BENGALS COACHING STAFF

MARVIN LEWIS — Head Coach

Marvin Lewis, a record-setting defensive coordinator with a Super Bowl championship ring, was signed as the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003.

The signing of Lewis, also a former assistant head coach in the NFL and widely considered one of the league's top head coaching candidates, casts a new, positive light on the Bengals' prospects. The 2002 team posted the worst record (2-14) in franchise history.

"I'm glad he's the coach of the Cincinnati Bengals; I think it's a wonderful move," said three-time Pro Bowl HB Corey Dillon. "Marvin has a great track record, and I believe he has a great passion for winning."

Lewis' challenge is to guide the Bengals to the playoffs for the first time since 1990.

"There's no curse here," Lewis says. "There's no old ship's pirate or captain who knows we're on his burial site or something. Our players realize that, and we've brought in some mature NFL guys who realize we'll change it. The past is the past. From this point forward, everything is going to be positive and upbeat."

Before offering Lewis the head coaching job, Bengals management conducted a process that included formal interviews with five candidates.

"We knew Marvin had outstanding football credentials," Bengals president Mike Brown said, "but what impressed us most was the tremendous grasp he displayed of the overall operation of an NFL franchise. He has an awareness that you would expect to see only in someone who had been a head coach before. He has not been shy about sharing his thoughts on areas where change and improvement are needed."

"We have been even more impressed with him as we have gotten to know him better, and we are inclined to be very strongly guided by his wishes in a number of areas."

One of those areas was the player personnel department, which has been expanded with the hirings of Bill Tobin and John Garrett. Though Bengals assistant coaches still will be involved in off-season player evaluation, their load has been lessened to allow more time for other duties.

Lewis directed the NFL's fifth-ranked defensive unit last year with Washington, serving as assistant head coach in addition to his defensive coordinator's role. He came to the Redskins after six seasons (1996-2001) as defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens, a tenure that included a Super Bowl victory in the 2000 season.

In the 2000 regular season, Lewis' Baltimore defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165), clipping 22 points off the previous mark.

Lewis' 2000 defensive unit has been widely considered as a candidate for the best NFL defense of all time. It also finished first in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (970), rushing average allowed (2.7), total takeaways (49), fumble recoveries (26) and shutouts (4).

The 970 rushing yards allowed were the fewest in NFL history for a 16-game season. Since the Ravens' four shutouts were the most by an NFL team since Pittsburgh had five in 1976. The defense held opponents scoreless in 41 of 64 quarters (64%) and allowed one TD or fewer in 14 of the team's last 18 games (including postseason). In the last four games, all postseason contests, the Ravens defense allowed only one TD, with Baltimore winning 21-3 vs. Denver, 24-10 at Tennessee, 16-3 at Oakland and 34-7 in Super Bowl XXXV vs. the N.Y. Giants (the Giants got their TD on a kickoff return).

In total yardage allowed, Lewis' last three Baltimore defenses each ranked No. 2 in the NFL. His 2001 unit also led the Ravens to the league's second-fewest points allowed and finished in the top four in six other categories.

Lewis has 22 years of coaching experience, as well as a long list of personal and professional accolades given by his industry counterparts.

"Marvin has a definitive plan," said Baltimore Ravens head coach Brian Billick, who had Lewis as his defensive coordinator from 1999-2001. "He'll have the organization working collectively in the right direction. I see no reason, looking at the Bengals' personnel and knowing Marvin, that they won't be a team that's capable of making the playoffs."

"Marvin brings stability to the Bengals," said Pittsburgh coach Bill Cowher, whose first four Steelers teams (1992-95) featured

Lewis as linebackers coach. "He's been on championship teams in the NFL. He's been around some great players. He knows how to keep perspective. When they win a couple games in a row, that's going to be expected there. It's not going to be someone running around with jubilation."

From 1993-95, Lewis helped the Steelers defense rank among the top three in the NFL each season. He guided the careers of some of the NFL's best linebackers, including Pro Bowl selections Kevin Greene, Chad Brown, Levon Kirkland and Greg Lloyd. Of Pittsburgh's 97 sacks over Lewis' last two seasons, the linebackers were credited with 63.5.

Lewis has earned widespread praise from nationally respected NFL analysts for his immediate effect on the Bengals' production in signing established NFL free agents. Before the free agency period was two weeks old, he had signed five likely starters in linebacker Kevin Hardy, defensive linemen John Thornton and Carl Powell, cornerback Tory James and tight end Reggie Kelly.

"The perception that the Cincinnati Bengals could not go out and lure the top free agents is gone," Lewis said. "It's gone."

Thornton, rated by numerous analysts as one of the NFL's top young line prospects, said:

"With Coach Lewis, you know his reputation from Baltimore, and you always want to play for someone like that who has had success."

"Cincinnati was a perfect fit for me," said James, who led the AFC Champion Raiders in passes defended last season. "After talking to Coach Lewis and (defensive coordinator) Leslie Frazier, and seeing the system, there was no doubt I wanted to be here."

Lewis began his coaching career working with the linebackers at his alma mater, Idaho State, from 1981-84. Also nicknamed the Bengals, ISU finished 12-1 during Lewis' first season and won the NCAA Division 1-A championship. In 1985-86, Lewis was on the staff at Long Beach State, before moving to New Mexico ('87-89), coaching linebackers at both schools. In 1990, he accepted a position coaching outside linebackers at the University of Pittsburgh. He moved to his first NFL job with the Steelers in '92.

Lewis earned All-Big Sky Conference honors as a linebacker at Idaho State for three consecutive years (1978-80), and he also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born, Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa., near Pittsburgh, where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus.

Active in his community throughout his career, Lewis has quickly become involved in Greater Cincinnati civic and charitable events. He has already lent his effort to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, the Boys and Girls Clubs, and to the United Way.

While in Baltimore, he was involved with numerous community groups, including the American Red Cross and Muscular Dystrophy Association of Baltimore. In 2002, he joined the Washington Redskins Leadership Council's Honorary Committee, assisting in community and youth outreach efforts of the organization throughout the D.C. metro area.

On May 9 of this year, Lewis and Bengals players Jeff Burris and Matt O'Dwyer went to Washington, D.C., to visit sailors and U.S. Marines wounded in Iraq.

Lewis is the eighth African-American to be named to an NFL head coaching position. The first seven were Fritz Pollard (Akron 1921; Milwaukee 1925), Art Shell (L.A. Raiders 1989-94), Dennis Green (Minnesota 1992-2001), Ray Rhodes (Philadelphia 1995-98; Green Bay 1999), Tony Dungy (Tampa Bay 1996-2001; Indianapolis 2002-present), Terry Robiskie (Washington 2000), and Herman Edwards (N.Y. Jets 2001-present).

PAUL ALEXANDER — Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

Paul Alexander returns for his 10th season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2003. It's his ninth straight season as offensive line coach, and in his first season under new head coach Marvin Lewis, Alexander has a key added role as Lewis' assistant head coach.

"It was important to me to get Paul back," Lewis said after assembling his 2003 staff. "Paul had some options around the league, and we've given him the opportunity now as assistant head coach to assist me in a lot of areas off and on the field, which will help give me some direction."

Last season, Alexander worked No. 1 draft choice Levi Jones into the offensive line as the starting LT. Jones teamed with a veteran unit led by RT Willie Anderson, and the result was strong support for an offense that had numerous notable accomplishments.

Those accomplishments included HB Corey Dillon rushing for 1311 yards, his third straight season over 1300 yards, and WR Chad Johnson gaining 1166 receiving yards, fifth-most in team history and most ever by a Bengals first or second-year player. The line's protection helped Bengals QBs complete a team-record 350 passes with the second-highest completion percentage (59.2) in 18 years, and the offense had a streak of six straight games of 350 or more net yards, the club's longest such streak since 1986.

Levi Jones was named to the 2002 Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team, making Alexander three-for-three in having first-round draft picks under his charge win all-rookie honors. The first two were N.Y. Jets tight end Johnny Mitchell in 1992 and the Bengals' Willie Anderson in '96.

In 2001, the line led the way as the Bengals allowed only 28 sacks, the fourth-best performance in franchise history, while the offense was launching a club-record 602 passes.

Under Alexander in 1999 and 2000, the line paved the way as the Bengals claimed spots among the NFL's elite rushing teams. Cincinnati's ground game ranked second in the NFL in rushing in 2000, totaling 2314 yards for an average of 144.6 per game. In 1999, Cincinnati finished sixth in a very tight NFL race, only 40 total yards out of the league lead.

On Oct. 22, 2000, Alexander's line shared the glory of what still stands, entering 2003, as the No. 1 individual rushing game in NFL history. In that contest at Paul Brown Stadium, Dillon slashed through Denver's defense for 278 yards. The performance topped Walter Payton's mark of 275, a record that had stood for 23 years. Alexander's starting line for the game included Willie Anderson and John Jackson at tackles, Mike Goff and Matt O'Dwyer at guards and Brock Gutierrez at center.

The Bengals' 407 total rushing yards in the Denver game ranked as the fifth-highest single-game total in NFL history, and as the most yards in 51 years. The last team to top it was the New York Giants, who gained 423 against Baltimore in 1950.

Alexander began his NFL coaching career in 1992 as tight ends coach of the N.Y. Jets, under head coach Bruce Coslet. He was instrumental in the development of TE Johnny Mitchell, a 1992 rookie All-Pro. Coslet moved to Cincinnati as offensive coordinator in 1994, and Alexander joined him, in the role of Bengals tight ends coach.

But Alexander's first love in football has always been the offensive line. He was afforded the chance to take over that job for the Bengals in 1995, and has held it since.

His 1995 unit produced the team's best-ever performance in sacks allowed — only 1.6 per game (25 total).

Alexander is a product of distinguished teachers. He coached under Joe Paterno at Penn State and Bo Schembechler at Michigan. He also was offensive line coach at Central Michigan, a school whose coach, Herb Deromedi, ranks with Paterno and Schembechler among the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history.

Alexander's birthdate is Feb. 12, 1960. He's a native of Rochester, N.Y., where he attended Cardinal Mooney High School. He was an Academic All-American at Cortland State (N.Y.) and holds a master's degree in exercise physiology from Penn State. He and his wife, Kathy, have three daughters, Mary Beth, Carolyn and Emily.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-81: Played offensive tackle at Cortland State. 1982-84: Graduate assistant, Penn State. 1985-86: Graduate assistant, Michigan. 1987-91: Assistant coach (AC), Central Michigan. 1992-93: AC, New York Jets. 1994-2002: AC, Bengals. 2003: Assistant head coach/offensive line coach, Bengals.

BOB BRATKOWSKI — Offensive Coordinator

Bob Bratkowski is in his third season as Bengals offensive coordinator, coming off a 2002 campaign in which the offense had a number of notable achievements. The list included:

- HB Corey Dillon rushing for 1311 yards, his third straight season over 1300 yards.
- WR Chad Johnson gaining 1166 receiving yards, fifth-most in team history and most ever by a Bengals first or second-year player.
- A club-record 350 pass completions.
- For the first time in Bengals history, five players caught 40 or more passes.
- A team completion percentage of 59.2, a mark exceeded only once in 18 previous Bengals seasons.
- A streak of six straight games of 350 or more net yards, the club's longest such streak since 1986.
- A career-high 79.1 passer rating for QB Jon Kitna.

Kitna took over as the starting QB in Game 5 of last season, and had the averages for the last 12 games been the Bengals' averages for the full season, Cincinnati would have ranked eighth in the NFL in net offense (357.3) and seventh in net passing (240.1).

All of the above played into an early decision by new Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis that he wished to retain Bratkowski as his coordinator. Bratkowski also was given significant input into the selection of an offensive position coach staff that includes three newcomers and two returnees.

"We have a good mix." Bratkowski said. "We have people who have coached other places, and people who give us continuity. We don't have to go back to basics, but we have new input. Now we have to put it all together and improve. Even though we had some good numbers last season, the bottom line is that we have to win a lot more games."

Bratkowski (pronounced "brat-COW-skee") has been an NFL coach since 1992, and was coordinator of the University of Miami's NCAA champion offenses in '89 and '91. He left the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as wide receivers coach, to join the Bengals in '01. He closed a seven-year stint with the Seattle Seahawks in 1998 with the departure of head coach Dennis Erickson. Bratkowski was coordinator for the NFL's top passing offense at Seattle in 1997, and he had previously served as Erickson's offensive coordinator at three major college programs — Wyoming (1986), Washington State ('87-'88) and Miami, Fla. ('89-'91).

Bratkowski's first Bengals campaign, in 2001, had its share of season-long offensive accomplishments. The Bengals allowed only 28 sacks, the fourth-best performance in club history, despite attempting a team-record 602 passes. The offense showed significant improvement over its 2000 season performance in a number of categories, including points (226-185), first downs (294-254), total yards (4800-4260), passing yards (3088-1946), third-down conversion percentage (38.3-33.9) and possession time (29:16-27:13).

Bratkowski's scheme relies on multiple formations which keep the defense guessing.

"You can't do any one thing exclusively in the NFL," he says. "You can't do just a couple things."

In 1999, his first season with Pittsburgh, Bratkowski was instrumental in the development of rookie wide receiver and No. 1 draft pick Troy Edwards, who tied for the team lead with 61 receptions. He also helped in the emergence of second-year receiver Hines Ward, who tied Edwards with 61 catches.

In 1997, Bratkowski's Seattle offense posted an NFL-leading average of 247.4 passing yards per game and ranked third in the NFL in total offense. Seattle also established club season records in '97 for most yards passing (4187) and completions (359). The Seahawks were second in the NFL in first downs (331).

Prior to his Seattle appointment in 1992, Bratkowski spent 14 years as a college coach, including his three college stops with Erickson.

As a college player, Bratkowski was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver at Washington State. His father, Zeke, played quarterback for 14 seasons in the NFL (with the Bears, Rams and Packers).

Bratkowski was born Dec. 22, 1955, in San Angelo, Texas. Bob and his wife, Rebecca, have two children — son Shane and daughter Courtney.

LESLIE FRAZIER — Defensive Coordinator

Leslie Frazier, mentor of some of the NFL's most successful defensive backs while serving as the Philadelphia Eagles' secondary coach the past four seasons, joins the Bengals in 2003 as defensive coordinator.

"Leslie's guys have played outstanding football," said Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "My attraction to Leslie is the style of defense they have played. I've coached against Leslie. I like how he presents things, I like his temperament, and how he interacts with people. I think this is going to be an outstanding fit."

Three of Frazier's Philadelphia players — CB Troy Vincent, CB Bobby Taylor and FS Brian Dawkins — played in the Pro Bowl following the 2002 season. Vincent was in the game for the fourth consecutive season.

As a unit, the Eagles secondary helped Philadelphia to a 2002 NFL ranking of second in fewest points allowed for the second consecutive year. The '02 Eagles were fourth in total yards allowed and seventh in passing yards allowed. Tough in the clutch, the Eagles also were the NFL's best defense in getting off the field on third down, allowing a conversion rate of only 31.0%. The NFL's average third-down conversion rate last season was 39.0.

Beyond excellent statistics, Frazier's efforts have supported winning teams. The last three Eagles clubs have gone 11-5, 11-5 and 12-4, and the last two reached the NFC Championship game.

Frazier promises Bengals fans a defense that will constantly challenge the opposition.

"Don't be afraid to take risks," he says of his philosophy. "Keep the pressure on the offense, on the quarterback. You can't be afraid to go after it. You can't be an idiot about it, because there are times you're going to have to play zone. But we're not going to sit there. We'll be aggressive."

Following a playing career during which he won a Super Bowl title with the Chicago Bears, Frazier began his coaching career with a nine-year stint (1988-96) at Trinity (IL) College, which is now known as Trinity International University.

He was the first head coach at the school, building the program and quickly developing the NIAA institution into two-time champions of the Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference. The small school developed a number of high-quality players, including WR Karl Hankton of the Carolina Panthers.

Frazier's impact on the program was duly recognized, as the school named its football field after him in 1997, when he departed to become defensive secondary coach at the University of Illinois.

After two years with the Illini, he entered the NFL in 1999, the first season for current Eagles head coach Andy Reid.

Frazier played in the NFL as a cornerback with the Bears from 1981-86. In 1985, he was an integral part of a Super Bowl champion Bears defensive unit that some consider the best of all time. The Bears led the NFL in virtually every defensive category en route to a 46-10 romp over New England in Super Bowl XX. Frazier was a starting cornerback for the entire season, and he was named to CBS-TV's 1985 "All-Madden Team."

Frazier led the Bears in interceptions in each of his last three seasons and finished with 20 INTs in 65 career games. He had 2 interception returns for touchdowns.

His career was ended prematurely by a major knee injury (torn anterior cruciate ligament) that he suffered in the second quarter of the Super Bowl, while running with the ball on a fake punt play. Though he remained with the Bears into 1986, the Super Bowl marked his final playing appearance outside preseason action. He made a final attempt to stay in the NFL as a player in 1987, when Eagles head coach Buddy Ryan, his defensive coordinator at Chicago, signed him. But his stint with the Eagles ended after three preseason games.

A native of Columbus, Miss., Frazier played college football in his home state at Alcorn State. He earned small-college All-America honors in both 1979 and '80 as a cornerback, and he also was a standout baseball player, serving as a team captain while playing first base and the outfield.

Born on April 3, 1959, Frazier attended S.D. Lee High School in Columbus and earned a degree from Alcorn State in business administration.

Frazier and his wife, Gale, have three children — sons Kieron (age 18) and Corey (12), and daughter Chantel (15).

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1977-80: Played cornerback at Alcorn State. 1981-86: Cornerback, Chicago Bears. 1988-96: Head coach, Trinity (IL) College. 1997-98: Assistant coach (AC), Illinois. 1999-2002: AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 2003: Joins Bengals as defensive coordinator.

JIM ANDERSON — Running Backs

Jim Anderson has coached a long line of Bengals running backs to outstanding performances. In 2002, fullback Lorenzo Neal — in only his second Cincinnati season — became the fourth Bengal under Anderson to be voted to the Pro Bowl. It was the first Pro Bowl nod in Neal's 10-year NFL career.

Other Anderson pupils to reach the Pro Bowl have been James Brooks (four times), Corey Dillon (three times) and Harold Green (once).

Anderson began his Bengals work in the mid-1980s with Brooks, who went on to reign for 11 years as the leading rusher in Bengals history. In recent years, Anderson has guided Dillon beyond Brooks' totals to a near-complete command of the team's rushing record book.

Dillon entered the NFL as something of a question mark after playing only one season of major college football. But under Anderson, Dillon has become only the fourth player in NFL history to top the 1000-yard rushing mark in each of his first six seasons. Dillon enters the 2003 season with 7520 career rushing yards, having moved more than 1000 yards beyond Brooks' former record of 6447.

Last season, Dillon rushed for 1311 yards — his third straight season over 1300 — and added a career-high 298 receiving yards. His 1609 yards from scrimmage was the second-highest total in team history (Brooks still owns the highest scrimmage yards total — 1773 in 1986).

In 2001, Dillon rushed for 1315 yards and went on to play in his third straight Pro Bowl. The only higher season rushing total in club history was Dillon's 1435 yards in 2000. The Bengals finished second in the NFL in team rushing yards in 2000, and in 1999, Cincinnati's sixth-ranked team rushing total was only 40 yards off the lead in an exceptionally tight NFL race.

Anderson also is the position coach behind the greatest rushing game in NFL history, Dillon's 278-yard effort on Oct. 22, 2000 vs. Denver. That performance broke Walter Payton's record of 275 yards, a record that had stood for 23 years.

Anderson's coaching excellence was recognized following the 2001 season when he made the list of candidates interviewed for the Stanford University head coaching job. Anderson was on the Stanford coaching staff from 1980-83.

Anderson is the all-time dean of Bengals position coaches in years of service (20), and among current NFL position coaches, only Pittsburgh's Dick Hoak has more years of consecutive service (32) with his team.

Anderson has shown the ability to effectively handle all types of running backs. Dillon is a bruiser, Brooks was a tough and quick smaller back, and Green was a long strider with a combination of speed and power. Anderson also coached Ickey Woods, who was a league-wide sensation as a rookie in 1988, but had his career derailed by a 1989 knee injury. And in 1996, Anderson effectively worked Garrison Hearst into the Bengals offense after the team's acquisition of Hearst in late August.

In six of the nine seasons from 1986-94, Anderson's backs led the Bengals to finishes among the NFL's Top 10 teams in rushing yardage. In 1997, the running backs scored 20 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 23 rushing TDs.

Anderson's troops won NFL rushing titles in 1988 and '89, and won the AFC rushing crown in '86. From 1986-90, the Bengals finished 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing.

Anderson was born March 27, 1948, in Harrisburg, Pa. He graduated from Cal Western with a degree in physical education, and has a lifetime teaching certificate in California. Jim and his wife, Marcia, have a son, Derek, 28.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1967-69: Linebacker-def. end at Cal-Western (U.S. International). 1970-71: Assistant coach (AC), Cal Western. 1973: AC, Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College. 1974-75: AC, Nevada-Las Vegas. 1976-79: AC, Southern Methodist. 1980-83: AC, Stanford. 1984-present: AC, Bengals.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

In Games 12-15 of the 1997 season, the Bengals became the first Cincinnati team to score 30 or more points in four straight games.

Cincinnati scored 31 vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 23, posted 42 at Philadelphia on Nov. 30, scored 41 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, and notched 31 vs. Dallas on Dec. 14.

SIGISMONDO CIOFFI — Assistant Defensive Backs

Sigismondo "Louie" Cioffi takes on a new duty for the Bengals in 2003, filling the position of assistant defensive backs coach.

"We are expanding Louie's responsibilities," said Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "We've restructured the defensive backfield coaching to have one person (Kevin Coyle) in charge of the corners and safeties, and Louie will assist with both positions."

In 2000 and '01, the Bengals had assistant coaches separately in charge of corners and safeties, with no one in the secondary assistant's role. Cioffi's title was defensive staff assistant.

Coyle and Cioffi have a key free agent to fit into the cornerback scheme in Tory James, who last season led the AFC Champion Oakland Raiders in passes defended. At safety, Cioffi will assist Coyle in the continued development of Marquand Manuel and Lamont Thompson, a pair of Bengals 2002 draft picks who are projected as key second-year players after seeing considerable action as rookies.

Cioffi (pronounced "CHO-fee") got an early start in NFL coaching. Though he is a seven-year veteran of the Bengals staff, he is only 29 years old as the 2003 season begins. He took on the job of defensive staff assistant in 1997 at age 23, and during the first three seasons of his Cincinnati career, he was the youngest full-time assistant coach in the NFL.

Cioffi's association with the NFL dates back to 1993, when he was a 20-year-old coaching assistant to Bruce Coslet's staff on the N.Y. Jets. His responsibilities then included assembling play books and running video printers on game days. Cioffi also worked with the Jets in 1994 in a similar role.

Cioffi was wide receivers coach at C.W. Post University in Brookville, N.Y. in 1995 and '96. The 1996 team posted a 7-3 record en route to the ECAC Division II championship. In addition to his on-field responsibilities at C.W. Post, Cioffi prepared computer game analyses and scouting reports. He did all the computer work at Post for the offense and defense.

Bruce Coslet's first full year as Bengals head coach was 1997, and he brought Cioffi to Cincinnati in a Bengals staff reorganization. Cioffi was charged with supervising the weekly distribution of information on how to attack the upcoming opponent's offense, and he also worked on the field, assisting in the coaching of defensive backs. Cioffi later worked under Bengals head coach Dick LeBeau, and was involved in coaching linebackers while continuing with his game preparation responsibilities.

Cioffi was born Sept. 21, 1973, in Queens, N.Y. His wife's name is Cindy, and on Apr. 4 of this year, they celebrated the birth of their first child, daughter Cecilia Elle.

COACHING HISTORY — 1993-94: Coaching assistant, New York Jets. 1995-96: Assistant coach (AC), C.W. Post. 1997-present: AC, Bengals.

KEVIN COYLE — Defensive Backs

Kevin Coyle returns for his third season as a Bengals coach in 2003, as defensive backs coach after serving as cornerbacks coach in 2001 and '02.

"We've restructured the defensive backfield coaching to have one person in charge of the corners and safeties," said

Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "I was excited to be able to keep Kevin with us to fill that position."

Last season, Bengals cornerbacks contributed to Cincinnati allowing only 203.9 passing yards per game, ranked 13th among the 32 NFL teams. Artrell Hawkins and Jeff Burris were the starters, with former rookie free agent Kevin Kaesviharn developing under Coyle as a promising No. 3 corner.

In the 2003 free agent season, Coyle helped the Bengals lure a top veteran CB in Tory James, who led 2002 AFC Champion Oakland in passes defended.

In taking over the safeties this season, Coyle's key assignment will be continuing the development of Marquand Manuel and Lamont Thompson. Both players were 2002 Bengals draft picks and are projected as key second-year players after seeing considerable action as rookies.

In 2001, Coyle's first Cincinnati season, the team's cornerback corps was short on experience and was hit significantly by injuries. But the young group played aggressively and effectively under Coyle's direction. The corners snagged 7 of Cincinnati's 13 interceptions, and the Bengals' passing yardage defense improved from 23rd in the NFL in 2000 to 12th in '01.

This is Coyle's 27th year in coaching. In his last 10 seasons before joining the Bengals, he was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at three Division I college programs — Syracuse, Maryland and Fresno State.

At Fresno State (1997-2000), Coyle's defenses produced three first team All-Western Athletic Conference players in both 1999 and 2000, best in the league both years. In 1998, the FSU defense set a school-record low with only 23 touchdowns allowed. The Bulldogs were one of 16 teams in the country to give up 9 or fewer touchdown passes, and they allowed only 16.7 points per game, down from 24.0 in 1997. FSU gave up only 19 points in the first quarter all season.

At Maryland (1994-96), Coyle oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Terrapins' defense, steadily guiding a program that had struggled prior to his arrival to a final total defense ranking of No. 29 in 1996.

At Syracuse (1991-93), Coyle's defense led the nation in interceptions (24) in '92 and set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed (1007) in an 11-game season.

Coyle was at Holy Cross from 1982 through '90, first serving as outside linebackers coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator in '86. During his five years as coordinator, Holy Cross was the winningest (49-5-1) Division I-AA team in the nation, with the Crusader defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense four times. Coyle coached five All-Americans at Holy Cross.

Coyle also has a prior Cincinnati connection, having served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati in 1978-79.

At Maryland, Coyle coached future NFL cornerbacks

Chad Scott (Pittsburgh) and Lewis Sanders (Cleveland). At Syracuse, he coached Jacksonville safety Donovan Darius. At Fresno State, he had former Bengal and current Atlanta Falcon Cory Hall at safety.

Coyle was born Jan. 14, 1956. A native of Staten Island, N.Y., he played defensive back in college at Massachusetts. He and his wife, Louise, have a daughter, Jenlain, 10.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1974-75: Played DB at Massachusetts. 1978-79: Graduate assistant, Univ. of Cincinnati. 1980: Coaching assistant, Arkansas. 1981: Defensive coordinator, U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. 1982-85: Assistant coach (AC), Holy Cross. 1986-90: Defensive coordinator, Holy Cross. 1991-93: Defensive coordinator, Syracuse. 1994-96: Defensive coordinator, Maryland. 1997-2000: Defensive coordinator, Fresno State. 2001-present: AC, Bengals.

JAY HAYES — Defensive Line

Jay Hayes, a 15-year veteran of major college and NFL coaching, joins the Bengals in 2003 as defensive line coach.

He will be a key influence on the career of third-year defensive end Justin Smith, a 2001 first-round draft choice who has shown Pro Bowl potential with 15 sacks over his first two seasons. Hayes also helped the Bengals lure John Thornton, one of the NFL's most promising young defensive tackles, in free agency for the 2003 season.

Hayes played pro football as a defensive end for two seasons in the U.S. Football League. He comes to the Bengals from the Minnesota Vikings, where he was special teams coach last season. The Vikings tied for fifth in the NFL in punt coverage, allowing only 6.2 yards per return with no returns of 25 yards or more.

Hayes was special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2001. Under his direction, Steelers kicker Kris Brown ended the 2001 season tied for second in the AFC with 124 points, while Troy Edwards ranked fifth in the conference in kickoff returns with a 23.1-yard average.

In 2000, Steelers rookie Hank Poteat ranked sixth in the NFL with a 13.0 average on punt returns and scored on a 53-yard punt return TD. In 1999, Steelers kicker Brown was a rookie, and he ranked second in the AFC in field goal accuracy (86.2%) and was twice named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Brown set an NFL record in 1999 for most consecutive field goals made to start a career (13).

Before starting his NFL coaching career with the Steelers, Hayes coached 11 years in the college ranks, splitting his time between Notre Dame, California and Wisconsin.

He began his coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and for the next three seasons, he coached outside linebackers and special teams for the Irish. He moved to California as outside linebackers coach in 1992, and he also held that job in '93 before adding special teams responsibilities in '94.

Hayes' last college assignment before entering the NFL was from 1995-98 at Wisconsin, where he was outside linebackers and special teams coach. Hayes' Badgers were consistently among the top special teams units in the Big Ten. During his tenure, the Badgers recorded two of the longest plays in school history, an NCAA-record 60-yard field goal and a 100-yard kickoff return.

Hayes played defensive end at the University of Idaho and earned all-conference honors in 1980 and '81. He spent some time in NFL camps before moving on to play for the USFL Michigan Panthers in 1984 and for the Memphis Showboats in '85.

Hayes' younger brother, Jonathan, is Bengals tight ends coach.

Hayes was born March 3, 1960 in Pittsburgh, and attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife, Suzanne, have two sons, Jesse and Miles, and a daughter, Jazmin.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1978-81: Played defensive end at University of Idaho. 1984: Defensive end, Michigan Panthers (USFL). 1985: Defensive end, Memphis Showboats (USFL). 1988-91: Assistant coach (AC), Notre Dame. 1992-94: AC, California. 1995-98: AC, Wisconsin. 1999-2001: AC, Pittsburgh Steelers. 2002: AC, Minnesota Vikings. 2003: Joins Bengals as defensive line coach.

JONATHAN HAYES — Tight Ends

Jonathan Hayes, an NFL tight end for 12 seasons, makes his NFL coaching debut as Bengals tight ends coach in 2003 after four years on the coaching staff at the University of Oklahoma.

Hayes was tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Oklahoma, helping the Sooners to a four-year record of 44-9, including a 13-0 mark in 2000 which featured an Orange Bowl win over Florida State for the NCAA championship.

Oklahoma was 37-4 over Hayes' last three seasons. The Sooners went to a bowl in all four of his years at the school, playing in the Independence Bowl after the 1999 season, the Orange Bowl in 2000, the Cotton Bowl in '01 and the Rose Bowl last season.

Under Hayes' tutelage, tight end Trent Smith finished his Oklahoma career in 2002 as the school's No. 2 all-time receiver, with 148 catches. Also in 2002, Sooners special teams blocked 7 kicks (3 FGs, 4 punts), and punt returner Antonio Perkins returned 3 punts for touchdowns. Hayes' kick coverage teams were also outstanding last year, allowing only 6.6 yards per punt return and 17.8 yards per kickoff return.

In 2001, tight end Smith set an OU school season record with 61 receptions, and he also set school marks with 11 catches and 4 TD grabs at Kansas. OU special teams scored 3 touchdowns in '01 — on a kickoff return, a fake punt and a fake field goal.

During the Sooners' 2000 national championship season, J.T. Thatcher returned 2 punts for TDs and earned first-team All-America honors.

Hayes began his NFL playing career in 1985 as a second-round draft pick out of Iowa with the Kansas City Chiefs. He played for the Chiefs through 1993, serving as a team captain, and closed his NFL career with three seasons in Pittsburgh (1994-96). He had 153 career receptions for 1718 yards with 13 TDs. He had career highs in receptions (24) and yards (331) with Kansas City in 1993.

Hayes played in 184 NFL games with 122 starts, and he played all 16 games in each of his final six seasons. He played in three AFC Championship games, in 1993 with Kansas City and in '94 and '95 with Pittsburgh. In the 1995 season, he played in Super Bowl XXX for Pittsburgh vs. Dallas.

At the University of Iowa, Hayes switched to tight end as a junior after spending his first two seasons at linebacker. He earned first-team All-America honors as a senior and was a team captain. He finished his college career with 50 receptions for 602 yards and 5 TDs. The Hawkeyes played in a bowl game in each of his four seasons. In 1986, he completed work at Iowa on a degree in general studies.

Hayes' older brother, Jay, is Bengals defensive line coach.

Hayes was born Aug. 11, 1962 in South Fayette, Pa. He attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife, Kristi, have a son, Jaxson, and a daughter, Jillian.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1981-84: Played linebacker and tight end at Iowa. 1985-93: NFL tight end, Kansas City Chiefs. 1994-96: NFL tight end, Pittsburgh Steelers. 1999-2002: Assistant coach (AC), University of Oklahoma. 2003: Joins Bengals as tight ends coach.

RICKY HUNLEY — Linebackers

Ricky Hunley, who worked under Marvin Lewis last season with the Washington Redskins, moves to Cincinnati for 2003 as Lewis begins his tenure as Bengals head coach. A former All-American college linebacker and a starting linebacker in two Super Bowls, Hunley will coach his old position for Cincinnati.

Hunley was defensive line coach for the Redskins last season, with Lewis serving as his defensive coordinator. Lewis and Hunley helped lead the Redskins to a No. 5 NFL ranking in fewest yards allowed, and Hunley helped put together a pass rush that ranked tied for ninth in the league with 40 sacks.

The Lewis-Hunley association dates from the early 1990s, when Hunley, a college coach at the time, did a stint with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the NFL's minority intern coaching program. Lewis was on the Steelers staff from 1992-95.

"I felt then that Ricky had an outstanding future in coaching," Lewis said. "We managed to get back together last season in Washington, and I'm very glad to have him make the move to Cincinnati with me."

Hunley "returns" to a Bengals team which drafted him as a player in 1984. A two-time consensus All-American linebacker at the University of Arizona, Hunley was Cincinnati's first pick in the '84 draft. But he never signed with the Bengals, and when contract negotiations remained stalled into September, the team traded his rights to Denver.

Wearing Bengals colors for the first time in 2003, Hunley is charged with overseeing a key defensive plan. Standout Brian Simmons is slated to move from middle linebacker to an outside position, with former Pro Bowl player Kevin Hardy, a free agent signee from Dallas, taking over in the middle.

Hunley's playing career at Arizona earned him induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1997. He led Arizona in tackles for three consecutive seasons and was named Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year in 1983.

Hunley played in the NFL for seven seasons. He was with Denver from 1984-87, and was a starter at right inside linebacker for the Broncos in Super Bowls XXI and XXII. He played for the Phoenix Cardinals in 1988, and closed his career with two seasons (1989-90) with the Los Angeles Raiders.

He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Southern California (1992-93), after which he spent seven seasons at the University of Missouri. He was Missouri's defensive line coach from 1994-97, and he was promoted to assistant head coach/linebackers coach for the '98 through 2000 campaigns. In 2001, he joined head coach Steve Spurrier's staff at the University of Florida, overseeing the defensive line and coaching Lombardi Award finalist Alex Brown (now with the Chicago Bears). He made the move with Spurrier in 2002 when Spurrier became head coach of the Redskins.

Hunley was born Nov. 11, 1961 in Petersburg, Va. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Arizona in 1987. In 1990, he was voted Executive Vice-President of the NFL Players Association, a position he held for two years. He has also served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and on the Minority Issues Committee of the American Football Coaches Association, and he has represented the Big 12 and the SEC on the AFCA's Assistant Coach Committee.

Ricky and his wife, Camille, have two daughters, Alexis and Kenady.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1980-83: Played linebacker at University of Arizona. 1984-87: Linebacker, Denver Broncos. 1988: Linebacker, Phoenix Cardinals. 1989-90: Linebacker, Los Angeles Raiders. 1992-93: Graduate assistant, University of Southern California. 1994-97: Assistant coach (AC), University of Missouri. 1998-2000: Assistant head coach/linebackers coach, University of Missouri. 2001: AC, Florida. 2002: AC, Washington Redskins. 2003: Joins Bengals as linebackers coach.

CHIP MORTON — Strength & Conditioning

Chip Morton joins the Bengals as strength and conditioning coach in 2003, continuing his association with Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. Morton was a coaching colleague of Lewis with Baltimore from 1999-2001, serving as Ravens assistant strength and conditioning coach, and he was with Lewis last season at Washington, serving as head strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins.

Morton is in his 12th NFL season, having served as strength and conditioning assistant at San Diego from 1992-94 and as head strength and conditioning coach at Carolina from '95-98.

Due to his central role in Cincinnati's 2003 offseason workout program, Morton was the first of the club's new coaches to make an impression with large numbers of Bengals players regarding the team's new era. Morton instituted a program that provided a noticeable upgrade in structure and technology, and he also oversaw an extensive redesign of the weight room.

"The renovations made in the weight room are part of the changes the team has made under the direction of Coach Lewis," said Morton. "We're moving forward, doing what's necessary to reach our goals as an organization. We want our players to enjoy coming to work every day and the new equipment and Bengals colors on the walls have been well received. I believe the commitment the Brown family has made to help our players reach their potential has everyone excited."

Bengals LB Brian Simmons reflected that excitement after working in the program.

"It's definitely going to help us out as the season progresses," Simmons said. "It's going to help us maintain a certain level both in stamina and in strength. I'm a big fan of those guys (Morton and his assistant, Kurtis Shultz)."

Morton has worked with two Super Bowl teams, the 1994 Chargers and the 2000 Ravens. He started his career in the collegiate ranks, serving as assistant strength coach at Ohio State (1985-86) while completing his master's degree in physical education. He went on to Penn State in 1987 as the first-ever full-time strength and conditioning assistant for the Nittany Lions football team. He also worked with 14 other men's and women's sports during his five years (1987-91) at Penn State.

Morton was born Nov. 27, 1962 in Hamden, Conn. He graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1985 with a degree in zoology, and he earned a varsity letter in swimming. Chip and his wife, Stacey, have five children.

PILING UP THE YARDS

Bengals HB Corey Dillon has led the team in rushing yardage each of the last six seasons (1997-2002). The team record for most consecutive years leading the club in rushing is held by FB Pete Johnson, who led the Bengals for seven straight years, from 1977-83.

KURTIS SHULTZ — Assistant Strength & Conditioning

Kurtis Shultz, strength and conditioning coach the past four seasons for the University of Maryland men's basketball team, joins the Bengals in 2003 as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

In 2001-02, Shultz's third season on the basketball staff, Maryland won the NCAA Championship. In his other three seasons, which include a 2002-03 campaign cut short by his move to the Bengals, the Terps made the NCAA Tournament every year. They reached the Round of 32 in 1999-2000, the Final Four in 2000-01, and the Sweet 16 this past season.

Shultz and Chip Morton, the Bengals' new head strength and conditioning coach, have been working with Bengals players since March in a revamped program for the team.

"It's definitely going to help us out as the season progresses," said Bengals LB Brian Simmons. "It's going to help us maintain a certain level both in stamina and in strength. I'm a big fan of those guys (Morton and Shultz)."

Shultz came to Maryland from Loyola College (Md.), where he worked for four years as strength and conditioning coach. At Loyola, he instituted a strenuous offseason kick-boxing program as a supplement to the school's overall strength and conditioning program.

An avid weightlifter and bodybuilder since his college days, Shultz established a thriving personal training and bodybuilding business in the Baltimore area. He has been a private personal trainer to Baltimore Ravens LB Ray Lewis, and he worked for three years as a consultant and kick-boxing instructor with the Ravens.

He also was personal trainer for two Baltimore Oriole baseball players — Jerry Hairston and Gary Matthews Jr. — and he was in charge of strength training for more than a dozen professional lacrosse players in the Baltimore area. While performing his duties at Maryland, he also served as director of strength and conditioning for four sports at Johns Hopkins University.

A Maryland basketball player from 1992-95, Shultz served as a team captain. In the last two seasons of his 67-game career, the Terps reached the NCAA Sweet 16. He played forward, having come to Maryland from DeMatha High School in Washington, D.C., where he was coached by the legendary Morgan Wootten.

Shultz was born March 10, 1972 in Baltimore. His parents are both teachers in Baltimore County. He has an older sister, Kim, and two younger brothers, Nick and Steven.

COACHING HISTORY — 1996-99: Strength and conditioning (S/C) coach, Loyola College (Md.). 1999-2002: S/C coach for University of Maryland basketball and for four sports at Johns Hopkins University. 2003: Joins Bengals as assistant S/C coach.

DARRIN SIMMONS — Special Teams

Darrin Simmons joins the Bengals in 2003 as special teams coach. Simmons began his NFL coaching career in 1998 on the same Baltimore Ravens staff as Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis.

Simmons was assistant special teams coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Ravens in 1998, and he held that same role for the Carolina Panthers from '99-2002.

A former college punter, Simmons played an integral role at Carolina in the continued development of Todd Sauerbrun as one of the NFL's top punters.

Sauerbrun has been an NFC Pro Bowl selection in each of the last two years. In the 2001 season, his gross punting average of 47.5 yards was the NFL's highest since '63. During the 2002 season, Sauerbrun again led the NFL with a 45.5 gross average, and he had 31 punts downed inside the 20-yard line with only 12 touchbacks.

Carolina ranked fourth in the NFL in 2002 in net punting average (37.5), and the Panthers' special units led the league in kickoff coverage with only 18.5 yards allowed per return. Only one other NFL team, Jacksonville at 19.5, held opponents to under 20 yards per kickoff return.

Simmons began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1996. He moved to the University of Minnesota in 1997 before joining the NFL with the Ravens in '98.

Simmons excelled as a college punter for the Kansas Jayhawks from 1993-95, earning All-Big Eight honors his final year. As a senior, he helped the Jayhawks to a Top 10 national ranking and to an Aloha Bowl victory over UCLA. Also as a Kansas senior, he won CoSIDA/GTE honors as an Academic All-American.

Prior to playing for Kansas, Simmons was a punter and QB for Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. In 1992 at Dodge City, he led the nation's junior colleges in punting and was a first-team JUCO All-American.

Simmons earned a degree in sports management from Kansas in 1996. Born April 9, 1973, in Elkhart, Kan., he graduated from Elkhart High School. He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter, Hannah (born 1-11-02).

BOB SURACE — Offensive Assistant

Bob Surace, a championship-level head coach for two seasons in the NCAA Division III ranks, returns in 2003 for his second season as Bengals offensive assistant.

As a first-year pro coach in 2002, Surace contributed to a season of notable offensive accomplishments for the Bengals. For the first time since 1989, Cincinnati had a 3000-yard passer (Jon Kitna), a 1000-yard rusher (Corey Dillon) and a 1000-yard receiver (Chad Johnson). The Bengals set a team record for pass completions (350), and Johnson's 1066 receiving yards were the most in club history by a first or second-year player. The 2002 Bengals also were the first Cincinnati team to have five players with 40 or more pass receptions.

Surace was head coach at Western Connecticut State University in 2000-01, and his teams posted an 18-3 overall record. In 2001, WCSU advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division III Championships and won the Freedom Football Conference title. In 2000, the Colonials won the Northeast Championship ECAC playoff game. In both of Surace's seasons, the team ranked in the Top 25 nationally in the American Football Coaches Association poll.

Surace (pronounced "suh-RACE") grew up in a coaching family. His father, Tony, was head coach for his high school football and baseball teams in Millville, N.J. Surace went on to earn All-Ivy League honors as a center at Princeton University, where for a time he was a teammate of current Bengals scout John Garrett.

Surace began his coaching career in 1990 as running backs coach at Springfield (Mass.) College, where he also earned a master's degree in sports management in 1992. In the '92 football season, he was Run Game Coordinator at Maine Maritime Academy. That season, the Mariners had the nation's top Division III running back. In 1993 at Maine Maritime, Surace was part of an ECAC championship team.

In 1994, in the Canadian Football League's first season with teams in the U.S., Surace was with the Shreveport Pirates. He was the assistant to head coach and general manager Forrest Gregg, the former Bengals coach who guided Cincinnati to Super Bowl XVI.

After coaching at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (Troy, N.Y.) in 1995, Surace went to Western Connecticut State in '96 as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Surace was born April 25, 1968 in Harrisburg, Pa. His wife, Lisa, holds a Ph.D. in psychology and was girls varsity soccer coach at Staples High School in Westport, Conn., from 1999-2001.

ALEX WOOD — Wide Receivers

Alex Wood, who developed Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper into one of the NFL's top quarterbacks over the past four seasons, moves to the other end of the passing game as wide receivers coach for the Bengals in 2003.

Wood joined the Vikings in 1999, the same year Culpepper was drafted. Though a first-round draft pick, Culpepper was only the fourth QB selected in '99, behind Tim Couch, Donovan McNabb and Akili Smith. But under Wood's tutelage, Culpepper quickly became recognized as a player who could hold his own with anyone in the group.

In 2000, Culpepper's second season, he became the Vikings' regular starter and went on to earn the NFC nod as starting quarterback in the Pro Bowl. He led the NFC (and tied for the NFL lead) in touchdown passes with 33. He also finished second in the NFC in passing yards (3937) and third in passer rating (98.0). Culpepper also set Vikings records for rushing yards by a quarterback (470) and rushing TDs by a quarterback (7) as the Vikings won the NFC Central title and advanced to the conference championship game.

In 2001 at Minnesota, Wood faced a very different challenge, overseeing three starting quarterbacks. Culpepper, who finished third in the NFC with a completion percentage of 64.2, was lost to a season-ending injury with four weeks to play. Todd Bouman and Spergon Wynn also made starts, and Bouman was named NFL Miller Lite Player of the Week in his first start, throwing for 348 yards and 4 TDs vs. Tennessee.

Last season, Culpepper returned to the Minnesota lineup as an every-week starter, and under Wood's leadership, he finished second in the NFC in passing yards (3853) and third in the NFC in yards per attempt (7.02). Culpepper also broke the team's QB records he had set in 2000 by rushing for 609 yards and scoring 10 TDs. The Vikings finished second in the NFL in net offense and ninth in net passing.

Wood was a college coach for 21 years before joining the Vikings. His final college assignment was from 1995-98 as head coach at James Madison University. In his first season, he led the Dukes to an 8-4 record and a berth in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Wood finished his JMU tenure with a 23-22 record.

Wood began his coaching career in 1978 at Iowa, his alma mater. In 1986, his second year at Wyoming, he became a staff colleague for the first time of Bob Bratkowski, the current Bengals offensive coordinator. Wood and Bratkowski were also together at Washington State in 1987-88, and from '89-91, Wood was running backs coach at the University of Miami with Bratkowski as the offensive coordinator. The Hurricanes, under head coach Dennis Erickson, won national titles in both '89 and '91.

A college running back and special teams player at Iowa from 1975-77, Wood is an Ohio native. He hails from Massillon, and attended Washington High School, where he was a standout running back and also a wrestler.

Wood and his wife, Rosa, have three children: Jerrel (born 1-9-73), Alex (9-5-73) and Natalie (4-4-86). Wood's birthdate is March 14, 1955.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1975-77: Played running back at Iowa. 1978: Assistant coach (AC), Iowa. 1979-80: AC, Kent State. 1981: AC, Southern Illinois. 1982-84: AC, Southern University. 1985-86: AC, Wyoming. 1987-88: AC, Washington State. 1989-92: AC, Miami (Fla.). 1993-94: AC Wake Forest. 1995-98: Head coach, James Madison University. 1999-2002: AC, Minnesota Vikings. 2003: Joins Bengals as wide receivers coach.

KEN ZAMPESE — Quarterbacks

Ken Zampese joins the Bengals as quarterbacks coach in 2003, following three seasons in St. Louis in which he had an expanding role with the NFL's most prolific passing offense.

Zampese (pronounced "zam-PEE-zee") joined the Rams in 2000 as an offensive assistant and helped St. Louis lead the NFL with an average of 327.0 yards per game. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2001, and again the Rams led the league, averaging 291.4 yards. Last season, he added the title of passing game coach, and the Rams finished second in the league at 259.6 yards per game.

Zampese coached a pair of 1000-yard receivers in each of his two seasons as receivers coach. Torry Holt gained 1363 yards in 2001 and 1302 yards last season, while Isaac Bruce had 1106 yards in '01 and 1075 in '02.

Coordinating the Rams' passing game to a No. 2 league ranking was no simple task last season, as injuries at the quarterback position led to nearly equal stints by three different players. Kurt Warner attempted 220 passes on the season, while Marc Bulger threw 214 and Jamie Martin threw 195.

Zampese began his NFL coaching career in 1998 as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles under head coach Ray Rhodes. Zampese moved with Rhodes to Green Bay in 1999, also as an offensive assistant, before beginning his three-year stint with the Rams in 2000.

Prior to entering the NFL, Zampese coached for nine years in the college ranks. He started as secondary coach at his alma mater, the University of San Diego, in 1989. He was graduate assistant secondary coach at the University of Southern California from 1990-91.

He then spent four years at Northern Arizona, as wide receivers coach from 1992-94 and as offensive coordinator in '95. In 1996 and '97, he was passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami (Ohio). In 1997, Miami averaged 37.4 points per game.

Zampese played wide receiver and was a kickoff and punt returner at the University of San Diego from 1985-88. He was Special Teams Player of the Year as a senior. He earned an undergraduate degree in business from San Diego, and later received a master's degree in adult education from Southern California.

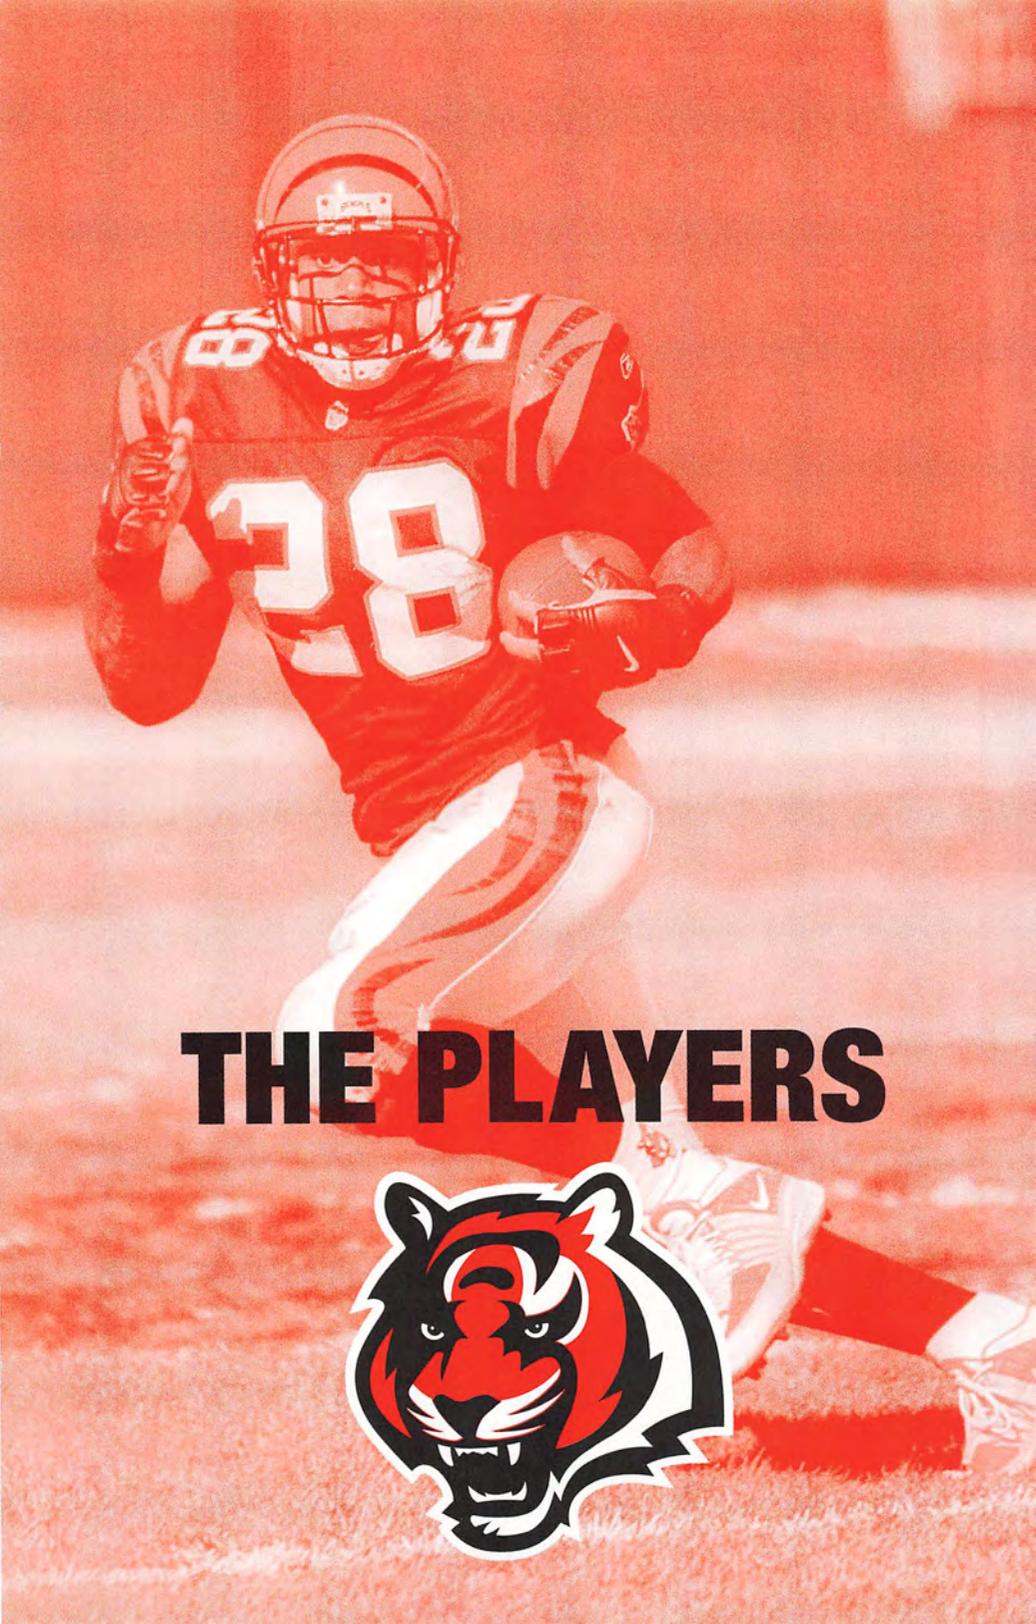

Zampese was born July 19, 1967, in Santa Maria, Calif. He attended the University of San Diego High School. He and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Marina, and a son, Anthony. Ken's father, Ernie Zampese, was a longtime NFL offensive coordinator. Ernie Zampese coached on a Super Bowl winner with the 1995 Dallas Cowboys, and also coached for the Chargers, Rams and Patriots.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1985-88: Played wide receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner at University of San Diego. 1989: Assistant coach (AC), University of San Diego. 1990-91: AC, Southern California. 1992-94: AC, Northern Arizona. 1995: Offensive coordinator, Northern Arizona. 1996-97: AC, Miami (Ohio). 1998: AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 1999: AC, Green Bay Packers. 2000-02: AC, St. Louis Rams. 2003: Joins Bengals as quarterbacks coach.

BOUNCING BACK

During the 2002 NFL regular season, there were 31 games in which teams came back from 10 point-or-more deficits to win, and a record 17 games in which clubs overcame fourth-quarter 10-point margins to win.

Eight of the 12 teams that made the playoffs in 2002 spent at least part of the season below .500. Six bounced back from season-opening losses to reach the playoffs. The Jets and Titans came back from 1-4 starts. Those eight teams shattered the record of five teams reaching the playoffs after being below .500 (1980 and '82).

TALENT ISN'T EVERYTHING

The 1989 Bengals were a talented team, but never could put it all together on a weekly basis. They outscored opponents 404-285, but finished only 8-8. Not since the 1950 Philadelphia Eagles had a break-even team outscored its foes by such a large point margin (7.4) per game.

Born: 10-24-74

Dillon has achieved nearly complete domination of Cincinnati's rushing record book, and he enters 2003 still claiming the top rushing game in NFL history (278 yards vs. Denver in 2000) ... Passed James Brooks into Bengals' all-time rushing lead in Game 4 last season, and finished the year with 7520 career yards, 1073 ahead of Brooks ... Dillon's 1311 rushing yards in 2002 was the third-highest total in Bengals history, behind only his own outputs in 2000 and '01, and he now owns four of the top five rushing seasons in club annals ... Claims seven of top 10 rushing games in Bengals history, and his 27 career 100-yard games (five in 2002) are 10 more than any other Bengal ... Also had career highs in receptions (43) and receiving yards (298) in 2002, and led the team in touchdowns (7) ... Posted career-high 1609 yards from scrimmage in '02, second-most in Bengals history ... Played in Pro Bowl following the 1999, 2000 and '01 seasons.

2002 PARTICIPATION: Started every game for third straight season ... His 48 straight starts tie him with OT Willie Anderson for longest current streak of starts on the team ... Has played 94 of a possible 96 games in his six seasons, missing one game due to injury in 1998 and '99.

DILLON AND HISTORY: On Dec. 1 of last season vs. Baltimore, Dillon topped the 1000-yard rushing mark for sixth straight season, becoming only fourth player in NFL history to reach 1000 in each of his first six seasons, joining Eric Dickerson, Barry Sanders and Curtis Martin (see "Fabulous Foursome" below) ... Dickerson posted seven straight 1000-yard years to start his career, Martin (still active) has posted eight, and Sanders is all-time leader with 10 ... Dillon's 1609 yards from scrimmage in '02 (1311 rushing, 298 receiving) made him just second Bengal to pass the 1600 mark, trailing only club-record 1773 scrimmage yards (1087 rushing, 686 receiving) by James Brooks in '86 ... Dillon has 8931 career scrimmage yards (7520-1411), second most in Bengals history behind Brooks' 9459 ... Dillon had five 100-yard rushing games for third time in his career in '02, tying mark reached by three other Bengals, but Dillon is the only player to do it more than once ... His career-high 43 receptions gave him 181 for his career, third-most among Bengals RBs, and his career-high 298 receiving yards pushed career total to 1411, also third among Bengals RBs ... His 314 carries marked his third straight season of 300 or more and pushed his Bengals-leading career total to 1727, more than 300 ahead of second-place Pete Johnson (1402) ... Dillon's 7 rushing TDs in '02 raised his career total to 43, second on all-time Bengals list behind Pete Johnson (64) ... Dillon has 48 total TDs, fifth in team history, with Pete Johnson the leader at 70 ... Dillon's 7520 career rushing yards place him 31st on NFL's all-time rushing list, 87 yards behind No. 30 Terrell Davis (7607).

OTHER 2002 HIGHLIGHTS: Dillon needed just six seasons to post his 7520 career rushing yards, while James Brooks took eight seasons to compile the former record of 6447 that Dillon now exceeds by more than 1000 ... Dillon finished '02 with a career rushing average of 80.0 yards per game, far exceeding the second-place Bengal in the category, Pete Johnson at 57.7 ... Dillon's season-high in rushing was 164 rushing yards on Oct. 6 at Indianapolis ... Had 67-yard TD run at Indy, fourth-longest of his career, and also scored on a 2-yard run ... Limited to 10 rushing yards on 9 carries in season opener Sept. 8 vs. San Diego and was 3-for-22 receiving ... Came back to rush for 22-for-108 on Sept. 15 at Cleveland and also had career-high 8 pass receptions for 67 yards against Browns, leading the team in both receiving categories ... Rushed 18-for-66 and was 3-for-15 receiving Sept. 22 at Atlanta ... Rushed for 59 yards on Sept. 29 vs. Tampa Bay, passing James Brooks (6447 yards) in that game for Bengals all-time rushing lead ... Had 138 yards rushing

FABULOUS FOURSOME

Bengals HB Corey Dillon is one of only four players in NFL history to rush for 1000 or more yards in each of his first six seasons:

Player, First 6 Seasons	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th
Eric Dickerson, 1983-88	1808	2105	1234	1821	1288	1659
Barry Sanders, 1989-94	1470	1304	1548	1352	1115	1883
Curtis Martin, 1995-2000	1487	1152	1160	1287	1464	1204
Corey Dillon, 1997-2002	1129	1130	1200	1435	1315	1311

NOTE: Sanders' streak extended to 10 years; Dickerson's reached seven; Martin has a current eight-year streak; and Dillon has a current six-year streak.

Oct. 27 vs. Tennessee, with a 4-yard TD run, but fell just short of giving Bengals their first win, when his carry on fourth down late in game was ruled short of goal line ... Had 92 yards rushing on 22 carries Nov. 3 at Houston ... Rushed for 102 yards Nov. 10 at Baltimore and added 48 receiving yards on 5 catches ... Ran for 92 yards Nov. 17 vs. Cleveland and caught 2 passes for 18 yards ... Ran for 60 yards Nov. 24 at Pittsburgh, and rushed for 2 TDs (10 yards and 2 yards) ... Rushed for 126 yards on 18 carries in just three quarters Dec. 22 vs. New Orleans ... Suffered left elbow bruise and right thigh bruise in win over Saints, missing the fourth quarter ... Closed season Dec. 29 at Buffalo with 13-for-53 rushing and 2 receptions for 9 yards.

THE C.D. REVIEW: Corey Dillon's capture of the Bengals' career rushing record on Sept. 29 of last season added one more mark to a records case that already is more than full.

He already holds the NFL record for most rushing yards in a game — 278 vs. Denver on Oct. 22, 2000. Following is a look at the other Bengals records which Dillon holds or shares:

- Most rushing yards, season: 1435 in 2000.
- Most carries, season: 340 in 2001.
- Most carries, career: 1727.
- Longest scrimmage play: 96-yard run at Detroit on Oct. 28, 2001.
- Most rushing attempts in a game: 39 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997.
- Most scrimmage yards in a game: 278 vs. Denver on Oct. 22, 2000.
- Most rushing yards in a game by a rookie: 246 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997.
- Most scrimmage yards in a game by a rookie: 276 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997.
- Most 100-yard rushing games, career: 27.
- Most 100-yard rushing games in a season: 5, in 1999, 2000 and '02. Three other Bengals have posted 5 in a season, but Dillon is the only player to do it more than once.
- Most 200-yard rushing games: 3. Dillon has three of the four 200-yard games in club history.
- Most 200-yard rushing games in a season: 2, in 2000.
- Most 1000-yard seasons: 6.
- Most rushing TDs in a game: 4 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997.

- Most total TDs in a game: 4 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997, sharing the record with Larry Kinnebrew.
- Most points in a game: 24 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4, 1997, sharing the record with Larry Kinnebrew.

THE RECORD-BREAKER: Dillon's 278 rushing yards on Oct. 22, 2000 vs. Denver are the NFL's most-ever in a game. The performance surpassed Walter Payton's mark of 275, which had stood for nearly 23 years, since Nov. 20, 1977. Dillon amassed the record total on just 22 carries, averaging 12.6 yards per trip. Payton had 40 carries in his 275-yard game, and Dillon's number of carries stands as the fewest by any player in the top 10 rushing games in NFL history.

Dillon had seven runs of more than 20 yards in the 31-21 Bengals victory against Denver, including five of more than 30 yards (see run-by-run breakdown on P.36). He scored touchdowns in the fourth quarter on runs of 65 and 41 yards. The 65-yarder extended Cincinnati's lead to 24-14 with 4:58 to play, and the 41-yarder put the score at its final margin of 31-21 with 1:49 to play. The 41-yarder was Dillon's final carry of the day, pushing him over Payton's record yardage total.

Remarkably in the record effort, Dillon was held to 1 yard or less on 41% of his carries (9 of 22). He rushed for 58 yards on 4 carries in the first quarter, 19 yards on 5 carries in the second, 93 yards on 7 carries in the third and 108 yards on 6 carries in the fourth.

Dillon has two of the top eight rushing games in NFL history, as his 246-yard effort as a rookie in 1997 vs. Tennessee is No. 8 all-time (see "Remarkable Runners" in box below).

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1997: Drafted by Bengals in second round (43rd overall) ... Entered the draft after his junior season at the University of Washington ... Signed July 21 ... Did not become a starter until Game 10 and had only 196 rushing yards at season's halfway point, but rushed for 933 yards in final eight games ... Season total of 1129 yards broke Bengals rookie record of 1066 set by Ickey Woods in 1988 ... Highlight game of his rookie season came Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, as he rushed for 246 yards on 39 carries, breaking the NFL rookie record of 237 yards set by Cleveland's Jim Brown against the L.A. Rams in 1957. (Dillon's rookie mark was broken in 2000 when Denver rookie Mike Anderson rushed for 251 vs. New Orleans.) ... Dillon was named 1997 AFC Rookie of lar-season games and made two starts at RCB ... Posted 22 tackles, 7 passes defended, 2 INTs and 10 special teams tackles ... Led Oakland's dominant defensive effort in 27-0 Divisional playoff win on Jan. 6 vs. Miami (see "That's The Idea" in next column) ... Had 1 tackle and 1 special teams tackle in AFC title game loss Jan. 14 vs. Baltimore ... THAT'S THE IDEA: Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis has sought to add free agents for 2003 who have experienced success in postseason, and there's no better example of this experience than James' effort in Oakland's 27-0 conquest of Miami in a Jan. 6 Divisional playoff game in the 2000 season. James led Oakland's dominant defensive performance with 2 INTs, a team-high 7 tackles, a forced fumble that set up a Raiders touchdown, and a total of 3 passes defended. James returned his first interception 90 yards for a TD, breaking Hall of Famer Willie Brown's record for longest INT return in Raiders' postseason history. James had an 8-yard return on the second INT.

The Bengals' brightest emerging star in 2002, Johnson posted the fifth-most receiving yards in club history (1166) and the most ever by a first or second-year Bengal ... Led the team in receptions (69) and yards per catch (16.9), as well as in yards ... Tied club record with five 100-yard receiving games, including only the third instance in Bengals history of three straight 100-yarders ... His 5 TDs ranked second among the receivers and third on the team.

2002 PARTICIPATION: Played every game, and started the last 14 ... Played 88.2% of offensive snaps (931 of 1056), fourth-most on the offense.

WHAT IF? Johnson's accomplishments in 2002 were made all the more striking by the fact that he produced them in what essentially amounted to a 12-game season. The second-year pro did not immediately emerge from the WR pack at the start of the season, and in the first four games, he totaled only 5 catches for 78 yards. Over the last 12 games, however, he averaged 5.3 catches for 90.7 yards. Had he produced at that pace for the first four games, he would have finished with 85 catches for a club-record 1451 yards on the full season. The Bengals record is 1273 yards by Eddie Brown in 1988.

THE HAT TRICK: Johnson burned opponents for three 100-yard games in a row last season, going 7-for-110 on Nov. 10 at Baltimore, 4-for-103 on Nov. 17 vs. Cleveland and 7-for-152 on Nov. 24 at Pittsburgh. The team record is four straight by Carl Pickens in Games 10-13 of 1994. The only other instance of a Bengal recording three straight was Isaac Curtis, who did it in the last two games of 1973 and the season opener of '74.

MORE 2002 HIGHLIGHTS: Became only the second Bengal first or second-year player to top 1000 yards receiving, and his 1166 total topped the 1009 that rookie Cris Collinsworth posted in 1981 ... Johnson was the first Bengal to catch 60 balls with a 16-yard average since Tim McGee in 1989 (65-18.6), and Johnson's 16.9-yard average was the highest for any Bengal with 10 or more receptions since Darnay Scott posted an 18.8 average on 46 catches in '94 ... Johnson joined Carl Pickens (1994-95), Tim McGee ('89) and Eddie Brown ('88) in the ranks of Bengals with five 100-yard receiving games in a season ... Caught his first TD pass of the season Sept. 15 at Cleveland, with 22-yard score from Gus Frerotte among his 4-for-58 on the day ... Led team in receiving yards Oct. 6 at Indianapolis with 72 on 6 catches ... Led team in receptions and receiving yards Oct. 13 vs. Pittsburgh with 7-for-71 ... Led team in catches and yards (6-86) on Oct.

27 vs. Tennessee ... Had 3 catches for 41 yards in victory Nov. 3 at Houston, including 10-yard TD catch from Jon Kitna in fourth quarter ... His 7-for-110 performance Nov. 10 at Baltimore included a 39-yard TD reception that tied the score at 14-14 in second quarter ... On Nov. 17 vs. Cleveland, his 4-for-103 day included career-long 72-yard TD reception from Jon Kitna early in first quarter, the longest Bengals scrimmage play of the season and the longest Bengals pass completion since a 76-yard TD connection between QB Jeff Blake and WR Darnay Scott on Nov. 28, 1999 at Pittsburgh ... Johnson recorded his third consecutive game with 100 receiving yards Nov. 24 at Pittsburgh, getting career-high 152 while tying career best in catches (7) ... Johnson's 152 yards at Pittsburgh tied the highest total by a Bengal receiver in 70 games, the last receiver with more being Pickens with 204 vs. Pittsburgh on Oct. 11, 1998 ... Johnson had a 55-yard reception at Pittsburgh, the Bengals' second-longest pass play of the season ... Recorded his fifth TD reception Dec. 1 vs. Baltimore on a 35-yard pass from Kitna, giving Bengals a 23-14 lead in third quarter ... Totaled 4 catches for 78 yards vs. Baltimore, missing by 22 yards a fourth straight 100-yard game that would have tied Bengals record ... Recorded his fourth 100-yard receiving game in five games with 114 yards on 6 catches Dec. 8 at Carolina ... Finished just 9 yards short of his fifth 100-yard receiving game in six games on Dec. 15 vs. Jacksonville, with 91 yards (4 receptions) ... Surpassed the 1000-yard mark for the season with 4 catches for 47 yards in victory Dec. 22 vs. New Orleans ... Closed season Dec. 29 at Buffalo with his Bengals-record tying fifth 100-yard game of the year (6-123).

2001: Drafted by Cincinnati in second round (36th overall) ... Entered draft after his junior season at Oregon State ... Signed July 18 ... Finished third on team in receiving yards (329) despite missing four games with fractured left clavicle he suffered after making a catch in the third quarter on Oct. 14 vs. Cleveland ... Missed Games 6-9 ... Made his first two NFL catches Sept. 30 at San Diego, including an 8-yard TD reception from Jon Kitna late in the second quarter that tied the score at 7-7 ... Tied for team lead with 5 catches (for 52 yards) Oct. 7 at Pittsburgh, and made 3 of his catches during Cincinnati's TD drive in the fourth quarter ... Led the team in victory Oct. 14 vs. Cleveland with 5 catches (for 68 yards) despite being sidelined in third quarter with collarbone fracture ... Suffered injury after catching a 16-yard pass to the Browns' 9-yard line on a third-and-8 play during Cincinnati's second TD drive ... Returned to action Nov. 25 at Cleveland and had 1 catch for 7 yards ... Tied for the receptions lead Dec. 9 vs. Jacksonville with 4, and led the team in receiving yards (47) ... Had 2 catches for 13 yards Dec. 16 at N.Y. Jets, including a 9-yarder on a third-and-4 play during Cincinnati's first-quarter TD drive ... Was 2-for-34 receiving on Jan. 6 at Tennessee, and in the fourth quarter, drew a 14-yard pass interference penalty against Michael Booker that put the offense in range for game-winning FG.

COLLEGE: Averaged 21.8 yards per catch in 2000 as he helped boost Oregon State to No. 4 national ranking and Fiesta Bowl victory over Notre Dame ... Caught touchdown passes of 4 and 74 yards in the Fiesta Bowl ... Set OSU record with 97-yard TD reception vs. Stanford ... Finished the 2000 season, including the Fiesta Bowl, with 37 catches for 806 yards and 8 TDs ... College teammate of Bengals WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, with both players chosen by Bengals in 2001 NFL Draft ... Johnson played in 1997 and '99 at Santa Monica (Calif.) College, sitting out '98 to concentrate on academics ... In 20 games at Santa Monica, caught 120 passes for 2100 yards and 23 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Miami, Fla. ... Attended Miami Beach High School ... Physical education major at Oregon State ... Attended Langston University (Okla.) in 1996, but did not play football ... Has two high-profile cousins in the NFL, WR Keyshawn Johnson of Tampa Bay and CB Samari Rolle of Tennessee.

INSTANT REPLAY RULES

COACHES' CHALLENGE:

Outside the final two minutes of each half, each team will be permitted two challenges per game that will initiate referee reviews. Each challenge will cost a team a time-out. If a challenge is upheld, the time-out will be restored, but the challenge will not. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its time-outs.

FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF:

After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any referee review will be initiated by the replay assistant in the replay booth in the press box. He can initiate as many review requests as he thinks necessary, no matter how many time-outs the teams may have. No time-out will be charged for a review initiated from the replay booth.

REFEREE REVIEW:

All replay reviews will be conducted by the referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering officials on the play. A decision will be reversed only when the referee has indisputable visual evidence that the call should be changed. The referee cannot initiate a replay in any instance.

TIME LIMIT:

Reviews will be a maximum of 90 seconds, timed from when the referee puts on the head phones to the replay booth.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS:

The instant replay system will cover a variety of plays in three main areas:

1. sideline, goal line, end zone, and end-line plays;
2. passing plays;
3. other detectable infractions, such as a runner ruled down not by defensive contact, and the number of players on the field.

Simmons is one of the NFL's most athletically gifted linebackers, and the Bengals will make use of his versatility this season in adjusting to personnel changes elsewhere at LB... He's slated to move from the MLB spot to weak-side LB, replacing departed free agent Takeo Spikes, while free agent signee Kevin Hardy takes over in the middle... Simmons has been the most effective pass-rushing MLB in Bengals history, and the switch to the outside will afford him more opportunity to use those skills... He finished second on the team last year with 130 tackles, including 3 sacks, and his 6.5 sacks in 2001 were by far the most in team history for an MLB... Has been over the 100 tackles mark in three of the last four seasons, missing only 2000, when he played in just one game due to an injury... Scored his second career TD last season on a 51-yard INT return.

2002 PARTICIPATION: Played every game for the second straight year and third time in the last four years... Started 15 games at MLB, missing only Oct. 13 vs. Pittsburgh, when he saw limited action in reserve role due to shoulder stinger suffered Oct. 6 at Indianapolis.

A prospect with tremendous athletic ability for his size (6-5, 230), Palmer was consensus pick of analysts as top player available in 2003 NFL Draft ... He won 2002 Heisman Trophy, leading USC to 11-2 record which included 38-17 victory over Iowa in Orange Bowl ... Set USC season records for completions (309), yards (3942) and TD passes (33) ... Completed 63.2% of his passes (309-489) with only 10 INTs ... ONE STRONG FINISH: USC was struggling to escape the pack after five games last season, falling to a 3-2 record with a 30-27 overtime loss on Oct. 5 at Washington State. But Palmer and the offense led the Trojans to an 8-0 finish, including their Rose Bowl win over Iowa. The Palmer-led USC offense scored at least 30 points in each of the eight games and averaged 41.5 points during that stretch.

NO LUCK FOR IRISH: Palmer's 425 passing yards and USC's 610 total yards of offense vs. Notre Dame on Nov. 30 of last season were the most ever in each category by a Notre Dame opponent. Palmer tied his career high for pass completions while hitting 32-of-46 with 4 TDs in USC's 44-13 victory.

PALMER ON BEING NO. 1 IN THE DRAFT: "It's a huge honor. But throughout this process, it wasn't as important for me to be the No. 1 pick as it was to be in the right system with the right coaches and the right offense. And that's where I am with the Bengals."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 2002: Won numerous honors in addition to Heisman Trophy, including

Johnny Unitas "Golden Arm" Award, Player of the Year by The Sporting News and CNN/SI, and first-team All-America designation from the Associated Press, Football Writers Association, CBS Sportsline and ESPN ... Posted USC-record 448 passing yards Oct. 26 at Oregon, and his 5 TD passes tied school record while fueling 44-33 win ... Performance at Oregon earned him National Player of the Week awards from CNN/SI.com, USAToday.com and SportingNews.com ... Threw for 4 TDs and 317 yards in 49-17 romp Nov. 9 at Stanford ... Passed for 4 TDs and became Pac-10 all-time leader in passing yards, completions and attempts while guiding 52-21 win Nov. 23 at UCLA ... Capped his USC career in Orange Bowl victory over Iowa with 21 of 31 passing for 303 yards and 1 TD ... Was 18-for-26 for 295 yards and 3 TDs in victory Oct. 13 vs. Arizona State ... Ran 4 yards on naked bootleg to score game-winning TD in overtime on Nov. 3 in 16-13 home conquest of Oregon State. 2000: Starting as a sophomore after being redshirted due to injury in 1999, Palmer completed 228-of-415 passes (54.9%) for 2914 yards, 16 TDs and 18 INTs ... Trojans finished 5-7 in Paul Hackett's final season as head coach ... Passed for 338 yards in win Sept. 23 vs. San Jose State ... Named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week for his effort vs. UCLA. 1999: Led USC to victories in its first two games, but suffered broken right collarbone just before halftime of Game 3, Sept. 25 at Oregon, and was sidelined for the remainder of the season, which was allowed to count for him as a redshirt year. 1998: As a freshman, he started the last four games of the regular season, leading a 3-1 finish that gave USC an 8-4 mark and a berth vs. TCU in the Sun Bowl ... Played in every game.

AIKMAN ADMIRER: Palmer recalls that he first began thinking of becoming an NFL quarterback as a 13 or 14-year-old, when the Dallas Cowboys were beginning a four-year stretch (1992-95) in which they won three Super Bowls. "I kind of jumped on the Cowboys bandwagon at that time," he says. "(Dallas QB) Troy Aikman was my childhood hero and idol. I try to do some of the things he did."

RARE COMPANY: When Palmer made his first USC start, leading a 33-10 win over Washington on Oct. 31, 1998, he became only the second true freshman to start a game at QB for the storied Trojan program. He started the last four games that season. Rob Johnson, who started one game in 1991, is the only other true freshman to start a game at quarterback for Southern Cal.

CARSON AND ARCHIE: Palmer is the second Heisman Trophy winner drafted by the Bengals. The first was RB Archie Griffin of Ohio State, a two-time Heisman winner, who was Cincinnati's second of two first-round picks and the overall No. 24 pick in 1976. Griffin played eight seasons (1976-83) for the Bengals. He is the club's No. 7 all-time leading rusher (2808 yards) and ranks second all-time among Bengals running backs in pass receptions (192) and receiving yards (1607).

A CINCINNATI PERSONALITY: "I'm a pretty low-key guy," Palmer says. "I think I'll fit in well in Cincinnati, as opposed to L.A. I'm ready to get out of L.A.; it's too up-tempo for me."

A NO-WIN SITUATION

The Bengals' Nov. 9, 1969 game at the Astrodome in Houston is unique in club history. It's the only game nobody won.

Cincinnati played its only regular-season tie that afternoon, catching the Oilers at 31-31 on K Horst Muhlmann's 18-yard field goal with 0:22 left in the fourth quarter. Regular-season overtime was not in the rule book at that time.

FOND FAREWELL

The Bengals played their final game at Cinergy Field (previously known as Riverfront Stadium) on Dec. 12, 1999, and they made the finale a memorable one.

Before a sellout crowd of 59,972, the Bengals defeated Cleveland, 44-28, as the Cincinnati defense set a team record by allowing only 11 net rushing yards (on 11 carries). The Browns' long rushing gain of the day was three yards. The previous low by a Bengals opponent had been 18 yards on 17 carries by Seattle in an AFC Divisional playoff game on Dec. 31, 1988 at Riverfront Stadium. The previous low in a regular-season game was 26 yards on 17 carries by Pittsburgh on Sept. 19, 1982 at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh.

Offensively, the last game at Cinergy saw the Bengals roll for 279 rushing yards (on 53 carries) — at the time the second-most rushing yards in team history and the most ever in a home game (now the fourth-best in club history and the third-highest figure for a home game). The team record for rushing yards in a game is 407, set on Oct. 22, 2000 vs. Denver at Paul Brown Stadium.

Weathersby fits the current NFL mold seeking big cornerbacks who can run ... He was rated as a potential steal when Bengals selected him with the first pick in Round 4 ... Had been projected as a possible first-round selection after a college career in which he consistently shut down talented Pac-10 receivers ... But his draft position was unfortunately clouded on Easter Sunday (April 20), just a week before the draft, when he was the innocent victim of a drive-by shooting near his home in Duarte, Calif. ... A bullet entered his back, exited his torso and then entered his left biceps ... He was in critical condition for a time, and did not participate in Bengals mini-camps, but has been medically cleared for full participation in Bengals training camp ... Was a four-time selection to the Pac-10 All-Academic team.

JUST WHAT DR. FRAZIER ORDERED: Leslie Frazier, the Bengals' new defensive coordinator, coached cornerbacks to the Pro Bowl as secondary coach in Philadelphia. In Weathersby, he sees the same kind of potential. "No question I like big cornerbacks," Frazier says. "That's what I've had success with in the NFL. To find a guy that can run the way Dennis runs and can cover the way he can cover, that's a rare commodity. Plus, he's an intelligent kid who has won academic honors. Everybody would like to have a guy that can do the things he can do."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — CAREER: Mainstay player for four years for a program whose three bowl appearances included Fiesta Bowl conquest of Notre Dame for No. 4 national ranking in 2000 ... Weathersby played 48 games over the 1999-2002 seasons and made 45 starts, usually assigned to opposition's top receiver ... Johnson began his college career as an All-Big Ten freshman team selection at Indiana, and closed it last season as a key blocker and yardage-producer for Western Kentucky's Division I-AA national championship team ... Gained 947 scrimmage yards himself last season (637 rushing, 310 receiving) and was primary lead blocker for a 1606-yard rushing season by HB Jon Frazier ... Though built like a fireplug (5-11, 265) for blocking purposes, he shows excellent hands as a receiver and has averaged more than 5.0 yards per rush in three of his four college seasons ... His overall agility on a huge frame led one scouting analyst to call him "a Jerome Bettis-type."

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "Jeremi needs to prove he can put it all together on the NFL level, but he has great physical ability. He's a blocker, number one, but he can do other things with the ball himself that our fullback needs to do. He was a big reason his team won a national championship last year."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — CAREER: Played 33 games with 16 starts for three seasons (1999-2001) at Indiana before transferring to Western Kentucky for 2002 ... Left Indiana to follow T.J. Weist, Hoosiers wide receivers coach, who was leaving to join Western Kentucky as running backs coach ... Averaged 5.1 yards per rush and 10.4 yards per reception during his time at Indiana. 2002: Played in all 15 games and started 10 as Western Kentucky claimed the NCAA Division I-AA championship with a 12-3 record ... Did not complete his transfer and join the team until August ... Averaged 6.2 yards per rush (102-637) and 13.5 yards per reception (23-310), with 4 TDs (2 rushing, 2 receiving) ... Closed the regular season Nov. 16 at Southern Illinois with 86 rushing yards on 4 carries, including a 61-yard TD run ... In first round of playoffs, Nov. 30 vs. Murray State, Johnson had a season-high 160 rushing yards on 12 carries, with a 58-yard run and a 14-yard TD run ... ### FIRST SINCE '89

The 2002 Bengals were the first Cincinnati team since 1989 with a 3000-yard passer, a 1000-yard rusher and a 1000-yard receiver.

QB Jon Kitna passed for 3178 yards last season, while HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1311 yards, and WR Chad Johnson had 1166 receiving yards.

In 1989, Boomer Esiason passed for 3525, James Brooks rushed for 1239, and Tim McGee had 1211 receiving.

Other past Bengals teams with this trifecta include:

• 1988: Esiason passed for 3572, Ickey Woods rushed for 1066 and Eddie Brown had the still-current team record of 1273 receiving.

• 1986: Esiason passed for the current team record of 3959, Brooks rushed for 1087 and Cris Collinsworth had 1024 receiving.

• 1981: Ken Anderson passed for 3754, Pete Johnson rushed for 1077 and Cris Collinsworth had 1009 receiving.

REPLAY CHALLENGES

In 16 games in 2002, the Bengals were involved with 15 video replay challenges of officials' calls. In only two of the 15 cases did the referee determine there was sufficient visual evidence to reverse the original call. One reversal favored the Bengals, and one favored the opponent.

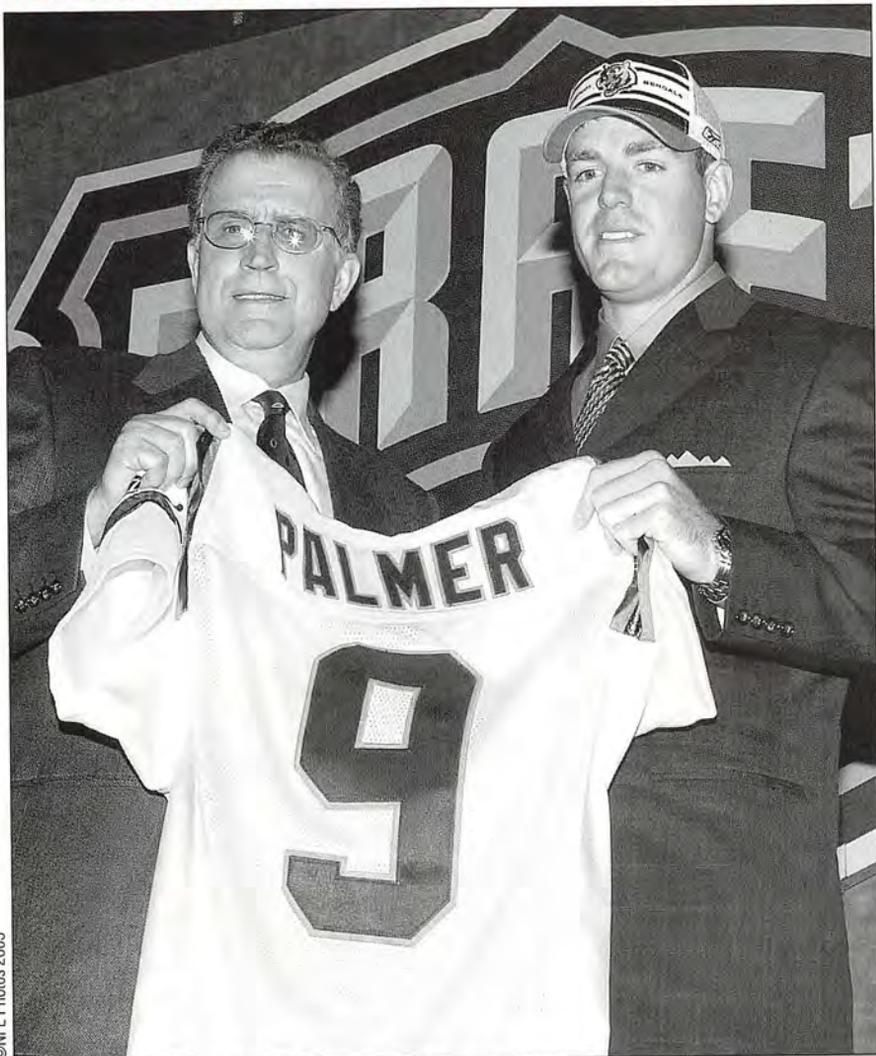

Six of the challenges were initiated by the Bengals, seven were initiated by the opponent, and two were initiated by NFL replay officials during the last two minutes of a half.

In all six of the Bengals' challenges, the original call was upheld. The opponents' seven challenges resulted in one reversal against Cincinnati. The reversal came on Sept. 15 at Cleveland, when a 12-yard pass completion from Gus Frerotte to T.J. Houshmandzadeh on a fourth-down-and-7 play was disallowed early in the fourth quarter.

One of the two challenges by NFL replay officials resulted in a reversal. The reversal favored Cincinnati. On Nov. 10 at Baltimore, with 0:22 remaining in the first half, a 91-yard fumble return for a TD by Baltimore's Chad Williams was disallowed. It was ruled after review that Williams was down by contact before returning his recovery of a Corey Dillon fumble.

Of plays upheld after the review process, two which were favorable to the Bengals stand out. On Nov. 3 at Houston, the Texans were denied when they challenged that Cincinnati CB Artrell Hawkins had stepped out of bounds before completing a team-record tying 102-yard INT return. And on Dec. 8 at Carolina, the Panthers were denied when they sought reversal of a Dee Brown fumble that was recovered by Bengals DE Bernard Whittington at the Cincinnati 2-yard line. The fumble was forced by JoJuan Armour.

Sunday, Sept. 8, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals suffered their largest margin of defeat in a season opening game at home, and their second-largest margin of defeat in any season opener. San Diego controlled both lines of scrimmage, rushing for 241 yards to Cincinnati's 36 and posting a 4-1 edge in sacks. Chargers QB Drew Brees completed 15 of 19 passes (78.9%) for 160 yards, with TD passes of 1 yard to TE Josh Norman and 9 yards to WR Curtis Conway. ## Game 2 Cleveland 20, Bengals 7

Sunday, Sept. 15, at Cleveland Browns Stadium

The Bengals posted leads in total yardage (357-265) and first downs (28-15) while running 83 offensive plays to Cleveland's 58, but the edges meant nothing on the scoreboard as Cleveland took a 17-0 halftime lead and cruised to the victory. The Bengals suffered 3 turnovers — all on interceptions — and the Browns had no giveaways. The game's biggest play occurred late in the first half, when DE Kenard Lang intercepted a QB Gus Frerotte pass at the Browns' 21 and returned it 71 yards to the Bengals' 8, setting up a Browns' TD for the 17-0 halftime lead. HB Corey Dillon rushed for 108 yards for Cincinnati on 22 carries, and also led the team in receiving with 8 catches for 67 yards. The Bengals got their only score in the fourth quarter, on a 22-yard pass from Frerotte to WR Chad Johnson. The Bengals dropped to 0-2 while the Browns improved to 1-1.

Game 3 Atlanta 30, Bengals 3

Sunday night, Sept. 22, at Georgia Dome

Michael Vick, Atlanta's mobile QB, put on a show against the Bengals in an ESPN Sunday night game, completing 16 of 26 passes for 174 yards, 2 TDs and no INTs and also rushing for 56 yards on 5 carries. The Bengals were unable to mount an effective offense for the third straight week and fell behind 20-0 before scoring on a 24-yard Neil Rackers FG just before halftime. Starting QB Gus Frerotte went 0-for-7 passing and was replaced in the second quarter by Jon Kitna, who led the FG drive. For the third straight week, the Bengals failed to force a turnover from the opposing offense. The Bengals fell to 0-3; Atlanta improved to 1-2.

Game 4 Tampa Bay 35, Bengals 7

Sunday, Sept. 29, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals grabbed a 7-0 lead on LB Brian Simmons' 51-yard interception return for a TD late in the first quarter, but Tampa Bay scored 3 second-quarter touchdowns and coasted to victory. The struggling Cincinnati offense failed to produce a touchdown for the third time in four games. Akili Smith made his only start of the season at QB for the Bengals, and he was limited to 12 pass completions in 33 attempts, with an interception that was returned 25 yards for a TD by LB Shelton Quarles. Tampa Bay QB Brad Johnson threw for 3 TDs, completing 19-of-30 for 277 yards. The Bengals picked up their first 3 defensive takeaways of the season, as DT Oliver Gibson joined Simmons on the interception list and CB Artrell Hawkins recovered a Bucs fumble. Bengals HB Corey Dillon rushed for 59 yards on 21 carries, becoming Cincinnati's all-time career rushing leader with 6452 yards. He broke James Brooks' record of 6447. The Bengals fell to 0-4 on the season, while Tampa Bay improved to 3-1.

Game 5 Indianapolis 28, Bengals 21

Sunday, Oct. 6, at RCA Dome

In the 2002 starting debut of QB Jon Kitna, the Bengals showed by far their most punch on offense, despite falling to an 0-5 record. Cincinnati rallied from deficits of 21-0 and 28-14 to close Indianapolis' lead to 28-21 on 0:53 remaining on a 30-yard TD pass from Kitna to Peter Warrick. Kicker Neil Rackers followed with a perfectly stroked, high-bouncing onside kick that Bengals rookie Marquand Manuel recovered at the Cincinnati 43. Kitna then passed the Bengals to a first down at the Colts' 35, but after spiking the ball to stop the clock, his second-down pass glanced off the hands of WR Chad Johnson and was intercepted by Colts safety Idrees Bashir. The Bengals outgained the Colts 410-311, with HB Corey Dillon rushing for 164 yards, the most ever by an individual in a Bengals loss, including a 67-yard TD run. Dillon also scored on a 2-yard run. Kitna posted a Bengals season high in pass completions (31). The Colts got 2 TD passes from QB Peyton Manning, and benefited from a crucial Cincinnati special teams error when they recovered a muffed punt by Warrick at the Bengals' 4-yard line in the second quarter. The Colts improved to 3-1 on the season.

Game 6 Pittsburgh 34, Bengals 7

Sunday, Oct. 13, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals were unable to cope with a balanced Pittsburgh attack, allowing an opponents' season-high 408 yards. The Steelers had 211 rushing yards, including 109 from Jerome Bettis, and WR Plaxico Burress caught 8 passes for 149 yards. Bettis scored 2 TDs, including one on a 41-yard run. The Steelers led 24-0 at halftime, as their final TD of the second quarter was set up when LB Joey Porter sacked Jon Kitna, forcing a fumble that DT Casey Hampton returned 36 yards to the Bengals' 7. Pittsburgh extended its lead to 31-0 when Antwan Randle El returned the second-half kickoff 99 yards for a TD. Cincinnati scored in the third quarter on HB Corey Dillon's 2-yard run, which was set up when Bengals CB Jeff Burris intercepted a Tommy Maddox pass and returned it 5 yards to the Steelers' 9. The Bengals fell to 0-6 on the season and Pittsburgh improved to 2-3.

Game 7 Tennessee 30, Bengals 24

Sunday, Oct. 27, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals fell to an 0-7 record in emotionally crushing fashion, missing a likely winning touchdown by a matter of inches with 1:08 to play. On a fourth-and-goal play from the Tennessee 1-yard line, HB Corey Dillon was judged to have been stopped just short of the goal line. A review was called for by NFL replay officials, but it was ruled that there was insufficient evidence to overturn the original no-TD call. Cincinnati stormed to a 14-0 lead, scoring on a 1-yard pass from Jon Kitna to Lorenzo Neal in the first quarter and on a 4-yard Dillon run in the second quarter. The Titans came back to lead 20-14, but the Bengals took a 24-20 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 44-yard Neil Rackers field goal and an 8-yard TD pass from Kitna to rookie TE Matt Schobel. But Tennessee went up 27-24 on the third of QB Steve McNair's three second-half TD passes, and the Titans added a field goal for a 30-24 lead with 8:04 to play. The Bengals drove 67 yards before being stopped on the crucial play at the Tennessee 1. Dillon rushed for 138 yards for Cincinnati, and Kitna posted a 127.6 passer rating, completing 17-of-23 for 193 yards, 2 TDs and no INTs. The Titans improved to 3-4 on the season.

Game 8 Bengals 38, Houston 3

Sunday, Nov. 3, at Reliant Stadium

The Bengals claimed their first win of the season and ran their all-time record to 6-0 against expansion teams playing in their inaugural season. Jon Kitna completed 22 of 27 passes with a career-high 4 touchdowns and no interceptions as the Bengals posted their biggest victory margin since 1999. The game did not start out as a rout, however. Houston was at the Cincinnati 5, threatening to take a 10-3 lead late in the first quarter, when Bengals CB Artrell Hawkins intercepted a David Carr pass and returned it 102 yards for a TD, tying the longest play in Bengals history. The Bengals moved from there to a 24-3 halftime lead, as Kitna threw TD passes of 26 yards to Michael Westbrook and 33 yards to Peter Warrick. In the fourth quarter, Kitna hit Westbrook for a 12-yard TD and Chad Johnson for a 10-yarder. Corey Dillon rushed for 92 yards for Cincinnati, and the Bengals defense held Houston to 268 yards. The Bengals improved to 1-7 and Houston fell to 2-6.

Game 9 Baltimore 38, Bengals 27

Sunday, Nov. 10, at Ravens Stadium

The Bengals' problems with turnovers continued, as they suffered 4 giveaways (3 INTs, 1 FL) and had only 2 takeaways (2 FRs). One INT was returned by Ravens DE Adalius Thomas for a TD, the other ended a Bengals possession when they trailed 31-20 with 7:33 left, and the lost fumble by HB Corey Dillon short-circuited a drive that had reached the Baltimore 8-yard line just before halftime. Cincinnati had both a 100-yard rusher and receiver for the first time in 24 games, as Dillon rushed for 102 and Chad Johnson had 110 receiving yards. Bengals TDs came on passes by Jon Kitna of 39 yards to Johnson and 3 yards to Peter Warrick, and on a 94-yard KO return by Brandon Bennett. Kitna completed 28 passes, connecting with 10 different receivers. The Ravens scored on a 95-yard punt return by Lamont Brightfot, the longest punt return ever against the Bengals. The Bengals fell to 1-8 while the Ravens improved to 4-5.

Game 10 Cleveland 27, Bengals 20

Sunday, Nov. 17, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals had trouble stopping the Browns all day, as Cleveland rushed for 140 yards and converted 11 of 18 third-down situations. Still, the Bengals had a chance to tie the game at 27 midway through the fourth quarter, as a 5-yard Corey Dillon run put Cincinnati in a third-and-goal situation from the Cleveland 1-yard line. But the Browns rose up to stop Dillon for no gain on the next two plays, and the Bengals were unable to again penetrate the Cleveland 20-yard line. Browns QB Tim Couch threw 3 TD passes while completing throws to nine different receivers. The Bengals look a 7-0 first-quarter lead on the game's third scrimmage play, on a 72-yard bomb from Jon Kitna to WR Chad Johnson, but the Browns led 17-14 at halftime. Cincinnati tied the score at 17 midway through the third quarter on Neil Rackers' 37-yard field goal, but the Browns went ahead for good at 24-17 on a 13-yard pass from Couch to Dennis Northcutt with 2:25 left in the third period. The Bengals fell to 1-9 on the season while the Browns evened their record at 5-5.

Game 11 Pittsburgh 29, Bengals 21

Sunday, Nov. 24, at Heinz Field

The Bengals rallied from a 17-0 deficit to take a 21-20 lead with 8:35 to play, but the Steelers came back with a late field goal and TD to secure the victory. The Bengals were still up 21-20 with 6:50 to play when they forced the Steelers to punt from the Pittsburgh 33, but Cincinnati's T.J. Houshmandzadeh fumbled after an 11-yard return to the Bengals' 28, and Steelers LB Mike Jones recovered. Jeff Reed's 45-yard FG put Pittsburgh up 23-21, and after the Bengals went three-and-out offensively, the Steelers scored a TD in a 61-yard drive of just two plays, climaxed by Jerome Bettis' 24-yard TD run. The Bengals moved as close as the Steelers' 5 in the final minute of play, but their cause was lost when a fourth-down pass from Jon Kitna to Chad Johnson was knocked away by Steelers CB Chad Scott. Johnson caught 7 passes for 152 yards, becoming the first Bengal since Carl Pickens in 1994 to log three straight 100-yard games. The Bengals got two rushing TDs from Corey Dillon, and had a 20-yard TD pass from Kitna to TE Matt Schobel to take the 21-20 lead in the fourth quarter. Cincinnati fell to 1-10 on the season, and Pittsburgh improved to 6-4-1.

Game 12 Baltimore 27, Bengals 23

Sunday, Dec. 1, at Paul Brown Stadium

For the fourth time in their last five losses, the Bengals fell when they were in close range for a TD that could have tied the score or given them the lead late in the fourth quarter. Against the Ravens, Cincinnati's hopes died when a fourth-down pass from the Baltimore 10-yard line fell incomplete with 0:34 to play. Cincinnati gained 381 yards to Baltimore's 247, allowing its second-fewest yards of the year and topping the 350 mark on offense for the sixth straight game, the team's longest such streak since 1986. But Cincinnati suffered 2 turnovers to Baltimore's none, and the Bengals also suffered a blocked punt that the Ravens returned for a touchdown. The Bengals led 23-14 after three quarters, but the Ravens closed to within 23-21 on Ron Johnson's 22-yard return of a punt blocked by Chad Williams. Baltimore scored the winning TD on a 22-yard pass from former Bengal Jeff Blake to TE Todd Heap. Bengals HB Corey Dillon rushed for 70 yards and pushed his season total to 1018, becoming only the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 1000 or more yards in each of his first six seasons. Cincinnati QB Jon Kitna passed for a season-high 308 yards. The Bengals fell to 1-11; the Ravens improved to 6-6.

Game 13 Carolina 52, Bengals 31

Sunday, Dec. 8, at Ericsson Stadium

Carolina special teams scored 2 TDs on punt returns, and the Panthers defense scored on a fumble recovery in the end zone and on a safety. That accounted for 23 points, and the Panthers' offense added 29 more to post 52 — a Carolina record, and also the most points ever scored against Cincinnati. The Bengals led 24-23 early in the third quarter after LB Takeo Spikes scored on a 45-yard fumble return, but the Panthers outscored Cincinnati 29-7 after that. Panthers QB Rodney Peete passed for 319 yards, the first passer in 27 games to hit 300 against the Bengals. Carolina's Steve Smith returned 2 Travis Dorsch punts for TDs and also scored on a 31-yard pass from Peete. Bengals QB Jon Kitna passed for 2 TDs to Peter Warrick and had no INTs. The Bengals matched the worst 13-game record in team history at 1-12; the Panthers improved to 5-8.

Game 14 Jacksonville 29, Bengals 15

Sunday, Dec. 15, at Paul Brown Stadium

A Bengals special teams penalty helped turn the tide after Cincinnati had rallied from a 14-3 deficit to take a 15-14 lead in the third quarter. Holding the lead, the Bengals forced a Jaguars punt, but the Bengals' return team was flagged for 12 men on the field. The five-yard walkoff presented Jacksonville with a fourth-and-one situation at the Cincinnati 38, and after converting the opportunity with an 8-yard run by Stacey Mack, the Jaguars scored a go-ahead TD four plays later on a fourth-down, 26-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith. Jacksonville drove 62 yards in nine plays for a Mack TD run of 3 yards for the game's final points early in the fourth quarter. The Bengals trailed by only scant margins in first downs (20-19) and yards (321-300), and were 7-for-17 on third downs compared to Jacksonville's 3-for-12. But Cincinnati netted only one TD from four penetrations of the Jaguars' 10-yard line, twice settling for field goals and being stopped once on downs. The lone Bengals TD came on a 5-yard QB draw by Jon Kitna in the second quarter. The Bengals fell to 1-13, their worst 14-game mark in franchise history, while the Jaguars improved to 6-8.

Game 15 Bengals 20, New Orleans 13

Sunday, Dec. 22, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals dominated the playoff-contending Saints in total yards (423-210), but needed a pair of fourth-quarter TDs to overcome a 13-7 deficit after three periods. Nicolas Luchey, who hadn't had an NFL rushing attempt since the final game of the 2000 season, was pressed into service in the fourth quarter due to injuries to HBS Corey Dillon and Brandon Bennett, and Luchey responded with 59 yards on 12 carries in heavy traffic, including TD runs of 1 and 3 yards. The final-period TD drives, led by QB Jon Kitna, covered 69 yards on 13 plays and 64 yards on 12 plays. Dillon rushed for 126 yards before suffering a bruised left elbow, and WR Chad Johnson's 47 receiving yards pushed him to 1043 on the season. Cincinnati's 423 yards were a season high, the Bengals' 240 rushing yards were their most since Dec. 3, 2000, and their 33 rushing yards allowed were the fewest by an opponent since Dec. 12, 1999. The Bengals did not allow a pass completion on the last 11 throws by New Orleans QB Aaron Brooks. Cincinnati ran its record in the final regular season home game over the last 21 years to 18-3. The Bengals improved to 2-13 on the season, while New Orleans fell to 9-6. The Bengals averted what would have been the first winless home season in club history.

Game 16 Buffalo 27, Bengals 9

Sunday, Dec. 29, at Ralph Wilson Stadium

Buffalo mounted a 20-0 second-quarter lead as the Bengals' offense, consistently effective in recent games, had a hard time getting on track. Cincinnati didn't manage to score its lone TD of the day until the midpoint of the fourth quarter, when QB Jon Kitna scored on a 6-yard run. Buffalo QB Drew Bledsoe completed 74.2% of his passes (23-of-31), for 231 yards, 1 TD and no INTs. The Bengals' red-zone defense held Buffalo to a pair of field goals in the first quarter, and was on the verge of doing it a third time when Bledsoe scored on a QB draw on a third-and-goal play from the Cincinnati 7-yard line, putting the Bills ahead 13-0 with 10:25 left in the second quarter. The Bills recovered a Kitna fumble at the Buffalo 46 on Cincinnati's next possession, and drove for a 20-0 lead on a TD pass from Bledsoe to Eric Moulds on a fourth-and-goal play from the 2. The Bengals were outgained only 324-317 in total yards, but were 1-for-11 on third and fourth-down conversions, while Buffalo was 9-for-17 in the same category. Bengals WR Chad Johnson tied a team record by recording his fifth 100-yard receiving game of the season (6-for-123). The Bengals fell to a franchise-worst 2-14 record on the season, while Buffalo finished 8-8.

A RARE RUNNER

The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970.

The game was the first Bengals-Browns match in Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field), and marked Cincinnati's first victory (14-10) over its Ohio rival.

NO TDs; NO PROBLEM

Three times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

- On Sept. 24, 1972, K Horst Muhlmann's five field goals (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field).
- On Oct. 21, 1984, K Jim Breech kicked four field goals (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the Bengals' points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.
- On Nov. 6, 1994, the Bengals won on the road without a TD for the only time in team history. Cincinnati used K Doug Pelfrey's club-record six field goals (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) plus a safety by LB-DE Alfred Williams to post a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.

43 IN A ROW

The Bengals' longest sellout streak of regular and postseason home games is 43 straight games — at Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field. The sellout streak began with the opening game against Phoenix in 1988, the season the Bengals won the American Football Conference championship and met the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XXIII. The final game of the streak was the home finale against Indianapolis in 1992.

WORST TO FIRST

Four times in their history, the Bengals have finished first in their division after finishing in last place the season before.

The only other NFL franchise to make such a climb more than once (since 1967, when the league split into four divisions) is the Colts, who have done it three times.

The Bengals followed a cellar season with a division title in 1970, '81, '88 and '90.

THE LONGEST SHOTS

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster for a regular-season game was K-P Dave Green of Ohio University. Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in 1972, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati. Green played for the Bengals from 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and stayed in the NFL through '79.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was RB Ted Washington of San Diego State. Washington was the 354th selection in 1968, a 13th-round pick. He played in the NFL only in 1968.

Other noteworthy late-round Bengals draft picks include:

TE-WR Bob Trumpy of Utah, who was the 301st selection in the 1968 draft, a 12th-round pick. He went on to play 10 years with Cincinnati (1968-77) and played in two AFL All-Star Games and then two Pro Bowls. NT Tim Krumrie, a 10th-round pick from Wisconsin in 1983 (276th overall), played 12 seasons with the Bengals (1983-94) and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection. OT Joe Walter of Texas Tech was a seventh-round pick in 1985 (181st overall) and went on to play 13 years for Cincinnati (1985-87). K Doug Pelfrey of Kentucky was an eighth-round pick in 1993 (202nd overall) and played for the Bengals from '93-99. He ranks second on the team's all-time scoring list with 660 career points.

PARRISH HITS PAYDIRT

The only Bengals player ever to score two touchdowns in a game on returns and/or recoveries is Lemar Parrish — and he did it three times.

Parrish, a Bengals cornerback and kick returner from 1970-77, scored two TDs on Nov. 8, 1970 at Buffalo (95-yard kickoff return and 83-yard return of a blocked FG attempt); on Dec. 17, 1972 at Houston (25-yard interception return and 33-yard interception return); and on Oct. 6, 1974 vs. Washington (90-yard punt return and 47-yard fumble return).

STREAKS TO REMEMBER

The Bengals' record for consecutive made field goals is 13, first set by Jim Breech in 1990 and later tied by Doug Pelfrey in '93 and '95. But two other Bengals FG streaks are clearly worthy of note:

- While tying the record in 1995, Pelfrey also put together a streak of 19 made FGs in 20 attempts. His only miss among the 20 came on a try of 63 yards just before halftime Oct. 29 vs. Cleveland. Take away that low-percentage attempt, and Pelfrey would have a record-smashing Bengals streak of 19 straight FGs.
- Over the 1973-74 seasons, Horst Muhlmann knocked home 14 straight field goals. But three of the kicks came during a 1973 season playoff game against Miami, and postseason games form a separate category in record-keeping.

BENGALS LONGEST PLAYS

(Touchdowns unless noted otherwise)

10 WINS, NO PLAYOFFS

The best Bengals team to miss out on postseason play was coach Bill Johnson's 1976 club, which went 10-4 but lost a tiebreaker to Pittsburgh for the AFC Central title. Only one Wild Card team made the playoffs from each conference at that time, and the berth went to an 11-3 New England club that lost a tiebreaker in the AFC East. One other Bengals team — the 1986 club — won 10 games (10-6) and failed to make the playoffs.

ROAD IS SWEET IN OT

Recent Bengals results have shown the home field "advantage" to be no edge at all in overtime games. The visiting team has won seven of the last eight overtime games involving Cincinnati, as well as 10 of the last 12. In those 12 games, the Bengals are 5-0 as the overtime visitor and 2-5 as the overtime home team.

BENGALS CHRONOLOGY

Paul Brown, who left the Cleveland Browns following the 1962 season with an NFL record of 115-49-6, seven conference titles, and three NFL championships, had the urge to get back into football. His son Mike did a study on pro football expansion and recommended Cincinnati as a potential site. In 1965, Brown met with Ohio Governor James Rhodes and the two agreed the state could accommodate a second pro football team.

1966 Fearful the Reds baseball team would leave town and feeling pressure from local businessmen pushing for a pro football franchise, Cincinnati's city council approved the construction of Riverfront Stadium.

1967 Brown's group was awarded an AFL expansion franchise. Brown called the team the Bengals, the name of Cincinnati's pro teams in the old AFL of the late 1930s. The Bengals acquired their first player late in the year when they traded two draft picks to Miami for QB John Stofa.

1968 The Bengals were awarded 40 veteran players in the allocation draft. In the college draft, they selected Tennessee center Bob Johnson as their first pick. The Bengals lost their first preseason game, 38-14, to Kansas City, before 21,682 fans at Nippert Stadium. The Bengals upset Denver, 24-10, and Buffalo, 34-23, in their first two regular-season home games. Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing with 1,023 yards and he was named Rookie of the Year.

1969 Brown drafted quarterback Greg Cook of the Univ. of Cincinnati in the first round. The same draft also produced linebacker Bill Bergey. The Bengals jumped out to a 3-0 record, but finished 4-9-1. Brown was named AFL Coach of the Year. Bergey was honored as the AFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, and Cook won the AFL passing title.

1970 The NFL-AFL merger took place before the season, and the Bengals made their first NFL campaign a memorable one. After losing 6 of their first 7 games, they rallied to finish 8-6 and win the new AFC Central Division. In their first playoff game, they lost, 17-0, to eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore. QB Greg Cook was forced to the Injured Reserve list in training camp with a shoulder injury that would end his career, and Virgil Carter took over as the starter.

1971 The Bengals drafted QB Ken Anderson in the third round. Anderson would go on to play 16 seasons for the club and set numerous team passing records.

1972 Anderson unseated Carter as the starting QB and the Bengals won three of the last four games to finish 8-6. DT Mike Reid and WR Chip Myers were selected for the Pro Bowl.

1973 The Bengals split their first eight games, then swept their last six and won their second AFC Central Division title. Cincinnati lost to Miami, 34-16, in the AFC playoffs. Rookie Boobie Clark, who finished the year with 988 yards rushing and 45 pass receptions, was named AFC Rookie of the Year. Essex Johnson led Cincinnati with a career-high 997 yards rushing and rookie Isaac Curtis caught 45 passes.

1974 Cincinnati traded Bill Bergey to Philadelphia for two first-round draft choices and a third-round pick in 1977. Jim LeClair replaced Bergey at middle linebacker. Anderson won the NFL passing championship and completed a club-record 64.9 percent of his attempts. Cornerback Lemar Parrish led the NFL in punt returns.

1975 The Bengals opened with six straight wins and went on to post an 11-3 record, their best regular-season mark. The Bengals qualified as the AFC wild card team for the playoffs, but they lost to Oakland, 31-28, in the playoffs. Anderson won his second NFL passing championship. A serious blow was the loss of defensive tackle Mike Reid, who retired at age 26 to pursue a career in music.

1976 Brown announced his retirement after 41 seasons of coaching and named Bill Johnson, his long-time assistant, as the successor. Brown continued to serve as the club's general manager and vice president. The Bengals acquired defensive end Coy Bacon in a trade with San Diego and drafted halfback Archie Griffin, the two-time Heisman Trophy winner from Ohio State. The Bengals won nine of their first 11 games and finished 10-4, but did not make the playoffs. Cornerback Ken Riley led the AFC with nine interceptions.

1977 A loss to Houston in the final game cost the Bengals a spot in the playoffs. The team finished with an 8-6 record.

1978 QB Ken Anderson missed the first four games with a broken bone in his right hand, and Homer Rice replaced Bill Johnson as head coach after the Bengals started 0-5. The team dipped to marks of 0-8 and 1-12 before rebounding under Rice to win the last three games. In the season finale, the Bengals blasted Cleveland, 48-16, setting series records for points and victory margin.

1979 Fullback Pete Johnson powered his way to 15 touchdowns, but the Bengals struggled to their second straight 4-12 record. After the season, former Cleveland coach Forrest Gregg was named to replace Rice as Bengals head coach.

1980 The Bengals went 6-10 and managed only 244 points, lowest in the AFC. They did upset defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh twice. First-round draft choice Anthony Munoz began his Hall of Fame career.

1981 The Bengals unveiled new uniforms with tiger-striped helmets, jerseys and pants. They had at least a share of the AFC Central lead the entire season and, on Dec. 13, Anderson threw two touchdown passes as the Bengals clinched the division with a 17-10 win over the Steelers. Anderson led the NFL in passing with a 98.5 rating. On Jan. 3, the Bengals beat Buffalo, 28-21, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. A week later, playing in their first AFC Championship Game, the Bengals defeated San Diego, 27-7, at Riverfront Stadium in a temperature of nine degrees below zero with a wind-chill factor of minus-59. In Super Bowl XVI on Jan. 24 in Pontiac, Mich., the Bengals trailed 20-0 at halftime and lost to San Francisco, 26-21.

1982 The Bengals posted a 7-2 record in a strike-shortened season to earn a postseason berth, but lost to the Jets in the first round of the playoffs, 44-17. Anderson led the AFC in passing for the fourth time as the Bengals boasted the second-best offense in the NFL.

1983 The Bengals started the season by losing six of their first seven games and finished 7-9. Despite the losing record, the Bengals claimed the top overall defense in the NFL. In the offseason, Gregg resigned as head coach and Sam Wyche was named as his replacement.

1984 Pete Johnson was traded to San Diego for running back James Brooks. The Bengals lost their first five games, then bounced back to win eight of the last 11 and force the AFC Central Division championship race into the final week of the season, only to fall a game short of Pittsburgh. Cincinnati finished 8-8.

1985 Wide receiver Isaac Curtis, a premier Bengal for 12 years, retired shortly before training camp opened. Second-year QB Boomer Esiason replaced Ken Anderson. The Bengals set a club scoring record with 441 points.

1986 Boomer Esiason passed for a team-record 3959 yards and James Brooks rushed for 1087 yards as the Bengals went 10-6, narrowly missing a playoff berth. Linebacker Reggie Williams was selected NFL Man of the Year for his efforts to charity and the community.

1987 The Bengals posted a 4-11 record in a strike-interrupted season. Individual bright spots included Jim Breach leading the AFC in scoring with 97 points, Anthony Munoz being voted to his seventh straight Pro Bowl, and nose tackle Tim Krumrie making his first Pro Bowl.

1988 The Bengals brought about one of the biggest turnarounds in NFL history by rising from their 4-11 finish of 1987 to a 12-4 regular-season record. They won the AFC Central Division title, and defeated Buffalo, 21-10, for the AFC Championship on Jan. 8 (1989). On Jan. 22 (1989), they appeared in their second Super Bowl and lost, 20-16, to San Francisco when the 49ers scored a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Coach Sam Wyche's team posted a 14-5 mark in regular and postseason play, best in the NFL. Wyche received numerous honors for his brilliant coaching and nine Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — QB Boomer Esiason, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Munoz, G Max Montoya, TE Rodney Holman, WR Eddie Brown, RB James Brooks, S David Fulcher and CB Eric Thomas. Esiason was voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player. In January of '88, LB Reggie Williams received the "Sportsman of the Year" award from Sports Illustrated. Rookie "Ickey" Woods led the Bengals in rushing with 1,066 yards.

1989 The Bengals traded their first round draft choice to Atlanta for three later selections. Hit hard by injuries throughout the season, the Bengals went 8-8 and narrowly missed a spot in the playoffs, despite outscoring the opposition 404-285.

1990 The Bengals posted a 9-7 regular-season record to win the AFC Central Division and move into the playoffs, where they defeated the Houston Oilers, 41-14, before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders, 20-10, in the second round.

1991 Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died Aug. 5. The Bengals had a 3-13 season record. Dave Shula replaced Sam Wyche as head coach following the season.

1992 The Bengals had a 5-11 record, but Harold Green rushed for 1,170 yards and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl. All-Pro OT Anthony Munoz played his final game.

1993 Quarterback Boomer Esiason was traded to the

New Jets for a third-round draft choice. The young Bengals lost their first 10 games before defeating the Raiders. Cincinnati then had wins over the Rams and Falcons in the final weeks of the season to finish 3-13.

1994 The Bengals lost their first eight games of the season. With quarterbacks David Klingler and Erik Wilhelm sidelined with injuries, third-string QB Jeff Blake started in Game 8 against two-time defending Super Bowl champion Dallas and nearly pulled off an upset before losing, 23-20. Blake kept his starting role for the rest of the season, passing for 2154 yards and 14 TDs. The Bengals finished 3-13.

1995 The Bengals traded up in the draft's first round for the first time, and selected Penn State RB Ki-Jana Carter with the No. 1 overall pick, obtained from Carolina. Carter suffered a knee injury in the third preseason game and missed his entire rookie season. Nonetheless, the Bengals made a dramatic improvement over the previous four years, going 7-9 with five losses by just three points each. QB Jeff Blake, WR Carl Pickens and PK Doug Pelfrey posted record Bengal seasons, and Blake and Pickens went on to start in the Pro Bowl.

1996 On March 19, Hamilton County voters approved a half-cent sales tax increase to fund two new stadiums, taking a major step to ensure the Bengals' future in Cincinnati. The team lost six of its first seven games, but Cincinnati's fortunes took a U-turn after offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet was promoted to head coach Oct. 21, replacing Dave Shula. Coslet directed the team to a 7-2 finish, including a 5-0 mark at Cinergy Field, and the final 8-8 record was Cincinnati's first .500-or-better season since 1990. The defense set a team record with 34 interceptions, and CB Ashley Ambrose was named a Pro Bowl starter along with WR Carl Pickens, who caught 100 passes to break his own team reception record.

1997 The Bengals and Hamilton County officials reached agreement on a western riverfront site for a new football stadium, and on May 29, team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team through 2026. The team and the county declined to sell naming rights, christening the facility Paul Brown Stadium in honor of the Bengals' founder. The team held training camp in a new complex at Georgetown (Ky.) College, ending its 29-year arrangement at Wilmington (Ohio) College. On the field, the team suffered a 1-7 start but rallied to go 6-2 in the second half and finish 7-9. Rookie HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1129 yards, third-most in club history, and his 246-yard effort vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 broke Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL single-game rookie record. Boomer Esiason started the last five games at QB and posted a 106.9 passer rating for the season.

1998 Demolition work for Paul Brown Stadium began early in the year, and official groundbreaking for the new facility was held April 25. HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1130 yards, third-most in team history, and became the first Bengal to top the 1000-yard rushing mark in each of his first two seasons.

1999 Throughout the year, work continued on Paul Brown Stadium, the team's new, state-of-the-art home on the Cincinnati riverfront. But the final season at Cinergy Field was not a success, as the team endured a 1-10 start before rallying to win three of its last five for a 4-12 finish.

Corey Dillon rushed his way to the Pro Bowl with 1200 yards, second-most in team history. Kickoff returner Tremain Mack also made the Pro Bowl, leading the AFC with a club-record average of 27.1 yards per return.

2000 The Paul Brown Stadium era began on Aug. 19, as the Bengals christened Cincinnati's new football showplace with a 24-20 preseason win over the Chicago Bears. WR Peter Warrick scored the first Bengals points in PBS on a 14-yard end-around run in the first quarter. In the stadium's Grand Opening regular-season game Sept. 10 vs. Cleveland, a Cincinnati sports record crowd of 64,006 turned out, but the Browns won the game, 24-7. Rookie WR Ron Dugans scored the first Bengals regular-season points in PBS on a 4-yard TD pass from Akili Smith. The Bengals drew four other crowds which exceeded the pre-PBS record for a sports crowd in Cincinnati, but the Browns game stood as the new record. On Sept. 25, following an 0-3 start to the season, Bruce Coslet resigned as head coach and was replaced by assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau. The team finished 4-9 under LeBeau, including 4-6 in the final 10 games and a 2-2 mark in the final four. On Dec. 20, LeBeau signed a multi-year contract to begin in 2001. LeBeau's first victory, on Oct. 22 vs. Denver, featured an NFL-record 278 rushing yards by Corey Dillon, who went on to set a Bengals record of 1435 yards for the season, earning his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl.

2001: In his first full season as Bengals head coach, Dick LeBeau fashioned a two-game improvement over the previous season with a 6-10 record. It was the Bengals' most wins since 1997. The team displayed a foundation for the future in a young defense that ranked No. 9 in the NFL, the club's highest rank since 1989. HB Corey Dillon led the offense with 1315 rushing yards, second-most in team history — behind his own 1435 total of the year before — and Dillon moved to within 238 yards of James Brooks for the all-time team rushing lead. Security procedures at Paul Brown Stadium were significantly increased in response to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks, but the full home schedule was played without incident. On Oct. 14, the Bengals re-set their own record for the largest crowd ever at a Cincinnati sports event, as 64,217 fans watched Cincinnati defeat Cleveland, 24-14. Due to the terrorist attacks, the Bengals' Sept. 16 game at Tennessee was postponed, and the season was extended a week to allow postponed games to be played the weekend of Jan. 6 (2002).

2002 The Bengals entered the season with high hopes after an encouraging 2001 finish. But despite some noteworthy individual performances, the team sunk to the worst record (2-14) in franchise history. The team was hit hard by injuries, losing the league's second-highest number of games by starters. The offense got off to a very slow start with free agent signee Gus Frerotte at QB, and Cincinnati was outscored 119-23 in the first four games. The offense perked up noticeably after 2001 starter, Jon Kitna, returned to the No. 1 QB role. For the first time since 1989, Cincinnati had a 3000-yard passer (Kitna), a 1000-yard rusher (Corey Dillon) and a 1000-yard receiver (Chad Johnson). The Bengals set a team record for pass completions (350). But the team was 0-7 before getting a win at Houston. The defense was inconsistent, and with 9 touchdowns allowed on special teams or by the offense, the Bengals as a team allowed the second-most points (456) in club history. On Dec. 30, it was announced that head coach Dick LeBeau would not be retained for 2003.

EARLY 2003 The Bengals launched a new era on Jan. 14, when Marvin Lewis was hired as the ninth head coach in franchise history. Architect of the Baltimore Ravens' record-setting Super Bowl defense in 2000, Lewis received a mandate from ownership to turn the franchise around, and he was given the authority make significant changes. Nine new assistant coaches were hired, and the scouting department was expanded. The Bengals had one of the best free-agent signing periods in club history, and two days before officially making Southern California QB Carson Palmer the first overall pick in the NFL Draft, the club signed Palmer to a contract.

P.B. AND THE HALL OF FAME

Paul Brown, founder of the Cincinnati Bengals, was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and numerous other Hall of Fame members played and/or coached under Brown.

The most recent addition to P.B.'s disciples in the Hall of Fame was Bengals tackle Anthony Munoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history. Munoz, a 1998 inductee, played his entire 13-year pro career (1980-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought he was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Munoz with the No. 3 overall pick.

The 1997 Hall of Fame class included Don Shula, winningest coach in NFL history, who played defensive back in the NFL and was a rookie on Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the 1996 class of inductees. Also, 12 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. They are: Doug Atkins, DE, 1953-54; Jim Brown, FB, 1957-65; Willie Davis, DE, 1958-59; Len Dawson, QB, 1960-61; Len Ford, WR, 1948-58; Frank Gatski, C, 1946-56; Lou Groza, T/PK, 1946-59; Dante Lavelli, WR, 1946-56; Mike McCormack, T, 1954-62; Bobby Mitchell, RB/WR, 1958-61; Marion Motley, FB/LB, 1946-55; and Bill Willis, G, 1946-53.

Former assistant coaches under Paul Brown who are in the Hall of Fame are Weeb Ewbank and Bill Walsh. Also in the Hall of Fame is Forrest Gregg, hired by Brown as Bengals head coach in 1980.

CINCINNATI PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

Cincinnati was home to two other football teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL — then known as the American Professional Football Association — in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in its only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL — that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team called the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's nickname which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears, 17-13, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, 38-0, and tied the Chicago Cardinals, 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and '41, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World War II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later, in 1967, when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modern-era American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati."

Hundreds of names were suggested by fans in an effort to name the new Cincinnati team, the most popular being Buckeyes. It was rejected to avoid confusion with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970.

DOUBLING UP

Twice in Bengals history, a Cincinnati player has managed 100-plus yards both rushing and receiving on the same day. HB Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on 2 receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. He stood alone in the category until Dec. 7, 1986, when HB James Brooks burned the Patriots at New England for 163 yards on 18 rushes and 101 yards on 6 receptions. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents also have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games. On Nov. 23, 1975, Cleveland HB Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on 7 receptions vs. Cincinnati at Cleveland Stadium. On Sept. 22, 1985, San Diego RB Lionel James became the only NFL player to record dual 100s at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field). James had 127 yards on 12 rushes and 118 yards on 5 receptions.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XVI

San Francisco 26, Bengals 21

Jan. 24, 1982, at Pontiac Silverdome (Pontiac, Mich.)

Coach Forrest Gregg's Bengals outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in the game's history the losing team led in yardage. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and Anderson's 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by Joe Montana of the 49ers. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission.

Leading 20-7, the 49ers staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping the Bengals for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with 10:06 left in the fourth quarter, but the 49ers increased their lead to 26-14 on two Ray Wersching field goals before the Bengals crept to within 26-21 on the game's second Anderson-to-Dan Ross TD pass with 16 seconds to play. Dwight Clark's recovery of a Bengals onside kick sealed the victory for San Francisco.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XXIII

San Francisco 20, Bengals 16

Jan. 22, 1989, at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, Fla.)

Commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four games by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard field goal before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD catch came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game.

The Bengals played almost the entire game without All-Pro NT Tim Krumrie, who suffered a severe leg fracture early in the first quarter.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped touchdowns in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati's Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three field goals gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for San Francisco. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

Anthony Munoz puts Bengals stamp on Pro Football Hall of Fame

Anthony Munoz, an athletically gifted giant who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, is the first primary Bengals player to gain entry to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Munoz was inducted, along with four other players, on Aug. 1, 1998, at the Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Munoz chose his son, Michael, as his presenter for the Hall of Fame induction ceremony. Munoz and his wife, DeDe, also have a daughter, Michelle.

1998 was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. Including the 2003 class, only 25 percent of Hall inductees have had the honor of first-ballot election (55 of 221).

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans," said Mike Brown, Bengals president. "It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever, and he has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

Munoz' off-field efforts earned him the NFL's prestigious Man of the Year Award in 1991.

Munoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the third overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Munoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history. He earned All-Pro honors every season from 1981-91.

Munoz played for the Bengals in each of their Super Bowl appearances, as a second-year player in Super Bowl XVI and as a ninth-year veteran in Super Bowl XXIII.

In 1994, he was one of three offensive tackles named to the NFL's official 75th Anniversary Team. He joined his fellow tackles from that 75th Anniversary Team — Forrest Gregg and Roosevelt Brown — in the Hall of Fame.

Munoz' exceptional agility and athleticism is reflected by his entry line in the Bengals' all-time pass receiving statistics. He caught seven passes, playing as a tackle-eligible, and four of those catches were for touchdowns.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is generally considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to gain entry to the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, Calif. His parents also are native Californians, and his grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico.

One other Hall of Fame player, wide receiver Charlie

Joiner, has a Bengals connection. But Joiner played the majority of his NFL career with the San Diego Chargers. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, also is in the Hall of Fame, but was inducted before the Bengals' first season.

The other 1998 Hall of Fame inductees were defensive back Paul Krause, wide receiver Tommy McDonald, center Dwight Stephenson and linebacker Mike Singletary.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT ANTHONY MUNOZ

- Ritter Collett, Dayton Daily News columnist: "Anthony Munoz is one of those rare athletes you wish could go on playing forever. Not just because he may be as fine a tackle as ever played in the NFL. Tackles come and go. Quality human beings who put more back into society than they take out are something else."
- Former Bengals head coach Forrest Gregg, recalling a pre-draft workout in 1980: "I was pass-rushing him. I put a couple of moves on him and thought I had him set up. But he just jammed me with that big right paw, and I landed right on my rear. I didn't need any more. Right then, I knew we would take him in the draft if he was available. He apologized for knocking me down, but I said, 'Son, don't worry. It was a great move.'"
- Jim McNally, Bengals offensive line coach, 1980-94: "The key word is 'athlete.' In the offensive line, you see a lot of guys who are big and strong and fine players, but they're not great athletes. Anthony is a great athlete."
- Joe Walter, Bengals OT, 1985-97: "Anthony played great every Sunday for 13 years. Every Monday, I was in the film room, watching him. It was awesome."

BENGALS LOGOS — THEN & NOW

1967-69 — RUNNING TIGER

The Cincinnati Bengals franchise was founded in 1967, a year before it began play in the modern-era American Football League. For its first logo, the team chose a caricature of a tiger, running with a football under its right arm. Flying off the tiger's head was a white helmet with another tiger's head painted on its side.

The Bengals used this logo while they were members of the AFL through the 1969 season, though the logo never appeared on the team's uniform.

1970-80 — BLOCK-LETTERED HELMET

When the AFL merged with the NFL in 1970 — the same year the Bengals began play in the new Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field) — the team's logo shifted from the running tiger to a representation of the helmet the players had been wearing since the team began play in 1968.

The helmet representation, which like the real helmet was orange with "Bengals" arched across both sides in block letters, remained the team's logo through the 1980 season. The helmet logo, however, used much larger letters for "Bengals" than what actually appeared on the real helmets.

1981-96 — STRIPED HELMET

Prior to the Bengals' 1981 season — the season of their first Super Bowl appearance — the team introduced a bold new uniform which was dramatically different than the relatively conservative uniform it had used since 1968. Perhaps the most eye-catching distinction was the team's new helmet, which was orange with six black tiger stripes extending from one side to the other.

Paul Brown, the Bengals' founder who then held the title of Vice President and General Manager, wanted a helmet that would be instantly identifiable with the Cincinnati franchise, something akin to the Baltimore Colts' horseshoe logo and the San Diego Chargers' lightning bolt logo.

"You can't read 'Bengals' at a distance," Brown said at the time. "When you get far away, it looks like Cleveland's helmet."

With the uniform change, the Bengals' logo changed from a representation of the block-lettered helmet to a representation of the new striped helmet. When it was first introduced, the striped helmet logo was a two-dimensional side view with a two-barred face mask. By the end of the 1980s, the logo evolved into the image pictured here — a three-dimensional angled view with a multi-barred face mask. As a result of the angled view, only five of the six stripes are visible in this striped helmet logo.

1997-PRESENT — LEAPING TIGER

Prior to the 1997 season, the Bengals introduced alterations to their uniforms which were termed "evolutionary, not revolutionary." While the helmet remained unchanged and the general look of the uniform remained intact, the team unveiled a new logo of a leaping tiger which would adorn the sleeves of the uniform's jersey. That new leaping tiger logo replaced the striped helmet as the team's primary logo.

The leaping tiger logo not only enhanced the appearance of the Bengals' uniform, but it also served as an attractive and unique emblem to define team jackets, T-shirts, hats and other apparel as well as collectible items. Until the introduction of the leaping tiger logo, the Bengals were one of only four NFL teams which used a representation of its helmet as its logo, along with the San Diego Chargers, St. Louis Rams and the then-inactive Cleveland Browns.

The leaping tiger logo, still in use today, is an illustration of an aggressive-looking orange tiger with black stripes — similar to those on the Bengals' helmet — and white facial accents. Variations of the Bengals' leaping tiger logo are also widely employed but do not appear on the team's uniform. The leaping tiger's head by itself is considered to be the Bengals' secondary logo, and the full-bodied leaping tiger is often displayed with an arched banner with "Cincinnati Bengals" shown in block letters. In addition, the striped helmet logo is still commonly used.

Paul Brown Stadium holds prime spot among world's honored sports venues

Paul Brown Stadium, which opened in 2000, is no longer among the NFL's newest facilities. But PBS has remained very much in the news.

In an industry rarity, the Bengals' downtown Cincinnati riverfront home was singled out in 2002 by both of the nation's premier architecture magazines. In the Architectural Record and in Architecture, PBS was able to push sports stadiums onto pages usually reserved for the design elite of office buildings, museums and universities.

The Record named PBS as one of the four best stadiums in the world that "help prove traditional architecture needn't be the answer to the problem of how to design sports stadiums that can provide iconic imagery to help revitalize cities."

Both magazines emphasized the skill with which NBBJ, the stadium's Los Angeles-based architecture firm, was able to integrate the open-air stadium design with the city.

In its story on PBS, Architecture noted: "(The stadium) is sliced open at the corners to reveal dramatic views of the (downtown) skyline and the (Ohio) river. Opening the corners of the stadium was both good urban design and good business."

The two stories came on the heels of PBS receiving the 2001 Merit Award from the American Institute of Architects (California Council). It marked the first time for an NFL stadium to receive the award from the prestigious AIA. And in May of 1998, well before its completion, studies of the stadium's design led to its being among 15 winners from a field of more than 300 projects for an American Architecture Award.

"In the best of the new stadiums, the experience of just walking in wakes you up," says Bengals president Mike Brown. "It's exciting just to be there. From day one, we made this a goal for our new stadium. We want it to be the best setting for pro football in the country, and we think our fans agree that it is."

The Bengals have hosted the 11 largest crowds ever to see a sports event in Cincinnati during their first three seasons at PBS, including a record 64,217 on Oct. 14, 2001 vs. Cleveland. That game and a number of others were sellouts for local TV coverage, but attendance has not yet reached the official capacity mark of 65,341 because NFL sellout policy does not include the private suite and club areas. Those seats in PBS are sold only on a season-long basis, and have not yet been sold out for a season.

Before PBS, the largest crowd for a sports event in Cincinnati was 60,284, for a Bengals-Browns game on Oct. 17, 1971 at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field). The largest crowd in Cincinnati history for a sports event other than a Bengals game is 56,393, for Game 5 of the World Series between the Cincinnati Reds and Boston Red Sox at Riverfront Stadium on Oct. 16, 1975.

Named for the Pro Football Hall of Fame legend who founded both the Cleveland Browns and Bengals franchises, Paul Brown Stadium includes 114 private suites and 7800 club seats.

PBS has been a catalyst for Cincinnati's "Rebirth of the Riverfront." It was the first completed project of a major renewal, forming the western bookend of an area now bordered on the east by the Great American Ball Park, the new Reds facility that opened in March 2003. In between will be dramatic park land, new housing, and other attractions headlined by the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, a world-class museum celebrating Cincinnati's role as a transit point for runaway slaves during the mid-1800s.

Bill Koch, sports columnist for The Cincinnati Post, wrote just prior to PBS' opening that the stadium "celebrates its setting."

"From the west side," Koch went on, "you gaze into Price Hill, with Union Terminal off in the distance. From the east, you walk through the club lounge and see the river, the Roebling Suspension Bridge and the downtown skyline. You are not in Anytown, USA. You are unmistakably in Cincinnati."

Though hailed for its futuristic design, the stadium's primary purpose is to serve as a premier venue for watching football. Almost 70 percent of the seats are along the sidelines, positioned for superior sight lines to the field.

In the area of fan amenities, Paul Brown Stadium set new industry standards upon its opening. The list included:

- Two super-sized video boards with state-of-the-art LED technology.
- More than 1200 restroom fixtures — one for every 50 fans, the best ratio in the NFL.
- More than 400 "points of sale" for food and beverages, again the best ratio in the NFL.
- Seats in most areas of 20 inches in width, larger than the industry standard of 19 inches.
- Extra-wide concourses — more than twice as wide as those at Cinergy Field — to help fans visit concession stands and restrooms without crowding.
- A distributed sound system to provide crystal-clear audio for fans seated in all areas of the stadium.
- The NFL's only LED sideline boards, capable of showing video graphics and statistical information.

The stadium also carries a crucial link to the past. In an era when many sports facilities carry corporate names for rights fees, Cincinnati's stadium bears only the name of the late Paul Brown.

"We like the fact that our stadium name honors the tradition of the NFL," said Mike Brown. "Many names now don't have anything to do with the game."

Additional facts and figures on Paul

Brown Stadium:

LOCATION: The stadium site is on the western side of Cincinnati's downtown riverfront. It is bordered by Elm Street on the east, Central Avenue on the west, Pete Rose Way on the north and Mehring Way on the south. The southern border of the stadium is one block from the Ohio River, and plans call for it to be connected to the riverfront with a city park.

DIMENSIONS: The stadium site covers approximately 22 acres, and Paul Brown Stadium itself reaches a height of 157 feet.

PLAYING SURFACE: Heated natural grass.

PRIVATE SUITES: Each of the 114 suites features retractable glass windows, allowing fans the option to watch in climate-controlled comfort or to bring in the outdoor experience. Suite holders can enjoy premium parking, an exclusive entrance, specialized catering, personalized concierge service and elegant interior designs. Suites include 12 spacious fixed stadium seats and four elevated seats at a drink rail with a view of the field.

CLUB SEATING: Club patrons enjoy extra-wide, padded seats at the prime football viewing level, with in-seat food and beverage service. Patrons also have access to the Club Level Lounges, featuring fine dining as well as prime views of the downtown skyline or riverfront.

PAUL BROWN

Paul Brown Stadium honors not only the founder and first coach of the Bengals, but a man who was also one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .665 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State University to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in Major League Baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

SO LONG RIVERFRONT STADIUM/CINERGY FIELD

A big part of Bengals history came crashing down — literally — on December 29, 2002, when Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field was imploded. The implosion, which attracted thousands of spectators to downtown Cincinnati and across the Ohio River in Northern Kentucky, began at 8:00 a.m. and lasted 37 seconds.

The Bengals played their home games at Riverfront/Cinergy from 1970 through '99. The stadium was called Riverfront Stadium from 1970-95 and then was renamed Cinergy Field in '96.

— GAME DAYS —

CREDENTIALS FOR HOME GAMES: To receive a media credential for a Bengals game, one must be a member of an accredited news organization with a legitimate working function that requires access to the stadium. No one under 18 years old may use a credential. Interns of news organizations are not permitted to use credentials (unless prior clearance from the Bengals' public relations department is sought and granted). Media are not permitted to have guests of any kind (executives, sponsors, advertisers, friends, family, etc.) in secured areas of the stadium (in the press box/booth area, on the field, in the locker rooms, etc.) at any time. Credential privileges can and will be revoked if any of these or the following policies are not honored. Credential use is monitored. All credential requests should be made in writing on company letterhead by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals public relations director Jack Brennan. All requests should be faxed (513-621-3570) by 5 p.m. on the Mondays preceding the games. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Also note whether you wish to have the credentials mailed or left at will call. All credentials are non-transferable.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE: Will call is located on the plaza on north side of the stadium (the downtown side) between Gates B and C. All media must enter Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium. Media will not be admitted through any other entrance. Gate B opens five hours prior to kickoff (at 8 a.m. for a 1 p.m. game). In order to enter the stadium, each reporter or photographer must meet the following three conditions (if any of the three conditions are not met, he/she will not be permitted to enter the stadium): (1) He/she must have the proper credential; (2) he/she must present a photo ID (i.e., driver's license); and (3) His/her name must be on the media list (names should be provided to the Bengals' public relations department by your sports editor/director prior to each home game). All equipment and baggage is subject to visual search.

PRESS BOX/BOOTH: Option No. 1: Enter Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Take the escalator just inside the gate entrance. The escalator terminates one level above the press box. Take a right at the end of the escalator, and descend one flight of stairs and turn right. The press box will be straight ahead inside the glass doors. Option No. 2: Enter Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to CS (Club Suite) Level. The press box is adjacent to the elevators.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' WORK AREA: Enter Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to FL (Field Level). Turn right into the hallway. Turn left at the southwest truck dock. The arm-band check-in table (photographers must sign an injury waiver form to receive an arm band, which is necessary for field access) will be on the left. The photographers' work area is just inside the door behind the arm-band check-in table.

TELEPHONES IN THE PRESS BOX: In most cases, it is not necessary to order individual telephone lines for games. There are more than two dozen general-use telephones (analog only) located throughout the press box seating area. They provide free local calls, but require an 800 number for long distance service. In addition, four general-use telephones are located in the work room behind the third row of the press box. If a dedicated telephone line in the press box is necessary, please contact Bengals assistant public relations director P.J. Combs at (513) 621-3550 no later than 5 p.m. on the Tuesday before the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS/LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: For media with locker room access, the locker rooms are opened for interviews with players and coaches within 12 minutes after the conclusion of a game. Both the Bengals' locker room and the visitors' locker room have news conference rooms for the head coaches' postgame news conferences and any star players' postgame news conferences. Both news conference rooms include built-in multi-box systems for television and radio reporters, as well as proper lighting and audio amplification. Television reporters should set up tripods in the rear of the news conference rooms to reduce congestion around the podium. Since both news conference rooms have direct-access entrances separate from the locker rooms, TV/radio media can access the rooms anytime before a game to set up equipment for use after the game.

WALKING DIRECTIONS FROM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: To depart press box after game, take an elevator or the stairs to sideline level (SL). Turn right out of elevator lobby and exit through any "exit" gate, which are to the left of the entrance gates.

CREDENTIALS FOR AWAY GAMES: Place all requests to the attention of Bengals public relations director Jack Brennan. All requests should be faxed (513-621-3570) no later than 10 days before the game. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Media from outside the Greater Cincinnati region should submit requests to the home team.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR AWAY GAMES: Place all requests to Bengals business manager Bill Connelly (513-621-3550 phone; 513-621-3570 fax) no later than 5 p.m. on the Tuesdays before the games. Please note the types of accommodations required.

— DURING THE WEEK —

— BENGALS PRESEASON TELEVISION —

Paul Keels and Anthony Munoz will team up again in the broadcast booth for this season's games on the Bengals Preseason TV Network. Keels will do play-by-play, with Munoz as the analyst.

For the 15th time in the past 16 years, Cincinnati's WKRC-TV (Channel 12) will be the flagship station of the network. Also on the network are WDTN-TV (Channel 2) in Dayton, Ohio; WBNS-TV (Channel 10) and WWHO-TV (Channel 53) in Columbus, Ohio; WDRB-TV (Channel 41) and WFTE-TV (Channel 58) in Louisville, Ky.; WTVQ-TV (Channel 36) in Lexington, Ky.; and WSAZ-TV (Channel 3) in Huntington, W.Va.

Keels, a Cincinnati native, is also currently the voice of the Ohio State Buckeyes for football and basketball. He was the University of Cincinnati's primary football and basketball broadcaster over a period from 1989-98, and was the Bengals' play-by-play voice on radio in '96. Munoz, Bengals' Hall of Fame offensive tackle, will be in his sixth season as preseason analyst.

— BENGALS WEEKLY TV SHOW —

The Bengals produce a weekly television show — Bengals Weekly with Marvin Lewis — that will air every Sunday morning during the 2003 NFL regular season at 11:30 A.M. on WKRC-TV (Channel 12) in Cincinnati and WDTN-TV (Channel 2) in Dayton. The show will also air (on an alternate schedule) in Louisville on WDRB-TV (Channel 41) and WFTE-TV (Channel 58); in Lexington on WTVQ-TV (Channel 36); and in Huntington on WSAZ-TV (Channel 3).

— BENGALS RADIO NETWORK —

Bengals games will be aired this season on three Clear Channel flagship radio stations in the Cincinnati market. All games will be carried by All Sports 1360 Homer (WCKY-AM) and 92.5 The Fox (WOFX-FM). Also, once the Major League Baseball season is over, games will also be aired on 700 WLW-AM. The Bengals Radio Network includes stations across Ohio as well as in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Brad Johansen, former play-by-play voice on Bengals preseason television, returns for his fourth season on radio play-by-play. Johansen is sports anchor for Cincinnati's WKRC-TV (CBS/Channel 12).

Dave Lapham, a Bengals offensive lineman from 1974-83, is in his 18th consecutive season as the analyst on Bengals radio broadcasts. He also works as an analyst for college games on TV's Fox network.

Bengals in the Community

Reaching Out to Help Others

The Cincinnati Bengals organization is committed to improving lives in Greater Cincinnati.

Bengals players, coaches and staff acknowledge their unique public role and are devoted to working with charities, schools and civic groups to make positive contributions throughout the area. The Bengals welcome the opportunity to give back to a community that has unconditionally supported the team for more than 30 years.

Non-profit organizations throughout Greater Cincinnati look to the Bengals for assistance. Beneficiaries receive everything from money, food, and clothing, to something as simple as a smile brought about by a visit from a player.

Bengals Brandon Bennett (left) and Artrell Hawkins were happy to "dig in" and help with the landscaping at Hope Academy in Mt. Healthy as part of the United Way Hometown Huddle last October.

Community involvement takes many forms. The Bengals sponsor special fund-raising events, make donations of cash and memorabilia to many charitable organizations, make personal appearances, and serve on various community boards and commissions.

Mike Brown, team president and son of Bengals founder Paul Brown, continues his father's legacy of giving back to the community. Within the last year, the Brown family has contributed thousands of dollars to local projects and charities. Examples of their generosity include: a $50,000 contribution for stadium lighting and scoreboards for each of two local high schools; $25,000 contributions for two local youth football fields; and a $250,000 contribution to the City of Cincinnati for riverfront development. In addition, the Brown family, along with many of the team's players, donated tens of thousands of dollars to support the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, a museum and learning center dedicated to preserving the American struggle to abolish slavery. The Freedom Center will be located along the banks of the Ohio River between Paul Brown Stadium and Great American Ball Park, home of the Cincinnati Reds.

Head coach Marvin Lewis has quickly adopted the team's attitude towards philanthropic activity. Within four months of his arrival on January 14, Lewis attended approximately 40 local events and fund-raisers. Attending these types of events is nothing new for coach Lewis. He has made a positive impact in all of the communities in which he has coached. While in Baltimore, Lewis was involved in numerous philanthropic endeavors benefiting groups such as the American Red Cross and the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Baltimore.

In only a few short months in Cincinnati, Lewis has assisted the United Way, Special Olympics, and the Dream Factory of Southwest Ohio. He hosted the Cincinnatians of the Year Gala benefiting juvenile diabetes research. Through all of his speaking engagements it is estimated that Lewis has spoken to over 7,000 children of all races, genders, and socioeconomic backgrounds.

Lewis expects similar involvement in the community from his players and others in the organization. The 30-year partnership between the NFL and the United Way of America facilitates numerous opportunities for community involvement. Each fall, the Bengals participate in a national day of service titled "Hometown Huddle." Last fall, Levi Jones, Oliver Gibson, Brandon Bennett, Danny Farmer, Artrell Hawkins and other players worked on landscaping, painting, and even dressed in oven mitts and aprons. The front office does their part as well. Katie Brown Blackburn (executive vice president) and Jeff Berding (director of sales and public affairs) dedicate time to take leadership positions in the local United Way chapter.

Many Bengals players have their own foundations dedicated to improving the community. Willie Anderson was nominated for the 2002 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award. His foundation is dedicated to helping children at the Cincinnati Children's Hospital, the Boys and Girls Club, and Little League Football. Other players with foundations include Corey Dillon, Oliver Gibson, Jon Kitna and Peter Warrick.

Other teams programs:

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD – A league-wide volunteer recognition program that will donate nearly $1 million. The 10 Bengals finalists each receive donations of $1,000 for their respective charity. The winner of the Community Quarterback Award receives a $10,000 grant donated in his/her name; the two runners-up each receive $2,500.

COACH OF THE WEEK – A league-wide program designed to give the recognition that high school football coaches deserve for molding the lives of young adults. Each winner's school receives a $1,000 donation to the school's football program.

PLAY IT SMART – A program designed to use football as a tool for enhancing personal and academic development for youth at two economically disadvantaged high schools. Team representatives visit the chosen schools to coach, teach, and mentor student-athletes to help each individual reach their full potential.

CINCINNATI BENGALS TASTE OF THE NFL – Bengals players, coaches and alumni join with benefactors of the FreeStore/FoodBank of Cincinnati while dining on samples from Cincinnati's finest restaurants. The Bengals' first-ever Taste of the NFL (held June 10, 2003) raised $60,000, enabling the FreeStore/FoodBank to purchase 240,000 meals for hungry people in the Tri-State. The Bengals also team up with the FreeStore/FoodBank to collect canned and other non-perishable foods for the Annual Holiday Canned Food Drive.

HOXWORTH BLOOD DRIVE – Bengals players, alumni and cheerleaders were present at Paul Brown Stadium to help the Hoxworth Blood Center collect donations before the busy holiday season.

TOYS FOR TOTS – The Bengals and the U.S. Marine Corps team up at Paul Brown Stadium to collect Christmas toys for disadvantaged local youth.

ONE FOR THE COMMUNITY – JoJuan Armour served as the 2002 spokesman for an annual fund-raising campaign that benefits schools and other non-profit organizations. Commercials on TV and in print, along with events held at Paul Brown Stadium, helped organizations raise over $1 million.

TRAINING CAMP GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

Bengals players report July 27 to training camp at Georgetown (Ky.) College, with the first practice scheduled for the following day.

The training camp facility, officially known as the East Campus Athletic Complex, is one of the finest in use by an NFL team. Athletic Management, a national sports management magazine, recognized the complex by awarding it with its 1998 "Excellence in Outdoor Facilities" award.

The Bengals moved their training camp to Georgetown in 1997 after 29 seasons of training at Wilmington (Ohio) College. Georgetown's commitment to meet state-of-the-art standards has brought unprecedented media attention to training camp and has helped the Bengals develop their Central Kentucky fan base.

"There isn't a team in the league that wouldn't like to have its training camp in a facility like this one," said Bengals president Mike Brown.

The centerpiece of the complex is Rawlings Stadium, which offers permanent stands for 5,000 and is built in a bowl shape that can accommodate seating for up to 20,000 fans. The stadium is designed to provide fans with a festival-like atmosphere, concessions, merchandise, interactive pavilion areas and promotional activities developed by corporate sponsors. For the team, it features locker rooms and showers, weight and aerobic rooms, training facilities, a press box and guest booths, as well as a field with an advanced playing surface — SportGrass, a combination of both natural grass and synthetic materials.

The facility, located about a one-hour drive south from downtown Cincinnati, also includes a conference center used for coaches' classroom instruction and meals, two additional full-size practice fields, apartment-style resident quads for player housing and executive guest townhouses. The complex joins the college's already existing tennis courts, soccer field and baseball field.

The Bengals will have an expanded, two-day format for training camp's major fan events this season. The full-contact scrimmage, traditionally held on a Saturday afternoon, will be on Friday night, Aug. 1, at 6:30 p.m. On Saturday, Aug. 2, at 1 p.m., the team will stage the Orange-Black Mock Game, which coach Marvin Lewis has described as "essentially a live game, but without tackling."

All training camp practices and events are open free to the public. There is a charge for on-campus parking.

TRAINING CAMP DATES: July 27 - August 21.

DIRECTIONS: From downtown Cincinnati, take I-75 South approximately 70 miles to exit 126. Turn right off ramp onto U.S. 460 West. Stay on this main thoroughfare for approximately two miles and turn right at the traffic light for Lemons Mill Rd. (Route 1962 West). Go about one-half mile and look for the large Bengals sign and driveway to the complex on the right.
