ARTHUR B. MODELL

OWNER

Born 6/23/25, Brooklyn, N.Y.
Purchased Browns 3/21/61

To a great extent, Art Modell's success embodies the so-called "American Dream" . . . from high school dropout, to successful businessman and finally to prominence in his profession.

Modell was just 15 when he first entered the labor force as an electrician's helper in a Brooklyn, N.Y. shipyard to help his financially strapped parents survive the Depression. That forced the hard-driving Modell to finish high school via night classes and gave him a temporary divorce from sports (Art had received attention as a baseball catcher).

Modell joined the Air Force in 1943 (he was 18) and then enrolled in a New York City television school following World War II. Always an innovator, Modell quickly produced and directed the first regular daytime television show in New York, and probably the nation. He moved into the advertising business in 1954 with L. H. Hartman Co. (in N.Y.), one of the country's most successful agencies. Soon after, he became a partner.

Modell, 35 at the time, made his most daring move March 21, 1961 when he purchased the Cleveland Browns. In 21 seasons of ownership, the Browns have earned the playoffs eight times and suffered just four losing seasons. In 1964, the Browns won the NFL championship and gained the title game in 1965, 1968 and 1969. Cleveland also advanced to the postseason in 1967, 1971, 1972 and 1980.

Modell's prominence and influence in the league is widely known. A Phoenix columnist polled NFL officials at last winter's league meetings and wrote that Modell was regarded as "the second most influential person in the league." As chairman of the NFL's broadcast committee, he was an important contributor to the league's new five-year television contract.

Business aside, Modell simply enjoys football. "It's exciting, great entertainment," Modell said. "The anticipation, the anxiety and emotional involvement of the game is exhilarating. The competition is super . . . The first Brown helmet out of the dugout; the reaction of the crowd, the electricity of the event and the hope for victory."

A staunch supporter of Commissioner Pete Rozelle and the NFL constitution, Modell served as league president from May, 1967 to March, 1970. His bold move to transfer the Browns to the American Conference, along with Baltimore and Pittsburgh, cleared a sizeable roadblock in the merging of the NFL and AFL, returning peace to football. Among many innovations developed by Modell was the preseason doubleheader concept that proved extremely popular for a decade (1962-71). (Major proceeds from the twinbill were given to charities sponsored by the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Press).

The native New Yorker, who has adopted Cleveland as his home, has become a "mover and shaker" in the Northeast Ohio community. "I came to Cleveland as an out-of-towner and purchased one of the great loves of this community. I think I understand that responsibility and I'm thankful for the support the people of this area have given me and my family," Modell said.

Modell has attempted to repay for the support, not only with his dedication to make the Browns a winner, but his extensive involvement in other community projects. In 1974, he signed a 25-year lease with the city of Cleveland to take over management of Cleveland Stadium, which had become a financial strain on the city. With that signing, Art agreed to make at least $10 million worth of improvements, with all of those already completed. He also lent his money and influence to refurbish the financially troubled Cleveland Sheraton Hotel at Public Square, which was turned into a downtown showpiece under the name of Stouffer's Inn on the Square.

Honors accorded him in the last year for his services and accomplishments have included: the "Champion of Brotherhood" distinction from the National Conference of Christian and Jews for Modell's "lifetime of service in combatting discrimination and prejudice"; the "Citizen of the Year" award from the Cleveland Board of Realtors; and the "United Way Commitment" honor for his and his team's involvement with that organization. Other recent presentations to him have come from the New York Football Writers' Assn.; the Sports Media Association of Cleveland and Ohio (SMACO) and the Variety Club ("Super Citizen Award").

A noted philanthropist, Modell has raised funds for St. Vincent Charity Hospital; has been a chief sponsor for the Mundy Football Assn., and is a regular contributor to the many worthwhile charity and cultured activities of the Cleveland area. He is a trustee of the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and a member of the Greater Cleveland Growth Assn. Hiram College made him a member of its prestigious Garfield Society; John Carroll University awarded him an honorary LL.D degree (1979) and Wilberforce University has honored him for "Outstanding Citizenship". He has also served as foreman of the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury.

Along with the Browns, Modell serves on five boards of directors: National City Bank, Ohio Bell, Higbee Co., Twentieth Century Fox and Lake Erie Radio, operator of station WJW.

Pat Modell, Art's wife, is highly involved with the Cleveland community. She is on the board of Ursuline College and is active with the Cleveland Musical Arts Assn., the Cleveland Ballet, the Playhouse Square Foundation and Cerebral Palsy Assn. A former movie and television actress, Pat appeared in over 400 TV shows. The couple has two sons: John, 22, who is studying music at the California School of the Arts; and David, 20, who is a member of the Browns' front office.

JIM BAILEY*VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL COUNSEL

Born 8/21/46, Wilmington, O.
5th Year Browns

Although maintaining a low public profile, Jim Bailey has become a dominant force in the Browns' organization. As vice president and general counsel, Bailey works closely with Art Modell in the every day operations of all facets of the club.

While handling the legal matters involving the Browns and Cleveland Stadium (along with associate Rick Lease), Bailey negotiates player contracts and coordinates the Browns' other business interests. One of his current major projects is the moving of all departments of the Browns to one facility.

Bailey earned a football scholarship to Florida State after starring in three sports at Wilmington, O. H.S. (A defensive back at FSU, Bailey jokes that he was a major contributor to the confidence of teammate Fred Biletnikoff, who became the great Raider receiver).

Following law school at the University of Michigan, Bailey joined the Cleveland firm of Guren, Merritt, Sogg and Cohen as a fulltime associate in 1971. He was named a partner in 1976 and came to the Browns in June, 1978.

He and his wife Ann and their two daughters, Sarah and Jenny, live in Shaker Heights.

PAUL WARFIELD*DIRECTOR, PLAYER RELATIONS

Born 11/28/42, Warren, O.
3rd Year Browns
Ohio State

Paul Warfield, now in his third year as a member of the Browns' administration, is continuing to take on more responsibility and have more input into the direction of the Cleveland franchise.

Three years ago (1980), Warfield, one of the most feared offensive threats in the history of the NFL, gave up a career in television sports' reporting and joined the Browns as assistant director of pro personnel. After serving in that capacity for a year, Paul was promoted to become an assistant to team president Art Modell.

In that capacity, Warfield became involved in a number of "front office" functions, including contract negotiations. His main responsibility, however, was as liaison to the league office regarding NFL rules and player developments, including all waiver procedures. While he will continue in this last capacity, a new responsibility for Paul will be as director of player relations, his third promotion in as many years.

"It's a somewhat new position in the league," Warfield explained. "But what we will be attempting to do is make it as easy as we can for our players to become a part of the Cleveland area community, which will help them be more productive as football players. We will also begin programs to help older players begin the transformation from athlete to business person. To a degree, we will function as a counseling service."

Warfield, who is a likely inductee to Pro Football's Hall of Fame and is eligible this year, played for the Browns from 1964 through 1969 and finished his playing career here in 1976 and 1977.

He helped Miami to three Super Bowls as a Dolphin (1970 through 1974). He played for Memphis of the World Football League in 1975. A consistent All Pro and Pro Bowl performer, Warfield averaged over 20 yards per catch in his career. (Thirteen year NFL statistics show 427 catches for 8,565 yards and an astounding 85 touchdowns).

Warfield, an All America at Ohio State as a running back, is a native of nearby Warren. His undergraduate degree was in physical education and he has a masters in radio/television from Kent State. His wife Beverly, also from Warren, is the public relations director for the Cleveland YWCA. They reside in Beachwood with their two children: Sonja, 12 and Malcolm, 9.

SAM RUTIGLIANO

VICE PRESIDENT and HEAD COACH

Born 7/1/32, Brooklyn, N.Y.
29th Year Coaching
Tulsa

Sam Rutigliano, AFC coach of the year in both 1979 (UPI) and 1980 (UPI), is currently in his fifth season as head coach of the Browns. His teams have produced records of 8-8 (1978), 9-7 (1979), 11-5 (1980) and 5-11 (1981). The 1980 Browns won the AFC Central title, while the 1978 and 1979 teams stayed in playoff contention until the final weeks of those respective seasons.

Owner Art Modell made Rutigliano a vice president of the Browns in July, 1981. "I gave the title to officially recognize the importance of Sam to every part of our organization," Modell said.

Rutigliano became head coach of the Browns on Dec. 27, 1977 after building a solid foundation that was carefully constructed through two decades of coaching on the high school, collegiate and professional levels. This is his 16th year in the NFL.

Prior to coming to the Browns, Rutigliano worked two years (1976-77) as receivers' coach under Hank Stram at the New Orleans Saints. In 1974-75, Rutigliano was a member of Charlie Winner's New York Jet staff as defensive backfield coach. After serving as offensive coordinator of the New England Patriots in 1971 and 1972 (under John Mazur), Rutigliano was the lone staff member retained by Chuck Fairbanks in 1973, serving as receivers' coach that season.

The Brooklyn native began his NFL career as the pass offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos in 1967 (through 1970), working with Lou Saban. Rutigliano had worked under Saban in 1966 at the University of Maryland, first as a freshman coach and later as offensive coordinator.

Rutigliano, only the fifth Browns' head coach in the team's 36-year history, prepped at Erasmus High School, where he earned all scholastic honors as an end for the 1949 New York City championship team. After gaining junior college All-America honors at East Central (Decatur, Miss.) he enrolled at Tennessee; there he was a member of Gen. Bob Neyland's 1951 national championship team. Rutigliano then transferred to Tulsa, lettering under another West Point product, Bobby Dobbs.

Following his graduation from Tulsa, he started his coaching career on the high school level in the New York and Connecticut areas — Lafayette in Brooklyn, Greenwich (Conn.) and Chappaqua (N.Y.) high schools. During this period, Sam also earned a master's degree at Columbia University.

His collegiate coaching start came in 1964 when Rick Forzano invited Rutigliano to become his offensive coordinator at the University of Connecticut.

COACHES

An accomplished lecturer and motivational speaker, Rutigliano has a growing reputation as a television consultant. He worked the 1977 and 1979 Super Bowls, plus the 1979 AFC championship game, for NBC.

The often-quoted Rutigliano is noted for his bright, humorous style, but, according to Browns' owner Modell, "Those who mistake Sam's communication abilities and pleasant manner for softness do not last with the Browns. He's demanding and one of the most competitive persons I have ever met."

Rutigliano is married to the former Barbara Abe and is the father of three children — Paul, who is 25, Alison, 17, and Kerry, 15.

DAVE ADOLPH

LINEBACKERS

Born 6/6/37, Akron, O.
4th Year Browns
21st Year Coaching
Akron University

More than any other Browns' assistant, Dave Adolph knows the tradition of the Browns and the importance of the team to the people of northeast Ohio. A native of nearby Akron (Mogadore High School), Dave is a longtime Browns' fan, who began his coaching career at Cleveland's Shaw High School (1962).

Adolph joined the Browns as defensive line coach in 1979 and then took over the linebackers last season. His association with Sam Rutigliano started in 1965 when they were both assistants to Rick Forzano at the University of Connecticut.

As a student at Akron University, Adolph received awards for both his scholarship and leadership. He played guard and linebacker for the Zips and was selected as the Ohio Conference's top lineman in 1958. Following three years of Air Force duty as a commissioned officer (1959-61), Dave joined the coaching profession. After Shaw and prior to Connecticut, Adolph served Akron as offensive line coach (1963-64). In 1969, he joined John Ray at Kentucky as defensive coordinator; he became linebacker coach at Illinois in 1973 and worked with Woody Hayes at OSU in 1977-78.

He and his wife Julie live in Bath, O., with their three sons: Michael, 19; Mark, 17; and Thomas, 12.

LEN FONTES

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Born 3/8/38, Canton, O.
3rd Year Browns
23rd Year Coaching
Ohio State

Len Fontes, now in his third season as the coach of the Browns' defensive backs, has had the rare opportunity to be associated with both his home state's top college team and his home area's professional football organization.

The Canton, O. native fulfilled a coaching dream when he joined the Browns' staff in 1980 and he helped Ohio State (as a player under Woody Hayes) to the national championship in 1957.

Fontes came to the Browns from the University of Miami (Fla.) where he was the secondary coach for three years (1977-79). Prior to that, he taught defensive backs at Eastern Michigan (1968), Dayton (1969-72) and Navy (1973-76).

Following his graduation from Ohio State in 1960, Fontes coached at three Ohio high schools (Logan, Canton McKinley and Mansfield Madison) until 1968. His Mansfield team won one conference title and, while he was at Canton McKinley, the school captured two state titles and missed a third in a showdown with Massillon.

A superb prep athlete, Fontes performed in four sports at Warren (Mass.) High School, winning state honors in football and baseball. Before entering OSU, he had a tryout with the Boston Red Sox.

He and his wife Mimi have three children: Debbie, a recreational therapist, Kathy, a senior at the University of Miami (Fla.) and Leonard, a freshman at Dartmouth. His brother Wayne is the defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

JIM GARRETT

RESEARCH/DEVELOPMENT

Born 6/19/30, Rutherford, N.J.
5th Year Browns
22nd Year Coaching
Utah State

The Browns' running backs' coach the past four seasons, Jim Garrett was promoted to Director of Research and Development by Sam Rutigliano last January. He is the first such director in Browns' history.

Garrett's new responsibilities will allow him to take advantage of the resources available to an NFL team that would aid in the study and evaluation of players and team strategies. Resources would include film, computers and scouting combine reports. "A number of teams have tried this approach, but only one has succeeded and that's in Dallas where Eral Allen has the title of Director of Research and Development," Rutigliano said. "I'm sure we'll be a better team with Jim's input."

"I think there are two keys to making my new position important to the improvement of the team," Garrett said. "First, the relationship with the head coach has to be one of mutual respect and Sam and I have that. We've known each other for 22 years and we've worked together for the last six (New Orleans and Cleveland).

"Second," Garrett added "the coaching staff has to put faith in the information I can produce. Having been part of this staff, I'm confident this will happen."

Rutigliano noted that Garrett would be involved with game plans, trades and "serve as a type of monitor of our overall approach and philosophy. What I think will make Garrett especially effective in this position is the fact that he's been an offensive coordinator, a defensive coordinator and a special teams' coach, plus he worked in the Dallas system," Rutigliano said.

Garrett, who is 52, began his NFL career in 1966 when he joined BLESTO, a scouting combine. He joined the Cowboys as a scout in 1968 and two years later became a member of the Giants' staff where he stayed four years. He went back to the Cowboys in 1974 before gaining the head coaching job of the Houston Texans in the World Football League. He later joined Hank Stram's staff in New Orleans and stayed there until 1978 when he came to Cleveland.

Garrett earned four letters in football and baseball at Utah State and was named All Skyline Conference. After serving in the Army two years, he played briefly with Philadelphia and the New York Giants and then with British Columbia and Ottawa of the CFL. He then moved into coaching at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Lehigh and as head coach at Susquehanna, where he compiled a 40-3-1 record and was later inducted into that school's Hall of Fame.

Garrett and his wife Jane live in Cleveland Heights and are the parents of eight children whose ages range from 22 to 15: Jim, Jane, Jennifer, Janine, Jill, John, Jason and Judd.

PAUL HACKETT

QUARTERBACKS

Born 7/5/47, Burlington, Vt.

2nd Year Browns

12th Year Coaching

California - Davis

Although just 35 years old, Paul Hackett has already coached 12 years and has a reputation in the coaching world as a rising young star. The energetic Hackett is in his second season as teacher for the Browns' talented quarterback group.

Hackett first gained notoriety in 1974 when his prized pupil at the University of California was Steve Bartkowski, then the nation's leading collegiate passer and now the standout for the Atlanta Falcons. In 1975, Hackett tutored Joe Roth, who appeared a cinch for pro stardom until his untimely death. Hackett, who began his coaching career at California-Davis in 1970 and 1971, was at California from 1972 through 1975.

In 1976, Hackett joined the staff at Southern California as the quarterbacks' coach. In his first year at USC he guided the rapid development of Vince Evans, currently of the Chicago Bears. He also worked with Rob Hertel, who later played with the Philadelphia Eagles. Hackett's top student at USC set 17 NCAA, PAC-10 and USC records — the player, of course, is Paul McDonald of the Browns.

Hackett proved his feel for the quarterback position as a student at California-Davis, where he led the Far Western Conference in passing his senior year (1969). Paul, who has a master's degree from California State - Sacramento, lives in Strongsville with his wife Elizabeth and their two children: David, 9, and Nathaniel, 2.

ROD HUMENUIK

OFFENSIVE LINE

Born 6/17/38, Detroit, Mich.
8th Year Browns
19th Year Coaching
Southern California

Traditionally, the Browns have maintained an offensive line that has stood among the elite in the NFL. Such is the case today and has been that way since Rod Humenuik took control in 1975.

Humenuik's forces have allowed the Browns the luxury of having six 1,000-yard running back efforts in the last seven seasons. Greg Pruitt was escorted to 1,000 yards in 1975, 76 and 77; while Mike Pruitt has used Humenuik's charges the past three seasons for successful 1,000-yard campaigns. In fact, a major reason for the Browns' offensive prominence in the last few years can be traced directly to the strength of the Browns' front five.

Center Tom DeLeone and tackle Doug Dieken have progressed to Pro Bowl status under Humenuik, who was the only Browns' assistant held over when Sam Rutigliano became head coach in 1978. Adjusting to injury, a Humenuik strength, was severely tested last season when three starters (DeLeone, Dieken and guard Henry Sheppard) suffered significant problems, yet the Browns still finished fourth in the NFL in total yards.

Prior to coming to Cleveland, Humenuik coached the offensive line for the Toronto Argonauts (1973-74) under John Rauch. Rod was the head coach at California State-Northridge in 1971 and 72 after spending five seasons with John McKay at Southern California. The Trojans appeared in four consecutive Rose Bowls in that span.

Humenuik entered coaching in 1964 as an assistant at Fullerton Junior College. He was a star guard for USC from 1956 through 1958, then played three years under Bud Grant for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL.

Rod and his wife Susie live in Brecksville with their four children: daughters — Kim, 22; Kerry, 20; Kelly, 16; and son Mike, 14.

RICH KOTITE

RECEIVERS

Born 10/13/42, Brooklyn, N.Y.
5th Year Browns
9th Year Coaching
Wagner College

Sam Rutigliano is very proud of his profession and firmly believes that a coach must first be a teacher. Those who have had the opportunity to watch Rich Kotite work the past four years have seen this philosophy in practice. Kotite is indeed a teacher and many of his pupils have graduated to stardom.

The emergence of Ozzie Newsome and Dave Logan as NFL standouts has come under Kotite. Another student on the rise is Ricky Feacher, a game-breaker molded in the

COACHES

Kotite system. "You study under Rich," Logan said. "He helps you understand the importance of detail in getting open and he emphasizes why certain things work and what you have to do to make it happen again."

Kotite, who missed part of last season for the removal of a benign tumor, began his pro coaching career in 1977 on the same New Orleans Saints staff with Rutigliano. Rich was in charge of quality control, which included the breaking down and analyzing of films. He joined the Browns in 1978, Sam's first year in Cleveland.

Kotite began coaching in 1973 at Tennessee - Chattanooga under his former New York Giants' teammate Joe Morrison. He stayed there until 1976.

Kotite earned Little All America honors and rewrote the school's receiving records at Wagner (Staten Island, N.Y.) College (1963-65). Signed by the Giants in 1967, Rich spent the following season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and then rejoined the Giants in 1969 for the beginning of a four-year stint as a tight end.

Rich and his wife Elizabeth live in Berea with their five-year old daughter Alexandra.

JOHN PETERCUSKIE

SPECIAL TEAMS

Born 1/31/25, Old Forge, Pa.
5th Year Browns
32nd Year Coaching
East Stroudsburg Teachers

An average of one in every five plays in the NFL is a special teams' situation and the responsibility for making sure the Browns are top notch in this area belongs to John Petercuskie.

Petercuskie is the dean of the Browns' coaching staff, having been in the profession 32 years, including the last four with Cleveland. He started at the high school level in 1950 and has also had considerable experience at various colleges.

Following high school, John served four years in the U.S. Marine Corps in World War II, including participation in the invasion of Okinawa. He then played guard for East Stroudsburg Teachers College (1947-49) before starting to build a reputation as a standout high school and college coach.

After succeeding at a number of high schools in eastern Pennsylvania in a 15-year stretch, Petercuskie joined the Dartmouth College staff as defensive line coach (1966-68). He enjoyed the same capacity at Boston College, where he also became defensive coordinator, from 1969 to 1972. He had similar responsibilities at Princeton from 1973 to 1977.

Petercuskie and his wife Dorothy live in Strongsville. They have three grown sons: John, Jerry and Gary. Jerry coaches defensive ends at Brown and Gary is an administrative assistant to Joe Paterno at Penn State.

TOM PRATT*DEFENSIVE LINE

Born 6/21/35, Edgerton, Wis.
2nd Year Browns
26th Year Coaching
Miami (Fla.)

Sam Rutigliano's faith in Tom Pratt's ability to develop young talent is evidenced by the fact the Browns entered the preseason without a defensive lineman with more than three years of NFL experience. Pratt is ready for the challenge. "We've got a young, talented and eager group and we're ready to turn them loose," Pratt said.

This will be Pratt's second season as defensive line coach for the Browns and his 20th in the NFL in that same capacity. He gained notoriety for his development of defensive lines for the Kansas City Chiefs' Super Bowl teams of 1967 and 1970. The latter championship unit of Jerry Mays, Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan and Curly Culp became near awesome. Pratt stayed with the Chiefs from 1963 through 1977.

In 1978, Pratt rejoined Hank Stram at New Orleans where he pushed his 1979 line to 46 sacks, a Saints' record.

Pratt played linebacker at Miami (Fla.) from 1953 through 1956 and remained at his alma mater as an assistant coach until 1960. He was an assistant at Southern Mississippi in 1961 and 1962 before joining the Chiefs.

Pratt and his wife Hope live in Medina and they have three children: Kendra, 20, Shana, 17 and Tyler, 11.

DAVE REDDING*STRENGTH

Born 6/14/52, North Platte, Neb.
1st Year Browns
7th Year Coaching
Nebraska

In a competition as close as that in the NFL, victory sometimes belongs to the healthiest and best conditioned team. Helping the Browns be prepared is Dave Redding, who was appointed last February to the newly created position of Browns' strength coach.

Redding, who has six years of strength coaching experience at three major universities, also has three seasons of experience coaching defensive ends on the collegiate level. Dave was a three-year letterman at defensive end for the University of Nebraska.

Prior to arriving in Cleveland, Redding was the strength and conditioning coach at Missouri (1978-81). He also coached defensive ends and was in charge of football's winter conditioning and lifting program for one season at Washington State University (1977).

"Over the past four years, the specialization of the strength coach has become a trend in the NFL," Sam Rutigliano said. "The Browns are interested in improving the players' overall strength, quickness, conditioning and their ability to perform and that's why we sought Redding."

Upon completion of his B.S. degree in physical education, with a minor in public health, Redding became a graduate assistant football and strength coach at Nebraska. He was responsible for the winter conditioning and lifting program for his alma mater's freshman football team.

"My main goal is to keep the players healthy and ready to play. By reducing injuries, more players will be available game day," Redding said.

Redding and his wife Jane, who is a commercial artist, live in Medina.

JOE SCANNELLA

RUNNING BACKS

Born 5/22/31, Passaic, N.J.
1st Year Browns
29th Year Coaching
Lehigh University

A new and welcome addition to the Browns' coaching staff is Joe Scannella, who will handle the team's running backs. Prior to joining the Browns, Scannella had been the head coach of the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

In three seasons at Montreal, Scannella took the Alouettes to two Grey Cup title games, the Super Bowl for the Canadian Football League. His 1978 team, his first at Montreal, finished 10-8-1 and earned a Grey Cup match, as did his 1979 team, which finished with a 12-5-1 record. In 1980, Scannella led the Alouettes to a 9-9 mark.

Prior to his head coaching job at Montreal, Scannella spent six years with the Oakland Raiders (1972-77). His responsibilities included special teams' work and extensive offensive work, especially with Oakland's young quarterbacks. During his tenure with Oakland, the Raiders gained the playoffs each season and won the 1976 Super Bowl.

A little All-America quarterback at Lehigh University (1947-50), Scannella then played professional football as a quarterback/safety for Saskatchewan of the CFL (1951-52).

Scannella began his coaching career at the high school in Long Island, New York (Port Jefferson, Oceanside and Baldwin high schools). He coached at Cornell University and in 1964 became head coach at C.W. Post College where he earned a 27-18-1 record in five years. He served with the New York Giants as a scout in 1968 and in 1969 he was the offensive line coach for the Montreal Alouettes. In 1970 and 1971, Scannella was the head coach at the University of Vermont.

Scannella and his wife Lillian have three children: Joe, 27, a musician (with the Soul Angets); Beth, 24, a teacher and coach in Danville, Calif.; and Jim, 20, a student at California and one of the nation's top hurdlers.

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Born 9/23/43, Canonsburg, Pa.
3rd Year Browns
9th Year Coaching
Pittsburgh

Under the direction of defensive coordinator Marty Schottenheimer, who joined the Browns' staff prior to the 1980 season, the Cleveland defense has evolved from the standard 4-3 to the 3-4 and with the change has come improvement. In 1979, the Browns ranked 24th in the NFL in yards allowed. By last season, the Browns had progressed to 16th in the league, sixth best in the AFC.

Schottenheimer began his coaching career as an assistant with Portland in the World Football League in 1974. He then worked for and studied under one of the NFL's defensive geniuses, Bill Arnsparger, then the head coach of the New York Giants. Marty joined the Giants' staff in 1975 as linebackers' coach and later became defensive coordinator (1977).

Following his stint with the Giants, Schottenheimer spent two years (1978 and 1979) with the Detroit Lions as linebackers' coach before coming to Cleveland.

After gaining All America honors at the University of Pittsburgh as a linebacker (1964), Schottenheimer was picked in the seventh round of the 1965 draft by the Buffalo Bills. While a member of the Bills, Marty played in the 1965 and 1966 American Football League title games. He finished his playing career with the New England Patriots in 1969 and 1970.

Following his retirement as a player, Schottenheimer worked as a real estate developer in both Miami and Denver from 1971 until accepting a coaching position in 1974.

Schottenheimer and his wife Patricia live in Strongsville with their two children: daughter Kristen, 12 and son Brian, 9

ED ULINSKI

FILM COORDINATOR

Born 12/7/19, Pittsburgh, Pa.
33rd Year Browns
Marshall

Ed Ulinski, now in his 33rd year as a member of the Cleveland Browns' organization, has proved valuable to the team in a number of capacities. One of the original Browns, Ulinski was a somewhat small, but rugged guard from 1946 through 1949 when the team was in the All-America Conference. He was a coach from 1954 through 1970 and has served as film coordinator since then.

After an outstanding career at Marshall (West Va.) College and his pro playing career, Ed coached at Santa Clara and then at Purdue.

CHARLEY CUSICK

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Born 10/7/50, San Bernardino, Calif.
13th Year Browns

Coordinating the purchasing and maintaining of equipment for the Browns, as well as the operations involved with moving these from Baldwin Wallace to training camp, Cleveland Stadium and road sites, is Charley Cusick. Cusick is already in his 13th year as a member of the Cleveland organization.

Cusick, named equipment manager in 1974, succeeded Morrie Kono, a pioneer in the football equipment business. A graduate of Lakewood High, Charley was a promising athlete until a severe knee injury curtailed his playing days.

Cusick lives in Lakewood with his wife Patty. They were married this spring.

LEO MURPHY

TRAINER

Born 10/24/23, Elmira, N.Y.
33rd Year Browns
Notre Dame

Leo Murphy received fitting recognition for the contributions he has made to the profession of athletic training on June 15, 1982 when he was inducted into the National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (the highest honor that can be received by a trainer from his peers.)

Before joining the Cleveland Browns in 1950, the 1947 graduate of Notre Dame worked with the Chicago Rockets and New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference. Leo has been a valuable member of the organization not only because of his medical knowledge, but also because of his delightful, witty humor.

Murphy and his wife Betty reside in Medina, Ohio. They have two children (Nancy, 29 and Martin 33) and three grandchildren.

BILL DAVIS

DIRECTOR OF PERSONNEL

Born 7/21/38, Youngstown, O.
2nd Year Browns
Mt. Union College

Long-time Browns' observers, including owner Art Modell, were impressed with the way the team's 1982 draft was conducted. "I'm confident we selected NFL quality players, but time will have to prove that," Modell said. "But," he continued, "I can tell you that we have never been better prepared or better organized in our approach and follow through in the draft than this one."

Bill Davis, named the Browns' director of player personnel in July of 1981, is the man responsible for the recent draft. A skillful administrator and a proven finder of talent, Davis has restructured the Browns' personnel department and has linked it closer to the coaching staff. "Sam and I seem to work very well together and that should make us a better organization. I welcome the input of the coaches. They can supplement the information our scouts obtain," Davis explained.

Prior to coming to the Browns, Davis, a native of nearby Youngstown, O., had been the Director of Pro Personnel for the Miami Dolphins, where he also served as an administrative assistant to Don Shula.

Davis' responsibilities for the Browns include the management of the team's collegiate and pro scouting staffs. He also handles the negotiations and signings of some draft choices and free agents.

Davis joined the Dolphins in February, 1979. At Miami, he handled the negotiations of all player contracts and evaluated NFL talent for possible waiver or trade additions. Prior to his Dolphin association, Davis spent three years with the Philadelphia Eagles — starting in 1976 as linebacker coach and advancing to become Dick Vermeil's administrative assistant and tight end and special teams' coach.

From 1973 to 1975 Davis was the offensive backfield coach at Michigan State. While a head coach at Adrian College (1968-72), three of his five teams shared the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship. (He produced Adrian's first winning season since 1949 and first league title since 1911).

An All-America quarterback (1960) at Mt. Union College (Alliance, O.), Davis began coaching as a student assistant at Mt. Union. He later became head coach at Austintown-Fitch High School (1964-66), where his record was 18-8-1. He was an assistant coach at Westminster (Pa.) College in 1967. (Davis earned a master's in education at Westminster).

Davis prepped at The Rayen School and his wife Joanne is also a native of Youngstown. They reside in Berea with their three children: Diane, 18, a freshman at Ohio Univ., and sons Bill, 16, and Bret, 14, both of whom are quarterbacks at their respective schools.

ALLAN WEBB DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Born 1/22/34, Washington, D.C.
4th Year Browns
Arnold College

As the Browns' director of pro personnel, Allan Webb has the important responsibility of keeping tabs on all the players in the league, maintaining evaluations on each. Webb also scouts upcoming opponents and works closely with Sam Rutigliano preparing the Browns for the next games.

Webb's impressive list of credentials include stints as a player, coach and scout. Browns' fans still remember him as a starting defensive back on three New York Giants' teams (1961-63) that won Eastern Division titles over Cleveland. He played with the Giants until 1965 and then coached several seasons in the Atlantic Coast Football League.

He rejoined the Giants as a scout in 1972 and later became coach of the offensive backs until 1978 when he came to the Browns.

Webb gained Little All America honors at Arnold College in Connecticut. After a trial with the Los Angeles Rams, he served two years in the Navy. He played with the Montreal Alouettes before going to the Giants.

Webb, a native of Washington, D.C., and his wife Olga have two children: Lisa, 23, and Marc, 17. They live in Berea.

DAVE BECKMAN

AREA SCOUT

Born 6/8/38, Cleveland, O.
2nd Year Browns
Baldwin Wallace

Dave Beckman, who scouts portions of the SEC, ACC, Big 8 and Big Ten conferences for the Browns, left an assistant coaching position at Lamar University a year ago to continue a long time association with Bill Davis. Beckman first joined Davis as the offensive coordinator at Adrian (Mich.)

College in 1970. From 1976-1980, he helped Davis evaluate talent at the camps of the Philadelphia Eagles and the Miami Dolphins.

Born in Cleveland, Beckman graduated from Bellevue (O.) H.S., received his B.A. from Baldwin Wallace and earned a master's degree at Akron. He began his coaching career as an assistant to Lee Tressel at Baldwin Wallace in 1960. In 1961, Beckman was named head coach at Highland H.S. in Akron and later (1963) earned coach of the year honors in that city. After he was an assistant at Warren Harding H.S. in 1965, "Beck" joined Hubbard (O.) H.S. as head coach in 1968.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Following his stay at Adrian, Beckman went from the University of Evansville (1971-72) to Iowa (1973-78) and then to Lamar (1979-81).

Dave resides in Berea with his wife Pat and two sons: Tim, 17 and Ted, 15.

4th Year Browns
Prairie View State

Chuck Garcia is in his 11th consecutive year as a talent scout involved with the NFL. This is his fourth season as an area scout for the Browns. Prior to 1979, Garcia was a three-year member of the scouting staff of the then new Seattle Seahawks. He began his personnel work in 1972 as a member of the CEPO scouting combine.

Garcia covers much of the southern part of the country for the Browns, including Texas, home of the colleges of four 1982 Cleveland draft choices. Garcia began his career as football coach and athletic director at Cuero (Tex.) H.S. in 1957 after graduating from Prairie View State, where he played football.

Following three years in the Army, he held a number of coaching and athletic directors' jobs at Texas high schools until 1968 when he went to Bishop College as defensive coordinator. He later coached at Jackson State.

Garcia lives in Dallas and he has four children: Rodney, Tonya and twins Terri and Carl Anthony.

TOM HECKERT

AREA SCOUT

Born 9/18/38, Youngstown, O.
1st Year Browns
Youngstown State

The newest member (3/8/82) of the Browns' scouting department is Tom Heckert, most recently the head football coach and athletic director at Adrian (Mich.) College.

Youngstown native Heckert began his coaching career as an assistant to Bill Davis in 1961 at Youngstown's Fitch High School. He stayed there until 1965, although his tenure was interrupted by a two-year Army hitch (1962-63), serving as a lieutenant.

While working as a graduate assistant at Kent State University in 1966-67, Heckert earned a master's degree in education. The Youngstown State graduate then became head coach at Maumee (O.) H.S. (1967-68). Heckert became head coach at Adrian (1973) after serving as defensive coordinator to then head coach Bill Davis for three years (1969-72). He was named athletic director in 1977.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Upon hiring Heckert, Davis realigned his staff and assigned Heckert to the Midwest. He will remain in Adrian with his wife Rose, 18-year old daughter Kimberly and son Tom, 14.

TOM MINER

AREA SCOUT

Born 5/14/32, Checotah, Okla.
8th Year Browns
Tulsa

A strength and mainstay of the Browns' personnel department the last eight years has been Tom Miner, who came to the organization in 1975 after serving the San Diego Chargers as player personnel director and vice president, player relations.

Miner, who covers the West Coast for the Browns, began his personnel work in 1963 as a part-time scout for the Chargers, which developed into a full-time position three years later.

Miner earned All Missouri Valley honors at Tulsa as an end and placekicker. He then played with Winnipeg of the CFL before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1958. He set a club mark of 14 field goals that year, including a 49-yarder against the Browns.

He and his wife Pat live in LaMesa, Calif. and they have two daughters.

MIKE NIXON

AREA SCOUT

Born 11/21/11, Masontown, Pa.
14th Year Browns
Pittsburgh

A long time contributor to the Browns' personnel department, Mike Nixon has a varied and prestigious background that makes him one of the most respected men in the NFL. He scouts the entire Northeast portion of the United States for the Browns.

A veteran of over 40 years of coaching and scouting, Nixon was head coach of both the Washington Redskins (1959-60) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (1965). An All-America performer at Pittsburgh, Mike played for Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cardinals of the NFL. He joined the Browns in 1969 after spending the three prior years with the Philadelphia Eagles as a coaching aide. Mike had the special assignment of scouting veterans of both pro leagues at games and on film in preparation for Browns' playing in the AFC in 1970.

Nixon and his wife Thelma live in Brecksville, Ohio. They have one married daughter. Mike was voted into the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1980 and was once a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

PRO: Hard luck 1979 first round draft choice whose first three seasons have proved frustrating for both him and Browns: suffered two injuries his first training camp (cut hand and strained knee ligaments) that stalled his rookie season progress; spent a healthy 1980 behind Dave Logan and Reggie Rucker, who enjoyed brilliant seasons; and again split his fingers in last year's training camp and then missed the final nine games after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on his injured knee . . . Caught just one pass in 1981, a 24-yard grab against Houston in Cleveland . . . Had 10 tackles in seven games as member of Browns' special teams . . . Caught one pass as rookie for six yards and had eight receptions for 165 yards and 20.6 average in 1980 . . . Has rushed four times for 11 yards . . . Coaches compliment his toughness, but Rutigliano notes that Adams must improve pass receiving ability . . . Runs under 4.6 for 40 . . . Longest career reception was 39 yards vs. Kansas City (9/21/80) . . . Is looking for his first NFL touchdown.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Caught 29 passes for an 18.9 yards per catch average his senior season at Houston . . . Played in East-West Shrine and Japan Bowl games . . . All state performer in football and track (sprints) at Schulenberg (Tex.) High School . . . Still lives in Schulenberg in off-season with wife Natalie Christine and son Willis Jr. (1/21/81) . . . 6-3 225 Rookie
 St. Edwards (Lakewood, O.) H.S.
 Born 5/6/57, Bloomington, Ind.
 T, 1982

PRO: Acquired from Buffalo (4/24/82) for Cleveland's first round pick in the 1983 draft and unannounced choices in the following two drafts . . . Had been the Bills and the NFL's number one choice in the 1979 draft, but he opted to sign a contract with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League, where he played the past three seasons . . . Rutigliano called the addition of Cousineau "absolutely dynamic; he'll have an immediate impact on our defense" . . . Is slated to start inside with Dick Ambrose

PLAYERS

... Was coached at Montreal by new Browns' running backs' coach Joe Scannella . . . Tom, who was described as the best defensive player in the CFL in the last 10 years, played both inside and outside backer in Canada . . . As a rookie, he was named the Alouettes' rookie of the year and was picked as the outstanding defensive player in the 1979 Grey Cup . . . In 1980, playing exclusively in the middle, he produced 227 tackles (121 solos), five sacks and caused three fumbles and then was awarded the trophy as the best defensive player in the Eastern Division . . . Dislocated an elbow in the second game of last year and missed all but the final two games of the year . . . According to Rutigliano, Cousineau should not have adjustment problem to NFL: "Tom won't be surprised. With so many multiple formations, plus free motion in Canada, Tom may have fewer worries here" . . . A dedicated weight lifter since junior high school. Cousineau is one of the strongest Browns, possessing amazing upper body strength, plus he's fast (4.65) and his lateral movement is startling.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A two-time All America for Ohio State, Cousineau was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes (played 47 games) . . . Had 631 tackles (360 solos), an average of 13.5 per game . . . Led Buckeyes in tackles as a sophomore (184) and as a senior with 227 (18.9 average) . . . Voted Cleveland Touchdown Club's Collegiate Player of the Year in 1978 . . . An Ohio State co-captain, he was defensive MVP of 1977 Orange Bowl (vs. Colorado) and the 1979 Hula Bowl . . . Was one of the country's most recruited players following his senior year at St. Eds H.S., located in Lakewood, a west side suburb of Cleveland . . . A state finalist in wrestling as both a junior and senior . . . A former honor student . . . Representative for Timron, Inc., a company specializing in traffic control products . . . Tom is single and recently purchased a home in Lakewood.

COUSINEAU ON COUSINEAU: "I enjoyed playing in Canada, but Cleveland is where I always hoped I would play. Success, when you don't have anyone to share it with, is a pretty meaningless experience. Now I'll have people around me and at the game or watching on television, who I care about and that will help me play my best."

PRO: Long time and valuable member of the Browns' offensive line, Robert has started 84 of the 106 regular season games played by the team since he was signed as a free agent in 1975

... Started 13 of 16 games last season at left guard, making a strong contribution after having offseason knee surgery ... Hurt knee early in 1980; missed most of four games and was replaced in the starting lineup by then newly acquired Joe DeLamielleure ... Started every Browns' game from 1975 through 1979, helping Greg Pruitt to three straight 1,000 yard seasons (1975-77) ... Was the only rookie free agent to make club in 1975, beginning the year at tackle, but was then moved to guard and started the final seven games of the year (after an injury to Bob McKay) ... Was overlooked in the draft because of lack of weight (played senior year at 220) ... Can play either guard spot (he's started at both) and can be used at tackle (played at right tackle in 1978 after injury to Barry Darrow) ... Was picked as Browns' man of the year by Fairview Park American Legion last winter.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Came to Duke as a highly respected prep quarterback, but was switched to tight end as freshman ... Was then moved to center and finally to tackle his junior season ... Played his junior year at 255 and dieted to what he calls a "too light 220" as a senior ... A well-rounded and dedicated athlete, Robert is an avid worker in the teams' offseason conditioning program and is one of the Browns' top racquetball players ... Is married to Linda Oldenburg of Rocky River and they live in Bay Village.

PRO: In a season with few highlights, Matthews' play was a source of satisfaction to the Browns coaches a year ago . . . "Played well enough to go to the Pro Bowl," Rutigliano said . . . Was picked as the most valuable defensive player by the Cleveland Touchdown Club . . . The right linebacker was second on team with 128 tackles (87 unassisted) and his five sacks were second best for the Browns . . . Also made two interceptions, recovered two fumbles and blocked a field goal attempt against Denver . . . Originally picked in the first round of the 1978 draft (the 12th player selected) . . . United College Scouting Combine listed him as the fifth best prospect available that year . . . A chipped ankle bone caused him to miss most of his first preseason; then bruised his shoulder in the fifth game of the regular campaign, but still played 15 games, starting two . . . Lost time hurt adjustment to playing outside LB (had played inside for USC) . . . Won the starting spot (over veteran Gerald Irons) in 1979 and he produced 103 tackles (79 solos), third best on team . . . Missed two games in 1980, but started 14 and made 83 tackles and was second on team with five sacks . . . With addition of Cousineau and Banks, Matthews is expected to increase his sacks and what Sam calls "big plays".

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Defensive leader of Trojans, earned All America honors from Sporting News and was All PAC Eight . . . Played middle linebacker throughout USC career . . . An honors undergraduate student, he is currently pursuing an MBA at USC (with straight "A's") . . . Brother

Merrill (Pine Bluff, Ark.) H.S.

Born 9/5/52, Pine Bluff, Ark.

FA, 1975

PRO: "Determined, quick, excellent blocker, thorough knowledge of Browns' offense and talented," have all been used to describe Miller — but key word is dependable; always ready to assume starters' role, evidenced by performance at Cincinnati last year when he gained 96 yards rushing on 22 carries . . . Longest run of nine-year career covered 50 yards in important 17-14 triumph over Houston in Astrodome two years ago; also scored both Browns' TDs and totaled 69 yards rushing on eight carries . . . Signed as free agent in 1974 prior to Kansas City's training camp; beat odds to make team as he spent early part of season with special teams and saw additional duty at seasons' end in running back role, rushing for 96 yards vs. St. Louis . . . Waived by Chiefs after sixth game of 1975 and signed as FA with Cleveland after Larry Poole (RB) fractured arm during eighth weekend of same season . . . Started 26 consecutive games at FB between 1976-78 . . . Rushed for 756 yards in 1977 (8th in AFC) . . . Led entire club in number of receptions with 41 (291 yards) in 1977 . . . Most productive day of career vs. Buffalo (1977) when carried 21 times for 117 yards and caught six-yard scoring pass from Greg Pruitt . . . Although playing time curtailed by emergence of Mike Pruitt and broken wrist just prior to season opener in 1978, Miller still finished third on team in rushing with 336 yards . . . Scored 17 TDs since joining the Browns . . . Leading rusher in 1981 preseason with 159 yards and 5.7 per carry average . . . Has over 1,000 yards receiving as a Brown . . . Blocking skill was evident in his help to give M. Pruitt 155 yards at Houston last year . . . Enters 1982 as seventh on Browns' all-time rushing list with 2,225 yards (needs only 73 yards to surpass Bobby Mitchell (6th place).

PLAYERS

 Colorado
 Durango, (Colo.) H.S.
 Born 7/30/56, Durango, Colo.
 D4A, 1979

PRO: The largest and strongest member of the Browns, Miller may be on the verge of making significant contributions to the team's success . . . Capable of playing guard or tackle, Matt is a serious contender to be a starter this season . . . Played all 16 games a year ago, seeing action both inside and out, including frequent duty in short yardage or run situations . . . Missed the 1980 season after suffering a knee injury in a training camp drill . . . Played 16 games his rookie year (1979), mostly on special teams . . . Has benched over 425 pounds and power cleans near 400, best on the team . . . In preseason test for body fat (part of normal physical), Miller showed only 12 percent, which is remarkable for a person his size . . . An intense competitor, Miller was picked in the fourth round of the 1979 draft.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A three-year starter and All America (UPI, AP and Sporting News) his senior year at Colorado when he was also All Big Eight . . . A top notch student, Miller was twice named to All Big Eight All Academic team . . . Majored in Geology . . . Played in Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl games . . . Alabama

Colbert (Leighton, Ala.) H.S.

Born 3/15/56, Muscle Shoals, Ala.

D1B, 1978

PRO: A Pro Bowl participant following last season, Newsome is a steady and clutch tight end who has already begun to re-write Browns' receivers' record book . . . Became an immediate starter his rookie season and enters 1982 with 64 consecutive starts and catches in 41 straight games (a Browns' record) . . . Has caught at least one pass in 62 of 64 games and has two catches in 55 of 64 . . . Selected as the team's outstanding offensive player in 1981, his 69 receptions is another Browns' mark; the 1,002 yards receiving a year ago made him only the second Brown to ever surpass 1,000 yards receiving in a season (Paul Warfield was the first) . . . Already in Browns' top ten for number of catches and yards receiving . . . Career bests include: seven catches (10/18/81) vs. New Orleans); most yards, 124 (11/5/78 at Houston); longest reception, 74 (9/16/79 vs. Baltimore) . . . Enters 1982 with 33 catches for 518 yards vs. Steelers; 27 for 311 yards vs. Bengals and 24 for 300 yards against Oilers; has scored five TDs vs. Pittsburgh . . . Does all this despite being continually double and triple-teamed . . . Had 51 catches for 594 yards in 1980 . . . Led Browns' receivers with nine TDs in 1979 when he made 55 catches for 781 yards and then was picked All Pro by the Pro Football Writers' Assoc. and first team All AFC by UPI . . . Became the first rookie in the history of such awards to be named Browns' offensive player of the year by the Cleveland Touchdown Club after grabbing 38 passes for 589 yards in 1978 (also ran end-around 13 times for 96 yards, including TDs of 33 yards and nine yards) . . . Had not played tight end until first training camp after being taken in first round of 1978 draft.

In four years for the Crimson Tide, the "Wizard of Oz" caught 102 passes for 2,070 yards for a 20.3 average; he scored 15 TDs . . . An AP first team All America and a first team All SEC . . . Was SEC lineman of the year (1977) . . . Returned kicks and played wide receiver for Alabama . . . Crimson Tide captain . . . Won nine letters in high school, three each in football basketball and baseball; was all state in both football and baseball . . . Has B.S. in recreation and park management . . . Splits offseason time between Cleveland, Tuscaloosa and Birmingham (as PR rep. for Hyatt Regency) . . . Assists "Bear" Bryant at Alabama spring drills . . . Single.

SIPE ON NEWSOME: "Ozzie is so good that we create plays to get him the ball. It seems the more the coaches expect from him, the better his concentration. He has a seemingly unlimited amount of talent. This may sound strange, but he's not as good yet as he's capable. I mean that as a compliment. He keeps getting better."

MCDONALD ODEN      TACKLE/TIGHT END      84

6-4      220      3rd Year

Tennessee State

Spring Hill (Tenn.) H.S.

Born 3/28/58, Franklin, Tenn.

FA, 1980

PRO: The durability and good health of Ozzie Newsome, who has not missed a start in his four years with the Browns, have prevented "Mac" from showing off his talents . . . As a backup tight end, Oden caught just one pass last season (for six yards against Pittsburgh), but he performed on almost every special team and was used in some short yardage situations . . . Had basically the same role his rookie season when he caught three passes for 18 yards . . . Rutigliano will move Oden to tackle in preseason (because of tenacious blocking ability) . . . Did play tackle in 1980 preseason . . . Signed as free agent in May, 1980.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A four-year letterman and team captain at Tennessee State where he was the fifth leading receiver in school history . . . Played both tight end and wide receiver . . . Played in Senior Bowl and Black College All-Star games . . . Was all-state football standout and all-conference basketball selection in high school . . . Has continued work on his undergraduate degree in offseason at Cleveland State . . . Has become active in a number of local charities . . . Single, he lives in North Olmsted, a Cleveland suburb.

Wendell Phillips (Chicago, Ill.) H.S.

Born 4/3/54, Chicago, Ill.

D1, 1976

PRO: Mike is trying for his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, a pursuit that indicates his importance to the Browns' offense and his durability and reliability . . . Earned Pro Bowl honors following the 1979 and 1980 seasons, but was not selected last year ("he should have been there," according to Rutigliano) . . . Is already fourth on the Browns' all-time rushing list (behind Jim Brown, Leroy Kelly and Greg Pruitt) and is 11th on Cleveland's all-time receiving list . . . He has not missed a game in the last four years and has started 47 of the last 48 Browns' games . . . Combined for 1,545 yards in 1981 (1,103 rushing and 442 receiving), tenth best in the league . . . Handled ball 310 of Cleveland's 1,138 plays (27.2%) . . . His 213 yards, including 155 yards rushing at Houston last season, was career best; 39 attempts (rush., rec. and returns) in that game tied (with J. Brown) a club mark . . . Enters 1982 with catches in 39 consecutive games, second best in club history (behind Ozzie Newsome's current streak of 41) . . . Had career high eight catches vs. Cincinnati (11/29) a year ago . . . Already has ten 100-yard rushing games . . . Won Browns' player of the year award from the Akron Booster Club last winter and was named the team's best offensive player by the Cleveland Touchdown Club following the 1980 season when he rushed for 1,034 yards and caught a then Browns' record of 63 passes . . . Has produced the team's longest runs from scrimmage three of the last four years: 1980 - 56 yard TD (vs. Chicago); 1979 - 77 yard TD (vs. Oakland); and 1978 - 71 yard TD (vs. Buffalo) . . . His 1,294 yards in 1979 are most by a Cleveland running back since Jim Brown's 1,544 in 1965 . . . Had five 100-yard days that season when he was named to UPI's All-AFC team . . . Saw his first regular action as a starter in 1978 (Rutigliano's first year), rushing for 560 yards, including a career high of 173 vs. Buffalo . . . Played behind Cleo Miller, now his backup, his first two years in the NFL (1976-77); in those two years he rushed just 99 times for 343 yards and caught 11 passes for 38 yards . . . The missed training camp time while working with College All Stars cost him valuable experience as rookie . . . Drafted in first round of 1976.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Was Purdue's MVP in 1975 after rushing for 899 yards and three TDs . . . His three-year Boilermaker rushing totals were 1,588 yards in 351 carries (4.5 average) and six TDs . . . Glenville (Cleveland, O.) H.S.

Born 8/19/56, Cleveland, O.

D4, 1981

PRO: Strong contender, along with rookie Keith Baldwin, to replace the traded Lyle Alzado at the important starting right end spot . . . Played in 10 games as a rookie last season, making five tackles, gaining two sacks and recovering one fumble . . . "No doubt about it, Mike has the potential to be an impact player," according to Rutigliano . . . Browns' offensive linemen Doug Dieken and Joe DeLamielleure agree with that — "Sometimes at practice he's awesome," Dieken said; and Joe "D" added; "I wasn't sure at first, but now I am. Mike's good and his quickness is exceptional" . . . An avid participant in the team's offseason program, Robinson made dramatic strength improvements since the end of last season when he played spectacular in the finale at Seattle .

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A native Clevelander, Robinson played his first two years of collegiate ball at Oklahoma State and then transferred to Arizona for his junior and senior seasons . . . PRO: Saw limited duty last season for first time since becoming a regular part of the Browns' outstanding offensive front wall in 1976 (fifth-round draft choice) . . . Neck surgery in June (1981) kept Henry on the physically unable to perform list until eighth game of last season . . .

PLAYERS

His experience at tackle and guard positions, tremendous tenacity, quickness afoot and excellent pass protection qualities, along with impressive 6-6, 263-pound frame, make Sheppard valuable to the Browns' passing and running game . . . Made presence felt on special teams every game as rookie and started one game at tackle against Pittsburgh . . . Stepped in as regular left guard in second season (1977) and demonstrated his talent at guard for two years, until switching to right tackle for 1979 campaign . . . Returned to familiar left guard slot in 1980 to help Browns to Central Division title . . . Played in nine games last year, starting final three . . . Took karate lessons two years ago to improve pass blocking skills, sense of balance and overall coordination.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Earned All-America honorable mention in 1975 and twice voted All-SWC while playing for SMU . . . Saw action at guard first two years, then worked at tackle last two seasons . . . Captured All-State honors at Cuero (Tex.) H.S. and was named on scholastic coaches' All-America team . . . Started his own computer service this past year — South Texas Computer Service handles accounting, inventory assessments and general program needs relating to business . . . Resides and operates own ranch in Cuero with wife, Rachel, who gave birth to their first child, Henry Justin (Oct. 12), during the 1981 season.

BRIAN SIPE

QUARTERBACK

17*6-1 195 9th Year*San Diego State*Grossmont (La Mesa, Calif.) H.S.*Born 8/8/49, San Diego, Calif.*D13, 1972

PRO: The NFL's consensus most valuable player from 1980 is a true success story; began career as a 13th-round choice in 1972 and then spent his first two years in pro ball as a member of the Browns' taxi squad; made active roster for the first time in 1974, but did not become a regular until 1976 when Mike Phipps separated his shoulder in the season opener and was replaced by Sipe . . . Has since become the most prolific passer in team history, holding Browns' marks for yards passing, passes attempted and completions . . . Has thrown for more than 3,700 yards each of the last three years, including 1981 when he amassed 3,876 yards, third best in the league (behind Dan Fouts and Tommy Kramer) . . . Now has thrown for more than 10 miles in career, including 13 plus-300-yard games (two last year — 375 vs. San Diego and 444 against Baltimore) . . . Brian set four Browns' records in 1981: most passing yards in a game (444); attempts in a season (567); attempts and completions in a game (57 and 31 vs. San Diego) . . . See accompanying box for other team and individual marks owned by Sipe . . . Has not missed a game in last four years and enters 1982 with 65 straight starts . . . Did miss parts of three games last year after jarring tackles (at Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Cincinnati) . . . A master of probing a defense and finding secondary receivers, Sipe had over 60 completions to three Browns last year (Newsome and the two Pruitts), while five caught over 50 in 1980 (both Pruitts, Newsome, Rucker and Logan) . . . Had remarkable 1980, leading the NFL with a 91.4 QB rating, passing for over 300 yards six times . . . Has become famous for leading comeback, fourth quarter victories and has long been noted for his courage in the pocket ("Brian might be the best ever at standing there under pressure and continuing to concentrate. The only guy I ever saw come close was Joe Namath," according to Rutigliano) . . . Started for the AFC in 1981 Pro Bowl . . . His 3,793 yards passing in 1979 was second in NFL to Fouts . . . 28 TD passes that year was best in NFL (tied with Steve Grogan) . . . Engineered late winning scoring drives in six of the club's nine 1979 victories . . . Began his assault on Browns' records (since broken again) in 1978 when he set marks for attempts and completions (399 and 222) . . . Despite elbow and shoulder ailments, he led Browns to 5-3 record in 1978 (with a one-game hold on first place in AFC Central), but he suffered a broken shoulder blade vs. Steelers and missed remainder of year (placed on injured reserve 11/29) . . . In 1976, his first year as a regular (started 12 of 14 games), Sipe led the Browns to a 9-5 mark and was selected as the team's top offensive player by the Cleveland Touchdown Club (an award he also earned in 1979) . . . Twice (vs. Miami and San Diego) completed 12 passes in a row (a team record) that season . . . Started two games in 1976 and played in seven others, contributing to three of Browns four victories . . . Saw his first regular season action in 1975, starting five games, playing in another five and he helped club to three wins . . . Showed potential for his now famous "Kardiac" style when he entered game against Denver trailing 21-9 in fourth quarter and he rallied teammates to 23-21 upset triumph . . . Saw only limited preseason duty in both 1972 and 1973 before being assigned to taxi squads.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: Was national passing champion his senior season (1971) and broke 11 San Diego State passing marks . . . Honorable mention All America and All-PCAA twice each . . . Was team captain for both East-West and American Bowl Classic games . . . Played first two seasons at Grossmont Junior College . . . Played football, basketball and baseball in H.S. . . . Was catcher on Grossmont Little League team that won national World Series . . . Brian is a national volunteer for the American Red Cross blood drive . . . Wife Jeri is Ohio coordinator for "Jazzercise" . . . Shares time between Cleveland and home in Encinitas, Calif. in offseason . . . He and his wife have two children: Lani (10/21/76) and Morgan (12/17/80).

POINT AFTER TOUCHDOWN: 1976 (1 — rushing).

1981 REVIEW

MONDAY, SEPT. 7 — Chargers 44, BROWNS 14 (78,904) at Cleveland Stadium. San Diego's offense rolled up a total of 535 yards and QB Dan Fouts completed 19 of 25 passes for 330 yards as the Chargers could do no wrong before a sellout crowd and national television audience. The game was billed as an aerial circus with the two top quarterbacks from 1980 facing each other, but San Diego jumped to an early lead and could not be caught. RB Chuck Muncie ran for 161 yards and WR Charlie Joiner caught six passes for 191 yards to highlight the Charger attack. Brian Sipe broke Browns' records for completions (31) and attempts (57), accounting for 375 passing yards. Greg Pruitt grabbed seven passes for 86 yards and Ozzie Newsome caught six for 87. Dino Hall injured his knee and was placed on injured reserve.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 13 — Oilers 9, BROWNS 3 (79,483) at Cleveland Stadium. Houston's kicker, Toni Fritsch, won a kicking duel with Dave Jacobs, only the fourth field goal kicker in Browns' history. Fritsch hit on all three attempts and Jacobs could only manage one of four between the uprights before the largest crowd of the season. The Browns' defense was outstanding, holding the Oilers to 209 total yards and FB Earl Campbell to 42 yards on 17 carries. However, the offense missed Mike Pruitt, Dave Logan and Reggie Rucker as they watched most of the second half action from the sidelines with injuries. The only Browns score, a 29-yard FG by Jacobs, came after a 41-yard pass from Brian Sipe to Ricky Feacher. Cleveland was held without a touchdown for the first time since Oct. 22, 1978 when Kansas City beat the Browns, 17-3. FS Clinton Burrell was lost for the season as the result of a knee injury.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 20 — BROWNS 20, Bengals 17 (52,170) at Riverfront Stadium. The Browns used ball control (41:59 of the 60-minute game) to help record their first win and hand the Bengals their first loss of the season. Two Dave Jacobs field goals and an Ozzie Newsome touchdown grab from Brian Sipe (after a 49-yard toss to Reggie Rucker) gave Cleveland a 13-0 halftime lead. After the Bengals cut the margin to three, the Browns responded with a 12-play, 77-yard TD drive with Mike Pruitt, nursing a sore hamstring, accounting for 67 yards in the winning march. FB Cleo Miller, who started for the injured Pruitt, contributed 96 yards rushing on 22 attempts before giving way to a sprained ankle. Sipe connected on 24 of 35 passes for 259 yards and Charles White caught seven passes for 73 yards.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 27 — BROWNS 28, Falcons 17 (78,283) at Cleveland Stadium. Cleveland quickly erased a 10-7 deficit when the Browns turned two Atlanta fumbles into touchdowns with less than two minutes to play in the first half. Rookie Eddie Johnson recovered a fumbled punt return and Brian Sipe passed 23 yards to Ozzie Newsome for a 14-10 advantage. Thirty-nine seconds later Sipe ran one yard for the Browns' third TD after Clay Matthews had recovered an Alfred Jenkins fumble. The Browns' defense did not allow the Falcons to convert a third-down play in 11 attempts, and Judson Flint and Dave Logan, playing designated defender in a last-minute "Hail Mary" situation, used the first interceptions of their careers to halt the Falcons' last two drives of the game. Sipe finished the contest with 21 completions in 34 attempts for 215 yards to mark the sixth consecutive regular season game he completed 20 or more passes. Mike Pruitt led all rushers with 99 yards on 20 carries and Charles White added 72 with 17 attempts. Browns' OT Doug Dieken played in his 150th straight game.

SUNDAY, OCT. 4 — Rams 27, BROWNS 16 (63,924) at Anaheim Stadium. Rams' runners, paced by FB Cullen Bryant (19 for 93), earned 213 yards (most against the Browns in 1981), and QB Pat Haden completed 21 of 31 passes for 205 yards to hand Cleveland a third loss in five games. With the Browns trailing 14-10, a controversial interception by Rams' CB Leroy Irvin proved the game's turning point [Irvin later admitted he trapped the ball]. Nine plays later the Rams took a 21-10 lead. Sipe, pressured most of the game, finished with 14 of 28 for 250 yards. Dave Jacobs had his third field goal of the young season blocked and missed an extra point in his last game as a Brown.

SUNDAY, OCT. 11 — Steelers 13, BROWNS 7 (53,255) at Three Rivers Stadium. While a dazed Brian Sipe sat on the sidelines, backup QB Paul McDonald nearly rallied the Browns to their first win in Pittsburgh since 1969. A poised McDonald directed the Browns from their own 5 yard line to the Steeler 12 with 1:53 remaining when CB Dwayne Woodruff tipped an end zone pass intended for Ozzie Newsome. FS J. T. Thomas intercepted, crushing the Browns' attempted "Kardiac" finish. McDonald, eight of 16 for 106 yards, relieved Sipe, who suffered a concussion at the end of the third quarter after a LB Jack Lambert tackle (Lambert was penalized for roughing). Newsome gathered in five passes for a season-high 120 yards, but the Browns were penalized 12 times for 97 yards. In addition to rushing 12 times for 65 yards, Charles White caught five passes for 37 yards.

SUNDAY, OCT. 18 — BROWNS 20, Saints 17 (76,059) at Cleveland Stadium. Paced by Ozzie Newsome's career-high seven receptions (65 yards), Greg Pruitt's career-high 113 yards receiving (seven catches) and Mike Pruitt's two touchdowns, Cleveland defeated New Orleans for the eighth time against no defeats. Trailing 17-13 with 9:44 to play, Brian Sipe directed the Browns on a 78-yard, 13-play winning TD drive, completing seven of 10 passes (four for 44 to G. Pruitt). Matt Bahr, playing in his second game as a Brown, kicked two field goals and added a pair of extra points to help Cleveland to its third win of the year. Saint FG kicker Benny Ricardo missed a game-tying 37-yarder with 1:16 remaining at the open end of wind-swept Cleveland Stadium.

SUNDAY, OCT. 25 — BROWNS 42, Colts 28 (78,986) at Cleveland Stadium. Brian Sipe's 30 completions in 41 attempts for a club-record 444 yards, in addition to touchdown passes, ignited Cleveland's greatest offensive display in team history and enabled the Browns to finish the first half of the season at 4-4. In the fourth quarter, Baltimore appeared headed to a game-tying TD when rookie CB Hanford Dixon tipped a Bert Jones pass and Thom Darden intercepted the ball at the Browns' 10 yard line to snuff out the attempted comeback. Sipe then directed the Browns on their longest drive of the season (89 yards) for an insurance touchdown, a 16-yard run by Mike Pruitt. The Browns' 562 net yards broke the old mark of 550 vs. the Chicago Bears in 1951. Sipe's record performance eclipsed by 43 yards the mark set by Otto Graham vs. Pittsburgh in 1952. The most bizarre play of the season occurred when Curtis Weathers blocked Mike Wood's field goal attempt at the 11 yard line. The ball wound up in the hands of Colt TE Reese McCall, who lateraled to teammate Robert Pratt, who fumbled the ball as he was tackled. Greg Landry, holder on the FG try, scooped up the loose ball and scampered 11 yards for the Colts' second touchdown. Reggie Rucker became the second player in club history to catch 300 passes during a career. All-Pro center Tom DeLeone suffered a broken ankle and missed the balance of the season.

SUNDAY, NOV. 1 — Bills 22, BROWNS 13 (78,266) at Rich Stadium. Missed opportunities and RB Joe Cribbs were the difference for Cleveland as two Brian Sipe touchdown passes (one to Mike Pruitt and the other to Ozzie Newsome) were negated by holding penalties. Three more TD losses were for naught when it was ruled the players (two to Dave Logan and one to Calvin Hill) had caught balls out of bounds. The Browns' defense created four fumbles and an interception, but Cleveland never fully took advantage of the opportunities. Joe Cribbs rushed 23 times for 85 yards, caught five passes for 163 yards and scored three TDs; the last, a 60-yard grab and run, occurred on a key third and 10 with 7:23 remaining. The Buffalo defense created havoc for Brian Sipe all day, sacking him a season-high six times for 59 yards. Sipe was held to a season-low 14 of 37 for 199 yards. Dino Hall became the leading kickoff returner in Browns' history, surpassing Leroy Kelly's career total of 1,784 yards. Thom Darden intercepted the 45th and final pass of his nine-year playing career with Cleveland.

SUNDAY, NOV. 8 — Broncos 23, BROWNS 20 (OT) (74,859) at Mile High Stadium. Cleveland lost this "one-run" ball game when Denver's Fred Steinfort kicked a 30-yard FG 4:10 into overtime. The Broncos got the ball in sudden-death after Calvin Hill fumbled on the Denver 48 yard line. Aided by the Browns' longest pass of 1981, 62 yards from Brian Sipe to Ozzie Newsome, Cleveland took a 14-13 lead when Sipe hit Dave Logan on a 23-yard TD strike late in the third quarter. Denver countered on the next possession to regain a 20-14 advantage. Cleveland used two Matt Bahr FGs (27 and 32 yards), the last with only 29 seconds to play, to tie the game at 20. Dave Logan caught five passes for 86 and Ozzie Newsome grabbed three for 89 yards as Sipe finished the day with 20 of 42 for 290 yards. Rookie kicker Steve Cox had his finest day as a pro, punting six times for a 48.3 average and the defense, led by Lyle Alzado's two sacks, got to QB Craig Morton a season-high six times for 45 yards.

SUNDAY, NOV. 15 — BROWNS 15, 49ers 12 (52,445) at Candlestick Park. The Browns, on the road for the third consecutive week against a playoff-contending team, traveled to San Francisco to meet the winners of seven straight and owners of the best record in the NFL, 8-2. Even though Cleveland's defense was the only unit to keep the high-powered S.F. offense out of the end zone all year, it took a last-second field goal by Matt Bahr, against his former teammates, to defeat the eventual Super Bowl champs. Dino Hall's 40-yard punt return, the team's longest of the season, and Brian Sipe's 21-yard TD strike to Reggie Rucker (three catches for 77 yards) tied the score at 12. On the Browns' next possession, Sipe combined with Rucker again, this time for 38 yards, to set up Bahr's winning 24-yard FG with only 43 seconds remaining. Judson Flint intercepted QB Joe Montana's desperation pass to preserve the Browns' last win of the season. Greg Pruitt became the third player in club history to surpass 300 receptions. Mike Pruitt rushed 18 times for 76 yards.

SUNDAY, NOV. 22 — Steelers 32, BROWNS 10 (77,958) at Cleveland Stadium. Pittsburgh broke open a close game (12-10 Steeler lead at halftime) with 20 unanswered points in the second half as the Browns were eliminated from post-season competition. The Steeler defense intercepted six Brian Sipe aerials, three by SS Donnie Shell, and QB Terry Bradshaw connected on 17 of 32 passes for 223 yards to nine different targets. Left tackle Ray Pinney caught a one-yard TD pass from Bradshaw on a tackle-eligible play early in the fourth quarter to ruin any hopes of a Cleveland rally. Career milestones were accomplished by: Reggie Rucker — 7,000 yards receiving; Mike Pruitt — 4,000 yards rushing (only the fourth player in Browns' history); and Ozzie Newsome — 200th reception, in addition to breaking Dave Logan's record for consecutive games with at least one catch (37). M. Pruitt took rushing honors with 96 yards and Ricky Feacher grabbed four passes for a game-high 79 yards.

SUNDAY, NOV. 29 — Bengals 41, BROWNS 21 (75,186) at Cleveland Stadium. The Browns dug an early grave when they fumbled the first two times they had the ball (Dino Hall, after receiving a punt on the Cleveland 11, and Mike Pruitt at the Cleveland 49), and Cincinnati took advantage of both opportunities, scoring successive touchdowns. Ricky Feacher's 30-yard TD pass from Brian Sipe was sandwiched between two Ken Anderson aerial scores in the second quarter, as the Bengals took a 28-7 lead to the locker room at halftime. Following a scoreless third period, M. Pruitt capped a 79-yard scoring march with a one-yard run to close the gap to 14 with 12:32 to play. Two FB Pete Johnson TDs on the Bengals' next two possessions put the game out of reach. Paul McDonald recorded his first TD pass when he directed the Browns 70 yards in eight plays and passed seven yards to Greg Pruitt for the Browns' final score. Johnson led all rushers with 105 yards. Feacher produced a career-high 98 yards. M. Pruitt hauled in a career-high eight receptions, and Doug Dieken started his 150th straight game, while Clarence Scott equaled that figure in consecutive games played.

THURSDAY, DEC. 3 — Oilers 17, BROWNS 13 (44,502) at the Astrodome. Despite holding the ball twice as long as Houston, gaining twice as many yards (367-154), earning four times as many first downs (28-7), holding the NFL's leading rusher (Earl Campbell) to 31 yards on 15 carries and Mike Pruitt's finest game of his career (155 yards rushing on 32 attempts and seven receptions for 58 yards), the Browns dropped yet another heartbreaker. Making the defeat even more frustrating was the fact Cleveland was unable to take advantage of a first and goal from the Oiler three with 1:10 remaining in the game. Cleveland's first two scores, field goals by Matt Bahr, came after Browns' drives stalled at the Oilers' one and two yard lines. Houston's Gifford Nielsen, in relief of starter Ken Stabler, guided his team 80 yards in 10 plays to put the Oilers on top, 10-6. Minutes later, Houston's Avon Riley blocked a Steve Cox punt and Adger Armstrong recovered, setting up an Earl Campbell one-yard plunge that increased the Oiler lead to 17-6. Cleo Miller, M. Pruitt's blocking-back most of the evening, scored on a one-yard run with 6:54 to play to cut the deficit to four.

SATURDAY, DEC. 12 — Jets 14, BROWNS 13 (56,866) at Cleveland Stadium. With roles reversed from a similar meeting one year earlier, the Browns tried to play the role of the spoiler against the playoff-bound Jets. Cleveland rallied from a 14-3 halftime deficit on an eight-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Hill and Matt Bahr kicked his second FG to pull the Browns within one with 8:23 left in the game. Cleveland got the ball back on a punt with six minutes remaining. However, New York's defense forced a punt after three plays and their offense held the ball the final four-and-a-half minutes. Bahr missed a 30-yard FG when he lost his footing on a second-quarter attempt. Ozzie Newsome caught five of Brian Sipe's 20 completions to break the club record of 63 receptions in a season, set in 1980 by Mike Pruitt.

SUNDAY, DEC. 20 — Seahawks 42, BROWNS 21 (51,435) at Kingdome. In the season finale in Seattle, the Browns gained more total yards than their opponent for the sixth time in a losing cause. A club record nine fumbles (seven recovered by Seattle) and three interceptions contributed to all six of the Seahawk touchdowns. Rookie LS Ken Easley intercepted two Cleveland passes and recovered a fumble, sparking an aggressive Seattle defense to a 28-0 lead. Greg Pruitt put the Browns on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a five-yard TD reception from Paul McDonald. Two TDs by Seattle in the span of a minute sealed the game for the home team in the third quarter. McDonald added TD passes to Dave Logan and Calvin Hill (65th of career) as the second-year QB completed 24 of 34 attempts for 297 yards. Hill, playing the last game of a 12-year career, caught five passes for 49 yards and rushed twice for 18. Logan led all receivers with 101 yards on five catches and Ozzie Newsome became only the second player in club history to attain 1,000 yards receiving in a season. One bright spot on defense was the play of rookie DE Mike Robinson, who recovered his first fumble and recorded two QB sacks.

* Denotes post-season playoff or championship game

- 1946: Browns were started by owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as member of the All America Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager and the first player he signed was then tailback Otto Graham. The Browns won the Western title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bills and then defeated the New York Yankees in the championship game (14-9).
- 1947-49: Browns continued their domination of the AAFC, winning three more championships.
- 1950: Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied with the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of Eastern title. Browns won play-off, 8-3, and then stopped Los Angeles, 30-28, for the championship.
- 1951-53: Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.
- 1954-55: Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships.
- 1956: At 5-7, the Browns suffered first losing season.
- 1957: Jim Brown was drafted; was named rookie of the year and helped Cleveland to Eastern Division title.
- 1961: Former television and advertising executive Art Modell bought the Browns.
- 1963: Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.
- 1964: Browns win division title with 52-20 victory over Giants and captured NFL championship with 27-0 win over Colts.
- 1965: In what was to be his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to league title game where they were defeated by Green Bay.
- 1966: An eighth round pick from 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in their division to Dallas.
- 1967: NFL was realigned and Browns won Century Division.
- 1968: With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from Pittsburgh), Browns won division; beat Dallas in playoffs and lost to Baltimore in the championship.
- 1969: Browns won third consecutive division crown, but lost to Minnesota in title game.
- 1970: Browns became members of AFC Central and finished second.
- 1971: Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. Team won first AFC Central crown.
- 1972: Browns once again gained postseason, losing to eventual champion Miami in playoffs.
- 1975-77: Forrest Gregg, Browns' offensive line coach, becomes head coach; Gregg Pruitt has three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons; Dick Modzelewski coaches final game of 1977.
- 1978: Sam Rutigliano becomes the first non-Browns' assistant to gain head coaching position. Team won first three on way to 8-8 finish.
- 1979: Losses in final two games prevented team from entering playoffs, finishing 9-7; Mike Pruitt keeps the tradition of outstanding Browns' running backs and has the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.
- 1980: Browns win AFC Central title with 11-5 record; lose to eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland in playoff; Brian Sipe is consensus MVP of league.

CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND STADIUM

Cleveland Stadium, a famous and proud landmark for this city, is the nation's largest facility housing both a Major League baseball team and an NFL franchise. The Stadium, with a current capacity of 80,322, was completed in July of 1931 at a cost of $3.5 million.

The Stadium, which sits on a landfill, has proved to be multi-purpose. Along with baseball and football, the range of activities at the Stadium has included everything from a heavyweight championship bout (Schmeling vs. Stribling) to religious convocations. The Metropolitan Opera and the Beatles have performed on the field as have circuses, rodeos, big bands and a horde of professional and amateur athletes.

Over the years, Cleveland Stadium became a financial strain for the city of Cleveland. Art Modell responded to the need in 1974, forming Cleveland Stadium Corporation by signing a 25-year lease with the city. In early 1982, all of the stock of the corporation was sold to the Browns.

When the agreement between the city and Modell had been reached in 1974, the Browns' owner promised a $10 million improvement plan, which was recently concluded. The results are very much in evidence.

The list of improvements is a long one, but includes the addition of 108 luxurious loges, a computerized scoreboard, more comfortable seats, new concession facilities, a new lighting system (both inside and around the perimeter of the Stadium), outfield fence pads, and the installation of a new playing field, which was lowered two feet to provide a better view from the stands (1976).

Old electrical and plumbing systems were replaced. A press box elevator was added. Cleaning and painting continue to be top priority items in a continuous maintenance program.
