GENERAL INFO/STAFF

AUSTIN E. KNOWLTON — Chairman of the Board

Austin E. Knowlton is Chairman of the Board of the Cincinnati Bengals, and has been a firm supporter since the franchise's inception.

Knowlton, a well-known builder and sportsman, has been a founder, owner and director since the franchise began, and often can be found watching his team play at some of the farthest way stops on the NFL map, in addition to his regular attendance at games at Cinergy Field.

Knowlton's avid interest in sports has not been limited to the Bengals. During the glorious days of the '70s, he was the largest shareholder in the Cincinnati Reds. He is also a trustee of the Brown Jug Society, which runs the Triple Crown for standardbred pacing horses.

After receiving a degree in architecture and civil engineering from Ohio State University, Knowlton joined his father's construction company and later assumed ownership of the construction business, operating it under the name of Knowlton Construction Company.

In 1995, the Board of Trustees of Ohio State University conferred upon Mr. Knowlton a Doctorate of Architecture.

During the expansion of the state college program, he designed, built and financed 54 college dormitories and other buildings for various colleges and universities in several states. He built the major portion of Ohio University and Bowling Green State University, and many college buildings at Ohio State University, Miami University, Capital University, Otterbein College and numerous other schools and universities.

His office is located in Dublin, Ohio, and he resides at Emerald Farms in Delaware County, Ohio.

MIKE BROWN — President & General Manager

Mike Brown is in daily charge of the Bengals franchise. He works closely with the team's coaches and administrative staff, leading the effort to keep the club thriving as a football-only, family-owned enterprise.

While maintaining his input on the operation of the team itself, Brown has been deeply involved throughout this decade in an effort to secure the franchise's future in Cincinnati. He helped form a broad coalition of Hamilton County interests to work for the March, 1996 passage of public funding for stadiums and downtown redevelopment. Voters approved by a margin of 61 to 39 percent, and on May 29, 1997, Brown and county leaders signed a lease for the construction and team occupancy of Paul Brown Stadium. Groundbreaking at the downtown Cincinnati riverfront site was held April 25 of this year, and the stadium is due for completion for the 2000 NFL season.

A former Dartmouth quarterback, Brown was instrumental in bringing the NFL to Cincinnati. He worked with his father, football legend Paul Brown, to close the deal which brought Cincinnati a pro franchise for the 1968 season. Mike Brown's efforts with civic leaders also made a reality of construction plans for Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field), which opened in 1970.

From the Bengals' inception until August of 1991, Brown was assistant general manager, supervising the team's day-to-day operations. He assumed the role of general manager after his father's death on Aug. 5, 1991. He played a major role in the building of the Bengals teams which reached the Super Bowl following the 1981 and 1988 seasons.

Since 1994, Brown has been a member of the NFL's Competition Committee, the primary body for analysis and consideration of rules changes. He also is a longtime member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee.

Mike and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Katherine Brown Blackburn, and a son, Paul H. Brown. Katie is the team's general counsel/corporate secretary, and Paul works with scouting and personnel as well as joining Katie on the team's Board of Directors.

JOHN SAWYER — Vice President

John Sawyer was one of the founders of the Bengals. He joined Paul Brown and Mike Brown in representing Cincinnati during the city's bid to gain the franchise, logging much hard work and travel. He played a part in the 1970 NFL-AFL realignment plan, which created the Bengals' divisional home, the AFC Central.

He does not play a daily role in management of the Bengals, but has long been one of the Brown family's key advisors, and he rarely misses a game at home or on the road.

He is president of the J. Sawyer Company, a multi-faceted agricultural and real estate firm. He recently formed and is chairman of Sawyer Industries, Inc., a national company marketing Boomer's Heroes BBQ Sauce, raising money to help find a cure for Cystic Fibrosis.

Sawyer was a B-17 pilot in World War II, and was a pioneer in the aerial application of crop pesticides. In 1983, he was inducted into the Ohio Agricultural Hall of Fame.

John and his wife, Ruth, have been instrumental in the creation and development of The Ensemble Theatre of Cincinnati, and both serve on the board of directors. He is a past president of Easter Seals, and a member of the board of trustees of Children's Hospital.

He's also active with Springer School, the Boy Scouts and the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio.

Sawyer is a graduate of Princeton University, and is the son of the late Charles Sawyer, former U.S. Secretary of Commerce. John and Ruth live in Indian Hill, and have four daughters — Anne Wetherill, Elizabeth Selnick, Catherine Ryall and Mary Stephens. They enjoy 12 grandchildren — John Putnam, Meredith, Daniel and Matthew Wetherill; William III and Anna Selnick; Nicholas, Christina, Jonathan and Patrick Ryall; and Robert IV and Charles Stephens.

PETE BROWN — Assistant GM; Dir. of Player Personnel

Pete Brown is the architect of the Bengals' annual draft of college players. He supervises the year-round effort to prepare for the team's most important source of player talent.

Brown keeps tabs on the efforts of the Bengals' scouting staff from his Spinney Field office, and scouts players himself when time allows. In the 1980s, his draft selections led the team to two Super Bowls.

He added the role of assistant general manager in August, 1991. Brown is also among the club's owners, and is a member of the Board of Directors.

A graduate of Denison University, Brown is the son of football legend Paul Brown and the brother of Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager.

KATHERINE BLACKBURN — Gen. Counsel/Corporate Sec'y

Katie Blackburn joined the Bengals in October, 1991, following her graduation from the University of Cincinnati law school and a period of practicing law with the Cincinnati firm of Taft, Stettinius and Hollister.

Her role in the management of club affairs has grown steadily, and she works daily with Bengals president and general manager Mike Brown as a key executive in all of the club's day-to-day business. She played a significant role in lease negotiations for the new Paul Brown Stadium, which were concluded May 29, 1997, and she oversees the complex assignment of maximizing the team's player acquisition opportunities under the NFL salary cap system.

She personally handles many high-profile contract negotiations, and also supervises the team's radio and television networks.

Named in March of 1996 to the board of the United Way & Community Chest, she is active in events supporting the United Way and will serve on the board at least through 1999.

Katie is the daughter of Mike Brown. She received her bachelor's degree from Dartmouth.

Katie's husband, Troy, also has practiced law for the Taft firm, and in 1996, Troy joined the Bengals as Director of Stadium Development. The Blackburns have two daughters, Elizabeth, 5½, and Caroline, 3.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

In Games 12-15 of the 1997 season, the Bengals became the first Cincinnati team to score 30 or more points in four straight games.

Cincinnati scored 31 vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 23, posted 42 at Philadelphia on Nov. 30, scored 41 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 and notched 31 vs. Dallas on Dec. 14.

PAUL H. BROWN — Asst. Sec'y/Treas.; Scouting/Player Personnel

Paul Brown enters his sixth full season in the Bengals' front office in 1998. His primary responsibilities are evaluating college talent and negotiating player contracts.

Brown works closely with Pete Brown in the team's scouting efforts in preparation for the NFL draft each April. He visits colleges to work out potential Bengal players, travels to numerous college games to survey football skill, and attends the NFL combine to assess future pro talent. He also handles contract negotiations with prominent free agents as well as draft choices.

Brown, a graduate of Purcell Marian HS in Cincinnati and Regis University in Denver, Colo., has been close to pro football his entire life. His father, Mike Brown, is currently the Bengals' president and general manager. His grandfather, Paul E. Brown, founded the Bengals in 1967 and doubled as the team's first head coach (1968-75) and its first general manager (1968-91).

TROY BLACKBURN — Director of Stadium Development

Troy Blackburn joined the Bengals in May of 1996 to coordinate planning and construction of the new football stadium approved in March of that year by Hamilton County voters.

Blackburn worked with architects to create plans for a cutting-edge NFL facility, then joined key Bengals advisors in lease negotiations with Hamilton County. That complex task was completed on May 29, 1997, when team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team to the new Paul Brown Stadium until the year 2026.

Blackburn now is working daily to oversee the actual construction, which is to be completed in time for the 2000 NFL season. Groundbreaking at the downtown Cincinnati riverfront site was held April 25 of this year.

He also has played a lead role in negotiating the Bengals' transfer of their training camp to Georgetown (Ky.) College. The Bengals will hold their second training camp at Georgetown in 1998.

A Cincinnati native, Blackburn attended St. Xavier HS. He graduated from Duke University in 1989, and from the University of Cincinnati law school in 1992. From 1992 until joining the Bengals, he practiced law for the Cincinnati firm of Taft, Stettinius & Hollister.

Blackburn's wife, Katie, is the Bengals' general counsel and corporate secretary. The couple has two daughters, Elizabeth, 5½, and Caroline, 3.

PERFECT IN CRUNCH TIME

Former Bengal Jim Breech never missed a field goal attempt in overtime. He provided the winning kick nine times in OT, more than any kicker in NFL history.

"In that type of situation (overtime), your adrenaline is pumping so much that you just want to make sure not to overkick the ball," Breech said. "The key is to be real deliberate on that first step to just gather everything together."

Anthony Munoz Puts Bengals Stamp On Pro Football's Hall of Fame

Anthony Munoz, an athletically gifted giant who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, this year becomes the first primary Bengals player to gain entry to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Munoz' election was announced Jan. 24, and his induction, along with four other players in the 1998 class, was set for Aug. 1 at the Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

This year's other inductees are defensive back Paul Krause, wide receiver Tommy McDonald, center Dwight Stephenson and linebacker Mike Singletary.

Munoz chose his son, Michael, 16, as his presenter for the Hall of Fame induction ceremony. Munoz and his wife, DeDe, have been married for 20 years, and also have a daughter, Michelle, 15.

This was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. Entering this year, only 24 percent of Hall inductees had the honor of first-ballot election (46-of-189).

"This is very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans," said Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager. "It's particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever, and he has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

Munoz' off-field efforts earned him the NFL's prestigious Man of the Year Award in 1991.

Munoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the 3rd overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Munoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. Among all NFL players, only Reggie White has been selected to more Pro Bowls (12) since the game took its current form in 1970.

Munoz played for the Bengals in each of their Super Bowl appearances, as a second-year player in Super Bowl XVI and as a ninth-year veteran in Super Bowl XXIII. In 1994, he was one of three offensive tackles named to the NFL's official 75th Anniversary Team. He now joins his fellow tackles from that 75th Anniversary Team — Forrest Gregg and Roosevelt Brown — in the Hall of Fame.

Munoz' exceptional agility and athleticism is reflected by his entry line in the Bengals' all-time pass receiving statistics. He caught seven passes, playing as a tackle-eligible, and four of those catches were for touchdowns.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is generally considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to gain entry to the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, Calif. His parents also are native Californians, and his grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico.

One other Hall of Fame player, WR Charlie Joiner, has a Bengals connection. But Joiner played the bulk of his NFL career with San Diego. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, also is in the Hall of Fame, but was inducted before the Bengals' first season.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT ANTHONY MUNOZ

- Ritter Collett, Dayton Daily News columnist: "Anthony Munoz is one of those rare athletes you wish could go on playing forever. Not just because he may be as fine a tackle as ever played in the NFL. Tackles come and go. Quality human beings who put more back into society than they take out are something else."
- Former Bengals head coach Forrest Gregg, recalling a pre-draft workout in 1980: "I was pass-rushing him. I put a couple of moves on him and thought I had him set up. But he just jammed me with that big right paw, and I landed right on my rear. I didn't need any more. Right then, I knew we would take him in the draft if he was available. He apologized for knocking me down, but I said, 'Son, don't worry. It was a great move.'"
- Jim McNally, Bengals offensive line coach, 1980-94: "The key word is 'athlete.' In the offensive line, you see a lot of guys who are big and strong and fine players, but they're not great athletes. Anthony is a great athlete."
- Joe Walter, Bengals OT, 1985-97: "No plays stand out. Anthony played great every Sunday for 13 years. Every Monday, I was in the film room, watching him. It was awesome."

REBIRTH OF THE RIVERFRONT

Construction Begins on Paul Brown Stadium

During the 1998 NFL season, football-related action in downtown Cincinnati will not be limited to Sunday afternoons at Cinergy Field. Fans will see a beehive of activity just west of Cinergy throughout the summer and fall as construction moves ahead for Paul Brown Stadium, the Bengals' new home for the 2000 season and beyond.

Already the winner of a major architectural award, Paul Brown Stadium is the first step in Cincinnati's "Rebirth of the Riverfront," a wide-ranging civic plan to revitalize the downtown area. Demolition work to clear the stadium site began in early 1998, and the official groundbreaking was held April 25 in a ceremony attended by Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager, and more than 3,000 fans.

A distinguished architectural panel has recognized the stadium's potential from studies of its design. In early May, Paul Brown Stadium was one of 15 projects selected for a 1998 American Architecture Award. There were more than 300 entries, from both the United States and abroad, and Paul Brown Stadium was the only stadium among the winners. Other winners included the Sendai (Japan) International Airport, the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark and the IBM corporate headquarters in Armonk, N.Y. The competition was sponsored by the Museum of Architecture and Design of the Chicago Athenaeum.

"This award is a strong affirmation that the project is on the right path," said Troy Blackburn, Bengals director of stadium development. "It confirms in spades that spending a little bit of time and getting it done right is going to bring some acclaim."

The Bengals and Hamilton County officials worked with designing architects NBBJ Sports & Entertainment of Los Angeles to create a futuristic design with metal and textured fabric canopies to cover portions of the upper seating area. The stadium will break new ground with its superior sight lines from the seating areas. Approximately 70 percent of the seats will be along the sidelines, and the stadium's open-ended design will allow

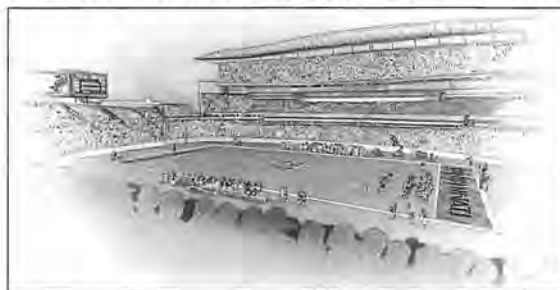

"We will have an incredibly changed skyline and 'front porch' to the city when this project is completed," said Bob Bedinghaus, Hamilton County Commissioner. "Paul Brown Stadium will be a catalyst for other exciting riverfront developments, and it will be a facility so spectacular that it will positively stun Bengals fans."

for stunning views of the downtown skyline and the riverfront.

"We didn't want to just march down the path of other cities and do what everyone else did," said Bedinghaus. "We set out to design a state-of-the-art stadium, one that other cities would be copying in years to come, and I believe we've done that."

Dan Meis, NBBJ's principal designer for the stadium, has said that comparing traditional, bowl-shaped football stadiums to the new Bengals facility is like comparing a dump truck to a Ferrari. "You'd have no doubt which one is the fast one," Meis said.

The new stadium, however, also carries a crucial link to the past. In an era when many new stadiums and arenas carry corporate names in payment for naming rights fees, the new Cincinnati stadium will bear the name of the late Paul Brown, the pro football Hall of Famer who capped an already glorious career by bringing pro football to Cincinnati in 1968 as Bengals founder, general manager and head coach.

"With so many stadiums being named for enterprises that don't have anything to do with the game, we decided it was time to make a statement," said Mike Brown. "This honors the tradition of our game, and I remember how my father never made a speech or endorsed a product for money. He did that for a principle, and we stood up for a principle by having the stadium reflect his name and the tradition he represents."

Additional facts and figures on Paul Brown Stadium:

LOCATION: The stadium site is approximately five blocks west of the current Cinergy Field. It will be bordered by Pete Rose Way on the north, Mehring Way on the south, Elm Street on the east and Central Avenue on the west. The southern border of the stadium will be one block from the Ohio River, and will be connected to the riverfront with a public park.

DIMENSIONS: The stadium site covers approximately 22 acres, and the stadium itself will reach a height of 11 stories.

SEATING CAPACITY: The stadium will have 65,500 seats — all with unobstructed views — on three levels, with 7,600 club seats and 114 private suites.

PLAYING SURFACE: Heated natural grass.

PRIVATE SUITES: Each of the 114 suites will offer premium parking, an exclusive entrance, specialized catering, personalized concierge service and elegant interior designs. Suites include 12 spacious fixed stadium seats, four elevated seats at a drink rail overlooking the field, and fully retractable windows.

CLUB SEATING: Club patrons will enjoy extra-wide, padded seats at the prime football viewing level with in-seat food and beverage service, and will have access to the Club Level Lounges featuring fine dining as well as stunning views of the downtown skyline or riverfront.

OTHER AMENITIES: The stadium also will feature extra-wide concourses for fan convenience, two scoreboards with video screens, a state-of-the-art distributed sound system, ultra-convenient restroom access for men and women, and concession service ranging from traditional stadium fare to a wide range of new food options.

OFFICES/PRACTICE FACILITY: All Bengals offices will be located inside the stadium, and a practice facility, including three full-size fields, will be constructed immediately west of the stadium.

PAUL BROWN

Paul Brown Stadium will honor not only the founder and first coach of the Bengals, but a man who was one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .660 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in major league baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

TRAINING CAMP — GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

Bengals players report July 23 to training camp at Georgetown College in Georgetown, Ky. The training camp facility is one of the finest in use by an NFL team, and it has been recognized for a major award by a national sports management magazine.

Athletic Management, published in Ithaca, N.Y., selected the facility, officially known as the East Campus Athletic Complex, for its 1998 "Excellence in Outdoor Facilities" award.

The Bengals moved their training camp to Georgetown in 1997 after 29 seasons of training at Wilmington (Ohio) College. Georgetown's commitment to meet state-of-the-art standards brought unprecedented media attention to training camp and helped the Bengals develop their Central Kentucky fan base.

But due to a tight construction schedule, work crews still were stirring up some dust during last year's camp as they completed landscaping and fencing work. This season, players and fans will see the facility in a state of full polish.

"There isn't a team in the league that wouldn't like to have its training camp in a facility like this one," said Bengals president and general manager Mike Brown. "The reaction of our players was dramatic, particularly in regard to how much they appreciated the improved housing as compared to past camps. We're all looking forward to our second year in Georgetown."

The centerpiece of the complex is Rawlings Stadium/Applebees Field, which offers permanent stands for 5,000 and is built in a bowl shape that can accommodate seating for up to 20,000 fans. The stadium is designed to provide fans with a festival-like atmosphere, concessions, merchandise, interactive pavilion areas and promotional activities developed by corporate sponsors. For the team, it houses locker rooms and showers, weight and aerobic rooms, training facilities, a press box and guest booths.

Applebees Field has the newest advancement in playing surfaces: SportGrass, a combination of both natural grass and synthetic materials. SportGrass consists of three levels of materials — a natural sand base, a middle level of loosely woven artificial turf and a layer of natural grass on top. The natural grass is able to root itself into and become embedded in the loose synthetic turf, making a surface which is safer and softer than artificial turf and easier to maintain than natural grass.

The training camp complex, located about a one-hour drive south from downtown Cincinnati, also includes a conference center used for coaches' classroom instruction and meals, two additional full-size practice fields, apartment-style resident quads for player housing and executive guest townhouses.

The new complex joins the already existing tennis courts, soccer field and Robert N. Wilson baseball field.

Major sponsors for 1998 training camp are: Applebees/Rio Bravo Cantina; Georgetown Community Hospital; Toyota Motor Manufacturing, NA; Coca-Cola; Bank One; Kentucky Utilities; BellSouth Mobility/BellSouth; Papa John's; Rawlings.

TRAINING CAMP DATES: July 23 - August 17 (first practice on July 24).

DIRECTIONS: From downtown Cincinnati, take I-75 South approximately 70 miles to exit 126. Turn right off ramp onto U.S. 460 West. Go through four traffic lights; turn right at the fifth traffic light onto Lemons Mill Rd. (Route 1962 West). Go about one-half mile and look for the large Bengals sign and driveway to the complex on the right.

BENGALS COACHING STAFF

BRUCE COSLET — Head Coach

Bruce Coslet, charged in mid-season 1996 with the task of rebuilding the Bengals, has accomplished Step One of the process. The team has been a winner under his direction, posting a 14-11 record after enduring losing seasons from 1991 through 1995, as well as during 1996 prior to his appointment as head coach.

Coslet's .560 winning percentage, in fact, is the best of any head coach in club history, topping the .557 mark compiled by Forrest Gregg (34-27) from 1980-83. At Cinergy Field, where Coslet aims to rekindle the spirit of "The Jungle," his teams have posted an 11-2 record (.846 winning percentage).

"Bruce has done an excellent job of leading our team back in the right direction," says Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager. "He brings a sense of discipline, a drive and an attitude to the players. He's demanding, as a head coach should be, and the players respect both his knowledge and the fact that he played in this league for eight years himself (1969-76)."

Step Two in Coslet's plan is leading the Bengals back to the playoffs for the first time since 1990.

His team had a strong finish for the second straight year in 1997, playing like a club that could have made noise in the postseason. Cincinnati went 6-2 in the second half of the campaign, including an unbeaten month of December for the first time since 1984, and finished the season ranked 9th in the NFL in scoring (22.2) and 10th in net offense (322.1 yards).

But the Bengals were unable to overcome a poor start, and finished out of the playoffs at 7-9 overall.

"I'm proud of the way we finished," Coslet said, "but everyone on our team has to re-evaluate the way we prepare for a season and come back with a different kind of resolve in 1998."

Coslet's standing with the players will be a key element in producing that resolve.

"Bruce is a guy who expects you to work hard for him," says wide receiver Carl Pickens. "And if you work hard for him, he's going to reward you."

"We respect Bruce because he's a real person," says quarterback Jeff Blake. "He'll tell you what's up, whether it's good or bad. He's not a phony."

Mike Brown calls Coslet "a true member of the Bengals family." The coach has deep roots in the organization, and learned the pro game from Hall of Famers such as Bengals founder Paul Brown and former Bengals assistant coach Bill Walsh.

During his eight seasons as a Bengals tight end, Coslet earned a reputation for toughness and competitiveness while catching 61 passes for 878 yards and 9 touchdowns. A native of Oakdale, Calif., he began his coaching career with the San Francisco 49ers in 1980, but moved the following year to the Bengals, where he would spend the next nine seasons.

He was special teams and tight ends coach from 1981-83, wide receivers coach in 1984-85, and was offensive coordinator from 1986-89. He was on the staffs of both AFC Champion Bengals teams (1981 and '88 seasons).

During his first term as offensive coordinator, the Bengals twice had the NFL's No. 1 offense (1986, 1988), twice had the league's top rushing attack (1988-89) and three times led the AFC in total offense (1986, 1988 and 1989).

Following the 1989 season, Coslet was named head coach of the New York Jets. With the Jets from 1990-93, he oversaw an offense that finished in the NFL's top 10 two of his last three years. Posting a 26-39 record in New York, he led the 1991 club to the playoffs, which stands as the franchise's only postseason appearance of the last 11 years.

Coslet returned to the Bengals in 1994 as offensive coordinator, assigned to recharge an attack which had fallen in 1993 to a franchise-low in overall punch. Two seasons later, the Bengals offense under Coslet stood as the NFL's most-improved unit.

The 1994 Bengals scored 89 more points than the '93 club, and the 1995 team topped the '94 total by another 73 points. The 162-point difference between the 1993 total (187 points) and the 1995 total (349 points) represented the biggest gain in the league during that time period.

The Bengals went 7-2 in 1996 following Coslet's appointment as head coach, and they were more than just the turnaround story of the NFL season. They were the comeback kids of the era.

The Coslet mark in '96 reflects the best job by a head coach appointed during a regular season since 1970, when the league took its present form with the NFL-AFL merger.

Among 43 coaches appointed in-season since 1970, only Ron Meyer with the 1987 Colts had a winning percentage better than Coslet's. But Meyer's 1,000 percentage covered only three games (3-0).

Coslet finished his nine games with a .778 winning percentage, and his victory total of seven also ranks second among the 43 coaches in this category. Don Coryell posted eight wins with the 1978 Chargers, but Coryell lost four. His winning percentage (.667) was more than 100 points below Coslet's.

Most importantly, Coslet took over a 1-6 team and kept it alive for the playoffs into the 16th week of the 17-week season.

Upon assuming the head coaching reins, Coslet personally challenged players to give a winning effort. He physically challenged them with post-practice conditioning drills.

"Even the physical part is mental," Coslet says of his approach to players. "If you make yourself do those gassers and grass drills after practice, when your body is telling you it doesn't want to, you'll believe you can make the effort in the fourth quarter on Sunday, even when you're tired."

But Coslet also knows when it's prudent to give the troops a break.

"He played the game; he knows how our bodies feel," says veteran cornerback Corey Sawyer. "Some days we don't have the pads on (in practice), so we can get our legs back. Bruce knows how to mentally and physically prepare players for a game."

Coslet particularly enjoys preparing himself for a game.

"I love the strategy of football, sitting with your coaching staff the week before a game and brainstorming how you're going to outsmart the other guys," he says. "It's challenging, and very rewarding when you accomplish the goal."

Coslet has made no changes in his coaching staff since the 1997 season. The last time a Bengals coaching staff returned with no changes in personnel or assignments was 1988. In that season, with Coslet as offensive coordinator, the team won the AFC Central Division Championship with a 12-4 record and advanced to Super Bowl XXIII.

"We have coaches with good ideas who work well together," Coslet says. "And with everyone coming back in the same roles, it should only get better."

On Dec. 15, 1996, the Bengals announced an agreement to extend Coslet's contract for four years, through the 2000 season. The contract automatically extends through 2001 if the Bengals make the playoffs in 1999 or 2000.

Coslet is an avid golfer. He's a member of the Oakdale (Calif.) Sportsman Hall of Fame, and also a member of the University of the Pacific Sports Hall of Fame.

Coslet's wife, Kathy, is a Cincinnati native. They have two children, son J.J., 23, and daughter Amy, 21. In 1996, J.J. was a member of Dartmouth College's undefeated Ivy League champion football team.

Coslet's birthdate is Aug. 5, 1946. He was a football standout at Joint High in his hometown of Oakdale, Calif., and he played in college from 1965-67 at the Univ. of the Pacific.

TOUGH IN "THE JUNGLE"

The Bengals have posted an 11-2 record (.846 winning percentage) at Cinergy Field since midway through the 1996 season, when Bruce Coslet took over as head coach. Cincinnati went 5-0 at home under Coslet in '96, and finished 6-2 in 1997.

"I'm pleased with what we've established at home," says Coslet. "One of the more important things I do as head coach is to instill the idea that we just don't lose in 'The Jungle.' Your fans and players both have to believe it. The players have to show they can do it, which our players have, and the fans have to respond."

"It's a real factor in the NFL, and teams that have it are at a big advantage over the teams that don't."

The 11-2 mark is the best performance by a Cincinnati team over a stretch of 13 regular-season home games since 1988-89. The '88 team finished 8-0 at home, and the '89 club started 3-2 at home.

The Bengals won 12 straight home games over 1988-89, including two playoff victories at the end of the '88 season.

DICK LeBEAU — Asst. Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator

Dick LeBeau, architect of the zone-blitz defense that made Pittsburgh one of the NFL's top defensive teams in 1995 and 1996, is aiming high in his second season of teaching the same scheme to Bengals defenders.

"We are going to continue to strive to place ourselves among the best units in the NFL, and we are expecting to make great strides this season," LeBeau says. "I have the utmost confidence in our staff and in the players we're going to have available."

The Bengals defense finished strong last season, holding two of the last three opponents to 14 points and allowing an average of just 74.3 rushing yards over the final three games. The season as a whole, however, was a struggle, as LeBeau worked to teach a new system to a defensive lineup that was somewhat lacking in the all-important department of speed.

This year figures to be different for two reasons. First, Bengals veterans have come to the point where they make the correct zone-blitz moves instinctively, rather than having to think about them. Second, the Bengals have added considerable speed and savvy since the conclusion of the 1997 campaign. The draft brought speed at linebacker (first round picks Takeo Spikes and Brian Simmons) and at cornerback (second-rounder Artrell Hawkins). And in veteran free-agent signings, the Bengals picked up a fleet cover cornerback in Thomas Randolph, a veteran of LeBeau's defense in former Steeler linebacker Jerry Olsavsky, and proven productive defensive ends in Arizona's Michael Bankston and Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons.

"We identified the needs we had on defense, and we knew we needed to give Dick and his staff some physical help," says head coach Bruce Coslet. "We are going to put some better athletes on the field in 1998, and there's no question from his track record that Dick will know what to do with them."

In 1997, the Bengals welcomed the return of LeBeau, an Ohio native who has played on an Ohio State national championship team, starred as an All-Pro defensive back, coached the Bengals defense as coordinator in Super Bowl XXIII and later coached the Steelers defense in Super Bowl XXX.

LeBeau spent the 1992-96 seasons with the Steelers, including 1995-96 as defensive coordinator. Employing the 3-4 zone blitz, he made the Steelers the NFL's third-ranked defense in their Super Bowl season of 1995. In 1996 under LeBeau, Pittsburgh ranked second to eventual world champion Green Bay with 272.6 yards allowed per game. The '96 Steelers also ranked second in the NFL in takeaways, with 40.

"It gives people fits," Coslet said of LeBeau's scheme. "It limits what you can do on offense. It creates one-on-one matchups continuously, and if you can bring the right people, you can create havoc. We want to build the same aggressive, take-the-ball-away type of defense."

LeBeau is entering his 39th NFL season, and his 25th in NFL coaching.

Born Sept. 9, 1937, in London, Ohio, he played at Ohio State from 1954-57, closing his career on a national championship team. He went on to become a top NFL cornerback, playing 14 seasons (1959-72) for the Detroit Lions and being voted to three Pro Bowls.

He set an all-time durability record for cornerbacks by playing in 171 consecutive games for the Lions, and at the time of his retirement, his 62 interceptions ranked third in NFL history.

He began his NFL coaching career as special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75, and coached defensive backs at Green Bay for four years before accepting the same position with the Bengals under Forrest Gregg in 1980. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1984, when Sam Wyche was hired as Bengals head coach.

and his unit allowed an average of only 11 points per outing in three playoff games as the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XXIII following the 1988 season. LeBeau left the Bengals after the 1991 season, in conjunction with the departure of Wyche.

Dick and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Brandon Grant, age 19.

SEND 'EM HOME HAPPY

The Bengals have won their final game in Cinergy Field/Riverfront Stadium in nine of the last ten seasons, and in 14 of the last 16.

Cincinnati's only home finale loss since 1987 was a 21-17 setback to Indianapolis on Dec. 27, 1992. The Bengals have won the other eight games by an aggregate score of 280-147.

KEN ANDERSON — Offensive Coordinator

Ken Anderson brings a keen football mind and a stellar history as a player to the position of offensive coordinator on the Bengals' coaching staff. Anderson is entering his sixth year as a pro coach in 1998, and will be in his second full season in a coordinator's role. The former Bengals Pro Bowl quarterback was promoted from the position of quarterbacks coach on Oct. 21, 1996, when Bruce Coslet took over as Bengals head coach.

Anderson's increased input with the offense was a key ingredient in 1996 as the Bengals rallied for a 7-2 record under Coslet. The Bengals averaged 27.1 points per game over the final nine weeks, almost nine more than the 18.3 mark of the first seven games. The offense's average yardage jumped from 282 to 361, and the average passing yardage went from 180 to 241.

The Bengals finished 10th in the NFL in total offense in 1996, averaging 326.6 yards per game for the full season, and they matched that No. 10 ranking again last season, pushing their per-game mark to 330.1 yards. The back-to-back No. 10 rankings are the team's highest since the 1990 club finished 9th. The Bengals also finished 10th in the NFL in scoring in 1997, averaging 22.2 points per game, and their No. 9 finish in rushing yardage (122.9 yards per game) was the club's highest since 1992.

In the key area of third-down play, the Bengals' 1996 percentage of successful conversions took a leap from 36.1% prior to Anderson's appointment to 53.5% after it. In 1997, the Bengals' conversion rate of 41.1% ranked 7th in the NFL.

"Kenny has done one heck of a job, as I knew he would," says Coslet. "Our offensive numbers have been way up after he took over, and he's well on his way to establishing himself as one of the best offensive coaches in the league."

As a player, Anderson had a career passing performance that dominates the Bengals record book. He leads the club in completions (2654), passing yards (32,838) and touchdown passes (197).

Twice in the last three years, he has been among the 15 finalists for election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He holds the NFL record for highest completion percentage in a season — 70.55 in 1982.

He won four NFL passing titles, which is tied for second-most all-time behind Sammy Baugh, and was named five times to the Pro Bowl. He led the league three times in lowest interception percentage, which also is tied for second-most all-time behind Baugh.

Anderson joined the pro coaching ranks as Bengals quarterbacks coach in 1993, and in that role he helped Jeff Blake chip away at a few of his own Cincinnati marks. In 1995, Blake supplanted Anderson in the categories of most completions in a season (326) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (21).

"I like Kenny; he's helped me pay more attention to detail," says Blake. "Where he helps the most is with his experience. Any situation you might face as a quarterback, you know he's been there at least once."

Anderson has played and coached only for the Bengals since completing his college career at Augustana (Ill.) in 1970. He was a third-round draft pick from the small school, the 67th selection in the draft. His 16 years of service as a player (1971-86) are the most in Bengals history, and he has held no other coaching position. Prior to joining the Bengals as a coach, he worked six years in Cincinnati as a sports-caster.

"Kenny is very cool, very calm, almost emotionless in his approach to the game, and I don't mean that in a negative way," says FOX analyst Cris Collinsworth, for years a favorite passing target of Anderson. "I knew he was going to do very well with the Xs and Os of being a coordinator."

Anderson's birthdate is Feb. 15, 1949. He was born in Batavia, Ill. Ken has a son, Matt, 23, and two daughters, Megan, 19, and Molly, 15.

PAUL ALEXANDER — Offensive Line

Paul Alexander enters his fourth season as Bengals offensive line coach in 1998, and like a college coach surveying fourth-year seniors, he's expecting nothing less than a top-drawer performance from his charges.

"We don't have anybody who has made All-

Pro or has won a bunch of honors yet, but I like my group of guys," Alexander says. "Right now, I wouldn't trade 'em for anybody, and I'm dead serious about that."

Three of the Bengals' projected starters for 1998 — tackle Willie Anderson and guards Rich Braham and Ken Blackman — are young players brought into the system and trained from the start by Alexander. The other two starters — left tackle Kevin Sargent and center Darrick Brilz — are veterans who have smoothly made the transition to Alexander's style of play.

The group came together with impressive results in the second half of the 1997 season, paving the way for rookie Corey Dillon's 1129-yard rushing season and providing excellent protection for quarterbacks Jeff Blake and Boomer Esiason.

Overcoming a slow start, the Bengals finished 1997 as the NFL leader in rushing touchdowns (23). Cincinnati also finished with No. 10 league rankings in scoring (22.2) and total offense (322.1). In rushing yards, Cincinnati ranked 9th in the league with an average of 122.9.

Alexander began his NFL coaching career in 1992 as tight ends coach of the New York Jets. He was instrumental in the development of TE Johnny Mitchell, a rookie All-Pro in 1992. Alexander's first Bengals season was 1994, when he was named Cincinnati's tight ends coach.

But Alexander has always said his first love in football was coaching the offensive line, and he was afforded the chance to take over that job for the Bengals in 1995.

His 1995 unit produced the team's best-ever performance in sacks allowed, yielding only 1.6 per game (total of 25). The 1996 line was productive despite a rash of injuries that forced Alexander to dole out 21 starting assignments to rookies and 23 more to players who entered the season with fewer than three pro starts. The 1996 offense averaged 373 yards per game over the second half of the season, and Bengals quarterbacks were sacked only seven times over the final five games.

This will be Alexander's seventh season in the offensive system of Bruce Coslet, the Bengals head coach who was Jets head coach when Alexander was in New York.

Alexander is a product of distinguished teachers. Before joining Coslet, he coached under Joe Paterno at Penn State and Bo Schembechler at Michigan. He also was offensive line coach at Central Michigan, a school whose head coach, Herb Deromedi, ranks with Paterno and Schembechler among the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history.

Alexander's birthdate is Feb. 12, 1960. He's a native of Rochester, N.Y., where he attended Cardinal Mooney High School. He was an academic All-American at Cortland State (N.Y.) and holds a master's degree in physiology from Penn State. He and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Mary Beth and Carolyn.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-81: Played offensive tackle at Cortland State. 1982-84: Assistant coach (AC), Penn State. 1985-86: AC, Michigan. 1987-91: AC, Central Michigan. 1992-93: AC, New York Jets. 1994-98: AC, Bengals.

JIM ANDERSON — Running Backs

The dean of Bengals position coaches (in years of service), Jim Anderson enters his 15th Cincinnati season in 1998. No position coach in Bengals franchise history has served more years on the staff, and only one — former offensive line coach Jim McNally — has equaled the 15-year mark Anderson has now reached.

A reason for Anderson's longevity, no doubt, is his reputation for effectively handling all types of running backs.

The latest feather in Anderson's coaching cap came in 1997, when rookie Corey Dillon burst onto the scene with 1129 rushing yards. It was the third-highest total in club history, and the mark was doubly impressive in light of the fact that the second-round draft pick averaged only 4.9 rushing attempts over the season's first eight games.

Anderson's prize pupil had his biggest night on Dec. 4, when he rushed for 246 yards in a nationally-televised game against Tennessee, breaking Jim Brown's NFL record for rushing yards in a game by a rookie and smashing the Bengals' team mark for rushing yards in any game.

Also last season, the Bengals led the NFL in rushing touchdowns with 23, and Anderson's running backs collected 20 of those scores.

"Jim has served under three head coaches for us now, and it's clear he knows how to make things work," said Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager. "He's a pleasure to be around, because his enthusiasm for the job is evident in everything he does."

In 1996, Anderson quickly worked halfback Garrison Hearst into the Bengals offense after the team's acquisition of Hearst in late August of '96. Hearst was a boon for the rushing game as Ki-Jana Carter worked to overcome rustiness from a 1995 season lost to a knee injury.

Carter, meanwhile, remains on the team, and has been an effective player despite surrendering the rushing spotlight to Dillon. Carter has been given the role of a primary ball carrier in goal-line situations, and he has responded with 16 TDs in 32 NFL games.

In six of nine seasons between 1985-94, Anderson's backs led the Bengals to finishes among the NFL's top ten teams in rushing yardage. The Bengals returned to the top 10 in 1997, finishing 9th with an average of 122.9 yards per game.

Anderson's troops won NFL rushing titles in 1988 and '89, and copped an AFC rushing championship in '86. From 1986 through 1990, the Bengals finished 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing.

James Brooks, Cincinnati's all-time leading rusher, blossomed under Anderson. Brooks and Anderson both came to the Bengals in 1984. Brooks set a Bengals record with 1239 yards in 1989, and Harold Green, another Anderson pupil, had the runner-up total of 1170 yards in 1992. Anderson also oversaw the brief but spectacular career of Ickey Woods, which was derailed by a 1989 knee injury.

Anderson's birthdate is March 27, 1948. He was born in Harrisburg, Pa. He graduated from Cal Western with a degree in physical education, and holds a lifetime teaching certificate in California. Jim and his wife, Marcia, have a son, Derek, 23.

SIGISMONDO CIOFFI — Defensive Staff Assistant

Sigismondo "Louie" Cioffi enters his second season in the role of defensive staff assistant in 1998. It's believed that at age 24, he retains the distinction he had last season of being the youngest full-time assistant coach in the NFL.

Cioffi (pronounced CHO-fee) is charged with supervising the weekly distribution of information regarding how to attack the upcoming opponent's offense.

"Anything we have that is distributed to the players during the week is a product of Louie's work and research," says defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau. "He breaks down film, studies opponents' statistics and puts it all in a very useful package. Whatever you need in a logistical sense to get ready for an opponent, he can handle it."

Cioffi also works daily on the practice field, concentrating his efforts on drills with the linebackers and defensive backs.

Cioffi's association with Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet dates back to 1993, when Coslet was head coach of the New York Jets and Cioffi was a 20-year-old coaching assistant, responsible for assembling play books and running video printers on game days. Cioffi also worked with the Jets in 1994, after Coslet had returned to the Bengals.

Cioffi was wide receivers coach at C.W. Post University in Brookville, N.Y. in 1995 and 1996. The '96 team employed a run-and-shoot offense and posted a 7-3 record en route to the ECAC Division II championship. In addition to his on-field responsibilities at C.W. Post, Cioffi prepared computer game analyses and scouting reports. He did all the computer work at Post for the offense and defense.

Cioffi's birthdate is Sept. 21, 1973. His hometown is Queens, N.Y. He graduated from the University of Stony Brook in 1995 with a degree in political science and a minor in philosophy.

MARK DUFFNER — Linebackers

Mark Duffner enters his second season as Bengals linebackers coach in 1998, having spent the previous 11 seasons as a head coach in the college ranks.

The former Holy Cross and Maryland head coach will play a pivotal role in the continued development of the Bengals' zone-blitz defense. Cincinnati's linebacker corps has undergone significant personnel changes since the 1997 season as the team attempts to upgrade its physical talent at the position, and Duffner will be in daily charge of molding the new faces into a cohesive and effective unit.

Three of the team's top four picks from the '98 draft will take their direction from Duffner. The trio includes first-round picks Takeo Spikes of Auburn and Brian Simmons of North Carolina, and third-rounder Steve Foley of Northeast Louisiana. Duffner also has the key task of working to achieve a breakout season from LB Reinard Wilson, the first-round 1997 Bengals draft pick whose play improved notably in the second half of last season as he made the adjustment from being essentially a down lineman in college.

Duffner has a fresh veteran face to aid the upgrade in Jerry Olsavsky, the former Steeler who worked extensively in the zone blitz under Bengals defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau when LeBeau was Pittsburgh's defensive coordinator. Duffner also must adjust to the absence of veterans Gerald Dixon, Ricardo McDonald and Andre Collins. Those players were allowed to leave the Bengals via free agency as the team sought a new direction, but they had productive seasons under Duffner in '97, with Dixon leading the team in sacks, McDonald leading the team in tackles until a mid-season injury, and Collins playing a leading role in the nickel package.

Duffner was head coach at Maryland from 1992-96. His 20-35 record included an 11-11 mark over his final two seasons, Maryland's best two-season record since 1984-85. From 1986 through 1991, he led the most successful era in Holy Cross football history, posting a dazzling 60-5-1 record that included two 11-0 marks.

Duffner has Ohio ties. He was a graduate assistant under Woody Hayes at Ohio State in 1975-76. In 1977, he was named defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati, becoming at age 23 the youngest defensive coordinator in the Division I ranks.

At Maryland in 1995, Duffner oversaw the Terps' first national ranking in nine years when his team climbed as high as No. 17. His teams set more than 100 offensive school records, and he improved Maryland's player graduation rate with three classes in a row in the national Top 20 (1994-96).

His term at Holy Cross was nothing short of remarkable. He took over a team that had been 4-6-1 in 1985, and immediately posted a 10-1 mark in '86. Duffner was chosen for five national coach of the year honors at Holy Cross, won two Division I-AA national titles, and was chosen New England Coach of the Year five times.

A native of Annandale, Va., Duffner played college football as a defensive lineman at William & Mary, and was chosen All-Academic Southern Conference as a senior. He graduated with a degree in physical education, and was inducted into the William & Mary Hall of Fame in 1990. Duffner was born July 19, 1953. He and his wife Kathy, have three children, Christina, 19, Carolyn, 17, and John, 14.

JOHN GARRETT — Offensive Staff Assistant

John Garrett enters his fourth season as a full-time pro coach in 1998, and his second in the role of offensive staff assistant. He supervises the weekly breakdown of information regarding how to attack the upcoming opponent, and on the field during practice, he works primarily with the Bengals' wide receivers corps.

Garrett played a daily role in 1995 and 1996 in the resurgence of the Bengals' passing game. He was the offensive assistant/wide receivers in '95, and wide receivers coach in '96. Last season, Garrett's continued work with the receiving corps helped produce another fine season by Carl Pickens, a breakout year by Darnay Scott, a third straight fine year by No. 3 receiver David Dunn and the emergence of second-year player James Hundon as a threat for '98.

Pickens last year moved to within 26 catches of the club's all-time receptions record before suffering a season-ending injury in Game 12. But the injury didn't stop the passing game, as Garrett and the rest of the offensive staff helped Scott step successfully into the role of No. 1 receiver while Dunn responded well to a promotion to the starting lineup. The Bengals averaged 278 passing yards over the final four games, a figure many would have considered unreachable with Pickens sidelined.

Garrett has become known for his ability to break the game of football into small parts that make it easy for players to study and improve.

A former Bengals wide receiver with three years experience as a pro personnel assistant at Tampa Bay (1992-94), Garrett comes from a football background. His father, Jim, played pro football and coached in the NFL from 1970-84. Brother Jason has played the last six seasons as a quarterback with the Dallas Cowboys, and brother Judd played running back with Dallas and in the Canadian League, and is currently an offensive assistant coach for the New Orleans Saints.

John Garrett played in college at Columbia and Princeton, and is a Princeton graduate. He played for the Bengals in 1989 after signing as a free agent. In 1991, he was one of the top receivers for the San Antonio Riders of the World League, and he also was with the Buffalo Bills in '91.

In addition to his duties on the personnel staff at Tampa Bay, Garrett prepared for a coaching career by assisting with on-field coaching of wide receivers, assisting offensive coaches with game plans and assisting defensive coaches in the press box on game days.

Garrett's birthdate is March 2, 1965. He was born in Danville, Pa. He and his wife, Honor, have a son, John Morgan, 3, a daughter, Honor, 2, and they are expecting their third child in October.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1983-85: Played wide receiver at Columbia. 1986-87: Played wide receiver at Princeton. 1989: Wide receiver, Bengals. 1991: Wide receiver, San Antonio Riders (WLA) and Buffalo Bills. 1992-94: Pro personnel assistant, Tampa Bay Buccaneers. 1995-98: Assistant coach, Bengals.

RAY HORTON — Defensive Backs

Ray Horton returns in 1998 for his second season as defensive backs coach of the Bengals. An NFL defensive back himself with the Bengals and later with the Dallas Cowboys, Horton draws on his own experience to give players a realistic picture of what to expect on the field.

"As a former player, I think I have certain things I bring to this job," Horton says. "I understand the psyche of what players are going through, maybe more so than a coach who hasn't played in the NFL."

The Bengals began 1997 with an uncertain picture at the safety positions. But by season's end, Horton's guidance had led strong safety Sam Shade and free safety Greg Myers to status as two of the most promising young players on the team.

Shade, not rated as a sure thing to even make the team in training camp, was named a starter in Game 5 of his third pro season and went on to lead the team in tackles. He was particularly outstanding in making open-field solo stops on top running backs, and he also led the secondary with four sacks. Myers, a second-year pro in '97, finished second on the team in tackles and showed great promise as the player most in charge of proper secondary alignments.

Horton will turn his attention this season to the right cornerback position, where the Bengals are in search of a consistent front-line performer. He'll oversee a competition among returning veterans Corey Sawyer and Jimmy Spencer, unrestricted free agent signee Thomas Randolph and second-round draft choice Artrell Hawkins.

Horton is entering his fifth season in NFL coaching, having served from 1994-96 as assistant defensive backs coach with the Washington Redskins.

"Ray's the perfect guy for us," says Bengals defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau, Horton's position coach during Horton's six seasons as a Bengals player. "He was like a coach on the field when he played. He played cornerback for us, and then was a safety for the Super Bowl team in Dallas. You can't beat a guy with the experience of having played both positions."

Horton played in two Super Bowls. He was on the 1988 Bengals team that lost a close decision to San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIII, and was on the 1992 Dallas team that defeated Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII. He left the Bengals as a free agent following the 1988 season, and his Dallas career spanned 1989-92. He was a Bengals starter at cornerback in 1984-85 and '87, and a Dallas starter at free safety from 1989-91.

Horton's 14 interceptions as a Bengal place him 10th on Cincinnati's all-time list, and he had two returns for touchdowns. He had five interceptions with Dallas, two for TDs, and also had a fumble recovery for a touchdown with the Cowboys. He became the first player in Cowboys history to score defensive TDs in back-to-back games (in 1991), and during his term as a Dallas starter, he led the team in forced fumbles and fumble recoveries.

Born April 12, 1960, in Tacoma, Wash., Horton played at the University of Washington, where he earned All Pac-10 honors. He was a second-round Bengals selection in the 1983 draft, the 53rd overall choice.

Ray and his wife, Leslie, have a daughter, Taylor, 10, and a son, Jarren, 6.

TIM KRUMRIE — Defensive Line

Tim Krumrie enters his fourth year as an NFL coach in 1998, following a 12-year Bengals playing career during which his relentless work at nose tackle made him one of the most admired players in club history. This season figures to be a particularly busy one for the aggressive coach, as the team's defensive line personnel has undergone significant changes since last season.

Dan Wilkinson, last season's starting right end, was traded to Washington during the off-season, and incumbent starting left end John Copeland will be unavailable until at least October, having suffered a ruptured left Achilles tendon during an off-season workout.

Krumrie will work to fill the holes with three veteran acquisitions from the free agent market, along with young talent returning from last year's team. The free agent pickups are Michael Bankston from Arizona, Clyde Simmons from Jacksonville and Ray Seals from Carolina. Returning Bengals looking to challenge for more playing time include Jevon Langford, Andre Purvis and Ramondo Stallings.

Krumrie's intense and aggressive nature as a player has a way of rubbing off on his players, and the best example of that last season was Kimo von Oelhoffen, who returns for '98 as the incumbent starting nose tackle.

Under Krumrie in '97, von Oelhoffen excelled in the same 3-4 defense nose position that Krumrie filled during his own playing career. A fourth-year pro, von Oelhoffen more than doubled his season high for tackles (42 after a previous best of 17), and he was the line's leading tackler until an ankle sprain took him out of the lineup for three games in November.

The line played a key role last December as the Bengals held their final three opponents to an average of 74.3 rushing yards per game. In the 1996 season, Cincinnati allowed only 102.7 rushing yards per game, 12th-best among the 30 teams, and the best in more than a decade by a Bengals club.

The last Cincinnati defense to do better was the 1983 team, which allowed 93.7 rushing yards per game. That was Krumrie's rookie season as a Bengals player.

Krumrie never missed a game during his Bengals playing career (excluding 1987 players strike). He started 166 of his 193 games (including playoffs), and at one point had a streak of 160 starts in 161 games. He led the team in tackles five times — a most unusual feat for any interior lineman — and was selected as an AFC starter for two Pro Bowls.

He suffered a severe leg fracture at the height of his career — during Super Bowl XXIII — but returned from the injury to start the opening game of the next season.

Summing up Krumrie's attitude, Bengals general manager Mike Brown once said: "It wouldn't matter if you put Timmy out there with 10 nuns on his side. He'd still be playing just as hard, and be just as confident he was going to win."

It's an attitude Krumrie has taken into his coaching career.

Krumrie's birthdate is May 20, 1960. He was born in Menomonie, Wis., and grew up in Mondovi, Wis., where he attended Mondovi HS. He and his wife, Cheryl, have a daughter, Kelly, 14, and a son Dexter, 9. Tim's hobbies include riding his Harley Davidson motorcycles and spending time at his home in Cody, Wyo.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-

82: Played defensive tackle at Wisconsin. 1983-84: Pro defensive tackle, Bengals. 1995-98: Assistant coach, Bengals.

AL ROBERTS — Special Teams

A veteran of 11 years as an NFL special teams coach, Al Roberts returns for his second season in that role with the Bengals in 1998. After watching Roberts' aggressive 1997 work to mold the special teams to his system, knowledgeable Bengals observers are expecting to see units this season that are truly "ready to rumble."

"I'd call last year a hit-and-miss year for us," Roberts says. "We made our share of good plays, and made some mistakes that have to be corrected. But I see the guys starting to buy into our system, and I'm excited about this season. Our goal is to be a unit that never causes a game to be lost, and that can play a deciding role in as many as three victories a year."

One of Roberts' past NFL special teams assignments was from 1991-93 with the New York Jets, when Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet was Jets head coach. With Cincinnati in 1997, Coslet sought out Roberts to improve a special teams situation which had proven unacceptable the previous season.

"Al is a no-nonsense, take-no-prisoners kind of guy," Coslet said. "I know how he works, and I knew he'd fit in here. He's my kind of guy."

During Roberts' term in New York, the Jets special teams were known for their excellent kick coverage. In 1991, New York led the NFL in kickoff coverage (15.4 average yards allowed) and was second in punt coverage (5.7). In 1992, the kickoff coverage (16.7) and punt coverage (7.3) were both in the league's top five.

Kickoff coverage was a priority for Roberts last season, after the Bengals had finished 25th in the NFL in that category in '96. The mission was accomplished, as Cincinnati rose to 8th in the league with an average yield of 21.0 yards. The coverage unit made the biggest play in a Nov. 23 victory over Jacksonville when Sam Shade's forced fumble and Marco Battaglia's recovery set up a short TD drive for an early 14-0 lead.

Also last season, the Bengals finished third in the AFC in kickoff returns (23.1), including a club-record 102-yarder by Eric Bienenmy and an 85-yard jaunt by David Dunn. Cincinnati punter Lee Johnson, working in a new system employed by Roberts, had more than three times as many inside-20 kicks as touchbacks (27-8), the 7th-best differential in the NFL.

Roberts broke into the NFL in 1984-85 as running backs and special teams coach with the Houston Oilers. He was in the NFL again from 1988-90 as special teams coach at Philadelphia under Buddy Ryan. Coslet is the second NFL coach to ask Roberts back for an encore stint on his staff, as Ryan brought Roberts to the Arizona Cardinals for the 1994-95 seasons.

Roberts also has 11 seasons of experience coaching in college. In seven of those seasons, his teams advanced to bowl games, most recently the 1996 Washington Huskies.

Born in Fresno, Calif., on Jan. 6, 1944, Roberts played high school football in Merced, Calif., and played in college at Washington (1964-65) and Puget Sound (1967-68). He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Puget Sound. He and his wife, Arvella, have two sons, Kali, 28, and Kyle, 23, and a daughter, Genesis, 22.

KIM WOOD — Strength & Conditioning

Entering his 24th season with the Bengals, Kim Wood is the dean of NFL strength and conditioning coaches. A hard-driving coach who still maintains an easy rapport with his players, Wood has set up strength and conditioning programs for a number of NFL teams.

He is known nationwide for his outspoken pleas against the use of steroids in strength training. The Bengals' training program was aggressively steroid-free long before official sanctions against the drugs became a nationwide norm.

Wood has seen many of his athletes perform impressive feats in the weight room, but that's not his goal.

"We train very hard, but we're not training our people to be weight lifters or power lifters," Wood says. "We always keep the perspective that we're working with these guys to be the best football players they can be."

An outstanding running back at the University of Wisconsin during his college days, Wood has worked under all seven head coaches in Bengals history. He joined the club in 1975, Paul Brown's final season as head coach, and has since coordinated strength training for Bill Johnson, Homer Rice, Forrest Gregg, Sam Wyche, Dave Shula and Bruce Coslet.

Wood's birthdate is July 12, 1945. His hometown is Barrington, Ill. He has four children: John, 19; twin daughters Becky and Alyssa, 17; and Jacqueline, 14.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1965-68: Played running back at Wisconsin. 1975-98: Strength coach, Bengals.

BOB WYLIE — Tight Ends

Bob Wylie returns for his second season in 1998 as Bengals tight ends coach after helping to lead the team's offense to a No. 10 overall ranking in 1997.

Under Wylie's direction last season, starting tight end Tony McGee caught a career-high six TD passes, leading the team in receiving TDs and tying for third among NFL tight ends in TDs. McGee's total was also the highest by a Bengals tight end since 1989, when Rodney Holman had 9 TD catches.

Wylie's backup tight ends — Marco Battaglia and Steve Bush — also contributed significantly. Battaglia played in every game and made 12 catches for 149 yards and a touchdown. He played every snap all season with his assigned special teams units, tying for the team lead in special teams snaps with 297. Bush made the team as a rookie free agent and also played in every game, ranking fifth on the team with 237 special teams snaps, and filled in as backup long snapper in two games.

Wylie spent six seasons in the NFL prior to joining the Bengals, coaching tight ends for the New York Jets in 1990-91 and the offensive line for Tampa Bay from 1992-95. He was sought for the tight ends job by Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet, under whom Wylie coached during his two years with the Jets.

Wylie is entering his 25th year in the coaching profession, with the last 18 at the college or pro level.

In Wylie's last pro stop prior to joining Cincinnati, Tampa Bay's offensive line helped produce three 1000-yard seasons by a running back in four years, including consecutive 1000-yarders by Errict Rhett (1994-95), who became only the 11th back in league history to accomplish the feat in his first two seasons. (Through 1997, a total of 15 players have done it their first two seasons.)

In his last college stint, at the University of Cincinnati, Wylie's offensive line paved the way for the team to lead Conference USA in rushing with 181.4 yards per game in 1996, and four Cincinnati linemen were included in post-season all-conference honors. Wylie had entered the Bearcats' 1996 fall camp with only six linemen with any experience, and only three who had started.

Though last year marked Wylie's first official employment with the Bengals, he has unofficial roots in the organization. For nine years (1981-89), he spent his summer vacation at Bengals training camp in Wilmington, Ohio. It was an NFL internship of sorts for Wylie, then a college coach, as he learned football from the professional side by observing and assisting Jim McNally, the highly-respected former Bengals offensive line coach.

A native of West Warwick, R.I., Wylie played three years of football at Colorado before transferring to Roger Williams (R.I.) College in 1972. He began his coaching career in 1980 as offensive line coach at Brown, moved to Holy Cross in 1983, and landed his first Ohio assignment as offensive coordinator at Ohio University in 1985. He left the Bobcats in 1988 to begin a two-year stint as offensive line coach at Colorado State.

Wylie holds a bachelor's degree in American Studies from Roger Williams, and a masters in economics from Rhode Island. He was a teacher and administrative director in the West Warwick, R.I., school system from 1973-80.

Wylie's birthdate is Feb. 16, 1951. He and his wife, Kay, have a daughter, Jennifer, 20.

THE PLAYERS

Leader of Bengals CB corps followed 1996 All-Pro season with another standout year in '97 ... Started every game at LCB for the second straight campaign, and one of just seven Bengals to start every game in '97 ... Opposing offenses often avoided his side of the field, but he still led the team with 26 passes defended ... Ranked second on club in interceptions (3), led team in interception return yardage (56) and total scrimmage snaps (1079) ... Tied for team lead in fumble recoveries (2) ... His 11 interceptions in last two seasons are team's most for that span.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "I looked forward to working with Ashley when I came back to the Bengals, and it ended up being the absolute joy I had anticipated. Ashley played the last game of the year with a fractured thumb. It was typical of his dedication to his position and his teammates. He's one of the cornerstones of this team."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Only Bengals DB to start every game ... Has started 32 of 32 since signing with Cincinnati, and has played every game for four straight NFL seasons ... Played every defensive snap in seven games, including four of the last five games ... Only game in last five in which he failed to play every snap was Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, when he was sidelined with fractured left thumb in third quarter and returned to play late in fourth quarter ... His 1079 scrimmage snaps led the team by 75 over second-place James Francis.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Former Colt sparked team's defensive effort in 28-13 win on Nov. 9 at Indianapolis, intercepting 2 Kelly Holcomb passes with 2 passes defended and a 10-yard sack; first INT stopped Colts drive at Bengals 4 in second quarter, and Ambrose returned 29 yards, preserving scoreless tie; second INT stopped Colts at Bengals 16 in third quarter, and Ambrose returned 27 yards, preserving 14-10 lead; 10-yard sack on Holcomb forced punt in first quarter ... Indy performance earned him coaches' defensive Game Ball ... Had 2 takeaways in second quarter Sept. 7 at Baltimore, recovering Earnest Byner fumble at Bengals 42 to set up drive for game's first TD, and intercepting Vinny Testaverde pass at Bengals 45 to set up field goal ... Recovered Ricky Walters fumble at Eagles 35 on Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, setting up TD drive for 14-7 lead ... Team-leading total of 26 passes defended was twice as many as second-place Corey Sawyer ... Had major test Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, matched on WR Michael Irvin for most of game, and finished with 6 passes defended, a team season-high for one game ... Awarded special-effort Game Ball by coaching staff for returning to finish Dallas game after suffering fractured left thumb in third quarter ... Credited with 4 passes defended on Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore ... Finished fourth on team in total tackles with 59, and third on team in solo tackles with 57 ... Led team with 8 solos Oct. 12 at Tennessee ... Led DBs with 8 solos Sept. 28 vs. Jets, and also had 2 passes defended.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "Ashley had a very nice 1997 for us. He came off a Pro Bowl year, and people didn't throw his way very much. I'm very pleased with not only his ability, but with the mental side of his game. Usually, with corners, you expect them to cover, and you talk to your safeties about coverages and the mental side. But Ashley has a knowledge of the overall scheme that you don't see that often in cornerbacks."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1992: Drafted by Colts in 2nd round (29th overall) ... Signed Aug. 11 ... Opened NFL career as a starter in Sept. 6 victory vs. Cleveland ... Also started Sept. 13 at Houston, but suffered fractured right ankle in that game ... Returned in reserve role Nov. 1 at San Diego, after missing five games ... Finished season with 8 tackles and 4 passes defended. 1993: Saw action in 14 games for Colts, and started Games 4 and 6-10 ... Had career-high 44 tackles and 5 passes defended for the season, and had career-best game in tackles with 10 (9 solo) on Nov. 7 at Washington. 1994: Played all 16 games for first time in career ... Started Games 1-3 at LCB and Game 8 at RCB ... Tied for second on Colts with 14 passes defended for the season ... Career-long 42-yard INT return Dec. 4 at Seattle ... Credited with 4 passes defended in 10-6 victory vs. Miami on Dec. 18, including break-ups on Dolphins' final two plays of game from Indy two-yard line. 1995: Came on strong in late season ... Intercepted 2 passes for 12 yards in Game 16 as Colts shut down New England 10-7 to clinch playoff berth ... Started all three Indy playoff games, and had 1 INT for 2 yards in playoff victory 17-96 at Kansas City ... Totaled 3 INT in regular season, tying Eugene Daniel for team lead ... First interception of season came in 21-18 victory vs. Rams on Oct. 1; also had forced fumble in that game ... Had 13 tackles and 8 passes defended in playoffs ... 1996: Signed with Bengals Feb. 26 as unrestricted free agent ... First Bengal since Anthony Munoz in 1990 to make the Associated Press All-Pro team ... Also named an AFC starter for Pro Bowl, and had Pro Bowl-record 54-yard interception return for TD against Carolina's Kerry Collins to help spark AFC's comeback victory ... Named AFC Defensive Back of the Year by fellow players on NFL Players Association ballot (Mackey Award) ... Had most interceptions by a Cincinnati player since David Fulcher recorded 8 in 1989 ... Finished second on team in passes defended (20), one behind CB Jimmy Spencer ... Made presence felt immediately, starting in season opener at St. Louis with an interception, a forced fumble, 4 passes defended and 2 tackles (1 solo) ... In Game 2, Sept. 8 at San Diego, had 2 interceptions and 5 tackles (4 solo) ... Stopped Steeler scoring drive Oct. 13 at Pittsburgh with end-zone interception just before halftime ... Set up game's first TD Oct. 20 at San Francisco with first-quarter interception at 49ers 29-yard line ... Helped key Bengals' comeback win Nov. 3 at Baltimore with end-zone interception in fourth quarter Had an interception, 7 solo tackles and 3 passes defended in Nov. 10 victory vs. Pittsburgh ... Scored TD on 31-yard interception return

Nov. 17 at Buffalo, cutting in front of WR Quinn Early on a sideline pattern ... Started every game, and led the team in total snaps played with 1229 ... Played 1031 snaps from scrimmage, most on the defense and third-most on the team behind OL Rich Braham and QB Jeff Blake ... Missed only 16 defensive snaps ... Played 182 special teams snaps, most special teams snaps of any regular starter.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Mississippi Valley, with 17 INT for 300 yards, 40 passes defended and 110 tackles ... Also had 7 kick returns for TDs (4 on punts, 3 on kickoffs), tying NCAA Division I-AA record ... His 3 punt returns for TDs as a senior led nation.

PERSONAL: Hometown is New Orleans, where he attended Alcee Fortier HS ... Lettered in track and football ... Married (wife Monica) ... Off-season residence is Houston, Texas ... THE PLAYERS

Bengals' top pick from '96 draft has proven worthy of his No. 10 overall selection, and enters what should be his top production years ... Has logged 26 NFL starts, and has only just celebrated 23rd birthday as training camp begins ... Brings rare combination of size, strength and agility to RT position ... Already a dominating force last season, he helped lead Cincinnati rushing game to a No. 9 NFL ranking in total yardage (1966) and No. 7 ranking in yards per rush (4.35).

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "In my opinion, Willie is the best right tackle in the NFL. That's a lot of praise, but Willie has tremendous natural ability and he has worked very hard to improve his first two seasons. I can't think of anybody I'd rather have at the position."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started every game at RT, though he was switched back to LT for portions of Games 1-2 when offense had pass-protection problems on left side ... Captain of special teams and a key RB in third-down situations, Bieniemy returns for a fourth Bengals season after continuing in his role as a veteran team leader in '97 ... Led RB corps in receptions (31), topping 30 mark for the third straight year ... Tied longest play in team history with 102-yard kickoff return for TD at N.Y. Giants ... Named as Bengals' 'Unsung Hero' for second consecutive season, in team voting conducted by NFL Players Association.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "Whatever you ask Eric to do, he gets it done, and in a big way. If you need a touchdown on a kickoff return, he can do that. Need him to catch a big pass? He can do that. And even though he's not big, he's tough enough that if there's a blitz situation in the nickel, he can pick it up. He didn't run the ball as much last year with Corey (Dillon) and Ki-Jana (Carter) in the lineup, but when we did ask him to run, he got it done."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Played in every game for fifth straight season in NFL ... Has played in 87 consecutive regular season games and 92 straight games including playoffs ... Has played in 115 of a possible 117 games as a pro, including 110 of 112 in regular season ... Last missed game was Nov. 8, 1992 for San Diego vs. Kansas City, due to ankle injury.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Bieniemy's 102-yard kickoff return Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants was the longest in team history, topping 98-yarder by Stanford Jennings on Nov. 13, 1988 at Kansas City ... The only other Bengal to make a play of 100-plus yards was CB Louis Breeden, who scored on 102-yard INT return Nov. 8, 1981, at San Diego ... Bieniemy's 102-yarder tied 102-yard kickoff return by Eric Guilford of New Orleans for longest play in the NFL in '97 ... Totaled 201 KOR yards on 5 attempts in NYG game, breaking Bengals single-game record of 192 yards, previously held by Jennings from 1988 game at Kansas City ... Averaged 23.2 yards per kickoff return for the season, ranking seventh in AFC ... Scored first Bengals TD in Cincinnati's victory Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, making season-long 20-yard rushing gain to tie score at 10-10 and erase Dallas' last lead of the day ... With 31 receptions, ranked fourth overall on team and had 31-27 edge over Corey Dillon for lead among RBs ... Bieniemy's 249 receiving yards ranked second among RBs to Dillon's 259 ... Led team in receptions (5) and receiving yards (42) on Oct. 12 at Tennessee ... Had season-long 21-yard receiving gain on third-and-six play Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, gaining to Steelers 12 to set up first-quarter Bengals TD ... Led RBs with 4 receptions for 25 yards Nov. 30 at Philadelphia ... Led RBs in scrimmage yards Sept. 7 at Baltimore, getting all 41 on 4 receptions ... Rushed for 10-yard gain on third-and-four in fourth quarter of Nov. 9 victory at Indianapolis, keeping drive alive that produced TD for a 28-10 lead ... Tied for sixth on team with 233 special teams snaps, playing as kickoff returner, as blocker on punt return team and as deep back on the punt team.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "Eric is my (special teams) captain, my assistant coach on the field. He runs our special teams on the field. He's a doer as well as a speaker. I'm excited about having him back."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1991: Drafted by San Diego in second round (39th overall) ... Played mostly on special teams while backing up Marion Butts, Rod Credited with much-improved technique and overall mistake-free play in victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore ... Had 2 pancakes Dec. 15 at Houston ... Played every offensive snap in last four games.

BLACKMAN ON BLACKMAN: "I am a real physical guy. I've got an attitude. It's the only attitude I've ever had, just a natural attitude. I play physical and with a lot of emotion."

COLLEGE: Played first two Illinois seasons at DT, then switched to offense and started 21 of 22 games next two seasons at LT ... As a junior and senior, worked regularly in practice against defensive linemen Simeon Rice and Kevin Hardy, both first-round picks in '96 NFL draft ... Helped pave the way as a senior for 1000-yard rushing season by Robert Holcombe, first 1000-yard year by an Illini back since 1953 ... Made Illinois all-time weight room list with a 700-pound squat and 400-pound bench press ... Scored safely as a freshman with end-zone tackle of Ohio State's Robert Smith.

Blake returns for '98 as Bengals' all-time leader in ratio of TD passes to interceptions ... Lost starting job to Boomer Esiason for last five weeks of '97 season, but seeks to return to form of '95-'96 seasons, when he started Pro Bowl following '95 campaign and posted 104.2 passer rating over final five games of '96 ... A durable player with excellent movement skills in the pocket, he ran his AFC-long streak of consecutive starts by a QB to 52 in '97 before Esiason was promoted to starting role Nov. 23 ... Blake threw 4 TD passes to Carl Pickens last season, giving Blake-Pickens duo 41 scores since 1994, most of any NFL tandem from 1994 through 1997.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Jeff's a durable player who will be out there for you every play, and he's a mature performer who has proven he won't make the big mistake with poor judgment that can lead to an interception. He struggled at times last year, but the burden shouldn't all fall on him. He didn't have the benefit of the much-improved running game we developed after Boomer (Esiason) took over as the starter, so Jeff shouldn't have to carry us like he did at times early in the season. We expect him to play again at the high level he showed in both 1995 and 1996."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-11 ... Played every offensive snap in Games 1-4, 6-9 and 11 ... Was No. 2 QB and did not play in Games 12-16.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Led offense on three TD drives in fourth quarter of season opener vs. Arizona as Bengals rallied from 21-3 deficit for 24-21 victory ... Blake's 6-yard TD pass to Carl Pickens gave Bengals 22-21 lead over Cardinals with 0:38 remaining, and Blake added game's final points with two-point conversion pass to TE Tony McGee ... Led Bengals in rushing with 34 yards (on 3 carries) Sept. 7 at Baltimore, and threw 8-yard TD pass to Pickens for game's first score ... Had 48-yard pass to Pickens on Sept. 21 at Denver, and tossed 7-yard pass to McGee for game's first score ... Threw TDs of 50 yards to Pickens and 26 to Darnay Scott on Sept. 28 vs. Jets ... Gained team-leading and career-high 75 yards rushing (on 11 attempts) Oct. 5 at Jacksonville, scoring 8-yard run in third quarter ... Suffered only 1 interception in four-game stretch of Games 3-6 ... Scored on 4-yard TD run with 1:53 remaining Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants, closing deficit to 29-27, but comeback fell short as two-point conversion pass intended for Pickens failed; passed for 39-yard TD to David Dunn at Giants with 0:06 remaining in half, giving Bengals 21-10 halftime lead ... In Nov. 2 win vs. San Diego, gave Bengals first lead at 10-7 with 15-yard pass to Pickens, and scored eventual winning TD on 13-yard run in fourth quarter for 38-24 lead ... TD pass to Pickens vs. San Diego was 41st TD connection for Blake and Pickens since 1994, tops in the NFL during that span, 8 ahead of second-place Scott Mitchell-Herman Moore of Detroit (33) ... Passed 15 yards to Tony McGee for game's first score Nov. 9 at Indianapolis, but shaken up briefly on sack by Dan Footman in first series of third quarter; did not return as Boomer Esiason finished game ... Posted highest passing accuracy of the season (15 of 21, 71.4%) Nov. 16 at Pittsburgh, and had no INT for third straight game.

HITTING THE RIGHT TARGETS: As noted in a previous item, Blake's ratio between TD passes and interceptions is the best in club history. In 1997, he ran his Bengals career totals to 74 TDs vs. 47 INTs, a ratio of 1.57-to-1. Boomer Esiason is second-best at 1.43-to-1 (187 TDs, 131 INT). And Ken Anderson posted an all-time ratio of 1.23-to-1 (197 TDs, 160 INT).

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1992: Drafted by Jets in sixth round (166th overall) ... Played in 3 games as a rookie, completing 4-of-9 passes ... Made NFL debut Nov. 29 vs. Kansas City and went 3-for-3 passing ... Inactive for Games 1-9 and Game 11 ... Active but DNP in Games 10 and 14-15. 1993: Saw action in preseason, but was on Jets inactive list for all 16 games, backing up Boomer Esiason and Browning Nagle. 1994: Acquired by Bengals on waivers Aug. 29 ... In Bengals starting debut Oct. 30 vs. Dallas, passed for 2 TDs, 0 INT and 243 net yards, Bengals' most net yards in last 16 games ... Starter for team's first victory Nov. 6 at Seattle, producing most passing yards (387) and directing most total offense (496) since 10-7-90, span of 68 games; Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week ... Passed for 4 touchdowns Nov. 13 vs. Houston, first Bengals QB to notch 4 since Boomer Esiason on 12-17-89 ... Named AFC Offensive Player of Month for November ... Led AFC passing ratings with 90.7 mark through games of Week 13 (Nov. 27-28) ... Directed comeback from 27-10 deficit in 33-30 season finale victory over Philadelphia; threw for two TDs and had key run of 16 yards on fourth-and-16 in fourth quarter ... His eight completions of 50-plus yards were most in NFL ... Was designated 3rd QB for first six games ... Also designated 3rd QB for Game 7 at Cleveland, but made brief Bengals playing debut in that game after injuries to David Klingler and Don Hollas ... Passing total of 741 yds. from Seattle and Houston games ranks as most in Bengals history for back-to-back games. 1995: Threw often, with club-record 567 attempts, but didn't succumb to wildness. His plus-11 differential in TD passes (28) to interceptions (17) was just one off the AFC-best performance of plus-12 by John Elway and Jim Harbaugh ... Passer rating of 82.1 was Bengals' highest since Boomer Esiason's 92.1 in 1989 ... Passed for one or more TDs in Games 1-14 and set club record with 21 straight games with a TD pass, dating back to last 7 games of 1994 season ... AFC-leading 28 TD passes was two better than 2nd-place John Elway ... Blake was first Bengal to lead AFC in TD passes since Boomer Esiason in 1989, and fell one short of Ken Anderson's club-record 29 TD passes in 1981 ... Passing yardage total of 3822 was 2nd in AFC to Elway's 3970 and 2nd in Bengals history to Esiason's 3959 in 1986 ... Through Oct. 29 game vs. Cleveland, Blake had led offense to nine straight games of 300-plus yards, tied for Bengals' longest streak since 1986 ... Threw for 6 TDs and no INT in two games vs. division champ Pittsburgh, going 3-0 in each game ... Had career-high 81.8% completions (18-for-22) while leading 27-9 victory Oct. 19 at Pittsburgh ... Also had 3 TDs and no INT on Sept. 24 vs. Houston and on Oct. 1 vs. Miami ... TD pass of 88 yards to Darnay Scott Sept. 17 at Seattle was AFC's longest completion in 1995 ... Passed 5 yards to Carl Pickens for game-winning TD Nov. 26 at Jacksonville, lifting Bengals from 13-10 deficit to 17-13 lead with 0:17 left in 4th quarter ... Led Bengals to tie for biggest comeback in team history Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota, completing 19-of-26 for 196-2-1 in second half as Bengals rallied from 24-3 deficit to win 27-24 ... Passed for 200-plus yards in 15 of 16 games, missing only Nov. 5 vs. Oakland (159) ... One of 11 Bengals to start all 16 games ... Took every offensive snap in 13 games ... Elected to AFC Pro Bowl squad as No. 2 QB vote-getter behind Dan Marino; named to start Pro Bowl when Marino withdrew due to injury ... Connected with Pittsburgh's Yancey Thigpen for Pro Bowl-record 93-yard TD pass. 1996: His 308 completions were second-most in club history, behind only his 326 in 1995 ... Passing yardage total of 3624 was 4th-best in club annals ... Directed offense to NFL-best 372.6 yards per outing over final eight games ... Differential between TD passes and interceptions (24-14) was plus-10 or higher for second straight season; only previous instance of a Bengals QB going plus-10 or better two straight years was Boomer Esiason in 1988-89 ... As Bengals went 4-1 over last 5 games, Blake completed 105 of 172 passes (61%) for 1376 yards (275.2 per game), 13 TDs and 3 INT ... Named AFC Offensive Player of Week after performance Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore, when he completed 26-of-42 (62%) for 272 yards, 2 TDs and no INT; 26 completions marked season-high ... Directed 11-play, 68-yard drive for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter vs. Baltimore, ending with a one-yard pass to Tony McGee ... Led the offensive side of biggest road comeback in Bengals history on Nov. 3 at Baltimore, when Cincinnati overcame 21-3 deficit to win 24-21; Blake scored on a 4-

Started every game, and played every offensive snap in 13 games ... Played 97.3% of total offensive snaps (1059 of 1088) ... 1059 scrimmage snaps played was second on team to OL Rich Brahm ... Only time lost to injury came Oct. 27 vs. Jacksonville, when he missed game's final two series with abdominal and back bruising; returned Nov. 3 to start at Baltimore.

BLAKE ON BLAKE: "Everybody is going to have a down year, and I guess last year was mine. But what are you going to do, luck your head and sob and cry like a baby? No, you act like a man and step up and work harder and learn from it. I started 52 straight games, so I know something. To throw as many touchdowns as I have (74) and go to the Pro Bowl, I have to know something. Bruce (Coslet) told me from the start to be ready, that my time would come again. I'm 27. I have a long time to go."

COLLEGE: Set or tied 32 ECU records while passing for 5133 yards and posting TD/interception ratio of 43/20 ... Led Pirates to an 11-1 mark as a senior and school's highest-ever ranking in the polls (9th) ... Honorable mention All-America by Associated Press and Football News ... Finished 9th in 1991 Heisman Trophy balloting.

BLAKE, ON AVOIDING INJURIES: "Some people know how to fall when they're hit. Some people don't. It's like wrestlers. Wrestlers know how to fall. If you know how to fall to protect yourself when you get hit, you won't get hurt. You learn over the years how to take a lick."

PERSONAL: Born in Daytona Beach, Fla., but hometown is Sanford, Fla., where he attended Seminole HS ... Off-season residence is Orlando, Fla. ... Married (wife Lewanna) with three children: Emory, 7, Torre, 5 and Trey, 3 ... Son of Emory Blake, who played in CFL for Toronto and was Jeff's coach in HS ... THE PLAYERS

Improved offensive output included 1431 yards in Games 13-15, second-most yards over a three-game stretch in club history.

He reached some milestones last year as far as games played and started in the league, but I don't see him dropping off at all."

Missed only two of 925 offensive snaps in the 15 games he played ... Missed Nov. 27 game at Denver with knee sprain, ending streak of 89 consecutive games played ... Played 93% of offensive snaps for full season (923 of 992), third-best figure on offensive unit ... Played every offensive snap in 13 games, including 10 straight at start of season ... Started first three preseason games at RG ... Switched to C for final preseason game, and made all 15 regular-season starts at C ... Steady play helped Bengals improve nine spots in NFL yardage rankings (27th to 18th) compared to '93. 1995: Missed only one offensive snap all season, playing 976 of 977, and missed that snap only because he had lined up as eligible receiver on fake field goal try, and was required to sit out one play before returning to ineligible receiver spot ... Coaches rated him with no missed assignments all season ... Made line calls and was a major factor in maintaining line stability as guard personnel shifted due to injuries ... Led line with 9 pancakes ... Charged with only one penalty all season, fewest among linemen ... Played 16 games for the fifth time in six seasons. 1996: Underwent surgery May 7 for a stress fracture of right foot, and missed entire preseason schedule and Games 1-3 of regular season ... Returned to action as starting C in Game 4 vs. Denver and started the remainder of the season ... Ranked 3rd on the line in "pancake" blocks with 12, according to coaches' evaluations ... Graded "excellent" in coaches' ratings in first game back from injury, Sept. 29 vs. Denver ... Had 3 pancakes in victory Oct. 27 vs. Jacksonville, and credited for handling an unusual number of tough line calls and adjustments ... Keyed line's overall success in victory Nov. 10 vs. Pittsburgh by handling Steelers NT Joel Steed in one-on-one situations ... Had 2 pancakes in 485-yard offensive effort Dec. 1 at Jacksonville ... Versatile player who can perform at four line positions. Brown enters '98 camp with primary assignment at RT. Has steadily improved since '95 signing as undrafted free agent ... Saw action in only 1 of first 11 games in '97, but solid practice performance earned him playing time in each of the last five games.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Anthony came to us as an undrafted player, he has worked hard to develop his technique and skills over the last three years. He hasn't played a lot, but when he has had the chance, he has turned in a fine job. His best position is probably right tackle, but he has played everywhere except center, and I feel very comfortable with him in the game at a number of spots."

1997: Saw most extensive action on offense in victory Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, when he replaced injured Willie Anderson at RT in second half and was in the lineup for two TD drives ... Bengals' tallest player brings a big "wingspan" to ward off rushers in the pass protection front ... One of the team's top human interest stories in '97, Brumfield was on the active roster all season and played in 15 games, making a comeback from '96 spinal cord concussion which had left him temporarily paralyzed ... Has seen action as a starter at both guard positions in recent seasons.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "I think it was an inspiration to everyone on our team to see Scott come back and play as much as he did last season. He worked his way back from an injury that would have caused a lot of people to give up, and he contributed for us in some key spots. He's a smart player who's a very good interior pass blocker, especially when it comes to picking up stunts by the defense."

1997: Cleared by doctors in April to resume football career, following recovery from a spinal cord concussion he suffered 11-3-96 at Baltimore ... Was team's top backup at both guard positions, and started at RG on Oct. 12 at Tennessee, Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh and Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore ... Re-signed by Bengals Nov. 7 as free agent ... On inactive list for Game 10 ... Active-DNP in Game 11 ... Played Nov. 27 at Denver and Dec. 4 vs. Pittsburgh ... Became starter at RG in Game 4, when Darrick Brizl returned from injury to start at C and Rich Braham moved from C to LG ... Bush made the 53-player roster as a college free agent last season, and was the only player among Cincinnati's undrafted rookies to play in every game ... Ranked fifth on the team with 237 special teams snaps ... Also was backup long snapper, and was used in two games in that role.

COACH BOB WYLIE SAYS: "Steve had a very successful season for an undrafted rookie, and I expect him to challenge for a lot more playing time this year. The key for him is to continue to work on his blocking, and on learning what he has to do as the 'move' tight end. Those were things he wasn't asked to do much of in college. It's also a big plus for him that he can long snap."

1997 Games-Starts: 15-9; Career Games-Starts: 31-13
 Contract status as of 7-3-98: In fourth season of a seven-year deal
 Acquired: D1 '95 (1st overall)
 Born: 9-12-73

Top pick from 1995 NFL draft played in 15 games in '97, bringing total to 31 of 32 games played since missing 1995 rookie campaign due to major knee surgery ... Improved rushing total by 200 yards over '96 total and scored 7 TDs, bringing total to 16 TDs in 32 NFL games ... Had Bengals' longest scrimmage gain of season with 79-yard TD run Sept. 21 at Denver ... Diagnosed following Denver game with torn rotator cuff in left shoulder, but missed only one game before returning to action for rest of season ... Following consultation with doctors, elected to rehab injury without surgery in preparation for '98.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Ki-Jana will again be a very important factor in our offensive plan this year. He's the fastest back we have, and we're looking for more plays like the (79-yard) TD run he had at Denver, where he broke the line of scrimmage and nobody could come close to catching him. He has also been very effective on the goal line, because of his speed and power. And hopefully he comes back fully healthy this year. I think his shoulder problem (torn left rotator cuff) bothered him all last year, even though he kept playing."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-3 and 5-10 ... In reserve role behind HB Corey Dillon for Games 11-16 ... Missed Game 4, Sept. 28 vs. N.Y. Jets, resting left shoulder injury diagnosed as a torn rotator cuff following Sept. 21 game at Denver.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Led team with 76 rushing yards on 19 carries in season opener vs. Arizona, and scored fourth-quarter TDs on runs of 2 and 1 yards as Bengals rallied from 21-3 halftime deficit for 24-21 win ... Also had 40 yards on 2 pass receptions vs. Arizona, including season-long 35-yard receiving gain to help set up one of his rushing TDs ... Cited by coaches for superior blocking in Arizona game, and overall performance vs. Cardinals earned him the offensive Game Ball ... Rushed for career-high 104 yards on 13 carries Sept. 21 at Denver, snapping Bengals streak of 67 straight games without a 100-yard rusher ... His 79-yard TD run at Denver was fifth-longest rushing play in franchise history, and the longest since 12-5-71, when RB Essex Johnson ran for 86 at Cleveland ... Scored Bengals' first TD Oct. 5 at Jacksonville on 1-yard run in second quarter ... Led team with 63 rushing yards on 16 carries Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, and added 26 yards on 3 receptions to also lead club in scrimmage yards with 89; had game's first score vs. Steelers on 6-yard run in first quarter ... Led team with 70 rushing yards on 17 carries Oct. 26 at Giants ... Scored TD in victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, on 1-yard run in first quarter ... Scored on 1-yard run in third quarter Nov. 30 at Philadelphia.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "This is a big year for Ki-Jana. Things haven't come together yet for him like he might have imagined, but give him credit. He's kept his head up high and continued to work. He's still got goals and objectives he wants to attain, and even though Corey Dillon took over last year, who knows what's going to happen? If he's prepared to capitalize on every situation, he's got the talent to succeed. We all know that any time he touches the ball, he can take it the distance."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1995: Drafted by Bengals in first round (1st overall) ... Signed July 19 ... Slowed early in training camp by sore right Achilles tendon and missed first two preseason games ... Returned to practice at full speed Aug. 13 ... Had 3 carries Aug. 17 at Detroit, including 8-yard gain, but suffered torn ACL in left knee on third carry ... Placed on injured reserve list Aug. 22 ... Had surgery Aug. 25 by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala. ... Stayed in Birmingham for initial rehab until Oct. 1, then rejoined Bengals to rehab in Cincinnati for rest of season ... To get Carter in '95 draft, Bengals traded up in round one for first time in franchise history; Cincinnati obtained No. 1 overall pick from Carolina for Nos. 5 & 36 picks. 1996: Had season-high 63 rushing yards in victory Sept. 15 vs. New Orleans, including season-long 31-yard run for TD in 2nd quarter ... Scored 8 of his 9 TDs in the final 9 games (Bruce Coslet's term as head coach) ... Scored twice in Coslet's head coaching debut Oct. 27 vs. Jacksonville, one-yard TD run with 6:10 to play broke 14-14 tie in third quarter; four-yard TD run with 3:32 remaining extended lead to 28-14 in eventual 28-21 victory ... Scored on one-yard run in third quarter Nov. 3 at Baltimore as Bengals began comeback from a 21-3 halftime deficit to 24-21 win ... Scored twice in victory Nov. 10 vs. Pittsburgh, on one-yard run in 2nd quarter to tie score at 10-10, and on 12-yard reception with 6:39 remaining that put Bengals ahead to stay at 31-24 ... Had one-yard TD run Nov. 17 at Buffalo ... His 22-yard rushing gain Dec. 1 at Jacksonville was longest of game by either team ... Had 9-yard TD run Dec. 15 at Houston, giving Bengals 21-6 lead ... Scored on one-yard run Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis as Bengals took 17-10 lead in 2nd quarter ... Finished second among RBs with 22 receptions for 169 yards ... Capped stellar season with 156 yards on 21 carries and 3 TDs in Rose Bowl victory over Oregon ... Averaged 6.6 yards per carry in '93; first Penn State player to top 6.0 mark since Curt Warner in 1981 ... Averaged 6.3 yards rushing as a freshman in '92 ... 1997 Games-Starts: 15-15; Career Games-Starts: 70-70

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In first season of a five-year deal

Five-year Bengals starter faces comeback challenge after suffering ruptured left Achilles tendon during off-season workout at Auburn University on 4-15-96 ... Underwent surgery the following day, performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala., and is expected to remain sidelined until at least October ... Had a particularly strong second half of '97 season and finished as defensive line's leading tackler with 49 (35 solo) ... Tied for team lead with 2 fumble recoveries ... Only Cincinnati defensive player to score a TD ... Played LT in nickel package ... Games played (15) were second-most of career ... Became an unrestricted free agent after '97 season, but signed new five-year contract (through 2002) on 2-20-98.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "We were counting on John to be a big factor for us, and his injury comes as a real blow. But he still may be able to help us out before the year is over, and we look forward to that. John has more athletic ability than most people his size, and though he's not huge by defensive line standards, he has good natural strength and leverage to play bigger than his body weight. It also impressed me last year when he was hurt and couldn't play, he was still a force in getting the team ready by the way he helped the guys who were going to substitute for him. He showed me the mental approach we're looking for, and we'll be looking for that kind of leadership from him while he rehabs from the injury."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-7 and 9-16 ... On weekly inactive list for Game 8, Oct. 26 at N.Y. COREY DILLON

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 225
 College: Washington
 2nd year in NFL

28

1997 Games-Starts: 16-7; Career Games-Starts: 16-7
 Contract status as of 7-3-98: In second season of a four-year deal
 Acquired: D2 '97 (43rd overall)
 Born: 10-24-75

A bruising runner with exceptional blend of power and agility, Dillon is challenged in '98 to match a rookie season as impressive as any in franchise history ... Named '97 AFC Rookie of the Year in peer voting conducted by NFL Players Association ... His 1129 rushing yards were third-most ever by a Bengal, even though he played only 31% of offensive snaps over the first eight games ... Averaged 116.7 yards rushing over the final eight games, including 246-yard effort vs. Tennessee that broke Hall of Famer Jim Brown's 40-year-old mark for NFL rookies ... Was the only NFL rookie to top 1000 yards rushing in '97 ... Ran with excellent downfield vision, and his ability to shed potential tacklers injected the term 'contact balance' into Bengals' rushing vocabulary.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Corey proved to everyone last year what he's able to do in the NFL. He gave us the consistent running game we were looking for. He's a very physical, punishing runner, as well as having the speed to get around the corner or break the short yardage play and take it all the way. He played more as he became more comfortable with all phases of the offense. He showed he can be a good receiver out of the backfield, and expectations for him are justifiably very high."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Played as reserve in Games 1-3 and 5-10 ... Started Game 4 as sub for injured Ki-Jana Carter ... Elevated by coaches to starting position for Games 11-16 ... Had no rushing attempts in first two games, and only 39 attempts for first half of season ... Had 170 attempts (21.2 per game) over final eight games.

MOVE OVER, JIM BROWN: Dillon's highlight among highlights in '97 came Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee in a Thursday night Bengals victory seen by a national ESPN audience. He rushed for 246 yards on 39 carries, breaking the NFL rookie record of 237 set by Cleveland's Jim Brown against the L.A. Rams in 1957. It was the fifth-highest total by any player in league history, just 29 yards shy of Walter Payton's all-time mark of 275, and was the highest by any player in 19 years, since O.J. Simpson gained 273 in 1978. The performance easily set a new Bengals mark for rushing yards in a game, topping the standard of 201 established by James Brooks in 1990. Dillon broke Pete Johnson's former team record of 38 carries in a game, and he became the first Bengal to score 4 rushing TDs in a game (runs of 2, 31, 1 and 2 yards). He had 30 receiving yards, and his scrimmage total of 276 surpassed a 1986 record set by Brooks, who totaled 264 yards vs. New England (163 rush, 101 receiving).

OTHER 1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Season rushing total of 1129 broke the Bengals' rookie record of 1066 set by Ickey Woods in 1988 ... The only Bengals with more rushing yards in a season have been James Brooks (1239 in '89) and Harold Green (1170 in '92) ... Led Bengals RBs in receiving yards (259), and his 1388 total yards from scrimmage was most since '89, when Brooks had 1545 ... Finished sixth in rushing in AFC, but his per-carry average of 4.85 yards was higher than the five players who had more total yards ... Rushed for 100 or more yards three weeks in a row (Games 13-15), becoming the first Bengal to record three straight since Pete Johnson in Games 13-15 of the '80 season ... Scored 10 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 23 rushing TDs, the most rushing scores by one player since Ickey Woods' team-record 15 in '88 ... Fell one yard short of posting seven straight games of 100-plus combined yards (rushing and receiving); the only time he was under 100 during Games 9-15 was Nov. 16 at Pittsburgh, when he totaled 99 (78 rushing, 21 receiving) ... Tied team record for total TDs in a game with his 4 rushing scores Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, equaling Larry Kinnebrew's 3 rushing and 1 receiving from 10-28-84 at Houston ... Earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. Tennessee ... Awarded offensive Game Ball by coaches twice, for record-breaking performance vs. Tennessee and for 123-yard rushing game Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, his first 100-yarder as a pro ... Five of Dillon's 10 TDs came on runs of 20 or more yards ... Longest TD run was 71 yards Nov. 2 vs. San Diego; also had TD runs of 46 at Indianapolis, 39 vs. Jacksonville, 31 vs. Tennessee and 21 at Tennessee ... Missed by 3 yards, tying Bengals record of five 100-yard rushing games in a season; had four 100-yard games, plus 97-yarder at Indianapolis ... Used as kickoff returner early in the season, and averaged 30.3 yards on 6 attempts ... Showed significant improvement during season as blocker on blitz protection.

LIKE A ROCK: Dillon's durability was not to be questioned during his 1129-yard season. Though he suffered a dislocated left kneecap Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants, he returned the following week to post his first 100-yard game, a 123-yarder vs. San Diego. And in his record 246-yard game Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, he shook off a sprained left toe that briefly sidelined him in the second quarter and returned to rush for 94 yards in the second half.

DILLON ON BREAKING BROWN'S RECORD: "Jim Brown is the greatest running back to play the game, and to be in the same category with him is a great honor. I try to be like the great running backs in certain ways, and what I've seen in Jim Brown is his power, his strength. I'm a strong runner, and after a while out there, it gets to the point of who wants to hit. I try not to get hit too often. I like to do the hitting, and when things are going good, that can wear a defense down."

OT WILLIE ANDERSON SAYS: "Corey's mentality is, 'If you're not out of the way, I'm going to run over you.' His two or three-yard gains are so powerful that when he gets into the secondary, defensive backs are remembering the last time he ran on them. They're saying, 'I can't tackle him by myself. I need some help.'"

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "After last year, everybody knows now what Corey's all about. Now he's got to work to get better. He can't let himself think he's arrived. He's got to pick up where he left off so he can legitimize himself as a premier back in the NFL, and not be just a one-year flash."

COLLEGE: Played only in 1996 at Washington, designated as a junior, and departed with a remarkable list of school season records — rushing yards (1555), attempts (271), TDs (23), rushing TDs (22), all-purpose yards (2185) and scoring (138) ... Posted multiple records despite starting only 8 of 11 games, as he was backup to Rashaan Shehee until Shehee was sidelined with ankle injury in Game 3 ... In Holiday Bowl vs. Colorado, rushed for 140 yards and added 2 more TDs to his regular-season total of 23 ... Scored 5 TDs in 41-21 conquest of UCLA, earning Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week honors as he rushed for 145 yards and added 53 yards in receptions ... Played JC ball at Dixie College in St. George, Utah, in 1995, and was chosen JC Offensive Back of the Year by College Sports magazine after rushing 279 times for 1899 yards and 20 TDs ... In 1994, rushed for 1165 yards and 16 TDs at Garden City (Kan.) JC.

PERSONAL: Hometown and off-season residence is Seattle, Wash. ... Played at Franklin HS, where he won All-State honors in football and also was named All-Metro Player of the Year ... Also earned All-Metro honors in baseball ... Senior year in high school was 1992-93 ... Sat out 1993 football season before enrolling at Garden City JC for '94 season ... Physical education major at Washington ... Selected by San Diego Padres in 1993 free agent baseball draft.

WR

CHRIS DOERING

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 195

College: Florida

1st year in NFL*

87

1997 Games-Starts: 2-0 (Ind.); Career Games-Starts: 3-0

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In second season of a two-year deal

Acquired: W (Ind.) '98

Born: 5-19-73

A big target with sure hands, Doering seeks first full-season NFL roster spot after earlier trials with Jaguars and Colts ... Left University of Florida in 1995 as SEC's all-time touchdown reception leader (31), and inspired comparisons during college career to Cris Collinsworth, a former Gator and Bengals' all-time receptions leader ... Acquired by Bengals on waivers from Colts on 2-25-98.

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "Chris is a smart, tough player who will be very competitive for a spot on our team. He has excellent hands and runs very crisp routes. He doesn't have great speed, but he makes up for it with proper angles and with agility coming out of cuts."

1997: Opened training camp with Indianapolis, and had 6 receptions in preseason for 56 yards ... Waived prior to regular season, and opened season on Colts practice squad ... Signed Dec. 5 to 53-player roster ... Active but DNP Dec. 7 at N.Y. Jets ... Played Dec. 14 vs. Miami, with no receptions ... Closed season Dec. 21 at Minnesota with 2 receptions for 12 yards.

Left UF ranked fourth in team history in receptions (149) and receiving yards (2107) ... Set school and conference records with 17 touchdowns as a senior, and was a second-team All-American choice by Associated Press.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Gainesville, Fla., where he attended PK Yonge HS and played receiver and safety, catching 100 passes for 1800 yards and 30 TDs in three seasons ... Also lettered on state champion basketball team and in baseball ... Full name is Christopher Paul Doering.

* — Doering did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 1996 or 1997 because he was not on the Colts' 53-player roster, the injured reserve list or the PUP list for the required minimum of six games in either season. He is again designated a first-year player in 1998.

Cincinnati native returns in bid for season-long roster spot after spending most of '97 on Bengals practice squad ... Has worked at both FB and HB in Bengals system ... Four-year starter in Big Ten at Illinois.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "Ty's in a position like most guys who came out of college not drafted. He's got to prepare himself to seize any opportunity that comes his way. He's got the size and ability to play fullback or halfback, and he should be able to be a dominant player on special teams."

1997: Signed April 25 as rookie free agent ... In preseason, rushed for 63 yards on 18 carries and had 4 pass receptions for 36 yards ... Waived Aug. 24 in final roster cuts and signed Aug. 26 to Bengals practice squad

... On practice squad for Games 1-13, and signed Dec. 1 to 53-player roster ... Made NFL playing debut Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, seeing action on special teams ... On weekly inactive list for Games 15-16.

COLLEGE: Played TB his first two seasons at Illinois, and operated mostly at FB as a junior and senior ... Departed Illini program as the school's No. 10 all-time rusher with 1851 yards, and ranked 4th on pass receptions list with 128 (for 1250 yards) ... Led team with 765 rushing yards as a sophomore, including 135-yard game vs. Penn State ... Scored 11 TDs as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Cincinnati ... Had 4605 career all-purpose yards at LaSalle HS, including 4105 rushing yards and 40 TDs ... Majored in program management and leisure studies at Illinois.

* — Douthard did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 1997 because he was not on the 53-player roster, the injured reserve list or the PUP list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a first-year player in 1998.

Big wideout made his first five NFL starts in '97, and enhanced his reputation as a player willing to make the tough catch over the middle ... Had 13 of his 27 catches during four-game stretch as starter at season's end, due to an injury to Carl Pickens ... Led team in kickoff return average (25.6 yards) ... Average of 15.3 yards per reception was tops among Bengals with 20 or more catches.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "David is a very reliable third-down guy with a big body and good hands. He showed us at the end of last year he can come in and perform well as a starter. There's no question he makes tough catches across the middle and can catch it in a crowd."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Suffered fracture in left hand in preseason play Aug. 16 vs. Minnesota, and missed preseason finale plus Games 1-2 of regular season ... Played as reserve in Games 3-9 and 11-12 ... Started Games 10 and 13-16.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Scored eventual winning TD on Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, catching 32-yard pass from Boomer Esiason for 31-10 lead; Bengals won, 31-24 ... Closed the year Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore with a season-high 5 catches (36 yards) ... Saw first action of season Sept. 21 at Denver; his 2 catches for 39 yards included 31-yard gain on third-and-19 play in second quarter ... Had team's long gain of the day on 37-yard pass from Jeff Blake on Oct. 5 at Jacksonville ... Scored his first TD of the season Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants, taking 39-yard pass from Blake with 0:06 remaining in the first half, giving Bengals 21-10 lead ...

Had season-high 61 yards in Giants game, leading team, on 3 catches ... Made first NFL start Nov. 9 at Indianapolis, promoted ahead of Darnay Scott by coaches' decision, and led the team with 43 receiving yards while tying for the team lead with 3 catches ... Returned to No. 3 WR role Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, and contributed on special teams with 85-yard kickoff return to Jaguars 3, setting up Corey Dillon TD run for 21-7 lead in second quarter ... Had game's longest reception Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, a 30-yard catch to the Oilers' 2 in third quarter, setting up Dillon's 2-yard run for a club-record fourth rushing TD in one game.

GOOD NEWS, BAD NEWS: Dunn got the chance to start the season's final four games in place of injured Carl Pickens, but the assignment cost him a chance at the team's season record for kickoff return average. Dunn totaled 487 yards on 19 kickoff returns, and his average of 25.6 topped the official team record of 25.4 by Willie Shelby in 1976. But Dunn was taken off the kickoff return team for the final four games, and never got the 20th return he needed for a chance to qualify for the title. To qualify for the official NFL season title or for a Bengals record, a kick returner must average 1.25 returns per game played by his team, which figures out to a minimum of 20 returns for a 16-game season.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1995: Drafted by Bengals in 5th round (139th overall) ... Had no receptions in first 5 games, but broke into stat column with 2 for 47 yards Oct. 8 at Tampa Bay, including season-long 37-yarder and 10-yarder for TD ... Caught at least one pass in 9 of final 11 games ... Had 7 of his 17 catches in two games against

Cleveland, 3-for-42 Oct. 29 vs. Browns and 4-for-30 Dec. 17 at Browns ... Had 17-yard catch from David Klingler on late TD drive that sent Oct. 29 game vs. Cleveland into OT ... Had 2 third-down receptions for first downs in second half Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota, each keeping alive scoring drives as Bengals rallied from 21-point deficit to win, 27-24 ... Had 2 receptions for 43 yards in 27-9 win Oct. 19 at Pittsburgh ... Coaches rated him with no dropped passes for season ... Threw a pass to Darnay Scott Oct. 1 vs. Miami which was not complete, but drew a 41-yard interference penalty against Dolphins ... Posted third-highest KOR yardage (1092) in Bengals history ... 50 kickoff returns second-most in Bengals history to Deacon Turner's 55 in 1979 ... Tied team one-game record (since broken) with 7 KOR on Sept. 24 vs. Houston. 1996: Brought a dimension to Bengals offense that hadn't been seen in more than 10 years ... Dunn's 32 catches and 509 yards were the most by a No. 3 WR since 1983, when Steve Kreider had 42 for 554 as third WR behind Cris Collinsworth and Isaac Curtis ... Outstanding in clutch situations, with 75 percent of his receptions (24 of 32) on third or fourth down ... Had 84% of his catches (27 of 32) and 87% of his receiving yards (445 of 509) in the 9 games after Bruce Coslet was appointed head coach ... Led the team in yards-per-catch (15.9) ... Rated in coaches' evaluations with only 2 missed assignments in 287 offensive snaps played ... Made stunning play Nov. 10 vs. Pittsburgh when he returned kickoff 90 yards for TD on the last play of first half; out-raced Pittsburgh's Myron Bell to the end zone, avoiding a tackle that would have rendered the play meaningless; TD lifted Bengals to a 17-17 halftime tie, countering TD Pittsburgh had scored with :05 left in half, and provided the spark for 34-24 win over AFC Central champs ... In addition to kickoff return heroics, also had 5 receptions for 79 yards vs. Steelers ... Named AFC Special Teams Player of Week after Pittsburgh game ... Had career-high 7 catches for 95 yards and was game's leading receiver in victory Dec. 15 at Houston ... In third quarter at Houston, his circus catch for 27 yards on third down sparked a slumbering Bengals offense to its first score of the day in a comeback victory ... Season-long catch of 40 yards came in victory Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis, setting up 1-yard Ki-Jana Carter TD run for 17-10 lead ... Scored game's first TD vs. Indy, on 10-yard pass from Jeff Blake ... Led team with 66 receiving yards (on 3 catches) in Coslet's head coaching debut, Oct. 27 vs. Jacksonville ... Played 268 special teams snaps (60.2% of total), second-most on team to Eric Bieniemy (275).

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "David is one of the most productive receivers to have come from the 1995 draft. He's got great hands, and he's tough. He's made big plays for us as a receiver and also as a kickoff returner. I'm looking forward to even bigger things from him."

COLLEGE: Played all receiving positions at Fresno State, including tight end ... Caught 44 passes for 666 yards and 5 TDs as a senior ... Set school record as a senior for kickoff return average (28.9), and set WAC record with 1013 total kickoff return yards ... Named WAC Special Teams Player of the Year ... Ended 1993 season with 9 catches for 145 yards in Aloha Bowl vs. Colorado ... Threw four passes at Fresno State, completing all four, three for TDs ... Played in 1990-92 at Bakersfield (Calif.) College.

PERSONAL: Hometown is San Diego, Calif. ... General studies major at Fresno State ... Played only one season of prep football, but earned numerous honors at Morse HS in San Diego, including All-City first team and honorable mention All-State ... Lettered twice in basketball.

He's the type of guy we're looking to for stability and consistent play. He's very, very strong at the point of attack."

Top producer among Bengals' rookie free agents in '97, Granville bids for a full season of regular playing time in '98 ... Impressed coaches early in training camp with his ability to maneuver in traffic at inside LB position, and eventually earned four starting assignments ... Bengals were 4-0 in those games ... Cited by coaches for high "contact ratio" (number of hits compared to snaps played) ... Ranked 10th on squad in special teams snaps (180) and tied for seventh in special teams tackles (9).

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Billy was not a drafted player, but the simple fact was that he was able to make plays. He stood out in that regard in preseason — in practice and in games — and he quickly earned a place on the team. He's a hard worker, and he got better and better as the season went on."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started in Games 9-10, 12 and 16 as sub for injured RLB Ricardo McDonald ... Also played in Games 4-5, 7-8, 11 and 13-15 ... On weekly inactive list for Games 1-3 and 6.

THE HARD WAY: Granville, on the challenge of achieving long-term NFL success as an undrafted free agent: "How I play and what I do isn't defined by how I got here or what my salary is. I'm just a man on the field with a helmet on, like anybody else. I expect to play as well as Junior Seau or whoever. I'm not going to limit myself. I'm not saying that out of vanity or being cocky, but I'm a professional, and I believe in what I do."

COLLEGE: Undisputed leader of the Duke defensive unit, he called all signals as a senior in '96 and led the team in tackles (134) and forced fumbles (3) ... Finished career with 374 tackles, 6th on school's all-time list.

Reliable performer seeks continued increase in playing time as he enters third season with Bengals ... Saw his first regular-season game action in '97 ... Has previously been listed as a center only, but will work extensively at guard in training camp and has good potential to be an interior swing player.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Brock's a guy who has defied the odds. He's come in two years in a row as something of a longshot, but he's managed to make himself noticed and earn a spot. You know he's going to block the right guy, and that he'll do it with a high degree of effort. He worked a lot at guard in practice late last season, and we'd like to have him ready to play center or guard this year."

1997: Played in all 4 preseason games, and was on 53-player roster for entire regular season ... Worked as backup C behind Darrick Brizl, but had little playing opportunity as Brizl led the offense in snaps played ... Played on special teams Aug. 31 vs. Arizona, making NFL playing debut, and also saw special teams action in Games 2 and 6-7 ... Saw his first action with offense as backup G in season finale Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore ... On weekly inactive list for Games 3-5 and 8-15.

Lanky receiver with excellent speed comes off a strong '97 finish ... Played every game, and was a factor in Bengals' successful second half, averaging 3 catches for 61 yards over the final four games ... Broke through with 118-yard, 2-TD game at Philadelphia ... Provided key depth as a speed receiver behind Darnay Scott.

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "James came to us as an undrafted player and has really made great strides. He has great speed to stretch the defense, and he stepped up last year when Carl (Pickens) was hurt. But he's young, and he needs to work on being consistent in catching the ball, learning release techniques and running good routes."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Played as reserve Games 1-16 ... Led WRs with 148 special teams snaps.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Scored 2 TDs on Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, on passes from Boomer Esiason of 36 yards in first quarter and 13 yards in fourth quarter ... Posted a 5-catch, 118-yard day in the Philly game, and also was the intended receiver when Eagles' Charles Dimry was flagged for interference in the end zone with 1:03 to play, setting up a TD that gave Bengals 42-41 lead ... Broke into season receiving column with a team-leading 4 catches (for 42 yards) on Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants, including 21-yarder for first down on third-and-seven play during Bengals' first TD drive ... Had key 6-yard catch on third-and-four during fourth quarter of victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, producing a first down that allowed Bengals to kill all but 0:22 of final two minutes while protecting lead ... Had season-long 61-yard catch Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, but tumbled into end zone and Cowboys recovered for touchback.

BEATEN AT THE BUZZER: With 4:00 remaining in the '97 Bengals season, Hundon held a distinction that wouldn't have been predicted for him in training camp. The young receiver had logged the team's two longest receptions of the season, 52 yards on Nov. 30 at Philadelphia and 61 yards Dec. 14 vs. Dallas. But with 3:41 to play in the season finale vs. Baltimore, Darnay Scott knocked Hundon out of the top spot with a 77-yard TD strike from Boomer Esiason.

1996: Signed April 23 as college free agent ... Waived Aug. 27 and signed Aug. 28 to Bengals practice squad ... On practice squad through Game 11, and signed Nov. 19 to Bengals' 53-player roster ... Played in Games 12-16 ... Did not earn an accrued year of credit toward free agency ... Scored on his first NFL reception (and only reception of the season), a 14-yard pass from Jeff Blake in victory Dec. 15 at Houston; the TD catch came on third-and-12 play in third quarter as Bengals erased a 6-0 deficit and went ahead to stay in 21-13 victory ... Made NFL playing debut Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta and had 4 KOR for 85 yards ... Also led special teams in tackles in Atlanta game with 3 (2 solo) ... Had 5 KOR for 134 yards in victory Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis, averaging 26.8 yards ... Season KOR average of 23.7 was best on the team, though with 10 returns he didn't qualify for AFC rankings.

COLLEGE: Dangerous receiver and kick returner for Portland State's Division I-AA national playoff qualifiers ... Caught 83-for-1406 in two seasons with Vikings, and averaged 25.3 yards on 21 KOR ... Played in 1992 at San Francisco CC (junior college), where he was MVP on a team which had 9 players earn Division I scholarships.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Daly City, Calif. ... Attended Jefferson HS ... College major was social science ... Favorite pursuits are spending time with daughter Jade and studying himself on film to improve his play.

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "Mike spent most of last year on the practice squad, and now he's got the challenge of taking the step up to becoming a real contributor to the offense. He has the athleticism and size to become a solid player, and he has excellent instincts about going to get the ball. He showed us some of that last year in preseason."

1997: Signed Aug. 25 by Bengals as rookie free agent ... Caught 15 passes in preseason, 6 more than any other player, for 110 yards ... Finished second in preseason yardage behind Gunnard Twynier (127) ... His 6-yard TD catch from Erik Wilhelm in preseason at Detroit broke 20-20 tie in 27-23 Bengals win ... His 7-yard TD catch from Wilhelm in preseason vs. Seattle gave Bengals 28-24 lead

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In final season of a three-year deal

Acquired: W (Cle.) '88

Born: 11-27-61

Johnson enters '98 season within reach of club records for most punts and most total punt yardage ... With 677 punts as a Bengal, stands 21 short of Pat McNally's record 698 ... With 29,113 punting yards for Cincinnati, stands 194 yards short of McNally's record 29,307 ... In '97, Johnson and Boomer Esiason became the 19th and 20th players to play 10 or more seasons with Cincinnati, and Johnson ran his streak of consecutive games played for the Bengals to 156 ... Posted a punting average of 42 yards or better for the eighth straight season, and his 43.0-yard punting average as a Bengal ranks second all-time to Dave Lewis (43.8) ... Had more than three times as many inside-20 kicks as touchbacks (27-8) during '97 season, and his plus-19 differential in those categories tied for seventh in the NFL ... Also continued in his role as one of the NFL's best holders for placekicks, and has been a positive factor in helping K Doug Pelfrey to No. 2 all-time rank in NFL field-goal accuracy ... Career resume also includes 2 TD passes and 2 field goals from 50-plus yards.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "It's a high goal, but I really believe Lee could be the first 40-yard net punter in the NFL this year. He has the ability, and this is going to be his second year in the system we're using. It was a change for him last year, and we had our ups and downs. But I think this year we can be brutally effective with him as the leader of the punting game."

NEAR-PERFECT FINISH: Over the Bengals' last 10 games, Johnson had 22 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line, and only one touchback.

OTHER 1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Awarded special teams Game Ball by coaches in victory Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, when he averaged 48.0 on 4 punts and had 3 downed within 10 yards of Cowboys goal ... Dallas performance included season-long 66-yard punt to Cowboys 5 in first quarter, 48-yarder to Cowboys 3 in third quarter, and 44-yarder to Cowboys 10 with 1:00 to play in fourth quarter, helping to seal the victory ... Set a club record with 11 punts Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, breaking mark of 10 which had been set five times, and did it in a victory, whereas all five previous 10-punt games had been Bengals losses ... San Diego performance included 6 inside-20 kicks and no touchbacks ... As Bengals protected 38-31 final victory margin over San Diego, Johnson had a 48-yard punt downed at the Chargers 5 with 4:30 to play, and a 40-yarder out-of-bounds at Chargers 16 with 2:05 remaining ... Had 49-yard punt to Cardinals 11 in fourth quarter of comeback victory Aug. 31 vs. Arizona ... Kicked 62 yards to Ravens 4 in second quarter Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Had Punted 14 times for Bengals for 42.4 avg., and averaged 42.2 on 17 playoff punts with 7 inside-20 and no touchbacks ... Used for first time as long-distance field-goal kicker; missed 50-yarder vs. San Diego Dec. 4, but nailed 50-yarder vs. Washington Dec. 17 as Bengals won by three (20-17) to clinch AFC Central title. 1989: Punted 61 times for 40.1 average ... Suffered first two blocked punts of NFL career. 1990: Produced longest punts of NFL season with pair of 70-yarders, first Sept. 23 vs. New England and second Oct. 22 at Cleveland; those kicks still rate as longest in Bengals history ... Finished third in AFC with 42.3-yd. punting average, and averaged 49.1 yds. on eight punts in two playoff games ... Had 52 kickoffs, 14 of which went for touchbacks. 1994: Lost AFC punting title in photo finish with Raiders' Jeff Gossett, averaging 43.81 yards per kick compared to Gossett's 43.86 ... Had 19 kicks downed inside-20 compared to just 9 touchbacks ... Threw seven-yard TD shovel pass to Jeff Cothran on Oct. 16 at Pittsburgh; Johnson was holder in fake field goal formation ... Suffered first blocked punt in five seasons, Oct. 23 at Cleveland, when Gerald Dixon blocked kick in end zone and Travis Hill recovered for Browns TD ... Handled majority of team's kickoffs throughout season ... Had flawless year as placement holder, with several fine saves.

1995: Had 26 punts downed inside-20 and only 4 touchbacks, a plus-22 differential which led the NFL ... Over the last 10 games, had 18 inside-20 kicks and only 1 touchback ... Suffered blocked punt by Antonio Goss in 3rd quarter Sept. 1 at St. Louis.

JOHNSON DATA: Before joining the Bengals in 1988, Johnson was strictly a barefoot punter, believed to be the first since Henry "Hawaiian" Hughes of the 1932 Boston Braves. But after coming to Cincinnati, he switched to wearing a shoe. The footwear apparently has paid off, as Johnson has become a key performer after being waived by three earlier clubs. "It gives me a little more control," Johnson says, "though I don't get some of the 65-yarders I once got without it."

COLLEGE: Handled punting and placekicking during BYU career, averaging 47.0 on 81 punts, making 95-of-101 PATs and 24 of 40 FG tries ... Set NCAA record at BYU with 60.4-yd. average on five punts in a game against Wyoming ... College nickname was "Thunderfoot."

PERSONAL: Hometown is Conroe, Texas ... Attended McCullough HS in The Woodlands, Texas ... Married (wife Shelly) with twin daughters (Kelsey and Alexandria) ... Works as a stock broker in off-season, and works with Handicapped Ski Programs in Utah ... Hobbies include racquetball, hunting, scuba diving and jazz.

GRAY HAS SEEN 'EM ALL

The Bengals have played 604 games through 1997 — preseason, regular season and postseason — and to the best of the club's knowledge, only equipment manager Tom Gray has been on the scene for every one.

"The first thing that comes to mind about this is that I've been very lucky," says Gray, who joined the Bengals for the 1968 inaugural season after previously serving as assistant equipment manager for the Cleveland Browns. "A lot of things could have happened to make someone miss a game, but I've managed to avoid them."

Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager, has attended 603 of the 604 games through 1997. He missed only the 1991 preseason opener at Detroit to remain in Cincinnati with his father, Paul Brown, who was gravely ill.

TROD JONES*Ht: 6-4 Wt: 325College: Kansas3rd year in NFL*60*1997 Games-Starts: 13-8; Career Games-Starts: 16-9Contract status as of 7-3-98: In final season of a three-year dealAcquired: D7 '96 (219th overall)Born: 1-11-74

Seventh-round pick from '96 draft has done his learning on the job during first two pro seasons, and enters training camp as team's No. 3 tackle, backing up primarily at LT position ... Powerful player with good foot movement, Jones has dispelled injury worries about his knees that caused him to slip in the draft ... Good potential as an NFL starter down the road.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Rod has been thrown into the fire early in each of his first two seasons. We asked him to do things he wasn't necessarily ready for, but he battled through it and improved both times. Right now, he may be a little ahead of where Rich Braham was at the same stage, and you know how much I think of Rich. Rod Jones is going to develop into a good NFL player."

1997: Started Games 1-8 at LT before yielding spot upon Kevin Sargent's full recovery from neck injury... Played every offensive snap in Games 3-6 ... Missed only 5 offensive snaps in Bengals' season-opening win Aug. 31 vs. Arizona ... Aided Ki-Jana Carter's 104-yard rushing effort Sept. 21 at Denver, which broke Cincinnati's 67-game streak without a 100-yard rusher ... Also played in Games 9-12 and 10-14 ... Active but DNP in Games 11 and 15-16 ... Graded perfectly in area of missed assignments on coaches' film reviews, with none in 361 offensive snaps.

1996: Played in all 4 preseason games, starting last 3 at LG, and started at LG in season opener Sept. 1 at St. Louis ... Also played Sept. 8 at San Diego and Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta ... Active but DNP for Game 11 at Buffalo and Game

15 at Houston ... On weekly inactive list for Games 3-10, 13-14 and 16.

MORE FROM COACH PAUL ALEXANDER: "Any problems Rod has had have stemmed from over-aggressiveness. He just needs to develop a little veteran NFL poise. But believe me, it's a lot easier to teach a guy poise than it is to teach him aggressiveness."

COLLEGE: Missed most of junior season ('94) due to injured right knee ligaments, but came back as a senior to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors ... Credited with 93 knockdown blocks as a senior and graded 86% for blocking consistency, playing a major role as Kansas averaged 206.9 rushing yards per game ... Played in every game as a freshman, breaking into starting lineup near end of season, and started every game at LT as a sophomore for Jayhawk team that averaged 213.9 rushing yards and 33:12 possession time ... Originally recruited as a defensive lineman.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Detroit, where he attended Henry Ford HS and had 17 sacks as a senior defensive lineman ... Holds bachelor's degree from Kansas, with major in human development/family living ... Motivational speaker in elementary and high school classrooms ... An avid moviegoer, he also enjoys bowling, billiards and golf.

Justin comes to Bengals via trade with Indianapolis on the heels of his most productive pro season ... Started four games for Indy in '97, and directed Colts to their biggest win, a 41-38 conquest of then-defending NFL champ Green Bay ... Had started two straight games before injury in late November sidelined him for remainder of season ... Late-blooming player who has refused to give up on NFL career goals and may now be ready to come into his own ... Accurate thrower with ideal size and poise in the pocket ... Acquired 3-26-98 by Bengals in exchange for fifth-round pick in '98 draft.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "We are very glad to have been able to obtain Paul during the off-season. We needed to add another quality veteran quarterback, and we thought he played very well for the Colts last year. He's big, with a strong arm, and he's an accurate passer."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started for Colts in Games 8-9 and 11-12 ... Played in reserve role in Games 1, 4-5 and 7 ... Active but DNP in Games 2-3 and 6 ... Inactive for Game 10, Nov. 9 vs. Bengals ... TDs vs. Chargers were 36 yards to Sean Dawkins and 10 yards on a fourth-down play to Aaron Bailey ... Started Nov. 2 vs. Tampa Bay and threw 44-yard strike to Harrison on first series, but forced to bench during second possession after suffering dislocated left middle finger ... Also started Nov. 23 at Detroit, the week following Green Bay win, but was sidelined early in second quarter with knee injury after throwing first-quarter TD pass of 20 yards to Harrison ... Replaced injured starter Jim Harbaugh late in fourth quarter Sept. 21 at Buffalo, and led Colts 43 yards in five plays, finishing drive with 2-yard TD pass to Harrison ... TD pass at Bills closed Buffalo lead to 37-35 with 0:14 to play, but ensuing two-point pass attempt to Harrison was ruled incomplete ... Led 12-play, 86-yard TD drive Oct. 5 vs. N.Y. NO QUITTER: Justin comes to his opportunity with the Bengals after having persevered through practice squads, a season out of football, a season in the Arena Football League and a season in the World League. Prolific passer who led Marshall to 1996 NCAA Division I-AA national title, Kresser brings an NFL-quality arm and a reputation for accuracy to his bid to secure season-long roster spot ... Known in college as a player who delivered mistake-free performance in crucial situations ... Made Bengals' 53-player roster for last five weeks of '97 season, but saw no game action.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Eric showed some signs in preseason last year that he could move the team, and this year he'll get a better chance to truly prove himself. He's an accurate thrower with good enough arm strength. He's just still very young as a pro player."

1997: Signed with Bengals April 25 as rookie free agent ... Posted 97.7 passer rating in preseason, completing 16-of-24 for 151 yards, 1 TD and no INT ... TD pass was 29-yarder to Gunnard Twynier Aug. 22 vs. Seattle ... Waived Aug. 24 in final preseason cuts ... Re-signed Oct. 21 to Bengals practice squad ... On practice squad for Games 8-11 ... Signed to 53-player roster Nov. 17, and was in uniform as designated third QB for Games 12-16.

COLLEGE: Passed for 35 TDs and only 11 interceptions in Marshall's NCAA title season ... Completed 226-of-375 passes (60.2%) for 3407 yards ... Completed 18-of-28 (64.3%) for 324 yards and 4 TDs in Thundering Herd's 49-29 victory over Montana in national championship game ... Transferred to Marshall from Florida, where he had posted excellent numbers in limited action as backup to Danny Wuerffel (1996 Heisman Trophy winner) ... Played for Gators from 1993-95, completing 93-of-160 (58.1%) for 1572 yards, 18 TDs and 5 INT ... Threw for 12 TDs and only 2 INT at Florida in '95, and set a school record with 458 passing yards vs. Northern Illinois in his only start.

PERSONAL: Born in Cincinnati, but moved with family as a youth to Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. ... Attended Palm Beach Gardens HS, where he finished with school records for passing yards (5364) and TD passes (44) and was named one of nation's Top 40 players by Atlanta Journal-Constitution ... Off-season residences are Palm Beach Gardens and Huntington, W.Va. ... Hobbies include artwork, golf and basketball ... Single ... Full name is Eric Joel Kresser.

* — Kresser did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 1997 because he was not on the 53-player roster, the injured reserve list or the PUP list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a first-year player in 1998.

Played 14 games in '97, two more than in his rookie year, but overall impact was limited as he labored all season with nagging left ankle soreness that began in training camp ... Had arthroscopic surgery after season to relieve ankle injury, and worked out throughout off-season at team practice facility ... Earned reputation as a "high-motor" rookie in '96, and should regain his excellent burst around the corner as pass rusher, with sharp change-of-direction.

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "Jevon is a good, solid defensive end, and I'd like to see him play more this year. He's still a promising pass rusher, and he can make plays down the field because he gives a high-effort. He played hurt last year, which is to his credit, and this year he shouldn't have that problem to hold him back."

TREMAIN MACK

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 193

College: Miami (Fla.)

2nd year in NFL

1997 Games-Starts: 4-4; Career Games-Starts: 4-4

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In second season of a three-year deal

Acquired: D4 '97 (111th overall)

Born: 11-21-74

34

A fourth-round draft pick with first-round skills, Mack opened '97 as Bengals starting SS, but was out of uniform the final 12 games due to foot injury and off-field problems ... With a track record of big-play production on the field, he hopes in '98 to jump-start a career with excellent potential ... Could shine on special teams as well as on defense, based on college performance of nine blocked kicks and 38.4-yard average on KO returns.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Tremain has impressed us with his ability. He has what it takes to be very successful in the NFL, and we're counting on him being a big contributor. The first key for him this year is to remain focused and aggressive on the rehab from the foot injury that sidelined him last year. He showed us during the off-season that he can run full speed again. But the injury was to the arch, and any time you're dealing with a weight-bearing area, especially for a defensive back who has to make sudden cuts, you have to be very serious about doing what you can to keep it as strong as possible."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Entered draft after junior season at Miami, and selected by Bengals in fourth round (111th overall) ... Started first three preseason games, but diagnosed Aug. 18 with small cartilage tear in right knee, and underwent arthroscopic surgery Aug. 20 ... Missed final preseason game, but returned to start in Games 1-4 of regular season ... Suffered badly bruised and sprained left foot in Game 4, Sept. 28 vs. Jets ... On weekly inactive list for Games 5-9 ... Placed on Reserve/Non-Football Illness list on Nov. 5, while undergoing evaluation under NFL guidelines for alcohol-related violations ... Granted roster exemption to return to practice on Nov. 26 ... Reinstated from Reserve/NFI to the 53-player roster on Dec. 1 ... On weekly inactive list for Games 14-16.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Had 3 tackles (2 solo) in NFL debut Aug. 31 vs. Arizona; played despite having undergone arthroscopic knee surgery Aug. 20 and missing pre-season finale ... Tied for team lead with 9 tackles Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Had 29-yard INT return Sept. 21 at Denver, picking off John Elway pass 3 yards deep in end zone and returning to Bengals' 26; game was scoreless at the time, and Bengals responded with 74-yard TD drive ... Had 6 tackles Sept. 28 vs. Jets.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "Tremain is one of the most gifted athletes you'll see anywhere. He played very well for us as a rookie before he got hurt. The big thing for him now is just to come back fully healthy, ready to compete for a job. He has the potential to prove he's one of the young stars coming up in this league."

COLLEGE: Was widely regarded as one of college football's hardest hitters, carrying on Miami tradition established by future NFL standout safeties such as Fred Marion, Bennie Blades and Darryl Williams ... All-Big East first-team selection at strong safety following '96 campaign, and was named the conference's special teams Player of the Year ... Set UM record in '96 with 514 yards on kickoff returns, and did it on just 13 attempts, averaging 39.5 yards ... Chosen as conference Player of the Week four times in '96 ... Keyed 31-21 win over West Virginia in '96 Carquest Bowl with TDs on 42-yard interception return and 79-yard fumble return ... Blocked 6 punts and 3 FGs over final two seasons, and deflected two other kicks.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Tyler, Texas, where he resides in off-season ... Three-time All-East Texas selection at Tyler's Chapel Hill HS, where he played DB and tailback ... Rushed for 1267 yards and 22 TDs as a prep senior ... Liberal Arts major at Miami ... Hobbies include fishing and poetry ... Nephew of Phillip Epps, Green Bay WR from 1982-88.

1997 Games-Starts: 16-16. Career Games-Starts: 79-79
 Contract status as of 7-3-98: In third season of a four-year deal
 Acquired: D2 '93 (37th overall)
 Born: 4-21-71

Bengals fixture at TE, McGee returns for '98 with a team-leading string of 71 consecutive starts ... Led club in '97 with 6 receiving TDs, and tied for third in TD catches among NFL tight ends ... One of seven Bengals to start every game ... Had 5 TDs in five weeks over Games 10-14 ... Finished third on team in receptions (34) and receiving yards (414) ... Solid year as blocker for Bengals' 9th-ranked rushing game.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Tony has become a player we rely on. He's a fine receiver, and one thing he probably doesn't get enough credit for is his blocking. He's right there at the point of attack, helping us get things started. He was a factor in the way our rushing game improved in the second half of last season."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started every game for fourth consecutive season ... Has started 79 of a possible 80 games in Bengals career, missing only 11-14-93 vs. Houston, when sidelined with lower back contusion ... Streak of 71 consecutive starts dates to Game 10 of his 1993 rookie season.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Had first 2-TD game of his career in victory Nov. 9 at Indianapolis, making tough catch from Jeff Blake for 15-yard score in first quarter and grabbing 5-yarder from Boomer Esiason midway through fourth quarter to put Bengals on top by 28-10 ... Was held to 1 catch the following week against Pittsburgh, but came back to score in each of the next three games, giving him 5 TDs in five weeks ... Total of 6 TDs for season was his career-high ... Caught 9-yard TD from Esiason in first quarter of victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, putting Bengals ahead 14-0 ... Also had 9-yard TD catch from Esiason in fourth quarter Nov. 30 at Philadelphia ... Scored on 1-yard pass from Esiason in first quarter Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, giving Bengals 14-0 lead ... First TD of season came Sept. 21 at Denver, on 7-yard pass from Blake for game's first score ... Season-long catch was 37 yards Oct. 5 at Jacksonville, longest play of 72-yard TD drive in third quarter ... Had season-high 71 receiving yards Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Season high for receptions was 4, on Sept. 7 at Baltimore and on Nov. 2 vs. San Diego ... Capped Bengals' winning TD drive in fourth quarter Aug. 31 vs. Arizona with 2-point conversion catch on pass from Blake ... Graded by coaches with only 2 dropped passes all season, and none in last 12 games.

COLTS BEWARE: A native of Terre Haute, Ind., and a former resident of Indianapolis, McGee has made a habit of saving top performances for the Indianapolis Colts. For three consecutive seasons (1994-96), he posted his yearly high in receiving yardage against the Colts (70 yards in '94, career-high 118 yards in '95, and 93 yards in '96). In the '96 game, he also tied his career high for catches, with 8. McGee managed only 20 yards receiving in the 1997 Bengals-Colts game, but both his catches were for touchdowns, marking the first 2-TD game of his career. McGee will shoot for a fifth straight stellar performance against the Colts when the teams meet this season on Dec. 13 at Indianapolis.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1993: Drafted by Bengals in second round (37th overall) ... 44 catches were the most by a Bengals tight end since 1989, and his 525 yards the most by a Cincinnati TE since 1990 ... Named to three NFL All-Rookie teams ... Caught 7 for 102 yards Sept. 26 vs. Seattle, and keyed Bengals' victory over Rams on Dec. 19 with six for 90 yards ... Missed one game, Nov. 14 vs. Houston, with lower back contusion ... Led Bengals TEs with 111 special teams plays. 1994: Best overall receiving day (5-70) came Nov. 20 vs. Indianapolis ... Also had five catches Sept. 18 vs. New England and Nov. 27 at Denver ... Scored first NFL touchdown Dec. 24 vs. Philadelphia, with an eight-yard catch from Jeff Blake ... Had career-long receiving gain (54) Dec. 18 at Arizona ... Caught 2 or more passes in 12 games ... Allowed only three pressures and no sacks in 124 pass protection situations ... Flagged for only two penalties, and coaches considered one of those an incorrect call. 1995: 55 receptions and 754 yards were the second-most in Bengals history by a TE, topped only by Dan Ross (71-910) in 1981 ... Finished third in yards and fourth in catches among TEs league-wide ... Second on Bengals to Carl Pickens in receptions ... Yards-per-catch average of 13.7 was tops among the top four TEs in receptions league-wide ... Named as TE on Sports Illustrated's mid-season All-Pro team, chosen by a poll of NFL personnel directors ... Scored 4 TDs, after totaling just 1 in first two seasons ... Had career-high 118 yards Sept. 3 at Indianapolis (on 6 catches); also had season-long 41-yard reception in that game ... Career-high 8 catches Sept. 24 vs. Houston (for 109 yards); included 1-yard TD catch ... Scored 2 TDs against Pittsburgh, 12-yarder Oct. 19 at Steelers and 20-yarder Nov. 19 vs. Steelers ... TD catch of 5 yards Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota tied game at 24 in 4th quarter; Bengals went on to win, 27-24. 1996: Capped season with 8 catches (tied for career high) and 93 yards (season high) on Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis; totals include 9-yard TD catch from Jeff Blake that broke 24-24 tie in Bengals' 31-24 victory ... Caught 1-yard TD pass from Blake for deciding score as Bengals rallied to win in 4th quarter Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore ... Scored on 12-yard pass from Erik Wilhelm in 4th quarter Sept. 8 at San Diego ... Had 5-yard TD reception from Blake for game's first score Oct. 20 at San Francisco ... Made impressive catch-and-run Oct. 6 vs. Houston, gaining 17 yards to Oilers 1-yard line to set up TD pass from Blake to Darnay Scott ... Season-long receiving gain was 22 yards Sept. 8 at San Diego, play which was immediately followed by 27-yard TD pass from Blake to Carl Pickens ... McGee's 19-yard receiving gain Oct. 13 at Pittsburgh was offense's longest play of the game ... Credited by coaches with superior blocking performance in victory Nov. 10 vs. Pittsburgh, and with effective blocking vs. DE Clyde Simmons on Dec. 1 at Jacksonville ... Sidelined in 4th quarter Nov. 3 at Baltimore with mild concussion, but returned to start the following week.

COACH BOB WYLIE SAYS: "Tony has always been able to make the tough catch and also make yardage after the catch. The thing he had to improve on the last couple years was consistently handling the routine catch, and he's done that. His concentration in those situations has gotten much better, and he's reduced his number of dropped balls to the point where I would consider him a very sure-handed receiver."

COLLEGE: Blossomed as a senior, with 32 receptions for 350 yards and four touchdowns ... Added six more catches for 117 yards and two touchdowns in Michigan's 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over Washington.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Terre Haute, Ind. ... Attended Terre Haute South HS ... Off-season residence is Miami, Fla. ... Holds bachelor's degree from Michigan in communications ... His Tony McGee Foundation sponsors the Indiana School of Champions, which puts on free youth football clinics in several locations nationwide ... The School of Champions has been recognized by NFL Charities with financial grants in both 1997 and 1998 ... Hobbies include writing fiction, movies and weightlifting.

1997 Games-Starts: 16-16; Career Games-Starts: 22-21
Contract status as of 7-3-98: In final season of a three-year deal
Acquired: W (Ind.) '96
Born: 1-7-73

One of seven Bengals to start every game in '97, Milne began building reputation among top fullbacks as Cincinnati rushing game emerged from slow start to finish ninth in NFL rankings ... Was lead blocker for HB Corey Dillon's 1129-yard rushing season ... Led RB corps for the season with 565 scrimmage snaps played (of 1000 total) ... Excellent pass protector, he also was a factor as a receiver with 23 catches ... Earns highest coaches' marks for work ethic and overall football awareness.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "I think Brian is already one of the better fullbacks in the league, and he's just getting better. We know what he can do blocking — he's responsible in a big way for the success of our tailbacks — and I think people underrate his athleticism with the ball. He's a tremendous worker who prepares every day to make the most out of the opportunity that day might present. He doesn't take his physical gifts for granted the way some athletes do."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Starting FB for all 16 games, running streak to 21 consecutive starts at FB ... Sideline in third quarter Nov. 2 vs. San Diego with mild concussion, but returned to start the following week.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Had 2 receptions for 22 yards in season opener vs. Arizona, including 20-yard gain in third quarter to help spark first TD drive of Bengals' comeback victory ... Posted career-high 33 receiving yards on 3 catches Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants ... Scored on 2-yard run in victory Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, putting Bengals ahead to stay at 17-14 in second quarter ... Had career-high 4 receptions (for 12 yards) in victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville ... Credited by coaches for superior pass protection work in team's season-high 373-yard passing effort Nov. 30 at Philadelphia; scored on 1-yard run at Philadelphia, giving Bengals 42-41 lead with 1:00 remaining before Eagles came back for winning field goal ... Credited for numerous key blocks Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee as HB Corey Dillon set NFL rookie record with 246 rushing yards.

PUTTING IT IN PERSPECTIVE: Milne has become an NFL starter after surviving a life-threatening attack of Hodgkin's Disease as a teenager. "There isn't a hit in football that will make me say, 'That was worse than six months of chemotherapy,'" Milne says. "Life is gravy after you conquer cancer. If people think of me as a guy who overcame cancer, maybe they'll be inspired. Maybe they'll say to themselves, 'My job is tough, but I'm not going to quit. I'm going to keep going.'"

1996: Drafted by Indianapolis in 4th round (115th overall) ... Waived Aug. 20, and acquired by Bengals on waiver claim Aug. 21 ... On Bengals weekly inactive list for Games 1-4 and 8-11 ... Played on special teams in Game 5 ... Active but DNP in Games 6-7 ... Started Games 12-16 ... Made first NFL start Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta when FB Jeff Cothran was inactive with leg injury, and played well enough to lock up starting job for remainder of season ... Milne's 1-yard TD run in Atlanta game put Bengals ahead 34-24, providing eventual winning points in 41-31 victory ... Had long receiving gain of 15 yards Dec. 1 at Jacksonville, and made excellent belly take on third-and-goal play from Jaguars 1-yard line that froze defense for a TD pass from Jeff Blake to Carl Pickens ... Had 2 receptions for 14 yards in victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore ... Had rushing high of 8 yards on 2 carries in victory Dec. 15 at Houston.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Penn State ... Scored 16 rushing TDs while gaining 512 yards on 114 carries (4.5 avg.) and catching 32 passes for 229 yards ... Closed his college days with a career-high 82 rushing yards on 12 carries in Penn State's 43-14 Outback Bowl victory over Auburn.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Waterford, Pa. ... Attended Fort LeBoeuf HS, where he set state records in discus and shot put, but missed senior football season due to Hodgkin's Disease ... Won gold medal in discus at 1992 World Junior Track Championships in Seoul, South Korea ... Off-season residence is Cincinnati ... Holds B.S. degree from Penn State in labor and industrial relations, with minor in exercise and sports science ... Hobbies include music, hunting and target shooting ... Full name is Brian Fitzsimons Milne.

Fifth-round pick from '96 draft continued steady NFL ascent in '97, playing most of the season as the starting FS and finishing second on team in tackles (82) ... Smart player with excellent grasp of defensive adjustments.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Greg really impressed the coaching staff last year with his work ethic, his intelligence and his willingness to compete. We feel very positive about his development as a safety. He's one of the young players we're counting on to improve this defense."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-5 ... Played as reserve FS behind Bo Orlando in Games 6-7, and regained starting job for Games 8-16 ... His 971 scrimmage snaps ranked third on defensive unit behind Ashley

Ambrose and James Francis ... Played every defensive snap in eight games, team's highest total of 100% defensive participation ... In addition to punt return duties, played special teams on kickoff coverage and FG-PAT block.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "I like to call this guy 'Dr. Myers.' He's the type of person who's always studying. He wants to know why and how, instead of just going out and doing it. We put a lot on Greg last year. He was one of two young safeties out there, both guys trying to find their way, and we were still asking him to tell nine or 10 other guys where to go in the scheme. But he handled it fantastically, and he's developing into a real fine player."

1996: Intercepted Vinny Testaverde pass at Bengals 26 and returned 10 yards to halt Ravens drive in victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore; also had 10 tackles (6 solo) vs. Ravens to tie Bo Orlando for team lead ... Former Steeler was a master of Dick LeBeau's 3-4 zone blitz defensive scheme during LeBeau's years in Pittsburgh ... Rejoins LeBeau in Cincinnati as veteran free agent signee ... Greater Cincinnati native enters '98 season ranked No. 2 on NFL's all-time FG accuracy list (80.56%; see p. 112 for list of leaders) ... Was idle for long stretches during '97 season, as his 16 FG attempts represented the lowest team season total in Bengals history, but he still became the third player in club annals to top 500 career points (501) ... Moved within 48 points of Horst Muhlmann for second place on team's all-time scoring list ... Converted first 7 PAT attempts of '97 to extend streak to 103 straight, breaking Muhlmann's club record of 101 ... Also holds club season records for scoring (121) and field goals (29), both set in '95 ... Handled kickoff duties the entire '97 season, taking on that chore full-time for first time in his NFL career.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "Doug's a great kicker who just didn't have many opportunities to kick field goals last year. The way the games went, that's just how it happened, and he had no control over it. But this year we expect things to be more back to normal, and we know he'll be back to scoring. He's very accurate, as his record shows, and he's got plenty of leg to knock home the long ones. We're very happy with Doug."

WHY SO FEW?: The Bengals' record-low total of 16 FG attempts in '97 can be explained in terms of "red-zone" offensive opportunities and what Cincinnati did with those opportunities. With only 40 trips inside an opponent's 20-yard line on the season, the Bengals tied for 28th in the NFL. But when Cincinnati did cross the 20, the offense scored TDs at a rate of 77.5% (31 total TDs), the highest red-zone TD percentage in the league by more than 15 percent. Thus, there were unusually few FG opportunities for Pelfrey in the area where kickers often fatten their scoring totals.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Kicked 44-yard FG in third quarter Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore, putting Bengals ahead to stay at 10-7 ... Longest FG of season was 46 yards Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Stayed sharp despite lack of attempts, making last 10 FG tries of season, and will set new club mark for consecutive FGs made if he makes his first four tries in '98. ... Two of Pelfrey's 4 missed FG attempts came from 50-plus yards, including a 51-yarder Sept. 7 at Baltimore and a 56-yarder Sept. 21 at Denver; other two misses were a 43-yard try at Baltimore and a 46-yarder which was blocked at Baltimore. ... His team-record of 103 consecutive PATs occurred from 9-18-94 to 10-5-98; the streak was snapped when his second PAT try Oct. 5 at Jacksonville was blocked. ... Made career-high 6 PATs (in 6 attempts) Nov. 30 at Philadelphia.

Pelfrey became eligible to qualify for the record Dec. 1 at Jacksonville, when he met the league minimum requirement of 100 field goals made. ... Total of 110 points was fifth-highest season mark in Bengals history. ... Bengals scoring leaders passed by Pelfrey during season were K Chris Bahr (316 points), WR Isaac Curtis (318), RB James Brooks (384) and FB Pete Johnson (420). ... Posted the tying and winning scores Nov. 3 at Baltimore in biggest road comeback in Bengals history, as team overcame 21-3 halftime deficit; hit 49-yard FG try into tricky wind to tie score at 21-21 with 1:49 left, and completed a 24-21 victory by making 39-yarder at the final gun. ... STREAKS TO REMEMBER

The Bengals' record for consecutive made field goals is 13, first set by Jim Breech in 1990 and later tied by Doug Pelfrey in 1993 and 1995.

But two other Bengals FG streaks are clearly worthy of note:

- While tying the record in '95, Pelfrey also put together a streak of 19 made FGs in 20 attempts. His only miss among the 20 came on a try of 63 yards just before halftime Oct. 29 vs. Cleveland — a boot that would have tied the NFL distance record set in 1970 by Tom Dempsey of New Orleans. Take away that low-percentage attempt, and Pelfrey would have a record-smashing Bengals streak of 19 straight FGs.

- Over the 1973-74 seasons, Horst Muhlmann knocked home 14 straight field goals. But three of the kicks came during a 1973 season playoff game against Miami, and postseason games form a separate category in record-keeping.

Pickens enters '98 season poised to continue an assault on the record book as impressive as any in team history ... Needs only 26 catches to tie Cris Collinsworth's all-time Bengals receptions record, despite having missed last four games of '97 with a torn groin muscle ... Had at least 1 catch in the 12 games he played in '97, extending to 61 his club record for receptions in consecutive games ... Scored 5 TDs, boosting career total to 53, tied for third in club history ... Became fourth player to top 5000 yards receiving as a Bengal ... Led team in TDs four straight years (1993-96) prior to injury-shortened '97 campaign, and his team-record 17 TDs from 1995 remains 7 better than top total posted by any other Bengals receiver.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Carl has long since proven he's a big-time player in the NFL. He's our go-to guy in the passing game. It sounds almost too simple, but his biggest asset is his ability to catch the ball. When it goes up in the air, it's his and he gets it. I haven't seen another receiver quite like him as far as going up and getting it. He's a load for any defensive back to handle, and he'll be back at 100 percent after missing the last few games last season."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-12 ... Suffered torn groin muscle in Game 12, Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville ... On weekly inactive list for Games 13-15, and placed on injured reserve list for Game 16 ... Prior to injury, had started 53 straight games and played in 88 of the last 92.

RECORDS WATCH: Season total of 52 receptions in '97 lifted career total to 391; stands third on club's all-time list behind Cris Collinsworth (417) and Isaac Curtis (416) ... With 695 receiving yards on season, topped career yardage to 5127; stands fourth all-time behind Curtis (7101), Collinsworth (6698) and Eddie Brown (6134) ... Career total of 53 TDs trails Pete Johnson (70) and James Brooks (64), and is tied with Curtis for third place ... Has 52 career receiving TDs (plus 1 on a punt return), and receiving TD total is second all-time behind Curtis (53) ... Total of 61 straight games with a reception is 16 better than the next best streak, 45 by Dan Ross from 1980-83 ... Pickens and QB Jeff Blake have connected for 41 TD passes since 1994, most of any NFL duo during 1994-97; Scott Mitchell and Herman Moore of Detroit are second with 33 TDs in that span.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Opened season with 8 catches in each of the first three games ... In opener Aug. 31 vs. Arizona, caught 6-yard TD from Jeff Blake with 0:38 remaining, lifting Bengals to 22-21 lead and eventual 24-21 win ... Had 8-yard TD catch from Blake for game's first score Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Recorded 15th 100-yard game of his career Sept. 21 at Denver, catching 8-for-125, including 48-yarder from Blake ... His longest catch of season, 50 yards for TD, came Sept. 28 vs. Jets ... 15-yard TD catch from Blake in Nov. 2 victory vs. San Diego gave Bengals first lead at 10-7 ... 5-yard TD catch from Esiason in victory Nov. 9 at Indianapolis put Bengals up 21-10 late in third quarter ... Had 4 catches for 35 yards on first two series Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, but suffered torn groin muscle when tackled by Kevin Hardy and Dave Thomas after 2-yard catch on third-and-one that gave Bengals first down at Jaguars 9, setting up TD.

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "Everybody knows how Carl can go up and get the ball, but what doesn't get mentioned as often is his knack for taking a short pass and making a big play out of it. He's got after-the-catch elusiveness that is outstanding for a big guy. He really has all the skills, and if there's a challenge for him this year, it's to step up and become a true leader on this team."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1992: Drafted by Cincinnati in second round (31st overall) ... Was Associated Press choice as AFC Offensive Rookie of the Year after season of 26 catches for 326 yards and one TD, plus another TD on club-record 95-yard punt return Sept. 20 at Green Bay ... On Nov. 8 in Chicago, made leaping 23-yard TD catch in end zone with 0:59 left in regulation, forcing overtime in game Bengals won 31-28 ... Averaged 12.7 yards on 18 punt returns. 1993: Led Bengals in touchdowns (6) ... All six came on receptions, representing more than half the team's TD catches for the season (6 of 11) ... Led team with 13.1-yard receiving average ... Was hindered by sprained foot last six weeks of season, missing Games 11, 13 and 14 ... Fought through pain in Game 15, Dec. 26 vs. Atlanta, to spark Bengals victory with six catches for 71 yards and two TDs ... Second TD vs. Falcons was six-yarder for game-winner with 1:00 to play ... Had season highs of 7 catches and 127 yards Oct. 24 at Houston, including season-long 36-yard catch. 1994: His 11 TDs led all AFC receivers, and at that time broke Bengals receivers' record of 10 shared by Isaac Curtis and Cris Collinsworth ... Led Bengals in TDs for second straight year ... 71 catches tied 1981 club mark of TE Dan Ross, and broke previous record for catches by a WR (67, Collinsworth) ... Had four straight 100-yard days (Games 10-13), first such streak in Bengals history and first streak of four in NFL since 1990 ... Tied teammate Darnay Scott for NFL lead in receptions of 50-plus yards (5) ... Averaged

KUDOS FROM CRIS: FOX analyst Cris Collinsworth, the former Bengal who currently holds the team's all-time receptions record, has this to say about Pickens, who is likely to break the record in 1998: "With this guy, you're talking about the whole package. He can high-jump seven feet, so he goes up and gets the ball. He can go deep. He's got great hands. He has great moves. The numbers don't lie. No one in this team's history has come close to the catches and TDs he's put up for a season. He's the best they've ever had here."

COLLEGE: Played defensive back as well as WR during Tennessee career that saw him get 109 receptions for 1875 yards ... Made The Sporting News All-America team as a senior ... Had 777 career yards as a kickoff returner.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Thomas brings us two things we need to add to our secondary — speed and experience. The speed factor was very important in our decision to pursue him. And he's a two-year starter for the Giants who has played extensively when he hasn't started. He's going to upgrade our ability level at a crucial position."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-2 for Giants as sub for Phillippi Sparks, who was sidelined by hepatitis ... Also started Game 3, as Giants opened in nickel defense vs. Baltimore, and started Game 16 as Sparks was sidelined by knee sprain ... Played as reserve and/or on special teams in Games 4-15.

Had season-high 3 passes defensed as starter in victory Dec. 21 at Dallas, including two break-ups of second-half passes intended for WR Michael Irvin ... Played only on special teams in Dec. 27 playoff game vs. Minnesota.

Displayed his speed in Lions game by catching Barry Sanders from behind on a 62-yard run ... Was primary defender against WR Carl Pickens on Dec. 11 vs. Cincinnati, and limited Pickens to 59 yards, breaking Pickens' streak of four consecutive 100-yard games ... Named team's defensive MVP on Dec. 18 at Philadelphia, when he had 3 passes defensed and recorded first NFL interception to set up game-tying TD. 1995: Started every game at RCB, despite missing most of preseason with groin

RANDOLPH ON CHOOSING THE BENGALS:

"They were showing me they have confidence in me (in free agency negotiations), and that's what I wanted, a team that has confidence in me to play. I want to show people I'm a Pro Bowl cornerback, and I think this scheme fits me. Man-to-man coverage is my forte."

COLLEGE: Had 9 career interceptions at Kansas State ... Named second-team All-America by Associated Press following senior season ... Two-year starter for Wildcats.

HARD ON HOUSTON

The Bengals' all-time high score in a game is 61. It has been done twice, and both times against Houston (now Tennessee). Cincinnati won 61-17 at the Astrodome in 1972, and 61-7 at Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field) in 1989.

To further the coincidence, the date for both games was December 17.

The 54-point margin from the 61-7 game is the largest winning margin in Bengals history.

1997 Games-Starts: 10-8; Career Games-Starts: 58-47
Contract status as of 7-3-98: In final season of a two-year deal
Acquired: CFA '92
Born: 3-31-69

Consistent, technically sound veteran looks for a full season of action in '98 after returning from neck surgery in mid-season of '97 ... Started the final eight games last season, and his return helped the line significantly improve its effectiveness compared to season's first half ... Brought needed experience to the left side of the offensive front while providing solid pass protection from the LT position ... Graded perfectly in area of missed assignments on coaches' film reviews, with none in 604 total plays.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "It was good to see Sarge come back from his injury. He's a very reliable player; we're always comfortable with him at the left tackle position. He's a technically solid NFL pass blocker who can play left tackle, and that's all a guy really needs on his resume if he's an offensive lineman."

1997: Opened training camp on Physically Unable to Perform list, still suffering after-effects of August 1996 surgery for a herniated neck disc that had caused him to miss entire '96 season ... Remained on PUP list for Games

1-5 ... Granted a roster exemption to return to practice on Oct. 8, and remained off roster for Game 6, Oct. 12 at Tennessee ... Added to 53-player roster on Oct. 18, and on Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh he played in reserve role, seeing first game action since 1996 preseason opener ... Also in reserve role for Game 8, Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants, but played 43 of 63 offensive snaps and proved himself ready to regain starting job ... Started Games 9-16, playing every offensive snap in six of the eight contests ... In his first start, Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, threw key block to help spring HB Corey Dillon for 71-yard TD run ... Awarded offensive Game Ball along with other members of offensive line for effort Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, when Dillon rushed for NFL rookie record of 246 yards.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1992: Longshot from Division I-AA Eastern Washington made the squad out of training camp and played in all 16 games, with eight starts at LT ... Performed well in daunting role of replacing All-Pro Anthony Munoz, who missed eight games with injuries ... Led the offensive line with two fumble recoveries.

Spent the next 11 weeks on inactive status, and was transferred to the injured reserve list Dec. 3. 1994: Opened training camp as candidate for starting C job, but was switched to LT in preseason shakeup caused by injury to Joe Walter ... Played 93.1% of offensive snaps for the season (924 of 992), second-best percentage on the offensive unit ... Played every offensive snap in 13 games ... Started first five games, lost job to Mark Dennis for Game 6, but won it back the next week and held it the remainder of the season ... Consistent play helped Bengals improve nine spots from 1993 in NFL total offense rankings (27th to 18th). 1995: Opened season with fine effort at Indianapolis against pass rush threat Trev Alberts ... Also credited by coaches for particularly effective jobs against Miami's Marco Coleman on Oct. 1 and against Tampa Bay's Shane Curry on Oct. 8 ... Showed excellent footwork and change of direction all season ... Cited for only 1 missed assignment in 852 total snaps ... Coaches rated him "exceptional" at LG in season finale Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota, given that he had not worked at G until the week of the game, and was matched against Pro Bowl DT John Randle ... Played every snap at LT in Games 1-12 ... Sidelined after 13 plays Dec. 3 at Green Bay with ankle sprain, causing him to miss Dec. 10 game vs. Chicago. 1996: Opened training camp as starting LG ... Played in preseason opener vs. Indianapolis, but reported soreness and stiffness following the game, and was diagnosed Aug. 7 with herniated disc in his neck ... Placed on injured reserve list on Aug. 14 ... Underwent surgery in late August and spent remainder of season in rehab.

Led team with a career-high 4 interceptions and finished second in passes defended (13) despite starting only two games.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Corey left a very favorable impression on our coaching staff at the end of last season. He got an opportunity to play, and he produced. He had a significant impact on us winning the Dallas game, and he was playing for part of that game with a fractured elbow. Believe me, when a player gets an opportunity and does something with it, coaches take notice of that."

1997 PARTICIPATION: In nickel back role for Games 1-13 ... Elevated to starter at RCB for Games 14-15 ... Suffered chipped bone in left elbow in Game 15, Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, and on weekly inactive list for Game 16.

Team-leading total of 4 INT also included pickoff of Kordell Stewart on Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh and swipe against Stan Humphries on Nov. 2 vs. San Diego; caught Humphries pass intended for Tony Martin at Chargers 39 in second quarter and made team's season-long INT return of 37 yards, setting up TD which put Bengals ahead to stay at 17-14 ... Had 2 passes defended Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, and added 2 passes defended with 3 solo tackles vs. San Diego ... Made first start of the season in Dec. 4 victory vs. Tennessee, and had 1 pass defended while finishing second on the team with 4 solo tackles ... Had 4 passes defended Nov. 27 at Denver, tying team high for the season, and also had personal-high 6 tackles in that game ... Accomplished second-place finish in passes defended despite playing only 39% of defensive snaps ... His 307 punt return yards were third-most in Bengals history ... Missed one game, Dec. 18 at Arizona, with bruised thigh, 1995: Credited with 20-yard sack on Jim Harbaugh Sept. 3 at Indianapolis, longest Bengals sack of season ... Was only Bengal to be credited with 4 passes defended in a game, and did it twice, in victories Oct. 19 at Pittsburgh and Dec. 10 vs. Chicago ... Intercepted Steelers pass in end zone Oct. 19 at Pittsburgh, stopping drive late in 4th quarter of Bengals victory ... Also had 2-yard sack on Erik Kramer vs. Chicago ... Led team with 3 forced fumbles, getting one each in Games 4-6 ... Had 61-yard INT return Dec. 3 at Green Bay, off league MVP Brett Favre; longest INT return of season by Bengals, and longest of season allowed by Packers ... Led team with 3 passes defended in Nov. 12 victory at Houston ... Suffered shoulder injury while sacking Harbaugh in Sept. 3 season opener at Indianapolis and missed next 4 games ... Returned to action in Game 6, Oct. 8 at Tampa Bay, and made first pro start in Game 7, Oct. 19 at Pittsburgh, subbing for RCB Rod Jones ... Also started Games 8-10 & 12-15, 1996: Had 62-yard punt return, team's longest of season, setting up field goal on Sept. 1 at St. Louis ... COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "Corey struggled early last year with the new system, but he showed what you can do when you stick with it and get back to the fundamentals. He wound up as a starter, and was very instrumental in us winning down the stretch. He made big plays against Dallas playing with a broken elbow. He's a feisty guy who's always on you to put him in the game, and when he gets in, he's not afraid to do what it takes to make plays."

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205

College: San Diego State

5th year in NFL

86

1997 Games-Starts: 16-15; Career Games-Starts: 64-59

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In first season of a five-year deal

Acquired: D2 '94 (30th overall)

Born: 7-7-72

Bengals' prime deep threat returns for '98 with new contract, after closing '97 with the best stretch of a productive NFL career ... Strong finish, combined with injury to Carl Pickens, led Scott to his first team titles in receptions (54) and receiving yards (797) ... Clicked with QB Boomer Esiason and filled the gap created at No. 1 WR when Pickens was lost for final four weeks ... Has played every game in four-year career, starting 59 of the 64 ... Signed five-year contract (through 2002) on 2-10-98, passing on chance to become unrestricted free agent.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Darnay's challenge is just to keep showing the consistency he had at the end of last year. With Carl Pickens injured, he became the No. 1 guy, and he played like a No. 1 guy every week. He's our speed guy, our home-run hitter with the ability to make the big play in the passing game. If there's something he needs to work on, it's that he's dropped a few balls, but he's improving. And in any event, that's overridden by the big plays he's able to make."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-9 and 11-16 ... Played through soreness from cracked rib in late October ... In reserve role (coaches' decision) behind David Dunn for Game 10, Nov. 9 at Indianapolis.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Took over No. 1 WR role for last four games and averaged 105.8 yards per game (423 total on 22 catches; 3 TDs) ... Teamed with Boomer Esiason for Bengals' longest scrimmage play of the season, a 77-yard TD pass Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore ... 77-yarder vs. Ravens came with 3:41 to play and Cincinnati guarding a 10-7 lead, giving Bengals cushion for a late Baltimore score in 16-14 win ... Totaled season-high 129 yards vs. Baltimore, and 6 catches tied his season best ... Had 4 catches for 112 yards Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, including 48-yard TD catch from Esiason with 0:25 left in first half, putting Bengals ahead to stay at 17-10 ... Dallas and Baltimore games marked the second time for Scott to have back-to-back 100-yard games; first instance also involved Dallas, as Scott had 4-for-155 vs. Cowboys on 10-30-94 and 7-for-157 at Seattle on 11-6-94 ... Raised career total of 100-yard games to six ... Opened season with 5-catch, 75-yard game Aug. 31 vs. Arizona, and had catches of 16 and 20 yards to begin Bengals' 63-yard drive for winning TD late in fourth quarter ... 26-yard TD catch from Jeff Blake on Sept. 28 vs. Jets ... Had 6 receptions, tying season-high, for 52 yards Nov. 2 vs. San Diego ... Scored eventual winning TD on Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, taking 11-yard TD pass from Esiason for 28-7 lead in second quarter ... Had team-high 6 catches for 99 yards Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, including 10-yard TD from Esiason in first quarter ... Tied season-high with 6 catches (for 83 yards) Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee.

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "Darnay is one of the keys to our offense, because he's our deep threat. One of his biggest assets is his release off the line. He's got a knack for defeating bump-and-run coverage, and as far as I'm concerned, that's something that separates the men from the boys among NFL receivers."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1994: Drafted by Bengals in second round (30th overall) ... Tied teammate Carl Pickens for NFL lead in receptions of 50-plus yards (5) ... Led AFC in yards per catch (18.8) ... Became only player in Bengals history to record back-to-back games of 150 receiving yards when he caught 4 for 155 on Oct. 30 vs. Dallas and 7 for 157 on Nov. 6 at Seattle ... Had team's longest catch of season (76) at Seattle, setting up game-winning field goal in OT ... Scored TDs on passes of 67 and 55 yards vs. Dallas, joining Isaac Curtis (1973) as only Bengals to score on two passes of 50-plus in the same game ... Threw one pass, Nov. 20 vs. Indianapolis, and completed it for 53 yards to Carl Pickens ... Caught at least one pass in every game ... Had first start Sept. 18 vs. NE ... Returned to reserve role in Games 4-5, but started final 11 games ... Named to three major all-rookie teams. 1995: Second on Bengals in receiving yards (821) and TDs (5), and third in catches (52) ... His 88-yard TD catch from Jeff Blake on Sept. 17 at Seattle was the longest AFC pass play of the season ... Had second-best yards-per-catch average (15.8) among AFC receivers with 50 or more catches, trailing only Denver's Anthony Miller (18.3) ... First Bengals player to top 800 receiving yards in each of first two seasons since Eddie Brown in 1985-86 ... 38-yard TD reception late in 3rd quarter Dec. 10 vs. Chicago produced eventual winning points in 16-10 victory ... Made opening score of game in both meetings with division champ Pittsburgh, with 47-yard TD catch Oct. 19 at Steelers and 4-yarder Nov. 19 vs. Steelers ... Only Bengal to get two 50-plus receptions in same game; scored on 51-yarder Sept. 24 vs. Houston, and set up another TD with 56-yard gain to the Oiler 2 ... Caught at least 1 pass in every game for second straight season. 1996: With 833 yards, became only receiver in club history to top 800 mark in each of his first three seasons ... His 58 catches moved his three-year total to 156, third-most of any Bengals player in his first three seasons; leaders in receptions first three years are Cris Collinsworth (182) and Dan Ross (168) ... Scott had 50 or more receiving yards in 11 of 16 games ... Had career-high 8 receptions for a season-high 103 yards in victory

Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore ... Put Bengals ahead to stay Sept. 15 vs. New Orleans with 24-yard TD catch in 2nd quarter for 10-3 lead ... Had 7 catches for 83 yards vs. New Orleans, his second-highest total of season in each category, despite playing with pulled rib cage muscle ... Scored game's first TD in victory Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta, on 20-yard pass ... Season-long catch of 83 yards produced TD Oct. 20 at San Francisco ... Second-longest catch was 48 yards Dec. 1 at Jacksonville ... Pushed Bengals to 16-7 lead Sept. 1 at St. Louis with 6-yard TD catch ... Had 46-yard catch to set up a TD in victory Oct. 27 vs. Jacksonville ... Started every game for second straight season, but was slowed by late-season hip injury and saw limited action in Games 15-16.

NFL ANALYST BOOMER ESIASON SAYS: "When Carl Pickens was injured last year, I told Darnay that the last five weeks of the season were his chance to shine. I told him he could be a No. 1 receiver, and he didn't have to be a No. 2. There comes a time in a career when you go through some troubles early and say, 'I'm a darn good football player.' You're watching the Pro Bowl, and you know you're better than some of those guys, and you say, 'I can do this.' I think that's what Darnay learned about himself last season."

COLLEGE: Set San Diego State career record with 3139 receiving yards, smashing former mark of 2678 ... Caught 19 TD passes his last two seasons, despite sharing ball with star TB Marshall Faulk ... Teamed with Faulk to form top offensive duo in NCAA Division I history, amassing 10,410 yards (Scott 4656; Faulk 5754) ... Set WAC record in 1992 with 274 receiving yards vs. Texas-EI Paso.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Louis ... Moved to San Diego in 1988 ... Hobbies include playing basketball and Nintendo games.

Veteran defender with a solid track record in Dick LeBeau's defensive system joins Bengals for '98 and will compete for starting DE spot which opened due to off-season injury to John Copeland ... Signed as free agent on 4-15-98 after spending '97 season with Carolina ... Led Pittsburgh defensive linemen with a combined 15.5 sacks over 1994-95 seasons.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Ray can be a very effective player for us. He's a big man, but he's surprisingly agile and quick for his size. He was very productive for us when I was in Pittsburgh. It's no secret, though, that it's crucial for Ray to keep his weight under control. If he does that, he has a real opportunity here."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Signed March 4 by Carolina as unrestricted free agent ... Started Games 6-11 and 13 at RE ... Played as reserve in Games 1-5, 12 and 16 ... On weekly inactive list for Games 14-15.

SSSAM SHADE*Ht: 6-1 Wt: 201College: Alabama4th year in NFL*35*1997 Games-Starts: 16-12; Career Games-Starts: 44-14Contract status as of 7-3-98: One-year contract for 1998Acquired: D4 '95 (102nd overall)Born: 6-14-73

Best surprise of '97 season for Bengals defense, Shade took over starting SS role for injured Tremain Mack in Game 5 and started the rest of the way, finishing as team's tackling leader with 96 total stops ... Showed exceptional hustle and excellent ability for making solo tackles in open field against top runners ... His 4 sacks led DBs and tied for third on team ... Despite starting most of season, he finished third in special teams tackles (19) ... Shade and LB James Francis were the only Bengals to notch an entry in every column of the defensive stat sheet ... Signed one-year contract for this season on 6-15-98.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Sam was one of the true highlights last year as our staff came in to work with a new group of players and put in a new scheme. We didn't know a lot about him at the beginning, because he hadn't played much. There wasn't much video to watch. But once he got his chance, he continued to develop and improve almost daily. These types of players happen, but they don't happen regularly. We're looking for exciting things from Sam in the next couple of years as he continues to expand his knowledge and improve."

1997 PARTICIPATION: In reserve role for Games 1-4, and started Games 5-16 ... Played only 39 scrimmage snaps in Games 1-4, but played 95.7% of defensive snaps (813 of 849) over final 12 games ... Ranked fifth on defense with 852 snaps for season ... Played every defensive snap in two games and led defense in snaps played in two others.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: In 12 games as a starter, Shade led the defense in tackles seven times and finished second in two other games ... Won coaches' defensive Game Ball for effort in victory Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee; led team with 6 solo tackles and forced Oilers punt with 6-yard sack on Steve McNair ... Won coaches' special teams Game Ball in victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville; his 3 special teams tackles vs. Jaguars included forced fumble against Willie Jackson on kickoff return, setting up Bengals TD for 14-0 lead in first quarter ... Had season-high 11 tackles on defense (7 solo) Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, and added team's season-high for special teams tackles (5); had 21-yard INT return vs. Eagles in first quarter but fumbled ball back to Philadelphia ... Led team with 10 tackles (8 solo) in victory Nov. 9 at Indianapolis; set up game's first TD vs. Indy with forced fumble against Marshall Faulk which James Francis recovered at Bengals' 49 ... Also at Indy, sacked Kelly Holcomb in first quarter, forcing 5-yard loss to Bengals 8, and Colts missed FG two plays later ... Led team with 9 tackles (8 solo) in first start, Oct. 5 at Jacksonville ... Had 7 solos and a 6-yard sack on Steve McNair Oct. 12 at Tennessee ... Led team with 9 solo tackles Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, and led again with 10 (8 solo) on Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants ... Led Dec. 14 victory vs. Dallas with team-high 10 tackles (7 solo) and 1 pass defended ... Sacked Eric Zeier for 8-yard loss in second quarter Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore, forcing punt ... Started on all coverage and return teams early in season, and volunteered to remain on kickoff coverage team after assuming starting role ... Other games in which he led club in special teams tackles were Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants (2) and Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville (3).

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1995: Drafted by Bengals in fourth round (102nd overall) ... Played as reserve in Games 1-6 and 8-15 ... Started at SS in Games 7 and 16, subbing for injured Bracey Walker ... Praised by coaches for aggressive play in first pro start, Oct. 19 Bengals win at Pittsburgh; credited with 9 tackles in coaches' stats ... Had season-high 6 tackles (all solo) in start Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota ... Had only 2 plays with regular defense Sept. 17 at Seattle, but registered solo tackles on each ... Special teams starter on KOR and kickoff units. 1996: Clinched victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore, tackling Ravens' Carwell Gardner for no gain on pass reception on fourth-and-goal from Bengals one-yard line in final minute; Bengals held on for 21-14 win ... Saw most of his scrimmage action in goal-line situations and vs. multiple tight end formations ... Named by coaches as special teams Player of the Week for kick coverage work in victory Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis; led special teams with 3 tackles (1 solo) ... Finished 7th on special teams for the season with 10 tackles (5 solo) ... Played in Games 1-7, 11 and 13-16 ... On inactive list for Games 8-10 and 12.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "I don't have enough superlatives to talk about what Sam did for us last year. He started out as a guy who hadn't played much, who was really sort of an afterthought, and he wound up being one of the defensive stars of the team. As I said near the end of last season, if we can get 11 guys out there like Sam, we'll be a Super Bowl team."

COLLEGE: Played in every game during four-year stint with Crimson Tide ... Finished third in tackles (57) as a senior and added 4 tackles for loss, 3 fumble recoveries and a 28-yard interception ... Returned fumble 30 yards for TD vs. LSU ... Finished second on team in tackles as a junior (73) and had 5 tackles for loss.

Averaged a tackle per game in reserve role for first six games in '97, but his season was cut short by torn groin muscle ... Rangy athlete with long arms, he has shown big-play potential and seeks more consistency ... Has added weight and strength during off-season workouts.

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "Ramondo should be a bigger, stronger player this year after a good off-season of workouts, and hopefully that's going to make him more durable. We think the 3-4 scheme is more suitable for him than a 4-3, but we didn't get a chance to fully see that last year because he got hurt. This is a key year for him, to show he's ready to contribute regularly as a veteran guy."

1997: Played as defensive reserve in Games 2 and 5-6 ... Played special teams only in Games 1 and 3-4 ... Had 1 solo tackle Sept. 7 at Baltimore and 2 solos Oct. 5 at Jacksonville ... Played season-high 20 defensive snaps Oct. 12 at Tennessee and had 3 solo tackles, but suffered torn groin muscle in practice the following week ... Has played inside LB in previous seasons, but worked on possible switch to outside in May '98 mini-camp ... Played 14 games in '97 despite one of the shortest rehabs from major knee surgery in club history ... Suffered two torn ligaments (ACL and MCL) in left knee on 12-1-96 ... Ranked fourth on squad in special teams snaps (238) and ranked fifth in special teams tackles (11) ... Led Bengals in tackles in '94 and '95, and was leading the team in '96 until his injury ... Fiery, emotional player who has impressed coaches throughout his career with willingness to battle through physical problems.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "I was very proud of Steve last year for the courage and strength he displayed in coming back from a very serious (knee) injury. He had relatively little rehab time, because he incurred the injury very late in the (1996) season. But as he went along, he became more and more effective, and the confidence he will have gained from playing on that knee and seeing it progress will be a great asset to him this year."

In regular season, started Games 4-5 and 13-16 at LILB for injured Tom Tumulty ... Played as reserve in Games 1-3, 4 and 9-13 ... Inactive for Games 7-8 due to soreness in surgical knee.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1993: First of two Bengals' draft picks in third round; was 59th overall pick ... Gained starting position in Game 8 vs. Pittsburgh and held it the rest of the season; played at both the strong and weak-side inside positions in the 3-4 defense ... Played in only one preseason game due to broken left hand, and had to play first 6 regular season games with left hand in fully enclosed "club cast" ... Played every defensive snap in first 7 games ... Suffered torn knee cartilage in Game 8, Oct. 29 vs. Cleveland, but returned to action after missing 15 snaps ... Expert long snapper handled Bengals punt snaps for the fourth straight year in '97, and did place-kick snaps for second straight season ... Also ranked sixth on team in special teams tackles (10), and was awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by coaches for his snapping plus a 2-tackle performance in Indianapolis game ... Late discovery by NFL scouts, Truitt was in his first pro football training camp in 1994, when he made Bengals roster at age 28 to become the NFL's oldest rookie in 48 years.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "Greg has proven himself to be a very efficient long snapper in the NFL, and if you don't have a guy like that, you can have a lot of struggles. I'm thankful we have his talent, and he's also an excellent cover guy after the snap. He was into double digits in tackles last year despite battling some ankle and shoulder problems, and we're going to need another 10 tackles out of him this year."

1997: Played every game for fourth straight season ... Made only one punt snap that punter was unable to handle, a high delivery to Lee Johnson on Sept. 21 at Denver, and for his career Truitt has had only that one snap elude a punter in 310 total tries ... Led special teams with 2 tackles Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, including stop on Steelers' Aaron Coleman at Pittsburgh's 20 for no gain in second quarter ... Tied for special teams lead with 2 tackles in victory Nov. 9 at Indianapolis ... Place-kick snapping helped K Doug Pelfrey finish season in second place on NFL's all-time FG accuracy list.

Credited in coaches' stats with 17 "total hits" on punt coverage team, second-most on unit ... Had 13 tackles (8 solo) on punt coverage in coaches' stats, and 6 tackles (4 solo) in press box special teams stats ... Helped set up game-winning FG Nov. 6 at Seattle by teaming with Roger Jones to down a 64-yard punt at Seahawks 2 during OT ... Backup snapper on field goals, and saw spot duty on KOR unit. 1995: Snapped on 70 Bengals punts without having a snap bounce or sail over the punter ... Ran total for career to 149 punt snaps without a miscue ... Aided P Lee Johnson's second-place NFL finish in net punting average (38.6) ... Tied for third on punt coverage unit in coaches' statistics with 4 tackles (3 solo, 1 assist) ... Credited with 2 special teams tackles in press box stats. 1996: In 80 snaps to P Lee Johnson, had no serious miscues ... Precise snapping helped Johnson post career-best punting average (45.4) ... As place-kick snapper, Truitt helped K Doug Pelfrey to 41-for-41 reading on PATs and to 23-of-28 FG performance which pushed Pelfrey into NFL's all-time FG accuracy lead (81.25%) ... Had 6 tackles (5 solo) on punt coverage, and earned coaches' rating as special teams Player of the Week for combined snapping and coverage in victory Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta ... Earned special teams Hit of the Week from coaches for hit on Darrius Johnson on punt coverage work Sept. 29 vs. Denver.

TOM TUMULTY

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 247
College: Pittsburgh
3rd year in NFL

1997 Games-Starts: 11-11; Career Games-Starts: 27-14
Contract status as of 7-3-98: In final season of a three-year deal
Acquired: D6 '96
Born: 2-11-73

Sixth-round pick from '96 draft moved into starting role in '97 and proved to be one of club's most rugged interior run defenders ... Adjusted well in switch to 3-4 scheme ... Cited by coaching staff for excellent "contact ratio" (number of hits compared to snaps played), as well as for coachability and work ethic ... Ranked sixth on team in tackles (56) despite missing five games with injuries.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "As much as anything on this defense, we're trying to build an attitude, and Tom is one of the players we're trying to build that with. The ideas behind the attitude are attack, swarm to the ball, dedication, focus and concentration. Tom is all of those things, and he can be part of the nucleus we build around."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-3 and 6-13 at LILB ... Suffered severe thigh bruise in Game 3, Sept. 21 at Denver, and on inactive list for Games 4-5 ... Suffered sprained foot in Game 13, Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, and placed on injured reserve Dec. 1, missing final three games.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Tied for team lead with 8 solo tackles Aug. 31 vs. Arizona ... Had 4 solos Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Returned from thigh injury to log 5 tackles (4 solo) Oct. 12 at Tennessee ... Led LBs with 9 tackles (4 solo) Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants ... Had 4 tackles (3 solo) in Nov. 2 win vs. San Diego, and had 6 tackles (5 solo) the next week at Indianapolis ... Led LBs with 9 tackles (5 solo) Nov. 16 at Pittsburgh, and had first career sack for 5-yard loss on Kordell Stewart in third quarter ... Led LBs with 6 tackles (4 solo) in victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville ... Had 2 tackles (1 solo) in first quarter on Nov. 30 at Philadelphia before suffering season-ending foot sprain.

1996: Played as reserve in Games 1-13 ... Started in Games 14-16 as sub for injured Steve Tovar ... Made first NFL start in victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore, and led LBs with 5 tackles (all solo) while adding 2 passes defended ... Led LBs again Dec. 15 at Houston, with 8 tackles (5 solo) and excellent zone pass coverage ... Had season-high 6 solos and 8 total tackles in season finale Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis; made line calls for the front seven vs. Indy and played a major role as Colts were held to 266 net yards, including just 35 rushing on 19 carries ... Prior to Tovar's injury, saw his most significant scrimmage action on Sept. 8 at San Diego, playing 22 second-half snaps and recording 6 tackles (4 solo) ... Played 162 special teams snaps, second-most among LBs ... Ranked 5th on team in special teams tackles with 12 (7 solo) and had 1 forced fumble on special teams.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Tom is what I like to call a 'downhill player,' meaning that he really attacks the line of scrimmage aggressively in playing the run. He was a solid player for us last year. He is a smart and effort-filled performer."

COLLEGE: Left Pittsburgh as school's No. 3 all-time tackler (404), and was known as an emotional leader on defensive unit ... First-team All-Big East as a senior, recording 116 tackles and 12 tackles for loss ... Knee injury as a junior forced him to miss two games and miss parts of five others, but he still finished as semi-finalist for Dick Butkus Award, given to nation's top college LB ... Named a Sophomore All-American in 1993 by Football News.

KIMO von OELHOFFEN

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 305
College: Boise State
5th year in NFL

67

1997 Games-Starts: 13-13; Career Games-Starts: 48-15
Contract status as of 7-3-98: In second season of a three-year deal
Acquired: D6a '94 (162nd overall)
Born: 1-30-71

Strong and stocky, Kimo von Oelhoffen excelled in '97 as Bengals switched to 3-4 defense, and returns for '98 in starting NT role ... Started 13 games at NT last season, and was line's leading tackler until an ankle sprain took him out of the lineup for three games in November ... Led defensive linemen in special teams snaps (91).

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Kimo went into last season as an unproven guy. But we thought from watching video that he could answer our nose tackle question, and he fulfilled our hopes. He got better and better as the year progressed, and I think in the next couple years, he has the chance to come on and be one of the better nose tackles in the league. His effort level is good, his strength is good, his athleticism good for the position, and I like his knowledge of the scheme."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-10 and 14-16 ... Suffered ankle sprain in Game 10, Nov. 9 at Indianapolis, and on weekly inactive list due to injury for Games 11-13.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Despite missing three games, finished as line's second-leading tackler with 42 (32 solo), behind only John Copeland ... Led line in tackles for four games in a five-game stretch before missing next three games with ankle injury ... Led line with 5 tackles (4 solo) Oct. 12 at Tennessee, and also led line the next two weeks with 6 tackles (5 solo) Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh and season-high 8 tackles (6 solo) Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants ... Had 2 solos Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, and came back to lead line again Nov. 9 at Indianapolis with 4 tackles (2 solo), despite suffering ankle injury in that game ... Returned from injury to start season's final two games, recording 2 solo tackles

Dec. 14 vs. Dallas and 2 tackles (1 solo) Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore.

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "Kimo did a fine job last year in his first year as a starter. A key for him was improving his ability to control an offensive lineman with his hands. He was better at disengaging from a blocker and using his hands and arms for leverage. We're looking forward to another good season from him."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1994: Drafted by Bengals in 6th round (162nd overall) ... Had two solo tackles Sept. 11 at San Diego ... Played in Games 2-6, 10, 13 & 15 ... Inactive list for Games 1, 7-9, 11-12, 14 and 16. 1995: Played as reserve in Games 1-3 and 5-16 ... Started at RDT in Game 4, Sept. 24 vs. Houston, for injured Keith Rucker ... Had 2 solo tackles in 3 games — Nov. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, Dec. 17 at Cleveland and Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota ... Had 2 tackles (1 solo) and a batted pass Nov. 26 at Jacksonville ... Had 2 games with more than 20 snaps — 22 on Sept. 10 vs. Jacksonville and season-high 46 on Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota ... Credited by coaches with major contribution on kickoff return team, where he was a starter most of the year. 1996: His 17 tackles, including 14 solos and 1 for loss, more than doubled total of 8 from 1995 season ... Came up big in starting assignment for Dec. 15 victory at Houston, taking part in 2 sacks and leading line with 7 tackles (5 solo and 1 for loss); teamed with Tim Morabito to sack Chris Chandler for no gain in 3rd quarter, and teamed with Corey Sawyer to drop Steve McNair for 5-yard loss in 4th quarter; also had a deflected pass at Oilers ... Led line with 3 solo tackles Sept. 8 at San Diego, filling in at both tackle positions ... Led line with 3 solos in comeback victory Nov. 3 at Baltimore ... Played as reserve in Games 2-3, 5-6, 9-10, 12-14 and 16 ... Started Game 15 at Houston at RDT for injured Tim Johnson ... On weekly inactive list for Games 1, 4, 7-8 and 11 ... Inactive status for Game 7 at San Francisco was due to shoulder strain.

COLLEGE: Began college career in 1990 at University of Hawaii, but transferred to Walla Walla (Wash.) JC in 1991 and to Boise State in 1992 ... Played only half the season in '92 due to stress fracture in foot, but had 2 sacks, 4 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery ... Slowed in senior season by a sprained ankle, but still had 4 sacks, 4 tackles for loss and 5 passes defended.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Kaunakakai, Hawaii ... Attended Molokai HS ... Off-season residence is Kennewick, Wash. ... Married (wife Tondi) with one child, Jalyn ... Favorite hobbies are volleyball and basketball ... Product of a diverse background; his father is German-Hawaiian, and his mother is Hawaiian-Portuguese.

REINARD WILSON

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 261

College: Florida State

2nd year in NFL

1997 Games-Starts: 16-3; Career Games-Starts: 16-3

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In second season of a five-year deal

Acquired: D1 '97 (14th overall)

Born: 12-17-73

55

Bengals' top '97 draft pick is a central figure in team plans for a more consistent pass rush in '98 ... Showed excellent potential for power and explosiveness while playing every game in rookie season, but lacked consistency while making switch from college DE to pro OLB ... Was starter at RE in nickel package ... Known at Florida State for relentless effort on every down, he left school as Seminoles' all-time sacks leader (35.5).

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "This is a big season for Reinard. We anticipated a transitional period for him as a rookie, because we were asking him to learn how to drop into pass coverage after he had played strictly as a rusher in college. But toward the latter part of last season, he began to produce along the lines we had seen him do in college. We think the next two years will be dramatic in showing his improvement."

1997 PARTICIPATION: Signed rookie contract July 18, missing only one practice day at training camp ... Started Games 1-2 and 4 ... In reserve role on base defense for Games 3 and 5-16 ... Played 90 special teams snaps, on punt return and FG block units.

1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Had 3 solo tackles in NFL debut Aug. 31 vs. Arizona, including 1-yard loss against Larry Centers to force punt during Bengals' fourth-quarter comeback for victory ... Also had 1 pass defended vs. Cardinals ... Had 2 solo tackles Sept. 7 at Baltimore, and forced fumble by Earnest Byner which Bengals recovered to set up 58-yard, second-quarter TD drive for game's first score ... Credited with season-high 7 tackles (all solo) Sept. 28

vs. N.Y. Jets ... Collected a pair of 9-yard sacks on Craig Whelihan in Nov. 2 victory vs. San Diego, the first forcing a punt in third quarter and the second forcing a punt in fourth quarter ... Closed season in victory Dec. 21 vs. Baltimore with 2 solo tackles and 5-yard sack against Eric Zeier in fourth quarter.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Reinard is a very strong, tremendously explosive athlete. He got better as last season progressed, making the transition from being a rush defensive end in a three-point stance in college to an outside linebacker who has to drop to defend the pass as well as rush the passer. He will improve as he gets more reps and experience with the system."

COLLEGE: All-American first-team selection in 1996 senior season by Football Writers Association and Walter Camp Foundation ... Second-team All-American on Associated Press and Football News teams ... Had 13.5 sacks as a senior for 67 yards in losses, and also had 22 tackles for loss on running plays for 92 yards in losses ... Had 9 sacks as a junior, earning All-America honorable mention from Associated Press and Football News ... Had 11 sacks as a sophomore despite playing all season in a non-starting role.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Lake City, Fla. ... Played OLB at Lake City's Columbia HS, and named Northeast Florida Defensive Player of year by Florida Times-Union ... Grew up on family farm, and was given nickname "Big Country" by Florida State teammates ... Criminology major at FSU.

BENGALS' WORST IS BEST

The most points ever allowed by the Bengals was 51 — in a 51-24 loss to Buffalo on Sept. 9, 1979. That game is no highlight in team lore, but it's significant in one positive sense.

The Bengals are one of only three NFL teams never to allow more than 51 points in a game. The other two clubs, Seattle and Kansas City, also show 51 as their all-time highest yield.

Cincinnati has allowed 50 points only one other time, in a 50-34 loss at San Diego in 1982.

Contract status as of 7-3-98: In final season of a two-year deal

Acquired: FA '97

Born: 9-6-73

Star performer on Florida's 1996 NCAA Championship team, Wright made Bengals' practice squad in '97 as undrafted free agent and gained roster status in midseason ... Winner of '96 Jim Thorpe Award as nation's top college DB, he seeks to convert last season's pro experience into regular playing time in '98 ... Academic award-winner in college with solid grasp of defensive scheme.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "Lawrence was a fantastic-looking athlete in college, in the mold of the big, strong physical NFL safeties. It was probably the speed factor that kept him from getting drafted, but he worked very hard last year to develop his game, coming in early and staying late to study film. He's a physical guy, and this could be his year to shine. If you want somebody to come up and thump people and be a run-enforcer, he's that guy."

1997: Signed with Cincinnati on April 25 as rookie free agent ... In preseason, tied for fourth on team with 17 tackles (8 solo); also had a 9-yard sack against Indianapolis' Kerwin Bell ... Waived Aug. 24, and signed Aug. 26 to Bengals practice squad ... Signed to 53-player roster Nov. 5, filling roster spot vacated when Tremain Mack was placed on Reserve/Non-Football Illness list ... Played in Games 12-13 and 15-16, primarily on special teams ... Credited with 1 special teams tackle ... On weekly inactive list for Games 10-11 and 14.

COLLEGE: First-team All-SEC choice for Florida in 1995 and '96 ... Finished career with 331 tackles, 12.5 tackles for loss, 5 interceptions, 20 passes defended, 8 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries ... Led team in tackles in each of two meetings with rival Florida State during senior season.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Miami, Fla. ... Attended North Miami HS through 1990, and attended Valley Forge Military Academy in Fort Wayne, PA., in 1991 ... Named four times at Florida to the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and named in senior season to College Football Association's Scholar-Athlete team ... He started the "Right Trak" program for underprivileged children in Miami, and was one of four "Good Sports" award winners named by Sports Illustrated for Kids ... Full name is Lawrence D. Bengals kicker Doug Pelfrey, who made his last 10 field goal attempts in 1997, ended the '97 campaign as the second-most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history. A kicker must have made at least 100 field goals to qualify for the league's all-time accuracy standings. The top five:

JAY KIRCHOFF - K

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 205

College: Arizona

Born: 5-28-70

Tall, powerful prospect will bid for Bengals roster spot primarily on strength of kickoff ability ... Signed a two-year deal with Cincinnati as free agent on Feb. 23, and performed impressively in May mini-camp, showing excellent hang-time and distance on kickoffs ... "With the way the rules are now — kicking off from the 30-yard line and using a one-inch tee — specialists in this category deserve a look," says Bengals special teams coach Al Roberts. "You have to be very good to claim a roster spot in this kind of situation, but there's a need here to improve our kickoffs and kickoff coverage, so the opportunity is there if he can perform consistently on the NFL level" ... Kirchoff made unsuccessful roster bids with three NFL teams from 1993-95, but continued working to improve his kicking in semi-pro leagues in California in 1996 and '97 ... First NFL signing was 4-25-93 with Miami; went 1-for-1 on PAT attempts for Dolphins during preseason, but was released 8-24-93 ... Signed 4-29-94 by St. Louis Rams and released 7-18-94 ... At Arizona, had 34 touchbacks on 98 kickoffs (34.7%) ... Born in Poway, Calif. ... Attended Armstrong HS in Plymouth, Minn., where he lettered in football and basketball ... TAKEO SPIKES

College: Auburn

Round 1 (#13 overall)

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 230

Birthdate: 12-17-76

Bengals top draft pick has an exceptional combination of explosiveness and instinct to the ball, two attributes which are key to the inside LB position in Cincinnati's zone-blitz defense ... Named national Defensive Player of the Year in '97 by Football News, and was a first-team All-America selection by The Sporting News ... Extremely agile moving through traffic, he reads well, avoids low blocks and takes good angles in pursuit ... Durable performer started his last 31 games at Auburn and led the team in '97 with 136 tackles as Tigers advanced to SEC Championship game ... Elected to enter the draft following his junior season.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "If you put on any Auburn game film, you'll notice No. 55 (Spikes) as a guy who comes up and attacks the line of scrimmage. And when he hits people, they stay hit. He may be the best athlete of all the linebackers we saw getting ready for the draft. He's intelligent, and also a very instinctive player."

WHAT'S IN A NAME? Spikes' first name (pronounced tuh-KEE-oh) means 'great warrior' in Japanese. His mother chose the name when he was a newborn infant, knowing at the time only that it was a Japanese name she liked. It was later that the family found out the name's meaning, which certainly proved appropriate. "I like to think it goes along with my playing style," Spikes says. "I'm a sideline-to-sideline player. I like to play with reckless abandon, and that's the way I've always been taught since I was a kid."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1997: In addition to national honors listed above, was a consensus first-team All-SEC selection ... Of his 136 total tackles, 93 were solos, 24 more solos than Auburn's second-place finisher

... Tied for team lead with 9 tackles for loss (for 30 yards) ... Also had 2 sacks for 13 yards, 3 passes defensed, 2 interceptions and 6 QB pressures ... His interceptions went for 65 yards and a TD vs. Louisiana Tech, and for 15 yards as Tigers rallied for a 31-28 win at LSU ... Posted double-figures in tackles in nine games, including season-high 18 (14 solo) vs. Florida and 14 (10 solo) vs. Tennessee in SEC Championship game ... Opened season with 10 tackles (7 solo) and a 6-yard sack against Aaron Brooks in 28-17 win at Virginia ... Followed with 10 tackles and 2 tackles for loss in 19-9 home-opening win over Ole Miss. 1996: Finished season with 119 tackles, and was the only NCAA sophomore named a semifinalist in competition for Dick Butkus award (top college LB) ... Earned All-America honorable mention from Football News, and named a Sophomore All-American by The Gridiron Report ... Earned Auburn's Zeke Smith Award, given to team's defensive Player of the Year ... Posted double-figure tackles in eight games, including last five games of the season ... Led the team with 18 tackles (9 solo) against both South Carolina and Arkansas ... Had 10 tackles (9 solo), including one for loss, plus a forced fumble at Florida ... Had first career interception, plus 11 tackles (6 solo) in season finale vs. Alabama ... Named co-winner of Defensive Most Valuable Player award in the Independence Bowl vs. Army, when he had 7 tackles (5 solo), one tackle for loss and a pass defensed. 1995: Moved into the starting lineup as a freshman at middle linebacker for the final five games ... Finished with 76 tackles and 3 sacks, and named to the All-SEC freshman team by Knoxville News-Sentinel ... Had 14 tackles and a sack in his first start, a 34-13 rout of Western Michigan ... Had 8 tackles (6 solo) and a 2-yard sack in season-ending 31-27 defeat of Alabama ... Had 6 tackles (4 solo, 1 for loss) vs. Penn State in Orange Bowl game.

Headliner of a UNC defense that ranked No. 2 in the nation in '97, Simmons brings Bengals a complete package of linebacking skills ... Has the size, power and speed to rush the passer, stuff the run and defend the pass ... Tentatively set to begin pro career at inside LB, but played outside LB in college, and his versatility gives coaches the option of a switch back to outside ... Senior playmaker recovered five fumbles and had 3 sacks, 1 safety, 17 QB pressures and 13 tackles for loss, earning first-team All-America honors from Associated Press, Football News and Walter Camp Foundation ... Agility and speed is such that his 161 return yards on 6 INTs ranks second in UNC history.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS:

"We're starting with the idea that Brian is primarily an inside linebacker. But he's very quick and very fast, with tremendous range, and he gives you a lot of flexibility in what you can do with him. I want the opponent to have to figure out where we will line him up. If the ball is away from him, it's very difficult for the opponent to cut him off because his speed and pursuit is such that he just gets to the ball."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1997:

Ranked second on the nation's most talented defense with 119 tackles (60 solo) ... Keyed 40-14 romp over Maryland in season's second game with 14 tackles (10 solo), 3 tackles for loss, 2 sacks for minus-7 yards and a fumble recovery ... Had 10 tackles with 2 QB pressures and a forced fumble in 48-20 defeat of Virginia ... Dominated Wake Forest with 10 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, a 7-yard sack and a fumble recovery ... Closed season with a rush in Gator Bowl rout of Virginia Tech, posting 7 tackles, a 7-yard sack, 3 tackles for loss (for 20 yards) and a forced fumble. 1996: By some accounts, his junior season was even better than his stellar senior campaign ... A second-team All-America choice by Associated Press and The Sporting News, his statistics included 4 interceptions for a school season-record of 160 yards, 2 sacks, 9 tackles for loss, 6 passes defended and 12 QB pressures ... Named as team's Defensive Most Valuable Player ... Scored on an 84-yard interception return vs. Louisville, fourth-longest in school history, and later added a 57-yard INT return vs. Virginia, joining Bill Maceyko (1948) as the only players in UNC history with two returns of 50-plus yards ... Began the season in 45-0 rout of Clemson with a 13-yard INT return, 8 tackles (5 solo) and a fumble recovery ... Also had a 6-yard INT return vs. Wake Forest ... Had 10 tackles vs. West Virginia in Gator Bowl, and his pressure helped force an incompletion by Mountaineer QB Chad Johnston on the final play of UNC's 20-13 victory. 1995: Started every game as a sophomore, and won coaches' award as team's Outstanding Linebacker with 113 tackles (59 solo), 5 sacks and 11 tackles for loss ... Had career-high 19 tackles (10 solo) vs. Louisville, along with a 2-yard sack ... Posted 16 tackles and 1 sack vs. Clemson ... Had 10 tackles (6 solo) and a fumble recovery in season-ending 30-28 win over North Carolina State, and added 11 tackles (6 solo) vs. Arkansas in Carquest Bowl. 1994: Played in every game as a freshman ... Notched first career sack by dropping Maryland's Scott Milanovich for a 4-yard loss. 1993: Saw no action during a redshirt year.

SIMMONS SAYS: "Coach (Mark) Duffner has told me Cincinnati plays a 3-4 scheme that caters to linebackers with a lot of athletic ability, and to linebackers who are pretty versatile — guys who can rush the passer and cover the pass. I think I fit that mold. I'm glad I stayed in school for my senior season, because even though I might have gone in the same (draft) spot the year before, I matured a lot physically and mentally, and I think that will help me out. My mind and body are ready to take the approach that pro football is a game, but it's also a tough business."

UNC HEAD COACH CARL TORBUSH SAYS:

"Brian Simmons is not only a great athlete, but a great person. He made so many big plays in his career that people sort of took him for granted in 1997. But I know he had his best season in '97."

HIGH SCHOOL:

Multi-purpose performer at New Bern (N.C.) HS was a team tackling leader at linebacker, and also had an 1100-yard rushing season as a junior RB and an 868-yard, 11-TD season as a senior fullback ... Also played WR and safety during his prep career, and high school resume further includes a 60-yard interception return for a TD plus a blocked FG and blocked PAT ... Earned all-conference honors in basketball as well as football, and also lettered in baseball and track.

PERSONAL:

Hometown is New Bern, N.C. ... Sociology major at UNC ... Member of UNC's 15-player Leadership Committee, and a winner of the Outstanding Citizenship Award at New Bern HS ... Football play and quiet personality earned him the nickname "Silent Assassin" from UNC coach Carl Torbush ... Full name is Brian Eugene Simmons.

WORST TO FIRST (FREQUENTLY)

Four times in their history, the Bengals have finished first in their division after finishing last the season before. The only other NFL franchise to make such a climb more than once is the Colts, who did it twice.

The Bengals followed a cellar season with a division title in 1970, 1981, 1988 and 1990.

ARTRELL HAWKINS

Round 2 (#43 overall)

Birthdate: 11-24-75

THE PLAYERS

The equal of any cornerback in the '98 draft in speed and overall athleticism, Hawkins came on strong in the latter half of his senior season and impressed scouts with his performances at the Senior Bowl and Indianapolis scouting combine ... Has been timed at 4.31 seconds in the 40-yard dash ... Showed potential to handle one-on-one coverage responsibilities in the NFL with college role in attacking defense that often left him isolated ... Played strong safety as a freshman and is a willing hitter in run support ... Signed a three-year contract on 5-14-98.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "If you compare the 40-yard (dash) times of every cornerback in the draft, Artrell is right there with the best. He has great movement skills, and we like that he's very comfortable being one-on-one out in space. He was close to home, so we could watch him play a lot, and we know his character. He's the type of player we are trying to build our defense with."

THE UC CONNECTION: Hawkins will bid this season to become the eighth former University of Cincinnati player to make the Bengals' regular season roster. The previous seven were LB Toney Calchings (1987), QB Greg Cook (1969-74), LB Alex Gordon (1991-93), LB Evan Jolitz (1974), LB Howie Kurnick (1979-80), S Rob Niehoff (1987) and RB Clem Turner (1969). Hawkins was the first of five UC players to be selected in the 1988 NFL draft, and at No. 43 overall, he was the earliest Bearcat selection since 1987, when Alex Gordon was taken in the No. 42 spot by the New York Jets.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1997: Earned first-team All-Conference USA honors, and named honorable mention All-America by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft ... Had 46 tackles (41 solo), 14 passes defended and 2 interceptions in helping lead Bearcats to their first bowl appearance since 1950 ... Keyed 24-6 triumph over Boston College with 38-yard INT return for TD ... His interception in overtime set up game-winning 35-yard field goal in 34-31 conquest of rival Miami (Ohio) ... Opened season in 34-24 defeat of Tulsa with 8 tackles (7 solo) and 3 passes defended ... Had 6 tackles vs. Tulane, including one for five-yard loss, and added 82 yards on 3 KOR ... Forced a fumble and had 2 passes defended in 33-29 win over Alabama-Birmingham ... Had 4 solo tackles and 2 passes defended in 35-19 win over Utah State in Humanitarian Bowl. 1996: Started every game as a junior, posting 45 tackles (38 solo) and a team-leading 11 passes defended ... Keyed defensive effort in 10-7 victory over Louisville with an interception, 8 tackles (5 solo) and 2 passes defended ... Had a fumble recovery and 2 passes defended in 30-23 triple-OT win over Miami (Ohio). 1995: Played in every game and started 3 as a sophomore, with one start at CB and two starts at strong safety ... Had 3 tackles and deflected a FG attempt vs. Kentucky ... Made first career interception in victory over Tulsa in season finale. 1994: As a freshman, played behind future NFL draftee Sam Garnes at strong safety, until starting two late-season games at free safety. 1993: Saw no action during a redshirt year ... Moved from tailback to DB while performing on the scout team.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "I've never seen this guy turn down a hit. We never questioned his courage. We never questioned his speed. If you look at everything he's done and his physical potential, it's impressive."

HIGH SCHOOL: Named conference Offensive Player of the Year as a senior at Bishop McCort HS in Johnstown, Pa., rushing for a school-record 1487 yards and 26 TDs ... Set a single-game record with 265 rushing yards ... Also lettered in basketball and baseball ... Bishop McCort HS is also the alma mater of QB John Stofa, first player acquired by Bengals in 1968.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Johnstown, Pa. ... Business major at UC ... Cousin of Carlton Haslerig, former Pro Bowl offensive lineman for Pittsburgh Steelers.

Foley led the nation with 18.5 sacks last season at Division I-A Independent Northeast Louisiana, and brings unquestioned size, strength and speed to his first pro camp ... Known in college as a player with an appetite for physical contact, he can overpower blocking backs with his strong low charge.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "In making this pick, we literally went for the best athlete who was on the board. This guy is phenomenal, to run like he does with the size he has. I guarantee you, when you see the size and movement of this athlete, you will be impressed with him."

Could be a strong challenger for No. 3 guard role as a rookie after starting every game last season for the No. 8 rushing team in the nation ... Fits line coach Paul Alexander's model for aggressive, physical play, and expected to pick up Bengals' system quickly after posting the second highest score by an offensive lineman in the draft (38) on the Wonderlich intelligence test ... Displayed excellent balance and technique during Bengals' mini-camp in May.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "This guy has the most powerful hand strength of any lineman I've worked out in the last four years. He's a mauler, an intense, physical player, like (Bengals starting guards) Rich Braham and Ken Blackman. Our line is a young, intense and highly competitive group, and I wanted to make sure I brought in that same kind of guy. I like him, and as a coach, you pick the guys you like. I like Big Ten, tough, physical players."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1997: Credited with 72 knockdown blocks on the season as Iowa rushed for 235 yards per game, ranked 8th nationally, and set a school scoring record of 36.7 points per game ... Personally blocked two defenders on 2-yard TD run by Tavian Banks in 38-10 defeat of Illinois ... Posted 11 knockdowns as offense rolled for 658 yards vs. Northern Iowa ... His cut block on DE Casey Dailey sprung Tavian Banks for a 46-yard TD run vs. Northwestern ... Won team's Offensive Hustle Award for his effort vs. Wisconsin.

1996: Started vs. Arizona in season opener, but fell victim to a back injury that relegated him to reserve duty for the balance of the season. 1995: Started the final 11 games at RG as offense averaged 416.6 yards per game ... Keyed a 310-yard rushing effort vs. Wisconsin, earning team's Offensive MVP Award while delivering 7 knockdowns, including a crunching block on DE Tarek Saleh that cleared Sedrick Shaw for a 7-yard TD run ... One of the fiercest competitors in Michigan's proud football history, Steele posts solid workout numbers but does his most impressive work in pads in the trenches ... Shows quick feet to shoot gaps, and ranks second in Wolverines history in sacks (24) and third in tackles for loss (45) ... Could play DE or NT, and should see action at DT in four-man line situations ... Known for a jolting hand slap that knocks blockers off stride, and for combative attitude reminiscent of Bengals star NT Tim Krumrie, who is now Steele's line coach.

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "Steele reminds me of an old saying Paul Brown said about me when I was getting timed in the 40. PB said, 'I wish training camp was here so we could put him in pads and let him hit somebody.' That's the same thing about Steele. He's not going to ring your bells and whistles in his shorts. But when he puts his pads on, he's going to hit you in the mouth. That's the type of player I wanted, and he'll do a fine job for us."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1997: Earned All-America honors from American Football Coaches Association, as well as first-team All-Big Ten ... Earned UM's Dick Katcher Award for team's top defensive lineman after recording 48 tackles (32 solo), 7 sacks for minus-48 yards and 14 tackles for loss for minus-62 yards ... Battered Colorado offense with 2 sacks for minus-12 and 4 TFL for minus-15 ... Posted 8 tackles in 21-14 win over Notre Dame ... Had 5 tackles and 8-yard sack on Todd Schultz in victory over Michigan State ... Had an 8-yard sack vs. Minnesota, and a 10-yard sack in 34-8 victory over Penn State ... Had 9 tackles and a 10-yard sack vs. Illinois ... Had 5 tackles and a 9-yard sack in 39-19 win over Miami (Ohio) ... 7 tackles and a 4-yard sack vs. Penn State, and made a fumble recovery vs. Texas A&M in Alamo Bowl. 1994: As a freshman, started final 3 games at strongside DT ... Had 3 sacks for minus-21 and 4 TFL for minus-25 ... First career sack was a 12-yarder vs. Illinois ... Had 7 tackles with 2 sacks vs. Ohio State ... Closed season with 5 tackles (4 solo), a 4-yard TFL and a fumble recovery vs. Colorado State in Holiday Bowl. 1993: Played in season opener as reserve tight end, and saw no further action after being granted a medical redshirt year.

MORE FROM COACH TIM KRUMRIE: "This guy is not a project. He's going to go right into the rotation, and he's going to play. He's not a guy we're going to pull on developmental."

Has displayed excellent hands and leaping ability for catching ball in a crowd, and is also adept at escaping jams at the scrimmage line.

COACH JOHN GARRETT SAYS: "Jason has a lot of talent. He's a hand-catcher. He caught the ball very well for me in workouts, and he caught it very well in contested situations in '96 for TCU. He has speed and size. He had top combine numbers as far as speed and athleticism. He's also tough. He'll catch it over the middle and block. He'll definitely challenge for a spot on the roster."

Fireplug of a fullback, Parker has a shot in wide-open competition for Bengals' No. 2 FB spot behind Brian Milne ... Powerful runner with good burst and agility for his size, he played tailback for part of his college career and has the receiving skills demanded by Bengals offense at the FB position ... Helped Virginia Tech rise to consistent Top 20 status, averaging more than 5.0 yards per rush in every season, and played in four bowl games ... Signed a two-year contract on 5-18-98.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "You look to fill needs in the draft, and one thing we needed was to upgrade our competition for a backup fullback. We need a guy who could come in and play well if something should happen to Brian Milne, so there's an opportunity here for Marcus. He catches the ball well, and he has the bulk and the strength to do it. He's a big guy for his height, but he's not a fat, chubby guy. He's pretty solid."

PARKER ON PARKER: "I know I have a real opportunity with the Bengals. The key is to show I can really come through as a blocker. I haven't been known for that in the past, but it's something I've worked on. I think I've gotten better every year, and I can still get better. I'm going to work as hard as I can with that in mind."

HIGH SCHOOL: Twice named all-district, all-region and all-state while playing at Salem HS on Roanoke, Va. ... DOUBLING UP

Twice in Bengals history, a Cincinnati player has managed 100-plus yards both rushing and receiving on the same day.

Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on two receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents also have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games.

On Nov. 23, 1976, Cleveland's Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on seven receptions vs. Cincinnati at Cleveland Stadium. On Sept. 22, 1985, San Diego's Lionel James became the only NFL player to record dual 100s at Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field). '97 BENGALS REGULAR SEASON

Game 1 Bengals 24, Arizona 21

Sunday, Aug. 31, at Cinergy Field

The Bengals outscored the Cardinals 21-0 in the fourth quarter to pull out a 24-21 victory. QB Jeff Blake led the comeback with 11 completions in his last 13 pass attempts. The Bengals scored fourth-quarter TDs on runs of 2 and 1 yards by HB Ki-Jana Carter, and on a 6-yard, game-winning pass from Blake to WR Carl Pickens. Cincinnati's defense allowed only two first downs on five Arizona possessions in the fourth quarter, and LB Gerald Dixon's forced fumble on Cardinals RB Larry Centers set up the game-winning drive after John Copeland's recovery.

Game 2 Baltimore 23, Bengals 10

Sunday, Sept. 7, at Memorial Stadium

Cincinnati led 10-3 at halftime but was outscored 20-0 in the second half as the Ravens won for the first time in three meetings between the teams. Key factors in the decision were the rushing game, in which the Ravens outgained the Bengals 146-56, and the pass rush, where Baltimore collected 5 sacks to Cincinnati's 1. Baltimore took the lead to stay at 13-10 on a 5-yard TD run by rookie RB Jay Graham, who gained 73 yards on the day. Baltimore RB Earnest Byner rushed for 75 yards. The Bengals scored their only TD on QB Jeff Blake's 8-yard pass to Carl Pickens in the second quarter. The result left both teams with 1-1 records.

Sunday, Sept. 28, at Cinergy Field

The Bengals suffered their first home loss under head coach Bruce Coslet, breaking a 6-0 streak that included five games in 1996. Game 11 Pittsburgh 20, Bengals 3

Sunday, Nov. 16, at Three Rivers Stadium

The Bengals failed to score a touchdown for the first time since Nov. 6, 1994, at Seattle, and were held to their lowest point total since a 7-2 loss at New England on Dec. 12, 1993. Cincinnati became only the second team on the season to rush for 100 yards vs. Pittsburgh, gaining 116, which included 78 on 19 carries by HB Corey Dillon. But the Steelers rushed for 190 yards, including 137 in the second half. Pittsburgh led only 6-0 at halftime, but scored second-half TDs on Kordell Stewart passes of 20 yards to WR Yancey Thigpen and 5 yards to TE Mark Bruener. Game 12 Bengals 31, Jacksonville 26

Sunday, Nov. 23, at Cinergy Field

The Bengals remained unbeaten (3-0) vs. the Jaguars at home, bolting to a 28-7 lead by early in the second quarter. In his first start of the season, QB Boomer Esiason directed TD drives on the first two Bengals possessions. HB Corey Dillon had 88 rushing yards and 48 receiving yards. Jacksonville scored 13 straight points to close the 28-7 gap to 28-20 with 9:56 left in the third quarter, but the Bengals held on, thanks in large part to an interception by FS Bo Orlando and a forced fumble by NT Brenton Buckner against RB Natrone Means that was recovered by CB Tito Paul. Cincinnati improved to 4-8 and Jacksonville fell to 8-4.

Game 14 Bengals 41, Tennessee 14

Thursday night, Dec. 4, at Cinergy Field

Bengals HB Corey Dillon rushed for 246 yards, breaking the 40-year-old NFL rookie record of 237 set by Hall of Famer Jim Brown, and led Cincinnati to its most lopsided victory in a regular-season game since Sept. 23, 1990. Dillon also set Bengals records for carries in a game (39), rushing TDs (four) and yards from scrimmage (276). QB Boomer Esiason continued his excellent play, completing 20-of-28 passes for 245 yards, 1 TD and no interceptions as the Bengals won for the fourth time in six games. Cincinnati's defense held Tennessee to 175 yards, including just 11 yards on 5 carries by standout RB Eddie George. The Bengals improved to 5-9 and Tennessee fell to 7-7.

Game 15 Bengals 31, Dallas 24

Sunday, Dec. 14, at Cinergy Field

Cincinnati spotted Dallas a 10-0 lead, roared for 31 straight points and a 31-10 lead and then held on to stave off a Cowboys comeback bid. Dallas used an inside kick recovery to help pull within 7 points with 6:27 still to play, and the Cowboys had possession at the Cincinnati 30 with just over four minutes left. But Bengals CB Corey Sawyer intercepted his second pass of the day from QB Troy Aikman at the Bengals' 12-yard line to stop the drive, and the offense drove for 21st downs to leave the Cowboys with inadequate time for another serious drive. Bengals HB Corey Dillon rushed for 127 yards and a TD, and QB Boomer Esiason threw TD passes to WRs Darnay Scott (48 yards) and David Dunn (32 yards). The result left both teams with 6-9 records.

Game 16 Bengals 16, Baltimore 14

Sunday, Dec. 21, at Cinergy Field

The Ravens managed the best defensive effort in five games against the resurgent Cincinnati offense, but the Bengals defense carried the day, sacking Baltimore QB Eric Zeier 7 times and allowing only 51 rushing yards. The Bengals drove 77 yards with the opening kickoff, taking a 7-0 lead on Boomer Esiason's 8-yard pass to TE Marco Ballaglia, but the next 7 Bengals drives ended without a score. The Ravens gained a 7-7 tie on Zeier's 83-yard pass to WR Derrick Alexander with 10:02 left in the third quarter, but Cincinnati responded with a 44-yard field goal by Doug Pelfrey and a 77-yard TD pass from Esiason to WR Darnay Scott. The Ravens added a late TD on Zeier's 12-yard pass to TE Eric Green with 1:40 remaining. The Bengals closed with a 7-9 record, edging out the Ravens (6-9-1) for fourth place in the AFC Central Division.

A RARE RUNNER

The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970.

The game was the first Bengals-Browns match in Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field), and marked Cincinnati's first victory (14-10) over its Ohio rival.

PERFECTION AT HOME

The Bengals have gone undefeated at home in the regular season three times: 8-0 in the Super Bowl season of 1988, 7-0 in the '73 playoff season, and 4-0 in the strike-shortened '82 campaign.

The 1996 Bengals were 6-2 at home, but were 5-0 in "The Jungle" after Bruce Coslet's October 21 promotion to head coach.

BENGALS HISTORY

PB AND THE HALL OF FAME

Paul Brown, founder of the Cincinnati Bengals, was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and the lengthy list of other Hall of Famers with ties to Brown grows by one this year with the induction of Anthony Munoz.

Munoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history, played his entire 13-year pro career (1980-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought Munoz was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Munoz with the No. 3 overall pick.

Last year's Hall of Fame inductees included Don Shula, winningest coach in NFL history, who played defensive back in the NFL and was a rookie on Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the 1996 class of inductees. Also, 13 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. They are: Doug Atkins, DE, 1953-54; Jim Brown, FB, 1957-65; Willie Davis, DE, 1958-59; Len Dawson, QB, 1960-61; Len Ford, WR, 1948-58; Frank Gatski, C, 1946-56; Lou Groza, T/PK, 1946-59; Dante Lavelli, WR, 1946-56; Mike McCormack, T, 1954-62; Bobby Mitchell, RB/WR, 1958-61; Marion Motley, FB/LB, 1946-55; and Bill Willis, G, 1946-53.

Former assistant coaches under Paul Brown who are in the Hall of Fame are Weeb Ewbank and Bill Walsh. Also in the Hall of Fame is Forrest Gregg, hired by Brown as Bengals head coach in 1980.

THE LONGEST SHOTS

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster for a regular-season game was placekicker/punter Dave Green of Ohio University.

Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in '72, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati.

Green played for the Bengals in 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and stayed in the NFL through 1979.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was RB Ted Washington of San Diego State. Washington was the 354th selection in 1968, a 13th-round pick. He played in the NFL only in 1968.

Though not among the very latest draft picks in team history, tight end/wide receiver Bob Trumpy of Utah stands out most for the way he exceeded the potential accorded him by the pro football world on draft day. Trumpy was the 301st selection in the 1968 draft, a 12th-round pick. He went on to play 10 years with Cincinnati (1968-77) and played in the Pro Bowl following the 1970 and '73 seasons.

Two notably successful late draftees on recent Bengals teams are tackle Joe Walter of Texas Tech and kicker Doug Pelfrey of Kentucky. Walter, who played for the Bengals from 1985-97, was a 7th-round pick in '85, the 181st player selected. Pelfrey, who enters the 1998 season ranked No. 2 all-time on the NFL field goal accuracy list, was an 8th-round choice in 1993, the 202nd player selected.

BUCKEYES BOOST ALUMNI LIST LEAD

The 1997 season saw Arizona State and Florida join the ranks of colleges with 10 or more football alumni who have played for the Bengals. But on the Bengals' official Alumni List, the ruler remains Ohio State.

The Buckeyes, who once were coached by Bengals founder Paul Brown, have seen 17 former players move on to play for Cincinnati. The list grew by two last season when FB Scottie Graham and CB Tito Paul made their Bengals debuts.

Tied for second place, with 10 Bengals alumni each, are Arizona State, Florida and Penn State. Arizona State added TE Steve Bush to its list in 1997, while Florida added DBs Anthony Loft and Lawrence Wright.

To qualify for the Alumni List, a player must have been in uniform for the Bengals for at least one regular-season or playoff game day.

The University of Cincinnati and Miami of Ohio each have provided seven players to the Bengals, which ranks them among the Top 20 schools on the Alumni List.

BENGALS ALL-TIME ROSTER

NOTE: To be eligible for the all-time roster, a player must have been on the active roster for at least one regular season or postseason game day.

DEFENSE DOES ITS PART

The Bengals' 61-17 victory at Houston on Dec. 17, 1972 — tied for most points ever scored by Cincinnati — stands also as the only game in which the Cincinnati defense has scored three touchdowns.

All three TDs came on interception returns. Lemar Parrish scored on returns of 25 and 33 yards, and Neal Craig scored from 63 yards.

CINERGY FIELD

Situated on a 48-acre site on the banks of the Ohio River, Cinergy Field has been the home of the Bengals since its opening in 1970. Formerly Riverfront Stadium, the facility was re-named Cinergy Field in September, 1996.

Seating capacity is 60,398 when the field is in full football configuration. Capacity for football during dual-use periods with baseball is 56,759.

The stadium has an AstroTurf-8 playing surface, installed in the early spring of 1997. This is the fourth AstroTurf surface in the stadium's history. The first surface was used from 1970-78, the second surface from 1979-87, and the third from 1988-96.

Parking facilities on the immediate site will hold 4,500 automobiles. The stadium is surrounded by three parking decks — each a 12-acre area — and the third parking deck is covered by the plaza level, where most fans enter the stadium.

There are an estimated 20,000 parking spaces within a 12-block radius of the stadium. Cinergy Field has been named in major studies as one of the nation's best for incoming and outgoing traffic flow.

The stadium has a main scoreboard 20 feet high by 180 feet long, with 24,000 lamps. In 1987, a Sony JumboTron video board was added for fans' enjoyment.

The largest crowd ever at a sporting event in Cincinnati was the 60,284 who saw the Bengals and Cleveland Browns at Riverfront on Oct. 17, 1971.

The Bengals played their first two seasons, 1968 and 1969, at Nippert Stadium on the University of Cincinnati campus.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

The Bengals amassed a club-record 621 yards net offense in a 52-21 victory over the New York Jets on Dec. 21, 1986. No NFL team has since matched that total in a regulation-time game.

The only higher output since then came in an overtime game in 1990, as Washington produced 676 yards in a 41-38 victory over Detroit.

NO TDs; NO PROBLEM

Three times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

- On Sept. 24, 1972, Horst Muhlmann's five field goals (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field).
- On Oct. 21, 1984, Jim Breech kicked four field goals (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.
- On Nov. 6, 1994, the Bengals won their only road game without a TD. Cincinnati used Doug Pelfrey's club-record six field goals (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) plus a safety by Alfred Williams to post a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.

A NO-WIN SITUATION

The Bengals' Nov. 9, 1969 game at the Astrodome in Houston is unique in club history. It's the only game nobody won.

Cincinnati played its only regular-season tie that afternoon, catching the Oilers at 31-31 on Horst Muhlmann's 18-yard field goal with 0:22 left in the fourth quarter. Regular-season overtime was not in the rule book at that time.

BENGALS TOUGH IN OVERTIME

The Bengals have been among the NFL's best teams in regular-season overtime, with a 12-7-0 record and .632 winning percentage. Cincinnati ranks tied for 4th in the league in total victories and 3rd in winning percentage.

Only Pittsburgh (13-4-1), Denver (13-9-2) and Minnesota (13-12-2) have more victories, and the Bengals' winning percentage is higher than that of the Broncos and Vikings.

The only teams with better winning percentages in overtime are Pittsburgh (.750) and Buffalo (.647). The Bills have an 11-6 record.

Former Bengals kicker Jim Breech kicked an NFL-record nine winning field goals in overtime, never missing one in an extra period.

Overtime for regular-season games was instituted in the NFL in 1974.

ROAD IS SWEET IN OT

Recent Bengals results have shown the home field "advantage" to be no edge at all in overtime games. The visiting team has won the last five overtime games involving Cincinnati, as well as eight of the last nine. In those nine games, the Bengals are 4-0 as the overtime visitor and 1-4 as the overtime home team.

BENGALS CHRONOLOGY

Paul Brown, who left the Cleveland Browns following the 1962 season with an NFL record of 115-49-6, seven conference titles, and three NFL championships, had the urge to get back into football. His son Mike did a study on pro football expansion and recommended Cincinnati as a potential site. In 1965, Brown met with Ohio Governor James Rhodes and the two agreed the state could accommodate a second pro football team.

1966 Fearful the Reds baseball team would leave town and feeling pressure from local businessmen pushing for a pro football franchise, Cincinnati's city council approved the construction of Riverfront Stadium.

1967 Brown's group was awarded an AFL expansion franchise. Brown called the team the Bengals, the name of Cincinnati's pro teams in the old AFL of the late 1930s. The Bengals acquired their first player late in the year when they traded two draft picks to Miami for quarterback John Stofa.

1968 The Bengals were awarded 40 veteran players in the allocation draft. In the college draft, they selected Tennessee center Bob Johnson as their first pick. Other draftees included running backs Jess Phillips and Essex Johnson, tight end Bob Trumpy, linebacker Al Beauchamp, and tackle Howard Fest. The Bengals lost their first preseason game 38-14 to Kansas City before 21,682 fans at Nippert Stadium. The Bengals upset Denver 24-10 and Buffalo 34-23 in their first two regular season home games. Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing with 1,023 yards and was named Rookie of the Year.

1969 Brown drafted quarterback Greg Cook of the Univ. of Cincinnati in the first round. The same draft also produced linebacker Bill Bergey. The Bengals jumped out to a 3-0 record, but the club finished 4-9-1. Brown was named AFL Coach of the Year. Bergey was honored as the AFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, and Cook won the AFL passing title.

1970 The NFL-AFL merger took place before the season, and the Bengals made their first NFL campaign a memorable one. After losing 6 of their first 7 games, they rallied for an 8-6 finish and won the new AFC Central Division. In their first playoff game, they lost 17-0 to Baltimore, which would go on to beat Dallas in the Super Bowl. QB Greg Cook was forced to the injured reserve list in training camp with a shoulder injury that would end his career, and Virgil Carter took over as the starter.

1971 The Bengals picked up QB Ken Anderson and tackle Vernon Holland in the draft, then went 5-0-1 in preseason play. After starting the regular season with a 37-14 win over Philadelphia, the Bengals lost seven in a row on the way to a 4-10 record.

1972 Looking for defensive help, Brown drafted end Sherman White, safety Tommy Casanova, linebacker Jim LeClair, and cornerback Bernard Jackson. Anderson unseated Carter as starting quarterback and the Bengals won three of their last four to post an 8-6 record. Chip Myers set a club record with 57 pass receptions.

1973 Brown drafted wide receiver Isaac Curtis and runners Boobie Clark and Lenvil Elliott. The Bengals split their first eight games, then swept their last six and won their second AFC Central Division title. Cincinnati lost to Miami 34-16 in the AFC playoffs. Clark, who finished the year with 988 yards rushing and 45 pass receptions, was named AFC Rookie of the Year. Essex Johnson led Cincinnati with a career-high 997 yards rushing and Curtis caught 45 passes.

1974 Cincinnati traded Bill Bergey to Philadelphia for two first-round draft choices and a third-round pick in 1977. LeClair replaced Bergey at middle linebacker. The Bengals won four of their first five games but couldn't keep pace with Super Bowl-bound Pittsburgh. Anderson won the NFL passing championship and completed a club-record 64.9 percent of his attempts. Cornerback Lemar Parrish led the NFL in punt returns.

1975 The Bengals opened with six straight wins. LeClair preserved a 21-19 victory over Houston, making all four tackles in a goal-line stand. The Bengals won their eighth game in nine starts against Buffalo as Anderson completed 30 of 46 passes for 447 yards, the tenth-highest one-game total in NFL history. Cincinnati scored 27 points in the first quarter to crush San Diego 47-17 and finish 11-3, its best regular-season record. The Bengals qualified as the AFC wild card team for the playoffs, but their losing postseason record continued with a 31-28 setback to Oakland. Anderson won his second NFL passing championship. A serious blow was the loss of defensive tackle Mike Reid, who retired at age 26 to pursue a career in music.

1976 Brown announced his retirement after 41 seasons of coaching and named Bill Johnson, his long-time assistant, as the successor. Brown continued to serve as the club's general manager and vice president. The Bengals acquired defensive end Coy Bacon in a trade with San Diego and drafted halfback Archie Griffin, the two-time Heisman Trophy winner from Ohio State. The Bengals set a fast pace in the AFC Central Division, winning nine of their first 11 games. The season came down to games against Pittsburgh and Oakland and the Bengals lost both. Those defeats not only cost Cincinnati the division title, but the AFC wild card spot as well. Cornerback Ken Riley led the AFC with nine interceptions.

1977 A loss to Houston in the final game cost the Bengals a spot in the playoffs. The team finished with an 8-6 record. Curtis missed the final six games with a knee injury. Bob Trumpy retired.

1978 QB Ken Anderson missed the first four games with a broken bone in his right hand, and Homer Rice replaced Bill Johnson as head coach after the team started 0-5. The team dipped to marks of 0-8 and 1-12 before rebounding under Rice to win the last three games. In the season finale, the Bengals blasted Cleveland 48-16.

setting series records for points and victory margin.

1979 After six straight losses to open the season, the Bengals stunned Pittsburgh 34-10, recovering seven Steeler fumbles. CB Ray Griffin ran back an intercepted pass a club-record 96 yards in a 26-24 loss to San Diego. Pete Johnson powered his way to 15 TDs, but the Bengals struggled to their second straight 4-12 record. Former Cleveland coach Forrest Gregg was named to replace Rice as head coach.

1980 Scoring touchdowns was the major problem as the Bengals went 6-10 in 1980. They managed only 244 points, lowest in the AFC. Anderson had a sub-par year with only six touchdown passes. The Bengals won only one of their first five games, but upset defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh twice. First-round draft choice Anthony Munoz impressed at offensive tackle.

1981 The Bengals unveiled new uniforms with tiger-striped helmets, jerseys and pants. They had at least a share of the AFC Central lead the entire season and, on December 13, Anderson threw two touchdowns as the Bengals clinched the division with a 17-10 victory over the Steelers. Cornerback Louis Breeden tied an NFL record when he returned an interception 102 yards for a touchdown in a 40-17 victory over the Chargers in San Diego. Anderson led the NFL in passing with a 98.5 rating. On January 3, the Bengals beat the Buffalo Bills 28-21 in an AFC divisional playoff game. A week later, playing in their first AFC Championship Game, the Bengals defeated San Diego 27-7 at Riverfront Stadium in a temperature of nine degrees below zero with a wind-chill factor of minus 59. In Super Bowl XVI on January 24 in Pontiac, MI, the Bengals trailed 20-0 at halftime and couldn't make up the deficit, losing to San Francisco 26-21.

1982 The Bengals followed up their Super Bowl season with another strong showing. They finished the strike-shortened season behind only the Raiders with a 7-2 mark. The Jets caught them sleeping in the first round of the playoffs, though, beating the Bengals 44-17. Anderson led the AFC in passing for the fourth time as the Bengals boasted the second-best offense in the NFL.

1983 The Bengals' season looked promising at the start of 1983, but a horrendous opening brought about a premature ending. Cincinnati started the season by losing six of its first seven games. The Bengals never recovered and finished 7-9. Despite the losing record, the Bengals claimed the top overall defense in the NFL. In the off-season, Gregg resigned as head coach and Sam Wyche was named as his replacement.

1984 Pete Johnson was traded to San Diego for running back James Brooks. The Bengals lost their first five games, then bounced back to win eight of the last 11 and force the AFC Central Division championship race into the final week of the season, only to fall a game short of Pittsburgh. Cincinnati finished 8-8.

1985 Wide receiver Eddie Brown from Miami (Fla.) was the Bengals' top draft choice. Wide receiver Isaac

Curtis, a premier Bengal for 12 years, retired shortly before training camp opened. Cincinnati finished 7-9 and was in the thick of the AFC Central race, which Cleveland won with an 8-8 record. Second-year quarterback Boomer Esiason replaced Ken Anderson. Offensive tackle Anthony Munoz was named to the AFC Pro Bowl team for the fifth consecutive time. The Bengals set a club scoring record with 441 points.

1986 Cincinnati's No. 1 choice in the college draft was Washington linebacker Joe Kelly. Wide receiver Tim McGee of Tennessee was drafted later in the first round. Punter Pat McInally retired. The Bengals unleashed a high-powered offense in their battle for the AFC Central Division title and finished 10-6, narrowly missing a playoff berth. Tackle Anthony Munoz was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl team for the sixth year in a row. He was joined by guard Max Montoya, running back James Brooks and quarterback Boomer Esiason. Linebacker Reggie Williams was selected "One of the Top 10 Young Men in America" by the United States Jaycees. Later, Williams was selected NFL Man of the Year for his efforts to charity and the community. Munoz was named Seagrams' top offensive lineman of 1986.

1987 The Bengals won their season opener in Indianapolis, but then the season turned sour. They lost the next week to San Francisco, suffered the turmoil of the NFL players' strike for the next three weeks, and were unable to regroup when the strike was over. Their 4-11 record was their worst since 1979. Individual bright spots included Jim Breech leading the AFC in scoring with 97 points, Anthony Munoz being voted to his seventh straight Pro Bowl, and nose tackle Tim Krumrie making his first Pro Bowl.

1988 The Bengals brought about the biggest turnaround in NFL history by rising from their 4-11 finish of 1987 to a 12-4 regular-season record. They won the AFC Central Division title, and defeated Buffalo 21-10 for the AFC Championship on January 8 (1989). On January 22 (1989), they appeared in their second Super Bowl and lost 20-16 to San Francisco when the 49ers scored a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Coach Sam Wyche's team posted a 14-5 mark in regular and postseason play, best in the NFL. Wyche received numerous honors for his brilliant coaching and nine Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — quarterback Boomer Esiason, nose tackle Tim Krumrie, tackle Anthony Munoz, guard Max Montoya, tight end Rodney Holman, wide receiver Eddie Brown, running back James Brooks, safety David Fulcher and cornerback Eric Thomas. Esiason was voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player and Munoz the top offensive lineman. In January of '88, linebacker Reggie Williams received the "Sportsman of the Year" award from Sports Illustrated. Defensive back Rickey Dixon, an All-American from Oklahoma, was the Bengals' first selection in the 1988 draft. "Ickey" Woods, the top rusher in college football in 1987 while at Nevada-Las Vegas, was Cincinnati's second choice. Woods led the Bengals in rushing in 1988 with 1,066 yards.

1989 The Bengals traded their first round draft choice to Atlanta for three later selections. Eric Ball, a running back from UCLA, was Cincinnati's first selection, coming in the second round. The Bengals, hit hard by injuries throughout the season, went 8-8 and narrowly missed gaining a spot in the playoffs. Six Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — tackle Anthony Munoz, quarterback Boomer Esiason, strong safety David Fulcher, running back James Brooks, tight end Rodney Holman and guard Max Montoya.

1990 The Bengals drafted Baylor linebacker James Francis in the first round of the draft. Running back Harold Green of South Carolina was the second round choice. Cincinnati posted a 9-7 regular season record to win the AFC Central Division Championship and move into the playoffs, where the Bengals belted the Houston Oilers 41-14 before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders 20-10 in the second round. Three Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl game — tackle Anthony Munoz, tight end Rodney Holman and safety David Fulcher.

1991 Cincinnati drafted outside linebacker Alford Williams, an All-American from Colorado, in the first round of the 1991 draft. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died August 5. The Bengals had a 3-13 season record. Dave Shula replaced Sam Wyche as head coach following the season.

1992 The Bengals made quarterback David Klingler, who played in college for the University of Houston, their No. 1 draft choice. Klingler started four of the final five games of the season in which the Bengals finished 5-11. Harold Green rushed for 1,170 yards and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl. All-Pro Anthony Munoz played his final game for the Bengals. Michael Pope was named offensive coordinator after the season and Ken Anderson was signed as coach of the quarterbacks.

1993 Defensive lineman John Copeland, an All-American from Alabama, was the Bengals' first-round draft choice. The Bengals acquired cornerbacks Sheldon White and Mike Brim and quarterback Jay Schroeder, who were unrestricted free agents, and lost cornerback Eric Thomas, wide receiver Tim McGee, safety Barney Bussey and tight end Jim Riggs. Quarterback Boomer Esiason was traded to the New York Jets for a third-round draft choice. The young Bengals lost their first 10 games before defeating the Los Angeles Raiders 16-10. Cincinnati then had wins over the Los Angeles Rams 15-3 and the Atlanta Falcons 21-17 in the final weeks of the season to finish 3-13.

1994 The Cincinnati coaching staff underwent a change when Bruce Coslet, former head coach of the New York Jets, returned as the offensive coordinator and Larry Peccatiello became defensive coordinator after Ron Lynn resigned. The Bengals signed eight veteran free agents while losing only one and they used the top pick in the draft on Ohio State defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson. The team lost its first eight games of the season. With quarterbacks David Klingler and Erik Wilhelm sidelined with injuries in the eighth contest, third-string quarterback

Jeff Blake started against two-time defending Super Bowl champion Dallas and nearly pulled off the upset victory before losing, 23-20. Blake went on to amaze the league with his performances and never relinquished his starting role. The Bengals finished 3-13.

1995 The Bengals traded up in the first round of the draft for the first time, and selected Penn State RB Ki-Jana Carter with the No. 1 overall pick, obtained from Carolina. Carter suffered a knee injury in the third preseason game and missed his entire rookie season. Nonetheless, the Bengals made a dramatic improvement over the previous four years, going 7-9 with five losses by just three points each. QB Jeff Blake, WR Carl Pickens and PK Doug Pelfrey posted record Bengal seasons, and Blake and Pickens went on to start in the Pro Bowl.

1996 On March 19, Hamilton County voters approved a half-cent sales tax increase to fund two new stadiums, taking a major step to ensure the Bengals' future in Cincinnati. The team lost six of its first seven games, but Cincinnati's fortunes took a U-turn after offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet was promoted to head coach Oct. 21, replacing Dave Shula. Coslet directed the team to a 7-2 finish, including a 5-0 mark at Cinergy Field, and the final 8-8 record was Cincinnati's first .500-or-better season since 1990. On Dec. 15, it was announced Coslet had agreed to a four-year contract extension through the 2000 season. The defense set a team record with 34 interceptions, and CB Ashley Ambrose was named a Pro Bowl starter along with WR Carl Pickens, who caught 100 passes to break his own team reception record.

1997 The Bengals and Hamilton County officials reached agreement on a western riverfront site for a new football stadium, and on May 29, team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team through 2026. The team and county declined to sell naming rights, christening the facility Paul Brown Stadium in honor of the Bengals' founder. The team held training camp in a new complex at Georgetown (Ky.) College, ending its 29-year arrangement at Wilmington (Ohio) College. On the field, the team suffered a 1-7 start but rallied to finish 7-9 by going 6-2 in the second half. Rookie HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1129 yards, third-most in club history, and his 246-yard effort vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 broke Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL single-game rookie record. Boomer Esiason started the last five games at QB and posted a 106.9 passer rating for the season. Bruce Coslet finished his first full season as head coach, and his overall .560 winning percentage (14-11 record) stood as the best for a head coach in club history.

EARLY 1998 Demolition work for Paul Brown Stadium began early in the year, and official groundbreaking for the new facility was held on April 25. The Bengals had two choices in the first round of the college draft, one as part of a trade that sent DE Dan Wilkinson to Washington, and the team selected linebackers Takeo Spikes of Auburn and Brian Simmons of North Carolina.

CINCINNATI PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

Cincinnati was home to two other football teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL — then known as the American Professional Football Association — in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in their only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL — that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team known as the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's nickname which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears, 17-13, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, 38-0, and tied the Chicago Cardinals, 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and 1941, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World War II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later in 1967 when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modern-era American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati."

Hundreds of names were suggested by fans in an effort to name the new Cincinnati team, the most popular being Buckeyes. It was rejected to avoid confusion with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970, and the Bengals have been members ever since.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XVI

San Francisco 26, Bengals 21
Jan. 24, 1982, at Pontiac Silverdome

Coach Forrest Gregg's Bengals outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in the game's history the losing team led in yardage. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and Anderson's 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by Joe Montana of the 49ers. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission.

Leading 20-7, the 49ers staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping the Bengals for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with 10:05 left in the fourth quarter, but the 49ers moved to a 26-14 lead on two Ray Wersching field goals before the Bengals crept within 26-21 on the game's second Anderson-to-Dan Ross TD pass with 16 seconds to play. Dwight Clark's recovery of a Bengals onside kick sealed the victory for San Francisco.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XXIII

San Francisco 20, Bengals 16
Jan. 22, 1989, at Joe Robbie Stadium

Commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four games by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard field goal before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Montana came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped touchdowns in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati's Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three field goals gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for San Francisco. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

Dillon Shatters Rushing Records

On Dec. 4, 1997 at Cinergy Field, Bengals halfback Corey Dillon broke Hall of Famer Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL record for most rushing yards in one game by a rookie when he ran for 246 yards and four touchdowns in Cincinnati's 41-14 win over the Tennessee Oilers. (Brown's rookie record of 237 yards had stood since 1957.) Dillon also set four Bengals single-game records:

- Most yards rushing
- Most carries
- Most rushing touchdowns
- Most yards from scrimmage (276, including 30 yards on two pass receptions)

BUSIEST BENGALS

Center Darrick Brizl was constantly on duty during the 1997 season, playing all 1000 scrimmage snaps with the offense. Cornerback Ashley Ambrose led the team in total snaps played with 1079, but Brizl was the only player to participate in 100% of his unit's snaps.

CREDENTIALS FOR HOME GAMES: All credential requests should be made in writing on letterhead by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Jack Brennan, Bengals public relations director. Submit all season-long credential requests by mail or fax by July 31. All per-game requests should be faxed by 5 p.m. on the Monday preceding all games. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Also note whether you wish to have the credentials mailed or left at Press Will-Call. Credentials will not be issued to persons managing Internet sites, unless those sites are represented by an accredited media outlet or an accredited Internet service. Contact the Bengals' public relations department or the league office for information. Scouts from other NFL teams should contact the Bengals' public relations department for information regarding credential policies. All credentials are non-transferable. The Bengals cannot guarantee that every credential request will be granted.

PRESS WILL-CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE: Press Will Call and the media entrance at Cinergy Field is located on the south side of the stadium (the river side) next to Gate 9.

PRESS BOX: To reach the press box, take the elevator just inside the media entrance to Level 5. Turn right out of the elevator and walk approximately 75 yards. The football press box entrance will be on the right. Food, soft drinks and coffee are available to the media before the game and during halftime.

The Bengals' locker room has a separate interview room for the head coach's conference, with two multiboxes for television and radio reporters. TV/radio media can access the interview room to set up equipment and conduct sound checks during a 15-minute window from 45 minutes prior to kickoff to 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

CREDENTIALS FOR AWAY GAMES: Bengals media who wish to request credentials for away games should fax those requests to the attention of Jack Brennan, Bengals public relations director, by 5 p.m. at least 10 days before the game. BENGALS RADIO NETWORK

PETE ARBOGAST

DAVE LAPHAM

BRUCE KOZERSKI

Pete Arbogast, Dave Lapham and Bruce Kozerski will team up on the Bengals Radio Network for the second consecutive season in 1998, again under the banner of twin Cincinnati flagship stations WBOB-AM (All Sports 1160) and WUBE-FM (105.1).

Arbogast, a five-time winner of the California Associated Press "Best Play-by-Play" award, made his Bengals debut in 1997. He was the voice of University of Southern California football and basketball from 1988-95, as well as the NBA Los Angeles Clippers from 1984-89. Arbogast was also the 1996 winner of the "Golden Mike" award while serving as the sports director and morning news anchor at KNNZ/KNNS in Los Angeles.

Lapham, a former Bengals offensive lineman (1974-83), has been radio analyst for Bengals games since 1986. Rated highly for his ability to give listeners an insider's perspective, he was color analyst for SEC and Big Eight football for Prime Sports Network from 1990-95, and has been the color commentator for the national Big 12 football game of the week for Fox Sports Net since 1996. He does a regular sports talk show on WBOB radio and serves as a sports analyst for WCPO-TV (Channel 9) in Cincinnati.

Bengals radio broadcasts featured a regular sideline reporter for the first time in 1997, and Kozerski returns in '98 for a second season in that role. A former Bengals offensive lineman (1984-95), Kozerski also does regular Bengals reports for WUBE-FM.

At press time, the Bengals Radio Network included 44 stations covering five states:

LIST SUBJECT TO CHANGE

BENGALS PRESEASON TELEVISION

BRAD JOHANSEN

ANTHONY MUNOZ

SAM WYCHE

Cincinnati sports anchor Brad Johansen makes his debut in 1998 as the preseason TV voice of the Bengals, and he'll be flanked in the booth by two of the biggest names in Bengals history. Anthony Munoz and Sam Wyche both will return in the analysts' roles they filled for the '97 preseason package.

Rights for the team's four preseason games return this season to WKRC-TV (Channel 12). WKRC also held the rights from 1988 through 1996. Bengals preseason rights were held by WLWT-TV (Channel 5) from 1968-87 and in 1997.

WKRC is the CBS affiliate in Cincinnati, and will clearly be the major carrier of Bengals games in 1998 since the NFL's regular-season American Football Conference package will also be on CBS.

The Columbus, Ohio, market has been added to the list of preseason TV affiliates for '98, with CBS affiliate WBNS-TV (Channel 10) set to carry the package. Other stations on the preseason network will be WDTN-TV (Channel 2) in Dayton, Ohio, and WTVQ-TV (Channel 36) in Lexington, Ky.

Johansen has been sports director and main sports anchor at WKRC-TV since 1996, and has done extensive work on Bengals TV specials as well as covering the team in a reporter/anchor role. He has worked as a sideline reporter on Bengals preseason TV broadcasts and as a radio sports talk show host. In his broadcast career, Johansen has won more than 30 journalism awards, including 11 Emmys. He first came to Cincinnati as weekend news anchor on WKRC in 1992. Johansen has worked previously in television news and sports in Las Vegas, Nev., San Luis Obispo, Calif., Lansing, Mich., and Peoria, Ill.

Munoz starred for the Bengals for 13 seasons (1980-92), and is widely regarded as the best offensive tackle in NFL history. In January of this year, he became the first primary Bengals player to gain election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. His induction to the Hall was set for Aug. 1 of this year. Munoz is a former NFL analyst for Fox Network TV. Due to prior commitments, Munoz will not be in the WKRC booth for the first game of the Bengals preseason schedule.

Wyche was Bengals head coach from 1984-91, guiding the team to Super Bowl XXIII after the 1988 season. He was Tampa Bay Bucs head coach from 1992-95, and joined NBC Sports in 1996 as an NFL game analyst. Wyche moved into the NBC studio as a national pre-game analyst in 1997. In 1998, Wyche will retain his network connection with the NFL, working as a game analyst for CBS Sports.

NOT THE FIRST TIME

The 1998 NFL draft marked the ninth time in franchise history for the Bengals to have multiple picks in the first round.

In using their two picks on linebackers Takeo Spikes of Auburn (13th selection) and Brian Simmons of North Carolina (17th selection), the Bengals chose players at the same position in the first round for only the second time. The other such instance was 1977, when Cincinnati chose defensive tackles Eddie Edwards of Miami, Fla. (3rd selection) and Wilson Whitley of Houston (8th selection).

In two other drafts, the Bengals used their first two picks on players at the same position, though both picks were not in the first round. In 1970, Cincinnati selected DT Mike Reid in Round 1 and DT Ron Carpenter in Round 2. In 1981, WR David Verser was the selection in Round 1 and WR Cris Collinsworth was taken in Round 2.

1997 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-9 ... Lost starting nod to Glenn Foley for Game 10, Nov. 9 at Miami, and did not play ... Returned to action in 2nd quarter in Game 11, Nov. 16 at Chicago, after Foley suffered sprained knee ... Returned to starting role for Games 12-16.

Threw completions to 10 different receivers Dec. 14 vs. Tampa Bay, and led offense to 37:31 possession time in 31-0 victory.

IF YOU CAN'T BEAT 'EM, SIGN 'EM: Neil O'Donnell would be a leading contender to make any Bengals all-opponent team. In 10 career starts vs. Cincinnati, nine of those with Pittsburgh and one with the New York Jets, O'Donnell's teams posted a 9-1 record while he compiled an aggregate passer rating of 103.7. In those 10 games, O'Donnell completed 198 of 316 passes (62.7%) for 2447 yards, 20 TDs and 3 interceptions. The Bengals' lone victory against an O'Donnell-led club was a 27-9 win at Pittsburgh on 10-19-95. O'Donnell threw for 359 yards in that game, completing 30-of-52 passes, but was held without a TD pass and suffered one interception. O'Donnell's first win as an NFL starter came Nov. 10, 1991 at Cincinnati, when he completed 24 of 39 for 309 yards, 3 TDs and no INT in a 33-27 overtime victory.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1990: Drafted by Pittsburgh in 3rd round (70th overall) ...
