thoughtful, empathetic person. He is an amazing person, and I'm not at all surprised knowing him that he is having this level of success this early."

"I tell the parents, 'I'm not your son's parent, but every decision I make will be filtered through what is in the best interests for your son and what I think you would do for your son,'" says Davis. "So, the same way I care for my three children is the same way I care for the players. I just want things to work out for them. Being a father helps me relate to the players because that's the way I coach."

Davis led Carolina to wins in March and April over the No. 4 (twice), No. 9 and No. 11-ranked teams in the AP poll. He won the Big House Gaines Award (National Sports Media Association) and John McLendon Award (CollegeInsider.com) as National Coach of the Year.

Each of Carolina's starters made significant contributions to the team's success in Davis's first season as head coach.

Armando Bacot earned third-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors, setting the single-season UNC record with 511 rebounds and tying David Robinson's NCAA record with 31 double-doubles; Brady Manek was named the top transfer in the country, coming to UNC after four seasons at Oklahoma, led the ACC in three-point percentage and averaged more than 18 points in three games vs. Duke; RJ Davis and Caleb Love alternated at point and shooting guard – Davis had 12 assists in the NCAA first round and 30 points vs. Baylor in round two; Love scored 30 against UCLA then 28 in the Final Four win over Duke; and Black became a lockdown defender, earning ACC All-Defensive team honors.

"It shows how much he cares about us and cares about the game," Love said during the NCAA Tournament. "We knew all along his passion, and we carried that with us. We feed off him and his energy. That's why you see us playing so hard for him."

"I just think Hubert is perfect for the job," Williams told USA Today during the Final Four. "He's the nicest person I've ever known but then he's also fiercely competitive. When you put those two together, it's a pretty good mix. It's why I asked him to join our staff. But he hasn't just had me as an influence. He had Coach (Dean) Smith, Don Nelson and Pat Riley from when he was a player. He's got all of us, but then found a way to make it his. This run, he's put his fingerprints on it. It's his team. He's put Hubert Davis's stamp on North Carolina basketball. He's been absolutely sensational."

In nine seasons on the bench with Williams, the Tar Heels played in eight NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the Final Four and national championship games in 2016 and 2017 and won the NCAA title in 2017. The Tar Heels went 228-95, including 107-60 in Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season play, winning the regular-season ACC title in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and the ACC Tournament title in 2016.

Carolina earned three No. 1 seeds and a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament in those nine seasons. The four-year run from 2016-19 was the best four-year NCAA seed average in UNC basketball history.

Davis helped coach 14 players who have played in the NBA, including 10 first-round draft picks – Cole Anthony, Tony Bradley, Reggie Bullock, P.J. Hairston, Justin Jackson, Brice Johnson, Cameron Johnson, Nassir Little, Day'Ron Sharpe and Coby White.

Brice Johnson and Jackson were consensus first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC selections; Jackson was the 2017 ACC Player of the Year and Cameron Johnson earned first-team All-ACC honors.

Jackson and Cameron Johnson rank one-two in UNC single-season history in three-pointers. Johnson transferred to UNC from Pittsburgh and blossomed into the 11th pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Davis also coached Marcus Paige, who earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore in 2014 and set the UNC career record with 299 three-pointers, and Joel Berry II, the 2017 Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

Anthony set the ACC record for most points in a college debut and had the second-highest single-season scoring average by a Tar Heel freshman.

White set the UNC single-season record for most threes by a freshman and became the seventh pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Davis worked for seven years with ESPN as an analyst and co-host of the College GameDay program.

Born in Winston-Salem, N.C., Davis grew up in Burke, Va., where he attended Lake Braddock High School, the same high school UNC and US Soccer star Mia Hamm attended. Davis was a high school football teammate of future Olympic 110 hurdles gold medalist Allen Johnson.

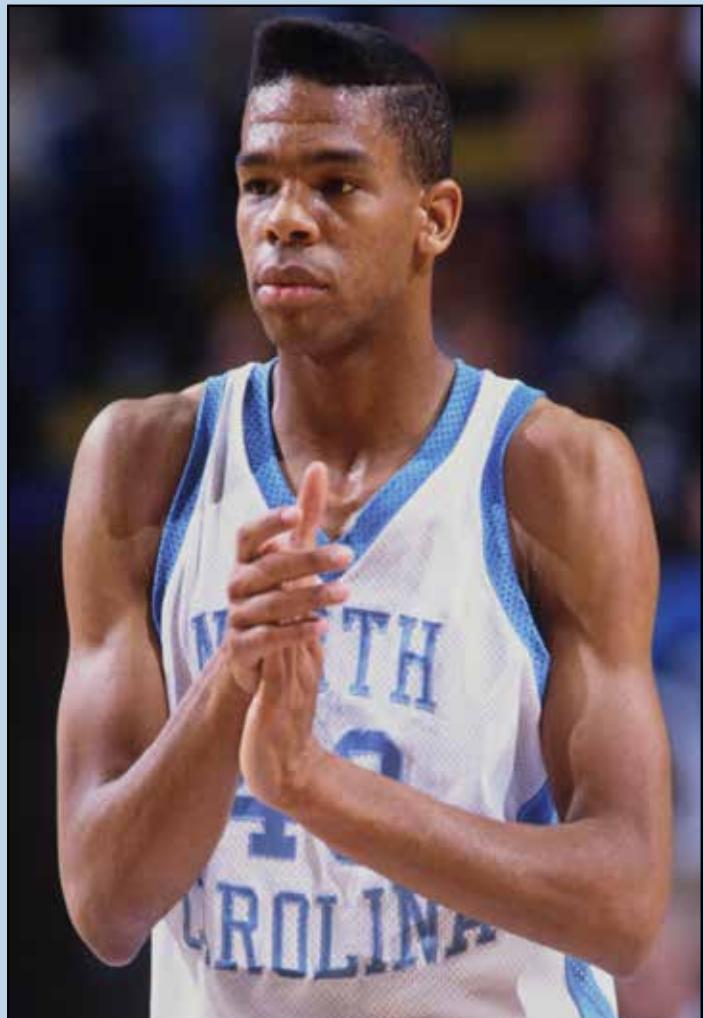

Davis played in 137 games as a Tar Heel from 1988-92, during which time UNC went 102-37, won the 1989 and 1991 ACC Tournaments and played in the 1991 Final Four. He scored 1,615 points, an average of 11.8 per game. He still holds the UNC record for career three-point percentage at .435 (197 of 453). He scored in double figures 80 times with 23 games scoring 20 or more points.

"In 1987-88, I went with Coach Smith into Hubert Davis's home," says Williams, who was an assistant at UNC when Davis was being recruited. "Coach Smith said, 'I don't know if you're ever going to be able to play here, Hubert, and I don't want to do this.' I got in the car with Coach and I said, 'Coach, I think he'll play more than you think he will because I think he's so competitive and so driven.' Hubert told Coach Smith, 'You'll never know unless you give me a chance.' Coach Smith a couple days later called him and said, 'I listened to what you said and I'm going to offer you a scholarship to North Carolina.' Hubert committed to Coach Smith right then."

He scored in double figures in each of his last eight NCAA Tournament games, averaging 18.5 points in those games. That included 19 against Temple in the 1991 NCAA East Regional final and 25 against Kansas (coached by Williams) in the 1991 Final Four.

Davis averaged 21.4 points and earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior. He scored in double figures in 32 of 33 games that season, including 20 games with 20 or more points and 30 or more in four games. He netted a career-high 35 points at Duke on March 8, 1992. That 35-point game was part of a seven-game stretch late in the season in which he averaged 28.7 points.

The New York Knicks selected Davis with the 20th pick in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft. He played 12 seasons in the NBA, scoring 5,583 points, an average of 8.2 per contest. He made 728 three-point field goals and is currently second in NBA history in three-point percentage at .441.

Davis averaged double-figure scoring in four different seasons – a career-high 11.1 with Dallas in 1997-98 and with the Knicks in 1993-94 (11.0), 1994-95 (10.0) and 1995-96 (10.7).

He scored a career-high 32 points twice – as a second-year pro with the Knicks vs. Minnesota and in 2000 with Dallas against Seattle.

In 1993-94, he was fourth on the Knicks in scoring behind Patrick Ewing, John Starks and Charles Oakley as New York won 57 games and advanced to the NBA Finals, where they took Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler and Kenny Smith to seven games (Doc Rivers and Greg Anthony were also Knicks that season).

He shot 40 percent or better from three-point range in eight seasons, including 1999-2000, when he led the NBA with a career-best 49.1 percent as a Maverick.

Davis shot 80 percent or better from the free throw line nine times.

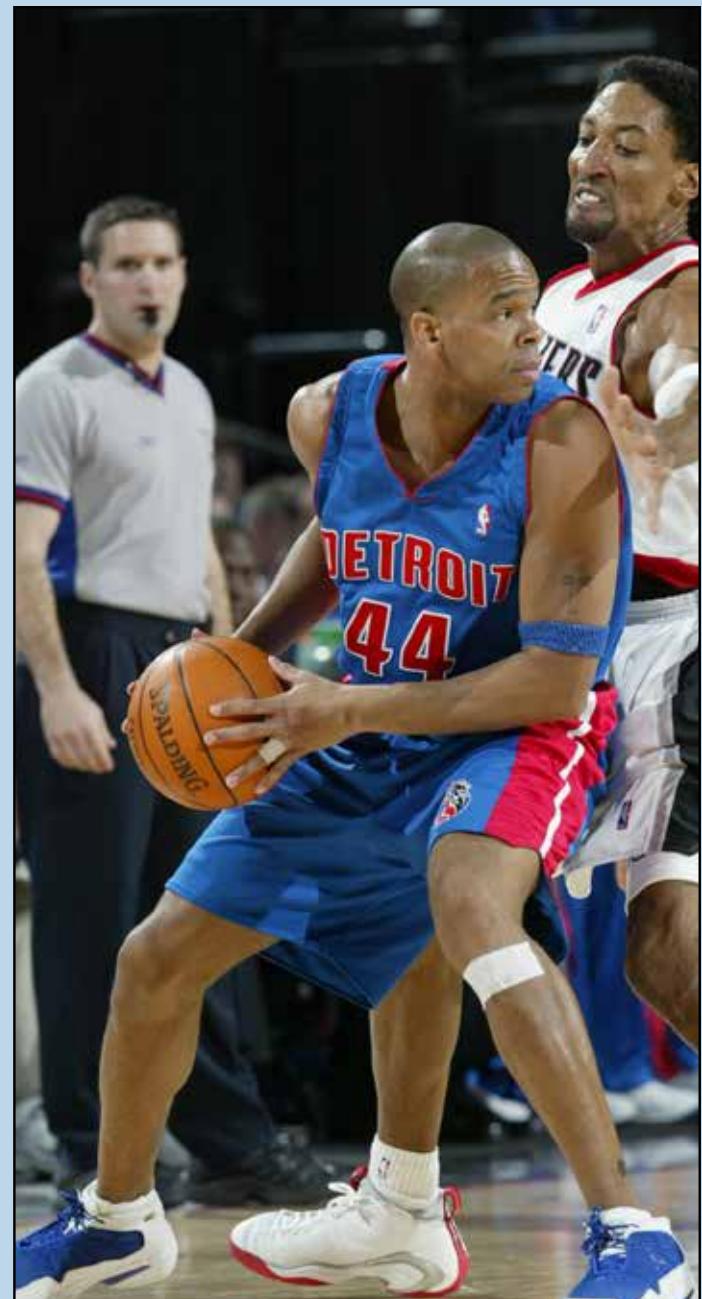

He connected on 83.7 percent of his career free throw attempts.

Davis played for NBA head coaches Pat Riley, Don Nelson, Jim Clemons, Leonard Hamilton, Doug Collins, Rick Carlisle and Larry Brown. His NBA teammates included Anthony, Chauncey Billups, Ewing, Michael Finley, Richard Hamilton, Michael Jordan, Jason Kidd, Steve Nash, Dirk Nowitzki and Rivers.

“Hubert carved out a remarkable career in both longevity and achievement,” said ABC/ESPN analyst and former NBA head coach Jeff Van Gundy when Davis was named head coach. “He will go down as one of the GREAT shooters of his era and had an under rated pick and roll game. Hubert was what you want in a player... dependable, reliable, trustworthy and his work ethic were second to none. Hubert’s character, basketball acumen and love of UNC will drive him in his quest to continue the long and storied championship tradition that he helped create as a player and as an assistant coach. I have no doubt that Hubert will be the next in line of Hall of Fame coaches from Chapel Hill with an NCAA championship in the near future.”

Hubert’s uncle, Walter, starred at UNC from 1973-77 and was a six-time NBA All-Star. He was the NBA Rookie of the Year in 1978 with the Phoenix Suns, who retired his jersey.

“I’ve never known a finer person in my entire life, who has a switch he turns on and can be as competitive as anybody around,” says Williams. "He loves this program and has the same passion I do, and he'll be better than me."

Davis graduated from UNC in 1992 with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children – Elijah, Gracie and Micah. Elijah is a sophomore on the basketball team at the University of Lynchburg.

"Coach Davis wants to be involved in your life; he reaches out, tries to understand every player for who they are and gets to know them and just helps us through any situation."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT HUBERT DAVIS ...WHAT COACHES, TV ANALYSTS SAY

"Hubie not only was one of the most accurate shooters in Mavs history, a 3-point wizard long before they were common, but he has a heart of gold who cares about his teammates, the organization and the community."

"UNC players and the entire global UNC community will benefit greatly from Hubie's wisdom."

Dallas Mavericks Owner Mark Cuban

"Hubert is a natural leader and a first-class person. He has an incredible passion for the University of North Carolina and guiding young people. Hubert's ability to teach the game of basketball is illustrated by the success of the teams he has coached early in his career. He is also an incredible communicator. Those two aspects of his personality are a great formula for success. That's what he will be as the head coach of the Tar Heels."

Leonard Hamilton, Florida State Head Coach

"I had the honor to work alongside Hubert for many years at ESPN, and I simply don't know a better person. Don't let the smile and laugh fool you, Hubert is a cutthroat competitor with an uncommon understanding of the game. And he bleeds Carolina Blue. Hubert is the real deal."

ESPN Analyst Jay Bilas

"When you send your child to play for someone, you want to trust that what you see is what you get. That's Hubert. He always knew that Hubert truly cared about him. Through his struggles, he saw who cared. And Hubert was the head of that, and that's why we could not be more thrilled to be part of the Carolina Family."

Cole might be 50 or 60 years old, and he will always be part of that Carolina Family. That's something you can't put a price on. They take tremendous pride in the Carolina world of being part of that family."

Greg Anthony, NBA veteran, father of Cole Anthony

"Happy for my brother Hubert Davis. So many people don't understand that UNC isn't a basketball program, it's a Fifth-Generation family. Hubert is the connector because he played for Coach Smith and coached with Roy. He'll do well."

NC Central Head Coach LeVelle Moton

"Having worked with Hubert Davis at ESPN, he has been so passionate over Carolina Basketball. He has great knowledge of the game plus he knows what it means to wear the Carolina Blue."

"This is a super person. He is classy in every way, and he really bleeds the colors of Tar Heel blue. He has such a passion. ... I talked to Roy Williams yesterday. He raved about Hubert. He raved about him. He didn't have to rave to me, because I know. I've worked with him. He's a super person as well."

"I tip the hat to North Carolina saying, 'We've got a guy right here. He's given his heart and soul to our university, heart and soul. He has earned the right to represent our school.'"

ESPN Analyst Dick Vitale

"Hubert Davis is as fine a person as I know. His integrity and character are beyond reproach. I've seen him coach and develop players both on and off the floor. He is truly a gifted coach, teacher of the game and mentor. Any parent would love to send their son to play for Hubert. He makes everyone he meets feel important because they are important to him. Humble. Genuine. Fiercely competitive. Puts others before himself. Loves North Carolina. He has the utmost respect and appreciation for all he learned from Roy Williams, and his NBA experience will be a huge benefit too. I can't imagine a better choice. Hubert will crush it as the Tar Heels head coach."

ESPN College Gameday Host Rece Davis

"It's far more significant than just another hire. Duke has never had a Black head coach. Kansas has never had a Black head coach. Kentucky had one. UCLA hasn't had a Black head coach since the 1980s. All those programs have had a whole lot of Black players. But I can count the Black head coaches on one hand. The Hubert Davis hire matters. It means something that he's the first Black man to lead that North Carolina program...Hubert Davis is a great step forward."

ESPN Commentator Stephen A. Smith

"What Hubert's done with his first year, to get his team to do that is magnificent."

Former Duke Head Coach Mike Krzyzewski, April 2022

"I think from start to finish, his team improved the most in college basketball. Without question. Not even close. I don't think that any of us could have predicted that they'd be in the Final Four in his first year in the final game in the national championship."

Kenny Smith, former Tar Heel and NBA guard, TNT Analyst

WHAT THE TAR HEELS SAY

"I appreciate what Coach Davis shows us through the examples that not just he sets, but all the coaches do. They're all family men, they all are in their kids' lives. They just take pride in being big brothers and fathers to us. And we really all appreciate that."

Armando Bacot

"His experience (means) a lot, because when we get rattled, he just reminds us he's been in that position before. He just gets us under control."

Leaky Black

"Coaching is his passion. Not very many people are as genuine as him. He really gives off a high spirit. He's about his religion, his family, and all of that, and I am as well, and seeing how successful he is, I just want to follow in his footsteps."

Leaky Black

"What makes him so good is his passion, he's a real genuine guy. Coach Davis really looks out for his players, and he sees us as family. That goes a long way. I could go to him about anything. He pushes us and motivates us, because he knows we want to accomplish our goals and get to the next level. He's going to do whatever it takes to help us get there."

RJ Davis

"Coach Davis helps me as a person and a player. You learn so many things from him off the court, being a great person in the community, taking care of your business, outside of just basketball. On a court I feel he best prepares us because he's been in the NBA, so he knows what it takes to get there and he knows what it takes to stay in the NBA, he played 12 years. He prepares us every day. When we step out on the court and then off the court talking to him, he prepares us for the pro program."

Caleb Love

"Coach Davis wants to be involved in your life; he reaches out, tries to understand every player for who they are and gets to know them and just helps us through any situation. As a coach, he pushes you hard every day, he brings the same energy every day. Throughout the year, when we were down or when we were winning, he was the same guy every day. We're up 20, he's yelling at us. We're down 20, he's yelling at us, but he's not yelling at us in a bad manner. He's yelling at us as encouragement and trying to get us to keep playing hard."

Brad Frederick

Assistant Coach • 10th Year at Carolina

The 2022-23 season is Brad Frederick's 10th season on the men's basketball staff at Carolina after having played for the Tar Heels under Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge. He is in his second year as an assistant under head coach Hubert Davis following eight seasons as a member of Roy Williams' staff.

In 2021-22, Frederick helped Carolina advance to the national championship game in his fifth trip to the Final Four. As a player the Tar Heels appeared in two Final Fours, he was on Williams' staff when UNC played in the 2016 and 2017 Final Fours and was in his first year under Davis when Carolina won the NCAA East Regional and beat Duke in the national semifinal in New Orleans.

Frederick joined Williams' staff at UNC in 2013. That came after 14 seasons on Kevin Stallings' staff at Vanderbilt.

As a player, Frederick began his career on the junior varsity team as a freshman, where he played for Phil Ford. He earned a promotion to the UNC varsity as a sophomore in Dean Smith's final season as head coach and played two seasons under head coach Bill Guthridge. The Tar Heels went 86-21 in his three seasons on the varsity. He played in 70 games and was part of UNC teams that won the 1997 and 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament titles and reached two Final Fours.

Frederick played on Tar Heel teams that featured future NBA standouts Vince Carter and Antawn Jamison, as well as point guard Ed Cota. He was one of three seniors in 1999 along with Ademola Okulaja and Scott Williams.

Since joining the UNC staff, Carolina had its highest four-year NCAA seed run ever (three No. 1s and a No. 2 from 2016-19), won the 2017 NCAA title, played in the 2016 and 2022 national championship games, won three NCAA regionals, three regular-season ACC titles and an ACC Tournament title.

Frederick began his coaching career in 2000 at Vanderbilt. During his final season at Vanderbilt, Frederick held the longest tenure of any assistant coach in the Southeastern Conference. While in Nashville, the Commodores won an SEC Tournament title, were ranked in the final AP poll and played in the NCAA Tournament six times, advancing twice to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Frederick is married to the former Jocelyn Isenburg. They have two sons, Benjamin and Sawyer, and a daughter, Carson. Brad's father, the late Dr. Bob Frederick, was the athletic director at Kansas for 14 years and served as chairman of the NCAA Division I Basketball Committee.

As a senior he broke the school record, which still stands, for consecutive made free throws with 41.

He currently is sixth at UNC in career free throw percentage and has the third- and 10th-best single-season

NC Sean May

Assistant Coach • Eighth Year at Carolina

Sean May, the Most Outstanding Player of the 2005 NCAA Final Four, is in his second season as assistant coach and eighth on the basketball staff at his alma mater.

May was director of basketball operations for four seasons under Hall of Fame head coach Roy Williams. While working for Williams, he helped the Tar Heels advance to consecutive national championship games and the 2017 NCAA title.

In 2021-22, May mentored Armando Bacot, who set the UNC single-season rebound record with 511, a record May once held, and tied the NCAA single-season record with 31 double-doubles.

May played three seasons at Carolina from 2002-05, becoming the first Tar Heel in more than 30 years to average a double-double for his career. The Bloomington, Ind., native averaged 15.8 points and 10.0 rebounds in 77 games (he missed 24 games as a freshman due to a broken bone in his foot).

May scored 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the 2005 national championship game victory over Illinois. He was sensational throughout Carolina's six-game march to the national title, averaging 22.3 points and 10.7 rebounds.

May is the first Tar Heel to win Most Outstanding Player honors to become an assistant coach for Carolina.

He was selected Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year as a junior after averaging 17.5 points and 10.5 rebounds, shooting 56.7 percent from the floor and posting 18 double-doubles, including eight in a row and 13 in UNC's final 16 games. He set UNC's single-season record with 397 rebounds.

In 2005, he was also named the ACC's Top Male Athlete, a first-team All-America (Rupp, ESPN.com), second-team All-America (USBWA), first-team All-ACC and MVP of the NCAA East Regional.

In his final home game at the Dean E. Smith Center, May had 26 points and 24 rebounds against Duke, a 75-73 win that clinched the ACC regular-season title. The 24 rebounds are still the most by any player in a game in Smith Center history. --

In 2004, May became the first sophomore to lead the ACC in rebounding since Tim Duncan in 1995 and earned second-team All-ACC and second-team All-America honors (ESPN.com).

May shared USA Basketball's co-Male Athlete of the Year award in 2004 with Chris Paul.

KEVIN GUSKIEWICZ CHANCELLOR

Kevin M. Guskiewicz, a neuroscientist, academic leader and concussion researcher, is the 12th chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Prior to his appointment as chancellor, Guskiewicz served as the interim chancellor from February 2019 until December 2019. In that role, he held over 25 listening and learning sessions with constituents across campus. He was instrumental in shaping Carolina's new strategic plan, Carolina Next: Innovations for Public Good that outlines a roadmap for the University's priorities moving forward. He relaunched the Tar Heel Bus Tour with 90 faculty and campus leaders, demonstrating Carolina's commitment to the state.

A Kenan Distinguished Professor of Exercise and Sport Science, he has been a member of Carolina's faculty since 1995. He is co-director of the Matthew Gfeller Sport-Related Traumatic Brain Injury Research Center. Guskiewicz is a nationally recognized expert on sport-related concussions. His groundbreaking work has garnered numerous awards and has influenced concussion guidelines in the NCAA and the NFL.

Prior to his appointment as interim chancellor in February 2019, Guskiewicz had served as dean of the College of Arts & Sciences – Carolina's largest academic institution – since January 2016. With more than 16,000 undergraduate students and 2,500 graduate students, Guskiewicz made interdisciplinary teaching and research a cornerstone of his tenure. He championed the use of high-structure active learning techniques, and Carolina is a national leader in implementing these highly effective educational strategies. He significantly increased study abroad, academic internships and other experiential learning opportunities for Carolina students and oversaw work on a major revamp of UNC-Chapel Hill's General Education curriculum.

In 2011, Guskiewicz received the prestigious MacArthur Fellowship (often called a "genius grant") for his innovative work on the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of sport-related concussions. In 2013, Time magazine named him a Game Changer, one of 18 "innovators and problem-solvers that are inspiring change in America."

Guskiewicz earned a B.S. in athletic training from West Chester University, M.S. in exercise physiology/athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh and Ph.D. in sports medicine from the University of Virginia. Born and raised in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, he lives with his wife Amy and children Jacob, Nathan, Adam and Tessa in Chapel Hill.

Since Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham officially began his duties as Carolina's director of athletics on November 14, 2011, UNC has graduated over 1,400 student-athletes while consistently competing for championships in an array of different sports – exciting, motivating and influencing along the way. Under Cunningham's leadership, the athletic department has accomplished numerous academic and athletic achievements:

- The Tar Heels have won 18 national titles and made 13 runner-up finishes.
- More than 3,000 student-athletes have made the ACC Academic Honor Roll -- which requires a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for the year.
- More than 40 student-athletes have been named to Phi Beta Kappa honor society.
- Twelve student-athletes have been NCAA Elite 90 recipients.
- Carolina's APR has steadily risen, and 18 teams scored a perfect 1000 in 2020-21.
- The Tar Heels finished in the top 10 of the NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup eight times, including a sixth-place finish in 2021-22.
- And student-athletes have logged more than 50,000 hours of community service, helping at hospitals and local schools, and partnering with a variety of local and national groups.

Cunningham is in his 20th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa. He also served as Ball State University's Athletic Director from 2002-05.

Cunningham, who earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Notre Dame in 1984 and 1988, respectively, worked in his alma mater's athletics department from 1988-2002. A former member of the Irish golf team (1982-83), Cunningham served as Notre Dame's Associate Athletics Director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the Associate Director of Athletics for external affairs from 2000-02.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four grown children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah, and daughters-in-law, Erica and Emily.

The 2022-23 season is the 38th in which the Tar Heels will play in the Dean E. Smith Center. UNC has played over 500 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of over 10 million fans. Carolina enters the 2022-23 campaign 451-83 in the Smith Center, a winning percentage of 84.5.

The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 33 of the last 34 seasons (the NCAA did not release attendance leaders in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic).

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas, including naming the court after Roy Williams and upgrading the video boards in 2018. UNC completed full renovations of the lockerrooms, training room and the addition of a team video room and dining room prior to the 2016-17 season.

The building added a new ribbon board surrounding the court for the 2012-13 season. The basketball offices were overhauled and expanded in 2010.

The arena's lights and sound system were replaced and the training, weight and equipment rooms were expanded and renovated for 2009-10. A hydrotherapy room was added for the 2008-09 season.

In 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum opened in the new Williamson Athletics Center, adjacent to the Koury Natatorium. The museum underwent a $1.5 million renovation in 2017.

In 2006-07, the seats in the lower level and upper level ring were replaced. The playing floor was completely refinished and refurbished for the 2007-08 campaign.

Four high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. At the same time, two 50-foot ribbon boards were added to the fascia around

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

ORIGINS

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres of the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

Larry Miller

“Every time I come in the Smith Center, I sneak a look up there every couple of minutes. I just have to make sure it’s still up there, that the big number 33 is still hanging. When I see it up there, it takes me back to coming into Carolina with a bald head and a little mustache. Even at the time, you knew you were going to treasure those memories forever. When I was walking off the court the night of the alumni game (in 2009), I grabbed my son and took a second and pointed out that jersey with ‘Jamison’ on the banner. There are no words to describe what that felt like. I felt like I was showing him the past and the future all at the same time.”

Jan. 24, 1920: Billy Carmichael scored 16 points in a 36-25 win over Trinity in the first-ever basketball game between the two schools located eight miles apart. ✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 95 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight and surpassed again in 2011 by Mike Krzyzewski.

• Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run was the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours.

• Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continued to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated and received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the ESPY Awards. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007. In November 2013, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the U.S.

He received the Naismith Good Sportsmanship Award in 2011. Upon the announcement of that honor, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski said, "Dean set the standard for basketball – and not just college basketball – that everyone is still trying to reach. He demanded that his teams play as one. And what he got in return from all these guys who played for him was the intense loyalty that they feel toward him. And that's something I've admired since I started coaching. It's really one of the great things in all of sport: that intense loyalty the Tar Heel players have for Coach Smith."

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say:

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the gold medal against a group of improving international teams.

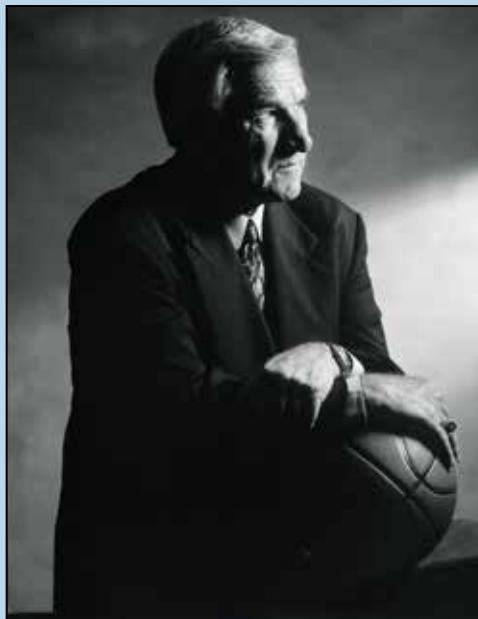

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

DEAN SMITH

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Knight.

He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack, but he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a man-to-man, pressure to speed up the action.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents did not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who went on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith also coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game."

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

When he retired, Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories. In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, and Knight are the only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well — 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

Roy Williams retired on April 1, 2021, with the third-most wins by a Division I head coach and the sixth-highest winning percentage in college basketball history.

Inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007, Williams was a college head coach for 33 seasons at two of the three winningest programs in the sport's history. He won 418 games in 15 seasons at Kansas from 1988-2003 and 485 games in 18 seasons at UNC, his alma mater, from 2003-21. He is the second-winningest coach all-time at Carolina and is now third at KU. He is the only coach in college basketball history to win 400 games at two schools.

Williams is one of 11 Tar Heels enshrined in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, joining a group that includes Dean Smith, Michael Jordan, James Worthy, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, Bob McAdoo, Charlie Scott and Bobby Jones.

ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and Fox Sports named Williams the Coach of the Decade for 2000-09, a 10-year span during which he won 33 NCAA Tournament games, including two national titles among five Final Four appearances at KU and Carolina.

The Asheville, N.C., native won his 900th game when the Tar Heels beat Florida State on February 27, 2021, reaching 900 wins in fewer games and fewer seasons than any other coach in history. His 903rd and final win came against Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament on March 11, 2021. He finished his career with a 903-264 record. The 903 wins rank third behind only Mike Krzyzewski and Jim Boeheim and his winning percentage of .774 is sixth all-time, third highest in the last 45 seasons and the highest in his 33 seasons among Power 5 conference coaches.

Williams grew up in the Biltmore neighborhood in Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played for Coach Buddy Baldwin. He played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69, earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and a master's degree in teaching in 1973. After five seasons as the head coach at Owen High School in Black Mountain, N.C., Williams joined Dean Smith's UNC staff, where he served as an assistant coach from 1978-88.

Williams led UNC to NCAA championships as a head coach in 2005, 2009 and 2017 and was an assistant when the Tar Heels won the title in 1982. He is the only head coach to win three national championships at his alma mater and one of six – with John Wooden, Krzyzewski, Adolph Rupp, Bob Knight and Jim Calhoun – to win at least three titles.

Williams is second all-time in college basketball in 30-win seasons (12) and fourth in 20-win seasons (29), has the most wins over No. 1-ranked teams in the AP poll (8) and averaged more wins per season (27.4) than any coach with 800 or more wins. His teams won 18 regular-season conference championships, tied for the fifth most all-time.

He won national coach-of-the-year honors nine times (1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2017, 2019) and was the conference coach of the year nine times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2011). His teams were ranked in 84.4 percent of the AP polls, including 61.5 percent in the top 10 and 29 weeks at No. 1. His teams earned a No. 1 ranking in 13 seasons and in 18 years were ranked at least second in the nation.

Williams won 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800 and 900 games in fewer seasons than any coach in college basketball history.

Williams ranks with Smith and Krzyzewski as the most accomplished coaches in ACC history, ranking third in wins (485), third in ACC regular-season and Tournament wins (241), third in regular-season ACC titles (9), third in road wins (93), fourth in road winning percentage in league play (.621) and fifth in regular-season winning percentage (.693).

His teams defined success in NCAA Tournament play, where he retired second in wins (79), games (106) and No. 1 seeds (13); third in appearances (30), winning percentage (.745), Final Four wins (9) and championship game appearances (6); and fourth in titles (3) and Final Fours (9). Over his last 20 years, Williams' teams won 54 NCAA Tournament games, more than any other coach in the nation. Carolina's 45 NCAA Tournament wins in the Williams era were more than any other school in those 18 seasons. Carolina was a No. 1 seed in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and a No. 2 in 2018, the best four-year stretch of seeding in school history.

Only Kentucky, UNC, Duke, UCLA and Kansas have more NCAA Tournament wins than Williams. His teams went 29-1 in the first round, 19-10 in the second, 13-6 in the Sweet 16, 9-4 in the Elite 8, 6-3 in the national semifinals and 3-3 in the championship game.

Carolina went 45-13 in the NCAA Tournament under Williams, a winning percentage of .776 that is the highest in ACC history. The 45 wins under Williams are more than 13 current or former ACC schools have won in their NCAA Tournament histories. He is the only coach to win an NCAA Tournament game in 20 consecutive seasons (1990-2009) and the only coach to win 29 straight first-round games.

In 2005, Carolina went 33-4 and won the NCAA title in Williams' second year as head coach, just two years removed from back-to-back seasons when the Tar Heels failed to make the NCAA Tournament field.

The 2009 squad is considered one of the most dominant championship teams, becoming the first NCAA champion to win all six games by a dozen or more points. Carolina won by an average of 20.2 points, the highest margin in 13 years, trailed in the second half just once and led Michigan State by a record 21 points at halftime in the national championship game.

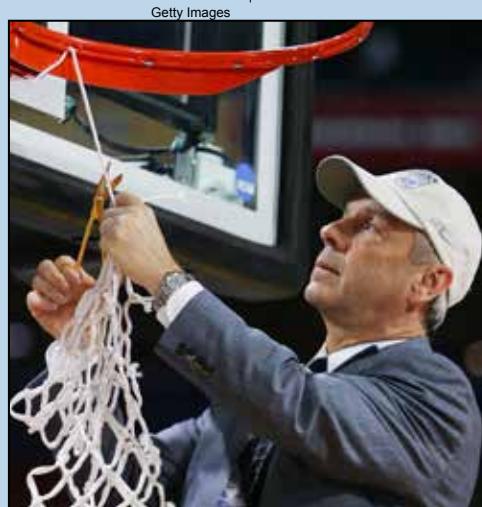

Williams led the Tar Heels to back-to-back national championship games in 2016 and 2017. UNC lost the title to Villanova on a last-second three-pointer in '16, but beat top-seed Gonzaga, 71-65, to win the 2017 title. It marked the fourth time in NCAA history a school won the championship a year after losing in the finals.

Under Williams, Carolina earned 10 No. 1 or No. 2 NCAA Tournament seeds, won three ACC Tournament championships and averaged 26.9 wins and 11.8 regular-season ACC wins per season. Carolina had 11 top-10 finishes in the Associated Press poll, and produced 21 All-Americans, 17 first-team All-ACC selections, 22 first-round NBA Draft picks, six ACC scholar-athletes of the year and seven Academic All-Americans. Five times multiple Tar Heels were selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including four players in 2005 and 2012 and three in 2009 and 2019.

Williams set UNC records for most wins in one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09), six years (177 from 2005-10), seven years (206 from 2005-12), eight years (228, 2011-18 and 2012-19), nine years (263 from 2005-13), 10 years (292 from 2008-17) and 15 years (434 from 2004-19).

His teams dominated at home, posting a record of 444-57 (.886). He led the Jayhawks to a 201-17 record (.922) in Allen Fieldhouse, at one point winning 62 consecutive games. The Tar Heels went 243-41 at home under Williams (including 241-40 at the Smith Center) and set the UNC record for consecutive home wins with 31.

In 15 seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks averaged 27.9 wins, including 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions. In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season.

Williams' players won numerous awards:

- four National Players of the Year – Drew Gooden (2002), Nick Collison (2003), Sean May (2005) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008);
- 17 first-team All-Americans, including 10 consensus first-team All-America honors – KU's Raef LaFrentz (1997 and 1998), Paul Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002) and Collison (2003); UNC's Hansbrough (2007, 2008, 2009), Brice Johnson (2016) and Justin Jackson (2017);

- nine conference player or athletes of the year, including five Tar Heels – May (2005), Hansbrough (2008), Ty Lawson (2009), Tyler Zeller (2012) and Jackson (2017);

- three Bob Cousy Award winners – Raymond Felton (2005), Lawson (2009) and Kendall Marshall (2012);

- 34 first-team all-conference players;

- seven first-team Academic All-Americans;

- 33 NBA first-round draft picks – 22 at Carolina and 11 at Kansas;

- 46 academic all-conference selections;

- and he is the only coach with two Academic All-Americans of the Year (Jacque Vaughn at Kansas, Tyler Zeller at UNC).

His players have earned nearly $1.3 billion in NBA salary. Paul Pierce was the 2008 NBA Finals MVP after leading the Boston Celtics to the title; Danny Green set the NBA Finals record with 27 three-pointers in 2013 and has won three NBA titles; Harrison Barnes won a title with Golden State in 2015 and was a starter with the Warriors when they set the NBA single-season record with 73 wins in 2016.

Tyler Hansbrough became the most decorated player in Carolina Basketball history and set the all-time ACC scoring mark with 2,872 points. He is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors in each of his four seasons. He also became Carolina's all-time leading rebounder, set the NCAA record for free throws made, won an NCAA title and National Player of the Year honors and earned his degree.

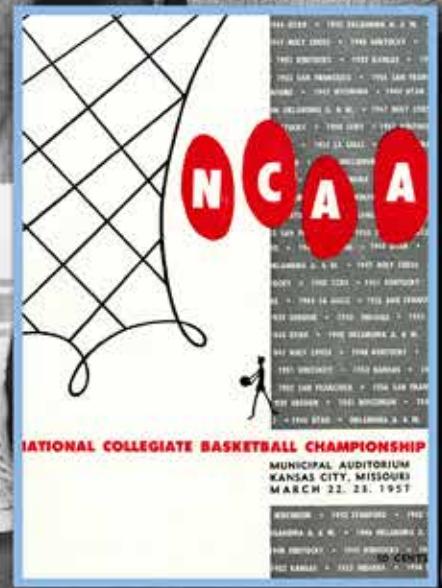

Carolina ranked in the top four nationally in scoring seven times and his teams averaged 80 points or more 23 times. Overall, his teams finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring 13 times, in scoring margin 18 times, in field goal percentage 12 times, in win-loss percentage 13 times and in field goal defense four times. Also, his teams finished in the top seven nationally in assists in 14 of the last 20 years and in the top 10 nationally in rebounding margin in 18 of the last 25 years. The Tar Heels led the nation in rebounds and rebound margin in three of his last five seasons.

In 43 seasons on the bench as a college head and assistant coach, Williams was part of 1,178 wins in 1,503 games, a win percentage of .784.

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

- Carolina has won 18 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record 35 times.

- The Tar Heels have a 105-50 record in the ACC Tournament, second-best in history.

- Dean Smith was the first coach to win 13 ACC Tournaments. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

- Roy Williams was 29-15 with three titles and eight appearances in the championship game in 18 seasons.

- The Tar Heels have earned the No. 1 seed a record 26 times. Duke is second with 18 No. 1 seeds.

- Carolina is one of only two schools that have won three consecutive ACC regular-season titles and ACC Tournament championships. UNC did so in 1967-68-69.

- Roy Williams is one of eight coaches to win back-to-back ACC Tournament titles and one of seven to win at least three Tournaments.

- A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 19 times – Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Reid (1989), Rick Fox (1991), Jerry Stackhouse (1994), Shammond Williams (1997), Antawn Jamison (1998), Brandan Wright (2007), Tyler Hansbrough (2008) and Joel Berry II (2016).

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was MVP.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was named MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

Carolina won a classic 1982 ACC title game over Ralph Sampson and Virginia in Greensboro.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Dick Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

termission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

Hugh Morton

Naismith Hall of Famer Robert McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP.

1975

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarter-final by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

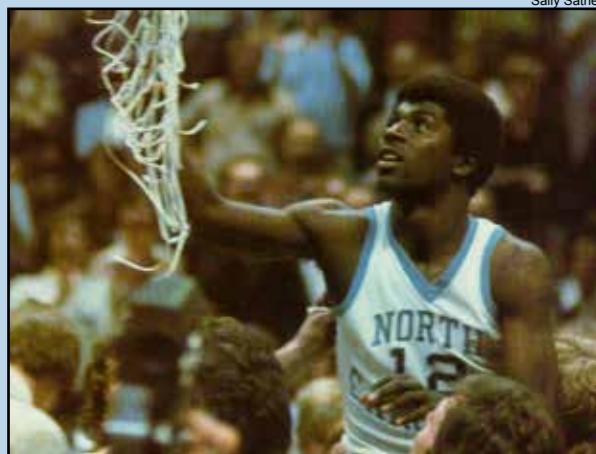

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in the semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

Freshman and ACC Tournament MVP Phil Ford cuts the nets in Greensboro in 1975.

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Virginia's Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as UNC prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win. Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors.

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Rick Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semi-final in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The 1989 team won a legendarily intense ACC Tournament final over Duke in Atlanta.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State.

No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reynshaw Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

Carolina beat Florida State, Virginia Tech and Clemson to win the 2008 ACC title, its second in a row and an ACC-record 17th overall. The Tar Heels have won back-to-back ACC Tournament titles five times — 1967-68, 1968-69, 1981-82, 1997-98 and 2007-08.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

Carolina opened the Tournament by surrendering the first eight points in its quarterfinal against No. 8 Pitt. The Panthers led by seven with 4:36 to play in the first half before the Tar Heels went on a 13-2 run to end the half. UNC shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the second and pulled away for an 88-71 win.

The Tar Heels dominated Notre Dame in the semifinals. The 78-47 win was UNC's largest ever in the semifinals and Carolina's biggest in any ACC Tournament game since 1993. The Tar Heels led 23-22, then went on an 18-0 run to end the half. Marcus Paige led with 16 points and seven assists and Isaiah Hicks had a career-high 15 rebounds.

The top-seeded Tar Heels beat No. 2 Virginia, 61-57 to win the title, avenging a loss in the only regular-season meeting two weeks prior in Charlottesville. Tournament MVP Joel Berry II led UNC with 19 points.

The championship game was tied at 28-28 at the half and at 44-all with 8:25 to play. The Tar Heels went on a 9-2 run over the next 6:40, sparked by a three-pointer by Berry and a steal and dunk by Justin Jackson.

Berry averaged a team-high 17.0 points and was 17 for 24 from the floor, 7 for 10 from three-pointers and 10 from 10 from the free throw line over the three games en route to MVP honors.

FANTASTIC FINISHES1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. COACHING HISTORY

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

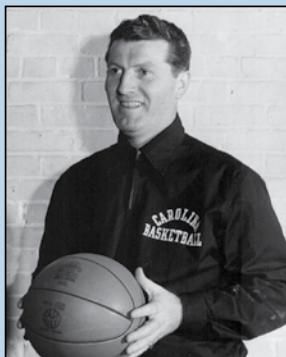

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times.

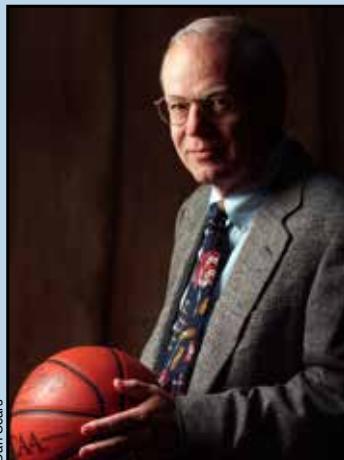

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 on the staff at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98. That season, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 ACC Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1998 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1999 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year, five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

In 2013, he was inducted into the N.C. Sports Hall of Fame and in 2021 he was posthumously inducted into the A STEP UP Assistant Coaches all of Fame. Guthridge died in May 2015.

CREDENTIALS

Media seating in the Smith Center is located in section 212. Seats will be prioritized for media who regularly cover Carolina Basketball, the visiting team and national media.

Please make credential requests online at SportsSystems.com/UNCBasketball.

Single-game requests should be made at least 14 days prior to a scheduled game.

All photo/TV passes will be issued on a game-by-game basis. There are no season photo/TV passes.

Approved credentials may be picked up at media will call at Smith Center Entrance D, which will open 90 minutes before the scheduled starting time. Entrance D is closest to the reserved parking lot behind the natatorium and the Smith Center/basketball offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and equipment are subject to search.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Acceptance of a credential acknowledges and assumes risks associated with Covid-19. The bearer agrees not to use the credential in the event he or she is sick or symptomatic. The wearing of masks is optional.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

The media work room is on the ground floor adjacent to the visiting team's locker room. Seats are assigned. Overflow seats are available in the hall outside the media room and media may choose to work from their seat in section 212.

Photo spots will be assigned by half. Note your assigned seat may change by half. Credentials for photographers and videographers will be issued on a game-by-game basis and will be numbered to match the location on the floor from where they are assigned to shoot.

Workspace for photographers and videographers will be available in or just outside the media work room on the ground floor adjacent to the visiting teams' locker room.

ARENA WiFi

Wireless internet access is available in the arena. Instructions for logging on will be emailed to credentialed media. Please do not publicize the network or password for WiFi access. Live stats are available at UNC.statbroadcast.com.

SMITH CENTER MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is located in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive. Parking, if requested and approved at least 14 days before the game, will either be mailed to you or you may pick up at the Athletic Communications office in advance.

If you make your request less than 14 days before a scheduled game, we are unable to mail you the parking. To get a parking pass you would need to either pick up in person if advance or provide us your FedEx number. Please note, you must have a parking pass to enter the media lot on the day of a game. You can't park first and then get your parking pass at our office.

GPS Directions: Skipper Bowles Lot, S-11, UNC campus (there is no street address for this lot).

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

Carolina head coach Hubert Davis will conduct a postgame press conference in the media workroom that will begin approximately 20 minutes after the game. UNC players will be available for interviews in the team dining room just off the home tunnel. Players will be available following most games approximately 5-10 minutes after the game ends.

Interviews with the visiting team at the Smith Center will be handled on a per-game basis. The visiting team is welcome to use the press room for an interview with the head coach and players, but it may choose to do via Zoom or make its coach and players available for questions outside their locker room.

NON-GAMEDAY INTERVIEWS

Throughout the season, Davis and players will be available a day or two before select games. A schedule of these sessions will be included in UNC's media game notes.

Interview requests should be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Coach Davis. Due to contractual obligations, Davis is unable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

Media should direct player interview requests to Matt Bowers (mattbowers@unc.edu, 919-619-7021). Player interviews typically occur before practice. Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days.

ACC COACHES ZOOM

Beginning January 9, Coach Davis will be available several Mondays for 10 minutes on the ACC media Zoom. Coaches do not participate if their teams play that evening, which UNC does on February 13 and February 27.

Carolina's official website is GoHeels.com, which features the media guide, record book, statistics, game notes, roster, schedule, archives and other information. Recordings of the weekly and post-game press conferences will be posted to the site.
