Notes

This list comprises the most often-used starting lineups or in some cases a lineup where a player replaced an injured starter for a significant period of time or where a player (i.e. Rasheed Wallace in 1993-94) became a starter late in the season and started in the post-season.

In 1997-98, Carolina rotated six players in the starting lineup throughout the season.

Starters from 1911-56 researched and compiled by Ron Smith.

FAMOUS COMEBACKS, BUZZER BEATERS

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 96, Duke 92 (0T)

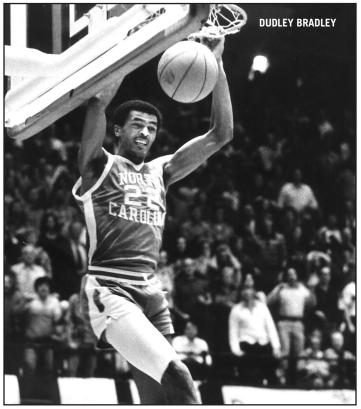

March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (0T)

March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. UNC 79, Oklahoma 77

March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

UNC 80, Wake Forest 78

February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

The Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 UC lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim.

DEAN SMITH Head Coach 1961-97

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight and surpassed again in 2011 by Mike Krzyzewski.

- \bullet Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.
- Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.
- Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.
- ullet The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

- Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.
- The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.
- Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.
 - Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith.
- His teams played in 11 Final Fours, second in number only to Wooden, who reached 12.
- Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.
- \bullet In his last 31 seasons, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.
- Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

In 2013, Smith's wife, Linnea, accepted the Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Barack Obama on the coach's behalf. The medal is the nation's highest civilian honor, presented to those who have "made especially meritorious contributions to the security or national interests of the United States, to world peace, or to cultural or other significant public or private endeavors."

Smith was one of 16 Medal of Freedom recipients in 2013, along with President Bill Clinton, Chicago Cub Hall of Famer Ernie Banks, Washington Post editor Ben Bradlee, Senators Daniel Inouye and Richard Lugar, entertainers Loretta Lynn and Oprah Winfrey and astronaut Sally Ride.

Smith is recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say.

UCLA coach John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Indiana coach Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. Whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for him, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Carolina and Kansas head coach and Smith assistant Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Wake Forest coach Dave Odom: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Virginia coach Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He named his long-time assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests.

Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history

In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

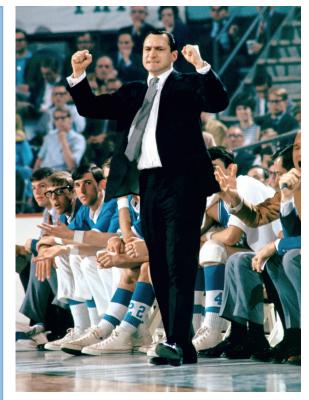

More than 96 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated

From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007

Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Carolina failed to hit at least 50 percent from the field just four time in his last 27 years. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

Six of Smith's players won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

NBA head coach and former UNC guard George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Tar Heel guard and Hall of Famer Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford, played for and coached with Smith: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Hall of Famer Larry Brown played for Smith and served as an assistant under Smith: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young. He's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith retired as the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories (currently third). In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716, and was the first to win 13 titles.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, and Knight are the only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

ROY WILLIAMS Head Coach 2003-21

Roy Williams retired on April 1, 2021, with the third-most wins by a Division I head coach and the sixth-highest winning percentage in college basketball history.

Inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007, Williams was a college head coach for 33 seasons at two of the three winningest programs in the sport's history. He won 418 games in 15 seasons at Kansas from 1988-2003 and 485 games in 18 seasons at UNC, his alma mater, from 2003-21. He is the second-winningest coach all-time at Carolina and is now third at KU. He is the only coach in college basketball history to win 400 games at two schools.

Williams is one of 11 Tar Heels enshrined in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, joining a group that includes Dean Smith, Michael Jordan, James Worthy, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, Bob McAdoo, Charlie Scott and Bobby Jones.

ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and Fox Sports named Williams the Coach of the Decade for 2000-09, a 10-year span during which he won 33 NCAA Tournament games, including two national titles among five Final Four appearances, at KU and Carolina.

The Asheville, N.C., native won his 900th game when the Tar Heels beat Florida State on February 27, 2021, reaching 900 wins in fewer games and fewer seasons than any other coach in history. His 903rd and final win came against Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament on March 11, 2021. He finished his career with a 903-264 record. The 903 wins rank third behind only Mike Krzyzewski and Jim Boeheim and his winning percentage of .774 is sixth all-time, third highest in the last 45 seasons and the highest in his 33 seasons among Power 5 conference coaches.

Williams grew up in the Biltmore neighborhood in Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played for Coach Buddy Baldwin. He played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69, earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and a master's degree in teaching in 1973. After five seasons as the head coach at Owen High School in Black Mountain, N.C., Williams joined Dean Smith's UNC staff, where he served as an assistant coach from 1978-88.

Williams led UNC to NCAA championships as a head coach in 2005, 2009 and 2017 and was an assistant when the Tar Heels won the title in 1982. He is the only head coach to win three national championships at his alma mater and one of six – with John Wooden, Krzyzewski, Adolph Rupp, Bob Knight and Jim Calhoun – to win at least three titles.

In 2018, the University of North Carolina officially named the playing floor at the Dean E. Smith Center, home of the Tar Heels, Roy Williams Court.

Williams is second all-time in college basketball in 30-win seasons (12) and fourth in 20-win seasons (29), has the most wins over No. 1-ranked teams in the AP poll (8) and averaged more wins per season (27.4) than any coach with 800 or more wins. His teams won 18 regular-season conference championships, tied for the fifth most all-time.

He won national coach-of-the-year honors nine times (1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2017, 2019) and was the conference coach of the year nine times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2011). His teams were ranked in 84.4 percent of the AP polls, including 61.5 percent of the polls in the top 10 and 29 weeks at No. 1. In 13 seasons his teams earned a No. 1 ranking and in 18 seasons were ranked at least second in the nation.

Williams won 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800 and 900 games in fewer seasons than any coach in college basketball history.

Williams ranks with Smith and Krzyzewski as the most accomplished coaches in ACC history, ranking third in wins (485), third in ACC regular-season and Tournament wins (241), third in regular-season ACC titles (9), third in road wins (93), fourth in road winning percentage in league play (.621) and fifth in regular-season winning percentage (.693).

His teams defined success in NCAA Tournament play, where he is second in wins (79), games (106) and No. 1 seeds (13); third in appearances (30), winning percentage (.745), Final Four wins (9) and championship game appearances (6); and fourth in titles (3) and Final Fours (9). Over his last 20 years, Williams' teams won 54 NCAA Tournament games, more than any other coach in the nation. Carolina's 45 NCAA Tournament wins in the Williams era were more than any other school in those 18 seasons. Carolina was a No. 1 seed in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and a No. 2 in 2018, the best four-year stretch of seeding in school history.

Only Kentucky, UNC, Duke, UCLA and Kansas have more NCAA Tournament wins than Williams. His teams went 29-1 in the first round, 19-10 in the second, 13-6 in the Sweet 16, 9-4 in the Elite 8, 6-3 in the national semifinals and 3-3 in the championship game.

Carolina went 45-13 in the NCAA Tournament under Williams, a winning percentage of .776 that is the highest in ACC history. The 45 wins under Williams are more than 13 current or former ACC schools have won in their NCAA Tournament histories. He is the only coach to win an NCAA Tournament game in 20 consecutive seasons (1990-2009) and the only coach to win 29 straight first-round games.

In 2005, Carolina went 33-4 and won the NCAA title in Williams' second year as head coach, just two years removed from back-to-back seasons when the Tar Heels failed to make the NCAA Tournament field.

The 2009 squad is considered one of the most dominant championship teams, becoming the first NCAA champion to win all six games by a dozen or more points. Carolina won by an average of 20.2 points, the highest margin in 13 years, trailed in the second half just once and led Michigan State by a record 21 points at halftime in the national championship game.

Williams led the Tar Heels to back-to-back national championship games in 2016 and 2017. UNC lost the title to Villanova on a last-second three-pointer in '16, but beat top-seed Gonzaga, 71-65, to win the 2017 title. It marked the fourth time in NCAA history a school won the championship a year after losing in the finals.

Under Williams, Carolina earned 10 No. 1 or No. 2 seeds, won three ACC

Five times multiple Tar Heels were selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including four players in 2005 and 2012 and three in 2009 and 2019.

Williams set UNC records for most wins in one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09), six years (177 from 2005-10), seven years (206 from 2005-12), eight years (228, 2011-18 and 2012-19), nine years (263 from 2005-13), 10 years (292 from 2008-17) and 15 years (434 from 2004-19).

Tyler Hansbrough became the most decorated player in Carolina Basketball history and set the all-time ACC scoring mark with 2,872 points. He is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors in each of his four seasons. FRANK MCGUIRE: Head Coach 1952-61 BILL GUTHRIDGE: Head Coach 1997-2000

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title. McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater. Kansas State.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times. The Tar Heels finished first or tied for first in the ACC regular season 16 times, finished second or tied for second in the ACC regular season 11 times, and finished third or tied for third in the ACC regular season six times.

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award), CBS/Chevrolet, the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and The Sporting News. That year, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1997-98
National Player of the Year
Antawn Jamison and 1998-99
NBA Rookie of the Year Vince
Carter, both of whom entered the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year,
five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

He was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. In 2021, he was inducted posthumously in the STEP UP Assistant Coaches Hall of Fame.

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Four of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers "The Shot." It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael lordan

Jordan stood 16 feet to the left of the basket. Catch-jump-shoot. No hesitation. The ball found the bottom of the net. Carolina 63, Georgetown 62. Fifteen seconds remained on the clock.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

DEAN SMITH:

"We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

MICHAEL JORDAN'S shot with 17 seconds to play lifted UNC past Georgetown. SAM PERKINS and Final 4 MVP JAMES WORTHY celebrate with the trophy (below). Worthy scored 28 in the championship game.

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal—Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the "Fab Five," had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any further apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

North Carolina EG 3EG

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas set up a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

DEAN SMITH:

"We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way."

Final 4 MVP DONALD WILLIAMS scored 25 points in the semifinal vs. Kansas and 25 in the championship game vs. Michigan.

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the AII-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points. But Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from in the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

lowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at halftime in the national semifinals, but UNC outscored the Spartans, 54-33, in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th. But the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

UNC 40 35 - 75 UI 27 43 - 70 The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half, but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MVP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"I had watched One Shining Moment for so many years, and I had always wanted to watch it from the arena, from the floor, when it was about my team. It was a moment where I reached up to wipe a tear away because as a coach, that is the moment. That's what you dream about."

The Tar Heels began 2008-09 with lofty expectations as five starters returned from a team that won a school-record 36 games and a trip to the Final Four the previous year. Carolina was an unprecedented unanimous No. 1 pick in both the media and coaches' polls.

Injuries took an early toll on the championship hopes, however, as 2008 National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough, senior Marcus Ginyard and freshman Tyler Zeller all saw time on the injured list early in the season. Hansbrough would miss four games with a stress reaction in his leg and ankle sprain, Ginyard would play in only three games all year because of a stress fracture in his foot, and Zeller suffered a broken wrist in the second game that sidelined him for 23 contests.

The Tar Heels retained their top ranking through early January by winning their first 13 games, routing Kentucky and Michigan State and winning the Maui Invitational along the way. On December 18th, Hansbrough set the UNC scoring record, surpassing Phil Ford's mark against Evansville.

Carolina lost its first two games in ACC play to Boston College and Wake Forest.

The Tar Heels then won 13 of their next 14 games to capture the ACC regular-season crown with a 13-3 record. Ty Lawson knocked off Florida State with a buzzer-beating three-pointer, scored 21 second-half points in a 101-87 win at Duke, hit numerous clutch three-pointers in a close win at Miami and earned ACC Player of the Year honors. Lawson also earned first-team All-America accolades and won the Cousy Award as the top point guard in the country. He became the first point guard to be ACC Player of the Year in 31 years.

Lawson severely injured a toe two days before UNC's Senior Day win over Duke. He played in that game but was unable to play in the ACC Tournament as Florida State knocked the Tar Heels out in the semifinals.

Carolina was a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional. Wayne Ellington began his stellar NCAA Tournament with 25 points and Carolina held Radford under 28 percent shooting from the floor as the Tar Heels overwhelmed the Highlanders 101-58 in the opening round. In the first half, Hansbrough set the ACC career scoring record, breaking the mark held by Duke's J.J. Redick.

LSU in the second round proved to be the most challenging test en route to the title. Carolina led by nine at the half, but the Tigers surged ahead by five points early in the second period. Lawson, who did not play against Radford and was a gametime decision to play against LSU, was spectacular. He scored 21 second-half points, leading Carolina to an 84-70 win. Lawson and Ellington scored 23 points apiece and Danny Green hit a key three-pointer to help UNC advance.

The Tar Heels dominated both games in the regional in Memphis, beating Gonzaga in the Sweet 16 98-77 behind Hansbrough's 24 points and 10 rebounds. In the regional final, UNC never trailed, toppling Player of the Year Blake Griffin and Oklahoma 72-60. Lawson earned regional MVP honors as Carolina shot 61.9 percent from the field in the second half against the Sooners.

The Tar Heels beat Villanova in the national semifinals, in which UNC was appearing for the third time in five years. Lawson had 22 points and eight assists and Hansbrough added his 47th career double-double with 18 points and 11 rebounds. The Tar Heels led 49-40 at the half, but the Wildcats closed to within five early in the second. That would prove to be the closest any opponent got to UNC in the second half of the last four NCAA Tournament games. Green hit a three, Lawson scored on a fast break layup and the lead shot back to double figures. That win setup a rematch with Michigan State, whom the Tar Heels beat 98-63 in December.

The championship game was all Carolina. Played in front of nearly 73,000 fans, most of whom wore Michigan State green, the Tar Heels scored 55 first-half points and led by 21 at the break, both NCAA records. Ellington scored 17 points in the opening stanza and earned Most Outstanding Player honors. Hansbrough added 18 points and Lawson dominated on both ends of the floor with 21 points, six assists and a championship game record eight steals. The game was never closer than 13 points in the second half as Carolina won, 89-72.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"My hats are off to the guys in our locker room, because they took me on one fantastic ride, and it's something I'll never forget."

JOEL BERRY II scored a game-high 22 points as Carolina beat Gonzaga in Phoenix for the 2017 NCAA title.

Three starters – point guard Joel Berry II and forwards Justin Jackson and Kennedy Meeks – returned from the 2016 team that came within seconds of winning a national championship.

The Tar Heels began the year ranked sixth in the nation and opened with seven straight wins, including a win over Wisconsin to win the Maui Jim Invitational.

Non-conference losses to Indiana and Kentucky (103-100 in Las Vegas in which Jackson scored a career-high 34 points) and a stunning ACC opening defeat at Georgia Tech dropped UNC out of the Top 10 heading into the new year.

Carolina went 8-1 in ACC play in January, highlighted by an overtime win at Clemson, a 107-56 trouncing of NC State and a 96-83 win over ninth-ranked Florida State.

The Tar Heels had four wins over Top-20 teams in their final eight regular-season games, including a 90-83 win over Duke in the regular-season finale when Berry went 5 for 5 from three-point range and scored 28 points. UNC went 14-4 in league play to win the ACC regular-season for the eighth time in the last 13 years.

UNC earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA South Regional and beat Texas Southern by 39 points in the first round. In the second round, UNC trailed Arkansas, 65-60, but out-scored the Razorbacks 12-0 over the final three minutes to win by seven. It was the largest come-from-behind win that late in a game by UNC in its NCAA Tournament history.

Berry and Jackson combined for 50 points and Luke Maye had 16 points and 12 rebounds in a 92-80 win over Butler in the Sweet 16 to set up a 1 vs. 2 seed matchup against Kentucky for the right to advance to the Final Four.

Jackson led all scorers in the regional final with 19 points, and Meeks grabbed a careerhigh 17 rebounds, but it was Maye, a sophomore who averaged about 13 minutes a game off the bench, who hit the winning shot and earned South Regional MVP honors.

Carolina led by five at the half, but the Cats pulled ahead by five with less than five minutes to play. The Tar Heels surged ahead by seven, but Kentucky's Malik Monk tied the game with just over seven seconds to play on a three-pointer.

Meeks quickly in-bounded the ball to Theo Pinson, who raced upcourt and pitched the ball to Maye, who sank a 19-footer with 0.3 seconds to play for a 75-73 victory. Maye finished with a career-high 17 points.

Carolina became the first team to play in 20 Final Fours. In the semifinals, the Tar Heels held on for a 77-76 win over Oregon behind 25 points and 14 rebounds by Meeks and 22 points by Jackson. UNC led the entire second half, but needed a pair of offensive rebounds by Pinson and Meeks in the last five seconds after missed free throws to secure the win.

In the championship game, UNC played second-ranked Gonzaga, which came into the contest 37-1 on the season.

Berry had a game-high 22 points and six assists, Isaiah Hicks hit a key basket with 26 seconds to play and Meeks had an offensive rebound, block and steal in the final minute to lead UNC to the title. Carolina finished the season number one in the nation in rebounding, offensive rebounding and rebound margin, so it was appropriate that Hicks' basket came after an offensive rebound by Meeks. That basket gave UNC 20 second-chance points in the title game; the Tar Heels were 17-0 for the season when scoring 20 or more second-chance points.

The Tar Heels held their six opponents in the NCAA Tournament to 39.6 percent shooting from the floor.

Jackson earned consensus first-team All-America honors and was the ACC Player of the Year. He led the team in scoring at 18.3 points per game and set a single-season UNC record with 105 three-point field goals. Berry became the first player to score 20 or more points in consecutive national championship games (he had 20 against Villanova in 2016) since Hall of Famer Bill Walton for UCLA in 1972-73, Jackson and freshman Tony Bradley were selected in the first round of the 2017 NBA Draft; Jackson was the 15th pick and Bradley the 28th.

(non-national championship season summaries listed below)

1946

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John "Hook" Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina's leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon's 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina reached the Final Four with a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

"The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament," says Coach Smith. "I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time."

Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Carolina played defending champion UCLA for the championship in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.

"We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before," says Coach Smith. "We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date."

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

1972

The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No.1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyperextended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great against UNLV. We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead."

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

Toronto-born and Bahamas-raised Rick Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

"We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991," says Coach Smith. "We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn't play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn't been to the Final Four in a while and I think we went back to being happy to be there."

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse's 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

"That was a special year," says Coach Smith. "We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, 'Yeah, I'm going to go to it and celebrate.' He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas."

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

After sneaking by Fairfield in the first round, the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, in Winston-Salem to give Smith his 877th win, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

"Fairfield was a remarkable game," says Smith. "That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, 'We could let them have it, we've had a pretty good year,' and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said 'What do you mean?' And we went on to beat them pretty badly."

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat UNC Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams' 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter's 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

2000

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.

Carolina, led by forward Jason Capel, stymied third-ranked and No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round, holding the Cardinal to 34 percent shooting. Freshman Joseph Forte led all scorers with 17 points.

Forte scored 22 points and Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to beat Tennessee, 74-69, in Austin, Texas, in the regional semifinal. Cota scored key late baskets and Carolina got stellar post play off the bench from Julius Peppers.

Forte had 28 points, eight rebounds in the regional final to beat Tulsa.

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinals in Indianapolis despite Haywood's 20 points and 12 rebounds. The Tar Heels overcame a 15-point deficit to take the lead in the second half, but fell behind after Cota went to the bench with four fouls.

The Tar Heels were the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and East Regional in 2008. Carolina was a No. 1 seed for an NCAA-record 12th time and the third time in four years (2005-07-08).

Carolina opened the NCAA Tournament by reaching the 100-point mark in consecutive games. The Tar Heels trounced Mount St. Mary's 113-74 and Arkansas 108-77 at the RBC Center in Raleigh. Danny Green's 12 first-half points keyed a 68-47 win over Washington State in Charlotte in the Sweet 16. Tyler Hansbrough was sensational in the 83-73 win over Louisville in the East Regional final. Hansbrough, who earned regional MVP honors, had 28 points and 13 rebounds against the Cardinals. He scored 20 second-half points, including a pair of jump shots in the final minutes that sealed the victory.

Kansas jumped out to a 40-12 lead over the Tar Heels in the national semifinals in San Antonio. UNC staged a dramatic comeback to pull within 54-50 with 11:15 to play before the Jayhaks pulled away for an 84-66 win.

The Tar Heels were the No. 1 seed in the East after defeating Pitt, Notre Dame and fourth-ranked Virginia to win the ACC Tournament. Carolina opened with wins in Raleigh over Florida Gulf Coast (behind Brice Johnson's eight blocks and a 20-0 edge in fastbreak points) and Providence (Johnson had 21 points and 10 rebounds and UNC shot 61 percent from the floor in the second half).

Marcus Paige sparked the 101-86 Sweet 16 win over Indiana with 21 points and six assists, hitting four of his six three-pointers before the first TV timeout. Johnson added 20/10 and three blocks and UNC limited the sharp-shooting Hoosiers to 41 percent from the floor. Johnson (regional MVP) became the first Tar Heel ever with three straight 20/10 games in the NCAA Tournament as he had 25 points and 12 boards in the regional final against Notre Dame. The Tar Heels shot 64 percent from the floor in the first half and 61.5 percent for the game, their highest ever in 26 regional finals.

Carolina beat Syracuse in the national semifinal in Houston in front of 75,505, largest crowd ever to see a UNC game. UNC led by 17 with 12 minutes to play before the Orange closed to within seven. Paige hit three 3FGs in the final 10 minutes and UNC pulled away to win by 17.

The Tar Heels set a national championship game record by making 11 of 17 three-pointers (.647), but a Kris Jenkins' three-pointer as time expired gave Villanova a 77-74 win and the title.

Paige led both teams with 21 points and six assists and Joel Berry II was 4 for 4 in three-pointers and had 20 points. UNC led 39-34 at the half, but fell behind 67-57 wth 5:29 to play. Paige scored eight points in the final 1:33, including an off-balance, double-clutch three with 4.7 seconds to play that tied the game at 74.

The Wildcats shot 58.3 percent from the floor, highest against UNC all season, and made 8 of 14 from behind the arc.

First-team All-America BRICE JOHNSON was the MVP of the 2016 East Regional and led UNC past Syracuse in the national semifinal in Houston.

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was named MVP.

1967

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was selected MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bobby Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. Dick Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection.

The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charlie Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a doubledouble (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

1977

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, who averaged 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in the semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

1982

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Virginia's Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as Carolina prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team alltournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors. Senior point guard Jeff Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists) joined him on the first1991

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Rick Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with $2{:}15$ to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarter-final win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State. Prior to 2007, the last time UNC had won both a share of the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament in the same season was 1982.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright joined UNC's Phil Ford (1978), Sam Perkins (1981) and Jerry Stackhouse (1994) and Duke's Jason Williams (2000) as those to accomplish the feat. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

The 2007 championship was Roy Williams' first as the Tar Heel head coach.

2008

Carolina beat Florida State, Virginia Tech and Clemson to win the 2008 ACC title, its second in a row and an ACC-record 17th overall. The Tar Heels have won back-to-back ACC Tournament titles five times — 1967-68, 1968-69, 1981-82, 1997-98 and 2007-08.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

The Tar Heels came into the 2016 Tournament as the No. 1 seed for the 25th time overall and the seventh under head coach Roy Williams.

Carolina opened the Tournament by surrenduring the first eight points in its quarterfinal against No. 8 Pitt. The Panthers led by seven with 4:36 to play in the first half before the Tar Heels went on a 13-2 run to end the half. UNC shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the second and pulled away for an 88-71 win.

The Tar Heels dominated Notre Dame, a team that beat UNC on Feb. 6th in South Bend, in the semifinals. The 78-47 win was UNC's largest ever in the semifinals and Carolina's biggest in any ACC Tournament game since 1993. The Tar Heels led 23-22, then went on an 18-0 run to end the half. Marcus Paige led with 16 points and seven assists and Isaiah Hicks had a career-high 15 rebounds.

The top-seeded Tar Heels beat No. 2 Virginia, 61-57 to win the title, avenging a loss in the only regular-season meeting two weeks prior in Charlottesville. Tournament MVP Joel Berry II led UNC with 19 points.

The championship game was tied at 28-28 at the half and at 44-all with 8:25 to play. The Tar Heels went on a 9-2 run over the next 6:40, sparked by a three-pointer by Berry and a steal and dunk by Justin Jackson.

Berry averaged a team-high 17.0 points and was 17 for 24 from the floor, 7 for 10 from three-pointers and 10 from 10 from the free throw line over the three games en route to MVP honors.
