2009 NCAA

2009-10 SEASON PREVIEW

Carolina Basketball blends a little bit of new and old as the Tar Heels play their 100th season, this time as the defending national champions. Last year UNC defeated Michigan State to win the school's fifth NCAA Tournament crown and the second in five seasons under Hall of Fame head coach Roy Williams.

Gone from that championship squad are the cornerstones of the winningest four-year run in Carolina history — Tyler Hansbrough, the most honored and accomplished Tar Heel ever; Ty Lawson, the 2009 Bob Cousy Award winner as the nation's best point guard; Wayne Ellington, the Most Outstanding Player in the Final Four; Danny Green, who played in more wins than any Tar Heel; and Bobby Frasor, the team's best defender and a clutch three-point shooter.

Unlike the 2005-06 season, when the most experienced returning player following the national championship averaged three points a game, the 2009-10 Tar Heels include eight returnees led by seniors Marcus Ginyard and Deon Thompson. The duo has combined for 131 starts and more than 1,500 points.

Ginyard started all 39 games at small forward in 2007-08 when Carolina won 36 times, including the ACC regular-season and Tournament titles and reached the Final Four. The Alexandria, Va., native is a fifth-year senior. He received a medical hardship waiver last year due to a stress fracture in his left foot. He underwent surgery in October and returned to play in three games in late December and early January but was unable to finish the season.

Ginyard has scored 620 points, (an average of 5.6 per game) with a high of 6.9 ppg as a junior. He won Carolina's defensive player of the year award in 2007 and 2008, and earned All-ACC Tournament honors and was the leading vote-getter on the coaches' ACC all-defensive team as a junior.

"Marcus's health is better than it's been in the last year and a half," says Williams. "He's got his explosiveness back and he's more confident than he's been in a long time."

Ginyard will begin the season at the two-guard, but Williams envisions him playing any of four positions, including point guard.

"He has enough savvy to handle that," adds Williams. "I think it's a great asset to have someone with Marcus's kind of versatility."

Ginyard, a team captain in 2008, will again provide leadership. However, Williams says his role should be different than the one David Noel played in 2006.

"I do believe Marcus will be the

Eight lettermen return to defend NCAA title

main leader, but he has more help," says Williams. "He has Deon (Thompson) who has been through a great deal himself. Ed Davis and Tyler Zeller played big roles as freshmen, Will Graves has played some, and Larry Drew gained valuable experience last year. I think we are going to ask Marcus to be a great leader, but it is not going to be all-consuming like it was at times for David Noel."

Thompson, a 6-8 forward from Torrance, Calif., should become the 63rd Tar Heel to score 1,000 points. He enters the season with 907, an average of 7.9 per game. Last year, he averaged a career-best 10.6 points and 5.7 rebounds per game while shooting 49.2 percent from the floor. He has scored in double figures 38 times in 115 games, including 22 times as a junior. He played arguably his four finest games of the season in marquee matchups against Kentucky (career-high 20 points), Notre Dame (19 points and 13 rebounds), at Duke (10 of his 14 points in the first half) and in the NCAA title-game win over Michigan State (nine first-half points).

"Deon is much more prepared to handle a leadership role," says Williams. "It will be good for him. Sometimes in the past he has gotten too tough on himself. But now he can't allow himself just to focus on what he's doing. He can't allow the tough moments to dominate him because he has to be more of a leader. That will help him a great deal."

Sophomore forwards Ed Davis and Tyler Zeller and point guard Larry Drew II gained valuable experience in the NCAA title run and are primed for feature roles this season.

Davis averaged 6.7 points and 6.6 rebounds, the second-highest figure on the team. He led Carolina with 65 blocked shots, including six at Virginia Tech. He finished fourth in the ACC in blocks per game (1.7) and earned a spot on the ACC's All-Freshman team. Davis led UNC in rebounding 12 times, including the national championship game when he had 11 points and eight rebounds.

wrist. The seven-footer from Washington, Ind., scored 18 points in the season-opener against Penn, and then was injured on a breakaway dunk against Kentucky. He returned on February 18th and played in the final 13 games. He scored an ACC-high of eight points against Georgia Tech and grabbed eight rebounds in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Williams says the fact Zeller played during the year-end stretch will pay immediate dividends this season.

“It’s mind-boggling the level of comfort and amount of knowledge Tyler gained by playing in those last 13 games,” says Williams. “He will be a completely different player early in the season than we would have seen had he not played. He knows how physical the game is, plus the speed, the power and strength you need to be successful. He learned you can’t lose your concentration, you have to play every possession, things he would not have known if he hadn’t played in those games.”

Drew II was one of six Tar Heels to appear in every game last year. The fleet-footed 6-2 guard from Encino, Calif., averaged almost 10 minutes a game and had 74 assists and 45 turnovers. He played some of his best basketball in the ACC and NCAA Tournaments, handing out 13 assists with just three turnovers in 72 minutes of postseason action.

Williams knows there will be plenty of attention on Drew II as he headlines a group of players vying for the role of running the attack.

“Larry understands the focus on him. He will enjoy that part of it, of being extremely important to our team. I think with all the work he has done this summer he will benefit from that challenge.”

Drew II scored 53 points (nine in the last 17 games) with a season-high five at Michigan State in early December and handed out a high of seven assists against Chaminade.

Williams expects Drew II to mature into the role similar to how other young guards have developed.

“Freshmen point guards don’t understand the intensity you have to have on every single play,” says Williams. “Freshmen point guards don’t understand you have to dominate the entire game. You call the defenses, talk to people, call the offensive plays. A freshman point guard sometimes just goes out and plays. A sophomore point guard can remember all the things we’ve talked about and worked on in practice every day.”

“Larry’s play in the ACC Tournament and in particular the first round of the NCAA Tournament (five assists) gave him some confidence, and it should have,” adds Williams. “Those minutes were important and he should use them as a springboard to begin this season.”

Will Graves, a 6-6 junior swing man from Greensboro, N.C., missed the final 18 games last year for violating team rules. He averaged 4.0 points with a season-high of 10 against Evansville. He also had nine points against Rutgers, eight vs. Kentucky, seven in the loss to Boston College and six at Wake Forest. He has made 37 percent of his three-point attempts and has improved greatly on the defensive end.

“Will is an extremely important part of our team because he is the best perimeter shooter,” says Williams. “He is a tremendous threat to shoot the ball from really deep and that can open up the court for the rest of his teammates. With his size and strength and power, he can also be a big-time offensive rebounder. Over the years he has learned to slide his feet and I think he can be a really good defensive player, as well.”

Graves is key because Williams says identifying consistent shooters and the lack of experience and depth along the perimeter are his biggest concerns leading into the season.

Senior Marc Campbell (Raleigh, N.C.) and sophomore Justin Watts add depth in the backcourt. Watts, a 6-4 native of Durham, N.C., played in 27 games, and scored a season-high nine against Chaminade. He played three minutes in the first half of the NCAA South Regional final against Oklahoma and played some of his teammates' defensive mistakes.”

The 6-10 native of Richmond, Va., scored in double figures eight times last year, including three postseason games. He had a season-high 15 points against in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

“Ed wants to be a complete player,” says Williams. “He doesn’t want to be thought of as just a banger and a bruiser, a rebounder and a shot blocker. He knows he has some offensive skills he really wants to improve on and that is what he focused on in the offseason.”

Zeller started the first two games of last season in place of the injured Hansbrough but missed the next 23 games because of a broken left well in that stint.

"Justin really improved defensively," says Williams. "His biggest challenge is to take care of the basketball. Athletically he gives you a chance because his explosiveness allows him to do things defensively and allows him to get the ball off the backboard. If he gets more fundamentally sound passing the ball and knocks in some shots, he's going to be able to help us a lot."

The Tar Heels welcome a five-man freshman class that reminds Williams of the Hansbrough, Frasor, Green, Ginyard and Mike Copeland class four years ago.

"This is a strong, talented group; it's a nucleus class," says Williams. "It's our staff's job to build around these kids for the next couple of years."

John Henson, a 6-10 forward, attended Sickles High School in Tampa, Fla.

"John will begin the season on the perimeter as a three and I think he will stay there all season," says Williams. "He has tremendously long arms and will probably block more shots than any perimeter player in college basketball. With Ed (Davis) and Deon (Thompson), we may block more shots than any team I've ever coached. John has the ability with his length to hurt you inside and also step out and put the ball on the floor or shoot it."

Leslie McDonald, a 6-4 guard from Memphis, Tenn., attended Briarcrest Christian High in nearby Eads.

"Leslie is sound fundamentally and a very good shooter," says Williams. "We hope and think he can develop into a great shooter. He has a wonderful mid-range game where he can drive into that 12 to 16 foot range and score. He's very good defensively. We'll ask him to handle the ball some at the point and I think he will be able to handle that. He's just a really good all-around basketball player."

Dexter Strickland, a 6-3 guard from Rahway, N.J., attended St. Patrick High School in Elizabeth.

"He's a tremendous athlete with speed and quickness," says Williams. "Dexter has played some point guard and we are going to ask him to play more point guard. Defensively, it's been a long time since we've had a guy like him. He's such a threat with his speed and quickness. He will be able to push the ball and run with the guys when they have the ball at a pace that is hard for people to match."

David Wear and Travis Wear, 6-10 forwards from Huntington Beach, Calif., attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana.

"David and Travis are fundamentally sound basketball players with size who both have tremendous attitudes and work ethics," says Williams. "They handle the ball well and can score inside and outside. I am impressed that their school won two state titles in what we know is a very competitive high school system. They will be able to do a lot of things that will help our team win games, too."

Williams begins his 22nd season as a head coach with the third-highest winning percentage (.811) in history and just six wins shy of 600. The Tar Heels have won ACC regular-season titles and earned No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament in each of the last three seasons. Duplicating those feats certainly will be a challenge given the personnel losses from a year ago.

"We had two unbelievable threats in Lawson and Hansbrough that are hard to match, hard to simulate and hard to replace," Williams says. "You're talking about the most explosive guard and the best inside scorer in college basketball."

"This preseason will involve a lot of decision-making. Can we play exactly the same way? In 2006 we didn't have to change the way we played very much because we had Tyler Hansbrough replacing Sean May. It was an easier transition, even though we were counting on so many freshmen. But we had maybe the greatest leader in David Noel that I have ever been around.

"This year we will probably change the way we play a little bit. We'll make sure the personnel will still fit what we do. You will see more team play. There will be fewer situations where we move the ball two or three times and then our guy goes ahead and beats his man. That's what we've done the last couple of years. Our guys, if we gave them a little advantage, they could take advantage of that. What we will have to do this year is give our guys a big advantage."

"When I say change the way we play, I don't mean pace of play. There are a lot of different things we can do in a basketball game but slowing the pace is not going to be one of them."

Regardless of the change in personnel, Williams is excited to begin another season.

"The quality of the kids we have and the eagerness they have is something we are all going to enjoy working with. I know I am going to enjoy coaching this team because of the character of the kids. They're going to play their tails off when they walk on the court. That's for certain."

GINYARD BACK IN NEW ROLE

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

Watching Marcus Ginyard shoot in the Smith Center practice gym one late summer afternoon, it's difficult to ignore the obvious.

That was also the case the last time he was seen on the court in public, unfortunately. Even Roy Williams said Ginyard "wasn't the old Marcus" when Ginyard made his abbreviated three-game appearance during the 2008-09 season. That year was eventually cut short by a lingering foot injury.

So as he moves around the three-point line firing jumper after jumper, you expect to see some slight evidence of favoritism for that injured foot. But he never does, which allows you to focus on something even more striking: Ginyard's shot looks as good as it's ever looked in Chapel Hill.

"My shot feels great right now," he says. "I spent a lot of time working on it. In previous summers I've spent time working on it, but there's no question that I've been after it harder this summer than in the past. I've been in the gym every day, and tried to put in enough work that I feel comfortable with it. I don't want to think about it, I just want to let it go. That's what the best shooters do. I want to get confident in it and let it fly."

Technically, he's focused on holding his follow-through and keeping the ball off the palm of his hand. And while his offense will be a nice bonus, it's his defense that holds the key to his 2009-10 contributions. Before the Tar Heels applied the clamps in the postseason, a well-documented procession of perimeter players had big scoring nights against Carolina last season. It will be Ginyard's job—one he relishes—to defend those high-scoring opponents. Finally healthy again, he's ready to chase the league's best around screens.

Ginyard admitted that watching Carolina's championship season from the bench occasionally sparked conflicting emotions. His best friends were achieving their goals on the march to Detroit...but he was wearing a suit instead of the Tar Heel argyle.

Those mixed feelings remained as his 2009 senior classmates moved on to the next stage of their lives, while he prepared to return for a do-over 2010 senior year. Over the summer, however, a familiar feeling finally returned—excitement for a new season.

"When I got home at the end of the second summer session and started really working out hard, that's when I started getting excited about this year," Ginyard says. "Doing that work got me excited about looking forward to what I get to do this year."

CAREER NOTES

Carolina's leading returning scorer and rebounder and the most experienced player on the squad • Named to the preseason watch list for the John R. Wooden National Player of the Year award • Averaging 7.9 points and 4.3 rebounds in 115 games • Shooting 50.0 percent from the floor • Has 907 points • Scored his 900th point against Michigan State in the national championship game • Scored in double figures 38 times with a career high of 22 against Oral Roberts on Dec. 13, 2008 • Played for Team USA in the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia • Helped the USA win a bronze medal • Was USA's second-leading scorer (9.6 per) and rebounder (5.9) in the seven-game tournament.

JUNIOR SEASON (2008-09)

Scored nine first-half points in national championship win over Michigan State, helping UNC build a 55-34 lead • Was fifth on the team in scoring with a career-best 10.6 points per game and third in rebounding with 5.7 per game • Scored in double figures in the first 12 games, the longest stretch of his career (previous longest stretch was four), and 22 of 38 overall (nine of the last 20 games) • Made 46 for 99 from the floor in the last 12 games (.465) • Made 71 of his first 117 from the floor over the first 11 games (.607) • Averaged 14.6 points over the first 12 games • Scored 14 points in each of the two wins over Duke.

Scored a then-career-high 20 points on 10 of 16 shooting from the floor against Kentucky • Scored 14 first-half points as UNC built a 41-25 lead • Scored six straight points to give UNC an 8-2 lead and had 10 points in the first seven minutes • Added a career-high seven offensive boards, helping UNC to a 21-4 edge in second-chance points • Tied his previous career scoring high with 17 points in season opener vs. Penn • Was 7 for 11 from the floor, the first time he attempted 10 or more field goals since he hyperextended his knee at Virginia in February 2008 • Registered his second career double-double (first since Penn last year) when he scored 12 points and grabbed 10 boards at UC Santa Barbara.

Posted his third career double-double (and second on the road trip) in the Maui championship game against Notre Dame with 19 points and a career-high 13 rebounds • Was 8 for 12 from the floor and 3 for 3 from the line • Scored 13 second-half points • His emphatic slam dunk in the first half was one of the most memorable plays of the three-day event.

Had nine rebounds, three blocks and three steals to go with 17 points against UNC Asheville • Scored a career-high 22 points on 10 of 12 shooting from the floor against Oral Roberts • Scored 16 points in the first half, his highest scoring figure in a half in his career • Scored 15 against College of Charleston – had 10 points in the first half, which exceeded his scoring in the previous two games • Grabbed eight rebounds against Wake Forest and Miami (home) • Broke out of a scoring slump against Clemson with 15 points on 6 of 9 shooting from the floor (was his first double-figure scoring effort in an ACC game on the season) • Also played exceptional post defense, helping limit Trevor Booker to 3 of 6 field goals and seven points • Made two free throws with 3:30 to play to break a 71-all tie in the win at Florida State • Matched his season high with three blocks against Virginia (Feb. 7).

Scored 10 of his 14 points in the win at Duke in the first half • Was Carolina's leading scorer at the half as he made five field goals in the first seven minutes • Those five baskets helped Carolina build a 25-16 lead • Had two blocks and three steals in the home win over NC

A LONG WAY FROM TORRANCE

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

Under the direction of Roy Williams, Carolina's recruiting has stretched Tobacco Road into an interstate that spans from the Outer Banks to the Space Needle. Four of this year's 13 scholarship players hail from California; prior to Williams's arrival, the last Tar Heel from the Golden State was Scott Williams, class of '90.

The out-of-staters often require some indoctrination about the powerhouse overall athletic department they're joining. That was the case for Deon Thompson, who spoke on that topic at the Rams Club's fall scholarship dinner in mid-September.

"It's been an education for me," the senior says. "You don't know about how good everything is here until you get here. Everything is on the highest level, and it seems like there's always a team winning a national championship."

Thompson's Tar Heels were the most recent team to add a banner in Chapel Hill. The Torrance native contributed six quick points in the tone-setting first six minutes of the national title win over Michigan State and finished with nine points and three rebounds.

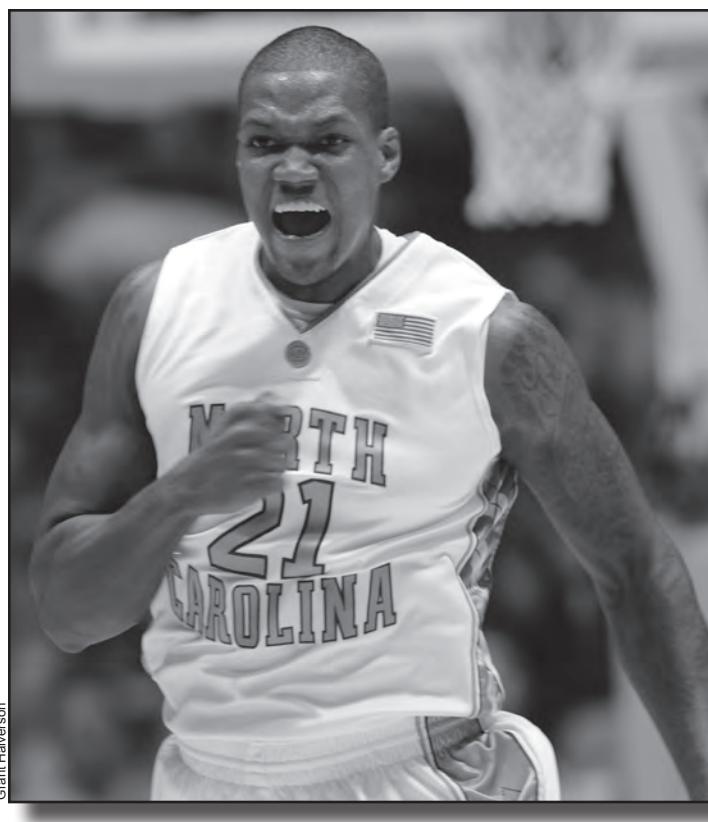

He spent his first three seasons as a complementary piece on star-studded teams. This year, however, Thompson and fellow senior—and housemate—Marcus Ginyard have ascended to main man status. There's some evidence to suggest he might thrive in the role. When Tyler Hansbrough was limited by a shin injury in the first month of last season, Thompson averaged 15.3 points and 6.2 rebounds per game as the Tar Heels' primary post threat.

He hopes to reprise that type of play in a stockpiled 2010 UNC frontcourt that includes six players who stand at least 6-foot-9—but only one upperclassman among the skyscrapers.

"Coach wants me to keep working on being consistent on a day-in, day-out basis," Thompson says. "I'm going to have more back to the basket touches this year, so I want to continue to work on finishing with my hook shots. And I've worked a little bit on my outside game."

Since his arrival as a pudgy freshman prone to gorging at the In-n-Out Burger near his Torrance home, both his game and his frame have changed dramatically. He's hung a banner and studied some Carolina history, and now he's ready to fulfill one of those Tar Heel traditions he's learned to appreciate: the senior leader.

"The time goes by so fast," Thompson says. "When he came on my home recruiting visit, Coach Williams told me four years would go by just like that. It seems like I just got here, but I've paid my dues. In a way, Marcus and I will be the leaders on this team, and I'm excited to do that."

READY TO BREAK OUT

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

After Ed Davis exploded onto the college basketball scene during the 2009 NCAA Tournament, it seemed like everyone knew the slender power forward from Richmond.

Almost everyone, that is. His event management professor somehow had a particular problem telling the 6-foot-10 Davis and his 6-foot-2 classmate Larry Drew II apart. Eventually, Davis decided it would be easier to accept his new identity than to explain the significant difference.

"Finally I just said, 'OK, I'm Larry,'" Davis said with a grin. "But it didn't last for long. I think Larry just wants to be me. I don't want to be him."

Drew II isn't the only one who wants to be Davis. The Tar Heel big man averaged a respectable 6.7 points and 6.6 rebounds per game (second only to Tyler Hansbrough's 8.1 in 300 fewer minutes) as a freshman, but his scoring spiked to 8.2 points per game in NCAA Tournament play, when he played nearly 20 minutes per game and also blocked over one shot per game.

His return gives the Tar Heels one of the most sizable front lines in school history. Each big man on the roster has his own unique set of skills. Tyler Zeller is the gazelle, Deon Thompson is the ox, and Davis has a knack for blocking shots and an almost guard-like ability to see the floor. As a freshman, he impressed with a beyond-his-years ability to throw high-low passes to other post players, and his court vision still occasionally takes his teammates by surprise.

"The thing about Ed is that he wants to pass," Zeller said. "A lot of guys catch the ball and their instinct is to score. Ed wants to score, but he's looking for cutters at the same time. He can see the passing lanes and he can get the ball to you. He catches you off guard at first. If you're not ready, he'll throw it to you and you'll catch it and think, 'Uh oh, what do I do now?'"

As it turns out, Davis developed those advanced skills by necessity. After his decade-long NBA career—during which he became close friends with the elder Larry Drew, a relationship that helped steer Ed towards Carolina—Terry Davis spent some time as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Virginia Union. As a middle schooler, Ed frequently tagged along for film sessions...and sometimes pickup games against much older players.

"I'd go over there with my dad to watch practice and watch film," Davis said. "In the summer, my dad would have me out there playing pickup. That's how I learned to never back down and always be strong. You never shy away from contact."

HOME-COURT ADVANTAGE

Larry Drew II worked on his shot in L.A. this summer.

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

In a college sports world where year-round efforts are expected, going home for the summer can carry a somewhat negative connotation.

That's not the case for Larry Drew II.

Before breaking for the summer, Roy Williams gave him three tasks: gain confidence, improve his jump shot, and continue to improve his strength and conditioning.

With those directions, the Tar Heel point guard spent much of his summer at home in Los Angeles, where he worked out as much as three times per day under the watchful eye of an NBA assistant coach. Of course, that assistant coach just happens to sleep in the room down the hall; Larry Drew is entering his sixth season as an Atlanta Hawks assistant coach. An 11-year pro player, the elder Drew has a reputation among current players—including Tar Heel Marvin Williams—as a shooting guru.

That means he understands there's a difference between being a good shooter in an empty gym and being a good shooter in game conditions. That's why the daily workouts he prepared for Drew II included lots of shooting on the run and more than just catch-and-shoot jumpers.

"He worked on my mechanics a lot with me," Drew II says of his father. "I want to keep my feet underneath me, keep my shoulders straight, and keep my elbow in. Everything we did was designed to take out the hitch in my shot."

Drew II's offseason was spent largely on the West Coast. His day usually began with some form of conditioning, which he varied between running flats, hills, sand dunes, or the exhausting Santa Monica Stairs. He also lifted weights, something he never did until his senior year of high school, and has added 15 pounds of muscle since first enrolling at Carolina.

In the early afternoon, he'd find a pickup game—UCLA, where most of the current Bruins play, was a frequent location—and then he'd cap his day by hoisting hundreds of jump shots.

That preparation is necessary for what's likely to be a significantly expanded role. With Ty Lawson having an All-America 2009, backup minutes were extremely limited. But when Lawson missed three postseason games with a toe injury, Drew II compiled a 4:1 overall assist:turnover ratio, dishing out 12 assists against just three turnovers in 50 minutes of game action.

"In the backup role, I wasn't sure when I was getting into the game, and I had to perform right away," Drew said. "That was a learning process for me. Until that point I had always been the main guy. I think I'll be in more of that kind of role this year."

EVERYBODY'S TALKING

Zeller hopes to turn heads on the court this season.

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

Tyler Zeller's offseason had everyone talking. Or, more correctly, it had everyone tweeting.

The Tar Heel big man was a regular in the summer pickup games attended by a collection of Carolina alums. After several of those games Zeller's performance drew raves via Sean May's Twitter feed. It used to be that it took months for offseason feedback to trickle out to fans; nowadays, it reaches them before the players even get to the parking lot.

No matter what method is used to convey the compliments, it's good news for Zeller, who went through perhaps the most up and down freshman campaign in Carolina history. He started his first game, suffered what was thought to be a season-ending broken wrist against Kentucky in the second game, then worked his way back ahead of schedule to play in the season's final 13 games.

By the time he returned to action on Feb. 18, Ed Davis had emerged and the post rotation was essentially set.

"It was really challenging," Zeller said. "For the most part, I focused on practice and working against Tyler (Hansbrough), Deon (Thompson) and Ed. They needed a big body to compete against, because down the road we might run into someone like Blake Griffin."

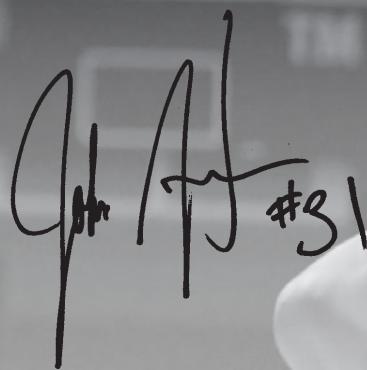

The Tar Heels did eventually run into Griffin, dispatching the player of the year's Oklahoma squad in the regional final. Zeller scored two points and grabbed two rebounds in that game despite never feeling fully comfortable on the court.

He spent the summer correcting some of the more physical details that didn't benefit from an extended layoff. Zeller has gained 30 pounds of muscle since arriving in Chapel Hill in the summer of 2008, and he's corrected a hitch at the top of his shot that contributed to a freshman shooting percentage of 47.2 percent.

He also spent time on his footwork and athleticism, although his ability to run the court was one of the first factors that attracted Roy Williams during the recruiting process. Zeller's long strides make him the perfect finisher in the Williams tempo. Watching the Indiana native sprint the length of the court, it's hard to imagine he used to despise running drills.

"I have to credit my AAU coach, J.C. Hall, in 6th or 7th grade," Zeller said. "I used to be terrified to go to practice because he made us do a lot of running drills. I hated them at the time. But on the court, he was always after me, and I give him all the credit for my ability to run. He'd always say, 'Even if you don't think you have a chance, get down the court and you might find something.'"

Highest active winning percentage in the NCAA

When the Tar Heels cut down the nets in Detroit after winning the 2009 NCAA championship, they put an exclamation point on the most successful five-year stretch in the history of North Carolina Basketball — two national titles ... three Final Fours ... four Final Eights ... four NCAA Tournament No. 1 seeds ... five Top 10 Associated Press final rankings (four in the Top 4) ... four Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season titles ... two ACC Tournament crowns ... four 30-win seasons ... eight NBA first-round draft picks.

The man at the center of it all is Roy Williams, a 1972 UNC graduate and member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

The Tar Heels beat Michigan State, 89-72, to capture UNC's fifth NCAA Tournament title and second in the last five years. In 2005, Carolina beat Illinois to win

Williams' first national title. He is one of 13 coaches to win multiple national championships, joining an illustrious list that includes only two other ACC coaches — Dean Smith and Mike Krzyzewski.

Over the last eight years, Williams has won 239 games, including 30 in the NCAA Tournament, and led Kansas and UNC to the Final Four five times. That's more wins, more NCAA Tournament victories and more Final Fours than any coach in the nation. He also coached National Players of the Year in four of the eight seasons.

The Sporting News and Lindy's named the Asheville, N.C., native the Coach of the Decade for 2000-2009. Williams led the Jayhawks and Tar Heels to 33 NCAA Tournament wins in the 2000s, eight more than any other coach (Tom Izzo was second with 25). His teams' winning percentage in the NCAA Tournament in the last 10 years was .805. No other coach whose teams played in at least 10 NCAA Tournament games won at least 80 percent of them.

"For him to bring Carolina back to what it was and take it even beyond that, it just shows you what type of coach and person and mentor he is," says NBA All-Star Antawn Jamison. "It's that same philosophy Coach Smith has. It's not about basketball — it's about life and doing what's expected of you. Live life to the fullest."

He has led Carolina to a 176-37 mark in six seasons, a win percentage of .826. His teams have set UNC records for most wins for one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09) and six years (176 from 2004-09).

"Williams is building a new monument to Carolina, which now sets the standard for every other program in the country," wrote New York Daily News columnist Dick Weiss after the Tar Heels set NCAA records by scoring 55 points and building a 21-point halftime lead in the 2009 national championship game.

In his tenure at Carolina, Williams has already coached two National Players of the Year (Sean May in 2005 and Tyler Hansbrough in 2008), two Bob Cousy Award recipients as the best point guard in the country (Raymond Felton in 2005 and Ty Lawson in 2009), two ACC Players of the Year (Hansbrough in 2008 and Lawson in 2009), an ACC Athlete of the Year (May in 2005), three ACC Rookies of the Year (Marvin Williams in 2005, Hansbrough in 2006 and Brandon Wright in 2007), two Final Four MOPs (May in 2005 and Wayne Ellington in 2009) and 11 NBA Draft picks.

81.1 is the highest among active coaches and the third-best in history behind only Clair Bee and Adolph Rupp. He also has the third-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament history (75.3) among coaches whose teams have played at least 30 games.

Williams is one of the most accomplished coaches in college basketball. His ledger includes:

- ✓ 418 wins at Kansas and 176 at Carolina, the second-most at each school behind Phog Allen and Smith, respectively
- ✓ A record of 869-199 in 31 seasons as a collegiate head coach and assistant coach
- ✓ Seven Final Fours, the fourth-most in history behind John Wooden, Smith and Krzyzewski
- ✓ Nine 30-win seasons, the second-most all-time (and 16 seasons with 25 or more wins)
- ✓ 19 seasons with 20 or more wins, including every year except when he won 19 in his first year at both Kansas and Carolina
- ✓ Three consecutive 30-win seasons, the first time Carolina has accomplished that
- ✓ 55 NCAA Tournament wins, the third-most all-time behind Krzyzewski (71) and Smith (65)
- ✓ 73 NCAA Tournament games, tied for the third-most in history
- ✓ 20 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, officially the second-longest streak in NCAA history behind Smith's 23
- ✓ 20 consecutive seasons with a win in the NCAA Tournament, the only coach to accomplish that
- ✓ Seven seasons as the National Coach of the Year (1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005, 2006 and 2009), eight years as conference Coach of the Year (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002, 2003 and 2006)

Robert Crawford

✓ The 2003 recipient of the John Wooden Legends of Coaching Award

✓ One of three coaches (with Frank McGuire and Larry Brown) to lead two different schools to the national championship game, but the only coach to lead two schools to two appearances in the finals (Kansas in 1991 and 2003; Carolina in 2005 and 2009)

✓ Four ACC regular-season championships in six seasons, tied for the fourth-most in ACC history (Smith won 17 in 36 years, Krzyzewski 11 in 29, McGuire six in 24 and Vic Bubas four in 10)

✓ 13 conference regular-season championships and 17 times in 21 years finishing either first or second in the conference standings

✓ Winning his 500th game on Dec. 9, 2006, in his 19th season (only coach to do so in less than 20 years)

✓ Winning more games than any coach after eight, nine, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21 seasons

✓ 64 more wins than any other coach in their first 21 years

✓ 72-24 record in ACC regular-season games

✓ 165 wins in his first 200 games at an ACC school, more than any coach in history

✓ 285-27 record at home, a combined winning percentage of 91.4 at Allen Fieldhouse and the Smith Center

✓ His teams have been ranked No. 1 in the nation in 10 seasons and at least No. 2 in the country in 15 of 21 seasons

✓ In six years at Carolina, the Associated Press has ranked the Tar Heels in the Top 25 in 109 of 115 polls (all six exceptions were in 2005-06, although UNC finished that year ranked No. 10). That includes 79 Top 10 rankings, 70 times in the Top 5 and 24 weeks as the No. 1 team in the country.

✓ Teams have averaged 80 or more points 18 times in 21 seasons

✓ Coaching four National Players of the Year, 13 first-team All-Americans, eight conference player or athletes of the year, two Bob Cousy Award winners, 25 first-team all-conference players, 33 academic all-conference selections and 19 NBA first-round draft picks.

Dan Wetzel, national columnist for Yahoo! Sports, wrote in April 2009: "There isn't a more perfect union in college basketball than Roy and Carolina; the ideal combination of style and substance, recruiting might and coaching acumen, of championships won and won and, most certainly, won again."

In February 2009, Forbes named

CAROLINA BASKETBALL 2009-10

champions

Williams the best basketball coach in the country, choosing him by analyzing win-loss percentages, NCAA Tournament appearances, Final Fours, national championships and recruiting.

Forbes wrote: "A top-notch recruiter and motivator, Williams coaches with an unflappable cool, a trait reflected in his players' calm on the court."

"We had Dean Smith – now we have Roy Williams," says John Kuester, the 1977 ACC Tournament MVP and the head coach of the Detroit Pistons. "Roy has done a phenomenal job of sustaining this program to the highest level. He has a commitment to excellence, attention to detail and the ability to recruit some outstanding student-athletes."

Williams' ability to relate to players and their families, both in the recruiting process and throughout their careers, is something his players speak of when they account for his success.

"The amazing thing about Coach Williams is the person everyone sees on TV all the time is really the same guy we see every day," says fifth-year senior Marcus Ginyard. "There's nothing fake about him. He's the embodiment of hard work, a guy who never quits, is humble yet confident, is willing to give back to the game, and who teaches us every day the values of education and his players growing as people and players. He's the best there is."

On March 8, 2009, Senior Day at Carolina, an emotional Hansbrough thanked Williams for living up to a promise Williams made during his recruitment that the coach would always be honest with him.

"He always tells you the straight up truth about what you need to hear, not just what you want to hear," says Hansbrough. "That helped me not only as a player but also as a person."

Senior forward Deon Thompson says Coach Williams is like a second father to him.

"I love honesty and Coach Williams is going to give you that every time you talk to him about any subject," says Thompson, a starter on the 2009 national championship team. "He is absolutely what he was when he came in my house to recruit me. I got lucky for someone to come into my house who is a great person, a great man and is still the same person today."

Williams prides himself on a work ethic that helped lead a small-town boy to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. He is one of nine Tar Heels to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame, joining an elite group that includes Dean Smith, Michael Jordan, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, James Worthy and Bob McAdoo.

him in Springfield, Mass., for the induction ceremony in 2007.

"Coach Williams helped me become a man," said Marvin Williams, who was the second player selected in the 2005 NBA Draft. "He always held me accountable for my actions on the court. He's a father figure and he's my coach. He'll always be my coach."

Wayne Simien, who played two seasons for Williams at Kansas and was on the team that Williams left for Chapel Hill, echoes those thoughts: "Coach means so much to me. He's been not only a coach, but a positive role model and a father figure."

"His willingness to understand the athlete and get the best out of the athlete is what makes Roy a Hall of Famer — his patience, his knowledge for the game, his effort and diligence to understand the game and understand the player and how they can co-exist. To me, that's a Hall of Fame-type guy, someone who makes adjustments according to the personnel rather than forcing his way of thinking on a team or a player."

An editorial in the Lawrence (Kan.) Journal-World stated:

"Williams is a winner, not only on the basketball court but also as a person. Collegiate sports need more coaches such as Williams, men and women who set an example for others to try and match."

Williams has led Carolina to more wins in the last six years than any other program in the ACC and over the last three years the Tar Heels are 101-14. Duke is second in that span with 80 wins. The Tar Heels are 42-4 away from the Smith Center in the last two seasons, including a 14-2 ACC road record. Over the last five seasons, Carolina is 31-9 in ACC road games.

Williams says the 2008-09 season was the most challenging of his career because of injuries

UNC led the nation in winning percentage (89.5) and scoring margin (+17.8) and was second in scoring (89.9 ppg). That was the seventh time in the last eight years his teams have been in the top four nationally in scoring (first in 2002 and 2005, second in 2007, 2008 and 2009, third in 2003 and fourth in 2004). His teams have averaged 85.9 points at UNC with the Tar Heels reaching 100 or more points 35 times.

His teams have finished in the Top 10 nationally in scoring in 10 of his 21 seasons, in scoring margin 15 times, in field goal percentage 12 times, in win-loss percentage 10 times and in field goal defense four times. Also, his squads have finished in the top seven nationally in assists per game in seven of the last eight years and in the top eight nationally in rebounding margin in 10 of the last 13 years.

In 2008, Williams led the Tar Heels to a school-record 36 wins, ACC to Hansbrough, Lawson, Ginyard and freshman Tyler Zeller. The Tar Heels were unanimous preseason choices to win the national title in both the media and coaches' polls. They won their first 13 games, but lost their first two ACC games. However, Williams kept his team together and UNC won 13 of its final 14 ACC games.

Led by Hansbrough, Lawson, Ellington and Danny Green, the Tar Heels clinched their fourth ACC regular-season title in the last five years, won their fourth straight game at Duke and landed a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive year. In the NCAA Tournament, Carolina put on a stunning display, winning six games by an average of 20.2 points, the highest margin in 13 years. UNC became the first team to win all six games by a dozen or more points. Carolina never trailed in the second half of the last four games against Gonzaga, Oklahoma, Villanova and Michigan State.

The Williams family — Kimberly, Roy, Wanda, Scott and Katie — celebrate in Detroit after the 2009 NCAA championship.

regular-season and Tournament titles and a berth in the Final Four with a win over Louisville in the regional final. Hansbrough won every major National Player of the Year award. He is the fourth to play for Williams — along with Jayhawks Drew Gooden and Nick Collison and UNC's Sean May — to win National Player of the Year honors since 2002.

The 2005 national championship capped a season in which the Tar Heels went 33-4, including a 14-2 mark in the ACC. Carolina led the nation in scoring average, scoring margin and assists and became the third team in history to lead the nation in scoring and win the NCAA championship.

"We all wanted to win for the seniors, but I especially wanted a national championship for Coach Williams," May said. "He's a great person and a great coach and I wanted to be on his first national championship team."

In 2006, Carolina faced the loss of its top seven scorers, which was unprecedented in ACC history. Sports Illustrated predicted Carolina would miss the NCAA Tournament and the Tar Heels were picked by the media to finish sixth in the ACC. However, Williams earned National and ACC Coach of the Year honors by leading the youngest team in Carolina history to a second-place ACC finish, a win at top-ranked Duke and a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

"UNC's starting lineup consists of two true freshmen, two former walk-ons and a guy who wasn't even first-team all-state in high school," wrote David Glenn at ACCSports.com. "All of this is a tribute to the players, of course, but it's an even bigger tribute to their leader. Williams wasn't the only coach in America who lost all five starters from last season. He's the only one who's winning big anyway."

"Roy's really a bright man," says Dean Smith. "He has the whole package of what you want as a college head coach. You want somebody who knows basketball, can judge talent, is a competent leader and can teach it in practice, makes good decisions in the game, is highly organized, and also is honest in recruiting."

"He's like Tiger Woods in golf — they have the whole package," Smith adds. "I don't know anyone else who does. I certainly consider him to be the best college coach in the country."

Williams became the UNC head coach on April 14, 2003, 10 days after leading Kansas to the NCAA championship game against Syracuse.

"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball," says Hall of Famer Bill Walton. "His impact on young people's lives throughout this great land will change the course of history."

Williams is one of the most respected men in basketball. That was evident by the number of well-wishes, congratulatory calls and letters Williams received before and after winning the national championships and being elected to the Hall of Fame, including many from former Kansas players and parents.

"Coach Williams has so much knowledge about the game it is unbelievable," says Marvin Williams. "He is a great coach and he loves to teach."

"He reminds me a lot of Coach Smith," says former Tar Heel National Player of the Year and NBA All-Star Jamison. "Not just basketball, but knowing the importance of having good people, caring about making sure they are successful after basketball. He'll have a big influence over every player that comes through the program, preparing them for life."

"He's going to teach you the fundamentals of the game and off the court he cares about his kids," says Jackie Manuel, starting guard on the 2005 national champions. "He wants the best for his kids. He's going to push you; he's trying to bring the best out of you. If I have a son, I would definitely let him play for Coach Williams."

"Roy is as good as it gets in a person," says legendary Hall of Famer Jerry West. "There's nothing deceptive about him. He is what he is — a wonderful person and a great coach. If you watch his teams, you know they've been coached. If you go to his practices, you know why his teams are successful. His players play the right way. They're team-oriented. They play a fun way offensively. They're aggressive. He changes defenses. He's just a wonderful coach."

Williams was assistant coach at Carolina from 1978-88. Working for Dean Smith, he helped coach such standouts as Mike O'Koren, Al Wood, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Matt Doherty, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty, Kenny Smith, Joe Wolf, Steve Hale, Jeff Lebo, J.R. Reid and Scott Williams.

Carolina won the NCAA title in 1982, finished second in 1981 and won or shared six ACC regular-season titles and three ACC Tournament championships.

"I think of his honesty, integrity and tremendous work ethic," says Daugherty, a five-time NBA All-Star. "He is a classy, classy individual. But he is also one of the toughest people I have ever met in my life. No one is tougher than Roy Williams, but he is fair. That's why the kids love him so much. When you have played four years for him he will be a friend for life and you will be a better man, and appreciate every ounce of the experience when you are gone."

Kansas hired Williams on July 8, 1988, replacing another UNC Hall of Famer, Larry Brown. "He's as good a coach as our sport has," says Brown. "If you ask people around the country, they'll say there's no better college coach than Roy Williams."

Williams coached a number of the finest Kansas players in history, including Mark Randall, Adonis

Jordan, Rex Walters, Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard, Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Nick Collison and Kirk Hinrich.

The Jayhawks averaged 27.9 wins per season with a high of 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions.

Kansas went 30-8 in 2002-03, his final year in Lawrence. Led by Collison, the NABC National Player of the Year, and Hinrich, an All-America, the Jayhawks reached the national championship game. It was KU's first back-to-back appearance in the Final Four since 1952-53.

In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season. Kansas was a regular in the AP Top 25 from 1991 to 1999, placing in the AP poll for 145 consecutive weeks. Overall, Williams had Kansas in the AP Top 25 in 242 of 268 weekly polls. Kansas reached the No. 1 ranking in the country in six different seasons and was ranked at least No. 2 in the nation in 11 of the 15 seasons.

The Jayhawks went 201-17 (92.2) in Allen Fieldhouse, and won 62 consecutive games in Allen from February 1994 to December 1998.

Williams has coached players to 25 first-team all-conference honors, including eight UNC selections (McCants in 2003-04, Felton and May in 2004-05, Hansbrough in each of his four seasons, and Lawson in 2009). Seven players – five Jayhawks, Hansbrough and Lawson – have won conference player of the year honors. The 2009 NCAA Tournament marked the first time in history that two ACC Players of the Year were on the court at the same time.

Hansbrough and Lawson both earned first-team All-America honors in 2009. This marked the 12th and 13th first-team All-America seasons by one of Williams' players. It also marked the fifth straight year that Carolina's top inside threat earned first-team All-America honors.

Gooden (2002), Collison (2003), May (2005) and Hansbrough (2008) won National Player of the Year honors and LaFrentz (1997 and 1998), Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002), Collison (2003) and Hansbrough (2007, 2008 and 2009) have earned consensus first-team All-America honors.

"I was just coming (to Kansas) to play basketball for a man I knew I could trust and a man I hoped would make my dreams a reality," said LaFrentz, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year.

The NBA has selected 19 of his players in the first round, including Hansbrough (13th), Lawson (18th) and Ellington (28th) in 2009. In 2005, UNC became the first program to have four players chosen in the NBA Lottery.

Williams emphasizes academic development, as well. Every Carolina senior in his tenure has either received his degree or is on track to do so. Sean May, the 2005 Final Four MVP, entered the NBA Draft after his junior year but earned his degree this past summer. Marvin Williams, who went to the NBA in 2005 after just one season, Williams grew up in Biltmore, in south Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played basketball and baseball. He played basketball for Coach Buddy Baldwin, was named all-county and all-conference in 1967 and 1968, all-region in 1968 and served as captain in the North Carolina Blue-White All-Star Game.

Williams played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69 under Bill Guthridge and earned two degrees from Carolina — a bachelor's in education in 1972 and a master's in teaching in 1973.

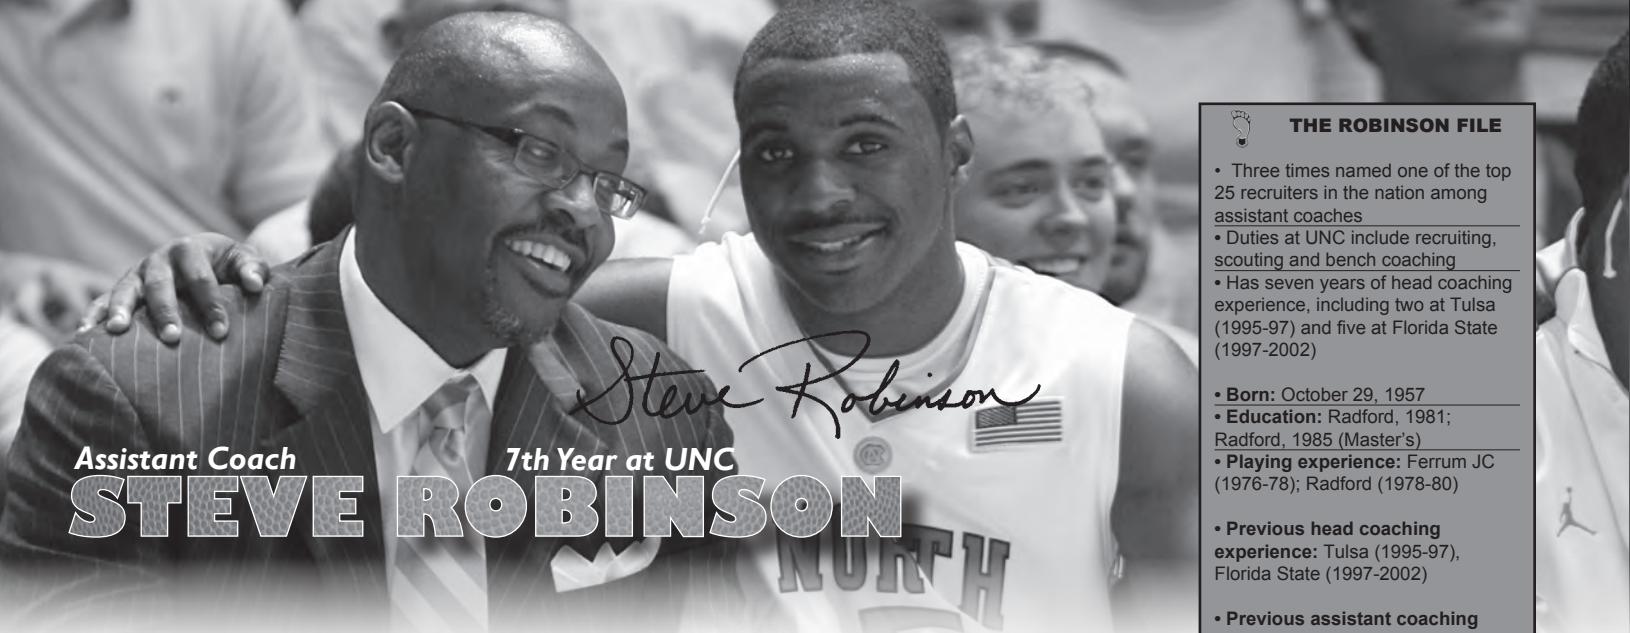

He began his coaching career in 1973 at Owen High School in Swannanoa, N.C., coached for USA Basketball teams in the 1991 World University Games, the 1992 U.S. Olympic Development Team, a U-22 tournament in Argentina in 1993, and the 2004 Olympics in Greece. He was NABC president in 2001-02 and served on the NCAA rules committee for six years.

Several of his staff and players have gone on to head coaching positions, including Matt Doherty, Neil Dougherty, Jerry Green, Steve Robinson, Kevin Stallings, Mark Turgeon and Rex Walters.

Born August 1, 1950, he and his wife, Wanda, a 1972 Carolina graduate, have a son, Scott, and a daughter, Kimberly. Scott earned a business degree from UNC and played point guard on the basketball team in 1997-98 and 1998-99. He and his wife, Katie (Wolford), live in Charlotte. Katie is a 2001 Carolina graduate and former cheerleader. She earned a doctorate in physical therapy from Boston University. Kimberly, who also lives in Charlotte, is a 2002 Carolina graduate with a degree in English and a former member of the UNC dance team.

The Williams family has contributed more than $250,000 to the Carolina Covenant, an initiative at UNC that allows low-income students to attend the University debt free. Roy and Wanda serve as honorary chairs of a $10 million campaign to endow the program. Coach Williams hosts an annual Coaches vs. Cancer breakfast that has raised more than $750,000 and direct the autographed basketball program that has contributed more than $500,000 to local charities.

Assistant Coach

STEVE ROBINSON

7th Year at UNC

One of the nation's top recruiters and a former head coach, Steve Robinson is in his seventh year as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina and his 15th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff.

Now Williams' top assistant on the bench, Robinson has been named one of the top 25 recruiters in college basketball three times since coming to Carolina.

His primary responsibilities include scouting, recruiting and bench coaching. He helped recruit future NBA Draft Lottery picks Marvin Williams, Brandan Wright and Paul Pierce to Carolina and Kansas.

Robinson works directly with the Tar Heel perimeter players, helping to mentor Cousy Award-winning point guards Raymond Felton and Ty Lawson.

Last season, UNC won its second NCAA championship and made its third Final Four appearance in the last five years.

In 2007-08 the Tar Heels won the ACC Tournament and conference regular season championships for the second straight year while also reaching the NCAA Final Four.

In 2006-07 Carolina won a share of the ACC regular season crown and the ACC Tournament, reaching the NCAA regional finals.

In 2004-05 the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title and beat the No. 1 ranked team in the nation to win the NCAA championship.

Robinson was head coach at the University of Tulsa for two years (1995-97) and at Florida State University for five years (1997-2002).

As head coach at Florida State, he led the Seminoles to the second round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament, becoming the first coach in school history to reach the NCAA field in his first season.

Robinson was head coach at Tulsa in 1995-96 and 1996-97. He led the Golden Hurricane to a 46-18 record and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament. In his first year, Tulsa won 22 games and won the Missouri Valley Tournament for the first time in 10 years. In 1996-97, Tulsa went 24-10 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For his efforts, Robinson was named the Coach of the Year in the WAC Mountain Division. The 24 wins were the second-most in Tulsa history.

Robinson has a record of 367-88 (.807) on the bench with Williams. He was an assistant at Kansas from 1988-95 and in 2002-03, during which the Jayhawks posted a combined record of 214-59.

Before joining Williams in 1988, Robinson spent two years as an assistant coach at Cornell and three seasons at his alma mater, Radford. In 1988, Cornell won the Ivy League title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 35 years.

A native of Roanoke, Va., Robinson graduated from William Fleming High School, and attended

Ferrum Junior College, where he played basketball for two seasons. He was one of three student-athletes to receive Radford's first athletic scholarships, and was team captain in 1980 and 1981. While at Radford, he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1981 and his master's degree in counseling in 1985.

He is a member of both the Ferrum Junior College and Radford

JEROD HAASE

Assistant Coach

Jerod Haase

Among the top rising coaches in college basketball, Jerod Haase returns to the sidelines as an assistant coach in his seventh year with Roy Williams at Carolina.

A Naismith and Wooden Award candidate while playing shooting guard at the University of Kansas, Haase is in his 11th season as a member of Williams' staff.

In addition to his coaching and team duties, Haase is in his fourth season as the head coach of UNC's junior varsity program.

Last season, UNC won its second NCAA championship and made its third Final Four appearance in the last five years.

Carolina won the 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament after also capturing the conference regular season title. UNC also reached the NCAA Final Four.

Kansas and Carolina have combined to win 289 of 355 games (81.4 percent) in his 10 years on Williams' staff.

Haase attended the University of California in 1992-93, and then transferred to Kansas. He helped lead the Jayhawks to three consecutive conference titles and finished his career ranked in the Top 10 among school leaders in assists, three-point field goals and steals.

He started 99 of 101 games at Kansas and scored 1,264 points, averaging 12.5 per game and reaching double figures 74 times.

As a senior, Haase started with Jacque Vaughn, Scot Pollard, Paul Pierce and Raef LaFrentz as Kansas went 34-2. He averaged 12.0 points despite playing with a

He scored a career-high 30 points against Temple as a junior. That year he was named to the Big Eight All-Defensive Team. He scored 16 points, including the game-winning three-point field goal, to beat Arizona, 83-80, in the 1996 NCAA regional semifinal.

As a sophomore in 1994-95, the South Lake Tahoe, Calif., native was named the Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year and was a second-team all-conference selection. He led Kansas with 15.0 points a game.

He started 23 games in 1992-93 as a freshman at Cal, where he teamed in the backcourt with Jason Kidd. Haase scored 13 points in the Bears' NCAA second round win over Duke.

In 1995, Haase teamed with Tim Duncan, Allen Iverson and Kerry Kittles to win the gold medal at the World University Games.

A 1997 Kansas graduate in business administration, Haase was a first-team GTE Academic All-America as a senior. He was also a second-team Academic All-America in 1996 and was academic all-conference for three years. He earned a Master's of Science degree in business at KU in 2000.

Haase, who roomed with C.B. McGrath in college, co-wrote Floor Burns, detailing the 1996-97 KU season, which sold more than 30,000 copies. Floor Burns are a statistic the Kansas stat crew created in honor of Haase, who had 165 of them as a junior. He has also produced a basketball instructional video.

Born April 1, 1974, Haase is one of five brothers and sisters to play intercollegiate sports. He was married to the former Mindy Meidinger of Lenexa, Kan., in 1999. The couple has two sons, Gavin (born in September 2006) and Garrett (born in July 2009).

7th Year at UNC C.B. McGRATH Assistant Coach

A bright young mind in college coaching, assistant coach C.B. McGrath is in his seventh year at North Carolina and his 11th season as a member of Roy Williams' basketball staff. McGrath played point guard for Williams at Kansas. He was a team captain in 1997-98 and lettered in four seasons.

In addition to his bench duties, McGrath oversees the Roy Williams Carolina Basketball Camp and the team's coaches clinic. He has served for three seasons as the head coach of the UNC junior varsity program.

Last season, UNC won its second NCAA championship in the last five seasons and made its third Final Four appearance in five years. Ty Lawson won the Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard.

Carolina won the 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament and regular season titles. The Tar Heels also reached the NCAA Final Four.

In 2007 McGrath helped guide Carolina to a 31-7 record, a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title and the 2007 ACC Tournament championship.

In his first season as an assistant, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and claimed the 2005 NCAA championship. Point guard Raymond Felton earned first-team All-ACC and was the winner of the Bob Cousy Award.

In his 10 years on Williams' staff at Kansas and Carolina, those teams have a combined record of 289-66 (81.4 percent) and played in five Final Fours.

McGrath earned a scholarship prior to the start of his freshman season at Kansas. He was the top reserve behind first-team All-America Jacque Vaughn in 1994-95 and Ryan Robertson as a senior.

During his playing career the Jayhawks won four Big Eight or Big 12 regular-season championships and the Big 12 Tournament championship in 1997 and 1998. Kansas went 123-17 and was ranked No. 5, 4, 1 and 2 in the nation, respectively, in the final Associated Press polls.

The Jayhawks were a perfect 58-0 at Allen Fieldhouse in McGrath's career.

In 1997-98 McGrath was a tri-captain. McGrath roomed with current Tar Heel assistant coach Jerod Haase.

McGrath played in 112 career games, scored 82 points, had 113 assists and 35 steals. He had a better than 2:1 assist to turnover ratio, including 61 assists and just 24 turnovers as a senior. His first basket as a freshman came on a three-pointer at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum.

He was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection.

Colin Bryan (C.B.) McGrath was born Nov. 21, 1975, in Indianapolis, Ind. He is one of 20 members of his family who attended the University of Kansas.

McGrath attended Topeka West High School, where he earned 13 varsity letters in basketball, cross country, track and golf. He was the Kansas High School Player of the Year in basketball as a senior and placed in the top 10 in the state in cross country and golf.

He earned a B.A. in human biology and a master's degree in education. McGrath's wife, Kris, played tennis at KU, where she was the Big 12 Player of the Year. The couple have twin daughters, Kate

One of the nation's most experienced college basketball minds, Joe Holladay is in his seventh season with the Tar Heels and his 17th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff.

Holladay will serve as Director of Basketball Operations this season after 16 years as an assistant coach. He has a combined record of 488-108 (81.9 percent) on the bench with Williams.

Holladay's duties include a number of behind-the-scenes and operational duties and he oversees the team's academic progress.

Holladay has worked closely over the years with the Tar Heel big men, including four-time first-team All-America and 2008 National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough. Under Holladay's tutelage, Hansbrough and Sean May have earned national player-of-the-year honors. Last season UNC won its second NCAA championship in the last five seasons and made its third Final Four appearance in five years.

Carolina won the 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament after also capturing the conference regular season title.

Holladay came to Carolina prior to the 2003-04 season and helped the Tar Heels return to the NCAA Tournament.

Seventeen of Holladay's players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Four of his student-athletes earned first-team academic All-America honors and he has coached 26 first-team academic all-conference honorees in the last 13 years.

the UNC swimming and diving teams, supervisor of the Smith Center athletic training room and a lecturer in the Exercise and Sport Science Department. He also is a staff physical therapist with Carolina's Campus Health Services. In his tenure at UNC, Hirth has worked with the men's soccer, gymnastics, women's lacrosse and track and field squads. He was the trainer for the 2001 Tar Heel men's soccer team that won the NCAA championship.

Hirth earned a BS in physical therapy from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1989 and a MS in human movement science from UNC in 1994.

Hirth is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the American Physical Therapy Association. He has a PES and CES through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Hirth is a native of Milwaukee, Wis. He and his wife, Anna, have a son, Blake.

ERIC HOOTS

Video Coordinator/
Director of Player Relations

Eric Hoots is in his sixth season as video coordinator and director of player relations in the UNC Basketball office. His primary duties include serving as a primary contact for former Tar Heel players, taping games and practices and supervising day-to-day video needs.

Hoots, a 2004 UNC graduate with a degree in African-American Studies and Interpersonal Communications, was a three-year Tar Heel letterman as a varsity manager from 2001-2004. He served as head manager as a senior.

A native of Newton, N.C., Hoots attended Bandys High School in Catawba, where he played two years of varsity basketball.

Hoots is currently working toward his Master's in Sports Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.

In 2009, he married the former Amy Howe, the assistant director of tickets and parking for the Rams Club.

JENN TOWNSEND

Academic Advisor

Jenn Townsend is in her first season as an academic advisor at Carolina, working with the men's basketball and women's swimming and diving teams.

Townsend comes to UNC after spending three years at the University of Minnesota, where she was an academic counselor for the men's and women's basketball and softball squads.

Prior to her stint with the Golden Gophers, she worked for nearly four years at Indiana University, where she was an academic advisor for the men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, baseball and field hockey teams. She also spent one year as a high school social studies teacher in Ann Arbor, Mich.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Townsend earned an M.A. from the University of Michigan in 2000. She is a native of Saginaw, Mich.

Williams is part of a Carolina basketball history that also includes Michael Jordan and Dean Smith.

Williams was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Williams in the NCAA Tournament

- Roy Williams is one of only four active coaches to win multiple NCAA championships.
- Williams is fourth in NCAA history with seven Final Four appearances as a head coach.
- Williams has led his teams to five Final Four berths in the last eight seasons, including three in the last five years at Carolina.
- UNC is 21-4 in NCAA Tournament play under Williams.
- Williams ranks third in NCAA Tournament history with 55 wins.
- Williams won more NCAA Tournament games (33) from 2000-09 than any coach in the country.

Coaching and teaching

"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball. His move to North Carolina ensures for the foreseeable future excellence both on and off the court. The championships will now fall time after time to Chapel Hill."

- Hall-of-Famer and NBA analyst Bill Walton

- Williams is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win 30 or more games at least nine times.
- Williams' career winning percentage of 81.1 is the highest of any active coach and ranks third all-time.
- Williams has been named national coach of the year in seven different seasons.
- Twenty-seven former Williams-coached players have played in the NBA and 19 were first-round draft picks.
- Williams-coached teams have ranked in the top four in the nation in scoring seven times in the last eight years.

"There isn't a more perfect union in college basketball than Roy and Carolina; the ideal combination of style and substance, recruiting might and coaching acumen, of championships won and won and, most certainly, won again."

Tar Heels are true student-athletes

• Every senior during Roy Williams' years at Carolina has graduated or is on track to receive his degree.

When the NCAA released its multiyear Academic Progress Rate (APR) figures in 2009, the Carolina men's basketball team passed with flying colors. The Tar Heels' APR of 995 ranked in the top 10 percent among all Division I basketball programs and was the highest of any school in the six major conferences (ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and SEC).

RALEIGH NEWS & OBSERVER,
JULY 17, 2008:

Sean May and Atlanta Hawks forward Marvin Williams are the latest former Tar Heels to trade their pro playbooks for steno notebooks each offseason, taking courses in hopes of getting their degrees. When May and Williams jumped to the NBA early after the 2005 national championship season, each promised coach Roy Williams he would return to earn his diploma.

"Every summer, at least one person asks me, 'Why are you here?' " said Marvin Williams, who averaged 14.8 points and 5.7 rebounds during the Hawks' regular season. "I say, 'Why not?' It's something you started, so why not finish it?"

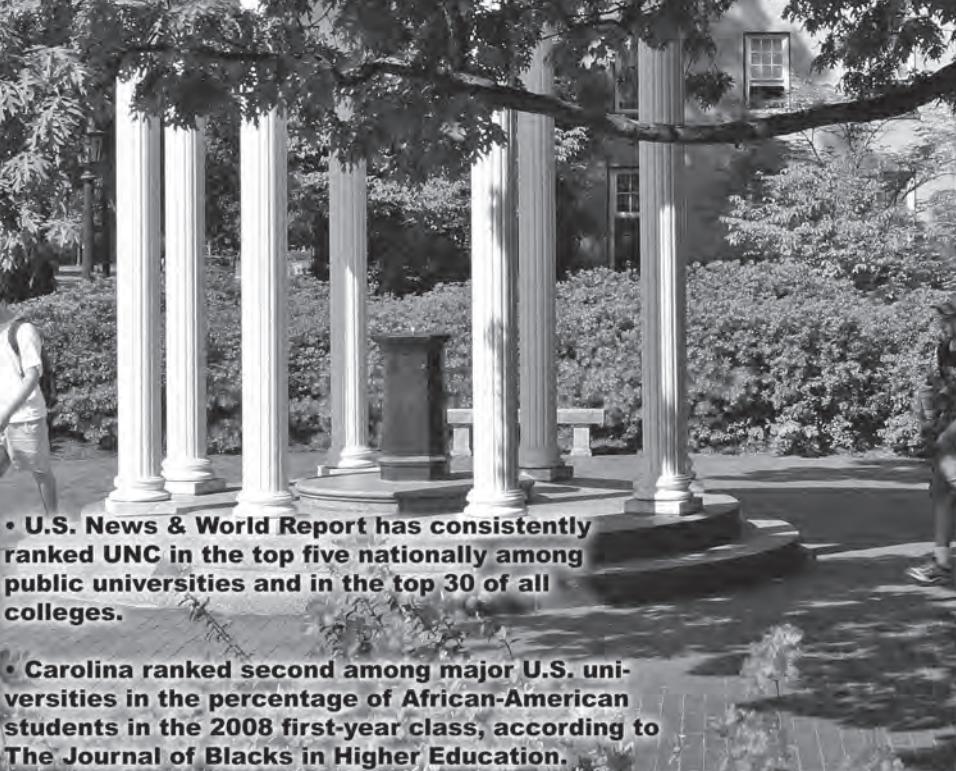

"When you've got youngsters thinking about going pro early, and they see guys like Marvin and Sean come back ... I think it plants a seed that carries on, so it does nothing but help our program. Those are just special kids. I know they know about Vince Carter coming back, Antawn [Jamison] coming back, Michael Jordan coming back, JR Reid ..." - Director of Operations Joe Holladay

"What's unique is the unity and the bond established in the short time you are at the University. It's a family atmosphere. You find yourself taking care of family members. It's hard for people outside of that to understand, but as long as people within understand it's something we cherish, no matter what happens to us or where we go. You will always cherish that relationship from the University of North Carolina."

– Michael Jordan

"Coach Williams has done a phenomenal job. He's brought the pride back to this program. We're respected and hated all at the same time. Everybody wishes they could be like us. They wish they could have the love and togetherness like we have. But they can't do it, because here it's instilled from day one. It's not like you're told to do it. It's there, every day, and you live it. When you come to Carolina, this is how you're supposed to be. You learn it, and that's how you grow. Anytime a guy is drafted out of Carolina you know they will know the game. Ask any NBA player or coach about a Carolina player they've played with or coached, and they will tell you that they always know the game."

TAR HEELS WIN
FIFTH NCAA TITLE

◆ North Carolina (34-4) won its fifth NCAA title and its second in five seasons in 2008-09, beating Michigan State 89-72 in the NCAA championship game on April 6 at Ford Field in Detroit.

◆ Carolina was in the Final Four for the second year in a row and the third time in the last five years under head coach Roy Williams.

◆ Williams made his seventh appearance in the Final Four as a head coach, including his third at Carolina. Williams is one of 13 head coaches to win multiple NCAA championships. He also guided the Tar Heels to the 2005 NCAA title in St. Louis.

◆ The 2009 postseason marked the first time Carolina has won all six of its NCAA Tournament games by double figures and the first time any team has done so since 2001. UNC's average margin of victory in Tournament play was 20.2 ppg, the largest of any champion since Kentucky in 1996.

QUICK LOOKS: UNC'S WIN IN THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ...

◆ ... brought North Carolina its fifth NCAA championship, tying Indiana for third-most all-time (behind only UCLA's 11 and Kentucky's seven). UNC has won NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993, 2005 and 2009.

◆ ... improved the Tar Heels to 21-4 in NCAA Tournament play in six seasons under Williams and 13-2 in the last three campaigns. The Tar Heels have played in the Final Four three times in the last five years. No other Atlantic Coast Conference school has reached a regional final in those five years. Carolina is 20-3 in the NCAA Tournament in the last five years. The rest of the ACC is 20-22 in the NCAA Tournament in that span.

◆ ... gave Carolina its fourth consecutive win in NCAA championship games, joining 1982, 1993 and 2005.

◆ ... gave the 2009 UNC senior class the most wins of any four-year class in school history with 124.

◆ ... improved UNC to 42-4 in games played outside of Chapel Hill in the last two seasons.

NCAA-RECORD 18 FINAL FOURS

◆ North Carolina made its NCAA-record 18th Final Four appearance in 2009. The Tar Heels have reached at least one Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

◆ Carolina's 18 Final Four appearances have come in 1946, 1957, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1977, 1981, 1982, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2009.

NINE FINAL FOURS IN 19 YEARS

◆ In 2009, Carolina made its ninth Final Four appearance in a 19-season span. Only five other programs in the nation have played in more Final Fours in their entire histories than UNC has in that 19-season period.

ROY WILLIAMS &
THE FINAL FOUR

◆ The 2009 NCAA title makes Roy Williams the 13th coach in history to win multiple NCAA championships as a head coach and the fourth active coach to do so (joining Mike Krzyzewski of Duke, Jim Calhoun of Connecticut and Billy Donovan of Florida).

◆ The 2008-09 season marked Williams'

seventh NCAA Final Four appearance as a head coach. Previously, Williams guided Kansas to the Final Four in 1991, 1993, 2002 and 2003 and the Tar Heels to the 2005, 2008 and 2009 Final Fours, winning the NCAA championship in '05 and '09. Williams is fourth in NCAA history in Final Four appearances.

NOT EVEN CLOSE

◆ Carolina in 2009 became the first team to win six games by at least 12 points in the same NCAA Tournament. The closest margin was a 72-60 win over Oklahoma in the regional final. The only other team to win its first five games by at least 12 points was the 1981 Indiana team that beat UNC in the championship game. The Hoosiers had a first-round bye and played only five times to win the title.

◆ UNC's average margin of victory was 20.2 points per game in the NCAA Tournament, the highest since Kentucky blitzed the field in 1996.

◆ The Tar Heels trailed for a combined 9:50 in the six NCAA games, including 7:15 in the second round against LSU.

HANSBROUGH REWRITES RECORD BOOK

Tyler Hansbrough set a number of NCAA, ACC and Carolina records in his career, including:

- ◆ NCAA: most free throws made (982)
- ◆ ACC: most points (2,872), most games scoring in double figures (133), most games scoring 20 or more points (78), most free throw attempts (1,241)

◆ Carolina: most field goals made (939), most field goals attempted (1,752), most rebounds (1,219), most career points in the NCAA Tournament (325), most career rebounds in the NCAA Tournament (146)

◆ Hansbrough, the 2008 National Player of the Year, finished in the top three in voting for ACC Player of the Year in all four seasons and was a unanimous pick for the All-ACC team each year.

◆ The Poplar Bluff, Mo., native is the only player in ACC history to lead his school in scoring and rebounding four times.

◆ How successful were the Tar Heels throughout his career? Hansbrough scored 2,452 of his ACC record 2,872 points in Carolina victories – or 162 more than the great Phil Ford scored in his entire Tar Heel career en route to setting the UNC scoring mark that Hansbrough broke on Dec. 18, 2008.

LAWSON WINS COUSY AWARD

◆ North Carolina junior Ty Lawson was the recipient of the 2009 Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard. Lawson accepted the award on Monday April 6 in Detroit.

◆ The Clinton, Md., native was the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA South Regional.

HANSBROUGH, LAWSON EARN ALL-AMERICA HONORS

◆ Tyler Hansbrough and Ty Lawson earned a number of All-America honors during the 2008-09 season.

◆ Hansbrough was named first-team All-America by the Associated Press, NABC, US-BWA, Sporting News and the Los Angeles Athletic Club (Wooden). He earned second-team honors from CBS and Fox.

◆ Lawson earned first-team honors from the NABC, the Los Angeles Athletic Club (Wooden), Sports Illustrated, Basketball Times and CBS. Lawson was a second-team pick by the AP.

101 WINS IN THREE SEASONS

◆ UNC has a record of 101-14 in the last three seasons, the best three-year stretch in school history.

◆ Previously, Carolina's best three-year win total was 90 in 1993-95 and 2006-08.

◆ The current three-year stretch marks the first time UNC has won 30 or more games in three consecutive seasons.

SENIOR CLASS WINS 124TH GAME

◆ The Tar Heel senior class of Mike Cope, Bobby Frasor, Danny Green and Tyler Hansbrough won its 124th game vs. Michigan State to break the school record for wins by a senior class.

Ty Lawson set the single-season ACC record for assist-turnover ratio in 2009 and is second in ACC history in that category.

Robert Crawford

Bobby
Frasor

◆ The class posted a record of 124-22 since the start of its freshman season (2005-06).

◆ The 124 wins broke the previous school record for wins by a class of 123, set by Quentin Thomas in 2008.

◆ Green played in a school-record 123 of those victories and Hansbrough played in 120.

◆ Green played in 145 career games, which is the most in Carolina history (Brendan Haywood played in 141 from 1997-2001).

UNC HAS WON MORE NCAA TOURNAMENT GAMES THAN ANY OTHER PROGRAM

◆ UNC is 102-39 in its 141 NCAA Tournament games. This is the most wins in NCAA Tournament history by any school. Kentucky is second with 98 (the Wildcats actually won 100 but had two wins vacated by the NCAA).

TAR HEELS EARN NCAA-RECORD 13TH NO. 1 SEED

◆ The 2008-09 season marked the 13th time Carolina has been a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the third year in a row, the fourth time in the last five years and the 10th time in the last 19 years.

◆ The Tar Heels have earned more No. 1 seeds than any team in NCAA Tournament history (Duke is second with 10).

◆ 2009 marked the first time Carolina has earned a No. 1 seed three years in a row.

UNC CAREER ASSIST/TURNOVER RATIO LEADERS

Player	A/TO Ratio
Ty Lawson	2.78
King Rice	2.36
Matt Doherty	2.26
Jeff Lebo	2.21
Ed Cota	2.19

Turnovers not recorded for:

Phil Ford	George Karl
Jimmy Black	John Kuester
Walter Davis	Mike O'Koren

FOURTH ACC REGULAR-SEASON TITLE IN FIVE YEARS

◆ When North Carolina beat Duke on March 8, it clinched the outright 2008-09 ACC regular season championship for the third time in the last five years under Roy Williams (2005, 2008 and 2009).

◆ Including a tie atop the ACC standings with Virginia in 2007, Carolina has won or tied for the ACC regular season title in four of the last five years.

◆ The 2009 season marked the 27th time in school history Carolina won at least a share of the ACC regular-season title. UNC has 17 outright regular-season crowns and has tied for the title 10 times.

◆ Williams is the first coach to win four regular-season ACC championships in his first six years as a conference head coach.

HANSBROUGH IS FIRST FOUR-TIME, FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA IN ACC HISTORY

◆ Tyler Hansbrough is the first men's basketball player in ACC history to earn at least one first-team All-America honor in four seasons. The Poplar Bluff, Mo., native was a Sporting News selection in 2006 and earned consensus first-team honors as a sophomore, junior and senior.

LAWSON NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE YEAR, FIRST-TEAM ALL-ACC

◆ Junior Ty Lawson is the 2009 Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. Lawson also was the third-leading vote-getter on the first-team All-ACC squad, earning all-conference honors for the first time.

◆ Lawson is the first point guard in 31 years to win ACC Player of the Year, joining UNC's Phil Ford, who won the award as a senior in 1978.

HANSBROUGH SETS NCAA FREE THROW RECORD

◆ Tyler Hansbrough set a new NCAA record for most free throws made in a career on Feb. 28 versus Georgia Tech.

◆ Hansbrough finished his career with 982 career free throws made.

UNC SINGLE-SEASON ASSIST-TURNOVER RATIO LEADERS

Player	Year	A	TO	A/TO Ratio
Ty Lawson	2009	230	66	3.48
Jeff Lebo	1986	137	46	2.98
King Rice	1991	207	76	2.72
Ty Lawson	2007	213	83	2.57
Jeff McInnis	1995	180	72	2.50

◆ Hansbrough is second in NCAA history in career free throw attempts with 1,241.

HANSBROUGH LEADS UNC IN SCORING & REBOUNDS ALL FOUR SEASONS

◆ Senior Tyler Hansbrough, who led Carolina in both scoring and rebounding in 2008-09, is the first player in ACC history to lead his team in both scoring and rebounding four times.

30 WINS, AGAIN

◆ Carolina defeated LSU in the NCAA second round on March 21 to win its 30th game of the 2008-09 season, reaching the 30-win plateau for the third consecutive season and the 10th time overall.

◆ That marks the first time UNC has won 30 games in three straight seasons (31-7 in 2006-07, 36-3 in 2007-08 and 34-4 in 2008-09). The Tar Heels are 101-14 in the last three seasons, the most wins in any three-year span in school history.

BEST IN ACC UNDER WILLIAMS

◆ Head coach Roy Williams has led UNC to a 176-37 overall record (.826) in his six seasons as the Tar Heels head coach, the most wins and highest winning percentage in the ACC during that stretch. Duke's Mike Krzyzewski is second in both categories at 170-40 (.810).

◆ Williams has a record of 81-28 (.743) against ACC opponents (including both regular season and ACC Tournament games). That ranks second among conference coaches in winning percentage and wins since the start of the 2003-04 season. Krzyzewski is 84-29 (.752) in the span.

◆ In the last three seasons, Williams has led the Tar Heels to a record of 101-14 (.878), the most wins and best winning percentage in the ACC during that stretch by a wide margin. Krzyzewski is second in both categories at 80-24 (.769).

◆ In the last five seasons, Carolina has advanced to four NCAA regional finals, three NCAA Final Fours and won the 2005 and 2009 national titles. The rest of the ACC has combined to make zero regional final appearances during the last five seasons. Carolina is 20-3 in the NCAA Tournament in the last five years. The rest of the ACC is 20-22 in the NCAA Tournament in that span.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Tar Heels went 13-3 in ACC play in 2009, winning their 27th regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference championship. UNC has won 17 regular-season championships outright, shared 10 others and won 17 ACC Tournament titles. Carolina's 27 regular-season titles are nine more than Duke and four more than the other 10 ACC teams combined.

ACC 50

The Tar Heels placed 12 on the ACC 50th Anniversary Team, more than any other school. Carolina's honorees included Lennie Rosenbluth, Billy Cunningham, Larry Miller, Charles Scott, Bobby Jones, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty and Antawn Jamison.

ACC PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Twelve Tar Heels have been named ACC Player of the Year, including Larry Miller, who won the award in 1967 and 1968. Other Tar Heel recipients include Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Pete Brennan (1958), Lee Shaffer (1960), Billy Cunningham (1965), Mitch Kupchak (1976), Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984), Antawn Jamison (1998), Joseph Forte (2001), Tyler Hansbrough (2008) and Ty Lawson (2009).

When Hansbrough and Lawson started against LSU in the second round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament, it marked the first time in ACC history that two active ACC Players of the Year were on the court at the same time.

ALL-AMERICAS

Forty-nine Tar Heels have earned All-America honors, including 34 first-team honorees. The most recent first-team selections are Tyler Hansbrough in 2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09, and Ty Lawson in 2008-09. Hansbrough is the first player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors in each of his four seasons.

Jack Cobb (1924-26), Phil Ford (1976-78), Mike O'Koren (1978-80) and Sam Perkins (1982-84) earned first-team All-America honors on three occasions. Hansbrough, Ford, O'Koren, Perkins, NC State's David Thompson and Virginia's Ralph Sampson are the only players in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors at least three times.

Sixteen Tar Heels have earned consensus first-team All-America honors a total of 25 times, which is second in NCAA history. They include Cartwright Carmichael (1923 and 1924), Jack Cobb (1924, 1925 and 1926), George Glackman (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1968), Robert McAdoo (1972), Ford (1977 and 1978), James Worthy (1982), Michael Jordan (1983 and 1984), Perkins (1983 and 1984), Kenny Smith (1987), J.R. Reid (1988), Jerry Stackhouse (1995), Antawn Jamison (1998), Joseph Forte (2001) and Tyler Hansbrough (2007, 2008 and 2009).

Hansbrough became the 14th player since 1945 to earn consensus first-team All-America honors three times. He was the first since Georgetown's Patrick Ewing and Oklahoma's Wayman Tisdale in 1985.

ALL-ACC

Carolina has placed 69 players on the All-ACC first team, the most in league history. Duke is second with 56. Tyler Hansbrough was a unanimous selection in 2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09. He is the only player to earn first-team All-ACC honors four times. Point guard Ty Lawson was also a first-team selection in 2008-09 and was the ACC Player of the Year, the first point guard to win the award since Carolina's Phil Ford in 1978.

Last year marked the 22nd season in which two Tar Heels made first-team All-ACC. Duke is second with 15 seasons with multiple selections. The rest of the ACC has combined to accomplish that just 21 times.

In addition to Hansbrough, six Tar Heels earned first-team honors three times – Lennie Rosenbluth (1956-58), York Larese (1959-61), Billy Cunningham (1963-65), Charles Scott (1968-70), Phil Ford (1976-78), Sam Perkins (1982-84) and Antawn Jamison (1996-98).

DRAFT DAY

Carolina has had 96 players selected in the NBA Draft, including 39 players taken in the first round. The Tar Heels have had 20 players drafted in the first round in the last 21 years, including Tyler Hansbrough, Ty Lawson and Wayne Ellington in 2009.

Carolina has had more first round draft picks – 28 – since 1980 than any school in the country.

In 2005, Marvin Williams (2nd), Raymond Felton (5th), Sean May (13th) and Rashad McCants (14th) made UNC the first school to have four players taken in the NBA Draft Lottery.

UNC's James Worthy and Brad Daugherty were selected No. 1 overall in the draft. The Los Angeles Lakers selected Worthy in 1982; the Cleveland Cavaliers took Daugherty No. 1 in 1986.

Michael Jordan was the third player selected in the 1984 Draft behind Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston) and Sam Bowie (Portland).

FINAL FOUR

Carolina has played in 18 Final Fours, more than any school in the nation. The Tar Heels played in the Final Four in 1946, 1957, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1977, 1981, 1982, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2009. The Tar Heels won the NCAA title in 1957, 1982, 1993, 2005 and 2009.

Carolina is the only school to play in the Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

Rusty Clark (1967-69), Bill Bunting (1967-69) and Ed Cota (1997-98, 2000) started in three different Final Fours. Carolina holds the NCAA record for most players who have played in a Final Four with 155.

FINAL FOUR MVPS

Wayne Ellington scored 19 points, 17 in the decisive opening half, to lead UNC past Michigan State and earn Most Outstanding Player honors at the 2009 Final Four. Ellington is the fourth Tar Heel to win the award, along with

Champions

James Worthy in 1982 (28 points vs. Georgetown), Donald Williams in 1993 (25 points in semifinals vs. Kansas and 25 points vs. Michigan in championship) and Sean May in 2005 (26 points and 10 rebounds vs. Illinois in championship). Ellington set the Final Four record for highest three-point percentage in the Final Four. Ellington made 8 of 10 three-pointers (.800) and broke Donald Williams' record (10 of 14, .714) set in 1993.

500 ACC WINS

The Tar Heels have won 575 regular-season ACC games, more than any other school in league history. Duke is second with 520. Maryland (405) and NC State (397) are the only other ACC schools with at least 350 ACC wins.

FRESHMEN

Ed Davis was an ACC All-Freshman Team selection in 2008-09. He is the 14th Tar Heel named to the ACC All-Freshman Team since its inception in 1992-93. Davis joins a list that includes Ty Lawson and Brandan Wright (2007), Tyler Hansbrough (2006), Marvin Williams (2005), Raymond Felton (2003), Rashad McCants (2003), Jawad Williams (2002), Joseph Forte (2000), Kris Lang (1999), Ed Cota (1997), Antawn Jamison (1996), Jerry Stackhouse (1994) and Rasheed Wallace (1994) as All-ACC Freshman selections.

Eight Carolina players have been named ACC Rookie of the Year, including Sam Perkins (1981), Michael Jordan (1982), J.R. Reid (1987), Ed Cota (1997), Joseph Forte (2000), Marvin Williams (2005), Tyler Hansbrough (2006) and Brandan Wright (2007).

Twenty-six Tar Heels have started their first game, the most recent being Tyler Zeller against Penn on Nov. 15, 2008.

HALL OF FAMERS

Nine Tar Heel coaches and players are members of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, including 2009 inductee Michael Jordan and Carolina head coach Roy Williams, who was inducted in 2007. Larry Brown, Ben Carnevale (coach), Billy Cunningham (player/coach), Jordan, Robert McAdoo, Frank McGuire (coach), Dean Smith (coach), Williams (coach) and James Worthy are Carolina's Hall of Famers.

NATIONAL PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Eleven Tar Heels have won National Player of the Year honors, including consensus winners Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984), Antawn Jamison (1998) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008). Other winners include Jack Cobb (1926), George Glamack (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), James Worthy (1982), Kenny Smith (1987), Jerry Stackhouse (1995) and Sean May (2005). Jordan, named by eight organizations as a junior, also was the Sporting News' pick as a sophomore in 1983.

Associated Press (since 1961) – Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998), Hansbrough (2008)

Wooden Award (since 1977) – Ford (1978), Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998), Hansbrough (2008)

NABC (since 1975) – Ford (1978), Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998), Hansbrough (2008)

USBWA (since 1959) – Ford (1978), Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998), Hansbrough (2008)

NBA CHAMPIONS

Mitch Kupchak has won nine NBA championship rings and Michael Jordan has won six. They are among 13 former Tar Heels who have gone on to win NBA championship rings as players. Those 13 players have accounted for 29 rings.

NBA 50

In the late 1990s, the NBA selected its All-Time 50 Greatest Players. Former Tar Heels Billy Cunningham, Michael Jordan and James Worthy were named to the team. Carolina, Houston and LSU were the only schools to have three players on the team.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Carolina has won 102 games in the NCAA Tournament, more than any other school in the history of the event. The Tar Heels are second in appearances with 41 and in games played with 141, which is one fewer than Kentucky. The Tar Heels established an all-time record with 27 consecutive trips to the Tournament from 1975-2001. UNC has the third-best win percentage (.723) in Tournament history.

NO. 1

Carolina has been ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Associated Press poll in 18 different seasons since the AP began its rankings in 1948-49. Those seasons include 1957, 1958, 1959, 1978, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987, 1988, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2007, 2008 and 2009.

The Tar Heels have been No. 1 on 105 occasions. Carolina is second in weeks ranked No. 1 in the country behind UCLA (128).

Carolina has been ranked in the Top 10 in 591 polls. That is the second-highest figure in NCAA basketball history. Carolina has appeared in the AP poll 761 times, more than any other school in history. Duke is second in ACC history, having been ranked 621 times.

Carolina is the only school in the country with 12 wins over the No. 1 ranked team in the AP poll, including most recently a victory at Duke in 2006.

NO. 1 VS. NO. 2

Carolina has played in seven games involving the top two ranked teams in the country in the Associated Press poll and the Tar Heels are 7-0 in those games (4-0 as No. 1 and 3-0 as No. 2).

A list of those games:

March 23, 1957 – No. 1 UNC 54, No. 2 Kansas 53
Dec. 26, 1981 – No. 1 UNC 82, No. 2 Kentucky 69
Jan. 9, 1982 – No. 1 UNC 65, No. 2 Virginia 60
Feb. 4, 1986 – No. 1 UNC 78, No. 2 Ga. Tech 77
Feb. 3, 1994 – No. 2 UNC 89, No. 1 Duke 78
Feb. 5, 1998 – No. 2 UNC 97, No. 1 Duke 73
Apr. 4, 2005 – No. 2 UNC 75, No. 1 Illinois 70

1,000-POINT SCORERS

Carolina has had 62 players score 1,000 points. That figure is the highest in the nation. Tar Heels Tyler Hansbrough (2,872), Phil Ford (2,290), Sam Perkins (2,145), Lennie Rosenbluth (2,045), Al Wood (2,015) and Charles Scott (2,007) each netted at least 2,000 points.

WINS

The Tar Heels have won 1,984 basketball games, the second-most in NCAA history. Kentucky is first with 1,988 wins, four more than the Tar Heels. Carolina, Kentucky and Kansas are the only programs in the country with at least 1,900 wins. Carolina is also second in NCAA history in winning percentage at .738.

played at Carmichael Auditorium.

Dec. 16, 1965: Lewis scores a UNC-record 49 points in 115-80 win over Florida State, a mark that stands today. Lewis goes 18 of 25 from the floor and 13 of 16 from the line and adds seven boards and five assists. He averages 27.4 points that year, second-best ever by a Tar Heel.

March 4, 1966: Mike Lewis hits a free throw to break a 20-all tie and give second-ranked Duke a 21-20 win in the ACC semifinals. John Yokley and Duke's Steve Vacendak share game-scoring honors with six points. Only a combined 36 field goal attempts are taken in a classic delay game. The Blue Devils led 7-5 at halftime.

March 11, 1967: Carolina had won the ACC regular-season title for the first time under Dean Smith, then beat Duke for the third time, 82-73, to win Smith's first ACC Tournament crown. MVP Larry Miller had 32 points and Lewis added 26.

March 17, 1967: Fourth-ranked Carolina beats No. 5 Princeton for Dean Smith's first NCAA Tournament win. Lewis earns regional MVP honors as UNC beats Boston College the next day to advance to the Final Four, where they lose to Dayton in the national semifinal.

Feb. 21, 1968: Rusty Clark sets a UNC record with 30 rebounds in 83-60 win over Maryland.

March 2, 1968: Third-ranked UNC had already clinched its second straight ACC regular-season title, but loses in triple overtime at 10th-ranked Duke, 87-86. Miller plays all 55 minutes and has 15 points and 15 rebounds.

March 9, 1968: Miller (21 points) earns his second ACC Tournament MVP in a row as Carolina beats NC State, 87-50, still the largest margin in ACC championship game history.

March 15-16, 1968: Fourth-ranked Tar Heels beat No. 3 St. Bonaventure and No. 8 Davidson behind regional MVP Clark to advance to Final Four. Clark has 22 points and 17 rebounds in regional final. Tar Heels beat Ohio State in Final Four, but fall to Lew Alcindor and UCLA, 78-55, for national title in Los Angeles Sports Arena.

Feb. 26, 1969: Bill Bunting leads balanced effort with 14 points as Tar Heels beat South Carolina in Columbia to wrap up third straight ACC regular-season title.

March 8, 1969: Charles Scott scores 40 points, 29 in the second half, as Carolina beats Duke, 85-74 in ACC title game. Duke leads by nine at the half, but Scott sets ACC championship game scoring record and wins MVP honors.

March 15, 1969: Scott hits the game-winning jumper at the buzzer to beat Lefty Driesell's Davidson Wildcats, 87-85, to win the NCAA East Regional and advance to a third consecutive Final Four. Carolina loses to Purdue behind Rick Mount's 36 points.

Jan. 17, 1970: Scott scores 43 in 91-90 loss to Wake Forest. Later that year, the ACC's leading scorer and co-Male Athlete of the Year scores 41 points in ACC Tournament loss to Virginia. Scott averages 27.1 points, the third-highest mark by a Tar Heel.

March 13, 1971: South Carolina beats UNC, 52-51, on a Tom Owens lay-up at the buzzer in the ACC championship game. Ow-est, 101-100, in overtime in the quarterfinal after trailing by eight points with 50 seconds to play. Brad Hoffman sends the game into overtime with a 12-foot jumper with two seconds to play. Ford scores 29 and UNC needs overtime again to knock out Clemson in semifinals, then scores 24 in the championship game win over Norm Sloan's Wolfpack.

Feb. 14, 1976: Mitch Kupchak has 35 points and 21 rebounds and Davis has 26 points, 11 boards and six steals as Carolina works four overtimes to beat Tulane, 113-106, in the Louisiana Superdome. It is the longest game in Carolina history.

March 8, 1976: Wally Walker scores 21 points to lead sixth-seeded Virginia to 67-62 win over regular-season champion UNC in ACC championship game.

March 5, 1977: Ford scores 26 and freshman Mike O'Koren adds 21 as Carolina returns the favor from a year before, beating Virginia, 75-69, in the ACC final. Tournament MVP John Kuester handles the ball after Ford fouls out with 5:45 to play and goes 6 for 6 from the line. Ford scores 19 of his 26 in the first half. Bruce

Buckley gives UNC the lead for good, breaking a 67-all tie.

March 17, 1977: Ford hyper-extends his right elbow, but scores 29 points, including the winning free throw with two seconds left in 79-77 win over Notre Dame (on St. Patrick's Day) in the NCAA East Regional semifinal.

March 19, 1977: Davis, playing with a broken finger on his shooting hand, scores 21 points as fifth-ranked UNC beats No. 13 Kentucky, 79-72, to reach the Final Four.

March 26, 1977: O'Koren scores 31 as Tar Heels edge No. 4 UNLV, 84-83, in national semifinal. Carolina loses a second-half lead and the championship two days later to Al McGuire's Marquette Warriors, 67-59.

Jan. 7, 1978: The Tar Heels set an NCAA field goal percentage record by making 16 of 17 shots from the floor in the second half. Carolina shoots 94.1 percent in second half of 76-61 victory over Virginia.

Feb. 25, 1978: Ford scores a career-high 34 points on 13 of 19 shooting from the floor in his final game at Carmichael Auditorium, an 87-83 win over Duke. Ford clinches third straight ACC regular-season title with two free throws with six seconds left.

Dec. 16, 1978: O'Koren's 18 points and six assists out-duels "Magic" Johnson's 18 points, six assists and eight turnovers in UNC's 70-69 win over No. 3 Michigan State. The Spartans went on to win the 1979 NCAA title.

Jan. 17, 1979: Dudley Bradley steals the ball from Clyde Austin and dunks home the game-winner with seconds to play in a 70-69 win over NC State in a game that stuns the Reynolds Coliseum crowd. Carolina led 40-19, but the Pack came back to take the lead before Bradley's heroics.

Feb. 24, 1979: Carolina holds the ball in the first half and fails to score as Duke leads, 7-0, at intermission. The Tar Heels wait 12:25 into the game before attempting a shot. Both teams score 40 in the second half and Duke wins, 47-40, in one of the most famous delay games ever played.

March 3, 1979: One week after the 47-40 game in Durham, No. 7 Carolina beats No. 5 Duke, 71-63, in ACC Tournament final. Bradley, the MVP, had 16 points, seven steals and four assists and O'Koren led with 18 points.

March 11, 1979: ACC champion Tar Heels, ranked No. 3 in the nation, are upset by Penn, 72-71, in Raleigh in the NCAA Tournament. Quaker forward Tony Price scores 25. Duke loses to St. John's the same day in what was dubbed "Black Sunday."

Jan. 12, 1980: Al Wood scores 20 and Dave Colescott adds 18 as 15th-ranked Tar Heels knock off No. 1 Duke at Cameron.

Feb. 28, 1981: Duke's Gene Banks hit a turnaround baseline jumper to beat Carolina, 66-65, in overtime. Banks scored 25 points. Freshman Sam Perkins led UNC with 24.

March 7, 1981: Carolina overcomes a 36-32 halftime deficit by shooting 63 percent in the second half and beats Maryland, 61-60, in the ACC championship game. James Worthy leads with 19. Jimmy Black's steal and lay-up give Carolina the lead for good. Perkins scores 22 in quarterfinal vs. NC State and 18 in semifinal vs. Wake Forest and becomes the second freshman to earn ACC Tournament MVP honors.

March 28, 1981: Senior forward Wood, who was the West Regional MVP after a 21-point, 17-rebound effort in Final 8 win over Kansas State, torches Virginia for 39 points in the Final Four. Wood sets a national semifinal scoring record by making 14 of 19 from the floor and 11 of 13 from the line. Perkins holds National Player of the Year Ralph Sampson to three field goals and 11 points.

March 30, 1981: Isiah Thomas has 23 points, five assists and four steals to lead Indiana past UNC, 63-50, in the NCAA championship game in Philadelphia. Wood leads Carolina with 18 points. The game tips off less than eight hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. The game is almost postponed due to the events in Washington, D.C.

Nov. 28, 1981: Michael Jordan scores 12 points in his debut with the top-ranked Tar Heels, a 74-67 win over Kansas.

Dec. 26, 1981: Worthy (26), Perkins (21) and Jordan (19) combine for 66 points as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 82-69, in the N.J. Meadowlands. It's the first and only time the two schools that rank 1-2 in all-time victories will play as the top two ranked teams in the AP poll.

Jan. 9, 1982: In another No. 1 vs. No. 2 match-up, top-rated Carolina edges Virginia, 65-60, despite Sampson's 30 points and 19 rebounds. Worthy and Jordan combine for 33 points.

March 7, 1982: Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina spreads the floor and beats the Cavaliers, 47-45, for the ACC championship. Matt Doherty makes three of four free throws in the final 28 seconds to secure the win and the ACC title. Virginia shoots 67 percent from the floor, but only gets 33 field goal attempts. Worthy leads UNC with 16 points.

March 27, 1982: Perkins scores 25 points and grabs 10 rebounds and Jordan drops in 18 as UNC beats Houston, 68-63, in the Final Four semifinal in New Orleans. The Tar Heels shoot 59 percent from the floor.

March 29, 1982: Final Four MVP Worthy scores a game-high 28 points and Michael Jordan hits the game-winning shot from the left wing with 17 seconds to play as Carolina beats Georgetown 63-62 in one of the Final Four's greatest championship games ever played. Worthy makes 13 of 17 shots from the floor and has three steals, including one at the end of the game that seals the victory. Jordan scores 16, and Georgetown's freshman center Patrick Ewing has 23 points and 11 rebounds. The win gives Dean Smith his first of two NCAA championships. The Tar Heels trail, 32-31, at halftime, but shoot 61 percent in the second half (11 of 18).

Nov. 30, 1982: Defending NCAA champs drop their first two games against St. John's and Missouri but avoid an 0-3 start when Jordan comes up with a steal and a spinning, 24-foot jumper at the buzzer to send the Tulane game into overtime. UNC wins, 70-68 in triple OT.

Jan. 15, 1983: Perkins scores 36 in Charlottesville and Tar Heels knock off second-ranked Virginia, 101-95.

Feb. 10, 1983: Top-ranked Carolina trails No. 3 Virginia by 16 points in the second half and by 10 with 4:12 to play, but pulls out an improbable 64-63 win, one of the most memorable ever in Carmichael Auditorium. Jordan's offensive rebound basket pulls the Tar Heels to within a point, then Jordan strips Rick Carlisle of the ball and slams home the go-ahead basket.

Dec. 3, 1983: Second-ranked Carolina wins at Stanford, 88-75, to give Dean Smith his 500th victory.

Feb. 12, 1984: Joe Klein scores 20 as Eddie Sutton's Arkansas Razorbacks upset No. 1 Carolina, 66-65, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Jordan scores 21 in defeat.

March 3, 1984: Playing his final home game, Doherty hits a runner in the lane that ties the game at the end of regulation and the Tar Heels beat Duke in two overtimes, 96-83, to preserve a perfect 14-0 mark in the ACC. Jordan and Perkins, also playing in their Carmichael finales, score 25 apiece and Steve Hale has 13 assists.

March 22, 1984: Freshman guard Steve Alford scores 27 points to lead unranked Indiana to a 72-68 win over No. 1 Carolina in the NCAA second round in Atlanta. Perkins scores 26 in his final game as a Tar Heel and finishes his career first at UNC in rebounding and second in scoring. Jordan battles foul trouble and an injured finger, scoring 13 points in just 26 minutes before fouling out. The Hoosiers shoot 69 percent (11 for 16) in the second half and 65 percent for the game.

Dec. 27, 1985: Ranzino Smith and Kevin Madden both score 17 points to lead nine players in double figures as Carolina scores a school-record 129 points in 129-45 win over Manhattan in Miami.

Jan. 4, 1986: Brad Daugherty scores 28 points in 90-79 win over NC State in the final regular-season game played in Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels conclude play there with a 169-20 record.

Jan. 18, 1986: Hale scores 28 and Daugherty adds 23 and 11 rebounds as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in first game played in the Smith Center.

Feb. 4, 1986: Daugherty's 22 points and Joe Wolf's 14 points and 13 rebounds lead No. 1 UNC past No. 2 Georgia Tech, 78-77, in overtime in Atlanta.

Feb. 20, 1986: Len Bias scores 35 points to lead Maryland to a 77-72 overtime win, UNC's first loss in the Smith Center.

March 7, 1987: Joe Wolf scores 27 and Jeff Lebo nets 22 in 84-82, double-overtime win over Virginia in the ACC semifinals. The next day, sixth-seeded NC State goes 14 for 14 from the line and beats the top-seeded Tar Heels, 67-66, for the ACC title.

March 21, 1987: No. 10 Syracuse upsets No. 2-ranked Carolina, 79-75, in the NCAA East Regional final. Rony Seikaly leads the Orange with 26 points. Kenny Smith has 25 points and seven assists in his final game as a Tar Heel.

Nov. 21, 1987: In a rematch of the previous year's regional final, Carolina beats No. 1 ranked Syracuse, 96-93, in overtime in the Hall of Fame Classic. Playing without a suspended J.R. Reid, the Tar Heels rally from an 11-point halftime deficit. Ranzino Smith (21), Lebo (20) and freshmen Rick Fox (15) and Pete Chilcutt (14) lead UNC.

March 19, 1988: Carolina shoots a school-record 79.0 percent from the floor (49 of 62) in 123-97 rout over Loyola Marymount in NCAA Tournament second round. Ranzino Smith makes 11 of 14 shots, scoring 27 points. UNC has 36 assists on 49 baskets. Carolina has 26 turnovers, 20 more than Loyola, and wins by 26.

Nov. 18, 1988: Lebo sets school record with 17 assists in 111-84 win over Chattanooga in Preseason NIT.

Feb. 5, 1992: A bloodied Eric Montross and UNC beat No. 1-ranked Duke, 75-73.

Jan. 18, 1989: Playing without Lebo, who was injured in 106-83 loss at Virginia the previous game, UNC defeats No. 1 and unbeaten Duke, 91-71, in Durham. Scott Williams scores 22 to lead the Tar Heels.

March 12, 1989: Steve Bucknall's three-point play with 1:46 left breaks a 66-all tie and Tournament MVP Reid leads with 14 points as UNC beats Duke, 77-74, in Atlanta to win Carolina's first ACC championship in seven years. The game is one of the most intense in ACC history. Carolina commits 26 turnovers, but holds Duke to 39 percent shooting, including 3 of 23 from three-point range.

Nov. 24, 1989: King Rice's bank shot at the buzzer beats James Madison, 80-79, in the first round of the Maui Invitational. Carolina rallies from a 79-70 deficit with less than a minute to play.

Dec. 27, 1989: Rice (22) and Fox (20) lead seven Tar Heels in double figures as UNC beats Kentucky, 121-110, in Louisville.

March 17, 1990: Fox banks in the game-winner as time expires and eighth-seeded Carolina beats No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, 79-77, in the NCAA second round to send UNC to its ninth consecutive Sweet 16.

Jan. 9, 1991: Hubert Davis scores 25 in a 105-73 win over Maryland, Dean Smith's 700th win. He is the first ACC coach to win 700 games.

Feb. 7, 1991: Carolina beats NC State, 92-70, in Chapel Hill. The night before, the same teams play in Raleigh, a 97-91 Wolfpack win. The Feb. 7 game, which is also Carolina's 1500th victory, is re-scheduled from Jan. 15, 1991, because of the outbreak of the Gulf War.

March 10, 1991: Tournament MVP Fox scores 25, Davis adds 17 and Rice has seven assists and no turnovers as Carolina routs Duke, 96-74, in ACC championship game. Duke had won both regular-season games.

March 24, 1991: NCAA East Regional MVP Fox and Davis each score 19 points as Carolina holds off Mark Macon and Temple, 75-72, to advance to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Macon scores 31 and narrowly misses a long three-pointer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

March 30, 1991: Davis leads all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shoots 38 percent in the game (3 of 18 from three-point range) and falls to Kansas, 79-73, in Indianapolis in the Final Four. The Jayhawks are coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams.

Feb. 2, 1992: Derrick Phelps sets UNC record for steals with nine in 86-76 win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 5, 1992: In a game most remembered for blood streaming down the back of Eric Montross' head, UNC beats defending NCAA champion and No. 1 Duke, 75-73, causing the students to rush the floor for the first time ever at the Smith Center.

Feb. 8, 1992: Carolina trails Wake Forest by 22 points but rallies for an 80-78 win on Brian Rees's buzzer-beating jumper. The Deacons led by 11 with 6:17 to play, before a 10-0 run by UNC. Davis led the Tar Heels with 30.

Dec. 29, 1992: Jalen Rose's offensive rebound basket at the buzzer gives No. 6 Michigan a 79-78 win over No. 5 Carolina in the semifinals of the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The teams would meet again later that season.

Jan. 27, 1993: Florida State leads by 17 at halftime and 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. Carolina reels off 15 straight points, however, and takes the lead for good on a George Lynch steal and dunk with just under two minutes to play. Donald Williams seals the win at the free throw line as UNC outscoring the Seminoles, 28-4, over the last nine minutes.

March 28, 1993: Cincinnati's Nick Van Exel scores 21 first-half points and the Bearcats lead Carolina by as many as 15 in the first half. Then Derrick Phelps clamps down on Van Exel and East Regional MVP Lynch scores 21 and grabs 14 rebounds in 75-68 overtime win to send Carolina to the Final Four. Lynch had 22 against Arkansas in the regional semifinal. Williams had 22 and 20 in the two regional games.

April 5, 1993: Final Four MVP Williams score 25 points for the second Final Four game in a row, Montross scores 16 and Lynch posts his fourth straight double-double as Carolina avenges earlier loss to Michigan with 77-71 victory. The win gives Dean Smith his second NCAA championship. Williams hits 5 of 7 three-pointers in both Final Four games, including a 78-68 win over Roy Williams-led Kansas in the semifinal.

Feb. 3, 1994: Carolina prevails, 89-78, in the first-ever meeting against Duke in which the schools are ranked 1-2 in the country. Second-ranked Tar Heels get 18 points, six assists and no turnovers from Phelps.

March 12, 1994: ACC Tournament classic as UNC erases five-point deficit late in regulation and beats Wake Forest, 86-84 in overtime. Dante Calabria send the game to overtime and Jerry Stackhouse wins it. It is Dean Smith's 800th win.

March 20, 1994: No. 1 Carolina is knocked out of the NCAA Tournament in the second round, 75-72, by Boston College.

Feb. 2, 1995: Stackhouse (25), Rasheed Wallace (25) and Williams (24) combined for 74 points as Carolina beats Duke, 102-100, in double overtime. Blue Devil guard Jeff Capel sends the game into a second overtime with a halfcourt three-pointer, but a Jeff McInnis steal and basket provides the winning margin for UNC.

March 11-12, 1995: Wallace scores 33 in overtime win over Maryland in ACC semifinals, then sprains an ankle late in the championship game against Wake Forest. The Deacons, led by 37 points from Randolph Childress, beat Carolina, 82-80, in overtime.

March 25, 1995: No. 4 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 74-61, in Birmingham to advance to Final Four. Regional MVP Stackhouse has 18 points, 12 rebounds, six assists, two steals and two blocks. UNC falls to Arkansas in the Final Four, in part due to a leg injury Stackhouse suffers 12 seconds into the national semifinal.

Jan. 8, 1997: Carolina leads Maryland in Chapel Hill by 22, but the Terps outscore UNC, 41-9, to win 85-75. UNC would begin ACC play 0-3 and avoids an 0-4 start by outscoring NC State 12-0 in the final two minutes of a 59-56 win on Jan. 15.

Feb. 12, 1997: Ed Cota's baseline floater with 4.5 seconds to play gives Carolina a 45-44 win at NC State. It is the fewest points ever by Carolina in a Dean Smith victory.

March 8-9, 1997: ACC Tournament MVP Shammond Williams scores 24 in semifinals vs. Wake Forest and 23 in championship vs. NC State as Carolina wins ACC Tournament for 13th and final time under Dean Smith.

March 15, 1997: Carolina beats Colorado, 73-56, in NCAA Tournament second round in Winston-Salem. The news of the day is Dean Smith's 877th victory, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record for coaches.

March 23, 1997: Shammond Williams scores 22 and Vince Carter adds 18 as Carolina beats Louisville, 97-74, to send Dean Smith to his 11th Final Four. Smith would coach his final game, a 66-58 loss to Arizona, in Indianapolis on March 29, 1997.

Oct. 9, 1997: Dean Smith retires after 36 years as head coach. Bill Guthridge, Smith's assistant for 30 years, is named head coach. Guthridge leads UNC to a 34-4 record, ACC title and Final Four berth, and is named National Coach of the Year.

Feb. 5, 1998: Antawn Jamison, the 1998 National Player of the Year, scores 35 points as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Duke, 97-73.

Feb. 8, 1998: Shammond Williams scores 42 in 107-100 double overtime win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 11, 1998: Carolina wins its 1700th game, a 60-45 victory at Virginia.

March 8, 1998: Jamison shakes off a leg injury and earns ACC Tournament MVP honors with 22 points and 18 rebounds. The Tar Heels score last 15 points in 83-68 win over top-ranked Duke in ACC Tournament championship. Carolina later advances to Final Four as the top-ranked team with a 75-64 win over Connecticut, but is upset by 7th-ranked Utah, 65-59.

March 19, 2000: Joseph Forte scores 17 points and Cota has 10 assists to lead No. 8 seed Carolina to a 60-53 win over top seed Stanford in the NCAA second round.

March 24-26, 2000: Wins over Tennessee and Tulsa send Guthridge to his second Final Four in three years as head coach. Freshman Forte scores 28 in 59-55 regional final win over Tulsa. Guthridge retires in June 2000 with a three-year record of 80-28.

Nov. 10-11, 2000: Carolina beats Winthrop, 66-61, in Matt Doherty's first game as head coach. The next night, Forte drops 38 on Tulsa to set the Smith Center scoring record (since broken by Tyler Hansbrough).

Dec. 4/17, 2000: Brendan Haywood and Jason Capel post triple-doubles in wins over Miami and Buffalo, respectively.

Feb. 1, 2001: Haywood hits two free throws with one second to play to give UNC an 85-83 win at Duke. Forte is sensational with 24 points, 16 rebounds, six assists and three steals.

Feb. 2, 1995: Jerry Stackhouse (above) and Rasheed Wallace both score 25 points in a 102-100, double overtime win at Duke.

Jan. 9, 2002: Juan Dixon scores 29 as Maryland beats UNC, 112-79, the most points ever allowed by Carolina in a regulation game. The Tar Heels would finish the year 8-20, missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1974.

Nov. 18, 2002: Rashad McCants scores 28 points in his freshman debut and starts with Raymond Felton and Sean May – the first time in history the Tar Heels start three freshmen – in 85-55 win over Penn State.

Nov. 27, 2002: McCants scores 25 as Tar Heels upset Roy Williams and No. 2 Kansas, 67-56, in Preseason NIT semifinals. UNC knocks off Stanford two nights later to win the title.

Feb. 8, 2003: Jawad Williams scores 20 in 61-60 win over Florida State, making UNC the first school with 500 ACC victories.

March 14, 2003: Three weeks after losing by 40 points at Maryland, Carolina upsets the Terps, 84-72, in ACC quarterfinals behind 25 points from Jawad Williams and 20 points, 10 assists from Felton.

Nov. 22, 2003: Carolina beats Old Dominion, 90-64, in Roy Williams' first game as head coach. Williams took over the program on April 14, 2003, two weeks after Doherty resigned. Doherty went 53-43 in three seasons.

Dec. 7, 2003: Felton sets a UNC record with 18 assists against George Mason.

Dec. 20, 2003: Wake Forest tops Carolina, 119-114 in triple overtime, in one of the ACC's most memorable regular-season games ever played.

Jan. 17, 2004: No. 9 Carolina beats No. 1 Connecticut, 86-83, as McCants scores 27, including UNC's final 10 points. His three-pointer with six seconds to play beats the Huskies, who later that year win the NCAA title.

March 6, 2005: Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds left gives Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke as the Tar Heels clinch first in the ACC regular-season standings outright for the first time since 1993. May has a game-high 26 points and 24 rebounds, the most ever by a player in the Smith Center.

March 27, 2005: May earns Syracuse Regional MVP honors with 29 points and 12 rebounds in an 88-82 win over Wisconsin that sends Roy Williams to the Final Four for the first time as UNC's head coach. McCants hits a go-ahead three-pointer late and blocks a Badger three-point attempt to preserve the win.

April 2, 2005: Senior captain Jawad Williams scores 20 points and the Tar Heels hold Michigan State to 29 percent shooting from the floor in the second half in an 87-71 UNC win in the national semifinals.

April 4, 2005: Marvin Williams tips in the game-winner with 1:17 to play, Final Four MVP Sean May has a game-high 26 points and Raymond Felton makes key plays down the stretch as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Illinois, 75-70, to win UNC's fourth NCAA title and the first for Coach Roy Williams. Felton hits a three to break a 65-all tie, then adds a steal and three clutch free throws in the final minute. The Illini went 12 for 40 from three-point range.

June 28, 2005: Carolina becomes the first school to have four lottery selections in one NBA Draft as Marvin Williams (2), Felton (5), May (13) and McCants (14) go in the first 14 picks.

Feb. 15, 2006: Tyler Hansbrough scores an ACC-freshman-record 40 points in an 82-75 win over Georgia Tech in the Smith Center.

March 4, 2006: Carolina beats No. 1 Duke 83-76 on Senior Night in Durham. The Tar Heels' four freshmen (Bobby Frasor, Marcus Ginyard, Danny Green and Hansbrough) outscored Duke's four seniors (including first-team All-Americas J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams), 55-51.

Dec. 9, 2006: Hansbrough scores 24 and Carolina routs High Point, 94-69, to give Roy Williams his 500th win as a college head coach. Williams reached the mark in his 19th season, faster than any coach in history.

March 11, 2007: Brandan Wright becomes the fifth freshman to win ACC Tournament MVP honors after leading UNC to its first ACC title since 1998. Wright had 20 points in the semifinal and 16 in the championship against NC State.

March 16, 2008: Wayne Ellington scores 24 points as Carolina wins its 17th ACC Tournament with an 86-81 win over Clemson.

March 23, 2008: Hansbrough breaks Christian Laettner's ACC record for career free throws against Arkansas in the NCAA Tournament second round in Raleigh, N.C. Hansbrough set the UNC record on Feb. 3 at Florida State.

March 29, 2008: Hansbrough has 28 points and 13 rebounds and is named East Regional MVP as UNC beats Louisville to reach its 17th NCAA Final Four.

April 6, 2009: Wayne Ellington wins Final Four MOP honors after scoring 19 points in the title-game victory over Michigan State.

Dec. 18, 2008: Hansbrough scores with 7:42 to play in the first half against Evansville for his 2,292nd point, breaking Phil Ford's UNC scoring record.

Feb. 28, 2009: Hansbrough makes his 906th career free throw in UNC's win over Georgia Tech, breaking Dickie Hemric's (Wake Forest) NCAA record, set in 1955. Hansbrough finishes his career with 982 made free throws.

March 19, 2009: Hansbrough sinks a free throw in the first half of the NCAA Tournament first round win over Radford, giving him 2,770 points and breaking J.J. Redick's (Duke) ACC scoring mark. He finished with 2,872 points, 12th in NCAA history.

March 29, 2009: Ty Lawson, the 2009 Bob Cousy Award winner, scores 21 points and earns South Regional MVP honors as No. 1 seed UNC beats No. 2 seed Oklahoma, 72-60, in Memphis, Tenn., to send the Tar Heels to their record 18th Final Four.

April 6, 2009: Final Four MVP Ellington scores 17 of his 19 points in the first half, Lawson has a game-high 21 points and sets a Final Four record with eight steals and Hansbrough scores 18 points to cap his brilliant career as the Tar Heels beat Michigan State, 89-72, in Detroit to win the national championship. Ellington sets a Final Four record by making 8 of 10 three-pointers in the two games. Carolina leads the Spartans, 55-34, at the half, setting championship game records for most points in a first half and largest lead at the break.

Kansas '53

✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history, a total since surpassed by Bob Knight.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 96 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight.

- Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

- Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

- Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

- The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

- Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

- The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

- Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

- Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith. Mike Krzyzewski of Duke ranks second in ACC Tournament titles with 11.

- His teams played in 11 Final Fours, second in number only to Wooden, who had 12.

- Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

- In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

- Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say.

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. Whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for him, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Dave Odom: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He named his long-time assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to that troika of an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Bob Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Carolina failed to hit at least 50 percent from the field just four time in his last 27 years. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

Six of Smith's players won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

NBA head coach George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Hall of Famer Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game."

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Hall of Famer Larry Brown: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young. He's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories (currently second). In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, is one of only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993. Bob Knight is the other person to accomplish the feat. Knight played on Ohio State's 1960 championship team and then coached Indiana to three titles.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well — 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

HISTORY

FRANK McGUIRE

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-70, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

A banner honoring the 1957 perfect season was hung in the Smith Center in 2007.

BILL GUTHRIDGE

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after one and two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history.

That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times.

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four, becoming just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was the consensus National Coach of the Year in 1997-98. That year, UNC went 34-4, and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He led UNC to the 1998 ACC Tournament championship and was the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1997-98 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1998-99 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year, five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

A banner honoring his many contributions to UNC basketball hangs in the rafters of the Smith Center. The Tar Heels' locker-room was dedicated in his honor in 2007.

1957 NCAA CHAMPIONS

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA title.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period, scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and an NCAA tournament berth. Four of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

1982 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers "The Shot." It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate.

He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

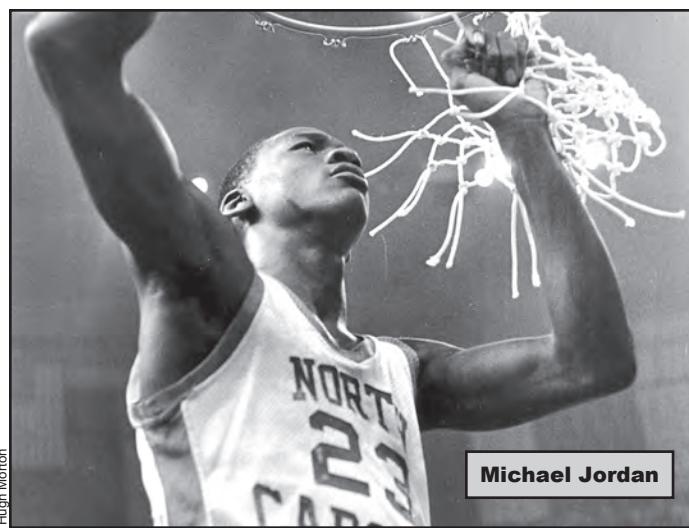

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. thy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro.

Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels' use of a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes 52-50 in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

Dean Smith on 1982 — "We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal—Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the “Fab Five,” had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn’t have been any farther apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team—talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining, and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost 79-78 courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas set up a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half as the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson’s driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese’s dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

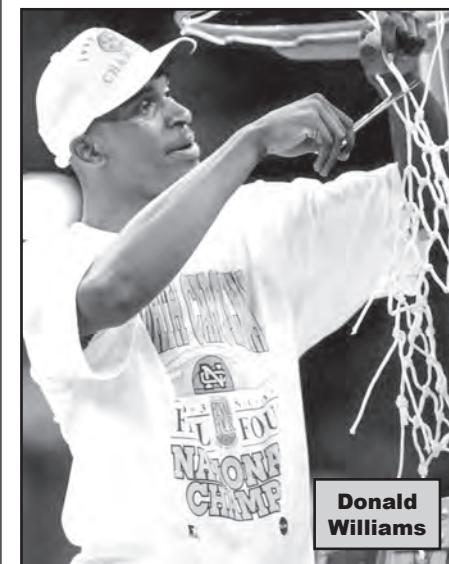

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers, and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

Dean Smith on 1993 — “We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way.”

2005 NCAA CHAMPIONS

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the All-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points, but Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds, and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

Iowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds, and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But, Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play, and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at halftime in the national semifinals, but UNC outscored the Spartans 54-33 in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th, but the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MOP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

2009 NCAA CHAMPIONS

The Tar Heels began 2008-09 with lofty expectations as five starters returned from a team that won a school-record 36 games and a trip to the Final Four the previous year. Carolina was an unprecedented unanimous No. 1 pick in both the media and coaches' polls.

Injuries took an early toll on the championship hopes, however, as 2008 National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough, senior Marcus Ginyard and freshman Tyler Zeller all saw time on the injured list early in the season. Hansbrough would miss four games with a stress reaction in his leg and ankle sprain, Ginyard would play in only three games all year because of a stress fracture in his foot, and Zeller suffered a broken wrist in the second game that sidelined him for 23 contests.

The Tar Heels retained their top ranking through early January by winning their first 13 games, routing Kentucky and Michigan State and winning the Maui Invitational along the way. On December 18th, Hansbrough set the UNC scoring record, surpassing Phil Ford's mark against Evansville.

Carolina lost its first two games in ACC play to Boston College and Wake Forest.

The Tar Heels then won 13 of their next 14 games to capture the ACC regular-season crown with a 13-3 record. Ty Lawson knocked off Florida State with a buzzer-beating three-pointer, scored 21 second-half points in a 101-87 win at Duke, hit numerous clutch three-pointers in a close win at Miami and earned ACC Player of the Year honors. Lawson also earned first-team All-America accolades and won the Cousy Award as the top point guard in the country. He became the first point guard to be ACC Player of the Year in 31 years.

Lawson severely injured a toe two days before UNC's Senior Day win over Duke. He played in that game but was unable to play in the ACC Tournament as Florida State knocked the Tar Heels out in the semifinals.

Carolina was a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional. Wayne Ellington began his stellar NCAA Tournament with 25 points and Carolina held Radford under 28 percent shooting from the floor as the Tar Heels overwhelmed the Highlanders 101-58 in the opening round. In the first half, Hansbrough set the ACC career scoring record, breaking the mark held by Duke's J.J. Redick.

LSU in the second round proved to be the most challenging test en route to the title. Carolina led by nine at the half, but the Tigers surged ahead by five points early in the second period. Lawson, who did not play against Radford and was a gametime decision to play against LSU, was spectacular. He scored 21 second-half points, leading Carolina to an 84-70 win.

Lawson and Ellington scored 23 points apiece and Danny Green hit a key three-pointer to help UNC advance.

The Tar Heels dominated both games in the regional in Memphis, beating Gonzaga in the Sweet 16 98-77 behind Hansbrough's 24 points and 10 rebounds. In the regional final, UNC never trailed, toppling Player of the Year Blake Griffin and Oklahoma 72-60. Lawson earned regional MVP honors as Carolina shot 61.9 percent from the field in the second half against the Sooners.

The Tar Heels beat Villanova in the national semifinals, in which UNC was appearing for the third time in five years. Lawson had 22 points and eight assists and Hansbrough added his 47th career double-double with 18 points and 11 rebounds. The Tar Heels led 49-40 at the half, but the Wildcats closed to within five early in the second. That would prove to be the closest any opponent got to UNC in the second half of the last four NCAA Tournament games. Green hit a three, Lawson scored on a fast break layup and the lead shot back to double figures. That win setup a rematch with Michigan State, whom the Tar Heels beat 98-63 in December.

The championship game was all Carolina. Played in front of nearly 73,000 fans, most of whom wore Michigan State green, the Tar Heels scored 55 first-half points and led by 21 at the break, both NCAA records. Ellington scored 17 points in the opening stanza and earned Most Outstanding Player honors. Hansbrough added 18 points and Lawson dominated on both ends of the floor with 21 points, six assists and a championship game record eight steals. The game was never closer than 13 points in the second half as Carolina won, 89-72.

Roy Williams on 2009 — "My hats are off to the guys in our locker room, because they took me on one fantastic ride, and it's something I'll never forget."

18 FINAL FOURES

"Bones" McKinney grabs a rebound in the 1946 NCAA title game. Carolina has been to at least one Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

1946

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John "Hook" Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina's leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon's 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

1967

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

gional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

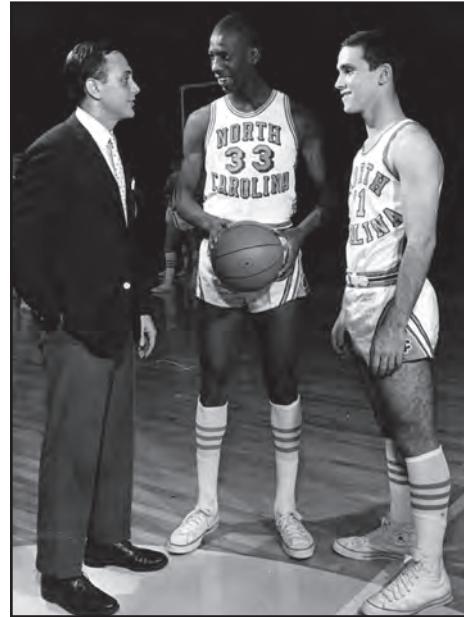

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

"The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament," says Coach Smith. "I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time."

1968

Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.

"We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before," says Coach Smith. "We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date."

Robert McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP and later had 24 points and 15 rebounds in the Final Four vs. Florida State.

1969

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

1972

The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuyck added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuyck (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

Phil Ford, Dean Smith and the Tar Heels reached the 1977 NCAA championship game.

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No. 1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."

1977

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

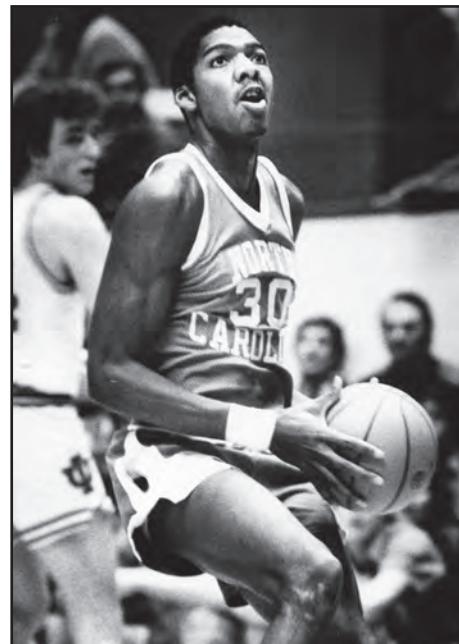

In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

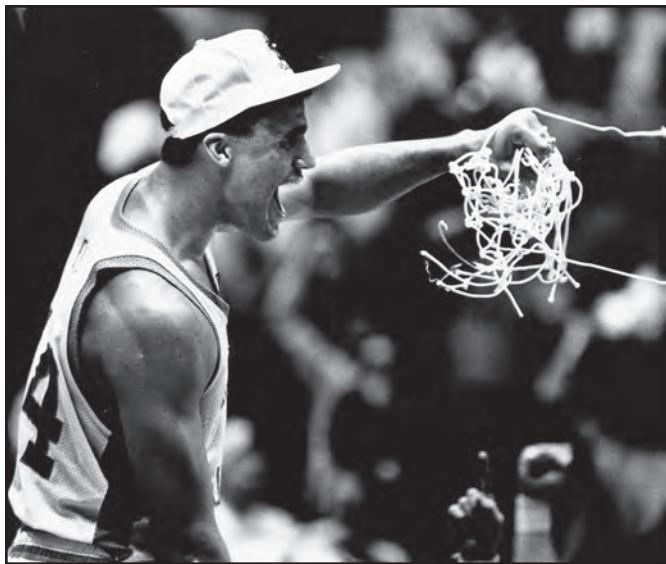

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyper-extended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great against UNLV. We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead.”

1981

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Al Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

1991

Toronto-born and Bahamas-raised Rick Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

“We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991,” says Coach Smith. “We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn’t play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn’t been to the Final Four in a while and I think we were happy to be there.”

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse’s 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

“That was a special year,” says Coach Smith. “We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, ‘Yeah, I’m going to go to it and celebrate.’ He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas.”

1997

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

After sneaking by Fairfield in the first round, the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, in Winston-Salem to give Smith his 877th win, breaking Adolph Rupp’s all-time record.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

"Fairfield was a remarkable game," says Smith. "That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, 'We could let them have it, we've had a pretty good year,' and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said 'What do you mean?' And we went on to beat them pretty badly."

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams' 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter's 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

2000

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.

Carolina, led by forward Jason Capel, stymied third-ranked and No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round, holding the Cardinal to 34 percent shooting. Freshman Joseph Forte led all scorers with 17 points.

Forte scored 22 points and Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to beat Tennessee, 74-69, in Austin, Texas, in the regional semifinal. Cota scored key late baskets and Carolina got stellar post play off the bench from Julius Peppers.

Forte had 28 points and eight rebounds in the regional final to beat Tulsa.

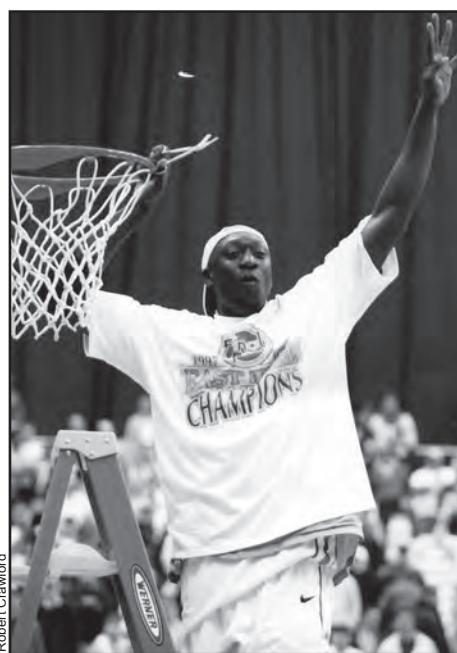

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinals in Indianapolis despite Haywood's 20 points and 12 rebounds. The Tar Heels overcame a 15-point deficit to take the lead in the second half, but fell behind after Cota went to the bench with four fouls.

2008

The Tar Heels were the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and East Regional in 2008. Carolina was a No. 1 seed for an NCAA-record 12th time and the third time in four years (2005-07-08).

Carolina opened the NCAA Tournament by reaching the 100-point mark in consecutive games. The Tar Heels trounced Mount St. Mary's 113-74 and Arkansas 108-77 at the RBC Center in Raleigh. Danny Green's 12 first-half points keyed a 68-47 win over Washington State in Charlotte in the Sweet 16. Tyler Hansbrough was sensational in the 83-73 win over Louisville in the East Regional final. Hansbrough, who earned regional MVP honors, had 28 points and 13 rebounds against the Cardinals. He scored 20 second-half points, including a pair of jump shots in the final minutes that sealed the victory.

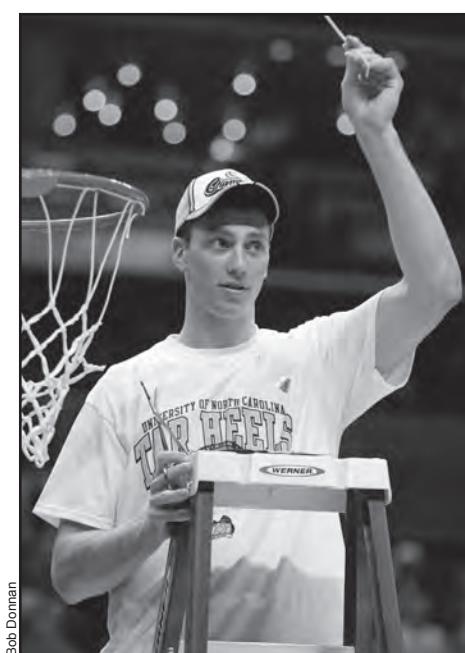

Kansas jumped out to a 40-12 lead over the Tar Heels in the national semifinals in San Antonio. UNC staged a dramatic comeback to pull within 54-50 with 11:15 to play before the Jayhawks pulled away for an 84-66 win.

CAROLINA IN THE ACC TOURNAMENT

✓ North Carolina has won 17 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record 29 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have an 84-38 record and are tied with Duke for the most wins and titles in ACC Tournament history.

✓ Dean Smith won 13 Tournament titles, more than any other coach in history. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have been the No. 1 seed 22 times.

✓ Carolina is one of only two schools that have won three consecutive ACC regular-season titles and ACC Tournament championships. UNC accomplished that feat in 1967-68-69.

✓ A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 18 times. The MVPs include: Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Reid (1989), Rick Fox (1991), Jerry Stackhouse (1994), Shammard Williams (1997), Antawn Jamison (1998), Brandan Wright (2007) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008).

✓ Tyler Hansbrough earned first-team All-Tournament honors in 2009, making him the first Tar Heel and 13th player overall to earn first-team All-Tournament accolades in three seasons.

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor

1967

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Dick Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection.

1969

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charles Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL 2009-10

Robert Crawford

Vince Carter and the Tar Heels won back-to-back ACC titles in 1997 and 1998.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

1972

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuyck (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

1975

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96-96, Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

1977

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

1979

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, who averaged 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

1981

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in one semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

1982

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as Carolina prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

1989

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors. Point guard Jeff Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists) joined him on the first-team.

1991

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

1997

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

1998

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

2007

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State. Prior to 2007, the last time UNC had won both a share of the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament in the same season was 1982.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright joined UNC's Phil Ford (1978), Sam Perkins (1981) and Jerry Stackhouse (1994) and Duke's Jason Williams (2000) as those to accomplish the feat. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

The 2007 championship was Roy Williams' first as the Tar Heel head coach.

2008

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

UNC 87, Davidson 85 March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 73, Duke 71 January 19, 1974

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT) March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (OT) March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 seconds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 70, NC State 69 January 17, 1979

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Dudley Bradley missed a jumper for the Tar Heels and State grabbed the rebound with

UNC 63, Georgetown 62 March 29, 1982

Michael Jordan hit a jumper from the left wing with 17 seconds to play to give Dean Smith his first national championship. Final Four MOP James Worthy had 28 points, but it was the freshman Jordan who took a pass from Jimmy Black and made the game-winning shot. Worthy stole an errant pass from Hoya forward Fred Brown in the final seconds to clinch the title.

UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT) November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63 February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

UNC 75, Maryland 74 January 9, 1985

Lefty Driesell's Maryland Terrapins seemed poised to knock off Carolina at Carmichael Auditorium. The Terps led 72-69 with 23 seconds left and Keith Gatlin on the line for a one-and-one. The 83 percent foul shooter missed the front end and UNC's Kenny Smith sank a jump shot with 16 seconds left. Adrian Branch, a 78 percent free-throw shooter, also missed. Dave Popson provided the winning points with a high-arching jumper with nine seconds to play. Curtis Hunter's steal and free throws secured the win.

UNC 60, Notre Dame 58 March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

UNC 96, Syracuse 93 (OT) November 21, 1987

Undermanned Carolina faced top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic and the Orange led by 14 with 15:39 to play. Carolina stormed back and sent the game into overtime when freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a turnaround jumper at the horn to tie the game at 85.

UNC 80, James Madison 79 November 24, 1989

The Tar Heels trailed Lefty Driesell's Dukes, 79-70, with less than a minute to play in the Maui Classic. An offensive rebound basket by Rick Fox and a steal and three-pointer by Hubert Davis cut the deficit to four with 48 seconds to play. Pete Chilcutt hit a three to pull within one with 10 ticks remaining. The Tar Heels had one last chance after a JMU player stepped out of bounds and King Rice tossed an off-balance runner from the top of the key that banked in at the buzzer.

UNC 79, Oklahoma 77 March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

UNC 80, Wake Forest 78 February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese set up the final possession with a steal with 16 seconds to go. He drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.

UNC 82, Florida State 77 January 27, 1993

The Seminoles jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and later extended the lead to as many as 21 points. Carolina trailed 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. The Tar Heels, keyed by a pair of three-pointers by Henrik Rodl, then ran off 15 straight points and Eric Montross hit a jump hook with 1:59 left to cut the FSU lead to 77-76. George Lynch stole a crosscourt pass by Charlie Ward and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

1993 NCAA Tournament

In the run to the national championship, the Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. The Bearcats' Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

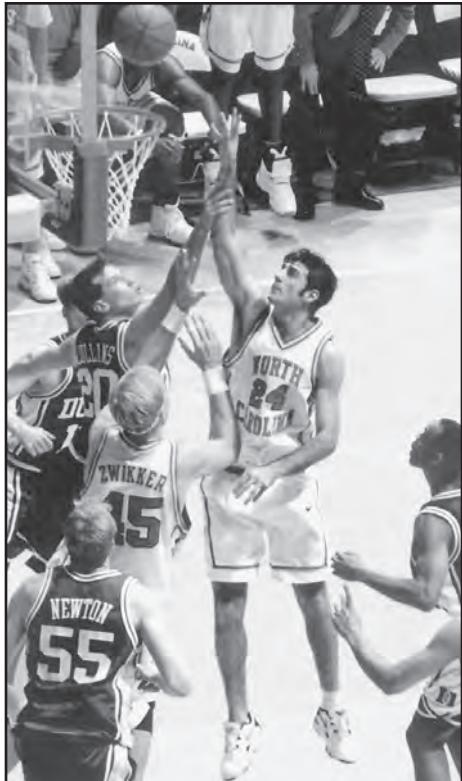

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71. Williams finished with 25 points and hit four free throws in the final minutes to secure the win.

UNC 86, Wake Forest 84 (OT) March 12, 1994

The Tar Heels erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84, in overtime in the ACC semifinals. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

UNC 62, Wake Forest 61 January 28, 1995

Winston-Salem was the stage for a battle between sophomore centers Rasheed Wallace and Tim Duncan. Duncan had 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks, and Wallace countered with 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. Carolina trailed Wake Forest 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought UNC to within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right side of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining for a 62-61 win.

UNC 102, Duke 100 (2 OT) February 2, 1995

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 26-9 lead on a spectacular reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devils. Duke pulled within five at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the second half. UNC battled back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 remaining to force overtime. The Tar Heels led by nine, but Duke made three three-pointers, including a 30-footer from Jeff Capel at the buzzer, to knot the score at 95 and force a second overtime. Donald Williams hit a pair of 12-footers in the second OT and Jeff McInnis had a steal and lay-up with under a minute to play to give Carolina a 102-100 win. Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace each had 25 points and Williams added 24 in one of the greatest college basketball games ever played.

UNC 73, Duke 72 January 31, 1996

The Blue Devils' lead was three when Ademola Okulaja grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 69-68 with 1:55 to go. Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Shammard Williams countered with a three of his own 15 seconds later. Duke turned the ball over and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor, but Williams forced a jump ball after a scramble. Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim.

UNC 59, NC State 56 January 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime, but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal and Shammard Williams hit a lay-up to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a lay-up to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled and State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a lay-up. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

UNC 45, NC State 44 February 12, 1997

This was the lowest scoring output in a win during Dean Smith's 36 years as head coach. The Tar Heels trailed 28-19 at the half, but pulled within 42-41 with 7:25 to play. Neither team scored until a Damon Thornton basket with 2:03 left gave State a 44-41 advantage. Serge Zwikker scored for UNC to make it 44-43. With 12.3 seconds to play, Antawn Jamison forced a turnover and freshman point guard Ed Cota drove to the left baseline and lofted a floater that found the net with 4.5 seconds remaining. Vince Carter blocked State's last shot at the buzzer to clinch the victory.

UNC 107, Ga. Tech 100 (2 OT) February 8, 1998

The Tar Heels let a seven-point lead slip away in the final minute of regulation, but Shammard Williams put on an awesome three-point shooting display as Carolina prevailed, 107-100, in double-overtime in Atlanta. Williams forced a second overtime with a pair of free throws with six seconds left in the first extra period. In the second OT, Williams scored 12 of his career-high 42 points, including two three-pointers.

UNC 74, Tennessee 69 March 24, 2000

Carolina was unranked for the first time in 10 years and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 8 seed. The Tar Heels trailed 10th-ranked Tennessee, 39-36, at halftime of the regional semifinal. The Vols led by two when UNC center Brendan Haywood fouled out with 8:03 left and led, 64-57, with 4:48 to play. But freshman Joseph Forte hit a three-pointer and Jason Capel had a steal and lay-up to make it 64-62 with 3:41 left. Ed Cota tied the game on a driving lay-up and followed with a jumper to give UNC the lead with 1:59 left. Forte, Julius Peppers and Cota each hit two free throws in the final 0:34 to cap a 15-3 Tar Heel run and a 74-69 win.

UNC 70, Wake Forest 69 January 6, 2001

Brendan Haywood grabbed a loose ball in the lane and scored with 3.3 seconds to play to give the Tar Heels the win over No. 4-ranked and previously undefeated Wake Forest. Haywood finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC 85, Duke 83 February 1, 2001

Joseph Forte had 24 points, 16 rebounds (a UNC record for guards), six assists and three steals. The Tar Heels blistered the Cameron Indoor Stadium nets by shooting 51.5 percent from the floor. Carolina led by as many as 13 in the first half, but Duke took the lead midway through the second half. Ronald Curry scored six straight points in 48 seconds to give the Tar Heels a 63-59 lead. UNC later built a seven-point lead, but the Blue Devils tied the score with three seconds left. On the ensuing inbounds play, Shane Battier fouled Brendan Haywood and the UNC seven-footer hit both free throws with one second left for the win.

UNC 86, Connecticut 83 January 17, 2004

Rashad McCants scored 27 points against the Huskies for the second straight year and for the second year in a row the Tar Heels upset Connecticut in the Smith Center. McCants scored the last 10 points of the game for Carolina, including a three-pointer with just over six seconds to play. The Huskies would go on to win the national championship. It was Roy Williams' first win as UNC's head coach over a No. 1 ranked team.

UNC 75, Duke 73 March 6, 2005

Carolina trailed, 73-64, after Blue Devil forward Lee Melchionni hit a three with 3:03 to play. But the Tar Heels outscored Duke, 11-0, the rest of the way to clinch the regular-season ACC title. Trailing by two with less than 30 seconds to play, David Noel stripped Daniel Ewing of the ball and Raymond Felton grabbed the loose ball and called timeout. On the ensuing possession, Felton hit the first of two free throws, Marvin Williams rebounded his missed second free throw and scored the go-ahead basket with 17 seconds to play. Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 24 rebounds.

UNC 75, Illinois 70 April 4, 2005

Final Four MOP Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Raymond Felton's and Marvin Williams' late heroics gave Roy Williams his first NCAA title. Marvin Williams broke a 70-all tie with a tip-in basket with 1:27 to play. Leading 72-70, Felton, who earlier hit a three-pointer to break a 65-65 tie, stole an Illini pass with 31 seconds to play and hit three of four free throws to cap the win.

UNC vs. Clemson 2007-08 Regular Season

Carolina beat Clemson in a pair of close games during the 2007-08 regular season. In the first meeting on Jan. 6, 2008, in Clemson, Wayne Ellington hit a three-pointer with 0.4 seconds remaining in overtime to give UNC a 90-88 win. Ellington scored a career-high 36 points in the game, connecting on five three-pointers. The final shot by Ellington marked UNC's first late game-winner since David Noel rattled in a three-pointer with 1.8 seconds left on Nov. 19, 2005, to beat Gardner-Webb in the Smith Center and marked Carolina's first overtime win under head coach Roy Williams.

In the return matchup in Chapel Hill on Feb. 10, Tyler Hansbrough scored 13 of his 39 points in the two overtime periods as Carolina rallied from 15 points down to beat the Tigers, 103-93, in double overtime. The Tar Heels trailed by 11 points with 3:12 left to play in regulation before scoring nine straight points to cut the lead to 79-77. Quentin Thomas hit a driving layup to force the first overtime and UNC eventually won in the second extra stanza.

UNC 80, Florida State 77 Jan. 28, 2009

Ty Lawson sank a game-winning three-pointer as time expired to beat Florida State, 80-77, in Tallahassee in a game in which UNC led by 11 at the half, but trailed by as many as five with less than seven minutes to play. Danny Green's steal and three-point play tied the game at 77 with 1:12 to play, then Tyler Hansbrough forced a turnover by Toney Douglas with 3.2 seconds remaining. Hansbrough inbounded the ball to Lawson, who raced from his own free throw line to just outside the top of the key before launching a floater that found the bottom of the net as the buzzer sounded.

Ty Lawson sank this running three-pointer as time expired and the Tar Heels beat Florida State, 80-77, on Jan. 28, 2009.

UNC ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

HOLDEN THORP CHANCELLOR

At Carolina, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, led a powerhouse academic department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies, and succeeded as an administrator.

Now, as the 10th chancellor, Thorp is drawing from all of those experiences in leading Carolina among the ranks of the great research universities in the United States and around the world.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in Carolina traditions dating to the 1800s. His father, Herb, used to sing the alma mater, "Hark the Sound," at bed time. When it was time to graduate from Terry Sanford High School, there was only one school on his college application list – UNC. He earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university – where research and teaching are done by the same people – gave Thorp opportunities to work in chemistry labs alongside some of Carolina's very best faculty. Those experiences inspired him to become a college professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After a year teaching at N.C. State, he came back to UNC's chemistry department in 1993.

Before becoming chancellor on July 1, 2008, Thorp served a year as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, chaired the chemistry department and was director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

DICK BADDOUR ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Goldsboro native and Tar Heel alumnus Dick Baddour is in his 13th year as Director of Athletics and his 43rd year at the University of North Carolina. He directs one of the most successful and respected athletic programs in the country, known for its commitment to academic integrity and competitive excellence in men's and women's sports.

During Baddour's tenure, the Tar Heels have won 11 national championships, including six in women's soccer, two each in men's basketball and field hockey and one in men's soccer, won two football bowl games and had numerous top 10 national finishes in Olympic sports. Nineteen different UNC men's and women's teams have combined for 61 Atlantic Coast Conference championships, more than any other school in the league over that span. UNC has led the league in the number of team championships in seven of the last 12 seasons.

Under Baddour's leadership,

UNC has excelled as an overall athletic program. Carolina finished second in the 2008-09 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, an award that measures NCAA postseason performance. It was the 10th time in 12 years the Tar Heels have finished first among ACC schools and the seventh top-10 finish for UNC in the last eight years, including top-four showings in 2006, 2007 and 2009.

Baddour graduated from UNC in 1966 and was appointed Assistant Dean of Men in 1967. He served as Assistant Dean of Admissions and Assistant Dean of the UNC School of Law and also earned a Master of Arts degree in education prior to joining the athletic department in 1986. In 2001, he received the Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have two sons, Allen and David, and a daughter, Jennifer, as well as six grandchildren: Henry, Jack, Lauren, Johnathan, William and Julia.

Chancellor Thorp holds the 2009 NCAA Tournament South Regional championship trophy. He is flanked by Roy Williams, Ty Lawson and Tyler Hansbrough after the victory over Oklahoma in Memphis.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Through its teaching, research and engagement, the University of North Carolina serves as an educational and economic beacon for the people of North Carolina and beyond.

HISTORY

The University of North Carolina was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century. Authorized by the North Carolina constitution in 1776, the University was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president. The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., on Feb. 12, 1795.

RECENT RANKINGS & RATINGS

Several national publications regularly publish rankings that listed Carolina prominently in categories ranging from academic quality to affordability to diversity to engagement to international presence. Recent highlights include:

- First among the 100 best U.S. public colleges and universities that offer the best combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs as ranked by Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine in December 2008. First for eight consecutive times since Kiplinger's began these periodic surveys in 1998.

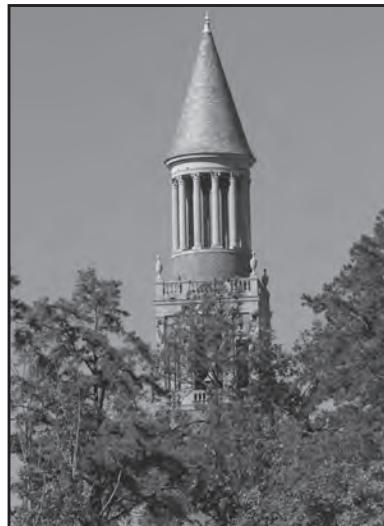

- Fifth best public university in U.S. News & World Report's 2009 "Best Colleges" guidebook for the ninth consecutive year. First among public campuses for the fifth consecutive year.

- One of seven public universities ranking in the top 25 for all nine measures used in the 2008 edition of "The Top American Research Universities," produced by The Center for Measuring University Performance at Arizona State University.

- Among 25 "New Ivy" campuses in the 2007 Kaplan/Newsweek "How to Get into College Guide." Includes schools with first-rate academic programs fueling their rise in national stature.

- Second among major U.S. universities in the percentage of African-American students in the 2008 first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education. Carolina had held the No. 1 spot for 6 of the previous nine years. Black students made up 10.8 percent of the entering class in 2008.

- STACK magazine ranked Tar Heel athletics 3rd based on academics, athletic opportunity and overall performance.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- In fall 2008, Carolina enrolled 3,864 students for the Class of 2012 drawn from a record 21,507 applications. That was the third straight record for applications.

- Carolina ranks among the top U.S. public universities in research support – a direct reflection of the quality of the research the faculty are conducting. Carolina researchers attracted more than $716 million in total contract and grant funding in fiscal 2009.

BUILDING PROGRAM

- Today, the campus benefits from an unprecedented physical transformation made possible in part by North Carolinians' overwhelming approval of the $3.1 billion bond referendum for higher education. The referendum, approved in November 2000, was the nation's largest higher education bond package. Through 49 projects, the bonds have provided more than $515 million for renovations and new buildings so Carolina students can learn in a 21st century environment.

- Also guided by a visionary campus master plan for growth, the University has invested funds from non-state sources, including private gifts raised during the Carolina First Campaign, state appropriations and overhead receipts from faculty research grants, for other buildings essential to excellence. The resulting capital construction program exceeds $2.1 billion and is among the largest at any major American university.

The Rams Club – A Need for Growth

The cost of competing at the highest level and educating outstanding student-athletes continues to climb. The Rams Club must grow its membership and level of support to keep Carolina as one of the nation's premier athletics programs both athletically and academically.

The Rams Club has witnessed impressive growth over the past several years – 51% of members have joined within the last 10 years. Membership in The Rams Club is available through endowment and annual gifts. Gifts of all sizes are important – 47% of all Annual Fund gifts are between $100 and $1,000. This growth must continue to meet the escalating needs of Carolina's 28 varsity sports and its student-athletes.

As a member of The Rams Club, you provide a vital component to the success of Tar Heel student-athletes. Your membership provides Carolina student-athletes the opportunity to proudly say, "I'm a Tar Heel."

I'M A TAR HEEL

IT'S A FEELING YOU GET when you are in Chapel Hill – a feeling that this is indeed a special place. It's not just brilliant students, or a Nobel Prize winner, or Hall of Fame coaches, or championship teams, or some of the most recognizable athletes in sports. This place is the sum of its parts – parts individually committed to the highest level of excellence in all that they do. It is the University of North Carolina.

It is every person working toward a goal of making themselves better – which in turn makes Carolina, as a team, stronger. It is the personal commitment to wake up at 5:00 a.m. for practice. It is the lone shooter in the gym without the lights or the screaming fans. It is practicing hard day in and day out for the betterment of the team, knowing your jersey may never feel sweat on game day. It is busing back from a road game late at night, only to arise for that early morning mid-term exam ... and making Dean's List. It is an understanding that this is the Carolina Way – and it is what it means to be a Tar Heel.

The Rams Club supports this commitment to the highest level of excellence. Please join our efforts to make this experience possible for Carolina student-athletes. And give them the opportunity to say with pride:
I'M A TAR HEEL.

The opportunity to be a member of the Carolina Family and its great historic tradition is truly an honor. Thank you so much for allowing me to appreciate its history, and live its tradition by representing the University of North Carolina.

I'm Tyler Zeller, and I'm a Tar Heel.

DEAN E. SMITH CENTER

Jeffrey Camarati

The 2009-10 season is the 25th in which the Tar Heels will play in the Dean E. Smith Center. The Tar Heels have played 330 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of more than 6.6 million fans. Carolina is 279-51 in the Smith Center, an impressive winning mark of 84.6 percent.

Carolina was again third in the nation last year in home attendance, attracting better than 21,000 fans per game. The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 22 of the last 23 seasons.

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

Last year, the Tar Heels went 14-1 at home and have an 84-10 record (.894) at home in Roy Williams' six years as head coach. Dean Smith led the Tar Heels to a 133-17 record (.887) in the building that bears his name.

RECENT RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas.

The arena's lights and soundsystem were replaced and the training, weight and equipment rooms were expanded and renovated for 2009-10. A hydrotherapy room was added for the 2008-09 season.

In January 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum opened in the new Williamson Athletics Center, adjacent to the Koury Natatorium. For photos and information about the museum, see CarolinaBasketballMuseum.com.

In 2006-07, the seats in the lower level and upper level ring were replaced. The playing floor was completely refinished and refurbished for the 2007-08 campaign.

Four high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. The boards measure 17.8 feet x 23.6 feet. At the same time, two 50-foot ribbon boards were added to the fascia around the upper level and a 40-foot video board was added to the front of the scorer's table.

In the early 2000s, the UNC lockerroom and weight room were completely renovated. A new media center was built and the Bowles Room and Rams Club offices were retrofitted to include a practice gym.

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

As a multi-purpose facility, the Smith Center has played host to a wide range of athletic events and concerts. In 1987, U.S. Olympic Festival basketball attracted a Smith Center record crowd of 23,713 for the gold medal game. In 1988, the venue served as the site of the first and second rounds of the NCAA East Regional. In 1994, the Smith Center hosted the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships.

In 1999, the Smith Center and Koury Natatorium served as the basketball and aquatic venues for the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games.

Kenny Rogers staged the first concert in the arena on April 12, 1986.

The Smith Center and Koury Natatorium also host such community activities as the commencement ceremonies for local high schools, University Blood Drive, University Career Fairs and UNC's December and May Commencement Exercises.

Prior to moving into the Smith Center, Carolina played its home games at Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels were 169-20 at Carmichael. UNC debuted there on Dec. 4, 1965, against William and Mary, and finished play on Jan. 4, 1986, in a win over NC State.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres of the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

GREAT GAMES

- On Feb. 8, 1992, UNC rallied from 22 points down to beat Wake Forest, the largest comeback in school history.

- On Jan. 27, 1993, UNC trailed Florida State by 21 points with 11:48 to play in the game, but rallied for an 82-77 win. George Lynch's steal and dunk gave UNC the lead.

- On Feb. 3, 1994, No. 2 Carolina beat No. 1 Duke, 89-78, in the first-ever matchup between the rivals in which the teams held the top two spots in the Associated Press poll.

- UNC and Duke repeated their No. 1 vs. No. 2 battle on Feb. 5, 1998, as the second-ranked Tar Heels routed the top-rated Blue Devils, 97-73. Antawn Jamison scored 35 points that evening, one of three occasions he netted at least 35 points in the Smith Center.

- On March 6, 2005, Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds to go gave Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke to clinch the ACC regular-season title. Sean May had 26 points and 24 rebounds in the win.

- On Feb. 15, 2006, Georgia Tech led by as many as 20 points, but Tyler Hansbrough scored a Smith Center record 40 points to lead the Tar Heels to an 82-75 win.

- On Feb. 10, 2008, Carolina came back from 11 down to Clemson with three minutes to play and won in double overtime, 103-93.

- On Dec. 18, 2008, Hansbrough became Carolina's all-time leading scorer, breaking the record held by Phil Ford on a twisting jumper against Evansville.

THE SMITH CENTER JERSEYS

One of the most prominent features in the Smith Center is the series of banners rewarding the accomplishments of Carolina players and teams, including national championship banners for 1923-24, 1956-57, 1981-82, 1992-93, 2004-05 and 2008-09. Also hanging high above the playing floor are 47 jerseys honoring Carolina's greatest individual standouts.

ADJACENT FACILITIES

Adjacent to the Smith Center is the Maurice J. Koury Natatorium and the Ernie Williamson Athletics Center. The natatorium features an eight-lane, 50-meter pool. The Williamson Center, which houses the Carolina Basketball Museum and much of the UNC Athletic Department administration, opened in December 2007.

CREDENTIALS

Please send requests to Steve Kirschner. Mailing address is University of North Carolina, P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-2126. Fax requests on letterhead stationery to (919) 962-0612 or e-mail stevekirschner@unc.edu.

Credentials will be mailed or held at media will call located in the athletic communications office, which is at the front of Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Smith Center.

Media with season credentials must contact Kirschner in advance to guarantee a press row seat at individual games.

INTERVIEWS & PRACTICE

All requests for interviews must be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Roy Williams or to attend practice. Throughout the season Williams holds a press conference at the Smith Center (see schedule on this page). These typically begin at 2 p.m. Out-of-town media may watch the press conference live at TarHeelBlue.com and ask questions by contacting Kirschner in advance. Due to contractual obligations, Coach Williams is unavailable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

Media should make player interview requests to Matt Bowers. Player interviews occur before practice. Freshmen are available to the media once they've played in a regular-season game.

Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days. Players will not participate in radio call-in shows, but are available to tape radio interviews.

POSTGAME

PRESS CONFERENCES

Players are available in the lounge adjacent to the locker room for 20 minutes following each home game. Coach Williams holds his postgame press conference in the media room.

Roy Williams 2009-10 Press Conferences (all at 2 p.m. in Smith Center unless noted)

Williams will also be available on the ACC weekly teleconference on Mondays at 11:40 a.m. beginning in January.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

During ACC play, Roy Williams is available each Monday at 11:40 a.m. (beginning January 4, 2010) for 10 minutes on the ACC teleconference. Please call Kirschner or Brian Morrison at the ACC at (336) 851-6062 for the number.

PHOTO COMPOUND

PHOTO SPOTS

The athletic communications staff assigns shooting locations around the court. Specific requests for special camera placements should be made in advance to Kirschner or Camarati. For safety reasons, cameras are not permitted on the blue padding on the basket supports. Floor remotes must be removable. They may not be fixed to the floor and will only be allowed if a photographer is seated with the camera.

FILING

Several telephones are available in the media room. No courtside phone hookups are permitted at the Smith Center. High-speed, wireless Internet access is available in the arena and media room.

PARKING, SMITH CENTER ENTRANCE

Media park in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive, adjacent to the Kenan-Flagler Business School. Spaces are not reserved.

Directions: NC Hwy 15-101 to Manning Drive, turn onto Bowles Drive and the Bowles Lot will be on your right at the bottom of the hill. The media entrance to the Smith Center is located near the basketball and athletic communications offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and photo equipment are subject to search for security purposes.

TARHEELBLUE.COM

Carolina's official website is TarHeelBlue.com. The media guide, statistics, game notes, roster, schedule, past season archives and other information are available there. Video feeds of the weekly and postgame press conferences are posted.

Follow the Tar Heels on TWITTER at twitter.com/UNC\_Basketball.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Learfield Communications is the rights-holder for game broadcasts, Coach Williams' weekly live call-in show (each Monday evening at 7 p.m.) and TV show.

Woody Durham, former Tar Heel All-America center Eric Montross and Jones Angell make up the Tar Heel Sports Network broadcast team.

Durham is in his 39th year calling UNC action. Montross earned All-America honors at Carolina in 1993 and 1994 and was the starting center on the 1993 NCAA champions. He is in his fifth season providing analysis. Angell is in his ninth year with the Tar Heel Sports Network and his fifth on the men's basketball broadcasts.

Gary Sobba is the network's general manager. His number is (919) 419-8100.

VISITING RADIO

Radio network rights-holders for opposing teams are provided four seats on the scorer's table adjacent to the visitors' bench. A stat monitor is available and printed stats are provided at each media timeout. UNC provides two ISDN lines and two analog lines at no charge.

NBA SCOUTS

There are no scouting seats on press row. Seats for scouts in the stands are available by contacting Nadia Lynch in the men's basketball office at (919) 962-1154 or by e-mail at nlynch@unccaa.unc.edu. Due to limited space, scouts are not permitted in the media room. Pregame notes, rosters and statistics will be provided when you pick up your ticket at the entrance to the arena for scouts.
