The University of North Carolina and Nike extended their agreement for eight more years beginning in July 2002. The agreement provides each varsity team with shoes, apparel, equipment bags and other products. It also provides $100,000 annually to the Chancellor's Academic Enhancement Fund for undergraduate teaching and $100,000 annually to the athletic department to reward Olympic sport programs and coaches for academic and athletic excellence.

2008-09 PREVIEW CAROLINA BASKETBALL

• Carolina has won 1,950 games, second-most in NCAA history. Kentucky is first with 1,966 and Kansas is third with 1,943.

• Carolina has played in the Final Four an NCAA-record 17 times, including eight times in the last 18 years. Only seven other schools have played in eight or more Final Fours in the 70-year history of the Final Four. The Tar Heels have played in consecutive Final Fours on four previous occasions (1967-68, 1968-69, 1981-82 and 1997-98).

• Carolina won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season and Tournament championships in 2007 and 2008, the third time in school history the Tar Heels accomplished that feat in back-to-back seasons. UNC won both titles three years in a row from 1967-69. Duke is the only other school to do that (1999-2001).

• Carolina returns all five starters (guards Wayne Ellington and Ty Lawson, forwards Marcus Ginyard, Tyler Hansbrough and Deon Thompson) for the third time in the last six seasons. That also happened in 2003-04 and 2004-05 (guards Raymond Felton and Jackie Manuel, forwards Sean May, Rashad McCants and Jawad Williams).

• Carolina enters its 24th season in the Dean E. Smith Center with a record there of 265-50 (.841). Roy Williams has led UNC to a 70-9 (.886) mark at home in five seasons.

• Williams enters his sixth season as UNC's head coach, his 21st as a collegiate head coach and his 31st on a college bench. His teams are 560-134 overall, a win percentage of .807 that stands third-best in NCAA history. The Tar Heels are 142-33 under his direction.

• Over the last seven years, Williams has led his teams at Kansas and North Carolina to 205 wins, more than any other coach in the country (John Calipari is second with 198).

• Williams is one of 12 coaches to win two or more ACC Tournament titles. Only six coaches in ACC history have won three or more – Dean Smith (13), Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (10), Duke's Vic Bubas (4), Georgia Tech's Bobby Cremins (3) and NC State's Everett Case (4) and Norm Sloan (3).

• Carolina has won 17 ACC Tournaments, most in league history. The 2009 ACC Tournament is at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, the fifth time the event is being played in Atlanta. Carolina won the title in 1989, lost in the finals to Georgia Tech in 1985, lost in overtime to NC State in the semis in 1983 (all at the Omni) and lost in the championship game to Duke in the Georgia Dome in 2001.

• Carolina won a school-record 36 games in 2007-08, the third-most wins in ACC history and the ninth 30-win season by the Tar Heels. Williams has led UNC to three 30-win seasons in his first five years as head coach and is second all-time with eight 30-win seasons (Mike Krzyzewski has nine).

• In addition, the 2007-08 Tar Heels set school records for most wins in any two-year period (67), three-year period (90) and four-year period (123). The record for most wins in a five-year span is 144 from 1980-81 through 1984-85.

• Ellington and Hansbrough have earned first-team All-ACC Tournament honors in each of the past two seasons. Although Carolina has had more first-team selections (70) than any other school, no Tar Heel has ever been a three-time selection (there have been 12 in history). Lawson was a first-team selection in 2007 in Tampa, and Ginyard was a first-team selection last year in Charlotte.

• Hansbrough won ACC Tournament MVP honors in 2008. Only four players have earned MVP honors twice (Wake Forest's Len Chappell in 1961 and 1962, UNC's Larry Miller in 1967 and 1968, NC State's Tom Burleson in 1973 and 1974 and Duke's JJ Redick in 2005 and 2006). Miller is also the only Tar Heel to win ACC Player of the Year honors twice (1967 and 1968). Hansbrough was a unanimous selection as the 2008 ACC Player of the Year, joining NC State's David Thompson (1975) and Wake Forest's Josh Howard (2003) as the only unanimous Players of the Year.

• Hansbrough is the first college basketball player to win consensus National Player of the Year honors and return to school since Virginia's Ralph Sampson, who was the consensus winner in 1981 and 1982 and played through the 1983 season (when he won again).

• Hansbrough is the first Associated Press National Player of the Year to return to school since LSU's Shaquille O'Neal, who won the award in 1991. George Glamack (1940 and '41) and Michael Jordan (1983 and '84) are the only Tar Heels to win NPOY honors in multiple seasons. NC State's Thompson (1974 and '75), Sampson, and Duke's Jason Williams (2001 and '02) are the other ACC players to do so.

• Hansbrough has scored 2,168 points, grabbed 943 rebounds, shot 54.3 percent from the floor and is 733 for 945 from the free throw line. He enters the 2008-09 season second at UNC in career scoring, seventh in rebounding, and first in free throws made and attempted.

• Hansbrough needs 602 points to pass Duke's JJ. Redick to become the ACC's all-time leading scorer. He already holds the record for most free throws made by an ACC player and is ninth in NCAA history.

• Hansbrough has won ACC Player of the Week honors nine times (once in 2005-06 and a record-setting eight times last year). UNC's Antawn Jamison (12), Redick (12), Wake Forest's Tim Duncan (11), Hansbrough and NC State's Thompson (9) top the list.

• Hansbrough has earned first-team All-America honors and unanimous first-team All-ACC honors in his first three seasons. The only player to win first-team All-America honors in four collegiate seasons is Purdue's Paul Hoffman, who was a Chicago Herald pick in 1944 and a Helms Foundation choice in 1945-47. No player has ever been a four-time first-team All-ACC selection. Hansbrough is one of 25 three-time All-ACC picks and one of seven ACC players to win first-team All-America honors three times. NC State's David Thompson (1973-75) and Virginia's Ralph Sampson (1981-83) are the only three-time consensus All-Americans in ACC history.

• Danny Green and Ellington rank third and ninth, respectively, in UNC career free throw percentage. Green has made 84.3 percent from the line; Ellington has converted 83.0 percent. Green is also 10th in UNC history with 104 blocked shots

• Carolina holds the NCAA record with 60 1,000-point scorers, including Hansbrough (2,168) and Ellington (1,092). Green (871) needs 129, Lawson (794) needs 206 and Ginyard (616) needs 384 to reach 1,000. Carolina has had four 1,000-point scorers on the same team twice before – 2001 with Joseph Forte, Brendan Haywood, Jason Capel and Kris Lang and 2005 with Rashad McCants, Jawad Williams, Raymond Felton and Sean May.

• Ginyard, a senior swingman, was Carolina's defensive player of the year in 2007 and '08. Point guard Derrick Phelps (1992-94) and center Brendan Haywood (1999-2001) are the only Tar Heels to win that award three times.

• Seniors Bobby Frasier, Ginyard, Green, Hansbrough and Mike Copeland have been part of 90 wins over the last three years. The four-year record is 123, established last year by Quentin Thomas.

• Carolina is playing in the EA Sports Maui Invitational for the fourth time. The Tar Heels won the event in 1999-2000 and 2004-05 and reached the finals in 1995-96. Williams also led Kansas to the Maui title in 1996-97.

• Should North Carolina be ranked No. 1 in the nation in any week of the 2008-09 AP poll, it would mark the 18th season in which UNC reached No. 1 and the third straight year in which UNC was No. 1. The AP has ranked Carolina No. 1 at least once in three straight seasons on four previous occasions – 1957-59, 1982-84, 1986-88 and 1993-95. The AP has ranked UNC No. 1 in its preseason poll six times prior to 2008-09 (1977-78, 1981-82, 1983-84, 1986-87, 1993-94 and 2007-08). The last school to be ranked No. 1 in consecutive preseason polls by the AP was UNLV in 1989-90 and 1990-91.

Q & A with Roy Williams on 2008-09:

TarHeelBlue.com sat down for a wide-ranging interview with head coach Roy Williams covering the 2008-09 season. Some of Williams's quotes from that conversation are excerpted below:

THOUGHTS ON 2008-09

"When you describe our team you would describe a very experienced team and a very talented team, and that's what I've always said you want - experienced talent. We don't want our kids to think about a record. Our fans, the media and everybody else will put enough pressure on them, but we have to improve on things that will make our team better. I am going to convince our players that it isn't only what you accomplish at the end of the season. If that is all you are worried about then you are not going to do the job every single day to improve and then you won't even be around in March or April."

LESSONS FROM 2008

"We have to focus on how did we lose that last game in the Final Four. We lost because we weren't as aggressive and didn't have the same intensity as Kansas did. They came out and hit us right between the eyes and it took us a while to recover. ... We went out and said, 'Wow, we're in the Final Four,' and Kansas came out thinking they were in a fight right from the start. We didn't realize we were until all of a sudden they are kicking our tails. Now when I say, 'Let's not go out there and tiptoe through the tulips,' they are going to know what I am saying."

BETTER TEAM DEFENSE

"There's no question we became an above average defensive team, but we've got to be even better this year. This may be one of those years we take the rims off the baskets for the first week of practice, not just the first day.

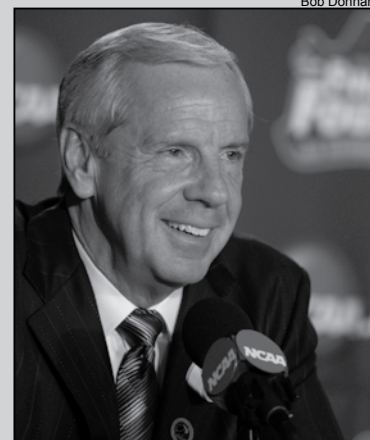

"We've got to be better individual defenders, and some of that is giving a more consistent effort. Our kids give good effort overall, but to win championships it has to be more consistent and it has to be more intelligent. If they do those kinds of things then they can become better individual defenders. The next step is to become better defenders away from the ball, because then your team becomes better defensively."

FORCING TEMPO

"We want to create more opportunities and possessions with our defense by playing a faster tempo. More people get to play more with a faster tempo. But with this kind of team I am going to push them more. There's no need to put up with anything mediocre now. If you are not going to do it right, there is somebody else who will do it right. They may not like it when it happens, but they are going to like the overall objective. It's going to be a lot more attention to detail and suffer the consequences if you don't do the small things."

ON HANSBROUGH

"What more can you say about Tyler? He's one of the most competitive people I've ever been around, he sets an incredible example with his work ethic and he plays hard on virtually every possession - even in practice. He has made so many big plays in the past three years it's hard to keep track of them. The bottom line is he has worked hard for and earned every award he's been given and he's going to go down as one of the greatest players ever to play college basketball.

"And with all that he has accomplished, he's never satisfied with his game."

THE FRESHMEN

"The big guys should make more of an immediate impact because [we only have] two experienced post players in Deon (Thompson) and Tyler. You always need four of those guys. Drew gives us another true point guard."

Pre-ACC: Had a season-high five assists against Winthrop • Hit a career-high three three-point field goals vs. Gonzaga • Hit two three-pointers and had three assists and no turnovers in 18 minutes against Ohio State • Played seven minutes against Penn on Jan. 3, his first action since the Kentucky game on Dec. 2 • Came off the bench to hit a three-pointer and another long jumper from the wing to cut Penn's 10-point lead in half •

January: Re-injured his right foot on a drive to the basket in the final minute of the first half in the loss at Virginia Tech on Jan. 13 • Sat out the second half of that game plus the next four games • Returned to action against Miami on Jan. 31 when he played nine minutes and had two assists and two turnovers against the Canes.

February: Key contributor in win at Duke • Had two steals, an assist and no turnovers in 12 minutes, his longest stint since the Kentucky game on December 2 • Was on the floor as the Tar Heels came from nine points down to within two points • Had a steal and lay-up in that span, his first field goal since the Florida State game on Jan. 7 • Had four assists, his best showing since he had four and five assists in the first two games of the season, and three points in win over NC State • Had five points, three assists, no turnovers and two steals in 14 minutes at Maryland • Highest scoring output in an ACC game on the year.

March: At Georgia Tech, he started for the first time since the Tennessee game on Nov. 24 • Scored three points and had one assist in nine minutes • Had three points and two assists in 86-72 win over Duke • Fast break assist to Hansbrough for three-point play gave UNC a 53-48 lead after Duke pulled within two points midway through the second half • Had five points against Boston College in the ACC Tournament semifinals • Hit both of his three-point attempts.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2005-06)

One of two Tar Heels (with Tyler Hansbrough) on the 2006 ACC All-Freshman Team • One of four Tar Heel point guards to make the ACC Freshman Team (Ed Cota in 1997, Raymond Felton in 2003 and Ty Lawson in 2007) • Fourth in the ACC in assists with 4.4 per game and fourth in assist-error ratio • Started all 31 contests at the point • Averaged one turnover every 11.4 minutes of action • Had more assists than turnovers in 24 games (and in nine of the last 11 contests) • Made 34 for 44 from the free throw line (77.3 percent) • Scored in double figures seven times with a high of 17 vs. NC State • Had a season-high 12 assists vs. Saint Louis.

2005-06 GAME HIGHLIGHTS

November: Had seven points and only two turnovers in 33 minutes against All-America Dee Brown in the 68-64 loss to Illinois • Helped limit Brown to three assists, five turnovers and 0 for 6 from three-point-range.

December: Had nine points, two assists and two turnovers in the win at Kentucky • Scored seven of his nine points in the second half (hit a long three-pointer, a flying drive across the lane and two key free throws with 28 seconds to play) • Handed out 12 assists against just two turnovers and was UNC's defensive player of the game in win over Saint Louis • The 12 assists equaled the third-most ever by a Tar Heel freshman and were the second-most by an ACC player in 2005-06 • Had a season-high seven turnovers in the loss at USC.

January: Scored a season-high 17 points, 15 of which came in the second half, and had four assists in the win over No. 12 NC State • Made 6 of 9 from the floor and 4 of 6 from the free throw line • Came into the game with only seven free throw attempts in the first 10 games • Scored nine consecutive UNC points over a span of four-plus minutes that left the Tar Heels with a 69-65 lead with 3:41 to play • Hit a three from the corner with 5:36 left after NC State cut a seven-point UNC lead to two • Had a key offensive rebound with less than a minute to play in win at Virginia Tech • Scored five points and had nine assists without any turnovers in win over Arizona • Hit 25-foot three-pointer just before the half to give UNC an eight-point lead • Was his second turnover-free game of the year • Singled out by Roy Williams for his outstanding defense, especially in helping to hold Hassan Adams to 12 points, 7.9 below his average.

February: Hit a three-pointer from the corner with 1:54 to play to help clinch the win at Maryland • Had 16 points and three steals, but had four turnovers and no assists in win over Clemson • Season-high 7 for 8 from the free throw line • Had 13 points, two assists and no turnovers in the win at Miami • Was third straight game scoring in double figures • Scored 10 points in the final 10:29, including seven points in the final 5:13 • Three-pointer broke 56-all tie and sparked 13-2 Tar Heel run • Hit driving lay-up after Miami pulled within five and had back-to-back short jumpers around the 2:00 mark to seal the win • Had eight assists (ACC season high) and two steals in win over Georgia Tech • Matched his season-high with five rebounds and added five points, two assists and five turnovers in win at Wake Forest • Steal and dunk (first of season) was part of comeback from nine points down in second half • Was Carolina's defensive player of the game • Did not score, but had six assists and only two turnovers in win at NC State • Carolina had 24 assists and six turnovers, its fewest in 300 games dating back to 1997 • Carolina's defensive player of the game in the 81-57 win over Maryland on Feb. 26 as the Tar Heels held the Terps to less than 30 percent shooting in both halves • Had six points on two three-pointers with four assists, one turnover and three steals.

March: Had 10 points, five assists and two steals in win at No. 1 Duke • Hit a pair of second-half three-pointers, then converted both ends of a 1-and-1 with 24 seconds to play after Duke cut an 11-point lead down to just three • Scored nine points, all in the second half, in Carolina's 69-65 win over Murray State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament • Hit a three-pointer from the right corner with 2:43 to play to give UNC a 65-61 lead.

ON THE COMEBACK TRAIL

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

At the Chapel Hill house shared by Tyler Hansbrough, Marcus Ginyard, Bobby Frasor, and former manager Preston Puckett, the TiVo contains a virtual highlight reel of their Tar Heel careers.

Not big shots—those get erased quickly. Not important wins—those are soon forgotten.

But let something embarrassing happen, like Ginyard flubbing a dunk in the NCAA Tournament, and it's preserved for eternity. And all too often—at least for Frasor's liking—those eternal moments involve the senior from near Chicago.

The Pardon the Interruption discussion of Frasor and Hansbrough leaping into a pool at a fraternity house this past summer?

"Bobby and I watched that one a lot," Hansbrough said.

Wayne Ellington's game-winning shot at Clemson was likewise a keeper. Not for the dramatic shot, but for the way Frasor went down in a heap while celebrating the moment.

"Any time someone came over, I made them watch it," said Hansbrough, who still can't help laughing as he thinks of his roommate toppling over.

What's hidden by all this good humor is the legitimate respect Frasor commands in the Carolina locker room. It was obvious in the somber postgame tone of his teammates after his season-ending injury against Nevada last season, when the usual boisterous post-victory locker room music was silent.

And it's even more obvious in the way they talk about him.

"Bobby is a stabilizing force offensive and defensively on the court," Ginyard said. "Everyone feels more comfortable when he is on the court."

Why?

"His leadership and his work ethic," Ginyard said. "He is a person who every single person in the gym respects. It's tough not to rally behind him and work hard for him. He's earned that reputation. He's a natural leader and he's tough not to follow."

That makes it more clear that Carolina lost more than just Frasor's 3.2 points and 2.1 assists per game halfway through his junior year. That was the culmination of a frustrating 18 months for the loyal White Sox fan, because he'd battled a foot problem throughout his sophomore campaign.

"In some ways, the knee injury was easier," Frasor said. "There was a set goal for recovery and a set schedule to follow. It made it easier to work harder."

Some of that hard work involved falls and tribulations out of the public eye. But don't worry if you missed some of it.

Hansbrough probably has it on TiVo.

THE LITTLE THINGS

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

Playing basketball at the University of North Carolina is a window into sports royalty. It's like putting on pinstripes for the New York Yankees, earning the starting quarterback job at Notre Dame, or playing point guard for the Los Angeles Lakers.

Or, as Marcus Ginyard recently realized, like playing for the Dallas Cowboys.

The Tar Heel senior was watching the HBO series "Hard Knocks"—which this year chronicled the training camp of America's Team—over the summer when he had a revelation.

"The Cowboys are in a very similar situation to us," Ginyard said. "Everyone is talking about how they could win the Super Bowl, but they're just focused on winning that one playoff game. That's the hurdle they have to get over—they've got to win one playoff game. We know what expectations people have for this team. But our challenge is to play one game at a time, even though you're always thinking about the end, because everyone has dreams and goals."

That's the kind of insight we've grown to expect from Ginyard since he arrived on campus in the summer of 2005. His quote-to-point ratio is probably higher than anyone else on the roster. That's partially because he has a knack for providing a point of view that no one else captures, and partially because his game doesn't require scoring to be essential.

Despite starting all 39 games as a junior, the Alexandria, Va., native was just the team's sixth-leading scorer. But his 75 offensive rebounds trailed only Tyler Hansbrough and he earned a team-high 11 coaches awards for defensive player of the game. Not coincidentally, he played the third-most minutes on the roster, which might be the best way to measure his value.

On a team with the offensive relentlessness of Hansbrough and the smooth shooting stroke of Wayne Ellington and the jet-propelled speed of Ty Lawson, offensive rebounds and defense have a way of being overlooked. Actually, those are qualities that tend to go unnoticed on any team, regardless of the surrounding talent.

Of course, they also tend to be glaring when they are absent—and absolute requirements for any team with postseason aspirations.

"I don't think I should stand out for those little things," Ginyard said. "Those are things everyone should do. Why wouldn't you want to do those things? Those are things that help you win the game. Some people go out and take a thousand shots a day. Some people get rebounds."

any previous game all year • Three-pointer with 11:24 to play may have been the key shot in the game • Only his third three of the year • Gave UNC a 56-50 lead moments after Duke had pulled within two at 50-48.

ACC Tournament: Averaged 14.3 minutes per game in the three wins • Six of his nine rebounds were on the offensive glass • Had four rebounds against Florida State and Boston College • Had three offensive boards and two assists vs. BC.

NCAA Tournament: Matched his career assist high with four and was Carolina's defensive player of the game against Eastern Kentucky • Had two steals in each game • Played 17 minutes of solid defense against Michigan State • Helped limit Spartan star Drew Neitzel to 4 of 13 shooting in the second half • Made his first start of the year (first since Jan. 19, 2006) and helped UNC come from 16 points down to beat USC • Had 10 points

76-76, erasing UNC's last deficit of the game • Grabbed a defensive rebound with 23 seconds to play and the game tied at 82 • Was fouled, hit one free throw for the lead, then blocked Zack Peacock's shot in the lane that would have given Tech the lead with six seconds to play.

February: Scored 19 points and had five rebounds in overtime win at Florida State • The 19 points marked the highest scoring output in an ACC game in his career • Matched his career-high with four three-pointers • Scored 16 of his 19 in the second half and overtime • Made numerous key plays in the double overtime, comeback win over Clemson • Trailing by 11 with 3:00 to play in regulation, he played a key role in UNC's next 11 points that led to an 82-82 tie and overtime • His offensive rebound and basket cut Clemson's lead to nine • Back-to-back steals led to baskets that pulled UNC within five • A three-pointer from the left wing made it 79-77 Clemson with 1:52 to play • After a Tiger 3FG, he hit another three from the right wing to make it 82-80 Clemson with 1:10 to play • Finally, with one second to play, he stole Clemson's inbound pass to preserve the tie • Made two free throws in double overtime for a 96-93 lead • Was Carolina's defensive player of the game • Finished with 14 points, six rebounds, two blocks and three steals • Scored all nine of his points in the second half in the win at Virginia, including seven points in a span of less than two minutes that gave the Tar Heels a nine-point lead • Made a smart play to quickly inbound the ball after a Virginia three-pointer made it 75-74 UNC with seconds left to play • Tar Heels were able to advance the ball upcourt and kill most of the clock.

March: Scored 12 of his 18 points at Boston College in a 32-8 Tar Heel rally that keyed one of UNC's largest-ever road comeback victories • Combined with Wayne Ellington to score as many points as BC, 26-26, in the second half • With BC leading by 17, Green hit four three-pointers in a span of 10:12 – the first three cut BC's lead to 14, nine and three points and the fourth gave UNC a 76-69 lead with 6:38 to play • Had 12 points and seven rebounds and was the defensive player of the game in home win over Florida State • Hit a pair of threes 90 seconds apart that gave UNC its first double-digit lead • A standout on both ends of the floor in the 76-68 win at Duke • Led all players on both teams in scoring with 18 points and a career-high seven blocked shots, added eight rebounds and two steals and was Carolina's defensive player of the game • Marked the first time in his career he scored in double figures in four consecutive ACC games • Most blocks by a Tar Heel since Brendan Haywood had seven at Florida State on Jan. 20, 2001 • Blocked six of Duke's 29 two-point attempts in the second half • Helped UNC block 15 shots, second-most in UNC history • Scored 10 of UNC's first 20 points as UNC built a 20-9 lead • Scored the final two baskets of the game – an offensive rebound tipin with 48 seconds to play to give Carolina a 74-68 lead and a dunk with 29 seconds left to cap the scoring • Helped UNC hold Duke to a season-low field goal percentage of .329.

ACC Tournament: Averaged 8.0 points and 2.0 rebounds • Scored 12 points and was UNC's defensive player of the game in the championship game win over Clemson • Helped limit the Tigers to 42.0 percent shooting from the floor • Scored seven points, two on a nifty spin drive and bank shot and the final three from long range, in a 19-10 Tar Heel run that gave UNC a 72-59 lead • Fouled out with 5:54 to play • Had a key block of a Jeff Allen shot in the lane late in the semifinal win over Virginia Tech • On the winning play against the Hokies, he tipped Ty Lawson's missed shot toward Hansbrough, who made a 15-footer with less than a second to play.

NCAA Tournament: Averaged 10.2 points and shot 41.9 percent from the floor in five games • Was 9 for 26 from three-point range • Had 15 points and a season-high tying five turnovers in Final Four loss to Kansas • Hit 3 of 9 three-pointers against the Jayhawks • Key contributor in Carolina's East Regional wins over Washington State and Louisville • Had 15 points in the Sweet 16 vs. the Cougars, 12 of which came in the first half as UNC built a 35-21 lead • Added three first-half steals • Made three three-pointers • Added 11 points and two steals in regional final vs. Louisville, going 6 for 6 from the free throw line • Suffered a cut above his left eye in the first half that necessitated him getting four stitches, the second time this year he needed stitches during a game (Rutgers) • Had eight points and four assists in second round win over Arkansas • Had six rebounds and three assists vs. Mount St. Mary's.

Leading scorer off the bench at 5.2 points per game • Shot 84.8 percent (39 of 46) from the free throw line • Second on the team with 25 blocked shots • Made 18 consecutive free throws from 1/24/07 to 2/17/07 • Scored in double figures four times as a sophomore and 13 times in two years • Had a season-high 14 points vs. Saint Louis, 12 at Wake Forest and vs. Miami and 10 at Clemson • Was 4 for his last 32 from three-point range.

January: Led all players on both teams with seven rebounds in win over NC State • Added two assists and two steals and did not have a turnover in 17 minutes • Scored seven points at Virginia

MORE THAN "JUMP AROUND" Opponents and fans shouldn't overlook Danny Green.

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

Danny Green is a very good basketball player.

This seems like an important biographical note, because during his four years at North Carolina very few of the stories written about him have dealt solely with his hoops prowess.

Sure, in his junior season he was just the second Tar Heel reserve since 1994 to average double-digit scoring. But what about his dancing ability?

And yes, he's the only player in UNC history with at least 100 blocked shots and 100 three-pointers. But what about his decision to return to school after declaring for the NBA Draft?

"He's been put in so many tough situations since he's been here," said classmate Marcus Ginyard. "He's done a great job of staying focused."

At times last year it did feel like Green was in danger of becoming known more as a dancing novelty than a valuable contributor. And granted, Green can't complain too much about the attention received from his pre-home game gyrations to "Jump Around"—after all, when you dance in front of 22,000 people several nights a year, it's going to be remembered.

But as the year progressed and Green continued to play well, his teammates knew he would prefer a different kind of attention.

"Everybody talks about the dancing to him," Ginyard said. "It's how everyone sees him. And that's not all that he's about. It's become a little bit too much."

Green, to his credit, is too friendly with outsiders to tell them he sometimes chafes at all the dancing requests. His play should be sufficient. He's always been an offensive sparkplug, but his game has quietly expanded during his Carolina career. Last season, he was the team's second-leading rebounder. He collected six defensive player-of-the-game awards from the coaches last season, including three in a key five-game stretch late in the season.

So his off-season dalliance with the NBA—while a surprise to many casual observers—might have been Green's statement of independence. See? He's not just a dancer. He has skills that are in demand.

What he might not have expected, though, was that the draft process that was supposed to teach everyone else about him also taught him something about his Carolina experience.

"I didn't realize how big the Carolina family was until I went through everything this summer," Green said. "It seemed like everyone I talked to was either from Carolina, graduated from Carolina, or knew somebody from Carolina. Everyone knows who you are when you're from Carolina. It let me know how deep the family goes and how widespread it is throughout the nation."

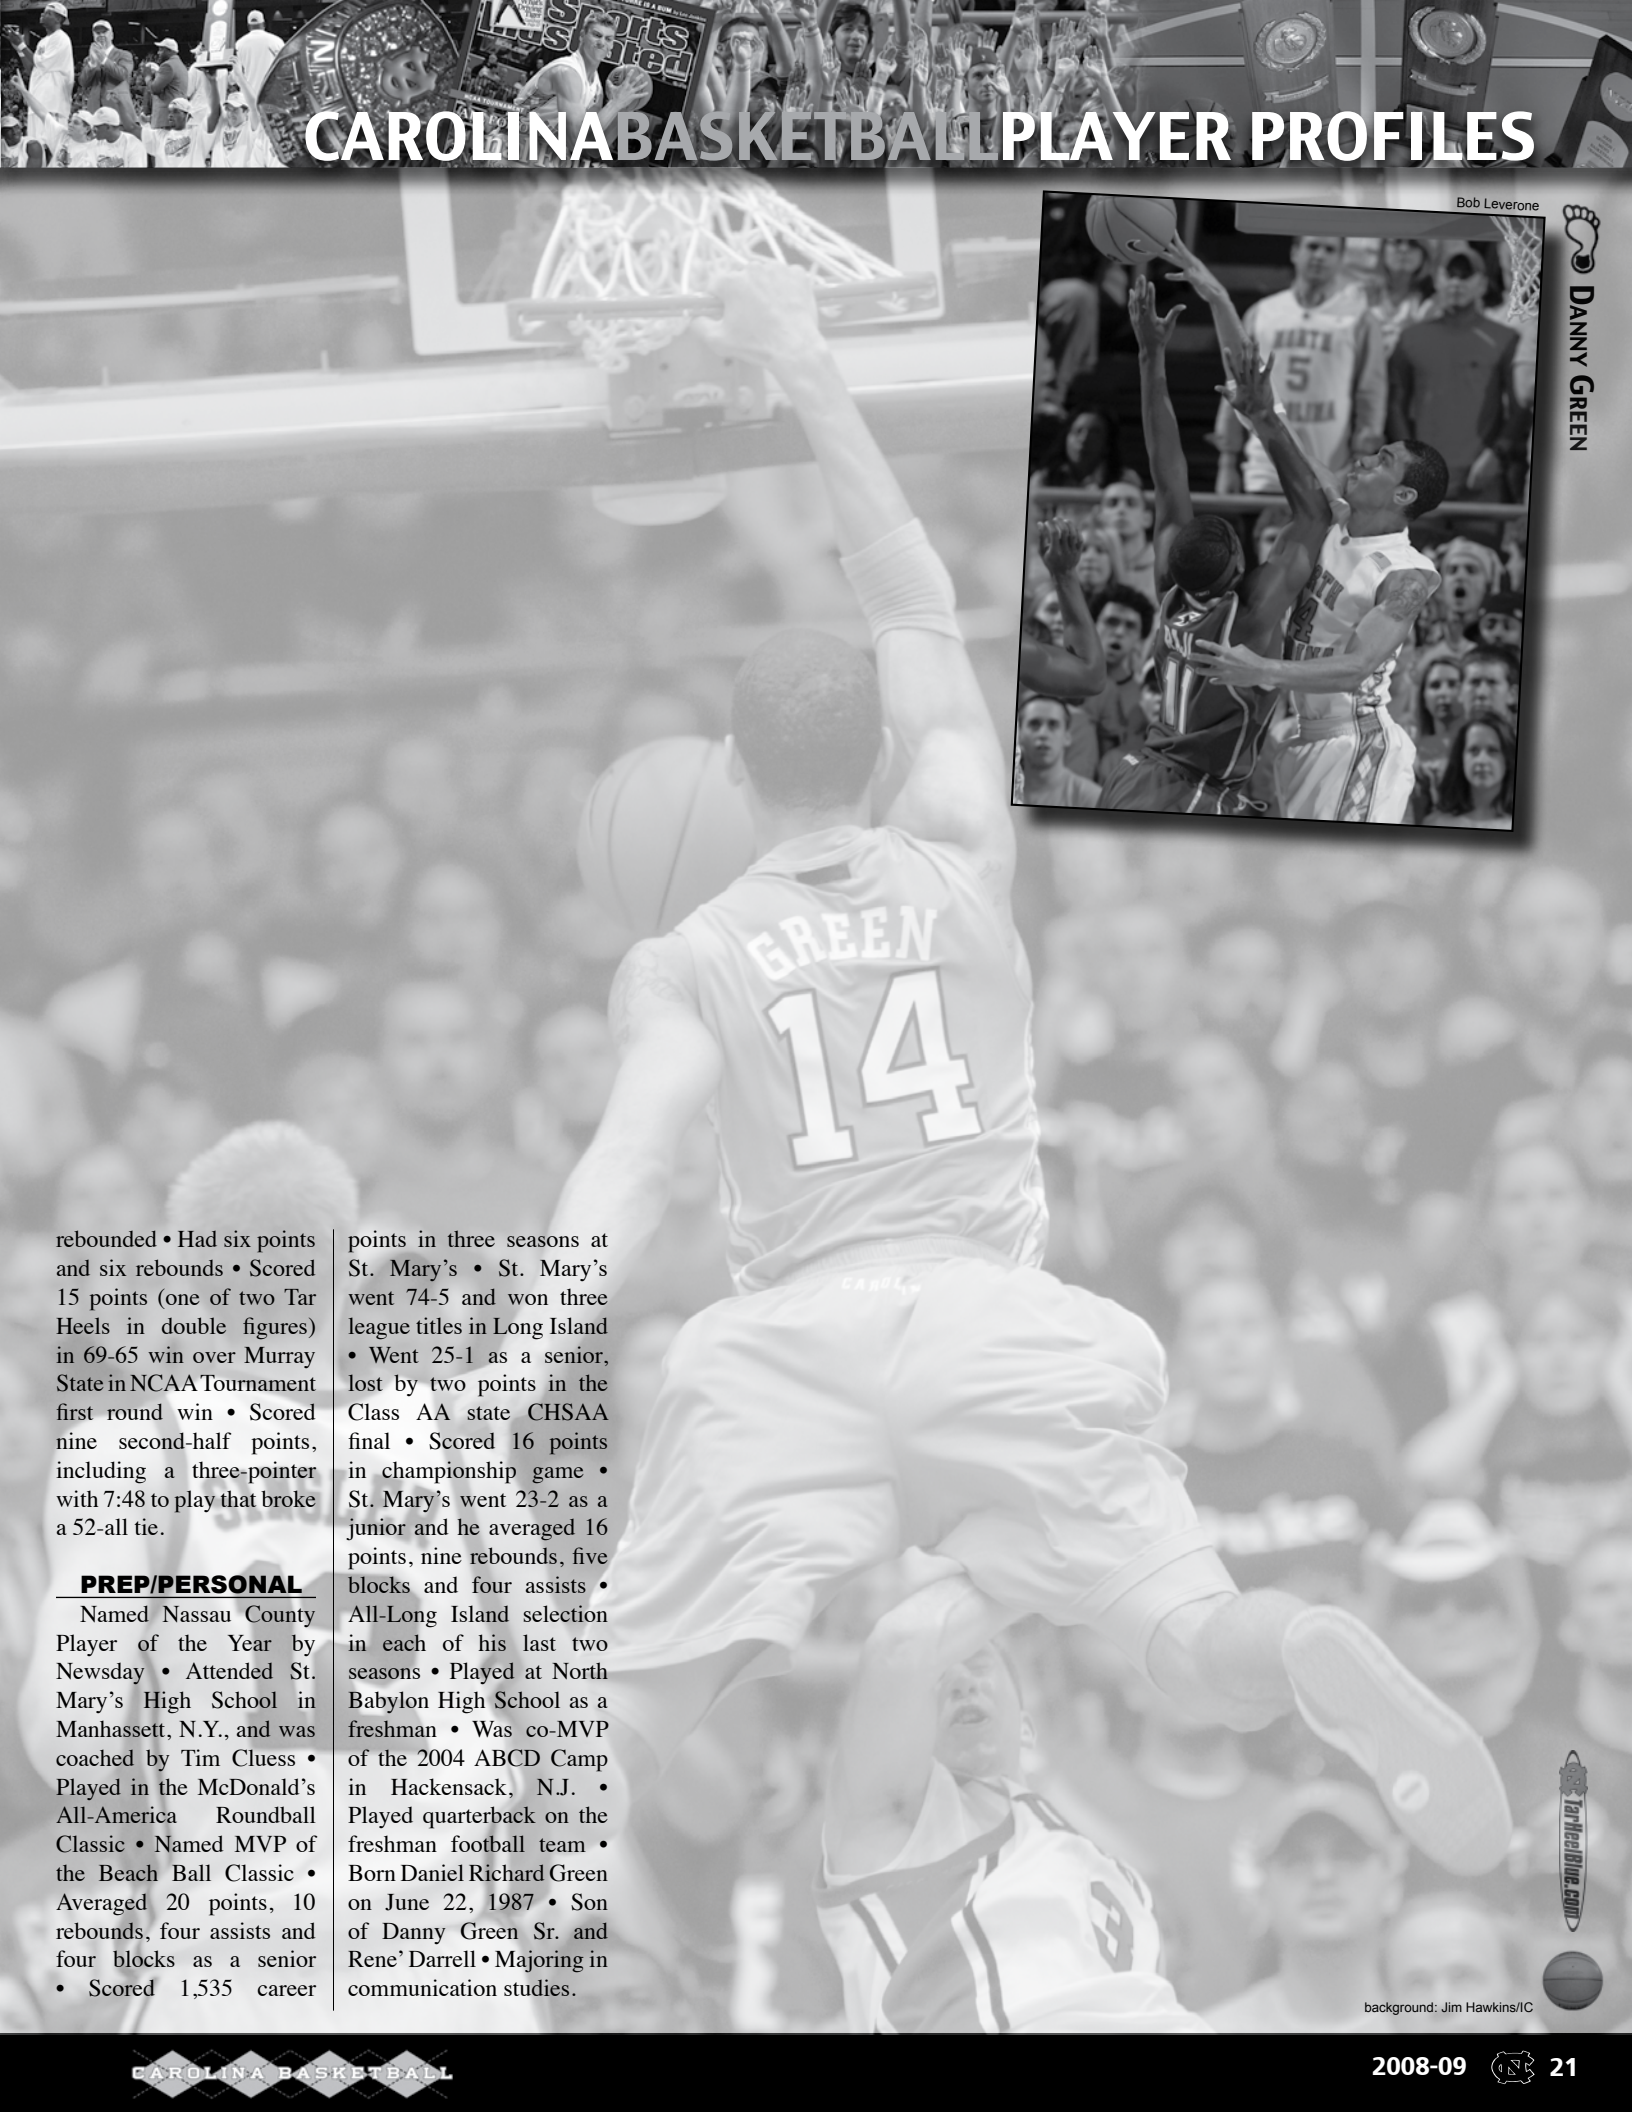

Tech, including a buzzer-beating three-pointer at the end of the first half • Key in Carolina's 81-80 win at Florida State • Scored 11 points with two assists and no turnovers in 14 minutes • Went 4 for 7 from the floor, including 3 for 3 from three-point range • Scored the last five points of the first half after FSU had a 50-37 lead • Then hit back-to-back three-pointers to give Carolina a 61-59 lead, its first of the second half • Had 16 points, two rebounds, two assists and two steals against Boston College • Made 5 of 9 from the floor, including 3 for 5 from three-point range • Hit back-to-back threes in the first half that helped UNC build a 24-15 advantage • Had 13 points (eight in the second half) and blocked two shots in 86-69 win over Arizona.

February: Made 5 of 6 field goals, including 3 of 4 three-pointers • Scored in double figures for the fourth straight game with 10 points in the win at Maryland • Tied for rebounding honors on both teams with nine boards against Duke • Had four offensive rebounds, which matched his season high • Led all scorers on both teams off the bench with 10 points on 4 of 5 shooting from the floor in win at Wake Forest • Scored six points and had eight rebounds in win at NC State • Scored all six points and had seven rebounds in the second half • Had four offensive rebounds, all leading to second-chance points for the Tar Heels.

March: Had seven points, three boards, three blocked shots and two assists in 99-54 win over Virginia • Made the defensive play of the game in 83-76 win at No. 1 Duke as he got his hand on the ball as Sean Dockery drove to the basket with 46 seconds to play and Carolina leading by three • Forced a miss by Dockery that Carolina

CAREER NOTES

Named 2007-08 National Player of the Year, the 11th Tar Heel to win NPOY honors • First player to win the Associated Press NPOY honors and return to school since LSU's Shaquille O'Neal did for the 1991-92 season • Three-time first-team All-America • Fifth Tar Heel (first since 1984) to be a three-time, first-team All-America (with Jack Cobb 1924-26, Phil Ford 1976-78, Mike O'Koren 1978-80 and Sam Perkins 1982-84) • NC State's David Thompson (1973-75) and Virginia's Ralph Sampson (1981-83) are the only other ACC players to be a three-time first-team All-America • No ACC player has ever earned first-team All-America honors in four seasons • One of 25 three-time first-team All-ACC selections but one of only three players to be a unanimous All-ACC pick three times (Thompson 1973-75 and Duke's Art Heyman in 1961-63) • Consensus first-team All-America in 2007 and 2008, the fifth Tar Heel to accomplish that (George Glamack in 1940 and 1941, Ford 1977 and 1978, Jordan and Perkins both in 1983 and 1984).

Has scored 2,168 points, second-most at UNC behind Ford (2,290) • Moved from 38th place after his sophomore season to second place after his junior season • Is 15th in points scored by an ACC player • Scored more points than any junior in ACC history – passed Georgia Tech's Dennis Scott (2,115) for the ACC record • One of only six Tar Heels to score 2,000 or more points • Averaging 20.1 points, the sixth-highest average by a Tar Heel.

Has 35 career double-doubles (six as a freshman, 10 as a sophomore and 19 as a junior), 25 more than any active ACC player • Scored in double figures in each of the last 40 games and 102 times in 108 games (single figures once as a freshman and five times as a sophomore) • Scored 20 or more points 57 times, 25 or more points 27 times and 30 or more points five times (40 vs. Georgia Tech on 2/15/06, 39 vs. Clemson on 2/10/08, 35 at Miami on 1/23/08, 33 vs. Michigan State on 3/17/07 and 32 at NC State on 2/20/08) • Is seventh in ACC history in 20-point games (Duke's J.J. Redick is first with 70).

Is ninth in NCAA history in free throws made and 19th in attempts • Has made 733 of 945 from the free throw line • Needs to make 173 free throws to become the all-time NCAA leader • Wake Forest's Dickie Hemic holds the NCAA record with 905 (Pete Maravich is second and Oscar Robertson is third) • Is the all-time leader in free throws made by an ACC player (passed Duke's Christian Laettner, who made 713, for the top spot) • Has attempted more free throws than any player in ACC history • Broke ACC mark for attempts set by Wake Forest's Len Chappell (897) • Only 2,000-point scorer in ACC history and one of only two 1,000-point Tar Heels (with Pete Brennan) to

JUNIOR SEASON (2007-08)

Named National Player of the Year by The Associated Press, USBWA, NABC, The Sporting News, Los Angeles Athletic Club (Wooden Award), Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award), Sports Illustrated, ESPN.com, CBS/Chevrolet, Commonwealth Club of Kentucky (Rupp Award) and Basketball Times • Is the 11th Tar Heel to earn NPOY honors and second in the last four years under Roy Williams (Sean May by SI in 2005) • By being named NPOY, he will become the eighth Tar Heel to have his jersey retired (not until after his senior season).

Fourth player — with UNC's Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Duke's Christian Laettner (1992) and UNC's Antawn Jamison (1998) — to win National Player of the Year, ACC Player of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP, ACC Athlete of the Year and NCAA Regional MVP honors in the same season.

Voted the ACC Male Athlete of the Year (only the third Tar Heel to win the award in the last 24 years).

First-team All-America by The Associated Press, USBWA, NABC, The Sporting News, Wooden, Sports Illustrated, ESPN.com and Fox Sports.com • USBWA district player of the year • NABC All-District selection.

The 11th Tar Heel to win ACC Player of the Year honors (first since Joseph Forte in 2001) • Only the third player to be a unanimous selection for ACC Player of the Year (NC State's David Thompson in 1975 and Wake Forest's Josh Howard in 2003).

Set UNC and tied ACC single-season record by scoring in double figures in 39 games (previous record was 36 by Montross in 1993 and Jamison in 1998; ACC record is 39 by Hansbrough and Duke's Mark Alarie and Johnny Dawkins in 1985-86) • Scored 882 points, second-most in history in one season by a Tar Heel (Rosenbluth had 895 in 1956-57) • Was second in total points in the NCAA behind Davidson's Stephen Curry (931) • Scored 20 or more points 27 times, including 13 of the last 18 games • Scored 20 or more points in nine consecutive games from Feb. 3 to March 4, the longest such streak by a Tar Heel since Michael Jordan did it nine times in a row in 1983-84 (tied the fifth-longest streak in UNC history) • Grabbed 52 rebounds in a three-game span against Florida State, Duke and Clemson, the most by a Tar Heel since Rusty Clark had 53 in 1968 • One of only three Tar Heels (with Clark and Billy Cunningham) to ever pull down that many rebounds in three straight games • Had 399 rebounds, a single-season UNC record (May had 397 in 2005).

Led the ACC in scoring and rebounding • Was 12th nationally in scoring and 17th in rebounding • First player to lead the ACC in both categories since Tim Duncan and Jamison accomplished it in 1996-97 and 1997-98, respectively • Is the fourth Tar Heel and 10th ACC player to lead the league in scoring and rebounding in the same year (with Pete Brennan in 1957-58, Cunningham in 1963-64 and 1964-65 and Jamison) • Joined Cunningham as the only Tar Heels to ever lead UNC in scoring and rebounding in three consecutive seasons.

Averaged 22.6 points, the highest average by a Tar Heel since Charles Scott in 1970 • First Tar Heel to lead the team in scoring three straight years since Al Wood from 1979-81 (Rosenbluth, Cunningham, Ford, Wood and Hansbrough are the only players to lead UNC in scoring three times) • Averaged 10.2 rebounds per game, becoming the seventh Tar Heel to lead the ACC in rebounding • Became just the third Tar Heel in 30 years — with Jamison in 1997-98 and May in 2004-05 — to average a double-double.

Combined with Wayne Ellington to score the most points ever in one season by a Tar Heel duo (1,529), breaking the record of 1,459 by Jamison and Shammond Williams in 1997-98.

Was second in the ACC in field goal percentage (.540) and ninth in free throw percentage (.806) • Joined BC's Tyrese Rice as the only players in the ACC in the top 10 in both categories • Led the ACC in offensive rebounds (3.9), defensive rebounds (6.4) and was 10th in minutes played (33.0).

Record-setting year from the free throw line • Led the nation in free throws made and attempted • Converted 304 of 377 from the line • The 304 made free throws are the most in ACC history and sixth-most in NCAA history • Wake Forest's Dickie Hemric held the previous ACC record with 302 in 1954-55; Rosenbluth held the previous UNC record with 285 in 1956-57.

The 377 attempts broke Rosenbluth's UNC record (376 in 1956-57), are the third-most in ACC and 10th-most in NCAA history • Attempted 262 more free throws than any other Tar Heel, 155 more than Virginia's Sean Singletary and 74 more than UTEP's Stefon Jackson (who were second in the ACC and NCAA, respectively) • Made 115 more than Singletary and 79 more than Indiana's Eric Gordon (who were second in the ACC and NCAA, respectively).

Second on the team with eight defensive player of the game awards • Led the team with 59 steals and in charges drawn with 42.

Eight-time ACC Player of the Week (four times in non-conference play and four times during the ACC portion of the schedule) • That set a single-season record for the most ACC Player-of-the-Week honors won in a season (since the award began in 1969-70) • Previous record was seven by Jamison in 1997-98 and Duke's JJ Redick in 2005-06.

Averaged 23.7 points and 11.5 rebounds in 16 ACC games • Averaged 21.7 points and 11.8 boards in 13 road wins • Scored 20 or more points in 27 games and 25 or more 16 times • Attempted 10-plus free throws in 21 games • Las Vegas MVP award was his first tournament MVP honor as a Tar Heel • Led the ACC in 30-point games (three), 20-point games (27), 10-rebound games (19), 20-point/10-rebound games (10) and double-doubles (19) • Averaged 28 points and 12.1 rebounds in the seven games in February that UNC played without Ty Lawson • Scored 385 points in 16 games at home, the most points by any Tar Heel in one season in Smith Center history (previous record was 350 by Rashad McCants in 2002-03) • Averaged 24.1 points at the Smith Center, breaking the former record of 22.2 by Jamison in 1997-98.

2008 ACC Tournament: Selected Most Valuable Player after leading Carolina to its 17th Tournament title • Became the 17th ACC player and fourth Tar Heel to win ACC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP honors in the same year • Led UNC with 22.0 points and 8.7 rebounds per game • Shot 51.0 percent from the floor and 87 percent from the free throw line • Had 22 points and six boards vs. Florida State, 26 points, nine rebounds against Virginia Tech and 18 points, 11 rebounds in the title game win over Clemson • Hit the game-winning shot against the Hokies with 0.8 seconds to play to give the Tar Heels a 68-66 win • Picked up an offensive rebound and sank a 15-footer from the right baseline for the win • Was the 11th time in 12 games he scored 20 or more points.

2008 NCAA Tournament: Had 17 points and nine rebounds in 2008 Final Four vs. Kansas • Most Outstanding Player of the 2008 NCAA East Regional • Scored 28 points and had 13 rebounds in a memorable performance against Louisville in the regional championship • Scored 20 of UNC's 39 second-half points • Made 12 of 17 shots from the floor, including 8 of 9 in the second half • At one point late in the game, he scored 10 straight UNC points and 14 of 19 • Carolina led 56-55 with 11:44 to play when he began that scoring run • Clinched the victory with a pair of 17-foot jump shots with 2:30 and 1:35 to play, respectively • Had 18 points (16 in the second half) and nine boards in Sweet 16 win over Washington State • Had 21 points, six rebounds, two assists, two blocks and two steals against Mount St. Mary's.

November: Scored 25 or more points in three straight games against Iona (27), South Carolina State (26) and Old Dominion (27) and 21 against BYU to earn MVP honors at the Las Vegas Invitational • Was outstanding defensively at Ohio State, limiting Buckeye center Kosta Koufos to 1 for 10 shooting from the floor.

December: Averaged 22.9 points and 10.3 rebounds in seven December games and finished off a streak of five consecutive double-doubles • That included 29 points and 10 rebounds at Penn, 20 points and 11 rebounds at Rutgers (also held Rutgers' leading scorer to nearly seven points below his average), 27 points and 11 boards against Nicholls and 23 points, 11 rebounds vs. Valparaiso • Suffered a mild concussion at Rutgers when he fell backward into the basket support while trying to draw a charge.

January: Had 23 points and a memorable drive and slam dunk over 7-foot-7 center Kenny George in win over UNC Asheville • Took a physical pounding but led all scorers and rebounders with 27 and 11 in the win at Georgia Tech • Finished the game with two loose teeth, a cut above his lip and inside his mouth and a scratch across the side of his face • Scored 35 points in win at Miami • Made a then-career-best 15 free throws (in 16 attempts) • Scored 27 of UNC's 51 points in the second half • The 35 points mark his career-high in an away game.

February: First collegiate 20-20 game with 22 points and 21 rebounds in overtime win at Florida State • Scored 19 of his 22 in the second half and OT, including eight in overtime • Broke Rosenbluth's 51-year-old school record for career made free throws when he made one with 16:37 to play in regulation • Led all players with 28 points and 18 rebounds and was UNC's defensive player of the game in the loss to Duke • Led all players with 39 points and 13 rebounds in double OT win over Clemson • The 39 points were his second-most ever and the second-most by any player in Smith Center history • Made a career-high 17 free throws, most ever in a game in the Smith Center • Tied his career high with 19 free throw attempts • Became UNC's all-time leader in free throw attempts • Scored four points in the last 2:36 of regulation, six of UNC's eight points in the first OT and seven of UNC's 13 points in the second OT • Hit a jumper from the free throw line to give Carolina a 92-90 lead, then stole the ball at midcourt, out-raced his opponent to the ball, dove on it and was fouled • Made both free throws for a 94-90 lead • Scored 17 of his 23 points at Virginia in the first half on a dazzling display of jump shots, jump hooks and turnaround jumpers • Tossed in a jump hook with 22 seconds to play to give UNC a 75-71 lead • Won defensive player of the game honors for the second straight contest • on the team in steals with 41 • Attempted 10 or more free throws 14 times • Made 24 consecutive free throws from Jan. 31 to Feb. 10 • Made 242 free throws and attempted 315 free throws, then the second-highest single-season marks in Carolina history.

2006-07 GAME HIGHLIGHTS

November: Had 29 points in the opener against Sacred Heart • Named to All-NIT Tournament Team • Had an outstanding, 21-point, 14-rebound performance in win over Ohio State, then the No. 1-ranked team in the coaches' poll.

December: Returned home to Missouri and had 15 points and 13

NEW YEAR, NEW CHAINS

Hansbrough's workouts are designed for his game.

by Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com

Opponents have bumped Tyler Hansbrough. They've pushed him. Occasionally, they've forearmed him.

But only Carolina strength and conditioning coach Jonas Sahratian has been able to do what most every Tar Heel opponent has wanted to do: put Hansbrough in chains. Big, heavy chains.

Expect the ACC league office to have to issue a ruling on the legality of chaining up a player—it's easy to picture this idea having great popularity in Durham, Winston-Salem, Raleigh, or numerous other conference outposts—after Hansbrough incorporated them into many of his summer workouts.

"The idea was to add some resistance," Hansbrough said. "Doing squats with chains makes it tougher."

It figures. Most people get enough of a workout going to the gym and using the basic machines. Hansbrough has to add raw metal to the equation.

A couple of years ago, that might have been a jaw-dropping story. Now it's more likely to elicit a shrug from Tar Heel fans—and Hansbrough's teammates—who have already seen a little bit of everything over the past three years. Lifting weights with chains? That's nice, but is it better than pushing trucks around the Smith Center parking lot, as Hansbrough did a couple summers ago? Is it better than sprinting the length of the floor and diving on a rolling basketball to secure a home win over Clemson, as Hansbrough did last season (by the way, he also scored 39 points and grabbed 13 rebounds in that game)?

It's hard to say. At this point, the amount of Hansbrough legends circulating around Chapel Hill is outnumbered only by the amount of trophies he's accumulated in his three seasons as a Tar Heel.

He's already qualified to have his jersey retired. He's been a part of two ACC Tournament championships and a Final Four berth. He spent part of his spring traveling around the country to pick up his latest national player of the year award—he won all the major ones.

Typical of Hansbrough, he never paused to consider those awards as a group. In fact, the first time he was in the same room with all his hardware came this summer, when he posed for a picture with all the trophies.

"It was kind of overwhelming," he said. "It was the first time I'd looked at them all together. It doesn't really hit you at the time that you're winning those things. It was nice, for that day. But now it's a new year."

A new year, with new challenges. And, of course, new chains.

The best advice I ever received: "It's my world." - KD
My most prized possession is: Everything I own
Post-school ambitions: NBA and being happy
My SportsCenter dream highlight would be: Dunking on somebody, shattering the glass and then running into the crowd. Then the announcer starts to play, "Superman Dat," and everybody starts to do the dance.
The best thing about going to school at Carolina is: The fans
The best part about being a Tar Heel basketball player is: Being a part of tradition
The best thing about Coach Williams is: His awkward comedy

Robert Crawford

Shortly after Carolina beat Louisville to win the 2008 NCAA East Regional, the team bus carrying the victorious Tar Heels was headed north out of Charlotte on I-85. Longtime assistant coach Joe Holladay leaned over to Roy Williams at the front of the bus and said with astonishment: "Wow, four Final Fours in seven years. That's pretty remarkable."

Indeed it is. Not only has Williams led Carolina to Final Fours in 2005 and 2008 after leading Kansas there in 2002 and 2003, he has done it with three almost completely different groups of players. The Jayhawks featured Drew Gooden, Nick Collison and Kirk Hinrich. The 2005 national champion Tar Heels included Sean May, Raymond Felton, Rashad McCants and Jawad Williams. Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Ty Lawson starred on Carolina's 2008 regional champions.

Different seasons. Different players. Different paths to glory. One constant - Hall of Fame coach Roy Williams.

Over the last seven years, the 58-year-old Asheville, N.C., native has won 205 games, including 24 in the NCAA Tournament. That's more Final Fours, more wins and more NCAA Tournament victories than any coach in the nation.

He has led Carolina to the most wins in the school's illustrious history for one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (67), three years (90) and four years (123 from 2005-08). Last year he became only the second coach in college basketball history to lead two different schools to multiple Final Fours (with Jack Gardner of Kansas State and Utah).

Williams also had the distinction of coaching the consensus National Player of the Year (Hansbrough) in the same season in which Paul Pierce, one of his former All-Americans at Kansas, was the NBA Finals Most Valuable Player. A school record for wins, Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season and Tournament titles, East Regional crown, passing John Wooden and Bob Knight in all-time NCAA Tournament victories - it was quite a year.

Yet there he was this past July taking a week's worth of 5 a.m. wakeup calls to get to summer camps, recruiting as hard as he did 30 years ago when his mentor, Dean Smith, tabbed him to be one of his assistants on the Tar Heel bench. Williams knows only one way to approach his job - with hard work.

It is a work ethic that helped lead a small-town boy from the mountains of North Carolina to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Williams was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2007. Twenty-three of his former players from Carolina and Kansas joined him in Springfield, Mass., for the induction ceremony. Hall historians called the turnout one of the largest in recent memory.

"This will fuel my competitiveness even more to make those people that chose me to be in the Hall of Fame feel they made the right decision," Williams told ESPN's Andy Katz.

Williams became the eighth coach or player from Carolina to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame, joining an elite group that includes Dean Smith, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, James Worthy and Bob McAdoo.

Few coaches have compiled a resume as distinguished as Williams. He has led the Tar Heels to a 142-33 record in his first five seasons and sports a 20-year mark of 560-134. His winning percentage of .807 is third best in college basketball history and first among active coaches. His teams have won 12 regular-season conference titles, six conference tournament championships, been ranked No. 1 in the nation at least one time in nine different seasons and earned a No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed eight times.

In five years at Carolina, the Associated Press has ranked the Tar Heels in the Top 25 in 90 of 96 polls (all six exceptions were in 2005-06, although UNC finished that year ranked No. 10). That includes 69 Top 10 rankings, 51 times in the Top 5 and 15 weeks as the No. 1 team in the country.

But as impressive as his accomplishments are, Williams most enjoys the relationships he builds with players and staff, the journey to greatness and the opportunity to compete.

"Coach Williams helped me become a man," says Marvin Williams, who was the ACC Rookie of the Year in 2005 and the second player selected in that year's NBA Draft. "He always held me accountable for my actions on the court. He's a father figure and he's my coach. He'll always be my coach."

Wayne Simien, who played two seasons for Williams at Kansas and was on the team that Williams left for Chapel Hill, echoes those thoughts: "Coach means so much to me. He's been not only a coach, but a positive role model and a father figure."

"As a coach, I remember him as just an easygoing guy," Michael Jordan told Tar Heel Monthly in 2007. "You could definitely sit down and talk to him and he wasn't intimidating at all. He seemed like a guy right down the street.

"My father and he really connected," says Jordan. "I think it was Roy's down-homeness. It was his whole background and his understanding for where we were coming from. He made the transition so much easier. At that time I was totally unknown. Coach Williams was the best educator about what we were going through.

"His willingness to understand the athlete and get the best out of the athlete is what makes Roy a Hall of Famer," adds Jordan. "His patience, his knowledge for the game, his effort and diligence to understand the game and understand the player and how they can co-exist. To me, that's a Hall of Fame-type guy, someone who makes adjustments according to the personnel rather than forcing his way of thinking on a team or a player."

An editorial in the Lawrence (Kan.) Journal-World stated: "Williams is a winner, not only on the basketball court but also as a person. Collegiate sports need more coaches such as Williams, men and women who set an example for others to try and match."

Williams has won 28 games per season. He is the only coach to win a game in 19 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, is third behind Dean

Smith and Lute Olson for most consecutive years playing in the NCAA Tournament and is second in 30-win seasons (eight). In 30 years on college coaching staffs, Williams has been part of 835 wins and just 195 defeats.

Williams has a 59-21 record in ACC regular-season games, the most wins ever by a coach in his first five years in the No. 1 conference in America.

Williams won 418 games at Kansas from 1988-2003 and is the second-winningest coach in KU history behind Phog Allen. His 560 wins are 59 more than any other coach won in their first 20 years. Incredibly, he is already ahead of Jerry Tarkanian's mark of 530 wins after 21 seasons.

He has won national coach of the year honors six times, conference coach of the year eight times and received the John Wooden Legends of Coaching award from the Los Angeles Athletic Club in 2003.

Last year, Williams led the Tar Heels to a school-record 36 wins and became the seventh coach in ACC history to win at least three regular season championships. He is the only coach to win three regular-season titles in his first five years in the league. The Tar Heels were ranked No. 1 in the country for 14 weeks in the Associated Press poll, including the final poll. The No. 1 finish marked the 13th time in 20 years that his teams have finished the year ranked in the AP's Top 10.

Hansbrough was the consensus National Player of the Year, joining Gooden, Collison and May as the fourth man to play for Williams to earn Player of the Year honors.

Carolina won the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row, marking the first time since 1977 that UNC won the regular-season title outright and the ACC Tournament. The Tar Heels were a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last five years.

The 2007-08 Tar Heels went a perfect 13-0 record on the road. The 13 road wins were the second-most in school history and the most since the 1945-46 team went 14-2 on the road.

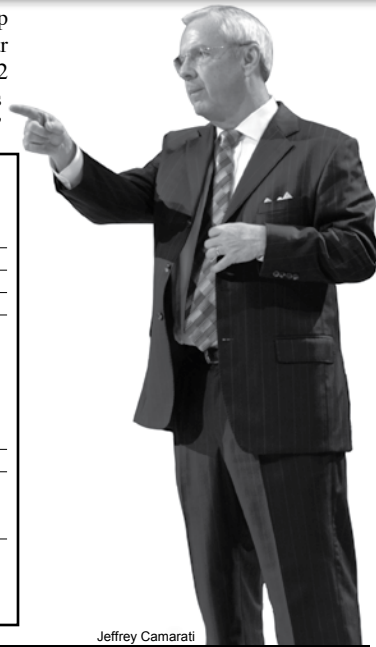

UNC led the nation in rebounding and was second in scoring at 88.6 points per game. That was the sixth time in the last seven years his teams have been in the top four nationally in scoring (first in 2002 and 2005, second in 2007 and 2008, third in 2003 and fourth in 2004). His teams have averaged 80 or more points in 17 of 20 seasons and have averaged 85.1 points in his five years at UNC. Carolina scored 100 or more points eight times (26 in the last five years) and had 90 or more points in 20 of 39 games.

His teams have finished in the Top 10 nationally in scoring in nine of his 20 seasons, in scoring margin 14 times, in field goal percentage 12 times, in win-loss percentage nine times and in field goal defense four times. Also, his squads have finished in the top seven nationally in assists per game in six of the last seven years and in the top eight nationally in rebounding margin in 10 of the last 12 years.

Williams' crowning achievement as a coach to date came on April 4, 2005, when the Tar Heels defeated No. 1 ranked Illinois, 75-70, to win UNC's fourth NCAA championship.

The 2005 national championship capped a season in which the Tar Heels went 33-4, including a 14-2 mark in the ACC. "Coach Williams put me in positions to be successful," says May, the MVP of the 2005 Final Four. "He pulled out my strengths, hid my weaknesses and taught me how to run the floor. I never wanted to run until I came here, now I love it."

Carolina led the nation in scoring average, scoring margin and assists and became the third team in history to lead the nation in scoring and win the NCAA championship.

"We all wanted to win for the seniors, but I especially wanted a national championship for Coach Williams," May said. "He's a great person and a great coach and I wanted to be on his first national championship team. I know he's going to win more, but we can always say we were on his first."

Williams takes great pride in his teams playing unselfish basketball, taking the best shots available, rebounding and playing tenacious, man-to-man defense. The 2005 Tar Heels exhibited all of those traits.

"Winning the national championship means all the preparation we had done to get to that point paid off," said McCants. "You sit back and think, all the things we did in practice every day were perfect for us. You have to commend a coach to understand that – he just designed something perfect for a bunch of players who had never won anything and for us to do everything that we've done in this short period of time is amazing."

In 2005-06, Carolina lost its top seven scorers, which was unprecedented in ACC history. Sports

Illustrated predicted Carolina would miss the NCAA Tournament and the Tar Heels were picked by the media to finish sixth in the ACC. However, Williams earned National and ACC Coach of the Year honors, leading the youngest team in Carolina history to 23 wins, a second-place ACC finish, a win at top-ranked Duke and a No. 3 regional seed in the NCAA Tournament.

"UNC's starting lineup consists of two true freshmen, two former walk-ons and a guy who wasn't even first-team all-state in high school," wrote David Glenn at ACCSports.com. "All of this is a tribute to the players, of course, but it's an even bigger tribute to their leader. Williams wasn't the only coach in America who lost all five starters from last season. He's the only one who's winning big anyway."

In 2006-07, Carolina went 31-7, won a share of the ACC regular-season title and the ACC Tournament. UNC was a No. 1 seed in the NCAA East Regional and came within an overtime of advancing to another Final Four. Hansbrough was a consensus first-team All-America and Brandan Wright became the third Tar Heel in as many years to win ACC Rookie of the Year honors. Carolina led the ACC and was second in the nation in scoring at 85.7 points per game.

On Dec. 9, 2006, Carolina beat High Point for his 500th win. No coach in history had won 500 games in less than 20 seasons.

game, is highly organized, and also is honest in recruiting.

"He's like Tiger Woods in golf — they have the whole package," Smith adds. "I don't know anyone else who does. I certainly consider him to be the best college coach in the country."

Williams became the UNC head coach on April 14, 2003, 10 days after leading Kansas to the NCAA championship game against Syracuse.

"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball," says Bill Walton, Hall of Fame player and TV analyst. "His impact on young people's lives throughout this great land will change the course of history."

Williams, whose teams are 271-26 at home (70-9 at the Smith Center), has established himself as one of the top coaches and premier program builders in America. He is one of the most respected men in college basketball among coaches, players, parents, administrators and media. It was evident by the number of well-wishes, congratulatory calls and letters Williams received before and after winning the national championship and being elected to the Hall of Fame, including many from former Kansas players and parents.

"I know so much more about basketball," said Marvin Williams. "Coach Williams has so much knowledge about the game it is unbelievable. He is a great coach and he loves to teach. He's taught me so much about basketball, especially the little things. I didn't know little things made that big of a difference in a basketball game."

Williams has taken six teams to the Final Four, including 1991, 1993, 2002 and 2003 at Kansas and 2005 and 2008 at Carolina. Only John Wooden, Dean Smith and Mike Krzyzewski have more Final Four appearances.

"He's the best coach in college basketball," says Antawn Jamison. "He reminds me a lot of Coach Smith. Not just in terms of basketball, but as far as knowing the importance of having good people, caring about making sure they are successful after basketball. He'll have a big influence over every player that comes through the program, preparing them for life. That's what it's all about. It's not just about being a coach, but being like a father figure."

The Williams family — Scott, Katie, Kimberly, Wanda and Roy — on a recent trip to Hawaii.

Williams has won 20 or more games 18 times in 20 years (winning 19 in his first seasons at Kansas and Carolina), including 14 straight seasons at Kansas, a streak that equals the third longest in NCAA history.

"He's going to teach you the fundamentals of the game and off the court he cares about his kids," says Jackie Manuel, starting guard on the 2005 national champions. "He wants the best for his kids. He's going to push you; he's trying to bring the best out of you. If I have a son, I would definitely let him play for Coach Williams."

"Roy is as good as it gets in a person," says Hall of Fame guard and NBA executive Jerry West. "There's nothing deceptive about him. He is what he is — a wonderful person and a great coach. If you watch his teams, you know they've been coached. If you go to his practices, you know why his teams are successful. His players play the right way. They're team-oriented. They play a fun way offensively. They're aggressive. He changes defenses. He does it all. He's just a wonderful coach."

Williams spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach under Smith at Carolina. From 1978-88, he helped coach such Tar Heel standouts as Mike O'Koren, Al Wood, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Matt Doherty, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty, Kenny Smith, Joe Wolf, Steve Hale, Jeff Lebo, J.R. Reid and Scott Williams.

The Tar Heels played in the NCAA Tournament in each of his 10 seasons as an assistant. Carolina won the NCAA title in 1982, finished second in 1981 and won or shared six ACC regular-season titles and three ACC Tournament championships (1979, 1981, 1982).

"When I think of him, I think of his honesty, integrity and tremendous work ethic," says Daugherty, a five-time NBA All-Star with the Cleveland Cavaliers. "He is a classy, classy individual. But he is also one of the toughest people I have ever met in my life. No one is tougher than Roy Williams, but he is fair. That's why the kids love him so much. When you have played four years for him he will be a friend for life and you will be a better man, and appreciate every ounce of the experience when people around the country, they'll say there's no better college coach than Roy Williams."

He has earned National Coach of the Year honors in 1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005 and 2006. He was Big Eight/Big 12 Coach of the Year seven times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002 and 2003) and ACC Coach of the Year in 2006.

Williams coached a number of the finest Kansas players in history, including Mark Randall, Adonis Jordan, Rex Walters, Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard, Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Nick Collison, Kirk Hinrich and Wayne Simien.

The Jayhawks averaged 27.9 wins per season with a high of 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions.

Kansas went 30-8 in 2002-03, his final year in Lawrence. Led by Collison, the NABC National Player of the Year, and Hinrich, another All-America, the Jayhawks reached the national championship game. It was KU's first back-to-back appearance in the Final Four since 1952-53.

In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season. Kansas was a regular in the AP Top 25 from 1991 to 1999, placing in the AP poll for 145 consecutive weeks. Overall, Williams had Kansas in the AP Top 25 in 242 of 268 weekly polls. Kansas reached the No. 1 ranking in the country in six different seasons and was ranked at least No. 2 in the nation in 11 of the 15 seasons.

The Jayhawks went 201-17 (92.2) in Allen Fieldhouse, and won 62 consecutive games in Allen from February 1994 to December 1998.

Williams has coached players to 23 first-team all-conference honors, including six UNC selections (McCants in 2003-04, Felton and May in 2004-05 and Hansbrough in each of the last three seasons). Hansbrough became the first freshman in league history to be selected unanimously to the All-ACC team, and last year became only the third player in ACC history to be unanimously selected three times. Six players – five Jayhawks and Hansbrough – have won conference player of the year honors.

Hansbrough, who will finish his career as one of the most decorated players in ACC history, was a repeat

All-America last year, the 11th first-team All-America season by one of Williams' players. It also marked the fourth consecutive year Carolina's top inside threat earned first-team All-America honors (May in 2005, Hansbrough in 2006, 2007 and 2008).

Gooden (2002), Collison (2003), May (2005) and Hansbrough (2008) were National Players of the Year and LaFrentz (1997 and 1998), Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002), Collison (2003) and Hansbrough (2007 and 2008) have earned consensus first-team All-America honors.

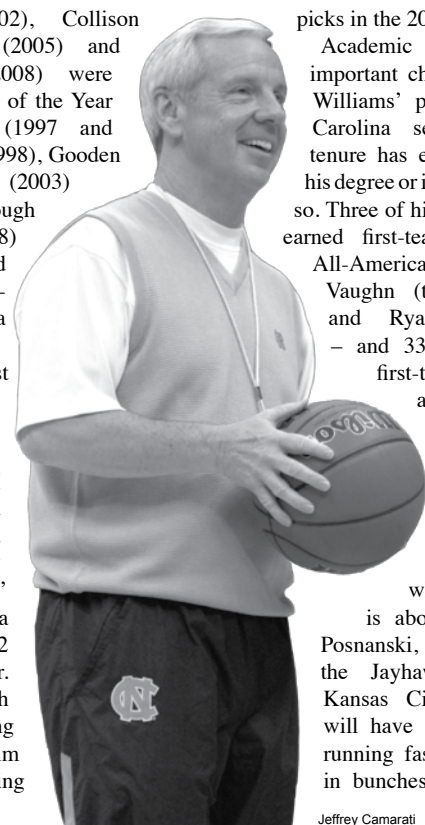

"I was just coming (to Kansas) to play basketball for a man I knew I could trust and a man I hoped would make my dreams a reality," said LaFrentz, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year. "Thanks to Coach Williams for doing that. Thanks to him for always being there, for always being an example for every player who has come into his program and, most importantly, thanks for being a friend."

Sixteen of his players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including the four Tar Heels who were selected in the first 14 picks in the 2005 draft.

Academic priority is an important characteristic of Williams' program. Each Carolina senior in his tenure has either received his degree or is on track to do so. Three of his players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors – Vaughn (twice), Haase and Ryan Robertson – and 33 have earned first-team academic all-conference honors.

"He will win with class and dignity because that's what the man is about," says Joe Posnanski, who covered the Jayhawks for the Kansas City Star. "He will have the Tar Heels running fast and scoring in bunches, and he will build on the legacy of the man he admires most.”

Williams grew up outside of Asheville, N.C., in the small community of Biltmore. He attended T. C. Roberson High School, where he earned letters in basketball and baseball for four seasons. In basketball, playing for Coach Buddy Baldwin, he was named all-county and all-conference for two years (1967 and 1968), all-western North Carolina in 1968 and served as captain in the North Carolina Blue-White All-Star Game.

Much of Williams’ coaching style comes from spending so many years observing and then coaching with Smith. Williams played on Carolina’s freshman team in 1968-69 under Bill Guthridge.

Williams often sat in on Smith’s varsity practice sessions taking notes and furthering his knowledge of the game, notes Williams maintains even today. Williams’ practices are intense, instructive and precise.

“Practices are very intense, you get a lot done in a small amount of time,” says 2005 Tar Heel tri-captain Jawad Williams. “When you put fun and hard work together, that’s very nice. We get a lot more accomplished.”

Roy Williams earned two degrees from Carolina — a bachelor’s degree in education in 1972 and an M.A.T. in 1973.

In 1973, Williams began his coaching career at Owen High School in Swannanoa, N.C. He coached basketball and boys’ golf for five years, ninth-grade football for four years and served as athletic director for two years.

He joined Smith’s staff as an assistant coach in 1978, adding to his income by traveling all over the state selling basketball team calendars and delivering Smith’s weekly TV show to affiliates. While a member of Smith’s staff, the Tar Heels went 275-61.

He coached for USA Basketball teams in the 1991 World University Games in England, the 1992 U.S. Olympic Development Team, a U-22 tournament in Argentina in 1993, and the 2004 Olympics in Greece. He was NABC president in 2001-02 and served on the NCAA rules committee for six years, chairing the committee in 2000-01.

Several of his staff and players have gone on to head coaching positions, including Matt Doherty (the former head coach at Notre Dame, UNC and Florida Atlantic, now in his third year at SMU), Neil Dougherty (six Williams (born August 1, 1950) and his wife, Wanda, a 1972 Carolina graduate, have a son, Scott, and a daughter, Kimberly.

Scott earned a business degree from UNC and played point guard on the basketball team in 1997-98 and 1998-99. He and his wife, Katie (Wolford), live in Charlotte. Katie is a 2001 Carolina graduate and former cheerleader. She earned a doctorate in physical therapy from Boston University. Kimberly, who lives in Charlotte, is a 2002 Carolina graduate with a degree in English and a former member of the UNC dance team.

The Williams family has contributed more than $250,000 to the Carolina Covenant, an initiative at UNC that allows low-income students to attend the University debt free. Roy and Wanda serve as honorary co-chairs of a $10 million campaign to endow the program. The Williams also have hosted an annual Coaches vs. Cancer breakfast that has raised more than $500,000 and directed the autograph basketball drive that has contributed more than $400,000 to local charities.

JOE HOLLADAY

Assistant Coach

One of the nation's most experienced assistant coaches, Joe Holladay is in his sixth season as an assistant coach with the Tar Heels and his 16th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff. He has a combined record of 454-104 (.814) on the bench with Williams.

Holladay's duties include recruiting, scouting and day-to-day basketball operations and he oversees the team's academic progress.

He works closely with the Tar Heel big men, including three-time first-team All-America and 2008 National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough. Under Holladay's tutelage, Sean May was named National Player of the Year and Final Four MVP in 2005.

Carolina won the 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament after also capturing the conference regular season title. It was the ninth time Holladay's teams have finished first in the conference race. The Tar Heels reached the 2008 NCAA Final Four, marking Holladay's fourth Final Four appearance in the last seven years.

Carolina also won the 2007 ACC Tournament after tying for the regular season title.

The Tar Heels won the 2004-05 ACC regular-season title and the NCAA championship. The Tar Heels were No. 1 in the nation in scoring, assists and scoring margin, fifth in field goal percentage and eighth in rebounding.

Holladay came to Carolina prior to the 2003-04 season and helped the Tar Heels return to the NCAA Tournament.

Including former Tar Heels Brandan Wright, Marvin Williams, Raymond Felton, May and Rashad McCants, 14 of Holladay's players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Four of his student-athletes earned first-team academic All-America honors and he has coached 26 first-team academic all-conference honorees in the last 13 years.

Holladay joined Williams at the University of Kansas prior to the 1993-94 season after 23 stellar years as a high school coach, teacher and administrator. The Jayhawks posted a cumulative record of 312-71 (.815) during his tenure. Kansas played in the 2002 and 2003 NCAA Final Fours, including the 2003 national championship game.

Kansas finished the year ranked in the Top 10 in the Associated Press poll six times, including No. 1 in 1997 and No. 2 in 1998 and 2002.

A 1969 University of Oklahoma graduate with a degree in history, Holladay was a standout guard for the Sooners from 1966-69. As a senior, he served as team captain.

Holladay earned a master's degree in counseling in 1975 from East Central State University in Oklahoma.

STEVE ROBINSON

Steve Robinson

Ranking among the nation's top recruiters and a former head coach, Steve Robinson is in his sixth year as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina and his 14th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff. He has been the NCAA field in his first season. The Seminoles beat No. 5-ranked Arizona, the defending national champions, and upset fifth-seeded TCU in the NCAA first round.

Robinson was head coach at Tulsa in 1995-96 and 1996-97. He led the named one of the top 25 recruiters in college basketball three times since coming to Carolina.

His primary responsibilities include scouting, recruiting and bench coaching. He helped recruit future NBA Draft Lottery picks Marvin Williams, Brandan Wright and Paul Pierce to Carolina and Kansas.

Last season, the Tar Heels won the ACC Tournament and conference regular season championships for the second straight year while also reaching the NCAA Final Four.

In 2006-07, Carolina won a share of the ACC regular season crown and the ACC Tournament, reaching the NCAA regional finals.

In 2004-05, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title and beat the No. 1 ranked team in the nation to win the NCAA championship.

Robinson was head coach at the University of Tulsa for two years (1995-97) and at Florida State University for five years (1997-2002).

As head coach at Florida State, he led the Seminoles to the second round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament, becoming the first coach in school history to reach Golden Hurricane to a 46-18 record and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament. In his first year, Tulsa won 22 games and won the Missouri Valley Tournament for the first time in 10 years. In 1996-97, Tulsa went 24-10 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For his efforts, Robinson was named the Coach of the Year in the WAC Mountain Division. The 24 wins were the second-most in Tulsa history.

Robinson has a record of 333-84 (.799) on the bench with Williams. He was an assistant at Kansas from 1988-95 and in 2002-03, during which the Jayhawks posted a combined record of 214-59. He was the team's academic coordinator; nine players made the Big Eight All-Academic Team and 37 had grade point averages of 3.0 or better.

Before joining Williams in 1988, Robinson spent two years as an assistant coach at Cornell and three seasons at his alma mater, Radford. In 1988, Cornell won the Ivy League title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 35 years.

A native of Roanoke, Va., Robinson graduated from William

Fleming High School, and attended Ferrum Junior College, where he played basketball for two seasons. He was one of three student-athletes to receive Radford's first athletic scholarships, and was team captain in 1980 and 1981. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1981 and his master's degree in counseling in 1985, both from Radford.

He is a member of both the Ferrum Junior College and Radford University Halls of Fame.

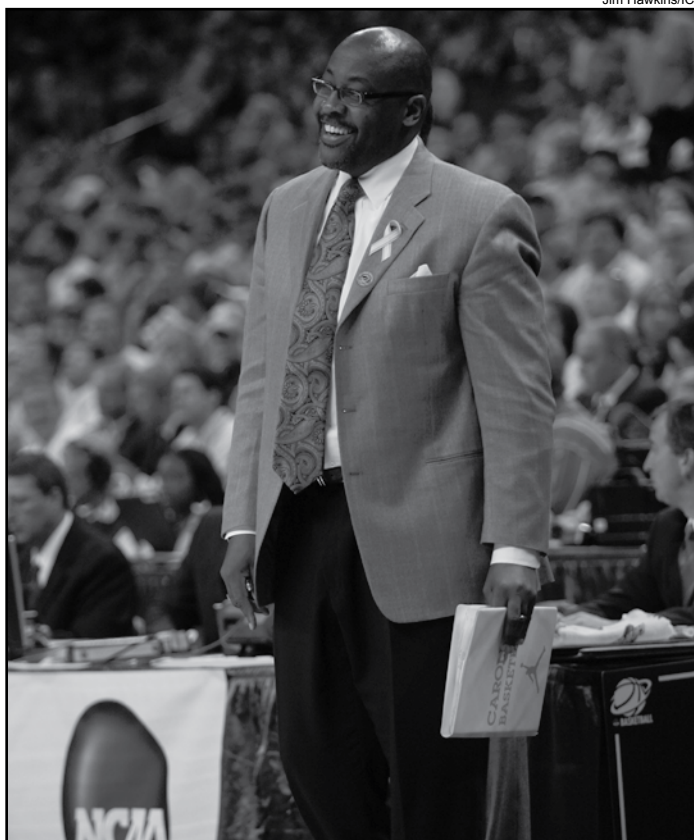

Robinson was born Oct. 29, 1957. He and his wife, Lisa, have and All-NCAA Final Four honors and was the winner of the Bob Cousy Award as the top point guard in the nation.

In his nine years on Williams' staff at Kansas and Carolina, those teams have a combined record of 255-62 and played in four Final Fours.

McGrath earned a scholarship prior to the start of his freshman season at Kansas. He was the top reserve behind first-team All-America Jacque Vaughn in 1994-95 and Ryan Robertson as a senior.

During his playing career, the Jayhawks won four Big Eight or Big 12 regular-season championships and the Big 12 Tournament championship in 1997 and 1998. Kansas went 123-17 and was ranked No. 5, 4, 1 and 2 in the nation, respectively, in the final Associated Press polls.

The Jayhawks were a perfect 58-0 at Allen Fieldhouse in McGrath's career.

In 1997-98, McGrath was a tri-captain. McGrath roomed with current Tar Heel director of basketball operations Jerod Haase.

McGrath played in 112 career games, scored 82 points, had 113 assists and 35 steals. He had a better than 2:1 assist to turnover ratio, including 61 assists and just 24 turnovers as a senior. He scored his first basket as a freshman — a three-pointer — at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum.

He was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection.

Colin Bryan (C.B.) McGrath was born Nov. 21, 1975, in Indianapolis, Ind. He is one of 20 members of his family who attended the University of Kansas.

McGrath attended Topeka West High School, where he earned 13 varsity letters in basketball, cross country, track and golf. He was the Kansas High School Player of the Year in basketball as a senior and placed in the top 10 in the state in cross country and golf.

He earned a B.A. in human biology and a master's degree in education. McGrath's wife, Kris, played tennis at KU, where she was the Big 12 Player of the Year. The couple had twin daughters, Kate and Addison, in August 2006. Their son, Hunter, was born in August 2008.

Quod Haase

A Naismith and Wooden Award candidate while playing shooting guard at the University of Kansas, Director of Basketball Operations Jerod Haase is in his sixth year at North Carolina and his 10th season as a member of Roy Williams' staff.

In addition to his administrative and team duties, which include organizing the squad's travel, Haase has spent three seasons as the head coach of UNC's junior varsity program.

Carolina won the 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament after also capturing the conference regular season title. The Tar Heels also reached the NCAA Final Four, marking Haase's fourth Final Four berth in the last seven years.

In 2006-07, Haase helped Carolina to a 31-7 record, a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title and the 2007 ACC Tournament championship.

In 2004-05, Haase helped lead the Tar Heels to a 33-4 record and 2005 NCAA championship.

Kansas and Carolina have combined to win 255 of 317 games (80.4 percent) in his nine years on Williams' staff.

Haase attended the University of California in 1992-93, and then transferred to Kansas. He helped lead the Jayhawks to three consecutive conference titles and finished his career ranked in the Top 10 among school leaders in assists, three-point field goals and steals.

He started 99 of 101 games at Kansas and scored 1,264 points, averaging 12.5 per game and reaching double figures 74 times.

In his three years, the Jayhawks went 89-13 and were ranked No. 5, 4 and 1 in the nation in the final media poll, respectively. As a senior, Haase started with Jacqu Vaughn, Scot Pollard, Paul Pierce and Raef LaFrentz as Kansas went 34-2. He averaged 12.0 points despite playing with a broken wrist.

He scored a career-high 30 points against Temple as a junior. That year he was named to the Big Eight All-Defensive Team. He scored 16 points, including the game-winning three-point field goal, to beat Arizona, 83-80, in the 1996 NCAA regional semifinal.

As a sophomore in 1994-95, the South Lake Tahoe, Calif., native was named the Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year and was a second-team all-conference selection. He led Kansas with 15.0 points a game.

He started 23 games in 1992-

JONAS SAHRATIAN Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Jonas Sahratian is entering his fifth season as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the Tar Heel men's basketball program after serving in the same capacity at the University of Kansas for five seasons.

Sahratian coordinates strength and conditioning for men's basketball and also works with the diving team.

He worked with Carolina head coach Roy Williams in Lawrence from January 1999 to April 2003. In 2003-04, he worked with KU basketball and also coordinated strength and conditioning for the volleyball, swimming and diving teams.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Sahratian graduated from Western Michigan University in 1997 with a bachelor of science degree in exercise science. In 2000, he received his master's in exercise physiology from Kansas.

In addition to working with Kansas athletics, Sahratian interned for two years at the Chicago Bulls/Vermeil's Sports and Fitness in Deerfield, Ill. He worked there during the Bulls' NBA championship seasons in 1996-97 and 1997-98.

He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a certified club coach through USA Weightlifting.

Sahratian (pronounced suh-RAY-shun) and his wife, Grechen, reside in Durham.

CHRIS HIRTH Head Athletic Trainer

Chris Hirth is in his first season as the head athletic trainer for men's basketball at the University of North Carolina and his 13th year overall working in the Carolina athletic department.

In addition to his duties with the basketball team,

Hirth is the head trainer for the UNC swimming and diving teams, supervisor of the Smith Center training room and a lecturer in the Exercise and Sport Science Department. He also is a staff physical therapist with Carolina's Campus Health Services. In his tenure at UNC, Hirth has worked with the men's soccer, gymnastics, women's lacrosse and track and field squads. He was a part of the 2001 Tar Heel men's soccer team that won the NCAA championship.

Hirth earned a BS in physical therapy from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1989 and a MS in human movement science from UNC in 1994.

Hirth is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the American Physical Therapy Association. He has a PES and CES through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Hirth is a native of Milwaukee, Wis. He and his wife, Anna, have a son, Blake.

WAYNE WALDEN Associate Director of the Academic Support Center

Wayne Walden enters his sixth season with the University of North Carolina academic advisory staff, having arrived in the summer of 2003 after spending 16 years in the student support services office at the University of Kansas.

At Carolina, Walden coordinates academic support for men's basketball, volleyball and men's and women's swimming and diving. He oversees scheduling, registration, structured study halls, tutorial services and progress toward degrees for the student-athletes in those programs.

Walden was the Director of Degree and Career Counseling at Kansas and worked with the men's basketball, baseball, tennis and volleyball programs. He was also an instructor in KU's School of Education, where he taught a course designed to help seniors make the transition to post-college experiences.

Walden is a native of Topeka, Kan. He graduated from KU in 1984 with a degree in business administration and earned his master's in counseling psychology from Kansas in 1990.

ERIC HOOTS Video Coordinator

Eric Hoots is in his fifth season as video coordinator in the UNC Basketball office. His primary duties include taping Tar Heel games and practices, coordinating the exchange of scouting tape and supervising day-to-day video needs.

Hoots, a 2004 UNC graduate with a degree in African-American Studies and Interpersonal Communications, was a three-year Tar Heel letterman as a varsity manager from 2001-2004. He served as head manager as a senior.

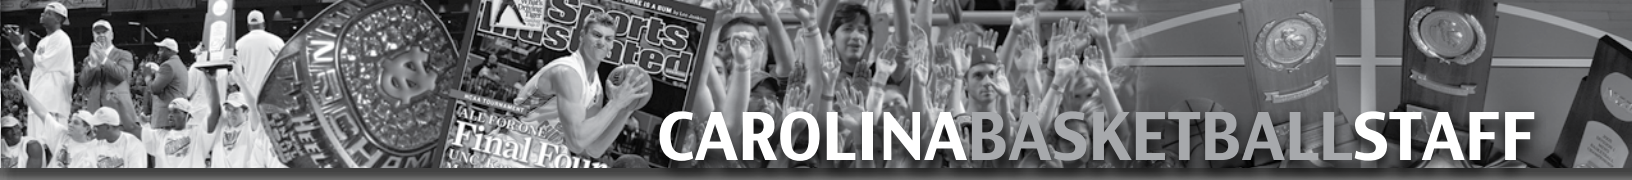

A native of Newton, N.C., Hoots attended Bandys High School in Catawba, where he played two years of varsity basketball.

Hoots is currently working toward his Master's in Sports Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.

He is engaged to marry Amy Howe, the assistant director of tickets and parking for the Rams Club, in the spring of 2009.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

- U.S. News & World Report has consistently ranked UNC in the top five nationally among public universities and in the top 30 of all colleges.

- Carolina was rated among 25 "New Ivy" campuses in 2007 by Kaplan/Newsweek.

- UNC ranked third among major U.S. universities in the percentage of African-American students in the 2007 first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education.

- Kenan-Flagler Business School ranked 12th in BusinessWeek magazine's list of the best undergraduate business programs. Fortune Small Business magazine ranked Carolina as one of America's best colleges for entrepreneurs for MBA, undergraduate and double major programs.

- The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century. Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the University was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789.

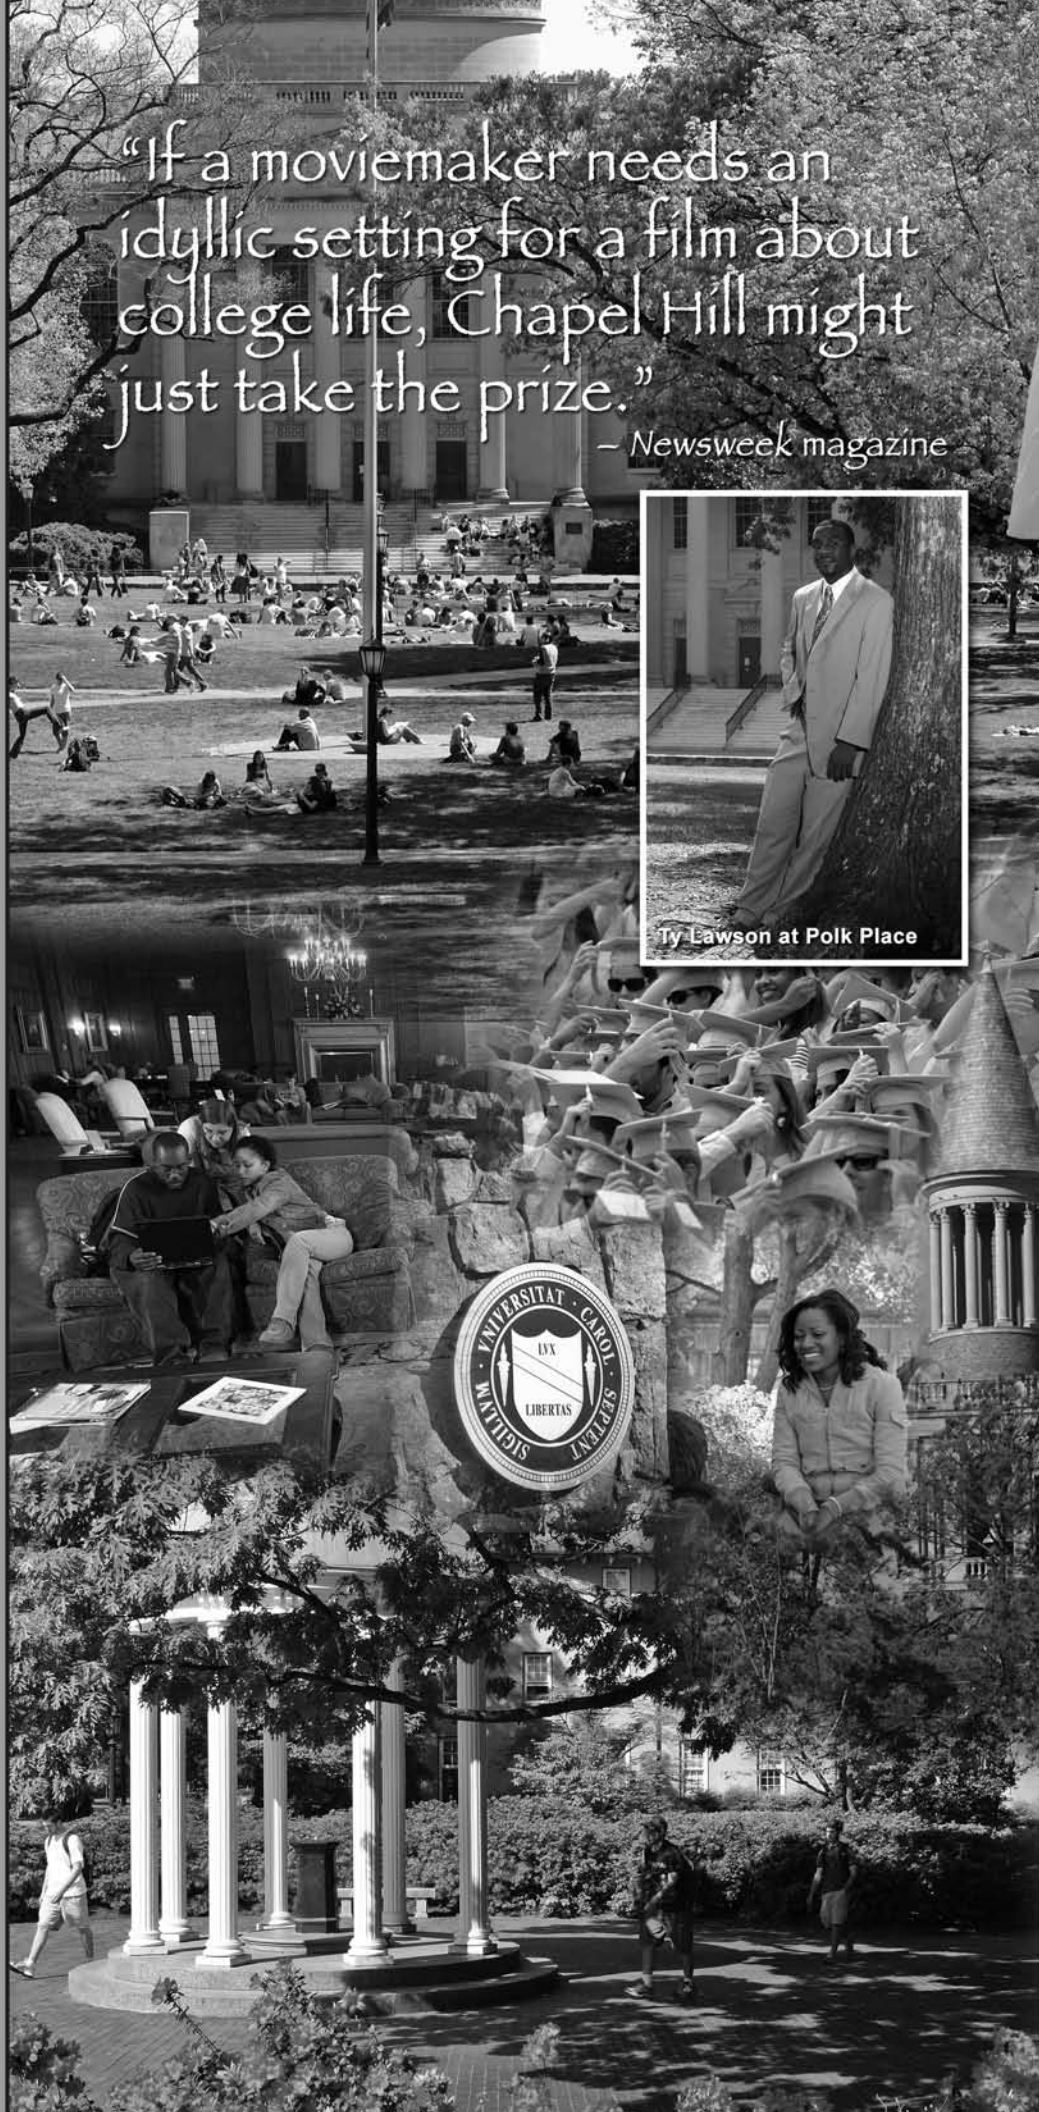

- The Class of 2011's 3,895 students – part of a class that is more diverse than ever – came from 94 N.C. counties, 45 states, the District of Columbia and 22 countries.

"If a moviemaker needs an idyllic setting for a film about college life, Chapel Hill might just take the prize."

– Newsweek magazine

Ty Lawson at Polk Place

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- When the NCAA released its multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) figures in 2008, the Carolina men's basketball team passed with flying colors. The Tar Heels' APR of 995 ranked in the top 10 percent among all Division I basketball programs.

In 2007 rankings, UNC boasted a graduation rate of 86 percent for classes entering in 1997-2000. UNC was the only 2008 Final Four team to graduate 50 percent or more of its players in that span.

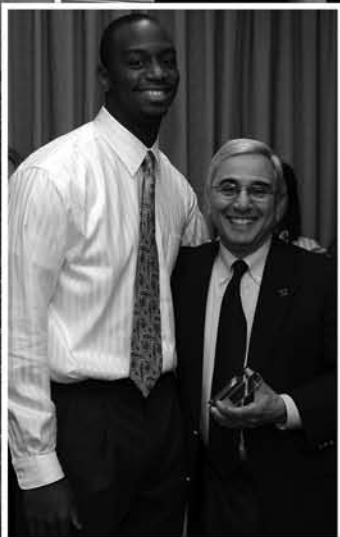

- Every senior during coach Roy Williams' years at Carolina has graduated or is on track to receive his degree.

- "A lot of the other programs were telling me how I could be this and that, but Carolina always talked about getting an education first. I know how important it is to Coach Smith that the players get their degrees. In some ways it is a show of respect for Coach and the Carolina family to go ahead and work and get your degree."

– Antawn Jamison
NBA All-Star and National Collegiate Player of the Year

- "When you've got youngsters thinking about going pro early, and they see guys like Marvin [Williams] and Sean [May] come back ... I think it plants a seed that carries on, so it does nothing but help our program. Those are just special kids. I know they know about Vince Carter coming back, Antawn coming back, Michael Jordan coming back, J.R. Reid ..."

– Joe Holladay
UNC Assistant Coach

Senior Marcus Ginyard was the recipient of a Three-Dimensional Leader Award, the Carolina Leadership Academy's highest honor, for 2007-08. Ginyard, at left with Director of Athletics Dick Baddour, will serve as president of UNC's Student-Athlete Advisory Council for 2008-09.

As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world-class leaders in athletics, academics and life.

WHY CAROLINA?

• "What's unique is the unity and the bond established in the short time you are at the University. It's a family atmosphere. You find yourself taking care of family members. It's hard for people outside of that to understand, but as long as people within understand it's something we cherish, no matter what happens to us or where we go. You will always cherish that relationship from the University of North Carolina."

– Michael Jordan

• "Simply put, North Carolina has everything you want in a basketball program: tradition, historical success, current success, an enormous and passionate fan base, quality facilities, complete national recruiting reach and a Hall of Fame coach who already has won a national title at the school."

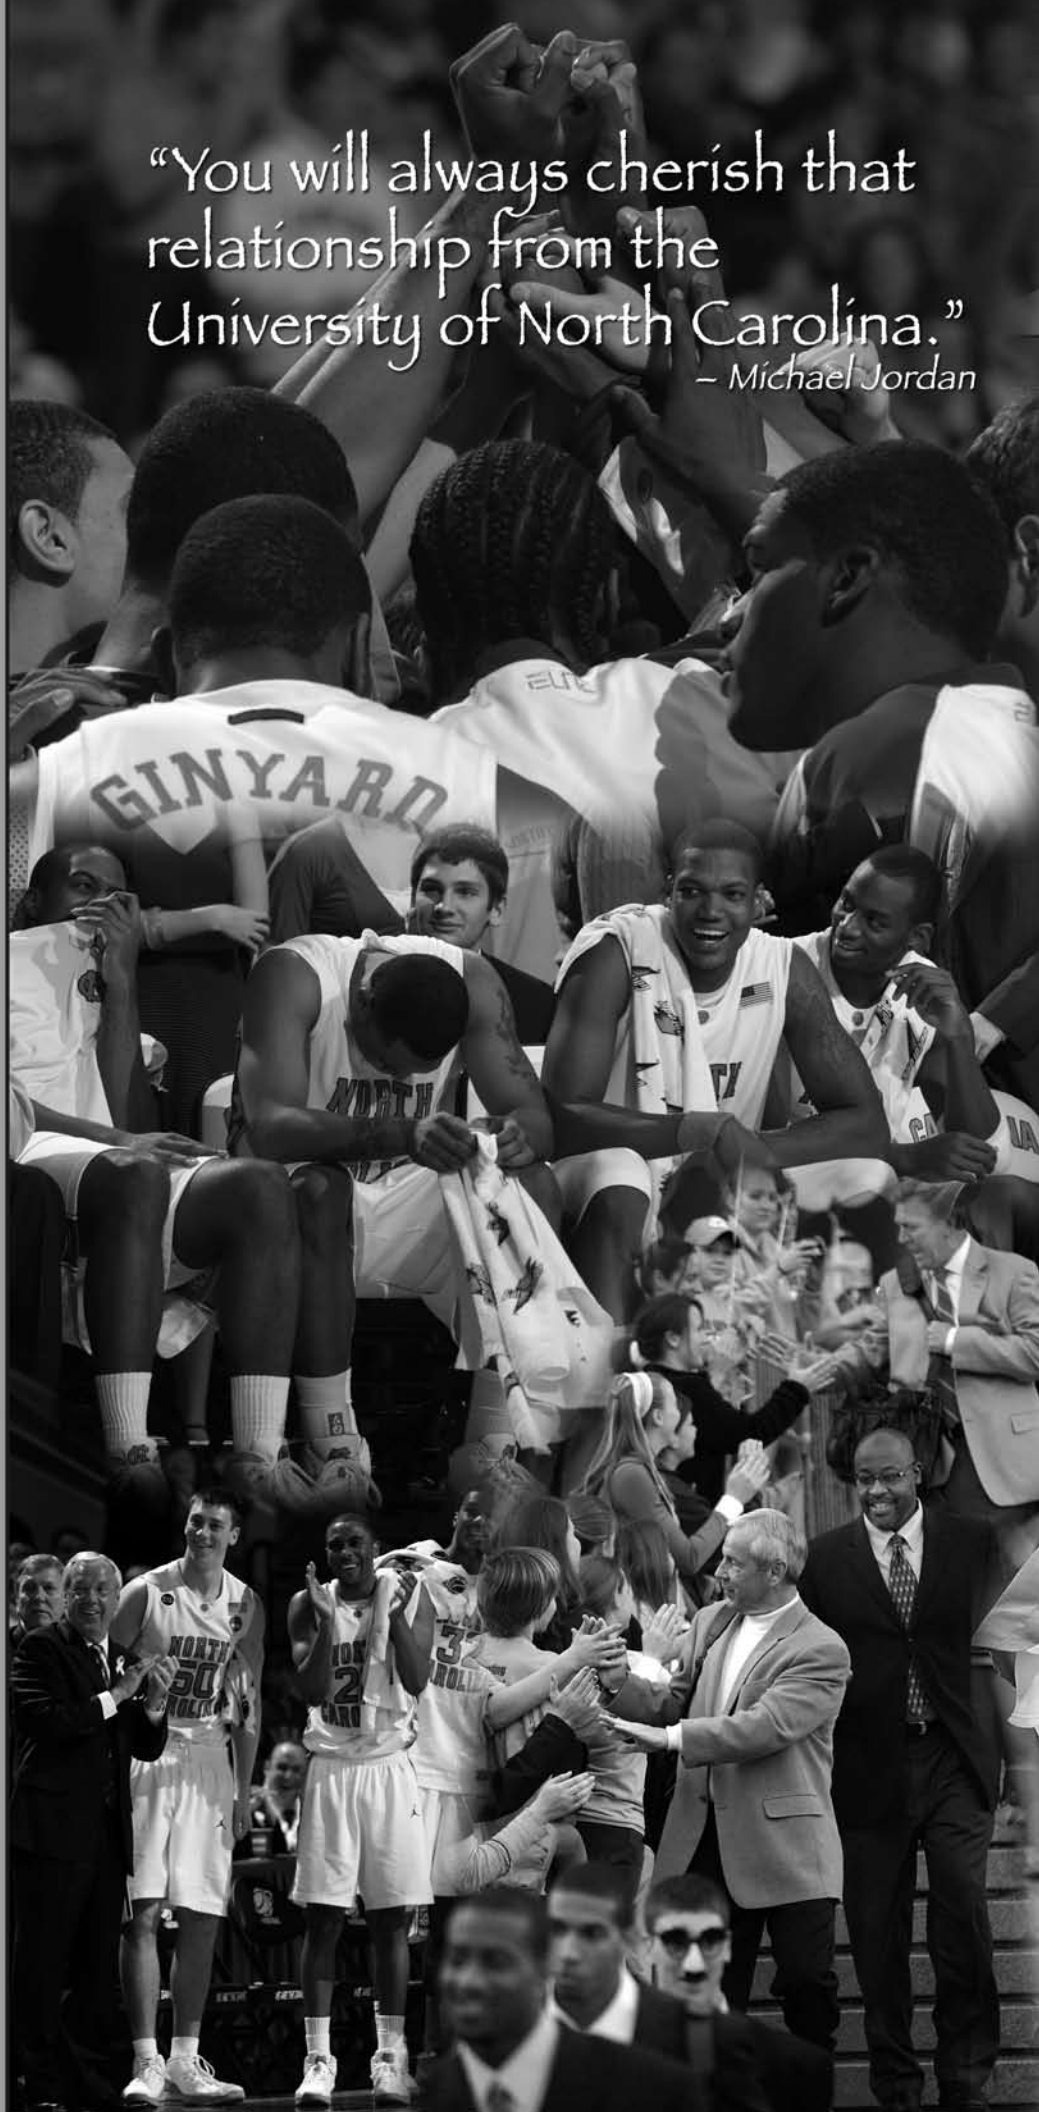

– ESPN.com, 2007

• Sports Illustrated ranked Carolina's athletic department as the nation's best in 2007, lauding UNC's across-the-board success in all sports.

• Carolina has won 90 games in the last three seasons, equaling the most wins in any three-year stretch in program history.

"You will always cherish that relationship from the University of North Carolina."

CAROLINA FAMILY

• "Coming to Carolina is the best decision I've ever made. People in this community opened their arms to me. It's a place where I can always say I love. It's a place where I can always call home, where I can see myself living for a long time. I'm forever grateful for my memories here and the people I've met here, the relationships I've developed. It's something I'll always cherish for the rest of my life."

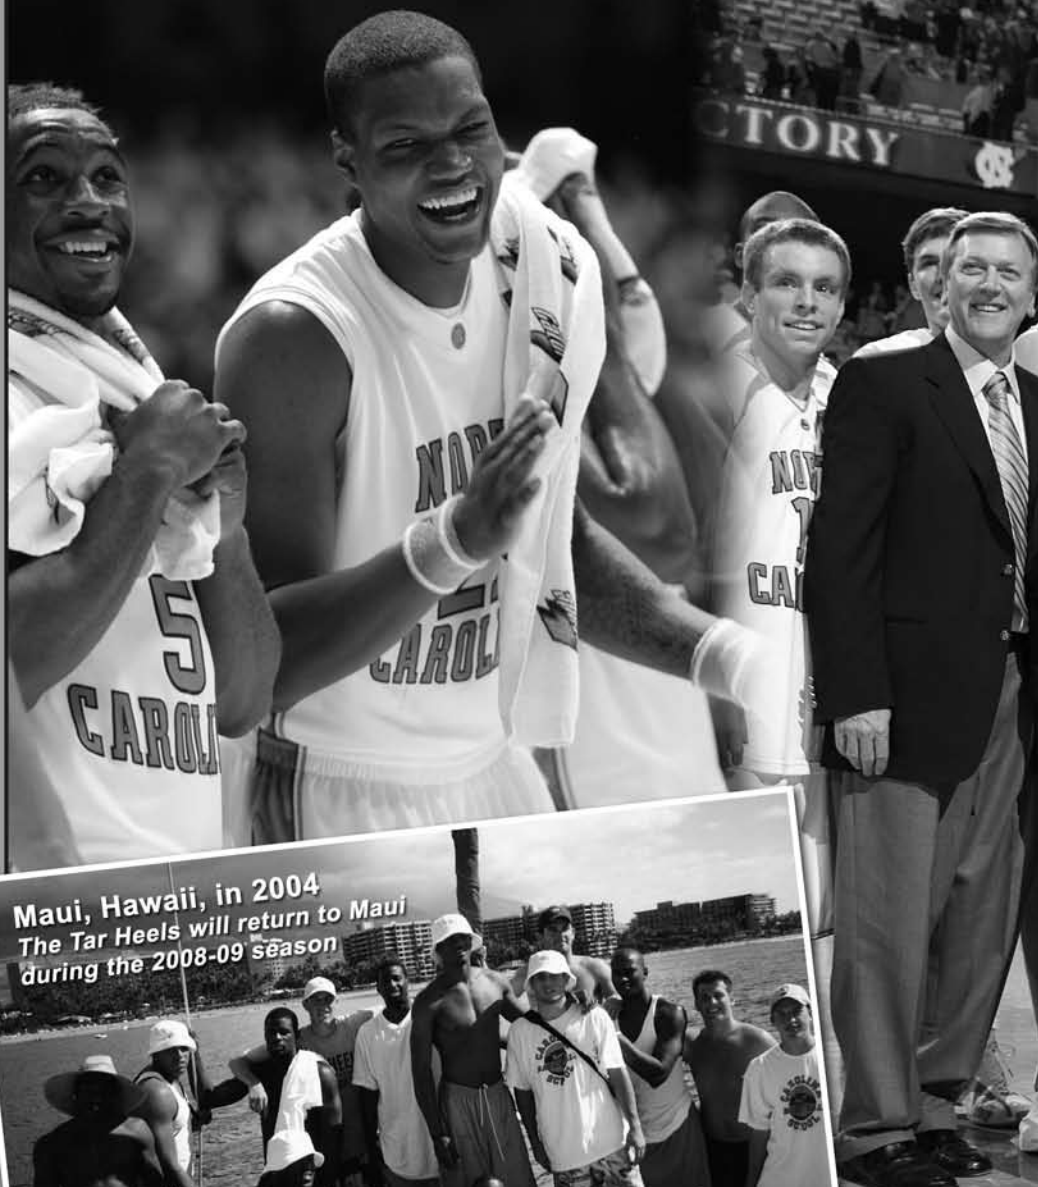

— Sean May,
Charlotte Bobcats

• "The bond among all these Tar Heels, including Michael Jordan ... the bond among these Tar Heels who played for Dean Smith especially, is extraordinary over generations. It's extraordinary."

— Tony Kornheiser,
ESPN's Pardon the Interruption,
April 29, 2008

• "I came to Carolina because I wanted to play for Coach Williams. Being a Carolina basketball player is that pride you have, the tradition of winning, being a part of something so special. That feeling of running out of the tunnel in the Smith Center is amazing. I remember the first time I did it. I was speechless. It's been a dream of mine to play at Carolina my whole life, so to run out of that tunnel every game is a special feeling."

OVER-THE-TOP ATMOSPHERE

- UNC averaged 20,497 fans for home games at the Smith Center last year, ranking second in the NCAA. The Tar Heels have been in the top five nationally in home attendance in 21 of the past 22 seasons.

- Carolina students receive approximately 6,000 tickets for each home game, more than at any other ACC school.

- After his team played at the Smith Center, Ohio State coach Thad Matta said, "I think I've never been in a building that was as loud as that building."

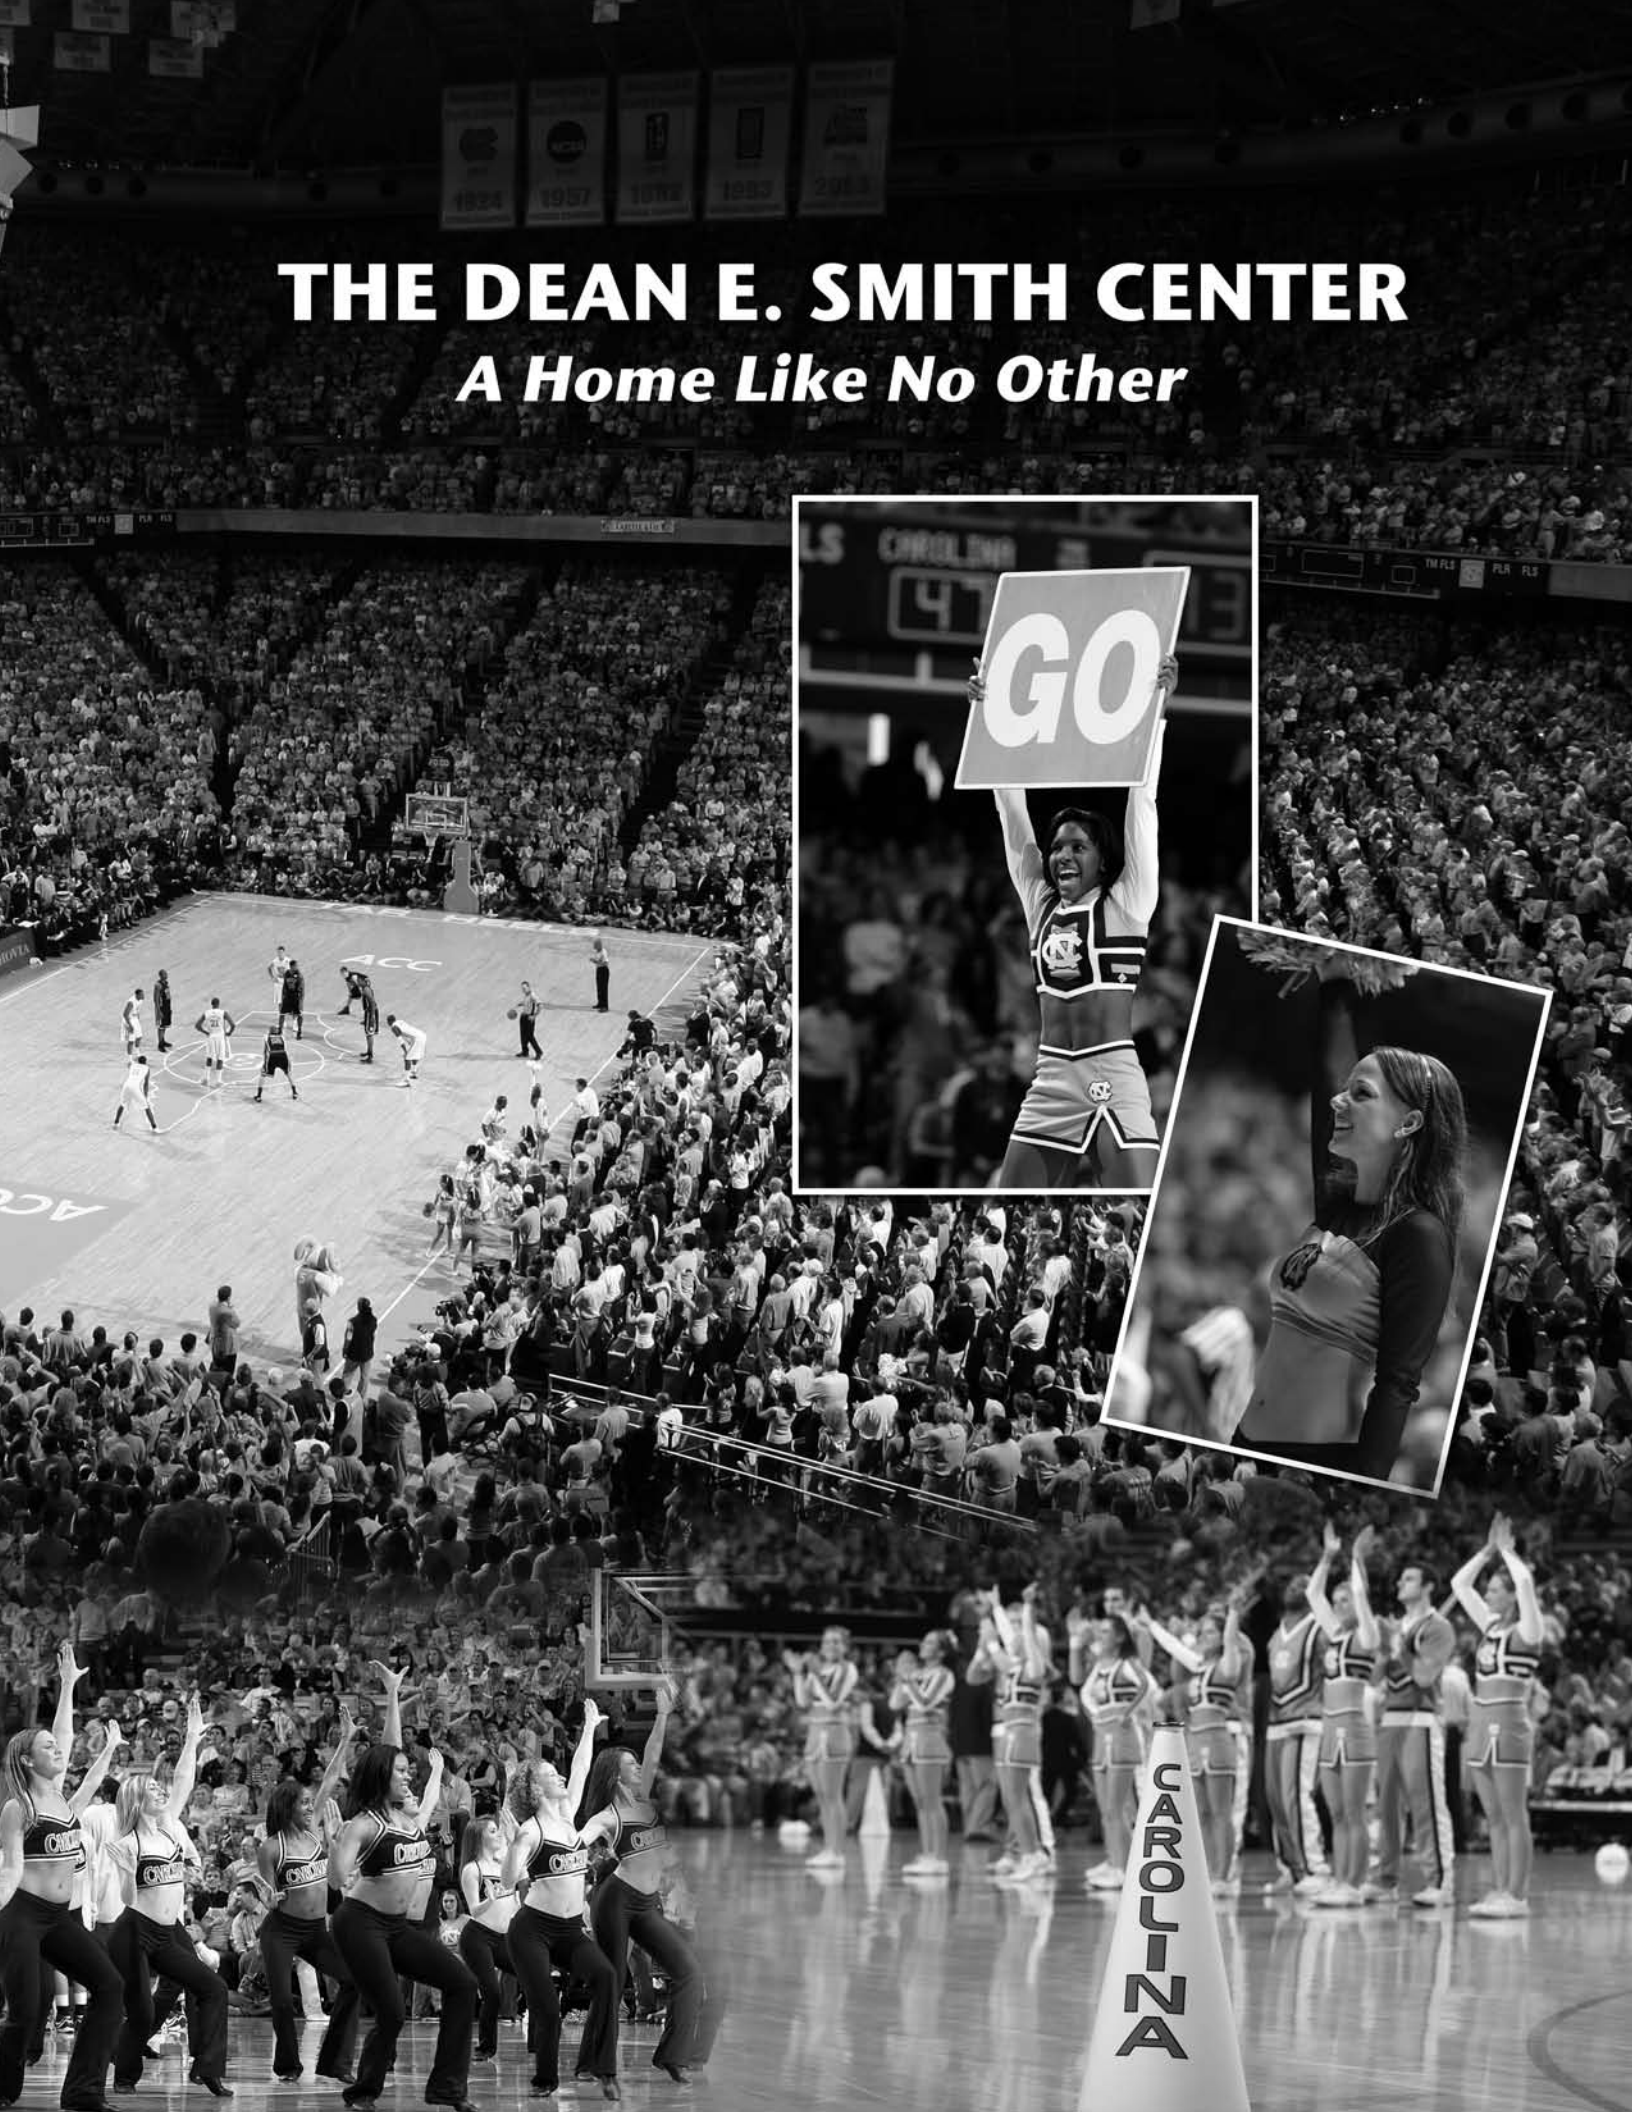

"This is one heck of a

— Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun

UNMATCHED FACILITIES

- The Tar Heels receive top-notch training and instruction from strength & conditioning coordinator Jonas Sahratian, formerly of the NBA's Chicago Bulls.

- "It means the world to me for Coach Williams to allow me to come back and train [at UNC]. Jonas Sahratian, the strength coach there, he's kind of been my mentor and a big part of my life. I don't know what my career would look like if it weren't for him. I get back there and train with him when I can."

— Atlanta Hawk Marvin Williams
to Inside Carolina magazine

- In 2007, Carolina ranked first in the nation on STACK magazine's first-ever list of the nation's premier NCAA programs that combine the best in athletics and academia.

- A new hydrotherapy area was built adjacent to the Tar Heel locker room in 2008 to enhance players' recovery and regeneration after practices and games. The area includes thermal and polar plunge pools that hold 750 gallons per pool.

- Ribbon boards and top-of-the-line video boards have been added to the Smith Center in recent years.

- The Peebles Practice Facility ensures that the Tar Heels always have a first-class court available for practices and pick-up games.

- Carolina's lounge and lockerroom area is larger and features more amenities than many NBA facilities, including study areas for players.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL MUSEUM

- Opened in January 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum features artifacts, videos, photos and statistical and historical panels that highlight the history of the Carolina basketball program. The museum experience begins with a six-minute theater presentation and includes video tributes to Dean Smith, Roy Williams and the Carolina family, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and the history of UNC Basketball.
- The museum includes interactive presentations highlighting Carolina's 17 Final Four appearances, 17 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and many of the greatest games and most exciting finishes in Tar Heel history.
- Some items included among the memorabilia are Dean Smith's personal collection, several Michael Jordan artifacts, Lennie Rosenbluth's 1957 uniform and the center court from the 2005 NCAA championship game in St. Louis.
- The museum is open on game days and has become a must-see attraction for Tar Heel fans.

ROY WILLIAMS

• Tar Heel coach Roy Williams was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007 in recognition of his outstanding career.

• Williams has guided his teams to six Final Fours and the 2005 NCAA title.

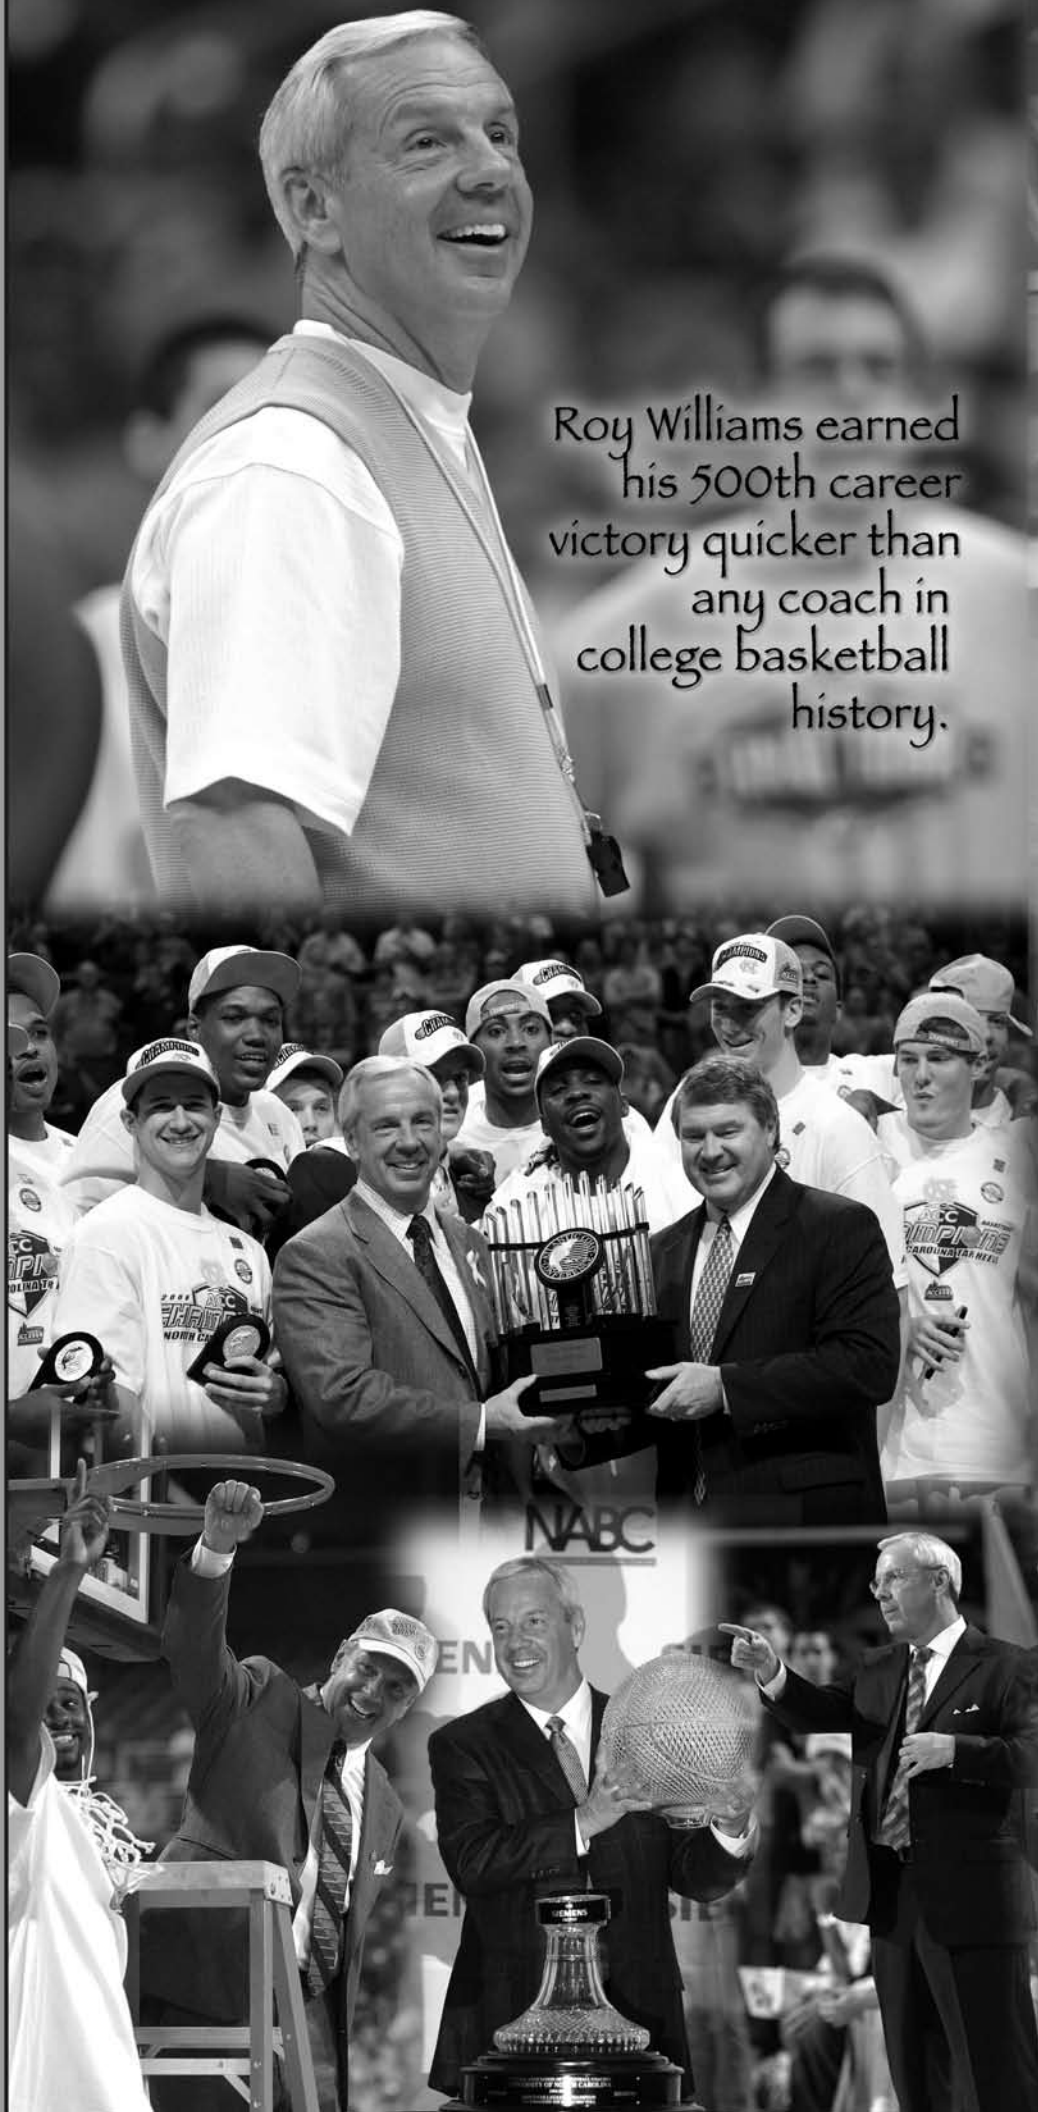

• Over the last seven years, Williams leads all NCAA coaches in total wins (205) and NCAA Tournament wins (24), averaging 29.3 victories per season over that span.

• Williams is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win 30 or more games in eight or more seasons.

• Williams has been named National Coach of the Year six times.

• Williams' career winning percentage of 80.7 is the highest of any active coach and ranks third all-time.

• Twenty-four players coached by Williams have played in the NBA and 16 have been first-round draft picks.

Roy Williams earned his 500th career victory quicker than any coach in college basketball history.

A Hall of Fame career with more success to come

“Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball. His move to North Carolina ensures for the foreseeable future excellence both on and off the court. The championships will now fall time after time to Chapel Hill.”

ROY WILLIAMS

• Williams' teams have ranked in the top four in the nation in scoring four times in the last seven years.

• "Williams recruits to his very up-tempo style of play and uses the depth he recruits," wrote ESPN.com in May 2007.

• "I want it to be a fast game ... For me, the question of speed is something I look at in recruiting whether it's a point guard or a center. I want someone that can run, that can run exceptionally fast and have the stamina to do it every time."

– Williams to The Sporting News, Oct. 8, 2007

• "Every day I get a chance to talk to Coach Williams or see Coach Williams is a special day to me. He means so much to me. He's been involved in every major experience in my life – with my family, with my marriage. When I was drafted he was one of the first ones to call. When I had kids he was the first one to write a note. He calls and checks on me every couple of weeks to see how I'm doing. I'm so happy to see him ... every day I live, I try to make him proud."

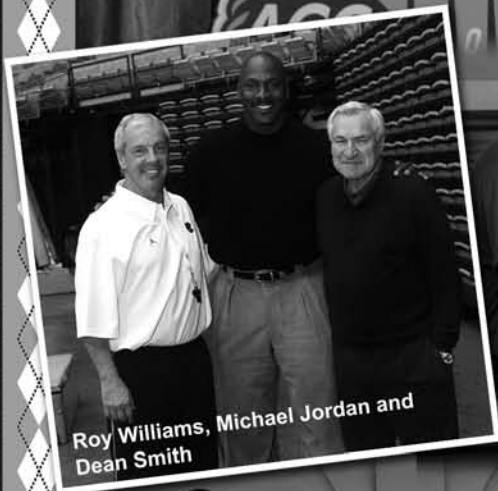

– University of San Francisco head coach Rex Walters

• "Coach Williams helped me become a man. He always held me accountable for my actions on the court. He's a father figure and he's my coach. He'll always be my coach."

– Atlanta Hawk Marvin Williams

• "Coach means so much to me. I've known him since the seventh grade. He's been not only a coach, but a positive male role model and a father figure as well."

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

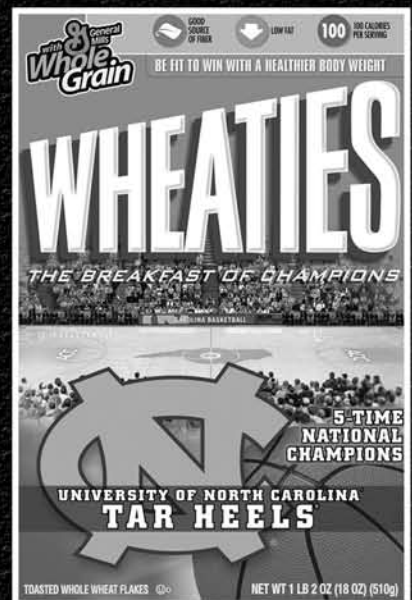

- All Carolina games in 2008-09 will be televised and the Tar Heels will make 25 national TV appearances during the regular season.

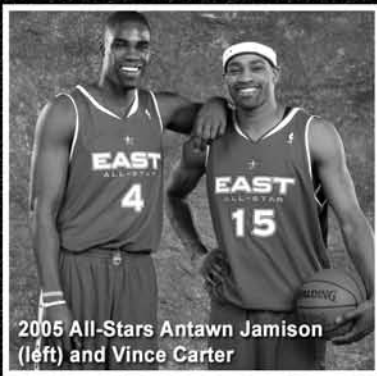

- Over 80 percent of UNC's games in the last five seasons have been nationally televised.

- ESPN College Gameday broadcast live from the Smith Center for the 2007 game against Georgia Tech and from Carolina's win at Duke in 2008. The show is scheduled to originate from Chapel Hill twice during the 2008-09 season.

- Carolina is one of only four basketball programs in the country to be featured on the front of a Wheaties box.

- UNC annually ranks in the top five nationally in sales of licensed apparel.

TAR HEELS IN THE NBA

- Carolina coach Roy Williams has coached 16 NBA first-round draft picks.
- UNC's 12 NBA players made a combined $69.4 million in salaries last season.
- In 2005, North Carolina became the first school in the nation to have four players selected in the same NBA Draft Lottery.
- UNC has had more players drafted by the NBA and more first-round picks than any other school.
- "When it comes to the impact on the NBA, one program clearly stands apart. Two schools, North Carolina and UCLA, have developed the most quality NBA talent over the span of the 60 years of league history, and over the last 25 years the Tar Heels have left the Bruins far behind. Carolina has had more first round draft picks than any other program. Those draft picks have gone on to consistently meet or beat expectations for their performance in the NBA. As icing on the cake, Carolina has also had more former players develop into winning NBA coaches than any other college program, and in this regard there is not even a close second."

CAROLINA IN THE COMMUNITY

- Coach Roy Williams donated approximately $110,000 raised from the team's holiday clinic and the sale of team-autographed basketballs to Chapel Hill-area charities in 2007-08. Williams has donated $400,000 over his first five seasons at Carolina.

- Tar Heel players host an annual clinic for Special Olympians during the season.

- The Carolina team shops for area families during each holiday season, donating gifts and toys to those in need.

- "Roy Williams' Fast Break Against Cancer" is a charity breakfast raising money for cancer research at UNC Hospitals.

- Former Tar Heel All-America and 17-year NBA veteran Sam Perkins is the Indiana Pacers Vice President of Player Relations, heading up the team's community service efforts.

- NBA All-Star Antawn Jamison spearheads the "A Better Tomorrow" campaign, funding need-based scholarships and other programs to help communities in Washington, D.C., and Charlotte.

- David Noel hosted a reduced-fee camp in his native Durham and a charity golf tournament with fellow former Tar Heel Sean May in 2008.

- Rashad McCants hosted his second annual "Shoot for the Cure" cancer benefit in 2008 in Asheville.

- Jerry Stackhouse donated $50,000 to the Lenoir Memorial Foundation to benefit the Diabetes Program at the Minges Wellness Center at Lenoir Memorial Hospital (in Kinston, N.C.).

SEASON KICKOFF

• Before the Tar Heels get down to business, they kick off the season with an evening of fun at the annual Late Night with Roy festivities. Skits, songs and dances performed before a full house at the Smith Center help get fans and players alike even more excited about the season to come. At the end of the night, the Tar Heels hit the court for their first practice of the year.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL 2007-08 REVIEW

17TH FINAL FOUR

North Carolina (36-3, 14-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) won the outright ACC regular season championship and ACC Tournament and made its 17th appearance in the NCAA Final Four in 2007-08. No other school has more Final Four appearances than Carolina (UCLA also made its 17th Final Four appearance in 2007-08). Roy Williams reached the Final Four for the fourth time in the last seven seasons.

HANSBROUGH IS UNC'S 14TH NCAA REGIONAL MVP

◆ Tyler Hansbrough was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2008 NCAA East Regional after averaging 23.0 points and 11.0 rebounds in wins over Washington State and Louisville.

SECOND STRAIGHT ACC TITLE

◆ Wayne Ellington scored 24 points and Tyler Hansbrough had 18 points and 11 rebounds as Carolina beat Clemson, 86-81, to win its second consecutive ACC Tournament championship and an ACC-record 17th overall. Hansbrough earned MVP honors and was joined on the all-tournament team by Ellington and Marcus Ginyard.

ACC REGULAR SEASON AND TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

◆ Carolina won the ACC regular season championship and the ACC Tournament in 2008. In 2007, the Tar Heels tied Virginia for the ACC regular-season title, then won the conference tournament in Tampa, Fla.

◆ Carolina has won both the ACC regular season and Tournament championships in the same year 10 times — in 1957, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1977, 1979, 1982, 2007 and 2008.

THIRD ACC REGULAR-SEASON TITLE IN THE LAST FOUR YEARS

◆ Carolina (14-2) finished atop the ACC regular season standings for the third time in the

NCAA-RECORD 12TH NO. 1 SEED

◆ The Tar Heels were the No. 1 seed overall in the NCAA Tournament and the East Regional. UNC has earned more No. 1 seeds than any team in NCAA Tournament history.

◆ The 2007-08 season marked the 12th time Carolina has been a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament; It was the third time in the last four years and the ninth time in the last 18 years.

90 WINS IN THREE SEASONS

◆ Carolina has won 90 games in the last three seasons, which equals the most wins in any three-year stretch in program history. The Tar Heels also amassed 90 wins from 1993-95.

UNC RECORD FOR WINS IN A SEASON

◆ The Tar Heels reached the 30-win plateau for the ninth time and broke the school record for wins in a season (previously 34, set in 1992-93 and 1997-98). Carolina has posted three 30-win seasons in the last four seasons.

◆ Carolina (36-3) set a school record when it played its 39th game of 2007-08.

◆ The Tar Heels played 38 games in 2006-07 (31-7), in the NCAA championship season of 1992-93 (34-4) and the Final Four season of 1997-98 (34-4).

22-1 AWAY FROM HOME

◆ Carolina went 22-1 in games played away from Chapel Hill. That included a 13-0 record in road games and a 9-1 mark in neutral site contests (only loss to Kansas in San Antonio, Texas). The Tar Heels went 13-0 in road games, winning more road games than any UNC team since ACC play began. It was UNC's fourth undefeated road campaign in the last 83 years and the first since the 1983-84 team went 9-0.

WILLIAMS LEADS NATION IN WINS IN THE LAST SEVEN SEASONS

◆ Roy Williams leads all NCAA coaches in total wins in the last seven seasons with 205. Williams also leads all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins in the last seven seasons (24).

HANSBROUGH AND SINGLE-SEASON SCHOOL RECORDS

◆ Tyler Hansbrough compiled 882 points and 399 rebounds in 2007-08. The 399 rebounds are a school record and the scoring figure is second-best in Tar Heel history.

HANSBROUGH & ACC LEGENDS

MOST WINS, LAST SEVEN SEASONS (through 2007-08)

Rk.	Coach	Wins
1.	Roy Williams	205
2.	John Calipari	198
3.	Mike Krzyzewski	197
4.	Bill Self	192
5.	Mark Few	184

Lennie Rosenbluth, Christian Laettner of Duke and Antawn Jamsion as the fourth player to win all of the above honors in the same season.

HIGHEST-SCORING JUNIOR IN ACC HISTORY

HANSBROUGH'S DOUBLE-FIGURE SCORING GAMES

◆ Tyler Hansbrough scored in double figures in all 39 games in 2007-08, the most in one season in Carolina history. Hansbrough's 39 double-figure scoring games are tied as the highest single-season total in ACC history.

HANSBROUGH SETS ACC FREE THROW RECORD

◆ Tyler Hansbrough hit 5 of 7 free throw attempts in the NCAA second round win over Arkansas to set a new record for most career free throws made by an ACC player. He has 733 made free throws through the end of the 2007-08 season. He also has attempted more free throws than any player in ACC history.

HANSBROUGH UNANIMOUS ACC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

◆ Tyler Hansbrough was the 2008 ACC Player of the Year, becoming only the third player in ACC history to win player of the year voting in unanimous fashion. He joins NC State's David Thompson (1975) and Wake Forest's Josh Howard (2003) as unanimous winners.

HANSBROUGH THREE-TIME UNANIMOUS ALL-ACC

◆ Tyler Hansbrough earned unanimous first-team All-ACC honors for the third consecutive year, joining NC State's David Thompson and Duke's Art Heyman as the only players in the 55-year history of the ACC to accomplish that feat.

HANSBROUGH CONSENSUS NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

◆ Tyler Hansbrough became the fourth Tar Heel and the 16th ACC player since 1975 to earn consensus National Player of the Year honors. Hansbrough won all four awards that determine the consensus Player of the Year – the Associated Press, the NABC, The Sporting News and the USBWA.

HANSBROUGH A THREE-TIME FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA

◆ Tyler Hansbrough earned first-team All-America honors from The Associated Press, USBWA, NABC, Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Los Angeles Athletic Club and ESPN.com. Hansbrough is the fifth three-time first-team All-America in UNC history.

HANSBROUGH LEADS ACC IN SCORING AND REBOUNDING

◆ Tyler Hansbrough led the ACC in both scoring and rebounding, ending the season averaging 22.6 points and 10.2 rebounds per game. He led the ACC in offensive and defensive rebounds. Hansbrough is the fourth Tar Heel and 10th ACC player to lead the conference in scoring and rebounding in the same season.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL 2007-08 REVIEW

Jeffrey Camarati

Senator Barack Obama (center) played pickup basketball with the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill shortly after the conclusion of the 2007-08 season.

ELLINGTON NAMED SECOND-TEAM ALL-ACC, GINYARD TO ACC ALL-DEFENSIVE TEAM

◆ Wayne Ellington earned second-team All-ACC honors and Marcus Ginyard earned All-Defensive Team honors. Ginyard was the leading vote-getter on the all-defensive team chosen by the ACC's 12 head coaches.

THOMAS IS THE WINNINGEST PLAYER IN UNC HISTORY

◆ Senior point guard Quentin Thomas was a member of Carolina teams that won 123 games in his four-year career in Chapel Hill, breaking the school record for winningest four-year class in program history. The 1983-84 senior class won 117 games.

◆ Thomas started nine ACC games as a senior and led UNC to an 8-1 record in those contests. He had 113 assists and 62 turnovers for the season.

TAR HEELS TOP FINAL AP POLL

◆ Carolina was ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final Associated Press poll for 2007-08. UNC topped the poll for a third consecutive week after also spending the first 11 weeks of the season atop the AP rankings.

◆ Carolina has finished at No. 1 in the final AP poll six times in its history — 1956-57, 1981-82, 1983-84, 1993-94, 1997-98 and 2007-08.

14 ACC WINS

◆ Carolina won its 14th ACC game of the season with a 76-68 win at Duke on March 8. The 2007-08 season was the sixth time in school history UNC has won 14 ACC games (14-0 records in 1956-57, 1983-84 and 1986-87 and 14-2 seasons in 1992-93, 2004-05 and 2007-08).

ELLINGTON HOT VS. TIGERS

◆ Wayne Ellington scored 36, 28 and 24 points in three hard-fought wins over Clemson. He hit the game-winning three-pointer with less than a second to play in overtime in UNC's 90-88 win at Clemson. Ellington and Tyler Hansbrough combined to score 1,529 points on the season, the most ever by two players in one season in Carolina history.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY

ACC Championships

The Tar Heels went 14-2 in ACC play in 2008, winning their 26th regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference championship. Carolina also won the 2008 ACC Tournament in Charlotte, N.C.

UNC has won 16 regular-season championships outright, shared 10 others and won 17 ACC Tournament titles. Carolina's 26 regular-season titles are eight more than Duke and three more than the other 10 ACC teams combined.

The Tar Heels placed 12 on the ACC 50th Anniversary Team, more than any other school. Carolina's honorees included Lennie Rosenbluth, Billy Cunningham, Larry Miller, Charles Scott, Bobby Jones, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty and Antawn Jamison.

ACC Players of the Year

Eleven Tar Heels have been named ACC Player of the Year, including Larry Miller, who won the award in 1967 and 1968. Other Tar Heel recipients include Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Pete Brennan (1958), Lee Shaffer (1960), Billy Cunningham (1965), Mitch Kupchak (1976), Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984), Antawn Jamison (1998), Joseph Forte (2001) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008).

All-Americans

Forty-seven Tar Heels have earned All-America honors, including 34 first-team honorees. The most recent first-team selection was Tyler Hansbrough in 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08.

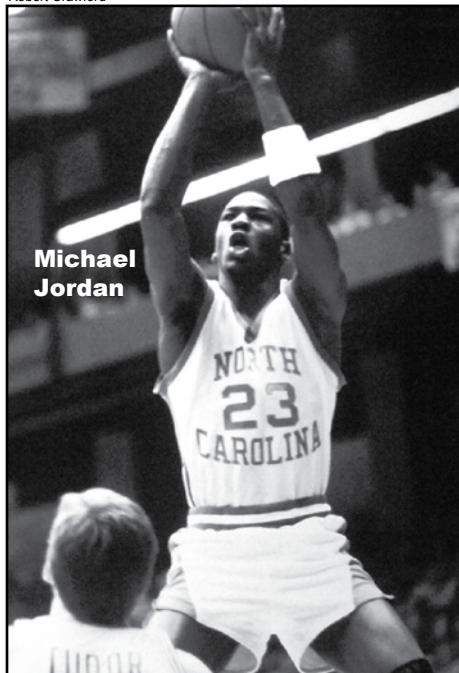

Jack Cobb (1924-26), Phil Ford (1976-78), Mike O'Koren (1978-80), Sam Perkins (1982-84) and Hansbrough (2006-08) earned first-team All-America honors on three occasions. Ford, O'Koren, Perkins, Hansbrough, NC State's David Thompson and Virginia's Ralph Sampson are the only three-time, first-team All-Americans in ACC history.

Carolina is tied for second in NCAA history with 15 consensus first-team All-Americans. They include George Glamack (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1968), Robert McAdoo (1972), Ford (1977 and 1978), James Worthy (1982), Michael Jordan (1983 and 1984), Perkins (1983 and 1984), Kenny Smith (1987), J.R. Reid (1988), Jerry Stackhouse (1995), Antawn Jamison (1998), Joseph Forte (2001) and Hansbrough (2007 and 2008).

All-ACC

Carolina has placed 67 players on the All-ACC first team, the most in league history. Duke is second with 55. Tyler Hansbrough was a unanimous selection in 2005-06, 2006-07 and

Robert Crawford

Seven Tar Heels have earned first-team honors three times – Lennie Rosenbluth (1956-58), York Larese (1959-61), Billy Cunningham (1963-65), Charles Scott (1968-70), Phil Ford (1976-78), Sam Perkins (1982-84), Antawn Jamison (1996-98) and Hansbrough (2006-08).

Hansbrough, NC State's David Thompson and Duke's Art Heyman are the only three-time unanimous all-conference choices in ACC history.

Draft Day

Carolina has had 92 players selected in the NBA Draft, including 36 players taken in the first round. The Tar Heels have had 17 players drafted in the first round in the last 20 years, including Lottery pick Brandan Wright in 2007.

In 2005, Marvin Williams (2nd), Raymond Felton (5th), Sean May (13th) and Rashad McCants (14th) became the first school to have four players taken in the NBA Draft Lottery.

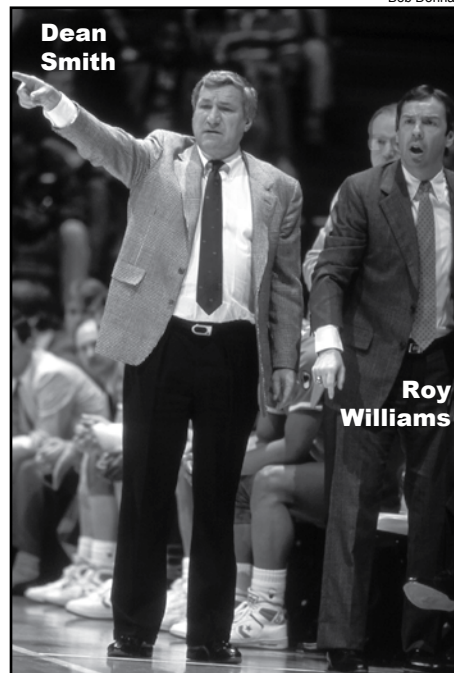

UNC's James Worthy and Brad Daugherty were selected No. 1 overall in the draft. Worthy was selected in 1982 by the Los Angeles Lakers; Daugherty was taken No. 1 by Cleveland in 1986.

Michael Jordan was the third player selected in the 1984 Draft behind Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston) and Sam Bowie (Portland).

Final Four

Carolina has played in 17 Final Fours, tied with UCLA for most in the nation. The Tar Heels played in the Final Four in 1946, 1957,

Bob Donnan

Dean Smith

Roy Williams

1967, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1977, 1981, 1982, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2005 and 2008. The Tar Heels won the NCAA title in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005.

Rusty Clark (1967-69), Bill Bunting (1967-69) and Ed Cota (1997-98, 2000) are the only Tar Heels to start in three different Final Fours. Carolina holds the NCAA record for most players who have played in a Final Four with 149.

Final Four MVPs

Sean May had 26 points and 10 rebounds in Carolina's 75-70 win over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA championship game and was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four. May is the third Tar Heel to win that award, along with James Worthy in 1982 and Donald Williams in 1993.

500 ACC Wins

The Tar Heels have won 562 regular-season ACC games, more than any other school in league history.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

Freshmen

Carolina has had 13 players named to the ACC All-Freshman Team since its inception in 1992-93. Ty Lawson and Brandon Wright made the team in 2006-07, joining Tyler Hansbrough, Marvin Williams, Raymond Felton, Rashad McCants, Jawad Williams, Joseph Forte, Kris Lang, Ed Cota, Antawn Jamison, Jerry Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace as All-ACC Freshman selections.

Eight Carolina players have been named ACC Rookie of the Year, including Sam Perkins (1981), Michael Jordan (1982), J.R. Reid (1987), Cota (1997), Forte (2000), Marvin Williams (2005), Hansbrough (2006) and Wright (2007).

Twenty-five Tar Heels have started their first game, the latest being Wayne Ellington and Brandon Wright in 2006-07.

Hall of Famers

Eight Tar Heel coaches and players are members of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, including 2007 inductee Roy Williams, who joined Larry Brown, coach Ben Carnevale, Billy Cunningham, Robert McAdoo, coach Frank McGuire, coach Dean Smith and James Worthy.

National Players of the Year

Eleven Tar Heels have won National Player of the Year honors, including consensus winners Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984), Antawn Jamison (1998) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008). Other winners are Jack Cobb (1926), George Glamack (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), James Worthy (1982), Kenny Smith (1987), Jerry Stackhouse (1995) and Sean May (2005). Jordan, named by eight organizations as a junior, also was The Sporting News' pick as a sophomore in 1983.

NBA Champions

Michael Jordan won six NBA championship rings. He is one of 13 former Tar Heels who have gone on to win NBA championship rings as players. Those 13 players have accounted for 29 rings. The rest of the ACC has a combined 21 players winning 35 rings.

NBA 50

In the late 1990s, the NBA selected its All-Time 50 Greatest Players. Former Tar Heels Billy Cunningham, Michael Jordan and James Worthy were named to the team. Carolina, Houston and LSU were the only schools to have three players on the team.

NCAA Tournament

Carolina is second in NCAA history with 40 appearances, 135 games played and 96 wins in the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels established an all-time record with 27 consecutive trips to the Tournament from 1975-2001. UNC has the third-best win percentage (.711) in Tournament history.

No. 1

Carolina has been ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Associated Press poll in 17 different seasons since the AP began its rankings in 1948-49. Those seasons include 1957, 1958, 1959, 1978, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987, 1988, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2007 and 2008.

The Tar Heels have been No. 1 on 96 occasions. Carolina is second in weeks ranked No. 1 in the country behind UCLA (128).

Carolina has been ranked in the Top 10 in 573 polls. That is the second-highest figure in NCAA basketball history. Carolina has appeared in the AP poll 742 times, more than any other school in history. Duke is second in ACC history, having been ranked 602 times.

Carolina is the only school in the country with 12 wins over the No. 1 ranked team in the AP poll, including most recently a victory at Duke in 2006.

No. 1 vs. No. 2

Carolina has played in seven games involving the top two ranked teams in the country in the Associated Press poll and the Tar Heels are 7-0 in those games (4-0 as No. 1 and 3-0 as No. 2).

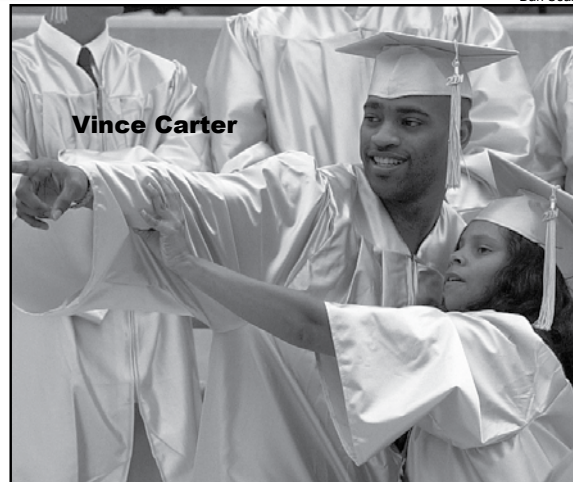

A list of those games:

- March 23, 1957 – No. 1 UNC 54, No. 2 Kansas 53
- Dec. 26, 1981 – No. 1 UNC 82, No. 2 Kentucky 69
- Jan. 9, 1982 – No. 1 UNC 65, No. 2 Virginia 60
- Feb. 4, 1986 – No. 1 UNC 78, No. 2 Ga. Tech 77
- Feb. 3, 1994 – No. 2 UNC 89, No. 1 Duke 73
- Feb. 5, 1998 – No. 2 UNC 97, No. 1 Duke 73
- Apr. 4, 2005 – No. 2 UNC 75, No. 1 Illinois 70

1,000-Point Scorers

The Tar Heels have had 60 players reach 1,000 points. That figure is the most in the nation. Louisville is second with 59. Phil Ford (2,290), Tyler Hansbrough (2,168), Sam Perkins (2,145), Lennie Rosenbluth (2,045), Al Wood (2,015) and Charles Scott (2,007) have netted at least 2,000 points.

March 6-8, 1975: Phil Ford becomes first freshman to win ACC Tournament MVP honors after leading Carolina to the title with 70-66 victory over defending NCAA champion NC State and David Thompson. Tar Heels beat Wake Forest, 101-100, in overtime in the quarterfinal after trailing by eight points with 50 seconds to play. Brad Hoffman sends the game into overtime with a 12-foot jumper with two seconds to play. Ford scores 29 and UNC needs overtime again to knock out Clemson in semifinals, then scores 24 in championship game win over Norm Sloan's Wolfpack.

Feb. 14, 1976: Mitch Kupchak has 35 points and 21 rebounds and Davis has 26 points, 11 boards and six steals as Carolina works four overtimes to beat Tulane, 113-106, in the Louisiana Superdome. It is the longest game in Carolina history.

March 8, 1976: Wally Walker scores 21 points to lead sixth-seeded Virginia to 67-62 win over regular-season champion UNC in ACC championship game.

March 5, 1977: Ford scores 26 and freshman Mike O'Koren adds 21 as Carolina returns the favor from a year before, beating Virginia, 75-69, in the ACC final. Tournament MVP John Kuester handles the ball after Ford fouls out with 5:45 to play and goes 6 for 6 from the line. Ford scores 19 of his 26 in the first half. Bruce Buckley gives UNC the lead for good, breaking a 67-all tie.

March 17, 1977: Ford hyper-extends his right elbow, but scores 29 points, including the winning free throw with two seconds left in 79-77 win over Notre Dame (on St. Patrick's Day) in the NCAA East Regional semifinal.

March 19, 1977: Davis, playing with a broken finger on his shooting hand, scores 21 points as fifth-ranked UNC beats No. 13 Kentucky, 79-72, to reach the Final Four.

March 26, 1977: O'Koren scores 31 as Tar Heels edge No. 4 UNLV, 84-83, in national semifinal. Carolina loses a second-half lead and the championship two days later to Al McGuire's Marquette Warriors, 67-59.

Jan. 7, 1978: The Tar Heels set an NCAA field goal percentage record by making 16 of 17 shots from the floor in the second half. Carolina shoots 94.1 percent in second half of 76-61 victory over Virginia.

Feb. 25, 1978: Ford scores a career-high 34 points on 13 of 19 shooting from the floor in his final game at Carmichael Auditorium, an 87-83 win over Duke. Ford clinches third straight ACC regular-season title with two free throws with six seconds left.

Dec. 16, 1978: O'Koren's 18 points and six assists out-duels "Magic" Johnson's 18 points, six assists and eight turnovers in UNC's 70-69 win over No. 3 Michigan State. The Spartans went on to win the 1979 NCAA title.

Jan. 17, 1979: Dudley Bradley steals the ball from Clyde Austin and dunks home the game-winner with seconds to play in a 70-69 win over NC State in a game that stuns the Reynolds Coliseum crowd. Carolina led 40-19, but the Pack came back to take the lead before Bradley's heroics.

Feb. 24, 1979: Carolina holds the ball in the first half and fails to score as Duke leads, 7-0, at intermission. The Tar Heels wait 12:25 into the game before attempting a shot. Both teams score 40 in the second half and Duke wins, 47-40, in one of the most famous delay games ever played.

March 3, 1979: One week after the 47-40 game in Durham, No. 7 Carolina beats No. 5 Duke, 71-63, in ACC Tournament final. Bradley, the MVP, had 16 points, seven steals and four assists and O'Koren led with 18 points.

March 11, 1979: ACC champion Tar Heels, ranked No. 3 in the nation, are upset by Penn, 72-71, in Raleigh in the NCAA Tournament. Quaker forward Tony Price scores 25. Duke loses to St. John's the same day in what was dubbed "Black Sunday."

Jan. 12, 1980: Al Wood scores 20 and Dave Colescott adds 18 as 15th-ranked Tar Heels knock off No. 1 Duke at Cameron.

Feb. 28, 1981: Duke's Gene Banks hit a turnaround baseline jumper to beat Carolina, 66-65, in overtime. Banks scored 25 points. Freshman Sam Perkins led UNC with 24.

March 7, 1981: Carolina overcomes a 36-32 halftime deficit by shooting 63 percent in the second half and beats Maryland, 61-60, in the ACC championship game. James Worthy leads with 19. Jimmy Black's steal and lay-up give Carolina the lead for good. Perkins scores 22 in quarterfinal vs. NC State and 18 in semifinal vs. Wake Forest and becomes the second freshman to earn ACC Tournament MVP honors.

March 28, 1981: Senior forward Wood, who was the West Regional MVP after a 21-point, 17-rebound effort in Final 8 win over Kansas State, torches Virginia for 39 points in the Final Four. Wood sets a national semifinal scoring record by making 14 of 19 from the floor and 11 of 13 from the line. Perkins holds National Player of the Year Ralph Sampson to three field goals and 11 points.

March 30, 1981: Isiah Thomas has 23 points, five assists and four steals to lead Indiana past UNC, 63-50, in the NCAA championship game in Philadelphia. Wood leads Carolina with 18 points. The game tips off less than eight hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. The game is almost postponed due to the events in Washington, D.C.

Nov. 28, 1981: Michael Jordan scores 12 points in his debut with the top-ranked Tar Heels, a 74-67 win over Kansas.

Dec. 26, 1981: Worthy (26), Perkins (21) and Jordan (19) combine for 66 points as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 82-69, in the N.J. Meadowlands. It's the first and only time the two schools that rank 1-2 in all-time victories will play as the top two ranked teams in the AP poll.

Jan. 9, 1982: In another 1 vs. 2 match-up, top-rated Carolina edges Virginia, 65-60, despite Sampson's 30 points and 19 rebounds. Worthy and Jordan combine for 33 points.

March 7, 1982: Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina spreads the floor and beats the Cavaliers, 47-45, for the ACC championship. Matt Doherty makes three of four free throws in the final 28 seconds to secure the win and the ACC title. Virginia shoots 67 percent from the floor, but only gets 33 field goal attempts. Worthy leads UNC with 16 points.

March 27, 1982: Perkins scores 25 points and grabs 10 rebounds and Jordan drops in 18 as UNC beats Houston, 68-63, in the Final Four semifinal in New Orleans. The Tar Heels shoot 59 percent from the floor.

March 29, 1982: Final Four MVP Worthy scores a game-high 28 points and Michael Jordan hits the game-winning shot from the left wing with 17 seconds to play as Carolina beats Georgetown, 63-62, in one of the Final Four's greatest championship games ever played. Worthy makes 13 of 17 shots from the floor and has three steals, including one at the end of the game that seals the victory. Jordan scores 16, and Georgetown's freshman center Patrick Ewing has 23 points and 11 rebounds. The win gives Dean Smith his first of two NCAA championships. The Tar Heels trail, 32-31, at halftime, but shoot 61 percent in the second half (11 of 18).

Allen Dean Steele/Daily Tar Heel

March 29, 1982: Freshman Michael Jordan hit the game-winning jump shot to lift the Tar Heels to a 63-62 win over Georgetown in the 1982 NCAA championship game in New Orleans.

Nov. 30, 1982: Defending NCAA champs drop their first two games against St. John's and Missouri but avoid an 0-3 start when Jordan comes up with a steal and a spinning, 24-foot jumper at the buzzer to send the Tulane game into overtime. Tar Heels prevail, 70-68 in triple OT.

Jan. 15, 1983: Perkins scores 36 in Charlottesville and Tar Heels knock off second-ranked Virginia, 101-95.

Feb. 10, 1983: Top-ranked Carolina trails No. 3 Virginia by 16 points in the second half and by 10 with 4:12 to play, but pulls out an improbable 64-63 win, one of the most memorable ever in Carmichael Auditorium. Jordan's offensive rebound basket pulls the Tar Heels to within a point, then Jordan strips Rick Carlisle of the ball and slams home the go-ahead basket.

Dec. 3, 1983: Second-ranked Carolina wins at Stanford, 88-75, to give Dean Smith his 500th victory.

Feb. 12, 1984: Joe Klein scores 20 as Eddie Sutton's Arkansas Razorbacks upset No. 1 Carolina, 66-65, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Jordan scores 21 in defeat.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

March 3, 1984: Playing his final home game, Doherty hits a runner in the lane that ties the game at the end of regulation and the Tar Heels beat Duke in two overtimes, 96-83, to preserve a perfect 14-0 mark in the ACC. Jordan and Perkins, also playing in their Carmichael finales, score 25 apiece and Steve Hale has 13 assists.

March 22, 1984: Freshman guard Steve Alford scores 27 points to lead unranked Indiana to a 72-68 win over No. 1 Carolina in the NCAA second round in Atlanta. Perkins scores 26 in his final game as a Tar Heel and finishes his career first at UNC in rebounding and second in scoring. Jordan battles foul trouble and an injured finger, scoring 13 points in just 26 minutes before fouling out. The Hoosiers shoot 69 percent (11 for 16) in the second half and 65 percent for the game.

Dec. 27, 1985: Ranzino Smith and Kevin Madden both score 17 points to lead nine players in double figures as Carolina scores a school-record 129 points in 129-45 win over Manhattan in Miami.

Jan. 4, 1986: Brad Daugherty scores 28 points in 90-79 win over NC State in the final regular-season game played in Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels conclude play there with a 169-20 record.

Jan. 18, 1986: Hale scores 28 and Daugherty adds 23 and 11 rebounds as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in first game played in the Smith Center.

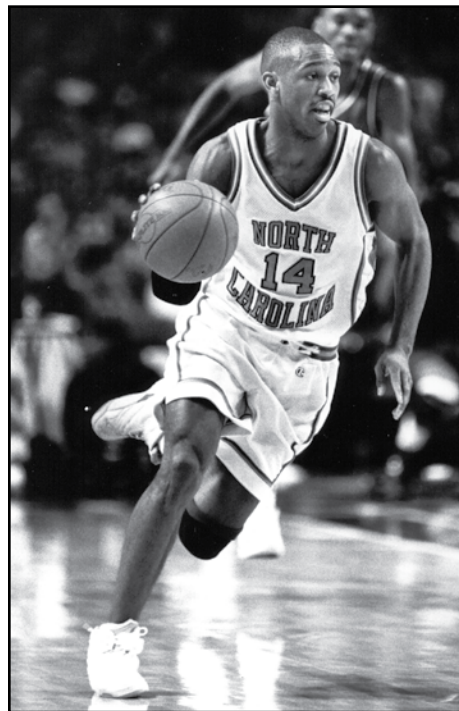

Feb. 4, 1986: Daugherty's 22 points and Joe Wolf's 14 points and 13 rebounds lead No. 1 UNC past No. 2 Georgia Tech, 78-77, in overtime in Atlanta.

Feb. 20, 1986: Len Bias scores 35 points to lead Maryland to a 77-72 overtime win, UNC's first defeat in the Smith Center.

March 7, 1987: Joe Wolf scores 27 and Jeff Lebo nets 22 in 84-82, double-overtime win over Virginia in the ACC semifinals. The next day, sixth-seeded NC State goes 14 for 14 from the line and beats the top-seeded Tar Heels, 67-66, for the ACC title.

March 21, 1987: No. 2 ranked Carolina is upset by No. 10 Syracuse, 79-75, in the NCAA East Regional final. Rony Seikaly leads the Orange with 26 points. Kenny Smith has 25 points and seven assists in his final game as a Tar Heel.

Nov. 21, 1987: In a rematch of the previous year's regional final, Carolina beats No. 1 ranked Syracuse, 96-93, in overtime in the Hall of Fame Classic. Playing without a suspended J.R. Reid, the Tar Heels rally from an 11-point halftime deficit. Ranzino Smith (21), Lebo (20) and freshmen Rick Fox (15) and Pete Chilcutt (14) lead UNC.

March 19, 1988: Carolina shoots a school-record 79.0 percent from the floor (49 of 62) in 123-97 rout over Loyola Marymount in NCAA Tournament second round. Ranzino Smith makes 11 of 14 shots en route to 27 points. UNC has 36 assists on 49 baskets. Carolina has 26 turnovers, 20 more than Loyola, and wins by 26.

Nov. 18, 1988: Lebo sets school record with 17 assists in 111-84 win over Chattanooga in Preseason NIT.

Jan. 18, 1989: Playing without Lebo, who was injured in 106-83 loss at Virginia the previous game, UNC beats No. 1 and unbeaten Duke, 91-71, in Durham. Scott Williams scores 22 to lead the Tar Heels.

March 12, 1989: Steve Bucknall's three-point play with 1:46 left breaks a 66-all tie and Tournament MVP Reid leads with 14 points as UNC beats Duke, 77-74, in Atlanta to win Carolina's first ACC championship in seven years. The game is one of the most intense in ACC history. Carolina commits 26 turnovers, but holds Duke to 39 percent shooting, including 3 of 23 from three-point range.

Nov. 24, 1989: King Rice's bank shot at the buzzer beats James Madison, 80-79, in the first round of the Maui Invitational. Carolina rallies from a 79-70 deficit with less than a minute to play.

Dec. 27, 1989: Rice (22) and Fox (20) lead seven Tar Heels in double figures as UNC beats Kentucky, 121-110, in Louisville.

March 17, 1990: Fox banks in the game-winner as time expires and eighth-seeded Carolina beats No. 1 ranked and top-seed Oklahoma, 79-77, in the NCAA second round.

Jan. 9, 1991: Hubert Davis scores 25 in a 105-73 win over Maryland, Dean Smith's 700th win. He is the first ACC coach to win 700 games.

Feb. 7, 1991: Carolina beats NC State, 92-70, in Chapel Hill. The night before, the same teams play in Raleigh, a 97-91 Wolfpack win. The Feb. 7 game, which is also Carolina's 1500th victory, is re-scheduled from Jan. 15, 1991, because of the outbreak of the Gulf War.

March 10, 1991: Tournament MVP Fox scores 25, Davis adds 17 and Rice has seven assists and no turnovers as Carolina routs Duke, 96-74, in ACC championship game. Duke had won both regular-season games.

March 24, 1991: NCAA East Regional MVP Fox and Davis each score 19 points as Carolina holds off Mark Macon and Temple, 75-72, to advance to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Macon scores 31 and narrowly misses a long three-pointer at the buzzer that would have sent the game to overtime.

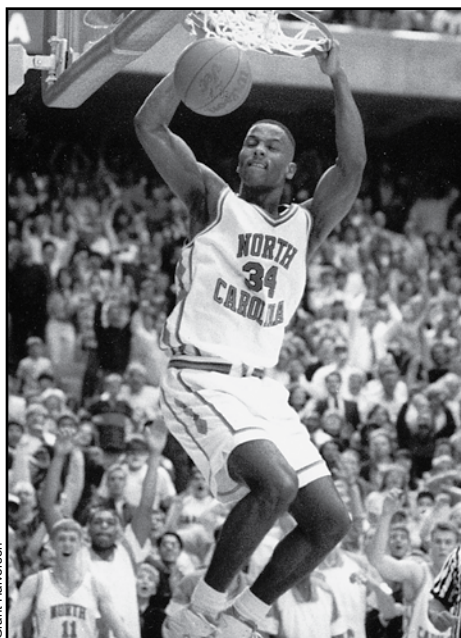

March 30, 1991: Davis leads all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shoots 38 percent for the game (3 of 18 from three-point range) and falls to Kansas, 79-73, in Indianapolis in the Final Four. The Jayhawks are coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams.

Feb. 2, 1992: Derrick Phelps sets UNC record for steals with nine in 86-76 win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 5, 1992: In a game most remembered for blood streaming down the back of Eric Montross' head, UNC beats defending NCAA champion and No. 1 Duke, 75-73, causing the students to rush the floor for the first time ever at the Smith Center.

Feb. 8, 1992: Carolina trails Wake Forest by 22 points but rallies for an 80-78 win on Brian Reese's buzzer-beating jumper. The Deacons led by 11 with 6:17 to play, before a 10-0 run by

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY

Jan. 27, 1993: George Lynch dunks to give UNC the lead in a 19-point, second-half comeback win over Florida State.

UNC. Davis led the Tar Heels with 30.

Dec. 29, 1992: Jalen Rose's offensive rebound basket at the buzzer gives No. 6 Michigan a 79-78 win over No. 5 Carolina in the semifinals of the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The teams would meet again later that season.

Jan. 27, 1993: Florida State leads by 17 at halftime and 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. Carolina reels off 15 straight points, however, and takes the lead for good on a George Lynch steal and dunk with just under two minutes to play. Donald Williams seals the win at the free throw line as UNC outscores the Seminoles, 28-4, over the last nine minutes.

March 28, 1993: Cincinnati's Nick Van Exel scores 21 first-half points and the Bearcats lead Carolina by as many as 15 in the first half. Then Derrick Phelps clamps down on Van Exel and East Regional MVP Lynch scores 21 and grabs 14 rebounds in 75-68 overtime win to send Carolina to the Final Four. Lynch had 22 against Arkansas in the regional semifinal. Williams had 22 and 20 in the two regional games.

April 5, 1993: Final Four MVP Williams score 25 points for the second Final Four game in a row, Montross scores 16 and Lynch posts his fourth straight double-double as Carolina avenges earlier loss to Michigan with 77-71 victory. The win gives Dean Smith his second NCAA championship. Williams hits 5 of 7 three-pointers in both Final Four games, including a 78-68 win over Roy Williams-led Kansas in the semifinal.

Feb. 3, 1994: Carolina prevails, 89-78, in the first-ever meeting against Duke in which the schools are ranked 1-2 in the country. Second-ranked Tar Heels get 18 points, six assists and no turnovers from Phelps.

March 12, 1994: ACC Tournament classic as UNC erases five-point deficit late in regulation and beats Wake Forest, 86-84 in overtime. Dante Calabria send the game to overtime and Jerry Stackhouse wins it. It is Dean Smith's 800th win.

March 20, 1994: No. 1 Carolina is knocked out of the NCAA Tournament in the second round, 75-72, by Boston College.

Feb. 2, 1995: Stackhouse (25), Rasheed Wallace (25) and Williams (24) combined for 74 points as Carolina beats Duke, 102-100, in double overtime. Blue Devil guard Jeff Capel sends the game into second overtime with a half-court three-pointer, but a Jeff McInnis steal and basket provides the winning margin for UNC.

March 11-12, 1995: Wallace scores 33 in overtime win over Maryland in ACC semifinals, then sprains an ankle late in the championship game against Wake Forest. The Deacons, led by 37 points from Randolph Childress, beat Carolina, 82-80, in overtime.

March 25, 1995: No. 4 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 74-61, in Birmingham to advance to Final Four. Regional MVP Stackhouse has 18 points, 12 rebounds, six assists, two steals and two blocks. UNC falls to Arkansas in the Final Four, in part due to a leg injury Stackhouse suffers 12 seconds into the national semifinal.

Jan. 8, 1997: Carolina leads Maryland in Chapel Hill by 22, but the Terps outscore UNC, 41-9, to win 85-75. UNC would begin ACC play 0-3 and avoids an 0-4 start by outscoring NC State 12-0 in the final two minutes of a 59-56 win on Jan. 15.

Feb. 12, 1997: Ed Cota's baseline floater with 4.5 seconds to play gives Carolina a 45-44 win at NC State. It is the fewest points ever by Carolina in a Dean Smith victory.

March 8-9, 1997: ACC Tournament MVP Shammond Williams scores 24 in semifinals vs. Wake Forest and 23 in championship vs. NC State as Carolina wins ACC Tournament for 13th and final time under Dean Smith.

March 15, 1997: Carolina beats Colorado, 73-56, in NCAA Tournament second round in Winston-Salem. The news of the day is Dean Smith's 877th, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record for coaches.

March 23, 1997: Shammond Williams scores 22 and Vince Carter adds 18 as Carolina beats Louisville, 97-74, to send Dean Smith to his 11th Final Four. Smith would coach his final game, a 66-58 loss to Arizona, in Indianapolis on March 29, 1997.

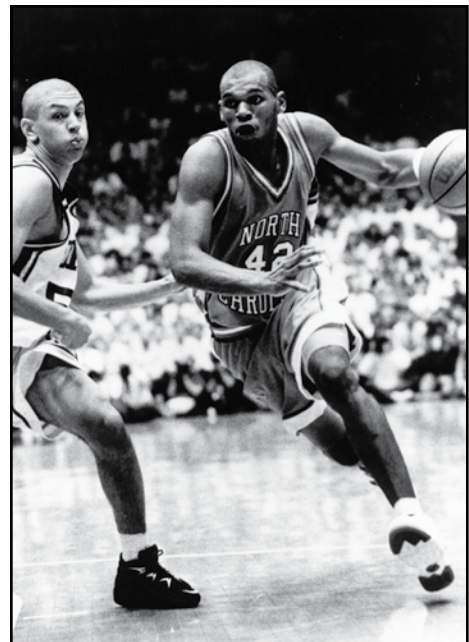

Oct. 9, 1997: Dean Smith retires after 36 years as head coach. Bill Guthridge, Smith's assistant for 30 years, is named head coach. Guthridge leads UNC to a 34-4 record, ACC title and Final Four berth, and is named National Coach of the Year.

Feb. 5, 1998: Antawn Jamison, the 1998 National Player of the Year, scores 35 points as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Duke, 97-73.

Feb. 8, 1998: Shammond Williams scores 42 in 107-100 double overtime win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 11, 1998: Carolina wins its 1700th game, a 60-45 victory at Virginia.

March 8, 1998: Jamison shakes off a leg injury and earns ACC Tournament MVP honors with 22 points and 18 rebounds. The Tar Heels score last 15 points in 83-68 win over top-ranked Duke in ACC Tournament championship. Carolina later advances to Final Four as the top-ranked team with a 75-64 win over Connecticut, but is upset by 7th-ranked Utah, 65-59.

Feb. 2, 1995: Jerry Stackhouse (above) and Rasheed Wallace both score 25 points in a 102-100, double overtime win at Duke.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

March 19, 2000: Joseph Forte scores 17 points and Cota has 10 assists to lead No. 8 seed Carolina to a 60-53 win over top seed Stanford in the NCAA second round.

March 24-26, 2000: Wins over Tennessee and Tulsa send Guthridge to his second Final Four in three years as head coach. Freshman Forte scores 28 in 59-55 regional final win over Tulsa. Guthridge retires in June 2000 with a three-year record of 80-28.

Nov. 10-11, 2000: Carolina beats Winthrop, 66-61, in Matt Doherty's first game as head coach. The next night, Forte drops 38 on Tulsa to set the Smith Center scoring record.

Dec. 4/17, 2000: Brendan Haywood and Jason Capel post triple-doubles in wins over Miami and Buffalo, respectively.

Feb. 1, 2001: Haywood hits two free throws with one second to play to give UNC an 85-83 win at Duke. Forte is sensational with 24 points, 16 rebounds, six assists and three steals.

Jan. 9, 2002: Juan Dixon scores 29 as Maryland beats UNC, 112-79, the most points ever allowed by Carolina in a regulation game. The Tar Heels would finish the year 8-20, missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1974.

Nov. 18, 2002: Rashad McCants scores 28 points in his freshman debut and starts with Raymond Felton and Sean May – the first time in history the Tar Heels start three freshmen – in 85-55 win over Penn State.

Nov. 27, 2002: McCants scores 25 as Tar Heels upset Roy Williams and No. 2 Kansas, 67-56, in Preseason NIT semifinals. UNC knocks off Stanford two nights later to win the title.

Feb. 8, 2003: Jawad Williams scores 20 in 61-60 win over Florida State, making UNC the first school with 500 ACC victories.

March 14, 2003: Three weeks after losing by 40 points at Maryland, Carolina upsets the Terps, 84-72, in ACC quarterfinals behind 25 points from Jawad Williams and 20 points, 10 assists from Felton.

Nov. 22, 2003: Carolina beats Old Dominion, 90-64, in Roy Williams' first game as head coach. Williams took over the program on April 14, 2003, two weeks after Doherty resigned. Doherty went 53-43 in three seasons.

Jeffrey Camarati

April 4, 2005: Sean May and Carolina top Illinois 75-70 for Roy Williams' first national championship.

Dec. 7, 2003: Felton sets a UNC record with 18 assists against George Mason.

Dec. 20, 2003: Wake Forest tops Carolina, 119-114 in triple overtime, in one of the ACC's most memorable regular-season games ever played.

Jan. 17, 2004: No. 9 Carolina beats No. 1 Connecticut, 86-83, as McCants scores 27, including UNC's final 10 points. His three-pointer with six seconds to play beats the Huskies, who later that year win the NCAA title.

March 6, 2005: Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds left gives Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke as the Tar Heels clinch first in the ACC regular-season standings outright for the first time since 1993. May has a game-high 26 points and 24 rebounds, the most ever by a player in the Smith Center.

March 27, 2005: May earns Syracuse Regional MVP honors with 29 points and 12 rebounds in an 88-82 win over Wisconsin that sends Roy Williams to the Final Four for the first time as UNC's head coach. McCants hits a go-ahead three-pointer late and blocks a Badger three-point attempt to preserve the win.

April 2, 2005: Senior captain Jawad Williams scores 20 points and the Tar Heels hold Michigan State to 29 percent shooting from the floor in the second half in an 87-71 UNC win in the national semifinals.

April 4, 2005: Marvin Williams tips in the game-winner with 1:17 to play, Final Four MVP Sean May has a game-high 26 points and Raymond Felton makes key plays down the stretch as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Illinois, 75-70, to win UNC's fourth NCAA title and the first for Coach Roy Williams. Felton hits a three to break a 65-all tie, then adds a steal and three clutch free throws in the final minute. The Illini went 12 for 40 from three-point range.

June 28, 2005: Carolina becomes the first school to have four lottery selections in one NBA Draft as Marvin Williams (2), Felton (5), May (13) and McCants (14) go in the first 14 picks.

Feb. 15, 2006: Tyler Hansbrough scores an ACC-freshman-record 40 points in an 82-75 win over Georgia Tech in the Smith Center.

March 4, 2006: Carolina beats No. 1 Duke 83-76 on Senior Night in Durham. The Tar Heels' four freshmen (Bobby Frasor, Marcus Ginyard, Danny Green and Hansbrough) out-scored Duke's four seniors (including first-team All-Americans J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams), 55-51.

Dec. 9, 2006: Hansbrough scores 24 and Carolina routs High Point, 94-69, to give Roy Williams his 500th win as a college head coach. Williams reached the mark in his 19th season, faster than any coach in history.

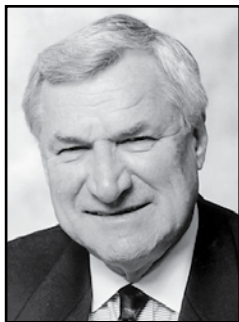

March 11, 2007: Brandan Wright becomes the fifth freshman to win ACC Tournament MVP honors after leading UNC to its first ACC title since 1998. Wright had 20 points in the semifinal and 16 in the championship against NC State.

March 16, 2008: Wayne Ellington scores 24 points as Carolina wins its 17th ACC Tournament with an 86-81 win over Clemson.

March 23, 2008: Tyler Hansbrough breaks Christian Laettner's ACC record for career free throws against Arkansas in the NCAA Tournament second round in Raleigh, N.C. Hansbrough set the UNC record on Feb. 3 at Florida State.

March 29, 2008: Tyler Hansbrough tallies 28 points and 13 rebounds and is named East Regional MVP as UNC beats Louisville to reach its 17th NCAA Final Four.

✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history. Bob Knight now owns that record.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 96 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came to no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight.

- Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

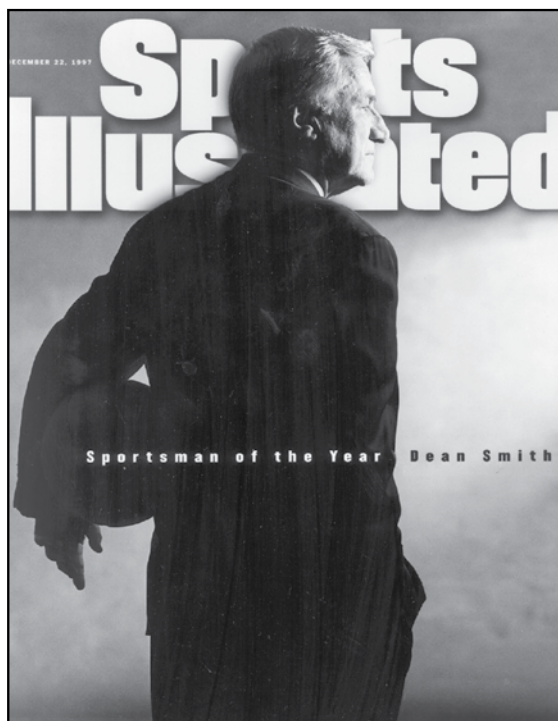

- Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

- Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

- The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

- Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

- The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

- Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

- Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith. Mike Krzyzewski of Duke ranks second in ACC Tournament titles with 10.

- His teams played in 11 Final Fours, second in number only to Wooden, who had 12.

- Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

- In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

- Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say.

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. Whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for us, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Dave Odom: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He named his long-time assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to that troika of an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Bob Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Carolina failed to hit at least 50 percent from the field just four times in his last 27 years. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

Six of Smith's players won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

NBA head coach George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game."

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Larry Brown: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young. He's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories (currently second). In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, is one of only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993. Knight is the other person to accomplish the feat. Bob Knight played on Ohio State's 1960 championship team and then coached Indiana to three titles.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven other occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

FRANK MCGUIRE & BILL GUTHRIDGE

Frank McGuire

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semi-final game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

A banner honoring the 1957 perfect season was hung in the Smith Center in 2007.

- ✓ Is the only coach in history to win ACC titles at two different schools.
- ✓ Is a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame
- ✓ Coached Carolina to the 1957 NCAA championship
- ✓ Was a three-time national coach of the year.

Lennie Rosenbluth and McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.

Bill Guthridge

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times.

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ Won more games (58) in his first two years than any coach in NCAA history and shares the NCAA record for most wins by a three-year coach (80).
- ✓ Was just the second coach in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach.
- ✓ Was the consensus national coach of the year in 1997-98.
- ✓ Was a part of 14 Final Fours, including one as a player, 11 as an assistant coach and two as a head coach.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four, becoming just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was the consensus National Coach of the Year in 1997-98. That year, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He led UNC to the 1998 ACC Tournament championship and was the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1997-98 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1998-99 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

1957 NCAA CHAMPIONS

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Four of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers "The Shot." It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory.

It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

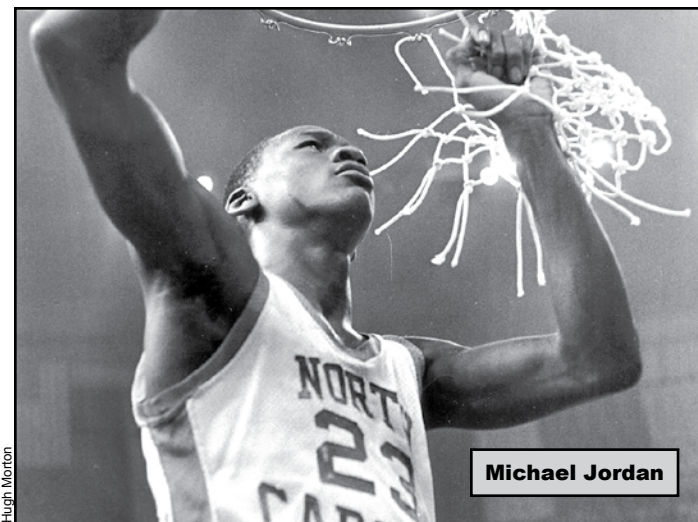

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

Dean Smith on 1982 — "We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

1993 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal — Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the “Fab Five,” had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any farther apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas set up a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

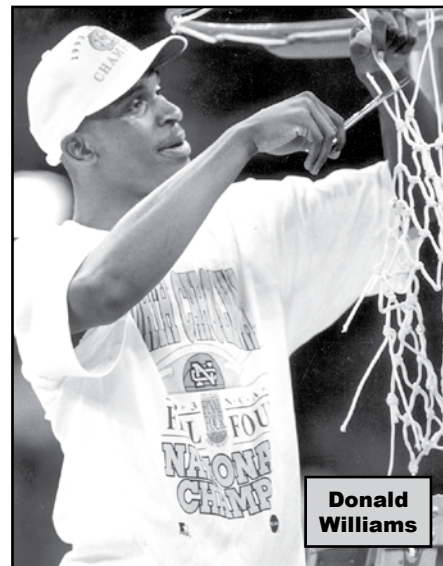

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

Dean Smith on 1993 — “We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way.”

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY

Jeffrey Camarati

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the All-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points. But Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from in the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

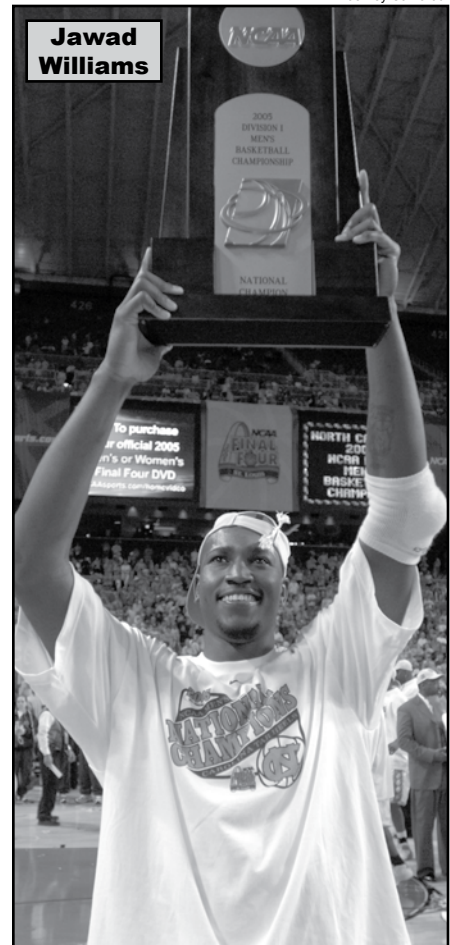

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

Iowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at halftime in the national semifinals, but UNC outscored the Spartans, 54-33, in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th. But the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half, but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MVP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

Roy Williams on 2005 — "I had watched One Shining Moment for so many years, and I had always wanted to watch it from the arena, from the floor, when it was about my team. It was a moment where I reached up to wipe a tear away because as a coach, that is the moment. That's what you dream about."

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

17 FINAL FOURS

“Bones” McKinney grabs a rebound in the 1946 NCAA title game. Carolina has been to at least one Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

1946

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York’s Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John “Hook” Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina’s leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon’s 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina reached the Final Four with a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

“The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament,” says Coach Smith. “I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time.”

Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Carolina played defending champion UCLA for the championship in the Los Angeles Sports

Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.

“We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before,” says Coach Smith. “We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date.”

Robert McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP and later had 24 points and 15 rebounds in the Final Four vs. Florida State.

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

Phil Ford, Dean Smith and the Tar Heels reached the 1977 NCAA championship game.

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

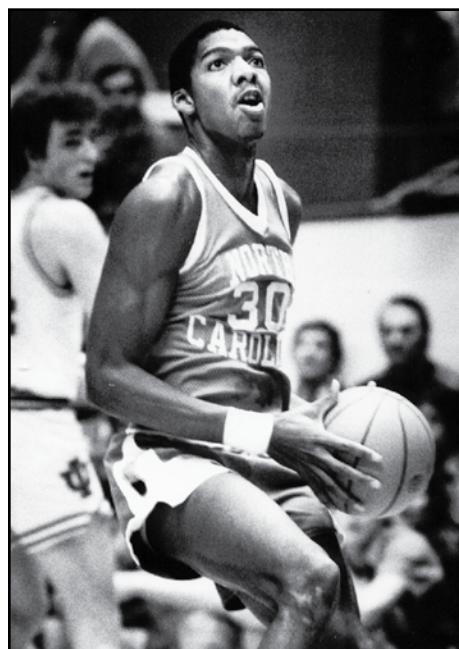

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyper-extended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No.1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."

against UNLV. We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead.”

1981

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight’s Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

“We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991,” says Coach Smith. “We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn’t play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn’t been to the Final Rasheed Wallace helped lead UNC to the 1995 Final Four.

Four in a while and I think we went back to being happy to be there.”

1995

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse’s 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

“That was a special year,” says Coach Smith. “We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, ‘Yeah, I’m going to go to it and celebrate.’ He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas.”

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

“Fairfield was a remarkable game,” says Smith. “That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, ‘We could let them have it, we’ve had a pretty good year,’ and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said ‘What do you mean?’ And we went on to beat them pretty badly.”

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat UNC Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams’ 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter’s 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.

Carolina, led by forward Jason Capel, stymied third-ranked and No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round, holding the Cardinal to 34 percent shooting. Freshman Joseph Forte led all scorers with 17 points.

Forte scored 22 points and Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to beat Tennessee, 74-69, in Austin, Texas, in the regional semifinal. Cota scored key late baskets and Carolina got stellar post play off the bench from Julius Peppers.

Forte had 28 points and eight rebounds in the regional final to beat Tulsa.

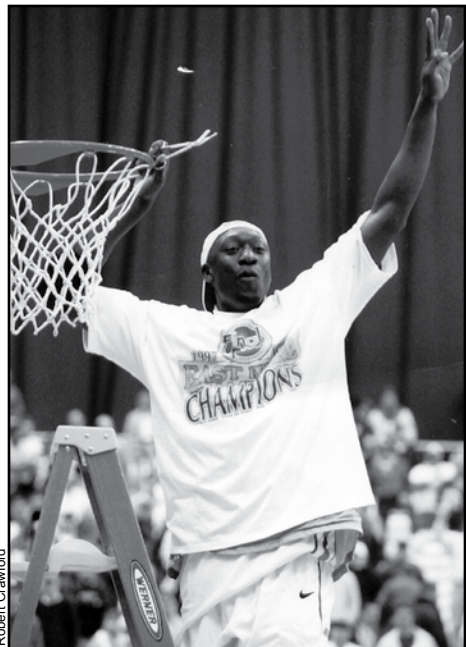

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinals in Indianapolis despite Haywood’s 20 points and 12 rebounds. The Tar Heels overcame a 15-point deficit to take the lead in the second half, but fell behind after Cota went to the bench with four fouls.

The Tar Heels were the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and East Regional in 2008. Carolina was a No. 1 seed for an NCAA-record 12th time and the third time in four years (2005-07-08).

Carolina opened the NCAA Tournament by reaching the 100-point mark in consecutive games. The Tar Heels trounced Mount St. Mary’s 113-74 and Arkansas 108-77 at the RBC Center in Raleigh. Danny Green’s 12 first-half points keyed a 68-47 win over Washington State in Charlotte in the Sweet 16. Tyler Hansbrough was sensational in the 83-73 win over Louisville in the East Regional final. Hansbrough, who earned regional MVP honors, had 28 points and 13 rebounds against the Cardinals. He scored 20 second-half points, including a pair of jump shots in the final minutes that sealed the victory.

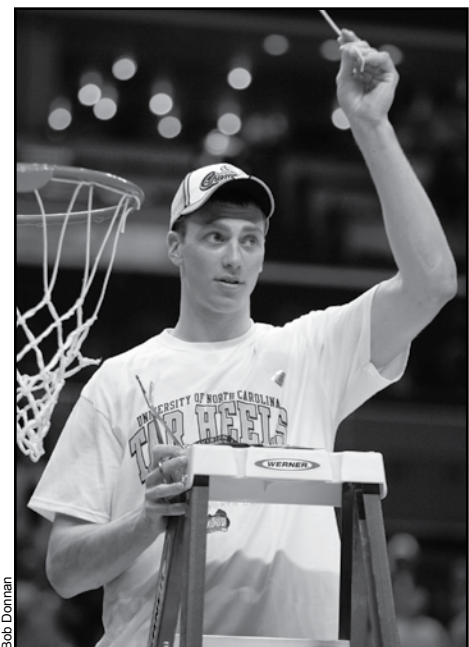

Kansas jumped out to a 40-12 lead over the Tar Heels in the national semifinals in San Antonio. UNC staged a dramatic comeback to pull within 54-50 with 11:15 to play before the Jayhaks pulled away for an 84-66 win.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

✓ North Carolina has won 17 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record 29 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have a 83-37 record and the most wins and titles in ACC Tournament history.

✓ Dean Smith won 13 Tournament titles, more than any other coach in history. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have been the No. 1 seed 21 times, including 2008 when Carolina won the Tournament in Charlotte, N.C.

✓ Carolina is one of only two schools that have won three consecutive ACC regular-season titles and ACC Tournament championships. UNC accomplished that feat in 1967-68-69.

✓ A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 18 times. The MVPs include: Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Reid (1989), Rick Fox (1991), Jerry Stackhouse (1994), Shammond Williams (1997), Antawn Jamison (1998), Brandan Wright (2007) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008).

Frank McGuire's eventual national championships ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was named MVP.

J.D. Lyon Jr.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match.

Larry Miller was selected MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charles Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

The 1977 Tar Heels won the ACC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA championship game.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, who averaged 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in one semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as Carolina prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors. Senior point guard Jeff Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists) joined him on the first-team.

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State. Prior to 2007, the last time UNC had won both a share of the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament in the same season was 1982.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandon Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

so. Wright joined UNC's Phil Ford (1978), Sam Perkins (1981) and Jerry Stackhouse (1994) and Duke's Jason Williams (2000) as those to accomplish the feat. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

The 2007 championship was Roy Williams' first as the Tar Heel head coach.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

FANTASTIC FINISHES

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

UNC 87, Davidson 85 March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 73, Duke 71 January 19, 1974

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT) March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one.

The UNC bench, including assistant coach Bill Guthridge (center, dark suit), jumps for joy as Charles Scott hits the game-winner as time expires, giving the Tar Heels an 87-85 win over Davidson in the 1969 NCAA East Regional Final.

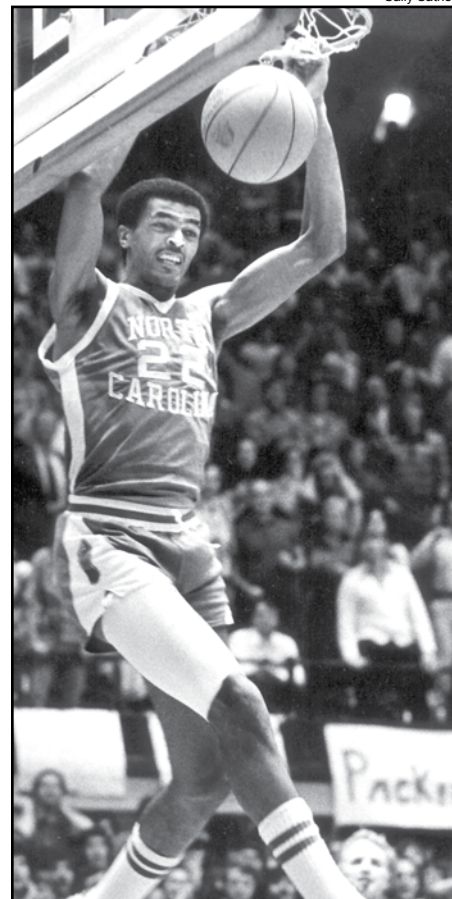

Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (OT) March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 seconds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 70, NC State 69 January 17, 1979

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Dudley Bradley missed a jumper for the Tar Heels and State grabbed the rebound with 16 seconds left. Reynolds Coliseum celebrated. But Bradley stole the ball from Clyde Austin at mid-court and drove in for the game-winning dunk and a 70-69 triumph.

UNC 63, Georgetown 62 March 29, 1982

Michael Jordan hit a jumper from the left wing with 17 seconds to play to give Dean Smith his first national championship. Final Four MVP James Worthy had 28 points, but it was the freshman Jordan who took a pass from Jimmy Black and made the game-winning shot. Worthy stole an errant pass from Hoya forward Fred Brown in the final seconds to clinch the title.

UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT) November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63 February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

UNC 75, Maryland 74 January 9, 1985

Lefty Driesell's Maryland Terrapins seemed poised to knock off Carolina at Carmichael Auditorium. The Terps led 72-69 with 23 seconds left and Keith Gatlin on the line for a one-and-one. The 83 percent foul shooter missed the front end and UNC's Kenny Smith sank a jump shot with 16 seconds left. Adrian Branch, a 78 percent free-throw shooter, also missed. Dave Popson provided the winning points with a high-arching jumper with nine seconds to play. Curtis Hunter's steal and free throws secured the win.

UNC 60, Notre Dame 58 March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

UNC 96, Syracuse 93 (OT) November 21, 1987

Undermanned Carolina faced top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic and the Orange led by 14 with 15:39 to play. Carolina stormed back and sent the game into overtime when freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a turnaround jumper at the horn to tie the game at 85.

UNC 80, James Madison 79 November 24, 1989

The Tar Heels trailed Lefty Driesell's Dukes, 79-70, with less than a minute to play in the Maui Classic. An offensive rebound basket by Rick Fox and a steal and three-pointer by Hubert Davis cut the deficit to four with 48 seconds to play. Pete Chilcutt hit a three to pull within one with 10 ticks remaining. The Tar Heels had one last chance after a JMU player stepped out of bounds and King Rice tossed an off-balance runner from the top of the key that banked in at the buzzer.

UNC 79, Oklahoma 77 March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

UNC 80, Wake Forest 78 February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese set up the final possession with a steal with 16 seconds to go. He drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.

UNC 82, Florida State 77 January 27, 1993

The Seminoles jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and later extended the lead to as many as 21 points. Carolina trailed 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. The Tar Heels, keyed by a pair of three-pointers by Henrik Rodl, then ran off 15 straight points and Eric Montross hit a jump hook with 1:59 left to cut the FSU lead to 77-76. George Lynch stole a crosscourt pass by Charlie Ward and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

HISTORY CAROLINA BASKETBALL

1993 NCAA Tournament

In the run to the national championship, the Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. The Bearcats' Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

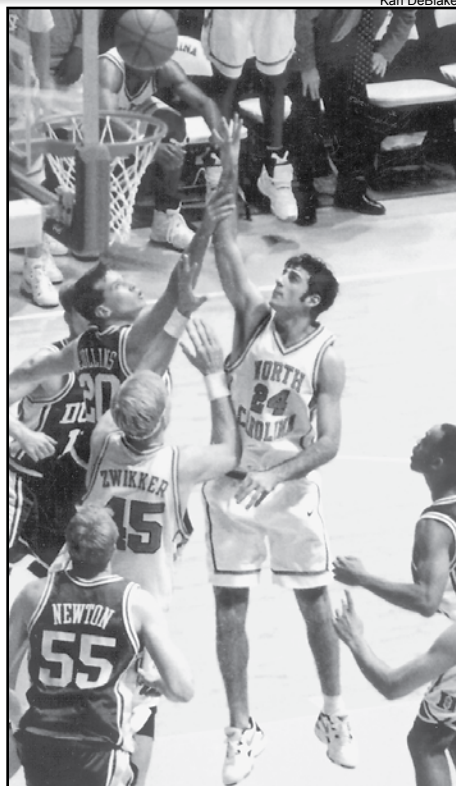

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71. Williams finished with 25 points and hit four free throws in the final minutes to secure the win.

UNC 86, Wake Forest 84 (OT) March 12, 1994

The Tar Heels erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84, in overtime in the ACC semifinals. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

UNC 62, Wake Forest 61 January 28, 1995

Winston-Salem was the stage for a battle between sophomore centers Rasheed Wallace and Tim Duncan. Duncan had 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks, and Wallace countered with 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. Carolina trailed Wake Forest 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought UNC to within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right side of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining for a 62-61 win.

Dante Calabria's tip-in gave the Tar Heels a 73-72 win over Duke on Jan. 31, 1996. Carolina trailed by 17 points in the first half.

UNC 102, Duke 100 (2 OT) February 2, 1995

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 26-9 lead on a spectacular reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devils. Duke pulled within five at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the second half. UNC battled back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 remaining to force overtime. The Tar Heels led by nine, but Duke made three three-pointers, including a 30-footer from Jeff Capel at the buzzer, to knot the score at 95 and force a second overtime. Donald Williams hit a pair of 12-footers in the second OT and Jeff McInnis had a steal and lay-up with under a minute to play to give Carolina a 102-100 win. Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace each had 25 points and Williams added 24 in one of the greatest college basketball games ever played.

UNC 73, Duke 72 January 31, 1996

The Blue Devils' lead was three when Ademola Okulaja grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 69-68 with 1:55 to go. Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Shammond Williams countered with a three of his own 15 seconds later. Duke turned the ball over and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor, but Williams forced a jump ball after a scramble. Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim.

UNC 59, NC State 56 January 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime, but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal and Shammond Williams hit a lay-up to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a lay-up to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled and State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a lay-up. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

UNC 45, NC State 44 February 12, 1997

This was the lowest scoring output in a win during Dean Smith's 36 years as head coach. The Tar Heels trailed 28-19 at the half, but pulled within 42-41 with 7:25 to play. Neither team scored until a Damon Thornton basket with 2:03 left gave State a 44-41 advantage. Serge Zwikker scored for UNC to make it 44-43. With 12.3 seconds to play, Antawn Jamison forced a turnover and freshman point guard Ed Cota drove to the left baseline and lofted a

UNC 107, Ga. Tech 100 (2 OT) February 8, 1998

The Tar Heels let a seven-point lead slip away in the final minute of regulation, but Shammond Williams put on an awesome three-point shooting display as Carolina prevailed, 107-100, in double-overtime in Atlanta. Williams forced a second overtime with a pair of free throws with six seconds left in the first extra period. In the second OT, Williams scored 12 of his career-high 42 points, including two three-pointers.

UNC 74, Tennessee 69 March 24, 2000

Carolina was unranked for the first time in 10 years and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 8 seed. The Tar Heels trailed 10th-ranked Tennessee, 39-36, at halftime of the regional semifinal. The Vols led by two when UNC center Brendan Haywood fouled out with 8:03 left and led, 64-57, with 4:48 to play. But freshman Joseph Forte hit a three-pointer and Jason Capel had a steal and lay-up to make it 64-62 with 3:41 left. Ed Cota tied the game on a driving lay-up and followed with a jumper to give UNC the lead with 1:59 left. Forte, Julius Peppers and Cota each hit two free throws in the final 0:34 to cap a 15-3 Tar Heel run and a 74-69 win.

UNC 70, Wake Forest 69 January 6, 2001

Brendan Haywood grabbed a loose ball in the lane and scored with 3.3 seconds to play to give the Tar Heels the win over No. 4-ranked and previously undefeated Wake Forest. Haywood finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. His basket marked the fourth lead change in the final 1:22.

UNC 85, Duke 83 February 1, 2001

Joseph Forte had 24 points, 16 rebounds (a UNC record for guards), six assists and three steals. The Tar Heels blistered the Cameron Indoor Stadium nets by shooting 51.5 percent from the floor. Carolina led by as many as 13 in the first half, but Duke took the lead midway through the second half. Ronald Curry scored six straight points in 48 seconds to give the Tar Heels a 63-59 lead. UNC later built a seven-point lead, but the Blue Devils tied the score with three seconds left. On the ensuing inbound play, Shane Battier fouled Brendan Haywood and the UNC seven-footer hit both free throws with one second left for the win.

UNC 86, Connecticut 83 January 17, 2004

Rashad McCants scored 27 points against the Huskies for the second straight year and for the second year in a row the Tar Heels upset Connecticut in the Smith Center. McCants scored the last 10 points of the game for Carolina, including a three-pointer with just over six seconds to play. The Huskies would go on to win the national championship. It was Roy Williams' first win as UNC's head coach over a No. 1 ranked team.

UNC 75, Duke 73 March 6, 2005

Carolina trailed, 73-64, after Blue Devil forward Lee Melchionni hit a three with 3:03 to play. But the Tar Heels outscored Duke, 11-0, the rest of the way to clinch the regular-season ACC title. Trailing by two with less than 30 seconds to play, David Noel stripped Daniel Ewing of the ball and Raymond Felton grabbed the loose ball and called timeout. On the ensuing possession, Felton hit the first of two free throws, Marvin Williams rebounded his missed second free throw and scored the go-ahead basket with 17 seconds to play. Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 24 rebounds.

UNC 75, Illinois 70 April 4, 2005

Final Four MVP Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Raymond Felton's and Marvin Williams' late heroics gave Roy Williams his first NCAA title. Marvin Williams broke a 70-all tie with a tip-in basket with 1:27 to play. Leading 72-70, Felton, who earlier hit a three-pointer to break a 65-65 tie, stole an Illini pass with 31 seconds to play and hit three of four free throws to cap the win.

UNC vs. Clemson 2007-08 Regular Season

Carolina beat Clemson in a pair of close games during the 2007-08 regular season. In the first meeting on Jan. 6, 2008, in Clemson, Wayne Ellington hit a three-pointer with 0.4 seconds remaining in overtime to give UNC a 90-88 win. Ellington scored a career-high 36 points in the game, connecting on five three-pointers. The final shot by Ellington marked UNC's first late game-winner since David Noel rattled in a three-pointer with 1.8 seconds left on Nov. 19, 2005, to beat Gardner-Webb in the Smith Center and marked Carolina's first overtime win under head coach Roy Williams.

In the return matchup in Chapel Hill on Feb. 10, Tyler Hansbrough scored 13 of his 39 points in the two overtime periods as Carolina rallied from 15 points down to beat the Tigers, 103-93, in double overtime. The Tar Heels trailed by 11 points with 3:12 left to play in regulation before scoring nine straight points to cut the lead to 79-77. Quentin Thomas hit a driving layup to force the first overtime and UNC eventually won in the second extra stanza.

Marvin Williams scored the game-winning three-point play in Carolina's 75-73 win over Duke on March 6, 2005.

THE ANNUAL FUND

Donations through the Annual Fund offer The Rams Club the opportunity to meet immediate funding needs-primarily the funds needed to bridge the difference between the endowment's yield and the actual scholarship costs and other important projects for Carolina's student-athletes.

The Rams Club's Scholarship Endowment Trust is the largest athletic scholarship endowment in the nation. The Scholarship Endowment Trust is built upon gifts from Carolina supporters who have endowed Full or Half Scholarships in support of student-athletes which provide in perpetuity the support to a broad-based athletics program.

As the Rams Club's planned giving program, Carolina Forever offers donors an opportunity to make a lasting impact by involving Carolina Athletics in their estate planning. Carolina Forever's mission is to insure that the university continues to provide in perpetuity the unique opportunity to experience what it means to be a Tar Heel student-athlete in a broad-based athletics program.

SPORTS ENDOWMENTS

The Sport Endowments program provides additional funding for the operating budgets of each of the 28 sports. Donors can make gifts to an individual sport with the yield from that trust made available to the appropriate coach for use in budget-enhancing activities like recruiting, team travel, assistant coaches' salaries and more. With the gifts designated into an endowment, these gifts will provide a continuous stream of usable income in perpetuity.

IT'S THERE. SOMETIMES IT'S SUBTLE.
OTHER TIMES IT'S AS OBVIOUS AS THE SKY ABOVE.

It can be in the tie that you wear to work, or the swoosh on your tennis shoes. It can be in the paint you choose for your family room, or on the car that you drive. It can be in the flag you hang from your front porch, or that championship t-shirt you wear to the gym. It's in all of us. We show it in different ways, but eventually it comes out – that streak of Carolina Blue deep inside us that drives our passion for the Tar Heels.

When you think about it, you likely Show Your Colors in many different ways – from the clothes you wear, to the items you'll find at home and in the office, to the way you get excited putting on that lucky hat before heading out to cheer for the Heels.

And maybe it's in the pride you feel when Carolina student-athletes excel like few others in college athletics. You can Show Your Colors in a life-changing way by being a part of The Rams Club – offering outstanding young men and women an opportunity to represent the University of North Carolina in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Your support through The Rams Club is integral in providing athletic scholarships to Carolina student-athletes, as well as outstanding facilities in which they can train and compete at the top level of college athletics.

RECORDS CAROLINA BASKETBALL

Through its teaching, research and engagement, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill serves as an educational and economic beacon for the people of North Carolina and beyond.

HISTORY

- The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century.

- Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the university was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president.

- The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., Feb. 12, 1795.

RECENT RANKINGS & RATINGS

Several national publications regularly publish rankings that list Carolina prominently in categories ranging from academic quality to affordability to diversity to engagement to international presence. Recent highlights include:

- First among the 100 best U.S. public colleges and universities that offer the best combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs as ranked by Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine.

- Fifth-best public university in U.S. News & World Report's 2008 "Best Colleges" guidebook for the seventh consecutive year.

- One of seven public universities ranking in the top 25 for all nine measures used in the 2007 edition of "The Top American Research Universities."

- Among 25 "New Ivy" campuses in the 2007 Kaplan/Newsweek "How to Get into College Guide."

- Third among major U.S. universities in the percentage of African-American students in the 2007 first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine ranked Carolina the No. 1 best value in American public higher education for the seventh consecutive time. The rating assessed the 100 best U.S. public colleges and universities that offer the best combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs.

- The first full class of Carolina Covenant Scholars graduated in May 2008. The Carolina Covenant provides a debt-free education to qualified low-income students from North Carolina and beyond.

- Last fall, Carolina enrolled the most acdemically prepared first-year class in University history, with 3,895 students drawn from a record 20,000 applications. This year's applications surpassed that, hitting the 21,487 mark.

- Oliver Smithies, Excellence Professor of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, received the 2007 Nobel Prize.

- Faculty attracted more than $610 million in outside research funding in fiscal 2007 – more than double the amount a decade ago.

- Through teaching, research and public service, Carolina connects with the people of North Carolina every day in ways that improve lives and build futures.

- The Carolina First Campaign, completed in December 2007, was the most successful fundraising effort in University history, raising more than $2.38 billion.

real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres of the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

GREAT GAMES

- On Feb. 8, 1992, UNC rallied from 22 points down to beat Wake Forest, the largest comeback in school history.
- On Jan. 27, 1993, UNC trailed Florida State by 21 points with 11:48 to play in the game, but rallied for an 82-77 win. George Lynch's steal and dunk gave UNC the lead.

Carolina basketball is competing in 2008-09 in the Dean E. Smith Center for the 24th season. The Tar Heels have played 315 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of more than 6.3 million fans. Carolina is 265-50 in the Smith Center, an impressive winning mark of 84.1 percent.

Carolina was once again third in the nation last year in home attendance, attracting nearly 20,500 fans per game. The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 21 of the last 22 seasons.

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

Last year, the Tar Heels went 14-2 at home and have a 70-9 record at home in Roy Williams' five years as head coach. Dean Smith led the Tar Heels to a 133-17 record in the building that bears his name.

RECENT RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas.

A hot/cold tub room adjacent to the lockerroom was added for the 2008-09 season.

In January 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum opened in the new Williamson Athletics Center, adjacent to the Koury Natatorium. For photos and information about the museum, see CarolinaBasketballMuseum.com.

In 2006-07, the seats in the lower level and upper level ring were replaced. The playing floor was completely refinished and refurbished for the 2007-08 campaign.

Four high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. The boards measure 17.8 feet x 23.6 feet. At the same time, two 50-foot ribbon boards were added to the fascia around the upper level and a 40-foot video board was added to the front of the scorer's table.

In the early 2000s, the UNC lockerroom and weight room were completely renovated. A new media center was built and the Bowles Room and Rams Club offices were retrofitted to include a practice gym.

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

As a multi-purpose facility, the Smith Center has played host to a wide range of athletic events and concerts. In 1987, U.S. Olympic Festival basketball attracted a Smith Center record crowd of 23,713 for the gold medal game. In 1988, the venue served as the site of the first and second rounds of the NCAA East Regional. In 1994, the Smith Center hosted the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships.

In 1999, the Smith Center and Koury Natatorium served as the basketball and aquatic venues for the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games.

Kenny Rogers staged the first concert in the arena on April 12, 1986.

Adjacent to the Smith Center is the Maurice J. Koury Natatorium. The natatorium features an eight-lane, 50-meter pool.

The Smith Center and Koury Natatorium also host such community activities as the commencement ceremonies for local high schools, University Blood Drive, University Career Fairs and UNC's December and May Commencement Exercises.

Prior to moving into the Smith Center, Carolina played its home games at Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels were 169-20 at Carmichael. UNC debuted there on Dec. 4, 1965, against William and Mary, and finished play on Jan. 4, 1986, in a win over NC State.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The

• On Feb. 3, 1994, No. 2 Carolina beat No. 1 Duke, 89-78, in the first-ever matchup between the rivals in which the teams held the top two spots in the Associated Press poll.

• UNC and Duke repeated their No. 1 vs. No. 2 battle on Feb. 5, 1998, as the second-ranked Tar Heels routed the top-rated Blue Devils, 97-73. Antawn Jamison scored 35 points that evening, one of three occasions he netted at least 35 points in the Smith Center.

• On March 6, 2005, Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds to go gave Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke to clinch the ACC regular-season title. Sean May had 26 points and 24 rebounds in the win.

• On Feb. 15, 2006, Georgia Tech led by as many as 20 points, but Tyler Hansbrough scored a Smith Center record 40 points to lead the Tar Heels to an 82-75 win.

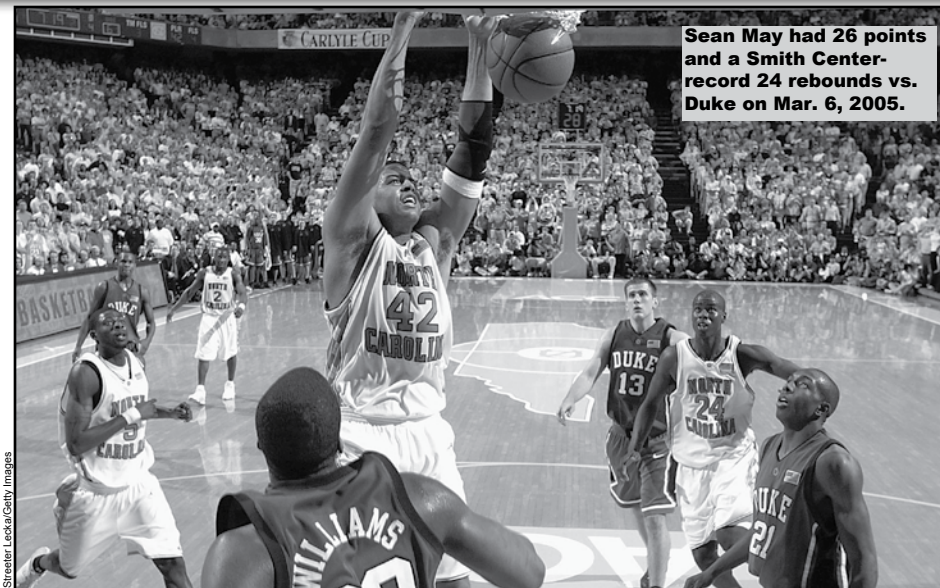

• On Feb. 10, 2008, Carolina came back from 11 down to Clemson with three minutes to play and won in double overtime, 103-93.

THE SMITH CENTER JERSEYS
