IN THE STANDINGS: The Gwinnett Stripers finished 69-79 (.466), placing 15th in the 20-team International League and eighth in the 10-team IL West Division. The 148-game campaign, the longest in team history, marked Gwinnett's first losing season since 2016 (won IL South despite going 65-78) and snapped the club's streak of four consecutive 70-win seasons (went 292-257 from 2017-21).

PILING UP PUNCH-OUTS: The Stripers' pitching staff set a Gwinnett single-season record with 1,421 strikeouts over 148 games (9.60 SO/G), the most in the IL. That total was 10 more than second-place Worcester (1,411 in 148G). It's just the second time a Gwinnett club has led the league in strikeouts for a season, first since 2011 (Durham led league in strikeouts each season from 2012-21).
