CREDENTIALS

All season and single-game requests for credentials and/or parking passes must be made online. Email Steve Kirschner at stevekirschner@ unc.edu for the link to apply for credentials. Credentials will be mailed if time permits or held on game day at media will call, located at Smith Center Entrance B. Media will call opens 90 minutes prior to scheduled starting time. Prior to that, credentials can be picked up in the Athletic Communications office. Media with season credentials will receive an email from Kirschner several days prior to each game to secure a press row seat or photo spot. Season credentials do not automatically reserve a seat for individual games.

INTERVIEWS

Interview requests must be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Coach Williams. Due to contractual obligations, Williams is unable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

Media should direct player interview requests to Matt Bowers (mattbowers@unc.edu, 919-619-7021). Player interviews typically occur before practice. Freshmen are available for interviews once they've played in a regular-season game. Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days.

Throughout the season Williams and players will be available at press conferences at the Smith Center. These typically begin at 2 p.m. a day or two before select games. A schedule may be found on this page and in UNC's game notes. Media parking for the press conferences is located in the Manning Lot off Tar Heel Boulevard. Out-of-town media may watch press conferences live on GoHeels.com and submit questions by texting Kirschner (919-475-2695), preferably in advance.

PRACTICE

Select practices will be open to the media, who are asked to sit in sections 108 and 109. Media are not permitted to photograph, videotape or live stream any portions of practice (including Periscope, Facebook Live, Snapchat Stories, Instagram Stories, etc..) except when noted. Open practices will be listed in the game notes.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

After home games, Coach Williams holds his postgame press conference in the media room. Players are available in the lounge adjacent to the locker room for 20 minutes following each home game.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Beginning in January, Coach Williams is available on most Mondays for 10 minutes on the ACC teleconference. Coaches do not participate on the Monday call if their teams play that evening (Jan. 16 and Feb. 27 for UNC). Koy Williams Roy Williams Head Goach - 14th Year at Carolina

- Naismith Hall of Famer
- Two-time NCAA champion
- Eight Final Fours
- Sixth-best winning percentage in NCAA history
- Seven-time National Coach of the Year

 \mathfrak{D}

John Wooden, Dean Smith, Mike Krzyzewski, Roy Williams. When Carolina defeated Notre Dame to win the 2016 NCAA East Regional, Williams joined an illustrious list of Hall of Famers who have coached in at least eight Final Fours, and when the Tar Heels beat Syracuse to advance to the national championship game, Williams became just the fifth coach ever (joining Adolph Rupp, Wooden, Smith and Krzyzewski) to take five teams to the NCAA title game.

The Tar Heels won 33 games last year, winning the Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season title for the seventh time and the ACC Tournament for the third time in Williams' 13 seasons as Carolina's head coach. Combined with 15 years at Kansas, Williams' teams have won regular-season titles 16 times in 28 seasons. No other active Naismith Hall of Fame coach has won as many regularseason championships.

Last season, Williams moved into second place all-time in NCAA Tournament wins with 70, earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time (second most ever), won at least 30 games for the 11th time (second all-time), moved into 10th place all-time in Division I wins and fourth place in wins by an ACC coach and became the first coach in NCAA history to win at least 350 games at two schools. The Tar Heels defeated fourthranked Virginia in the ACC championship game. It was the seventh time Williams has led UNC to the ACC Tournament finals in the last 10 years, and all seven championship games have been played against different opponents.

Carolina defeated Florida Gulf Coast in the first round of the East Regional, the 26th time in 26 appearances that Williams has led KU or UNC to at least one win in the NCAA Tournament. No other coach in history has played in that many NCAA Tournaments without failing to advance past the first game.

The Tar Heels led the ACC in 2016 in wins, scoring (averaging 80 plus points for the seventh time in Williams' 13 seasons), rebounding, assists and assist-turnover ratio, and set single-season UNC records for fewest turnovers and best assist-error rate. Carolina won truly as a team, as only one Tar Heel made All-ACC and finished among the league's top 25 scorers. It was the first time in ACC history the regular-season champions had only one player on the all-conference first, second and third teams. UNC was sixth in the country in assists per field goal, the fifth straight year the Tar Heels have had an assist on at least 60 percent of their made baskets.

Senior forward Brice Johnson earned consensus first-team All-America honors, the ninth time a Kansas or Carolina player has accomplished that while playing for Williams (the second-highest total of any active coach in the country). Johnson came to UNC as a Top 30 or 40 national prospect and became one of the most improved players, setting UNC single-season records for rebounds and double-doubles and leading the ACC in field goal percentage as a senior.

"Coach Williams has meant a lot to me: he's the closest thing I've had as a role model to my father," says Johnson. "My dad coached me in high school and Coach Williams tried to replicate how my dad pushed me as a coach for the past four years. He got on me more than anyone else on the team, but I thank him for that because he got me to be the player I am today because of his motivation and the little talks we would have here and there. But what I really appreciate even more is that he not only taught me to be the player that I am on the court, but the person I am off the court."

Senior guard Marcus Paige, another Top 30 recruit, earned distinction on and off the court, concluding his brilliant career as Carolina's all-time leader in threepointers and its 11th-leading scorer and becoming the first three-time Academic All-America in UNC Basketball history.

"He cares about us as people, almost as much as he does about us as players, and that's one thing that separates him as a coach," four Final Fours, seven Elite Eights, six NCAA Tournament No. 1 seeds in 12 appearances, eight Associated Press Top 10 final rankings, seven ACC regular-season titles, three ACC Tournament crowns and six 30-win seasons. NBA teams have selected 16 of his UNC players in the first-round of the NBA Draft.

Seven times Williams' teams have played Duke in the final game of the regular season with the ACC regularseason championship on the line, and the Tar Heels are 7-0 in those games (2005, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2012 and 2016).

Two of his most-decorated recent players - 2012 ACC Player of the Year Tyler Zeller and Paige - have combined to win the Skip Prosser Award as the ACC's Top Scholar-Athlete in four of the last six seasons. Williams is the only NCAA coach to have two different players (Zeller and Kansas's Jacque Vaughn) earn Academic All-America of the Year honors and Paige's Academic All-America selection in 2016 was the seventh time one of Williams' players accomplished that. Williams is tied with Dean Smith for fourth all-time among coaches whose players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors behind Wooden (13), Bob Knight (10) and Ted Owens (9).

"A lot of people were doubting me as a freshman, but one thing is you always believed in me," Paige said about Williams in a memorable and emotional Senior Night speech in 2016 that was viewed more than 5 million times online. "You always told me: 'I believe in you, son. You're going to make shots, you're going to do fine. You're going to be a great player.' You just believed in me, and I can't thank you enough for that, because that allowed me to be a confident person and helped me grow as a person...And I've tried to be every bit the player you wanted me to be, but you've made me a better man. And that's the most important thing. I'm 10 times a better man than when I got here. Thank you."

ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and Fox Sports named Williams the Coach of the Decade for 2000-09 after he led Kansas and Carolina to 33 NCAA Tournament wins, eight more than any other coach. Over the last 15 years, he has led the Jayhawks and Tar Heels to 45 NCAA Tournament victories. John Calipari is second in that span with 37, Krzyzewski is third (34), Bill Self is fourth (33) and Tom Izzo is fifth (30).

Carolina's 36 NCAA Tournament wins in the Williams Era are more than any other school has won in that 13-year span (Duke and Kansas are second with 30).

The Asheville, N.C., native and 1972 UNC graduate has compiled a 28-year record as a college head coach of 783-209 in 992 games. He is eight games shy of becoming the 22nd to coach to 1,000 games. He is 10th all-time in Division I wins and has a career winning percentage of .789. Rupp is the only coach in history who has won at least 700 games with a higher winning percentage. Williams has the highest winning percentage among active coaches with at least 20 years experience, is second among all active Division I coaches and sixth all-time for all coaches.

No other coach has won at least 700 games at a higher rate per season than Williams. His teams at Carolina and Kansas have produced 28.0 victories per season, more than two wins per year better than Krzyzewski, who has averaged 25.4 wins.

Williams is among the most successful coa-ches in NCAA Tournament history – only six schools have more NCAA wins than Williams. His teams are 70-24 in 26 appearances. He is second in wins (70), second in games (94) and has the fifth-highest winning percentage (.745) among coaches with at least 50 games. In addition to the eight Final Fours, his teams have reached the Sweet 16 in 17 seasons and the Elite Eight 12 times.

"He always tells you the straight-up truth about what you need to hear, not just what you want to hear. That helped me not only as a player but also as a person."

His teams made 20 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1990 to 2009, the thirdlongest streak in NCAA history and he is the only coach to win an NCAA Tournament game in 20 consecutive seasons (1990-2009).

Carolina is 36-10 in the NCAA Tournament under Williams, a winning percentage of .783 that is the highest in ACC history.

Williams is 365-108 (.772) in 13 seasons at Carolina, making him the second-winningest coach in school history. He is also second in Kansas history with 418 wins, placing him in the top two in victories at schools that are ranked second (KU) and third (UNC) alltime in wins in college basketball history.

The Tar Heels are 155-61 in ACC regular-season play under Williams, the third-highest percentage (.718) in ACC history behind Duke's Vic Bubas and Dean Smith. His teams improve as the year goes on, as evidenced by the fact that Carolina is 80-28 in the second half of ACC play (.741) under Williams.

Williams has a 70-38 record in ACC road games, a winning percentage of .648 that is the second-best in ACC history. The Tar Heels have posted winning ACC records on the road in 10 of his 13 seasons, including 8-0 in 2007-08, 7-1 in 2005-06 and 2011-12, 6-2 in three seasons and 6-3 in 2014-15 and 2015-16. Duke has nine winning road records in that time – no other ACC program has more than three. His teams have defeated the number one-ranked team in the Associated Press poll seven times. Only one other coach in history (Gary Williams) has knocked off the No. 1 team in the AP poll seven times.

In 2014, he reached 300 wins at UNC in his 396th game, surpassing Smith's previous ACC record by reaching that mark in fewer games (Smith did it in 406) than any coach in the history of the conference. He won his 700th game in 2013, reaching the 700-win mark in fewer games than all but two coaches (Rupp and Tarkanian) in NCAA history.

Williams has set UNC coaching records for most wins in one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09), six years (177 from 2005-10), seven years (206 from 2005-12), nine years (263 from 2005-13) and 10 years (287 from 2005-14); and tied the mark for any eight-year span (225, tied with 1991-98).

"What makes Coach Williams one of the great coaches isn't just his extraordinary record, but his dedication to his players," President Barack Obama said when the Tar Heels visited the White House after winning the 2009 championship. "He's just as serious about making these guys into men and into leaders as he is into making them champions."

At Carolina, Williams has coached two National Players of the Year (Sean May in 2005. Tyler Hansbrough in 2008), three Bob Cousy Award winners as the best point guard in the country (Raymond Felton in 2005, Ty Lawson in 2009, Kendall Marshall in 2012), three ACC Players of the Year (Hansbrough in 2008, Lawson in 2009, Tyler Zeller in 2012), two ACC Athletes of the Year (May in 2005, Hansbrough in 2008), four ACC Rookies of the Year (Marvin Williams in 2005, Hansbrough in 2006, Brandan Wright in 2007, Harrison Barnes in 2011), two Final Four MOPs (May in 2005, Wayne Ellington in 2009) and 21 NBA Draft picks.

time ACC scoring mark with 2,872 points. He became the first player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors in each of his four seasons. He also became Carolina's all-time leading rebounder, set the NCAA record for free throws made, won an NCAA title and National Player of the Year honors and earned his degree. On March 8, 2009, Senior Day at Carolina, an emotional Hansbrough thanked Williams for living up to a promise Williams made during his recruitment that the coach would always be honest with him.

"He always tells you the straightup truth about what you need to hear, not just what you want to hear," says Hansbrough. "That helped me not only as a player but also as a person."

Danny Green started at shooting guard for the San Antonio Spurs when they won the 2014 NBA championship. He says the winning cultures of the Tar Heels and the Spurs are similar.

"It starts with the coaches – Coach Williams and Coach Pop (Gregg Popovich) are very professional in the way they carry themselves," said Green. "They recruit not just great players, but great people. They want people who have the mentality of wanting to win and compete and not just be about the individual. Coach Williams gets kids who will buy into the message of winning, being a team and doing things the right way without worrying about individual accolades.

"Coach Williams does a great job of getting everyone on the same page and molding them a certain way and doing things the right way," adds Green. "I learned that at Carolina. It's easy for me to adjust to the Spurs organization, because I was doing those same things here."

The Tar Heels have set new standards for exemplary point guard play under Williams, who has coached a number of the top floor leaders in ACC history, three of whom have won the Cousy Award (no other school has more than one Cousy Award recipient).

Felton led the Tar Heels to the 2005 NCAA title; Lawson won a national championship in 2009 and set the ACC single-season record for highest assist-error ratio; Marshall led UNC to backto-back regular-season league titles, set ACC records for most assists, highest assist average and most double-figure assist games in a season and posted the highest career assist-error ratio in ACC history.

"The success of the Carolina point guard comes from the fact that he understands how to play with people and still be an individual," says Turner basketball analyst Kenny Smith, himself a former UNC point guard and twotime NBA champion. "You learn when to take shots and when to find people. You look at score, time and tempo of the game. Creating a pace your team can be part of and succeed in is the most valuable thing a point guard can bring to the game, and that's what point guards learn at Carolina. They learn to control the pace so they can be valuable to their team."

"He's the best coach I've ever had," said Marshall, whose 351 assists in 2012 were the fourthhighest single-season figure in NCAA history. "He runs a pro system and he does a great job of getting the most out of his players within a team concept."

His Hall of Fame ledger also includes:

• combined record: 1058-270 in 38 seasons as a collegiate head coach and assistant coach

• consecutive years with 30 wins: three from 2007-09, a Carolina first

Dan Wetzel of Yahoo Sports wrote after Carolina beat Michigan State for the 2009 NCAA title: "There isn't a more perfect union in college basketball than Roy and Carolina; the ideal combination of style and substance, recruiting might and coaching acumen, of championships won and won and, most certainly, won again."

Forbes named Williams the best basketball coach in the country. choosing him by analyzing win-loss percentages, NCAA Tournament appearances, Final Fours, national championships and recruiting, stating: "A top-notch recruiter and motivator. Williams coaches with an unflappable cool, a trait reflected in his players' calm on the court."

Basketball Hall of Fame. Twentythree of his former players from Carolina and Kansas attended the induction ceremony in 2007.

"What Coach Smith began with the Carolina family, Coach Williams continues to grow," says fellow Hall of Famer James Worthy. "The family, camaraderie and success are just the same as when I played here. The whole family is a fraternity, and it continues to grow."

The 2009 Tar Heels put on a stunning display en route to winning the national championship, winning six NCAA Tournament games by an average of 20.2 points.

In 2008, Williams led the Tar Heels to a school-record 36 wins, ACC regular-season and Tournament titles and a berth in the Final Four. Hansbrough won every major National Player of the Year award.

In 2006, Carolina faced the loss of its top seven scorers, which was unprecedented in ACC history. Sports Illustrated predicted that Carolina would miss the NCAA Tournament and the Tar Heels were picked by the media to finish sixth in the ACC. However, Williams earned National and the first of his two ACC Coach of the Year honors by leading the youngest team in Carolina history to a second-place ACC finish.

The 2005 national championship capped a season in which the Tar Heels went 33-4, including a 14-2 mark in the ACC. May scored 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the title game, a month after grabbing 24 rebounds in a heart-stopping win over Duke.

"Coach allowed me to be successful here," reflects May. "He put me in positions to be successful. He pulled out my strengths and hid my weaknesses. And Coach taught me how to run the floor. I never wanted to know until I came here, but I love it."

"Coach Williams is a great coach," says Jackie Manuel, who started at guard for the '05 champs. "He's going to teach you the fundamentals of the game and off the court he's going to care for his kids. He's going to push you; he's trying to bring the best out of you."

Williams became the UNC head coach on April 14, 2003, 10 days after leading Kansas to the NCAA championship game against Syracuse.

Williams was an assistant coach at Carolina from 1978-88. Working for Dean Smith, he helped coach such standouts as Mike O'Koren, Al Wood, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty, Kenny Smith, Joe Wolf, Jeff Lebo, J.R. Reid and Scott Williams.

Carolina won the NCAA title in 1982, finished second in 1981 and won or shared six ACC regularseason titles and three ACC Tournament championships.

Kansas hired Williams on July 8, 1988, replacing another UNC Hall of Famer, Larry Brown. The (.897). He led the Jayhawks to a 201-17 record (92.2) in Allen Fieldhouse, at one point winning 62 consecutive games. The Tar Heels are 183-27 at the Smith Center and 1-0 at Carmichael Arena under Williams and set the school record for consecutive home wins with 31.

Williams has coached players to 30 first-team all-conference honors, including 13 UNC selections. The 2012 season marked only the second time in ACC history that three players (Zeller, John Henson and Harrison Barnes) made the first team. Eight players – five Jayhawks, plus Hansbrough, Lawson and Zeller – have won conference player of the year honors.

Gooden (2002), Collison (2003), May (2005) and Hansbrough (2008) won National Player of the Year honors and LaFrentz (1997, 1998), Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002), Collison (2003), Hansbrough (2007, 2008, 2009) and Johnson (2016) have earned consensus first-team All-America honors.

NBA teams have selected 27 of his players in the first round. In 2005 and 2012, four Tar Heels were chosen in the first round. Williams' former players have combined earnings of more than $900 million in the NBA, including 18 who have earned $10 million or more and nine who have earned at least $40 million. Pierce was the 2008 NBA Finals MVP after leading the Boston Celtics to the title, Green set the NBA Finals record with 27 three-pointers in 2013 and Barnes won a title with Golden State in 2015 and was a starter on the Warriors when they set the NBA single-season record with 73 wins in 2016.

Williams emphasizes academic and personal development. May, the 2005 Final Four MVP, entered the NBA Draft after his junior year but later earned his degree. Marvin Williams, who went to the NBA in 2005 after just one season, returned to Chapel Hill for classes in seven subsequent summers, and earned his degree in 2014.

"I think about what Coach Williams means to me a lot and I hope he's proud of me," says Williams. "I can't really put into words what he means to me. He came to Bremerton (Wash.) and he gave a kid a chance to be something. I can't thank him enough for what he's meant to my family.

"I could never pay Coach Williams back for what he's done for me, and I mean that genuinely. He told my mother if I worked hard, I could get a degree from this university. When I called my

"You just believed in me, and I can't thank you enough for that, because that allowed me to be a confident person and helped me grow as a person...And I've tried to be every bit the player you wanted me to be, but you've made me a better man. mom to tell her (I was graduating), she instantly started crying. I hope I made my parents and my coach proud."

Five of his players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors - the Jayhawks' Vaughn (twice), Jerod Haase and Ryan Robertson and Carolina's Zeller (twice) and Paige. Forty-one have earned academic all-conference honors, including four-time recipients Zeller and Paige. Zeller is the only Tar Heel to earn first-team Academic All-America honors twice and Paige is one of only three players in ACC history to earn first- or second-team Academic All-America honors three times.

"I respect and admire Coach Williams—as a champion for the students we serve through the Carolina Covenant; as a leader and teacher of young men; as a person of great integrity," says Stephen M. Farmer, UNC's Vice Provost for Enrollment and Undergraduate Admissions. "I also respect and admire his love for this great university and his deep appreciation of the difference it makes in North Carolina and far beyond."

Williams grew up in the Biltmore neighborhood of Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played for Coach Buddy Baldwin. He played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69 and earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and a master's degree in teaching in 1973.

He began his coaching career in 1973 at Owen High School in Swannanoa, N.C., and was inducted into Owen's Hall of Fame in 2010. He coached for USA Basketball teams in the 1991 World University Games, the 1992 U.S. Olympic Development Team, a U-22 tournament in Argentina in 1993 and the 2004 Olympics.

Several of his staff and players have gone on to head coaching positions, including Matt Doherty, Neil Dougherty, Jerry Green, Steve Robinson, Kevin Stallings, Mark Turgeon, Rex Walters, Wes Miller and Haase.

"Coach Williams has always been great with his assistant coaches," says Haase, who played for him at Kansas and enters his first season as the head coach at Stanford in 2016. "He doesn't micromanage. He expects everybody to do their job and to be competent and effective with it. Anytime there's an important decision to make, an important thing going on, I'm always calling him first to get his opinion and feedback on everything.

"My dream is to have relationships with my players and my former players similar to what Coach Williams has with his players," says Haase. "The way I look at him and respect him—the dream scenario is that someday my players look at me the same way."

Williams was born on August 1, 1950. He and his wife, Wanda, a 1972 Carolina graduate, have a son, Scott, and a daughter, Kimberly. Scott earned a business degree from UNC and played point guard for the Tar Heels in 1997-98 and 1998-99. Scott and his wife, Katie (Wolford), live in Charlotte, with their sons, Aiden and Court. Katie is a 2001 Carolina graduate and former cheerleader. She earned a doctorate in physical therapy from Boston University.

Kimberly is a 2002 Carolina graduate with a degree in English and was a member of the UNC dance team in 2000 and 2001. She owns The Dance Spot in Huntersville and got married in October 2016 to Kurt Newlin, a 2003 UNC graduate who earned his master's in health administration from UNC Charlotte. They live in Charlotte.

The Williams family has contributed more than $300,000 to the Carolina Covenant, an initiative at UNC that allows low-income students to attend the University debt free. Roy and Wanda serve as honorary chairs of a multi million-dollar campaign to endow the program. He hosts the annual Fast Break vs. Cancer breakfast that has surpassed the $2 million mark in donations and directs the autographed basketball program that has contributed more than $1.3 million to local charities.

The American Cancer Society honored Williams in 2012 for his efforts in the fight against cancer. A year later, Williams spoke to the United States Congress to advocate for cancer research funding and President Obama invited Williams to participate in a public service initiative to encourage young men to sign up for health care.

Assistant Coach · Fifth Year at Carolina

Former Tar Heel guard, 12-year NBA veteran and ESPN analyst Hubert Davis enters his fifth season as a member of the Carolina Basketball coaching staff. His duties include bench coaching, scouting and recruiting. He also has served two seasons as the head coach of the UNC junior varsity team.

Prior to joining the UNC staff in 2012, Davis worked for seven years with ESPN as a highly-regarded college basketball analyst and co-host of the College GameDay program.

The Burke, Va., native played in 137 games as a Tar Heel from 1988-92, during which time UNC went 102-37, won the 1989 and 1991 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournaments and played in the 1991 Final Four. He scored 1,615 points, an average of 11.8 per game, and holds the UNC record for career three-point percentage at .435 (197 of 453). He scored in double figures 80 times and had 23 games with 20 or more points.

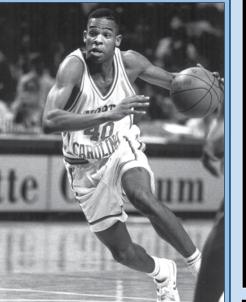

He scored in double figures in each of his last eight NCAA Tournament games, averaging 18.5 points in those games. That included 19 against Temple in the 1991 NCAA East Regional final and 25 against Kansas (coached by Williams) in the 1991 Final Four.

Davis averaged 21.4 points and earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior. He scored in double figures in 32 of 33 games that season, including 20 games with 20 or more points and 30 or more in four games. He netted a career-high 35 points at Duke on March 8, 1992. That 35-point game was part of a seven-game stretch late in the season in which he averaged a prolific 28.7 points.

The New York Knicks selected Davis with the 20th pick in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft. He played 12 seasons in the NBA, scoring 5,583 points, an average of 8.2 per contest. He made 728 three-point field goals and is currently third in NBA history in three-point percentage at .441.

Davis graduated from UNC in 1992 with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children – Elijah, Bobbie Grace and Micah. His uncle, Walter, starred at UNC from 1973-77 and was a six-time NBA All-Star with the Phoenix Suns.

Sean May N Director of Player Personnel · Second Year at Carolina

Sean May, the Most Outstanding Player of the 2005 NCAA Final Four and a former NBA first-round draft pick, is in his second year as a member of Roy Williams' staff as Director of Player Personnel.

May played at Carolina from 2002-05 and is one of seven Tar Heels to average a double-double for his career. The Bloomington, Ind., native averaged 15.8 points and 10.0 rebounds over his three collegiate seasons. He joins Bob McAdoo, Rusty Clark, Billy Cunningham, Doug Moe, Pete Brennan and Lennie Rosenbluth as the only Tar Heels to average double figures in both career scoring and rebounding. May is the only Tar Heel to accomplish that since McAdoo in 1972.

May scored 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the 2005 national championship game victory over Illinois, a game played on his 21st birthday. He was Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year as a junior and also was the ACC's Top Male Athlete and a first-team All-America.

He posted eight consecutive double-doubles in 2005, including 26 points and 24 rebounds against Duke in his last home game, a 75-73 win that clinched the ACC regular-season title. The 24 rebounds are the most by any player in a game in Smith Center history. May broke Antawn Jamison's single-season UNC rebounding record in 2005 with 397. He led UNC in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and blocks in 2005.

May entered the NBA Draft after his junior season and earned his degree in 2009. Due to injuries, he was limited to 119 games over four NBA seasons. He averaged a career-high 11.9 rebounds and 6.7 assists for Charlotte in 2007. He also played for Sacramento in 2010. Over the next five seasons May played professionally in Turkey, Croatia, Italy and France.

May is one of four father-son combinations to win NCAA titles. His dad, Scott, was the 1976 National Player of the Year and led Indiana to a perfect season and NCAA title.

He and his wife, Grace, have two daughters - Layla and Lilianna.

Sasha Seymore, a 2015 graduate and UNC's senior class president, spoke at spring commencement.

"I absolutely believe that what I learned as a Carolina basketball player is transferable to the business world. When I became CEO, we did a lot of leadership training. In that training I talked a good deal about the values of the Carolina program, and about what I learned and how I apply it to business. The discipline, values, teamwork and a lot of the organization can easily be applied to the business world from the culture that Coach Smith created and is still in practice at Carolina today."

UNC student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Richard A. Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, now in its 13th year of ground-breaking leadership training.

As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and -staff in their continual quest to become world-class leaders in athletics, academics and life. - Bill Harrison (UNC '64), former CEO of JP Morgan/Chase

CAROLINA FAMILY

"Wherever I am, I know that I'll always have a family in Chapel Hill, thanks to all the players, coaches, teachers and students who made the past four years unforgettable. I might wear a different uniform, but I'm always going to be a Tar Heel."

- Brice Johnson, 2016 NBA First-round draft pick

"Those are the best memories I'll have, the teams I've played with and the teammates I've played alongside. I can call those guys family and brothers. Here at Carolina. I played here for four years and this is a second home to me." – Danny Green, 2014 NBA champion

Coaches Hubert Davis and Roy Williams with Tar Heel alum Rick Fox /

ONCE A TAR HEEL, ALWAYS A TAR HEEL

"Once you are here and put on that North Carolina uniform, we are all family. We take care of family. We're always there for family. When I left here, the coaches still called to check on my parents and my little brother. Those are examples you see in very important times in your lives." - Antawn Jamison, NBA All-Star & UNC National Player of the Year

Rasheed Wallace and Wayne Ellington supported the Tar Heels during the 2016 Final Four run in Philadelphia

"What's unique is the unity and the bond established in the short time you are at the University. It's a family atmosphere. You find yourself taking care of family members. It's hard for people outside of that to understand, but as long as people within understand it's something we cherish, no matter what happens to us or where we go. You will always cherish that relationship from the University of North Carolina." - Michael Jordan

"When we were here, we were young and we had no idea what the world was about and how much you learn at Carolina. But it paved the way for me to accomplish what I've accomplished, both as a person and as a basketball player. It's all because of this university and that Carolina brotherhood."

— Antawn Jamison, National Player of the Year and NBA All-Star

WHY CAROLINA?

"Simply put, North Carolina has everything you want in a basketball program: tradition, historical success, current success, an enormous and passionate fan base, quality facilities, complete national recruiting reach and a Hall of Fame coach who already has won a national title at the school."

• In 2012, ESPN ranked Carolina the most successful college basketball program in the nation over the last 50 years.

 In ranking Carolina the best coaching job in all of college hoops, ESPN.com wrote, "UNC has the obvious things recruits want: great facilities, a chance at the pros, big-time exposure, a chance to play in the best rivalry in you name it. ... More than anything, though, it's the 'family' - the scores of current and former pro stars who still come to Chapel Hill to play in alumni games and watch the young guns take on Duke. More specifically, perhaps, it's Michael Jordan. ... If UNC has an edge over the rest, it comes from the Tar Heels brand, a brand built by [Dean] Smith and sustained by [Roy] Williams and long since ensured in relevance by the greatest basketball player who ever lived."

NOTHING GOULD BE FINER

"Playing at North Carolina was always my dream, but these past four years have been beyond anything I could have imagined. The Final Four run, beating Duke, winning the ACC title and tournament ... I mean, I'm blessed to have just played a game in the Dean Smith Center. The first time you run out of the tunnel, or right before the ball is tipped, 22,000 people standing, screaming, cheering for you — it's surreal. And that's just for your everyday game."

- Brice Johnson, First-Round Draft Pick in 2016

"Playing basketball for Carolina is like playing baseball for the Yankees or playing in the NBA for the Celtics or the Lakers. It's right there with those programs in terms of their importance and the way that they sustain greatness over a long period of time."

> — Mitch Kupchak (UNC '76) L.A. Lakers General Manager

"I didn't know it at the time, but when I chose to attend Carolina as a high school kid it was the best decision I've ever made in my life. I loved playing basketball, yes. But it has opened doors for me every day of my life — from the day I graduated until today — that I never could have imagined would be opened."

CAROL FOLT CHANCELLOR

When Carol L. Folt was installed as Carolina's 11th chancellor and first woman leader in October 2013, she said, "As America's first public university, Carolina became the gold standard. The founders passed the baton, and the future is up to us. How can we fulfill this honorable charge in a way that is ever fresh and relevant?"

In her first years as chancellor, Folt – an internationally recognized environment scientist, award-winning teacher and accomplished administrator – has worked to fulfill that charge by preserving and expanding Carolina's academic excellence and innovation, access and affordability, and deep commitment to the state.

Under her leadership, the University received nearly 32,000 applications for the Class of 2019 – breaking the previous year's record for the 10th consecutive time. Faculty ranked seventh nationally and first in the South for 2013 research grants awarded by the National Institutes of Health. New investments have made Carolina's science, technology, engineering and math curriculum one of the top in the country. And the University's commitment to its public service mission has never been stronger, as illustrated by the School of Government's work supporting local governments and communities, and by expanding programs like the Carolina College Advising Corps, which provides college advising for the state's high-school students.

Folt has met with hundreds of students, faculty, staff, alumni and supporters, championing the importance of the University's research mission for North Carolina's economy. She has also focused on improving undergraduate graduation rates – particularly low-income, first-generation and underrepresented students – and on comprehensively addressing past academic and athletic irregularities.

Folt came to Carolina from Dartmouth College, where she was interim president in 2012-13, Dartmouth Professor of Biological Sciences, and a faculty member and administrator for 30 years.

An Akron, Ohio, native, Folt is a proud product of public higher education. Her parents were the first in their families to attend college. She worked her way through the University of California at Santa Barbara as a waitress, earning a bachelor's degree in aquatic biology in 1976 and a master's degree in biology two years later. She received her doctorate in ecology from the University of California at Davis and did postdoctoral work at the W.K. Kellogg Biological Station of Michigan State University.

She is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Folt is married to David Peart, a professor of biological sciences at Dartmouth. They have two adult children, Noah and Tessa.

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham is in his sixth year as the University of North Carolina's director of athletics. Cunningham officially began his duties at UNC on November 14, 2011.

In each of his five seasons, the Tar Heels have finished in the top 15 of the Learfield Director's Cup, including four top-10 finishes. During that same period, the number of UNC student-athletes on the ACC Academic Honor Roll has steadily increased.

Among Cunningham's many accomplishments since arriving in Chapel Hill are the implementation of a strategic plan for Carolina athletics; a partnership with Disney to enhance customer service and organizational practices; the development of the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group; a complete compliance review by an outside firm; the development of a master plan for UNC's athletic facilities; and the creation of the Rammys - an innovative end-of-the-year awards show popular with Carolina's student-athletes and staff.

On the field, Carolina has achieved outstanding success under Cunningham's leadership. Carolina finished seventh in the 2015-16 Learfield Director's Cup, its second top-10 finish in a row. The Tar Heels won NCAA titles in men's and women's lacrosse, finished second in men's basketball and field hockey and had top-10 national finishes in men's and women's tennis and men's soccer. Carolina teams won four ACC titles and the men's tennis team won the ITA Indoor Team National Championship. In addition, the football team won 11 games, advanced to its first ever ACC Championship Game and earned a final No. 15 ranking in both national polls.

Cunningham is in his 15th year as a Division I director of athletics, including six years at Tulsa and three years at Ball State. From 1988-2002, Cunningham worked at his alma mater, the University of Notre Dame.

He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration, in 1984 and 1988, respectively, and was a member of the Irish golf team in 1982-83.

Cunningham has served on the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Golf Committees and is a member of NACDA's Executive Committee.

Raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

HISTOR

The 2016-17 season is the 32nd in which the Tar Heels will play in the Dean E. Smith Center. UNC has played nearly 500 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of over 8.8 million fans. Carolina enters the 2016-17 season 378-68 in the Smith Center, a winning mark of 84.8 percent.

The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 29 of the last 30 seasons.

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

The Tar Heels have a 183-27 record (.871) in the Smith Center in Roy Williams' 13 years as head coach. Dean Smith led the Tar Heels to a 133-17 record (.887) in the building that bears his name.

RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas, including full renovations of the lockerrooms, training room and the addition of a team video room and dining room after the 2015-16 season.

The building added a new ribbon board surrounding the court for the 2012-13 season. The men's basketball offices were completely renovated and expanded in 2010.

opponents is 203-16 (.927) ✓ All-time Smith Center attendance is 8,867,488 2005-06 season. The boards measure 17.8 feet x 23.6 feet. At the same time, two 50-foot ribbon boards were added to the fascia around the upper level and a 40-foot video board was added to the front of the scorer's table.

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres of the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-footwide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

"Every time I come in the Smith Center, I sneak a look up there every couple of minutes. I just have to make sure it's still up there, that the big number 33 is still hanging. When I see it up there, it takes me back to coming into Carolina with a bald head and a little mustache. Even at the time, you knew you were going to treasure those memories forever. When I was walking off the court the night of the alumni game (in 2009), I grabbed my son and took a second and pointed out that jersey with 'Jamison' on the banner. There are no words to describe what that felt like. I felt like I was showing him the past and the future all at the same time." —Antawn Jamison

"The success of the Carolina point guard comes from the fact that he understands how to play with people and still be an individual. "A lot of times it's difficult for a point guard to be an individual. Sometimes it's tough for them to be part of the team. Carolina gears you to think, and it becomes easy to be both." —Kenny Smith

CAROLINA BASKETBALL TIMELINE

HISTORY

George Glamack won National Player of the Year honors in 1940 and '41.

Jan. 27, 1911: Carolina defeats Virginia Christian, 42-21, in first game. Marvin "Philly" Ritch, considered the Father of UNC Basketball, is the team's first captain and leading scorer.

Feb. 22, 1913: Carolina plays the North Carolina College of Agricultural and Mechanic Arts (NC State) for the first time in any sport since 1906. The Tar Heels lost that first encounter, 26-18. The teams would not play again until the 1919 state championship.

Dec. 29, 1913: Meb Long, UNC's first great scorer, scored 23 points in a win over the Charlotte YMCA. Long became the first Tar Heel to score 20 points in a game. Two weeks earlier, Meb and Cyrus Long became the first brothers to play basketball for UNC.

Feb. 19, 1914: Ben Edwards plays for Guilford in a 38-13 Tar Heel victory. Earlier in the year, Edwards played in six games for Carolina, thus becoming the first and only player to play for and against the Tar Heels in the same season.

Feb. 20, 1915: Lynchburg YMCA wins 63-20, the most lopsided loss in UNC history.

Jan. 24, 1920: Billy Carmichael scored 16 points in a 36-25 win over Trinity in the first-ever basketball game between the two schools located eight miles apart. Carmichael led the team in scoring in 1919-20 (10.8 ppg) and was later the University's controller and acting president. Carmichael Auditorium is named in his honor.

Feb. 26, 1921: Cartwright Carmichael scored 15 points in a win over Virginia and sets UNC's single-season scoring record, surpassing Meb Long. Carmichael would finish the season with 286 points.

Feb. 28, 1922: Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald lead UNC to a 40-26 win over Mercer for the Southern Conference Tournament title. Feb. 29, 1924: En route to an undefeated season the Tar Heels play and beat Kentucky for the first time, a 41-20 win in the first round of the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta. Jack "Sprat" Cobb scored 17 points.

March 4, 1924: Jack Cobb's 15 points almost single-handedly outscores Alabama in a 26-16 win in the Southern Conference title game. UNC finishes 26-0 and the Helms Foundation later selects Carolina as national champions. Cobb leads all scorers with a single-season school record 353 points. Cobb, Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald combine to average 28 of UNC's 36.9 points per game.

Jan. 24, 1925: John Purser scores 10 points to lead UNC to a 25-21 win at Duke's Memorial Gymnasium. It was the first game ever played between North Carolina and Duke as the school formerly known as Trinity changed its name less than four weeks prior to the game.

Feb. 12, 1925: Head cheerleader Vic Huggins introduces Rameses, the school's first ram mascot, at halftime of UNC's 28-27 loss to South Carolina.

Feb. 18, 1926: A 17-8 loss to NC State marks the fewest points in UNC history, but two weeks later, Carolina beats Mississippi State to win the Southern Conference Tournament.

Feb. 27, 1932: Virgil Weathers' basket with less than 30 seconds to play gives Carolina a 43-42 win over Adolph Rupp's top-seeded Kentucky in the second round of the Southern Conference Tournament. It would prove to be the final time the two schools played one another as members of the same conference.

1933-34: The first season in which Carolina wore numbers on its jerseys. Also, Dave Mc-

Cachren was captain, marking the first of four brothers from Charlotte (Jim 1936, Bill 1939 and George 1943) to captain the team.

Jan. 15, 1936: NYU beats the Tar Heels, 55-33, in Carolina's first game in Madison Square Garden.

March 7, 1936: Trailing 42-30 with less than 10 minutes to play, the Tar Heels go on a 20-3 run to defeat Washington & Lee 50-45 to win the Southern Conference Tournament. The game was called the greatest comeback in the history of Southern basketball. Andy Bershak, who won All-America honors in football, scored the go-ahead basket and led UNC with 15 points.

Feb. 10, 1941: Two-time All-America George Glamack scores a record 45 points in a 76-53 win over Clemson. Later that year, UNC loses to Pittsburgh and Dartmouth in first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

March 21, 1946: 57-49 win over NYU in Madison Square Garden is Carolina's first in the NCAA Tournament. Five days later, Oklahoma A&M beats UNC, 43-40, in NCAA championship game. "Hook" Dillon scores 16 for Tar Heels in title game, but Bob Kurland leads A&M with 23.

Dec. 3, 1951: 100-57 win over Furman marks the first of 169 games in which Carolina scores 100 or more points. The Tar Heels are 151-18 in those games.

Feb. 29, 1952: Duke's Dick Groat scores 48, Bernie Jernicki grabs 31 rebounds in a 94-64 Blue Devil win.

Dec. 1, 1952: Frank McGuire Era begins with 70-50 win over The Citadel. McGuire

HISTORY DEAN SMITH

1931-2015

36 Seasons 879-254 (.776)

EDUCATION B.S., Education Kansas '53

✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 95 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993. When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight and surpassed again in 2011 by Mike Krzyzewski.

• Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run was the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours.

• Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continued to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated and received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the ESPY Awards. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007. In November 2013, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the U.S.

He received the Naismith Good Sportsmanship Award in 2011. Upon the announcement of that honor, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski said, "Dean set the standard for basketball - and not just college basketball - that evervone is still trying to reach. He demanded that his teams play as one. And what he got in return from all these guys who played for him was the intense loyalty that they feel toward him. And that's something I've admired since I started coaching. It's really one of the great things in all of sport: that intense loyalty the Tar Heel players have for Coach Smith."

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say:

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the gold medal against a group of improving international teams.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

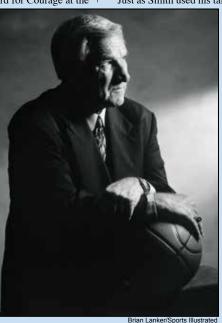

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plusfour rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

HISTORY DEAN SMITH

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Knight.

He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack, but he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a man-to-man, pressure to speed up the action.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents did not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who went on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith also coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

When he retired, Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories. In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, and Knight are the only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

Smith died on February 7, 2015, in Chapel Hill.

HISTORY

CAROLINA IN THE ACC TOURNAMENT

• Carolina has won 18 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record 34 times.

• The Tar Heels have an 96-44 record in ACC Tournament history. UNC has the most wins and second-most titles (UNC and Duke have combined to win 37 of the 63 championships).

• Dean Smith won 13 Tournaments, which ties Duke's Mike Krzyzewski for the most titles. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

• Roy Williams is 21-10 with three titles and seven appearances in the championship game in 13 seasons. Williams has led UNC to the finals seven times against seven different opponents.

• The Tar Heels have earned the No. 1 seed 25 times. Duke is second with 17 No. 1 seeds; NC State is third with six.

• Roy Williams is one of eight coaches to win back-to-back ACC Tournament titles and one of seven coaches to win the Tournament at least three times.

• A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 19 times. They include: Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981).

1957

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was MVP.

1967

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was named MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tour-with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired. Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

1997

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

1998

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

2007

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Rey-shawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

2008

Carolina beat Florida State, Virginia Tech and Clemson to win the 2008 ACC title, its second in a row and an ACC-record 17th overall. The Tar Heels have won back-to-back ACC Tournament titles five times — 1967-68, 1968-69, 1981-82, 1997-98 and 2007-08.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

2016

Carolina opened the Tournament by surrendering the first eight points in its quarterfinal against No. 8 Pitt. The Panthers led by seven with 4:36 to play in the first half before the Tar Heels went on a 13-2 run to end the half. UNC shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the second and pulled away for an 88-71 win.

The Tar Heels dominated Notre Dame in the semifinals. The 78-47 win was UNC's largest ever in the semifinals and Carolina's biggest in any ACC Tournament game since 1993. The Tar Heels led 23-22, then went on an 18-0 run to end the half. Marcus Paige led with 16 points and seven assists and Isaiah Hicks had a career-high 15 rebounds.

The top-seeded Tar Heels beat No. 2 Virginia, 61-57 to win the title, avenging a loss in the only regular-season meeting two weeks prior in Charlottesville. Tournament MVP Joel Berry II led UNC with 19 points.

The championship game was tied at 28-28 at the half and at 44-all with 8:25 to play. The Tar Heels went on a 9-2 run over the next 6:40, sparked by a three-pointer by Berry and a steal and dunk by Justin Jackson.

Berry averaged a team-high 17.0 points and was 17 for 24 from the floor, 7 for 10 from three-pointers and 10 from 10 from the free throw line over the three games en route to MVP honors.

Vince Carter and Carolina won their second consecutive ACC title in 1998.

HISTORY FANTASTIC FINISHES

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

Head coach Roy Williams has coached 21 former Tar Heels who have been selected in the NBA Draft, including 16 in the first round. "When it comes to impact on the NBA, one program clearly stands apart from the rest. Two schools, North Carolina and UCLA, have developed the most quality NBA talent over the span of the last 60 years of league history, and over the last 25 years the Tar Heels have left the Bruins far behind.

"Carolina has had more first round draft picks than any other program. Those draft picks have gone on to consistently meet or beat expectations for their performance in the NBA. As icing on the cake, Carolina has also had more former players develop into winning NBA coaches than any other college program, and in this regard there is not even a close second."

NBA LEGACY

"UNC is a plus-four school, meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

- John Gabriel, New York Knicks Scouting Director

ESPN recently ranked UNC the No. 1 school in the nation in producing the best pros in the modern NBA Draft era (since 1989), based on the quality of the former players' pro careers. 110 Tar Heels have been drafted by NBA teams, most in the ACC by a wide margin. Twenty-one of those draftees have played for Roy Williams in the last 13 seasons.

A 2012 report from The Wall Street Journal found that since 1985, NBA-bound players from Carolina had earned over $853 million, more than basketball alumni from any other university:

"It's absolutely fair to say that the Tar Heels are the first college team — possibly in any sport — whose former athletes have earned more than $1 billion in salary playing that sport professionally. If you factor in endorsement income, [Michael] Jordan alone might make the Tar Heels' lead insurmountable."

FRANK McGUIRE

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school

This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times-in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.
